THE SONG OF THE LARK

WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

ACT IV. SCENE I.

The Swiss Ballad Singer.

Composed by

JOHN BARNETT.

Sung by

MADAME VESTRIS.

ALLEGRETTO
SEMPLICE.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It consists of three systems of music. The first system begins with the tempo and style markings 'ALLEGRETTO' and 'SEMPLICE.' in a curved font. The piano part is in 3/8 time, starting with a treble clef and a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The vocal melody is written on a single staff with a treble clef and the same key signature. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a more complex, syncopated pattern in the left hand. The second system continues the piano accompaniment with a similar pattern, while the vocal melody continues with various note values and rests. The third system concludes the piece, with the piano part ending in a final chord and the vocal melody ending with a long note. Dynamics include a piano (p) marking at the beginning of the first system, a crescendo (cres:) marking in the third system, and a fortissimo (ff) marking at the end of the third system.

All the long way, from my own na-tive home, With spirits gay, to dear

England I come; Songs, all the store I have, Ah! nothing more I have,

Music a-alone my sup-port and my joy, For a girl they do say, of my size and my height, Oft at the Play, has been heard with de-light.

The Swiss Ballad singer.

"Homage to Char = = lie" or "Strike the light the light Gui=tar"! Few but ap = =

= prove them, yes, few I think there are; Buy my sweet posies too,

Ay and "Moss Roses" too, "Cherry ripe", "Cherry ripe" and the Bonnets of blue ;"

The Swiss Ballad singer.

So long "I've been roaming," Here glad-ly I come; Buy a song then, un-less you pre-fer, "Buy a Broom," Oh! du lieber Augustine Augustine Augustine Buy a song, un-

-less you pre-fer "Buy a broom?"

"Mild as the moon-beams" the smiles of the Fair Of each "Beauti-ful maid" banish sor-row and care, Daughters of loy-al-ty, Homage to Roy-alty join in the chorus "A Health to the King" God bless him!
 Ne'er in my bo-som shall gra-ti-tude fade While En-gland's the home of the merry swiss maid.
