Sherbrooke Daily Record.

Established 1897. SHERBROOKE, QUE., THURSDAY, APRIL 2, 1908. ONE CENT

E. T. SOLDIERS AND QUEBEC CELEBRATION.

Only 50 p. c. To Go and Must be Trained Men—July 21st to July 24th—Pay for Seven Days— May Have to Travel in Freight Cars Owing to Transportation Difficulties.

Preliminary orders have been issued in connection with the participation of the Eastern Townships Militia in the Quebec tercentenary celebration.

The order at once makes it plain that only 50 per cent. of the men will be called out.

It is hoped to concentrate some 20,000 troops, but as the funds at disposal are unlikely to permit of a proportion exceeding 50 p.c. of the training establishment authorized for 1907, it has been proposed to send this proportion from all units, except the Canadian Army Service Corps, which will be allowed their full establishment.

The concentration at Quebec for units which train at camps of instruction will take the place of the annual training.

Corps and detachments, both city and rural must remain in Quebec for a full period of four days, July 21st to July 24th.

Pay for rural corps will not be available, says the instruction, except for the Army Service Corps for more than seven days, including days of arrival and departure.

No man not previously trained is to be included, as there will be no time to instruct recruits at Quebec.

The orders remark that it is not improbable that, in the case of certain corps, more than half may desire to attend, where as less than that proportion might be forthcoming from other corps. Extra representation (above the 50 p.c.) is, however, only to be allotted to city corps, if corresponding defects exist in other city corps and to rural if corresponding defects exist in other rural corps. In other words, city corps are not to be overrepresented, by underrepresenting rural corps and vice versa.

"In conclusion," says the announcement, "it should be pointed out to the active militia that in spite of every precaution, difficulties connected with accommodation and subsistence are not unlikely to attend the concentration. Particularly as regards transport, it is not improbable that the railway companies may be unable to supply a sufficient number of passenger cars, in which case the troops must not complain if they are conveyed in freight cars to and from Quebec. In any case it will be their privilege to take part in a ceremony of historical interest and importance, and it is confidently expected that should unforseen difficulties occur the militia will display a soldier-like spirit of endurance in meeting whatever hardship or inconvenience may be involved."

The above summary of orders or instructions is about the first official statement issued regarding the Quebec mobilization plans.

It is not a pleasant thought suggested in the latter part that the rush of sight-seers to Quebec is to be allowed to interfere with the transportation of the Canadian soldiery to such an extent that these 20,000 troops who are to form one of the principal attractions at the Ancient Capital can only be conveyed to the scene of the celebration in freight cars. Such would not only be discreditable to the great railway systems of Canada but to the Government which should have sufficient "pull" with the railways to secure proper transportation accommodation for the soldiers who are to assist in the Quebec celebration even if a few of the sight-seers are left at home.

The event is still some time in the future and it can hardly be doubted that the Militia Department will be able to avert the transportation difficulties which now appear to be anticipated.

CONSTRUCTION OF NEW SHERBROOKE DRILL HALL; SIXTY MEN WILL BE EMPLOYED FOR ONE YEAR.

The new Sherbrooke drill hall, so long promised and anticipated, will this year become an actuality.

Messrs. Simoneau & Dion, the contractors, have the cutting of the stone at the site in the South Ward, well advanced and the work of actual construction began this week and will be pushed forward to completion.

The building will cover almost an acre in area and will be of red brick with granite foundations and trimmings. The front, which will be very attractive, will face Belvidere street.

The basement, besides two large furnace rooms, will comprise a shooting gallery, a bowling alley, bugle band room, lavatories, etc.

The ground floor will contain two large harness rooms, 30 x 40 feet, battery and infantry store rooms, two wagon sheds, each 20 x 44 feet, gun shed 30 x 120 ft., infantry and cavalry armouries and six rooms for officers.

The drill hall proper will have an area of 80 x 175 feet without posts and a clear height of 33 feet. It will have an asphalt floor.

Two large stairways in the front part will lead to first floor where are situated officers' and sergeants' mess rooms, band room, lecture room, ante room and overlooking the large hall a large gallery or promenade along one side and end of hall for spectators. The 2nd floor will contain rooms for the caretaker.

The large hall will be well lighted by 12 large semi-circular windows at each side, above the roof of aisles, and three extra large ones in the end.

To complete the building it will require 60 men one year and the following materials, viz.: 150 cars sand, 135 cars foundation stone, 155 cars brick, 40 cars of granite, 60 cars broken stone, 8 cars cement, 20 cars lime, 5 cars steel, 1 car galvanized iron, 2 cars gravel, 18 cars lumber, 1 car metallic lath and 10 cars of sundries, or 605 cars altogether or 15 trains of 40 cars each of 40,000 lbs.

The sixty men employed on the job will draw about $26,000 in salary.

The contractors will have until next year to complete this big structure, upon which the government will expend about $75,000.

Case of Theft of Cigars Shipped From Granby.

BY THE J. BRUCE PAYNE COMPANY, LIMITED.

Granby, April 2. — (Special) — Mr. F. W. Taylor, of the J. Bruce Payne Co., Ltd., returned from Winnipeg on Friday, where he has been as principal witness for the prosecution of parties implicated in the theft of 8128 worth of cigars, shipped from Granby to Rose du Lac, Man. The C. P. R. Co. assumed the loss and their detectives corralled eight persons who were indicted by the grand jury and tried at the Winnipeg assizes. Six of these were liberated on suspended sentence while the two ringleaders elected to be tried before a stipendiary magistrate. A battle between opposing counsel as to the right of option after indictment then ensued, and the case was postponed from day to day and finally put over until July assizes. The frequent theft of cigars in transit from Granby has caused considerable annoyance and Mr. Payne and the transportation companies are sparing no expense to bring the guilty parties to justice.

The Conservative candidate stated yesterday that they understood that May 28th would be about the date.

This early election of course, is in accord with the premier's declaration yesterday to dissolve the house early next week.

DESCRIPTION OF THE JAPS' COUNTRY.

By One Who Has Spent Many Years There.

MIKADO ONLY SOVEREIGN CAN TRACE ANCESTRY 2500 YEARS BACK.

Cowansville, April 2.—(Special.) — On Tuesday evening Emmanuel Congregational church adherents had an intellectual treat afforded them by the discourses of the Revs. Pedley and Creegan. Mr. Pedley has spent many years in Japan and delighted his hearers by detailing some of his experiences in that far-off country. He compared the schools of Japan with those of Canada, stating that, in a town of the size of Cowansville, there would be connected with the school a gymnasium and tennis court, for which racquets and balls would be furnished free by the Government. Japan also has free mail delivery all over the Empire, no matter how far remote one's dwelling may be.

Mr. Creegan is the Secretary of the American Board of Missions and has just completed a tour of inspection, covering the entire world. He visited Mr. Pedley in Japan and spoke in the highest terms of the Canadian missionaries which he everywhere met doing their arduous duties faithfully and well. The audience would have been pleased to listen had these gentlemen spoken twice as long as they did.

Your correspondent had a conversation with Mr. Pedley on Wednesday morning relative to the awakening of Japan and learned many salient points relative to the Flowery Kingdom. Previous to the great Russian War, ten years ago, Japan had no war ships. In fact during the war against China, she only had a few antiquated cruisers. But, on receiving the intelligence that Russia was intriguing with Germany and China against the continuation of Japanese influence over Port Arthur, the little Japs quietly made up their minds that there would need to be a great war with Russia sooner or later and the arsenels commenced working extratime, and the standing army was increased and the entire nation was put into the state of a camp. The merchant marine increased greatly in numbers and strength and was subsidized by the Government with the provision attached to each subsidy that the Government should have first and absolute call on their services in case of war.

The Mikado is, according to the Japanese boast, the only sovereign who can trace his ancestry in unbroken line back 2,500 years. He is still theoretically above all law and has, according to the legal fiction, graciously condescended to grant a constitution to his subjects. Of course, with the light of recent events, the people would never stand for its withdrawal, although the franchise is still greatly limited.

The average farm contains from one-half to one acre of land. On this, a Japanese farmer raises enough to support himself and large family. This economy of the soil is rendered necessary by the extremely mountainous condition of Japan, which is called the Switzerland of the East. Only one-fourteenth of Japan is arable land and there are 50,000,000 people crowded into a space no larger than the Province of Quebec. Mr. Pedley has been for years residing just north of Tokio, and says that there was, during the war, a spirit of the deepest seriousness in all Japan, with none of the war-like and martial flamboyancy of war times in most countries.

The Japs seemed impressed with the fact that they were fighting for their very national existence and acted accordingly. Altogether Mr. Pedley's description was wonderfully entertaining.

SHERBROOKE AND THE MAPLE SUGAR INDUSTRY.

Mr. George Small, of the Canadian Maple Exchange, Montreal, is in town to-day looking over the ground with a view of establishing the headquarters of his business here.

He deals extensively in maple products and manufactures maple confections doing an extremely extensive business.

The location of Sherbrooke in the center of the maple sugar district, saving of freights and other considerations, make Sherbrooke, in his opinion an extremely favorable point for his business.

Mr. Small is making enquiries regarding building accommodations and will return to Montreal this afternoon.

LIQUOR MEN MEET PREMIER GOUIN.

Protest Against Proposed Reduction of Licenses.

PREMIER SAID JUSTICE WOULD BE DONE, BUT "THE PEOPLE MUST RULE."

Quebec, April 2.—Fifty representatives of the Montreal wholesale liquor trade waited on Premier Gouin last night, impressing upon him the seriousness of hasty legislation affecting the liquor trade. Through their spokesman, Mr. Angus Hooper, and Mr. Lawrence A. Wilson, they explained that they were delegates of the several hundred members of the protective association of merchants and manufacturers of Quebec province, and that they represented fifty millions of invested capital, giving employment to several thousand citizens of Quebec province. They were waiting upon the Government, they said, because attention had been called to the fact that there was a campaign in favor of reducing liquor licenses in the province, and Dr. Lemieux (Gaspe) had introduced a bill to amend the license law of Quebec.

PREMIER GOUIN, who faces perplexing political situation in connection with liquor question.

They then presented their resolution, drawn up in Montreal, expressing the opinion that the cause for complaint did not arise from the licensed sale of liquor, but because of illegal sale, and that if such sale were suppressed there would be no complaint.

Then Mr. Lawrence A. Wilson explained that their association represented an organized corporation to help the authorities enforce the license law. "Enforce our laws and we will help you," continued Mr. Wilson. "We want hotels with front doors and large glass windows, and we want to go in by the front door as in New York, London, and other cities. Temperance people are always talking of side doors. We are business men and we want fair play?"

"If you find you cannot satisfy everyone," he continued, "if you get into a corner, the only thing to do is to study the question, appoint a commission. There are many things to be considered on the subject; we want better hotels, for instance, in some places."

THE MONSTER TEMPERANCE PETITION.

Quebec, April 2.—(Special.)— As a continuation of the temperance campaign, Dr. Lemieux (Gaspe) stated last night before the end of the week he would present in the Legislature the petitions in favor of his bill read in the churches last Sunday. These petitions, he says, bear 100,000 names, including those of all bishops of Catholic churches, Protestant ministers in Montreal, judges, university professors, members of the National Council of Women, and of the Society for the Protection of Women and Children.

THE PREMIER'S REPLY.

Premier Gouin replied that he was glad to hear the views of the delegation. The Provincial Treasurer was now studying the question of amendments that would be proposed during the session. It had not yet been definitely decided exactly what to do. "It is a hard problem to satisfy our population on such a delicate question, said the Premier. He would, however, let them know exactly what he proposed before introducing the amendments. "You know the importance of the temperance movement in the province," he added, "we may say that the large majority of the citizens in this part are favorable to temperance, and we might say the same for the western part of the province. The people certainly think there are too many licenses. Certain systems of reducing them are proposed. I understand you are against reduction of licenses?"

Mr. Wilson—"Absolutely."

Premier Gouin—"On the other hand, the people must rule."

However, he understood the importance of the trade represented by the delegation. "Now what are we going to do?" he asked finally. "We cannot go as far as some people want. I understand you do not object to licenses being cancelled in some cases, but you

TELLS HOW LEMAY MET HIS DEATH.

Where Did Fault Lie in Fatality in Sherbrooke C.P.R. Yard?

MUCH EVIDENCE ABOUT POSITION OF WARNING FLAG ON CARS STANDING ON TRACK.

The case of Lemay vs. the Canadian Pacific Railway was continued yesterday afternoon. The examination of J. D. Lavoie, who was with Lemay at the time of his death, was interrupted to allow Dr. Ethier to be examined. The doctor stated that he was in the employ of the C.P.R. as physician. He was called to the yard of the C.P.R. and found that Samuel Lemay had just been the victim of an accident. Both legs were fractured, and there was a large wound on the stomach. Life was extinct when he arrived.

The examination of J. B. Lavoie was then continued. The color of the flag was blue, and had been in use for some time. The flag was placed near the rear of the car and it was seen by the trainmen because when they came down first they stopped the engine before coupling with the car. He always placed the flag in the same position it was in the day of the accident, and also after the accident. Roy, the foreman, had also placed the flag at the corner of the car, just as they had done. The distance from where the flag was to switch leading to No. 4 track was about 200 feet. There was nothing in that distance to obstruct the view of those on the engine, and a person standing at the switch could see the flag. Witness was working with Lemay where they could not get a bolt through and he told Lemay he would go on top of the car and work it through with a chisel. As witness started to stoop down with his chisel and hammer the car (he was on top of the end of the car) Lemay was under and was struck. Witness was thrown on his head, and witness said, "What does it mean?" Mr. Lemay cried out, "O God, my Lord." He realized Mr. Lemay's condition because he knew where he was. Witness jumped down to go to his rescue, and he saw Lemay trying to crawl out. His right leg was under the heel of the brake. He called on Lemay to speak, but got no reply, and then he gave the alarm. The force of the impact was sufficient to send the car a length less the width of the truck. It was the same employees that he had seen before and spoken to about the car being repaired. The witness never saw a book of the company's rules, and he never saw one with Mr. Lemay.

Cross-examined by Mr. Marechal—He was positive he never saw a book of the rules with Mr. Lemay. He did not hear Smith, the brakeman, say to Lemay in the smoking car where he was resting before starting work, ask for the flag off the car on No. 4 track, as they were going to do some shunting. He did not hear McClure translate the remarks to Lemay. Smith never entered the car, and again Lemay did not require to have anyone translate for him. Witness could not swear what conversation took place between Lemay and McClure in the car because he was not there. When witness left the smoking car he met Smith about 100 feet away. It was with Smith that witness had the first conversation, and he afterwards met Martin, the conductor. Martin told him that he had seventeen or eighteen cars and wanted to put them on track No. 4, and witness told him that he could use the other tracks. Witness did not ask Martin what he was going to do with the car they were repairing. Martin told his brakeman to couple on easy because they had a "jack" under the last car.

The case of Lemay against the Canadian Pacific Railway was resumed before Mr. Justice Demers and jury, this morning.

SON OF DECEASED EXAMINED.

Mr. C. Lemay, son of the late Samuel Lemay, was the first witness. He told how he went yesterday, with Surveyor Dufresne to the spot where the accident occurred. He knew the place because marks had been made at the time his father was killed. They went there yesterday, to make measurements of the distance from where the flag was to the switch, and they found it was 204 feet.

Mr. L. A. Dufresne, Surveyor, Sherbrooke, produced a plan of that portion of the yard in the immediate vicinity where the accident occurred. A man standing at the switch could see the flag on a car at the point where the cars were at the time Lemay met his death.

Mr. Edouard Lemay, an employee of the C.P.R., said that he was related in no way with the plaintiffs. He saw a flag on the car, at the time of the accident.

John Nicholson, a young lad, said that he was working in front of the Rand Drill shops on the day of the accident, and he ran up on hearing that a man was hurt. He climbed over the end of the car, and saw a flag just near the point where he went up on top of the car.

A Chamberland went to the scene of the accident and saw a flag on the car.

Jos. Berbue, of Sherbrooke, an employee of the C.P.R. Company, said that he was working in the yard and hearing the cries went to the spot. He saw the flag which had been placed on the car by the car repairers. His attention was drawn to the flag by Foreman Roy, asking if a flag had been put up.

The case is still proceeding.

A VOTE FOR THE FARMERS' SONS.

Bill at Quebec Re Municipal Elections.

"MOVING DAY" BILL AGAIN RECOMMENDED BY COMMITTEE.

Quebec, April 2—By a majority of three, Dr. Lacombe's bill to change moving dates to the first three days of September, was yesterday reconsidered and carried in committee of the whole. Third reading of it, however, has been deferred until today, in view of the absence of certain members. The Opposition once more voted solidly against the bill, and when it was referred back to the House, Hon. Mr. Leblanc moved: "That the bill be not read a third time now, but in six months." This motion was lost on division of 28 to 21. Notwithstand this, it was agreed to defer third reading until to-morrow.

FARMERS AND VOTES.

Mr. W. H. Walker's bill proposing that farmers' sons be allowed to vote in municipal elections, as in federal and provincial ones, was yesterday read a second time, after Hon. Mr. Leblanc had opposed it, as containing a bad principle..

Mr. P. S. G. MacKenzie supported the bill. Many aged farmers, he said, were obliged to leave their work to be done by their sons, who, therefore, were the parties interested in elections. Fathers and sons had a right to differ in opinions on public affairs, and, even if they did so in municipal elections, he thought no harm would be done.

SCHOOL TAXES.

Mr. P. S. G. MacKenzie has presented a bill regarding school taxes, to the effect that in emergency cases school trastees can levy assessments before referring the subject to the board of commissioners. The bill was read a second time without discussion.

FIFTY MEN KILLED IN TWELVE MONTHS.

On 100 Miles of the Transcontinental.

RECKLESSNESS CAUSE OF ACCIDENTS.

Kenora, Ont., April 2.—How many lives will have been sacrificed to carelessness and negligence by the time the National Transcontinental is completed between Winnipeg and Moncton, if the death record keeps up as high as it now stands?

This is the question which men in this neighborhood ask as they count the toll of disaster which has marked the progress of the Government railroad in the Kenora district.

During the past twelve months over fifty men have been killed while working on 100 miles of right of way, stretching east and west from a point twenty miles north of here, a ratio of one dead man for every two miles of railroad worked on.

Carelessness is the common reason given for the deaths which mark the progress of the work, and if only the men who were careless paid the penalty with their own lives, this excuse might be allowed to stand, but when one negligent individual causes the death of two or three, it is time to take measures.

Knowlton, April 2.—(Special)— On Saturday evening a few of the friends of Dr. and Mrs. Clarke, at the Knowlton Sanitarium, were invited into the office to enjoy a few experiments with the static machine and the wonders of the X-ray apparatus. Photograph plates were made and prints of quite a scientific nature were produced that show the wonders of this machine.

A pleasant evening ended too soon and farewells were said to Dr. and Mrs. Clarke, who left on Tuesday night for Michigan, to visit friends, and from thence to Washington, D.C.

NOTHING SERIOUS HAPPENED.

Farnham, April 2.—(Special.) — Tuesday afternoon what might have proved a serious affair was averted by the discovery of some cars blocking the St. Guillaume main line. It seems that some boys were playing around the cars upon the cinder pile at what is known as the Y. There were three cars on top of the pile, which is near the main track just where it enters the yard after crossing the C. V. diamond. And while playing around, either accidentally or with intent let the brakes off and the cars ran down the incline on to the main line, leaving the rails at the switch. When the youngsters saw what was going to happen they decamped, and as no one saw the affair, the cars stood a good chance of being struck by the St. Guillaume mixed which reaches here a few minutes to six. Luckily an employee noticed them in time, and flagged the mixed. It is a point where the mixed would not be going very fast, but being on a slight curve, they might not have been noticed in time to stop. Luckily everything turned out all right. The boys were brought before a justice of the peace and given a good sound talking to and were pretty well frightened. Owing to their very tender age and to the respectability of their parents, they were allowed to go. There is altogether too many boys around the cars, and it is a wonder some do not get killed.

Parents should make it their business to see that their boys keep away from the cars and trains.

LIQUOR TRADE IN CANADA.

St. John, N.B., April 2.—Addressing the Temperance Federation, Mr. H. A. Powell estimated that $30,000,000 was annually spent on the liquor traffic in Canada, of which seventeen million, or three dollars per head of the population, was absolutely wasted.

Mr. Powell contended that unless a very strong public sentiment was behind prohibition, it could not be enforced. He favored giving wives and mothers the power to enforce the law.

The Temperance Federation will endeavor to reduce materially the number of licenses granted this year in this city.

QUEENLY IS AS QUEENLY DOES.

(From the Hartford Courant.)

It is not often that a queen has a chance to stop a runaway horse, and the horse that has been drawing her at that. But Queen Wilhelmina performed this exploit on Wednesday. She and her husband, Prince Henry, were out driving in a phaeton when an electric car crashed into the low carriage and nearly crushed it. In the mix-up the Prince held to the reins, but the Queen jumped out and seized the plunging horse by the bit. She was true helpmeet in that unusual and dangerous situation. Those who have seen Queen Wilhelmina will not be surprised at her courage and her strength. She used to be called "little Wilhelmina," but she has got over that. She does not care a great deal for music or art, but she likes out-of-door sports. She was born a woman, but she is what one would call a mighty good fellow for all that. If she had been born to boss a ranch she would be very much at home, but as it is she did not let her queenship stand in the way of holding that horse.

Butterfield, Mrs. Arthur Cowles, Miss Esther Butterfield and Miss Jean McIntosh. Interspersed with these readings were two songs, given in a pleasing manner, by Miss Clara Lanctot. COMMENTS ON EASTERN TOWNSHIPS HAPPENINGS.

Coming to the Rescue of the Fair.

The hold that the Sherbrooke Fair has upon the business men of the city has been proved by the willingness on their part to subscribe for stock to remedy the present financial position of the Fair officials. It is a question in the minds of many whether the holding of the Dominion Exhibition at Sherbrooke last year was any advantage to the Society. To hold the Dominion Fair it was necessary to go to considerable expense on capital account which would not otherwise have been necessary. However, it gave the Fair additional prestige both with the Government and with the Dominion at large, which should be of some benefit in the future. The fact of a deficit cannot in any event be laid wholly to the larger expenditure made necessary on account of the holding of the Dominion Fair. Perhaps the clerk of the weather was responsible to a greater extent than anyone else or any other thing. Weather is the one thing which the Fair officials cannot control, and the one thing of all others which they have most to dread. The Sherbrooke Fair has got to be an annual outing for a large number of families throughout the Eastern Townships. They would miss it as much perhaps, as would the people of Sherbrooke themselves. From a financial point of view the business men of Sherbrooke and the hotelkeepers, especially, are the only gainers. Thousands of dollars go annually from different points throughout the Townships to the coffers of these men. True, the exhibitors at the Fair take home a portion of it, but the balance of trade is largely in favor of the people of Sherbrooke.

Industrial Depression.

Those who know the true inwardness of the business situation throughout the Province, especially among industrial establishments, will not be surprised that the Paton Mills have closed down for a couple of weeks. It is, perhaps, rather a matter of surprise and congratulation that they have been able to continue running so long. Managers of manufacturing establishments throughout the Townships have, as a whole, had a good deal of studying to do since last November, to keep their wheels running. Many of them say that it is remarkable how suddenly business dropped off. With some the drop came in December, others in January. While there is, perhaps not any special reason for it still it looks now as if there were to be a period of depression among our manufacturers for some little time to come. One thing is sure. Until the money situation rights itself there cannot be any branching out. With the present unsettled state and want of confidence in some quarters there must necessarily be curtailment. Some manufacturers have told me that while they have been loth to do it on account of their help it has been a matter of necessity to either cut down the number of men or curtail the working hours. While the present time is perhaps not one that should make us pessimists, still, it would take a great deal of optimism to think that the good old times will come again very shortly.

The Sherbrooke Winter Carnival.

It is a good way ahead to announce a winter carnival. Just as winter is breaking up and there is a prospect of summer again we are told that next winter Sherbrooke is to be the scene of a carnival. I am going to prophesy that the carnival will be a success. There are so many interests identified with it that it cannot well be otherwise. One of the best winter carnivals that I ever attended was held at Sherbrooke quite a number of years ago. The area from which the visitors came was not large, not as large likely as that from which they will come next winter. The management, however, was good and the pleasures of winter sports were well exemplified. It is said that the railroads are against winter carnivals but they will likely not refuse to carry all the visitors that wish to go to the metropolis of the Townships. The idea of a carnival will doubtless be forgotten many months but when old winter comes along again the thought will be revived and there is little doubt that the Sherbrooke carnival of 1909 will be remembered as a success.

Baby Laugh

It belongs to health for a baby to eat and sleep, to laugh and grow fat.

But fat comes first; don't ask a scrawny baby to laugh; why, even his smile is pitiful! Fat comes first.

The way to be fat is the way to be healthy.

Scott's Emulsion

is the proper food, but only a little at first.

THE DAILY SMILE

Mary. "Ah, sir, I do 'ope you'll excuse my poor 'usband. 'E's a terrible one for walkin' in 'is sleep." (Punch.

—Model. "Have you heard poor old Greene has had his studio burnt down and all his pictures destroyed in the fire? Such a nice fellow."

THIS HAPPENED IN BOSTON.

First Police Official. "I have an excellent description of this alleged crook. Has he any haunts?"

Second Police Official. "Try the public library."

CAVE CARES.

My grandpa notes the world's worn cogs
And says we're going to the dogs.

His granddad in his house of logs
Swore things were going to the dogs.

His dad amid the Flemish bogs,
Vowed things were going to the dogs.

The cave man, in his queer skin togs,
Said things were going to the dogs.

But this is what I wish to state:
The dogs have had an awful wait.

JEROME'S INTEGRITY UNQUESTIONABLE.

(From the New York Globe & Commercial Advertiser, Ind. Rep.)

It is conceivable that in some instances Mr. Jerome has not reached correct conclusions when dealing with criminal matters. He makes no claim to perfection as a lawyer. He is often eager and impulsive, is not perfectly stable in judgment, is sometimes mentally arrogant, and perhaps capable of contradictory action according as one or the other side of him is approached. But these faults he has never concealed—his conduct at all times has been singularly open and never has created the impression of a man who had sold out or was deliberately playing a part. Mr. Jerome, often times indulging veritable paroxysms of self-revelation, has moved in and out of this community for many years. Abundant have been the opportunities to study him, and despite the attack of the King committee, and despite the fact that he might not be elected if again a candidate, there is no falling away in the belief in his integrity. He has not the demeanor of the scheming villain, and if he is not such a villain, the King charges shrivel to nothingness.

BRITAIN'S SWEET TOOTH.

Every man, woman and child in the United Kingdom consumes, on an average, 3½ oz. sugar each day. This calculation is based on the Board of Trade return up to 1906 on the sugar production of the world, just issued. The estimated total consumption of sugar in the United Kingdom for the years 1903-1906 was as follows:—1903, 1,493,798 tons; 1904, 1,535,324 tons; 1905, 1,388,942 tons; 1906, 1,582,452 tons. During these years the estimated consumption of sugar per head of the population was 78.97 lb., 80.37 lb., 71.94 lb., 81.19 lb. respectively. The estimated amount of cane sugar produced from the British Empire (including India) during 1906, was 2,974,160 tons, and from foreign countries 4,343,312 tons, while the production of beet sugar amounted to 6,995,244 tons. No less than 129,61 lbs. of sugar were consumed per head of population in the Australian Commonwealth during 1906, or over 5½ oz. per day by every inhabitant.

It looked, this morning, as if winter had renewed its grip on the country. There was a considerable snow fall and the latter part of the night was very stormy. The weather prophets believe the storm was intended for the last day of March for as that month came in like a lamb, according to all the rules of weather etiquette, it should have gone out like a lion. Sugar-makers will welcome the fall of snow, as such is usually followed by a good run of sap.

A successful sugaring-off, one of the first of the season, was given by Mr. George Mitchell yesterday at his place about a mile from Lennoxville. A large number of friends from the village and vicinity were invited, and all thoroughly enjoyed the sugar which, as usual, was super-excellent. The farmers in the vicinity of Lennoxville and Sherbrooke employ the most up-to-date methods and improved apparatus, and in consequence the product of their trees is incomparable.

The Meigs Camp on the Lennoxville road, is proving a very popular place for sugar parties, and has been frequented by lovers of the Canadian sweet every day this week. The sugar is excellent, generously served, and the fee, including the street car rides, quite within the means of all. A funny incident in connection with the enterprise was the stoppage of a C.P.R. freight train for some time one morning, the conductor taking the red flag which marks the spot, for a danger signal.

At the regular meeting of St. Peter's Guild yesterday afternoon at the Church Hall a pleasant little event occurred, when Mrs. Anderson, Sr., one of the oldest members, was presented with a handsome travelling clock and a hand bag, on the occasion of her departure from Sherbrooke to make her home elsewhere. The presentation was made by Mrs. Bradford, President of the Guild, who, in a few unaffected and cordial words, referred to Mrs. Anderson's long and happy connection with St. Peter's Guild, her faithful and energetic work and her sympathy with its objects and expressed on behalf of the members the majority of whom are old friends, sincere wishes for her happiness in her new home. Mrs. Anderson was touched and much pleased and thanked the donors for their kindly gift, though she would need nothing to remind her of the dear friends she was leaving in Sherbrooke.

COMING THRO' THE RYE.

The theatre box office reports a large sale of seats for the "Coming thro' the Rye" performance to-morrow night. This musical comedy is anticipated with keen interest by theatre goers.

"Coming thro' the Rye" is described as an uproariously funny conceit which compels immoderate laughter from the beginning to the end of the performance, except when relief is afforded by some fine musical number charmingly rendered. Pictorially it is said to be a constantly changing series of kaleidescopic splendors, accomplished by the deft manipulation of electrical contrivances, with a vast display of vari-colored costumes as the background.

During his stay Secretary Taft will appear only once before the general public, and that will be on Saturday at the Hamilton Club, when there will be a public reception in his honor. To this reception all people in Chicago have been invited by the club.

LUMBER PRICES KEEP AT HIGH LEVEL.

Has Been Greatest Pulpwood Year Ever Known.

ALL WOOD PRODUCTS HIGH — INTERESTING SALE BY J. R. BOOTH, OF OTTAWA.

Money stringency does not appear to weaken in any respect the nerve of the lumbermen who have the fixing of the prices of their commodity.

This has been the greatest pulpwood year the province of Quebec and the Eastern Townships has ever known. Prices have soared to $5 to as high as $8 at the track, the latter price for some very fined peeled stock. What the lumberman realizes for this—well, "deponent saith not."

Pulpwood has been made almost to the exclusion of lumber. This fact keeps the lumber prices pretty well up to their high level of last year.

An important lumber deal took place at Ottawa this week, which gives an interesting idea of the range of prices in that district.

An Ottawa despatch thus reports it: "An important event in the local lumber industry is the sale by J. R. Booth of all his three-inch deals to be cut in 1908 to Messrs. Cox and Burstall, who will ship them to the British market.

"It is understood that the contract shows a reduction on the higher qualities of deal from last year's figures, which, of course, were high compared with quotations in the past. On other grades, however, there was an advance. Few contracts have yet been made for thin lumber. It is reported that manufacturers of the Georgian Bay district have promised a reduction from last year, and buyers expect that Ottawa manufacturers will have to do likewise. Still, several manufacturers here assume a firm attitude and contend that there is no reason for reducing any of their quotations of 1907. In the first place they have greatly curtailed the winter cut of logs, and they state that the winter overhead has been very expensive for taking out logs.

The ever-advancing price of pine, especially in the middle classes, is improving the prospects for spruce and hemlock trade in this locality. Hemlock remaining firm at from $14 to $16, mill run, culls out, is regarded as very significant, as some years ago not more than $6 per thousand was available.

"Hemlock has been sent from Ottawa to the New York market at as high as $20 per thousand, which convinces local men that it is becoming greatly used as a substitute for pine. For building in Ottawa and vicinity hemlock and spruce have also been eagerly sought.

the price is not weakening. The out-

Although lath is plentiful in Ottawa put will be as usual in 1908, as all the lath wood of the mills will be manufactured, so the lath stands a chance of taking a drop. Local builders would welcome such a turn. The present rates of $3.50 and $4 for white pine are looked upon as excessive.

"Despite a quietness in trade, all the upper grade shingles are practically out of the market, and the prospects of the present prices being maintained are good. Lumbermen, however, anticipate congestion in the lower grades.

"J. R. Booth has brought down about 2,000 cars of logs by rail, and they are lying on the ice to be manufactured at the earliest convenience.

"There is a big demand for railway ties, of which the Booth establishment turns out about 100,000 a year. These are all used on the Grand Trunk Railway system."

THE SCHOOL QUESTION.

A MONTREAL COMMENT ON NORMAL SCHOOL GRANT DISTRIBUTION.

The letters and discussions which have appeared in the columns of the Daily Record have attracted a good deal of attention, even outside the Eastern Townships, and have been referred to editorially by the press of Montreal and elsewhere.

The Montreal Witness, last night, had the following:

"Representatives of the Protestant Committee of Public Instruction are going to present the proposals of that body with regard to the distribution of the Normal School money to the Government at Quebec to-morrow. A semi-official announcement in the form of an interview with Dr. Pelletier, the member for Sherbrooke, which appeared in the Sherbrooke Record last week, would seem to indicate that the Government has already decided to adhere to its own plan of distribution. If so, the decision is well worth reconsideration. It is a bad plan from the educational point of view, and signs are not wanting that it is becoming discredited even from the point of view of political advantage, which really seems to have been the chief motive for its adoption. It is a good old principle that things are really only settled when they are settled right. In the end, it will be educational results that the people will expect from public aid to education. The full awakening to the need of better schools throughout the province is coming rapidly; and the best preparation that any government can make for it is an educational policy that will be sound as well as generous. The best form of distributing the released Normal school funds is that which will aid and encourage local effort and progress."

DR. W. A. KYLE TO DEVOTE HIMSELF TO CHURCH WORK.

An Ottawa paper to hand has the following concerning the ordination of Dr. W. A. Kyle, formerly of Sherbrooke:

"A service of special interest was held in St. Matthew's church yesterday morning, when the Bishop of Ottawa ordained to the diaconate W. A. Kyle, M.D. Dr. Kyle, who has been practicing medicine for some years past, has been actively identified with Church life and work in every parish in which he has lived. There was a very large congregation present, and the following clergy: Ven. Archdeacon Bogert, Rev. E. A. Anderson, Rev. Geo. P. Woollcombe, B.A.; Rev. W. M. Loucks, M.A.; Rev. Michael P. O'Donnell, B.A. of Killaloe. The sermon was preached by Rev. W. M. Loucks, and was a setting forth of the Apostolic character of the ministry and the special functions of the Diaconate.

"Ven. Archdeacon Bogert presented the ordinand, who after the usual examination was ordained by the bishop. The music was of an appropriate character, and the choral celebration of the Holy Communion was beautifully rendered by the full choir, with Mr. Frank T. Shutt, M. A., at the organ. At evensong Dr. Kyle preached in St. Matthew's church, and was afterwards presented with a beautiful Bible by the rector and church wardens on behalf of the parish. Dr. Kyle commences his work as incumbent of Beechburg early in April."

PRINCE BISMARCK'S APPETITE.

Bismarck himself was a tremendous smoker, eater and drinker, and would stride about the house, followed by his dogs. The pipes and long cigars which he smoked in a day would have killed an ordinary man. He loved to pour into a huge stein a bottle of champagne and then a bottle of porter, and drink the whole mixture off at a single draft. Bismarck said of himself, "If there were many eaters like me in Prussia the State could not exist. I should have to emigrate."

Sunny Alberta

Watch the newspapers telling about the thousands of settlers pouring into Sunny Alberta. At the present moment there are over five thousand settlers going West through this city of Sherbrooke every week, and when navigation opens it is said that fully twenty thousand every week will pass through here, to say nothing of the thousands that are rushing in from all the States. What does this mean? It means that Western Canada is attracting the world's attention. Why is this? Because the wealth, the health and the prosperity are there. Sunny Alberta offers great inducement for land investment, and on generous terms. At present land is offered at wholesale prices. That is—16 quarter sections of 160 acres each at $6.25 per acre. Clubs of 16 persons can easily handle this, and in all human probability it will retail for double this amount within a few years. For general information apply to the agent.

PRICE OF OIL AGAIN CUT.

STANDARD MEETS NEW ENGLAND REDUCTION.

Boston, April 2.—Another cut in the price of illuminating oil delivered to consumers from oil-tank wagons was made by the New England Oil Company Monday, and was immediately met by the Standard Oil Company Tuesday. The reduction is a cent on a gallon, which will amount to a loss of about a million dollars a year in the Boston district. The price two months ago was nine cents a gallon, but war was initiated by the New England Oil Company, and a cut to eight cents resulted. This second cut brings the price to seven cents.

The reduction affects only the Boston district, which is practically within a radius of twenty miles of the State House, and the competition is only between the New England Company and the Standard. The New England Oil Company is understood to be backed by the Gulf Oil Company, which is a combination of the independent refiners practically controlling the output of crude oil in Texas and Indian Territory. It was stated by an officer of the Standard Oil Company that that company has only met the cut, and whatever reduction is made in future it will continue to meet, although no initial cut in prices will be made by the Standard.

BUSY BIDDY.

(From the Philadelphia Record.)

Sing the hen! She has strode to the front in this season of dolor and flood—ed the markets with fresh-laid eggs. There is saner and surer joy in her cackle than in the canticles of the first bluebirds and the robins. Eggs were flung into this market in such plentifulness the past few March days that the quotations for Saturday were 18—19 cents per dozen. What a godsend for Lent! What joy for the household! And the hen will keep at it. She is no halting or halfway bird when she undertakes to answer the Easter expectations of a trusting and anxious nation. In the face of successful effort of the hen to meet demand it will require nerve on the part of retailers to keep on exacting three cents apiece for the white-shelled spheroids.

There are very few people who stop to think what an important factor Mother Hen is in our domestic economy. All the gold that is yearly turned out of the mines or the mints would not buy and pay for the eggs she lays down for our yearly gathering. Think of that! And she not only meets home demand, but she helps feed hungry outsiders. For 1907 there were 8,177,280 dozen eggs exported from this country, valued at $1,719,843. For the last seven troublous months of the present fiscal year, the item of eggs in the export of foodstuffs counts up $950,702. This has been the hen's contribution to bring needed gold into the country and to stifle the panic that was setting the nation crazy.

Again we say, sing to the hen! We could get along better without Teddy than without Biddy.

SCORED MOST GOALS AND HAD BEST AVERAGE OF PLAYERS IN THE E. C. H. A.

Montreal, April 2—Official figures, compiled by the league secretary, Mr. T. Emmett Quinn, shoR that Russell Bowie, of Victorias, headed the list of scorers in the Eastern Canada Hockey Association for the season of 1908. Vics.' star player leads both in number of goals scored and in the season's averages, giving him undisputed claim to having been the most effective forward in the league. He played in the full ten games and scored 31 goals, this giving him an average of a little over 3 goals a game.

The Making of India Ink.

The manufacture of so called india ink has remained a jealously guarded trade secret for centuries. The name of the article itself is a misnomer, for the center of its production is situated in the Chinese province Anhu. The raw material is lampblack obtained by the burning of a mixture of oil of sesame with varnish and hog's lard. The slower the combustion the better and more precious is the product. The lampblack is mixed with a certain amount of glue. The dough thus formed is then beaten with steel hammers on wooden anvils, and two laborers working together at this task can finish about forty pounds of the dough per day. A small addition of Japanese camphor and musk gives it its peculiar smell. While still pliant the mixture is shaped in wooden forms and dried during fair weather. In order to be perfect each cake must be exposed to the air for twenty days. Thirty or thirty-two of the ordinary sticks weigh a pound, and the price in China varies, according to the quality from 50 cents to $35 per pound.

Sharp Retorts.

A man who was offering gratuitous information at a country fair was disparaging the show of cattle.

"Call these here prize cattle?" he scornfully said. "Why, they ain't nothin' to what our folks raised. You may not think it, but my father raised the biggest calf of any man round our parts."

"I can very well believe it," observed a bystander, surveying him from head to foot.

It is not every one who enjoys a joke at his own expense. The judge who pointed with his cane and exclaimed, "There is a great rogue at the end of my cane," was intensely enraged when the man looked hard at him and asked coolly:

"At which end, your honor?"

A friend of Curran's was bragging of his attachment to the jury system and said:

"With trial by jury I have lived and by the blessing of God with trial by jury I will die."

"Oh," said Curran in much amazement, "then you've made up your mind to be hanged, Dick?"—London Tit-Bits.

Salt.

In connection with the name salt a curious fact is to be noted. Salt was formerly regarded as a compound resulting from the union of hydrochloric (or, as it used to be called, muriatic) acid and soda, and hence the generic term of salt was applied to all substances produced by the combination of a base with an acid.

Sir Humphry Davy, however, showed that during their action on each other both the acid and the alkali underwent decomposition and that, while water is formed by the union of the oxygen of the alkali and the hydrogen of the acid, the sodium of the former combines with the chlorine of the latter to form chloride of sodium, and this term is the scientific designation of salt, which, paradoxical as it may seem, is not a salt. At one time nearly the whole of the salt used as food and for industrial purposes was obtained from the sea, and in many countries where the climate is dry and warm and which have a convenient seaboard a great quantity of salt is still obtained.

Letters to the Editor.

MR. MIQUELON AND HIS OPERATIONS IN BOYER DISTRICT.

Editor Daily Record:

Sir,—The remarks I have caused to be published in your columns recently regarding the townships of Boyer and Campbell along the Labelle branch of the C. P. Ry. must have interested someone, for I have received already no less than five letters from different parties, asking me for further information, and in order to save time, I beg leave to give them an answer by using more space in your valuable paper.

There is no mistake about the price of lands, 30 cents per acre is what it sells for, and any man who intends to open up a lot in a bona fide way can secure 200 acres for a cash advance of one-fifth, viz., $6 per 100 acres. The laws as to the settler's duties were the same then as they are now. Therefore, all lands, bought now must be taken within six months and 2½ acres in each 100 must be chopped and cleared so as to be in readiness for sowing in 1909. All timber cut in such clearings is free from stumpage dues and owing to conditions presently existing up there the average acre of soft woodland will give no less than $40 worth of timber of all kinds if properly marked out. The work of taking it to the selling points may cost one-half of that.

The C. P. Ry. is presently building 36 miles of road, viz., Nominingue to Rapide de l'Orignal. At least one-half of that extension should be completed by October next, and the balance one year later, so we will soon have railroad facilities.

Rapide de L'Orignal is intended to become a fine place and a great commercial center. There is already about 100 families and the Lievre forms there one of the best water powers of the north still undeveloped. It stands at 160 miles from Montreal, and will be at same distance from Ottawa, when the Maniwaki branch of the C.P.R. is extended to it, a distance of 36 miles only. The soil, on each side of the Lievre river and the Riamika is as good as that bordering the Richelieu river, and there are already some good farms, but the number is small, owing to the difficulties the people had in getting there. 50 per cent. of the lands (all wood) are still the property of the crown, but will soon sell.

All timber lands belonging to the crown are under licenses to large limit holders till the last day of April of each year and anyone intending to settle up there, should bear in mind that licenses are renewed on the first day of May of each year on all lands still unsold. Therefore, everything brought from now till the last day of April shall cease to be under license on the first day of May next, giving a settler full ownership of his timber.

The crown land agent at Nominingue is Mr. T. A. Christin, who has practically opened up the north and who is ever willing and able to supply the settlers with all the information they require. We have from Nominigue to Boyer (11 miles) as good a road as anywhere in new townships and the same into Campbell. We expect to have a post office opened at Boyer within one month or so, with a triweekly service from Nominingue.

The fare from Montreal is $3.05 only, and any intended settler can purchase a return ticket for $3.15, provided he previously secure a certificate to that effect from a J. P. or from a member of the clergy.

A. C. MIQUELON.

Danville, Que., March 30, 1908.

THE BACKBONE OF THE NATION.

Editor Record:

Sir:—Writers and public speakers often refer to the farmers as the backbone of the nation and a great many in the urban districts seem to think that the farmers are all getting rich when it is a fact that many of them are barely making a living. In fact the backbone of the nation has been picked nearly to the collapsing point.

Farmers represent four classes, the consumer, the producer, employer and the labouring class.

Many in the cities do not look upon the farmer as a consumer, and yet they are heavy consumers. Repairs for buildings, which have become very expensive, wire for fences, harness, farm machinery, tools, groceries, dry goods, boots and shoes, flour, seed grain and feed have all to be bought.

As a producer, the extra cost of producing more than offsets the extra prices receives for farm produce and much of that goes into the hands of middle men.

As employers they are very nearly out of the market, as few good smart men will work on the farm, as they can do better, and the class of help available is of little value to the farmer, and to pay the wages they demand takes out all the profit.

As labourers there is no class of men who work as hard and receive so little in return. Many farmers and their families work from 5 a.m., until 8 p.m., and allow them three per cent on capital invested, and allow their wives and other members of the family the same as others receive, that work much shorter hours and after paying their tax they do not receive $1:50 per day.

It is a serious matter for the nation to sidetrack the food producers and leave them stranded by the way.

Is history going to repeat itself and are the farmers in eastern provinces, like the New England farmers, going to be forced to desert their farms?

Free farms and public assistance to those competing in the Northwest and the many miles of railroads being built is taking the help from the farmers in the east.

History informs us that the same fate befell the new England farmer. The State Legislature was powerless to check the evil, as Congress was working against the east. Progress and expansion by all means, but on a wise and healthy basis.

The stray wolf preys upon the weaklings on the outskirts of the herd, but emboldened by numbers they boldly enter the herd and attack and pull down the best, as well as the poorest. United interests are picking the backbone of the nation, while the disunited farmers look quietly on.

Not wishing to draw too heavily on your space at this time, I only present the case to your readers and if you will allow me I will submit the facts as proved later. As this is one of the greatest national problems of the day, I hope you will allow all interested parties to express their views.

T. C. BEATTIE,
Farmer.

Brompton, March 27, 1908.

LIQUOR MEN MEET PREMIER GOUIN.

want them to be then given to another man. You understand, however, that there are many places in Montreal and Quebec which are not hotels at all."

"Then," said the Premier, "if these licenses are cancelled, what advantage is it to you to have them given to another?"

"Let it cover other premises," was the reply, "where our amounts involved will be saved." The Bank of Montreal and other banks, Mr. Wilson claimed, interested in the business, were not now making advances to hotelkeepers pending the decision of the Government. Following a similar state of affairs in Ontario, there had been widespread failures among hotelkeepers.

Premier Gouin's last words were to the effect that he would do his best to be just to all parties, and the delegation fyled out of the room, apparently satisfied with the result of their mission.

ENGLISHMAN FOUND DEAD.

BODY OF GUY CLIVE DISCOVERED IN WATER AT SAN DIEGO, CAL.

San Diego, April 2.—Jammed into a crevice between two rocks off Coronados Boulevard sea wall, the body of Guy Clive, a citizen of England, and a relative of Lord Clive, the British leader in the wars in India, was found late Sunday.

The body was fully dressed, the clothes were damp and flecked with seaweed, showing that the breakers of Sunday morning. Clive was missed Sunday afternoon. It is thought that the inquest will reveal death from natural cause. Guy Clive was 36 years old, and had never been married. He had travelled much, and had chosen to reside here. Remittances came from England for his support.

LICENSE QUESTION AT LAKE MEGANTIC.

The Lake Megantic Chronicle says: "The license question will come before our Councillors for decision on the first Monday in April. It is generally conceded that our City Fathers will agree to grant the same number of licenses as last year, that is, four hotel licenses and two wholesale. There are some of our people who say that the latter might well be cut out; others say that more licenses might well be granted, letting the municipality work out the law of natural selection. Others say let there be one license for every 1,000 people. We say whatever the Council may have in view, 'do it now,' and don't keep the town in suspense while the Councillors take a long time to make up their minds. 'Do it now,' is a good motto, either for the no-license party of the license people. But neither party wants to hang on and watch till the Councillors get through their game of 'ping-pong' with the question. If they can decide let them do so at once; if they are unable, let them retire in favor of men who can. Perhaps they would like to ask for a public vote again, tacitly acknowledging that their own decision is of no effect, and not the voice of the people. Then we ask again, 'Why have a Council?' So far the fact is, that whatever the Council has decided, when put to a voice of the people has been reversed."

ICELESS ICEBOXES.

(From Popular Mechanics.)

Horseless wagons, smokeless powder, noiseless guns and iceless-ice boxes! The last item consists of an electric motor belted to a pump which keeps a cooling solution moving through a set of pipes and are placed in the refrigerator. These pipes are similar to the steam or hot water radiators in the living rooms; only they cool instead of heat the apartment. The machine is entirely automatic, and constantly maintains whatever degree of cold is selected. The moment the thermometer rises above that point the machine starts up of itself and works until the apartment is sufficiently cooled; then it stops itself. The whole affair is so simple as to require practically no attention, except an occasional oiling, which is no more difficult than to oil a sewing machine. At trifling expense one can fix up a basement room as a cold storage for large supplies, such as barrels of apples, jars of butter, sacks of potatoes, etc., which it is now impossible to keep in the average residence. In many families the saving effected by purchasing supplies in quantities instead of from day to day would be enough to pay the entire cost of operating the cold storage system; if not, the amount formerly spent for ice certainly would.

THE ACTOR'S READY WIT.

(From the English Illustrated Magazine.)

On one of the first nights of the opera of "Cymon" at Drury Lane, a dissatisfied critic, when Mr. Vernon began the last air in the fourth act—

"Torn from me! torn from me!
Which way did they take her?"

immediately sang, in the exact time of the air, to the astonishment of the audience:

"Why, toward Long Acre, toward Long Acre!"

Vernon was for a moment stunned, but recovering himself he sang in rejoinder:

"Ho! ho! did they say so? Then I'll overtake her!
I'll soon overtake her!"

and precipitately ran off amid the plaudits of the whole house.

In "Sancho Panza," a comedy in three acts, by Dufreni, the Duke says at the beginning of the third act: "I begin to get tired of Sancho." "So do I," said a wag in the pit, taking his hat and walking out. This sealed the fate of the piece.

When John Reeve was playing Bombastes at Bristol, upon being stabbed by Artixommus, he denies the fairness of the thrust, and appealing to the pit, said: "It is not fair, is it?"

A bald headed gentleman who probably took the whole representation to be serious, and to whom Reeve directed his glance, replied: "Really, sir, I cannot say, for I don't fence."

SOMETHING ABOUT SULPHATE PULP MFG.

Not Injurious to Health and Vegetation, Says Writer.

A DISCUSSION OF THE MATTER HAS BEEN GOING ON AT EAST ANGUS.

Since the introduction of the manufacturing of the Sulphate Pulp into Canada (East Angus) a year ago, much talk is going on in the interested district as to whether the manufacturing of this article is injurious to health and vegetation or not.

A correspondent from East Angus writes as follows on the subject:

"An impartial judge will soon find that the reasons given by different parties against this industry, do not form a valid proof. The smell, coming from this factory, against which complaints are chiefly directed, is stigmatized as disgusting, intolerable, unbearable and so on. Some even pretend, that the escaping gases are hurtful to health and vegetation. This pretension is only a mere supposition and proved not to be true.

In Sweden, several physicians, who for over 20 years have had experience with workmen of sulphate pulpmills, certify that they could not observe more cases of sickness amongst those workmen than amongst others. Managers of sulphate mills go even as far as to state that working in these mills protects to a certain extent against infection. It can hardly be proved that anybody, through working in a sulphate mill got tuberculosis. In fact, it has happened that doctors ordered consumptives to work in a sulphate mill in order to recover.

"Although the smell of some gases, resulting out of this process seems to many persons unpleasant, yet nobody can pretend to have discovered, in consequence of the relatively small quantity of smell, a bad influence on the organism of life. The smell reminds of that of cabbage and has with it in common, that both proceed from the same chemical substance.

"Much is already done, to diminish the smell considerably and great efforts are being made, to find out, how to get rid of it.

Sixty-nine employees of a sulphate pulpmill in Sweden signed a paper, declaring on their honor and conscience that the work in the factory has not been injurious to them. 60 of them have been occupied for 10 years and more, 17 of them even for 30 years and more."

U. S. SENATORS IN A FIGHT.

LATER ARRESTED ON A CHARGE OF CARRYING A REVOLVER WITH MURDEROUS INTENT.

Little Rock, Ark., April 2.— United States Senator Jeff Davis and Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Helm became involved in an altercation on the street, Monday. Helm, it is said, struck Davis, and the latter went into his office. Davis soon reappeared, and bystanders claim that he was looking for Helm. Helm says that Davis made an insulting remark to him which he resented with several blows.

Senator Davis was arrested on a warrant charging him with carrying a revolver with murderous intent. The case was docketed in Police Court. In a statement, Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Helm says that he met Davis on the street, and accosted him, the latter having slandered him during the recent campaign, repeating false charges concerning the celebrated Hartley case. Helm says he struck Davis twice in the face and subsequently chased him into his office.

JUMPED BAIL IN BUFFALO.

POLE WANTED IN BUFFALO FOR COUNTERFEITING ARRESTED.

Montreal, April 2.—Charged with having jumped his bail, while awaiting sentence at Buffalo, N.Y., after having been found guilty along with his wife of counterfeiting United States nickel and silver coins to the value of $300, Felix Dzierzanowski, a Pole, was arrested here Tuesday by Captain Coleman and Detective Gorman, who were accompanied by United States secret Service Officer L. W. Gammon.

Dzierzanowski was arrested at his boarding house in Manufacturers street, Point St. Charles, in the heart of the Polish colony, and was taken before Judge Choquet. He waived extradition proceedings and said he was willing to return to Buffalo. When he had been formally committed he was taken back to police headquarters. He will be taken back to Buffalo.

Dzierzanowski left Buffalo last November and came direct to this city. Since then he has been employed at the Montreal Rolling Mills or as a snoe shoveller on the Grand Trunk Railway.

TO PROTECT INDIAN MINORS.

LEGAL GUARDIAN FOR 52 ORPHANS AT CAUGHNAWAGA.

Montreal, April 2—Word has been received from Ottawa that the Superintendent-General of Indian Affairs has, under the provisions of the Indian Act, appointed Mr. J. A. Macrae, of Ottawa, legal guardian to the minor children of those members of the band of Iroquois Indians residing on the Caughnawaga reserve who lost their lives in the Quebec bridge disaster. These children are some fifty-two in number, and, under the special provisions of the law applicable to Indians, their property is subject to control of the Department of Indian Affairs. It appears that the appointment in question is to be followed immediately by the taking by the department of such steps as may be necessary to obtain suitable indemnity for the children from those responsible legally for the disaster.

FROZEN TO DEATH.

ST. JOHN MAN WAS DRUNK AND PERISHED IN THE WOODS.

St. John, N.B., April 2.—That the wages of sin is death is forcibly illustrated by the tragic ending of Frank Nowlan, who, deserted by his drinking comrades on Sunday evening, succumbed to exposure and was found lifeless Monday afternoon by a searching party in the woods near the golf links. The police were notified and after the coroner had viewed the body it was removed to the morgue. An inquest will be held. Nowlan was well known to the police, as his name has been on the police record a number of times during the past year on drunkenness charges.

PREPARING FOR FOURTH OF JULY.

STEAMER DOCKS WITH 400,000,000 FIRE CRACKERS.

Boston, April 2. — The British steamship Indrapura docked at South Boston, Wednesday, with, among other cargo, 400,000,000 Chinese fire crackers for the Fourth of July trade. She is near the end of a voyage of 30,000 miles, lasting over eight months. Capt. Kelway had his wife and son Alan with him.

Mrs. Kelway is delighted with Boston people. "I like them next to the English," she said yesterday. She added: "This is the first time I have ever been in Boston. We left Singapore eight months ago. That is where we shipped our crew, made up of Hindoos, Malays, Japanese and Chinese. We have a Japanese chef.

"We stopped at so many ports I really cannot recall the names of all, but I remember we landed at Durban, Chemulpo, Gibraltar, Port Said, Singapore, Subany, Hongkong and Tokio, Kau, and at a port in the Philippines."

The private cabin of Mrs. Kelway resembles a typical college den, even to the pipe rack upon the wall. A bathroom in white enamel adjoins. The vessel has a large airy dining room with an open fireplace.

Smallpox broke out on the ship while in Kobe, Japan, and a deckhand died. The Japanese Government burned 1,200 pounds of sulphur on the Indrapura and Capt. Kelway's agent also had the vessel thoroughly fumigated before putting to sea.

Capt. Kelway reports that the Japanese are making great strides in ship building the port of Dalny. The new cement piers constructed by the Russians will be remodelled at an expense of two years' work and enormous money outlay. The Indrapura carried 7000 tons of railway material to Dalny, 30 cars with trucks. There were few Russians at Dalny when Capt. Kelway was in port.

Those who watch and answer ads may not believe in "luck," but they are the sort of people that are usually referred to as "lucky."

THE ROSS RIFLE.

RUMOR THAT THE FACTORY MAY BE LOCATED IN OTTAWA.

Ottawa is evidently trying to work up a boom for that city as a location for the Ross Rifle factory, as the following extract from the Ottawa Citizen will show:

"It is rumored that in the event of the Ross Rifle Factory being moved from its present site near the historic battlefields at Quebec, it will be located in Ottawa. As is well known, the scheme to preserve the battlefields includes also the removal of transformation of all structures of an unsightly character or of a nature out of harmony with the artistic aspect of the proposed park. It may be necessary, therefore, to move the rifle factory and it is said on apparently good authority that the industry will come to the capital in preference to any other Canadian city. The concern is a large one and much capital is invested or interested in the making of the small arm, patented by Sir Charles Ross and adopted by the Canadian Government. It will not be definitely known for some time whether the factory will be moved, but the opinion of the directors is said to be strongly in favor of the capital as its next and final location."
