PM and Premier Couve de Murville to meet

QUEBEC (CP) — Prime Minister Trudeau and French Premier Maurice Couve de Murville were to meet this afternoon in Quebec City following the funeral this morning of Premier Daniel Johnson of Quebec.

The French premier, here to pay his country's respects to the dead Quebec premier, had a 40-minute meeting with the Canadian prime minister Sunday night when Mr. Trudeau met him on his arrival from France at Montreal International Airport.

It was the first meeting of head of government of France and Canada in a long time. Relations between France and Canada have been strained since French President Charles de Gaulle cancelled a scheduled visit to Ottawa during a visit to Quebec last year during Expo.

Mr. Trudeau said following the Sunday night meeting that he was "not allowed" to comment on his conversation with Mr. Couve de Murville. Reporters had no opportunity to question the French premier.

Mr. Couve de Murville met Jean-Jacques Bertrand, justice minister in the late Premier Johnson's government, at dinner Sunday night after paying his respects to Mr. Johnson as he lay in state in the Quebec legislative assembly.

INVITE STILL OPEN

Spokesmen for the Quebec government said Sunday night that the visit by the premier of Quebec to France that Premier Johnson planned may still take place. They said the French invitation was extended to the premier of the province, not to Mr. Johnson personally.

Mr. Johnson was to have visited France in October for meetings with President de Gaulle and members of the French government.

The Quebec government spokesmen said, however, that it would be up to the new premier to decide whether to make the trip. A caucus of the Union Nationale party is to choose a successor to Mr. Johnson at a meeting Wednesday.

Sources said that Mr. Couve de Murville and Mr. Bertrand tried at their private dinner Sunday night to interpret the reaction of Prime Minister Trudeau to the recent visit to Canada of Philippe Rossillon. Mr. Trudeau has called Mr. Rossillon "more or less a secret agent" sent to "agitate" amongst French Canadians in Manitoba.

News in brief

56 killed

At least 56 persons died in accidents across Canada during the weekend, all but four of them in traffic accidents.

A survey by The Canadian Press from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Sunday, local times, showed one person dead of exposure in New Brunswick, another killed in a plane crash in Quebec and two killed in hunting accidents in Quebec.

Quebec had 19 road deaths for a total of 22. Ontario had 16 deaths, all in traffic.

Rusk meets Eban

UNITED NATIONS (AP) — State Secretary Dean Rusk was in New York today for 10 days of diplomatic talks that include a meeting with Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban, on hand with a new peace plan for the Middle East.

Rusk and Eban both arrived Sunday to take part in the UN General Assembly policy debates, and in other diplomatic conferences.

Economy threat

CALGARY (CP) — The Canadian Chamber of Commerce has warned the federal government that inflation is still the biggest problem facing the country's economy over the long haul.

At the same time, it told the government to be careful not to do anything that would fan the inflationary fires again.

Body found

MONTREAL (CP) — The count of "underworld killings" in the Montreal area stood at 14 dead since last February after police discovered the bodies of a young couple in the trunk of a car Saturday.

But by Sunday the toll appeared to have mounted to 15 with the discovery of a young man's body in a car cemetery near Huntingdon, 20 miles southeast of here.

Liberals meet

GRAND FALLS, Nfld. (CP) — Provincial Liberals have opened the first page of what Premier Smallwood has called "an entirely new chapter . . . in the life of Newfoundland" with a weekend meeting here at which 1,300 membership cards were handed out.

Mr. Smallwood's prediction of a "new chapter" came in an interview before the meeting, one of several planned in a membership drive that it is hoped will swell party ranks to 10,000 before Mr. Smallwood gives up the leadership at a full convention next year.

Debate delayed

OTTAWA (CP) — Opposition members are expected to deliver some closing blows to the Liberal government in today's Commons finale to the supply debate.

But the debate will be delayed following an agreement Friday that the House will sit at 2:30 p.m.

Transplant patient "excellent"

MONTREAL (CP) — Canada's fifth heart transplant patient, Rosaire Brien, was reported in "excellent" condition following a four-hour operation Sunday at the Montreal Heart Institute.

Mr. Brien, 58, a provincial roads employee from St. Esprit de Montcalm, received the heart of Gary Mersereau, 16, of Edmundston, N.B., who suffered severe brain damage in a motorcycle accident Sept. 22.

Hospital officials said they also removed Mr. Mersereau's kidneys and eyes for other operations. Doctors at the Royal Victoria Hospital here already have transplanted one kidney into an unidentified man who was reported doing "very well."

Mersereau, who had been sustained by an artificial breathing apparatus since last Thursday, was flown to Montreal from Edmundston after his physician, Dr. E. Savoie, telephoned Dr. Pierre Grondin, head of the surgical team that performed the institute's four other transplant operations, to tell him of the youth's condition.

The decision to carry out the operation was made after tests showed that Mr. Mersereau's brain had suffered irreversibie damage, Dr. Grondin said.

DELAY SEVERAL HOURS

He said there was a delay of several hours before the operation when doctors found there was still an "amount of activity in the cerebral cortex—the front or thinking part of the brain—in the donor."

However, Dr. Grondin said the lower or secondary frain structures had been completely destroyed, indicating absolutely no hope of recovery.

Doctors would not operate until they were "completely certain" there was nothing more they could do for the youth, he explained.

Dr. Grondin, who headed the 20-member surgical team in the operation, said "Mr. Brien's new heart started on its own after the operation and there was an unusually good match between donor and recipient."

Dr. Paul David, medical director at the institute, said Mr. Brien had a severe coronary heart disease. He had suffered a heart attack in 1963 and had since been in hospital four times. He had been incapacitated since last year.

Doctors at the institute said Mr. Mersereau had not been breathing on his own for about 60 hours before the operation began.

"In ordinary cases, we wouldn't maintain artificial respiration that long," said one attending physician.

Meanwhile, a report from the institute said Edouard Desrivieres, 51, the institute's fourth heart transplant patient was "doing very well."

Mr. Desrivieres Thursday received the heart of Jacques Boudreau, 19, of Trois-Rivieres, who suffered severe brain injuries suffered in a motorcycle accident Sept. 21.

The institute's second heart-transplant recipient, Gaetan Paris, 49, of suburban Laval, continues convalescing at his home. He received the heart of a 23-year-old motorcycle-accident victim June 28.

Two other recipients have died.

So far there have been 55 heart transplant operations throughout the world, with 26 survivors.

Army-imposed regime wins Greek approval

ATHENS (CP) — The army-imposed regime of strongman Premier George Papadopoulos won approval of a new Greek constitution by a 94-per-cent majority, and claimed today the vote represented "unreserved support of the government and the revolution."

The claim was made by the government's chief spokesman, Byron Stamatopoulos, at a news conference.

The constitution, which becomes effective immediately, drastically reduces the power of self-exiled King Constantine and establishes a strong executive. It also sets up unprecedented measures to curb political corruption which the Papadopoulos regime contends was rampant under elected Greek governments of the past.

Adoption of a new constitution is just a first step toward return to a parliamentary system such as the one swept out of office by a bloodless army coup April 21, 1967. The next step would be general elections, but no date has been set.

MARTIAL LAW CONTINUES

Martial law and press controls continue in the country, and about 2,100 leftists remain imprisoned on two Aegean Sea islands. At least 12 former deputies or politicians also are still under house arrest or in exile in rural areas.

Stamatopoulos called the huge yes vote for the constitution in the Sunday referendum "a triumph" for the government.

With returns tabulated from all but 844 of 8,108 polling stations, the vote was 4,004,954 approval of the constitution, or 94 per cent.

Nearly 23 per cent of the registered voters did not vote, despite a law making it obligatory. However, Stamatopoulos said that 590,000 of those registered had emigrated from Greece, and that the actual percentage of absenteeism was normal for a Greek election.

COULDN'T GET HOME

He said that only those who wilfully absented themselves would be prosecuted, and that this number probably would not be large. Many voters could not get home to vote because of huge transportation snarls.

King Constantine, who has been living in Rome since he fled Greece after an abortive countercoup last December, appeared no closer to return as a result of the referendum. Presumably he may be recalled when and if parliamentary elections are held, but whether he will return is another question.

One immediate effect of the new national charter is to deprive Queen Mother Frederika of her $100,000 annual pension. She has been living at Rome with Constantine and Queen Anne Marie since they fled Greece.

Constantine's allowance, currently $580,000 a year is continued along with an allowance for his son 18-months-old Crown Prince Paul when he turns 21.

Women's bureau is a passive sop to women

OTTAWA (CP) — The women's bureau of the department of labor today was termed inadequate and understaffed by both its former director and Canada's largest labor union.

In a brief to the royal commission on the status of women, the 115,000-member Canadian Union of Public Employees, bargaining agent for more than 40,000 female Canadian workers, called the women's bureau a passive "sop to women."

The union's criticism won support from Mrs. Jock Findlay, who resigned as director of the bureau without public explanation in Febraury of this year and who today in an interview termed the directorship a "figurehead" position.

The women's bureau, established in 1954 to help working women with their employment problems, has been without a director for the seven months since Mrs. Findlay resigned.

George Haythorne, deputy minister of labor, said Sunday night that he expects to announce the appointment of a new director within a week and promised increases in the bureau's staff.

Mrs. Findlay, meanwhile, for the first time released the letter of resignation she sent to Mr. Haythorne in February.

STAFF TOO SMALL

In her letter she complained of the bureau's "critical staff situation" and asked:

"I wonder how many persons knew . . . that this important branch . . . was expected to administer a program with a staff of just three persons, a director, a secretary and a clerk."

She said she was "appalled" when in 1967 administration of the female equal pay act was transferred to the bureau from the fair employment practices branch of the department, "with what would appear to be a total disregard for the feasibility of our being able to achieve anything concrete in promoting and enforcing this 1956 lifeless act without the necessary staff of investigators."

Premier Johnson buried today, 80,000 file past coffin

QUEBEC (CP) — The state funeral of Daniel Johnson will be held today after more than 80,000 persons filed past the open coffin of Quebec's 20th premier during three days of mourning.

At 9:45 a.m. EDT a cortege of mourners will leave the legislature where the premier's body lay in state since Friday, the day after Mr. Johnson died of an apparent heart attack in northern Quebec.

The funeral service begins at 10 a.m. at the Basilica, the oldest church in Canada, with Maurice Cardinal Roy, primate of the Roman Catholic Church in Canada, presiding.

At 11:30 a.m. the cortege leaves for Montreal where the body will lie in state until Tuesday when five days of mourning in Quebec ends with burial at St. Pie, Mr. Johnson's political home town, 40 miles south east of Montreal.

An estimated 50,000 mourners visited the legislative assembly Sunday, including Prime Minister Trudeau of Canada and Premier Maurice Couve de Murville of France.

Mr. Trudeau, who knelt in prayer with Mrs. Daniel Johnson before the coffin, was described by one of the Johnson cabinet ministers as a member of "the Quebec family."

PROVIDES A CONTRAST

The intimacy of the Trudeau visit contrasted with the protocol visit by Mr. Couve de Murville, sent to the funeral by President Charles de Gaulle.

Shortly after 10:00 p.m. the premier's black-veiled widow, accompanied by her two sons, Daniel Jr., 23, and Marc, 21, walked into the legislative assembly followed by Mr. Trudeau.

Mrs. Johnson knelt before the coffin. Mr. Trudeau knelt to her right. Jean-Jacques Bertrand, the senior minister in Mr. Johnson's cabinet and probable successor as premier, knelt to the left of Mrs. Johnson.

They all crossed themselves and prayed. Mrs. Johnson rose, led Mr. Trudeau to the open coffin, lifted her veil and spoke to the prime minister who was one of Daniel Johnson's chief political opponents.

Mrs. Johnson then presented Mr. Trudeau to Mr. Johnson's brothers and sisters and Union Nationale members of the legislature.

Also present were premiers Louis Robichaud of New Brunswick and G. I. Smith of Nova Scotia.

MEETS QUEBEC FAMILY

Mr. Bertrand who put his arm around Mr. Trudeau and helped Mrs. Johnson lead the prime minister around, told Mr. Trudeau:

"Pierre, you have just met the Quebec family which has toiled for Quebecers and French-Canadians. It's your family and it is our family."

Mrs. Jean Marchand, wife of the federal rural development and forestry minister who often criticized Mr. Johnson's political views, approached Mrs. Johnson, held her hands and said, sobbing:

"I cry for you; I cry with you."

Mr. Trudeau put his arm around Mrs. Marchand to comfort her.

Mrs. Johnson and her sons then left the legislative assembly chamber followed by Mr. Trudeau and Mr. Bertrand, who again placed his arm around the prime minister's back.

Mr. Trudeau visited briefly with the Johnson family in the Speaker's quarters of the legislative council before leaving the building.

Death is great loss

Senator Paul Desruisseaux said Sunday the untimely death of Premier Daniel Johnson has resulted in Canada's loss of one of its best citizens and a man of the highest value.

In a statement, the senator said, "His death shortly after his memorable appearance on television make his reassurances and counsels more everlasting in our minds and hearts."

"I am losing a lifetime personal friend," he added, "a friend with whom I had the privilege to exchange many views and with whom I was always ready to share common great hopes for our Canada and our province."

Humphrey knocks extremists

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey pictured the United States today as facing potential destruction from extremists of left and right and said: "No democracy can, or should, stand for it."

The Democratic presidential candidate, who flew here Sunday after two noisy confrontations with organized hecklers in the Pacific Northwest, made it clear that his denunciation of extremism applied not only to them but to the forces of third party candidate George C. Wallace and to Negro revolutionaries.

Humphrey, faced with speech disrupting shouts from some 200 young anti-war activists in Seattle Saturday night, tried to quiet them by letting one of their leaders address the clearly pro-Humphrey audience. The tactic failed, and, in the end, the demonstrators were ejected from the packed Civic Centre arena, seating 5,000. More than a dozen resisted police who steered them out, with a brief but violent uproar ensuing.

Having experienced a noisy walkout by about 400 protesters at a similar party rally in Portland, Ore., the night before, Humphrey came here still searching for a way to deal with the demonstrators who have been plaguing him from coast to coast.

HITS BOTH ENDS

In a speech prepared for a Mormon Tabernacle audience here, the vice-president criticized both ends of the political spectrum.

"There are people today who made their basic appeal to the baser instincts—to fear, to racial prejudice, to escapism, to the darker side of the human character. They are dangerous."

These are the words he has used repeatedly to describe the Wallace campaign, though he did not name the former Alabama governor in his text. The U.S. election is Nov. 5.

Then Humphrey went on to decry youths "who are preaching the same doctrine of disorder and anarchy, and using he same totalitarian tactics of the street that brought Adolf Hitler to power."

TV indicted for playing it safe

HALIFAX (CP) — An indictment of television and films for "playing it safe in what may be the hour of destiny for all humanity" was made here Saturday by an internationally-known expert on screen education for children.

The indictment was delivered at the conference on communications media in education by Elsa Marcussen of Oslo, Norway, president of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization's international centre of films for children and young people.

An example of playing it safe, Mrs. Marcussen said, was the BBC's refusal to show The War Game, a film depicting the horrors of nuclear war.

She criticized films and television for flirting with violence and racial and political prejudice in their fictional outputs, such as the James Bond film series and the TV serial Mission Impossible.

"Generally speaking, the media are bowing to the prejudices and preferences of the already petrified, rather than blazing new trails in the directions that eager and experimental young people between 11 and 18 would want to explore."

WARNS OF DANGER

Unless adults take action about the kinds of programs offered, there is danger of raising a generation dominated by two types of people, Mrs. Marcussen said.

Some of the young people may become mere collectors of information; they will be better informed than previous generations, "but not necessarily more knowledgeable or committed."

Oswald: "I wasn't much older than James O. Jr. when my father taught me the rule of 'eight ever—nine never' in deciding whether to finesse for the queen or to try to drop the lady."

Jim: "Ever and never are pretty strong words there. The actual rule is that when there is no information available, declarer should plan to finesse when he holds eight of the suit and to play to drop the queen when he holds nine."

Oswald: "The mathematical advantage of the drop play with nine is so slight that you should plan to finesse on many occasions."

Jim: "Today's hand is a good example. South has many problems with his four spade contract. His first is to draw trumps without losing a trick to the queen."

Oswald: "As anyone who looks at all the cards can see, a man who believes in 'nine never' would be set at his four spade contract."

Jim: "West's king of hearts holds the first trick. He continues with the queen. South trumps in dummy and should play dummy's king of spades. Then he leads another spade and should finesse against the queen. He knows that West started with a lot of hearts and therefore is likely to be short in spades."

Oswald: "He has something else going for him. If he does lose to the queen West will be on lead and may solve Souths problems in the other suits."

Jim: "After the spade finesse works South draws the last trump and goes after diamonds. It doesn't matter how he plays the suit but he should guard against four diamonds in the East hand. Hence he plays a diamond to dummy's ace and leads the suit back to his own hand with the intention of playing the 10 unless an honor appears. The honor shows up and his worries are over."

Pope Paul VI's journey to Bogota, Colombia, to participate in the 39th World Eucharistic Congress of the Roman Catholic church points up his own nickname for himself—"Apostle on the move." He has traveled farther and more often than any of his recorded 261 predecessors as Bishop of Rome and is the first pontiff to journey by air. Previous visits have been to India, the Mideast (Israel and Jordan), Turkey, Portugal and New York, to appear at the United Nations. The only continents he has not yet visited are Africa and Australia.

Peak for Pensions

World War II pensions and death benefit payments probably will reach their peak about the year 2000. The total cost is expected to be $5.5 billion a year at that time.

Mr. John Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson and son, Stuart, Montreal, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alger White and family.

Missionary on leave talks to mission group

DANVILLE — Home on furlough from missionary work in Japan, Miss Sylvia Whitman of Wells River, Vt., was the guest speaker at the Home and Foreign Mission meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Monahan.

Slides were shown of Japan and of the work being done there, and articles made by the Japanese people were on display. Possibly the actual contact with some one working with the foreign missions, and able to speak with authority on the needs of the people, arouses the interest of a group to a far greater extent than any amount of literature could do.

Prior to the meeting at the Monahan home, Miss Whitman spoke to members of the Mi-Lo Group and showed the handicraft.

The September project was Bring One Buy One, and realized a tidy sum. October's project will be a missionary name and at the October meeting the guest speaker will be Mrs. Charles Bentley, Newport Centre, Vt., who will speak on the Eastern Regional W.F. and H.M. Conference held this summer at Alton Bay.

Some 22 members enjoyed the supper served by Mrs. Monahan.

Sherbrooke Symphony Concerts

Launch '69 subscription campaign

The subscription campaign for the 1968-69 season of the Sherbrooke Symphony Concerts was officially launched yesterday afternoon with a "Vin d'Honneur" at the University of Sherbrooke.

Membership campaign committee president Mrs. Marcel Rheault hopes the present 900 subscription list will be fleshed out to some 1,500 persons by the end of the five-day drive on October 5.

Asked his opinion of the 1968-69 concert season Concert Musical Director Sylvio Lacharite said, "I expect a very good one."

Mr. Lacharite is a veteran of 28 seasons with Sherbrooke Symphony Concerts. He was absent from the city's concert scene when he travelled to Paris in 1950-52 to further his musical studies.

While in Paris, Mr. Lacharite studied under Olivier Messien at the Paris Conservatory of Music and studied privately at Mrs. Honneger's studio.

The first of three concerts to be presented in the 1968-69 season will be held November 24 in Convocation Hall, University of Sherbrooke.

The program will be the opera Gounod. The orchestra will be directed by Mr. Lacharite and Claude Paradis will direct the chorus.

The following artists will perform in the opera: France Dion, soprano; Claude Ouellet-Garon, soprano; Gaby Bilodeau soprano; Rosaire Simard, bass; and Pierre Boutet, tenor.

The second concert, Sibelius in d minor, and Beethoven's Seventh Symphony, will be held March 2, 1969.

The presentations will feature Otto Armin, solo violin, Montreal Symphony Orchestra.

The last concert will be held in Convocation Hall on March 30. Mr. Lacharite said it is part of an exchange program with the Quebec Symphony Orchestra which he will conduct here.

The highlight of the concert will be Garrick Ohlsson, winner of the 1968 Montreal International Piano Competition.

The Orchestra will present Concert Number Two in f minor by Chopin, and a symphony in d minor by Franck.

Memberships which guarantee reserved seats are $9 or $8 for the complete series. The student price is $3. Campaign headquarters is H. C. Wilson and Sons Ltd.,61 Wellington Street North.

For further information telephone: 562-5111 or 569-4810.

Salon Femina robbery a mystery

Sherbrooke detectives continue an investigation today into a Thursday night robbery of a women's clothing store in the Sherbrooke Shopping Centre, King Street West, that may have netted thieves $7,000 to $10,000 in merchandise.

A city detective said Saturday an exact value of the merchandise stolen from Salon Femina will probably be determined sometime today after store employees have finished an inventory check.

Police believe the thieves must have had a master key to the building as there were no signs of a forced entry.

Early reports indicated that 80 to 90 per cent of the merchandise was stolen.

It is also believed that the thieves were aware of popular clothing styles as they ignored low-valued items and clothing not considered to be among the top sellers.

Store manager, Miss Pierrette Couture, said last week that merchandise on sale was ignored by the robbers. The store is owned by J. L. Boulanger and Gontrand Guillemette.

Police believe the thieves may have left in a hurry as several expensive items of clothing were left on the floor. Police "guestimate" that the thieves were in the store no longer than 15 minutes.

The robbers were unable to steal a very expensive coat as

Bury fire destroys home

BURY — (Special) — A flash fire early Sunday completely destroyed the two-storey home of Mr. and Mrs. George Aulis.

Mr. Aulis said he was awakened by the flames on the ground floor and rushed to let his wife and two children out of an upstairs window after he found the stairs blocked by the blaze.

The children were uninjured, however, Mrs. Aulis suffered bruises and was taken to hospital, but released immediately afterward. Mr. Aulis himself cut his foot on the glass of the window through which he escaped and needed several stitches to close the gash.

The home and all the family's possessions which were uninsured, were a total loss with the exception of the family car which was parked outside away from the building.

The blaze, which Mr. Aulis said was most likely caused by faulty wiring, swept the building so suddenly that the Bury fire brigade could do nothing to stop its progress once they arrived on the scene.

ET highways are death-free

Eastern Townships highways were death-free during the weekend but one person was seriously injured.

Gilles Marois, 19, of R.R. 2 St. Denis de Brompton, is in the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital in Sherbrooke suffering from head injuries.

He was injured early Sunday morning when the car he was riding in overturned on Route 5 between Bromptonville and Windsor.

Richard Brodeau, 25, of R.R. 2 Brompton, was driving the car when the accident occurred.

No other car was involved in the accident.

Last night, Mr. Marois was still unconscious but hospital authorities say his life is not in danger.

New York City's Bowery was once a farm owned by Peter Stuyvesant, the early Dutch colonial governor. Stuyvesant called his farm "The Bouwerie," and the name clung to the site.

Machine crushes father of three on Saturday

EAST ANGUS — (Staff) — The father of three children was crushed to death in a machine at work here Saturday at 1? a.m. when he slipped and fell into a rock crusher at the East Angus Brick and Tile Inc. where he was employed.

Henri Lavoie, 39, of 112 St. Pierre Avenue, East Angus, died of multiple fractures to his legs and lower body.

When Mr. Lavoie fell into the machine, a fellow worker heard his cries for help and he stopped the crusher by applying the brake.

About 15 of Mr. Lavoie's fellow employees tried to free him and save him but after an hour, they decided the efforts were futile.

Mr. Lavoie remained conscious for some time until his death.

Dr. Marcel Larose administered first aid.

Bromont region airport opens

BROMONT — (Staff) — More than 7,000 people braved biting winds under threatening rain clouds to attend the opening of the regional airport here yesterday. The ceremonies were marred by a massive traffic jam which saw drivers waiting well over an hour to get from the parking area to the second area road a scant 200 yeards away.

From the aviation buff's point of view the only thing lacking was Snoopy in a Sopwith Camel.

The Canadian Forces put on a show with three de Havilland Otters, a de Havilland Buffalo and a Boeing Voyageur helicopter. There were also parachute jumps by "Les Hommes Volants" and a fly-past Beech Kingairs with a new PT6 turbo jet-engine recently developed by United Aircraft.

Members of 401 Squadron Canadian Forces Reserve based at St. Hubert handled the Otters.

The roll call of aircraft was extensive; Cessnas, Aeroncas, a Howard 250, which oldsters would recognize as being a modified Lockheed Lodestar, the first passenger aircraft flown commercially by Trans Canada Airlines.

Sacair, of Sherbrooke also had one of their Piper Aztecs on hand. They may provide commercial service from Bromont to other points in the province in the near future.

Platform guests included Germain Desourdy, Roland Desourdy, Paul O. Trepanier, and Guy Poirier, respectively mayors of Bromont, Cowansville, Granby and Waterloo.

Philip de Gaspe Beaubien, John Sharpe, Yves Forest (MP Missisquoi), Gilbert Rondeau (MP Shefford), and Glendon Brown (MLA Brome) were also on hand.

Mayor Germain Desourdy, in his welcoming address said, "A dream has come true; the idea of a regional airport was formulated in March 1966 and the promoters are very happy to witness this inaugural ceremony."

"It is a move toward industrial progress as the airport is located in an area eminently suitable for the development of an industrial park," said Mayor Desourdy.

"Industry today is interested in a protected territory where it can expand and progress," he said. "Well organized municipal units are essential to industrial development."

Mayor Desourdy said, "One individual municipality cannot offer all the prerequisites for industrial development, but the grouping of several municipalities can offer a pool of facilities and services which will entice the prospective industrial firm to select a suitable location in our region.

Mr. Forest, representing Transport Minister Paul Hellyer, said he was happy to see the degree of of co-operation among the municipalities which led to the inaugural of the airport that will be an economic boon to the area.

Mr. Brown, in an interview said, "It will lead the area out of economic obsolescence and key the whole region to tourism as well as industrial expansion."

He hastened to add that the airport site is in Brome County.

Jean Jacques Bertrand, provincial minister of justice, Armand Russel, provincial minister of public works and provincial industry and commerce minister Jean - Paul Beaudry expressed their regret at not being able to attend the inaugural in telegrams read by Jean Leduc, Cowansville town manager, who was master of ceremonies.

Flash fire leaves family of 10 homeless late Saturday night

COMPTON — (Staff) — A raging fire razed a house in less than 30 minutes Saturday night, leaving a family of 10 homeless.

The house, home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Nash and their children, is located between Milby and Compton.

The family took refuge in the home of Lucien Turcotte after the fire.

Mr. Turcotte, who was the proprietor of the destroyed building, owns and operates a restaurant about 500 feet from the burned house.

The fire started about 8:30 p.m. and cut the telephone wires.

The members of the family escaped the flames but were unable to call the Compton fire brigade.

The firemen were alerted only 20 minutes after the blaze had started and when they arrived, the house was nothing but ashes.

The Waterville fire brigade, which also arrived on the scene too late, could do nothing.

No household furniture was saved.

Starts tree farm to urge reforestation

BROMPTONVILLE — (Staff) — Spurred by the growing depletion of trees in this locality, a Kruger Pulp and Paper Limited employee has started a small model tree farm on company-owned property.

Edgar Boucher, a purchasing agent at the newsprint mill, has set up his tree farm near the mill's main entrance.

Mr. Boucher hopes that through his model farm he will be able to encourage re-afforestation throughout the Townships by showing individuals how various kinds of trees can grow under controlled conditions.

Mr. Boucher urges any persons who have a little land of their own to visit the model farm and discuss activities related to forest biology, silviculture and forest management.

The purchasing agent is also hopeful that woodlot owners will become more aware about the growing depletion of forest cover.

There are some 2,000 saplings of six different North American varieties obtained from the Quebec Forestry Department.

The farm is under the expert maintenance care of the mill's materials handling crew.

There have been strong indications that a reforestration drive will receive some muscle from the federal government. Sources say the government will establish a small experimental tree farm in the Eastern Townships — perhaps by 1969.

Municipal political party system nearing

The appearance of the party system in Sherbrooke's municipal politics as envisaged by Mayor Armand Nadeau during the nomination day proceedings last Wednesday may be one of the inevitable side results of the change over to the en bloc system of electing the Council to become effective in 1970.

Desirability of the introduction of the party system at the City Hall may be subject to serious debate with strong arguments both for and against the idea being forthcoming.

But basically the success or failure of the idea cannot be determined in advance.

Like so many other institutions developed by the human mind it depends largely upon the mentality of the men and women who are prepared to enter municipal politics in the years to come — and their ability to prevent the civic parties from becoming too closely linked with either the provincial or federal political machines.

In discussing the development of municipal parties it must be remembered that parliamentary political parties were not something established by law — that they were not created in their present form by constitutional experts.

Rather they developed over the years with the expansion of the democratic processes which made it imperative that the people have some clear alternatives when making their selection at the polls.

Coupled with the proposed executive committee system, which would more or less correspond to the cabinets at Quebec or Ottawa, the idea of electing a mayor by direct popular vote might become obsolete with the leader of the predominant party, elected to his Council seat like any other alderman, assuming the post of Chief Magistrate.

Or another alternative is for the chairman of the executive committee, named from among the aldermen, to head the actual administration of the city with the mayor being relegated to an essentially nominal position.

If you tell a visitor to help himself from the icebox, dad, you're truly showing your age.

Cyprus project ending

Canadian taxpayers will display little regret at the statement of United Nations Secretary General U Thant that peacekeeping operations in Cyprus may be suspended for financial reasons.

Apparently most of the nations who were so strongly in favor of the idea have failed to meet the voluntary assessments placed upon them and the operation has run up a deficit of nearly $14,000,000.

Canada has a direct interest in the operation with 972 Canadian troops being stationed on the island as part of the peacekeeping force — the number to be reduced next month by 285 men.

In addition this country has made substantial contributions to the fund as well as being the only country to pay for the upkeep of its personnel in Cyprus.

The peacekeeping project was designed only as a temporary measure to keep order until the Turks and Greeks settled their differences and may have been justified by the report of U Thant that conditions on the island are much easier.

A Papal bull re-established the Roman Catholic hierarchy in Britain 117 years ago today—in 1850—following reforms which abolished many legal restrictions on British Roman Catholics. The following year, Parliament, with mass support, passed the Ecclesiastical Titles Bill, banning the use of British place-names by Roman Catholic clerics. The bill was never enforced and was repealed in 1861, but to this day, certain high offices, such as monarch, are barred to Roman Catholics.

Senior citizens want action

'Company of Elderly Canadians' to forge grey power in slums?

MONTREAL (CP) — Several thousand older people in Montreal are clamoring to march off their post-retirement shelves into social action with a proposal for a sort of "Company of Elderly Canadians."

They call it "grey power" —an army of silver-haired citizens ready to invade the slums as welfare workers, look after day-care centres and do hospital volunteer work.

The group is the 8,000-member Senior Citizens' Forum of Montreal.

Executive director Mrs. E. J. Allaire says the over-65s are not at all pleased about being put to pasture when the dreaded time of retirement is reached.

"Elderly Canadians are our greatest wasted national resource," she said in a recent interview in the sparsely-furnished downtown office of the group.

"With a small pre-retirement training period, they could be organized for social welfare work much like the Company of Young Canadians.

"With government financial support like the CYC, the small stipend paid the volunteers would really help stretch that monthly pension of $76 some senior citizens try to live on."

In short, says Mrs. Allaire, the project seems to be the answer to the triple quandary of retirement years: social isolation, boredom, and in some cases near-starvation.

DIED OF BOREDOM

"A recent survey taken by the CNR shows that over 50 per cent of its employees die within two years of retirement. That is from sheer boredom.

"Some elderly people with no income but the pension have $16 a month left for food and entertainment after spending $60 for a basement room somewhere.

"Many of these people, forced to retire at 65 or younger, still have 10 good years left."

Mrs. Allaire says her contemporaries will no longer take this kind of treatment sitting down.

For example, "a mass protest march on city hall will take place within the next year if the council does nothing about our pleas for half-price bus fares for elderly people."

Mrs. Allaire did not comment on the possibility of demonstrations to bring the group's plans to fruition, but stressed the urgent need for such an organization.

"Senior citizens today in Canada are worse off than they ever have been, and, possibly, than they ever will be again."

With the post-war shift from rural to urban living, grandma and grandpa had lost their place in the family home, too small in an urban situation to contain two extra persons.

And the grandparents frequently had little formal education, adding miles to the generation gap which separated them from their computer-age grandchildren.

TOOK FIRST STEP

The group recently took the first step towards making the dream a reality with the presentation of a brief to the royal commission inquiry into the status of women.

"But who knows what will come of it," said another Forum member who asked that she remain unidentified because a well-known magazine had described her as a hippie.

"To get what we want we need to organize in numbers and bring pressure on the existing institutions.

"But we can't group into significant numbers when there is not enough money to pay for printing costs and stamps to keep the over-65 community informed."

Montreal's over-65 group numbers about 230,000, of which about 57 per cent are women.

The Forum, embracing about one-third of this total, runs on a budget of $1,395 monthly contributed by private donors and by small membership fees paid by elderly people's groups which participate.

Social gatherings, a lodging service and welfare work among the elderly are organized by the Forum, which operates on the thesis that hobbies are not enough.

NEED PARTICIPATION

The anonymous spokesman, who is young enough at heart to believe that no marriage contract should be granted until a couple has lived together successfully for three years, says "mental hardening of the arteries" in the elderly would be reduced if they were allowed to participate in the community.

She says that of all persons entering the so-called golden age, the retiring single woman is in the most frightful plight of all.

Isolation closes in on her like a bleak curtain of fog, since she has no husband for companionship and often no money for outings.

She frequently has not been provided with a pension plan in her place of work, and if she retires today she has not been working long enough to benefit fully from the new government contributory plan.

In 20 years, said the spokesman, a 68-year-old woman lawyer, women will make up about half of the working force, and many will have such dilemmas at retirement unless something is done now.

These women would be excellent people to run the day-care centres that will be taking care of the children of younger working mothers.

Still wields power

LBJ is greyer sadder and wiser

WASHINGTON (CP)— President Johnson's rare feel and relish for power has been a trademark since he assumed office in November, 1963.

Today, four months from stepping down Jan. 20, he plainly intends to wield that power to the end. But his muscle is not what it used to be.

At 60, President Johnson seems more subdued, greyer, perhaps sadder and wiser, but still a hard-driving Texan confident that history will give him a higher rating than his contemporaries.

"He doesn't raise old Billy hell like he used to," a friend says in Texas lingo. His power and zest have been eroded by his March 31 decision to quit—one widely described as courageous — and by adversity inside and outside the country.

The president does retain enough clout, as he has demonstrated, to ride herd on Vice-President Hubert Humphrey and keep him in line on the Vietnam war. Whatever harm that is doing to Humphrey in the Nov. 5 presidential election campaign — and it seems to be doing a lot — appears of secondary concern to Johnson. Humphrey is running as democratic candidate to succeed Johnson.

MAY PREFER NIXON

Indeed, it has stimulated speculation that despite wide differences of view on most matters between Johnson and Republican presidential candidate Richard Nixon, the president insofar as Vietnam is concerned would prefer to see Nixon succeed to the presidency.

Vietnam is Hubert Humphrey's greatest cross, plus the accumulated frustration among Americans represented by the conservative swing toward emphasis on law and order at almost any price.

But if Humphrey finds himself powerless to shake an image of accomplice to unpopular Johnson policies, the president also finds himself boxed in on the actions he might otherwise take to conclude his presidential career with a flourish.

Public opinion polls measure his popularity at a record low of only 35 per cent.

That galls an inordinately proud man with a greater-than - average appreciation of history and what it may say of him. He has moved to keep the record straight with instructions to all departments to prepare reports on their accomplishments under his reign.

But prospects have worsened for capping his presidency of five years and 60 days with any triumphant flourish.

Vietnam was his downfall primarily. It was, as he insists, a situation inherited from three presidents but also one he converted into a commitment of 549,000 ground troops in Vietnam and the third longest war in American history.

The president says he is confident history will justify his refusal to halt all the bombing of North Vietnam as a gesture to get the Parish peace talks moving.

The PRAYER FOR TODAY FROM The Upper Room

"Rise and stand upon your feet; for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you to serve and bear witness to the things in which you have seen me." (Acts 26: 16, RSV)

PRAYER: Gracious God, who in every generation has work to do and calls persons to help in its accomplishment, I await Your call. Send me. Use me. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Bygone days

TEN YEARS AGO

MAGOG — Magog Kiwanians last night played host to the boys of the five Magog Little League teams, when the winning group received their championship awards.

Past president Rene Fortier outlined the formation of the Magog league, explaining the difficulties faced in outfitting the boys and the handsome benefits that their efforts have produced.

Ernest Pouliot presented the Kiwanians trophy to Coach Eugene Sanderson's champions, and each boy in the group received an individual silver cup.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

EAST ANGUS — The regular monthly meeting of the Catholic Women's League was held on Monday evening, September 21, in the church basement.

The president, Miss Marion McCormick was in the chair.

The meeting opened with the League Prayer recited in unison.

The Rosary was then recited for intentions of the sick in the parish.

Bromont mayor turns the sod for new fire station

BROMONT — (Special) — Mayor Germain Desourdy of Bromont turned the first sod for the new fire station, Tuesday afternoon.

Situated on Bromont Boulevard halfway between the railway and the Town Hall, this building will be completed by the middle of December and will contain all the fire-fighting equipment of the municipality, including the new fire engine and the fire trucks, and offices for the fire and police chief.

Further tenders may be required for additions to the building. Contractors are the Eastern Townships Company, Limited, who were the lowest tenderers, at $29,50) and work on the building will commerce immediately under the direction of Mr. Norbert Dunlavey. The engineer on the project is Mr. Gerald R. Scott of Granby.

Members of the Bromont Council present, in addition to Mayor Desourdy, were : councillors John Buck, Clive Laguillette, Roland Racicot; and Armand Labonte, fire and police chief of the municipality.

Speaking to those assembled for the ceremony, Mayor Desourdy pointed out that this was an important step in the future of the municipality, the provision of modern fire-fighting equipment and a suitable building to preserve that equipment in good shape so that it would be ready at all times in the event of an outbreak of fire.

He thanked the provincial government, which through the Department of Municipal Affairs had made available a grant for the construction of the building and for the purchase of equipment which would afford the greatest fire protection to the residents of the municipality.

He paid tribute to the volunteer fire-fighters, all of whom were present at the ceremony, and said that none of them spared their time or their efforts when their neighbors' property and lives were in danger, and the provision of this modern building would aid them in their work : Construction on the building is commencing at once.

Kiddies splash for last time as swimming classes are over

COWANSVILLE — (Special) — On Thursday afternoon a "Swim Party" was held for the closing of the summer swimming classes at "Shady Brook Farm" in West Brome.

Twenty-six children, the pupils of Mrs. W. T. Pickering of Cowansville entertained their parents and guests with demonstrations of swimming, diving, watergames and races.

One group of five little ones, the "Minnows" from four and a half to six years of age gave a demonstration of "How to get wet before entering the pool" strokes and picking up pennies placed in the pool.

These little ones can swim. There was also one little girl of two and a half years who can swim. She's Judy Webster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alar Webster.

After the swimming, delicious refreshments were served by all the mothers of the pupils. It was a lovely afternoon and enjoyed by all.

Farrell - Bridges vows exchanged

Baskets of white gladioli formed a setting at the double-ring marriage ceremony on August 24, 1968, when Diane Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bridges, Sherbrooke, Que., became the bride of Mr. Miles Michael Farrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Farrell, also of Sherbrooke. Msgr. R. Moisan officiated at the 11 a.m. service in St. Patrick's Church and Mr. John Codere played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an A-line floor length gown of white peau de soie featuring a high rounded neckline of Guipure lace with elbow length sleeves also of the same lace over peau de soie. Her train, falling from the waistline, was appliqued with Guipure lace and her full length veil was held by a headpiece of seed pearls, flowers and leaves. She carried a cascade bouquet of white miniature carnations and baby's breath and her jewelry was a single strand of pearls with matching earrings, the gift of the groom.

Mrs. David Harmer, as matron of honor, was in a floor length gown of yellow nylon sheer over taffeta, accented by a floating back panel. The high neckline featured daisy trim and she carried a Colonial bouquet of yellow and bronze pompons with matching flowers in her hair.

Mr. Dale Farrell acted as best man for his brother and the ushers were Mr. Norman Bridges, brother of the bride and Mr. Donald Kinsley.

Mrs. Bridges, mother of the bride, chose an off-white and gold light wool knit suit, a feather hat of white and gold and brown accessories. Her corsage was of yellow Sweetheart roses.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Farrell, wore a deep pink silk shantung and lace dress and coat ensemble, a hat of pink tulle, beige accessories and a corsage of pink Sweetheart roses.

A reception was held, following the ceremony, at the Flamingo Room of the New Wellington Hotel where the bride's table was centered with the wedding cake trimmed with lily - of - the - valley and topped with lighted candles.

Mrs. Richard Petit, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

Later, the couple left on a honeymoon to Niagara Falls, the bride travelling in a green wool dress with white collar and cuff trim, and black patent leather accessories. Her corsage was of pink Sweetheart roses and white miniature carnations.

Guests attended from Boucherville, St. Lambert, Lachine, Montreal, Waterloo, Ont., Quebec City, Perth, and Port Credit, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Farrell have taken up residence at 890 Jogues Street, Sherbrooke.

Children wouldn't talk, play

BRENTWOOD, B.C. (CP) — A steadily rising noise level was a measure of success for a four-week summer course for Indian children at Tsartlip school, near this community 15 miles north of Victoria.

The sound of voices was music to the ears of the three teachers and six teen-age volunteers working on the program, because the first day the children did not make a sound, one teacher said.

About 50 children participated in the program designed to accustom pre-schoolers, and some school-age children who have been doing poorly, to a classroom, to get them talking and playing.

The course was organized by Tom Sampson, administrator of the Tsartlip Indian band and Dr. Charles G. Galloway, assistant professor of education at the University of Victoria.

"The stereotype of the passive, failing Indian child isn't true," says Dr. Galloway. "When there is a chance they can succeed, they will compete like crazy. They're very aggressive."

The youngsters were encouraged to speak in sentences

Personals

ST. PETER'S GUILD

St. Peter's Guild of St. Peter's Anglican Church held an evening meeting Tuesday Sept. 24. The well attended meeting, chaired by President, Mrs. H. C. Bennett, was opened with prayer.

In the absence of treasurer, Mrs. R. Bartlett, the financial report was given by Mrs. Bennett and in the absence of secretary, Mrs. H. Howes, the minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Z. Brouillet.

Mrs. A. Allenger, was convener for the rummage sales held Thursday Sept. 26 at 7 p.m. and Friday Sept. 27 at 7 p.m.

One of the Guild's highlights of the year is the cafeteria Harvest Supper, to be held Thursday Oct. 17. It is hoped that many will plan on attending this supper. ham, turkey and pumpkin pie are just a few of the home-cooked harvest specialties. The hall will be decorated in harvest theme and it is hoped that a stall of vegetables will be for sale. Three table settings are planned at 5 p.m. 5.45 p.m. and 6.30 p.m.

An executive meeting is planned for Monday Sept. 30 at the home of Mrs. Bennett, 25 Church Street, Lennoxville.

An urgent appeal is issued to all the ladies of the parish to assist with work meetings to organize for the Christmas tea and sale to be held on Wednesday Nov. 20. These meetings are planned for each Tuesday evening at 7.30 p.m., the first such meeting to be held at the rectory. For information regarding these meetings and should transportation be needed, Mrs. P. LeGallais may be contacted at 562-5509.

The October meetings will be held Wednesday the 9th, at 2 p.m. and Wednesday evening 8 p.m. on the 23rd.

The meeting was adjourned and refreshments served by hostess Mrs. W. Taylor.

MAPLE COPSE CHAPTER, I.O.D.E.

At the September meeting of Maple Copse Chapter, I.O.D.E., the members were delighted to welcome the Provincial Treasurer, Mrs. A. E. Roodhouse, who recently joined the Chapter as an out-of-Town member. Mrs. Roodhouse had attended the National annual I.O.D.E. Meetings in Edmonton and acted as delegate for Maple Copse Chapter. She presented an interesting report on the proceedings there, after expressing her pleasure at becoming a member and being able to be present at one of the regular meetings of the Lennoxville Chapter.

The usual business preceded Mrs. Roodhouse's report. Treasurer, Mrs. Darcy Bennett, gave the financial statement for the three months since the May meeting.

Mrs. George Sutherland reported that a shipment of 45 articles, valued at $87.50 had be forwarded to the Montreal office and a box of books sent in September for Canadian Troops abroad. There was wool on hand and Mrs. Sutherland was empowered to buy a further supply during the current sale at the Wool Shop.

The choice of a candidate, entering Bishop's University from the Lennoxville High School, for the Marthe L. Stewart memorial bursary was left to the educational secretary, Mrs. A. W. Preston, as well as the prizes usually presented to the High School for citizenship.

Mrs. Bennett reported that the Optimists' Tombola had been most successful. The Chapter, through Mrs. John French, had contributed $18 for gifts for the children's fish pond.

A letter from Maplemount Children's Home giving an account of some of the recent doings there was read, and money was voted towards this valuable institution's work.

It was noted that the Provincial semi-annual meeting would take placé in Dorval on Oct. 16 and 17th, at the Airport Hilton and members planning to attend were asked to make their reservations.

A circular letter from Mrs. Donald Macrea, Provincial Convener of Commonwealth Relations was read by Miss E. F. Molony, commending the work of this valuable part of the Order's program.

Mrs. John French, convener of World Affairs, read a report presented by the Provincial convener, Mrs. J. Hackett, at the annual meeting in May, which mentioned the many interesting subjects taken up for study by primary chapters in the Province.

In her report Mrs. Roodhouse referred to the sudden death of the National War Memorial secretary which took place during the Edmonton meetings. The National Chapter made plans to inaugurate a scholarship in her memory, to be known as the Eleanor L. Brown Memorial Scholarship, and chapters will be invited to contribute.

Following the closing ceremony, tea was served by Mrs. Austin Scott.

Purdie — Rider wedding

DITCHFIELD — The marriage of Margaret Emma, daughter of Mr. Stanley E. Rider, of Lake Megantic, and the late Mrs. Rider, to Mr. John Purdie, of Montreal, took place recently at 2 p.m. in St. John's Church, Ditchfield, Canon Colin Cuttell officiating. Red carnations and baby's breath decorated the church.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a princess-styled gown of white silk organza with long fitted lace sleeves; a train of the same lace falling from the shoulders. Her shoulder-length veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a flower headpiece and she carried a spray of red roses.

Miss Elizabeth Rider, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, was in a gown of yellow chiffon with a matching headpiece. She carried a bouquet of red Sweetheart roses.

Mr. Hubert Pare acted as best man and Mr. Keith Rider was the usher.

Following the reception in the LaSalle Hotel, Mr. and Mrs. Purdie left for Montreal, the bride travelling in a two-piece camel hair suit with white accessories and a corsage of red carnations.

Out of town guests included Mr. J. Purdie, Mr. and Mrs. B. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Leroux, Mr. and Mrs. A. Purdie, Miss Lynn Simpson, Mr. David Simpson, Miss Carol Langevin, Mr. and Mrs. F. Rider, Mr. and Mrs. R. MacDonald, Mrs. R. Kerr and Mrs. E. Way, all of Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. R. Dougherty and Maureen Dougherty, Bury; Mrs. T. Lemieux and Rosemary Lemieux, Sherbrooke; and Mr. Chris Lindsay, Quebec City.

Denim, like "Dolly," is still glowin', still growin' and still goin' strong—dressed up in new plaids, stripes and checks as well as many new bright colors and the old familiar blue.

Give those windows a fall treat

Is there a new window treatment in your fall decarating plan? Lucky you, the drapery section of your department store is jam-packed with exciting new ideas, wonderful fabrics, and loads of handsome hardware to make doing-it-yourself extra easy.

It's even possible to accomplish optical illusions through window decorations.

The wooden drapery rod with its pineapple end pieces is set to extend beyond the side frames of the window, thus enlarging its apparent size. Lined draperies of crisp Celanese acetate in a no-nonsense Paisley design are hung from dramatic wooden rings, and make a striking frame for the bright yellow Tontine cloth shade. Bands of black trim repeat the horizontal line. Black-and-white checked upholstery fabric contrasts with a yellow shag carpet.

There's no mystery about making lined draperies, and it's well worth the small amount of extra effort because the lining will make the draperies look better, hang more smoothly and last longer. A smooth cotton satin is the fabric most often selected for lining material.

To measure for curtain yardage, figure double the window width plus side hem allowances. When in doubt about a width measurement, make draperies fuller, not skimpier.

Install curtain rod first.. Measure from lower adge of rod to point one scant inch from floor. Add 7 inches for top and bottom hem allowances.

Cut lining 3½ inches shorter, 6 inches narrower than curtain fabric.

Sew small weights to wrong side of curtain fabric, 2 inches in from each side and 6 inches up from bottom. Weights may also be placed at seam joinings if you have any. Turn, press and stitch 3-inch double hem in drapery and 2-inch double hem in lining.

Place lining and drapery together, right sides facing, with lining hem 1½ inches above drapery hem. Clip selvages. Baste and stitch side seams, with ½-inch seam allowance. Keep heavier fabric underneath, stitching lining to drapery fabric to discourage shifting. Turn right side out. Press so 1½ inches of drapery fabric show on either side of lining.

Miter and hand-stitch lower corners. Fasten lining and drapery hems together with 3-inch chain of thread at panel centers.

To attach pleater tape, turn under top hem ¾-inch. Stitch pleater tape ¼-inch from top, along guide lines marked on tape. Make sure end pockets for end hooks are equidistant from drapery sides.

Insert an end hook in each end pocket. Skip space and insert 4-prong drapery hook in next four pockets. Skip space, insert another hook and continue in this manner ending with an end hook. Hooks may be removed when curtain is laundered.

Drew says sever all trade with Russia

LONDON, Ont. (CP) — George Drew, former Ontario premier and a former Canadian High Commissioner to Britain, said Saturday night Canada should immediately sever all diplomatic, cultural and trade relations with Russia.

In a speech protesting Russia's invasion of Czechoslovakia, and labelling the Soviet leaders "murderous thugs," Mr. Drew proposed:

—An immediate halt of all visits by singers, dancers and other cultural groups by Russians to Canada and Canadians to Russia;

—Immediate cancellation of Canadian entries in the 1968 Olympic Games at Mexico if the Russians attend;

—A complete and immediate halt of all direct air flights and ocean shipping between the two countries.

"The great lesson we all learned during two world wars was that appeasement is the way to war," Mr. Drew told about 90 First World War veterans attending the 50th annual reunion of the 29th Battery Association here.

"When murderous thugs like Bresznev, Kosygin and their associates in the Kremlin invade another country, just as Hitler invaded Austria and then Czechoslovakia before the last war, and nothing is done, the dictator accepts that as an invitation to still further aggression."

Von Thadden happy with his party

HANNOVER (CP) — Adolf Von Thadden said today he is "quite satisfied" with the performance of his far-right National Democratic Party in Lower Saxony local governments elections Sunday.

He said he expected his party to poll a 5.3-per-cent share of the vote.

The party received 124,953 votes, or 5.1 per cent of the poll with returns in from 53 of the 75 rural districts and municipalities in Lower Saxony.

The Social Democrats lost ground to the Christian Democrats, reflecting the party's declining fortunes since it joined the grand coalition of Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger in 1966.

With 22 results for the main electoral districts still to come, the Social Democrats had 41.6 per cent of the poll—a loss of 1.8—and the Christian Democrats had 40.1 per cent—a gain of 1.8 per cent.

It was the National Democrats' first try at the regional

QUEBEC SCENE:

Young couple are found dead

MONTREAL (CP) — A young couple was found dead Saturday, their bodies wrapped in blood-stained blankets and stuffed in the trunk of their late-model car.

Police identified the two as Andre Corbeil, 24, and his 22-year-old wife Claudette, both of Montreal. The cause of death was not yet known.

A police spokesman said the bodies were found after a resident of a north-end street complained that the entrance to his driveway had been blocked since Thursday by a Cadillac whose keys were still in the ignition.

Detectives had found a French - language newspaper, opened at a page containing a offices. Its votes seemed to come from those that usually go to the Free Democratic party.

Financial report

from Greenshields Ltd.

Stock indices as at the week's closing. Industrials, Montreal off 0.34, Toronto up 2.66, New York up 0.56, closing at 933.89. Active issues were Bank of Montreal, 14⅜, Domtar 12, Dofasco 20⅛, Zellers 16¼, Union Gas 17, Home Oil "A" 27¼.

Imperial Tobacco—Net earnings for 1968 will be "down a little" from last year, but "I doubt the decline will be as much as five cents a common share," President John M. Keith said. For 1967 the company had earnings of $12,741,000 or $1.28 a share on sales of $393,315,030. Mr. Keith said sales would likely be "a little above last year," mainly because of an increase in volume of tobacco products other than cigarettes — particularly cigars and fine cut tobacco for smokers who make their own cigarettes. He said the company's cigarette sales were expected to be down around 2½ to 3 per cent compared with an anticipated decline for the Canadian industry of about 4 per cent. On the outlook for 1969, Mr. Keith said sales should be higher than this year and earnings should show some improvement despite higher costs.

Chemcell Ltd said it will discontinue production of upholstery fabrics and will close down its St. Jean, Quebec upholstery plant by the end of this year. F. J. Fitzgerald, president of Chemcell's Celanese Co. division, said "our upholstery operations have failed to meet our standards of profitability." He added that "sufficient capacity exists elsewhere to supply the markets we have been serving."

THE WELL CHILD ®

IQ Tests Should Show Inherent Capabilities

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Should my child have his intelligence quotient (IQ) tested? If done, were the results what I had expected? Am I glad it was done? These are some of the questions many parents are asking themselves. First designed in France by Alfred Binet, the test has been widely used since 1920 and has been subjected to many modifications. The test purports to show the age level a child's mental processes have achieved (mental age). When this is divided by his actual age and multiplied by 100 you have the IQ.

The test is supposed to show not what a child has learned, but what his inherent capabilities are. Many authorities now believe that it does not do this and that no test can accomplish this purpose. It has been shown, for example, that some children who are given the test every year at the start of school have become "test wise" and make scores that indicate a higher IQ than they actually possess.

On the other hand, a normally intelligent child may make a poor showing on the test because the test bores him, because the person giving the test has failed to gain his confidence or because he was feeling generally out of sorts when the test was given. Often when the test is repeated on such a child after three to six months, the IQ will show a significant increase although there has been no change in the child's basic learning ability.

One good result of these tests has been to show that some pupils who appear to have a severe learning problem have a very high IQ and are simply too bored by school work that offers no challenge to want to put out their best effort. For this reason, it is a great mistake to use these tests to predict a child's potential.

Modern psychologists now believe that intelligence has many facets not necessarily related to one another. These include verbal, numerical, spatial and perceptual ability, memory and inductive reasoning. Each requires its own specific test. The important thing to determine is not so much how good your Frankie is as compared to Joey next door but what special aptitude your Frankie has.

Compton County Historical Museum Society holds annual cavalcade

COOKSHIRE — A very enjoyable afternoon was spent at the annual cavalcade of the Compton County Historical Museum Society on Sept. 21.

The executive had planned the itinerary at their last meeting. Friends and members of the society met at the Museum in Eaton at 1 p.m., and the cavalcade was on its way about 1.15 p.m. Ten car loads took part in the tour, and the weather was ideal for such an outing.

The first place visited was the East Clifton United Church, and the weather being clear, St. Isidore and the New Hampshire Hills could be seen in the distance. Lionel Hurd, the immediate past president of the society, Desmond McKeon, vice-president of the E. T. Historical Society, and Waymer Laberee gave some interesting data on the history of the building of the road and of the survey made of this fertile land about 1792.

The next place visited was Lindsay Pond, part of the old stage coach road, still in existence here. The cavalcade continued through St. Venant (Paquetteville), East Hereford, and two cemeteries were visited, Hall Stream Cemetery and the old Hall Stream Cemetery. It was interesting to note the inscriptions on some of the old tomb stones, one was dated 1836, Luther Hibbard, who died in Lower Canada.

All reported at the Customs House at Beecher Falls, Vt., The next cemetery approached was Indian Stream Cemetery. These cemeteries have all been recently renovated, and are now a pride to the living, and show respect to the dead. A large glass jar contained a book in which the visitors were asked to sign their names, which they did.

In 1832 the settlers of the area between Indian Stream and Hall's Stream both claimed the land for Canada and the United States. In 1842, The Republic of Indian Stream was set up. Some interesting plaques have been erected here, which give important data concerning this territory.

Pittsburgh was visited, and also the three Connecticut Lakes. The water was unusually low for this time of year, but there were a number of people leisurely fishing; some of the young fry took off their shoes and stockings, and enjoyed paddling in the warm water, some enjoyed a picnic lunch.

The group returned home by way of La Patrie and Scotstown. All enjoyed the beautiful coloring of the trees and the wonderful scenery, which included some modern dams and an old covered bridge.

It was the second cavalcade held by the society, and all are looking forward to the event next year.

Dedication of Sunday School staff held at annual Rally Day service

ROCK ISLAND — The annual Rally Day service was held at Stanstead South Church on Sept. 22 with the Sunday School, serving Stanstead South and Centenary Churches, in attendance.

A large number of parents and friends enjoyed the service, led by Mrs. Merton Davis Sunday School superintendent, assisted by Janet Barber, Linda Huitson and Ronald Nourse.

An impressive dedication of the Sunday School staff ended with the request that the congregation stand during a prayer that they give loyal support to this work of the church.

Teachers for the ensuing year are: Mrs. Davis, superintendent; Linda Huitson, Janet Barber, Evelyn Gaudine, Barbara Hovey, Janice Wilson, kindergarten superintendent; Nancy Nourse, Susan Cooper, Janice Beadle, Linda Searles, Mary Lou Huckins, Mrs. Lloyd Selby, Mrs. Roy Davis, primary superintendent; Sue Darby, Linda Hovey, Kendall Clowery, Mrs. Wesley Rumery, Allan Nourse, Mrs. Harold Bowen, Ronald Nourse and Jerry Davis superintendent's helper.

In her comments Mrs. Davis said how encouraging it is to have teachers willing to give of their time, as well as the large number of eager children. To date 129 are registered in the school. "To get through to a child one must first create an interest," she said, and she assured the children that their Sunday School would be an interesting and enjoyable part of their lives.

Rev. G. Joycey, pastor, addressing the children, and congregation, likened their life to three points when taking a voyage on an ocean liner. Stability, their steadfastness to stand firm; lost, one is never lost completely as we are ever in the hand of God like the song, 'He's Got the Whole World in His Hands; Seasick, not to measure how much one does but to give of our best.

Much to the delight of the youngsters, there was a baptism of Lisa Lynn, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Smith, with Rev. Mr. Joycey officiating.

The ushers for the service were James Racine, Lance Bowen, Ronald Smith, Jerry Davis and Allan Nourse.

Mrs. Davis and Mr. Joycey made the following presentations: Attendance awards, first year pin: Janet Barrup, Rance Peck, Winston and Chaitanya James, Todd Miller, Cayle Yetter, Kevin McGivern, Grace Chamberlain, Diane Falconer, Kevin, Kim and Steven Philip, Lena Wallace, Mary Jane Jacobs, Brian Curtis, Timothy and Scott Flood.

Two year wreath: Karen and John Klinefelter, Scottie Peck, Heidi Walsh, Amy Aldrich, Alton Deslandes, Drew McDonald, Philip Joycey, Bruce and Laurie Wilson, Alice Gaudine, Nancy and Judy Gilmartin.

Three year wreath: Pamela Jenne, Laurie Yetter, Ruth Aldrich, Laurie Hovey, Debbie, Sherri, Sharron and Bryan Davis.

Four year wreaths: Robbie Aldrich, Tommy Greer, Jana and Dana Armstrong, Heather Simpson, Susan and Kathy Hovey, Karen Jenne, Dorothy Nourse, Jimmy Curtis, Steven Jenne, David Dubois, Terry Cooper and Marty Walsh.

Five year wreath: Betty Armstrong, Alison Greer, David Tilton, Mark Rumery, Bonnie Smith, David Gaudine.

Six year bar: Beverly Hovey.

Seven year bar: Judy Tilton, George Rumery and Barbara Hovey.

Eight year bar: Nancy Nourse, Janice Beadle, Peter and Charles Greer and Stephen Davis.

Nine year bar: Diane Rogers.

South Bolton

Miss Debbie Magoon was entertained by members of her family, and friends on her 15th birthday at her home, Green Acres. Among those attending were Mrs. Richard Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Cote and daughters, Caroline and Mary, Miss Linda Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Layton Needham and son, Kevan, Knowlton. The room was decorated with white and blue streamers and Mrs. Richard Davis presented her with a lovely birthday cake. She also received many lovely gifts. Later games were played.

Miss Caroline Cote was an overnight guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cote, Vale Perkins.

Mrs. Blanche Schoolcraft visited her son, Mr. Ormond Schoolcraft and Mrs. Mary Magoon, Vale Perkins and later spent the day at the home of her nephew, Mr. John Manuel, West Brome.

Miss Pauline Patry, relative and housekeeper to Father Gilbert, Roman Catholic parish priest, was invited to a family gathering of her brother-in-law's family at Haven Isles. About 50 people attended, coming from as far as Granby, Sherbrooke, Quebec City, Victoriaville and New Hampshire. Father Gilbert joined them for part of the evening. Miss Patry's sister is Mrs. Philip Saucier, Sherbrooke.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Andrews and family, Ville LaSalle, were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Heckley. The Heckleys also made a trip to Foster, where they visited Mrs. Alvatine Lace and Mr. and Mrs. John Lace.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Burbank, Barbara, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Ronaldson motored to Stowe, Vt., where they visited the well-known Trapp Family at their lodge, returning home via Smuggler's Notch. Recent visitors of the Burbanks were Mrs. Charles Brown and children, Brome and Mr. Howard Burbank, Bolton Center.

Mrs. Iva Wightman has just returned from a week's visit to her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Boomhour, Winchester, N.H.

THE WORLD OF SPORTS

Oakland Seals undefeated in NHL exhibition play

Guess what team is undefeated in National Hockey League exhibition play—Oakland Seals, doormats of the Western Division last season and everybody's also-ran this year.

The Seals tied 3-3 with Detroit Red Wings Sunday in an exhibition game at Port Huron, Mich., to preserve their record. They now have won five games and tied two compared with Detroit's mark of four wins and two losses and a tie.

In other Sunday play, St. Louis Blues and Boston Bruins battled to a 1-1 tie in Ottawa, Toronto Maple Leafs thumped New York Rangers 5-1 and Buffalo Bisons of the American Hockey League downed Pittsburgh Penguins 5-1 in Buffalo.

Saturday, Detroit downed Montreal Canadiens 4-2, St. Louis defeated Los Angeles Kings 4-1, Toronto edged New York 3-2, Chicago Black Hawks nipped Minnesota North Stars 4-3 and Philadelphia Flyers tied 2-2 with Quebec Aces of the AHL.

Gary Jarrett scored two goals to lead the Seals to their tie and Carol Vadnais got the other. Kent Douglas, Frank Mahovlich and Dean Prentice shared the Red Wing scoring.

KNOTS THE SCORE

Ed Westfall gave the Bruins a 1-0 lead in Ottawa, but Tim Ecclestone came back to tie it up at 11:53 of the third period.

Ron Ellis was the hero Sunday for the Leafs, scoring two goals in a fight-filled game. Referees stopped three altercations before the game ended in a brief free-for-all that emptied both benches.

Paul Henderson, Brian Hextall and Wayne Carleton got the other Toronto goals and Rod Gilbert replied for New York.

Meanwhile in Buffalo, Wayne Rivers and Gerry Roulette each scored twice for the Bisons as the AHL club handed the Penguins their fourth consecutive loss. Leo Boivin scored Pittsburgh's only goal.

Saturday, Mahovlich scored two goals in the Red Wings' victory over Montreal. Eddie Hatoum and Danny Lawson got the other Detroit markers while Jean Beliveau and Dick Duff scored for the Stanley Cup champions.

SCORE IN SUDBURY

Larry Keenan, Gary Sabourin, Tim Ecclestone and Jim Roberts scored for the Blues before 5,000 Sudbury fans Saturday while Brian Campbell answered for the Kings.

Ellis started a four-goal weekend for Toronto by scoring two Saturday night, including the winner. Wayne Carleton got the other Leaf goal while veteran defenceman Harry Howell and Phil Goyette scored for the Rangers.

Stan Mikita scored two goals for the Black Hawks and Doug Mohns and Eric Nesterenko got the others as Chicago rallied for three goals in the last eight minutes of the second period.

Claude Larose brought the North Stars to within 4-3 with a third period goal before 8,972 fans.

The Aces' tie Sunday capped an undefeated weekend for the AHL team. They downed their parent club Philadelphia 2-1 Sunday in Sydney, N.S.

Cards romp over Astros 11-1, awaiting Tigers

Richie Allen and St. Louis Cardinals are ready for the next stop. Only the Cardinals are sure where it will be.

St. Louis prepared for its World Series date with Detroit Tigers with an 11-1 romp over Houston Astros Sunday that helped erase memories of a mediocre September for the National League champions.

Allen, reportedly unhappy and anxious to be traded, walloped three home runs including a grand slam and drove in seven runs in Philadelphia Phillies' 10-3 rout of New York Mets.

In other final-day games, Atlanta Braves nipped Los Angeles Dodgers 2-1, Chicago Cubs shaded Pittsburgh Pirates 5-4 and Cincinnati Reds shut out San Francisco Giants 3-0.

In Saturday's action, Houston edged St. Louis 3-2, San Francisco trampled Cincinnati 10-4, Chicago squeaked by Pittsburgh 4-3, New York defeated Philadelphia 3-1 and Los Angeles downed Atlanta 4-2.

The Cardinals packed nine runs into the second inning Sunday—three of them scoring in a single by Orlando Cepeda.

ASTROS FINISH LAST

Cepeda, Tim McCarver and Mike Shannon each had two hits in the rally. The defeat spelled a 10th place finish for the Astros—the first time they've ended in the basement.

The Cards' explosion of runs matched their season's high and ended a lengthy slump. In fact, since clinching the pennant on Sept. 15, St. Louis had not managed more than five runs in any game.

The Cards concluded the month of September with an 11-13 record.

Allen, who struck out a record 160 times and finished the season with a .263 average, murdered the Mets with his barrage of homers.

His first tied the score in the sixth. Then, after Clay Dalrymple hit a two run shot in the seventh, Allen connected in the eighth and again, with the bases loaded, in the ninth. The three shots gave him 33 homers and 90 runs batted in for the year.

"A change of scenery would do me good," he said.

The Pirates made six errors and it cost them a share of fifth place as the Cubs pushed across a run in the ninth inning to beat them.

ERROR ALLOWS RUN

Chicago managed for three hits—one of them Ron Santo's two-run homer. Bob Moose's throwing error in the ninth allowed Jim Hickman to score the winning run.

Matty Alou went 4-for-4 and finished the season with a .332 batting average, three points lower than Cincinnati's Pete Rose. It marked the first time since 1963 that a Pirate has failed to win the batting crown.

Rose was 1-for-3 and finished at .335 as Jim Maloney's two-hitter gave Cincinnati its victory over San Francisco.

It was the third straight shutout for Maloney, 17-10. He allowed only a sixth-inning single by Bobby Bonds and Dave Marshall's single in the seventh.

Hank Aaron tied a major league record with his 29th home run as the Braves beat the Dodgers and grabbed fifth place.

Cleveland Barons outscore Beavers 6-5, Lavasseur standout in nets

Cleveland Barons scored two goals within three minutes of the third period last night to lead the AHL pucksters to a 6-5 win over the Sherbrooke Beavers at the Sports Palace. A crowd of close to 2,000 (1,971) watched the Beavers go down to their second defeat in as many exhibition outings.

Sherbrooke officially opens its 1968 - 69 campaign Oct. 13. Against Provincial Senior calibre play Cleveland was beaten 4-0 by Chicoutimi Friday night, tied St. Hyacinthe Saturday, 4-4, and improved their record by edging the Beavers last night.

Cleveland netminder Gaye Cooley and Sherbrooke's Jean-Louis Lavasseur were the stars of the first period stopping 7 and 14 shots and not allowing a goal. Lavasseur played exceptionally well. It was not until the 13-minute mark of the second period that the Barons were able to beat the youthful goalie.

This was Lavasseur's first game in the nets for Sherbrooke and the young lefthander from Rouyn showed very well.

The Beavers' defense stood up well last night in front of the better conditioned Cleveland attackers. Albert "Junior" Langlois showed the poise and ability of a seasoned NHL veteran while speedy Luc Tessier continued to demonstrate why many local hockey enthusiasts think he's the finest prospect this year.

Sherbrooke opened the scoring at 12:48 of the second period, Lafond from Pepin only 19 seconds later Cleveland evened count when the Beavers' defense got caught napping deep within their zone.

Cleveland's Ron Roberts and Sherbrooke's Gaston Bouchard both tallied minutes later. At the 19:23 mark John Mikol scored to end the second period with Cleveland ahead 3-2.

Each team scored three times in the third period. Gaye Cooley held the fort in the third, stopping point blank drives from Pepin, Sara-Bournet, Bouchard and Beckman. Sherbrooke, must be remembered, were without the services of Bill Dupre and season veterans Lee Hardy and Bob Eastman.

Rene Pepin and Jean-Pierre Lafond picked up a pair of assists while Gaston Bouchard led the scoring parade with two goals. Other goal-scorers were Jean - Pierre Lafond, Lionel Robidas and Luc Tessier.

Offensively for Cleveland, Mikol Scored twice. Other point-getters were Maurice St. Jacques, Ron Roberts, John Vadenburg and Bob Berry.

Monette took over from Lavasseur in the Sherbrooke net in the third period. He allowed three goals and stopped eight drives. Lavasseur in two periods allowed three goals and put aside 23 shots.

The Beavers take to the ice again Thursday evening when they meet the visiting Houston Apollos. Game time 8:30 p.m.

Giants walloped Redskins 48-21, Homer Jones stars

The Jones boy has New York buzzing again and a couple of Smiths are hitting it big for Baltimore. But Green Bay has had its fill of just-plain Bills.

Homer Jones snared five Fran Tarkenton passes for 179 yards and two touchdowns Sunday as New York Giants drubbed Washington Redskins 48-21 for their third consecutive National Football League victory.

The Smiths—Bubba and Billy Ray of Baltimore's defensive line—set up three interceptions that were run back for touchdowns as the unbeaten Colts demolished Pittsburgh Steelers 41-7.

At Green Bay, Bill Munson's second scoring strike to Billy Gambrell, a 12-yard flip with 1:55 to play, gave Detroit Lions a 23-17 nod over the Packers, who have lost two in a row for a 1-2 mark—their worst start since 1958.

Elsewhere, Dallas Cowboys crushed Philadelphia Eagles 45-13 for a 3-0 mark; Los Angeles Rams cuffed Cleveland Browns 24-6 for their third straight triumph; Chicago Bears ended a two-game tailspin by trimming Minnesota Vikings 27-17; St. Louis Cardinals nipped New Orleans Saints 21-20 with a late rally and San Francisco 49ers beat Atlanta Falcons 28-13.

Jones, who grabbed 49 passes for 1,209 yars and a league-leading 13 touchdowns last year, went into Sunday's game with three receptions and no scores. But he clicked with Tarkenton on an 82-yard bomb in the second period and a 56-yarder in the third.

Baltimore's Bobby Boyd, Charlies Stukes and Roy Hilton returned pass thefts for touchdowns, tying the single game NFL record.

BUG THE QUARTERBACKS

Bubba Smith tossed Steeler quarterbacks Kent Nix and Dick Shiner for three losses and deflected a Shiner pass that Hilton picked off for a 13-yard touchdown return. Billy Ray Smith got to the harassed Pittsburgh passers twice and hurried Nix into an interception returned 60 yards by Stukes for a score.

Green Bay grabbed a 10-0 lead over the Lions and was on the way to another touchdown in the second period. But defensive back Lem Barney led a Detroit goal line stand that blunted the drive, then intercepted a Bart Starr pass to trigger a 47-yard Lion march capped by Munson's six-yard scoring pass to Gambrell. The Packers never recovered.

Don Meredith threw five touchdown passes, leading the Cowboys' stampede at Philadelphia. Dallas defenders intercepted five passes, grabbed two fumbles and capitalized on a short punt.

The Rams completely blunted Clevelands attack except for a 53-yard touchdown pass from Frank Ryan and Paul Warfield. The Browns did not run a play from scrimmage on the Los Angeles side of the 50-yard line.

Ralph Kurek belted 23 yards for Chicago's clinching touchdown in the final period, killing off a desperate comeback by the Vikings. The Bears, however, lost two quarterbacks. Jack Concannon broke his left collar-bone and Rudy Bukich suffered a possible shoulder separation.

Chuck Latourrette's 86-yard scoring jaunt with a New Orleans punt launched a 21-point fourth quarter spree that carried the Cardinals past the Saints.

John Brodie hit on 17 of 20 pass attempts for 196 yards and three touchdowns—to Clifton McNeil, Gary Lewish and John David Crow—as the 49ers swept past the winless Falcons.

Namath tosses 4 TD passes, loses 38-35 to Buffalo

Most professional quarterbacks when they've passed for four touchdowns and 280 yards, figure they've had a pretty good day. But don't talk to Joe Namath about it.

The New York signal-caller also had five intercepted, with three of them run back 198 yards for touchdowns in the Jets' 37-35 upset defeat by Buffalo Bills Sunday.

It was New York's first loss, dropping the Jets into a share of first place in the American Football League's Eastern Division with Boston Patriots, and the first victory in four starts for Buffalo.

In other AFL games Sunday, San Diego Chargers and Oakland Raiders remained tied at the top of the Western Division with 3-0 marks, San Diego beating Cincinnati Bengals 31-10 and Oakland taking Houston Oilers 24-15, while Boston edged Denver Broncos 20-17. Kansas City Chiefs trampled Miami Dolphins 48-3 Saturday night.

Tom Janik made the longest run with the steal of a Namath pass, 100 yards in the second period. But Joe came back for a 55-yard touchdown toss to George Sauer to give the Jets a 21-20 halftime margin.

STRETCH BILLS' LEAD

But Bruce Alford kicked a field goal shortly after the half for a 23-21 Buffalo lead, and the Bills put it out of reach with Butch Byrd returning an interception 53 yards.

NHL supports CAHA in player dispute, Nationals get two

MONTREAL (CP) — Some players in Western Canada are being given another chance to decide which hockey association they will play for and two Ontario players have been given the green light to remain with Canada's eastern national squad.

These were the two major decisions announced Sunday following a two-day meeting of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association's executive committee.

Executive director Gordon Juckes said any player who competed with a CAHA team last year and who left to play outside the association's jurisdiction may return by Nov. 30.

Where a boy has already signed a current CAHA card and leaves to play with a non-CAHA club, he will not be eligible to return until he has applied to the CAHA executive and his application has been approved.

The decision was taken to deal with the situation which arose after some junior franchise operators in Western Canada and Ontario broke away from the CAHA last May and set up the Canadian Hockey Association.

"There's no suspension or any action," Juckes said after the meeting. "We're just giving the players a chance to come back to the CAHA if they feel they made a mistake by leaving. We believe these boys should have a chance to continue in CAHA hockey if they wish."

NHL SUPPORTS CAHA

The National Hockey League has thrown its support behind the CAHA by saying that players performing under the auspices of the CHA could find their arrival in professional hockey delayed or complicated.

Juckes also said CAHA registered referees and linesmen will not be allowed to play their trade for the CAHA if they officiate in games involving CHA teams.

Defenceman Ab DeMarco of Kitchener Rangers and Terry Caffrey of Toronto Marlboros, were given the go-ahead to play for Canada's eastern national team, starting this season.

The eastern team picked up the two players without obtaining official released from their Ontario Hockey Association Junior A clubs, but the players lodged appeals with the CAHA requesting they be released. The appeals were approved.

Junior A teams in Canada will share $360,000 this coming season under the CAHA's development program. Also approved was $60,000 for junior teams below the A level, $50,000 for minor hockey and $77,000 for general hockey development, which includes referees and linesmen.

A minor amendment to the CAHA-NHL agreement, which the NHL has agreed to, was ratified.

CLARIFIES AGE LIMIT

The amendment clarifies part of the agreement which stipulates that no amateur player can be put on any professional list or taken to any pro training camp until he has completed his junior eligibility.

Juckes said that under the previous wording of that section, a player became eligible to be put on a pro team's negotiation list after his 20th birthday. But in some cases the player's 20th birthday came during the hockey season. Now the player has to complete the season.

Also ratified was an agreement between the CAHA and the United States Amateur Hockey Association regulating transfers between Canada and the U.S.

In future, any player who goes to the U.S. can return to Canada after completing his season and the U.S. team will be unable to stop him. The old agreement said the player wanting to return to Canada had to have a release before doing so.

Plans were also announced for tours by the Japanese and Swedish national teams.

PLAN 17 GAMES

The Japanese team will tour Canada between Dec. 31 this year and Jan. 30, 1969, playing a total of 17 games across the country.

They open with a game in Grand Falls, Nfld., and continue on to play in Halifax, New Brunswick, Kingston, Ont., two games at Thunder Bay, Ont., two each in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta and four in British Columbia. The Japanese team will also meet Canada's eastern national team in Ottawa for one game.

The Swedish team will arrive in Canada Dec. 22 this year and leave Jan. 6, 1969 after playing "seven or eight" exhibition games. Stops are planned for Halifax, Ottawa, Thunder Bay, Winnipeg and Saskatchewan.

Yastrzemski wins 1968 Al batting crown, record low .301 average

Boston star Carl Yastrzemski left the park with the dubious distinction of winning a major league batting title with a record low average. Oakland manager Bob Kennedy left the park without a job.

Both developments occurred Sunday as the American League closed its regular season.

Yastrzemski went 0-for-5 in the Red Sox' 4-3 loss to New York Yankees and unofficially won his third batting championship with a .301 average. The previous low was .306 by Elmer Flick of Cleveland Indians in 1905.

Just before he was fired Kennedy, who guided the Athletics to an 82-80 record, their best since 1955, watched his team drop out of a fifth-place tie with the Yankees by losing 4-3 to Minnesota Twins.

Owner Charles Finley named Hank Bauer, fired earlier in the season by Baltimore Orioles, to replace Kennedy.

In other games Sunday, washington Senators edged pennant-winning Detroit Tigers 3-2 and Chicago White Sox nipped California Angels 7-6. Baltimore and Cleveland ended the season last Friday.

In Saturday action, Washington defeated Detroit 2-1, New York edged Boston 4-3, Chicago was blanked 1-0 by California and Oakland swamped Minnesota 7-1.

DROPPED INTO FOURTH

Boston could have used some hitting from Yastrzemski, who entered Sunday's game at .303 with a chance to climb to or above .306. The loss dropped the Red Sox into fourth place behind Cleveland.

New York gained its victory and first first-division finish since they won the pennant in 1964 with a three-run eighth-inning rally sparked by Bill Robinson's two-run double.

Washington tied Detroit on Frank Coggins' two-out, two-run single in the fourth and then won it in the ninth when Gary Holman scored from third as second baseman Dick McAuliffe bobbled pinch hitter Ed Stroud's grounder.

Oakland lost its chance to finish in a fifth-place tie when Minnesota's Rich Rollins, with two strikes against him and two men out, drove in the winning run with a bunt single in the eighth inning.

The run was the third of the inning for the Twins, who also scored in the third on Frank Quilici's first major league homer. Reggie Jackson hit a two-run homer for Oakland.

A three-run burst in the ninth inning gave Chicago a 7-5 lead over California and enabled the White Sox to finish in an eighth-place tie with the Angels. The ninth-inning runs came on pinch-hitter Leon Wagner's single, Gerry McNertney's pinch double and Bill Melton's sacrifice fly.

Rookie Tom Egan of California hit his first major league homer.

Als drop close tilt to Riders, Ticats and Argos post victories

MONTREAL (CP) — There is bad news today for three teams in the Eastern Football Conference—Frank Clair, Ottawa Rough Riders' conservative coach, says his team is getting better.

Clair made the comment as he toured the Ottawa dressing room Saturday night after his Riders had beaten Montreal Alouettes 30-20 for their first victory in four starts.

"We're getting better," Clair said. "The defence played well. They gave away a few things out there tonight, but generally they played pretty well."

Defensive halfback Don Sutherin intercepted two passes to set up one Ottawa touchdown and a field goal, while linebacker Jerry Campbell recovered a Montreal fumble on the Als' three-yard line and went over for another six points.

The victory enabled the Riders to keep pace in the tight EFC race. They now have 11 points on a 5-3-1 record, one less than Toronto Argonauts and three more than Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

Hamilton demolished the Eskimos of the Western Football Conference 31-7 in Edmonton Saturday night, while the Argos beat the Blue Bombers 15-9 in Winnipeg Sunday.

The loss left the Als alone in the EFC cellar with six points on a 3-5 record, although Toronto and Ottawa now have played nine games of their 14-game schedule to eight for Hamilton and Montreal.

ADKINS ADDS TWO

In addition to Campbell's first-quarter major, end Margene Adkins caught Russ Jackson passes of six and 26 yards for second- and fourth-quarter touchdowns for the Riders. Jackson ran eight yards for another six points early in the fourth, while Sutherin supplied a 12-yard field goal in the opening 15 minutes and three converts to round out the Riders' total.

Montreal got a first-quarter touchdown from halfback Dennis Duncan on a 14-yard pass from quarterback Carroll Williams and flanker Mike Gray caught a 29-yarder from Williams in the second quarter.

Halfback Andy Walton made up for his fumble that resulted in Campbell's first-quarter score as he took a short eight-yard pass from Williams into the Ottawa end zone late in the game when many of the 15,000 fans had left the stadium.

Dave Ray converted two of the three Montreal majors.

Jackson, who completed 14 of 26 passes for 198 yards and had the same yardage along the ground, said his shoulder was not a problem Saturday night. His shoulder had been bothering him for a month.

The Riders had 19 first downs to 14 for the losers. Ottawa's total offence was 366 yards as compared to 289 for Montreal. Of the Montreal total, 246 yards came through the air with a meagre 62 resulting from an almost nonexistent rushing attack.

Williams completed 17 of the 28 passes threw and in turn was thrown for a loss of 19 yards attempting to pass. Jackson was caught for 30 yards by the Als.

Rookie halfback Vic Washington, although he did not score, was the big gun for the Riders. He gained 75 yards on five catches and another 111 yards on 14 carries.

Bergeron's Duke Crain wins main dash Sunday, judges crack down

Duke Crain, owned by Richard Bergeron of Sherbrooke and driven by Gilles Jutras, emerged the winner in the main event Sunday afternoon at the Sherbrooke Race Track. He was clocked in 2:10 for the dash.

Claude Grenier with Beatle Mir finished second after leading for the better part of the mile. The field went to the quarter in 32⅘ seconds and the half in 1:05 3/5 and finished in 1:04⅘.

Robert Jutras with Jimmy Fund made a bid on the back stretch but failed to gain any ground on the front runners. Beatle Mir set the early pace until Duke Crain broke out from the field to move to the fore. Jutras got his entry out in front before the three-quarter and held on until the wire although Grenier tried to catch him but Beatle Mir lacked the extra push.

The Sunday card got off to a good start in the first when Mosher's Johnny Harbor led the field in 2:12 4/5. He teamed up with Mighty Counsel to form the first quinella and $26.50 was collected.

In the second another close battle was witnessed as Sam Fabi teamed Shawnee Wann home the winner in 2:10⅗. Gordon Adamson with Gordon Ibaf was second. In the fourth it was Charlie Connors' Justa Mike who took over after the start and held on to finish a strong first. Lucille Couture's Bernard Ibaf was second and $25.40 was shelled out.

In the seventh $17.90 was paid for the winning combination of Sep Will and James St. Cyr's Adio Sierra. The field was clocked in 2:13⅕. Following this the rain hit the track which became heavy.

In the exacta Taylor's Miss Thunderclap was the winner while Andre Rouleau with Pandora C second and $368.60 was picked up at the paying windows. Albertine Chips was set back from third to seventh for causing interference to Demon Day and Walter S.

Henri Lepage was fined for going a slow half causing confusion to the rest of the field in the eighth. He went 1:09⅖ to the half which was too slow for that class of horses and the judges fined him.

On Saturday evening the exacta of Janet Princelike and Borderview Pride paid their backers the sum of $188.20 which was tops for the evening. Clement Chabot's Farmview Mir, driven by the owner, finished second but was set back to fourth for causing interference to Scotch Red, driven by Florent St. Denis.

The infraction was committed on the back stretch. Farmview weaved out from the pole to interfere with Scotch Red and at the same time Cassie D went through on the inside. This caused two infractions and the judges set Chabot's Farmview Mir back to fourth moving Mosher's Borderview Pride into second.

The condtion of the track was muddy following the rain during the day. The back stretch and first turn were the worst making the going very heavy and this accounted for the high times clocked.

The best time of the evening was in the opening dash before the track got chopped up. Stanley Jacob teamed Bruce Hopperton's Happy Guy home the winner in 2:15 3/5 and with Monfette's The Great Chief formed the first quinella and $27.30 was collected.

In the fourth Flemington Worthy, making his first start here, walked off with the honors and with Mosher's Ruth Dear paid their backers $12.70. Clement Chabot teamed Shozo home the winner in the seventh and with Judy Meadow formed the quinella and $19.30 was shelled out.

The fans wagered the sum of $34,486 which was good considering the condition of the track 885 were on hand for the Saturday evening card.

Andre Viens, who drove Spring Direct to recent victories, was set down for the balance of the season and fined $5[illegible]. His horse was found with a cloudy test the first time and he was warned but three days later the same offence occurred and this time the judges cracked down suspending him from the track and taking away all his privileges. The horse was also suspended for the balance of the season.

Bishop's Gaiters run off with 35-13 win over U of M Carabins

Bishop's University Gaiters sporting a revitalized offence scored as many touchdowns Saturday as they did during all of last season when they trampled University of Montreal Carabins 35-13 in their Central Canada Intercollegiate Football Conference home opener.

With the accent on offence, the Gaiters scored touchdowns in each quarter as they rolled up 442 total yards on their way in sinking the Carabins, who never seriously threatened to turn the tide.

The contest was also significant in that it heralded the emergence of a rookie quarterback who could make local fans forget about the departed Willie Mitchell sooner than anyone thought possible.

Bill Macdonald, a 17-year-old freshman from Riverdale completed four passes of six good for 186 yards. On two occasions he threw completions which set up Gaiter touchdowns and in the third quarter he combined with John Mackenzie for a 75 yard pass and run major which all but sowed up the game.

The purple and white also came up with running back who can deliver yards when they are needed in the form of Larry Smith, a first year man from Hudson. He lugged the ball 18 times for 122 yards.

Smith scored the first Gaiter touchdown in the opening quarter to even the count at 7-7 after Normand Desjardins had shot the visitors into the lead with only two minutes gone in the contest.

At the nine minute mark, Macdonald threw to rookie halfback Gary Berezny to spot the ball at the nine yard line from where sophmore fullback Eric Innes burst to paydirt on the next play.

The second quarter had just begun when Louis Raymond, a Stanstead alumnus, recovered a Carabin fumble near midfield. A 38-yard pass to halfback Ron Perowne quickly moved the markers to the Carabin 13 and Smith sliced through the line for the major to up the count to 20-7 for Bishop's.

A 35-yard dash by team captain Ken Chimpan set up a field goal by Charles Maclean from 15 yards out before the end of the half.

The Gaiters kept the pressure up after the action resumed with Doug Scott picking off one of three passes he intercepted during the contest. The Macdonald-to-Mackenzie effort made it 29-7 in favor of Bishop's until the ten minute mark of the final period when Jacques Gauthier slanted outside and picked his way 40 yards for a touchdown.

With two minutes remaining, regular quarterback John Stephenosn, who was singularly unimpressive up to that time used a broken play to slip through the hands of the entire Carabin squad and threw 30 yards to Ron Perowne, who ran it into the end zone. Maclean converted his third touchdown of the afternoon and the 35-13 count stood up to the end.

The Carabins played a better game than the score indicates as they rushed for 186 yards through and around a weakened and leaky Gaiter front line. They picked up another 149 yards through the air and collected 19 first downs to 13 for the purple and white.

The Montrealers displayed a strong running game, especially to the outside, but failed to gain the needed ground in key situations and fumbled or threw interceptions at other times.

Gaiter coaches Bruce Coulter and Al Grazys were pleased with their charges' showing in their first encounter of the year and if the rookies continue their heroics with better help from the veterans and a tighter defence, Bishop's should be on its way to a winning season on its second CCIFC campaign.

REMEMBER WHEN . . .

Ted Erikson of the United States became the second man in history to swim the English Channel in both directions, three years ago today—in 1965. He took 30 hours and three minutes for the feat, 13 hours less than was taken by Antonio Abertondo of Argentina when he first achieved the double crossing in 1961.

Dufferin Heights Golf Club holds closing, trophies are presented

DUFFERIN — The annual closing banquet of the Dufferin Heights Golf club was held Saturday evening at the club house and approximately 75 persons attended. Mrs. Lillian Winslow served another excellent roast beef dinner with lemon pie for dessert.

President, Robert Alger, welcomed the group and introduced the head table. Mrs. Alger, Robert Gardyne, vice-president; Mr. and Mrs. Wally Browning, Mrs. Wayne (Marion) Hall, ladies' president; and Mr. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Chamberlain, Douglas Henderson and Gordon Stewart, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Hall, reporting for the ladies reviewed highlights of the season. She thanked the men for their co-operation, especially Mitch Thomson and Miss Arlene Probyn, secretary, for her fine work and all others for their support.

Miss Charity Greenwood won the club championship for the second consecutive year and Mrs. Bea Bishop, the runner up trophy.

President Alger expressed his appreciation to the many committees for their support in making it a successful year. He expressed regrets that Sanford Carter, the popular pro in the 1967 season, had been unable to return in 1968 because of his health. He mentioned that Wes Slack, who has been one of the stewards for sometime at the club is retiring and wished him well.

Mr. Chamberlain announced that a thanksgiving weekend dance would be held Saturday, October 12. The annual meeting will be October 18. A special project prize, a portable TV was won by Mrs. Herb Lilley. Doug Henderson, Robert Gardyne and Wally Browning, Match committee presented the awards to the various winners.

West Bolton stops Knowlton in rematch 5-1

KNOWTLON — (Special) — West Bolton soccer squad made it two in a row over Knowlton when they posted a 5-1 victory in a rematch played between the clubs.

In the first tilt West Bolton came through with a win. Mike Mullins from Knowlton saved his club from a shutout when he tallied the lone marker for Knowlton.

The Lenz brothers, Ken and Sandy, F. Grant, T. Morris and K. Marsh were the scorers for the winning club. J. Donkin played well for the winners also. Robert Lenz for West Bolton and John Streeter of Knowlton, both goalies, came up with some good saves in keeping the score down. Walter Hamisch was the referee for the match.

Avery Brundage headed for another term

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Avery Brundage, 81, appears headed towards his fifth four-year term as president of the International Olympic Committee.

Brundage, a Chicago millionaire, arrived Sunday for the 19th Olympic Games, to be held for the first time in Latin America, Oct. 12-27.

He congratulated Mexican Olympic officials for weathering the student riot distribution in this city of 7,000,000 and making it "the sports capital of the world."

But champion of amateur sports fenced adroitly with questions about his candidacy for the top IOC post. "Delegates to the International Olympic Committee decide who they want," he said.

Would he accept if voted another term?

"We shall see what happens," replied Brundage.

KEPT HIM BUSY

This has been a particularly hectic year for Brundage, who had to order a special IOC ballot which revoked South Africa's readmission to Olympic competition and has to field criticisms on racial and political issues abroad and at home.

Brundage's only real rival for the IOC presidency has been England's Lord Burghley, Marquis of Exeter, an also-ran when Brundage first won the post in 1952 at Helsinki, Finland.

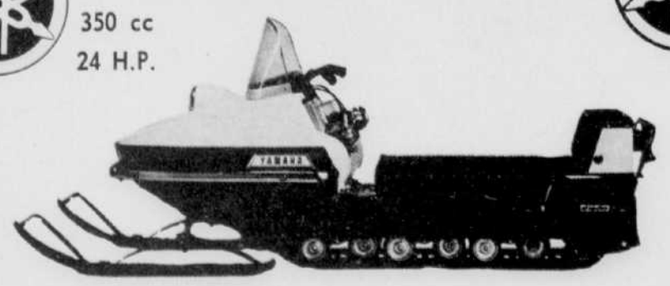
YAMAHA SL-351

350 cc
24 H.P.



On the exciting, new Yamaha Snowmobile for 1969.
Have a ball—a snow-ball—racing away a winter week-end. Discovering out-of-sight places. Pausing on a snowy mountainside to take in the view. Making tracks to where the deer run big and the fish run deep. Or just cruising in and out among the pines. And do it all on the new Yamaha Snowmobile for 1969. It's the one snow machine that's designed and built to take you wherever you want to go, whenever you want to get there. The one that's big, dependable, powerful, fast, fun, rugged, and soft-riding. The one that's out-in-front in '69 and designed to stay there.

The Yamaha 350cc 2-cycle engine, the ultimate in dependability.
Every Yamaha Snowmobile is powered by the same basic 350cc engine that Yamaha used in their racing motorcycles to defeat machines of more than twice their size at the Daytona Motorcycle Classic. This engine utilizes Yamaha's revolutionary engineering breakthrough—the 5-port power system—for greater efficiency and combustion through two extra transfer points.

The Yamaha exclusive "Autolube" oil injection system.
Here is a pressure-lubrication system that does away with messy fuel-pre-mixing. Oil goes in one tank, gas in another. Then, oil is metered automatically to the engine on demand, depending on speed and load. Lubrication is extremely thorough, exhaust smoke is markedly reduced, and carbon build-up and spark plug fouling are brought down to negligible levels.

Plus the Yamaha Snowmobile comes equipped with these added features:
• Sure-stopping disc brake • Safety-mounted 4-gallon gas tank • Custom-styled dashboard • Space-age plastic drive sprockets for long-wearing, low-friction performance • Non-skid foot and grip bars
