SCOURS EARTH FOR SERVANT GIRLS

North-W... ...ritory Man Goes t... ...d for ...

MARRIAGEABLE G... ...SCARCE

Many Will Go to the West as Servants and Will Become Wives Before Many Moons Have Passed.

Mr. Benjamin Piper, a real estate agent from Wapella, N.W.T., reached Montreal this morning on his way to England on a mission of importance to, at least, a portion of the population of the Territories. He was seen in the offices of the C.P.R.

There is a dearth of maiden ladies, it appears, in that part of the country ranging from Brandon west to Saskatchewan. In that region competent, well trained servants are at a premium, and, as for marriageable girls, the settlers there are in despair, for they see a life-long bachelorhood staring them in the face unless something is done to induce more members of the fair sex to throw in their lot in that district and thus give a chance to the farmers to lay their hearts and their farms at the feet of the fair fortune-tempters.

Mr. Piper is seeking to alleviate the wants of these settlers to a certain extent, and, with this end in view, he goes to Yorkshire, where he intends to get fifty healthy, buxom lassies, whom he will bring back with him as servants. Places have already been secured for these girls, and in some cases the employers have even paid the cost of transportation of their future help.

As for the girls themselves, it depends on them almost entirely whether they shall long remain as servants, milking the cows and calling in the hired help to their meals, or whether theirs shall be the hand that, rocking the cradle, rules the world.

THIRD DESERTER IN A WEEK.

A young man giving his name as Frank W. Ward, surrendered himself to Constable Tierney on Common Street yesterday as a deserter from the Royal Canadian Regiment at Toronto. Ward who says he ran off in May last after sixteen months service, and has spent the time at Portland was remanded by Judge Lafontaine this morning, to be handed over to the military authorities.

A UNIQUE INSTITUTION.

The London, Ont., Old Boys' Association have issued a most unique invitation to the annual reunion in August next, when the centenary jubilee of the primary of the city will be celebrated. The invitation is in the form of an ancient parchmant, red seal and all, and commands the presence of all trusty and well-beloved Old Boys, in August next.

EVANS-GLAZER.

A pleasant function took place on Sunday evening at 457 Dorchester St., the residence of Mr. Glazer, on the announcement of the engagement of his eldest daughter to Mr. Evans, of Vancouver, B.C.

BELLEVILLE RESIDENT DEAD.

Belleville, Ont., April 18.—(Special.)—Mr. Geo. M. Leavens, one of Belleville's best known citizens, died suddenly. Yesterday he went to tea home about three o'clock and about four o'clock his wife asked him to assist her in getting supper ready. He started to comply and was seized with heart failure and died almost immediately. He was a brother of Postmaster D. R. Leavens and was sixty years of age. He leaves a wife and three children. He was prominent as one of the best known huntsmen in the County of Hastings.

MR. GORDON STILL MAYOR.

Toronto, April 18.—Mr. W. H. Godwin is Mayor of Steelton, Ont., despite the utmost efforts of the Conservative element to dislodge him from his seat.

He was elected last January, and unseated by the local judge soon after on the ground that, having been reported guilty of corrupt practices at the "Soo" election trial, he was ineligible for office.

Judge MacMahon reversed this decision and restored Mayor Godwin to his office, holding that there was a distinction between being "reported" and "found guilty," as these terms are used, in the Municipal and Election Acts.

"There is no appeal in such a case to this court," said Chief Justice Meredith yesterday, when a further effort was made to unseat Mr. Godwin before the Divisional Court. The appeal is dismissed."

And so Mr. Godwin remains Mayor of Steelton.

NEW LEGION OF FRONTIERSMEN

Strangely Mixed Company Met in London the Other Evening.

London, April 18.—It was in every way a strangely mixed company that sat down to dinner with the Earl of Lonsdale, at his own house, the other evening. Cowboy rubbed shoulders with peer, miner and stockman. Novelist and soldier sat side by side, and rancher and general were at the same table.

The occasion was the inauguration of the Legion of Frontiersmen, the motto of which organized force is, "Sport prepared for war."

The movement in its origin and conception as a body is spread worldwide, free from the irksome discipline of militarism, yet bound together by a tie that links frontiersmen the world over.

The Legion of Frontiersmen is something more than a big club with a scattered membership; something more, indeed, than the creation of sentiment or the outcome of any desire for social recognition. It can be easily branded as a self-supporting, unofficial army, every member of which will be practised in crafts that most nearly pertain to the art of war—an army of men trained in shooting and riding, trained in woodcraft, trained in war.

The Frontiersman says: "The first regulation of this remarkable legion is that the man shall have hunted, worked or fought in the wilderness or at sea."

It will be a large sportsmen's club, ostensibly it will not be a military organization. It requires no official recognition of its existence until the moment arrives when its services are required of it free from the jurisdiction of officialdom. Yet it desires to communicate the information it gathers to proper quarters.

The Legion of Frontiersmen proposes to solve one of the greatest difficulties the Empire has to deal with. It is an efficient, fully armed force that costs the country nothing to maintain.

MILITARY CORPS FOR NEW PROVINCES

Provision Will be Made for 2,000 Men to Assist N.W.M.P.

Ottawa, April 18.—With the advent of two new provinces in Western Canada, there is to be an extension of the military system over the entire country between Manitoba and the Rocky Mountains. Hitherto the Mounted Police have done all the soldiering for the Territories. There are no military corps of any sort there, although just over the divide there is a capital rifle regiment, known as the Rocky Mountain Rangers, with organize headquarters at Revelstoke, Nelson, Rossland, and other places. The people of the Territories have been clamoring for militia regiments for some years, and now the Minister of Militia feels that the time has arrived to grant their request. It is probable, therefore, that the establishment lists for the coming fiscal year will provide for an increase of 2,000 men for the provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta. The idea which the Minister has in view is to authorize the creation of an efficient mounted force. Strathcona's Horse will be revived and it is expected that many of the men who served in the splendid regiment which was raised by the generosity of the venerable High Commissioner, will join the corps again. Possibly in some of the larger towns the establishment of independent infantry companies will be authorized, but preferably the Minister desires mounted regiments. Sir Frederick Borden's action in acceding to the wishes of the settlers will be appreciated by them, the young men on the farms especially, many of whom have served in corps in the older provinces, having pressed for an opportunity of donning the uniform once more.

Berlin, N.J.—Mrs. Robert Givens, of Crowfoot, two miles from here, shot her husband twice as he lay in bed, and then tried to kill herself. She fired three shots at her own head, but all the bullets went wide.

HOLES IN PAPER PUZZLE JUDGE

Letters in Court With Holes Where Word "Not" Should Be

ITALIAN LABOR TROUBLES

Hearing in the Suit Against Cordasco Was Continued This Morning—A Protest Against Report in Paper.

Letters with holes in them at critical spots formed the subject of critical judicial scrutiny this morning in the case brought against Antonio Cordasco, the "King of Italian Labor," by four Italians who claimed that he had duped them out of over a thousand dollars in cash and time lost. They claimed that they had paid him for jobs, and after waiting all summer, they were still without work.

The letters in court purported to be from Cordasco, per his then confidential man Gamia, to outside parties. In two places Gamia claimed the word "not" should appear there was a hole in the paper, and in other places there were interlineations altering the sense of the communications, which were repudiated by both Cordasco and Gamia. His Lordship could not decide whether the holes were the result of bad age or of quicker agencies, and remarked, "The construction of the sentence in each instance requires the words 'not,' and these holes take it out."

A good deal of evidence was given during the morning through the Italian interpreter, which Mr. Justice Archibald epitomized as "an effort to show that Cordasco had taken money to get men situations with the understanding they were to take their turns, but that subsequently if they did not put up more money, men who did not got the jobs."

Just before the court adjourned, Mr. T. Chase Casgrain, K.C., who appeared for Cordasco, entered a vigorous protest against the report of yesterday's proceedings in a morning paper.

He said he must protest against what he considered a very unfair report of yesterday's hearing. The statement that Cordasco's cousin had caused the Italian labor investigation Mr. Casgrain characterized as false. Further, he resented as unfair the statement to the effect that Cordasco had brought his books and papers into court answering questions.

His Lordship, quite agreed with Mr. Casgrain's remarks, and said that in his opinion, Cordasco had been very prompt in giving his books, and seemed to be a fair and frank witness. As to the books, Cordasco had frankly acknowledged he knew nothing about them, but that Gamia, his clerk, did. As to Cordasco being "in trouble again," His Lordship humorously remarked that any person mixed up in a law suit might justly be presumed to be in trouble.

MR. FRANK W. CAMPBELL DIED LATE LAST EVENING

Peculiarly Sad Case. His Elder Brother Having Died Recently, While the Father Now Lies at Point of Death.

Mr. F. W. Campbell, jr., youngest son of Dr. Frank Wayland Campbell, Coroner of the district of Montreal, Professor of Medical Jurisprudence at McGill University, and Lord Bishop could not decide whether the holes were the result of bad age or of quicker agencies, and remarked, "The construction of the sentence in each instance requires the words 'not,' and these holes take it out.

THE LATE MR. F. W. CAMPBELL.

minion Bank, where he was employed up to the time of his death. He was one of those in the employ of the bank when the local branch was started in 1898. His integrity and general business ability won him the confidence and esteem of his employers and in January, 1903, he was appointed teller of the Brampton, Ont., branch. A year later he was recalled to the city to occupy the important position of teller of the local office. He was most popular with his fellow employees and the morning the news of his death was known over the offices.

Mr. Campbell took an active interest in local military matters and was a member of No. 5 company Victoria Rifles of Canada, for a number of years. He joined as a private in 1898 and quickly rose to the rank of sergeant. He resigned from the Vics in 1902, when he was appointed to the Brampton branch of the bank.

The news of his son's death has been kept from Dr. F. W. Campbell, sr., as his condition is so critical that it is feared that the result would be fatal should he be informed of his loss.

WARNING TO BAKERS.

The city officers are active these days after the handlers of bread from the public-delivery waggons, as well as closely supervising the work at the bakeries and the following cases were disposed of by Mr. Recorder Weir today:

Louis Jacob, 523 Dorchester Street, no labels on bread, $2.00 or fifteen days.

Henri Lesnier, employed at 275 Dorchester, smoking while mixing dough, $5 and costs, or a month in jail.

London, April 18.—Application was made to-day at the Acton Police Court by the Board of Guardians of Acton for the necessary certificates for the emigration of eleven orphan and deserted children from their Cottage Homes to Canada. It was pointed out that the cost of the maintenance of these children in future would be eleven pounds per annum, as compared with a present cost per child of thirty pounds. The magistrates granted the application.

SEVERAL M.P.'S WERE SEVERELY SHAKEN

House Elevator Could Not Carry Their Stalwart Forms

Ottawa, April 18.—(Special.)—The elevator cage in the House of Commons to-day dropped from the third to the ground floor, with a full load of members of Parliament. The cage did not acquire full momentum until the last floor was reached. The jar at the bottom, however, was severe enough to damage the cage and give the passengers a severe shaking up. None were injured, however, in anything but temper. Among the members who took the drop were Messrs. T. B. Caldwell, Richard Blain, Urlan Wilson, Robert McPherson, Wm. Gallagher, Norman Wilson.

CONTRACT LET FOR PNEUMATIC TUBES

Montreal System Will be Completed Before That of Toronto

Toronto, April 18.—(Special.)—Mr. John Galt, C.E., stated this morning that the contract for 8,000 feet of ten-inch cast iron tubing for use in the pneumatic tube system being installed in Montreal has been awarded to the Alexander MacLaren Company, of Glasgow. This firm is also supplying 36,000 feet for Toronto, the price in both cases being $1.50 per foot. All other work in connection with the installation of the system, excepting the erection of the station, will be done by the American Pneumatic Tube Company of Boston, which is establishing a Canadian branch, however, in Toronto, thus ensuring that as much as possible of the work would be done by Canadian labor.

Below the belt line of pneumatic tubes in Toronto and Montreal, clay conduits would be used for wires for telephone, power and light purposes. The Government was considering the advisability of generating its own electric power for the operation of the system and also for lighting the postal stations.

Mr. Galt says Montreal system will be completed first. He expects the tubing to arrive about the end of May, and the laying thereof will be proceeded with immediately afterwards.

LEGISLATING FOR CHARTER MONGERS

Mr. Henderson, M.P., Made a Kick in the Railway Committee

Ottawa, April 18.—(Special.)—In the Railway Committee to-day a bill to extend the time for constructing the Ontario, Hudson's Bay and Western Railway Company, was reported after Mr. Henderson, M.P., said it appeared some people thought the Railway Committee was composed of fools to pass Railway charters and keep renewing them for parties to sell. He said he was opposed to placing legislation on the statute book for charter mongers.

A bill to extend the time for constructing the Algoma Central from a point on the Canadian Pacific to James Bay and for the completion of other branch lines authorized in 1899 to be completed within seven years was referred to a sub-committee. The bill asked an extension of time from 1906 to 1910. Dr. Sproule and Hon. Mr. Hyman thought the Ontario Government should be heard and as there was no representative present the reference was made to the sub-committee for that purpose.

A bill giving the Alberta Railway and Irrigation Company powers to buy out the Alberta Western was reported.

The Kingston and Dominon Central asked authority to build branch lines from Georgian Bay to Newboro and then to Montreal and to change its name.

St. John, N.B., April 18.—(Special.)—The Railway Commission held a session here this morning hearing the evidence of a large number of witnesses re the claim of the municipality of St. John that the C.P.R. should be compelled to put up gates at the Fairville and Milford Crossings. The commissioners visited the spot. They leave to-morrow for River du Loup, but their engineers will remain behind to inspect the New Brunswick, Southern and Harvey and Salisbury Railroads.

WOULD NOT STAND FOR CUBAN PORTS

Proposed Atlantic Service Between Mexico and Canada is Off

ARRANGEMENTS CANCELLED

Department of Trade and Commerce Will Subsidize Monthly Service to Cuba and the Bahamas.

Ottawa, April 18.—(Special.) — The proposed steamship service between Canada and Mexico on the Atlantic Coast has fallen through. The reason for this is that the Mexican Government has refused to contribute anything for a line that calls at Cuban ports on its way to and from Canada. As it is impossible to get any steamship company that will take the contract under the terms suggested by Mexico, the arrangements are off.

The Department of Trade and Commerce has decided therefore to offer a subsidy to a line of steamships to Cuba, touching the Bahamas. Tenders have been sent out for a monthly service all the year round between Canada and Cuba, calling at Charlottetown, Halifax and Nassau. In summer the steamers will start at Montreal and in winter the terminus will be Halifax. The department expects to have the line established this season.

The proposed line on the Pacific has not yet been started and further negotiations will have to be made between the two Governments before this can be done.

ST. ANN'S WARD TO MAKE BIG FIGHT

Ald. Walsh Says the Park on Centre Street Must Not be Sold.

As the result of yesterday's meeting of the City Council, and the evident desire exhibited by the aldermen to sell that three-acre public playground on Centre Street, there may be an amount of feeling stirred up, that was never originally intended. Ald. Walsh, to whom the little plot of ground is as the apple of his eye, fought hard yesterday against selling it, and now that the city fathers have expressed their inclination to put it up to the highest bidder, he will do all in his power to save the park to the people of St. Ann's ward.

"This is the only free plot of land in the whole ward," said Ald. Walsh this morning, "and if the City Council tries to dispose of it there will be troublous times. If the Council endeavors to force matters, I'll call an indignation meeting to protest against the move. The children need a place to play in beside the street, and the park must stay"

THE LATE MISS ADA McNICOLL.

The funeral of Miss Ada McNicoll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. McNicoll, took place at 2.30 this afternoon from her parents' residence, 3 Cote St. Antoine, Westmount. A short but impressive service was held in the house, after which the body was taken to Mount Royal cemetery for burial. The funeral was a private one, only members of the family, close personal friends, and a few of the higher officials of the C.P.R. being present. Among those who attended from out of town were Mr. J. W. Leonard and Mrs. Leonard, Mr. A. F. Rutter and Mrs. Rutter, and Mr. Henry Beattie, all of Toronto.

WESTMOUNT TO BORROW $250,000

Councillor Galbraith Was the Chief Opponent Last Night.

The Westmount Council, after a heated discussion last night, adopted a by-law asking authority for a loan of $50,000 to be used on the construction of roads, sidewalks and drains during the next five years. Later on this by-law will be submitted to the ratepayers for approval or rejection.

Councillor Galbraith was the chief opponent to the new by-law. His first contention was that a draft of the proposed by-law should have been sent to every member of the Council before the meeting, to allow him to carefully peruse and digest the lengthy forms. He then argued that in order to introduce the new by-law a notice of motion should have been given at the previous meeting. After he had been overruled on these points, he evinced a curiosity to know who was the father of the by-law, which aimed at putting the town in debt to the extent of $250,000. If it was Councillor Knox, why didn't he say so?

Councillor Knox repudiated the parentage of the by-law, saying that he was not the father of it any more than any other member of the Council.

Mayor Ducios will call a meeting of the ratepayers on May 1, and if they demand a poll on it, a vote will be taken by the town.

TERRORIST GERM IN HIGH CIRCLES

Two Nieces of Gov.-General Trepoff Belong to the Order.

TRIED TO KILL THEIR UNCLE

Recent Arrest of Band of Terrorists Divulged Some Interesting Details—Why M. Witte Was Dismissed.

St. Petersburg, April 18.—Gradually many interesting details surrounding the recent arrest of a band of about a dozen terrorists are leaking out. The capture, which is regarded by the authorities as being of immense importance, was accomplished by Kashovsky, the Russian Locoq, who was dismissed from the secret police several years ago on account of his connection with Philippe, the spiritualist, who created such a stir at court several years ago, and who went to Paris to live.

Governor-General Trepoff, upon his appointment as Governor-General of St. Petersburg, induced Kashovsky to return to St. Petersburg, and within two weeks the detective captured the entire band, which have been operating here under the direction of the central organization, which apparently has its headquarters in Switzerland. Alfred Henry McCullough, the man killed March 11 by the accidental explosion of a bomb at the Hotel Bristol, whose real name was Bauman, was one of the chiefs of the terrorists, having charge of the manufacture of bombs, and Kaleieff, who killed Grand Duke Sergius, also belonged to the same group. After Bauman's death Kaleieff's duties devolved upon Mlle. Leontieff (daughter of General Leontieff, who recently was appointed Governor of Yakutsk, Eastern Siberia), who became a convert to terrorism during her stay at Lucerne, Switzerland. Kaleieff's identity was established through the discovery of a photograph belonging to Savinkoff, who had been his comrade both at the university and in exile. When Kaleieff was charged with his identity, he admitted it, saying immediately: "Savinkoff has been arrested."

The police later thought they had captured Savinkoff, and so announced publicly. But it turned out that the man held under that name was another, and that Savinkoff, to whom Kaleieff evidently had confided his intention of killing Grand Duke Sergius, is still safe abroad.

Among the others captured was Madame Ivanovskaia, a sister-in-law of Korolenko, the Russian author. She was involved in the Nihilist plot to assassinate Emperor Alexander II., for which she was sentenced to fifteen years in Siberia, but at the end of seven years she escaped to America.

Perhaps the most romantic feature is the fact that Mlle. Leontieff converted two nieces of Governor-General Trepoff, Mlle. Trepoff and Princess Denisheff, to the doctrine of assassination, and that after the arrest of her mentor, Mlle. Trepoff actually attempted the life of her uncle, firing two shots at him, both of which missed. Thereupon the two girls became panic-stricken and attempted suicide, Mlle. Trepoff throwing herself under a train and Princess Denisheff shooting herself. Neither of them succeeded in killing themselves. The family has since tried to make it appear that the girls' acts were the result of a mutual pact for self-destruction, both being in love with the same man, an officer of the guards.

M. Witte Offended Emperor.

St. Petersburg, April 18.—The intrigue which resulted in the downfall of the peasant commission presided over by M. Witte, President of the Committee of Ministers, was the communication to the Emperor of strong words used by M. Minister of Agriculture Yermotoff is drawing up a plan to meet the peasants' demand for land, which contemplates practically the introduction of the American homestead system in the state domain of European Russia, which comprises 34 per cent. of the total areas.

WILL NOT BUY RAILWAY.

Kingston Council Will Not Look at Company's Figures.

Kingston, April 18.—(Special.)—The bondholders of the Kingston Street Railway have offered the plant and the equipment to the city for $125,000. The finance committee has declined, believing that the first thing the bondholders must do is to put the road up at auction. The Council might consider concessions to a new company, if the line was purchased. Several aldermen wanted to bid $75,000, but others said the Council had first to decide the utility of owning the line. It is said an offer of $80,000 has been made for the line.

Fine and Warmer

The weather is fine throughout the Dominion. It continues quite warm in Ontario and Quebec, but the general conditions are now favorable for rising temperatures.

The temperatures registered in Montreal during the past twenty-four hours were: Maximum 48, minimum 29. Weak Kidneys

To any Kidney sufferer who has not tried my remedy I offer a full dollar's worth free. Not a mere sample—but a regular dollar bottle—standard size and staple.

There is nothing to pay, either now or later. I ask no deposit—no promise. You take no risk. The dollar bottle is free—because mine is no ordinary remedy, and I feel so sure of its results that I can afford to make this offer.

In the first place, my remedy does not treat the kidneys themselves. Such treatment is wrong. For the kidneys are not to blame for their weaknesses or irregularities. They have no power—no self-control. They are operated and actuated by a tiny shred of a nerve which alone is responsible for their condition. If the Kidney nerve is strong and healthy the kidneys are strong and healthy. If the Kidney nerve goes wrong you know it by the inevitable result—kidney trouble.

This tender nerve is only one of a great system of nerves; this system controls not only the kidneys, but the heart and the liver and the stomach. For simplicity's sake I have called this great nerve system the "Inside Nerves." They are not the nerves of feeling—not the nerves that enable you to walk, to talk, to act, to think. They are the master nerves and every vital organ is their slave. The common name for these nerves is the "sympathetic nerves"—because each set is in such close sympathy with the others, that weakness anywhere results in weakness everywhere.

This is why I treat not the kidney that is weak, but the ailing nerve that MAKES it weak. This is the secret of my success. This is why I can afford to do this unusual thing—to give away FREE the first dollar bottle, that ANY STRANGER may know how my remedy succeeds.

The offer is open to everyone, everywhere, who has not tried my remedy. Those who have tried it do not need the evidence. So you must write ME for the free dollar bottle order. I will then send you an order on your druggist for a full dollar bottle, standard size and staple. He will pass it down to you from his stock as freely as though your dollar lay before him and will send the bill to me. Write for the order to-day.

For a free order for a full dollar bottle you must address Dr. Shoop, Box 28, Racine, Wis. State which book you want.

AMATEUR BASEBALL ON NEW BASIS

Y.M.C.A. Moving to Form League—Eight Clubs Interested.

There was a very largely attended meeting at the Young Men's Christian Association last evening in the interests of amateur baseball in this city, eight clubs represented in person or by letter. Mr. J. E. Merritt, physical director of the association, was appointed chairman, and Arthur Ross, of Westmount, secretary.

There was considerable discussion concerning the formation of the new league, and all present felt that it would be impossible to re-model the old amateur league as it now stands. The form of organization of this league will be different as it will be governed by a board of directors made up of representatives of each team. This representative is not to be a player. One man and one only will represent each team in the league. An effort is being made now to secure an Al man to fill this position.

A meeting to form the constitution and by-laws has been called for Wednesday evening, April 26, in the Y.M.C.A. building.

This is the first definite step made in the city to put amateur baseball on the right basis, and every lover of this sport will watch the outcome of this effort with much interest.

TROUBLE OVER FISHERIES.

Toronto, April 18.—(Special.) — Mr. Graham, of Brockville, drew attention in the Legislature yesterday afternoon to a Toronto despatch in the Sunday edition of a Detroit paper relative to negotiations between Provincial and Dominion Fisheries Departments over the extension of the fishing season in certain sections of Ontario. Mr. Graham said the point he wished to draw attention to was that this information had apparently not been given to Canadian papers. It had not appeared in any Saturday or Monday morning newspaper in Canada, as far as he could ascertain, but had first appeared in a Detroit paper.

Hon. Dr. Reaume said as he had not read the article he was not able to say anything in regard to it. He would read it and perhaps would have something to say later. As to correspondence with the Dominion Government, he did not deny that.

The Premier suggested to Dr. Reaume that he make a strict investigation as to the source from which and the means by which these copies of correspondence exchanged in negotiations between Provincial and Dominion Governments were sent to any newspapers.

THE SIEGE OF PORT ARTHUR.

Special half price children and students tickets can be purchased in advance at Shaw's Music Store as well as the regular tickets. The lecture is announced for three p.m.

NAN PATTERSON'S LIFE A PUZZLE

Varied Career in 23 Years—Was a Floradora Girl.

New York April 18.—Then years ago Nan Patterson was a bare headed girl running wild in the fields and forests of a Virginia plantation. What cannot happen in ten years? Nan Patterson as a child, loved the solitude of the woods and the rising hills and sunny slopes of rural retreats. She was always out of doors with sunbonnet strung about her throat and dangling on her back. Her face was bronzed by the sun, and she was known throughout the countryside as a romping, rustic sprite.

She was born in Washington less than twenty-three years ago. While she was a mere child her father took his family to the country beyond the Potomac to live. Nan grew up on a farm, and revelled in rural life as any city born girl would at that age. She was always athletic and never tired of her romps over furrowed land and long jaunts through the woods. In those days she hated all that city life means. Her girlhood was in such contradiction of the craving for luxury and the vain pomp and glory of the world which has marked her more recent life as would make it appear almost incredible.

Those who knew Nan Patterson as the bareheaded woodsprite of Virginia and even those who knew her as a schoolgirl in Washington a few years later, marvel as they ponder on the transformation that evolved the "Nan Patterson of the Florodora sextet" and the "Nan Patterson, prisoner at the bar."

FAMILY ONE OF PROMINENCE.

John R. Patterson, the girl's father, found it necessary to take his family back to Washington. His children must have that education and culture which the family name demanded. The Pattersons were prominent. Nan's uncle was a United States Senator—the late J. W. Patterson of New Hampshire, who served from 1867 to 1873. Her father, John R. Patterson has held many public offices at Washington, and at the time Nan left the farm to return to the city for her education he was chief clerk to the Supervising Architect of the United States. The Pattersons were related to the Randolphs of Virginia. In this way the girl gets the middle name of 'Randolph, and not from her mother's side of the family, as has often been believed.

Bright and brimful of vitality, Nan Patterson had little trouble mastering her lessons as a schoolgirl, but the life she had led in the country left little fondness for books in her mind, and she gave nearly all of her time to athletic and outdoor sports, paying only sufficient attention to her studies to grasp the general benefits of each lesson and make her records good before the class. The confinement of school hours and the tedious routine of the study period were burdens to one whose whole existence seemed to depend on the open air world outside the schoolroom. As a mere child Nan Patterson could jump the rope more times than any other girl of the neighborhood, and she was the most robust child in school.

BECAME "STAGE STRUCK."

The growth of such children is always more rapid than that of their playmates, who possess less of the vigorous, athletic spirit, and this, perhaps, explains the events in the career of this girl which followed close upon her schooldays. She became "stage struck." She wanted to go out into the world and make a name, win the plaudits of the world, triumph as an artist, and, like Glory Quayle in "The Christian," earn a fortune to send home to her parents.

How many girls there are who at sixteen become stage struck, but who tremble lest their parents learn it and who after a time turn about to things domestic and take up the humdrum life of home which had become oppressive in their longing for the stage! How many have broken away and indulged in their longings to fall utterly before the footlights! How few have had materialize the dreams that set Nan Patterson's head in wild delirium at the tender age of sixteen!

To further upset her mind and misdirect her life came her first love affair at this time, and Nan Patterson was helpless in deciding on any sensible purpose in life. Grown before her time, ambitious beyond the lot of most girls, always weary of circumscribed environment and longing for "the great big world beyond," she listened to every word her first sweetheart poured into her willing ears about the future of their two lives, and the two lovers, after building castles in the air during a brief courtship, ran away and were married.

Nan Patterson thus found herself the wife of Leon J. Martin, while she was just seventeen years old. Martin was from Syracuse and is now employed by a railroad on the Pacific slope. Their married life was unhappy almost from the very first. The castles they had built, like all such follies of childish courtship, were too fair to be firm. As Mrs. Martin Nan Patterson found herself temporarily estranged from home, for her parents were never reconciled to the marriage. Her old longing for the stage came back to her, and as her domestic unhappiness increased, the girl wife turned not toward her old home for solace, but indulged in the hope of realizing her long cherished dream of scoring a complete triumph on the stage.

Naturally her earliest attempts were of such little significance that she has never figured much in the dramatic reviews of the daily press, and even when she procured an engagement to sing in the sextet of the second "Floradora" company she was practically unknown to stage folk. But Nan Patterson had at that time been on the stage sufficiently long to have caught the craving for a life of luxury, of Bohemian revelry during the small hours of morning, of finery, carriage drives, champagne suppers and all those things which are the essentials of the "pace that kills."

PET OF THE RIALTO.

Everybody knows what it counted for in those days to be a "Florodora Girl," as the term passed. Not a one of the sextet but was a pet of the Rialto—a Cinderella of stagedom. When Nan Patterson went to the Criterion to live it was to dwell in the finest of suites. Bedecked in the smartest frocks of Fashion and attended twice a day by professional hairdressers and others whose art is employed to fill the gap between Nature and Vanity, her dreams of triumph on the stage were, to her mind, beginning to realise. Was she not a "Florodora" girl? What more

It was an abrupt leap from all this to the sad and tragic climax in the girl's life. The "Florodora" company started on the road, and Nan Patterson met Frank T. Young, known throughout the world of sports as "Caesar" Young, on the train as she was going with the company to San Francisco. A flirtation started during the trip.

"Caesar" Young's pockets bulged with yellow bills and his generous hand never wearied with pulling off colossal rolls to pay for the suppers, the wine, the gowns, the thousands of pleasures Nan Patterson's heart delighted in, and she yielded so completely to the infatuation of so gallant an admirer that she lost even that ambition to win fame which had misdirected her life at the age of sixteen.

A divorce from her husband, Leon J. Martin, was obtained in San Francisco. She knew that "Caesar" Young was married. He had told her so the moment he met her on the train going to San Francisco. But this daring plunger on the turf, who had his string of race horses, and who had money to spend and spent it like a lord, interested Nan Patterson more than any other man had ever done—more even than the popular member of the diplomatic corps at Washington, a favorite in society there and in New York, who had paid attentions to the actress in this city.

Young always referred to the actress as "the little girl" when chatting with friends, and never made any secret of the fact that he was quite as much lost to her charms as she was hopelessly infatuated with him. How intensely they loved each other—particularly how intensely Nan Patterson loved "Caesar" Young—is strikingly illustrated in one of the last letters she is supposed to have written to the man for whose murder she will go to the bar to-morrow. That letter was written a short time before the shooting, and was as follows:

Dearest—I failed to see you to-day, and am so disappointed. I am sorry that you are angry with me. I could not leave without you, and you must not leave me.

I know she wants to separate us, but it can't be. I will not let you leave me. Sometimes I feel desperate enough for anything. I would rather we were both dead than that you should forsake me. I must see you to-morrow, and we will be happy once more together. Lots of love.

NAN.

This letter, aglow with the madness of an ill-timed romance, gives an insight into the life of Nan Patterson at its saddest and most tragic climax.

Mayor Valois of Lachute Takes Legal Action.

Lachute, Quebec, April 18.—Charges of criminal libel have been made against Rev. E. R. Thomas, of Lachute, and also the editor and proprietor, and the Watchman of that town. The charges were laid by Mayor Valois, of Lachute. It appears that Rev. Mr. Thomas wrote a letter which was published in the "Watchman," reflecting upon the civic administration. The Mayor took umbrage at the statements contained in the letter, and entered action against Rev. Mr. Thomas, who is pastor of the Methodist Church at Lachute.

The defendants appeared yesterday, and the case was fixed for April 27. Mr. J. D. Leduc, K.C., Ste. Scholastique, represents the defendants.

St. Johns, Nfld, April 18.—The Upper House of the Colonial Legislature has passed Premier Bond's bill excluding American fishermen from Newfoundland waters. The bill provides that American fishing vessels, found within five miles of the coast of Newfoundland with bait, supplies or outfit, purchased at any port in the Island, shall be seized and forfeited, together with their cargoes. The bill was amended so as to permit the suspension of its operation at the discretion of the Government.

The Governor's assent to the bill is expected before the end of the week, permitting the enforcement of the new law.

RICH STRIKE OF COAL.

Halifax, N.S., April 18.—(Special.)—One of the most promising coal strikes made in Nova Scotia in recent years is reported from the property of the Standard Coal Railway Company, which has been several weeks drilling near Parrsboro. The boring operations are down 2,350 feet, nearly half a mile, and although accurate information is not yet available as to the thickness of the seam struck it is believed that a good deposit of coal has been struck.

Richard H. Browne, formerly manager of the General Mining Association at Sydney Mines, who is president of the company spent Thursday and Friday at the scene of the operations.

Cap Martin, France.—The famous matador of Seville, Antonio Suarez, was gored in the face in the course of a bullfight here. Before he recovered himself the bull gored him in the back. Suarez finally regained his feet and continued the fight, with blood streaming from his wounds. The throng of spectators, in frenzied admiration of the matador, rose and cheered and shouted.

WHY YOU SHOULD USE

Red Rose Tea

Because it is put up in sealed packages.

These packages protect the flavor of the tea and protect you in weight and guarantee of quality.

No article of food is so easily tainted as tea—it absorbs the flavor of everything it comes in contact with. Place an orange beside some tea for an hour, and then taste or smell the tea—orange too.

Very few tea bins are tight enough to prevent tea from absorbing the odors of fruit, vegetables, cheese, etc., etc., usually mixed together in a grocery—and the ordinary tea chest is very little protection.

The Red Rose Tea sealed lead package preserves all the original flavor and freshness of the tea—open a package and smell its fresh fragrant aroma.

Packages of Red Rose Tea are always full weight and uniform in quality.

CARPENTERS SURE THEY ARE RIGHT, BUT WILL NOT CAUSE AN INDUSTRIAL TIE-UP

As far as can be gathered from interviews with masters and men it is not likely that the present state of tension existing between the master-carpenters and the union will lead to trouble unless something unforeseen occurs. The union is unwilling to take steps that would cause an industrial tie-up, and one of the employers stated to-day that he thought it highly improbable that any strike would occur.

The following letter received to-day from a prominent member of the Carpenters' Union, expresses the feeling of the men in the matter.

Editor, Herald:—Permit me to use the columns of your paper to explain the objections raised by the Master Carpenters and Joiners against acquiscing to the fair demands made by the District Council in the name of the six local unions of this trade in Montreal.

Some refuse to sign individual engagements on the plea that they have an incorporated association. We know that out of 180 patrons in Montreal, about sixty are members of this association, and that at a meeting of this body called recently, only four were present. Among these was one large proprietor who does not sign any contract unless for the corporation of Montreal. Another contractor present opposed our demands because he had no reason to fear trouble, having no important contracts on hand.

The masters say that they would be ready to sign a contract mutually agreed upon if our unions were incorporated. What weight would it give our unions to be incorporated? If we are not worth a cent, as some of the employers state, do they mean to say that an act of incorporation would render us more responsible when we know that the laws recognize the labor unions as legally responsible? Precedents have been already established at Taft Rale, Eng., and recently at St. Catharines, Ont., which prove that the members of the unions are responsible collectively and individually for all offences committed in their names. We also know that the unions are not in the odor of sanctity with the magistrates. One of the principal arguments of the employers, when they wish to get rid of a delegation demanding an interview, is that they have no need to be told their line of conduct towards their employes. Have not we them the same right to answer our patrons that if we feel the need of having our unions incorporated we will take the necessary steps? We do not see any benefit for any of the parties interested in being incorporated at present. Perhaps this need will arise in some years but certainly not before the Legislature Council is abolished and the workingmen have at least a score of representatives in the Provincial House, ready to defend our interests.

LEAVE EMPLOYERS TO CLASSIFY.

They say we should classify our members. We have no right to mind our employers' affairs. In wishing to classify the members of the trade, how could we give certificates of high excellence to men we scarcely knew? We leave this task to the masters, and they perform it always, paying 22, 23, 24, 25 and 26 cents per hour, and so on, according to the worth of the men.

Another reason invoked for refusing to accede to our demands is that members of the brotherhood work for proprietors or corporations. How can this be righted, when the patrons have always refused to employ only union men, supposing the District Council was to be given any chance of controlling all the carpenters and joiners in the city. That would be encouraging the non-unionist. If we prevented Union men from working for corporations, non-union men would do the work and the master-contractor would be eliminated just the same.

In conclusion, as long as no understanding exists between employers and employed, both sides will be ill-pleased. Let us hope that an understanding may be reached for the happiness of the two interested parties. What we want is progress in order. I am glad to say that Montreal is passing through an era of prosperity, to prove which I have only to mention the bank branches going up at every corner. Yet bad prophets announced that with the success of the labor unions we would see destitution on the increase. Happily they were mistaken. Let us allow money to circulate a little more freely, let the Government regulate immigration a little, and we will prosper, and be able to look forward to attaining the ideal of a modern people.

LARGE RESIDENCE HAS BEEN SOLD

A deal involving the transfer of the largest residential property to be sold in the city so far this year has just been completed, and by it Mr. John P. Black, head of the J. P. Black & Co., Ltd., secured from Mr. E. McHenry, the former chief engineer of the Canadian Pacific Railway, the large stone residence and extensive grounds situated on the east side of Cote des Neiges Hill immediately north of Sherbrooke street. The deal was put through by the Cradock Simpson Company. The large gardens around the house comprise over 50,000 feet of land, and it is understood that the price paid was over $35,000.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH AT RIGAUD, P.Q.

Strange circumstances surround the death of Theodule Charrette, which occurred at Rigaud, Que., on Sunday. The case was reported to Coroner MacMahon, who went to Rigaud yesterday and opened an inquest. The coroner has adjourned the enquete until Thursday next, in order to secure the evidence of several important witnesses.

According to the testimony given at the inquest yesterday it appears that Charrette had been suffering from rheumatism for some time. He had been to a medical man but had obtained no relief and early last week in accordance with the advice of a friend, he consulted a Mrs. Decaire, of St. Eugene, Ont., who has gained considerable reputation in that district as a medical expert. Mrs. Decaire gave Charrette a solution of salicylate of soda, telling him to take a dose of one tablespoonful every hour. Charrette begun taking the medicine on Thursday last. On Sunday morning he became violently ill and died a few hours later. The medicine which had been given to him by Mrs. Decaire consisted of a solution of two ounces of salicylate of soda in a little over a quart of water. Under the circumstances the coroner thought it would be advisable to postpone the inquest in order to hear the evidence of Mrs. Decaire, and also to give an opportunity to the doctors to hold an autopsy. The autopsy was performed by Drs. Bastien, Lafleur and Montpetit, of Rigaud to-day. Their report will be submitted to the Coroner when the inquest is re-opened on Thursday morning.

Salicylate of soda is commonly used by medical men as a cure for rheumatism. The usual dose is from five to ten grains, taken three times per day. Charrette was taking a dose of about fifty grains every hour.

MARCONI WIRELESS ANNUAL.

The second annual meeting of the Marconi Wireless Telegraphy Company of America, was held yesterday at Jersey City. The meeting was well attended, three new directors were elected for a term of five years. The chairman read a letter from Mr. Marconi's private secretary, expressing the great inventor's regret that he could not be present at the meeting as important work in Canada denied him the pleasure.

The closing paragraph of the letter said, "that in sending his best wishes to the annual meeting, Mr. Marconi desires to say that he has every confidence in the early resumption of the Trans-Atlantic Wireless Commercial Telegraphy.

MR. BOURASSA ON SCHOOL CLAUSES

Member for Labelle Addresses Large Audience at Monument National

Henri Bourassa, M.P., and his views on the school clauses in the Northwest Autonomy Bills, were both received with open arms last evening at the Monument National by the French-Canadians of Montreal. The visit of the member for Labelle county was made the occasion of a demonstration such as is accorded to few Canadians by the people of Montreal. To this demonstration the students of Laval contributed in no small degree. They occupied the stage.

The audience in the Monument National,—it was a large one,—fell easily under the spell of Mr. Bourassa's oratory. He would take a page from history, a phase of the school question in the west, and elaborate it. Then he would end his period, with an appeal, impassioned, very much in earnest, to the feelings of his hearers. Often he was forced to stop for some moments until the tumultuous applause aroused by his words had subsided. In voice, gesture and presence Henri Bourassa is very much the orator.

On the Sbaretti question the speaker was satirical. In former days when the West was troubled by the spirit of revolt, the "scarlet robe" had not been feared, but Mgr. Tache had been sent to bring the Metis and Indians to gentleness and peace.

Mr. Bourassa was accompanied by Mr. Armand Lavergne, M.P., and when the two appeared on the stage they were greeted with a storm of applause. The chairman, ex-Alderman Martineau, introduced Mr. Bourassa, referring warmly to the latter's record, and to the stand he had taken in Parliament on the Autonomy Bills.

Mr. Bourassa, after the applause which greeted him died away plunged into his subject with characteristic energy. His subject he stated was—what school law is necessary for the new Provinces. Is the Government bill now before Parliament acceptable, and can the French-Canadian Catholics support the "Sifton" amendments without protest?

Referring to a remark of the chairman that he would be here, at least as much at home as any German, or American colonist, Mr. Bourassa evoked loud cheers by warmly declaring his conviction that the British flag was the best in existence under which to fight the cause of an oppressed minority, and that despite the bad character that had been given him he was loyal to it.

"But," said he, "The British constitution guarantees for all of us equal rights, and it is for our compatriots, sacrificing themselves to build up a new country, in the West, that I demand these rights, just as we enjoy them here." (Applause.) The French-Canadians had given their energy; their good will and patriotism for the preservating of Canada's laws. Now was the critical period in the national existence to vindicate their rights to the protection of their laws, and the same need of generous fair play they had accorded to others. Even then they were not demanding a tithe of what the Protestant minority of this province enjoyed.

Mr. Bourassa then proceeded to discuss the Confederation conferences, which led to the formation of the British North America Act—our constitution—and the vigorous campaign of Sir Alexander Galt as the champion of Quebec's Protestant minority, which was followed by the demand of Mr. Bell for the recognition of the rights of the Catholic minority in Ontario. This led to the final solution, the pact of federation, which, while it gave the provinces full power in all else, made special provision that in no province should a majority be able to abuse its power with regard to public instruction.

This gave rise to further discussion, which led Lord Carnarvon to insist upon equal treatment for the minorities, and that such protection should apply not only to the present, but to all future minorities, "And that," said Mr. Bourassa, "is why we demand that the French-Canadian fathers who have gone to settle these new lands be allowed to preserve their national existence and to teach their children those religious truths which we hold to be so necessary. We demand that the pact made in the old days be honestly and fairly kept. We do not demand this as a privilege, but as a simple act of justice to our brothers who have gone to evangelize and settle these distant lands. (Applause.)

In Quebec, said Mr. Bourassa, the majority had granted the Protestant minority more than it could legally demand, and he proceeded to pay a warm tribute to Hon. Sidney Fisher and Mr. H. B. Ames for their recent speeches on this subject in Parliament.

Mr. Bourassa then sketched the acquisition of the West, and the creation of the Province of Manitoba. "Manitoba," he said, "entered the Confederation as subject to the authority of the Canadian Parliament, in school matters as in all else, as the Dominion is to the Imperial power, and the same thing applies to the new Provinces about to be created.

Referring to the early troubles of the West, Mr. Bourassa said, no one then feared the intervention of the Roman Catholic Hierarchy, or talked of the "Scarlet Robe." It was then that Bishop Tache was sent to pacify the Metis and bring them to see that they would be properly treated. "But to-day it is not the same, and we hear our opponents all talking of clerical interference and the hierarchy."

From this Mr. Bourassa proceeded to trace at length the Manitoba school question, and concluded this phase of his speech with the emphatic declaration, "Certainly an amelioration was introduced into the Manitoba system. But until the minority are given justice and right the Manitoba question will never be finally settled, and it is not so settled yet." (Applause.)

Then Mr. Bourassa proceeded to discuss the history of the Northwest Territories school legislation, premising his remarks by the statement that "the new provinces should be given the same privileges and rights as the older ones."

Mr. Bourassa sharply criticized Premier Haultain's course in the Northwest Territories with regard to the French language and the separate schools. Mr. Haultain, however, had not proclaimed that he would abolish the separate schools. He had also not said he would abolish the French language, but had practically said he would put it in its place, and allow an hour a day for religion and the French language.

This Mr. Bourassa ridiculed as an unfair tax upon the energies of the children. He warmly concluded on this head: "Always respect your neighbors, the Protestants of Quebec, and give them full justice—but see that your fellow countrymen in the West be given the same British fair play.

Mr. Tarte said Mr. Bourassa was probably sincere in saying that the amended bill was little different from the original, but he was mistaken. He strongly assailed the amendments as utterly inadequate to do justice to the Catholics of the West, and quoted extracts from Mr. Sifton's speech on the Autonomy bill to prove that the Northwest Territories separate schools were separate only in name, being actually public schools from nine to three each day.

He ridiculed the system, especially the teaching of French, in the schools, which had, he argued, reduced it to the level of any other foreign language. Mr. Haultain certainly should be satisfied, he said, because the bill would strangle the French language and Catholic instruction together. Yet even this was giving the Catholics too much to suit Ontario. "Surely," said Mr. Bourassa, "in Ontario there does not exist the same sense of justice as in this land of Quebec, with its 'priests,' its 'hierarchy,' and its 'Jesuits.' But I believe the articles in the Ontario press are a calumny. The majority of the English are not fanatics, and are not afraid to give us our rights.

As to "conciliation," Mr. Bourassa said this would be for his compatriots to sin against themselves. There could be conciliation between differing conceptions of truth and justice, but when constitutional guarantees were invaded they must demand their rights.

In closing, Mr. Bourassa dealt briefly and satirically with the Sbaretti incident. "To my mind, Mgr. Sbaretti made a grave error," he said. "The representative of the Holy See made the mistake of thinking he was coming to a country where he would meet its representatives and discuss affairs as in a civilized country."

Although Mr. Bourassa spoke for over two hours, he held the absolute attention of his audience from the first word to the last. Many times he was interrupted by storms of applause, and a genuine ovation greeted his closing periods.

There were calls for Mr. Armand Lavergne, M.P., at the end, but he briefly endorsed Mr. Bourassa's utterances, and the demonstration came to an end.

HOW FOOD WORKS.

A Sure Way Out of Bowel Troubles.

So called septic appendicitis will often hang on for years. This is caused by white bread, potatoes and other forms of starchy food that the individual does not properly indigest, and it is useless to attempt to make a permanent change by any form of drug, for all drugs "wear out" and in time refuse to benefit where the cause of the disturbance is not removed.

Septic appendicitis is a general term for a diseased condition of the bowels caused from undigested starch, and, as stated above, it may go on for years; yet people must have starchy food.

It is a well established fact among physicians and indiviuals who have made the experiment, that when the bowel disturbances are shown, a change in food must be made, and that the famous predigested food—Grape-Nuts—is the most perfect remedy, for it contains no medicine of any sort, but it is made up of the selected parts of wheat and barley in which the starchy part has been changed into the form of sugar that is found in the human intestines after the starchy part of the food has been perfectly digested.

When Grape-Nuts food is used in place of bread or any of the other forms of starch, the body is supplied with the necessary elements already in the form of this sugar (known as "Post sugar") and is therefore ready for immediate assimilation for the first act of digestion has taken place outside of the body and during the process of manufacture.

Absolute certainty of results can be depended upon and the disease relieved by this method.

A prominent Missouri editor tells this cheerful story:

"For three years I suffered from septic appendicitis, with all that involves. The aid of physicians was inadequate and the difficulty of finding food that would assimilate without great annoyance to the region of the vermiform appendix was fairly insurmountable until I struck Grape-Nuts.

"Grape-Nuts I relish and digest comfortably. They have not only proven to be most satisfying and nutritious food, but they have actually healed my ailments. I am, to-day, after several months use of Grape-Nuts, absolutely free from any disorder whatever—in perfect health—and I attribute my strength of mind and body to Grape-Nuts." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason.

A MILLION ISSUE OF M.S.R. BONDS

Meeting of the Shareholders Called for May 8 to Ratify the Proposal.

The directors of the Montreal Street Railway have decided to issue $1,000,000 additional bonds, and a special meeting of the shareholders of the company has been called for May 8 to ask them to ratify the action of the directors.

It is understood that the issue of the additional capital is to enable the company to provide for numerous extensions and improvements to its system and the erection of a number of substations for the distribution of power.

The last issue of bonds made by the company was when the purchase of the Park & Island Railway was effected, and if the same course is followed in the present instance as at that time, the new bonds will bear interest at the rate of 4½ per cent, and will be offered to the present stockholders at the rate of one bond for every fourteen shares of stock.

The action of the directors in issuing bonds rather than stock has been favorably received, as an examination of the company's last financial statement shows that the interests of the company will be best served by an issue of bonds. The company now has outstanding $2,473,000 of bonds and $7,000,000 of stock, and is allowed to issue bonds to the extent of 50 per cent. of its stock.

Hon. L. J. Forget, president of the company, speaking to The Herald, said that all the new capital would be used in improving the system and thereby increase its earning power.

RIVER MAY BE OPEN WITHIN A FEW DAYS

River navigation will, it is expected, open now within a few days. Montreal harbor is quite clear of ice, the wharves are bare, and everything is being put in readiness for the opening of the season. The ice jammed across the river at the Boucherville islands, prevents the boats coming up from Sorel, but it is a matter of a few days at the most when this obstacle will disappear.

The nearest approach yet to the arrival of a boat at Montreal this season is the Government steamer Shamrock, which lies now at the east side of the Longueuil Ferry wharf at Longueuil. The Shamrock reached Longueuil about nine o'clock Sunday morning from Boucherville. Being a propellor boat, it had not the same risks to run from floating ice that the paddle vessels would have.

The Shamrock came up last autumn to raise the river buoys and was forced to winter at Boucherville owing to the lateness of the season.

According to the officials at the Harbor Commissioners' office, the winter and spring of 1905 have established a record. "The ice never took as it did this year, and it never went out so easily," said to-day a man whose acquaintance with the harbor is life-long. Scarcely any ice was left on the piers this spring when the river fell, and what little there was has already disappeared. The water now stands at twenty-one feet five inches.

CIVIC OWNERSHIP WAS A SUCCESS

Ottawa, April 18.—(Special.)—While most of the other committees were taking the first of their Easter vacation, the Telephone Committee resumed this morning and did a great deal of work. Dr. Ochs, of Hespeler, the first witness called, described a rural system linking Berlin, Waterloo, Preston and Hespeler, in Waterloo County. This system had been started in 1891 and three years later sold to the Bell Company.

Councillor Willock, of Glasgow, related an interesting story of development of telephone system in that city. The city obtained permission to borrow £120,000 for the purpose of establishing a municipal service and a central switchboard, was completed and installed on 20th March, 1901. At that time he paid £10 for a telephone in his central office and for a 'phone at a branch office outside the two mile radius he had to pay $20 with a rebate which reduced it to $17.10. That was when the National had a monopoly. The corporation put the rate at £5 5s per annum for an unlimited service for the whole district as compared with £10 10s and £17 10s. At his residence where the National rate was £25 he now had a service at £6 6s. Any subscriber to the municipal system has the privilege through the post office of the long distance service at the usual rates, 6d for three minutes and double time at night. At public pay stations in Glasgow any one can, on payment of one penny call up any subscriber in Glasgow. Hotel rates are £5 5s, also and all guests are entitled to use it.

CONSTABLE GAVE CHLORAL IN MISTAKE FOR BRANDY

A woman who gave her name as Mrs. Proulx, was found lying in an apparently intoxicated condition on St. Elizabeth Street, this morning by the police of No. 4 Station. When taken to the station she complained of feeling ill and, as she appeared to be going to faint one of the constables ran for some brandy, with which to revive her. The constable in his excitement got hold of the wrong bottle and the woman was given a dose of chloral instead of the spirits. She immediately became unconscious. A hurry-up call was sent to the Notre Dame Hospital and the woman removed to that institution in the ambulance. The doctors state that she is merely in a heavy sleep induced by the opiate and will be all right as soon as she awakes.

AN INSURANCE DECISION.

Ottawa, April 18.—(Special.)—Judge O'Meara gave a decision of considerable interest to insurance agents, in the Division Court yesterday. Suit was brought to recover the amount of a note given by a minor for a policy of life insurance in favor of his mother. Ira E. Pressland made application for $1,000 insurance, and gave the agent his note. The agent paid the money to the company and the policy was delivered to Pressland. When the note fell due Pressland refused to pay it, and so the company sued. F. C. Powell, counsel for Pressland, raised the point that as Pressland was a minor he could not be held responsible for the note. Judge O'Meara decided that while the act provides that a minor may contract for insurance, may surrender it or arrange for the disposition of money accruing from it, he could not be held responsible for a note. Judge O'Meara also expressed the opinion that as between Pressland and the company the policy is in force and in the event of Pressland dying before the first year expires, next August, the company would have to pay the full amount to Pressland's mother, in whose favor the policy is made. A verdict was given for the defendant without costs.

TURTLE DELAYED WEDDING 40 YEARS

Caught With Engagement Ring, Loss of Which Enraged Lover.

Battle Creek, Mich., April 18.—Cupid is a theosophist, and forty years ago his soul transmigrated to the astral shell of a turtle. If you don't believe it ask Miss Freda Olmstead and John Martin, who were married in Augusta last night, and they will attest to the following true tale:

Martin had been educated in the universities of Berlin, and when he came to this country in 1865 he was employed as a constructing engineer on the Grand Trunk Railroad. Miss Olmstead was a belle of the town and fell in love with the handsome young engineer. A beautiful diamond ring pledged their betrothal, and Martin left on a fortnight's tour of inspection.

In his absence Miss Olmstead accepted an invitation for a boat ride on a little lake near Augusta. A turtle swam near the boat and Miss Olmstead caught it. She called attention to the diamond markings on its shell, and this suggested that she slip her diamond ring over its mottled neck. The next instant it flopped out of her hand into the lake and sank.

On Martin's return he was told of the boat ride and of the loss of the engagement ring. His jealously was aroused, and, breaking his betrothal, he sailed back to Germany. All Augusta heard of the tale, and always remembered it.

A party fishing on the lake this spring captured a turtle, and encircling its neck was a diamond ring. It was taken to Miss Olmstead, and she identified the jewel which was lost forty years ago. She learned that Martin had never married, and immediately communicated to him news of the recovery of the ring. He took the first steamer to this country, again placed the diamond on his sweetheart's finger, and they were married. The honeymoon will be a trip to Germany, where Martin will settle his business interests and return with his bride to this country.

SANK AT FULL SPEED IN RACE

Champion Motor Boat Went to the Bottom of Monaco Bay.

Monte Carlo, April 18.—The Panhard-Levassor, which won the championship of the sea, sank in Monaco Bay with her engines running at full speed. This occurred when she was five kilometres from the start in the fifty kilometre handicap. Less than one month ago the Panhard left Telliers' workshop apparently the finest vessel of the kind ever built.

The race started at three o'clock. There was little wind, but rather a lumpy sea, which made the going bad for the faster craft. One by one the boats left, according to their handicaps the fastest of them all, the Panhard Levassor, was the last to leave, steered by Comte de Vogue. Away she went, cutting through the waves like an arrow, past the first buoy, past the second, and near the third, when she suddenly disappeared.

The spectators asked excitedly, "Where is the Panhard?" A man with a powerful glass said, "I saw her sink."

Tremendous excitement and confusion followed. Guns were fired and the race was stopped. Comte Vogue and the two machinists were saved, but small thanks to the organization.

When the accident happened there was no torpedo boat in sight. A slow tug steamed lazily off Cap Martin, but of effective rescuing arrangements there were none. By good luck the Panhard-Levassor sank just as she reached the mark boat, and the crew was quickly picked up.

One of the machinists, Boursier, gave the following account of the accident:—

"We were rushing along fifty-two kilometres an hour or thereabouts, with the motor working marvellously, when without the slightest warning a forward plank gave way and in two seconds the boat had gone from beneath us.

"At the speed at which we were travelling the pressure on the hull must have been enormous, and without any constructional defect. I can quite conceive a rivet giving away. The whole affair was over so quickly, however, that I cannot give a definite opinion of what took place."

The accident did not cause much surprise. The thickness of the hull of these boats is no greater than that of a river skiff.

While the engines weigh two thousand pounds the hull does not weigh more than seven hundred pounds. The strain, which is enormous in smooth water, becomes most unbearable when there is a bit of sea on.

HARBOR BOARD GETS NOTARIAL PROTEST

Shipping Federation Does Not Propose to Pay New Berth Rentals.

The Shipping Federation will not submit tamely to the impost of a berth rental charge by the Harbor Commissioners, and as a preliminary a notarial protest was served on their behalf yesterday.

The document, which came before a meeting of the commissioners yesterday afternoon, pointed out that at one time vessels making use of harbor space were charged tonnage dues, but as these were found to be an injurious restriction, they were abolished by sec. 4, chap. 5, 51 Victoria, Statutes of Canada; it was specially enacted that no tonnage dues, heretofore paid, should be levied or collected from any vessel in the port.

The commissioners' resolution, it was pointed out, was an attempt at a revival of these dues. Neither the charter nor the by-laws of the board gave it either the power or the right to make any such charge for berth space, and its collection was beyond the powers of the commissioners and against the spirit and intention of the statutes. The federation therefore warned the commissioners not to make any attempt to collect such charges, as they would be held responsible jointly, personally and severally for any injuries or damages that might be suffered. The federation would also take such further action as might be advised by counsel.

After some discussion, it was decided to lay the matter before the solicitor to the Harbor Board for an opinion.

SLOW WORK AT NEW SHEDS.

The report of the chief engineer showed that during March the work on the permanent sheds had only progressed to the extent of $1,224.96, and after a proposal that steps be taken to cancel the contract, it was agreed to postpone consideration of the question until next meeting.

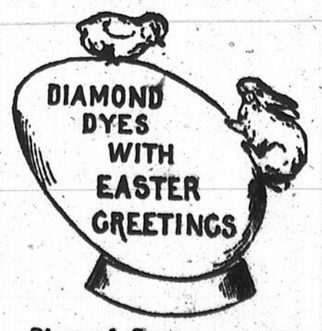

The draft contract with the Montreal Light, Heat & Power Company for the electric lighting of the harbor for a period of five years, was read, and, with some minor alterations, was ordered to be signed by the president and secretary. The price was 18 cents per lamp per night and $1,500 per annum for the supply and upkeep of poles, wires, lamps, etc.

The Montreal Street Railway acknowledges the receipt of $1 conscience money.

MESSRS. C. C. RICHARDS & CO., Yarmouth, N.S.

Gentlemen,—In January last, Francis Leclair, one of the men employed by me, working in the lumber woods, had a tree fall on him, crushing him fearfully. He was, when found, placed on a sled and taken home, where grave fears were entertained for his recovery, his hips being badly bruised and his body turned black from his ribs to his feet. We used MINARD'S LINIMENT on him freely to deaden the pain and with the use of three bottles he was completely cured and able to return to his work.

CATARRH CAN BE CURED.

Now Is the Time to Get Cured Permanently —The Spring Weather Favors Your Case.

MISS GERTRUDE HAYS.

Miss Gertrude Hays, 52 Gerard St., Toronto, Can., First Vice Pres. Young Woman's Literary Society, writes:

"Permit me to add my testimonial to the many thousands given every year for Peruna. I was afflicted with catarrh of the throat. My throat was very sore and sometimes dry. I hawked up stringy mucus, frequently had to clear my throat, and when I talked my voice sounded as if I had a cold. My tongue was often coated, my breath was bad, and I could not sleep on my back without snoring. When I failed to get relief from other sources I tried Peruna, and in a short time it was completely cured. I most heartily endorse Peruna."—Gertrude Hays.

THE SPRINGTIME IS MOST FAVORABLE TO A CURE OF CATARRH.

A person may have been afflicted with catarrh a long time, but every spring the catarrh assumes a slightly different phase. The catarrhal discharges become thinner, the thickening of the membranes partly disappear. If the catarrh is accompanied with a cough, the cough becomes looser, the expectoration less sticky; in brief, every symptom shows a slight tendency toward improvement. This is directly due to the season.

CATARRH IMPROVES IN THE SPRING

Every spring nature rejuvinates. Nature attempts to become young again, rid herself of disease; to throw out impurities; to cleanse herself from excrescencies; to renovate. It is the season of procreation, of exuberance; of re-invigoration.

To those who have been afflicted with chronic catarrh we wish to say a few words. The spring season affords you a splendid opportunity to get rid of your disease. It may be you have been afflicted for several years; you may have tried different remedies. Perhaps you have become discouraged; you may even have tried Peruna and not have realized the prompt benefit which Peruna is so apt to bring.

The failure was during the winter months. But now is your opportunity. Nature comes to your assistance at this season. Just help her a little and she will bring you out of the quagmire in which you have been floundering so long. Give nature a little assistance lest her struggle be in vain.

Lose no time. Get a bottle of Peruna and begin at once.

The directions for use are on the bottle. Yet we would advise you to get a copy of Dr. Hartman's "Ills of Life," and read carefully what he says about other measures which should be used in connection with taking Peruna.

Now is the time to get cured and get cured permanently. The elements will assist you in your fight against disease. The season favors your case. Lose no time. Begin the treatment at once. April, May and June—these are the months to get to work in earnest to forever rid yourself of catarrh.

If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

CITY MAY SELL THIS LAND.

Question of Disposal of St. Ann's Park Again Up Before City Fathers.

At yesterday's meeting of the City Council the sale of that vacant lot in St. Ann's Ward was once again ratified, but not before a number of aldermen had protested against the movement.

Ald. Walsh said that the city had too few of these breathing places at its disposal, and, since he had been but lately notified of the proposed selling, he was going to move for a reconsideration.

Ald. Vallieres said that it was the intention when No. 2 fire station was built that the rest of the site was to be sold—the only question was, when was this to be done.

Ald. L. A. Lapointe was also of this impression, and referred to the fact that Ald. Nelson, Sadler, Walsh and Mayor Laporte were aware of this situation of affairs.

Ald. Sadler was much in favor of keeping the park for the boys to play on, and Ald. Clearihue was certain that any aldermen working from seven in the morning to six at night would be only too glad of a place to rest in the evening. He was against selling the plot.

Ald. Carter thought that if the people were so keen upon keeping the land, they should have petitioned to that effect; in lieu of this it might be well to sell out.

Ald. Walsh's motion to reconsider was then taken and lost by two votes, as under:

Ayes — Ald. St. Denis, Robertson, Clearihue, Levy, Dagenais, Lavallee, Turner, Sadler, Wilson, Bumbray, Carter, Walsh, Nelson, Sauvageau, Lemay, Stearns, Proulx—17.

Nays — Ald. Vallieres, Larivierre, Robillard, L. A. Lapointe, Ricard, Couture, Deserres, Bastien, Leclaire, Laquin, Duquette, Major—12.

The majority of the whole Council, or nineteen votes, was required to carry the motion.

SECRET TENDERS.

Ald. Ekers brought up a good point when he moved an amendment touching the system of cheque deposit with the city when tenders are required. By the present system the cheque is deposited with the city treasurer, and the amount of it is stamped upon the tender envelope. Ald. Ekers pointed out that, since the percentage of the tender was known, and the sum was in plain view to the curious, rival tenderers could tell what the other firms' sums were, and unpleasantness might arise. To obviate this it was suggested that the cheque and the tender go in the same envelope.

DISSOLUTION DANGEROUS.

Sweden and Norway Must Hold Together to Withstand Russia.

London, April 18.—Sven Heden, the explorer in a long letter to the Times on the controversy between Sweden and Norway, contends that in the event of a dissolution of the union Sweden could afford to be indifferent to Norway's fate, which probably would be that Russia would seize the strip of Norwegian territory stretching from Lyngen Fjord on the west to Jakobstad on the east, for the sake of warm water ports. Naval harbors could be made on its deeply indented coast. Other powers, Mr. Heden says would then seek "compensation" at other points on Norwegian coasts. Mr. Heden argues that the extinction of Russia's hopes in the Pacific Ocean makes such a danger very real, and therefore, it is plainly for the interests of Sweden and Norway and the interests of all powers desiring to preserve the balance of sea power that the consular dispute should be settled on absolutely equal terms.

MINER MET TERRIBLE DEATH.

Vancouver, B.C., April 18.—(Special.)—Pinned for hours beneath a huge piece of ore weighing 1,900 pounds, Norman McRitchie, of Baddeck Bay, Cape Breton, died at Granby Mines, Phoenix, just a few minutes before the rescuers succeeded in releasing his body. It was in No. 2 level of the old Ironside mine the fatal accident happened. McRitchie, who was mucker boss, was crushed by falling rock against heavy timbers. The relief party at once set to work to cut him out, but it took an hour to get through the thick timber, and by that time the young man had succumbed to internal injuries.

Kingston, Ont. — The United States fish hatchery at Cape Vincent, N.Y., just across the border from here, has nearly 28,000,000 small fry in hand, and vast majority of which will be turned into Lake Ontario.

CITY CANNOT GIVE EXCLUSIVE RIGHT

City Attorneys Declare Fifty Year M.S.R. Franchise Illegal.

In the opinion of the city attorneys, Montreal has not the legal right to grant the Montreal Street Railway Company an exclusive franchise over the streets. This was the opinion handed in by the city's legal advisers yesterday, read before Council and laid upon the table. The city's attorneys say that only the Legislature has such power as that in question.

In the recent application of the Montreal Street Railway Company for a fifty year extension of franchise, one of the conditions set forth, in return for a large bonus to the city, was the exclusive right to run street cars in Montreal.

In view of the fact that the Terminal Railway operates a line in the city, this stipulation was not to come into effect until the city's contract with the Terminal had expired. In the City Council the question of the city's powers in the matter came nup and upon Ald. Lariviere's suggestion the matter was referred to the city attorneys.

Going back as far as 1892, the city attorneys declare that the discussion then, on the adoption of by-law 216—the city's contract with the company—went to show that no exclusive franchise could be inferred in general terms. Such an arrangement must be clearly set forth, and not implied.

After quoting the statute on the question, which gives the city authority to establish street car lines, to regulate their speed, and the number of passengers, the city attorneys state that they are not able to find any authority for the establishment of exclusive rights.

The opinion concludes with the remark that Montreal cannot grant such rights without Legislative enactment.

THE DANISH EXAMPLE SHOULD BE FOLLOWED

Success of Co-operative Societies Among Farmers Furnishes Object Lesson to Canada.

Ottawa, April 18.—(Special.)—Mr. J. B. Jackson, Canadian commercial agent at Leeds, in a communication to the Department of Trade and Commerce, gives an explanation of the supremacy of Danish butter in the British market. He says the Danish farmers have formed themselves into co-operative societies, the larger of these having capacity of from one thousand to two thousand cans. In 1893 they sold $47,840,000 worth of butter, most of it to Great Britain. These Danish co-operative creameries are conducted along much the same lines as the creameries and cheese factories in Canada, with the notable exception that their product is shipped weekly, no matter what the market is, through a central organization. The butter is sent from the factories to Copenhagen every Wednesday and from them forwarded in special butter steamers to Hull and Newcastle. These steamers arrive at port Saturday night and find butter express trains waiting for them. It is forwarded at once and delivered in all the large English centres early Monday morning. In England almost all the Danish butter is handled by two large firms, who have stores in every town of importance in the United Kingdom. The butter is all packed in 112-pound casks. A registered trade mark prevents substitution. The business is regarded as the most successful application of co-operative agriculture in the world. The success of the Danish farmer and dairyman is attributed to technical and agricultural schools. The co-operative system is not confined to butter, but is used for marketing all sorts of agricultural products. One of the most important of these is the Danish Co-operative Egg Export Company. From this institution Great Britain in 1903 bought $8,250,000 worth of eggs. The societies guarantee the quality of their product to the purchasers.

Mr. Jackson suggests that Canadian fruit growers would find it profitable to work along these co-operative lines. An association of federated fruiters in England in the numerous branches offers an inviting field. It could handle the Canadian product.

MONT PELEE IN ERUPTION.

Slight Earthquakes Have Been Felt Throughout the Region.

New York, April 18.—A despatch from Fort de France, Martinique, to The Herald says: Both on April 13 and 14 ashes and stones were thrown from Mont Pelee, accompanied at times by white clouds emitted from a point south of the main crater. On these days there also was an intermittent and rather loud rumbling.

The eruption was especially marked on the evening of April 14, when much matter was thrown from the crater, accompanied by abundant clouds of vapor. During the night numerous luminous points could be seen far down toward the base of the cone. To-day (Monday) as well as yesterday and the day before the volcano remained quiet.

A despatch from Point-a-Pitre Guadaloupe says: There was a slight earthquake felt throughout this region on the night of April 16. Up to the present no reports have been received of damage done. No volcanic disturbances have been reported from the other West Indies and as far as local advices go neither Guadaloupe nor Martinique has anything to fear in this respect.

A despatch from St. Vincent says: No activity has been manifested by the Soufriere during the last twenty-four hours. It is believed that the volcano has entered upon another period of quiet.

THE HOLY WEEK CONCERTS.

Fine Performance of Messiah Promised —Dr. Harthan's Recital Introduces Interesting Young Pianist.

The sale of seats is progressing steadily for the Messiah concerts on Thursday and Good Friday, and early application should be made to secure choice seats. Madame Nileska, the eminent soprano from Boston, will arrive in the city on Wednesday night, so that she will have a full day's rest before the open rehearsal on Thursday. All the other soloists will arrive Thursday morning and have a private rehearsal with Mr. Reyner during the day.

To-night is the occasion of the performance of Cesar Franck's "Redemption," by Prof. Couture's choir, with an interesting programme preceding it. The performance, which is at Windsor Hall, is under the auspices of the Union Nationale Francaise.

Always Eat the Best—JAMES STRACHAN, Bakers to Royalty.

The programme for Dr. Hans Harthan's piano recital at the Royal Victoria College to-morrow evening calls for that distinguished member of the Conservatorium staff to play the Kreutzer Sonata in conjunction with M. de Seve, which is likely to be a much more balanced, if a less virtuoso-like performance than the Ysaye de Befve one. Dr. Harthan contributes Schubert's Impromptu op. 142, No. 2, Rubinstein's Kammenoi Ostrow, and Liszt's Raphsodie Hongroise, No. 8, and concludes the programme with the Chopin F minor concerto, op. 21, with Miss Rosemonde Desjardins at second piano. Miss Desjardins, who is a Hull girl, and said to possess extraordinary natural gifts, especially of temperament, will play a Bach prelude in A minor; b, Graun's Cigue in B flat minor, and c, Chopin's Etude in G minor.

MR. BAIRD NOMINATED.

Winnipeg, Man., April 18.—(Special.)—At the Liberal convention for Mountain held at Baldur yesterday, James Baird, of Pilot Mound, was nominated as the candidate to contest the bye-election for the Legislature on April 27. Mr. Baird is a strong man, and if elected, will make a worthy successor to ex-Premier Greenway.

THE HERALD

MONTREAL, TUESDAY APRIL 18.

THE GLORY OF THE LAND.

It is a little difficult at first breath for us in Canada to realise the tremendous nature of the problem which Mr. Rider Haggard and his associates of the "Back to the Land" cult have set themselves to solve. We are primarily an agricultural community, and few of us are removed from the land by more than a generation or so. The Canadian family that has not its branch or its connections engaged in the active extraction of a living more or less directly from the soil is rare, even in our greater cities, and outside of them is almost unknown. The most vicious consequences of the separation from the land are as yet unknown to us. Our slums are not the slums of those who dwell in fetid courts because they cannot get back to the country. A great part of our industrial population flows freely from industry to agriculture, and from agriculture to lumbering, and the physical deterioration that comes of generations of confined mill-work is still very far from us.

But in the great population centres of England there has for generations been an impassible gulf fixed between the pursuits of the industrial worker and those of the agriculturist. Still crossed by a slow but steady stream of recruits going over from agriculture to industry, it is practically never traversed in the other direction. The Salvation Army was one of the first agencies to note the danger of this impassable barrier between the more artificial and the more natural of man's fields of activity. It established farming colonies which were more or less successful in proportion to the hopefulness of the characters which they took as material—and these were not for the most part such as would have been selected by a political economist anxious to establish a theory. However, the work of the Army aroused the interest of others in the proposition of a return to direct relations with the soil. For two or three years now a kind of missionary work has been carried on in various secluded spots around London, by men and women who have voluntarily withdrawn themselves from the industrial life and banded together to show the world what can be done by simplicity and communion with nature. This is the Back-to-the-Land movement proper, a rather doctrinaire school which pays much attention to aesthetics and little to economic conditions, and resembles the Tolstoian school in that it makes no effort to read the hard commonsense that is supposed to be the Englishman's chief characteristic.

Mr. Haggard sees that in the present state of the English land system there is no economic hope for the tiller of the soil. "We are cramped and coiled in England," he says, "with the remains of a feudal system that works nothing but ill; and under that system it is so that no man on the land seems to have a chance to rise." A writer in a recent number of The World's Work, points out that the land system of England was one which Richard Cobden regarded as if anything more burdensome upon the mass of the people and the middle classes than the grain taxation which he overthrew, and adds, in proof of the appalling burden laid by the system upon every kind of economic advancement, that the "fines" collected by the Duke of Westminster from his tenants for the privilege of retaining the benefit of improvements they have themselves effected, total this year the extraordinary sum of $2,500,000. Rather than set himself the tremendous task of finally abolishing the feudal system, Mr. Haggard has preferred to put to use the remedy offered by the unfettered land systems of the colonies. He realizes that, to do good, there must be prospects to set before them, prospects as alluring when viewed in their proper light as any in the cooped life of the towns. And there must be a breaking down of that barrier that by long usage has made the English industrial worker afraid and ashamed to go back to the tilling of the soil. The extent to which this is being achieved is shown already in the numbers and the agricultural quality of our new immigration. It is largely due to the work that Mr. Haggard and a few like him have carried on in England that the attitude of the Britisher towards farm labor has so appreciably changed. Mr. Haggard hints that he has greater achievements in store; but even if these be not realized, the impetus has been given to a restoration of the land to its proper place in man's regard—a very vital thing to a country whose land is its glory.

THE SCHOOLS OF MANITOBA.

So much is heard of the desirability of establishing in the Northwest common schools like those of Manitoba, it is useful to be told, as we have been since Mr. Roblin and Mr. Rogers have been on the rampage, in what way the common school system of Manitoba deals with the problem presented by the existence of a large Roman Catholic population.

One of the regular inspectors of schools in Manitoba is Mr. Roger Goulet, who is assigned to the "South-Eastern Division." Curiously enough, a Mr. A. L. Young is also an inspector for the "South Eastern Division." The explanation is that Mr. Goulet's duty is to inspect the bi-lingual schools in that district, and he has latterly, as he says, "received instructions to inspect the French-English schools in other inspectorates." That is to say, this official of the Government of Manitoba acts towards certain schools in Manitoba exactly as two inspectors employed by the Ontario Government act towards certain schools in Ontario, the schools in both cases being Catholic schools. Mr. Goulet has about a hundred of them under his jurisdiction. And in his report for the year 1901 he was "glad to report that in all the schools of my division full advantage is taken of the time allotted for religious teaching and religious exercises."

Mr. Goulet, like the other inspectors, conducts normal school classes for the training of third class teachers. He is principal for a Normal School at St. Boniface, a mile away from the Normal school at Winnipeg, where he gives professional training to French candidates who have passed the non-professional examinations. He conducts the examinations, and teaching certificates are issued by the Government on his recommendation. Archbishop Langevin frequently addresses the students. The Sisters of St. Mary, who teach in their religious garb in the public schools of Manitoba, take the Normal school course at this school. Christian Brothers do the same.

Clearly, included within the common school system of Manitoba there is a system of Catholic separate schools. Mr. Roblin was desirous, a little ago, of having the Catholic schools of Winnipeg brought within the scope of the system, but the Public School board of that city declined to be a party to the transaction, so long, at least, as it was necessary to ignore certain legal difficulties, and these difficulties Mr Roblin has not yet removed.

Mr. Roblin and Mr. Rogers, it is true, are now credited with the intention of uprooting the present arrangement. Doubtless they could do it, if they wanted to. So, doubtless, could the existing arrangements in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick be overturned if somebody who had the power to chose to do it. But that is quite another question. The fact remains that in Manitoba, as well as in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, separate school systems have an existence in practice just as certainly as in Quebec and Ontario separate school systems have an existence under the law. And Mr. Peter Talbot, M.P., for Strathcona, in discussing the question of schools for the Northwest, said the other day in the House:

"The premier of the Northwest Territories quite recently said that if he had the power to-morrow, he would not change the present system. But we all know how at any time an agitation may be started and how the minority might then be deprived of the privileges which they have. If that were the case, we would then be confronted by a serious evil. If the Roman Catholic minority were deprived of the privileges they now have, what would they do? They would do just as they have done in hundreds of cases in the past. They would build, equip, and patronize church schools. These schools would have to be supported by them and they would also be compelled to pay their taxes to the public or common school. They would thus be paying double taxes, and in many cases that would be a hardship to them.

"But that is not the worst feature of the case to my mind. The worst feature is that since the government did not support or assist these church schools it would have no control over even the secular education given in them. Now I am so strongly in favor of the state having absolute control of the secular education of the children who are to become citizens of that state that I am willing to deprive the provinces of the power of making the mistake of totally abolishing separate schools. If separate schools were abolished in the new provinces by law we might have a condition of affairs similar to that which exists in the maritime provinces. We were told a few evenings ago by the Minister of Finance (Mr. Fielding) the condition that exists in those provinces. In localities where there is a considerable number of Roman Catholics separate schools do exist by practice if they do not by law. There you find Roman Catholic children in one school, and Protestant children, in another; you find Roman Catholic teachers in one school and Protestant teachers in another; you have in effect separate schools there by practice if not by law. Now to my way of thinking our system is far ahead of that."

It all comes back to Mr. Sifton's argument that the main question up for settlement, and which might as well be settled now, is "What sort of schools are the people of these new Provinces to have?"

A HAPPY AUGURY.

It will certainly be gratifying to the English-speaking minority generally, as well as to the more particular friends of Hon. Mr. Weir, to learn that he is likely to be chosen Speaker of the Legislature when it re-assembles. Mr. Weir has certainly earned this recognition at the hands of the new Premier, and Mr. Gouin, according to what reports are current as to his intention, is delighted at the opportunity not only to honor a friend who has upheld his hands, but also to add one more item to the mass of evidence that has recently been presented in testimony of the good relations which exist between the two main elements of the population in this Province, and particularly within the ranks of the Liberal party. If the appointment is made and it seems to have been determined upon, it will be one that does equal honor to Mr. Weir, to Mr. Gouin, to the minority and to the majority.

Practice What You Preach.

(Toronto Star.)

These newspapers considered this very reprehensible on the part of the Roman Catholics. They argued that it was calculated to defeat the purpose of creating a common citizenship in the people of the country, because when you separate children in order to teach them you create divisions that will remain marked throughout life. It is a serious question, and worth looking into. Have we common schools? Would we have common schools even if no Roman Catholic Separate schools existed anywhere in Canada? When we begin to look for an answer to this question we find that a considerable percentage of the people send their children to schools that are not recognized by law as being either Public or Separate schools. Who are the people who do this? Many of the very best citizens we have. If we are to indicate any of them, we naturally point to those responsible heads of the newspapers which are most active in making outcry against the danger to the State of allowing children to be withdrawn from the schools of the state. They are doing the very thing that they denounce—educating their children outside the common schools, apart from their fellow-children, beyond the reach of those lessons of a common citizenship to which they profess such devotion.

Success of Liquid Fuel.

(Chicago Journal.)

A successful method has finally been invented for injecting liquid fuel into the furnaces of passenger boats. The fuel is brought under a pressure of from ten to twenty pounds to the square inch and evaporated by a somewhat modified "Kortings" burner, without use of steam. This apparatus works very satisfactorily, without noise and without the loss of fresh water. Formerly, the liquid fuel was injected into the furnaces by means of a steam jet, making very much noise, a great inconvenience, annoying to the passengers and causing the loss of much fresh water in the form of steam. A suitable furnace arrangement, recently invented also, guarantees proper and perfect burning of the fuel, so that very little steam is kept regularly at the same pressure during the voyage, and the boiler is kept at a uniform temperature, thus preventing much trouble from leakage and other damage.

How to Cure Insomnia.

(Philadelphia Inquirer.)

Lying awake is often a habit. It is worth almost any effort to break up such a habit.

Insomnia is usually the result of one of three things—poor circulation, indigestion or mental distress. The person who studies himself, carefully will be able to locate the difficulty and treat himself accordingly.

For poor circulation try warm baths, warm-water bottles, brisk rubbing, soaking the feet and deep breathing.

For indigestion take a warm drink before retiring or when sleepless. Drink warm water, milk, weak tea, or cocoa and breathe deeply.

For mental distress mere will power is the best. Close the eyes and as fast as the thoughts come drive them out. Carry on in the mind a house-cleaning process.

Sweet sleep and plenty of it will go a great way toward keeping women young. When sleep departs wrinkles come.

It is by sleep, that we gain strength for another day. Sleep is to the brain and nerves what food is to the body.

Here are a few simple, tried rules for driving away insomnia

Go to bed warm. Never go to bed with cold feet.

If the events of the day have been trying, read a short, light story before retiring.

Leave the window down at the top and protect the bed from draughts.

As soon as the body touches the bed relax the muscles, shut the eyes and make ready to sleep. Nothing drives away sleep more quickly than the thought that one can't sleep.

Lord Norton.

The late Lord Norton rarely altered an opinion he had once formed, because it had always been laboriously thought out. He was a splendid host, a good rider, and indeed a good all-round man, for he kept himself well abreast of the literature of the day. He was popular in Society, and in Warwickshire his name was a household word. Of Mr. Chamberlain in his Radical days the deceased once said: "I know that the master of Highbury regards me as a fossiled fogey, but mark my words, Chamberlain, no less than Bright, will modify his Radicalism when he gets his legs under the mahogany at Windsor."

In the last two volumes of Sir Mountstuart E. Grant Duff's "Notes from a Diary" there are frequent references to Lord Norton. Writing in 1896: "I walked away from the first Grillion breakfast of the year with Lord Norton, still delighting in and dependent on his daily ride. He fell to taking of Drayton, whither he took Gladstone lately before he started for Biarritz. 'I saw on that occasion,' he said, 'a curiosity which I had never seen before, intimately as I knew the house—the pair of pistols which Peel bought when he was going to fight O'Connell.'"

Again, on another occasion at Grillion's, we read: "Lord Norton recalled some prehistoric debate about the Jews, when an orator, whose name he forgot, rather bored the House by enumerating many of the things which we owed to their initiative. Lord Palmerston in reply gave a livelier turn to the discussion by remarking, 'I quite agree with the honourable gentleman; many of us owe a great deal to the Jews.'"

Bulldogs Barred.

In some interesting notes on the sale of a bulldog for £800, the Field States that it is well the fortunate disposer of the animal lives in England and not in Mecklenburg-Schwerin, for there it is illegal to keep a bulldog, anyone infringing the law is fined, and the creature is destroyed." It seems that £800 is not the highest price for a bulldog, £1,000 having twice been paid for an animal of the same race. Collies and St. Bernards have also changed hands at £1,000. One St. Bernard, indeed, was sold for £1,300.

Don't Let Your Ambition Cool.

(Success.)

The idea seems to be pretty general that ambition is born in us, that we have little or nothing to do with its acquisition or cultivation, and that we cannot modify, enlarge, stimulate or improve it to any great extent. A study of life does not confirm this idea; that the ambition of cultivatable quality, capable of being moulded or destroyed, according as we will, is demonstrated every day in the lives of those about us. We see people in whom the spark of ambition is kindled suddenly by the reading of a book, the hearing of a lecture or the speaking of a kindly word by a friend or teacher, and, on the other hand, we see those who allow their ambition slowly to die out for want of fuel.

The death of ambition is one of the tragedies of life. When a young man feels his ambition begin to fade there is trouble somewhere. Either he is in the wrong environment and his faculties protest against what he is trying to do, or some vicious habit is draining his energy, or his health is poor, or he is being led into dissipation by bad companions. A youth whose ambition begins to wane is not in a normal condition. When he is not stimulated by a noble purpose, and filled with a desire to become a strong man among men, there is something wrong somewhere.

An Anti-Toxin for Meningitis?

Dr. Arthur J. Wolff, bacteriologist of the board of health of Hartford, when asked about his anti-toxin cure for meningitis, said: "Early in the year a severe epidemic of cerebro-spinal meningitis made its appearance in this city.

"The specific germ of the disease was found in every case in the fluid withdrawn from the spinal canal of patients. For some time previous to the outbreak of epidemic meningitis our cultures, received in the laboratory daily, were significant by the absence of the diphtheria germ coincident with which the cases of diphtheria almost entirely disappeared.

"During this time cultures in the laboratory showed a strange organism. As soon as the number of cases of meningitis began to diminish cultures began to show increasing examples of the diphtheria germ, and it was very rare to find the diphtheria germ in the same cultures in which the strange organism, or diplococcus, was found. Experiments led us to believe that there is antagonism between the diphtheria and meningitis organisms, this idea being fully in accordance with some recent achievements in bacteriology.

"Out of twenty-nine cases of meningitis here treated with anti-toxin there were but four deaths."

Russia's Secret Press.

(From T. P.'s Weekly.)

Leo Tikhomiroff has drawn a vivid picture of the hidden life of one of these strange undergrounds. It is the office of the paper with which Stepniak himself was associated, Narodnaia Volia (Land and Liberty).

In five rooms, including a little kitchen, four conspirators were installed—two men and two women. Maria Kriloff, who passed as mistress of the house, a woman of about forty-five, had devoted her life to the "Cause;" she had been transported to Siberia and had escaped. The other woman was under twenty, fair and delicate; name unknown.

Of the two men, one was Basil Buch, or Bouki, "the son of a General and the nephew of a Senator." The second was known only as "Pitza" "The Bird"—a nickname which he owed to his voice.

The men were entered as Mme. Kriloff's lodgers, the girl was the nominal maid of the household. These four brought out the Narodnaia Volia. The plant consisted principally of a few cases of type, a small and a large cylinder, a jar of two of printer's ink, and a few brushes and sponges. The dvornik—call him the concierge—had to be hoodwinked from day to day.

Maria Kriloff went upon the bold plan of sending for him at any and every hour and conducting him through all the five rooms, under the pretense of hunting for a troublesome rat. They learned in this way how to dispose of the plant at from five to ten minutes' notice. At night, behind a double curtain of canvas sealed across the window, the type was set.

The expected happened at last at the office of the Narodnaia Volia. One night the police came down on it. What they had reckoned on as an easy seizure transformed itself into a four hours' siege and battle.

Maria Kriloff drew on the gendarmes with her revolver. The office was riddled with bullets, but for four hours the conspirators kept their stand. The survivor was "The Bird," who blew his brains out when the game was up. He has transmitted no name to posterity; he is among the Russian terrorists who have elected to be nothing but a memory.

How the Money Goes.

(Detroit Free Press.)

The Czar of Russia has four separate "services" of horses and carriages—namely, the Russian, English, French and gala sets. Each set comprises at least fifty horses. The Russian set accompanies the Emperor whenever he goes, and at Gatshina it is used together with the English set. The gala and French horses and carriages are housed at St. Petersburg in the winter palace stables. The Czar's gala turnout consists of fifty Hanoverian horses, which are perfectly white, with blue eyes.

GREAT SILK SALE

Commences To-Morrow, Wednesday Morning, at 9 O'clock.

The great prominence of our Silk Department and our tremendous outlet for GOOD SILKS naturally bring manufacturers and importers to us when help is needed. That has happened many times recently, but the past week brought us the greatest and best Silk value of the season, when we secured 1,700 yards of Lyon made Taffeta Silks, plain colors, 20 inches wide. This is a very superior make of Taffeta, known as the celebrated DRESSMAKERS' SILK, a rich, rustling quality, that will not cut. Used by the leading European Costumers in their swell garments.

Heretofore this high-class SILK has never been sold less than $1.00 and $1.25 yard.

We made this fortunate purchase at such a concession in price that enables us offering you these beautiful Silks to-morrow at less than one-half their regular worth..... 53c Yard

The colors are white, cream, sky, green, cadet blue, heliotrope, mauve, purple, gray, brown, navy, royal, pink, salmon, cerise, cyrano, etc., etc.

Sale commences at 9 o'clock sharp, and as the quantities in some shades are limited, we'd advise you coming early. Impossible to fill mail or telephone orders, as this announcement will create a demand in excess of the quantity we have to sell. Whatever your plans, whatever the weather, get here to-morrow morning.

DREDGING CONTRACTS AND AUTONOMY BILLS FORMED THE BILL OF FARE

Mr. Bennett, East Simcoe, Renewed Charges of Favoritism in Connection With Dredging Contracts—Messrs. Grant, Liberal, and Porter, Conservative, Spoke on Autonomy Bills.

(Staff Correspondence of The Herald.)

Ottawa, April 18.—The Commons began another week of the Autonomy debate with two speeches and one row as the net result of the day's operations. It is no wexpected the debate will go well into next month unless the constituents of some of the members convince them during the Easter recess that they had better keep golden silence.

Mr. W. H. Bennett, Conservative, of East Simcoe, who last week insinuated that dredging at Fort William and Port Arthur was let to Government favorites on terms that were more favorable to the dredgers than to the public, renewed his insinuations. Mr. Bennet last week said the time for receiving tenders was so short that only one firm could tender. This was Conmee & Bowman, who were on the spot and could charge what they liked. By a new advertisement the time for receiving tenders had been extended to May 1. Mr. Bennet said the time was not long enough. It was no better than the first advertisement. Conmee & Bowman were the only men who could tender. Mr. Bennett said Canadian dredges were scarce. The advertisement specified that the dredge should be owned by the tenderers on the date of tendering. Mr. Bennet thought this should be left out. Everyone who wanted to should be allowed to tender. If successful a man should have permission to go to the United States after receiving the contract, buying a dredge there, bringing it to Canada, paying duty and doing the work. He insinuated that Mr. James Conmee, member for Rainy River, had a monopoly of the Fort William and Port Arthur dredging and the times for calling for tenders this year were calculated to continue that exclusive franchise.

Hon. Charles Hyman said this tender was called for in the usual manner, and the time allowance was ample for the fullest competition among Canadian dredge owners. They were not numerous. The tender would be for so much a yard any owner of a dredge could tell in ten minutes for how much he would care to do it. He would tender so much for sand, clay and rock. Mr. Hyman announced that the Government did not favor allowing a tenderer to purchase a dredge in the United States after being awarded the work. He wanted full competition among Canadian dredges, but saw no reason for allowing American competition. As for Mr. Conmee's interest in dredging Mr. Hyman said that gentleman had never spoken to him about dredging.

Col. Sam Hughes gave the House to understand that Canadians had not got value for the money they had spent at Fort William and Port Arthur, as the people of the United States had for their outlay at Duluth and Superior. A splendid harbor and magnificent docks had been secured. About four and a half million had been spent at Duluth and Superior and they had miles of splendid concrete docks. At Port Arthur and Fort William, a third as much had been spent and there was hardly any thing to show for it.

Dr. Sproule said it appeared to him there was a general system of jobebry in connection with dredging by which friends of the Government profited.

Mr. Richard Blair and Mr. Samuel Barker charged the Government with using dredging contracts for political friends.

The leader of the Opposition did not hold the some view as Mr. Bennet held in regard to dredging. He noted that in the past dredging contracts had been awarded to men who had neither plant nor experience. They would get the contract and sub-let it to some one else. He noted that one such contract had been given to a tailor and another to a real estate agent. In this case he thought it well to stipulate the tenderer must be in possession of his dredge at the time of tendering.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said he approved of the action of Mr. Hyman in limiting the tenders to persons owning Canadian registered dredges. Men recognized as engaged in the dredging business should be dealt with in this business. He thought the leader of the Opposition would endorse this principle. The Government was warranted in protecting the country against bogus tenders.

Mr. Bennet's motion to adjourn was lost and the incident closed.

There was a discussion of considerable length on a bill to incorporate the Western Life Insurance Company.

Mr. Henderson, Conservative, of Halton, moved in amendment that Directors of the company to be elected by shareholders should not be shareholders in the company. This was to prevent a small group obtaining control of the assets of the company.

The Finance Minister pointed out that the present bill was in accord with the Canadian Insurance Act and other Canadian companies had charters in terms similar to those in this bill. As to the point raised by Mr. Henderson the resolution had been noted by the Government and they might take action upon it later. The amendment was withdrawn and the bill given third reading.

A bill to extend a year the time for the Farmers Bank of Canada to qualify was given third reading after the Finance Minister had told the House he did not approve of extending the time of bank bills and this company had better get busy and organize within the year given them.

Third reading was given the act respecting the Hamilton, Galt and Berlin bill.

AUTONOMY DEBATE RESUMED.

The Autonomy debate was resumed by Mr. George Grant, Liberal, of North Ontario. He said a st anger from another country would be surprised to see the way a proposal to incorporate great areas into Canada's Dominion, was being treated in Parliament and the press. He would naturally suppose that the financial and the lands proposals would be discussed. He would be surprised to find the religious educational proposals discussed to the exclusion of everything else. When he heard how fiercely such questions had been debated in the past he would conclude that those who proposed to again make a football of it were poor friends of Canada.

Mr. Grant said it was evident the west was satisfied with the school system the west now had and which the bill proposed to perpetuate. He quoted a number of authorities in support of this statement. One of them was from a western man who resented the interference of Ontario in the affairs of the West. There seemed to be an idea in Quebec, the West and other parts of Canada that the whole population of Ontario is sitting up nights devising ways to defeat the educational provisions of the Autonomy Bills. That was a natural though not a correct view. There was a section of Ontario which was somewhat excited. This was Toronto. The Toronto press he was sorry to say had been working overtime to create and fan into flame those sleeping pasions which might well be let lie dormant. Let me assure my honorable friends from Quebec and the Maritime Provinces, said Mr. Grant, that Toronto is not Ontario; the voice of Toronto is not the voice of Ontario. It was once said that when Paris spoke she spoke for France. The same cannot be said for Ontario, for which we outside of Toronto are deeply thankful. There is a large, serious, sane and silent section of the people of Ontario who are not at all of the mind of Toronto. I say to members from Quebec and the Maritime Provinces, that this sane majority of Ontario, having learned the purport of the measures—and it is hard to get the truth from the Toronto press—have approved of them. I ask members for Quebec and the Maritime Provinces not to believe that the blatant mob of Toronto speaks for the whole of Ontario. It does not. Mr. Grant said that he had travelled through a good deal of Ontario since the debate had begun and knew the minds of the men he was speaking of.

The speaker made an analysis of the constitutional enactments and the utterances of the framers of these acts, and gave his opinion that the Government was only carrying out a mandate of the past in the legislation now before the House.

Conservative speakers in the debate, Mr Grant said, had credited the Liberals with being the traditional party of provincial rights, but in this case the opponent of provincial rights. The attitude of the Liberal party on this case and on that of Manitoba had been described as inconsistent. Mr. Grant said such was not the case. Manitoba had adopted an educational system and had afterward undertaken to do away with it. The Conservative Government had attempted to prevent the Province doing this and the Liberals with the Privy Council had said Manitoba was within her rights.

Mr. Grant called attention to the fact that when separate schools were given the Territories the Roman Catholics were in the majority. He said he did not propose to express an opinion on separate schools. However, he asked what the voice of gentlemen opposite would be if the Roman Catholics still constituted the majority in the Territories? He thought they would be demanding the enactment of a law which would insure separate schools for the Protestant minority. Mr. Grant said he would cast his vote that way under those conditions and proposed to do so now. He proposed to support the bills as they were a necessary measure of good faith, and they were enacting principles of equality and fair dealing, because they were a recognition of the religious convictions of an important portion of the population and because they were in the interest of unity and peace in Canada.

Mr. E. Gus Porter followed with a violent attack upon the Prime Minister, whom he charged with having, since he came into power, practiced deception, double-dealing and pandering to outside influence.

Mr. Laurence, of Colchester, moved the adjournment.

AUTO-BOATS ARE BECOMING POPULAR

Montreal Firm Building Craft to Compete With the Famous Standard.

Montreal is not big enough to lead in the majority of cases, but she is generally in the van somewhere and more often than not, among the first—in the world of aquatic sports especially. A Montreal club has held the Seawanhaka Cup for ten years against all comers.

In the St. Lawrence and Lake St. Louis are a large number of boating men. Those of the sail and sweep have been there as long as white man found this district a desirable one to live in, and among them there is growing a new "race" of water lover—the auto-boat enthusiast. Among the most enthusiastic can be mentioned the brothers Authier, proprietors of the Montreal Gas Engine works, who have turned out a gasoline engine that has done more towards the making of the auto-boat industry and sport than anything else.

Last year the brothers Authier built and equipped the auto-boat Cora, now owned by Dr. Kent, of St. Anne, and it is undoubtedly the fastest craft of her length afloat. She is twenty feet long and three feet three inches beam, and her machinery, which consists of a 2-cylinder, 2-cycle 4x4 motor, developing 12½ horse power at a speed of 1,500 revolution per minute, drives her at a speed of 18 miles an hour.

The fame of the Cora reached the Upper St. Lawrence and the Thousand Islands, where the American champion, Standard, was startling the world with her speed of 26 miles per hour, establishing for herself the title of "the fastest auto-boat in the world."

At the end of last season the Standard was sold, and she remained on the St. Lawrence. Her new owner, perhaps finding things too easy for his speedy craft, sent an invitation to Messrs. Authier to build a boat to compete with her. The invitation was an international challenge in disguise and it was accepted. Messrs. Authier, realizing the responsibilities of such a match, spent the winter working out an improved engine and designing something new in the way of hulls, and the result is a 35-foot boat of an entirely new design, which is going to do 23 to 25 miles an hour.

When seen by a Herald representative yesterday one of the brothers Authier said: "We have every confidence of beating the Yankee crack despite the fact that she is a miniature torpedo boat with a record of 26 miles per hour. We expect our new boat to make 23 to 25 miles speed, with which we hope to show the Standard our stern. When the Standard made her record last year, she was being run by her builders, who must have known her peculiarities and so been able to obtain every fraction of power her engines were capable of producing, and I do not think she will ever do it again. But she will remain a 26 mile boat until beaten by a 25-miler."

The race, which is to take place on May 23, on the Upper St. Lawrence, will be the first really important international auto-boat contest between Canada and the United States, both boats being a representative of their respective countries in the full sense of the word.

Last year a race was held between two power boats, the steam yacht Karina of Ogdensburg and the large cabin launch Rex of London, Ont., which resulted in a win for the latter, but although the owners represented the two countries both boats were built in the States.

It is interesting to note that in power boating a Montrealer has created a type of motor-boat that has been copied all over the world. The beaver-tail type was first introduced by the Neptune three years ago, and to-day that type of boat is advertised by leading makers in Great Britain, the States and France.

"As Mr. Duggan revolutionized the type of small sailboat, it is almost safe to say Montrealers would introduce something new in the way of 90-footers if they had the water to sail them in."

This opinion was expressed by a well-known English yachtsman, who was at the Windsor the other day, and who evidently knew that Montreal was the city that had first introduced the beaver-tail stern for motor boats.

Can Eat Anything Now.

How many Dyspeptics can say that?

Or perhaps you are dyspeptic and don't know it.

Have you any of these symptoms?

Variable appetite, a faint gnawing feeling at the pit of the stomach, unsatisfied hunger, a loathing of food, rising and souring of food, a painful load at the pit of the stomach, constipation, or are you gloomy and miserable? Then you are a dyspeptic. The cure is careful diet; avoid stimulants and narcotics, do not drink at meals, keep regular habits, and regulate the stomach and bowels with

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS,

Nature's specific for Dyspepsia.

Miss Laura Chicoine, Belle Anse, Que., says of its wonderful curative powers:—"Last winter I was very thin, and was fast losing flesh owing to the run-down state of my system. I suffered from Dyspepsia, loss of appetite and bad blood. I tried everything I could get, but to no purpose; then finally started to use Burdock Blood Bitters. From the first day I felt the good effect of the medicine and am now feeling strong and well again. I can eat anything now without any ill after-effects. It gives me great pleasure to recommend Burdock Blood Bitters, for I feel it saved my life."

EASTERN TOWNSHIPS NEWS.

Sherbrooke, April 18.—(Special.)—Jos. Alexander was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary yesterday afternoon by Judge Mulvena on a charge of stealing $135 from Wm. Crawford, a farmer near Lennoxville. After the theft accused cleared out and was arrested at Halifax, N.S., just as he was about to take a steamer for Liverpool.

Mrs. Pelletier, milliner, who has carried on business under the names of Mrs. H. Pelletier & Co., and M. L. Pelletieh & Co., was committed to the Court of King's Bench yesterday afternoon by Judge Mulvena on a charge of obtaining $110 from H. Samson by false pretences. While doing business under the latter firm name she signed two notes for the amount mentioned, H. Pelletier & Co.

Mr. Andrew Allan, of the Allan Line, and a party of British capitalists who came out on the steamer Virginian, sotpped over in Sherbrooke yesterday for an hour and had dinner at the Magog House.

This is to be a Woman's Store.

Our aim is to keep everything a woman wants---when she wants it---at a price she is willing to pay for it. Help us to make this store a medium of great convenience to you by letting us know wherein we fail. The office is always open to receive criticisms and complaints.

UMBRELLAS OF DIFFERENT VALUES AT THE ONE PRICE OF $1.48 EACH.

In this case the difference in value is regulated by the handles, some of which are such as one would expect to find on very expensive umbrellas.

The covering is a strong union taffeta; the rods are of steel; the frames are strong, and altogether they are thoroughly serviceable as well as attractive looking umbrellas. The price for Wednesday is the special one of $1.48.

HOSIERY---(Annex.)

It is difficult to tell good hosiery by the look. An expert might, but it is too much to expect from the general public. There is one point, however, that always bespeaks high-grade quality---elasticity. This and the maker's name is the surest guarantee.

We pick up many lines of good hosiery expressing exceptional values, but probably the kind the buyer for this department likes best is the .50 Black Cashmere line by I. & R. Morley of England. "It is" as he says "a credit to the maker and a credit to the seller," and it invariably yields satisfaction to the buyer.

Properly shaped to fit the foot, these hose show a beautiful elasticity throughout, but especially so at the top and ankle. The leg is full fashioned, the feet are seamless, and the heels and soles are spliced, that is, double. Price per pair is .50, 3 pairs for $1.40.

MANTLES (Third Floor.)

We are offering an up-to-date Corset Coat, made of all-wool covert cloth, trimmed with straps of same material and buttons. It is lined with taffeta silk throughout. Mark the latter fact in connection with the price, viz., $11.50.

COSTUMES (Third Floor.)

We have a good smart looking line of Costumes, some in Scotch Tweeds, some in Homespuns, some in Mohairs, others in Vicuna Cloth, which we would like you to look at. There are only a limited number in the same styles and materials, but plenty in the assortment as a whole ---a full range of colors and sizes---to choose from. Price, $15.00 each.

WOMAN AND HER INTERESTS

SPRING.

A little bit of blowing,
A little bit of snow,
A little bit of growing,
And crocuses will show.
On every twig that's lonely a new green leaf will spring,
On every patient treetop a thrush will stop and sing.

A little bit of sleeting,
A little bit of rain,
The blue, blue sky for greeting,
A snowdrop come again,
And every frozen hillside is gift of grass will bring,
And every bit of winter another day of spring.

—Carolyn S. Bailey.

EASTER SUGGESTIONS.

EASTER is now close at hand, and it seems but fitting that we should turn our thoughts to dainty decorations and souvenirs for the day. White is the Easter color, white and gold standing next in favor. The stately resurrection lily is the chosen symbol of Easter, but as it is not always obtainable white azaleas, hyacinths or other white flowers may be substituted. Signalize the day, even if it is a simple home dinner, by a single flower spray at each place and a centrepiece, though the latter may be small, or a formal meal the place sprays may be tied with narrow white ribbon or they may be arranged in small holders—such as bisque swans—which will serve as favors.

Quite an original idea for an Easter table has been planned by a country girl. She scrubbed the bottom of a barrel snow-white and nailed at intervals around the edge six upright pieces of wood, each five inches in height, leaving an equal space between them. She then made a fence by wrapping white satin ribbon round and round, finishing the top of each upright piece with a bow. This was placed in the centre of her table, and smilax of her own raising tucked around it, and allowed to trail on the cloth to each of the four corners of the table. At the last minute before the breakfast was served, green leaves were sprinkled into the enclosure and then downy little chicks added to complete the pretty picture. At each plate a little nest of smilax contained a calico-colored aEster egg.

Egg-shell dippers are also most attractive. A large half-open egg shell forms the bowl, and a slender stick the handle. Bore a hole in one side of the shell and slide the end of the slender stick through. Fasten this securely in place with hot sealing-wax, both outside and inside, at the juncture of the bowl and handle, and in less time than it takes to tell it the dipper will be made. If one is clever with paints and brushes each dipper might be appropriately decorated with a flower or a chicken. A loop of green ribbon attached to each handle would make a pretty hanger for this quaint Easter table novelty.

Little yellow chicks holding the place-cards in their bills make a charming decoration for an aEster table. The chickens may be bought ready for the purpose or they may be easily fashioned of yellow cotton. Still another way to have them is to make them of egg shells cuot off at the top with cunning little heads peeping out over the edges. Glue the shells to a small square of green cardboard in order to balance them. The place-cards should be made of yellow cardboard, ornamented in water-colors. In some pretty flower design. A bowl of daffodils with their long green leaves in the centre of the table would complete a very simple but effective and pretty Easter table.

Festoons of egg shells draped from the light over the table to each corner, or in as many strands as one desires, are unique for Easter dining-room decorations. Blow the contents of the eggs out in the usual way, and string the shells on either colored or white baby ribbon, keeping them about even inches apart by tying a bow underneath each one large enough to prevent it from slipping down to the next one.

The place-cards to accompany this table decoration may be made of the blown shells with ribbons drawn through the centres, and a small bow tied at each end. Each guest's name should be written across the centre—in green or gold—in combination with ribbon.

WOMAN'S CLUB.

THE PARENT AND THE TEACHER.

A very interesting paper was read before the Woman's Club yesterday by Miss M. L. Ferguson on "The relation between the parent and the teacher."

The speaker referred to the great importance of education for the child, and the necessity of seeing that that education was satisfactory, both in its mental and its moral training.

Upon the parent primarily devolved the necessity of teaching the child obedience, for, if a child did not know how to obey at home, it was difficult to teach him to respect school authority. At home the child should also be instructed as to reading and thinking beyond the grade of his school studies; he should feel that his parents were interested in him, and he should have their continual co-operation in helping him on in his school.

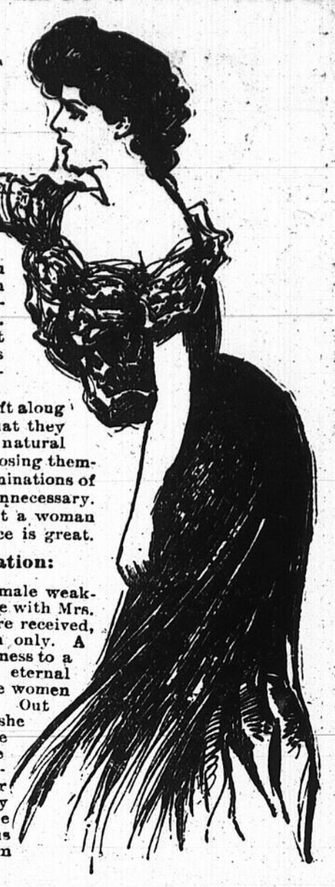

Miss Ferguson emphasized the necessity of upholding the teacher and her authority before the children, and said that no criticism of a school's method should be allowed in the presence of a child.

At the close of the paper, a very interesting discussion took place, after which the meeting adjourned. Mrs. Nicholson was in the chair.

The annual meeting of the club was announced to take place next Monday, April 24, for general routine business and election of officers.

STOP! WOMEN,

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with woman's diseases covers a great many years.

You can talk freely to a woman when it is revolting to relate your private troubles to a man—besides a man does not understand—simply because he is a man.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probably examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation:

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.—Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Following we publish two letters from a woman who accepted this invitation. Note the result.

First letter.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"For eight years I have suffered something terrible every month with my periods. The pains are excruciating and I can hardly stand them. My doctor says I have ovarian and womb trouble, and I must go through an operation if I want to get well. I do not want to submit to it if I can possibly help it. Please tell me what to do. I hope you can relieve me."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 50th and E. Capitol Sts., Benning P. O., Washington, D. C.

Second letter.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"After following carefully your advice, and taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I am very anxious to send you my testimonial, that others may know their value and what you have done for me.

"As you know, I wrote you that my doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I then wrote you, telling you my ailments. I followed your advice and am entirely well. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I owe my life to you and to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I wish every suffering woman would read this testimonial and realize the value of writing to you and your remedy."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 50th and E. Capitol Streets, Benning P. O., Washington, D. C.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women whose testimony is so unquestionable, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free and always helpful.

FOUR LIVES LOST IN WILD STAMPEDE

Someone Shouted "Fire," and the Crowd at Once Became Frantic.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 18.—Frenzied by a false alarm of fire, several hundred newsboys, struggling to obtain tickets to a show by a patent medicine advertising company, stampeded in a narrow stairway in the Masonic Temple last night, crushing the life out of four boys and probably fatally injuring several other children. Long before the time appointed for the distribution of free tickets, the stairs of the Masonic Temple, at the southwest corner of Washington street and Capitol avenue, were crowded with a pushing, yelling crowd of children, mostly newsboys, each anxious to be first to receive a pass. When the distribution began the excitement became more intense, and the efforts of several policemen to maintain order were unavailing.

It is alleged by a witness that one of the boys, in an endeavor to hasten the exit of those who had received passes, shouted "fire." Immediately those at the top of the stairs faced about and madly began to force a way to the bottom of the steps. Shrieks and physical encounters followed, and those at the top became so closely entangled that the mass of boys fell, clinging to each other on the struggling mass of youths at the bottom of the stairs.

Policemen from the central station responded to a riot call, and began to extricate the smothering boys. Four boys were dead when uncovered. The boys fought desperately to get free, and dozens were injured by the first crush or were hurt by the subsequent scramble for air.

An immense crowd of people, attracted by the wild shouts, jostled about the mass of boys and hampered the work of the ambulance corps.

The dead are:

Ed. Morrisey, Louis Scheigert, Carl Laurel, and Homer Williamson. They are all about thirteen years of age.

TROOPS FIRED ON THE STRIKERS

Labor Trouble at Limoges Has Assumed Grave Aspect.

Limoges, France, April 18.—Disturbances incident to the strike of workmen employed in the porcelain industry were more serious yesterday. Strikers demanded the release of those of their comrades who were arrested Sunday night, and on being refused, attempted to force their way into the prison.

Mountain troops arrived at the scene, but the strikers tore down fences, wrecked barricades and raised red flags. The cavalry charged several times, but the horses fell among wire and rope entanglements. The police commissary called upon the strikers to disperse and the response was a volley of stones. Several soldiers were hurt.

The troops then fired blank cartridges, followed by ball, killing one mortally injuring another and slightly wounding several of the strikers. Further charges by the cavalry were successful, the crowd retreating into side streets, from whence they showered stones and other missiles on the troops. Many arrests were made.

MENINGITIS IN TORONTO.

Toronto, April 18. It has been decided that Albert Hill, of 137 King Street west is suffering from meningitis. He was suddenly attacked by a spasm which originated at the back of the head, and has been unconscious ever since. Four days after his wife was taken the same way.

Dr. McKeown, who is attending the patients, says that he would not say that this is the dreaded cerebro-spinal meningitis, which has ravaged New York city this year as the afflicted couple are fifty-five years of age, and this form usually appears in children.

HERALD DAILY PATTERN

DESIGN BY MAY MANTON.
Child's Apron 4994.

Nothing makes a little girl seem daintier or more charming than a pretty apron that protects the frock from soil. Here is one that is becoming and attractive, and which can be made from a variety of materials, white lawn, dimity and the like being appropriate for the better aprons; while chambray and gingham can be utilized for those of hard useage. The apron is quite simple and is made with front and backs which are tucked to form the straps over the shoulders and gathered between these, the fulness being attached to straight bands. The epaulettes over the shoulders add a becoming touch and can be of the material, as in this instance, or of embroidery. For a child of six years of age will be required 3 yards of material 36 inches wide. A May Manton pattern, No. 4994, sizes 4 to 8 years, will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of ten cents.

LOTS OF ROOM, SAYS NOVELIST HAGGARD

He Passed Through Montreal Yesterday on Way to Tell England's Overflow Population to Come Out Here.

Mr. Rider Haggard, apostle-in-chief of the "Back to the Land" movement, spent a few minutes in Montreal last night, but the price of real estate was too high (or else he had to catch a train) for he left for New York almost immediately. Mr. Rider Haggard is understood to have come out to this continent to see if it were really true that we had lots of room to spare out here, and it is relieving to learn that he intimated to some railroad friends who met him at the station that he was satisfied we had all we claimed. "There is room on this continent," said Mr. Rider Haggard, "for the entire overflow population of the British Isles." It is understood that Mr. Haggard is going back to announce these glad tidings to the overflow population.

STEEL CONSTRUCTION WORKER INJURED.

Martial Lefrancais, an employe of the Dominion Bridge Company, was badly injured while at work on a building in course of construction at the corner of Commissioners and Berri streets yesterday afternoon. He was crushed against the wall by a heavy iron beam which was being hoisted by means of a derrick. The ambulance was called and he was removed, in an unconscious condition, to the Notre Dame Hospital, where it was found that he had sustained a fracture of the ribs. The doctors fear that his spine is also injured. Lefrancais is 35 years of age, and lives at 287 Rivard street.

When You Get Bilious

You May be Certain the Liver is Deranged and That There is Cure in

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

"Bilious" is the word used by many people to describe the conditions of ill-health into which they are thrown by derangement of the liver.

Biliousness is caused by the failure of the liver to filter the bile and other poisonous impurities from the blood. The result is a clogging and poisoning of the whole system.

Indigestion, headache, languid, melancholy feelings, irritability of temper, constipation, alternating with looseness of the bowels, pains in the muscles and bones and a pale, sallow complexion are among the symptoms.

Fortunately there is prompt and certain cure for biliousness and torpid liver in Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

They cure by thoroughly cleansing the filtering and excretory system and awakening the action of the liver to renewed energy and activity.

When you feel out of sorts and notice any of the symptoms of torpid liver and biliousness put Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to the test, and you will then understand why this great medicine is considered indispensable in the great majority of homes.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous recipe-book author, on every box.

NO COCK FIGHTING WILL BE TOLERATED

S.P.C.A. is on the Watch for Breaches of the Law.

An effort to bring off a cock fight near Rockfield on Sunday morning was frustrated by the appearance on the intended scene of operations, of the officers of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and as it is the opinion of the latter that an attempt will yet be made to carry through the arrangements, they are keeping close watch on the movements of the gentlemen suspected of having to do with the affair.

Early on the first day of the week, close on a couple of hundred "sports" gathered in the bush in the neighborhood of Stockfield, where a ring was staked off back of the Grand Trunk tracks, and it is said that about a hundred birds were listed to fight. Rather unfortunately, however, the officers got on the scene too early. Their presence in the neighborhood was reported to the officials who were to have charge of the "main," and it was promptly resolved to postpone the meeting to a more convenient date; and as no actual fighting had taken place the Society's representatives could not, of course, interfere, although they remained in the locality throughout the day in case an attempt would be made to stake off another ring and proceed with the fight.

The society intimates a determination that no effort will be spared to put a stop to cock fighting on the island of Montreal, and will certainly prosecute anyone allowing a main to be held in their premises. The inspectors have received instructions to this effect, and are determined that a repetition of the disgraceful scenes which took place at Bout de l'Isle will not occur if they can prevent it.

"HERALD SERIALS ARE GOOD SERIALS."

THE PILLAR OF LIGHT

By LOUIS TRACEY,
Author of "The Wings of the Morning."

CHAPTER XVII.—(Continued).

Above all else it was necessary to reassure Constance, whose strength only concealed the raging fire beneath, and Enid, whose highly strung temperament was on the borderland of hysteria.

He was still the arbiter of their lives, the one to whom they looked for guidance. He rebelled against the prospect of a night of sleepless misery for these two, and it needed his emphatic dominance to direct their thoughts into a more peaceful demand.

So he assumed the settled purpose he was far from feeling and summoned a kindly smile to his aid.

"Surely we have discussed our difficulties sufficiently to-night," he said. "In the morning, Constance, I will meet Mr. Traill. He is a gentleman and a man of the world. I think, too, that his nephew will be resourceful and wise in counsel beyond his years. Now we are all going to obtain some much-needed rest. Neither you nor I will yield to sleepless hours of brooding. Neither of you knows that, not forty-eight hours ago, I made myself a thief in the determination to save your lives and mine. It was a needless burglary. I persuaded myself that it was necessary in the interests of the Trinity Brethren, those grave gentlemen in velvet cloaks, Enid, who would be horrified by the mere suggestion. I refuse to place myself on the moral rack another time. In the old days, when I was a boy, the drama was wont to be followed by a more lively scene. I forbid further discussion. Come, kiss me, both of you. I think that a stiff glass of hot punch will not do me any harm, nor you, unless you imbibed freely of that champagne I saw nestling in the ice-pail."

They rose obediently. Although they knew he was acting a part on their account they were sensible that he was adopting a sane course.

Enid tried to contribute to the new note. She bobbed in the approved style of the country domestic.

"Please, Sir Stephen," she said, "would you like some lemon in the toddy?"

Constance placed a little copper kettle on the fire. Their gloom had given way to a not wholly forced cheerfulness—for in that pleasant cottage sorrow was an unwelcome guest—when they were surprised to hear a sharp knock on the outer door.

At another time the incident though unusual at a late hour, would not have disturbed them. But the emotions of the night were too recent, their subsidence too artificially achieved, that they should not dread the possibilities which lay beyond that imperative summons.

Mrs. Sheppard and the servant had retired to rest, worn out with the anxious uncertainties of events reported from the lighthouse.

So Brand went to the door, and the girls listened in nervous foreboding.

They heard their father say:

"Hello Jenkins, what is the matter now?"

Jenkins was a sergeant of police whom they knew.

"Sorry to trouble you, Mr. Brand, but an odd thing has happened. A lady, a stranger, met me ten minutes ago and asked me to direct her to your house. I did so. She appeared to be in great trouble, so I strolled slowly after her. I was surprised to see her looking in through the window of your sitting-room. As far as I could make out, she was crying fit to break her heart, and I imagined she meant to knock at the door, but was afraid."

"Where is she? What has become of her?"

Brand stepped out into the moonlight. The girls, white and trembling, followed.

"Well, she ran off down the garden path and tumbled in a dead faint near the gate. I was too late to save her. I picked her up and placed her on a seat. She is there now. I thought it best, before carrying her here—to tell you—"

Before Brand moved, Constance ran out, followed by Enid. In a whirl of pain, the lighthouse-keeper strode after them. He saw Constance stooping over a motionless figure lying prone on the garden seat. To those strong young arms the slight, graceful form offered an easy task.

Brand heard Enid's whisper:

"Oh, Connie, it is she."

But the daughter, clasping her mother to her breast said quietly:

"Dad she has come home, and she may be dying. We must take her in."

He made no direct answer. What could he say? The girl's fearless words admitted of neither "Yes" nor "No."

He turned to the policeman.

"I am much obliged to you, Jenkins," he said; "we know the lady. Unless—unless there are serious consequences, will you oblige me by saying nothing about her? But stay. When you pass the Mount's Bay Hotel, please call and say that Mrs. Vansittart has been seized with sudden illness and is being cared for at my house."

"Yes, sir," said the sergeant, saluting.

And he walked away down the garden path he wondered who Mrs. Vansittart could be, and why Miss Brand said she had "come home."

Then he glanced back at the house, into which the others had vanished. He laughed.

"Just fancy it," he said, "I treated him as if he was a bloomin' lord. And I suppose my position is a better one than his. Anyhow he is a splendid chap. I'm glad now I did it, for his sake and the sake of those two girls. How nicely they were dressed. It has always been a puzzle to me how they can afford to live in that style on the pay of a lighthouse-keeper. Well, it's none of my business."

MARKING OF FREIGHT.

Name and Address of Consignee Must Be Plainly Marked to Avoid Error.

A circular has been issued to-day by Mr. M. R. MacInnes, freight traffic manager of the C.P.R., calling the attention of shippers, agents and connected lines to the subject of marking and addressing freight. The circular in giving explicit instruction for the proper method of fully marking freight, says that each package or piece must be plainly marked with the name and address of the consignee, so as to ensure prompt delivery, even if separated from the way bill; marks on packages should be compared with the bill of lading, and correction, if necessary, made by the shipper or his representative. Old marks must be removed. Several other directions are given, and are clear enough, it would seem, to be easily understood by all whom the circular reaches. Canadian railways have had considerable trouble consequent on the neglect or incorrect marking of freight, and the Canadian Freight Association was compelled to draw the public's notice to difficulties and delays encountered, at its last meeting.

STUDENTS DO NOT LIKE IT.

Graduates of Dalhousie University Insist on Closing Pomp.

Halifax, N.S., April 18.—There is great indignation among the students, and particularly among the graduating classes of Dalhousie University. The cause of this is a notice that was posted by the college faculty today announcing that there would be no public convocation this spring, alleging as a cause the disorderly conduct of the students at the convocation last year. This convocation is a great society event, and is very largely attended by Halifax people, the graduates receiving much pleasant prominence as they are given their diplomas. The students held an indignation meeting this afternoon, loudly protesting and expressing their determination to make some one very sorry if the order against a public convocation be not rescinded.

COMPLAINT AGAINST ANTONIO CORDASCO

Four Italians Sue Labor Agent to Recover Money.

Antonio Cordasco, the "King of Italian labor" is again figuring largely in court proceedings owing to the discontent of some of his subjects at his alleged methods of raising revenue. It is the old charge, that took up so much time at Judge Winchester's Italian enquiry and a number of subsequent law suits. The Italians claim that Cordasco collected money from them on the promise of jobs, and after keeping them waiting a long time, failed to deliver the goods. Four of them have entered action against the labor agent for $1,016, including fees paid and time lost, the four actions being joined to save the time of the court.

Guiseppe d'Abramo, the first of the disappointed quartette of plaintiff witnesses said that last May he wanted a job on the C.P.R., as did twelve of his compatriots. He paid Cordasco $39, or $3 a head to get the jobs, at $1.50 a day. Cordasco, he says, did not get him the situation, but kept on putting him off until November, when the season ended. He claimed $134.25 per refund and loss of time.

Guiseppe Megniella, said he paid Cordasco $1 a piece for a gang of forty-two Italians, and $10 to be made their foreman. He did not get the foremanship and claimed $272.50.

Alfredo Falco also said he put up $10 and missed command of a gang and claimed $350, while Donato Olivastlo told the same story, with an additional dollar apiece for a gang, and claimed $260.

Cordasco himself was in the box, during the latter part of the afternoon, [illegible] He was emphatic in his denial that his compatriots had any just claim on his bank account.

GOLF HARRIERS ATHLETICS

SPORTING COMMENT

Never was there a team that had so many heroes on it as the old Chicago White Stockings. Physically they were big men—giants. They used to presnt such a redoubtable appearance on the field that Harry Wright once said, in the days when the Phillies were tumbling around in last place, that it would be a good idea for the local team not to come out of the club house till Chicago had practiced. He contended that his team was beaten from the minute it saw the visitors start to work. What a galaxy it was! "King" Kelly, with his big moustache, his laughing face, reddened from other things besides sunshine; his endless fund of humor, his tricks, his masterful skill in every department of the game; "Silver" Flint, rugged, uncouth, hands gnarled and broken, catching better when he had been drinking than when he was sober; Goldsmith, Corcoran, Clarkson, afterward to make with Kelly the $20,000 battery; Pfeffer, with a face like a German count, taciturn, grim, greatest of second basemen; stoical to such a degree that he continued to play barehanded long after all his fellow-infielders had adopted gloves; dear old Ned Williamson, perhaps the best loved of diamond stars; Burns, Dalrymple, the fleet-footed Sunday, early to forsake baseball for the evangelist's pulpit; Ryan, Duffy and Gore—these are names that evoke memories alike from the men who cheered from stands or bleachers and the youngster who saw his baseball through a knot-hole in the fence. Anson did not suffer in this distinguished company. On the field in his big figure, his perfect form at the bat and his coolness and impartiality with which he hit all pitchers made him not only a big drawing card, but kept every eye focused on him from the time he appeared. More than anything else, the fans loved to see him kick. Be it said for Anse that he never missed a chance. Whether he was right or wrong, whenever there was the slightest excuse for a difference of opinion, the old fellow left his place at the bat, the coacher's line or first base and what he did to the umpire would put to the blush the best baiters of to-day. Crowds might hoot but secretly they loved to see Anse kick.—Philadelphia North American.

That interest in curling is increasing is shown by the decision of the Heather and St. Lawrence Curling Clubs to build larger rinks. The Heathers will have five sheets of ice to play on next winter and the St. Lawrence curlers three or four.

Brantford is likely to have a senior lacrosse team, judging from the following despatch.

"The lacrosse atmosphere in this city has been cleared, and Brantford will have a senior team in the C.L.A. this season. For some weeks there has been considerable uncertainty as to how a team could be financed. The management of last year are still in debt, and while willing to go ahead again this year, hesitated to do so without first squaring accounts of last. While a settlement was pending there was an agitation in certain quarters for a change of management, or, failing in this, the organization of an independent senior team.

"The rival forces have now got together, and it has been agreed that the team shall be under the management of last year, although some new members will be taken on the executive. The team, as usual, will be of the championship calibre, but this year is likely to comprise fewer Eastern players. The question of a manager is an important one locally, and will not be settled upon for some time yet."

The individual championship of the Quebec Bowling League has been won by Mr. J. Goudie in both championship series of matches, held at the Y.M.C.A. alleys this past winter, with the splendid average of 521 points in fourteen matches. He also won first prize for the highest three strings with the fine score of 593 points. Mr. W. Learmonth won first prize for the highest single string with the good score of 236 points.

Montreal may yet be represented in the Northern New York Baseball League. If two Canadian teams will apply, they will be admitted, but the league will not admit one without the other, as it insists on having either four or six clubs in is makeup.

It would be a shame to allow John L. Sullivan and Charles Mitchell, two old men, to fight. Neither has any grudge against the other, and each is talking loudly because he is being egged on by foolish friends.

WEATHER WAS TOO COLD FOR BASEBALL

Three Games Postponed—Chicago Whitewashed St. Louis.

Cold weather yesterday caused postponement of three major league games, one in the National and two in the American. At New York, the frigid atmosphere prevented a contest between the Giants and Boston, but across the Bridge, Brooklyn and Philadelphia had it out to the satisfaction of the Quakers.

In Philadelphia, the Boston-Athletic clash was called off, and cold weather prevented Cleveland and Detroit coming together at Cleveland.

At Chicago St. Louis played another extra inning game, Chicago getting a run and the victory in the eleventh.

BASEBALL COSTS MONEY.

(Pittsburg Gazette.)

The total cost of baseball for the season which began Friday will foot up at least $3,000,000, divided as follows:

Salaries major leagues, $740,000.
Salaries minor leagues, $918,000.
Travelling expenses major leagues, $160,000.
Travelling expenses minor leagues, 411,000.
Other expenses major leagues, $302,000.
Other expenses minor leagues, $378,000.

Population of cities where professional ball is played, 26,907,200.

This compilation deals with professional baseball, and does not touch the thousands upon thousands of college and amateur games. On an average of fifteen men to each of the 154 clubs under the national agreement, there is shown to be 2,460 players in that branch of the game alone, and the independent professionals doubtless swell the total to 10,000.

CAPT. BEAN REPORTS AT JERSEY CITY

Jersey City, April 17.—Capt. Joe Bean, of the Jersey City team, arrived in this city, accompanied by Mrs. Bean, on their return from Atlanta, Ga., and after a conference with Manager Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Bean left for their home, at Cambridge, Mass. Capt. Bean will return here to-morrow morning and will take charge of the team.

Capt. Bean is in the best of condition and is prepared to play championship ball at once. He has been working all winter as athletic instructor at Marius College, in Atlanta, and has been playing baseball with the college team for six weeks or more. Therefore, he will require no extra work to put him in shape. He says he never felt better, and his appearance proved it.

MATCH WITH GALT IS HANGING FIRE

The Westmount Association Club Not Sure of Getting Grounds.

Whether the Galt Association Football Club, Olympic champions, will play here in June depends on whether the Westmounts can secure grounds for some Saturday afternoon.

The Westmounts held a meeting last night and agreed to give the Galts the guarantee they demanded, viz., $150, and to bring them here if they could secure grounds on an open date. They are quite willing to accede to the Galts' proposal that there shall not be a return match in Galt, provided the Westmounts are beaten here.

The only open Saturday in June is the 17th, and on that date the M.A.A.A.'s spring handicaps will likely be held. The Westmounts wish to rent the M.A.A.A. grounds, as the latter are adapted for Association football purposes. They will interview M.A.A.A. officials to-day and ascertain what prospects they have of engaging the gridiron.

The Westmounts are making active preparations for their seven-a-side football tournament, to take place Good Friday and the following Saturday. Entries will close at 1.30 p.m. Friday, and the drawing will take place at that hour.

FOOTBALL AT THE POINT.

The Point St. Charles Football Club will have an "international match" on Good Friday afternoon, between Scotland and England. Scotland to be represented by Scotsmen and Irishmen, England to be represented by Englishmen and Welshmen. The captain of the Scots will be Mr. Wright, and the English captain, Mr. Nicholls. It will not be necessary for players to be members of the Point St. Charles Club, but will be open to any football players in the city of Montreal, providing they are not members of any other football club. The captains hope to get together a good eleven each and they feel sure that any lover of football who goes to the Beaver field will see a good, hard fight for supremacy. The ball will be kicked off at 3.30 p.m.

HORSE SHOW WILL BE A GRATIFYING SUCCESS

The preparations for Montreal's sixth annual Horse Show are going on apace, entries are already pouring in, and from present indications this year's show will be the biggest yet held by the association. The box list, which opened to the public on the 10th inst., has already been over-subscribed, with enquiries still being received daily. The show is as usual being held under vice-regal patronage, and Their Excellencies, Earl and Countess Grey, have signified their intention of being present.

WALSH WOULD FIGHT WELLER TO A FINISH

Jack Walsh is going over to the States in a week or so to try his hand at the fighting game. He will be associated with Brooks, the New Hampshire scrapper, with whom he had a bout last summer.

Before Walsh goes he would like to get on a match with Billy Weller. He is willing to bet $100 or $200 that, at catch weights, he can knock Welled out in six rounds and at 145 lbs. in 10 minutes.

He is also willing to bet $100 or $200 that he can whip any 145-lb. boxer in the city

MR. MAXWELL RE-APPOINTED

President John Kreltner, of the Montreal Baseball Club, has appointed Mr. David Maxwell groundkeeper at Baseball Park. This will be the fourth season that Mr. Maxwell has acted in that capacity. He took charge of the grounds yesterday and will commence at once to get them into shape for the opening of the local Eastern League season, which takes place May 5.

JENKINS AND "HACK" WANT BIG MONEY FOR MATCH

New York, April 18.—New Yorkers will have to wait a little longer before they see George Hackenschmidt, the "Russian Lion," and Tom Jenkins, the American catch-as-catch-can wrestler, meet on the mat. Bids for the match were opened yesterday, but all proved unsatisfactory, and another meeting is to be arranged at which plans for bringing the men together will be made.

Four bids were received. They were from P. T. Powers, representing Madison Square Garden, and from the Manhattan Casino, Grand Central Palace, and American League Park.

Harry Pollock, manager for Jenkins, and C. B. Cochran, Hackenschmidt's representative, were present when the bids were opened, but they thought that better inducements should be offered. They were not prepared at the time to go ahead, but a meeting will be held soon.

It is possible that the failure to secure a satisfactory bid may not delay the match to any great extent. Both men can get in condition readily, and the fixing of the date and the signing of articles is the principal thing. Their managers have agreed to post $1,000 each to bind the match as soon as a bid is accepted.

ANOTHER NEW CURLING RINK

The St. Lawrence Club Will Have More Spacious Quarters.

At the annual meeting of the St. Lawrence Curling Club, held last night in their new quarters, St. Urbain Street, plans for the new rink were submitted and approved. The building committee was authorized to take steps to have the new building erected. It will face St. Urbain Street and will contain three, or possibly four, sheets of ice. The rink that has been in use by the St. Lawrence curlers contained but two sheets of ice, and additional facilities for playing the game will be welcomed by its devotees.

The elections of office-bearers resulted in the re-election of all the important officers of last season. Mr. O. W. G. Dettmers enters upon his twelfth year as secertary of the club. The officers are as follows:

President—Mr. J. Henry.
Vice-president—Mr. W. Cairns.
Treasurer—Ald. J. B. Clearihue.
Secretary—Mr. O. W. G. Dettmers.
Chaplain—Rev. Dr. Campbell.
Directors—Messrs. J. H. Scott, Louis Rubenstein, John Laug, D. Patterson.
Representatives to Branch—Messrs. D. Guthrie and D. Anderson.
Auditors—Mr. H. M. Watson and A. G. Racey.

It was decided by the meeting to keep the club quarters open during the summer months.

Mr. O. W. G. Dettmers, in presenting the secretary's report, characterised the past season as the banner year for the club in curling. The Jubilee Trophy—the blue ribbon of the district—had been won, and in all its matches the club had made a most creditable showing. Twenty-seven new members had been admitted, bringing the total membership up to 112, while 249 additional shares of stock had been subscribed for. Successful departures from past custom had been the appointing of a match committee, and the institution of weekly "beef and greens." The treasurer's report showed that the club carried over a balance of $118.67 after meeting all expenditure.

JENNINGS STRENGTHENING UP BALTIMORE TEAM

Baltimore, April 18.—Manager Jennings has been notified by Steve Griffin that he has reconsidered his intention to jump the Orioles and join the Harrisburg team. Griffin has been influenced to make this move by his wife. The Baltimore Club gives pretty nearly as much as Harrisburg offered. He will come satisfied with the terms, and may be expected to do his best. For the benefit of those who may be tempted to class Griffin with those who have jumped contracts, because he has gone back on the Harrisburg Club, it may be stated that Griffin had no legal or moral right to sign with Harrisburg in the first place. Having signed the reserve clause, he was recognized by baseball law and to a certain extent by civil law as the property this year of the Baltimore Club and his contract with Harrisburg was never worth the paper it was written on.

Manager Jennings has heard nothing from Neal the shortstop whom he may secure from the New York National Club. The status of that deal is as follows: After the Balmoral manager began negotiating with McGraw for Neal, he received a wire that Indianapolis laid claim to Neal if New York does not want to keep him, and so the matter stands. The work of the player while with New York in the South has been carefully watched, and he looked good. But whether he can be secured for Baltimore is very doubtful. Manager Hanlon is on the watchout for players for whom the other National League clubs ask waivers, and if any likely man is passed along, he may step in and secure him for the Oriole band. It may be considered certain that all weaknesses will be bolstered up before or shortly after the Eastern League's championship season opens.

The winners at the Aqueduct yesterday were Speedway, 4 to 1; Head Dance, 15 to 1; Handscarra, 7 to 10; Anodyne, 15 to 1; Red Knight, 3 to 1; Keaton, 8 to 5.

BASEBALL GAME SUNDAY.

Weather permitting, the local baseball season will open at Mascotte Park next Sunday afternoon with a match between the fast Burlington nine and the Mascottes. Mr. Billy Innis has arranged the game and has engaged to put a strong team in the field against the Burlingtons.

MAUPAS DEFEATED LAMOTHE AT QUEBEC

Luttbeg Threw Three Men in an Hour—Wrestling News.

Quebec, April 18—(Special)—Before a crowd of 2,000 spectators, Emile Maupas, of Montreal, defeated Luigi Lamothe, of this city, last night, throwing him twice within an hour. Maupas secured the first fall in 27 minutes and the second in 17 minutes. Lamothe put up a strong defence, but hadn't enough tricks up his sleeve to hold off successfully the wily champion of Canada. The crowd was much pleased with the bout, and gave Maupas the glad hand at the conclusion of the match.

Max Luttbeg surprised the natives by throwing three local wrestler within an hour. Billy Armstrong made a game struggle, but succumbed after 17 minutes' strenuous work. Belanger lasted one minute and Dickey five minutes. Luttbeg's style was a revelation to Quebeckers, who regard him as a marvel of strength and skill.

FRIDAY NIGHT'S MATCHES.

Luttbeg has engaged to throw Jack Miller, the Flying Dutchman, twice within an hour at Sohmer Park Friday night. Miller weighs 20 lb. more than Luttbeg and has not been defeated this season.

The Terrible Swede, Nick Johnson, will try conclusions with Maupas. Johnson is heralded as a wonder. He has beaten all the New York experts he has been pitted against and thinks he can turn the trick on the local man.

Entries are pouring in for the wrestling tournament to be held at Sohmer Park next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Among those who will make a bid for the purses are Luttbeg, Tremblay, Mills and Haslip of Buffalo, Richard and Ulrich of Montreal, and Charles Conkle of Hamilton.

O'HAGAN MAY NOT PLAY WITH NEWARK

Newark, April 18.—Unless there is a satisfactory settlement as to his salary there is not least possibility of Harry O'Hagan playing first base for the Newark team this season. This statement was made by O'Hagan. According to O'Hagan this is the only hitch, and if it could be adjusted he would immediately sign a contract.

"The reason," he says, "I have not signed a Newark contract is because of a cut in salary, and that is the only reason. If that question is settled satisfactory, I stand ready to don a Newark uniform, but unless it is, there is not the least chance of my playing this season. When Manager Burnham sent me a contract it was at a reduced salary and I refused to sign. That is the only reason I have for witholding my signature. There might be some other reasons on the other side, but none that I am aware of."

O'Hagan said that he did not intend to go to Pittsburg to play independent ball, as was reported. O'Hagan had a chance this season of going to the Rochester Club in exchange for Carey, but Manager Burnham would not trade, as he said, he wanted O'Hagan to play in this city. It is reported that O'Hagan did not relish this. The reason for his cut in salary by the Newark Club is due to the new Eastern League mandate, requiring all club salaries to be under $2,200 per month.

NEWARK BASEBALL NOTES.

One of the Eastern League teams which will bear watching this season is Providence.

Jimmy Jones has the best batting average on the Newark team so far this season.

"Spit Ball" Hesterfer is the latest sobriquet given the little southpaw by his clubmates.

Baltimore has lost all chance of securing the services of Pitcher Joel Mason this season.

Connor had a batting average of 1.000 in yesterday's game. He made four hits in four chances.

Catcher Cliff Latimer says Newark should be one, two, three fall season in the Eastern League.

As a sacrifice hitter Murphy should prove one of the best in the Eastern League. He can lay down a bunt almost at will.

The form shown by Newark in yesterday's game with Boston was the kind that should win the Eastern League pennant.

Newark's feat in shutting out Boston and holding the National Leaguers down to one hit is probably a record for a minor league team.

Murphy's one-hand catch of Sharp's drive to the centre field bleachers was the most sensational piece of fielding on the Newark team this season.

Hesterfer worked hard to land a no-hit game, only to be roobed of the honor by a scratch single in the ninth, and that after he had worked two strikes on the man.

Here's a score to put up in a frame:

	R.	H.	E.
Newark	4	10	1
Boston	0	1	4

If Newark can shut out Boston and hold the Beaneaters down to one hit, what will New York do to the Hubtown brigade in the opening championship game to-day?

Buffalo appears to be materially weakened now that Shoddy Shaw has jumped the team and Grimshaw, Courtney and Clymer have graduated into the major leagues.

Catcher Shea was struck on the head with a foul tip in the first inning, causing the blood to trickle down his face. He finished the game, however, and his catching of Hesterfer had a good deal to do in holding Boston down to one hit.

TERRIBLE TERRY FOOLED KEEPER AND ESCAPED

Stamford, Conn., April 18.—Terry McGovern, the pugilist, who was brought to the Stamford Hall Sanitarium Sunday night, escaped yesterday from a keeper while taking a walk on the grounds of the institution, and dashed in a northeasterly direction toward Glenbrook. The keeper was unable to overtake him. Word was sent immediately to the sanitarium, and a hunt was made for McGovern, but without success. Aside from notifying the police, a watch was kept at the railway stations at Glen Brook and Sound Beach, in the belief that McGovern would board a train for New York.

The fact that McGovern escaped from the sanitarium was not made public for some time, as that was thought unnecessary, as he would be found. It was stated at the sanitarium that McGovern slept well Sunday night, and that yesterday he appeared to be well.

During the morning he expressed a desire to go to New York, but it was believed that in the afternoon he became reconciled to staying here, as he said no more about it.

After playing tennis, he suggested a walk, and was put in charge of one of the regular keepers. The keeper and McGovern had been gone but a few minutes, when the former ran back to the sanitarium and told of Terry's escape.

McGovern, according to the sanitarium physicians, is suffering from nervous, mental and physical exhaustion, and it was expected that he would stay here several months.

Terry McGovern, who escaped from a sanitarium at Stamford, Conn., yesterday, is at his home in Brooklyn, where he is being cared for by his wife. He will be kept there about a week when he will return to the sanitarium. Immediately after his escape he boarded a freight train and came directly to this city.

At his home last night, he said that after emerging from the woods and finding that he had eluded his pursuers, he walked along the railroad tracks about fifteen miles until a freight train approached. Then, he said, he put a large stone on the track, compelling the engine-driver to stop.

When he did so, McGovern climbed aboard and explained his situation. He said he was recognized by some of the train-hands and they permitted him to ride.

Reaching New York, the pugilist went to a hotel on Broadway, where he greeted a few friends. Then he proceeded to his home. As he boarded a train at the Bridge a newsboy was selling papers containing accounts of McGovern's escape, and the latter bought fifty copies of one of these and distributed them among the passengers, announcing at the same time that nothing was the matter with him. Later he visited several friends.

BASE RUNNING ISN'T THE ART IT USED TO BE

If there is one department of baseball which has suffered and deteriorated through the advancing years, that department is base running. Pitching has been worked up to the daintiest and most baffling of sciences; fielding has become clock-like in its precision and unerring accuracy, and batting, even though hampered by the foul strike rule, is now full of head work and quick-witted skill. Base running, however, has fallen away till it can be classified as almost a lost art, and the plain official averages are all that are needed to show the extent of the deterioration.

In 1885 Harry Stovey, who was at that time probably the fastest and most successful of base runners, stole 156 bases, and perhaps a dozen men in the two big leagues had 100 or more marks to their credit. A game as played in those days was full of sparkle and red feathers. Every club carried two or three men who, once reaching first, proceeded to make life interesting for the opposing outfit and the admiring fans.

Men like Stovey, Welch, Ewing, Latham, Ward, Fogarty and Kelly never knew what it was to stand anchored on the initial bag and wait for a bunt or a hit-and-run signal. For them there was a moment' jockeying along the line, a sharp skirmish of wits and quickness, with the pitcher and first baseman and then a streak of light going down to second, a slide, a cloud of dust, and a frantic yell from the delighted crowd.

One does not see that sore of performance nowadays. Once in a while a base is actually stolen, but so seldom that the man who steals thirty sacks in 154 games is rare. The modern game is pretty, scientific, full of generalship and brilliant plays, but there is just one feature lacking—the dashing base running of the bygone time.

BASEBALL NOTES.

The Brooklyn Club has released Bell, Cronin, Parrorius, Durham, Beecher and McCormick.

Jack Sheridan says that the spit ball is going to revolutionize the game of baseball, and he claims that any batter who hits it is in luck.

Magee of the Philadelphia Nationals has done splendid work in the series between the two Philadelphia clubs, both at the bat and in the outfield. He looks like a comer, especially as a batsman.

It is now rumored that Clancy of the Pirates is weak-hearted, and will probably not make good at first base. It is understood that Heinie Pietz will be the regular first baseman of the Pittsburg club this year.

All clubs operating under the National agreement have been notified that open betting on games will not be tolerated by the National commission, and steps are being taken in nearly every city to stop the gambling practice.

Mike Grady will do the regular playing at first base this year, it is stated, whether Jake Beckley shows up with St. Louis or not, as the St. Louis management think that Grady is too valuable a man, with his ability to bat, to have catching every other day.

Boston is guessing as to what the regular outfield will be this year. It is expected that either Selbach or Freeman will get through, and in New York they are wondering whether Anderson or Fultz will stick. Any of these four men will not have to beg for good jobs.

If pitchers wet the ball in an ostentatious or objectionable manner, when about to deliver the spit ball, for instance, with ball about a foot away from the mouth in one hand, the umpires are instructed to call a balk. The balk will not be called unless there is some one on base.

Doc Newton has not entirely recovered from the effects of a fever, and is only able to pitch about one-half a game at present without exerting himself. The New York Globe says that many of the New York fans believe that Griffith will make a mistake by keeping Clarkson, if he has to release Hogg to do so.

Hugh Jennings, manager of the Baltimore Eastern Leaguers, does not expect to be able to keep Billy McNamara, the Rochester fireman-catcher. He says he has learned that this player is held under reserve by Scranton. For this reason he has wired Hearne of last year's Oriole team, and the latter will report in a couple of days.

The Semi-ready frock coat is a masterpiece of sartorial art

The frock coat gives the designer more scope to show his skill and taste than any other garment.

That is why the tailor, who makes about five or six frock coats in a year and gets his ideas from a fashion plate, misses the essential points that mean style.

The lines of the Semi-ready frock coat are carefully thought out by an expert designer.

This year the Semi-ready frock coat differs but slightly from last year's model. The lapels are heavier with a slightly convex crease. The shoulders are a little broader and of natural shape, avoiding the built-up effect.

They are close-fitting at the waist, large-chested, and with considerable bell to the skirt.

A frock coat is like a dress coat—every line must be right or it is noticeably incorrect.

The Semi-ready frock coat is the essence of style—try one on and see. Prices, $20, $25, $30. 402

GEO. GARDNER KNOCKED OUT IN BLOODY BATTLE

Salt Lake City, April 18.—Mike Schreck, of Cincinnati, knocked out George Gardner, of Lowell, Mass., in the latter part of the twentieth round of a ferocious, long-drawn-out contest last night. The knockout blow was an overhaud right swing to the neck. Gardner rose before the tenth count, but was so weak that the referee stopped the fight to save him further punishment. The fight was a slashing contest from start to finish. Neither man used any science, and the battle became merely a test of endurance. Blood flowed freely from both fighters, and it was give and take in about equal distributions until the final round, when Schreck's superior staying qualities won him the fight.

ENGLISH GOLFERS ARE PLAYING A FINE GAME

London, April 18.—The former open champion golfer, Harry Vardon, is again in good form this week, playing on the new 18-hole course at Farnham against Jack White, present open champion; James Braid and his brother Tom.

Harry Vardon tied with Braid for first and second prizes with a score of 75, which beat the record of 77 previously held by Vardon. The latter played the first twelve holes perfectly; at the thirteenth he missed an iron shot, and at the sixteenth he pulled his second into the rough, but his 75 represented very fine golf. Braid played a brilliant long game.

STOCKS AND MONEY.

Sharp Break in Northern Sec.; Montreal Street Make Big Issue

Interest was centered to-day in a sharp break in Northern Securities and the announcement that the Montreal Street Railway will issue $1,000,000 additional bonds.

On the New York curb market the bottom seemed to fall right out of Northern Securities, and within half an hour it fell from 183 to 165. Then on some good buying it rallied again, and early in the afternoon was selling around 174. The books of the company closed at three o'clock this afternoon, prior to the distribution of the assets of the company, and the most general reason advanced for the sudden drop was that the extra dividends that would be distributed to the shareholders would not be nearly as great as had been stated. The whole Wall Street market felt the effect of the break, and prices throughout the list declined from 1 to 4 points.

Canadian Pacific which had been selling around 154 sold down to 152 on the Wall Street market. On the local exchange there was a sale at 152 1-2.

Outside the tractions there was very little business on the local market.

Word was received that the directors of the Montreal Street Railway had decided to issue $1,000,000 additional bonds to provide for various extensions and improvements to the system. It is understood that the new bonds will be 4 1-2 per cent. and if the same method is employed as when the last bond issue was made the issue will be offered to present shareholders at the rate of one bond for every fourteen shares. The decision of the directors to issue bonds rather than stock was favorably received. The stocks sold slightly lower at 221 3-4.

For a while there was some good buying of Detroit United. Selling ex-dividend the stock opened at 85 1-2, and later sold at 86. Toledo selling ex-dividend was fractionally lower at 35 to 34 3-4.

In anticipation of the holidays a quieter market is looked for.

Transactions in Granby to noon were 800 shares. High 6 1-8, low 6.

FORGET'S CABLE.

L. J. Forget & Co.'s London cable quotes Grand Trunk' first 114, second 103 3-4, third 49 1-4, Canadian Pacific 158 1-8, Anaconda 6 1-4, Hudson's Bay 69 1-4.

Bryant's Bulletin says:

New York.—Many traders are inclined to tae a conservative position on the near approach of the Easter holidays, and the fact that the observance of the Passover will for a time eliminate an important Jewish element. The mandate of the Northern Securities case has been handed down, and distribution of the assets of that company will be proceeded with at once. The books of the company will be closed at three o'clock to-day.

J. S. Bache & Co wire C. D. Monk:

Noon.—In view of erratic movements of Northern Securities and the semi-panic in London in Americans, the market has acted very well. Selling of Northern Securities was on the part of the stockholders, who did not want to tie up their money until the assets were distributed, as the books close to-day and will not be reopened. Steel stocks look like working higher, but summer months are at hand, and the market will begin to ease off in a few weeks and neglect to take profits, may result in having to carry stocks until the fall or sell at a loss.

Sales in Wall street to noon were 759,500 shares.

UNION PACIFIC HOLDS WELL.

Messrs. Zimmermann & Forshay wire Robert Meredith & Co. as follows:

New York.—A severe break in Northern Securities on the curb caused the weakness in Union Pacific. Considering that Northern Securities broke 20 points, Union Pacific suffered an extreme loss of two points, which proves the strong position of this stock. The balance of the market was fractionally easier in sympathy, but no urgent selling was noticed.

MARKET BREAKS.

A noon letter to Marler & Hodgson says:

New York.—After showing hesitation at the opening, the market broke quite sharply owing to the extreme weakness in Northern Securities on the curb. Numerous stop orders were caught, more especially in Union Pacific, which declined more easily than any other railroad stock.

MONTREAL EXCHANGE.

U.S. Steel Make More Rails Than Great Britain

The United States Steel Corporation makes more Bessemer steel rails a year than all the rail mills of Great Britain. It made last year nearly 300 per cent. more Bessemer steel ingots than Great Britain and almost as much pig iron.

In 1903 the latest date for which complete figures are available, the steel rail production of the Steel Corporation was 872,373 tons more than that of Great Britain. In the same year the United States Steel Corporation produced 1,647,710 tons, more iron ore from its own mines than were produced in all Great Britain.

In the appended table is given the official 1904 figures of production of pig iron, Bessemer ingots, and open hearth steel of Great Britain and the Steel Corporation, and the official figures of steel rails and iron ore for 1903:—

Insurance Companies Do Large Business

Ottawa, April 81.—(Special.)—During the past thirty-four years Canada has paid $201,590,000 for fire insurance. The insurance companies have paid $140,321,000 for fire losses. The difference of sixty millions odd is the margin the companies have had for dividends and expenses. This appears in the report of the superintendent of insurance which the Finance Minister brought down for the benefit of the House to-day. The report shows the losses last year to have been many. The total amount of losses incurred by the thirty-eight companies doing business in Canada amounted to $14,195,000, while year before losses amounted only to $5,789,000. The net cash received for premiums during last year was $13,174,891, or a million less than the net amount of loss incurred during the year. In 1903 the insurance companies had a balance to the good of five and a half millions.

The totals of the ten Canadian companies shows favorable balance on the year's operations of about seventy thousand dollars. Taken individually, however, five of the companies won and five lost.

The nineteen British companies came out almost a million to the bad. Only seven of the companies had increase of policy payments over losses.

The nine American companies finished behind to the amount of a quarter of a million. However, only two companies lost on the operations. Their misfortunes brought down the whole result.

Last year there were 2,144,941 premiums written in Canada, an increase of about four hundred thousand over the year before. The total risk taken last year amounted to $1,613,347,471, on which premiums amounting to $16,256,985 was charged. The average rate was 1.6, while in 1903 it was 1.5.

Four of the ten Canadian companies paid no dividend and only one of them succeeded in dividing two and a half per cent. among its shareholders.

The inland marine insurance business amounted to $16,651,000, a million less than the year before.

The life insurance companies seem to have done better than the fire companies. The forty-one companies licensed to do business in Canada had policies new and taken up to the number of 178,044. The total number in force at the end of the year was 656,891. The amount of insurance affected on life during the year was $98,306,000, making the total in force to date of $587,373,767. That is the amount the whole population of Canada had on at the end of the year. The premiums of the companies for the year amounted to $19,969,000, while death claims paid amounted to only $8,518,829. This left a comfortable margin of eleven and a half millions for office expenses, profits and sundries. Resisted claims amounted to $20,880. The report of the excess of income over expenditure in the case of the Canadian companies is given as $8,417,794. Of the new policies 14,084 to the amount of $50,498,000 were straight life, and 106,547 amounting to $37,032,683 were endowment.

There were 11,464 guarantee policies written for $43,432,000, on which $156,683 was paid in premiums. Losses incurred amounted to $37,769.

In accident insurance the policies numbered 65,238 for $144,242, with premiums amounting to $811,003. The claims paid amounted to $244,083.

There were 14,406 plate glass policies written, $102,894 taken in premiums and $56,366 paid for losses.

MARKET REPORTS.

Grain Shipments by This Port; Much Space Taken for May

From the contracts made by the local steamship companies the indications are that the shipments of grain from this port during the first month of navigation will be very much larger than they were last year. There has been a good demand for the grain room and the companies have had very little occasion to shade rates to any extent. In addition to a good movement from Western Canada it is claimed that this port will get more than its share of the grain business offering in the Western States. Engagements already made include 100,000 bushels of American barley for Avonmouth and several large consignments to Liverpool. With labor conditions satisfactory on the upper lakes the local steamship companies expect that there will be quite an amount of grain in store in the port before the ocean steamers begin to come in.

Grain, Flour, Hay

Grain.—A feature of the local grain situation is the fact that an easier feeling has developed in the market, and prices have declined ½c per bushel in spite of the small receipts and the further decrease in the stock on spot. The demand is still limited from local and country buyers, and business is quiet, but sales of car lots of No. 2 white Manitoba oats were made to-day at 45½c, and No. 3 do. at 44½c per bushel, ex store. Business in grain over the cable was very quiet, there being no improvement in bids, either for wheat or corn; consequently the market on the whole was dull.

Flour.—A slight improvement is commencing to be noticed in the demand for flour, but the market is still quiet on the whole, with no change in prices. We quote: Manitoba spring wheat patents, $5.50 to $5.60; strong bakers', $5.20 to $5.30; winter wheat patents, $5.60 to $5.75; straight rollers, $5.25 to $5.35; and in bags, $2.45 to $2.55.

Millfeed.—The tone of the market for millfeed remains firm, but the volume of business passing is small. We quote as follows: Manitoba bran, in bags, $18 to $19; shorts, $20 to $21 per ton; Ontario winter wheat bran, in bulk, $18.50 to $19; shorts, $20 to $21; mouillie, $24 to $28 per ton, as to quality.

Oats.—Business in rolled oats continues quiet, and prices are unchanged at $2.20 to $2.22½ per bag. The demand for cornmeal is also quiet at $1.35 to $1.45 per bag.

Hay.—There was no change in baled hay, for which the demand is only fair for local consumption. We quote: No. 1, $9 to $9.50; No. 2, $8 to $8.50; clover mixed, $7 to $7.50; and pure clover, $6.50 to $6.75 per ton, in car lots.

Cattle Markets

The tone of the markets for cattle, both here and in the West, are steadily advancing, 6c having been paid in the West to-day for choice stock, and $5.80 was paid in this market for good suitable stock for the same purposes, while 6c to 6¼c was asked for really choice beeves, which figures were paid by local butchers, and even 6¾c was realized for some, while a few odd fancy Easter steers and heifers brought as high as 7c to 7¼c per pound.

Receipts of cattle at the Montreal Stock Yards, Point St. Charles, were large, and the quality showed a decided improvement, in anticipation of the Easter trade. One steer, weighing 1778 pounds, sold at 7¼c per lb., and a lot of six steers, weighing 9,500 lbs., sold at 6¾c per lb. Other prices were as follows: Prime beeves sold at 6c to 6¼c; choice at 5½c to 5¾c; good at 5c to 5¼c; fairly good at 4½c to 4¾c; fair at 4c to 4¼c; common at 3½c to 3¾c, and inferior at 3c to 3½c per lb.

Liverpool. — The market was firm with prices for Canadian cattle unchanged at 12c to 12¼c.

Glasgow.—The trade in cattle was slow with sales at 11c to 12c.

Another cable from Liverpool quoted American and Canadian cattle at 12c, and one from London quoted them at 12¼c.

Hogs Sell Higher

The feature of the market to-day was the renewed strength in the market for live hogs, owing to the increased demand from packers, and prices advanced 25c to 50c per 100 lbs., with sales of selected lots at $7.10 per 100 lbs., weighed off cars, and at $7 fed and watered. In sympathy with the above, there was also a stronger feeling in the market for dressed hogs and prices were marked up 25c per 100 lbs. The demand was slow and trade was quiet at $9.25 to $9.50 per 100 lbs. for abattoir fresh-killed stock. There was no change in other lines of provisions, but the undertone to the market was very firm.
