

VOTE EARLY WEDNESDAY

Candidates Woo Voters In District

One of the quietest provincial election campaigns in years will come to a close Wednesday with voting day, and in the meanwhile three candidates are making standard appeals to the voters of the local riding.

Graham Gould, representing the government, and standing on its record, is a local resident — born and raised in the riding — and is accenting the government's aid to private enterprise and its development of resources.

Married, father of five, he is a rising young lawyer.

Richard Hyde, elected as a Liberal locally in the provincial by-election here a year ago is a bachelor and is mainly basing his campaign on an attack of the government.

In a closing appeal to the electors of Westmount-St. George, Richard Hyde urged all electors to make a special point of exercising their democratic right to vote. "It is only once in four or five years that you, the people have the right of government in your own hands" said Mr. Hyde. "Do not fail to take advantage of that sacred right which was gained through the unremitting efforts of our forefathers."

Mr. Hyde pointed out that in his opinion the issue today is clear. It is simply a question of whether the government of our great pro-

Tanner sang two groups of songs while Mlle. T. Ferault conducted the French choir in three selections. Accompanist was Mrs. A. Hanken.

Baha'i Group Under Suppression In Iran

Baha'is of Westmount, were informed by Chairman, Rowland Estall at a recent meeting that the Baha'i Faith in Iran is still outlawed and meetings cannot be held.

Although suppressed last year pressure of world opinion has kept the Iranian Parliament from formally acting against the Faith.

However, more than half a million Iranians, members of the country's largest religious minority, are barred from publicly practising their religion. Property worth millions of dollars is in Government hands and the 165 ft. dome of the Baha'i spiritual centre in Teheran has been stripped of its glazed tile and is being used as the office of the Military Governor.

Baha'is in Iran have taken no formal action respecting the ban. One of their spiritual beliefs is obedience to civil powers. They fear any overt act would bring new outbursts of fanaticism such as took place last year.

The Baha'i Faith which emphasizes the spiritual unity of mankind and advocates universal peace has been persecuted periodically in Iran ever since it was founded in the middle of the last century.

The faith which has spread from Iran throughout the world has drawn its membership from all races and religions. In Canada the Baha'i World Faith was established over fifty years ago and now has representation in communities across the country.

Dr. S. Foster, Scientist, Dom.-Douglas Speaker

A Canadian nuclear scientist, Dr. Stuart Foster, will be guest speaker at a lecture in Dominion-Douglas United Church, Monday, June 18, beginning at 8 p.m.

Dr. Foster was one of two Canadian scientists who attended the international top level physics conference in Moscow recently. He will discuss his trip and show colored pictures he took in Russia.

A. Moffat Heads Allegro Singers

Alex Moffat was re-elected president of the Allegro Singers, one of the city's newest singing groups, at the general meeting held recently.

George Patterson was named vice-president and Frank Berrigan, secretary. Other officers include Ron Currie, treasurer; Marlene Dietche, membership, and St. Clair Quinn, publicity.

The meeting was under chairmanship of Mr. Moffat who presided over reading of the committee reports by members of the retiring executive.

On May 30 the group made its first public appearance at St. Monica's Church hall with presentation of an "Evening of Song". The singers were under direction of E. J. Duplantis, B. Mus., and one of the group's founders. Stan Engel was master of ceremonies and James Birmingham, accompanist.

The Allegro Singers expressed a vote of thanks to Councillor Charles C. Brown who donated the programs for the "Evening of Song" and to Rev. F. McMahon, PP, who turned over to the singers all of the proceeds from the concert. The proceeds were originally destined to go to the St. Monica's building fund.

Ontario, long recognized as an angler's paradise, lived up to its reputation as finny denizens of its 250,000 lakes (and streams), took 26 top awards in the 1955 Field and Stream Fishing Contest.

The bus left Unity headquarters at 10:30 travelling to Valleyfield via Beauharnois and returning on Highway No. 2 through Coteau. At Valleyfield the group assembled at Sauve Park where each member was given a box lunch. The Valleyfield Chamber of Commerce was the sponsor of the tour.

Talent Club

Fred Pennell's Unity Boys' Club Talent Parade will visit the Federal Training School on Thursday, June 21. Our readers will recall that the Unity Boys' Club made history at the Penal Institution on Dec 28. It was the first time in the history of Penal Institutions that children of both sexes were permitted to enter a prison. The show at that time was well received and was a forerunner of a great many other shows by other organizations. The Talent Club presented a Variety Show at the Queen Mary Veteran's Hospital on June 6th which was a great success.

Childrens Jamboree

The annual Childrens' Jamboree at Belmont Park will take place this year on Wednesday, July 11. The Unity Boys' Club in conjunction with other Boys' Clubs, will visit Belmont Park for the annual fun. Unity's quota will be one hundred. Boys and Girls who wish to attend this special event are urged to register immediately.

Young Executive 'Care' Vital Business Concern

"The care and feeding of young executives is a prime concern of every businessman, because, of all the elements that constitute an enterprise, this human element is the most vital," P. S. MacNutt of Johnston and Johnston, Ltd., told Westmount Rotary Wednesday.

"These men are your company," Mr. MacNutt said, "and they should be taught to think and act for themselves. When the junior executive feels something should be done, he mustn't be made to ask the boss. He must be encouraged to go and tell the boss so as not to be absolutely dependent on his word."

It was a matter of giving these young men opportunity and responsibility. "Perhaps they lack experience and may make a mistake or two, but they should not be neglected. The alternative is ruin to the business."

Mr. MacNutt declared that men cannot be run like machines. There had to be a deep understanding of human relations on the part of management before any hopes of permanent success in contemporary business could be entertained.

"There are three requisites to a proper nurturing of young men in business. They should be made to feel they belong to the organization and have a role to play in its fortunes. Their desire for recognition, a profoundly human one, should be given satisfaction as much as possible. Finally, they should be given a real sense of security, transcending financial considerations."

Leadership, Mr. MacNutt concluded, is getting work done with the fullest satisfaction given everyone concerned.

Thanks to the speaker were tendered by club president Ernest E. Mills who chaired the meeting.

A gay summer atmosphere prevailed at the luncheon heightened by the reported success of the first night of Rotary Carnival.

Memorial Park Dedication

For the first time in more than a quarter of a century, a new memorial park, sponsored by Jewish Congregations will be dedicated on Sunday, at 11:00 a.m. The "Eternal Gardens Memorial Park" is situated in Beaconsfield, Quebec, a short distance from Montreal. Four congregations — Beth-El, Beth Sholom, Shaare Zedek and Shaare Zion — have located their congregational cemeteries within this park.

The excellent location and the fine landscaping will make this area the most beautiful and stately final resting place available to the Jewish community of Montreal. The large tract of land will be maintained so that each participating congregation will be sure of the dignity and sanctity that is befitting a congregational Cemetery. The area will be completely sodded, with spirea shrubs and beautiful evergreens. A chapel will be conveniently located on the grounds. All driveways will be of asphalt, and a parking lot will accommodate 200 cars.

Among those who will participate in Sunday's dedication ceremony will be Rabbi Morton Leifman of Congregation Beth-El; Rabbi Bernard Leffell of Shaare Zedek Congregation; Rabbi Maurice S. Cohen of the Shaare Zion Congregation; and Rabbi Paul Liner of Temple Beth Sholom. Mayor R. S. Turnham of Beaconsfield, and Mr. Sam Paperman, President of the Synagogue Council of Montreal, will extend greetings. Cantor Solomon Gisser of Shaare Zion Congregation will chant the memorial prayer, and Cantor Mendel Fogel of Shaare Zedek Congregation will chant a Psalm. Mr. Norman Genser, President of Eternal Gardens Memorial Park will deliver the principal address. The public is invited to attend the ceremony.

Founder Of Lower Canada Still Hale and Hearty In UK Old Boys Hear At Ceremonies

The old boys of Lower Canada College were told yesterday that "the boss" is in good health and enjoys watching cricket and tennis on the television set presented to him on his 90th birthday last November.

The boss, as he is known affectionately to old boys of LCC, is Dr. C. S. Fosbery, the founder of the school in 1909. He now lives in retirement at Bourne-mouth, England. He gave the school to his old pupils in 1924 to run as a non-profit making corporation. He retired in 1935.

A report on Dr. Fosbery was given to pupils, their parents, and former pupils at Founder's Day ceremonies at the school on Royal Avenue.

The ceremonies, in addition to the report of Headmaster D. S. Penton, included the presentation of athletic prizes, academic awards and an address by H. E. Griffiths, director of athletics, McGill University, was held in the shade of the open air rink roof on the school grounds.

In reporting on athletic activities at the school during the year, Mr. Penton said:

"We cannot always win championships but we can always play with spirit and good sportsmanship. Our senior teams have done just that this year and we shall remember them with considerable affection for the way in which they have upheld the tradition of clean play and good sportsmanship."

Upper Vith certificates were presented to 21 students and lower Vith certificates to 42 students. Five boys were awarded athletic letters.

More than 80 awards were presented for athletic achievements, in swimming, track and field, gymnastics, golf and shooting.

Among the academic awards the Lieutenant Governor's Silver Medal was awarded to E. L. Morris; the Lieutenant Governor's Bronze Medal, to C. H. Bryant; and the Governor General's Medal to W. I. Reilly.

Enter Montreal Cup Action

Henri Rochon, Robert Bedard will head a contingent of top-seeded tennis stars competing for the Montreal Cup Saturday afternoon in St. Laurent.

Preliminaries will be staged at Gohier and Beudet parks with the finals slated for the former. A large crowd is expected to turn out for the event, one of the top tournaments in the province.

VIOLIN STAGES

In its fascinating account of the evolution of the violin the Book of Knowledge describes and illustrates no less than fourteen different stages through which it passed from its crude beginnings in pre-Grecian times to the complex instrument we know today.

Ignorance, Prejudice Now Surround Plight Of Retarded Children

Most people, Mr. Sutton said, thought mental retardation was a matter of heredity. Families with such children among them were branded with the black mark of "insanity" by neighbors who knew no better. Hence, they preferred to keep the unfortunate victim in a back room rather than have him show himself outside.

So it is that many victims of what in many cases is pre-natal chance are denied any opportunity to live even as far as their limited capacities permit. Mr. Sutton pointed out. The founders of the Quebec Association for the Help of Retarded Children felt that this organization at least provided people with a means of learning what could be done if they found themselves in such a situation.

Mental retardation can be brought about by some 70 different causes, ranging from scarlet fever in the mother's infancy to a fall during pregnancy. It is not necessarily hereditary. Moreover, it can happen to anyone.

Fifty per cent of children suffering from this grave handicap Mr. Sutton pointed out, can be educated to the point where they will be able to do work of a mechanical or repetitive nature. Provided the victim is not rendered completely inept, he can be taught to fit into a number of jobs and he will perform them with a sincerity and faithfulness not to be found in most normal people.

The frightful fact is that there are ten times as many retarded children as there are blind in our community, the speaker revealed. Most of them are stored away in back rooms as far from the light of day and the eyes of others as possible. Much is being done in the United States — and Mr. Sutton showed a specially prepared vince is to be entrusted to a new and revitalized Liberal Administration or whether we are to continue to be burdened by the one-man government of the Union Nationale, he said.

"Your failure to vote is in effect a silent approval of Mr. Duplessis and his undemocratic principles," added Mr. Hyde.

Norman Mergler, Social Democratic candidate for Westmount-St. George, accused Mr. Duplessis and Mr. Lapalme of opposition to health insurance, when he addressed a party meeting this week.

"To health insurance Duplessis says, 'No,'" he claimed. "As for Lapalme, he was elected on a platform promising health insurance and then voted against CCF motions to introduce it."

Mr. Mergler cited Saskatchewan, with its CCF government, as an example of what could be done with a public health plan. "Only two years after the CCF's election there the province enjoyed a comprehensive hospitalization plan and also a free health plan with freedom to choose one's doctor or dentist."

The basic socialist faith is rooted in the concept of human brotherhood, he declared. "We believe that human welfare supercedes private property and wealth. So we support a co-

With its forests, its mines, its electric power, Quebec, as with Ontario, is the most bountiful province in Canada.

The presence in Quebec of a far-seeing government, a social stability that subversive demagogues have been unable to shake, an honest and a hard-working population have attracted capital and industry.

In the last twelve years, 6,000 plants, factories and workshops of all kinds were opened throughout the Province.

The value of Quebec's industrial output last year grossed $7,714,600,000.

"MY WEEK"

Eleanor Roosevelt writes

A New Proposal For Contributions To The Technical Assistance Program Of The United Nations — The Cavanaugh Plan For Federal Education Loans in the U.S.

It has come to any attention from reliable sources that a group of U.S. farm organizations have made a proposal that contributions to the new expanded Technical Assistance Program should be appropriated directly to each specialized agency and not to the central fund. The reason for this is a fear expressed in certain quarters that the work of the Food and Agriculture Agency is being taken over by the U.N. under the expanded program of technical assistance.

This is not true, and the facts are as follows:

The U.N. and each of the specialized agencies have their own regular budget which is financed by assessments against the member governments of the agencies. The use of these funds is entirely within the control of the agency, and they are used to carry out the program voted by the member governments for the benefit of the entire membership. The U.N. expanded program of technical assistance is financed by voluntary contributions from such nations as choose to participate. The money goes into the central fund and is then allocated and spent by the individual international specialized agencies.

At first these funds were allocated automatically among the participating organizations on the basis of a percentage formula set up by the Economic and Social Council in 1949. It soon became apparent that such an inflexible method of allocation frequently made it difficult for the international agencies to respond to specific needs and requests of underdeveloped countries. In 1954 the Economic and Social Council and the General Assembly approved a revision in the allocation of funds so as to make it possible for underdeveloped countries to secure greater emphasis in particular fields, which had not been possible in the automatic percentage formula.

There are five steps under this new system to safeguard the allocation of these funds and to review the programs which are undertaken. Emphasis under the new system is on what the country needs for economic development. More assistance will be possible in agriculture or health, for example, if this is what the country needs.

It would be a mistake to try to change this new plan because of the fear that the specialized agencies themselves will not control their own budget and their own program. It is therefore hoped that when Congress considers this expanded technical assistance program they will accept the recommendations of the General Assembly, realizing that the specialized agencies still fully control their own funds.

I have received a brochure describing a proposed plan for federal education loans called "The Cavanaugh Plan". The brochure states: "This plan guarantees to you or your children a complete education in the field of your choice. It guarantees to teachers a wage that is commensurate with the service they render directly to the student and indirectly to society generally".

Mr. Cavanaugh says that every citizen of the United States is eligible and he includes undergraduate and graduate education of every kind. The method of financing leaves the choice of schools open to the individual. The loan is to

Christian Science

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read at Christian Science services Sunday.

Man's God-given dominion over material laws and limitations will be set forth in readings from the King James Version of the Bible and from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

Among the selections to be read from Science and Health is the following (307:26): "Man was not created from a material basis, nor bidden to obey material laws which Spirit never made; his province is in spiritual statutes, in the higher law of Mind."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (95:3,4): "The Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. In his hand are the deep places of the earth; the strength of the hills is his also."

Hooliganism

By Rev. Canon R. K. Naylor
Rector, Trinity Memorial Church

The riots which broke out last year in regard to the hockey games, and the further outbreak over the tram fares, were both condoned by the Mayor of Montreal, the City Council and the police. So it is no wonder that the hooligans have taken advantage of so small an occasion as Victoria Day to show their contempt for law and order once more. The deliberate setting of fires in the streets in St. Henry; the firing of a lumber yard, the attacks on the police, the assaults on private cars, all indicate a malicious disregard of decent citizenship.

One must consider where the fault lies and what can be done about it. It is not as though we were in the midst of hard times and men in distress were trying to vent their anger against unfair conditions. It is probable that every teen-ager engaged in those acts of violence either has a job or is in school. For a certainty every one of them either has been or is in school. Almost all have homes and most of them are members of some Christian Church. If they are teen-agers someone is responsible for each of them. The responsibility then must be shared. The homes in the first place have failed to develop a sense of decency and consideration for people and property. Have we been too busy holding two jobs in each family to allow the father and mother to bring up their children to observe the decencies of life? Whatever the answer, the first responsibility lies on the parents. A taxi driver told me last week that he was an employe of a railway, but when he was through his office work he drove a taxi. He obviously did not have much time for his children.

All those teen-agers were or had been pupils in school, for we have compulsory education. And the schools pride themselves on teaching citizenship and morality. But apparently what is taught in school is smothered by the gang spirit after school hours. There is even religious education in the schools. But apparently there are groups which do not relate religion to everyday life. Is there no way in which the schools and the community life can be brought together? We have boys' Clubs but there are not enough of them and not enough men of good will giving up time and energy to supervising them. The mere provision of a vacant lot is not enough, for without supervision it may become a centre of gang lawlessness.

Back of the schools are the Churches. The census reports say that there are very few families in Montreal without Church affiliation. Are the Churches to blame for outbreaks of hooliganism? Negatively, I am afraid we must admit responsibility. We have not provided the incentive, which will direct the energies of the teen-age male animal into channels that rise above destructive malice. I venture to say that there were very few scouts, or none at all, found in those destructive gangs. For the Scouts are teen-agers who have been fortunate enough to find devoted and skilled leaders with a citizenship programme, and have submitted to their discipline. But ask the Scout headquarters if they find it easy to get Scoutmasters. It is the same here as everywhere else; the men are too busy to give up their time to train the next generation. If we are to have law and order maintained there must be a desire for it so great that we shall sacrifice a great deal of time and comfort to secure it.

The Party

Graham Gould is a government candidate in Westmount-St. George, and as such has behind him the 12-year success record of the National Union that has brought Quebec Province and this constituency to unparalleled heights of prosperity, while establishing records for the investment of provincial funds in hospitals, schools, sanatoria, etc., for every race and creed in all parts of the province.

Premier Maurice Duplessis and the National Union are leading Quebec ahead in the industrial picture, the finest government it has ever enjoyed.

In education, housing, health, colonization, finance, industry, the record of the National Union is outstanding.

The Man

Graham Gould, 42, is Westmount-born and educated in Argyle and Westmount High Schools. A lawyer, he obtained his law degree from McGill University, served three and a half-years active Second World War sea duty as lieutenant in the Navy on escort duty. Admitted to the bar in 1946 he practiced first with the firm of Foster, Hannen, Watt and Stikeman and is now a member of the firm of Vien, Pare, Gould and Vien. Married, he is the father of five children.

YOUR VOTE:

Most important of all — it takes your vote to send Graham Gould to Quebec, so that the Westmount-St. George riding may have a man on the government side of the legislature.

The issue

Graham Gould is one who believes, with the Montreal Star, as it said in its lead editorial recently: "The province is prosperous . . . even more prosperous than it was four years ago when the last voting took place. The question to be decided by the electorate is simply whether the government has administered the affairs soundly, thriftily and progressively . . ." And, the Star concludes . . . "the voters in the long run, prefer the man with a sense of responsibility".

W.V.S. Urgently Needs Volunteers To Help With Summer Jobs

Volunteers for summer jobs in health and welfare agencies are urgently needed by the Women's Voluntary Services, newest Red Feather agency, it was announced recently. The Women's Voluntary Services, located in Room 151 of the Sun Life Building, reports new requests for volunteer workers, trained and untrained, for a variety of jobs.

Specific requests have come from local hospitals, which find themselves short-staffed during the holiday season. Clinic workers are needed, and helpers for the recreational programs at the Verdun Protestant Hospital. Children's camps, both country camps and suburban day camps, need assistants to help with supervision as well as people with special skills to assist trained camp staff.

Now united in the Red Feather group of social agencies, the Women's Voluntary Services plans to expand its services in the fall and is considering instituting special training courses to fit housewives and business women for specific volunteer jobs in local health and welfare centres.

Red Cross Making Clothing for 2,000 Child Victims Of Strife in Near East

With less than three months remaining before the Tenth International Congress of Entomology, which will meet jointly at McGill University and the University of Montreal from August 17th to 25th, registrations are flowing in to the headquarters at the Science Service Building in Ottawa. Some 500 women are expected to be present. Many of these will accompany their husbands as associate members of the Congress, while others will be included in the list of distinguished scientists who will deliver an expected 600 or more papers on all phases of insect study, including behaviour, control, ecology, genetics, physiology, and special branches relating to agriculture, forestry and stored products.

It is believed that more than 60 countries will be represented by 1500 official delegates, including 30 or more delegates from the Royal Entomological Society of London, a large group from the European countries and from South America, as well as delegates from New Guinea, Fiji, Malta and Cyprus.

The program of women's activities which is being published by the Ladies' Committee of the Congress, will provide historical notes, shopping hints, suggestions for recreational facilities, and information of a general nature which should anticipate many personal problems.

The Ladies' Committee meets monthly in the Redpath Museum under the Chairmanship of Mrs. John Stanley, wife of Professor Stanley of McGill University, who is Chairman of the Montreal Committee of the Congress.

I am afraid that if this were assessed in the first years after graduation, it would mean either later marriage on the part of the graduate or a very heavy burden at a time when most young men and women have little more money than they absolutely need to exist.

I am not sure really that, in a country where we now have free education up to the college level and, in certain cases, free tuition in local or state colleges, we are not nearing the point where we have discovered that it is wise to give both undergraduate and graduate college education at the expense of the state to all young people who can make good use of it.

The way this loan is to be repaid, however, is a point which troubles me. Here is what Mr. Cavanaugh says:

"It is repaid through deduction from wages, like income tax is collected, over the span of the student's working years, or if student is self-employed during those years, paid back with the income tax return.

Pineapple Chiffon Is Fitting Pie For Dad

Here's a cool, beautiful orange pineapple pie that tastes like June. It comes from Mrs. C. Sherman Hoyt of Ottawa, wife of a military doctor at Uplands Air Force Base. Mrs. Hoyt entertains small groups in her home frequently.

"Party foods with make-ahead qualities are my specialty," she says. "That is why this pie is one of my favorites. It can be made as early as you like, in the morning if you wish, and then set in refrigerator until serving time."

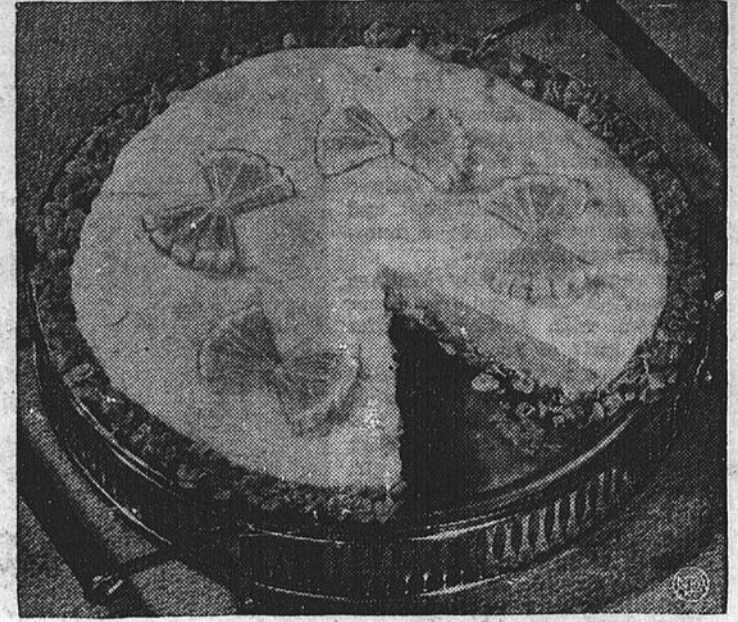

Orange Pineapple Chiffon Pie

Crust: One and three-quarters cups rolled oats (quick or old-fashioned, uncooked), 1/2 cup brown sugar, 1/2 cup melted butter.

Filling: One envelope unflavored gelatin, 1/4 cup pineapple juice, 4 egg yolks, 3/4 cup sugar, 1/2 cup orange juice, 1/2 cup drained crushed pineapple, 1 teaspoon grated orange rind, 4 egg whites.

For the crust, toast rolled oats in shallow pan for 15-20 minutes in a hot oven (400 degrees F.), stirring occasionally the last few minutes. Mix in brown sugar and melted butter. Combine the ingredients well, then press mixture onto bottom and sides of a 9-inch pie plate.

For the filling, soften gelatin in pineapple juice. Combine egg yolks, sugar and orange juice in double boiler. Cook until thickened, about 7 minutes, stirring frequently. Stir in gelatin, drained pineapple and orange rind. Cool. Beat egg whites until stiff. Fold into orange-pineapple mixture. Pour into oats crust. Chill until firmly set. Garnish with butterflies. (To make these, cut thin orange slices in quarters; notch the outer edge of each and fit two together to look like a butterfly.)

ORANGE BUTTERFLIES flit across the top of this orange pineapple chiffon pie. Its a delicate, flavorsome June dessert.

Many Women to Attend 10th International Congress of Entomology in Montreal

Thousands of Canadian women from the Atlantic to the Pacific are busy with a special project. Volunteers of the Women's Work Committee of the Canadian Red Cross are preparing special clothing for unfortunate children in the Near East. Mme Gérard Boudrias, Quebec Provincial chairman of the Women's Work Committee, has announced that her workers are presently concerned with the sewing of some 5,000 articles of clothing.

Some 12,000 children must be clothed, and Red Cross workers throughout Canada hope to be able to supply 5,000 uniform dresses for young girls, 5,000 shirts, shorts and underwear for young boys, as well as night clothing for 2,000 very young boys and girls.

The products will be made in Red Cross workshops and homes in every province and will be made from materials supplied by the Red Cross. The cost of materials is estimated at $19,800.

As the various orders are completed they will be forwarded to the Near East for distribution by UNRA.

The clothing was designed by United Nations representatives in the Near East to meet the customs and conditions prevalent in the countries where these children have been victims of disaster and civil strife in many controversial areas.

New Idea Eliminates Potato Peeling Chore

The next time you visit the museum, don't be surprised to find the old-fashioned potato peeler on display. It's true! Because a brand new idea has knocked the peeler into a cocked hat.

Birds Eye, pioneer in frozen foods, has dreamed up a product that completely eliminates the washing, peeling and cutting of potatoes — the drudgery that precedes almost every meal. This brain-child is called Potato Patties and unlike other packaged potato products, Potato Patties can be cooked in many hashed brown potatoes? Perhaps you like them baked, or deep fried — pan-fried — even broiled. Potato Patties are whisked from the package to the pan and cooked any way you wish. Potato Patties are even at home in a salad or a hearty Vichyssoise. And they don't even need to be defrosted!

CWPC Mtl. Branch Elects Officers

Mrs. Doyle Klyn, Women's Editor of Weekend Magazine was re-elected president of the Montreal Branch of the Canadian Women's Press club at the annual meeting held in the Ritz Carlton hotel on Wednesday evening, June 6.

Other members of the executive include Miss Dorothy Worsdell and Mrs. Henriette Duliani, vice-presidents; Miss Eileen Goodman, recording secretary; Mrs. Betty Lynn, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Zoe Bieler, treasurer and Miss Dusty Vineberg, Historian.

Special Rehabilitation Techniques To Be Available Through V.O.N.

Special training in rehabilitation nursing will be given all nurses of the Victorian Order of Nurses in Montreal, it has been announced. Supervising the new activity is Miss Alice Gage of the V.O.N. staff, who has completed a three-month special study at the Bellevue Medical Centre, New York City.

Rehabilitation nursing is essentially a continuation of the nurse's traditional role of encouraging the patient to make the best of his ability, Miss Gage said. Post-war emphasis on rehabilitation has added new knowledge and techniques to basic nursing training, aimed at restoring the patient to maximum physical capacity and retraining him in the use of his remaining resources.

The Victorian Order of Nurses, a Red Feather agency, provides home-nursing service to the citizens of Montreal. Some of the new techniques of rehabilitation nursing will be of use in readying a patient for more intensive therapy at the Occupational Therapy and Rehabilitation Centre and it will also be valuable after treatment at the Centre, Miss Gage said. Patients who will benefit particularly include those who have suffered cerebral accidents (commonly called strokes), cardiac cases and all patients who have any form of disability.

Miss Gage, a graduate of the Queen Elizabeth Hospital here, said that her work in New York had given her a new appreciation of the rehabilitation services available in Montreal. She feels that local centres have kept pace with developments in the field and that, more and more, rehabilitation techniques are being incorporated into general medical and nursing practice.

Prudential Take Lead In Intermediate Play

Prudential stayed atop the Westend Intermediate Fastball League this week chalking up victories over Notre Dame des Neiges and Mitchell Houghton.

MacRae Electric split a pair of games, as did Mitchell. The hapless Notre Dame crew are still seeking their first victory.

Mitchell Houghton slipped after upsetting MacRae, losing 7-3 to Prudential on Tuesday at NDG park. Yves Valois got credit for the win, allowing six hits, while Red Davis took the loss.

Prudential banged out eight hits, with Jack Victor leading the way with two doubles.

In last Thursday's game against MacRae, at Trenholme, Mitchell Houghton scored their 6-5 win by virtue of a four run uprising in the sixth.

Ernie Lott hurled the win, going all the way and allowing five hits. Sonny Smith started for the MacRae squad, and was relieved in the fifth by brother Gordie, who was tagged with the loss.

MacRae enjoyed a 5-2 lead when Gordie Smith, who entered the tilt in the fifth, walked the leadoff man in the sixth. First baseman Kev Dunnigan then stepped up and belted a homer to narrow the count to 5-4.

Smith followed with another walk, and allowed another hit, which left men on first and second. Bruce English then slashed a hard single through center that brought both men home.

MacRae clipped Notre Dame des Neiges 12-2 on Tuesday behind six-hit pitching from Sonny Smith. Pat Lomasney and Smith belted home runs to lead the onslaught against the Cote des Neiges team.

The two Smiths — Sonny and Gordie — will be carrying the MacRae pitching load for the next few weeks at least, it was learned this week, due to a recurrence of an arm injury to Cliff Bowles.

The slender slinger who had tossed the Electricians to the league title last year before suffering the injury, had a recurrence shortly after making his first appearance this season. Bowles will be taking treatments from trainer Ernie Mackenzie, but there is no word on when or if he'll be able to return.

On Monday, MacRae will face Notre Dame at the College. Tuesday, Mitchell and MacRae meet at Westmount, and Notre Dame and Prudential at NDG.

They were followed by the Lions Boys Club Orioles, who split eight games, and the Unity Boys Club Indians, with 2-7.

The teams started the second half last night, with the Indians meeting the Orioles.

Gordie Cole made his debut as a starting hurler for the Indians Monday, going down to an 11-6 defeat against the St. Andrew's White Sox. It marked the last game of the first half of the schedule for the Unity team.

Manager Tom McAlear, trying to strengthen his pitching staff for the second half, figured Cole as a good prospect for next year, though still weak now.

"With more support he would have done quite well," McAlear commented. His mates made five errors behind him.

The White Sox won the game with three runs in each of the third, fourth and fifth innings. Pierre Brisson was the big gun at bat, with three hits in four attempts, including a leadoff home run.

Gauthier, Carter, Bonnano and Conway each got a pair of bingles.

Cole gave up 13 hits, while fanning six and walking five, Bonnano was the winner, with seven strikeouts and two walks. He hit one batsman.

Fred Power picked up two of the Indians' seven hits, including a home run in his production. Singles were knocked out by Forbes, Mader, Blanchette, and Servant.

The White Sox were also the winners in a tilt on Wednesday of last week, taking seven innings to edge the Unity team 8-7. The Indians came up with a two run sixth frame to send the tilt in to extra innings, after the White Sox had scored five in the top half.

Howard Blanchette gave up seven hits over the first six innings, while Gordie Cole took the loss in the extra stanza. The White Sox counted when Byers led off and was hit by a pitch and scored later after a walk and another hit batsman, and an error.

Scott, Matthews Win Wesley Golf

The Wesley Men's Club held their annual golf tournament at the LaSalle Golf and Country Club on Tuesday June 5th.
