VOL. XVIII. No. 35 WESTMOUNT, FRIDAY, AUGUST 29, 1947 PRICE—THREE CENTS

Business Ass'n Sports Day Planned

Members of the Sports Committee of the Business Association of Westmount, held a meeting which Mr. Anderson, Sports and Playgrounds Supervisor, attended. A Sports Day for the children of Westmount, to be held at Westmount Park, about the middle of October was decided upon.

Prizes, donated by the business men of Westmount will be given to the winners of various contests. A large cup is to be donated and contested each year, to be given to the school having the highest aggregate points of the meet. This cup is to be displayed in various stores of the city.

Much enthusiasm was displayed at this meeting and already offers of prizes and services have been extended to Mr. Golden, Greene Avenue., who is the chairman of this committee.

Athletic Grounds Clubhouse Leased To Government

The club house of the Westmount Athletic Grounds is being leased to the Department of National Defence, according to information received from the office of the City Manager. The lease grants the use of the building only for the rental of $12,000 per year, to the Department for three years without option of renewal, and is retroactive to May 1, 1947.

The clubhouse has housed R. C.O.C. and R.C.E. Reserve Army units since the close of the War. The Athletic Grounds are returned to the City.

Sherbrooke Street Work Progressing Satisfactorily

The office of the City Manager of Westmount announces that the summer's work on the Sherbrooke Street widening program is progressing satisfactorily.

The work is now drawing to its conclusion. The finished job will include safety zones on both sides of Sherbrooke Street at the Claremont intersection, and the addition of a safety zone on the south side of Sherbrooke Street at its intersection with Victoria Avenue. New traffic lights, the most modern available, are being installed at the Claremont and Victoria intersections, and a new street lighting system is being installed.

The job was somewhat complicated by the fact that the Bell Telephone Company, in order to avoid the necessity of ripping up the street later, laid new conduits along Sherbrooke Street while the street widening operation was in progress.

When the job is done, Westmounters will have a business section on a modern, wide street, much better able to cope with the growing traffic volume than before.

VETS OUTINGS

This picture was snapped while 40 patients of the Queen Mary Veterans' Hospital were enjoying an outing at Dorval as the guests of the Veterans' Taxi Association. These outings are a regular feature of the Wednesday afternoon recreational life of patients at the local hospital as well as those veterans at the St. Annes Military Hospital. The last such affair for the year was held Wednesday.

War Memorial Addition Now Under Way

Work has commenced on a renovation of Westmount's 1914-1918 War Memorial situated in front of the City Hall, in preparation for the addition of names in honour of the City's residents who fell in World War II.

The addition will be somewhat of a continuation of the present monument, city officials pointed out, since the names of the 1939-45 war dead will be placed on two new plaques to be extended from the west side of the monument.

In this connection, it was announced that a list of names of war dead, to be inscribed on the monument, has been virtually completed. It has been compiled from every possible source, and includes the names of all who lost their lives while serving with any of the Allied Forces during World War II. Early in September, the list will be publicized for verification before it is finally adapted and the names carved in stone.

Air Cadet Bill Notman On Flying Tour To Britain

An air trip over war-ravaged Germany, in giant "York" transports which followed the course of Allied bombers on their wartime missions of destruction, was one of the highlights of their three weeks' flying tour to Britain and the continent, according to many of the 46 Canadian air cadets who returned by plane to Montreal last week.

W. L. NOTMAN

The tour was the first exchange visit sponsored by the Aid Cadet League of Canada, and the 46 participating cadets were selected from their respective squadrons on the basis of their qualifications of leadership as cadets and citizens.

Eighteen year old Bill Notman, of 37 Holton avenue, Westmount, was on the tour as a representative of No. 169 Montreal Squadron, to which he has belonged for almost four years. During an interview this week, he said that during the 5½ hour flight over Europe, he and the other cadets flew over many of the battle zones which figured prominently in the course of the 2nd World War. For instance, Caen, he said, when seen from the air, proved to be almost completely obliterated, just a grey rubble; remnants of the bitter struggle were still clearly visible from the air at Dunkirk and Dieppe.

Flew Over Battle Zones

He was particularly impressed by the lone Cologne cathedral, left standing as a single landmark towering high over the debris of what once was a great city, mute evidence of the superb Allied marksmanship in the fury of the onslaught on the city. "Our pilot, who bombed Cologne with the R. A.F. during the war, said it was a miracle that the cathedral was left standing," he added.

Wonderfully Treated

During their brief tour with its crowded agenda, the cadets were wonderfully treated by their hosts. When he was asked how the food was in Britain, Bill replied, "It was really swell.. We had all kinds of extra rations, and ate about six times a day. E.veryone was grand to us."

London, he stated, was absolutely immense, and while there, he visited the Parliament buildings and other famous landmarks. The Tower of London, he said, was much less imposing than he expected to find it. On a trip down the Thames, the cadets were shown the shipping activities of the great port, and gaps remaining where warehouses and docks had been destroyed during the bombing of London. They also visited Canada House and were entertained by the Canadian High Commissioner.

Highlands of Scotland

Other highlights were visits to Edinburgh, Glasgow, a trip down the Clyde, and a visit to the Scottish Highlands. The Highlands impressed him perhaps most of all. "We arrived early in the morning at Loch Lomond. The sun was just up, and the mist

Schools In Westmount To Reopen Next Week

The Westmount Protestant Schools will reopen on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. For further details, see the advertisement on page 4 of this Examiner.

Although the schools have been closed during the summer months, they have not necessarily been quiet, because summer is the time when necessary renovation and repairs are made. Workers have been busy, while students were absent during the vacation period, renovating, and attending to the many routine and miscellaneous repairs, including the overhauling of all types of equipment, at all of the schools. This work includes such things as overhauling electric and plumbing systems and all types of school equipment, installing new equipment and repairing and repainting the interiors and exteriors of school buildings, etc.

In this connection, it is interesting to note that the trend in painting of school interiors, as followed out in Westmount, is towards lighter colour schemes than in the past. Lighter woodwork and soft pastel shades of a light hue, when combined with modern efficient lighting creates a much brighter and more cheerful atmosphere, and definitely reduces eyestrain.

The office of the Westmount Superintendent of Schools, C. H. Savage, announces that the program of the modern school system, as opposed to what might be called the "old regime", is showing very successful results in all fields of school activity, especially evident in the records and results of the 1946-47 session.

The approximate total number of students in Westmount Protestant schools is 2,300 of which about 1,000 attend the high schools.

Badly Needed Ice Lost As Truck Upsets

An ice truck, owned by James Harrison, 2377 St. James Street, swerved to avoid a collision on Sherbrooke Street on Saturday, and went out of control, overturning on the sidewalk of Kensington Avenue just south of the intersection.

Forty blocks of ice — a precious cargo on that broiling day — were dashed to the street to melt away in the sun.

A crowd gathered. One dignified gentleman stopped his car and rescued two fine big blocks of ice. Youngsters stepped in next, but Westmount Firemen soon arrived with a panel truck and recovered any blocks that looked a reasonable size.

Perhaps forty families went without their badly needed ice that day, and that was the chief tragedy of the affair. The driver of the truck received minor injuries.

Meeting Planned For Employees Of Westmount

The regular quarterly meeting of the Association of Salaried Employees of the City of Westmount will be held on Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Green Room at Victoria Hall.

At the conclusion of the meeting proper, entertainment will be supplied by the Bell Telephone Company of Canada in the form of colour films: "The Bell Hour," a 20 minute film depicting the broadcasting of the Bell Symphony Orchestra on its weekly broadcast, with Joseph Hoffman as guest pianist; and "Telephone Courtesy," humourous film with a lesson on how to behave on either end of the telephone.

Unity Club Closes Summer Activities

Unity's summer social activities came to a successful close when they held a gala dance at the Westmount Y. M. C. A. last Saturday evening. About 150 members and friends attended this frolic and everyone had an enjoyable time.

Richard Lord did a splendid job as Master of Ceremonies, while refreshments were under the direction of Doug Brambell. Gerry Munroe was in charge of the door Committee, while Florence Jones and Bill Reid were responsible for the prizes. The records were capably handled by Lorne Foy.

The Fall programme will get under way with the enrolment of members, both new and old, and all persons interested in helping with this work are asked to get in touch with the club secretary.

Unity welcomes Marilyn Gardner on her return from a very extensive holiday.

WESTMOUNT STAMP CLUB

The 1947-48 season of the Westmount Stamp Club will commence on Thursday evening in Victoria Hall at 8 p.m. There will be a preliminary meeting for the Juniors at 7 p.m.

Scouts & Cubs

BY REG GROOME

It won't be very long now before Scouting will be launched on its 1947-48 season. School, yes, that's a very pleasant thought, isn't it, opens next Tuesday morning, if the calendar informs us correctly, and that's the day that lots of boys in Westmount will be happy to see, we're sure. Plans for the new season are now underway, and we hope that this new year of Scouting will be every bit as good, if not better, than the old year was. Officials are hoping for a new high to be set in enrolment figures, in both Scout Troops and Cub Packs. Senior Scouting and Sea Scouting are both expected to take a rise, while it is hoped that Rover Scouting will become very strong this winter.

Jamboree News

Many French newspapers have joined in criticizing aspects of the International Jamboree held at Moisson, France, particularly the French organization of "Scout Police" made up of older French boys. The newspaper Paris Presse said these boys were "severe" in their assertiveness, and the newspaper Franc - Tireur charged them with being "vexatiously militaristic" and with punching press photographers. One Associated Press reporter and a French colleague were "arrested" by these Scout Police on leaving the camp, after saying they would write on the subject. However, American delegation representatives intervened.

The Canadian Scouts at the International Jamboree have expressed happiness at being out of France. Before boarding the H.M.C.S. Warrior, which will bring them into Halifax this week-end, the boys remarked that they were glad to get away from France. They stated that they were not homesick, but they were very glad to arrive in London. As a matter of fact, everybody in the Canadian contingent was happy to get out. The food was okay — it was just the way they served it up to us — but sanitary conditions were terrible, as they are all over France.

River Rescues

Two more cases where Scout training and presence of mind in an emergency were instrumental in saving life are brought to light this week. The Chief Scout has awarded the Gilt Cross to the following Scouts in England.

Peter Price, Senior Scout of the 24th Norwich (Thorpe St. Andrew) Group, who saved a seven-year-old boy from drowning in a river at Thorpe, Norfolk, on April 8th last. While fishing at the water's edge, the boy had fallen in and was being carried away by a swift running tide. Attracted by the cries of his friends, Peter ran to the water, dived in and brought the boy to safety.

Ernest Hedley, Troop Leader and King's Scout of the 2nd Waltham St. Lawrence, Berks, for saving a man from drowning in the River Thames at Sonning on the 30th May last. The man, who was unable to swim, had fallen from a dinghy. Ernest dived in fully clothed and kept him afloat until further assistance became available.

was rising. With Ben Lomond in the background, the scene was absolutely beautiful," he declared.

The air cadet exchange tour "is a trip I think should be made every year. It will tend to raise competition between the boys in cadet squadrons across Canada, and should improve discipline and efficiency," he concluded.

"Pete" Ilsley, C. O.

WESTMOUNT'S WOMEN

The other evening, while endeavouring to satiate my thirst for great literature by reading the jokes in the current issue of Reader's Digest, I came across a symposium which dealt with the fascinating subject of "What's Wrong With Women?" and the less fascinating subject of "What's Wrong With Men?"

The opinions offered by the alleged celebrities interviewed were all delivered in a facetious manner and it seemed to this reporter that the subject should be delved into seriously. So, during the past week, with the aid of agents, various characters were asked, "What's Wrong With Westmount's Women?"

Here are the answers:

Arthur Aurel Voronka, well known theatrical man, harbour guard and science student: "The chief trouble with the local gals is that they never want to go out with me. Why this should be so I don't know as I am a rather handsome chap, well-educated and a ready and witty conversationalist. Aside from this one handicap, I think Westmount's women are the finest in the entire world."

William Atwood Macdonald, president of the Westmount Young Liberals Association, arts student and future lawyer: "Westmount girls are nice girls. There is only one thing wrong with them. That is that not all Westmount girls are Liberals. Some are P.C.'s, some are C.C.F. and I cannot understand these girls. After all, wasn't it a Liberal regime that gave Quebec women the vote?"

Mrs. H. B. Sandwell, renowned social editor of The Examiner: "Westmount women are just the same as other women."

Anonymous: a not very well educated gentleman: "I tink dese local goils is de berries. Reely and truly, I seen no such beauty, such grace and such — ugh — such nice goils in all the woild."

Allan Locke, a Notre Dame de Grace resident and a former student of West Hill High School: "While not wishing to insult the fairer citizenry of the suburb city, it is my contention that the women of Westmount are considerably outshone by the women of Wilson Avenue. My fellow Wilson Avenue residents possess verve and personality. They are nice girls. They are good-looking. In brief, they are unbeatable. But I also believe Westmount's girls and women are also worthy of attention. And if anything happens to my Wilson Avenue friends I shall pay your city a visit."

BULLETINS FROM BIRDLAND

BY WINIFRED E. WILSON

Blue-headed Vireo

Our camp, situated at the woodsy end of the Laurentian lake, had been vacant for more than a year, and ere our arrival in early June, Nature's children had taken possession of the premises. Blue-headed Vireos had built in a hazel bush at the corner of the verandah. The pensile nest was within arm's length of anyone lying in the hammock, and so close to the narrow path leading to the wharf that our clothese brushed it as we passed.

"Did you ever see such trustfulness? The bird sat tight, though my sleeve caught on the branch from which the nest is suspended and made it rock. But the young ones could never fall out of such a deep, well-made basket even if their mother were not on top of them."

"It's ever so pretty," Alice added. "Wood fibres, needles from the big pine tree, strips of bark from some of the birches, and lichens all neatly woven together, and spider webs for decorations. Such a lovely cradle! Well attached to the fork from which it is suspended, too."

The home was never left unguarded for more than a few seconds. The change of parents took place so rapidly that for days we knew only that the head, which stuck up on one side of the nest, was blue-grey, and the eye-ring white; while the tail, sticking up on the other side, was evidently grey. Not until the babies were born were we sure that both parents were white underneath with yellow-tinted sides. Then they stood on the edge of the cradle to feed the youngsters small caterpillars, thus giving us a splendid view of their grey wings with two white bars.

These, the best dressed of the Vireos, have but one costume for both sexes; which we found confusing. Only when papa arrived singing were we sure which was which. The song was not very musical, but most emphatic, and consisted of pairs of notes going first up the scale, then down, over and over.

We were still fast asleep when the three children left on a hot morning. One tiny, creamy-white egg with sepia specks had not hatched. This I balanced on the palm of my warm hand, exclaiming, "Isn't it a darling?"

With that there was a little explosion, and I found myself holding an egg that was all ready to poach for a doll's breakfast.

How do we identify Hawks?

Athol Desjardins Dies Suddenly

Athol Desjardins, special constable with the R.C.M.P., died suddenly in his 49th year on Monday while on leave.

He entered the services of the Westmount Police Department as a constable in 1924, and retired some years later with the rank of detective. In 1939, he was engaged by the R.C.M.P. to conduct special investigation in connection with violators of W. B.T.B. and other wartime regulations.

He is survived by his wife, the former Kathleen Latimer; a son, Ross; two brothers, Paul and Albert; and three sisters, Mrs. H C. Spryer and the Misses Hilda and Gwyn Desjardins.

Funeral was held from the Church of St. John the Evangelist yesterday. Interment was at the Mount Royal Cemetery.

There is a drive in Ontario to locate more manufacturing plants in small towns.

William Reynolds Funeral Held

William James Reynolds, formerly superintendent of Victoria Hall from 1896 until he retired six years ago, died on Wednesday, August 22nd, at the age of 75, following a prolonged illness.

Mr. Reynolds was born in England, and started working for Westmount in 1889, shortly after coming to Canada. He was an honorary member of the Westmount Athletic Association, and a parishioner of St. Matthias Church.

He is survived by his wife, Isabella, at the summer home in Bellevue, and three daughters, Mrs. Robert D. Powles of Strathmore, Mrs. Gilbert Bradbury, of Ottawa, and Mrs. J. Perkins of Bellevue. A son, Arthur Raynolds, well-known football player, was killed in the First World War.

Canon Oliver, of St. Matthias Church, officiated at the funeral service held in the Chapel of the D. A. Collins Funeral Home on Sherbrooke Street West, on Saturday. Interment took place at the Montreal Memorial Park Cemetery.

So you were a doodler in school? Still sketch once in a while? Why not make it your hobby? It's interesting and will win you many new friends and admirers.

The three most important principles to observe in sketching are: continuity, perspective, and shading.

Continuity: When you look at a picture, your eye travels all around it, beginning on one side of the page. The same principle holds true in sketching. Suppose you wanted to sketch three people, one standing, the other two sitting. You might begin by drawing a triangle, the top end of which would represent the head of the person standing, the other two ends, those of the persons sitting. And you would sketch firstly, the person on your left hand side, then the one standing, then the one on your right. In scenic sketching, begin by drawing your horizon line across the page, then build your perspective from there.

As for shading, remember that it can make or ruin your sketch. You may have picked out the ideal spot, and drawn it accurately, but if your shading isn't perfect, you can throw that sketch in the waste-paper basket. Shading is necessary, but it must be very subtle.

There are a few hints for you. I hope they'll help you acquire an enjoyable hobby.

Many Drownings Needless, States Health League

Many deaths by drowning are needless, according to the Health League of Canada. It is the belief of the League that many drowning deaths could have been and can be prevented — first, by the running of no unnecessary risks, and second, by the prompt application and long-continued use of artificial respiration methods when accidents do occur.

The Health League believes that many artificial respiration efforts are discontinued too soon. It is the belief of the League that many drowning victims died because all necessary efforts were not made to revive them.

The League emphasizes that the possibilities of artificial respiration should be fully realized at all times, and in its statement says that there are well-authenticated reports of artificial respiration being successful after as many as five hours.

Artificial respiration must be started as soon as possible and should not be discontinued after a mere half-hour of effort. It should be continued until there are definite signs of rigor mortis — possibly up to six hours. It is also well to note that there have been cases of recovery after a person has been unconscious in the water up to half-an-hour.

Rescuers are advised that there is always a possibility that a spasm of the larynx occurred and that the victim suffocated rather than drowned. Therefore, it is important to be sure that air is entering the lungs properly during application of artificial respiration.

of the Junior High School to assume superintendency of the Stanstead County Unit. Moreover, Miss Emma Lawlor, known perhaps to a whole generation of Westmounters, retired this summer after many years on the staff of the Sr. High School, first as a teacher, and later as secretary to the principal, H. B. Parker, and later R. O. Bartlett. Miss Lydia Davis is on leave of absence to take an M.A. at McGill. She will teach violin to certain classes in the Westmount schools. Parker Wearing, on leave of absence at McGill last year, received an M.A. in English, and will return to resume teaching duties in French and English at Senior High.

New Staff will include Robert Peak, who retired last year as Inspector of French for the province to take over as supervisor of French for the City of Westmount; Mrs. G. B. Harterre will be special class teacher at Queen's School; Mrs. W. H. Nickels will teach physical education at King's and Queen's. Mrs. I. M. Stark will teach typing at Jr. High: Miss Rhoda Beckett, Miss E. V. Martin, Miss M. M. McCormick, Miss E. E. Rankin and Mrs. H. C. Bickford are new on the Westmount Protestant teaching staff.

Rotarians Hear About Veterans' Hospital Work

Guest speaker at the Wednesday luncheon of the Rotary Club of Westmount this week, was Dr. Edwin Turcot, assistant superintendent of Queen Mary Veterans' Hospital.

Dr. Turcot was introduced to the Rotarians by Rotarian Dr. John Lochead, who pointed out that the guest speaker was born and educated in Quebec City, that he graduated in Medicine at Laval University, Quebec, in 1938, taking his postgraduate interneship for 2 years at the Montreal General Hospital. He joined the Army in 1940, and proceeded overseas with No. 14 General Hospital in 1941. After a distinguished Army medical career, he returned to Canada, and was appointed assistant District Medical Officer of M. D. No. 4 and promoted to Lieut. Col., receiving his discharge from the Army in 1946.

Dr. Turcot commenced his address on the subject of Veterans' Hospital work, by thanking the Westmount Rotary Club, on behalf of the Queen Mary Veterans' Hospital authorities, "for all you have done for the hospital and the veterans." The Club's practice of inviting four veterans from the hospital to its weekly luncheons, proves to be a great morale booster, and helps the men's rehabilitation, he declared.

DVA Medical Organization

The head of the D.V.A. medical services is a doctor in Ottawa—the D.G.T.S. or Director General of Treatment Services, who is responsible to the Cabinet and advisor to the Minister of Veterans' Affairs. He has charge of the 17 D.V.A. medical service districts, each of which has a senior medical representative or District Medical Officer, who in turn has charge of the district D.V.A. medical organization, which includes a number of administrative officers, D.V.A. hospital superintendents and their staffs.

General clinics are maintained, which act as clearing depots, where patients are classified, and sent on to proper consultation clinics when necessary.

Patients include veterans who are given treatment and paid allowances on reporting for treatment within 30 days after discharge, he continued; moreover, all veterans are entitled to 1 year hospitalization after discharge. Pensioners, poor veterans having meritorious service discharges, and all veterans requiring emergency treatment are also given treatment. These are the more common classifications.

Medical services available to veterans are very comprehensive, and were outlined at some length by the speaker. Suffice to say, that, with very few exceptions, D.V.A. medical services are organized to effectively cope with almost every imaginable need of the veteran, and they do. He pointed out that 134,000 cases were seen and treated in 1946. D.V.A. Hospitals in this district include the Ste. Anne de Bellevue Veterans Hospital, which has over 1,100 beds and numbers more than 900 on its staff. More chronic cases are handled there, and there are specialized departments to provide treatment for special cases such as paraplegics, and mental patients for whom a modern 300 bed infirmary was recently erected. Another 200 bed hospital at St. Hyacinth is a t.b. sanatorium.

Queen May Hospital, the chief district D.V.A. hospital, has 820 beds and is most up to date. 9,000 patients were treated there in 1946, and 3300 treated there in the first 6 months of this year. It is completely equipped and staffed and its professional standing compares favourably with the great teaching hospitals of Montreal, he concluded.

The speaker was thanked on behalf of the Rotary Club for his interesting and illuminating address by Rotarian A. B. Williamson.

OLDEST PLANT STILL USEFUL

Flax, from which comes one of the most important ingredients used in the paint industry today, is one of the oldest plants in cultivation and dates back to biblical times or beyond.

For a long time flax was grown for its fibre which was used in the making of linen. "Fibre-flax" is still an important product in some parts of Canada but in these modern times, an even more important flax is the oil bearing variety grown in Western Canada. From it comes the linseed oil which is the basis of most paint products.

A rich coal deposit, containing an estimated 300,000,000 tons has been discovered in south India.

F. A. POULIOT

J. U. BRAZEAU

C.P.R. STAFF CHANGES

The Canadian Pacific Railway has named F. A. Pouliot general superintendent of the Quebec district and J. U. Brazeau superintendent of Laurentian division, both with headquarters in Montreal. Mr. Pouliot, who has spent all but two of his 36 years of C.P.R. service in the Province of Quebec has jurisdiction over 1,652 miles of track extending from Chalk River and Brockville in the West to Quebec City and Megantic in the East, and south to Wells River in Vermont.

Mr. Brazeau will be in charge of the Laurentian division's 520 miles of track extending along the north shore of the St. Lawrence River from Quebec Ctiy to Montreal and up to Ottawa, and embracing the popular Laurentian Mountain vacationland.

Maternity Department Is Completely Modern

The Maternity Department of the Homoeopathic Hospital is a very busy one. There are two Case Rooms complete with modern utility facilities. There are a total of 233 beds with a Nursery capacity of 25 bassinets, in addition to this there are two modern type of Incubators.

It is interesting to note the stability of Nursing service in this Department. Many patients have remarked on being attended by the same nurse on their re-admission to the hospital.

Another service in this department is the co-operation with the V.O.N. and Child Welfare who at the present time are available to demonstrate formulas and baby bathing in the home, following discharge from the Hospital. This service is available to Public Semi or Private patients.

The booking in this department is very heavy and it is necessary for a patient to have her reservation made at least six months in advance. The reservation is made by the Doctor.

To show the increase of work in this department it is interesting to note the following statistics re Births as follows: 1940, 579; 1941, 672; 1942, 755; 1943, 710; 1944, 734; 1945, 721; 1946, 771.

A recent development of inclusive rates for Maternity Cases is proving successful and gives the patient a general idea of what the cost will be and therefore has assisted many in preparing for this expense before admission to hospital. The inclusive rates are as follows:

For nine days stay in Hospital:- Private Patients $125.00; Semi-Private (2 Beds in Ward) 100.00; Semi-Private (4 Beds in Ward) 90.00; Public Ward Patients 50 00.

These charges include Room and Board, routine nursing service, delivery Room supplies, routine Laboratory tests, oxygen therapy, and the same modern anaesthetic services are given as for Surgical Cases. Services not provided in the inclusive rate are, when needed, Ambulance - X-Rays - Blood Transfusions - Intravenous therapy Operating Room fees for Cesarian sections Circumscision, special Nurses and the Doctor in charge.

Citizen's Warning Brings Arrest Of Loiterer

Westmount Police received a call from a local resident about ten days ago, that he had noticed a man loitering near a house on the Cote St. Antoine Road. They investigated, and arrested a man who gave his name as Henri Latulippe, no fixed abode. He was charged with loitering, pleaded guilty, and appearing before Recorder Charles Hale on Saturday morning, was sentenced to three months for loitering.

Police Chief Byford reiterates that mail should be removed from mail boxes as soon as possible after delivery to simultaneously remove both the temptation and possibility of theft. He also points out that at this time, when so many places are vacant, the police would appreciate reports turned in by any citizen concerning any suspicious person, or indications that things are not as they should be. The Police will be glad to immediately check such reports.

High-Flying Canary Belonged To Monty

Probably the highest flying canary on record was "Erbie," Field-Marshall Lord Montgomery's canary, which arrived at London by air with its master recently. At the airfield the Customs man asked: "Anything to declare sir?" and Viscount Montgomery replied, "Only one canary." Erbie was taken to the waiting car. No doubt Monty felt he had better "declare" Erbie before Erbie declared himself, for he is a vocal little chap!

Red Cross on Highways Adds One More Service to People

The Canadian Red Cross is adding another feature to its extensive peacetime programme in the Province of Quebec.

The new branch of Red Cross work in Quebec is highway protection in case of accidents. Already similar steps have been taken in some other provinces and have proved to be a valuable contribution to safer motoring.

By a series of Red Cross first-aid posts along the highways, it is hoped to reduce suffering and even sometimes to save lives in cases of injuries incurred in automobile accidents. Several first-aid posts have already been set up by the Quebec Provincial Division of the Red Cross, and others will follow.

The supplies for the new highway first-aid posts are placed in a container near the highway and clearly marked so that motorists can get medicines, bandages, disinfectants and other first-aid materials. For a considerable distance in either direction there are arrows to point to the first-aid depot and to tell motorists how far they are from it.

The Red Cross branch at Matane is doing pioneer service in the new highway first-aid venture. Matane is roughly half way between Quebec City and Gaspe, on a route that is world-famous for scenery and consequently much-travelled.

Later, it is hoped, such highway first-aid posts will dot the extensive highways of the Province. But for the time being a modest beginning has been made — so that experience may be gained and applied to the wider application of first-aid on Quebec highways.

In Quebec the particularly rigorous climate and the great expanses of unpopulated highway have meant special problems in carrying out the Red Cross plan. For example, the containers have to rest on a solid base that will stand up to rough weather.

And in Quebec each of the signs indicating where the nearest Red Cross first-aid post is located must be in both languages. Even the equipment and materials contained in the booth itself are labelled in both languages. Directions to aid an amateur in his first-aid work while he is waiting for a doctor are printed in both French and English.

The Red Cross takes the view that the alleviation of suffering and the prevention of complications that might result from neglected injuries following highway accidents are clearly a part of the Society's duty to Canadians in the years to come. No one can say how many lives may be saved by the timely use of these new Red Cross depots in these days of crowded highways and frequent accidents.

C.A.T. Schools Again Teaching

The Canadian Art Theatre, Inc. entering its fourth year of activity in local theatre circles, has announced that the Schools of Theatre Arts, Musical Arts, and Children's Workshop are now "open for business."

The School of Theatre Arts, offering classes in voice, movement, acting and technical subjects will be under the direction of Norma Springford, who has been well known in local theatre been well known in local theatres with the Montreal Repertory Theatre at one time and just recently having been in charge of make-up for "A Mid-Summer Night's Dream."

It is with considerable pride that Norma Springford announces the engagement of Alexander Kerby as voice teacher for the coming season. Mr. Kerby has had extensive training which more than qualifies him for the high standards of training which the Canadian Art Theatre intends to maintain in the field of voice teaching. Born in Montreal, Alexander Kerby received his early dramatic training at the Experimental Theatre in Berkeley, California. He followed this with three years study in New York under Andrius Jilinsky and Mme. Vera Soloviova, both of the Moscow Art Theatre and personally trained by Stanislavsky. Later he directed his own group, seen at the Henry Street Playhouse in New York, and was subsequently invited to join the Chekhov Theatre Studio.

Following a period in Hollywood, where he taught both acting technique and speech, he returned to New York and successfully auditioned for Theatre, Incorporated, the organization that brought the "Old Vic" Company from London for their New York season.

Actual classes at the School of Theatre Arts will commence on October 6th, although application forms and information are available at the Canadian Art Theatre Studios from now until the opening.

It takes a lot more than hot air to keep things breezing along.

Varied Recreation Program At Queen Mary Hospital

By GEORGE COCHRANE

When the ordinary citizen hies himself off to a hospital to have a troublesome appendix removed, or his tonsils clipped, or just a broken leg mended, he doesn't expect very much in the form of recreation during his period of hospitalization. A magazine or two, a nice-looking nurse or three, a few visitors — and the average hospital patient is content.

But when a couple of hundred red-blooded war veterans are convalescing in a military hospital they expect a lot more than that. And at the Queen Mary Veterans' Hospital they get it. For the Queen Mary Hospital has a recreation program that comprises everything from trips to the Forum to see the Wednesday night wrestling shows to bingo games.

Pretend for a minute that you're a patient at the Queen Mary Veterans' Hospital. Now here's what's offered you for recreation in a typical week:

WEEK'S PROGRAM

Monday afternoon, provided you get an O.K. from the physio-therapy branch, you can go swimming at the Canadian Legion's Memorial Hall. Monday night you might be one of the 40 from the hospital invited to see the Montreal Royals play at the baseball stadium. Your host would be Mel Jones, general manager of the ball club.

Tuesday afternoon there's a chance you'd be one of the seven patients invited to a drive and tea by the Red Cross. And, if you're not, you can stay at the hospital and be gifted with cigarettes, pipe tobacco and chocolate bars by a Red Cross visiting committee. At 6.30 there's a Ronald Regan movie in the hospital's spacious auditorium and at 7.00 you can watch a softball game or, if you're lucky, go down to the stadium again as one of Mel Jones' 40 guests.

Wednesday is really a busy day, You might be one of the two patients invited weekly to attend the luncheon meetings of the Westmount Rotary Club. Or you can go for the weekly drive, topped off by copious refreshments, which the owners of the Veterans Taxi Company sponsor every Wednesday. If you stick around the hospital you're likely to pick up some more tobacco when the Soldier's Wives League committee pays a visit.

Every Wednesday night that there's wrestling at the Forum 40 patients from Queen Mary go down and are admitted free — courtesy of Eddie Quinn.

Thursday afternoon there is swimming and a visit from the Canadian Legion Ladies Committee, which means more magazines, tobacco, chewing gum, etc. And Thursday night there's a stage show in the auditorium with a floor show from a down town nightclub providing the entertainment.

Friday evening you have your choice of movies in the aditorium or a softball game on a nearby diamond.

Saturday evening the Women's Volunteer Service will pay you a visit and there's a bingo game in the auditorium run by the Red Cross.

Sunday evening there are movies in the auditorium.

TYPICAL PROGRAM

What I've listed above is a typical week's recreation program at the Queen Mary Veterans Hospital. As a matter of fact, it was the program for the week of August 18-24.

Keeping this amazing recreation program running on all cylinders is the job of A. T. Oneson, the hospital's recreation supervisor, and his one lady assistant.

Mr. Oneson, now enjoying a brief vacation, is very pleased with the way everyone has cooperated with him in making the stay of the boys at the hospital as pleasant as possible.

"Everybody," he says, "has been swell. Eddie Quinn lets the boys in to see his wrestling; Mel Jones admits them at the ball park. We've had outings at Belmont Park and then the Veterans Taxi Company has taken the lads for lovely drives along the Lakeshore."

CAN STUDY TOO

But the patients who don't want to spend all their time looking at movies, wrestling matches and the like are also provided for at the hospital. Radio instruction is offered and the vets, if they so desire, study various learned tomes and write senior matriculation exams.

There's also a technical library consisting of approximately 3000 books as well as general counselling and vocational guidance.

A BLOW TO OUR PROSPERITY

There is interest, and some outspoken disappointment at the new economic plans put into force by Britain's socialist government. No one denies that it will have a serious effect on both Canada's foreign trade and her monetary position with respect to other countries. Our department of Trade and Commerce has convinced us that 1-3 of our income comes from external trade and that the loss would be felt by all whether our income comes directly from external sources or indirectly. Under these conditions it is not difficult to understand the intense concern felt in all circles here about our external relations. Britain's statement at Geneva that she could not sign the multilateral tariff agreement, as now drafted, for at least another year is a blow tc Canada's hopes and efforts for freer world trade.

Would Britain's position have progressively worsened if its government had been less concerned about "socialism" is the question in many minds. The decision of the British government to postpone the "socialization" of the steel industry until the economic crisis is over would indicate that even the socialists believe that their policy has been detrimental to the reconstruction of the old land.

This observer is convinced that Canadians are more and more coming to the conclusion—perhaps reluctantly—that our greatest hope, if not our single hope, for happiness and prosperity comes only from a strengthening of the United Nations. It is becoming clear that a high level of multilateral trade will not come except through united action. Few have illusions about the difficulties and dangers in the way with Soviet Russia challenging every move, and with socialist "planning" on a national basis threatening every attempt at the freer trade which is necessary if the unfortunate millions of the world are to obtain food. Exaggerated "nationalism" is a luxury we cannot afford.

CANADA NEEDS MORE PEOPLE

Many are watching the news of Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe's activities as acting minister of the department which handles immigration. Regardless of party Canadians have come to expect big things from Mr. Howe in whatever capacity he acts. No one has forgotten the vision, forthright action and judgment that he demonstrated in organizing Canada's industry for war purposes and his quick handling of reconstruction for peace.

A recent gallup poll showed that 62% of our people believe that we need immigrants. Perhaps a still larger number favour bringing in displaced persons from Europe for humanitarian reasons. Mr. Howe will have strong support across Canada for his efforts to find suitable "prospective" Canadians.

One of the interesting aspects of the gallup poll was the support for immigration according to political affiliation. Liberals showed 66% in favour of immigration, Progressive Conservatives showed 68%, Co-operative Commonwealth Federation showed 59% in favour. These figures include those in each party who specified immigrants "of the right type."

Canada also needs people with capital to establish new industries. It can use technicians and scientists. It requires farmers, lumbermen and miners. According to our most dependable economists, Canada could support from 18 to 30 million people. We need increased population to support the increased and improved roads, railroads, electricity services and other essential modern improvements that we must have.

800,000 TOURISTS FOR FRANCE

According to a study published in a recent issue of the Franco-Swiss Economic Review, the French tourist industry, which before the war was one of France's greatest sources of foreign exchange, now has excellent prospects of recovering its former prosperity. Although at the end of the war 50% of French hotel rooms were unfit for use and damages amounted to 50,000,000 francs, a great recovery effort has been made in this field and French hotels now have 95% of their pre-war capacity. In 1946, France received 330,000 tourists as compared with almost 1,300,000 in 1931. Americans visiting France last year numbered 20,000, that is, 10% as many as in the best pre-war year. This year the French tourist industry hopes to accommodate 800,000 tourists and, in the future, to surpass the pre-war volume.

WEEKLY REVIEW

Kipling As A Prophet

By LEWIS MILLIGAN

Do you remember those copybook headings in neat, flowing script type which we labored in vain to imitate in our penmanship lessons at school? One which comes to mind at the moment ran thus: "The gods help those who try to help themselves," and this seems to have been associated with the advice: "Put your shoulder to the wheel." Which, by the way, reminds me of a little pep-talk given by a Lancashire man to a meeting of church workers. After a fervent appeal for united effort, he closed with the following mixed metaphor: "We must all put our shoulders to the wheel and stand back to back!"

But that by the way. What I started to write about was a poem by Rudyard Kipling entitled "The Gods of The Copybook Headings," written back in 1919 and now reprinted in leaflet form for distribution in Britain. It is a long poem, in a long metre, and there is more truth than poetry in it. The first verse runs:

As I pass through my incarnations through every age and race,
I make my proper prostrations to the Gods of the Market-Place.
Peering through reverent fingers
I watch them flourish and fall,
And the Gods of the Copybook Headings,
I notice, outlast them all.

Passing through the process of evolution from simian ancestry to the "March of Mankind," the poet traces the conflict between the Gods of the Copybook Headings who represent the fundamental facts of human life. The following verse refers to the question of disarmament, and it is appropriate to the question of the disposal of the atomic bomb:

When the Cambrian measures were forming,
They promised perpetual peace,
They swore, if we gave them our weapons,
That the wars of the tribes
would cease.
But when we disarmed they sold us
And delivered us bound to the foe,
And the Gods of the Copybook
Headings
said: "Stick to the devil you know."

The cult of free-love, with the consequent increase in diyorce and deterioration of family life, are caustically dealt with as follows:

On the first Feminian Sandstones
we were promised the Fuller
Life (Which started with loving our neighbor and ended by loving his wife)
Till our women had no more children and men lost reason and faith,
And the Gods of the Copybook Headings said: "The Wages of Sin is Death."

There is no mention of Socialism in the poem, and it was written before the rise of a Labor Government in Britain, but there is no doubt about the reference and the truth of these lines:

In the Carboniferous Epoch
we were promised abundance for all,
By robbing selected Peter to pay for collective Paul;
But, though we had plenty of money, there was nothing our money could buy,
And the Gods of the Copybook
Headings said: "If you don't work you die!"

Kipling wrote that 28 years ago, and it was indeed prophetic. Even the present Labor Government, which "promised abundance for all", is now telling the people "You Work or you Want," and that their increased wages are valueless without increased production.

But a true prophet has no honor in his own country, especially if he appears in the form of a poet and bases his message on eternal principles. False prophets, such as Shaw and Wells, have had the ear of the masses in the past half-century, and what have they led the world into?

As surely as water will wet us,
as surely as fire will burn,
The Gods of the Copybook Headings with terror and slaughter return!

THE FORUM.

Conducted by Howard S. Ross, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper, and it does not accept responsibility for them.

Tristao de Ataide, a Brazilian Catholic lay leader and disciple of Jacques Maritain, has sounded a call to his fellow churchmen to save the world from the "leftist fanaticism" which he sees as threatening to succeed "rightist fanaticism" The task of the church he says is not only to defend traditional Christian truths, but also to adopt itself to a civilization which needs a re-evaluation of moral values.

Monteiro Lobato, prominent Brazilian writer, calls upon the Communist leader, Prestes, to support the new president of the state of Sao Paulo in his plan to introduce the ideas of Henry George in the state's economic sphere. Prestes answered that he will back any "progressive ideas" the new president may propose, including those of Henry George.

Brazil's attorney General has asked the superior electoral court to ban the Communist party on the grounds that it is "extremist" and that the constitution declares that extremist activities are illegal. He claimed that Lenin and Marx were very explicit in stating that proletarian dictatorship would suppress freedom and that it is impossible to imagine a Communist party that does not follow Communist ideas. Before long I shall report the decision of the Court.

The Danish congregation in Paris now holds its services in the French Lutheran Church of St. Jean. It is planning to build and the City of Paris has offered a building site near the forest of Boulogne, in beautiful surroundings. One donor has made a gift of $20,000 toward the building. Present plans call not only for a church but also for a home for aged people, a meeting hall and a parsonage.

The taking over by the Norwegian Government, without previous warning of a Christian soldier's home in Bergen and a private teachers' seminary belonging to the Inner Mission Society is claimed to be yet another instance of what the Norwegian church calls the "no small pressure" to which it is being subjected at the hands of certain political parties and the labor government. During the occupation all sections of the people worked together but now church leaders are beginning to speak of a "totalitarian tendency" on the part of the government.

A news item from London describing the charts of Communist parties working in lands other than Russia, which were displayed at the British Communist conference, shows how well integrated their organizations are.

According to the charts, there are sixty-seven Communist Parties in operation throughout the world, with a total membership of 18,500,000. Some of the parties were not listed as Communist, but were charted as following the teachings of "Marx, Engels, Lenin or Stalin."

The Soviet Union has 6,000,000 (who dictate to the other 175,000,000) members, Italy is listed as having 2,200,000. France is claimed to have 1,300,000. The Latin-American Communist parties are said to have 491,800, including 130,000 in Brazil. The British Communist members are given as 43,000 a drop of 10,000 below last year's total.

The Communist Party is closely knit and retains in its membership only the very active.

The question is now being asked as to whether or not the 175,000,000 non-Communists in Russia who are dominated by the six million Communists would favor the free enterprise of our western democracies if they understood it and could exercise a free choice. Most visitors to study conditions in Russia believe they would and as reported in the press from time to time high officials sent to other countries (and in particular to the U.S.A.) refuse to return to their homeland.

Able, aggressive Premier Drew was aggrieved when Toronto's Liberal minded Star printed the charges of C. C. F. Leader E. B. Jolliffe that the Premier had been using the provincial police "as a Gestapo". The charges and the scorching editorials had no political effect. The Premier sued the Star and its octogenarian president Joseph Atkinson for libel and $100,000 in damages. The jury decided chiefly on the basis of the frank and forthright charge of Mr. Justice Daniel Kelly who admitted this was his first experience in a libel action either as a lawyer or a jurist. He was not, he said, well acquainted with some of the finer points of Ontario's libel and slander law, but he knew what things it was meant to curb, and a political speech was not one of them and particularly a speech during a hard-fought campaign. Such a speech he ruled is qualifiedly privileged no matter how defamatory his remarks might be and therefore is exempt from civil or criminal liability unless malice can be proved. This is because an election, said the Court, is a matter of grave public interest in which facts need to be known. The only question in Justice Kelly's mind were whether the Star's editorials were printed with deliberate malicious intent. That was the only question for the jury to decide

"Democracy cannot function," he concluded, "without free, frank and bold discussion of public affairs. Newspapers should show a high resolve to keep the people fully informed. We are deeply indebted to the press and you (the jury) should cherish and protect it."

Truck-Riding Is Dangerous At Any Time

The carrying of passengers in trucks involves many a serious danger. When the authorities prohibited this practice, it was with a great satisfaction we noted how strictly this new regulation was observed by all, and for some considerable time we saw no more of these overcrowded trucks, carrying women and children as well as elderly persons, in our streets and highways.

But recently there has been a certain laxity, declares the Province of Quebec Safety League. Right in this district of Montreal, several large trucks have been seen carrying persons of all ages, some sitting down, others standing.

This mode of transport is no less dangerous than it was formerly, but people take risks they wouldn't dare take before. First, the law forbids it, but a simple minute of meditation will be enough for anyone to understand that this is a dangerous practice and that it endangers the lives of all passengers, wherever they travel.

The Safety League recommends all truck owners and drivers to abide by the law in their interest as well as of their relatives and friends.

Luncheon Honors Mrs. W. R. Vining At Summerlea Club

Mrs. J. E. Macmillan and Mrs. L. G. Kent were hostesses at the luncheon given on Tuesday by several of the Summerlea Golf Club charter members and members, in honor of Mrs. W. R. Vining who is leaving to reside in Brantford.

During the course of the afternoon the guest of honor was presented with a sterling silver compact, suitably inscribed, Mrs. F. H. Meyer, President of the Ladies Branch of the Summerlea Golf Club, making the presentation.

Mrs. Harold Mills entertained with three solos, "Still as the Night", "My Prayer" and "A Perfect Day" and was thanked by Mrs. T. R. Rennie.

The charter members and members attending included Mrs. C. Fairchild, Mrs. N. Verity, Mrs. J. McWilliam, Mrs. D. B. MacKenzie, Mrs. W. Greenlees, Mrs. G. W. Shewan, Mrs. J. I. Robinson, Mrs. J. R. Weir, Mrs. A. S. Wilson and Mrs. G. P. Stockton. Mrs. Vining has been a resident of N.D.G. for the past twenty-seven years.

Christian Science

"Christ Jesus" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday.

The Golden Text is from John 3:17 "God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me. I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness."

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. "Jesus taught the way of Life by demonstration that we may understand how this divine principle heals the sick, casts out error, and triumphs over death. Implicit faith in the Teacher and all the emotional love we can bestow on him, will never alone make us imitators of him. We must go and do likewise, else we are not improving the great blessings which our Master worked and suffered to bestow upon us. The divinity of the Christ was made manifest in the humanity of Jesus.

Rev. A. J. Mowatt May Soon Leave For Calgary, Alta.

The impending departure of Rev. Andrew J. Mowatt, B.D., is a setback for some of the many activities of St. Andrew's Church, Westmount. A call from the important Wesley Church, Calgary, has been placed in the hands of Mr. Mowatt and it is very probable that Mr. Mowatt will accept it.

It is nearly two years since he was inducted as assistant to the Rev. D. M. Grant, of St. Andrew's, and in this short time has won for himself a distinct and lasting place in the affections of St. Andrew's. His capacity for work is enormous, and his sincerity of purpose is evident. With the young, and those not so young, his winsome personality has a strong appeal, resulting in large followings in his various works.

Mr. Mowatt has a fine pulpit presence, a clear, rather high-pitched voice of good carrying power, clean diction, and a rapid enunciation, distinct and understandable. His approach to the Sermon is orthodox, never loses sight of his subject, and he knows a good stopping-place, better still, he takes advantage of it, knowing full well how a congregation dislikes padding a sermon to fill an allotted time.

While sincerely regretting Mr. Mowatt's impending departure, the entire body of St. Andrew's Church will speed him, and his wife, on their way to their new responsibility with vast good wishes, and hope that in his future work he will enjoy the confidence and success which has been his lot in Westmount.

It should be mentioned that Mr. Mowatt's grandfather was the well-loved Minister, Rev. Dr. Mowatt, of Erskine Church, and his father was formerly a Missionary in China, and now minister of Wyman Memorial Church, Hudson Heights, where he succeeded his son Andrew some years ago at the time the son enlisted in the Chaplain Service. It is no news of Rev. Andrew's distinguished service in the Army, with several high honours and decorations accorded him, all of which experience will add to his prestige in his new field.

Wesley Church is to be congratulated in her wise choice of a Minister of such a fine calibre. Mrs. Mowatt will be an ideal chatelaine of the Manse, and, together they are most bountifully endowed to make a pronounced successful Ministry.

Calvary Church

The Union Services of Calvary United and First Baptist Congregations will be concluded for this season with the Services on Sunday, in Calvary United Church, Westmount, when the Preacher both morning and evening will be Maxwell Reader, B.A., who is the Assistant to the Minister of Calvary, Right Rev. T. W. Jones, M.A., D.D. Dr. Jones will be preaching at the 10th Anniversary Service of the United Church, Hudson Heights, Quebec, in his capacity as Moderator of the United Church of Canada.

Mr. Reader will be glad to meet all those who are interested in Sunday School and Young People's work in order to make plans for the Fall work in these departments.

The Sunday School Picnic which was postponed from June will be held on Saturday, September 6, to Calumet Beach. For details application should be made to Anson Robinson, WE. 4783.

The Elizabeth Read Missionary Auxiliary will meet in the Church Parlours at 8 p.m., on Wednesday, September 3.

The Deacons are called to meet on Wednesday, September 3, at 8 p.m.

The Beatitudes VII

By Rev. Canon R. Kenneth Naylor
Rector of Trinity Memorial Church

"Blessed are the peace-makers: for they shall be called the children of God." "Peace-makers" has sometimes been interpreted in a very negative way, as those who have achieved inward peace through purity, or those who love peace. Our Lord's word, however, is much more positive than that. It is, literally, those who "work peace." St. James, who seems to quote our Lord's words indirectly more frequently than most New Testament writers, says, "The fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that made peace."

Peace is not something that we can acquire by sitting still. Nor is it something we acquire by surrendering to the demands of evil. It is to be found by removing the causes of strife; and that action may in itself be anything but peaceful. Our Lord, by His Presence, did not bring peace. Where He came, men were brought into judgement; and when they resisted Him, the result was not peace, but war. As soon as He came out of His retirement at Nazareth, the war began between Him and the powers of evil. The preliminary skirmish was the Temptation; but the war grew more and more bitter, till the seeming defeat of the Cross, and the real victory of the Resurrection.

Throughout that struggle, Our Lord was doing away with the real cause of war, i.e., Sin. For there is the root of the matter, as St. James well knew "Whence come wars and fightings among you? Come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members?" Selfishness is the old sin of man that leads him to put himself first in his own life. He would make himself supreme, violating the first of the Commandments, "Thou shalt have no other Gods but Me." Then, when two - or two thousand - men each make themselves supreme, there come wars and fightings.

So when we think of this Beatitude, "Blessed are the peacemakers", we must look at ourselves, and see whether we are qualified to make peace. Have we in ourselves the first thing necessary - God ruling in our hearts and lives? Then, if we have satisfied this condition, we may be used by God to create peace; and then we shall be called "Sons of God." It is a lovely expression. The peace-makers are, in their very character and in their essential being, like the God Whom they have set first in their lives.

Mrs. ... showed me the smartly ★fashioned coat, made from a Canadian army blanket, in which she crossed the Atlantic. Dyed black, it was lined with silk from an older coat, and trimmed with salvaged scraps of fur. The plaid material on the inner side of the matching hood looked all of a piece, but was really in several segements. Clothing from the Red Cross was of inestimable service, Mrs. Davies said.

Men Don't Wheel Babies

The sight of Canadians pushing carts of groceries in stores, and of fathers perambulating their infants, has always interested this young bride, as such things are unknown in Holland. Neither do Dutch husbands concern themselves with the dish pan. Utrecht housewives must scrub their own section of the streets and sidewalks in front of their homes, else they are fined by the police. Their houses, which have galleries upstairs and down, must be painted every year and the windows kept sparkling. The Hollander, of course, loves flowers; most gardens are abloom with roses, rhododendrons and many other varieties. But these much-loved homes were deliberately flooded by their owners to keep the Germans from entering.

Mrs. Davies, whose father, an engineer with the Dutch government, used to cut up the furniture for firewood in the days when there was no coal, finds housekeeping in Canada comparatively easy. She speaks our language well, having studied it at school since the fifth grade along with French and German. She loves our ice cream, and the abundance of fruit and milk. Her own family, who have lived for some years in India, would like to buy a farm in Canada. Mrs. Davies may have started the caravan moving.

son, as bridesmaids. Mr. John Swail will be best man for his brother, and the ushers are to be Mr. Earle Webb, of Ottawa, Dr John Ferguson, brother of the bride, Mr. David Hubel and Mr. Tonas Pavlasek.

A reception will be held at the residence of the bride's parents.

The marriage of Anna Edith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Davidson, of Westmount, to Mr. Walter Ritchie Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Johnston, of Montreal, is taking place at four o'clock on Saturday afternoon in Stanley Presbyterian Church.

The reception is to be held at the home of the bride's parents, 602 Lansdowne Avenue.

The marriage of Helen, daughter of the late D. A. Burpee and of Mrs. Burpee, of Westmount, to Dr. Joseph Arthur Tarkington, of Chicago, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tarkington, of Cincinnati, Ohio, is taking place at half past four o'clock on Saturday afternoon, September 6th, in St. Andrew's Church, Westmount.

A reception will be held at the Windsor Hotel.

At the marriage of Margaret Elizabeth Audrey, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Midgley, of Verdun, to Mr. Arthur Clarence Bennett, only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Burgess, of Boston, Mass., the Rev. F. T. Norman will officiate at the ceremony at four o'clock tomorrow afternoon, in St. Clements Anglican Church.

The bride's attendants will be Miss Edna Kilpatrick of Queen Mary Road, cousin of the bride, as maid of honor; Miss Nancy St. Alphonse, Town of Mount Royal, and Miss Barbara Brown, of Verdun, as bridesmaids; and Miss Gail Ewing, Town of Mount Royal, as junior bridesmaid. Mr. Midgley will give his daughter in marriage.

Mr. Norman Kilpatrick will act as groomsman and Messrs. Robert Higgins and James Crossley will usher.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held in Victoria Hall, Westmount.

Farewell Reception Held By Mrs. Mills For Mrs. W. R. Vining

Mrs. Harold Mills, formerly of Westmount and now residing at the Shelbourne Towers, was hostess recently at a reception held in honor of Mrs. W. R. Vining, of Draper Avenue, who with her husband is leaving the city to take up residence in Brantford, Ontario. Pink and white gladioli were arranged throughout the rooms.

Mrs. Elliott Macmillan, Mrs. Will Harrison and Mrs. Bardo Gardner poured tea; Mrs. George Hamilton and Mrs. A. MacKinnon cut the ices; Mrs. E. O. Rehfuss and Mrs. James Bodel presided at the punch bowl and others assisting in serving were Miss Muriel Dennis, Miss Kitty McCarthy, Mrs J. Archer Wright and Mrs. R. E. Cadwallader.

Mrs. Bardo Gardner sang.

Military Whist

A military whist will be held by the Douglas Bader Chapter of the I.O.D.E. on September 26th, at 8 p.m., at St. Matthias Church Hall, Westmount. Refreshments will be served and there will be door prizes.

Will Judge Legion's Vet. Dress Designs

The dress designing contest being sponsored for veterans by the four local ex-service women's branches of the Canadian Legion will be judged by a group of Canada's leading fashion designers, headed by Alfandri of Montreal on October 9th at the Fashion Show to be held in the Canadian Legion Memorial Building, 1191 Mountain Street, Montreal.

French born Alfandri has built up an international reputation during the past 25 years in Montreal. He came here from New York where he was one of the leading figures in the field of apparel design.

He is particularly noted for his choice of fabric and is a pioneer in the field of original design in Canada. His creative talent in designing wedding gowns is renowned and his bridal outfits have been shown at major fashion shows throughout the Dominion.

TECHNICOLOR BRITISH HIT! David Niven and Kim Hunter, above, are co-starred with Roger Livesey and Raymond Massey in "Stairway To Heaven", in Technicolor, which starts on Saturday at the Snowdon United Theatre for one week.

GREAT STAR TEAM! Rosalind Russell and Melvyn Douglas are reunited as starring team in "The Guilt of Janet Ames," which starts on Sunday at the Westmount United Theatre, playing until Tuesday night. "Easy Come, Easy Go," with Barry Fitzgerald, is the added feature on this program.

J. P. MARQUAND'S BEST-SELLER! Vanessa Brown and Ronald Colman, above, are co-starred with Peggy Cummins, new British star, in the film version of J. P. Marquand's novel, "The Late George Apley," which starts on Saturday at the Seville playing until Tuesday night.

Deanna Durbin In Delightful Comedy Romance at Seville Soon

The tuneful comedy, "I'll Be Yours", which starts at the Seville United Theatre on Wednesday next, co-stars Deanna Durbin with Tom Drake and Willian Bendix who do their full share in upholding the riotous nature of the story. The trio of stars is brilliantly supported by Adolphe Menjou, Walter Catlett, Franklin Pangborn and William Brooks.

Briefly, the story deals with Deanna's attempts to escape wealthy Menjou's advances and at the same time help Drake, a struggling lawyer, by claiming the latter is her husband. Bendix brings about Deanna's meeting with the other two members of the triangle. Deanna has to play up to Menjou for the sake of Drake's future, and of course gets caught. Finally when it seems the situation couldn't get much worse, Deanna makes it so by confessing her hoax. Then it is up to Bendix to try his hand at straightening everything out — which he eventually does.

Deanna's acting chores, smartly and spiritedly executed, are enhanced with her presentation of four songs; "Sari Waltz", "Granada", "It's Dream Time" and "Cobleskill School Song". The latter is one of the comedy highlights of the picture, with Deanna and Walter Catlett teaming their vocal efforts.

Drake, one of filmdom's most talented young leading men, reveals an exciting warm comedy personality. Cleverly combining whimsy and sincerity, Drake gives a competent portrayal as the young attorney who is so honest he can't get any clients — until Deanna takes him in hand.

Bendix is lovable and hilariously amusing in his role of a waiter and self-appointed godfather to Deanna. Menjou's dashing appeal and flair for smart-set humor is set off to advantage against Bendix' bumbling earnestness.

New York City is the locale of the story and the teaming metropolis' settings offer colorful backgrounds for the intriguing events depicted.

"Skating Vanities" At The Forum

Frank Selke has just announced the definite dates for the appearance in Montreal of the dazzling new 1948 edition of "Skating Vanities". High-lighting the theatrical season here, the annual appearance of Montreal's favorite entertainment will take place at the Forum starting Sept. 9th and continuing thru Sept. 14th, with Matinee on Saturday, September 13th.

With five previous editions of "Skating Vanities" having established a fool-proof entertainment formula, the producers have enlisted the services of America's foremost stage director, Russell Markert, of Radio City Music Hall fame, to handle the staging, while the glittering array of custumes and scenic backgrounds were designed by Nat Karson, whose contributions in the same field feature every one of Markert's world-famous Music Hall presentations.

The cast contains in addition to Gloria Nord, Mickey Meehan, Larry Fox, Melva Moreno and other "Skating" favorites, and some very unusual novelties and foreign importations which were completely unattainable during the war years.

Four Stars in "It Happened in Brooklyn" - Monkland

BRITISH FILM HIT AT MONKLAND! Wendy Hiller, above, co-starred with Roger Livesey in "I Know Where I'm Going," which starts on Saturday at the Monkland United Theatre playing until Tuesday night.

Frank Sinatra, Kathryn Grayson, Peter Lawford and Jimmy Durante are the stars of the ingratiating new musical, "It Happened In Brooklyn", which is now playing at the Monkland United Theatre until Friday night, and they comprise a four-star musical delight.

Sinatra is the music publishing-house shipping clerk who is convinced that his home town of Brooklyn is the most wonderful place in the world. Miss Grayson is the girl who has turned to teaching when she is persuaded that her voice lacks the romantic warmth for grand opera. Lawford is the shy, English songwriter who has never heard of jive, while Durante has the time of his life in the role of an hospitable school janitor who takes them all under his wing and tempers their troubles with his sunny disposition.

The actual plot involves Sinatra's having to make good his promise to show Lawford the path to success in his beloved Brooklyn, a promise which entails his having to turn over his own girl, Miss Grayson, to his songwriting rival, and the engaging tale proves a delightful framework for the singing-and-dancing talents of Sinatra and Miss Grayson, for Lawford's romantic appeal, and for Durante's aisle-rolling comedy antics.

The stars have been richly furnished with melodic tunes, among the outstanding being "The Brooklyn Bridge" a plaintive melody sung by Sinatra on the world-famous bridge; "The Song's Gotta Come From The Heart", dueted by Sinatra and Durante with each imitating the style of the other; "Time After Time", "I Believe" and "It's The Same Old Dream". In a spectacular sequence Miss Grayson sings the beautiful "Bell Song" from "Lakme", and a standout surprise is the Sinatra-Grayson duet of an aria from "Don Giovanni", sung in Italian. Lawford also offers an unexpected moment when he plays, sings and dances a hectic jive number entitled "Whose Baby are You?.

Suspenseful Drama of Mountain Climbing At The Snowdon

Can a woman's love conquer a man's deep fear? This profound emotional conflict is dramatically brought to the screen in "High Conquest", which is now playing at the air-conditioned Snowdon United Theatre until Friday night. The pictorial background was actually filmed in the Swiss Alps, while Anna Lee, Gilbert Roland and Warren Douglas are co- starred as the triangle whose lives become closely entangled in the dangerous sport of mountain climbing.

Warren Douglas is seen as an American mountain climber with a fear of the Matterhorn, since his father was killed on the first successful ascent of the Swiss peak. On a visit to his parent's grave in Switzerland, Douglas meets and falls in love with Anna Lee, much to the consternation of Gilbert Roland, a guide. The latter develops a hate for the visitor who has won the affections of the girl he had taken for granted as his own. The struggle between the two heightens when Douglas refuses to climb the Matterhorn, in a night rescue which brings death to a villager. Finally, sound advice and strong love encourages Douglas, and he makes the ascent with his sweetheart and his bitter rival. It is on the icy mountain that the picture reaches a tragic climax.

Based on the popular book by James Ramsey Ullman, "High Conquest" has a grand supporting cast including Beulah Bondi, Sir Aubrey Smith, John Quaine, Helen Thimig and Alan Napier.

OUT-OF-SEASON SPORT

The football season got away to the earliest start on record here when Alouettes and Regina met yesterday. The game was well received by a big crowd, but we doubt if it is wise to rush the season in this way. As a long-view policy we don't think it is wise. Today, Canada is the most prosperous country in the world, and with money in everybody's pocket it isn't too difficult to lure them to see baseball, football, and hockey all in the same week, and at high prices. But the day is coming when they will be a lot more choosy, more blase, more cynical in their attitude. It will be hard to convince them, then, that it requires four months, playing twice a week, to determine which football team is the best in the Big Four, and about seven months to find out which are the two worst teams in the National Hockey League—that is, the two who won't qualify for the playoffs.

Baseball has always stuck pretty close to baseball weather—not starting too early or finishing too late. The International League is through at the end of the first week in September, except for the playoffs. There is plenty of good baseball weather right through September and into October, and there are many fans who would like to see more, but the magnates have stayed away from Autumn dates.

We fear that eventually the fans will get an idea that they are being played for all the traffic will bear, that their dollars are beginning to overshadow every other consideration, when they are high-pressured into seeing football in summer and hockey in Autumn and Spring.

BASEBALL IS COMPLICATED TODAY

If someone had told the late Barney Dreyfuss, back in 1900 when he was just getting started, or twenty years later for that matter, that he needed a general manager, the individual would have been scoffed out of Barney's presence, wrote Chester L. Smith in the Pittsburgh Press. In those days two men ran the Pittsburgh club—Mr. Dreyfuss and an auditor.

Mr. Dreyfuss signed the players, hired the manager, attended to the park's needs, made the trades and found additional time to map out the National League schedule. (He was the most expert schedule-maker baseball ever knew). The auditor fussed with the books and pens and told Mr. Dreyfuss whether he was in the black or in the red.

But if two men tried to conduct a club's affairs today they would soon find themselves hopelessly behind the competition.

There has to be a department head for the scouts, another for the farm clubs. The ball park itself is big enough to demand someone's attention almost exclusively throughout the year.

Add a road secretary, a ticket handler and a public relations director and you have an organization that is a long haul from the two-man era.

General managers serve in two capacities, generally speaking. Some are employed by owners who have other interests and don't care to dabble in their baseball holdings. These G.M.'s are the last word in their capacities.

All clubs do not have general managers. The Yankees never did, and never will as long as Larry MacPhail is president, for Lawrence wouldn't stand for anyone else running the show.

But the idea has caught on rapidly and promises to grow.

Rodolphe Huot, Favourite For Lions Golf Tourney

Rodolphe Huot, brother of Jules, who won the Canadian Professional golfer's crown at Riverside Golf Club, N. B., last weekend, will be the favourite at the Lions Clubs of Greater Montreal, second annual tournament which gets underway at Marlborough Golf and Country Club, Cartierville, on September 12, 13 and 14.

Jules Huot, was the previous holder of the C.P.G.A. crown, and he did not mind handing it over to another member of the family.

Gerald Proulx of St. Johns, Quebec, who beat Stan Horne in last year's Lions Golf Tournament, was fourth in the N.B. competition, seven strokes behind leader Huot. Bob Grey, from Toronto was second, but since the Lions match is closed to the pros. in zone 2, Bob Grey will not be allowed to compete.

Stan Horne, always the top man around these parts was ten behind Rodolphe, but golf is a game that even the favorites fall by the wayside before the final day.

The cream of Quebec's pros., will be on hand shotting for the big prize money of $2,000 and the famous Lions Trophy which is now on view at Waterman's, St. James St., West. The Lloyd Freeman Trophy with $150.00 prize money will also bring out the best efforts of Quebec professionalism. As an added attraction a special senior match play has been arranged.

The proceeds from this golf tournament will go to charity and welfare work that is being carried out by the Greater Montreal Lions Clubs. Each ticket will admit the bearer to the matches any one day of play as well as entitling the holder to a chance in the drawing for a 1948 car, a combination automatic radio phonograph, an electric washing machine and 15 other prizes.

American Soccer All-Stars Play Verdun Stars Sunday

By LEX HAXTON

This week-ends' National League programme promises to be a busy one for the local entrants with Stelco going to Toronto where they will attempt to pick up a possible eight points — on Saturday with Greenbacks and Toronto Ulster, on Labour Day. Meanwhile, Carsteel carry on here with a league and exhibition fixture.

On Saturday, they take on Ulster for the fourth consecutive time at Notre Dame Stadium, this time in a league tilt, which will be staged at 8 p.m. if the lights are found satisfactory — if not, then at three o'clock.

Erno Schwartz (who once wore a Carsteel jersey) will bring his New York Americans to Charlevoix Park, on Sunday, to play a picked National League team. The U. S. eleven are highly rated and should be an attraction. Kickoff at 3 p.m.

The Carsteel-Ulster series was played before a combined estimated attendance of 5,000 fans last week-end, at Notre Dame Stadium — the largest paid crowd in many a day. Both contests were packed with excitement, the players in good shape despite the sweltering heat.

After a scoreless first half, Dempsey Castonguay assisted by Doug MacMahon and John Sinclair scored for 'Steel with a low well-placed grounder. Art W[illegible] tied it up 15 minutes from the [illegible] whistle.

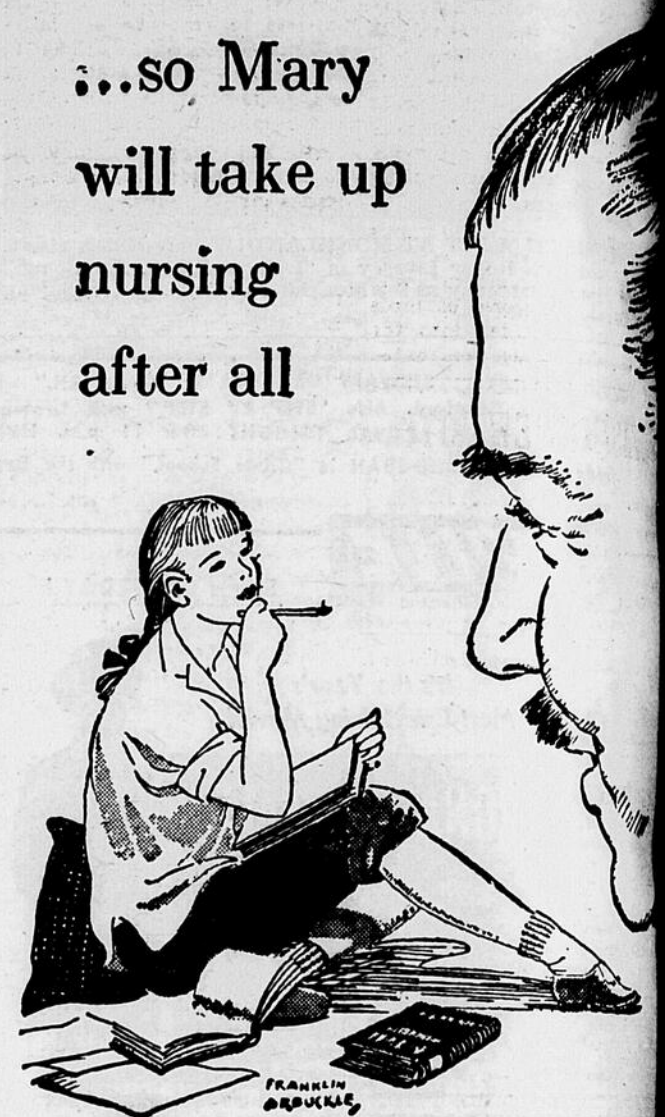
...so Mary will take up nursing after all



It LOOKED for a while as if a temporary financial problem in the family might keep Mary from finishing "High". If she had to quit school to help the family income that would have meant good-bye to her hopes of becoming a nurse.

But here she is, starting her final year. Did her Dad suddenly come into some money?

No . . . and yes. He consulted his bank manager, who told him how the bank, through personal loans, often helped people to meet just such situations. Arrangements were made, and now Mary will take up nursing after all.

In 1946 Canada's banks made half a million personal loans to Canadian men and women.

Ronald Colman had been off the screen for two years, reading script after script, refusing roles he didn't feel suited him. He was, however, brought out of his self-imposed retirement when he read a finished script of "The Late George Apley"; it was the challenging and exciting part Colman had been waiting for.

Stunning Peggy Cummins plays Colman's daughter, Eleanor, a dutiful girl, but with definite ideas of her own. Although the petite British star has never before appeared in a Hollywood production, it is felt that her portrayal in this film will establish her as one of the most exciting screen personalities in years.

Charles Russell, whose role in "The Purple Heart" won for him the critics' praises was assigned the romantic lead opposite Peggy Cummins. Lovely Vanessa Brown, who scored high in "Margie", also plays a principal romantic role with Richard Ney as her indifferent suitor on whom reverse "English" works wonders. Richard Haydn, Edna Best, Mildred Natwick, Percy Waram and Nydia Westman are also featured in important roles.

Belmont Park Closes Mon. Eve

With the Summer Season fast drawing to a close and with the weatherman still "putting-on" the heat, young and old alike are naturally thinking of making the most of the few remaining days of glorious sunshine that's left before Old Man Winter announces his arrival with cold weather. Belmont Park, Montreal's greatest purveyor of fun and amusement, will wind up its season on Monday Evening, Labor Day. For the next few days, however, big doings will continue to be the order of the day. Magasins E.M Stores Back-To-School Days currently being celebrated at the park, will terminate on Saturday . . . The youngsters' final opportunity to enjoy life in the open, in absolute safety, before returning to classrooms. Special concessions are given them both in admission price and on several attractions along the Midway.

There's dancing every evening as well as over the week-end to Benny Louis' famed Casa Loma Orchestra.

Peejay Ringens, daredevil aerial cyclist currently thrilling patrons of Belmont Park with his "Suicide Ride' down a lofty runway and finally diving into a tank containing less than four feet of water, was a former U.S. Olympic Diver. He also held the U.S. Navy high and fancy diving championship from 1909 to 1913. He has been diving into tanks all over the world, including jungle towns in Africa and in Spain's famous bull-rings and also in Venezuela, South America. He is the proud possessor of several medals including awards from the late King Alphonse of Spain; a gorgeous gold piece from the Sultan of Selanger; awards from Malay, Malacca and medals won in Paris, France Peejay Ringens is seen daily at Belmont Park at 5 and 11 p.m

SIXTY PAINTERS GET 4-YEAR JOB

Thirty thousand gallons of paint are going into a four-year job of protecting the famous George Washington Bridge against rust and corrosion—but the painting is no work for the timid.

Sixty painters were chosen from a large number of applicants, most of whom decided they weren't interested after attempting to paint mile long cables 600 feet above the Hudson River.

Canadians Determined To Admit Immigrants

The immigration to Ontario of seven thousand Britishers by air, is an evidence of the determination of the people of Canada to benefit by the aid of selected immigrants in the development of this country.

There are some reasons, and many excuses, why as many persons as may be desired cannot be brought to Canada in the near future. But the Ontario government has overcome some of the reasons and ignored the excuses. There is wider popular approval of the extraordinary measures taken by Ontario to add to the productive force of the province at a time when shortages of essentials are imparing the well being of the people of Canada.

The decline of rural population across Canada is due to both the disparities between rural and urban hours of work and earnings and the inability of overworked farm people to secure help on their farms and in their homes.

Forestalling Illness

When you are well is the time for that medical check-up, say the experts. Conditions unfavourable to physical or mental well-being may be detected by careful examination before you become ill.

"Although you may feel perfectly well, a check-up may reveal that there are some little things such as your dietary or other habits, which require attention if you are to retain health," say the medical authorities, in urging close liason with the family doctor at all times.

BETTER TENNIS

By ALEX COOPER

This week out topic is the CUT DRIVE grip and stroke.

GRIP — The "Shake-hands" grip — or, if desired, the racquet face to be tilted slightly BACKWARDS.

STROKE — Swing from High over the back of the Left shoulder, around and down in front of the body — where contact will be made with the ball—at which time the weight will be shifting from Left to Right and the racquet face will be drawn DOWN against the ball — the follow-through in this case is a continuation of the stroke, and will continue DOWNWARD, thereby imparting cut to the ball.

Some Points To Remember — Always endeavour to attain a ing the ball, for a correct stroke ing the ball for a correct stroke will not be made if you are tensed, or in a cramped position. Watch some of the better players make the shots and ... how it seems to be a natural ... them to swing freely and ... seemingly without effort.

There's many a roughneck in a stiff collar.

Today we Live in a Greater Canada

From the Laboratory

NEW PRODUCTS
NEW PROCESSES
BETTER LIVING

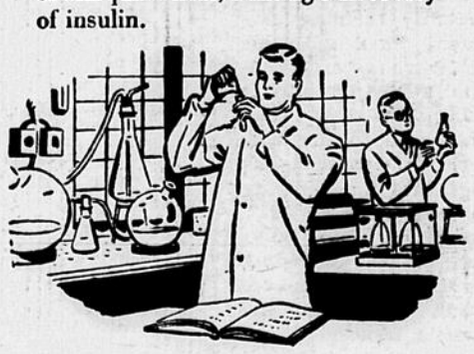
TODAY ALL CANADA is benefitting from the tremendous impetus given Canadian scientific research during the war years.

In university, research foundation and industrial laboratories, increasing numbers of Canadian-trained scientists are working on projects which will make for better Canadian living. Staffs of the National Research Council laboratories have increased four-fold since 1939. Their activities are being maintained at the same high level as during the war—but now devoted to the needs of peace.

Research workers today are constantly opening up new fields of Canadian endeavour, giving wider scope for Canadian skills.

Organization of graduate schools by Canadian universities in the early years of this century marked the first important advance of research in Canada. The National Research Council was established in 1916 for the encouragement of scientific endeavour on a national basis.

Science in Canada before the war had already to its credit several achievements of world significance—among them, Rutherford's original work on radio-activity, Saunders' development of Marquis wheat, Banting's discovery of insulin.



In 1939 began a cooperation in research never before attained in Canada. The contributions of Canadian scientists in such fields as atomic energy, radar, aircraft design and the development of super-explosives, won world recognition.

"OPPORTUNITIES TODAY...GREATER THAN EVER"

ALEX FORST with his brother Edward took over their father's modest little hardware shop in Vancouver 17 years ago. The early years were difficult, but, profiting from their errors, maintaining sound policies and always hard-working, they slowly expanded the business. New lines were regularly added until today they operate the biggest retail independent house furnishings organization in Western Canada.

MR. FORST says: "Our early faith in Canada as the country in which to build a business has been confirmed and strengthened. Just as Canada is a much greater country than when we started out, so too Canadian opportunities today are much greater than ever for those now commencing their careers."
