World News In Brief

Jakarta, U.S.I., Jan. 25.—Indonesian military police killed two men, wounded a third and arrested 14 others in a raid today on a secret guerrilla arsenal in the heart of the capital of the new United States of Indonesia.

The men were killed when they attempted to resist entry of police into a downtown warehouse. The police seized dozens of weapons and hundreds of rounds of ammunition.

Berlin, Jan. 25.—(Reuters)—Berlin-bound German supply trucks from the west were passing through the Soviet zone border control point at the rate of about one hour today, a British spokesman said.

East German police were still carrying out more rigorous searches than usual, and queues of about 100 trucks had formed on either side of the border waiting to pass.

Thornhill, Ont., Jan. 25.—Fire spurred by strong east wind early today destroyed the ancient Thornhill hotel and four stores in the heart of this village 10 miles north of Toronto.

Fire reels from Toronto and Aurora, a few miles north of here, aided in bringing the swift conflagration under control about two hours after its outbreak just after midnight. There were no reports of any injuries.

Hamburg, Jan. 25.—(Reuters)—German salvage tugs today were towing the 10,220-ton Holland-American line ship Delft into Bremerhaven with "heavy damage to the engine and a large leak in the hull" caused by her striking a mine off the Weser estuary late last night.

Hathboro, Pa., Jan. 25.—(AP)—Five persons, all members of the same family, were burned to death as flames swept through their home today.

The victims were identified by firemen as Horace Morrow, 39; his wife, Claire, 41, and their three daughters, Virginia, 14, Patricia, 9, and Lorinda, 2, all of Lacey Park, a housing project one mile north of Hathboro.

Montreal, Jan. 25.—The St. Lawrence River water level receded slightly yesterday but the flood danger continued on the south shore opposite Montreal Island.

The waters which threatened to spill over riverfront roads dropped about one foot yesterday. The south shore towns of Lanarrie, St. Lambert, Longueuil, Boucherville and Jacques Cartier were affected.

London, Jan. 25.—(Reuters)—Snow and ice whitened much of Europe today, delaying traffic but bringing ideal conditions for winter sports.

In France the Marseilles-Bordeaux express ran 16 hours late because of heavy snow. Snowplows had to clear the track and parts of the line between Béziers and Narbonne were damaged.

U.K. Conservative Party Promises Lower Costs And Less Rationing If Elected

Three Die In Australian Ship Blast

Sydney, Australia, Jan. 25.—(Reuters)—Three men were killed and 19 badly injured when explosions and fire swept the 2,410-ton Australian navy tank-landing ship Tarakan in Sydney harbor early today.

Rainings having breakfast in the messroom were trapped. The explosion occurred underneath them, where gasoline was stored.

They were trapped by fire and wreckage as companions collapsed and woodwork splintered. Rescue workers cut frantically through the sides and backing deck of the Tarakan with acetylene torches to reach them. Four of the injured are in a critical condition.

Dockers said the force of the explosion lifted the stern of the Tarakan several feet into the air. Windows of nearby buildings were shattered and houses for miles around were rocked.

Seamen stripped to the waist feverishly chopped through deck coverings and levered away ventilators in a desperate effort to reach their screaming mates below, or to let the suffocating fumes gush out.

Cause of the explosion was not known, but it is believed that a spark from an electric fan, which was being adjusted, touched off gasoline fumes.

Hiss Sentenced To Five Years

New York, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Alger Hiss, former United States department official, today was sentenced to five years in federal penitentiary after conviction on perjury charges.

Hiss was convicted on the perjury counts last Saturday by a jury of eight women and four men. He was not fined.

Hiss had denied slipping secret state papers to a pre-war Russian spy ring.

Hiss' defence counsel has said the case will be appealed to the United States circuit court of appeals.

The next step for appeal beyond the circuit court would be to the United States supreme court. Should it go to the highest tribunal, at least three justices are expected to disqualify themselves.

They are Felix Frankfurter, Stanley Reed and Tom C. Clark. The first two testified as character witnesses for Hiss at the first trial last June. Justice Clark was U.S. attorney-general while the government worked up its case against Hiss.

A decision to disqualify himself is up to each justice. He is not compelled by law. However, a justice customarily steps down in a case when he feels that either side might be aggrieved by his considering it.

Manifesto Says Health Plan and Social Service Will Be Maintained But Nationalization Will Be Halting

London, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Winston Churchill's Conservatives have promised to run Britain's welfare state more economically, with less rationing and an end to nationalization if they are elected February 23.

The party manifesto, issued a week after that of Prime Minister Attlee's Labor party, pledges to maintain the country's huge national health plan and other social services, but at the same time cutting taxes.

The campaign platform is aimed principally at stopping the present regime's socialist trend. It also calls for encouragement to American and British investors in the colonies as a source of income.

It pledges close co-operation with the United States to help "all countries in Europe, Asia or elsewhere to resist the aggression of communism."

Noting that United States Marshall-plan aid is due to end in 1952, the Conservative platform calls for cheaper production at home and a Commonwealth economic conference to promote dollar-earning exports.

"We shall bring nationalization to a full stop here and now," the manifesto says.

It promises to repeal the labor-sponsored law which is scheduled to put British iron and steel industries under state ownership Jan. 1, 1951.

Standing for private enterprise, it opposes the labor party's proposal to nationalize sugar, cement, meat, wholesaling and waterworks.

Wherever possible, the party would offer to sell nationalized truck lines and bus and streetcar lines back to their original private owners.

The manifesto advocates a measure of private enterprise for civil aviation, now in government hands, with eventual abolition of the cabinet ministry of civil aviation.

Also on the Conservatives' abolition list is the ministry of supply, which controls Britain's purchases and distribution of materials.

Abolition of the ministry of supply is in line with the Tory policy to do away with government bulk buying, especially of imported goods, throwing that job back to private dealers who they believe might get better bargains and better quality.

The manifesto says a substantial cut in government spending is "necessary and possible."

Britain's economic position would be much better "if a tenth or even a twentieth" of the current yearly budget of $3,300,000,000 pounds ($10,230,000,000) could be saved.

With these proposed cuts in government spending, a major part in the program is reduction of both direct and indirect taxation.

The Conservatives maintain that the tax cuts also would enable them to reduce the subsidies the government has paid out to farmers to keep food prices down.

Although the main clash between the Conservatives and Labor is on the issue of government ownership of industry, the Conservatives do not recommend immediate return of all nationalized industry to private hands.

In the case of the socialized coal industry and government-owned railways, Conservatives would decentralize the administrative functions to promote more efficiency.

They promise to "decide the future of the gas and electricity boards (also in government hands) when we have had more experience in the operation."

Like the Labor party, they say full employment is their first aim. The Conservatives also would abolish the present government direction of labor, promising to discuss a "workers' charter" based on the principle that extra effort should produce extra reward and promotion should be on merit.

They promise the end of food and gasoline rationing when "the prime necessities of life are without exception in plentiful supply and the necessities of life are without exception in plentiful supply and the necessities of life are without exception in plentiful supply."

Contending that everyone should be able to own his own home, they propose to empower local housing authorities to make building loans to families with only a five-percent down payment.

Heavy Water Bought From US By Reds

Washington, Jan. 25.—(AP)—A Congressional witness yesterday testified that Russia bought "heavy water"—useful for atomic bomb research—in the United States as late as February, 1945.

Another witness testified that a New York broker, Boris Pregel, arranged for the shipment of 1,000 pounds of uranium salts to Russia although Pregel was allegedly "aware" of the army's super-secret Manhattan Project for the development of the A-bomb.

Uranium is one of the key ingredients in atomic weapons.

In New York, Pregel issued a statement denouncing the testimony about himself as "not accurate" and asking a chance to be heard "as soon as possible by the House of Representatives Committee on Un-American Activities."

"I wish to point out," Pregel said, "that the shipment was made with the approval of the governments of the United States and the Dominion of Canada."

Pregel, president of the Canadian Radium and Uranium Company, New York, sales agent for a Canadian uranium-producing firm.

Herman Rosenberg, New York chemicals broker, told the House committee yesterday he arranged for the Russians to make two wartime purchases of heavy water and two of uranium compounds in the United States.

But Rosenberg, vice-president of Chematrac, Incorporated, insisted he had no knowledge that the materials could be used for atom bomb experiments. He said his firm complied with all government regulations.

Earlier, Dr. Philip L. Merritt, Atomic Energy Commission official who made wartime uranium purchases for the Manhattan Project, told about the shipment of 1,000 pounds of uranium compounds to Russia.

Merritt said Boris Pregel's New York company sold the uranium to the Russians in violation of a contract giving the U.S. government the exclusive rights to uranium supplies handled by Pregel's firm.

By DOUGLAS HOW

Ottawa, Jan. 25.—(AP)—A tripartite agreement of substantial importance to Canada's atomic effort should be approved by the United States, United Kingdom and Canada within a month.

From the Canadian standpoint the important thing is the prospect of release of a considerably bigger flow of information from the United States' vast and expensive laboratories and experiments.

No immediate or specific conclusion is anticipated, officials say, other than that sort of widened exchange of views which scientists consider the essential for their best work in any field.

In other words, some discovery, say, of an American scientist may in time combine with or stimulate the conclusions of a Canadian and lead to developments of importance to mankind. Since the U.S. Congress passed the McMahon act in 1946, atomic information has been allowed out of the U.S. in only a certain number of fields.

That act, or parts of it, would apparently have to be repealed before any agreement could function fully.

Canada's role in the months-long tri-nation talks leading up to the working arrangement now in prospect has not been a particularly active one.

Coal Strike Hits Steel, Rail Staffs

Pittsburgh, Jan. 25.—(AP)—The soft-coal strike today produced a growing contagion of unemployment in the United States, with at least 17,000 workers idle in the related railroad and steel industries.

Some 75,000 soft-coal diggers remained away from the pits on the third day of the union-ordered three-day work week.

They backed the United Mine Workers' tradition: No contract, no work. Many miners have worked only two days in 1950.

But the seven-month period of three-day weeks, two-day weeks and no-day weeks since the U.M.W. contract expired last June 30 apparently had these other effects:

The United States bureau of mines reported the industry set three safety records in 1949. The fatality rate for all coal produced and the number of deaths in coal mines were the lowest in history.

Furthermore, it was the first full calendar year without a major coal disaster—a single accident in which five or more men were killed.

Railroads, complying with the government order to reduce operations on coal-burning runs, contributed the most layoffs. The Baltimore and Ohio said it has only an eight-day coal supply on hand, compared with the normal 21-day supply.

Steel Company of America laid off 500 at its Midland, Pa. plant. Other steel companies indicated similar action was in the offing should the coal shortage continue.

A coal shortage of "critical proportions" was reported in Ypsilanti.

Barrows Guilty Of Manslaughter

New York, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Ralph Edward Barrows awaits sentencing Feb. 15 for the Waldorf-Astoria hotel-room slaying of a Cameron Mackellar of Montreal.

The 29-year-old former Grand Rapids, Mich., athlete was convicted yesterday of first-degree manslaughter, because of his previous record he is liable to a sentence of 10 to 40 years in prison.

Defence counsel Samuel Segal said he had not yet decided whether to file an appeal.

The state charged Barrows beat Mackellar, 35, vice-president of Dominion Textiles, Limited, to death. The Montrealer's body was found Nov. 5, 1948, the pockets of his grey suit turned inside out.

The prosecution said Barrows had intended to rob the Canadian, following a tour of Manhattan cafes.

The defence had contended Barrows merely knocked the Canadian to the floor after attempting abnormal advances.

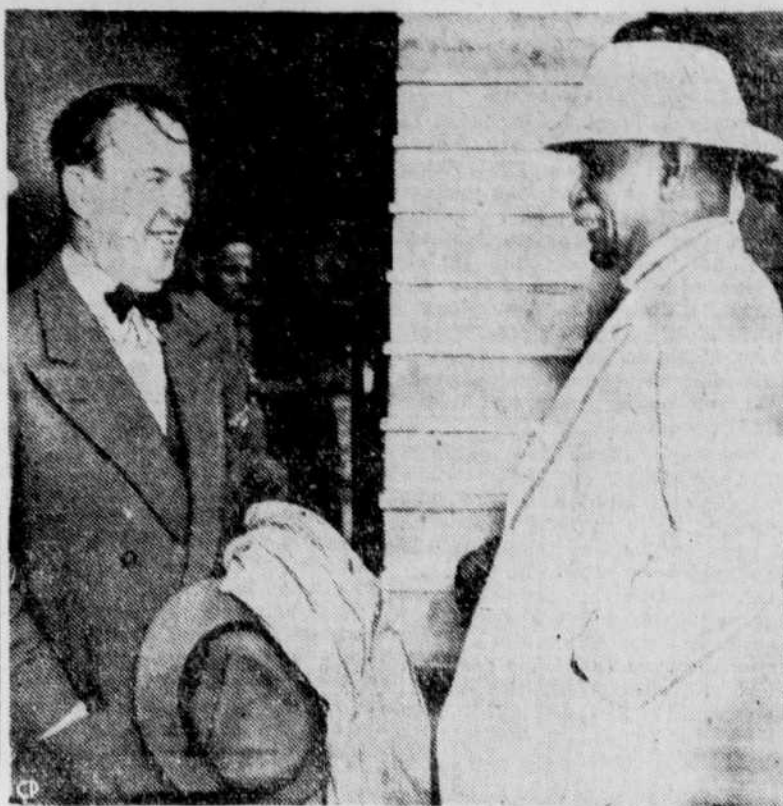

The prosecution had at first demanded conviction on a first-degree murder charge, but the judge ruled that the evidence indicated the lesser charge of manslaughter should be pressed.

On the basis of the evidence, he instructed the jury, which debated two hours, that it could bring in a first- or second-degree manslaughter conviction, or an acquittal.

Barrows heard the verdict stoically; his mother, who came from Grand Rapids to stand by her son, wept.

According to police records, Barrows had previously been sentenced for unlawfully wearing a police uniform, assault and attempted robbery, and had been arrested for rape.

Traffic Is Snarled Here By Snowfall Of 7.2 Inches

Snow plows and blowers were out on the roads today clearing away the remains of a 7.2-inch snowfall that blanketed the countryside last night and snarled traffic in Sherbrooke.

Many minor accidents were reported and on highways outside the city dozens of vehicles slid into the ditch. However, there were no reports of serious accidents or injuries.

In Sherbrooke, city transit buses were delayed by traffic jams and snow, especially during the rush hour period last night. Some buses were as much as an hour late.

Frontenac, Aberdeen and King Hill were blocked by traffic, especially by cars without chains that became stalled. Provincial Transport buses ran a few minutes late while other bus services also reported slight delays.

All services were reported operating on schedule today.

City hall authorities said this morning that street cleaning operations had been hampered by car owners who left their vehicles parked all night on the roadside.

The storm was pretty well nationwide, according to a Canadian Press summary.

A snowstorm was moving into the Maritimes; Ontario had heavy snow in some parts, freezing rain in others; the west was bracing itself against sub-zero cold after one of the winter's heaviest snowfalls.

The snow had already reached Yarmouth, N.S., last night and was expected today in the rest of Nova Scotia and in New Brunswick. The snow reached blizzard proportions for a short spell at Montreal, where traffic was tied up and the Dorval airport was closed with visibility at only 600 feet late Tuesday. A fall of eight inches and more was expected at Montreal.

Ottawa had on of its heaviest snowstorms of the winter, with drifts three feet deep in some sections. By last night the fall had changed to a freezing drizzle with rising temperatures.

The snow and freezing rain made highways hazardous throughout Ontario and at Van Wagner's beach, near Hamilton, fifty lakeside cottages and a hotel were threatened by high waves weakening the shoreline. One cottage had already been swept into the lake but its occupants were safe.

The warmer air brought fog at London and other points in western Ontario after a steady rain. The London and Port Stanley railway resumed normal service after being disrupted for several hours Tuesday by icing conditions on the electric road. Windsor had rain and fog also, with the mercury rising to 40 degrees late Wednesday.

A sharp rise in temperature occurred over most of southern Ontario and unseasonable mildness was promised for today with the mercury expected to reach a maximum of 55 degrees at Windsor, 50 at London and St. Catharines, 45 at Toronto.

Manitoba roads were snow-blocked and air travel in and out of Winnipeg was delayed or cancelled. Colder weather is the prospect in Manitoba today.

Saskatchewan roads are also heavily drifted with snow, and Alberta the clogged highway have caused closing of some schools while some southern Alberta communities face dwindling stocks of food and fuel.

British Columbia is promised bitter cold after the heavy snow which caused landslides in the Rockies, halting rail transportation 120 miles east of Vancouver. Prince George, 500 miles north of Vancouver, yesterday reported a low of 35 below zero. Railway officials hoped to end the blockade by tonight but it depends on the weather. The

Ancient Rites Are Used To Banish Ghost

By JOAN CAPREOL
Bristol, England, Jan. 25.—(Reuters)—While crows waited outside a Victorian stone house under a spooky quarter-moon, the vicar of St. Anne's church here last night exorcised "the Bristol ghost" which has been haunting 13 Highworth road.

The house had been haunted for six months, ever since Mrs. William Baber, the wife of the occupant, defied a traditional ban by opening up a box room that had been closed for 16 years.

Rev. Francis Madcock, 35-year-old church of England clergyman, said after a half-hour service inside the house: "If there was a ghost of an old lady in a bonnet and long black clothes, with a halo round her head, she has disappeared after my ancient rites."

At 7 p.m. last night the four-roomed two-storey house was in darkness, its yellow curtains drawn. Half an hour later the vicar and his two servers, the brims of their hats pulled down, made a dash through photographers' flash bulbs into the house.

Baber, 39-year-old decorator whose 34-year-old wife and six-year-old daughter Shirley are "nervous wrecks" after being haunted for six months, were waiting in the darkness inside.

Then, one by one, the lights were turned on as the vicar went about each room with appropriate prayers taken, he said, from ancient sources going back to the earliest days of Christianity.

The prayers were in English. No incense or holy water was used.

The two servers were dressed in cassocks, while the vicar was dressed in the usual robes of his office. "They did not participate in the ceremony but acted as my moral support," the clergyman said.

"The Babers are grateful and I trust they will live within the spirit of the rites I performed. They are coming to stay in number 13 tonight."

Mrs. Baber said she had been seeing an apparition of what she believed was Mrs. Gladys Drury, a former owner of the house said to have died 18 years ago.

The Babers rented the house 16 years ago on condition the box room would not be opened and the property in it, including a big sea chest, untouched.

But Mrs. Baber opened the room six months ago to turn it into a nursery for Shirley. Since then, she said, the ghost had followed her and her family around.

One Missing In Laurentian Fire
Ste. Agathe, Que., Jan. 25.—(AP)—One person was reported missing today and two were injured when fire destroyed the Normandy Lodge last night at Trout Lake, two miles south of this Laurentian community.

The missing person, an unidentified cook employed by the lodge, could not be found today. It was not known whether or not he was in the two-storey wooden building at the time of the fire.

One of the owners, Maurice Lavigne, was taken to hospital here with burns to his hand and face. Also in hospital was Rudy Corvete.

Price-Fixing In Canadian Newsprint Industry Charged

Washington, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Emanuel Celler, Democratic member of the House of Representatives from New York, said yesterday that the House Judiciary committee has information that certain Canadian newsprint firms and certain provincial governments apparently have "participated in price-fixing arrangements" against United States publishers.

Celler, chairman of the committee, told a press conference that the newsprint industry will be investigated as part of the committee's general inquiry into concentrations of economic power. Canadian manufacturers will be invited to testify.

Celler's statement brought an immediate reply from R. M. Fowler, president of the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association. Fowler, in Montreal, said "it is startling" to hear of the charges.

"This talk of investigation by Congressional committees at Washington sounds very similar to the situation that developed two years ago when all concerned discovered that United States laws did not operate in Canada and that U.S. powers of investigation did not extend into Canada," he said.

He would not give a complete answer to Celler's statements until he had a chance to study it. Officials of Canada's combines investigation committee declined comment.

The United States is the main market for Canada's big newsprint and pulpwood industry.

Fowler's comment referred to an investigation about two years ago when a congressional committee investigating complaints by small business was told that small publishers in the United States were not getting a reasonable share of newsprint imports from Canada. For a time there was talk of trying to subpoena officials of some Canadian newsprint companies to appear before the hearing with their records. However, a grand jury found it could not issue subpoenas against the Canadians. But an official of the Canadian Newsprint Association appeared voluntarily to answer questions.

The Celler monopoly investigation, as it is generally called, began last summer. It is to resume Feb. 15.

Celler did not name the provincial governments of Canada which he said "apparently" were participating in price-fixing arrangements with newspaper companies.

Naming companies whose officials will be asked to testify, he spoke of International Consolidated, Price Brothers and Abitibi.

Celler declared: "If the Canadian mills worked to their proper capacities, there would be plenty of newsprint within the price range."

Celler said he thinks the United States should:

1. "Protest to Canadian authorities that we will not stand for this monopoly business," and

2. Make some attempt to develop alternate sources of newsprint in Alaska, which has large timber reserves.

KIRK DOUGLAS, LEO MC-CAREY SET FOR VAUDEVILLE

Hollywood — Kirk Douglas and Leo McCarey are getting together for a vaudeville saga, "Born in a Trunk." Leo hopes to land Celeste Holm for the feminine lead. Paramount is talking about doing a super war picture about the Signal Corps. Milton Berle's next at Warner Brothers will be "Slapstick" and there's talk of Jackie Gleason for a big part. He does the TV version of "Life of Riley." Ex-boyfriend Danny Ellman gave Joan Davis a bejeweled vanity case inscribed: "Do you wanna make up?" Joan doesn't wanna.

Weather delayed the marriage of Cary Grant and Betsy Drake for a week. Howard Hughes was standing by to fly them to Arizona a week before Christmas but was grounded by a rainstorm. Clark Gable's pre-Christmas marriage was a break for a gal friend who was giving him a $2500 jeweled cigarette case. She read the headlines, then phoned the jeweler to cancel the gift. But she'll have to pay for removal of the inscription: "To the King—Of My Heart."

Bob Hope spent last Christmas entertaining U.S. troops in Germany with Alvin Barkley as his escort. This year, on the spur of the moment, he flew to Alaska for a similar chore. He wired Barkley, honeymooning in Florida: "Where are you now that I need you."

CHILDREN WITH CHICKEN-POX SHOULD BE KEPT FROM

OTHERS

By Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.

Chickenpox does not often kill or produce serious complications. Nevertheless, it is not a disease to ignore entirely. In delicate children, particularly those who are tuberculous, chickenpox can be rather severe and cause some complications. In rare cases, inflammation of the kidneys may develop.

The average time between exposure and appearance of the first symptoms is from 10 to 15 days. The first signs of the disease are likely to be fever, sometimes accompanied by a slight chilly feeling. The typical blisters may not be present at first but the skin may appear somewhat red.

Blisters Appear Quickly
The typical blisters on the skin usually begin to appear within 24 hours of the first symptom. At first they are most common on the back or chest, but may begin on the forehead or face. They generally start as raised reddish bumps. After about two days the contents of the blisters become pus-like and cloudy instead of clear as it is at first.

Special treatment for chickenpox is usually not necessary. The disease is spread by contact from a sick child to one who is well and has never had the disease. For this reason a child with chickenpox should be kept away from others and also should be kept in bed until the acute stage of the disease is over.

Sometimes soothing lotions or powders are helpful to decrease the itching and scratching. Bandaging the hands or otherwise preventing the child from touching the pox and possibly getting an unnecessary permanent scar may be needed to prevent scratching.

PITCHING
HORSESHOE

By BILLY ROSE

THE HEAD IS QUICKER
THAN THE HAND

Whenever I'm in the mood for gargantuan gab, I lie myself over to a Russian tea room near Carnegie Hall where refugees of a dozen nations sit around and give out with tall talk about the old days behind them and the new days coming up.

To give you a fitting for-instance, the other night I heard a macabre yarn from a gent who used to teach science in Warsaw, and while I don't know whether it's history or hokum, it strikes me as being worth my allotment of white space today.

During the last year of the war, there was a small concentration camp in East Germany which had been set up for two purposes: (a) to build an underground machine shop, and (b) to make available the required number of human guinea pigs for certain experiments being conducted by distinguished Nazi scientists.

By SS standards, the method of selecting these guinea pigs was scrupulously fair. Each morning before breakfast, the 50 men in each of the wooden barracks would stand at attention until the commandant appeared with a list of their names. He would read off the top name on the list and the prisoner whose name was called would step forward. The commandant would then hand two small leather disks, one marked with a white circle and the other with a black, to the "trustee" of the barracks for examination. Then the commandant would drop the disks into his hat, and the prisoner would draw one of them. If he picked the one with the white circle, he was safe until his name came up again 50 days later; if he drew the black one, he would be shipped out that Saturday night.

In the December of 1944, my tea-room friends — the scientist from Warsaw — was called-carried to this concentration camp and assigned to a barrack occupied almost exclusively by captured Russian soldiers. He was asked the usual questions, and when the Russians found the newcomer was a Pole, they quickly let him know that the fraternity of races as preached by Moscow was confined to Kremlin publicity handouts.

And when he further admitted he had never joined the Party — not for any big ideological reason, but simply because he was a scientist and had no interest in politics — the Red Army men decided he was an enemy of the state and began to plot against him.

The Pole, however, was more worried about the disks in the hat than the whispering going on about him. Under the lottery system it would be almost two months before his name was called, and since news had filtered into the camp that the Russian forces were only a few weeks away he kept telling himself that liberation might come before the date for the drawing. But as the days turned into weeks and still no sound of far-away cannon, he resigned himself to taking his 50-50 chances with the hat.

The night before the fateful morning, the scientist was lying awake in his bunk when he felt a tug at his blanket. It was a young Czech who had been badly treated by the "trustee," and who had often mumbled about getting even. According to the kid, the commandant had figured out a plot to make certain the Pole would be shipped off to the Nazi experiments. The "trustee" had cut a leather disk from his shoes and made a black circle on it, and when the commandant asked him to examine the disk, his plan was to palm the one with the white circle and substitute his own, so that either would mean death to the non-Party man.

For a long moment, the scientist looked up at the slat ceiling of the bunk above him. "Thank you," he finally said to his friend. "I think I'll be able to manage."

Next morning when his name was called, he saw the "trustee" palm the white-circled disk and substitute another. But he pretended not to notice, and when the commandant held out his hat he smiled and selected a disk. "White or black," he said, "I'm going to have one good meal in this miserable camp." And before the officer could stop him, he popped the bit of leather into his mouth and swallowed.

The SS man frowned. "Crazy Pole," he said, "what good will that do? There is still a disk left in the hat. It is black, you picked the white; if it is white, you picked the black."

"That is quite correct, Sir," said the scientist.

Labor on the other hand expects to draw most of its strength from the working classes, rallying to the socialist battle cry that because of government planning British housewives no longer face the big pre-war problem: The husband who comes home to say he has lost his job!

Rotary Foundation Student Speaks Vestry Of To Members Of Local Rotary Club St. Peter's Church Meets

A Rotary Foundation student in political science at McGill University, William Haltigan, of Tucson, Arizona, addressed members of the Rotary Club at their regular meeting last night, describing the way of life of his neighbors, and Arizona as a whole.

Although Arizona is the fifth largest of the United States, Mr. Haltigan said he was somewhat surprised to find that it is only one fourth the size of the province of Quebec.

It is divided into three separate regions, desert country, irregular mountain ranges, with largest forests of pine and fir, and the great high plateau, one of the most desolate portions of the United States.

Mr. Haltigan described briefly the history of Arizona, peopled for many years by Indians, fierce nomadic tribes, then by the Spaniards, who were not made welcome by the Indians, and by Anglo-Saxons.

"Modern Arizona is far different from its not too distant past," the speaker said. "Gone are the two-gun days of the old West, of the Apache wars, when no quarter was asked or given by either side, the heyday of the mining camps, when arguments, however trivial were settled with guns."

He said that the modern, scientific farmer replaces the cowboy of old, and that farming is quite unique, because of the shortage of water. Large dams have been constructed on all major streams, and underground water is also used, which greatly increases the cost of farming, but fertile soil, long growing seasons and warm weather, favorable to special crops such as oranges, grapefruit and such, make up in some way for the inconvenience of the water shortage.

Mines yield zinc, silver, gold and copper and in spite of the fact that $175,000,000 a year is produced, mining is still in rather desperate straits, because the mines are old, and the ore of low grade. This creates a dangerous situation in the State's economy, Mr. Haltigan said.

The isolation of Arizona from all large consumer areas also hinders manufacturing somewhat.

The tourist industry is an important one in Arizona, throngs of visitors come from all parts of the country to view the grandeur of the Grand Canyon, and other spots for which Arizona has become justly famous. Many also enjoy its beneficial climate, seeking relief from arthritis, asthma, tuberculosis and various respiratory diseases.

Mr. Haltigan was introduced by past president Douglas Stevenson and thanked by Past District Governor George Erving.

Hans Wartenau, of Zwolle, the Netherlands, also a Rotary Foundation Student, taking a post-graduate course in civil engineering at McGill, accompanied Mr. Haltigan, and said a few words to the Rotarians, expressing the gratitude of his country to Canada, first of all because so many Canadians helped in its liberation, and because of the assistance received during its rehabilitation period. He also welcomed the opportunity of meeting Rotary Club members and taking back impressions of Rotary in Canada, to share with his fellow citizens.

President B. D. Lyon was in the chair and welcomed visiting Rotarian Samuel Jennings, of Montreal.

Details Of Violence At Asbestos Buildings At Farnham Camp Will Be Sold

Details of violence at the barricades outside Asbestos during the strike there, last May were outlined today by a provincial policeman at the conspiracy trial of labor organizer Rene Roque.

Arthur Normandeau of the Provincial Police testified that he was in Asbestos May 5, the day of the outbreaks. He received a telephone call at about 11 p.m. the previous evening from detective Wilfrid Blouin in Thetford informing him that a number of men were leaving for Asbestos as reinforcements for the strikers there.

He communicated with headquarters in Montreal and was told additional police officers would be sent to Asbestos.

Normandeau said that at about 5:30 a.m. on May 5 he went to the outskirts of the town with a group of officers and saw a number of cars and trucks, filled with men, approaching so he gave orders to barricade the road.

The policemen attempted to get the names of the occupants of the cars and were able to do so at first, but when the trucks arrived it became practically impossible as there was a great deal of noise.

Police officers requested the strikers to return to the town. They turned their trucks and proceeded about 300 feet in the direction of Wotton.

Detective Normandeau said there were beer bottles filled with water in the cars and rocks in the trucks. He ordered these removed and the bottles broken.

The crowd of strikers was yelling and swearing that "if anybody has to die we are ready to do so, to defend our good cause."

The witness said he gave instructions to the police to return to the mine in order to protect the buildings and the workers there.

In the town the group of officers, about 25 or 30, met a parade of approximately 200 women marching through the streets, interrupting every few minutes in order to curse the officers.

Detective Normandeau and his men attempted to guard all possible entrances to the town so that additional strikers could not make their way to the mine.

All through the day of May 5 there was considerable activity in the town and on the roads leading to it.

The police were obliged to loose tear gas bombs in order to prevent the strikers from breaking down the barricades. He said he believed one of the strikers was injured at this point and a police officer. The strikers did not succeed in breaking through the barricade.

Normandeau was posted in the observation tower at the mine and had a complete view of the town as well as the roads approaching it.

He left the tower about 8:30

In order to reach Danville he and one of his men had to walk through fields and farm properties and along small country roads.

He saw some cars turned over in the ditch and burned. He finally reached Danville and went to Victoriaville by car where he communicated with his superior officers.

He was unable to make any further phone calls from Asbestos which was his reason for wishing to go to Danville.

At press time, Normandeau had been the only witness heard to day.

The case is being heard in Court of King's Bench before Mr. Justice William Mitchell.

Crown witnesses at yesterday's hearing told of events at Thetford Mines before the outbreak of violence at Asbestos.

Donat Beaudet and Edouard Blanchette, both of Thetford, told of a meeting of strikers in Thetford the night before the Asbestos outbreak.

Blanchette, chairman of a workers' committee, said Roque was an organizer, directing the strikers.

He said he met him with Beaudet and that their conversation concerned the sending of some people to Asbestos to prevent "scabs" from entering the mine of the Canadian Johns-Manville Company.

This assistance was to be sent by truck and Beaudet was in charge of the trucks. The question of bottles of water and handkerchiefs was discussed in the event tear gas was used.

Blanchette said he spoke at the meeting on the night of May 4 and that Roque was present although he did not speak. Blanchette told strikers there would be "a little picnic" at Asbestos with the object of preventing "scabs" from entering the mine.

Roch Cloutier of Thetford, secretary of the Manoir Hebert, said Roque stayed at his hotel off and on from mid-February to mid-May.

Joseph Lehoux, a miner who drove a taxi during the strike, told of driving a group of five to Asbestos early on the morning of May 4-5. They were stopped at the outskirts of the town by provincial police and his passengers got out.

Lehoux turned around and drove a few hundred feet up the road. There he stopped and waited and when the trucks arrived he went into town with them.

His testimony ended the hearing for the day.

Meeting Of A. Y. P. A. Held Last Evening

The Anglican Young People's Association aims "to work, to learn, to pray and to give" Rev. John Comfort told the regular meeting of the A.Y.P.A. held in St. Peter's Church last night.

"Religion should be a happy affair," stated the guest speaker who was introduced to the young people by the president, Mervin Awcock. Mr. Comfort outlined the duties of a Christian as those of happy, responsible people. To be a Christian you need not go around with a long face and not enjoy life at all, he added.

A sense of responsibility was stressed. "Once you take up a thing, you have to stick with it. Youth's greatest weakness is the lack of ability to stay with a thing."

Mr. Comfort explained to his audience that the main reason for going to church is not to listen to a good choir, not to listen to a good sermon, but to help God. He emphasized that if the only reason one was attending church was to hear a wonderful preacher, they had better change their minds and realize the purpose behind what they were doing.

Concluding, Mr. Comfort said, "When Christ reigns supreme in our hearts, then we have begun to be real Christians and real individuals."

The guest speaker was thanked by Bill LeSalle.

For the regular business meeting, the president, Mervin Awcock, was in the chair. The main item of business on the Agenda was the forthcoming Anglican Young People's Association Youth Rally to be held in Sherbrooke this weekend.

A program has been drawn up to commence with a Diocesan Council business meeting at 2:30 on Saturday afternoon, movies at 4:30; Evensong, at 5:30 conducted by Rev. Thomas Hardy.

At 6 p.m. supper will be served at which time, Rev. S. Wetmore, Field Secretary for the General Board of Religious Education, will be the guest speaker. This will be followed by a social evening and preparation for Holy Communion at 10:15.

Holy Communion will be celebrated Sunday at 8 a.m. and will be followed by a breakfast in the church hall. A Youth Service at 11 a.m. will conclude the Rally program.

Hopes Of Finding Deaf-Mute Alive Dampened By Snowfall At Waterloo

Waterloo, Jan. 25. — After a three-day search no clues have been found in the case of Andrew Larsen, 18-year-old deaf mute believed lost in the woods near Ste. Anne de Stukely. A blinding snowstorm which left ten inches of snow in its wake dampened the hopes that the youth would be found alive.

Some 125 volunteer searchers, exhausted after combing the dense woods over a 20-square mile area, reported no sign of the missing youth.

The sick youth, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aage Larsen, disappeared from his home on Saturday. The youth's 46-year-old father is among those taking part in the search. His farm has been the centre of search operations and yesterday Red Cross workers drove to the farmhouse to distribute coffee and sandwiches to members of the search parties.

Although we intend to resume the search tomorrow, chances of finding the boy alive are pretty slim," Police Chief J. Robillard of Waterloo said today. There was a strong possibility that the youth had frozen to death and that his body would not be found until the spring, he said.

Nearly every farmhouse in the district, he added, had been visited by some of the men during the day but no one reported having seen young Larsen walking near their farms.

"We looked into every barn and stable in the hope that the boy went in one to seek refuge from the cold but it was the same story. No trace of his whereabouts has been uncovered and yesterday's storm ruled out chances of finding footprints or anything that may be of help."

Yesterday's search lasted from 8 a.m., when scores of factory workers, district farmers and police headed for the woods at the rear of the Larsen farm, until darkness fell. The Larsen farm is situated on the Ste. Anne de Stukely road about three miles north of Waterloo.

Provincial Police from Sherbrooke are helping in the search for the youth who is wearing a sand-colored parka, a dark grey coat, a black leather cap and rubber boots.

Provincial Police Detective Emile Chamberland, of the homicide squad, Montreal, and a detachment of Provincial Police are also out on the search.

New York Rangers And Toronto Maple Leafs Both Have Injury Trouble Before Tonight's Games

Nobody is more judicious than a major league hockey coach—before a game, that is.

Coach Lynn Patrick of the New York Rangers was calm and collected today, before his Manhattan puck-chasers collide tonight with the Maple Leafs at Toronto.

Patrick brushed aside questions concerning the rubarb that developed when the Leafs beat Rangers 2-1 last Saturday, a brawl between players of both teams in the aisles leading to the dressing rooms. In that affair Patrick was an active participant, cutting his hand on the teeth of Toronto defenceman Gus Mortson as both Toronto and New York players milled around among spectators going in and out of the rink.

The Leafs and Rangers practised in turn on the same ice yesterday with nary a harsh word, and Patrick himself said he was "trying to forget" the Saturday brawl. He had more important things to worry about, such as the condition of Wally Stanowski, sturdy Ranger rearguard, who may be operated on today for removal of knee cartilage which refuses to heal. He also has centre Edgar Laprade nursing a groin injury.

The Leafs will be minus Big Harry Watson, forward with a sprained hip, and defenceman Garth Boesch, with a strained back. They'll also be without centre Cal Gardner, of course, but Gardner, who suffered a jaw fracture back in November, is skating again with a special helmet and he may be in the line-up next Saturday.

In tonight's only other game the leading Detroit Red Wings entertain the fifth-place Boston Bruins. Neither game can change the standing much. Detroit has a nine-point lead over the second-place Montreal Canadiens, and the Canadiens are four points ahead of the Leafs.

Joey Maxim fixes sights on world heavyweight crown after winning 175-pound title from Freddie Mills.

London, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Fast-stepping Joey Maxim, not satisfied with winning the world's light-heavyweight title, is cocking an eye at the heavyweight crown.

The 27-year-old boxing machine from Cleveland, Ohio, knocked out Freddie Mills of England in the tenth round last night to win back the championship for the United States.

Maxim's payoff blows that made a record indoor crowd of 18,000 roar was a stiff jab to the face and a terrific right cross to Mills' jaw.

The victory redeemed the loss of the title here by New Jersey's Gus Lesnevich in the summer of 1948. Mills dropped the title last night in his first defence.

Wily Jack (Doc) Kearns, Maxim's manager, announced right away that the new champion will go after the heavyweight title.

"Now that Joey has won the crown," Kearns said, "we'll stay over here to fight the winner of the Bruce Woodcock-Lee Savold fight in May. The British call this their version of the world's heavyweight championship, so we'll take a cut at that."

The United States National Boxing Association recognizes Ezzard Charles as the world's heavyweight champion.

"They have as much right to it as we do," Kearns said.

put on the world's heavyweight championship here," Kearns said, "as the N.B.A. has to call Charles the world's heavyweight champion."

The bearded Maxim said he never fought. His manager, Ted Broadbent, called the shift to Ohio the "best 175-pound fighter I've ever seen."

Broadbent said the deposed champ has a contract for a return fight but he indicated he will advise the 30-year-old Mills to retire.

The knockout came in 1:34 of the 10th of a scheduled 15-rounder. Maxim weighed 174½ and Mills 173.

Maxim was rated a 1-to-2 favorite with the bookmakers, but the knockout was unexpected.

After the terrific right to the jaw, Mills sagged to the floor. He was on his knees as the count rolled on. At eight Mills tumbled to his side. He was out cold and minus five teeth from Joey's crisp punching.

The stocky Briton had fought only twice and showed the lack of ring activity. He lost by a knockout last June when he challenged Woodcock for the British Empire heavyweight crown.

Mills, rated the heavier puncher, came out swinging with every blow, but Maxim's jab and right hand were too much for him.

Saying that the newspaper situation is "getting very serious," he cited that the high cost of paper was one reason given for the recent sale of the New York Sun.

Newspaper prices have gone up 104 per cent in the last 10 years, he told reporters, and a "Canadian combine apparently controls the bulk of our newspaper."

"We have information these companies are curtailing production and developing artificial scarcities, and taking advantage of the alleged shortage in supply to boost prices."

"We absorb 70 to 90 per cent of all Canadian newspaper, and its export brings in more dollars to Canada than any other commodity except gold."

In suggesting Alaska as an alternate source of newspaper supply, Celler said official United States action in this direction "would have a very good effect on the activities of the Canadian companies."

NEW PROPRIETOR

Mr. Gingras, born in Sherbrooke, received his education at L'Ecole du Centre here and at the Sacred Heart School in Victoriaville. He is the son of C. A. Gingras, a former Sherbrooke manufacturer.

Mr. Gingras served as a clerk in the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Hemmingford, St. Georges de Beauce, St. Hyacinthe, Granby, Asbestos, and Theftford Mines. After his banking experience he became an accountant for Legare Automobile Limited here.

In 1934 he joined the General Motors Company and in 1939 was transferred to St. Hyacinthe and then became manager of the St. Therese Garage in Ste. Therese de Blainville. He then took over as co-proprietor of Gingras-Fournier Automobile Limited.

On December 29, 1949, he took over the Marquis Automobiles Limited, here and changed the name to Gingras Automobiles Limited.

With twenty-five years of experience Mr. Gingras should be successful. A former director and president of the Chamber of Commerce at Ste. Therese he is also a member of the Rosemere Fishing Club and a member of the Knights of Columbus.

Married, he is the father of four children.

Lennoxville, Ascot Association Meeting Set

The next general meeting of the Lennoxville and Ascot Community Association is to be held in St. George's Hall, Lennoxville, on Tuesday, January 31, at 8 p.m. and will take fire protection as its main subject.

J. N. Pryce, of Montreal, a member of the Fire Underwriters' Association, will be the principal speaker, the title of his address being "Fire Prevention and Protection in the Small Community."

This theme will be followed up by Howard Nichol, town councillor and chairman of the Lennoxville fire department, who will explain the system employed by the town for combating fire hazards and plans for future expansion in this important matter. It is expected that members of the Lennoxville volunteer fire brigade will attend the meeting in a body, both to gather useful information from Mr. Pryce's talk and also to enable the local citizens to learn who are the public spirited men whose valuable and often dangerous services so often go unrecognized.

Robert Blake, president of the L.A.C.A., will be in the chair and reports on the Christmas party and the membership drive will be presented. Since fire protection is of vital interest to everyone in the community, it is hoped that there will be a large attendance at this meeting which is open to all, whether members of the Association or not.

A social period, with refreshments, will be the final item on the program. Coffee will be provided by the Association and those attending are asked to bring sandwiches, cake or cookies.

London, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Princess Elizabeth may make another trip to Malta to see her navy lieutenant husband, the Duke of Edinburgh. Pennsylvania, with 43,200 of the idle diggers, has been hardest hit by the walkout. Much suffering is reported among miners there who are besieging relief offices for aid.

West Virginia has more than 14,000 out; Ohio, 9,000; Kentucky, 1,800; Tennessee, 200; and Alabama, 7,200.

When the diggers will go back is anybody's guess. Union leaders here are trying to urge their return in line with a "suggestion" put forth by Lewis two weeks ago.

Edmonton Mercuys Blank Wembley 3-0

London, Jan. 25.—@—Edmonton Mercuys, playing a cosy waiting game for two periods, last night defeated Wembley All-Stars 3-0 in an exhibition hockey game before 7,000 in Wembley's Empire Pool.

The Mercuys, Canada's entry in the World Championships March 13-22, thus achieved what only one other team has been able to do in 16 years. Since 1934 Wembley All Stars have suffered only one defeat by a Canadian touring team—Ottawa All-Stars in 1947.

Dominion Textile Company Sets Record

Montreal, Jan. 25.—@—Two records set by different branches of Dominion Textile Company Limited were announced here today by a spokesman of the company.

Production at the company's cotton mill in Magog has risen to the point where the million-yards-a-week quota has been passed, he said. Modernization of this branch, including the latest in equipment, full air-conditioning and fluorescent lighting was completed this summer, making the plant one of the most up-to-date in North America. It now pours out 1,000,000 yards of cotton goods each week for printing purposes.

Second record was the achievement on the company's general machine shop in Montreal, which has just completed a full year of operation without a single lost-time accident.

STORM DAMAGE?
Was your barn damaged?
High winds have destroyed
many farm buildings. Maybe you were lucky, maybe you are fac-

But in either case it is well worth remembering that build-

WOOD rafters are strongly wind-resistant and almost impervious to damage by sales.
they are economical

BLISS NATIVE HERBS TABLETS

For Bad Winter Cough, Mix This Syrup Yourself

If you want a splendid cough medicine, mix it at home. It costs very little, yet the way it takes hold of distressing coughs, giving quick relief, is astonishing.

Any druggist can supply you with a 2½ ounce bottle of Pinex. Pour this into a 16 ounce bottle and fill up with granulated sugar syrup to make 16 ounces. To make syrup, use 2 cups of sugar and one cup of water. Stir a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed. (Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup.) It's no trouble at all and gives you four times as much cough medicine for your money — a family supply. Keeps perfectly and tastes fine.

It is surprising how quickly this loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and helps to clear the air passages. This three-fold action explains why it relieves an annoying cough in a hurry.

Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, a very reliable soothing agent for winter coughs. Money refunded if not pleased in every way.

DOROTHY DIX

Child Bridegroom

Parents Are Final Victims
If Girl Marries Wastrel

Dear Miss Dix: I am 19 and my father and mother have been very good to me and at great sacrifice to themselves are sending me to college. I am in love with a boy whom my parents object to because he gets drunk and because he has no job and no way of making a living. I have told my mother that I am going to marry this boy instead of going back to college. Don't you think that if I want to marry this boy I have every right in the world to do so?

DOROTHY DIX

Answer: Well, if you can be hopeful of being happy married to a drunken boy who can't support you, you are certainly the world's greatest optimist.

DON'T THROW AWAY CHANCES
Don't be a little fool and throw away all your chances of happiness in life just because you imagine you are in love. You have a chance of a good education and to make something of yourself and eventually to marry a man you can be proud of. Make the most of that chance. Have enough pride not to throw yourself away on a boy who isn't fit to marry any girl. No man has a right to ask a girl to marry him unless he has some way of supporting her and her children.

As for your saying that you have every right in the world to marry whom you please without regard to your parents' opinion, that is absurd. It isn't your own affair exclusively. It is your parents' fair just as much as it is yours, because they are the ones who will have to pay the price of your mistake if you make one.

You know well enough that their affection for you will not let them deal with you as you deserve if you defy them. They can't let you starve. They can't let you sleep in a doorway. It is the parents who are the victims when their children make unhappy marriages.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I know a woman who has been an ideal mother-in-law, but she is "shoved" out of her son's home by the wife's mother, who is a wealthy woman, but who must live with her daughter because she cannot bear to be parted from her. My friend does not wish to live with her son because she does not approve of old people living with young married ones, but she would like to visit him now and then. This she cannot do because the wife's mother occupies the guest chamber. What do you think of this? Is it not an unusual case?

Answer: On the contrary, it is what generally happens. In nine cases out of ten where there is an in-law in the house it is the wife's relatives and not the husband's. Probably 50 per cent more men are supporting their wives' parents than are supporting their own, which may make it break even financially, but not emotionally.

For men do not cease to love their own families when they get married, as their wives appear to think they do. A man doesn't forget his mother any more than a woman does hers, and he would like just as much to have her near him as his wife likes to have her mother near her, if the thing could be done in peace. But apparently it can't.

Wives should play fairer than this, and even when one has her mother live with her she should send her away part of the time and give her husband's mother a chance to come and visit with her son. And she should make her feel that this is a pleasure and not a duty. For mothers love their sons and desire to be with them just as much as mothers do their daughters.

Dear Miss Dix: I have been secretly married to a man for four years who gives me his time and money and idolizes me. To protect my position I have suggested that both he and I go out with other people just as if we were single. He will not consent to this. Says it would destroy our confidence in each other. What is your advice?

Answer: I think your husband is right, and that just because of the position you hold toward each other you need to be more discreet in your conduct than you would be if you were not married, and that you would be very likely to be filled with jealousy and suspicion if either went out with another.

Also, it would not be giving the man or woman a fair deal if you posed as single when married. Some worthy lad might fall in love with you and some girl set her heart upon your husband, and be broken-hearted when they found that their affection was hopeless.

The Record will be pleased to receive any letters to this Dorothy Dix column. These will be forwarded to Miss Dix who will answer them as quickly as possible.

Mrs. C. L. Campbell
Elected President
Of Trinity W. A.

Mrs. Colin L. Campbell was elected president of the Women's Association of Trinity United Church at the annual meeting held in the church club room on Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 17.

The regular meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. M. V. Long, when the Lord's Prayer was repeated in union.

Disposal of all old business was followed by the annual meeting. Reports were read and approved, the treasurer's report showing a good bank balance and having a most successful year had just closed.

The retiring president warmly thanked the officers and members for the loyal support given her during her two year term of office. She then asked Mrs. R. Havard to take the chair for elections. Mrs. G. C. Hall moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. Long and her officers for the fine work accomplished and the pleasant relations enjoyed during the past two years.

The slate of officers for the present year, presented by Mrs. Alex Lavalley, convener of nominations, was as follows: Hon. president, Mrs. T. D. F. Everett; president, Mrs. Colin L. Campbell; first vice-president, Mrs. George C. Hall; second vice-president, Mrs. Mackie Fuller; secretary, Mrs. A. L. Stringer; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. G. Armitage; treasurer, Mrs. Walter Mutchler.

After the installation of the new officers, Mrs. Campbell conducted a brief business meeting when the following issues were discussed: Arrangements for the congregational meeting and the appointment of a convener to take charge of the refreshments; plans for the assistance to be given to the annual Father and Son Banquet in February. Samples of material were examined and a convener named to look after new gowns for the choir. The president announced the W. A. had been asked to cater for a dinner for a group of curling teams in February. The matter was discussed and a committee appointed to submit the menus.

The meeting being adjourned, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. H. L. Cleveland and Mrs. C. E. Soles. Mrs. M. V. Long presided at the lace-covered tea table, centered with a bowl of daffodils and yellow candles in silver holders.

MUNICIPAL CHAPTER I.O.D.E.

The first meeting of the new year of the Municipal Chapter of Sherbrooke I.O.D.E. was held at "Rockcliffe," Quebec Street, on Tuesday evening, January 17. It was preceded by a buffet supper when all the officers of the Municipal and Primary Chapters were guests of the Municipal regent, Mrs. A. A. Munster.

Immediately following the supper the meeting convened with the regent presiding, who led in the opening prayer. The business session followed.

Mrs. H. M. Brown, reporting on the newly launched local welfare project, stated that donations to date amounted to approximately $150, and working in conjunction with the Ministerial Association, seven baskets of Christmas cheer had been dispensed. In this connection an appeal was made for donations of good used clothing. It was resolved that commencing February 3, Friday afternoons be set aside when I.O.D.E. House will be open for sewing and knitting groups, that a clothing bank be established to meet a growing need. It was also decided that a general invitation be extended to women of the different churches to join the I. O. D. E. group in this work.

At these meetings afternoon tea will be served at a nominal charge. The dates set for tag days are May 26 and 27.

Mrs. Thomas Wyatt, film convener, announced that Royal films will be shown at I.O.D.E. House, in February, and solicited a good attendance for this event.

Mrs. R. M. Loughheed reported having sent a parcel of treats to a veteran patient in the Sanatorium at Christmas time, and relayed his thanks to the Chapter.

A letter was read from Mr. C. E. Soles, secretary-treasurer of the Eastern Townships Colonization Association, in which he expressed thanks for material help given to a family in need. He also enclosed a letter of appreciation from the family concerned.

Annual report forms were distributed to the regents of the different Chapters and their co-operation regarding the prompt return of these was solicited.

That arrangements would be made to hold the Founder's Day Service on Sunday, February 12, was brought up.

The regent announced the next meeting would be held on the evening of Tuesday, February 21, when nominations will be in order.

A welcome was extended to Mrs. W. Cochrane, newly appointed press and publicity convener.

Prior to adjournment, Mrs. R. I. McCabe moved a standing vote of thanks be accorded Mrs. Munster for her gracious hospitality.

Drummondville, Jan. 25.—Drummondville like most towns and cities throughout the province, came from its full share of damage and destruction, caused by the sweeping storm that struck in the early hours Saturday morning, January 14. The high velocity of the wind at intervals reached six to eight miles an hour, ripping off roofs in various sections of the city, causing property damage running into thousands of dollars. Luckily no one was injured and no street accidents were reported. Buses, and motorists took every precaution during the height of the storm, and pedestrians had great difficulty in keeping their feet on the slippery sidewalks. The city cleansing department was unable to sand city streets during the height of the storm until the wind had abated late Sunday afternoon, whilst road and rail transportation were hours behind schedule.

MR. DICKSON TO ADDRESS HOME AND SCHOOL MEET

With the first meeting of the Drummondville Home and School Association, on Wednesday evening, January 18, the New Year's activities were ushered in. It aroused considerable interest to both English and French speaking citizens, announcement of program and ticket sales is expected some time this week.

UNITED CHURCH NEWS

On Sunday, January 15, the minister laid emphasis on renewing our vows of church membership. Following up a call to all members by letter, he led everyone in a ceremony of renewing the covenant, after which all partook of Holy Communion. The choir used appropriately the music entitled "God So Loved the World." Memorial flowers were on the table from the Hallin family.

The trustees of the church met last week and have under serious consideration the erection of a manse, adjoining the church site.

The church stewards also held a meeting and are prepared to submit their financial statements to the official board meeting this week, and to the annual meeting to be held January 26. They are also ready with a slate of nomination for stewards for 1950.

This Society was organized locally in 1937 among the women of the church and has been steadily increasing in membership. It holds ten regular meetings in the year and its giving for the larger work of the United Church of Canada, in the home and overseas.

An unusual and pleasant feature of the meeting for electing officers was the presentation of corsages to four retiring officers, Mrs. C. Hargreaves, retiring president; Mrs. Walter Kolb, supply secretary for twelve years, or since the local inception of the Society in 1937; to Mrs. J. Hey, treasurer for the past nine years; to Mrs. J. Strain, recording secretary for five years, the members of the Society were pleased to honor these faithful officers who had given years of service, even if the flowers were only a simple token of gratitude.

Annual Vestry Meeting Of St. James' Church, Bedford, Heard Fine Reports

Bedford, Jan. 25.—The annual meeting of the vestry of St. James' Church was held in the Masonic Hall, on Monday evening at eight o'clock, with the rector, the Rev. Stanley Rider, presiding. The meeting was opened with prayer, after which the minutes of the previous annual meeting together with other vestry meetings held during the year were read by the vestry clerk, Mr. Ralph Van Horn.

The report of the wardens showed that $3,746.85 had been taken in during the year by subscriptions, church envelopes and open collections, being the main sources of income.

The report of the Mission Fund showed that the Synod budget of $400 had been met in full, that $24 had been expended for the purchase of prayer books.

The report of the Morgan Fund showed that $116.28 had been expended on charitable work. The report of the repairs made to St. James' rectory showed that $2,055.61 had been expended and that $555.61 of this amount had been paid off by the Church Guild, which assumed the obligation of paying this debt.

The report of St. James' Church, of which Miss Jessie Blackwood is the treasurer, showed a most successful year, almost one thousand dollars being raised. Collections amounted to $239.25. These have been discontinued, as it was deemed advisable, to again return to a working Guild. A sale and tea netted $351.93, and a chicken pie supper $212.60, these were among the chief items of revenue.

The report of the Senior Women's Auxiliary of the church, of which Mrs. Hannibal Shelton was treasurer, showed that nearly six hundred dollars was raised, principally through two rummage sales, held in the spring and in the fall.

All diocesan apportionments, amounting to $131.55, were met, a contribution of $175 was made to the Mission budget of the church $59.82 was spent on Dorcas supplies, for the annual sale, and $40.33 was the amount of the expenses of the various speakers, which the members were privileged to hear during the year.

The report of the Girls' Auxiliary, showed a most successful year, $48.87 being realized from the annual carol singing at Christmas. All apportionments amounting to $16 were met. The girls, who during the past year were under the supervision of Mrs. Harry Jones, have now been taken over by Mrs. Garnet Steel.

Following the above reports, the rector, presented his report showing that in 1929 there were 14 baptisms, one marriage and eight burials. The Rev. Mr. Rider expressed the thanks and appreciation of himself and Mrs. Rider at the many kindnesses and great help received from the congregation since coming to Bedford last June. He stated that he with his family would leave Bedford on January 25, and that he would take up his new duties as rector of All Saints Church, Winnipeg, Man., on February 1.

The election of church officers then took place, Mr. W. J. Baglow who has filled the position of people's warden for several years, was appointed the rector's warden, replacing Mr. Harry Jones, while

Mr. Malcolm McCaw will replace Mr. Baglow, for the people's warden. Mr. D. J. Reid and Mr. Malcolm McCaw were appointed as delegates to the annual meeting of the Synod. Mr. McCaw is replacing Mr. Harry Jones. Mr. W. B. Bradshaw and Mr. B. W. Draper were appointed auditors for the coming year. Mr. D. J. Reid was appointed delegate to St. Helen's School.

The following were appointed as sidesmen: Messrs. Richard W. Craighead, Raymond Whitcomb, Thomas Shepherd, C. Derrick, Lorne Derrick, Eric Kemp, B. W. Draper and G. Phelps.

The following were appointed as members of the advisory committee: Messrs. D. J. Reid, Raymond Whitcomb, Richard W. Craighead, G. Phelps, W. B. Bradshaw, R. C. Van Horn, B. W. Draper, Ross Preston, Thomas Shepherd and Mrs. F. N. Williams, president of the Guild; Mrs. John Ewing, president, Senior W.A.; Malcolm McCaw and W. J. Baglow.

Mr. B. W. Draper expressed on behalf of the congregation of St. James' Church, the thanks and appreciation of the members to the Rev. Mr. Rider for the manner in which the work of the church had been conducted during his rectorship.

The report of Mr. D. J. Reid, chairman of the committee, appointed to look after procuring a new rector for the parish was given. In closing, Mr. Reid stated that the Rev. Mr. White had kindly consented to carry on with the parish work, until a new rector is obtained for the parish. On January 25, Rev. and Mrs. White and their two sons will take up residence in St. James' Rectory, Bedford, and that he will continue to carry on the work in the two parishes of St. James', Bedford and St. James', Stanbridge East. The rectory at Stanbridge East, was badly damaged by fire shortly before Christmas and is now being renovated.

It was decided that the parish accept the apportionment of $400 again for 1930, as the Synod Mission apportionment. Rev. Mr. Reid stated that up to 1940, millions of dollars annually had been sent from England to carry on the work of the Church of England in Canada. Following the outbreak of war this help ceased, and the Church of England in Canada has since that time had to finance its own work. The report of this work for 1929 was most gratifying, assisted by Mrs. Percy Terrill and Mrs. Eric Kemp.

On behalf of the congregation of St. James' Church, Mr. Ross Preston, presented the Rev. Mr. Rider with a handsome maple coffee table, as a token of admiration and esteem. In thanking the members for their gift, the Rev. Mr. Rider said that both he and Mrs. Rider had greatly enjoyed their stay in Bedford and would carry many happy memories of Bedford with them to their new home.

A DANCE Miss Isabel Wanzler was the hostess at a very enjoyable dance, when she entertained a number of her friends. It was held in the recently completed building, erected by Mr. Elwin Wanzler on the Bedford-Mystic Road.

The hostess served refreshments assisted by Miss Kathryn Shelton.

A delightful party was brought to a close with the music for the last dance being to the tune of "Again."

The regular monthly meeting of Missisquoi Chapter, L.O.E., was held in the Masonic Hall, with the regent, Mrs. F. E. Best, presiding.

The meeting was opened with the Prayer of the Order, after which the minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. F. N. Williams and accepted as read. The report of the treasurer, Mrs. William Taylor showed a balance on hand, after the payment of all outstanding accounts of $168.55. A number of bills were presented for payment including several for Christmas cheer.

The report of the Post War Services convener, Mrs. Richard Craighead, showed that three cartons of books, magazines and playing cards had been shipped to the Naval Hospital, at St. Hyacinthe, during the past month, and that a carton containing fifty-two articles, including knitted articles, quilts and used clothing had been sent to Provincial Headquarters, L.O.E., Montreal.

A letter was read from the Provincial Secretary, giving a brief outline of the organizing of the L.O.E. by Mrs. Clark Murray, in Montreal, in 1929. This year the fiftieth anniversary of the foundation of the Order will be observed, and it was considered only suitable that this year, the National meeting of the Order should be held in Montreal in May, in which city the Order was founded. The letter requested that on the Sunday nearest Founder's Day, February 13, that a service be held in the different churches in towns, where there are chapters of the Order. The secretary was instructed to communicate with the Rev. T. F. Duncan, pastor of the United Church, and also with the Rev. W. White, rector of St. James' Church, asking that this night be done at the morning services in these churches on Sunday, February 12.

It was decided that this year the annual meeting of Missisquoi Chapter, L.O.E. would take the form of a luncheon to be held at the Cecil Hotel, in Stanbridge East, on Founder's Day, February 13, and that the regular monthly meeting of the Chapter would also take place at the same time, therefore there will be no meeting on the first Monday in February as is customary. "Rubble Rats" Of Berlin Raid War Ruins For Profit

Roaming through the war-ruined streets of Berlin at night, gangs of boys, ranging in age from nine to 14, loot the bomb-demolished buildings of heavy pieces of scrap metal, and sell it to junk dealers at a tidy profit. The law forbids taking metal from the ruins, but the youngsters ignore it. "Rubble Rats" is the name Berlin's harassed police give these ever-increasing numbers of juvenile delinquents. These scenes, taken by NEA-Acme staff correspondent Joe Schuppe, show how the "Rubble Rats" carry through their raiding operation, undaunted by heavy snow, cold or fear of police.

Under cover of darkness the loot is hauled away . . .

Snow doesn't matter as these "Rubble Rats" scrounge for profitable hunks of metal.

... to be sold to a scrap dealer for a nice profit.

EDDIE DARTNELL AND HIS SENATORS HERE TOMORROW NIGHT

Locals Must Win To Maintain Lead Over Second-Place Aces; Team Ready For Crucial Tilt With Senators

Eddie Dartnell and his Ottawa Senators will be in town tomorrow evening to tangle with Ivan Dugre's pace-setting Sherbrooke Saints in a very important fixture of the Senior Group.

Dartnell's Barber Poles are staging a battle with Imbach's Aces for second position in the loop, and only two points separate the two teams, although the Aces have three games in hand over the Senators.

The locals must come through with a win if they wish to maintain their lead over the fast-closing Quebec Aces. Last night the Aces were swamped 6-1 by Valleyfield, and now trail the Saints by eight points and have only one game in hand over the local squad.

Ottawa on the other hand is two games behind the Aces, and a win would help their cause proving that the Quebec team drops to night's tilt to the Braves in the Capital City.

In the other game played last night Frank Carlin's young crew blew wide open, in the overtime and ran four goals into the Chicoutimi net, behind Bobby Beau, to swamp them 6-2 and give themselves a tie for fourth position in the league standing with the Braves of Valleyfield.

The local team is ready for action and came through their tilt with Rollie Hebert's outfit, up north Sunday, in good condition and will be out to try and keep pace with the Aces to preserve their edge in points.

Bucky Buchanan Extends His Lead In Senior Group Scoring Race; Paul Leclerc Is Top Goalkeeper

Bucky Buchanan, speedy winger with the Shawinigan Falls Cataracts, extended his lead to eight points in the individual scoring race of the Quebec Senior Hockey League according to the figures released yesterday afternoon by Doug Harney, official scorer of the circuit.

Jimmy Planché and Andre Corriveau, Valleyfield, are tied for second position with 59 points, while Adj Cote is in third spot, one point behind the co-holders of the second position.

Planché's total is made up of 28 goals and 31 assists, while Corriveau has tallied 24 times and has set up 35 plays, which paid off with making the red light flash. Cote has 28 goals and 30 assists for his total.

Buchanan is top marksman with 29 goals, one better than Planché and Cote, who are tied with twenty-eight each. In the play making department Buchanan is also top man with 38 to his credit while Andre Corriveau and Eddie Emberg, Ottawa, are tied with 35 apiece.

Larry Zeidel, of Quebec, is the most penalized player in the loop with 109 minutes, which is five minutes more than Butch Stahan, the husky Ottawa Senator rear-guard.

Paul Leclerc is leading the circuit with four shutouts to his credit and has the best average of the net minders in Slater's Group.

Sutton's Wolfville Rink Scores Perfect End; Fredericton Quartet Leads Qualifiers In International

Quebec, Jan. 25. — (P) — Arthur McF. Limerick, of Fredericton, N. B., today was on the way to playing on his second straight championship rink, as he entered the Lieutenant-Governor's competition, blue ribbon event of Quebec's 38th International Bouspiel.

Limerick, third man on last year's Fredericton champions, skippered by his father Judge Walter Limerick, yesterday led 15 Candian rinks and one from the United States to qualify for the International Championship.

These included quarter-finalists of the Chateau International and the Val d'Or Golden Valley events. Round of eights in the Grand Aggregate, which will be known following today's play will complete the International draw. All 119 games played yesterday went to eight ends.

Limerick's great showing, however, who overshadowed by skip D. D. Sutton's Wolfville, N. S., rink which scored an eight-end against McF. Limerick, N. B. Ganong's rink from St. Stephens, N. B.

The eight-end, fourth in the Bouspiel's 37 years, and third in a row, came in the second end of an eight-end game. Sutton won 13-8.

Later, Sutton was defeated 6-3 by James Fergie of Petawawa, Ont.

The other Maritimes' entry to qualify by reaching the quarter-finals of the Chateau International was J. Irving Hebb of Bridgeville, N. S., while D. H. Young of Kentville, N. S., made the championship circle in the Val d'Or competition.

Dr. G. M. Beall of Cliché Hills, Sask., only Western Canadian rink entered, also qualified as did Thomas Allen of Brookline, Mass.

W. F. Goforth, Toronto Granite, and K. B. McKellar, Toronto Hign Park were the only Ontario rinks to reach quarter-final play, while one Montreal rink, Montreal Caledonia, skipped by J. S. Moffat was the only rink from that city to make it.

Among others qualifying were Adjutor Dussault, Quebec; Rodrigue Cote, Matane, Que.; A. G. Joyce, Arvida, Que.; and J. A. Ross, Jr., St. Johns, Que.

Meanwhile play started in two more competitions yesterday: The Grand Aggregate and the Holt-Remfrew International. Teams

B.C.S. Downed 3-2 By Heavy College Team

In an exhibition game played at the B.C.S. Arena last night, Bishop's University puck-chasers handed Bishop's College School a 3-2 setback after a fast and close contest. The School put on a fine display of accurate passing and fast skating while the College showed close checking and the rugged type of game which typifies intercollegiate play.

B. C. S. opened the scoring at 9:10 of the first period on a goal by Bousquet from Ross. Sanderson tied it two minutes later when he scored on a pass from Rider. Penalties to McGee and Scowen for charging failed to produce further score.

At the 5:30 mark of the second period, Zinniger put the College ahead when he slapped the puck past Garneau on a pass out from Johnson. At the time, Reaper was serving a penalty for roughing. Three penalties followed for tripping, two to McGee and the other to Zinniger.

A large crowd is expected for this tilt, so avoid any confusion. Pick up your tickets early and support your club as the receipts will go towards reducing the present deficit of the team. So, second ticket-holders, don't wait until the 31 if you intend to go, as you may be busy and forget about it, and then it will be too late. People outside town can have tickets put aside by calling or writing a letter. So don't forget, let's get behind the idea and have a full house for the arrival of Normie Daulton, Gerry Plamondon and their Montreal friends.

"CANADIENS ARE COMING"

The Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League will be in town Thursday, February 9, at the local Arena to play an exhibition game with the Sherbrooke Saints.

This will give the local fans an opportunity of seeing what should be an interesting game and this has been made possible by Mr. Frank Selke, general manager of the Canadiens, who has consented to the tilt. The Canadiens have two local boys, Normie Dussault and Gerry Plamondon, on their lineup and this will give the local fans an opportunity of seeing them in action.

The entire proceeds of the game will be given to the Sherbrooke Saints, as the Arena has consented to turn over to the club the entire gate. The ticket sellers and ice men have also donated their services free of charge which is their share of helping the Saints.

Tickets are now on sale at the Arena, and the season holders have until the end of the month to pick up their pasteborders. If by then they haven't done so, they will go on sale.

A large crowd is expected for this tilt, so avoid any confusion. Pick up your tickets early and support your club as the receipts will go towards reducing the present deficit of the team. So, second ticket-holders, don't wait until the 31 if you intend to go, as you may be busy and forget about it, and then it will be too late. People outside town can have tickets put aside by calling or writing a letter. So don't forget, let's get behind the idea and have a full house for the arrival of Normie Daulton, Gerry Plamondon and their Montreal friends.

The people down that way have everybody beat when it comes to that. So now you understand why everybody looks forward to going to Thetford Mines. And I don't blame them a bit.

Tomorrow evening our Sherbrooke boys will be hosts to Eddie Dartnell and his Barber Poles at the Arena in what should be quite a hockey game.

The Senators will no doubt be out to try and cop the tilt from the Saints in order to help them in their battle with the Aces, but on the other hand the local club is in the middle of a little tuff with the same Famous Ares. In fact Aces stand a fair chance of overtaking the locals and knocking them out of top position if Dugre's team should come up with any performances such as last week.

We understand that the boys played a good game in Chicoutimi on Sunday, especially Paul Leclerc, he was spectacular, and saved the locals time after time. And if he should come through with another similar job, well then the Senators are in for a tough evening.

Let's not under estimate the boys from the Capital City. If they are clicking well then the Saints will have their hands full. If their range net minder, the boy with the long legs and flying arms, Legs Fraser, is on, then anything can happen. The Senators, like a old race horse, may start making their bid for the finish at the three-quarter pole, and that boys is where it pays off. So let's have a good game, and once it is put away, for heaven's sake don't let it slide right out of your arms. The Senators are not the Royals and they know what to do with such an opening. So be on your guard.

This evening in the City Hall the general meeting of the directors of the baseball team will be held at 8:00 p.m.

At this time the canvassing committee, who took over matters about a month ago to raise funds for the club, will cease to operate. The final report will be turned over and the directors will then elect their executive for the coming season and lay down the policy of the club. So don't forget to be on hand this Evening at 8:00 in THE CITY HALL.

George Guilbeault's Windsor Mills Juniors certainly left no doubt in anyone's mind about their superiority in the junior circles. They smothered the St. Hyacinthe team 18-2 this week, and that is some score.

They were slated to play this Saturday evening in Windsor but St. Hyacinthe has asked to have it postponed. Their position is similar to the local junior aggregation. NO ICE TO PRACTICE ON. However Sunday afternoon the Windsor team will play at the local Arena against the Sherbrooke Juniors and this should be a good game to watch. The crew from the Paper Tower can really pass the rubber around and they know what to do with it once they get within scoring range. SO SUNDAY AFTERNOON AT THE ARENA.

The Hamilton Spectator claims that the Barbara Ann Scott show is without any doubt one of the best ice entertainments seen for many a day.

The Spectator also claims that Dick Nutter, who plays the part of an inebriate and who is a local boy, is tops, and had his audience laughing by merely waving his hand, always the mark of a good comedian. The crowd told its collective breath while he solved the problem of retrieving his hat. That people is what the outside papers think about Dick Nutter and his act, not bad for a local skater, who learned his business with the Sherbrooke Winter Club. Nice going, Dick keep up the good work.

The Thetford Mines invitation Bouspiel was held over the weekend and quite a few rinks from the two local clubs took part in the tourney. Rup Atto's Lennoxville quartet won the main event while two home town foursomes took the runners-up spot and the consolation, and on the side we understand that they were entertained royally by the club members.

The Thetford Mines Club was successful in defending the Southern Canada lower Trophy when they turned back the two Magog rinks with a plus 14 score. R. Brien and E. Whalley were the Magog skips while A. C. Jenkinson and J. P. Lafontaine were the local pilots for the maining town.

Following the match the rinks were served a very nice supper by the ladies, again that Thetford Mines hospitality, you can't beat it.

Royals Tally 5 Goals In Overtime To Win

Montreal, Jan. 25. — (P) — A five-goal scoring spree in a 10-minute overtime period last night gave Montreal Royals a 7-2 victory over Chicoutimi Saguenays before a slim crowd of 2,500 Quebec Senior Hockey League fans.

Royals took a 2-0 lead on a first-period goal by Pepin, while Chicoutimi's Floyd Crawford was in the penalty box, and a middle stanza tally by Malone before Royals brought the Saguenays into the picture with a goal at the 9:54 mark of the second period.

Tigers Have 14 Players Under Contract So Far

Detroit, Jan. 25. — (P) — Detroit Tigers now have 14 players under contract for 1950, after getting the signature of infielder Neil Berry. Berry, 28, played a large part of last season at second base and hit .237. Gerry Priddy, acquired from St. Louis Browns but still unsigned, is expected to take over that spot in the coming season.

But pitcher Art Houtteman meanwhile confirmed reports that he has turned down his first 1950 contract offer.

"They offered me a little raise—just about enough to buy a couple of gallons of gasoline," he laughed.

The young right-hander would not disclose how much the Tigers paid him last year but an informed source said it was around $12,000.

Houtteman said he feels his 1949 record entitles him to a pay boost this season.

Among rinks to advance to the third round of the Grand Aggregate were G. H. Bedwin, Teuro, N. S.; Mayor Bun Green, Newcastle, N. B.; Paul S. Grant, Milwaukee, Wis.; Robert A. Archibald, Bathurst, N. B.; J. F. Roy, Royal Montreal; E. N. Gregory, Lindsay, Ont.; J. E. Isabelle, Granby, Que.; H. Gagnon, Matane, Que.

Among those winning Holt-Remfrew competition games were T. M. McCullough and E. H. Nicholson of Midland, Ont.; Ted Pest, Montreal Outremont; Dr. R. M. Pendrigh, Saint John Carleton, N. B.; and H. H. Clarke, Montreal St. George.
