NO VIOLATION OF NEUTRALITY

French Concession Ho. Says No Aid Was Given Russians.

VIEWS OF JAPANESE PRESS

Moderate View Taken of Situation—It is Reported That the Russian Cruisers Reached Vladivostok.

Paris, May 10.—The Marquis De Barthelmy, who with Count de Pourtales, operates the French concession at Kamranh Bay, Annam, in the course of an interview to-day denies that his establishment furnished coal or provisions to the Russian second Pacific squadron. He said: "The maximum of our coaling facilities is 700 tons. A small coaling depot exists on the Mekong river, not far from Saigon. At the outset of the war the Russians bought a large tract of land there, erected sheds and accumulated supplies, particularly coal, which was bought originally from Japan. It is to this depot that Admiral Rojestvensky sent his colliers, but no warship approached the depot. This was Russian coal, placed upon Russian land, and loaded upon Russian transports. This was not a violation of neutrality. France could not prevent the Russians from taking their own coal on their own land. If the natives were at fault in selling the land to the Russians the Japanese would not have waited fifteen months before protesting."

Although the Marquis De Barthelmy gives the foregoing as a refutation of the charges the statement concerning the Russian coal depot on the Mekong may open a new phase of the question.

Admiral De Jonquieres (the French naval commander at Saigon) confirms the announcement of the departure of the Russian squadron from off Vanfong Bay.

The report of the junction of Rear-Admiral Nebogatoff's division with the main Russian squadron under Admiral Rojestvensky, is outside of French waters, is also considered to be official.

Premier Rouvier conferred with Foreign Minister Delcasse to-day, concerning the pending situation but it is said that the conversation referred mainly to internal affairs.

Views of Japanese Press.

Tokio, May 10.- The Jiji hopes that France will cease her flagrant and deliberate breaches of her pledges of neutrality in reference to the treatment accorded the second Russian Pacific squadron in French waters, and satisfaction is expressed at British representations to the government in Paris, showing that England is alive to the danger menacing Japanese interests.

The Nippon says that French interest in Russia is more of a financial and economical character than political, and that the alliance between the countries has ceased to be of any practical benefit in Europe. It expresses the belief that France is upholding the alliance because her honor is pledged diplomatically.

Russian Ships Reach Vladivostok.

London, May 10.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from St. Petersburg says it is reported there that the Russian cruisers Almaz and Jemtchung, belonging to Rear-Admiral Voelkersam's division of Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron, has eluded the Japanese warships and reached Vladivostok.

Japan Will Increase Navy.

Tokio, May 10. The reports that Japan plans to order the construction of two battleships and six large cruisers abroad are renewed. The representatives of English naval constructors are here, endeavoring to secure the orders, but it is doubtful if the Government has reached any decision in the matter.

Linevitch's Successful Regime.

Gunshu Pass, April 22.—Day after day, since his assumption of the command, General Linevitch goes steadily about the inspection of the troops, both those on the positions and the units arriving from European Russia. Mounted on a small sorrel horse, wearing an old overcoat devoid of embroidery and trappings, and with only the simplest indication of rank, Linevitch, accompanied by his adjutant, two orderlies and the chiefs of the reviewed troops, but almost without further suite, rides along company after company, battery after battery, finding something to say to each, sometimes a jest, sometimes a reproof, recognizing here and there veterans not only of the Chinese expedition but also of the Turkestan campaign. This simplicity and the faith the soldiers have in the fighting ability of "Papa" Linevitch make a most inspiring impression on the troops. Regularly at the termination of the reviews General Linevitch gathers about him the chiefs of the various sub-divisions and in brief, incisive and oft-times quaint words, sets forth his opinion of the situation of affairs, the condition of the troops and his demands, orders and suggestions of improvement. He uses no petty phrases, full of the self-satisfaction, promises and transparent hopes to which the officers were formerly accustomed, but the language of a soldier breathing strength, determination, firm faith and full realization that his task is most difficult and heavy, that the work for him and his subordinates is colossal.

Even the non-military observer, however, can note a decided change for the better in comparison with the Kuropatkin regime. Jealousy and bickering have notably decreased. There is apparently less spirit of self-advancement, more subordination and "team work." Suggestions are no longer frowned upon and the subordinate with a plan or criticism is given a hearing.

SALVATION ARMY PARTY ARRIVED AT QUEBEC TO-DAY ---ONE THOUSAND STRONG

Quebec, May 10.—(Special).—Three ousand four hundred new settlers e landed at this port this morning ned for the Canadian West. The steamer Pretorian arrived late ht with over four hundred, prin foreigners. The C.P.R. steamer arrived this morning with 785. minion steamer Vancouver with ot housand and the C.P.R. steamer Lake Champlain this afternoon with twelve hundred.

The Vancouver, with the Salvation Army immigrants, steamed up the harbor at 10 o'clock and a half hour later was moored to the breakwater. The local contingent of the Army under Staff-Captain Patterson, and Ensign Hannah, were on the dock to greet Colonel Jacobs and other officers of the Salvation Army in charge of the new arrivals. Eight hundred of the number who came out as steerage were landed at Quebec, the other two hundred who came out as second cabin, will continue on to Montreal with the ship. There are 140 uniformed members of the Army with the aggregation, which is without exception the finest looking lot of settlers who ever arrived here. They come from all parts of England and Scotland and a considerable proportion hail from Ireland, especially from the vicinity of Cork.

Col. Jacobs, General Secretary of the Salvation Army in Canada, with headquarters at Toronto, in the course of an interview, said that every man and girl on the ship were already provided with positions to which they would go direct. He added that there were many men of means in the number who had been in business in Britain and the greater part of those would proceed to the Northwest Territories to invest their capital. But in no sense would any considerable unmber of the arrivals be located in any one centre. They would be scattered in one hundred and fifty places throughout Ontario, Manitoba, and the Northwest, and from his personal observations they were not only a most desirable lot of citizens for Canada, but respectable and intelligent people who would make their mark.

The following messaage was received from General Booth before the Vancouver sailed from Liverpool, dated Christchurch, New Zealand:—"God carry you safely to your new home, fearlessly calculated upon hard work, bravely meet difficulties, do your duty to your families, help your comrades, make Canada a home that will be a credit to the Old Land, put God first, stand by the Army, save your souls, meet me in Heaven."

THE PART COLONIES PLAYED IN HISTORY

Remarkable Speech of an Australian Minister in London.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, May 10.—Rev. Dr. Llewellyn Bevan, a well known Congregational minister, from Melbourne, Australia, speaking at the sixty-ninth anniversary of the Colonial Missionary Society, said: "Some people thought that things Colonial were only of secondary importance, but after all the commencement of Christian enterprise was in a colony. Colonies had played an important part in the history of civilization, their development, their flourishing and their decay; first a strength, then a menace, then a ruin. The only vigorous colonies to-day were those that belonged to our Empire. It might be asked would they only become a shade and a memory? They had heard a great deal in the Colonies of some forms of Imperialism, but if these were secured it would be wise for the Colonies to cut the painter. An Empire built upon military display was doomed; an Empire built by the sword inevitably perished by the sword.

MORE STEAMSHIP FIGHTING.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, May 10.—The Canadian Associated Press is informed that the White Dominion and American lines have given notice of withdrawal from the North Atlantic passenger conference, as to the first and second class rate agreement and to the third class British Scandinavian and Continental agreement.

The action of the White Star Dominion and American lines has been taken in view of the withdrawal of the Cunard line from all the passenger rate agreements recently arranged, also in view of the refusal of the American Government to consent to the American line making a change in its New York service sailing day. It is explained that the combine lines feel it necessary to be equally free with the Cunard from all agreements in order to protect themselves against any possible action. The Cunard, Allan and other companies parties to the agreements have been notified of the withdrawal of the combine.

Neither Mr. Macfarlane, the passenger manager of the Dominion line, nor Mr. George Hannah, of the Allan line, have as yet received any official confirmation of the above statement, which however, they do not discredit in view of the situation which has existed since the Cunard company withdrew.

LORD GREY AT PURE MILK LEAGUE

His Excellency Addressed a Meeting Yesterday at Laval University.

His Excellency Earl Grey addressed a meeting of the Pure Milk League at Laval University yesterday afternoon. Shortly after four o'clock the vice-regal party arrived at the university, and the meeting opened with the president of the League, Mr. Blackader, in the chair.

After welcoming their Excellencies to the meeting, the president proceeded to explain the object of the league. A large proportion of the infant mortality in the city he attributed to the use of impure and adulterated milk. Fresh, pure cows' milk is an absolute necessity to an artificially reared infant, but unfortunately cows' milk was an excellent breeding ground for bacteria. Pure milk should not contain more than 30,000 bacteria per cubic centimetre, but most of the milk delivered in Montreal contained as high as 300,000 bacteria per cubic centimetre, and some samples as high as 5,000,000. To purify the city's milk was the raison d'etre of the League.

Alderman Dagenais stated the recommendations of the Board of Health with regard to the milk supply. The board wanted a provincial inspector to see that stables and cows were kept in proper condition. It wanted the railroad companies to provide refrigerators at all the stations from which milk is shipped, and to refuse to receive unsealed cans. Dr. Dick also spoke, giving a sketch of the work of the league from the time of its inception.

Earl Grey, on being asked to address the meeting, expressed his deep interest in the movement started by the league. He was glad to see that Montreal had begun to realize the danger from impure milk, and was taking strenuous steps to lessen the infant mortality in the city. He stated that while in England he had been interested in a similar movement, started at York by Mr. Seybold Roundtree, and hoped the movement in Montreal would have as great success as it had in York.

His Excellency was followed by Prof. Robertson, who expressed himself as in favor of inspection, but not inspection of the detective type. What was wanted chiefly was instruction. The impure milk delivered in the city was largely due to the use of impure water by the farmers, and to the use of dark and impure stables. He would like to see the inspector not a provincial officer, but an officer of the Pure Milk League, who could instruct as well as inspect.

A vote of thanks was tendered to their Excellencies on motion of Sir William Hingston and Col. Burland.

STRANGER ENDS HIS LIFE IN WATERS OF LAKE ST. LOUIS

Yesterday afternoon a young Englishman, tall, dark, and well dressed, rushed into a lady's grounds at Beaconsfield, and started to row off in her little son's boat. She called to him to come back but he answered that he would return in about five minutes He was seen rowing out some distance in the Lake. He took off his coat and hat and deliberately plunged into the cold water. Nothing more was seen of him and it is concluded that he committed suicide. It is thought that his body may be recovered to-day. He is a stranger to the place and to everyone.

TENANT CHOPPED ROOF, LOST DAMAGE ACTION

Landlord Not Responsible for Damages Caused by Tenant's Axe.

If a tenant hacks the roof of his domicile with an axe so that it refuses to keep out the rain the landlord is not legally responsible for damages to furniture, was the learned decision of Mr. Justice Champagne yesterday. Mrs. Bernadatte Behale, sued Cleophas A. Masse for $176 rent and damages, and the latter sued the landlord for $160 for alleged damages to furniture and doctor's bills, incurred through leaks in the room, which destroyed his household furniture and health. The court found that the leaks had been caused by the defendant hacking the roof with an axe, but that the tenant had spent $12 on repairs. Judgment was therefore given plaintiff in full, of her claim, less the $12.

VOTE OF GAS EXTENSION IS INVALID, REQUIRING BY-LAW, IS CITY ATTORNEY'S VERDICT

According to the city's charter, and to an opinion on the question handed to Mayor Laporte, yesterday afternoon, by City Attorney Archambault, the resolution of the City Council, passed at Monday's session, granting an extension of franchise to the Gas Company, of fifteen years in exchange for an annual reduction of five cents, in the price of gas, until lighting gas is fixed at $1.00 and cooking gas at ninety cents, is illegal. The charter calls for a by-law granting all such extensions, and not a simple resolution; and in view of this important phase of the matter, Mayor Laporte who urged the irregularity of the proceedings at the recent council meeting, will prepare a report on the matter for next Monday's meeting of the City Fathers. The Council, therefore, will have to do the work all over again, thirty days notice must be given, and the regular three readings, on different days, made; so that ample time is due for further discussion of the gas question.

The Legal Aspect.

"I have seen the Mayor in reference to the gas resolution, passed on Monday," said City Attorney Archambault this morning, to The Herald, "and I may say that I have given His Worship an opinion on the matter."

"Is the resoluton illegal?" queried the reporter.

"So I have advised Mayor Laporte," was the answer, and Mr. Archambault referred to the following clause in the charter:

"No person, partnership, syndicate, company or corporation whatever shall have or exercise any franchise, right or privilege, in, over or upon any street, lane, public place or highway (including Mount Royal Park and St. Helen's Island Park), for constructing or operating any tramways or inclined railways—whether surface, elevated or underground—or for the establishment of telephonic, telegraphic, pneumatic, or tractions systems, or for other like purposes or for poles or wires, or for bridges, trestles, viaducts, cables, pipes, conduits, or such like apparatus, unless and by and in virtue of a by-law, adopted by the affirmative vote of the absolute majority of the council."

The Mayor's Attitude.

Mayor Laporte, in consequence of this new feature of the gas problem, has postponed his visit to Quebec, to look into certain bills affecting the city's interests, and will devote his time this week to the preparation of the report for council.

"Please don't ask me for that report on the alleged illegality of the resolution passed by the Council," remarked the Mayor this morning. "I'm hard at work on it at present, and must refuse to allow it to be published before it reaches the Council."

"Will you veto the measure?"

"Don't ask me a word, please—but I may say that I'll do my duty as I understand it, and that the pledge I gave for cheap gas will be fulfilled."

"Is the contract as it stands now illegal?" asked the reporter.

"Judge for yourself," replied His Worship, "you see what the clause says—we can't help but go by that ruling."

In referring to the Herald's stand on the question of the extension of franchise to the Company, His Worship declined to speak, laughingly saying that 'too many aldermen came in for a rub, to make it safe for him to agree or disagree with the position."

That Three Per Cent.

Mayor Laporte has in his possession Ald. Lariviere's amendment respecting the three per cent. proposal, in which the percentage is granted for the remainng five years of the contract and not for the last ten years.

"Do you see what that means?" asked the Mayor. "There will be no percentage for the last ten years—the city pays for the reduction."

President Holt.

A Herald reporter called upon President Holt, this morning, to ascertain his view of the alleged illegality of the council's resolution. "I have nothing to say—nothing to say," was his only comment. The President of the Gas Company appeared rather disconcerted by the sudden change affairs had taken, and the prospect of a thirty days' hold-up of the gas deal.

Ald. Lariviere.

"I've been working cheap gas for over a year," said Ald. Lariviere, "and the present resolution is the best we can do with the Company. They will give $100,000 if the city wants it, to have no reduction of gas—and my amendment was made to read that the percentage would last for but five years, purposely. Any other amendment would be promptly turned down by the Company and time would be lost. We want cheap gas—and this is the only way I see to secure it." Ald. Lariviere had nothing to say as to the suspected illegality of the resolution, and claimed that the abolition of the three per cent. would be more than balanced by the reduction in gas.

Ald. L. A. Lapointe, being in Quebec, was not to be seen.

Valliere's Motion Revived.

Next Monday's meeting of the City Council, will, in all probability, see a vote called on the motion of Ald. Valleres and Ald. Ekers that the gas company's franchise be extended fifteen years in exchange for eighty cent gas, in view of the egal trouble that has arisen over Monday's resolution. Then, too, the clause in Ald. L. A. Lapointe's amendment—adopted by the council—calling for the possible expropriation of the Company's plant "as a running concern," with value placed on the "good will," and a half dozen other possible assets of a more or less imaginary character, will be earnestly considered by the City Fathers, before the thirty days elapse.

HARBOR BOARD NOT IN CONTEMPT

Had Protected Themselves on C.P.R. Deal by Special Resolution.

AN AMICABLE SETTLEMENT

Judge Davidson, Satisfied With Board's Explanations and With Second Resolution, Allows Case to be Dropped.

Most amicable this morning was the final scene in the contempt of court proceedings taken against the Harbor Board and against Chairman Hon. Robert Mackay, Mr. Robert Bickerdike, M.P., and Mr. W. E. Doran in connection with the proposed C.P.R. allotments.

Mr. F. E. Meredith, K.C., informed Mr. Justice Davidson that since making his motion in the contempt proceedings he had received a certified copy of the minutes of the board's proceedings. It now appeared that two motions had been passed, one providing for the C.P.R. allotments. The second resolution read, "That the foregoing motion be submitted to counsel, and if in his opinion the injunction does not prevent the commissioners from acting upon it, that it be communicated to the C.P.R., etc. He had moved for the rule in view of the first motion, not knowing the second had been passed.

Mr. Geoffrion said he had been individually informed by the commissioners that in voting for this first motion they had not intended to commit contempt of court. Further, to protect themselves, they had also passed the second resolution. Mr. Geoffrion also read letters to this effect from Senator Mackay and Messrs. Bickerdike and Doran.

Mr. Justice Davidson suspended proceedings to further look into the facts. On reassembling he read his judgment, which concluded: "I accept without reserve the statements made by counsel for the Harbor Commissioners and confirm the suggestion of Mr. Meredith that the motion be now dropped, and it is so dropped accordingly."

Before coming to this decision, however, the judge stated that from the Harbor Board's first motion he had been strongly impressed with the opinion that a prima facie case of contempt existed, which demanded full explanation. His Lordship also pointed out the extreme gravity of the offence, for which the law provided a penalty of up to $3,000 fine, imprisonment up to sixty days, and the right of any aggrieved party to collect cumulative damages.

TRAMPLED UPON BY HORSE IN STREET EXCAVATION

A peculiar accident occurred this morning near the corner of St. Sacrament and St. Jean streets, by which an employee of the Montreal Gas Company was seriously, if not fatally, injured. The injured man was working in an excavation in the street at that point when a passing carter drove too close to the cavity, and the horse plunged in on top of the laborer, kicking and bruising him terribly.

For some weeks two men in the employ of the Gas Company, have been carrying on operations on St. Sacrament street, readjusting connections with the buildings in that district. The work necessitated considerable excavations in the street. About 11.50 o'clock to-day one of the men was down in the hole, and the other working above ground, when a driver passing along the street with a cart came too near the verge of the excavation.

The horse put its foot into the cavity and then stumbled in headlong; dragging the fore part of the heavy cart with it. In the meantime the unfortunate workman was at the bottom, while the struggling equine trampled and kicked him in its efforts to get on terra firma.

When the animal was finally got out of the cavity, by the assistance of some bystanders, the laborer was found to be unconscious. A telephone call brought the General Hospital ambulance hurriedly to the scene, and, as the victim was still unconsious, the physician accompanying the ambulance thought that the man's back was broken. He was kicked and badly punished by the terrified horse.

The victim was taken to the General Hospital, where his wounds were found to consist chiefly of serious bruises. He was also suffering from the great shock of the accident, but no serious consequences will result.

PRESIDENT SISE WAS AGAIN HEARD

Evidence of Previous Witness Disputed Regarding Long Distance Lines

Ottawa, May 10.—(Special.)—The Parliamentary Sub-committee on Telephones continued the examination of President Sise, of the Bell Telephone Company. He spent most of the morning producing documents which had been asked for by the committee. He stated that the Bell Company had no exclusive agreement to buy supplies from any manufacturers as had been alleged. It was impossible to give the exact returns from the business at each long distance station, as some messages were paid by the sender and some by the receiver. Long distance business could not be operated from local business. A witness, who estimated the cost of long distance lines, apparently had overlooked one important item. The long distance switchboard at Montreal cost $15,000. It had to be operated by a separate staff.

The evidence of Mr. Sise will be continued on Tuesday next.

L. J. Turgeon gave the committee a description of a rural line, the St. Philomene, of Bellechasse County, in which he is interested. It has thirty subscribers, paying $8. A satisfactory connection was arranged with the Bell long distance company. The charge for a delivered message was forty cents, of which fifteen cents goes to the Bell and fifteen cents to the local company. The Bellechasse Telephone Company, operating in the same field, he said, was trying to ruin the St. Philomene Company.

Mr. A. C. Flummerfelt, president of the International Coal & Coke Company, of Coleman, B.C., will be on a visit of Montreal on May 15.

VETERANS WAITED ON GOVERNMENT

The Heroes of 1866 and 1870 Want Land in the Northwest.

Ottawa, May 10.—(Special.)— The Railway Committee was crowded this forenoon with the veterans of 1866 and 1870. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Sir Frederick Borden, Hon. W. S. Fielding, and Solicitor-General Lemieux received the delegation. Mr. Bickerdike inrtdocued the veterans.

Capt. C. E. Patterson, of the Montreal Veterans' Association, addressed the Ministers setting forth that what what was wanted was 160 acres of land for each veteran, in the Northwest. He thought this was a matter of right.

Capt. Patterson, of the Ottawa Valley veterans, said that Sir Wilfrid was a veteran himself and knew all about it. The veterans wanted him to command them and land them on 160 acres each in the Northwest. When they went to the front together there was was no talk of race or creed.

Several others spoke, after which Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that a similar delegation had waited on the Government a year ago. The session was too far advanced then to do anything. The present delegation was ten times the size. Reference was made to his his having been one of the veterans. He did not do much, but if the opportunty had arisen he would have done so, and was proud to be one of the veterans. What the veterans asked was that after thirty years the country should give some little recognition for what they had done. There was no doubt they saved the country from much humiliation and a great deal of misery. What the veterans asked was not much. He asked them to trust the Government.

JUDGE DUGAS AND YUKON CHARGES

Flatly Denies Imputation of French Domination and Nepotism.

Mr. Justice Dugas, senior judge of the Yukon High Court of Justice, has returned to Montreal for a brief rest before returning to the Far West. This morning he made a definite statement to The Herald denying the numerous appeals to racial prejudice and charges of "French domination" and nepotism which have been appearing in the Toronto News from a Yukon correspondent. Mr. Justice Dugas said he did not care much to make any public statement, owing to his judicial position. But as he and others had been so publicly attacked, he thought it only due to himself and others in the Yukon that he should set matters right. Referring to the recent interview with ex-Commissioner Frank T. Congdon, of the Yukon which appeared in The Herald, Judge Dugas said he heartily agreed with every word of it, which he said was given in his ordinary honest and straightforward way.

"Judging by what has appeared in the Toronto News, I should say that evidently the News does not know in whose company it is. I think I could easily point out who has written those letters and I may say there are, happily, a few people in the Yukon who would have been guilty of such correspondence, but there are a few of them who are well known for their bigotry and intolerance. A French-Canadian or Catholic is anathema to them, and anyone reading the News' letters in a fair spirit could not fail to see that they were dictated by prejudice.

"As to myself, it is a dishonest fabrication to say that I was in constant correspondence with the officials at Ottawa. It is not true at all. And even though I were, it would have been a purely personal matter, of which the News correspondent could not have been aware.

"With regard to Mr. Valiquette, he is the court stenographer, and is doubly useful, inasmuch as he writes French and English equally well in shorthand - a rare accomplishment. He is no more my personal secretary than is the brother of Judge Craig, who is also a court stenographer. The only fault with Mr. Valiquette was that he was a French-Canadian.

"As to my son's appointment," said Judge Dugas, "I may say he does not occupy his present office through my influence at all. But if it had been necesary, I would not have hesitated a moment to so help him to get the position.

"The News' writer is very careful to mention my son's appointment. But he is equally careful to neglect to mention that the brother of Assistant Commissioner Major Woods is a public functionary; that the deputy sheriff is the son of Sheriff Eilbeck; that Postmaster Hartman has under him one if not more of his sons, and that Customs Officer Busby has had several of his relations appointed to various offices.

"There are other similar instances I might mention. But I don't find fault with this at all so long as the appointees are fit and proper men for the positions. All we look for is good employes, and that we have them, the great progress of the Yukon proves. All the officials, irrespective of nationality, are giving satisfaction, and it is most unfortunate that the Toronto News should have so insisted upon forcing this phase of the matter on public notice. One great advantage of the French-Canadian officials is their speaking both languages, which few of the English-speaking officials can do, and with thirty per cent. of the population French-Canadian, the advantage of this can readily be realized."

Judge Dugas said that he considered any applications for positions made to him without any interest in their nationality, and made the ordinary recommendations simply according to the applicants' apparent fitness.

"The News' letters," continued the Judge, "say that I appointed Deputy Returning Officers in the recent elections. Anyone who knows the procedure could see that the News correspondent does not know what he is writing about, because the judge is not charged with the nomination of deputy returning officers. But the senior judge is charged with the appointment of enumerators under the election law. I did this to the best of my ability, and out of eighteen enumerators, I named six French-Canadians. I considered that if the population was to be taken into account, the French-Canadians were entitled to at least one-third of such officers speaking their own language. It is an especial advantage under such circumstances to have a proportion of these officers able to speak both languages, and few but French-Canadians can do this.

"There were at one time," continued Judge Dugas, "very serious complaints of injustice, bulldozing and very tough treatment on the part of certain public officials of the Yukon towards French-Canadians. But happily this has been remedied, and now everybody seems to be pretty well satisfied except such people as the News correspondent.

"There is really no room for such complaint as the News has published. The French-Canadians only want the same treatment in the Yukon as their fellow-citizens, and they neither get nor desire more. Fully one-third of the people there are French-Canadians. They are regarded as an excellent class of citizens and much respected for their thrift and energy in the opening up of the country. Surely such law-abiding and useful citizens deserve the same respect and attention as is given people of other nationalities."

Judge Dugas has recently returned from Mount Clemens, Mich., where he has been taking a course of treatment for the nervous disease he is a victim of, which was caused by overwork in the Yukon courts. Although his trouble is a very obscure and painful affection, he is making progress to recovery, and expects to be able to return to his duties in the Yukon in July. He is here a guest of his daughter, Mrs. (Prof.) Louis Herdt, St. Louis Square.

HUTCH FOR THE BLOOD

When one eats a lot and crams a lot of food in the stomach the process of digestion is not complete. The food remains in chunks and ferments. This fermentation produces poisonous acid, which, when it enters the blood, causes impurities and produces the humiliating evidences so well known. It is necessary before one attempts to clean the blood to clean those organs of the body on which the blood depends for its purity and healthfulness. Hutch will clean the body, assist the digestion, so that it will be complete and it will purify the blood and skin. Hutch is a doctor for ten cents.

HORSES HAVING THEIR INNINGS

Show Opens at Arena To-Day With Many Novel Features.

There are several novel and interesting features in the programme for this year's Horse Show, and it is expected that the show will prove to be the most successful ever held here. The Western owners are better represented than hitherto. Rhea W. is to be shown in the roadster class. This animal is the property of Miss K. L. Wilkes, of Galt, Ont., and is the holder of more championships than any mare in America.

A class which it is thought will bring out a great deal of keen competition is the Hunt Club competition, in which teams of three from recognized hunt clubs will be seen. The London Club has two teams entered, and Toronto will send one. The Montreal Hunt will show three, and the Canadian Hunt Club will show two. At the Toronto show the team of the Montreal Hunt carried off the honors, but at that time Mr. Black was rather dissatisfied with the result, and the London Hunt will make a big effort to upset the previous result. However, the Canadian Club will be well represented so that this particular competition should be rather warm.

In hunters and road horses there is a big Western representation so that the local owners will have to struggle for the ribbons. Among the new exhibitors are strings from the stables of Kilgour, of Toronto, and Rogers, of Hamilton.

As a preliminary to the Horse Show prizes were awarded yesterday for the best dressed windows. First prize was won by James A. Ogilvie, second prize by Henry Morgan & Co., and third prize by Alex. Nelson & Co. Others competing were: Henry Birks & Sons, Scroggie & Co., The Male Attire, Fit Reform, S. S. Bain, J. W. Bithell, Wallace Wills, H. Lamontagne, Star Office, Havana Import Co., Hall & Robinson, and Blumenthal.

In connection with the Horse Show the ladies of the S.P.C.A. will serve tea and refreshments each afternoon, and on Saturday morning. The following ladies of the S.P.C.A. committee will be in charge:

Wednesday, 10th—Mrs. C. McEachran and Miss Brainerd.

Thursday, 11th—Mrs. G. W. Cook and Mrs. A. Sanderson.

Friday, 12th—Mrs. A. A. Allan and Mrs. H. Meredith.

Saturday morning—Lady Allan.

Saturday afternoon—Miss Bond and Miss Forget.

LEAPED TO DEATH FROM G.T.R. ENGINE

Albert Cross is in Critical State With Fracture of the Skull.

Albert Cross, a seventeen-year-old lad residing at 191 Ryde street, suffered a fracture of the skull near the Hibernian road crossing at Point St. Charles last evening and is at present lying in a very serious condition at the General Hospital.

The young man, who is an employee of Messrs. D. H Hogg & Co., manufacturers of photographers supplies, 662 Craig street, was accustomed to go to his home in the evening on the passenger engines, as they returned from Bonaventure station to the Point St. Charles round house, and would jump from the locomotives at Charlevois street crossing. Last night the train was going at too high a rate of speed to jump at Charlevois street and young Cross remained on the engine till Hibernia road was reached. Here he made the leap, but stumbled and struck his head on one of the rails of the next track, falling almost directly in front of a light engine which was running down to Bonaventure station.

He was rescued just in the nick of time by two bystanders and was carried into the gateman's shed. An ambulance was called and the unfortunate youth taken to the General Hospital, where his recovery is regarded as very doubtful.

THE TURBINE SS. VICTORIAN IS OPEN FOR INSPECTION

Monday afternoon marked a distinct epoch in the history of steam navigation up the St. Lawrence. The Allan liner Victorian is not only the largest ocean steamship which has ever come up the river, but she has inaugurated a new system of propulsion by turbine machinery and triple screws which bids fair to greatly increase the comfort of the traveller and, in its further development, to attain better speed results at a more economical expenditure.

In outward appearance there is nothing to suggest that the Victorian is differently propelled from the twin screw champions of the Allan line, the Bavarian and Tunisian. Like them she has two pole masts and a big single funnel. The close observer noticed as she brought her 560 feet in length alongside the pier facing the Custom House that she has an extra promenade deck. This fact gives the second cabin passengers a complete promenade all round the vessel amidships and also affords more freedom for exercise to the steerage passengers.

THE CAPTAIN'S REPORT.

Capt. Macnicol, who is in command of the steamer, makes the following report of the passage: "Left Moville at 8.55 a.m. on Saturday, April 29. Had moderate weather up to long. 40 west. Then strong winds and gales with head seas up to the Banks. Then moderate weather to port. Crossed the Banks to the south of the Virgins. Passed a number of icebergs. On the morning of the 5th instant came up with field ice 10 miles southeast of Cape Ray. Entered ice same evening, and got into clear water at 5 a.m. on the 6th."

The Victorian was piloted up from Father Point by Mr. J. G. Dupil, who thus has the honor of piloting up the two first turbine steamers that have visited the St. Lawrence, he having been in charge of the steamer Turbinia.

DAILY RUNS.

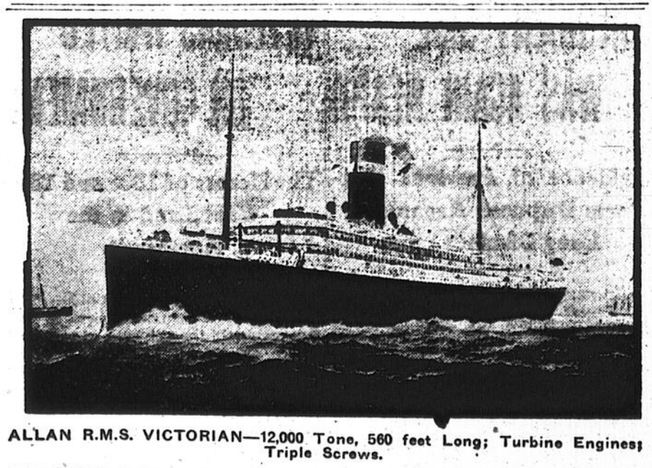
The log of the Victorian shows her daily runs as follows: First part day, 63 miles; first full day, 393 miles, equal to 16½ knots per hour; second day, 372 miles; third day, 388 miles; fourth day, 317 miles; fifth day, 341 miles; sixth day (ice), 280 miles; seventh day (ice), 152 miles; eighth day, 244 miles; ninth day, 72 miles, and arrived at Quebec.

Capt. Macnicol says that though he misses the throb of the reciprocating engine, by which he could judge the speed his ship was making without turning out of his bunk, he realizes that the turbine does away with vibration which annoyed the average passenger. As regards steering, he found the Victorian the easiest handled ship he was ever in; and before the season ends Captain Macnicol expects to have his ship cut some hours off the records held by the Bavarian and Tunisian.

The second-class dining saloon will seat 188 passengers at once and being placed on the main deck has perfect ventilation.

Those who are interested in observing the rapid progress which every two years can make in the luxury of the conditions under which ocean travel can be performed will have an excellent opportunity of doing so by visiting the Victorian between 3 and 6 p.m. this afternoon (Wednesday). Tickets, price 25c, can be obtained at the office of Messrs. H. & A. Allen, close to the ship, and the proceeds will be divided between the General Hospital and the Sailors' Institutes.

The officers of the Victorian, besides Capt. Macnicol, are:—Chief Officer, J. M. Reith, formerly of Bavarian; Second Officer, Towers, of Parisian; Dr. Campbell Davidson, of Bavarian; Purser D. Mougo, of Tunisian; Chief Engineer D. Gollan, of Bavarian, and Chief Steward George Underhay, of the Bavarian; Second Cabin Steward D. Allan.



ALLAN R.M.S. VICTORIAN—12,000 Tons, 560 feet Long; Turbine Engines; Triple Screws.

Mr. T. J. Carroll, vice-president of the Hamilton Brass Company, is in the city.

We are daily kneading and are needed daily also.

Why That Weariness?

Unnatural to be Always Restless, Weak, Uneasy—The Cure is Simple.

Your work has been hard and took lots of nerve-force. It lasted so far, but now it's all gone and you feel half dead. Somehow you must get more vitality. The water in your blood must be turned into nutriment and building material.

This is just what happens in using Ferrozone, which renews the blood and nerves and makes each organ do the work that Nature expects of it.

Ferrozone quickly increases your weight, brings appetite and healthy color, instills a reserve of vigor into the system that defies weariness, exhaustion, debility or sickness of any kind.

The enormous strengthening power of Ferrozone is proved in the case of Mrs. Edward Hill, of Ore Lake P.O., Ont., who says:

"Two years ago I had nervous breakdown. At night I tossed restlessly in bed, unable to get any comfort or rest from sleep. In the morning I suffered from overpowering weakness. My appetite was poor. I grew pale and thin and a despondent feeling possessed my mind continually. A slight hacking cough also added to my burden.

"My doctor said I might try Ferrozone, and it did me good in a few days. I increased in strength, the nervous sensations disappeared and with my appetite came back my color and good spirits. I have gained over ten pounds in weight, and as my age is 56, I consider Ferrozone is a marvel."

(Signed) Mrs. Edward Hill.

REMEMBER THIS:—Ferrozone is a true tonic—not an alcoholic stimulant. Fifty chocolate-coated tablets in a box for fifty cents, or six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U.S.A., and Kingston, Ont.

NEW TOWN IN BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Vancouver, B.C., May 10.—(Special.)—A Philadelphian has just been honored in this province. The new town on the main line of the Canadian Pacific, fourteen miles west of Revelstoke, has been named Munday, in virtue of the fact that Mr. W. Munday, of the Quaker City, has established a leading industry there, a big sawmill. The plant has a capacity of 75,000 feet per day. The timber limits of the company contain enough material to keep the mill in steady operation for twenty years. The Canadian Pacific has made the place a regular station.

Sydney, N.S.—Experts at the Seal Harbor gold belt at Goldsboro, Guysboro county N.S., and which was discovered last fall, estimate the value of the property at between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000. It is said to be the richest find in Nova Scotia, if not on the continent of America.

SOME HORSE SHOW TALK

Some will go to the Horse Show in an auto car, because it is the fashion; some will drive because it is the sport of the day; some will walk only to show their new tan shoes, and some others will take the street car, because they will be pleased to do so, but all will take a glass of Melcher's Red Cross Gin, because it is made in Canada, matured in bonded warehouses under Government inspection for years, and is superior to any of the imported brands.

DOM. COAL ISSUES BOUGHT THREE TIMES

Three Million of Stock and Five of Bonds Go With a Rush

One of the most successful issues ever made by a company controlled in Montreal, was closed at noon to-day, when the agencies of the Dominion Coal Company announced that the issues of $5,000,000 bonds and $3,000,000 preferred stock had been over-subscribed three times.

The Bank of Montreal and Royal Trust Company, who were the local agents made the announcement that no further subscriptions could be received after receiving reports from the Bank of Commerce, the Toronto agents and Lee Higginson & Co., the Boston agents.

It was intended that subscriptions should have been received till May 12 and that they had been opened only from Monday last till noon to-day shows the confidence that the public have in the reorganization plan as worked out by Mr. Jas Ross and his associates.

Comparatively little of the new issue was available for the public as the old bond and stockholders had priority and they took full advantage of it. It is understood that before the subscriptions were opened to the public, old stockholders had taken $2,300,000 of the $3,000,000 issues of stock and fully 60 per cent. of the $5,000,000 of the bonds.

In financial circles it is believed that a little over half of the entire issues will be retained in this city, while the remainder will be equally divided in Toronto and Boston.

COLLEGE OF PHARMACY ELECTS ITS DIRECTORS

The annual meeting of the Montreal College of Pharmacy was held in the College Building, 595 Lagauchetiere street, on Thursday, May 4th, a large number of the members being present.

The president, Mr. A. J. Lawrence, occupied the chair. After reading the minutes of the last annual meeting, which were duly confirmed, the secretary-treasurer, Mr. E. Muir, read the annual report and financial statement and also the financial statement of the Building Fund Committee, all of which showed a satisfactory progress. The scrutineers having completed the counting of the ballot papers for the new board, announced the following nine gentlemen to have received the highest number of votes, and therefore duly elected as members of the Executive Board, namely: J. E. Tremble, Joseph Contant, R. H. Williams, L. G. Ryan, W. H. Chapman, Ed. Giroux, junr.; W. S. Kerry, J. Lawrence and Henri Lanctot. These gentlemen, with the following officers who were elected by acclamation, will compose the Board of the College for the year 1905-1906, namely: David Watson, president; Mr. Alex. B. J. Moore, vice-president; and Mr. E. Muir, secretary-treasurer.

ALD. AMES, M.P., WILL GIVE UP HIS SEAT IN COUNCIL

Will Not Be a Candidate at the Elections in February Next.

The impossibility of doing justice to his duties in the House of Commons, and in the City Council, has determined Ald. Ames, M.P., to drop the obligations consequent upon the lesser office, and next Council will not see him in his seat. To his most intimate friends, this resolution is not entirely a surprise, as to a gentleman of Ald. Ames' application to duties self-imposed it has long been apparent that Federal and civic duties combined could not both be performed with that close study of detail which he has been wont to bestow upon them.

Ald. Ames has frequently remarked that he would not vote upon and discuss matters of importance to the city from information gained merely from debates in open council and from the the perusal of committee's reports and that it was his intention to devote his full time in future to his duties in the House of Commons. As a result of this determination, seat No. 1, in St. George's Ward will be occupied by another representative in the City Council, after February next.

As a reform alderman, and a gentleman of unimpeachable integrity, Ald. Ames, since his entrance into civic political life in 1898, has established a most enviable reputation, and his place in the Council chamber of the city of Montreal will be one hard to fill. His effective campaign, five years ago, for a reform civic administration, as well as his clean and immensely business-like furtherance of the city's best interests, since that time, will not soon be forgotten.

THE FRANCO-AMERICAN AUTOMOBILE COMPANY.

Letters patent have just been issued by the Quebec Legislature for the incorporation of the Franco-American Automobile Company of Montreal. The petitioners are Messrs. Thos. Craig, S. Page, Hon. H. B. Rainville, L. N. Patenaude and G. Husson. The capital of the new company is $20,000, three-fourths of which are subscribed and paid up. The company has already taken possession of their recently built garage on Guy street, near Ste. Catherine Street, which is probably the largest and finest permanent garage, not only in Montreal, but in Canada as well. It is built of brick, two stories high, with a depth of 171 feet and a width of 50 feet. The frontage on Guy Street is occupied by a large show room and offices and the back by the garage proper, the repair shop, the washing stand and supplies store. Everything in connection with the establishment is strictly first class and up-to-date. It will be under the management of Mr. George Husson, a French auto engineer and expert. The company makes a specialty of the importation of French high grade cars and supplies.

GAYNOR AND GREENE MUST STAY IN DURANCE VILE, SAYS THE JUDGE

Judge Lafontaine Declines the Responsibility of Freeing Fugitives Under Any Conditions Unless the Justice Department Approves—Case for the Defence Closed.

Messrs. Gaynor and Greene are both physically and mentally sick of their confinement in the Montreal gaol. They look it. Both men have lost the confident debonair expression they used to wear and they appear haggard and hopeless, with the peculiar pallid grey complexion familiar to students of prison life. But in prison they must stay until honorably acquitted or extradited for trial on yet more serious charges, unless the Minister of Justice intervenes and permits their liberation in charge of a sheriff's officer.

On the resumption of court yesterday afternoon Judge Lafontaine announced that he had decided against Mr. Taschereau's application for bail for the fugitives. This was no ordinary case, said the judge, and, in view of its previous history and the serious international obligation incurred under the Extradition treaty, he did not feel justified in taking so great a responsibility as the freeing of the two under any bail.

Mr. Taschereau pleaded hard for bail, as also did Mr. Casgrain. He quoted Mr. Justice Hall that a foreigner on British territory had the same rights to protection as a citizen. Even convicts are liberated on ticket-of-leave, but Gaynor and Greene, who, in the sight of the law were innocent were herded in gaol with a lot of criminals. The case would certainly yet last a couple of months, as if the Judge found against the accused another writ of habeas corpus would be applied for.

In reply Mr. G. G. Stuart, K.C., emphasized the restricted application of bail in extradition cases, owing to their international aspect. Further, at such a stage of the trial it would be very unwise to grant bail to men who had already jumped recognizances for $80,000 in their own country—and these arguments prevailed with the judge.

Mr. Taschereau ever ready in resource, then sprung an alternative proposition that Gaynor and Greene be allowed to stay at a city hotel during the three days remand, under guard of Sheriff's officers. They were ready to pay all the expenses of whatever surveillance might be deemed necessary—anything to get out of gaol, which had already considerably undermined their health and threatened to break them down altogether.

Again Judge Lafontaine refused to accept the responsibility of such a course, but he stated that if the Minister of Justice would approve of it he would grant the request. But in the early stages of the trial when Gaynor and Greene were kept under surveillance at the Windsor Hotel, Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick had disapproved of such a course, declaring that the gaol was the proper place to keep the prisoners. Moreover the plan had proven unsatisfactory to Gaynor and Greene themselves who lived in constant fear of being kidnapped to the United States, and asked to be consigned to a safer repository. However, in consideration of the prisoner's health, and of the well known rule that no man should be treated as guilty until proven so, he would grant the request if Mr. Justice Department approved.

Mr. Macmaster argued against both propositions, and remarked that the accused showed remarkable audacity in asking for bail in Canada after having already defaulted in such heavy bail in the United States.

Expert legal evidence for the defence occupied the rest of the afternoon, and at adjournment Mr. Taschereau declared the case for his clients closed.

Mr. Abram J. Rose, the New York attorney for Gaynor and Greene described at some length the American international and interstate extradition laws.

The only other witness for the defence was another New York attorney, Mr. J. D. Lindsay, of the firm of Nichol, Amabel and Lindsay. His evidence was also along technical expert lines. He declared that there was no such thing as interstate extradition and therefore a man who fled from one state to another was not legally a fugitive from justice. There were merely interstate arrangements for the removal of persons from one state to another to stand their trial, and it was under such removal proceedings that the printed evidence in this case was taken at New York.

The hearing was then adjourned until next Saturday when evidence in rebuttal will be taken.

THE SYNOD WILL OWN ST. EDWARD'S

A letter from Archbishop Bond was formally read at the quarterly meeting of the executive committee of the Diocesan Synod yesterday in which His Lordship refused his consent to the sale of St. Edward's Church on account of the necessity of a church in that section of the city, as shown by the success attending the labors of the present pastor and congregation of St. Edward's. The sale had been recommended by the executive committee at the last meeting of that body.

Archdeacon Ker presented a motion authorizing the payment of $16,000 to St. Stephen's Church, Weredale Park, in full payment of its claims to St. Edward's Church building, which shall be considered as a lien upon this church, and the interest upon which shall lie as a first charge upon St. Edward's Church, the title to its ownership to become legally vested in the Synod.

An amendment postponing the consideration of the whole question was proposed and lost and the motion of Archdeacon Ker was carried. The Archbishop gave notice that he would submit this action to the Synod of the diocese at its next session.

The report of the widows' and orphans' fund committee, authorizing certain clergymen not upon the fund, to pay up arrears, and become eligible, was adopted. The committee upon clerical stipends reported the augmentation of the incomes of six clergymen. A special donation of $500 towards the mission fund debt from a friend of the diocese was reported by the secretary.

Mr. G. F. C. Smith was appointed acting-treasurer in the absence of the treasurer in England.

The following were appointed a committee to look into the question of country rectories and their compliance with the requirements of the canon: Rural Dean Robinson, Rev. Mr. Bourne, Dr. L. H. Davidson, Rev. F. Charters, Rev. Canon Chambers, Very Rev. Dean Evans.

VOTE OF CENSURE UPON IRISH POLICY

London, May 10.—Yesterday the leader of the Opposition moved the vote of censure upon the Irish administration of Mr. Balfour, of which he had given notice before the Easter recess. The motion was defeated by a vote of 315 to 252, many Liberal members being absent.

Before the debate commenced Mr. Wyndham, late Secretary, made a personal statement of the reasons for his resignation. H said he had insisted on retiring from the Cabinet because political and personal reasons had convinced him that he could better serve the Government as an unofficial member. His views had not changed in the smallest degree in regard to the Irish administration. Union must be the fundamental principle of any sound Irish policy. The situation in both Ireland and England had become complicated by a personal misunderstanding, for which he himself was partly to blame. He had never contemplated any delegation of legislative powers from the House of Commons other than the power of dealing with purely private bills. Consequently he had paid no attention, as he ought to have done, to the earlier proceedings of the Reform Association. Sir Antony Macdonnell (under secretary to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland) erroneously believed that he (Mr. Wyndham) would approve of the proposals of the revolutionists, but as soon as he saw these proposals Mr. Wyndham registered strong objection to them. Such misconception of his attitude was obstructive in the case of all efforts at social reform. Therefore he had concluded that his power for doing further useful work in Ireland was ended.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman (the Liberal leader) then moved his resolution, which amounted to a vote of censure of the policy and proceedings of the Irish Government, connected with and subsequent to the appointment of Sir Antony Macdonnell.

Sir Henry said the Government had attempted a policy of impartial Irish administration on the lines of the Wyndham-Macdonnell letters, but had fled from it at the dictates of a small party of Irish Unionists.

After a lengthy criticism of the Government's policy, Sir Henry concluded with remarking that as to the future Irish policy, mutterings of coercion were heard. If that proved to be the case Englishmen would learn that the real separationists were the Unionists, who first cajoled Ireland and then abandoned her.

The debate afforded opportunity for a wide expression of views by both sides and all factions. William O'Brien, who took his seat for the first time since his election, said he would not vote either way. He held that the only way to settle the Irish question was not by revolutionary tactics, but by conciliation and a peace conference, in which the best statesmen of England, Ireland and the colonies should participate.

Unionist members uncompromisingly demanded the retirement of Under-Secretary Macdonnell.

NEW TORONTO PAPER.

An English Publisher Proposes to Start a Daily in Toronto.

Toronto, May 10.—(Special.)—Recently a representative of one of the English leading newspapers visited Canada with a view to selecting a city for establishing a daily newspaper, and after visiting Winnipeg, Toronto, Montreal and Ottawa, came to the conclusion that Toronto afforded the best field for a new daily paper, and has left for England to report to his principals. It is expected that the paper will soon be established.

He was favorably impressed with the outlook in Winnipeg, but ultimately decided in favor of Toronto on account of the evident breach between the Globe and the Liberal party. There being at this moment no Toronto morning Liberal paper, he expects that the new paper, coming out as a Liberal organ, will dislodge the Globe with its Liberal readers.

A unique feature in its make-up will be its English and foreign news. The parent paper in England has already a most extensive and complete system for collecting foreign news, of which it would be able to make a specialty in connection with the new publication. In fact, he states that the new paper, as regards its English and foreign news, will be easily the first in Canada. He intimated that the publishers would probably invest a large sum in the manufacture of the news print required for their Canadian and English publications, the joint demand of the two offices enabling them to supply themselves with this material at a comparatively low rate.

If the English capitalists decide to go into the scheme, it is probable that arrangements will be made at an early date for the printing of the paper by some existing Toronto house until a suitable establishment with all modern equipment is provided.

Mr. William Hanson has been appointed a governor of the Wesleyan College.

REV. MR. M'LAREN NEW MODERATOR

Presbytery of Montreal and Ottawa Meeting at Vankleek Hill.

Vankleek Hill, Ont., May 10.—(Special.)—The Presbyterian Church Synod of Montreal and Ottawa convened in Knox Church last evening. There were about eighty delegates present, and others arrived this forenoon. The retiring Moderator, Rev. Dr. Amaron, of Montreal College, presided, and conducted the devotional exercises of the meeting. Rev. Dr. Amaron preached the annual sermon. The leading theme of his discourse was the work of French evangelization in the Province of Quebec, and he made a very earnest appeal in behalf of this work. He eulogized the institution in Point aux Trembles, and said that the Synod could easily raise one hundred thousand dollars for the erection and equipment of a new building, which was much required. The retiring Moderator, in an earnest prayer, invoked the divine blessing on the deliberations of the Synod, and declared the court open for business.

REV. D. McLAREN,
Elected Moderator of the Montreal and Ottawa Synod.

After the adoption of the roll call and other routine business, the Synod proceeded to election of a new Moderator. Moved by Rev. Robert Campbell, D.D., of Montreal, seconded by Rev. W. D. Armstrong, of Ottawa, that Rev. David McLaren, of Alexandria, Glengarry Presbytery, be Moderator. The motion was carried unanimously, and Mr. McLaren was escorted to the chair by the mover and seconder.

The report of the business committee was presented by the clerk, Rev. J. R. MacLeod, of Three Rivers, and adopted.

The Synod granted leave to the Montreal Presbytery to take the following students on trial for license: J. D. McKenzie, Milton; Jack, George W. Menzie, A. Ormiston, George S. Mitchell, Thomas A. Patterson, Henri Joliat, S. H. Bourgoin, and Edward E. Mowatt. The Ottawa Presbytery was also granted leave to take Mr. D. J. Craig on trial for license.

THE NEW MODERATOR.

Rev. David McLaren, B.A., of Alexandria, is a son of Rev. Professor McLaren, D.D., of Knox College. His earlier studies were carried on in Belleville High School, the Ottawa Collegiate Institute, and in Upper Canada College. After taking his degree in arts at Toronto University, he completed his theological course in Knox College. Before settling down to his life work, Mr. McLaren travelled and studied in Scotland and Germany for over a year.

During the nineteen years he has been laboring in Alexandria the congregation has doubled in size, and its contributions have more than kept pace with its growth. Mr. McLaren has rendered considerable service on committees of Presbytery, Synod and Assembly; for the past nine years has discharged the duties of clerk in Glengarry Presbytery, and has the confidence and esteem of his brethren in large measure.

350 G.T.R. MACHINISTS ARE OUT AT STRATFORD

Stratford, Ont., May 10.—(Special.)—It is estimated that there are 350 machinists in Stratford, all of whom are out. This action was the result of the laying off of machinists who unanimously favored striking in case the company refused to consider their grievances. An additional number of boilermakers and helpers went to work here yesterday, a total of fifty or sixty now being at work. Some 300 or 400 men all told are busy at the local shops, and Master Mechanic Patterson says he will be prepared to take blacksmiths on this week. The rumor that the engineers were objecting to going on their runs because of alleged bad condition of power is denied by Mr. Patterson.

Few Out at London.

London, Ont., May 10.—(Special.)—There are a number of machinists employed at the Grand Trunk car works in East London, but they are still at work. The only machinists employed in the motive power department are concerned in the present strike. It is reported eight of the strikers have returned to work.

On returning from work in the evening his son found the door locked, and on forcing an entrance discovered his father dead. Death was due to heart affiure. Coroner McMahon disposed of the case this morning.

BOARD'S PLANS MUST STAND; SINGLE STORY SHEDS BARRED

To Discuss Improvements to Two Storey Sheds—Will Meet Shipping Federation—Who Should Mr. Reford's Resignation be Sent To?

Further discussion on the new sheds was enjoyed by the Harbor Board yesterday afternoon, and a sincere effort was made to sink all differences and unite to get the construction work under way with something like despatch. The discussion was opened by the reading of a quantity of correspondence between the Board and the Shipping Federation and Hon. Raymond Prefontaine on the old vexed question of two or one storey sheds.

The Mayor thought time was being uselessly lost. Personally he had his own views, but was willing to accept the majority view in favor of two storey sheds. Mr. Kennedy could send in a report by Thursday stating what was required by the companies and there was nothing to hinder going on with the work.

The chairman remarked that considering that the shipping companies only rented wharf space year by year, it would be folly to alter the views of the majority of the board to meet the ideas of mere temporary tenants. Steamers were more likely to increase in size than decrease and the sheds must be built for the future not for the past. If any change be made in any shed he considered it should only be done in consideration of a long term lease.

A report of Engineer Kennedy of a conference with the Federation was read, which Mr. Lemay declared upset the whole thing.

Mr. Doran thought half the posts should be taken out of all the sheds, built or yet to be built. The Board should fix upon a plan and if it was not approved there was only one course for the Board, but although invited by Mr. Bickerdike Mr. Doran declined to specify the course.

The chairman in view of the new information and the recent trend of events asked to be relieved from membership of the committee to settle the difficulty with the Federation. "It is not fair to put all the responsibility on me and let you all go scot free," he declared.

Mr. Bickerdike said the Board was pledged to two-storey permanent sheds, and all the committee could do was to accept suggestions for the improvements of the two-storey sheds.

Mr. Crathern created a small storm by saying Mr. Prefontaine had declared that he was responsible to the whole country for those sheds for which the Government was putting up the money, and he would see personally that the plans were suitable. Several commissioners declined to believe that the Minister had expressed such decided views.

OTHER INTERESTS INVOLVED.

The chairman said that his knowledge of the Board showed him that it was merely a waste of time trying to come to any satisfactory solution. The shipping people were never decided as to what they wanted, but they were far from the only interests to be considered. In view of the heavy exports the railways were certainly entitled to have their views heard.

Mr. Bickerdike said certain shipping firms had created a monopoly over the central part of the harbor, and were now anxious to drive the present Harbor Board out of office, knowing that they could not secure their ends while the present commissioners continued. The Board could not back down on the two-storey sheds, but could accept suggestions for other improvements.

Mr. Crathern—And if these gentlemen want to talk one-storey sheds, simply tell them that you cannot discuss it as the money was raised for two-storey sheds and you are not authorized to consider anything else.

With this understanding the matter dropped.

The Works Committee reported with plans for $175,000 worth of dredging around the harbor during the season.

Mr. Bickerdike objected to the report on the ground that the Government should undertake the cahnnel dredging, and the report carried, he and Mr. Racine voting nay.

G. N. R. WANTS SIDING.

A second report was put in recommending that a track be built for the Great Northern Railway opposite Viauville at a cost of $36,000, and be leased to them under the usual terms. As the company was agreeable to the terms it was recommended that the plans be forwarded to the Minister of Marine for approval, and the cost taken out of the loan for improvements below St. Mary's Current.

Mr. Doran said the road would give the Great Northern connection with the whole harbor and considerably increase its revenue. The siding would be a mile long, leased at $1,000 a year, and would bring in much revenue in wharfage.

Mr. Bickerdike strenuously objected to any such scheme being sprung on the Board in the dark, and peremptorily demanded more information.

Mr. Doran retorted that the Great Northern would not pay a thousand a year just for fun. The Board had spent $250,000 on tracks for the great roads and had almost nothing for it, but when another road wanted to come in some people raised a lot of objection. He strongly resented the carping spirit in which the Works Committee's recommendations were received.

Mr. Bickerdike saw dark schemes of Mr. Mullarkey behind the plan, to fulfil his claim that he had Parliamentary authority to use tracks all over the harbor, and declared that there was no hurry anyway, and the report had better be held over pending further confirmation.

But the report was adopted, Mr. Bickerdike dissenting.

A further complication in the much complicated permanent sheds tangle was revealed in another letter from Messrs Peter Lyall and Sons. The shed contractors stated that they had moved their plant to the east side of the Alexandria pier and got their engineers at work when they found that Messrs. Furness, Withy and Co. were preparing for the erection of their sheds for the season. Despite Messrs. Lyall's protests the shipping people declined to make way, stating that the site had been allotted them by the Harbor Board and they were in a hurry to get it ready for the season. Messrs. Lyall and Sons therefore notified the Board that they would hold it responsible for the provision of sites for the permanent sheds.

This was rather too big a matter for prompt handling, and was referred to the special committee on sheds.

WHO SHOULD HE RESIGN TO?

A formal letter was received from Mr. Robert Reford, stating that on account of pressing business and unsatisfactory health, he had resigned his seat as representative of the shipping interests at the Board, and placed his resignation in the hands of the president of the Shipping Federation.

Several commissioners considered that this method of resignation was not legal that Mr. Reford's resignation should have been sent to the Board itself. In order to settit the point the matter was referred to the Board's attorney, and action deferred pending his decision.

DISPENSARY DID GOOD YEAR'S WORK

But the Receipts Were $400 Short of the Necessary Expenditure

The fifty-fifth annual meeting of the Montreal Dispensary, was held in the Board room of the Institution yesterday afternoon. The report of the committee of management was read by Dr. H. B. Carmichael, the Honorary Secretary, and showed a large growth in the work of the Dispensary among the sick poor of the city. The number of applications for aid during the year, was 17,691, of which 11,528 were Roman Catholic, 4,443 Protestant, and 1,720 others, mostly Jews. There had been some one thousand more consultations this year than last. A vote of thanks was passed to the medical staff for their services, and reference made to the loss the Dispensary had felt in the deaths of Dr. Rollo Campbell, Mr. Albert D. Nelson, and Dr. F. W. Campbell. Dr. Carmichael stated that the income of the Dispensary had amounted to $900, a sum $400 short of that required to meet expenses, and that the institution was in need of funds.

The officers elected for the ensuing year were: President, Mr. Chas. S. J. Phillips; First Vice-President, Dr. J. M. Jack; 2nd Vice-President, Mr. Geo. Esplin; Hon.-Treas., Dr. R. A. FOOTBALL CLUBS IGNORE C.A.A.U.

Galt and Westmounts Will Play for Dominion Championship

The Galt and Westmount Association football clubs will not bother securing permission from the C.A.A.A. to play home and home games for the Dominion championship. The Westmounts wired the Galts this morning that as the Galts and Westmounts were not members of the C.A.A.A., the latter had decided that the clubs would have to settle it between themselves, whether they would play. The answer came back promptly from Galt:

"The game goes on. Our association (the Western Ontario Football Association) permits us to play."

This answer means that the Galts and Westmount will ignore the C.A.A.A. and will play home and home games for the Dominion championship. The first game will be played here June 10 and the second in Galt on Dominion Day.

The trouble between the C.A.A.A. and the Westmounts was caused by the Montreal District Association Football League deciding that it would follow the English system and allow amateurs to play with professionals without losing their amateur standing. The C.A.A.A. does not recognize this principle and friction resulted.

MR. H. J. LOGAN IMPROVED.

The condition of Mr. H. J. Logan, M.P. for Cumberland, who has been in St. Luke's Hospital, Ottawa, for some weeks, was rather unfavorable yesterday, but a despatch from Ottawa this morning states that Mr. Logan took a decided turn for the better during the night, and his physicians now feel that his condition is most hopeful.

BYE-ELECTIONS MAY BE DELAYED

Presence of Hon. Mr. Hyman is Required in the House.

Ottawa, May 10.—(Special.)—The date of the Ontario bye-elections is not settled, and there is no indication that the Cabinet have discussed the matter. Members of the Government say, in fact, the subject has not yet been considered. It is taken for granted Mr. Hyman, who is at present out of town, will be given charge of the department over which he has presided temporarily for the past twelve months, and he would have to be consulted in fixing the dates for London and North Oxford. In this connection there is a point of some importance to be considered.

If Mr. Hyman enters upon election in the near future it will take him away from the House for several weeks at a time perhaps when the estimates of the Public Works Department need to be considered. In his absence the necessary Ministerial explanations of the appropriations could not be given and their postponement might have the effect of considerably prolonging the session.

Woodstock, Ont., May 10.—(Special.)—Mr. George Smith claims the statement regarding his intentions in respect to the vacancy in North Oxford has been misinterpreted. He declares he did not say he would run irrespective of the choice of the Liberal convention. His name will go before the Liberal convention and he will leave himself in the hands of his friends.

CHANCELLOR BOYD ON FAITH CURES

Healers by Christian Science Should be Amenable to Law.

Toronto, May 10.—(Special.)—"It is most important to my mind to recommend you strongly to consider whether some precaution should not be taken in future against this sort of thing that exists in this unlimited sort of way," said Chancellor Boyd, in addressing the Grand Jury at the Assizes yesterday, respecting the charge of manslaughter against four Christian Scientists in connection with the death from typhoid fever, of Wallace Goodfellow.

"What I mean, is this," continued Chancellor Boyd, "here is a class of people who are exempt from the laws of the land in their dealings with the sick. They claim their system of Christian Science is one of religion as well as of therapeutics. This is all very well so far as it is a system of religion; but where they claim to have a system of therapeutics—of healing—of dealing with disease—is it right they should be exempt from the laws of the country? They don't know anything about disease. These persons who are called healers are of no standing in particular. They may take a waiter in a hotel or a barber, and, after giving him a course of seven or eight lectures by Mrs. Eddy or some of those trained under her teaching, that person is qualified to charge $2 or $3 for treatment of this nature. Part of this treatment is to read the Lord's Prayer with the spiritual interpretation of Mrs. Eddy, which Principal Sheraton says so confounds it that Our Blessed Master himself would hardly understand his own prayer.

"The law as it stands at present says they are not practising medicine. They do not diagnose disease. They make no difference between typhoid fever, toothache, smallpox, or any of the infectious disease. All are treated in the same way by an appeal to mental condition of the patient that he is not suffering from any disease. I, myself, have a conviction this lad might have been saved if he had been where means for proper treatment of this kind of disease could have been afforded him. I myself, have come through this kind of disease, and I know the value of doctor's treatment. Even although they may not give any drugs, their care, their attention to symptoms, their noting every change of pulse enables them at the critical moment to apply remedies, slight though they may be, which turn the patient from the path of death to the path of life."

TATAMAGOUCHE FIRE FOUGHT BY CITIZENS

By Heroic Efforts Conflagration Was Kept Under Without Appliances.

Halifax, May 10.—(Special.)—A very serious fire occurred at Tatamagouche, Colchester County, yesterday, when three concerns, with most of their contents, were destroyed. The fire started at 1.30 in the rear warehouse of George Clarke's, and within twenty minutes the whole premises were a mass of flames. The butcher shop of D. Menzies, on the west, caught, and was soon consumed, while the fine store of D. Nelson, on the east, also caught. Part of the goods from the lower flat were saved. A small office belonging to the estate of the late Dr. Roche, which was between Nelson's store and that of Dr. Chambers, and there the fire was stopped by the almost superhuman efforts of the citizens.

Chambers' stock was badly damaged by smoke and water. Nelson's loss is about $2,600, with $1,100 insurance; Clarke's, $6,000, no insurance. The Menzie's shop, owned by Alexander Fraser, was insured for $300. Considering that the only fire appliances were a hook and ladder and bucket brigade, the citizens deserve great credit for confining the fire to the burned buildings.

Many Women Suffer Untold Agony From Kidney Trouble.

Very often they think it is from so-called "female disease." There is less female trouble than they think. Women suffer from backache, sleeplessness, nervousness, irritability, and a dragging-down feeling in the loins. So do men, and they do not have "female trouble." Why, then, blame all your trouble to female disease? With healthy kidneys, few women will ever have "female disorders." The kidneys are so closely connected with all the internal organs, that when the kidneys go wrong, everything goes wrong. Much distress would be saved if women would only take

Miss Nellie Clark, Lambeth, Ont., tells of her cure in the following words:—"I suffered for about two years with kidney trouble. I ached all over, especially in the small of my back; not being able to sleep well, no appetite, menstruation irregular, nervous irritability, and brick-dust deposit in urine, were some of my symptoms. I took Doan's Kidney Pills. The pain in my back gradually left me, my appetite returned, I sleep well, and am effectually cured. I can highly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from kidney trouble."

NOTRE DAME DE GRACE MUST AND WILL HAVE A WATER WORKS SYSTEM

The citizens of Notre Dame de Grace want a water service and intend to have it. The difficulties of securing such service for the municipality are, however, fully recognized, and the council has expressed its intention of giving no franchise to any company until the matter has been thoroughly discussed and weighed. A meeting of the council of Notre Dame de Grace was held Monday with Mayor John L. Brodie, in the chair, to talk over the various offers which have up to the present been received.

A fact which caused much gratification to the Councillors and citizens is that now two offers lie before the Council for the supplying of the village and municipality with water.

The Credit Municipal Canadien has communicated with the authorities of Notre Dame de Grace, making a suggestion which offsets the first offer of the Montreal Water and Power Company. The Credit Municipal engages itself to loan the municipality the funds necessary to establish a municipal water system, or to lay the pipes in Notre Dame de Grace on the understanding that the municipality be permitted to take over the system in a term of years. This communication was favorably received by many of the citizens, but, the question arose as to how the place was to be supplied with water, even in the event of such pipes being laid.

Councillor T. A. Trenholme raised a possible solution to this difficulty by bringing in a motion that Lachine be asked on what conditions they would pump water into the Notre Dame de Grace mains for the purpose of supplying that municipality with water, estimates to be made at the works and at the boundaries of Lachine.

This proposition, seconded by Councillor Robert Brodie, carried and Lachine will be asked for specifications. Another motion was brought in by Councillor Trenholme, and carried to the effect that the Credit Municipal Canadien be asked to meet the Council to be instructed what the municipality wanted and on what terms they could agree. This meeting was set for the evening of Monday, May 15, at 8 o'clock.

Two petitions were received from the citizens of the two extremities of Notre Dame de Grace, both asking the Mayor and Council to take all possible means of securing a prompt supply of water. One from Notre Dame de Grace West, was signed by eighty large proprietors. A communication was read also from Senator Mackay, stating that he had heard of the offer of the Montreal Water and Power Company. The municipality of Notre Dame de Grace needed water, but, in view of the troubles existing between the town of Westmount and the Water and Power Company, it would be best to leave the offer until they were sure that the company was prepared to furnish water at least as pure as that supplied to the citizens of Montreal.

Another clause in the proposed contract to which Senator Mackay objected was that giving exclusive rights to the Montreal Water and Power Company. He hoped that no action would be taken by the Council until opportunity had been given for the fullest discussion of the whole matter.

The offer made by the Montreal Water & Power Company was warmly discussed at last night's meeting. The councillors representing the rural district of the municipality, said that the Council had no right to consider a project which would leave them without water, as the Montreal Water & Power Company had drawn a map of the proposed system which took in only the populated part of Notre Dame de Grace. Councillor Trenholme said that two-thirds of the municipality would be cut off under that contract. He further insisted that the scheme would be ruinously expensive to the farmer, who would have to pay exorbitant water rates based on the value of his property.

The old question of the bad Westmount water was again threshed out. Councillor Trenholme demanding the report of the water commission appointed by Westmount and the Water and Power Company.

Rev. Father Dionne, cure of Notre Dame de Grace, who attended the meeting, spoke briefly, expressing his gratification that the Credit Municipal should have made an offer to the Council. They now had two propositions before them, and competition would ensure them better terms. Mr. Armand Decary spoke along the same lines. The Council adjourned until next Monday.

ABANDONED INFANT THROUGH POVERTY

City Detectives Gallagher and Vincent were successful Monday afternoon in arresting the woman who abandoned the baby girl in St. Gabriel's Church, Point St. Charles, on Thursday last. The accused is Mrs. Alexander Reid, whose young daughter of about seventeen years is the mother of the infant, and in explanation of her action she states that having no proper accommodation and food for it she thought that by leaving the child in church a good home might be found for it. Mrs. Reid is now under remand for enquête.

The husband has been out of work for some time and the family, consisting of the mother and four children, have been sheltering in the hay loft of a stable in rear of 503 Charlevoix St., and their case is now being attended to by Mr. Geo. H. Marshall, of the Society for the Protection of Women and Children.

MR. LANGLOIS' SCHOOL BILL SENT BACK TO COMMITTEE

Interesting Discussion on the Bill Respecting School Commissioners—Dentists' Bill Passed as Amended—Many Bills Advanced a Stage.

Quebec, May 10.—(Special.)—Speaker Weir took his seat in the Legislative Assembly yesterday afternoon. The sitting lasted until 5.30, and was quite interesting.

The following bills were presented:

An act to amend Art. 37 of the Municipal Code.

An act to secure more efficient protection for bees.

An act to amend Art. 19 and 118 of the Municipal Code.

An act to amend the Municipal Code respecting the sale of immovables for arrears of taxes.

The House went into committee of the whole on the public bill, "An act to amend the Civil Code respecting persons using the name of another firm as a firm name, which was adopted and passed its third reading.

The House went into committee on Mr. Langlois' bill, "An act to amend Art. 4055 and 4062 of the Revised Statutes. The member for St. Louis wanted to have the clause reinserted in the bill that gave the right of dentists to appeal to the courts on matters of discipline ruled by the Board of Dentistry, etc. Mr. Decarie opposed the amendment, as did Hon. Mr. McCorkill and Mr. Tellier. The Provincial Treasurer said that he had been a member of both branches of the Legislature since 1897, and had seen similar measures before the House which could never pass the Legislative Council. He would like to see the House in the present instance deal with the bill before it reached the Council. The universities of Laval and McGill recognized the dentists as competent men, and why should not the members of the House accord them the same recognition. No such thing as an appeal on matters of discipline was ever heard of among the other professions, and he did not see why an exception should be made in the case of the Dentistry Association.

A vote was taken on Mr. Langlois' amendment, and was lost by a vote of 23 to 27. The bill as amended by the Legislation Committee was passed.

The House went into committee on "An act to amend the Municipal Code respecting the sessions of county councils."

Mr. Mackenzie, who had charge of the bill, explained the object was to allow councils to regulate the number of meetings in keeping with their own judgment, in order to curtail expenses.

Hon. Mr. McCorkill supported the bill, which he said was a good measure, and spoke from his experience in county council matters. The bill finally passed its third reading.

The following public bills received second reading:

An act to amend the Education Act.

An act to amend the law respecting conciliation.

An act to amend the Revised Statutes respecting cemetery companies.

An act to amend the law respecting councils of conciliation and arbitration.

Mr. Perrault, who had charge of the latter bill, explaining the object of the measure, dwelt upon the serious consequences from strikes that could be arranged by a council of arbitration, and every person who should not abide with the terms of the act would be liable to a fine not exceeding $50 for each day during which the infringement of the proposed act should last.

MONTREAL SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. Langlois' bill to amend the special laws respecting the public schools of the city of Montreal came up for its second reading. The member for St. Louis advocated his measure with considerable force, and the terms of the arguments used when he introduced the measure last week.

Mr. Carter agreed with the spirit of the bill and desired that it should be applied to the Protestant as well as Roman Catholic School Commissioners of the city.

Mr. Leblanc objected to any change in the educational system. He said that he could not see how any person could say that the School Commissioners of Montreal were not representatives of the people. Three of them were appointed by the Government, which was elected by the people and responsible to the people, and three were named by the Montreal City Council which was elected by the people. He did not think that the Protestant School Commissioners were treated differently, however, he was a Catholic, perhaps not as good a one as he should be or would like to be, but as a Catholic and father of a family, he would like to see the present system which has been in existence for a long period of time, continued, and his children educated under the guidance of the Catholic Church.

Speaking of the expenditure of the sums furnished by the taxpayers for the interest of education, he said that the amount was not large in comparison to the good work, and the splendid schools built by the commissioners showed where the money entrusted went to.

Hon. Mr. R. Roy said that the position was a serious one and required careful study. The present educational system had been in vogue a long time, and it would not be wise to introduce new legislation until the matter would have the greatest consideration. The bill was sent to the Committee of Legislation.

The following public bills received their second reading:

An act to amend article 2268 of the Civil Code.

An act to amend article 148 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

An act to amend articles 705a, 770 and 771 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

In reply to Mr. Langlois, Hon. Mr. R. Roy said that there were 704 female teachers without diplomas, teaching in the elementary Catholic schools of the Province of Quebec and their average salary was $89. There were 214 female teachers in the province without diplomas who receive a salary less than $75 and there were 1,844 female teachers with diplomas in the province who receive a salary of $100, or less.

The private bill entitled an act to amend the charter of the City of Three Rivers, passed its third reading.

PRIVATE BILLS COMMITTEE.

The Private Bills Committee met last night and passed the following bills:

An act respecting the common of Laprairie, in connection with the Laprairie Brick Company, Limited, asking power to extend its works at Laprairie which can only be done by acquiring additional land from and of the Laprairie Common, etc.

An act to amend the act respecting the Rolland Paper Company, which petitions that it bonuses, costs, advances, privileges and exemptions from all taxes whatsoever, for a period not exceeding twenty-five years, as may be deemed advisable by the council of such municipal corporation, acting by by-law or resolution; all the exemptions or privileges which the town or parish of St. Jerome have already granted to the said company are hereby ratified and confirmed."

The directors may, from time to time, effect loans of money on the credit of the company and issue bonds, debentures and preferred stock or other securities for all sums borrowed or to be borrowed; but the amount of such securities shall not at any time exceed seventy-five per cent of the capital stock of the company. This restriction shall not apply to commercial securities discounted by the company, etc.

An act to amend the act to incorporate the Laurentian Water and Power Company.

SENATE PASSED RAILWAY BILL

Third Reading Given to the Brantford and Woodstock Railway Bill.

(Special Correspondence of The Herald.)

Ottawa, May 10.—In the Senate Hon. Mr. Landry was informed that the Ross rifle had been tested for rapidity, accuracy, endurance, dust, etc., with satisfactory results. Improvements had been made since the contract had been made. The rifle proposed to be adopted had not been tested in England. None had been delivered as yet to the government, and distribution would probably be begun about Dec. 1.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell understood that 12,000 Ross rifles were to be delivered the first year, and 10,000 each year after. How long was that to be continued?

Hon. Mr. Scott said until the force was sufficiently armed.

Hon. Mr. Power moved the third reading of the bill to incorporate the Brantford and Woodstock Railway Company.

Hon. Mr. Kerr pointed out that the bill chartered a company to build a line from Brantford to Woodstock, a distance of twenty-eight miles, all within the Province of Ontario. The passage of this bill did not appear to him in keeping with the constitution under which they were legislating. Nothing had shown to prove this a work for the general advantage of Canada, and the bill appeared one entirely within the jurisdiction of the Provincial Legislature. He deemed it time that the Senate called a halt on this kind of legislation. The bill was very vague as to location, and there was already means of communication between Brantford and Woodstock via Paris. Therefore there was no urgent need of the line. It had been stated that it was to connect the Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo Railway with either the C.P.R. or G.T.R. at Woodstock, but there was nothing in the bill to show this, nor had it been proved before the committee. There was nothing therefore to show that this was anything more than a local line. It had been stated that the road was to be operated by steam, but the bill did not say so, so that was left optional with the company. The bill did not provide that the line should be built on its own right of way, so that there was nothing in the act to prevent the line being an electric road built on public highways.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell asked if a line could be constructed between the terminal points without connecting with the C.P.R., the G.T.R. and the T. H. & B. lines?

Hon. Mr. Kerr explained that certainly it was possible, and pointed out that nothing in the bill showed that there was intention to make such connection. The bill left the promoters open to commence and finish the line miles away from any of the other lines.

Hon. Mr. Kerr moved that the bill be not now read a third time, but be read a third time this day six months.

Hon. Mr. Landry objected that Mr. Kerr could not make the motion he had already spoken.

Hon. Mr. Speaker ruled that the motion was in order.

Hon. Mr. Wilson said while in some circumstances he might agree with Hon. Mr. Kerr, yet it seemed to him that the Senate having previously enacted such legislation, it was strange that Hon. Mr. Kerr should object to this bill. Had he become converted to the principle of provincial rights, he should have given notice. They remembered when Hon. Mr. Kerr's voice was raised in support of a bill infringing on provincial rights, namely, the bill authorizing the construction of a line from Hamilton to Toronto. They remember that his views at that time were not appreciated in Toronto, and that the government organ condemned him. Had that anything to do with his conversion? Perhaps having felt the lash on that occasion, he desired to avoid it. They knew that the C.P.R. and G.T.R. must connect with this line, and that it was in the interests of the people of that locality that it should be constructed. If ever a line was a work to the general advantage of Canada this was it.

Hon. Mr. Edwards said Mr. Wilson was altogether mistaken in supposing that Mr. Kerr was the only objector.

Hon. Mr. Beique in answering the attack made on Mr. Kerr said he had a distinct remembrance that the reason given for the Toronto and Hamilton bill cojoining here was because the road was to be an electric line, worked by power from Niagara Falls, and so testing the transmission of power as far back as Toronto. Besides at the time the new Railway Act had not been passed and the old act provided that roads crossing Federal lines became in fact Federal lines. The question was not whether they should have passed a bill in 1903, but whether they should pass this bill now. Section 92 of the British North America Act gave the legislature exclusive jurisdiction over local works. It could not be denied that this was a local work, situated entirely within the province, and not coming within the exceptions of the act, as it would not connect two or more provinces, or extend beyond the boundary of a province. The Imperial Parliament in drafting the British North America Act was very clear in the preservation of Provincial rights, and they provided that during or after construction a work might be shown to be a work for the general advantage of Canada. It was not necessary for Mr. Kerr to show that this line was not for the general advantage of Canada, but for Mr. Wilson to show that it was.

Hon. Mr. Macdonald, P.E.I., thought this discussion would do good. He had for years objected to this interference with Provincial rights, and he thought the Senate should abolish the declaration of work being for the general advantage of Canada as applied to local works.

Hon. Mr. Scott admitted this bill was one under provincial jurisdiction, and had the objection been taken early in the session he would have supported it. Parliament had for many years been exercising its undoubted right to declare any work for the general advantage of Canada. They must be consistent. They had been passing these bills and this one should not be singled out.

Hon. Mr. David said if the declaration that this work is hereby declared to be a work for the general advantage of Canada, were taken out no one would deny that the bill was one for the local legislature. If that clause was improperly used in order to bring this bill under the jurisdiction of the Dominion, were they to be influenced by a fraudulent use of that declaration. He attached much importance to what Mr. Scott had said but the rejection of this bill would do no harm. He had always protested against the use of the declaration but had said that if the Ontario representatives did not care to defend the autonomy of their own province why should he. Now that some of them were standing up for their rights he would help them. The argument that they had passed other bills would grow stronger every year.

The vote on the amendment was then taken, the division being: Yeas: Beique, deBoucherville, David, Edwards, Ellis, Kerr (Toronto), Macdonald, P.E.I. (7).

Nays:—Bolduc, Bostock, Bowell, Cartwright, Casgrain (Windsor), Dobson, Domville, Fiset, Gibson, Kerr (Coburg), King, Landry, Lougheed, McDonald (Cape Breton), McGregor, McHugh, McKay (Truro), Merner, Mitchell, Power, Robertson, Scott, Sullivan, Templeman, Tessier, Thompson, Watson, Wilson, Wood, Young, (32).

A YOUNG WOMAN'S TRIBUTE

TWO PHYSICIANS PUZZLED

Frail, Delicate Women and Girls Will Do Well to Heed the Advice of Miss M. Jones, 4019 Dorchester Street, Montreal.

Miss M. Jones, a well known young lady of Dorcester Street west, had been suffering for over six years from general debility, nervous prostration, indigestion and liver complaint. Two doctors had unsuccessfully treated her, and she seemed doomed to suffer all her life.

A friend of hers who had been benefited by the use of St. James Wafers called her attention to the personal letters of grateful appreciation, testimonials and remarkable reports of cures operated by these wafers, adding to this documentary evidence the testimony of her own prompt relief from sickness.

Miss Jones was cautious, but knowing that the best proof is a test, she bought a box of these pellets. Two weeks later she already felt considerably better, and after using the marvellous wafers during six weeks, she was completely restored to health.

What two doctors had been unable to do was thus accomplished by the use of a few boxes of St. James Wafers.

Knowing that what had cured her, could also cure others, and that it would be almost a criminal neglect to let a sick one suffer when by the simple act of adding her testimonial to that of thousands of others who have also been cured by St. James Wafers, she might point out the way to relief and cure, she at once wrote the St. James Wafers Co. the following grateful letter;

"Dear Sirs,—About six months ago I received a shock from which I did not recover, and was threatened with nervous prostration, also my body seemed to ache and pain me. Medicine seemed of no avail, until chancing to hear of St. James Wafers, I decided to give them a trial. I have been taking them for six weeks now, and feel perfectly strong and healthy again, thanks to your wafers.

"Miss M. Jones."

MONTREAL, WEDNESDAY, MAY 10.

CHECK!

The Mayor believes, and the City Attorneys sustain his contention, that the resolution passed by the Council on Monday extending the gas contract for fifteen years, is not legal, because a section of the charter exacts that no work of that important character can be entered upon until a by-law has been passed by the Council.

It looks as though those who drew the resolutions had overlooked this clause. The word "by-law," in the section (530) is, in fact, about all the city managed to save after the desperate assault made upon the charter a couple of sessions ago. Knowing that this gas contract was to come up, and knowing that an extension of the Street Railway franchise was to be asked, lobbyists interested in these projects induced the Legislature to eliminate from the charter of the city nearly every safeguard it had contained. Fromerly, the interest of the citizens in respect of these large matters was safeguarded by the requirement of a two-thirds vote. The lobbyists had the two-thirds reduced to a bare majority. The thing was done clandestinely, deliberately, and in face of previous warning by The Herald and others that it was intended and for what purpose it was intended. But, thanks to the firmness of some who could speak for Montreal, the word "by-law" was left in section 530. Thanks to that saving word, the city attorneys are now able to report that the action of Monday is illegal. The Mayor will to-day declare it to be illegal.

It is always to be apprehended, of course, that the shrewd people who drew the resolutions of Monday felt they had legal authority for taking the course that was taken. It is not to be supposed that Ald. Lapointe, for example, drew up the amendment whose contents he did not know. Whoever wrote the resolutions was doubtless as well versed in the company's legal position as he clearly showed himself to be in its business requirements. The opinion given by the city attorneys may thus prove to be open to challenge on behalf of the company. It would therefore be safer, it seems to us, for the Mayor to veto the resolution. In that case the courts could not make it effective until after the Mayor's veto had been overruled by a majority of the Council, and it appears to us very doubtful indeed whether the twenty gentlemen who blindly voted on Monday for resolutions whose contents they did not know, could be got together to override the Mayor's veto. Their constituents may be expected to have something to say about that.

If the Mayor's objection turns out to be correct, if the "jamming through" of Monday is of no avail, we may congratulate ourselves on the false move made by the franchise grabbers. The twenty aldermen who voted for it have shown themselves in their true colors, and are doomed to defeat if they face another election. They will not, we venture to believe, face the first, second, and third reading of a by-law designed to give effect to the terms of Monday's resolution.

Once more, however, it should be urged upon the Mayor that the lawyers upon whom the Light monopoly depend are astute enough to have foreseen the legal difficulty, and to be prepared with some sort of answer to the contention of the city attorneys. To the Mayor the citizens look not as a lawyer but as a barrier against legislation of this kind. That is what his majority meant. If he fails to veto, and the advice of the city's lawyers turns out to be wrong, he will have to share with the majority of the Council the responsibility for this contract. He should veto the resolution, and force the aldermen, if they still think they have the legal right, to vote again. The law may be one safeguard; the veto certainly is another. The Mayor should use both, and take no chances.

THE TONE OF THE QUEBEC LEGISLATURE.

The most serious of the obstacles that confront Premier Gouin and his ministers in their efforts to raise the deliberations of the Quebec Legislative Assembly to a higher plane is the powerlessness and insignificance of the Opposition. Paradoxical though it may appear, this condition makes against the influence of the new ministry in two ways, in its effect upon the supporters of the Government and in its effect upon the Opposition itself. It deprives the ministry of all that authority and cohesive force which comes of the presence of an enemy at the gates, and reduces the leverage of party discipline to the mere weight and influence of the ministers themselves. Fortunately the Cabinet as now constituted is a body of sufficient force to impose its own authority upon any Legislature, without the assistance of the discipline of a state of conflict. That it has both the power and the intention to do so has already been made sufficiently evident by the attitude of ministers in the Private Bills Committee, and elsewhere on several occasions, notably in the clear and definite policy outlined by Hon. Mr. McCorkill in the case of the insurance bills. But it must not be forgotten that whatever is done to lead the Quebec Legislature away from the clash of individual and parochial interests and to make it the vehicle of an organized and constructive policy for the aggrandizement of the province must be done now by the Liberal party alone—by the strength of the leaders and the public spirit and party devotion of their following. With a weak ministry or an unscrupulous following, the present situation would mean disruption.

And while the Opposition is powerless to affect for good the ranks of the governing party, it is even more unlikely to make any contribution itself to the raising of the tone of debate. The Opposition is personified in Mr. P. E. Leblanc, and the member for Laval is still, as he was in past sessions, the personification of petty and unillumined criticism.

Mr. Leblanc's position is, it must be admitted, one of extreme difficulty. If the lack of organized opposition be a handicap to the government, how much greater a handicap must the lack of organic existence be to the Opposition itself. Mr. Leblanc finds himself in an Assembly where his past relations and his habits of mind allow him no functions save those of an Oppositionist, but where the Opposition is officially and avowedly dead. Unable by long habit to perceive any good in any measure proposed by a Liberal Government (save where that measure is so obviously popular with the constituencies that it would be madness to oppose it), and hence unable to cooperate with that government for the perfection of the measures it is able to effect, he is equally unable to maintain any line of policy of his own. It is not in the power of one man, even be he the member for Laval, to devise a policy for the Government of the Province of Quebec. Even if he wished to do so, Mr. Leblanc has no mandate to such effect, either from his own constituency or from any other. He was not elected as an Oppositionist or as a Conservative; he did not go before his constituency as an Oppositionist or as a Conservative; and neither did any of the little group of ex-Conservatives who occasionally aid him in pouring scorn upon the projects of the Gouin Government.

And worst of all, Mr. Leblanc is without responsibility, not only to the past and to the present, but also to the future. In the mental make-up of the complete Oppositionist are at least two essential ingredients—a radical dislike for the men or the measures, or both, of the government of the day, and a deep-rooted faith in the possibility of substitution for them of men and measures of a more satisfactory character. The first of these Mr. Leblanc has in full degree; the second, which is the check, the balance-wheel, of the Opposition mechanism, he possesses no longer. It is impossible to listen to him in the Legislative Assembly without realizing that the future has no interest and no possibilities for him. He has no party whose ultimate accession to power he can look forward to as the reward of continued struggling. If there should ever come a day when the Conservative party is again competent to hold the reins of office in this province, it can only be after such an absolute reconstruction as shall sweep away all memory of the years of its wandering in the wilderness. Mr. Leblanc knows this, knows too that this reconstruction, even if it comes within the time of his political activity, will be the work of other hands than his, and knows yet further that whatever work he is doing now is not done in the interests of the dormant Conservative party, and will give him no real claim upon the gratitude of that party at the time of its distant awakening. It is certainly not an encouraging position. There were moments in the long thirty-year Opposition sojourn of the Ontario Conservatives when feelings of the same kind threatened to get the upper hand, but the Ontario leaders always had a party organization and a following sufficient to remind them that they stood for something besides themselves in the political life of the province. They had the logical and defensible position of an accredited Opposition, and even if they had no policy differing from that of the government in more than microscopic details, they had certain objections to methods of government procedure which they could claim had been endorsed by a portion of the electorate. Mr. Leblanc has none of these things.

Thus it is not strange that the subjects of his frequent oratory should be of the most parochial and insignificant character, and that matters essentially appropriate to committee consideration should be continually brought before the country at large by his flowing and deliberate periods. The exercise of discretion by the ministry or any of its members is the most constant object of his attack. Quite the most fiery speech of the past week was that in which Mr. Leblanc demanded that Hon. Mr. Tessier's bill respecting agricultural societies be amended so as to deprive the Minister of Agriculture of his discretionary power to extend the provincial grant to societies which had been unable to hold an annual meeting, but which were yet in the minister's opinion deserving of assistance. Upon this tremendously vital issue Mr. Leblanc invoked once more the argument that the Quebec Legislature is the sole French-speaking Legislature on the continent, and should therefore be particularly jealous of its sovereign prerogatives. It does not appeal to Mr. Leblanc's (as it might did he hope ever to take part in its councils) that the Quebec ministry is the sole French-speaking executive council on this continent, and that therefore it should reasonably receive the ordinary confidence reposed in the leaders of the majority of the people's representatives. Mr. Leblanc, of course, has no confidence in the ministry; yet he was not elected to oppose it, and he has nothing to substitute for it. What field has he for his eloquence but parochial criticism?

THE CONFISCATION OF A BOND ISSUE.

The bill which the Canadian Electric Company, a water power development concern of Levis, is seeking to put through the Quebec Legislature, appears to contain a principle which is much better avoided in company legislation. By this bill it is sought to cancel a portion of the bonded debt of the company, and to issue stock in its place. In the preamble it is alleged that the bondholders have been convened and have concurred in the exchange. The equity of this exchange is not in question; the bondholders may or may not be getting the worth of their holdings.

The objection to the bill lies in the fact that, according to the positive statement of one of them, the bondholders were not unanimous in accepting the exchange, and some of them object to it very strongly. The Legislature is therefore being asked to cancel the secured claim of these creditors against the company without their consent, giving them in exchange a stock certificate for which they have no desire, and which affords them no claim upon the company except for certain profits that may or may not be realized.

The only argument that can be urged in favor of this legislation is that it is necessary in order to place the company in a position to carry on business. That may be true, but the bondholders, as bondholders, have no interest in the company as a concern carrying on business. The security upon which they have ventured their money is the value of its property on the open market. There is no limit to the possibilities which ensue when we once compel a secured creditor to sacrifice his security for the benefit of his debtor. If the Quebec bondholder is to be ruled by the majority of his fellow holders instead of by the letter of his bond, there is nothing to prevent any debtor company from securing control of one bond more than half of its total mortgage obligations and then deliberately and with legislative sanction, cancelling the entire debt. Under which circumstances, we can picture the wild rush there would be to underwrite the bond issues of Quebec companies. Clearly the promoters of the bill must make good their claim that the bondholders are consenting parties to the change, or the Legislature must throw out the bill.

THE THREE PER CENT.

It is rather unfortunate that the officials of the Power Company could not give any definite information, when asked by The Herald yesterday, as to what revenue would come in to the city by virtue of the agreement to pay three per cent. on the gross earnings of the Gas Company in the city, or what a saving of five cents per thousand feet would aggregate to the citizens. That information ought really to have been before the aldermen before they voted on Monday.

On a calculation, however, it becomes fairly clear that in his scurry to get the contract through without actually breaking the law Ald. Lariviere gave away rather a nice little sum.

Three per cent. calculated on the old rate of $1.20 would amount to 3.6 cents per thousand. This, for five years, would amount to eighteen cents. Ald. Lariviere, to get within the law, gives away twenty-five cents in the five years. Thus the rates would be:

Without Percentage.		With Percentage
1905	115	1905	115
1906	110	1906	115
1907	105	1907	110
1908	100	1908	110
1909	100	1909	105

We gain 3.6 cents each year, but we lose five cents in 1906, another five cents in 1907, another ten cents in 1908, and five cents in 1909. Total gain, eighteen cents; loss, twenty-five cents.

Deducting the 3.6 cents from the figures of the second table, it is found that what the company first offered works out at an average of $1.06 per thousand, while what the bountiful aldermen prescribe works out at $1.074 a thousand.

It is easy to see how utterly absurd was Ald. Ames' request to let the resolutions lie over for a day or two to be considered. Consideration was the last thing their authors desired. And after all, what is a cent and a half a thousand between friends like the aldermen and the lobbyists?

NOTE AND COMMENT.

It is agreeable to note that the press of Montreal is sufficiently active in its opposition to the new gas contract. La Presse denounces it as both "illegal and immoral." La Patrie would like to believe in the good faith of the majority, but finds the bargain they propose very far from what the people had the right to expect. La Patrie and the Witness both appear to have been deceived by Ald. Lapointe's amendment, both failing to note that under the new conditions imposed expropriation is made practically impossible. The Star and the Gazette have no editorial opinion on the subject so far.

This Dolphin is Government Official.

"Pelorus Jack" is the name of an old dolphin which is protected by a special act of the New Zealand Legislature.

According to an Australian colonist, George Hayes, who sends an account of the fish to Lloyd's Weekly, the official proclamation of the Government prohibits any interference with Pelorus Jack under a penalty of £100.

Forty years ago, when Mr. Hayes first emigrated to Australia, he heard an old sailor's tale, according to which a shoal of dolphins grounded on the shores of Cook Strait, and one of them escaped into the sea. That one, which is now acknowledged to be Pelorus Jack, never left the locality where he lost his companions, and, as Mr. Hayes says, "he is now protected by law as he has always been by sentiment."

The most remarkable fact of all is the reason for the passage of the law, which is that Pelorus Jack acts as a most effective pilot, escorting all kinds of vessels in and out of the French Pass, Cook Strait, always keeping to deep water.

For years he was believed to be a beluga, or white whale, but recent scientific investigation has shown that he is really a dolphin. As he is never absent from his duties the proclamation has been received with keen satisfaction throughout Australasia by sailors who have to use the French Pass.

How to Make Good Rhine Wine.

Heinrich Heine described Rhine wine as "pale as the moon and maddening as its light," and it is of more than common interest to be let into the secret of the ways in which this choice elixir, of which we import and consume so much, is modernly made. The evidence in a German court some time ago of the employes of one Dr. Schlamp, the proprietor of extensive vineyards in Nierstein, the very home of the highest brands, throws an interesting light on the subject. He used to turn 500 gallons of fair, ordinary Rhine wine into 1,000 gallons of high class Niersteiner in this way: First he added 500 gallons of Rhine water to the wine; then he mixed in scientifically ammonia, tannic acid, isinglass, prunes, raisins, oil of vitrol, gelatines and various drugs, after which he added something out of a phial which he always carried in his pocket, the composition of which he carefully kept a secret. The doctor did not deny the testimony of his employes, but said that all producers of high class Rhine wine pursued similar methods, and he made an appeal to the German public prosecutor to drop the case, on the ground that pursuing it and giving it publicity would tend to the injury of the business.

WHY, OF COURSE.

Old Gentleman—Are you opposed to labor unions?

Tramp—Say! I'm opposed ter anything dat has labor attached to it.

Hence the Glad Smile

Coming softly over the Champ des Mars, the wind blew the tree branches about in joyous fashion; the birds chirrupped gaily in the nooks among the architectural ornamentation of the City Hall; the eye could almost follow the growing of the grass on the plots, as it responded to the elixir-like influences of the gladsome springtime.

All that was wanting to complete the picture was some happy, smiling, bright-eyed human faces, for as may be understood such are not too frequent in the neighborhood of the palaces where justice metes out her rewards. All nature was on the rejoice; a human touch was all that was wanting to make the afternoon one to be remembered under the shadow of the towering Nelson's monument.

It came!

Out from the southern doorway filed some half-dozen men. They wore no uniform with glistening buttons to dazzle the eye of the pedestrians on the Notre Dame sidewalk, or of the bunch of unattached Dagos who occupied front places on the doorstep of the Sessions Courthouse. But their broad and beaming smiles lit up the square with a brightness that Old Sol himself tried in vain to put out of sight.

Those were samples of the smile that can't come off!

Yet the men who wore them, were men, who, if not by law, then by precept, are expected to go round town with the faces like the sphinx. Their's not to joke, and smile the glad ha-ha, on the streets for which the ratepayers put up the price. Their's not to cavort under the public eye as doth the playful lambkin on the lea, or gambol as the early goat amid the boulders on the landscape.

Well these men know that no inconsiderable share of their daily duty is to combine the wise appearance of the owl with the determined facial expression of the heavy man of the play, so that the citizen of evil inclinations may go clad in quakes and tremblings. They have studied carefully the blue-books, and the green, and the yellow, and all the books there's to the trade. Yet they took the risk!

* * *

And the average Montrealer who has anything to lose will not grudge those half-dozen 'Tees their few minutes lapse from the decorum of the ranks. Neither will they incline to kick at that increase of salary, the intimation of which, sent them out to make the sunbeams blush with envy. They are hardry sons of Adam who figure on Chief Carpenter's pay list; persistent in the tracking game; toilers all the way through the dark of night while the good citizen is snug-a-bed; ready and willing to begin another spell of work with the dawn.

The payers of heavy rates-bills will tell you they wish to look both sides of the coin they may be called upon to lay down for mountain restaurants and such-like, but will give with open hand whatever trifle is necessary to let the detective force be decently well remunerated, so that every man is well above that suspicion so liable to come to those who handle the law-breaker rich enough to run a bank account. It is in the interests of the city to have a well-contented staff of crook-watchers, and in pushing this matter as he has done, Alderman St. Denis may take it he has done the correct thing.

* * *

The proud wind makes music aloft among the tree-tops; the long grass waves itself joyfully up towards the happy little sparrow under the leaves; and the detective men tell us that all's well.

England's Money.

The income tax in Great Britain is levied on $3,300,000,000 of annual income, and produces $157,000,000 of revenue for the Government.

If Gibson Bowles is right in saying that only one-third of the national income pays the tax, the total incomes of the United Kingdom must be $19,500,000,000, a sum almost inconceivably vast.

That is only $244 a year for each person if it were equally divided. It isn't. Less than 750,000 persons have more than half the total income.

From money invested abroad alone Great Britain's capitalists probably receive $1,200,000,000 a year of income, though no one can tell exactly.

It is probable that the total of private incomes, great and small, in the United States is over $25,500,000,000, though the sum cannot be so closely estimated as in the island kingdom.

Dogfish for the Table.

A Cornish gourmet, following the advice of Horace about combining pleasure with utility, suggests that the destructive dogfish which are making their destructive influences felt not only in the waters of the Maritime Provinces, but also in many of the fishing-grounds of England, would prove a valuable addition to our cuisine. When skinned and carefully cooked the dogfish is "more delicate than hake," while a peculiar "sweetness" of flavor can be remedied by lemon or vinegar. Poor Frank Buckland long ago advocated a diet of dogfish, and was once delighted at being asked by some weatherbound French fishermen: "Vill you buy a dog, John?" As a matter of fact, dogfish has been from time to time eagerly eaten under the ambiguous euphemism of "fried fish," by many generations of East and South Londoners.

Modern Records Fading Rapidly.

Because of the dangerous deterioration in papers and inks used in making up the records in the archives of the Government, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, the Bureau of Chemistry has taken the first steps toward establishing a standard for the future under which all record paper is to be bought. An investigation has been begun into the qualities of paper, inks and typewriter ribbons.

Heads of departments have long been complaining that records have been fading and that the leaves are cracking and falling to pieces. Investigation disclosed the fact that the trouble began with the introduction of wood pulp paper. Records made in the days of linen paper during the Revolutionary period are in most cases as clear to-day as when written. The Declaration of Independence is one of the few old-time documents that has faded.

Italy Resumes Its Railways.

The Italian railway system, with the exception of the Sardinian lines, comprises only about 6,000 miles of road, employing in the neighborhood of 130,000 men. The roads are owned by the Government, though they have been leased out to private companies for the last ten years, the notion being to get rid of the burdens incident to Government control. This has not worked well, and the Government is now resuming the management of them. They will be under the immediate direction of a railway committee so organized and authorized as not to bother the Government much; operatives will have their own committees likewise, so that it is hoped strikes may be in a great measure prevented. Better management all around is promised, faster trains and more of them, but no reduction in fares or freights. Government ownership of the roads there has done all that was expected of it by its advocates nor made the flat failure predicted by its adversaries. The new plan of administration proposed looks like a judicious one from a business point of view.

Cote St. Paul Resident Died Suddenly While on Visit to His Sister.

Mr. John McLean, aged 69, a resident of Cote St. Paul, went to visit his daughter, Mrs. Buchanan, who lives on Rielle street, in that town, Monday afternoon, but died suddenly just as he reached the house. The physicians say that death was due to congestion of the brain.

Coroner McMahon, on being informed of the circumstances, disposed of the case without a jury. Mr. McLean's death is peculiarly sad, from the fact that a short time ago he lost a son about thirteen years of age and a daughter about eighteen by drowning.

TWO CLAUSES OF AUTONOMY BILL WERE PASSED IN COMMITTEE

Clause One Was Discussed for Five Hours—Two Amendments Offered by Opposition Members Were Killed—New Territorial Act Will be Introduced This Session.

(Staff Correspondence of The Herald.)

Ottawa, May 10.—The House got down to business on the committee stage of the Autonomy bills yesterday. Mr. Maclean started in to make good his pledge to keep the House going until he or some one else had an opportunity to run against Hon. Charles Hyman in London. Fair progress was made with the measure. Two clauses of the bill were passed and two amendments killed.

When the House met Mr. Clements (Kent) read from correspondence which he had received from a wire fence Co., stating that there was a contract between the Department of the Interior and McGregor and Bannel, of Walkerville, for the wire and posts for a fence on the International boundary between Canada and the United States in the Northwest Territories. Mr. Clements said that the Premier, answering a question of his a couple of days ago in the House, said that there was no contract.

Sir Wilfrid said that he gave the House the information he got from the department. There was evidently a misapprehension somewhere.

Several speakers on the Opposition side pitched into the department for supplying one kind of information to the House and another to the outside public. Meantime the Premier communicated with the Interior heads and told the House that he was now in a position to say that there was no contract. This was in accordance with the information that he had already given the House.

The matter then dropped.

STATISTICS OF NEW PROVINCES

The House went into committe on the bill to establish the province of Alberta. The Minister of Justice gave the House some statistics with respect to it. The land area of Alberta is 250,653 square miles, and 3,312 square miles of water; a total of 253,965 square miles of area. The census of 1901 gave a population of 72,924. It was estimated that the population on January 31, 1905, was 173,043. The land area of Saskatchewan was 243,192 square miles and water area 6,927 square miles, a total of 250,119 square miles. According to the census of 1901 the population was 92,631, and this, it was estimated, had increased to 244,913 on January 31, 1905. Since 1901 the increases were estimated to have been as follows:—April 1, 1901, to July 1, 1901, 12,213; 1901 to 1902, 44,070; 1902 to 1903, 79,357; 1903 to 1904, 75,042; 31 July, 1904, to May 15, 1905, 53,500, making a total population on May 15 of 429,727, while immigration between May 15 and July 1 would increase to 454,737.

There was some discussion on the location of the boundary between Alberta and Saskatchewan. The Prime Minister said some members had urged it to be located sixty or seventy miles further east to place all the ranching country in Alberta. However, the concensus of opinion of the Western members was for the selection of the fourth meridian.

A NEW TERRITORIAL ACT.

Mr. W. F. Maclean asked what provision would be made for governing Mackenzie, Keewatin, Yukon and Franklin.

Mr. Fitzpatrick replied that Mackenzie would be provided for in the new Territorial Act, Yukon is now provided for and Keewatin is covered by the Keewatin Act. A new Northwest Territorial Act would be introduced this session, but the present Northwest Act provided for Mackenzie and the part of Athabaska omitted from the new provinces.

Mr. Maclean contended there would have to be a new Territorial Government and a new capital. He believed Athabaska, if left out would be a good basis for a new Territorial Government. American explorer Peary had gone into northern waters, given American names to lands touched on, and Canadian jurisdiction was in danger. That would be better protected by a strong Territorial Government. The march of science and discoveries of mineral wealth might make the territories of the North more valuable than those of the South.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier replied that Mr. Maclean's arguments were all right, but his conclusions were all wrong. "We are aware," he said, "that the Americans have been patrolling northern waters and that they have taken land and given American names to some of the territories there, which I think is inside our jurisdiction. We ought to provide against that." Sir Wilfrid believed the way to provide against it was by way of the coast, not from a strong Territorial Government by the long route of Mackenzie River. The Government had already provided against it by sending an expedition under Mr. Lowe, who had just returned after planting the British flag on many parts of those northern territories. "We cannot allow Americans to take possession of land that is British territory," said the Premier, "and we intend to assert our jurisdiction over it."

Sir Wilfrid concluded by saying Athabaska had been included in the new provinces because a portion of it was good agricultural land.

ATHABASCA WILL BE DEVELOPED

Mr. Oliver said there was every reason why the Territory of Athabasca should be included in the new provinces. The Grand Trunk Pacific would cross a portion of it and insure a large immediate settlement.

Mr. Heron asked if it was not only a corner of Athabaska that would be crossed by the railroad.

Mr. Oliver said yes, but that corner would put the road so close to the Peace river that a short branch would be built to connect the new railroad with 500 miles of first-class steamboat navigation on the Peace river through one of the finest and most fertile agricultural regions of Canada. The navigation of the Peace river insured the development of a considerable portion of Athabaska.

WANT NAMES CHANGED.

Mr. W. F. Maclean had a letter from a constituent who objected to having the provinces called Alberta and Saskatchewan. The first was too pretty and the other too hard to spell. It would be inconvenient to call the residents Albertians and awkward to call them Saskatchewans. The loops in the l and b of Alberta were awkward to write. He suggested "Cartier" as a substitute name for Saskatchewan. Mr. Maclean endorsed this proposition and suggested "Champlain" as a substitute for Alberta.

Mr. Lake pointed out Saskatchewan had some historic associations and one of them related to a famous musket.

The Prime Minister laughed at the sally and said that the name Alberta had been pursued because it had been well advertised and was known throughout Great Britain, Europe and the United States. As for Saskatchewan, he would not let historic association with a musket stand in the way if the House preferred Athabaska.

AN AMENDMENT.

Mr. W. F. Maclean moved in amendment to the first clause, that the northern boundary of Alberta should be the 55th parallel instead of the 60th. The effect would be the exclusion of Athabaska from the Province. He wanted a new territorial government formed for the west and Athabaska made the basis of it.

Mr. Oliver charged the Opposition with beginning guerilla warfare against the bill.

Mr. Andrew Ingram became indignant and launched a general condemnation against the bills. He threatened to keep the House sitting until the snow falls a foot deep. He continued, though frequently called to order for departing from the amendment.

After some discussion, Mr. Ingram wanted to withdraw his amendment so he might move it on third reading. The Liberal members objected.

Mr. R. L. Borden suggested extending boundaries of new provinces to the northern limits of British possession.

Sir Wilfrid pointed out that Alberta, Assiniboia, and the most of Saskatchewan with much of Athabaska are good agricultural land. Mackenzie and the northern lands are not fertile and are separate in their interests from the regions further to the south. The northern boundary for the provinces he therefore thought was a good one.

The Leader of the Opposition agreed with this.

Sir Wilfrid said that it would be a good idea to invite Alberta to the conference to be held on the disposal of territories with a view to having all the northern territories assigned to the jurisdiction of various provinces.

"What about the Yukon?" asked Mr. Maclean.

"That could be given to British Columbia," said Sir Wilfrid. "There is no population in Mackenzie, none in Keewatin, and none in Ungava. It would be useful for Manitoba to have the administration of Keewatin for instance.

Mr. Maclean's amendment was permitted to be withdrawn.

ANOTHER AMENDMENT.

Mr. McCarthy, Conservative, of Calgary, moved that the Southern boundary of Alberta should be moved eastward to include all of what he regarded as the ranching country.

The amendment was lost and the clause carried at 11.30, after having been discussed five hours.

Clause 2 providing for the application of the provisions of the British North America Act was held to be discussed with clause 16, the educational clause.

INCREASE OF SENATORS.

Clause 3 provided for four Senators and after the next census increase the number to 6. On this clause Sir Wilfrid suggested the formation of a fourth Senatoral group. There is now a group of 24 from Ontario. It might be well for the House to consider the creation of a fourth group of 24 for the west. That would give 6 each for Manitoba, British Columbia, Alberta, and Saskatchewan. At present Manitoba has 4, British Columbia 3, and the Territories 4 Senators.

There was some criticism that a single group for the west was hardly large enough in view of the prospects for development in the west. Some members suggested a twenty-four group for the west and another group for the Pacific.

Sir Wilfrid said that he only made the suggestion as something for the House to think about. Representation in the Senate did not depend upon population. The Senate was organized to prevent the great provinces over-riding the smaller ones in Parliament. It might be necessary to create more than one western group. He hoped it would. However, Imperial legislation would have to be obtained to increase the number of four from Manitoba or the three from British Columbia.

The present project was to provide for four Senators for each of the provinces and take authority to increase the number to six in 1911.

The clause passed.

YALE STUDENT WAS SHOT DEAD

Either Accident or Suicide—Body Found in His Room.

New Haven, Conn., May 10.—Arthur Haserot, a Yale student, of Cleveland, Ohio, was found shot to death in his room in Welch Hall, one of the compus dormitories yesterday, and an investigation into the case is being conducted. Medical Examiner Bartlett stated that he believed death was the result of an accident or suicide, but further than that he would not discuss the matter. Haserot's body was found by one of his room-mates and after it was examined by the medical examiner was removed to an undertaker's. A revolver was found near Haserot's side, and there is a bullet wound in his head.

Roy W. Hemingway, of Syracuse, N.Y., was the room mate of young Haserot and is said that Haserot attended his first recitation as usual and seemed to be in his usual good spirits. There was no intimation that he was despondent and not once during the time he had the room with Haserot, he said, had there been a time when he even suspected that his room-mate contemplated taking his life.

The manner in which Haserot was shot was almost conclusive proof that he committed suicide and Medical Examiner Bartlett said that there would be further investigation, as he was convinced that the student met death by his own hand.

Haserot was a quiet man, with good habits. It is said that the probability is that he was temporarily insane.

Cleveland, O., May 10.—Arthur Haserot was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Haserot, of Cleveland. The father is a member of the wholesale grocery house of the Haserot Company. The deceased was twenty-one years old and was in his last year in the academic course at Yale. His father had intended going to New Haven to visit his son, when the news of his death was received.

A letter has been received at the family home, and in it Arthur showed that his mind was happy, and he spoke of his preparations for graduation exercises next month.

C.N.R. SYSTEM HAS BEEN EXTENDED TO BATTLEFORD

Winnipeg, May 10.—(Special.)—The C.N.R. tracklayers are now within four days of Battleford, 572 miles west of here, and the train service will be inaugurated this week, which means much for that district. Passenger service opens June 4. The immediate result is a great reduction in freight rates on the C.P.R. to Saskatoon from Montreal and Toronto as a means of competition.

DR. HARPER'S CANCER MAY SOON BE CURED

New York, May 10.—William Rainey Harper, President of Chicago University, is said by his physicians to be on the high road to recovery from cancer, a disease heretofore pronounced incurable. For two hours Monday Dr. Harper underwent an examination by Dr. William James Morton, and awaited the verdict of the expert with unconcealed anxiety. The result of the examination exceeded even his fondest hopes.

Dr. Morton found that not only had the growth of the cancerous tumor been arrested but that it had decreased nearly two-thirds of its original size. Three weeks ago the growth carried an area of more than eighteen square inches. Monday the X-ray showed that the disease was confined to an area of hardly seven square inches.

Dr. Harper spoke enthusiastically of the progress which had been made. In March he came to New York and placed himself under the care of Dr. Morton, the X-ray specialist. The process by which the cure is being effected is based on the theory that disease can be cured through the destruction of the microbes by means of light. The treatment consists in administering to a patient a certain fluid solution which has the property of becoming fluorescent when struck by radium rays. When the whole system has absorbed this solution so that it may be found in all the blood cells, especially those affected by the cancer, the X-rays or radium rays are turned on the seat of the trouble. As they combine with the fluid solution a faint light is produced in every blood cell. The light is destructive to the germs of disease.

ST. JOHN TO BUILD NEW WINTER WHARF

Dominion Government Will Do the Necessary Dredging.

St. John, N.B., May 10.—(Special.)—The City Council of St. John at a special meeting this morning considered a letter from Hon. C. S. Hyman, Minister of Public Works, relative to dredging in St. John harbor.

The city has told the Government that it will build a new wharf for the winter business if the Dominion will do the dredging. The city expenditure will amount to about $300,000 and Mr. Hyman wanted a formal resolution of council expressing the city's intentions before calling for tenders for the dredging. He also asked a promise that the Government's expenditure will be refunded if the wharf is not built, and also a statement that the property will be available for all steamship lines coming here.

The resolution was passed in accordance with Mr. Hyman's request and it is hoped that tenders will be called for at once, so that the wharf can be got ready for next winter.

BARGE HURON SANK IN SOULANGES CANAL

Coteau Landing, May 10.—(Special.)—The barge Huron, in charge of Capt. Hebert, which left the Canada Atlantic Railway elevator Monday night, loaded with 38,000 bushels of wheat for Montreal, sunk in the Soulanges Canal yesterday morning. It appears that when the barge met the steamer Hamilton, she went too close to the shore of the canal and struck the rock. A current story is going about that the steamer Hamilton was going at its ordinary rate of speed, contrary to the orders, and caused the accident. The barge is very badly damaged and the losses are very severe.

POOR, WATERY BLOOD.

The Cause of Pimples and All Disfiguring Eruptions—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills the Only Cure.

Poor, watery blood—pale blood—is the cause of every pale complexion. Bad blood—blood filled with poisonous impurities—is the cause of every bad complexion. Bad blood is responsible for eruptions and pimples, and torturing, burning, itching eczema. These troubles can only be cured through the blood, and the only medicine that actually makes new blood—rich, pure health-giving blood—is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. The new blood which these pills make reaches every organ and part of the body. It clears the complexion, banishes pimples and eruptions, and brings health, strength and happiness. Miss Lizzie Lobsinger, Carlsruhe, Ont., says:— "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the best medicine I know of for cleaning the blood of impurities. My blood was in a bad condition, and as a result I was not only weak and run down, but was troubled with pimples and eruptions. I tried several medicines, but they did not help me. Then I was advised to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and these soon relieved me of all my troubles. I can recommend the pills to anyone suffering from bad blood."

Bad blood is the cause of nearly every disease that afflicts humanity. It is because Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make new, rich red blood that they cure such troubles as anaemia, heart palpitation, headaches and backaches, rheumatism, neuralgia, indigestion, kidney and liver troubles, and ailments of girlhood and womanhood. But you must get the genuine pills with the full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," on the wrapper around each box. Sold by medicine dealers everywhere, or sent post paid at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 by writing the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Experience of a Beautiful High School Girl

Her First Letter.

MY DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I write to see if you can suggest some means to cure me. A little more than a year ago I was sick with menstruation for the first time, and since then I have been sick all the time in some way or other and suffered with painful and irregular menstruation. I went to a summer resort for my health and was doctored all summer, but to no effect. I have not menstruated for two months and thought I would see if you could do me any good. I attend High School and would not like to miss any time if it is possible. MARION BARBER, North Adams, Mass.

Miss Barber writes again after two years

MY DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:

Sometime ago I wrote to you for advice, being troubled with irregular and painful menstruation and womb disease. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills and using the Sanative Wash, and I am glad to say I am completely cured and have not had any sickness since. I wish to thank you for your kind advice and shall recommend your medicine to my girl friends. MARION BARBER, 101 Bracewell Ave., North Adams, Mass.

CHAPTER VI.
THE DRUM.

John Eddring, the heat of his late encounter past, sat moodily staring out from the platform of the little station to which he had returned. He was angry with all the world, and angry with himself most of all. It had been his duty to deal amicably with a man of the position of Colonel Calvin Blount, yet how had he comported himself? Like a schoolboy! But for that he might have been the accepted guest now, there at the Big House, instead of being the only man ever known to turn his back upon its door. But for his sudden choler, he reflected, he might perhaps at this very moment be within seeing and speaking distance of this tall girl of the scarlet ribbons, the very same whose presence he had vaguely felt about the place all that morning, in the occasional sound of a distant song or the rush of her feet upon the gallery; or the whisk of skirts frequently heard. The memory of that picture clung fast and would not vanish. She was so very beautiful, he reflected. It had been pleasanter to sit at table in such company than thus here alone, hungry, like an outcast.

He felt his gaze, like that of a love sick boy, turning again and again toward the spot where he had seen her last. The realization of this angered him. He rebuked himself sternly, as having been unmanly, in thus allowing himself to be influenced by a mere irrational fancy. He summoned his strength to banish this chimera, and then with sudden horror which sent his brow half-moist he realized that his faculties did not obey, that he was thinking of the same picture, that his eyes were still coveting it, his heart—ah, could there be truth in these stories of sudden and uncontrollable impulses of the heart? The very whisper of it gave him terror. His brow grew moister. For him, John Eddring—what could the world hold for him but this one thing of duty?

Duty! He laughed at the thought. These two iron bands before his eyes irked his soul, binding him, as they did, hard and fast to another world full of unwelcome things. There came again and again to his mind this picture of the maid with the bright ribbons. He gazed at the distant spot beneath the evergreens where he had seen her. He could picture so distinctly her high-headed carriage, the straight gaze of her eyes, the glow on her cheeks; could restore so clearly the very sweep of the dark hair tumbled about her brow. Smitten of this sight, he would fain have had view again. Alas! it was as when, upon a crowded street, one gazes at the passing figure of him whose presence smites with the swift call of friendship—and turns, only to see this unknown friend swallowed up in the crowd for ever. Thus had passed the view of this young girl of the Big House; and there remained no sort of footing upon which he could base a hope of a better fortune. Henceforth he must count himself apart from all Big House affairs. He was an outcast, a pariah. Disgusted, he rose from his rude seat at the window ledge and walked up the platform. He found it too sunny, and returned to take a seat again upon a broken truck near by.

There was a little country store close to the platform, so built that it almost adjoined the ware-room of the railway station; this being the place where the colored folk of the neighborhood purchased their supplies. At the present moment, this building seemed to lack much of its usual occupancy, yet there arose, now and again, sounds of low conversation partly audible through the open window. The voices were those of negroes, and they spoke guardedly, but eagerly, with some peculiar quality in their speech which caught the sixth sense of the Southerner, accustomed to living upon the verge of a certain danger. The fact that they were speaking thus in so public a place, and at the mid-hour of the working day, was of itself enough to attract the attention of any white dweller of that region.

"I tell yuh," said one, "it's gone fah 'nough. Who runs de fahms, who makes de cotton, who does de wu'k for all dis heah lan'? Who used to run de gov'ment, and who orter now, if it ain't us, black folks? Dey throw us out, an' dey won't let us vote, an' we-all know we gotter right to vote. Dey say a nigger ain't fitten ter do nothin' but wu'k, wu'k, wu'k. Nigger got good a right to live de way he want ter as de white man is. Now it's time fer change. De Queen, you all-knows she done say de time come fer a change."

A low growl, as from the throats of feeding beasts greeted this comment. Footfalls, shuffling, approached the speaker.

"Tom Sands is daid, dat's whut he is," resumed the first speaker, "leastways as good as daid, 'cause he's just a-layin' thah an' kain't move er speak. An' look at me, look at my haid. De ol' man hit him pow'ful hahd, an' ef he didn't hit me jest the same, it wasn't no fault o' his'n, I tell you. He jes' soon killed bof of us niggers than as not. What for? He want we all to come inter town an' git fined, git into jail ag'in." More growls than one greeted this, and then there came silence for a while.

"My ol' daddy done tol' me twenty-five yeah ago," said the first speaker, "dat de time was a-goin' ter come. Dey wus wonct a white man f'om up Norf come all over dis country, fifty yeah ago, an' he preached it ter de niggers befo' de wah dat some day de time gwine come. We wus ter raise up all over the Souf an' kill all de white folks, an' den all de white women—

"We wus ter kill a e white men," at length resumed the ame voice. "De white men f'om de Norf wus ter ride intoe de towns den an' rob all de banks an' divide de money wid we-all, an' dey wus to open de sto's and give ebery nigger all de goods he want wifout paying nuthin' fer 'im; and den nigger ain't gwine to wu'k no mo.'

"Dat white man and his folks, my ol' daddy said, fifty yeah ago, dey wu'k secret all over the Souf, from Tenn-ssee ter Louisian'. Dat was fifty yeah ago, but my ol' daddy say when he was a picc'aninny, dis heah thing got out somehow an' de white folks down Souf dey cotch dis white man f'om de Norf an' done hang him, and' dey done hang and burn a heap o' niggers all over de Souf.

WILL VALUATE KINGSTON S. R.

Kingston, Ont., May 10.—(Special.)—The City Council will have experts examine and value the plant of the Street Railway Company so that the city will be in a position to treat with the bondholders if a private corporation fails to buy in June. Mr. Macdonald, Montreal, with J. M. Campbell, and Engineer Craig, of Kingston, will make the investigation.

COAL WILL TAKE AN UPWARD TREND

The Wise Householder Will Lay in Now His Stock of Diamonds.

"By all means advise the public to begin laying in their winter's coal supply right from now on."

The Herald talked with a number of the city coal merchants to-day, and this, in effect, was the one advice. From now onward the usual ten cents per ton increase will come each month, and it is emphasized by the dealers that retail prices will of a certainty go up in proportion, if indeed, as is more than probable, to an even greater extent.

During last year, coal prices remained stationary, buyers in June having no financial benefit over those who put off the necessary investment until the cold blast of winter rudely awakened them to the knowledge that houses, to be habitable, must be heated up. Even the rush of late comers, did not, under the then existing circumstances, affect the cost to the consumer, and the only trouble was that in some instances there was some delay in filling orders.

But the coal people seem assured to-day that nothing of the same kind is to happen this year. Last year did not bring them the profit necessary as an encouragement to continuance in the business they say, pointing out they are not occupying business premises for purely philanthropic purposes, and they look for more than a bare living from their efforts to keep the public comfortably warm.

Therefore, say they, those who wish to make sure they will get in on a low price, had better fyle their orders right away. The public may fancy that because the increase did not come in 1904 they can afford to dawdle with the matter. But such a thing cannot happen two seasons in succession, and the wise householder will take the warning.

So far as can be gathered, the orders placed up till now are not nearly up to the mark of 1903 and certain previous years, although it is admitted to be something on a par with the situation of a year ago, when as stated, there was a hold-off in absence of indications of a coming jump in rates. At the coal delivery yards the shoots are practically idle, but when it comes to be recognized that the present price cannot stand for the remainder of the year there will no doubt come a transformation.

In New York and elsewhere in the States, dealers have already issued circulars to their regular customers, urging them strongly to place their orders now for what anthracite coal they may require during the coming season, and as one Montreal man put the position to-day, "the householder who orders now has really nothing to lose, for there can be no possible chance of a flattening in prices, and coal in the cellar, unlike sugar and salt, cannot melt out with the heat."

PRESS ASSOCIATION WILL HOLD INFORMAL DINNER

This Will be the Last of the Season and Will be the Best of the Season.

The closing informal dinner of the season of the Province of Quebec Press Association will take place on Tuesday evening next at St. Lawrence Hall cafe. The dinners have been very successful and enjoyable from every standpoint, and it is intended to make this last one the best of them all. There will be one or two prominent speakers and a short informal musical programme. The dinner is set for six-thirty precisely so that those wishing to get away early may do so. Tickets may be had from the secretary or members of the executive.

LATE MR. CHAS. CREE.

Funeral Took Place This Afternoon From Residence on Drolet Street.

The funeral of the late Mr. Chas. Cree, who was accidentally drowned while boating at Ste. Anne de Bellevue, took place from his late residence, 195 Drolet Street, to-day to Mount Royal cemetery.

Among those who attended were Mr. M. Stewart, president, and Mr. W. Watson, secretary both of St. Giles Church Young Men's League; Mr. Hutcheson and Mr. Hughes, directors of St. Giles Church, and Mr. H. Diplock, president of the Young Men's League of Sherbrooke Street Methodist Church. A large number of members of these leagues took part in the funeral procession.

The officiating clergymen were the Rev. Mr. Dobson, of St. Giles Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. Mr. Currie, of the American Presbyterian Church.

WANT TO RETIRE BONDS FOR STOCK

But Bondholders Object to Bill of Canadian Electric of Levis.

A vigorous fight is threatened before the Legislative Council of Quebec over the passing by that body of Bill No. 74 of the Legislative Assembly, which is an Act to amend the charter of the Canadian Electric Light Co. (operating a power plant at Chaudiere Falls, near Levis, and supplying power to the district round Quebec, south of the river), and to authorize the recall of the second issue of that company's bonds. The bill is stated to have already passed its third reading in the lower House. The objectors are certain bondholders, Mr. McLea Walbank, of the local Power Co., and Mr. Vesey Boville, brewer, of Quebec among the number, who claim that they are being legislated out of a secured debt without their consent.

The bill states in its preamble that the company has issued $200,000 of bonds on a second mortgage (the actual date of issue was May last, and the underwriting price was 75), and that "the holders of the said bonds were also convened in general meeting and concurred in such decision" to replace the bonds by preferred stock at seven per cent, cumulative interest.

Mr. Walbank denies that he was notified to attend a general meeting, and states that whether or not all or a majority of the bondholders who may have attended "concurred," there are certainly some who do not. The second mortgage bonds, he points out, are a secured obligation, the holders of which are entitled, in event of non-payment, to whatever can be realized on the company's property after settlement of the first mortgage, while the preferred stock is secured as to nothing, but certain possible profits. The majority of the second mortgage bondholders, it is stated, are also large shareholders, and are compensated for the destruction of their bond security by the improvement in the position of the stock. Mr. Walbank holds no stock in the company.

MACKAY INSTITUTION.

On Tuesday, May 23rd, at 3 p.m., an opportunity will be given some of the friends of the institution to witness the pupils' attainments. A limited number of invitation cards will be issued, as the institution hall does not accommodate many. The programme promises to be an attractive one. Addresses will be delivered by the president and vice-presidents and others.

BASEBALL LACROSSE BOXING

Racy Reports of all the Sports

GOLF HARRIERS ATHLETICS

SPORTING COMMENT

It is amusing to notice how suspiciously careful the Galt Association football players are of their amateur standing. They surround themselves with a barrier of self-righteousness, and assert that the Westmounts, because the latter observe the English laws governing athletics, are not eligible to play with them.

* * *

This is a peculiar view to take. The Galts have agreed to play the Corinthians, and have not required the latter to secure the sanction of the C.A.A.U. Yet the Corinthians, according to the Galts' new and wonderful standard, are professionals because they have played against "pros" in England. It is quite reasonable, isn't it, to suppose that the Corinthians will kow-tow to the C.A.A.U., and, on bended knee, ask its august and gracious permission to play with Galt? And it is quite reasonable to suppose, too, isn't it, that the Galts will require that the Corinthians have this permission?

* * *

Quite a reasonable supposition, isn't it?

* * *

As a matter of fact, the English athletes, who have come to Canada—the lacrosse, football and track teams—have always observed the English amateur rule, and are therefore, in the eyes of the C.A.A.U., professionals. The C.A.A.U. knew that when these athletes were in Canada, but did not do any knife throwing nor double crossing? Well, hardly. It was too wise to butt into a stone wall. Had it done any harpooning the boys from the British Isles would have shifted their monocles, looked the union up and down, and ejaculated, freezingly, "Oh, fudge!" or its equivalent. And the Canadian athletes who were competing with their cousins would have snorted to the C.A.A.U., "You to the tall, green grass, or we'll speak harshly to you."

* * *

Had the union taken the action then that it has taken now with regard to the Westmount Association football players, it would have declared professionals all the Canadian athletes who competed against the English athetes. The competing athetes had too much prestige, however, and the C.A.A.U. wisely remained i.. the background.

* * *

It was the same in the States when English athletes competed with American athletes. The A.A.A.U. recognized the soundness of the principle that obtained in English athletics, and never dreamed of trying to prevent the contests.

* * *

The C.A.A.U. seems to wish it to be known that it is still alive, when it hems and haws about the Westmount-Galt game, but any time it crawls out of the calcium light of public life, no widespread feeling of sorrow will be displayed.

* * *

When the New York Journal with its anti-British prejudices, admits that Jabez White was given unfair treatment by the referee in his fight with Jimmy Brit, it would appear that the American champion was indeed the favored son. White was not counted out, but the referee stopped the fight in the twentieth round, declaring that White was all in and that it was a shame to allow him to be punched all around the ring. Of course the decision went to Britt.

* * *

It is pointed out that White did not ask for quarter, and that the referee was officious in giving a decision before the round was up or before White was knocked out. White out-pointed Britt for fifteen rounds and had the fight ended then would have received the decision. But his strength waned and Britt went after him viciously for the last five rounds.

* * *

White put up a wonderful battle, and it is likely that if he had been thoroughly acclimated he would have easily defeated Britt. Supposing Britt went to England and stacked up against White, what kind of showing would he make? It is more than likely that he would be all in after ten rounds and that White would knock his head off. White travelled 6,000 miles to meet Britt who would not go to England to meet him, and though the referee defeated him, he will still be considered the greatest little fighter in the world.

* * *

Jeffries talks of retiring from the prize-ring. He might just as well retire for as long as he has his strength and weight he will whip any aspirants for the heavyweight championship out of their boots. How the other heavyweights would rejoice if Jeff did really step out of the ring. They would then have all kinds of easy pickings, supplied by a public that is ever ready to be gulled.

* * *

Gibson bids fair to be more popular in Montreal than was McManus. He is a lively chap, who is always doing his level best to keep his pitcher gingered up, and his slogan "Now, Frank, it's all your game. Give 'em your best," kept Barber going his fastest pace. It has been the same every game here. Gibson has been cheering on the other Birds with his "Heads up, boys," and "All keep working, we've got 'em," and kindred expressions. It has been noticed that when "Gib" ceased his adjurations, the Birds eased up. It is strange but true, that a hard-working enthusiast can keep an entire team keyed up to concert pitch and Gibson is performing that duty very satisfactorily. Besides he is catching and hitting well and his good whip prevents many stolen bases.

* * *

To those who had the pleasure of meeting Hackenschmidt—not on the mat, of course—during his stay in Montreal, the fact that the Russian "Lion" is not able to speak Russian came as a big surprise. But it is a fact, all the same—the giant human wrestling engine is master of six languages—but not of Russian.

Immediately after his final bout with Maupas, he retired to his dressing-room with a smile on his boyish face, and proceeded to enjoy a cold shower bath. Meanwhile the crowd was howling for a speech from the big foreigner and Dr. Gadbois went to the room to get Hack to go to the front of the stage.

"They want to see you," called the popular referee, "Come on and make a speech." And the cries of "Hack!" "Hack! speech from Hack"! drifted into the room.

"Oh I couldn't," modestly exclaimed the Lion. "Gracious, I never made a speech in my life." And his face colored up like a thirteen-year-old school boy, about to recite his "piece."

"Go out and say a word or two in French," begged Dr. Gadbois.

"No—I'll wrestle four men more but I'll not speak."

"Give us a few words in Russian," suggested a young man who had come down from Ottawa to see the match. "Recite the Russian national anthem,—that will do."

"Never spoke Russian in my life," was Hack's rejoinder—and he proceeded to tell how it was. He speaks German, French, English and two or three other languages—but not Russian.

BIRDS' AVERAGES NOT STARTLING

Batting Has Been Weak So Far and Fielding Indifferent.

Neither in fielding nor at the bat have the Royals distinguished themselves. However, the latest figures show improvement, and there are indications that things will soon break to the good for the locals.

Montreal has proved weak at the bat and in the field, and in each of these important departments the Royals have been headed by their opponents. With the stock the Royals have been lamentably behind, though there is not a great deal of difference in their work in the field. At the bat the figures read:

	A.B.	H.	Pct.
Opponents	389	112	.288
Montreal	379	82	.216

These figures show a great weakness in team batting, and it is quite evident that in this the Royals have been sadly deficient. In the field the figures read:

	P.O.	A.	E.	Pct.
Opponents	303	174	31	.939
Montreal	286	125	34	.924

Below are the figures of the individual members of the team up to date and including the final game of Buffalo series:

WOODBINE ENTRIES ARE MAKING FAST TRIALS

Toronto, May 10.—Yesterday was the liveliest day of the year at Woodbine. The track was slow and sticky, but there was something doing all the time, and the busy "clockers" were kept on the jump watching the horses break away for trials. Mr. Robt. Davies' English importation, Ailes D'Or, established a new record, by reeling off 1¼ miles in 2.16. Fulton, a King's Plater, started with him, but was lost in the shuffle. Inferno showed his speed with Half-Seas-Over when he stepped along 5 furlongs in 1.06, the first half in .50 flat. The performance gained many friends for Inferno, and many concede him the plate. Mr. Hendrie's Heather Jock covered the plate distance in 2.21, the first mile in 1.52. Loch Girl galloped a mile in 1.50.

Mr. N. Dyment was on hand to see his platers. Will King and Maid of Barrie, work with Mr. J. Dyment, sr.'s, Stay-Away, also a palter. Stepdance joined in at the three-quarter pole and led with King to the wire by a nose. The others beaten off. Will King's time was 2.19 3-4. Mr. Dyment was well pleased with the trial.

Some of the Seagram sprinters showed their speed in 5 furlong dashes. Cloten worked first in 1.04½. Then came Carricklade, who stepped the distance in 1.04½. Glad Tidings' time was 1.04. Then came Caper Sauce, fastest of all, in 1.03 3-4.

The arrivals from Chicago were as follows:—E. L. Talley, with Roue, Lou Woods, Triumvir and Sarcilla; Joe Moore, with Monograph, Jimini, Bob Hillard, and Parnassus; J. H. Montgomery, Royal Pearl and Conclave; A. C. Jones, with Jim Hale and Mezzo; A. Tempest, with Harry New and Oliver Mc; J. Klein, with St. Merrylegs, Edith I., and two others. "Johnny" Pangle wired from Harrisburg, Pa., that five carloads of horses from Baltimore would arrive in Toronto to-night.

DOG SHOW ENTRIES CLOSE TO-MORROW

The coming Dog Show to be held in the Victoria Rink, opening May 24 (Victoria Day), promises to be very interesting from the number of entries received up to yesterday, the number exceeding the 500 mark, which the committee expects to have doubled by closing time. Bulldog entries and photos of same, received yesterday from Ontario, are sure to make competition in this class very keen, and make the local owners hustle for honors. The lady judge to have in hand the toys is certain to have her hands full, as the cushion specimens will be exhibited in large numbers. The owners of these toys are known to be a difficult lot to satisfy.

The Point office opened last night, for three nights, at the Engineers' Armory. It was well patronized, and a fine lot of entries were recruited.

Entries close to-morrow at 58, Canada Life Building, in day time, and National History Rooms in the evening.

NEW A. K. C. RULES.

It is reported that at the next meeting of the American Kennel Club, which will be held this month, several important recommendations will be made to the Rules Committee.

The whole of the delegates of the clubs that are members of the A.K.C. will be asked to pass at least four new rules, the object being to correct certain evils in connection with the judging at the shows held under the jurisdiction of the club. The new rules which will be recommended are:

(1) That no superintendent of a show may judge at that fixture. (2) That the same person may not exhibit and judge at the same show. (3) That a dog, to get a championship, must have won his points under at least three different judges. (4) That sworn-to pedigrees are not feasible.

That at least two of the proposed new rules are worthy of consideration is the opinion of many breeders whose dogs grace the benches year in and year out, and who sometimes have reason to criticize the work of the judges.

That no superintendent should act as judge is thought to be a move in the right direction. The rule which stipulates that a dog to gain a championship must win his points under at least three different judges is also to be commended, but to debar a judge from exhibiting in other classes is hardly fair and not thought advisable.

TORONTO PITCHER JUMPS.

Toronto, May 10.—Pitcher McGeehan left Toronto yesterday for Harrisburg, Pa., where he will play in the Tri-State League. McGeehan took French leave of the Toronto Club, probably realizing that his chances to be one of the regular pitching staff were very poor. The Toronto Club will still hold McGeehan under contract, so that he cannot play in organized baseball without their consent.

ROWDY BALL AT PITTSBURG.

Pittsburg, May 10.—During the baseball game yesterday afternoon Blankenship, first baseman of the Cincinnati team, struck Otis Clymer, the Pittsburg out-fielder. Blankenship said Clymer tried to spike him and struck him in the face three times. Players from both sides and policemen rushed in and for a moment it looked like a general riot, but the men were separated.

RAIN PREVENTED YESTERDAY'S GAME

Leroy Pitches Against the Bronchos To-Day— New Players Signed.

Laroy's spit ball will be the Bronchos' medicine this afternoon. The clever little Indian served it up to them in Rochester, and what it did to their batting averages was a shame. It floated around their necks, described bewildering arcs, took lightning shoots and wrenched their gray matter from its moorings when they tried to solve it.

Gibson will do the catching, and the rest of the team will line up as in Monday's game with the Bisons.

Wet grounds prevented a game yesterday and the Bisons got away without having a second defeat registered against them. They were lucky to win two out of three in their series here with the Birds, and the next time they come to Montreal they'll be lucky to win one.

Charlie Kuhns is reported to have signed with Syracuse, but Manager Jimmy Bannon stated this morning that he had first call on Kuhns' services, and that if he went to Syracuse there would be trouble.

Manager Jim is negotiating for a first baseman, named Miller, who hails from Zanesville, O. Miller is said to be one of the best youngsters in the business, and Manager Jim would be tickled if he could sign him. Nalin, the Harrisburg, Pa., first baseman, who signed with the Birds, has not reported as yet, and it is doubtful if he will. Owner Kreitner is in New York, and in the event of Manager Bannon being unable to sign a first baseman, will try to secure one there.

BRANTFORD WANTS "TACK" HENDRY

They Are Also Said to be After Degan and Bouse Hutton.

Brantford, Ont., May 9.—The management committee of the senior lacrosse team held a meeting last night, but apparently nothing of a very decided nature was done, so far as the members of the committee are willing to announce. Duff Adams and Hugh Howie will attend the senior committee of management meeting in Toronto to-night, and will again state their objections to five teams, or the granting of the Toronto Chippewas a place. The meeting promises to be a spirited one. St. Catharines will likely stay by Brantford, and it is anticipated the Torontos will also raise the point. As it stands, the Chippewas are in with the rest, but they are not wanted now.

"The chances are," said Fred Westbrook this morning, who is on the management committee, "that Tack Hendry will be here this year. Tacky Laderoute will also possibly be given a chance on the home. About Finlayson? Well, I hardly think you will see him here. There are some local players who can take his place just as well." The committeeman would not make any further statements, but it is understood the committee have favored Degan and Hutton and some others.

AMERICAN PAPER SAYS BRITT WAS FAVORED

New York, May 10.—Jabez White's grand showing with Jimmy Britt was the talk of the Rialto last night, says the Journal. Every sport in town had the same question.

"Say, wasn't that a bully fight White made against Britt? Well, — was. White was a big surprise, and the chances are the most surprised man was Britt himself.

Before the match James had held his own with the clever mitt men, he had never met one who had it on him in jabs. Martin Canole did a little, but James got him.

White was a clever fellow. He just jabbed Britt at ease and worked around him in masterly style until his strength gave out. Had the fight been a fifteen-round affair, the chances are that the Briton might have copped the Californian, but just about as the gong sounded for the fifteenth his strength began to leave him. He was just a game bulldog from that on, gritty and willing to keep up as long as his legs would carry him.

Britt was too strong, however, his youth was too much for poor White, and after battering James B. about, he was himself beaten until his arms dropped by his side and he was a mere plaything for the vicious Britt.

A great many think the wrong thing was done by the referee in that fight. White had but twenty seconds to go in the fight and he might have stuck it out if given the chance. He was helpless, of course, but had he been knocked down in that time the chances are that he would have recovered during the ten seconds and stuck out the limit.

It is more glory for Britt and his record, but on White's it is a big black spot.

SHORT SHRIFT GIVEN FIGHTERS IN NOVA SCOTIA

Springhill, N.S., May 10.—(Special.)—Freelin Martin and Sandy Ferguson, well-known all over the pugilistic circles, were arrested here yesterday afternoon on a charge of fighting. They were given two hours to leave the town or forty days in jail. Martin is a native of Amherst, but has been absent for twelve years. He made a tour of the world with Peter Jackson, the well-known heavyweight, and Thomas Cannon, the famous wrestler. He has fought over two hundred and twenty ring battles.

Mr. Henry Munderloh, of Munderloh & Company, left to-day on a visit to Toronto.

HACK TO APPEAR AGAIN IN MONTREAL

He Will Wrestle Any Ten Men Inside Ninety Minutes.

George Hackenschmidt, the champion wrestler of the world, will appear in Montreal again on May 17, and will throw, within the space of 90 minutes, ten heavyweight wrestlers. Anyone of these wrestlers who is not thrown within ten minutes will receive $100. This is a bona-fide offer, and any local wrestler who wishes to obtain information concerning the bouts may receive the same by communicating with the sporting editor of The Herald.

The wrestlers who meet Hackenschmidt may adopt any style they choose, as the champion is willing to give them every latitude.

The Herald would suggest that the following ten wrestlers be secured to tackle the big Russian:—

Frank Gotch, Tom Jenkins, Emile Maupas, Rogers, Flaschamp, Pardello, August Faust, Gonthier, Emile Silva and Auvry. The Rogers mentioned is not Yankee Rogers but another and bigger man, who weighs 280 lb. Auvry weighs 265 lb. and Flaschamp 235 lb.

The agreement that Hackenschmidt has entered into is as follows:

This agreement made and entered into this 9th day of May, 1905, between Le Club Athletique, Canadien, party of the first part, and George Hackenschmidt, party of the second part.

Whereas, it is hereby agreed and covenanted between the aforesaid parties that the said party of the second part promises and agrees at some time appointed by the party of the first part within 10 days from date to throw under Graeco-Roman, catch-as-catch-can or Cornish rules any ten men produced by the party of the first part in a hall or place designated and appointed by said party of the first part, within the space of ninety minutes or forfeit the sum of five hundred dollars, which has been received by and is held in trust by Dr. Gadbois, the Physical Culture Editor of La Presse.

It is also agreed between the aforesaid parties that in case said party of the second part succeeds in throwing the ten men he is entitled to and shall receive (the party of the first part having already deposited same with Dr. Gadbois) the sum of five hundred dollars. It is furthermore agreed that the party of the second part shall pay the sum of one hundred dollars to each and every man whom he shall fail to throw inside of ten minutes. It is also agreed that the party of the first part hereby covenants to pay unto the contestant who shall remain unbeaten for the longest period of time the sum of one hundred dollars, irrespective of the aforesaid sum of one hundred dollars which he shall have received from the party of the second part should said party of the second party have failed to defeat him within the allotted space of ten minutes.

In the event of the party of the second part failing to present himself at the time and place appointed by the party of the first part it is agreed and covenanted that the party of the second part shall forfeit the aforesaid sum of five hundred dollars deposited with Dr. Gadbois.

Many people stayed away from the Hackenschmidt-Maupas bout because they feared that the crush would be so great as to cause discomfort. They need not have worried over this contingency, as Sohmer Park, despite the size of the crowd, could have easily contained 2,000 more people than were present Monday night.

Many ladies were in attendance Monday night, and, in deference to their wishes and to ensure the more complete comfort of the spectators, smoking will not be allowed next Wednesday night. Hack popularized wrestling in England, and at his recent bouts in that country, thousands of ladies were present. The local promoters of the sport are making efforts to have the same condition obtain here.

Besides wrestling the ten men, Hack will lecture in French and English on physical culture and will tell how he obtained his wonderful control over his muscles. He will also answer any questions that may be put to him regarding physical development.

Hack has an extensive programme ahead of him before he returns to England. He appears in St. Louis Friday night; in Chicago, May 15; in Montreal, May 17; in New York, May 18, and in Baltimore, May 19. He sails for England May 20, and on the 29th begins an 18 months' engagement with three theatres, each of which has contracted to pay him $1,000 a week. He will therefore receive $3,000 a week, or for the 18 months about $234,000.

When in New York May 18, he will pose and lecture before a women's private club for half an hour and will receive $300 for his exhibition.

DRIVER OF WAGGON HAS NOT BEEN FOUND

Inquest Was Held Yesterday on the Body of Little Norah Mahan.

At the inquest yesterday afternoon into the death of little Nora Mohan, who was killed by a waggon on St. Patrick's street on Monday, evidence was given by the boy named Broderick who witnessed the accident, and by two women who arrived on the scene shortly afterwards, attracted by the screams of little Nora's companions.

The verdict returned by the jury was: "That Nora Mohan came to her death by having been run over by a team, the driver of which is at present unknown." They added a recommendation, that the police be requested to use every effort to discover the driver and that the city be asked to repair the street where the accident happened. At present there are several deep ruts near the spot where the child was killed.

Mr. F. H. McGuigan, manager of the Grand Trunk Railway, arrived home yesterday from Washington.

A good baking oven is what every housewife requires in a range. Other advantages add to the usefulness of the range, but an easily regulated, perfect baking and roasting oven is an indispensable feature. It is the perfection in operation of the oven of the

that has made it such a striking success.

It is in the oven construction that the greatest difference is found between the Imperial Oxford and any other range on the market. The diffusive oven flue draws the cold air from the floor, super-heats it, and distributes it throughout the oven, keeping it at an even temperature in all parts. This flue also makes it easy to regulate the heat of the oven and secures a marked saving in fuel. If your dealer doesn't handle the Imperial Oxford, write to us direct and we will send you our catalogue and tell you where you can see the range.

G.T.R. STRIKE IS NOT THOUGHT SERIOUS

Strikers Are Too Weak Numerically to Affect Operation of Works.

The strike among the Grand Trunk machinists who are members of the Amalgamated Society of Engineers and Blacksmiths' seems to have flared up for an instant only, merely to explode and finally die out. At least that is the look matters appear to have this morning.

In the first place the number of men who took off their overalls is really very small. The strikers claim positively that they have the names of forty men who quit, while the company claims that only twenty men walked out. Be that as it may, it is evident that the number who walked out is too small to even inconvenience the company and the proof of it is that yesterday afternoon and this morning the work was going along in every department quite as busily as if nothing had happened. This morning the Grand Trunk replaced every one of the strikers by competent workmen.

The strikers themselves do not seem over-confident of success. One of these men, in conversation with a Herald representative, said that they could not hope to accomplish their object unless the greater number of the employes of the shops strike also, as, of themselves, they could do very little to bring the company to terms, being too weak, numerically. The machinists hardly thought there would be a sympathetic strike among the men, as these latter were not sufficiently organized, neither had they any friends to support them in case of a general walk-out. Taken altogether the strikers do not seem to think their chances very bright and appearances seem to indicate that they are perhaps right in not expecting much of a success.

It seems hardly likely, for the reason enumerated above, that the strike will spread. If it spreads at all it will hardly extend in Montreal, the West being the more vulnerable point.

Mr. Frederick McBride will sail on Saturday, May 13, per steamship Tritonia, visiting London, Edinburgh and Glasgow.

STOCKS AND MONEY.

Stocks Markets Very Dull; Dom. Coal Subscriptions Closed

The local market, which usually follows the lead of the Wall street market, has for once taken the initiative and shown the New York market what it should do. For some days business in the local market has been as dull as it usually becomes in the summer holidays, and to-day the Wall street market saw the quietest day in months.

Locally business was confined almost entirely to small investors who deal in broken lots. There were a number of small transactions in the bonds and preferred stock of the Dominion Textile Co., but for the most part the sales were only of fractions of bonds and stocks which had been secured by holders of the different cotton companies when the merger was put through.

The report that the Mayor was likely to veto the resolution of the Council awarding an extension of franchise to the Power Co. had a weakening influence, and the stock lost practically all it gained on the spurt yesterday. Selling ex dividend the transactions were at 90 1-2 to 90 3-4.

Montreal St. which sold down to 215 on Monday, was stronger and sold at 217. Lake of the Woods preferred, which has been holding fairly well around 115, was weaker to-day, one block of 100 shares selling at 115. Dominion Iron preferred sold 85 1-2 at the close, and Power common 21 1-2.

The most interesting announcement made to-day in financial circles was that the subscriptions to the new issues of $5,000,000 bonds and $3,000,000 preferred stock of the Dominion Coal Co. had been closed at noon to-day. It had been intended that the subscriptions should have remained open till the 12th of the month, but early to-day, on reports received at the Bank of Montreal from Boston and Toronto, it was found that the new issues had been over-subscribed three times.

An idea of how readily the new issues were taken up by the old bond and stockholders of the company may be gathered from an official statement that before the subscriptions had been opened to the public the old holders had taken as much as $2,300,000 of the $3,000,000 of preferred stock and close to 60 per cent. of the $3,000,000 bond issue.

L. J. Forget & Co.'s London cable quotes Grand Trunk first at 108, second at 98, third at 48⅝, C.P.R. at 151⅞, Anaconda at 5⅝, Hudson's Bay at 72¼.

Sales of Canadian group on Wall St. to noon were 2,600 C.P.R., 1,300 Twins, 100 Soo common, 100 Duluth common.

BAIE DES CHALEURS RY.

At the annual general meeting of the shareholders of the Baie des Chaleurs Railway Company, held at noon to-day, Hon. J. R. Thibaudeau, C. E. Armstrong, J. M. Shanly, M. S. Lonegan, and E. A. D. Morgan, were elected directors.

At a subsequent meeting of the directors Hon. J. R. Thibaudeau was elected president, C. E. Armstrong vice-president, and L. A. Globensky secretary.

Wall Street Market

The Wall Street market was certainly in a peculiar condition to-day. No effort was made either to advance or depress forces and as a result the amount of business done was very restricted. Prices held fairly well, however, and though the different wire houses offered no important news the general opinion was that the market was adjusting itself and would move upward rather than downward. Amal. Copper opened at 81⅜, sold at 82, and then back to 81⅞. U. S. Steel pfd. xd. 98; C.P.R., 147⅝; Union Pacific, 119¼; Penn., 134⅝; U. S. WALL STREET GOSSIP.

Edwin S. Hooley, of Hooley, Learnard & Co., says:

"The situation as it exists in Wall Street to-day is entirely changed from what it was three weeks ago. Then there were too many lightly margined accounts.

"To-day there are no lightly margined accounts. The market is down from 10 to 2 5points,and stocks have passed from weak to strong hands.

J. S. Bache & Co.—Noon—Secretary Taft's speech insisting on Government regulation of rates was the factor that sent prices lower this morning. London gave no lead in trading for new account. Traders were more bearish. Buying of reading was about best in the market.

Sales to noon on Wall Street were 304,400. The session was the quietest in several weeks.

J. & C. Randolph.—After an hour's trading the market came almost to a standstill. There were a few movements in specialties, but no definite trend elsewhere. If anything, there was a slight tendency to sell off under neglect. Commission houses were practically witout orders. K. S. U. showed some activity and strength.

Charles Head & Co—There have been some firm issues, notably Amalgamated Copper, American Smelting and Southern Pacific, while a sharp advance of 3 occurred in Northern Pacific. The Rubber issues showed some strength on reports of consolidation.

Norris P. Bryant—The acquisition of new properties by American Smelting interests and comprehensive plans for the future promise to make Smelters common stock which might sell at remarkably higher prices, and in an event it is now one of our highest grade industrial issues.

U.S. Steel in Canada

New York.—When seen in regard to the report that the United States Steel Corporation proposes in the near future to establish a plant at Sarnia, Ont., Judge E. H. Garry, chairman of the board of directors, of the Corporation, said:—

"In the absence of the president of the company, Mr. Corey, who sailed for Europe two days ago, it is impossible for me to discuss our plans. We have had several men in Ontario looking over the ground, and they report that conditions in the steel trade are promising in that province. What we will do cannot be announced as yet, but the purposes of the company will probably be made known on the return of the president from abroad."

Neither Mr. Gayley nor Mr. Morrison could be seen.

Y.M.C.A. OPERATIONS WITH JAPANESE ARMY

Interesting Letter Received by Local Body From Mr. C. V. Hibbard, Army Secretary.

The foreign work section of Montreal Young Men's Christian Association has just received a very interesting letter from Mr. C. V. Hibbard, army secretary, in charge of the work of the Y.M.C.A. in connection with the Japanese army in the field.

In the course of his letter Mr. Hibbard says:—"While eating supper the night before, a man came in with a question about the correspondence room and lingered to ask me if I would pray with him. So he shared the remains of the supper and then we prayed together as well as my Japanese would permit. Just above his temple was the mark of a rifle ball, showing how close he had walked to death. As we count up the totals for the day, we find 501 different men writing a total of 1,500 letters; 150 to 160 hair cuts (of which ninety are my score); 100 doing laundry work. These are counts not estimates, and on these and other data we base the estimate of 2,000 visitors during the day. Among the callers were the chief of staff of the Yalu Army and his chief aide, who called to pay their respects.

"While we work among them the men chat freely. Recently one addressed me with, "Say, you, where does this 'Guntai Irokwai' come from?" (Soldiers' Comforting Society.) Full explanations follow. "Say, why don't Buddhism do anything like this?" "Perhaps it will. What do you think?" "Don't you ever think it. They conduct funerals." (A general laugh.) "Well, it's our hope that this thing will be a practical example of the spirit of Christianity." Follows a brief statement of the principles of Christianity. "Narahodo, well, most of us haven't enaugh religion to hurt us. It looks like a good thing. Religion is a good deal in demand with us over here."

Written permission has been received from the Manchurian authorities to open work in Port Arthur, and a suitable building has been granted. This point will be occupied as soon as supplies and men can be put on the ground. Antung, Newchwang, Dalny, Liao Yang and Feng-wan-chen are already occupied by the twelve secretaries.

The Montreal foreign section has already contributed $200 to this work, and are anxious that friends should put them in a position to send a further sum.

Street Gossip.

Mr. Archibald Kaines, assistant manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at San Francisco, was in the city yesterday.

Rio de Janeiro Co Buys Out Lighting Co

Word has been received in the city from Mr. F. S. Pearson, vice-president of the Rio de Janeiro Tramways, Light & Power Co., that he has closed all negotiations for the purchase of the lighting company of Rio de Janeiro. The purchase is a particularly important one, as the lighting company had an exclusive franchise for the lighting of the city.

While it was known by the interests closely connected with the company that Mr. Pearson was negotiating for the purchase of the lighting companies, its stock was so widely distributed in Paris, Brussels and London that it was not thought that negotiations would be closed at such an early date.

The Rio Tramway, Light & Power Co. now operate the lighting company and two tramway lines. The lighting company was paid for in cash and not in the stock of the new company as was done by other enterprises in South America.

Dom. Coal Stockholders Large Takers of New Bonds

Much interest is being shown in the action of quite a few of the large holders of the preferred stock of the Dominion Coal Co. exchanging their stock for the new bonds of the company, instead of taking the new preferred stock on which there is a cumulative dividend of 7 per cent.

An interest closely connected with the company, discussing the action of the stockholders with The Herald to-day, expressed the opinion that they were undoubtedly considering the better security back of the bonds rather than the higher dividend to be secured on the preferred stock. They felt that the property was becoming more and more valuable and as they intended holding the bonds for some years they regarded their investment as the safer one.

Difficulty for Small Banks to do Business

How difficult it has become for the smaller banks to do business in Canada is shown by the statement made by Mr. J. J. Stewart, president of the Royal Bank of Canada, in advising the shareholders to accept the offer of purchase made by the Bank of Montreal.

The present banking system, he said, is having an injurious effect, it being necessary to have agencies in every town and village in the province.

The manager of a local bank when seen by The Herald said it was becoming very evident that the best business everywhere was drifting very fast to the larger banks. The latter were not waging war on the small banks, but naturally were in a position to offer better discounts and other facilities to their customers.

New Mackenzie & Mann Project

Port Arthur, Ont., May 10.—(Special.)—From reliable sources it is learned here that the Tip Top copper mine, which was advertised for sale by auction this week, has been secured by Mackenzie & Mann, under private arrangement with principal creditors of the old company. They are now preparing plans for development of property upon large scale. More than 20,000 tons of ore have been uncovered at mine, and experts who have examined it for the new owners pronounce it to one of the richest copper properties in America. It is the intention of Mackenzie & Mann to establish copper smelters at Port Arthur, to be operated in connection with blast furnaces, so that the town is likely to have another industry employing a large number of men.

Canadian Steel Bounties

An Ottawa despatch says: For ten months ending April 30 the sum of $911,007 was paid out in bounties on iron and steel. For the same period of 1904 the iron and steel bounties amounted to $679,322, so that the payments for the present year show an increase of $271,685.

Position of Wall St. Market

A careful study of the position of the Wall Street market indicates that, if an average price can be taken, the decline has culminated. The averages should be of special interest to those who are striving to foresee the future—

The market rose from the early part of December, 1904, from an average low point at that time of 82.89 for the thirty-nine stocks to an average high point in 1905 of 98.66, an advance of 15.77. From this average high point of 98.66, the market fell to an average low point on the recent decline of 84.70, being a drop of 13.96. This drop wiped out no less than 88 per cent. of the rise since last December.

This is a fact of very first importance from the point of view of those who are striving to foresee the future. While it does not warrant an absolute conclusion that stocks should at once be speculatively bought, it certainly does furnish strong prima facie evidence that the decline having gone so far must be very near its end—if, indeed, it has not actually culminated.

MARKET REPORTS.

May Shipments of Grain; Local Exporters Handle Large Amount

It is likely that the shipments of grain from the port of Montreal during the present month will compare very favorably with former years. Local grain men estimate that between two and a half and three million bushels of grain will be shipped from here during the month of May. This will be something like a million to a million and a half bushels in excess of last year's shipments during the same month.

During May, 1904, 1,441,886 bushels of grain were shipped from Montreal. This amount included 1,175,995 bushels of wheat, 97,552 bushels of corn, and 86,913 bushels of oats. May, 1903, was a bumper month, a little over three million bushels of grain being shipped.

The opening of the season has been rather late, and the quantity of grain which has already arrived in the city by water from Western points is not unusually large. It is estimated that there is now in the neighborhood of a million and a half bushels of grain afloat between the lake ports and Montreal.

Outlook for Season For Dairy Products

Local produce merchants are of the opinion that this season is likely to be a good one for Canadian dairymen. The Herald this morning obtained the opinion of several of the principal dealers on the subject. Here is what they have to say:

Mr. A. J. Brice, of A. J. Brice & Co.:—"I think the season will be a good one. The country is looking well and it is probable that the make this year will be large, so that the producers will have a prosperous season even if prices do not rule high. The stocks of cheese on the English market are low and it is likely that there will be a good demand."

Mr. Ballantyne, manager for Lovell & Christmas:—"The present indications are that the season will be a prosperous one for the producers. It looks as though there will be a good demand from the English market and if such is the case prices will probably be high."

Mr. Hislop, of Hislop & Hunter:—"It looks as though there will be a good active trade in dairy products this year. The butter market has seldom been so well cleaned up, as it is this spring, and prices are opening up high. I expect that there will be a good active trade as soon as the grass butter commences to come in."

Mr. A. Hodgson, of Hodgson Bros.:—"The prospects are very encouraging for a good season. The farmers are getting high prices for their produce, and it looks as though they would have a good year."

Mr. Geo. McGarry, of Crawford & McGarry:—"I expect that we will have a good local demand during the season. The large number of immigrants who are coming into the country are increasing the local consumption considerably and the farmers are selling more produce in the country towns than ever before.

Mr. A. Dairymple, of A. Dairymple & Sons:—"The prospects are good for an active trade in dairy produce with England this season. A great deal, however, depends on the factorymen and the patrons of the factories. If they insist on running prices too high, shippers will be obliged to carry stock over as they did last year. On the whole, I think that the season will be a prosperous one."

Grain, Flour, Hay

Grain.—Local grain men report business very quiet as a result of the English merchant being unwilling to pay the price asked here. The opinion here is that the bids from over cable must advance.

Flour.—The improved demand for flour noted yesterday was fairly well maintained to-day, and a moderate amount of business was done. Prices: Manitoba spring wheat patents, $5.40 to $5.50; strong bakers, $5.10 to $5.20; winter wheat patents, $5.50 to $5.60; straight rollers $5.15 to $5.25, and in bags, $2.45 to $2.55.

Millfeed.—The tone of the market for millfeed was a trifle easier to-day, but there is no actual change in prices to note. Prices: Manitoba bran, in bags, $19; shorts, $21 per ton; Ontario winter wheat bran, in bulk, $18.50 to $19; shorts, $20 to $21; mouille, $24 to $28 per ton, as to quality.

Oats.—The demand for rolled oats continues slow, and the market is quiet with prices unchanged at $2.20 to $2.22½ per bag. The tone of the market for cornmeal remains steady at $1.35 to $1.45 per bag.

Hay.—There was no new developments in the market for baled hay, for which the demand is fair for local consumption at about steady prices. Prices: No. 1, $9 to $9.50; No. 2, $8 to $8.50; clover, mixed, $7 to $7.50; and pure clover, $6.50 to $6.75 per ton, in car lots.

Country Produce

Beans.—The tone of the market for beans remains about steady, with a moderate amount of business passing in choice primes at $1.60 to $1.65 per bushel.

Honey.—There was no improvement in the demand for honey and the market remains quiet and featureless. We quote: Extracted white clover honey, 7c to 7½c per 10-lb. tin, and 6½c to 7c in 60-lb. tins; buckwheat honey, 6c to 6½c, and white clover comb, 13c to 13½c.

Syrup.—The demand for maple product continues fair, and a steady business is reported at unchanged prices. Syrup, in 90-gal. kegs, 6c to 6½c per lb.; in tins, 65c to 70c per wine measure, and 75c to 80c for Imperial, and Beauce sugar, 8½c to 9c per lb.

Hops.—The market for hops continues quiet with no change in prices to note. Choice Canadians, 28c to 29c, and fair to good at 24c to 26c per lb.

Ashes.—The demand for potash is fair, but owing to the small offerings business is quiet, and prices steady. Prices: First soris, $5.50; seconds, $5; and first pearls, $7 to $7.25 per 100 lb.

The Provision Market

There was no new feature in the situation of the market to note, prices for all lines being well maintained, with a moderate amount of business passing, considering the high prices at present ruling. The demand for abattoir fresh-killed hogs was fair, and sales were made at $9.75 to $10 per 100 lb.

Prices:—Heavy Canada short cut mess pork, in barrels, $31.50 to $32.50; heavy Canada short cut mess, $21 to $22; Canada short cut back pork, $19 to $20; heavy Canada long cut mess pork, none; heavy Canada short cut clear pork, $19 to $20; heavy flank pork, $19 to $20; light Canada short cut clear pork, none.

Crop Prospects Bright

Winnipeg, May 10.—The Free Press to-day asked correspondents all over the West to report conditions of crops in their localities. The replies are invariably favorable, and indicate that everything is in the most promising condition. It is evident that moisture in the form of either snow or rain has fallen very generally in Manitoba and at a number of points in the Territories, and that up to the present the crop has had no setback. All that is wanted is warm weather, and such is being enjoyed to-day. Prospects could not well be brighter.

Wheat Markets

May options opened 1c in advance of yesterday's closing at the Chicago market to-day. It afterwards went up to 92⅛ and later was again quoted at 92. July options were 83⅞ at opening. During the morning 84⅛ was quoted, but later sales were made at 83⅞.

Millers Take Action

Toronto, May 10.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the Dominion Millers' Association yesterday, a resolution was passed appointing J. D. Flavelle, Lindsay, and George Goldie, Ayr, a committee to assist C. W. Band, C. B. Watts, Hedley Shaw and D. Plewes, of the Board of Trade, in securing the most favorable terms for forwarding Manitoba grain from lake ports.

Big Sale of Fruit; Season Bad in Italy

The cargo of the Jacona, the first ship to arrive in port with fruit from Messina, Italy, this season, has been discharged and about 45,000 packages of oranges and lemons are now lying on the wharf waiting to be disposed of to the different wholesale dealers in the city. The Jacona's cargo consisted of 26,000 boxes of lemons and 19,000 boxes of oranges. Most of this was consigned to Messrs. Hart & Tuckwell, of McGill Street, who are the representatives of the shippers in Messina. The Jacona's cargo is to be sold by auction at the warehouse of the Montreal Fruit Exchange next Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

The next fruit steamer to arrive in port will be the Escalona, with a cargo of 50,000 packages of oranges and lemons.

The fruit season has not been a good one in Italy and the yield has been exceptionally small. From reports received it is estimated that the receipts of oranges and lemons in Montreal this year will be about 85,000 boxes less than those of last season. This shortage will most probably have the effect of raising prices considerably.

Cheese Boards

Huntingdon, Que., May 10.—The opening of the Huntingdon Dairymen's Exchange will take place on Friday morning next, May 12, at 11 o'clock.

Campbellford, Ont., May 10.—At the cheese board yesterday 1,260 boxes were offered. Morton secured 681; Whitton, 340; Kerr, 240; all sold at 9 11-16c.

Cheese, Butter and Eggs

There was a somewhat easier feeling in the butter market this morning and local dealers were quoting 19c to 19¼c for best creamery. The receipts to-day were 2,102 packages against 458 yesterday.

There is no new feature of interest to be reported in the cheese market. Ontario cheese is selling for 10c to 10¼c, and Quebec for 9¾c. Some demand is reported from the English market.

The demand for eggs continues good, and the receipts are not heavy for this season of the year. Straight receipts were quoted at 15½c to 16c this morning.

Cattle Markets

Business was active at the east end cattle market this morning and a large number of buyers were present. The offerings were sold at from 5c to 5¼c; 500 hogs sold at 7¼c. About 100 sheep and lambs were also offered.

At the Point St. Charles market 500 head of cattle were offered, and a large number of hogs. Hogs sold at $7 to $7.25 per 100 lb. A few very heavy ones were sold at $6 to $6.50.

SHIPS AND SHIPPERS

The list of overdue steamships is fast diminishing, and though we hear of the Danish steamer M. C. Holm, bound here, putting into Cape Ray with some of her bow plates stove in while endeavoring to force her way through ice, Captains Pitt, Kirk and Wallace, of the Allan liners Corinthian and Hungarian, report that they had little difficulty in getting through, and that under the influences of a strong wind and powerful sunshine the ice held seemed rapidly dispersing.

To-day, the Lake Champlain, Montrose, Vancouver and Pretorian are landing nearly 2,000 steerage passengers in Quebec, and will be up here early to-morrow.

The two steamships advertised by Furness, Withy & Co. to sail for South Africa are both reported inward, the Wyandotte, which left Durban April 7, is filling up her bunkers at Louisburg, and the Birmingham has passed Cape Race from Liverpool.

The Allan liners Ontarion, Buenos Ayrean and Sarmatian are on their way to the Gulf and the latter will inaugurate the direct line to Havre under the new contract with the Dominion Government.

This afternoon the Allan turbiner Victorian will be open to inspection by ticket for the benefit of the General Hospital and Sailors' Institutes. She will sail early on Friday morning, among her passengers being Lady Sybil, daughter of His Excellency Earl Grey.

MARCONI

WRITE TO US ABOUT IT and if we do not succeed in convincing you, by a preponderance of evidence, that you can make more money by investing a few dollars in Marconi Wireless Telegraph stock than by any other use to which you can put your money, you will at least have gained a great deal of very useful and beneficial information. You will be under no obligation to us—we want you to know all about it, whether you buy stock or not. Primarily, of course, our object is to sell stock, but we will not expect you to buy, unless your own intelligent judgment tells you it is the proper thing to do. All we ask is a hearing. If the facts we present do not satisfy you that it is a safe, sound, conservative and highly profitable venture, then we want none of your money. It will cost you nothing more than a postal card to find out what we have to offer. The only stipulation we make is that you shall read carefully all that we submit. Address,
