GOVERNMENT STALLED ON PIPE LINE

Seaway Forges Ahead and the power project of the St. Lawrence seaway is starting to take shape. This night photo shows work which goes on 24 hours a day on the Canadian end of the power house. The work is being done in the dried up bed of the St. Lawrence river and the power house will rise 162 feet from its bed rock foundation in the bed of the St. Lawrence river. Giant cement plant (top center) has already poured 26,000 cu. yds of cement in this structure, which is three months ahead of schedule. (FedNews)

One Day Lost In Bid To Push Bill Past Struggling Opposition

OTTAWA — (CP) — Concerted opposition moves have temporarily outmanoeuvred the government in the Commons and knocked one day from the cabinet's tightly scheduled program for passage of the hotly-contested gas pipeline legislation.

No progress was made on the bill Wednesday during the half-day sitting as Progressive Conservative and CCF tacticians threw up three delaying motions.

The procedural tangle produced extended argument on often-obscure points of order together with three roll-call votes — two of them unsuccessful appeals against rulings by the Speaker.

Result was that the government did not achieve its aim of moving the controversial pipeline bill into the third stage of its passage — detailed study of its seven clauses with the Commons sitting in committee of the whole. That stage is expected to be reached today.

The tactical manoeuvring left the government only 11 days until its June 7 deadline for approval of the measure to lend up to $80,000,000 to Trans-Canada Pipe Lines Ltd. for construction this year of the Alberta-Winnipeg section of its 2,200-mile line east to Ontario and Quebec.

If the bill is not passed by then, Trans-Canada is freed from its agreement to complete the western leg this year.

Closure—used on only seven previous occasions in Commons history—has been applied by the government twice so far in the bitter Commons fight. It is expected to be used twice more, in the committee stage and on final reading.

During the procedural hassle, CCF leader Coldwell, greeted with shouts from Liberal benches when he spoke on a point of order, said hotly: "I am wondering whether we are in the Reichstag or in the Canadian Parliament."

Drew Has New Pipe Line Plan

OTTAWA (CP) — Opposition leader George Drew said in a television interview Wednesday night he will indicate in the Commons the government has received a fourth proposal for building a cross-country natural gas pipeline.

The Commons, after bitter debate, has given second reading to government legislation to provide financial assistance to Trans-Canada Pipe Lines Ltd., awarded a charter in 1951 to build the 2,200-mile line.

Government spokesmen have told the Commons that a pipeline proposal by Gardner Ltd., Toronto, was found unacceptable. Another, by Frank McMahon, of Calgary, was recently withdrawn.

Mr. Drew, interviewed on the CBC television program Press Conference, said he proposed to "indicate" today in the Commons that the government has received another proposal.

Asked the status, in conservative eyes, of Carl Nickle, Conservative member for Calgary South, who voted against his party on the pipeline issue, Mr. Drew said Mr. Nickle is still a Conservative as far as the party is concerned.

Church Attendance At Record High

TRAIL, B. C.— Church attendance has reached a record high in Canada and the United States, says Right Rev. Joost de Blank, Bishop of Stepey, England. He attributes this return of the spirit of evangelism and the dissatisfaction of alienated churchgoers with the false trails they have been following.

Airman Jugged Five Days For Stealing Rocket

OTTAWA — (CP) — AC2 Joseph Parent, 18, of Ottawa has been sentenced to five days' detention for taking a rocket head from the scene of the May 15 crash of an RCAF jet fighter into a nun's rest home, the air force said Wednesday.

Parent also loses his pay for the time spent in detention. The RCAF has recovered all rocket heads carried by the CF-100 twin-jet when it rammed into the rest home of the Roman Catholic order of the Grey Nuns of the Cross seven miles east of here, killing 15.

It was disclosed that a piece of the CF-100 was found buried 35 feet in the earth under the three-storey brick convent. Air force investigators said they may never find the reason for the crash.

Rioting Flares Anew On Troubled Cyprus

NICOSIA, Cyprus — (AP) — Groups of Turkish Cypriots began revenge riots in Nicosia today.

A taxi drove through the Greek shopping centre, bullets spraying from the window, and youths stoned Greek Cypriots and their property in reprisal for Wednesday's shooting of a Turkish police sergeant.

No one was hurt by the bullets from the taxi, and British troops were soon on the scene with tear gas bombs to break up the groups of Turks.

The troops quickly erected barbed wire barricades to separate the Greek and Turkish parts of town.

Several Greek — driven cars caught on the wrong side of the barricade were severely stoned by about 100 Turkish youths.

EOKA — the pro-Greek underground fighting to unite Cyprus with Greece, was blamed for the slaying of the Turkish policeman Wednesday night at Polis, 60 miles west of Nicosia. Previous reports had identified the victim as a British soldier. He was shot three times at point-blank range by two masked men.

Cyprius' Turkish-descended minority is opposed to the drive to join this British island colony with Greece.

Dr. Fazil Kuchuk, president of the "Cyprus is Turkish" party and chief spokesman for the Turkish population, said all Turkish shops throughout Cyprus would close today to protest "the shooting of yet another Turkish policeman who was doing nothing but his duty." The sergeant was the third Turkish Cypriot on the police force killed in the 14-month

Congratulations — Governor-General Massey wishes the best to Sarah Victoria Whitecher who was 103 on Victoria Day. Miss Whitecher, who has lived in the Elizabethan Home, Ottawa, for 19 years is a native of Sherbrooke where she worked in the head office of the Quebec Central Railway for a number of years. An ardent skater in her younger days, she was rated one of the best "fancy skaters" in the country 80 years ago. Her niece, Mrs. W. J. Montgomery, Portland Ave., is her only relative here. (CP)

Seat Re-Distribution Pledged By Lapalme

STE. ROSE, Que. — (CP) — Liberal leader Georges Lapalme Wednesday promised a sweeping redistribution of seats in the province if his party is elected June 20.

Mr. Lapalme, speaking in Laval riding, most heavily populated in the province, described the present system as "illogical and unjust."

"According to a preliminary check of the election list, more than 140,000 persons will be eligible to vote in Laval in the provincial election."

"But in Two Mountains constituency, adjoining this riding, there will be only about 12,000 voters. That means it will take 12 voters here to equal one in Two Mountains."

He said that despite repeated Liberal requests for revision the Union Nationale government broke up only one riding before this election. That was Chicoutimi where part of the former riding was taken to form the new seat of Kenogamin-Jonquiere.

Mr. Lapalme also attacked the housing policy of the Union Nationale. He said less than 20 per cent of the residents of Montreal own their own homes, compared with some 60 per cent in Toronto.

"We don't want French Canadians to be a race of tenants," he said.

The only domain in which Montreal remains ahead of Toronto is in population, he added.

"Industry is being scared from Quebec to the Toronto area by the heavy taxation policy of the Union Nationale government," he said. "Workers in the Toronto area earn more money than in Montreal. More people own their own homes."

Speaking later in St. Jerome, Mr. Lapalme denounced the sale of iron ore from Quebec's Ungava region at a set price of $100,000 a year.

"This year, some 12,000,000 tons will be shipped from Ungava in boats waving the American flag, giving Quebec less than a cent a ton. And as production increases the price the provinces will get per ton will decrease."

"Newfoundland, which sold its ore just across the line in Labrador for 45 cents a ton, will make $33,000,000 under its contract this year," he said. "And Venezuela, also selling its ore to the United States, will get 70 cents a ton."

Mr. Lapalme said he could "forgive Mr. Duplessis for selling the ore at that price if he had insisted that a smelter be built in Quebec. But under the present agreement U.S. firms were making all the profit and Quebec was getting nothing."

Mendes-France Walks Out

PARIS — (P) — The resignation from the government of Pierre Mendes-France drew cries of alarm today from some French quarters that the action would undermine France's position in North Africa.

"The rebels don't expect a victory at arms," says the newspaper Figaro. "Their tactics consist in taking advantage of our political divisions, both in Algeria and Paris."

It adds that Wednesday's resignation of the former premier from the cabinet as minister without portfolio "will sow trouble in certain ranks and unfortunately fortify the rebels' position."

Observers say it is difficult to estimate how quickly and how deeply the resignation may affect the position of the present "Republican Front" government headed by Socialist Guy Mollet.

The premier reacted quickly, calling for an early debate in the National Assembly on the Algerian question.

Mendes-France quit for one basic reason: He had argued that the massing of troops in Algeria to put down the current nationalist disorders should be accompanied by a dramatic gesture which would convince the Arab population that a real change in their status was certain—and that it would be quick in coming.

Mollet's one attempt at meeting that condition proved a failure. He flew to Algiers a few days after he was installed as premier after the January elections, but ran into a wave of fighting opposition from the French colonists, who oppose almost to a man any "dramatic gesture" which promises to weaken their control over the country conquered and settled by their grandfathers and great-grandfathers.

Their opposition startled Mollet into modifying his position, and his division with Mendes-France appeared inevitable after that.

What the action may mean to the political future of Mendes-France is uncertain. Observers believe his following, even among his own Centrist Radical Socialist party, has fallen off in recent months.

French Troops Sweep Across Algeria Interior

ALGIERS — (Reuters) — French troops, backed by tanks and planes, today continued sweeps into the interior of strife-torn Algeria, where at least 59 insurgents were killed Wednesday.

According to official reports, the bodies of 10 French troops and civilians were recovered during the day's fighting. Ten Frenchmen were wounded.

Some 3,000 French troops are still combing the wooded hills around Palestro, east of Algiers, where the bodies of 19 members of a 22-man French patrol missing since Friday have so far been found, many of them mutilated.

A wounded survivor, found Wednesday, was with one of the dead flown by helicopter to hospital in Algiers.

A paratrooper general commanding operations in the Palestro area said his men killed 17 insurgents — all in uniform — and captured three Wednesday.

Security forces killed 12 insurgents while losing six killed and four wounded in the Nemenchta mountains of southeast Algeria, near the Tunisian frontier.

In two other clashes in eastern Algeria, near Seddouk and Claire-Fontaine, the insurgents left 30 dead and a French interpreter was killed.

A French sergeant was shot to death at Michelet, east of Algiers. In western Algeria a patrol found the body of a 50-year-old settler by the side of a road.

P. Q. Power Needs Said Staggering

MONTREAL — Demand for power in the province of Quebec continues in staggering proportions. F. P. Rousseau, chief engineer of the power development division of the Hydro Electric Commission of Quebec, said today in an address to the Engineering Institute of Canada.

The full capacity of the 1,200,000-horsepower Bersimis development on the north shore of the lower St. Lawrence river, now under construction, would be absorbed within a few years and it was logical to conclude that building of power plants would continue until all the hydro potential of the province had been harnessed.

This, as outlined by Mr. Rousseau and other speakers, would include harnessing of the La Chine rapids, the Carillon on the Ottawa river, further developments at Beauharnois — all near Montreal — and the Manicouagan river of the north shore of the St. Lawrence. Cause of the blaze has not yet been determined.

Firms Fined In Operation Of Combine

TORONTO — Six steel and wire fence companies Wednesday were fined $10,000 each for operating a combine for 18 years and were ordered to discontinue conspiring to fix prices.

Mr. Justice Wilfred Judson of the Ontario Supreme Court issued an order prohibiting the companies from lessening competition in the purchase, barter, transportation and supply of steel-woven wire fencing and related products.

The sentencing ended a five-year combines investigation. The six firms were convicted last month of operating a combine between Jan. 1, 1933 and Dec. 31, 1951.

The companies are Dominion Steel and Coal Corp. Ltd., Canadian Steel Corp. Ltd., Steel Company of Canada, Ltd., Frost Steel and Wire Co. Ltd., Lundy Fence Co. Ltd., and New Brunswick Wire Fence Co. Ltd.

Mr. Justice Judson said in passing sentence that he considered Dominion Steel and Coal and the Steel Company of Canada "the big companies in this conspiracy."

"It's quite impossible to regard a conspiracy of this kind as minor commercial misdemeanor," he said.

The fines were the maximum permitted under the old Criminal Code which was the basis of prosecution. The indictment ended Dec. 31, just before an amendment to the Criminal Code gave a judge discretion to fix the maximum penalty at whatever figure he wished.

Lower Town Hit By Major Fire

QUEBEC — A stubborn wind-fanned fire last night caused an estimated $250,000 damage to a four-storey building in Lower Town. There were no injuries.

The building housed stores, offices and storage space for electrical equipment and appliances.

Cause of the blaze has not yet been determined.

World News In Brief

QUEBEC — (CP) — The city of Nicolet, ravaged by a fire and a landslide last year, will receive $125,000 from the provincial government to speed recovery efforts, it was learned Wednesday.

At its last session, the government voted the city an initial $750,000. The fire occurred March 21 and was followed last November by a landslide.

Quebec — (CP) — The Quebec province Junior Chamber of Commerce warned Wednesday that in accordance with the organization's rules it will be necessary to expell any members chosen as candidates for any party in the June 20 election or who are acting as organizers.

Members otherwise participating in the election must not use the name of the chamber, the statement said, at the risk of expulsion.

COLOMBO, Ceylon — (Reuters) — The ruined sacred city of Anuradhapura was crowded Wednesday night with about 200,000 pilgrims who arrived from all over the Buddhist world to mark the 2,500th anniversary of the death of the Buddha.

Throughout the world, Buddhists commemorated the event with prayers and parades.

ALGIERS — (Reuters) — Maj. Charles Maire, chief of police in Algiers, was shot and wounded Wednesday night. His assailant escaped. Maire was taken to an Algiers hospital where he was to undergo an operation.

BELLEVILLE, Ont. — (CP) — Two jet pilots were killed Wednesday when their RCAF T-33 trainer plunged into the Bay of Quinte off the north shore of Big island. RCAF officials said the jet, based at Trenton, 12 miles west of Belleville, hit the water four miles east of here and sank.

ACCRA, Gold Coast — (P) — Louis Armstrong was welcomed in this West African capital Wednesday with the sort of demonstration usually reserved for heads of state and the local boy who makes good.

Ten thousand people roared a greeting at the sun-baked airport at Satchmo — king of jazz trumpeter. He acknowledged the tribute with a regal wave and a brilliant smile.

WASHINGTON — (P) — Congress completed action Wednesday on the second farm bill of this session, a measure setting up a $1,000,000,000-a-year-soil bank and giving farmers other new benefits.

The House of Representatives passed the compromise legislation 304 to 59. The Senate approved it Tuesday.

Now the bill goes to the White House for President Eisenhower's signature.

Squirrels And Nuts

Ex-President Truman Tuesday fired a pop-bottle from the bleachers — from way back in the bleachers.

Mr. Truman found himself viewing the Salerno beachhead and for want of something more sage, pronounced with the authority of a fuzzy-cheeked private that the bloody Italy battles of Salerno and Anzio were "totally unnecessary and planned by some squirrel-headed general."

As it turned out — and Mr. Truman may or may not have realized it — the "squirrel-head" he referred to was Field Marshal Lord Alexander, who was exemplifying himself on the field of battle while Mr. Truman was sitting snugly in the office of the vice-president at Washington.

Until he died, Franklin Roosevelt needed a vice-president about as much as Marilyn Monroe needs moles.

Even acknowledging that Mr. Truman, shodded to the fore by an act of fate, did a reasonable job during his tenure in the White House, it became obvious on many occasions that he failed to appreciate just how kind fate had been to him.

It is safe to assume that if Mr. Truman wasn't a general in 1943 he isn't a general in 1956. His battles have been fought on the election platform and his criticism of the conduct of a particular battle is about as ridiculous as a bush-leaguer suggesting that Ted Williams change his grip.

Let's all go over and look at Salerno and Anzio, then we'll have a vote on whether it was right or wrong. The consensus would be a more authoritative opinion, but it wouldn't change a single right or wrong of which there must be many in the conduct of any major war.

There could be a difference of opinion on any particular attack or battle. Generals are not infallible.

But given a choice, the troops that stormed Salerno and Anzio probably would have preferred an Alexander to a Truman in whom to put their trust.

The squirrel population in Italy has been increased — by one.

Austrian Vote Encouraging

Tiny Austria, long a courageous fighter for freedom while standing in the shadow of Russian communism, has once more reasserted its independence.

The first general elections it has held since foreign occupation troops moved out in 1955 gave ample proof of Austria's determination to continue its remarkable resistance to all pressures and blandishments from the East.

The conservative People's party of Chancellor Julius Raab gained a notable triumph, adding eight parliament seats to its present total. The next strongest party, the Socialists, edged up just two seats.

The Communists dropped one, and managed to poll less than 150,000 votes against the Raab's total of more than two million.

Officially, under the terms of its peace treaty, Austria is of course neutral. Raab actually favors a "softer" neutrality policy toward the Soviet Union than do the rival Socialists. But in spirit and in its goals Austria belongs with the free world.

Indeed, as indicated at the outset, the Austrians have battled more stubbornly in the cause of liberty than have others more fortunately placed strategically.

The big issue in the campaign just concluded turned on "free enterprise" in Austria's oil fields. The Socialists wanted to nationalize them 100 per cent. The People's party proposed to hold state ownership to 51 per cent, leaving the remainder in private hands.

Raab's proposal, which now he presumably may be able to carry out, would allow more favorable operating conditions for U.S., British and other foreign oil companies with interests in Austria.

That desire to keep an economic climate favorable to Western nations, without outraging neighboring Communists, shows plainly where Austria's heart really lies in the struggle for Europe.

A secondary aspect of this election was the happy decline of the country's extreme right wing elements. These have devoted their efforts largely to shouting their Germanism, and their supporters bore a strong Nazi color.

Austria may be technically neutral, but it observes a dynamic sort of neutrality which often must appear more attractive to leading Western diplomats than the avowed support they get from certain allies.

Rhee Losing Favor

Syngman Rhee has never encouraged what might be called ideal democratic conditions in Korea. So it is rather remarkable that in winning election to a third term as president he polled only 55 per cent of the vote.

Four years ago he drew 72 per cent of the total. This time he had surprising competition from an ex-Communist who is in hiding, and a man who died of a brain hemorrhage 10 days before election.

Obviously the aged Rhee still has matters in hand. But the strong vote for his rivals would seem at least in part to represent a protest.

It could be that Koreans are growing weary of his iron-handed rule in the guise of democracy. Or perhaps that they are just growing tired of Rhee.

Outsiders have been saying for a long time that Korea needs fresh, imaginative leadership. A good many Koreans may be reaching the same conclusion.

Never Know When To Quit

It is sad indeed to watch the demise of a great athlete, but in no sport is a collapse so starkly presented as in the fight world.

Strong men choked as they watched the great Joe Louis being battered about in the twilight of a great career. The other night, the television audience was "treated" to another tragic figure trying to fight back the years.

While Ezzard Charles cannot rate with Joe Louis, his boxing career has had its highlights. He ranked with the best of the "boxers" and it seems a shame that his late ineptitude should be allowed to cloud memories of his better days.

In other sports, the end seems to come more quickly and gracefully. A baseball or a hockey player begins to fade and either quits or is demoted to competition which matches his failing prowess. There may be accompanying indignity, but it isn't quite so physical as being smashed about a ring to the catcalls of the blood-thirsty.

Charles says that it isn't the money that keeps him in the ring; he wants to be "with it." If he considers that being clubbed to pieces by inexperienced, hard-handed youngsters is "being with it," it would appear that Mr. Charles' brains already have taken too much pounding.

DANGER OF CAR POWER

(St. Thomas Times-Journal)

Many people have criticized automobile manufacturers for placing emphasis on the power of their 1956 models. Almost every automobile advertisement, whether in print or television, stresses power as a selling feature, pointing out how the car will pull out that necessary amount of power to pass another car or mount a steep hill. They claim it is a safety factor.

But there is another aspect of power which has come to our notice lately on the highways. The immense driving power in a car is causing many motorists to take more chances in passing another car. Conscious of the tremendous thrust contained in the engine, these impatient people behind the wheel hurl their cars through relatively narrow gaps, trusting to the power to enable them to nip through and get back into line without crashing into the oncoming vehicle. We speak from knowledge, not as one of these gap-jumpers, but as a steady plodder who has so often this spring seen a car whizz past and just miss the other car by a second or two.

The sense of revelling in the newer, more powerful cars, is going to take a lot of lives this year.

DEAL WITH GOVERNMENTS

(Peterborough Examiner)

A large Help-Wanted advertisement appeared this week in a Toronto paper. A Pacific Coast industry, with headquarters in Vancouver and employing 2,000 people, wants a general manager and will pay a starting salary of $25,000. Among the high qualifications expected — in addition to "an impressive record of achievement" — is this: "Ideally he should have some experience in dealing with government departments." This is the frank admission that we have seen in some weeks of the extent to which government has infiltrated into business, or that business leans on government.

TOO QUICK ON THE DRAW

(Ft. Wm. Times-Journal)

A Canadian newspaper photographer who rushed in to get pictures to illustrate the story of a crash landing of a huge American air force plane faced a drawn revolver in the hands of an American officer who ordered the photographer away. This happened near Hamilton, Ontario.

Commenting later, an American Air Force spokesman said the American crew acted no differently than a R.C.A.F. crew under similar circumstances. Possibly that is true. But if a R.C.A.F. officer threatened an American photographer on United States soil with a revolver, we imagine the repercussions would be dynamic.

CREATING CONTEMPT

(Montreal Gazette)

The law is a protection but it must not be a trap. And too often in this province municipalities have used the law only to trap motorists and fill the local treasuries. This kind of "law enforcements" only brings the law into disrepute. It creates contempt instead of respect.

There were 20 shoemakers among the population of 3,215 listed in the first census of New France in 1667.

Women In The Pulpit

(Ft. Wm. Times-Journal)

The decision of the Methodist Church in the United States to allow women to join the ranks of the official clergy of the largest Protestant denomination in that country points up the reluctance which many men still harbor against the participation of women in fields which have been in the sole custody of males for centuries. Strenuous objections were raised by delegates to the general conference. Unless one accepts the dictum that man was ordained to have mastery over woman, that woman should obey him, defer to him, it seems difficult to find a valid reason why a woman should not preach and minister in the same way as a man does. Her soul cannot be essentially different from that of a man — certainly not in the eyes of her Maker.

And yet — for years to come, because of tradition and custom, a great many men will feel uncomfortable where the service is conducted by one of the other sex.

From The Pen Of E. T. Writers

THE OLD-TIME COUNTRY DOCTOR

Of all the men in country, town,
Or the whole wide world around,
No other like him could be found.
Though you search the whole earth up and down,
What manner of man can this be,
Who in his duty stands supreme,
And would let nothing come between —
Him and his works, the old time Country Doctor.
O'er hill and dale, by road or trail,
To reach a patient he'd never fail.
Through fields and woodlands covered white,
In calm or storm, by day and night.
If he lost the road, he'd give Dobbin the rein,
And he'd take the Doctor there, and back again.
'Cross streams where bridges were all washed out,
The Doctor and Dobbin never turned about.
On the other side maybe a woman in pain,
Throughout the night the Doc' would remain.
Or perhaps 'twas a man in a lumber camp,
Which meant an operation 'neath an old oil lamp.
The Old Country Doctor, friend of the family,
Knew the history of many a Family Tree,
As he followed in the steps of The Great Physician,
And held here on earth, life's noblest position.
There were times when he had retired for the night,
And he wakened from dreaming pleasant dreams —
To be told he must hurry, and hasten down some stream —
No rest for the Dear Old Doctor.
The time of year, perhaps early Springtime,
When rivers are running very high,
He needs must cross, and not be scared to die —
Our brave Old Country Doctor.
Of a sudden he must climb up on the buggy seat —
The river runs ever faster,
The horse is swept right off its feet,
In danger of being drowned — Dobbin and his Master.
A line is thrown from off the shore,
Then made fast to the horses' collar,
A little more — just a little more —
Safe at last, the brave old horse and Doctor.
The rich and poor to him were the same,
Each his patient, sick or in pain,
He labored not to gain great wealth,
But to restore his patient to health again.
In his old black bag were mysterious things,
His medicines worked like magic,
And back to good health the patient he brings,
No wonder his passing is tragic.
No wonder he was loved from sea to sea,
Revered and adored from shore to shore,
He'll live on and on in dearest memory,
We'll honor and bless him For-Ever more.

PASSIVE DEFENSE SETS GAME BID

A broken holding in a suit may cost you a trick to lead that suit. When you have several such suits, your best course is to adopt a passive defense, getting out safely at each opportunity, and allowing the other side to open each suit.

In today's hand, West didn't want to lead from the jack of hearts, the queen of diamonds, or from the ace of clubs. He wisely played for safety by leading a trump.

Declarer won the first trick in dummy with the ace of spades in order to lead towards the king of clubs. West won with the ace and got out once more with a trump.

Declarer won in dummy again and this time tried the diamond finesse. West won with the queen of diamonds and led his last trump.

South was now in trouble. He led the eight of clubs to force out the ten, won the diamond return, and cashed the king of diamonds. Nothing helped, for he hadn't set up the jack of clubs nor had the diamonds broken.

The hearts were no better. South led a heart to the queen, losing to East's king. East return

Bygone Days

TEN YEARS AGO

From the Record of Friday, May 24, 1946.

The United States staggered today under the blow of an unprecedented rail strike which balked the government's best efforts for a settlement. To meet the worst transportation crisis in history, the government mobilized all available airplanes, trucks and boats to move such top priority essentials as food, medicines and other vital supplies.

A germ spray reported to be capable of wiping out large cities and entire crops at a single blow is the United States' newest secret weapon, "far more deadly than the atomic bomb." This disclosure leaked out of Congress today after the first bare hint was dropped on the floor of the House of Representatives yesterday.

Labor Minister Barrette told a delegation of firemen of Quebec Province at the Legislature buildings yesterday that their request for a 56-hour working week was "too much at one time" and they should "proceed through different stages to reach their aim."

SAVAGES STILL WITH US

(Ft. Wm. Times-Journal)

Any difference between some human beings living today and their savage forbears is but the veneer of refined living conditions. How else can one view what happened in Spanish Morocco, where nine persons were soaked with gasoline and burned alive in street rioting? Moreover, if one thinks on the North American continent we have left behind the crude animal spirits of pioneer days, he should consider an event in the Southern Ontario community of Warren last Tuesday. There about 400 villagers roved off the main street with 100 motor cars for a gang fight which had all the elements of old wild west viciousness.

ed a heart, and South finessed the ten. This lost to the jack, and South was down one.

South felt aggrieved at his bad luck. Every finesse was sour, and no suit broke well. The luck would have been different, however, if West had incautiously opened a heart or a diamond. Either lead would sacrifice a trick, and this would have given declarer the game and rubber.

THAT "SHE" BLOWS

(London Free Press)

Approaching England in a fog the traveler hears the companionary deep bass boom of a foghorn on a lighthouse. It is a low, resonant voice most assuring in such circumstances. In the future, however, he may tune an attentive ear to a contralto horn, or even to a soprano. Trinity House, Britain's Authority in charge of coastal navigation and lights is experimenting with "a more feminine foghorn." By tradition ships have been feminine and referred to as "she." Maybe we shall now refer to the lighthouse foghorn as "she," a soprano at that.

Mrs. George Cooté Entertains W.M.S. At Knowlton

KNOWLTON — The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Knowlton United Church took place at the home of Mrs. George H. Cooté with the president Mrs. E. M. Gray in the chair.

The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. G. M. Ransom. Numerous sick calls were reported as the roll call was answered. Mrs. Ransom also read a letter from Miss Ada Sandell, of Korea, informing the society that she will be soon returning to Canada and not to send any more parcels to her present address.

The financial statement was given by the president in the absence of the treasurer, Mrs. Earl B. Mizener.

Mrs. Gray announced that a baby's layette had been sent to a mission field in the Canadian West and that a bale of used clothing had also been forwarded there.

Interesting reports were given by Mrs. George Cooté and Mrs. Charles Keene on the W.M.S. Presbytery held recently in Lennoxville.

Mrs. Gray welcomed two guests and also voiced the pleasure of the meeting that Miss Lucia Knowlton was well enough to be present.

The worship service was conducted by Mrs. Gray when special prayers were given for Mrs. H. L. Hastings, who is ill as well as intercessions for our Missionaries and mentioned our own, Miss Isabelle Miller.

Mrs. Keene offered her home for the next meeting.

CHEERIO MISSION BAND

Cheerio Mission Band met in the United Church Hall with the president, Linda Jill Bockus in the chair. The minutes were read by the secretary, Joan Wilson and the offering was taken by Julia Northrup.

Instead of a story, Mrs. Bockus reviewed many reasons why one should be glad to be a Canadian. "O Canada" was sung at the conclusion of her talk.

The worship service took place around the Palestine Village, just completed by the group and was conducted by Mrs. Gray who explained the many ways of life in such a village in Old Testament times.

The Scripture lesson was read by Linda Jill Bockus and Arthur Badger read the prayer.

A game was enjoyed and a treat served. A friendship circle was formed for the closing prayer.

C.G.T.I. GROUP

The Canadian Girls in Training met in the United Church Hall under the leadership of Mrs. Carl C. McClay. In the absence of the President, Ann Northrup, the meeting was presided over by Maureen Perry. The minutes were read by the secretary, Joan Northrup and the devotional was led by Heather Keene and Len Miller. A C.G.T.I. poster was completed.

Arrangements were made for the Mother and Daughter Banquet in the United Church Hall. The meeting was brought to a close with the singing of Taps.

Frontier Swim Project Opening Planned At Rock Island Meeting

ROCK ISLAND — A meeting of the committee of the Frontier Swim Project was held at the office of the chairman, Dr. Victor Griffith in Rock Island.

Plans were made for the opening of the project on June 25. It was decided to have the registration of the children the same as last year, places for registration in each of the Boundary Villages on June 16, to be arranged. Each child must give any previous swim qualifications. The instructors also prefer each child having attended one year of school before beginning classes or that an elder brother or sister be there to look after them. Names of instructors will be announced at a later date. The bus driver will be in charge of policing the beach during the lessons.

The publicity of the committee reported she and Mrs. Earl Heath had composed a circular letter appealing to the public for funds. Between 1600 and 1700 have been printed and mailed out.

Lawrence Winter, in charge of the beach reported he had visited the beach at Lake Salem, and plans were discussed for a clean up before June 25, also to repair or build a new raft.

It was thought advisable to hire a larger bus to transport the children, if the number is as great as last year. Israel Lafond, in charge of transportation, announced the schedule will be announced later. Each child is expected to bring 10 cents for the round trip to the beach, but if they don't have it they travel just the same.

Another meeting is planned for June 19 at the office of the chairman, Dr. Griffith at 7:30 o'clock. The instructors will be asked to attend this meeting.

MOTHER'S DAY PROGRAM A delightful event, commemorating Mother's Day was held at the Knights of Columbus hall in Rock Island, under the direction of the "Jeneuse Notre Dame" society.

The program opened by the students of Sacred Heart Convent in Rock Island presented a short play under the direction of the Reverend Sisters. Two vocal selections were rendered by the girls of the society.

Mrs. Hector Grenier, of the parish of the Church of Our Lady of Mercy was crowned the "Queen Mother of the Year" by Mr. Roger Goodsell and was presented with a beautiful bouquet by Miss Denise Laramee. Mrs. Grenier and her husband were given special seats of honor. They have fourteen children.

New U.S. Weapon For Anti-Aircraft

WHITE SANDS PROVING GROUND, N. M. — The U. S. Army says it has a vastly improved weapon, still under security wraps, for use against enemy planes in event of attack.

Mag.-Gen. Robert J. Wood, commanding general of Ft. Bliss at nearby El Paso, Tex., where rocket crews are trained, told newspaper men that development is continuing on the NIKE "B"—a tremendously improved version of the slender surface-to-air rocket now figuring in a controversy over the U. S. guided missile program.

The general said the NIKE "B" has a range much greater and an altitude greater than any aircraft and an amazing lethal radius to the warhead.

Bringing Up Baby

HINTS COLLECTED BY Mrs. Ben Barber (MOTHER OF 3)

Sighing over that averted baby figure that somehow has never quite come back? Why not try these common-sense suggestions? Start by watching your posture... sitting, standing, walking, working. Pull in your tummy. Throw back your shoulders for an "uplift" look. Pull ribs away from hips by stretching whenever you can (bed making is swell for this). Amazing how these little things help whittle a waist, tone down a tummy, nip inches off a hip.

Daily dozens. Exercise is good for baby too, and just as important as rest. Baby gets it by kicking or "shadow-boxing" with his arms, so clothing and bedding should not be restricting. A little kicking time, before bath-time is excellent. It will help to develop baby's strength.

More on the subject of strength. Proteins, as you probably know, are the great strength-givers—the body-building materials so vital to growth and muscle development. Gerber Strained and Junior Meats are rich in complete proteins—have the savory true-meat flavors babies like. Made from selected juicy cuts, they're processed to reduce fat and fiber to a minimum, so even tiny babies can digest them. Pure meat, with just enough broth to enhance flavor and texture.

Snip tip. Baby outgrowing that knit suit? Snip off the crotch; hem and presto! You've a polo shirt.

Special treats for your sweet. Babies develop a "sweet tooth" all too quickly. But fruits or puddings make better desserts for baby than cake or cookies. Why not satisfy baby's "sweet tooth" with one of Gerber Strained Desserts—Orange and Pineapple Custards or Fruit Dessert? All are made with wholesome ingredients. All are delicately flavored—altogether wonderful. Gerber-Ogilvie Baby Foods Limited, Niagara Falls, Canada.

Miss B. Thomas and Mrs. H. Leech Jr. During the devotional period, Mrs. F. C. Amery led in prayer and a solo was rendered by Mrs. K. Barnard.

WOMEN'S FEDERATION LENOXVILLE UNITED CHURCH

Group III of the Women's Federation held a regular meeting recently in Douglas Hall with Mrs. D. Bennett presiding. The devotional period was conducted by Mrs. Edgecombe and Miss M. DesRuisseaux.

The president reported this group participating in the cleaning Bee. Mrs. E. Lennon reported 129 were served dinner for the Presbyterial and receipts to date were approximately $100.00 On behalf of the president of the Presbyterial, Mrs. M. Lane, president of the Federation thanked the members for their efforts in making a success of this event.

Mrs. A. Moore, treasurer showed in her report, that a most satisfactory sum had been raised at the joint rummage sale and Mrs. S. Hamilton, convener expressed her thanks and appreciation for all the assistance she had received.

It was announced that the Mission Bale would be packed in the afternoon of May 22 and in the evening a meeting of the Federation would take place when the C.G.I.T. girls, under the leadership of Mrs. T. A. Judson would affiliate. Members were reminded of the art show and tea on May 24 and the Silver-tea on May 31.

The meeting was adjourned and the remainder of the evening was spent with the Members working in pairs compiling a local telephone directory.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. P. Walton, Mrs. M. Cohoon, Mrs. R. Sterling and Mrs. R. Burchmore, with Mrs. D. Gray and Miss M. Watson pouring.

QWI Will Conduct Leadership Class At Macdonald

"Facts! Fingers! Fun!" the annual leadership course conducted by the Quebec Women's Institutes is being held next week at Macdonald College. The name coined the second year of its operation (1949) indicates its character. Crafts, program planning, the place of recreation, music and films in those programs, and discussions on problems of administration are all on the agenda for the five days of intensive study.

Competent instructors have been secured. These include Mrs. R. A. Cameron, who has had extensive experience in Adult Education and is now Junior Supervisor for the Q.W.I., Miss F. Elizabeth Campbell, Macdonald College, formerly of the Q.W.I. staff, Miss Marjorie Chapman, Adult Education Service of the College, Miss Bridget Altimas, Q.W.I. Handicraft Technician, and Mrs. Wheeler Adams, a "graduate" of the class, "Music in your programs", which is a permanent feature of the course.

This has been the practice for the past few years; to select as one of the instructors a member who has acquired, or added to, her skills through the work here. This emphasizes the purpose of the course, to give members training that will enable them to participate more effectively in the activities of their communities as well as in their own organization, the Q.W.I.

The maximum enrolment for this course is 40. Indications are that this will again be fully met.

Don't irritate child's intestines with "too-strong laxatives"

Science at last has developed Children's Own Tablets for your child's protection — No cramps! No gripes! No bad taste!

Stop using harsh laxatives that may irritate the tender walls of your child's intestines causing cramping, gripes, or weak, uncomfortable feelings. Large, harsh, adult-size laxatives are often too strong for children. They work, but they may irritate the delicate membranes in the intestines. Medical science has at last developed Children's Own Tablets — clinically-tested for children's needs — just strong enough, ... not harsh ... in tablet form, pleasant-tasting, easy to take! Relieves just tummy, too. So try Children's Own Tablets today — made by the makers of Baby's Own Tablets. See if they are not the answer to your child's laxative problems.

CONFIDENTIALLY YOURS

—by Byrne Hope Sanders

MONTREAL, May 24th—It's happened at last! We've named our Budgie! ... Among the many ideas readers of this column have sent me, came one from Mrs. Barbara Casselman of Niagara-on-the-Lake: "You say your Budgie is a real Canadian pure thoroughbred, a bit of a scrapper—so why not Sir Isaac?" ... Of course, of course! At that moment my son David was filling the Budgie's cup with Brock's BUDGIE Seed (we've never used anything else, ever!). "Here's the name, Dave! ... Sir Isaac!" He looked at the box in his hand, and grinned in agreement. So did the family when I passed on the idea to them at dinner. It's unusual, and fun. Why didn't we think of it ourselves?

You Can Mend It—so easily! That slip-cover with a rip in it—that torn drap—those canvas chairs! Have you discovered BONDIX RIG-BINDING? Then hurry out, miss—and get some. Your mending troubles will be over. I mean it—and I know because I've just finished mending the slip-cover on a big chair! Bondix Rig Binding is ideal for heavy duty mending—auto seat covers, awnings, hammocks, tents—work clothes! And, of course, you can bind rugs with it in minutes! Just fold it around frayed edges and iron on—with a hot iron! Long-lasting, too. At notion counters everywhere in 8 colors.

To Please A Queen and her family on this Queen's Birthday, I'd suggest a frozen dessert made with one of the Royal Instant Puddings ... there's a choice of 7 flavors so you can please every taste! These ROYAL INSTANT PUDDINGS, I think, are bonus for all of us! So quick to make—just mix with milk for one minute. So smooth and creamy—you never find a lump, nor a film on top—and there's none of that starchy taste—because all our Royal Puddings are super-homogenized. Keep all seven flavors on hand—ready for puddings or pie fillings, for parfaits, and frozen desserts, any time!

She Won $10! Congratulations to Mrs. R. S. Green of Halifax, N.S. for her intriguing suggestion for using BORDEN'S Grated Cheese. I've tried it—and it's really good!

Cut each washed, unpeeled tomato in half, crosswise. Pour small amount of French Dressing on cut surface, then sprinkle generously with Borden's Grated Cheese. Place in baking dish and bake in 350 deg. oven about 15 minutes, or place under broiler until tomatoes are hot and cheese is melted. Serve one or two on dinner or luncheon plate as a vegetable or garnish, to give added colour and zest to your menu.

Now—have you a cheese recipe—using any of the famed Borden's Cheeses? We pay $10 each week for the best. Send to me at Confidentially Yours, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal.

So Much Is Done For Us, These Days! I'm thinking, for instance, of the fine FARMER'S WIFE formula milks, prepared especially for baby feeding. ... Wonders are fulfilled for you, can get just the right type for your baby's needs. Ask your Doctor whether you should use the Whole Milk (Red Label) or the Skimmed Milk (Yellow Label) or the Partly Skimmed Milk (Blue Label) ... He knows that the Partly Skimmed MILK formula was originally prepared because the baby doctors asked for it. It's a high protein, low-fat concentrated milk with Vitamin D added ... Nothing but the best for your baby!

"thought I'd never bake a perfect cake! (but now I never miss-with Jewel!)"

HERE'S MY FAVOURITE RECIPE. WON'T YOU TRY IT SOON?

Arabian Spice Cake

Yield: Two 9-inch or three 8-inch layers
Method: Quick-Mix Type
Like every cake made with pure, Quick-Mix Jewel, this one is high, light, and handsome. The flavour is spicy, but delicate—with just a bit of chocolate for extra husband-appeal.

Group 1:
1 cup Quick-Mix Jewel shortening
2 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
2 cups granulated sugar
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt

Group 2:
1/4 cup buttermilk or sour milk
4 Swift's Brookfield eggs
1/2 teaspoon ground cloves
1/2 teaspoon allspice
2 tablespoons cocoa
1/4 cup buttermilk or sour milk
1 teaspoon vanilla powder
1 teaspoon lemon extract
1 teaspoon nutmeg

blend—a blend so perfect no other shortening has been able to match it! Sift into bowl the dry ingredients. Add 1/4 cup buttermilk, vanilla and lemon extract. Beat 2 minutes on medium speed of an electric mixer or use 150 strokes per minute by hand. Throughout entire mixing time keep batter scraped from beater and sides and bottom of bowl.

Add group 2. Beat 2 additional minutes on medium speed. Notice how smooth and rich the batter is. That's because Jewel is homogenized, for quick, easy, thorough creaming. Pour equal amounts of batter into pans lined with 2 layers of waxed paper or one layer brown paper. Bake in a moderate oven (375°F.) for approximately 28 minutes.

And now, out comes your Arabian Spice Cake—as perfectly delicious as a cake CAN be, because you've made it with perfectly-blended Jewel. Frost and decorate cake when cool.

Many cost more—none are better!

Canadian Golf Pros Come To Life On U.S. Tournament Circuit This Year; Leonard And Balding Tops

TORONTO — Canadian golf pros have come to life with a bang on the U.S. tournament circuit where for more years than most care to remember they did well to earn the bus fare home.

The smashing drives and canny putting of Stan Leonard, the veteran 40-year-old home pro of Lachute, Que., and relative newcomer Al Balding of Toronto may have set the stage for Canada's renaissance in international golf.

Leonard, onetime pro at Vancouver's plush Marine Drive club, finished a commendable fifth during the weekend in the Kansas City open to pocket $1,068. That raised his take in three weeks to an astonishing — for Leonard or any other Canadian — $4,068.

Three weeks ago Leonard wound up fourth in the colonial invitation tournament at Fort Worth, Tex., and earned $1,700. He hustled on to St. Louis where he grabbed off an additional $1,200 a week later for a fifth place finish.

In all the tournaments Leonard has finished only a few strokes off the leaders — men like Gene Littler and Tommy Bolt.

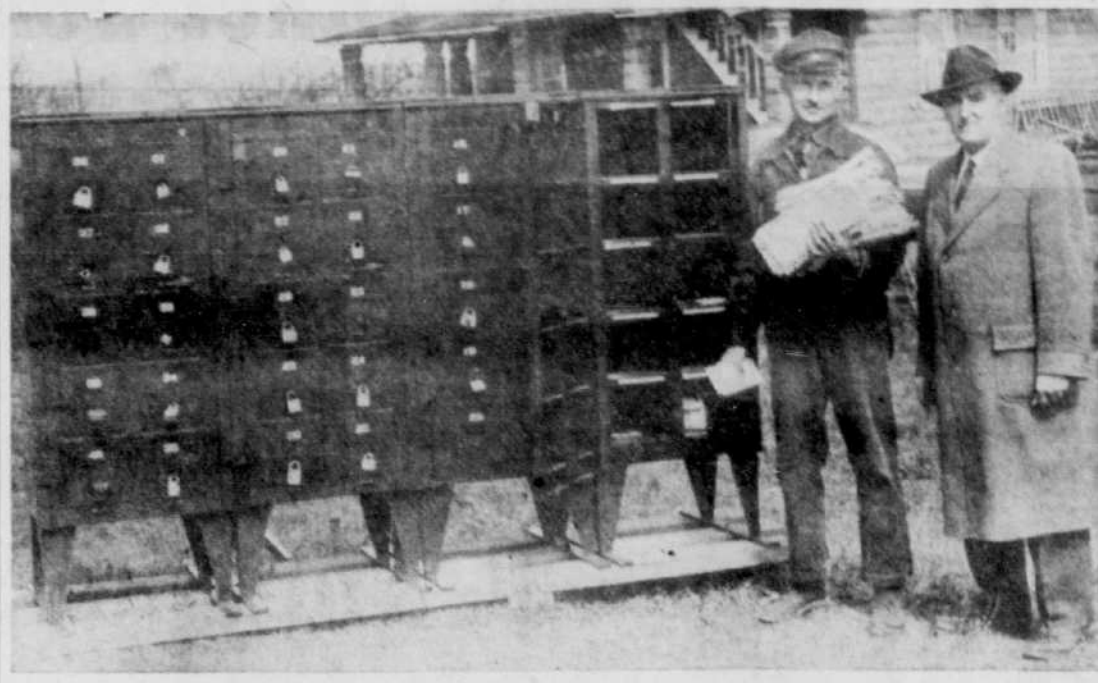

Balding added prestige to Canadian golf by winning the Sandford, Fla., open last winter to become the first Canadian ever to win a major professional golfers association open.

New Postal Service At Asbestos

Through the authority of the Postal Department in Ottawa a new system of mail distribution has been inaugurated in St. Barnabe parish at Asbestos. Banks of 10 locker-type boxes replace the old post-style rural route box. Forty boxes are installed on Manville Street West, near the Bellevue Hotel, and 50 at the corner of St. Philippe Street. They are placed at the public's disposal as a free service and up to three families use one box. Box No. 3 is used for mailing letters and replaces the red pillar boxes. C.O.D. and parcels are still collected at the General Post Office on Du Roi Street. Above J. F. Champoux, postmaster at Asbestos, is seen explaining to I. Ladouceur, R.R. carrier, the method used to place the mail in the new boxes.

Players Should Be Given Some Share — Lumley

LONDON, Ont. — (CP) — Jack Park, Free Press sports editor, quotes Harry Lumley, former goalie with Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League, as saying hockey players should get a share of the money involved in player exchanges between teams.

It was announced Monday that Lumley and Eric Nesterenko have been sold by Leafs to Chicago Black Hawks for $40,000.

Park quotes Lumley: "If I had 10 per cent of the money which supposedly changed hands over me in the last five or six years I wouldn't even bother about playing any more."

Lumley said he believes he was purchased by Chicago as trading fodder. He said:

"The Hawks have several weak spots and I imagine that an old man like me doesn't rate with young fellows like Al Rollins." Rollins is Chicago's present goalie.

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — Bobby Friend, Pittsburgh's big right-hand pitcher who is leading the majors with a 7-2 record as the result of his 6-0 shutout over St. Louis Cardinals Wednesday night, says the Pirates "definitely will finish in the first division."

"We've got a great bunch of fellows on this club who battle all the way to win."

The Pirates now have a 16-13 record and are 1 1/2 games out of first place. Last season on May 24 they had a 11-24 record and were in seventh place.

American Hopes Of Winning French Net Title Left On Shoulders Of Bob Perry As Rest Are Eliminated

PARIS — (AP) — United States hopes of winning a title in the French International Tennis championships were virtually left in the hands of the women Wednesday as Australia's implacable Lew Hoad and his 19-year-old partner Ashley Cooper took command of the men's doubles.

All the Americans have been eliminated from the men's singles and only one, Bob Perry of Los Angeles, survives in doubles.

Perry and his Australian partner Don Candy with a 6-3, 5-7, 6-4, 6-4 victory over a listless

Italian pair of Orlando Sirola and Nicola Pietrangeli. But they were far from being as impressive as Hoad and Cooper were in whacking Belgium's Davis Cup pair of Gino Mezzi and Jackie Brichant, 6-1, 6-1, 6-3.

In the women's division, New York's Althea Gibson is safe in the singles semi-finals. She and her British partner, Angela Buxton, advanced to the doubles semi-finals as did the all-American team of Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., and Mrs. Dorothy Head Knode of Forest Hills, N.Y.

The bout was billed as another in a series of elimination events to find a successor to the heavyweight title vacated by the retired champion, Rocky Marciano.

Carter, losing only his second fight in 22 decisions, had only two days of boxing in preparing for the fight. But he made the favored Detroitier extend himself for a good finish to get the decision.

Summerlin, the nation's fifth ranked heavyweigh, won his 30th professional fight. He has lost four and drawn twice.

Pirates' Bob Friend And Dale Long May Lift Pittsburgh Into Top Half of Loop; Yanks and Indians Win

Want to take a stab at naming the best pitcher-hitter combination in the National League at the moment? Newcombe and Snider? Mizell and Repulski? Antonelli and Mays?

Nice try, pal, but it's Pittsburgh that has 'em, with Bob Friend piling up seven victories and seven complete games and Dale Long belting the ball at a 409 clip. They've got the Pirates so close to first place it looks like a typographical error.

Manager Bobby Bragan can hardly wait to get them together. Wednesday night he called on Friend after only two days' rest. The 25-year-old righthander looked like he didn't mind a bit, and hung up his first shutout of the season with a six-single job that beat St. Louis Cardinals 6-0.

Long, at 30 the oldest of the Pirate regulars, kept up his end with a 346-foot-plus home run giving him the league runs-batted-in lead with 32 and tying Cincinnati's Wally Post for the homer lead with 14 as the Bucs moved within 1 1/2 games of the lead and a mere half-game behind fourth-place Brooklyn.

The Pirates have won four of their last five, and Friend has claimed two of the victories while Long has homered in all five and has driven in 14 runs.

Rain stopped Milwaukee at Brooklyn and Cincinnati at New York. Chicago Cubs beat Philadelphia 5-4 on eightinning homers by Monte Irvin and Harry Chitt.

In the American, New York Yankees kept their 2 1/2-game lead by banging Detroit 13-5. Cleveland defeated Boston 6-3 as Score won his fifth. Chicago White Sox beat Baltimore 3-2, and Kansas City, scoring the winning run on a wild pitch, outlasted Washington 6 in 17 innings.

The Cubs had to overhaul a 4-1 Phil lead to break a three-game slump. Irvin's homer tied it and Chitt's won it as Harvey Haddix

Two Big Questions Face CAHA On Final Meeting Today; Conn Smythe Makes Offer For Memorial Cup Finals

MONTREAL — (CP) — The Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, winding up its 40th annual meeting today, still has to decide on participation in a foreign tournament and the venue of an attractive home championship.

The two big questions were reached Wednesday on the fourth day of the meeting.

The plenary session approved a resolution from Saskatchewan branch stating Canada should be represented in world and Olympic competition but the CAHA "should not sponsor any team in such events unless it can be done without expense to the association."

A decision is needed because the 1957 world tournament, in Moscow, will be played before the final CAHA delegation again meets.

The possibility that Maple Leaf Gardens in Toronto may become the home of the Memorial Cup final for the next 10 years arose from a proposal from Conn Smythe president of the National Hockey League Toronto Maple Leafs.

Smythe's offer is that if he is given a five-year contract to stage the Canadian Junior Hockey final, plus an option for a five-year renewal, he will make certain contributions.

In addition to the usual split of the gate with the CAHA he would pay $4,000 to the western finalists. If the eastern finalist is a Club in the minor branch he would pay $2,000; if outside Toronto, $3,000.

The Memorial Cup final at present shifts between west and east each year.

Ken Moore, Regina, said he couldn't go for a change next year anyway the west's turn. He also suggested Smythe take a 35-per cent return from the gate instead of 50 per cent.

Mayor Frank Becker of Vernon, B.C., got in a hefty plug for his Vernon Canadians for the Moscow show.

He said the Canadians are 50 per cent stronger than Penitton Vs. the British Columbia team that won the world tournament in 1955.

Becker also said he would be willing to have his team as the nucleus of Canada's entry, adding "four or five players", and that his club and the city of Vernon would raise "our fair share of the money" for the trip to Moscow.

Under a new operational expenses plan, the CAHA has budgeted for $30,000 in 1957, a cut of $10,000.

Richmond manager was gaining fame with New York Yankees.

The 37-year-old hurler, who takes time off from his managerial duties now and then to show his younger pitchers how it should be done, turned in another fine effort Wednesday night as Virginians defeated Havana Sugar Kings 6-1. The victory was Lopat's fourth in five starts.

Toronto Maple Leafs, aided by skippy Rochester fielding, broke out with six runs in the second inning to defeat the Red Wings 6-1.

Leafs still are in third place, four games behind the league-leading Montreal Royals, who were rained out, and 1 1/2 behind Rochester.

Right hander Bill Fischer, sent to Toronto recently by Chicago White Sox, held the Wings to six hits-three of them doubles-and two walks to earn his first decision. The only run off him was unearned, scored on a passed ball.

Fischer forced in the first Toronto run, drawing a bases-loaded walk.

Dr Pellisier Or Drummondville Holds Lone Ducal; Black Mountain Boy Wins Main event And Dow Trophy

Dr. Roch Pellisier of Drummondville is $1,012.30 richer this morning after holding the only ticket on the daily double combination last night at the Sherbrooke race track. Bomber Grattan upset the pickers in the first race while in the second Calumet Susan formed the other half of the lucky pair.

Dandy Handy was the winner in the second race but not a single ticket was sold on the combination therefore under Provincial betting laws the pari-mutuels was obliged to payoff on the second horse and Dr. Pellisier held the only ticket on the winning set-up.

It was the first time for over two years that such an amount has been collected at the local track. At the same time Bomber Grattan, owned by William Kidd of Richmond and driven by Guy Desrochers, paid his backers the top price of $25.70, $8.60 and $3.50.

In the second race Lake View Hotel's Dandy Handy driven by V. Larose rewarded his backers with $25.40, $17.70 and $6.30. Mrs. R. Veat's Calumet Susan set the price for the place bets with $20.00, also in the second event.

The top quinella was paid in the sixth when Norma Knight and Sturdy Allie teamed up to reward their backers with $18.00. The others paid in the sums of $8.45 and $7.20 as the favorites came through.

In the main class H. E. Paterson of Montreal was on hand to receive the Dow Trophy for emerging with the best results in the "D" Trot and Pace. The Montreal horse was driven by Red Tilden and left the field in the rear in the first mile when he covered the trip in 2:12 2/5. It was the best time posted this year at the track.

G. Clement of Sherbrooke saw his Ila Jean Hee, teamed by Lucien Denault, finish third in the first trip and then led the field in the second half when the Montreal horse made a break. Each entry had a first and third finish but the best time was the deciding factor in the decision.

Maurice Letourneau of Sherbrooke was the winner for the silver tray offered by Ivan Dugre, local representative for the Dow Brewery. Mr. Dugre made both presentations to Mr. Paterson and Mr. Letourneau.

Newport Bruce a six-year old trotter owned by Miguel Gagnon of Sherbrooke was the only double winner of the evening. The fast-stepping trotter copped the first trip in 2:15-4/5 and the second time led the field home under the wire in 2:17 to make the sweep.

The first fine of the season was handed to driver Guy Desrochers by the judges when he International League batters are having as hard a time solving Eddie Lopat's junk pitches as did the major leaguers when the Richmond manager was gaining fame with New York Yankees.

ed Kluszewski's Spring Training Injury Almost Ended His Career

NEW YORK —(P)—Ted Kluszewski, 31-year-old slugging first baseman for Cincinnati Reds, disclosed today that his spring training injury, camouflaged as a minor muscle strain, actually was so serious he thought it might end his diamond career.

Now that the worst is over Big Klus feels free to talk about the injury. He described it as a sciatic condition, a pinched nerve running down the back of the thigh.

"Nobody knows how much torture it was for me even to walk, or bend, let alone try to play ball," he said.

Kluszewski said he hardly feels the pain any more, except on cold days, and even then it is more like a dull ache than the sharp, intense pain that ruined his entire spring training, left him overweight, out of playing shape, and caused his unprecedented benching two weeks after the start of the regular season.

During the last few days, he has been back in the groove. The easy-going, good-natured giant now has eight home runs and 15 runs batted in with a .270 batting average.

Orioles Ask Waivers On Bobby Adams

CHICAGO. —(AP)— Baltimore Orioles Wednesday asked waivers on veteran infielder Bobby Adams for the purpose of unconditional release to make room on the roster for pitcher Connie Johnson.

Johnson is reported to be the fourth man Chicago White Sox promised Baltimore in the six-man player deal that brought the Sox pitcher Jim Wilson and outfielder Dave Philley.

Oscar Suarez To Fight Perez For World Fly Title

HAVANA, Cuba. —(AP)— Oscar Suarez, Cuban flyweight boxing champion, has accepted an invitation to fight world champion Pascual Perez of Argentina in Montevideo in mid-June, for the world title.

The announcement was made Wednesday by Cuban promoter Cuco Conde who said that if Suarez wins he will offer a return match within 120 or 180 days. Suarez is ranked among the first 10 flyweights.

Master Your Game...No. 12 Blade at Right Angle

By JACKIE BURKE Masters of the Masters

Regardless of variations, keep the blade of the putter exactly at right angle to the line in which you want the ball to travel.

Whether you hold the putter more in the hands or the fingers, this angle can be best established by pointing the thumbs directly down the shaft.

I prefer the reverse overlap hold, in which the index finger of the left hand overlaps two fingers of the right. Some excellent putters overlap just the little finger. Others overlap all the way to the middle finger.

These variations have about as much to do with the way you putt as tying the shoelaces has to do with the way you walk.

Still Have Hope Of Leaving, Says Babe Zaharias

GALVESTON, Tex. —(AP)— "I still have hope," Babe Zaharias said Wednesday in a telephone conversation from the hospital where she is making her third fight against cancer.

"Getting up in the morning is the worst part. I have pains in my right leg constantly but they give me hypos for that while I'm awake.

"I don't feel like I'm ready to leave the hospital but I still have hope."

The famed woman golfer and all-around athlete was readmitted to John Sealy Hospital here several months ago. She devotes most of her time to the Babe Zaharias cancer fund to study cancer causes.
