COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH.
The Cases Disposed of Yesterday—The Story of a Volunteer's Watch.

The Court of Queen's Bench resumed its sittings at 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning, the Honorable Justice Baly presiding. Messrs. C. P. Davidson, Q.C., and J. A. Onimet, Q.C., represented the Crown.

A youth of fifteen, named Charles Gellin, was the first prisoner arraigned. He was charged with having stolen $40 from his employer, Mr. Z. Deschamps, saddler, of Notre Dame street. The lad pleaded guilty. It appears that he had been in the employ of Mr. Deschamps only a few weeks. While his employer was at dinner the accused broke open a drawer in the safe and removed $40. The learned judge, in passing sentence, remarked that it was painful to have to sentence one so young, but as the accused had already served three years in the Reformatory School he would sentence him to three years imprisonment in the penitentiary of St. Vincent de Paul.

AN ALLEGED RECEIVER OF STOLEN GOODS. Solomon Goldstone was then arraigned on the charge of having received stolen goods to the value of $154, the property of Mr. S. Carney. The accused pleaded not guilty, and an adjournment of his trial was granted on the application of his counsel, Mr. McLennan.

ACCUSED OF FORGERY. The next prisoner arraigned was James Wilkinson, accused of forging the name of D. Somerville on a promissory note for $125. The prisoner pleaded not guilty and was remanded for trial, the date of which was not fixed.

Two men, named George Scott and L. O. G., were then arraigned on the charge of conspiring to provide for their wives. They both pleaded not guilty and were remanded until Monday for trial.

THE STORY OF A VOLUNTEER'S WATCH. Edward Massie, a volunteer belonging to the 83rd Battalion, was then placed at the bar, charged with having stolen a watch valued at $25 from P. D. Laugel, of the 65th, on the night of the 10th of July last. Laugel in his evidence stated that both were going over to the Longueuil camp when the accused, in company with two others, robbed him of his watch at the Longueuil ferry after having induced him to enter a freight car to have a drink.

The accused conducted his own defence. The silver watch was produced by High Constable Bissonnette, and was identified by the owner. Constable Crispe, who had recovered the watch and effected the arrest of the prisoner, was then called. He said that on the night of the robbery he had chased the prisoner, and had seen him throw the watch on the street. This closed the case, which, after a few remarks from the judge, was given to the jury. In about four minutes the verdict, without leaving the court, was returned. The jury found the prisoner guilty, and he was remanded for sentence, and the court adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

BUTCHERS' ANNUAL PICNIC. A Good Day's Enjoyment—A List of Prize Winners and What They Won.

The fourth annual picnic of the Butchers' Association was held Wednesday afternoon on the Exhibition Grounds. The attendance was very large and the success of the whole affair compared favorably with the picnics previously held under the auspices of the above organization.

The weather was all that could be desired, and as there were various amusements provided for the entertainment of those present, a most enjoyable afternoon was spent. A lengthy programme of sports had been prepared, and considerable interest seemed to be taken in the results by the friends of the competitors. None of the contests, however, were very exciting, and the only one deserving special mention was the hurdle race.

In this race three started, viz: Minogue's Young Kelo, Minogue's White Stocking and Geo. Pres's Sunbeam. The horses got away well together. Young Kelo took the lead, maintained it throughout, winning easily. White Stocking was given second place as Sunbeam had run within the flags several times during the race. The first prize for this race was a very handsome clock, valued by the Association and valued at $100.

The only noticeable disadvantage in the sports was the wretched condition of the track, which was very lumpy in several places, and thus was of great inconvenience to the contestants. As entries to the races were paid to be made up to the last moment, considerable delay was caused between each event. The consequence was that it was dark before the races were brought to a close, and the last event on the programme had to be omitted. Although there was a considerable number of people present, and at no time were the proceedings interrupted, or did anything occur to mar the enjoyment of the occasion. The following is a list of the names of the prize-winners with the prizes they received.

1. Freeman foot race; once round ring; $5.00, $3.00, $2.00, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th,
