WILSON IS NAMED FOR PRESIDENT

End of Baltimore Convention Comec at Last, After Withdrawal of Underwood and Others.

CLARK SET ALL HIS DELEGATES FREE FIRST

Evident Intention Not to Hurt Party by Prolonging Indefinitely Section Prejudices.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Baltimore, July 2—Governor Wilson has been nominated for president. Governor Marshall will probably be his running mate.

The forty-third ballot showed unusual gains for Wilson and made his nomination certain.

The result of the 45th ballot was as follows:—Clarke 306, Wilson, 633, Underwood 97, Harmon 25, Foss 27

The 46th ballot was delayed to allow Senator Bankhead, of Alabama, to make a statement. He took the platform and withdrew Underwood's name.

Then Senator Stone, speaking for Clark, released all the Clark delegates.

Following this, Governor Foss withdrew from the contest.

DELEGATES ANXIOUS TO MAKE A FINISH.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Baltimore, Md., July 2—Delegates who were out bright and early to-day after a good night's rest, seemed to be in a frame of mind to bring the National Democratic Convention to an end this evening. The acriminous fight of faction has been waged at the expense of physical health, temper, and pocket.

Leaders who have been here for nearly three weeks believed that it was time to get together and bring the work of the Convention to a close.

Governor Wilson was to be given his chance as soon as the Convention went into session at noon. Members of the Illinois delegation, which decided after adjournment early this morning to switch from Clark to Wilson, were at breakfast early to-day, and they said that over-night there had been developed no reason for a re-consideration of the decision to give Wilson an opportunity to poll all his strength.

As soon as the 58 votes went to Wilson, others were expected to follow. "If the Illinois delegation makes its promise good, Wilson will get 35 votes from Ohio on this morning's first ballot," said Harvey C. Garber, National Committeeman from Ohio.

The Murphy forces are still grimly confident of their ability to check the Wilson advance well short of the 725 1-3 necessary to nomination.

In any event, to-day, is the crucial day of the Convention, and before its end, the fate of Wilson's candidacy is likely to be definitely settled.

"Can Murphy stop Wilson?" became the one question of the Convention in consequence.

The Wilson men were jubilant to-day, over their important gain. At least twenty-five or thirty votes are almost certain to come over in the wake of the fifty-eight from Illinois. Therefore a vote of 600 for their candidate is easily to be figured out. And they count on the desire of the delegates to get aboard the band wagon to bring the remaining 125 votes over with a rush.

William J. Bryan stated last night that Mayor Gaynor, of New York, would be acceptable to him as a candidate, and it is probable that if balloting continues for a few days more, Gaynor will become an important figure in the situation.

MAYOR GAYNOR MAY HAVE CHANCE.

To those close in touch, the situation to-day appeared to be complicated as much as ever. Friends of both Wilson and Clark began to entertain serious doubts as to whether either could be nominated in face of the stubborn opposition of the other and to-day they were furtively casting their eyes about the field for a suitable "dark horse."

The Clark forces fought desperately all day yesterday to stem the tide of desertions from their wavering ranks. They saw their strength wane from 469 votes on the 27th ballot to 423 on the 39th, while Wilson was crawling up from 406 1-2 to 501 1-2.

Indianapolis dropped Governor Marshall and has gone over to Wilson, but Massachusetts clings to its "favorite son." Governor Foss, and is urging him as the best vote-getter among all the "dark horses."

Ohio has not yet given up hope for Governor Harmon, although his supporters admit that there is a slim chance that he will be nominated.

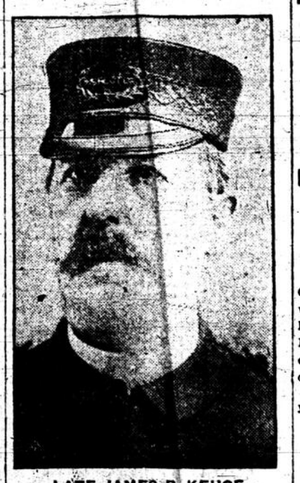
The names of Senator John W. Kern, of Indiana, and Mayor William J. Gaynor, of New York, were discussed more frequently than ever to-day. As to Mayor Gaynor, of New York, it is significant that Mr. Bryan yesterday added him to his list of "available candidates."

KAISER AND CZAR IN FRIENDLY MEETING.

Berlin, July 2.—The German Emperor, accompanied by his third son, Prince Adalbert, started last night by way of Danzig for Baltic Port, a seaport of Russia, near the entrance of the Gulf of Finland, where they will meet the Russian Emperor. The two Emperors met last in August 1909.

The Imperial Chancellor, Dr. von Bwthmann-Hollweg, was one of the Emperor's party.

VETERAN OF THE POLICE FORCE DIED YESTERDAY



LATE JAMES R. KEHOE.

The death occured yesterday after an illness of a few weeks of ex-Inspector Kehoe, who passed away at the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. Wm. Dillon, 981 Cadieux street. The deceased, who retired from the police force about five years ago, was 73 years of age. At the time of his retirement, which was necessary on account of his health, he held the office of quartermaster.

The late Inspector Kehoe was born in Wexford, Ireland, and came to this country half a century ago after having served his time with the Irish Constabulary. He joined the city force here in 1868, and his rise was rapid, being placed in charge of the Chaboillez street station in the early 80's. In 1888, along with Captain Lapointe, now a member of the Provincial detective force, he was raised to the rank of Inspector. He served under five chiefs, Penton, Paradis, Hughes, Legault, and Campeau.

MR. A. D. DURNFORD DIED SUDDENLY AT CACOUNA SUNDAY

Had Been Forty Years Connected With Molson's Bank in This City.

Mr. Augustus Decimus Durnford, chief inspector of the Molsons Bank, and one of the most widely known of Canadian bankers, died suddenly Sunday evening at Cacouna.

Mr. Durnford left the city on Friday with his family to establish them in their summer home at the Lower St. Lawrence resort, and intended to return to Montreal in time for his official duties at the bank this morning. Although not in the most robust health for some time, he appeared to be in his usual spirits when last seen at the bank, and the news of his sudden demise came as a distinct shock to his large circle of friends in this city and elsewhere.

The deceased gentleman was born a little over sixty years ago at Cote St. Antoine, now Westmount, the seventh and youngest son of the late Captain Durnford. He was grandson of the late Lieut.-General Durnford, Royal Engineers, who built the Citadel at Quebec, where he was stationed between 1816 and 1820.

Mr. Durnford received his early education in Montreal and later at Tours, France. Returning to Canada he entered the Quebec Bank as a clerk, and in 1872 joined the staff of the Molsons Bank, with which institution he remained until his death. One of his earliest appointments was that of manager of the Sorel branch of the bank. Later he was appointed travelling inspector of branches, and fifteen years ago was appointed superintendent of branches, with headquarters in Montreal. His service in the Molsons Bank covered a period of about forty years.

In February, 1896, Mr. Durnford married Miss Mary Oneida, daughter of the late Sir A. T. Galt, who with three sons survives him. Messrs. Phillip, Galt, and Elliott Durnford, living at home. He is also survived by two brothers. Mr. George Durnford, of Montreal, and Mr. Edward C. Durnford, of St. John, N.B., and two sisters, Miss Sophia M. Durnford and Miss Maria Durnford, both of this city.

Mr. Durnford was a member of the Montreal Board of Trade, a governor of the Montreal General Hospital, and was interested in the objects of the Parks and Playgrounds Association.

SAYS LIBERALS ARE AS STRONG AS EVER.

Premier Gouin Says Electors Will Return Sir Wilfrid Laurier to Power Before Long.

A banquet was given in Ahuntsic last night in honor of Mr. J. W. Leveque, to celebrate his return to the provincial parliament on May 15th last. The dinner was held in a tent erected on Ald. Bastien's lawn. Among the speakers were Sir Lomer Gouin, Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Hon. J. Decarie, and Mr. Etienne Lamy. In the course of an address congratulating Mr. Levesque on his return, Sir Lomer Gouin declared it would not be long before the electors would recover their balance of judgment and send Sir Wilfrid Laurier back to power. The Premier concluded by assuring the veteran leader of the Liberal forces that Liberal ideas and sentiments were just as strong as ever in the province of Quebec.

NO LIKELIHOOD OF ANY RECURRENCE AT PRESENT.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 2.—The head of the weather Bureau here says a cyclone is an exaggerated thunderstorm caused by extreme heat and a sudden wave of moisture. The conditions at Regina recently have been very favorable to hurricanes and tornadoes.

There is no likelihood of a recurrence anywhere in Canada at present, he states, but if the same conditions arose, he would not be surprised to see another in the west.

DUCHESS ABLE TO SIT ON GROUNDS AND GO DRIVING

Her Royal Highness Will Leave for Quebec To-morrow with Rest of Party.

Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Connaught is now convalescent, and will be able to be conveyed from the hospital down to Quebec to-morraw. Her Royal Highness went for a drive on Sunday and was out in the grounds of the hospital yesterdaw.

The following bulletin was issued yesterday:

"H. R. H. the Duchess of Connaught is now convalescent from a severe attack of peritonitis, and appendicitis, from which she has been suffering, and it is proposed to move her to Quebec on Wednesday. Her Royal Highness took a drive yesterday.

July 1st.

E. S. WORTHINGTON, M. D."

Lord Strathcona's residence presented a busy appearance to-day. Piles of personal baggage, suit cases, holdalls, grips, etc., lay on the steps and in the halls awaiting the huge transfer waggon which was being loaded up with trunks and packing cases at the side entrance on Fort street.

Their Royal Highnesses, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and Princess Patricia, will sail to-morrow on board of the Government Steamer "Lady Grey" for Quebec.

Families Dying Through Hunger

People in the East End of London Without Food for Two Days.

London, July 2.—Dean Ring, Rector of St. Mary and St. Michael's Church, Commercial Road, in the east end, says the families of the dock strikers are starving on account of the prolongation of the strike.

"Last week they had their few sticks of furniture in pawn," he said. "Now, these have been parted with, and unless the public comes to their aid, lives will be sacrificed. It is no exaggeration to say that people at Stepney, Wapping and Canningtown are dying from starvation.

"There are cases before my committee where people hav sworn that they have not eaten for two days. Some are so racked with hunger that they spend their time in bed, saying that there is nothing to get up for. One man was around dressed in a sack."

CONSTABLES CHASE MAN'S ASSAILANT IN AUTOMOBILE.

Pressing into service an automobile which chanced to be standing near, Constables Savard and Gregoire of the City Hall Avenue station made a spectacular chase after Louis Bleuk, a foreigner, who is alleged to have stabbed John E. Downy in front of Charlton's fifteen-cent store, Saturday night, but failed to apprehend their man. The stabbing followed a quarrel between the two men which resulted when they jostled each other inside the store while seeking to take advantage of a bargain in brooms.

Bleuk succeeded in making good his escape from the pursuing constables in a crowd which had gathered to see a fight between two women at Dorchester and Cadieux streets but was later arrested while running down City Hall avenue by Constable Lavoilette. To-day Bleuk pleaded not guilty and hearing was fixed for Friday.

SETS NEW RECORD FOR QUICK JUSTICE.

Twenty-five cases in one day is the new record set by Mr. Justice Bruneau last Friday. Mr. Justice Bruneau, who was called upon by the Government to assist in clearing the roll of the Circuit Court of the pending cases, Friday afternoon disposed of nineteen cases in a five-hour session and then hurried to Sorel, where he was scheduled to hold a night session. Delayed by an accident on the railroad, he did not arrive at Sorel until 10 o'clock, but proceeded immediately to the Court House, where he held a two-hour session, in which he disposed of six cases, making a total of twenty-five for the day, a new record, it is said. Mr. Justice Bruneau was again in Montreal for court at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

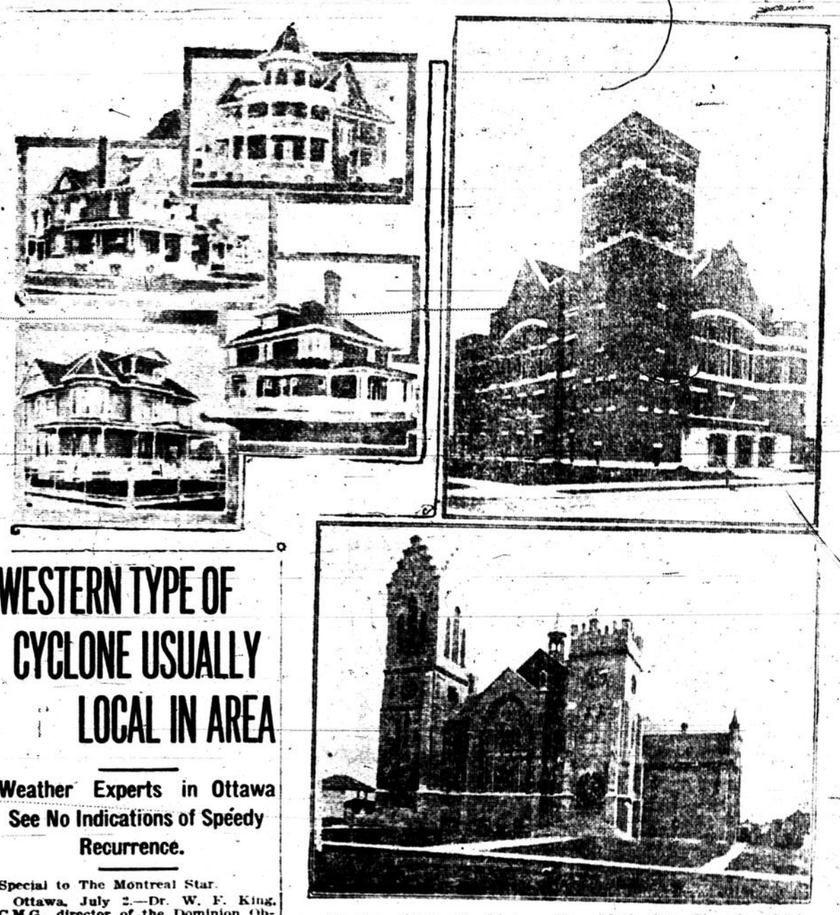
REGINA'S CITIZENS COURAGEOUSLY BEGIN THE REBUILDING OF THE DEVASTATED AREA TO-DAY

REGINA BUILDINGS WHICH WERE PREY TO THE CYCLONE



To the right is the Metropolitan Methodist Church which was destroyed, and below it Knox Presbyterian Church which was partially demolished and will have to be rebuilt entirely; to the left are private residences blown down.

WESTERN TYPE OF CYCLONE USUALLY LOCAL IN AREA

Weather Experts in Ottawa See No Indications of Speedy Recurrence.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 2.—Dr. W. F. King, C.M.G., director of the Dominion Observatory, stated to-day that the tornado which wrought devastation in Regina was of the usual western type.

"It is simply," he said, "in intensified form of the ordinary circular storm caused by the conflict of contra-air currents. The history of these disturbances shows that they are generally localized, rather than sweeping across a wide area of country. This accounts for the damage being confined to a particular area in the city. There is no telling when there may be a recurrence, but storms of such a character occur rarely.

FOREMOST SPOKESMAN OF GREAT PRINCIPLE

London Times Offers Welcome to Premier Borden Not as a Party Leader.

Canadian Associated Press.

London, July 2.—The Times' principal editorial to-day is devoted to the visit of the Right Hon. R. L. Borden who is due here this week. The article states that the Canadian Prime Minister comes not as a party leader, but as the foremost spokesman of the Dominion, and that the great principle of the faith reasserted by the Canadian people last September when they declared that they would remain masters of their own destiny beneath the British flag, and which awoke here as deep and instructive a response as the despatch of the Colonial contingents to the South African war.

Discussing the naval aspect of Mr. Borden's visit The Times urges that any deferred action must not be merely in favor of temporary expedients, and hopes for some means of joint control thus proving the principle inaugurated at last year's conference to be continuous.

CIVIC LAW DEPARTMENT TO BE REORGANIZED.

Controllers Propose Mr. Lavallee as Chief and Three Consulting Attorneys.

The Civic Law Department is to be remodelled, according to a statement made at the City Hall to-day. Mr. Oscar Lavallee, one of the present attorneys, will, it is said, be appointed chief, at $6,000 a year. There are to be three consulting city attorneys. These will be Mr. Aime Geoffrion, K.C.; Mr. J. L. Archambault, K.C., and Mr. A. W. Atwater, K.C., the latter having acted in the capacity for some years.

The three consulting attorneys will receive $6,000 a year. Two juniors will also be appointed.

While this is the programme of the Board of Control, it is known that a move will be made, among members of the council, to have Hon. Charles Lanctot, Assistant Attorney General, given the position of chief attorney.

KING'S HORSE WINS.

London, July 2.—The Bottisham Plate, of 200 sovereigns, for three-year-olds, was run to-day, at the Newmarket First July meeting, and won by His Majesty's Lelac.

Six horses participated: F. J. O. Montague's Mundford was second, and W. Broderick Cloates' Cherry King was third.

Man Claims False Parentage.

San Francisco, July 2.—C. H. Laurier, who represented himself as a son of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, reported to the police here to-day that he had been robbed of $490 late on Saturday night or early Sunday morning, while seeing the sights with an acquaintance made on board a street car. He arrived on Saturday from Seattle.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Regina, Sask., July 2.—Wrecked houses leaning on one another, houses absolutely lifted from their foundations, houses turned completely turtle, and others at angles many degrees out of plumb—these are some of the reminders of the cyclone that brought devastation to Regina on Sunday evening.

In Regina's best residential area, four parallel streets running north and south, and beginning with Cornwall street on the east and going west in the following order: Lorne, Smith and McIntyre, represent the devastated residence area south of the tracks. On Lorne and Smith streets, south of the C.P.R., the cyclone swept a clean sweep. On Cornwall and McIntyre, the outside streets, the havoc was not so terribly uniform, though it was frightful in its volume.

On Lorne and Cornwall, whole blocks are a mass of formless ruins. Pianos, trunks, and kitchen ranges lie in a colossal medley. Bedrooms with washstands and other furniture are open to the heavens, and pictures of family groups hang on the walls, open to the world.

This afternoon in the area, what looked like a general house moving was in progress. Furniture, vans and other rigs lined the streets, with the stricken householders trying to extricate the leavings of the storm. After passing down these streets, one marvels that the toll of the dead is as small as it is. Indeed, the air is full of miraculous escapes. "Here two women were killed," a policeman told me, "here a boy," "here a girl," and so the grim story goes.

GRIM SCENE IN VICTORIA SQUARE

Sweeping down these four streets, the cyclone reached Victoria Square, of which Regina is particularly proud. The Square has for years been surrounded with beautiful buildings, and laid out in a park-like breathing space. To-day this square wears the air of Strassburg after the Franco-German war. Its beautiful buildings have all been shelled by nature's artillery.

The Methodist Church and the Presbyterian church stand open to the heavens. The former looks like a badly decayed tooth with hollow walls and broken towers. A giant drill might have pierced the Presbyterian church. You can see through it in all directions. The carnegie library, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. are all wrecked and will have to be rebuilt. The Land Titles office and the Baptist church may possibly be patched. The whole of the wide square is covered with debris.

Travelling due north, the cyclone passed from Victoria Square across the business section to the C. P. R. tracks. A large number of offices, warehouses, railway buildings, lumber yards, factories, etc., here have been completely destroyed. A valuable switchboard lies upon the ruins of the telephone exchange as upon a refuse pile. An elevator is overturned with its bins exposed like a checkerboard.

Another pile in much the same position. Agricultural machinery is piled up in an immense mess. A livery stable is a heap of mangled rigs. A whole block is level with the ground.

The havoc wrought in this area is appalling. Crossing the track, the cyclone overturned freight cars like trucks. It left them in the most grotesque and impossible positions. In fact, all over its swath the cyclone has shown horrible originality and fiendishness.

The elements were merciless. The cyclone left the city after running four parallel streets of workmen's dwellings on the north side. These present, this morning, a pitiful sight. Men in the evening of their day's toil stand in front of their wrecked and broken homes. Stores of Regina workmen who, on Sunday, at 11 a. possessed a modest nest egg, in half-hold for hours were nine minutes later penniless before the world.

The losses, of course, are personally recoverable. There seems to be talk, even, about cyclone insurance. But there is never any talk of it before Sunday. After the Frank disaster this in no way accounted the worst calamity that has ever happened in the west.

There are twenty-eight known dead to-day while the names of many missing friendless have been handed in to the city hall. No bodies have yet been recovered from Wascana lake. R. S. Deering, who was in the Regina Boat house when the cyclone hit the lake, states that he saw six go down.

The Lake is Being Dragged for Bodies.

There is still so much confusion that it is practically impossible to secure any data of the injured. Hundreds of them are in private houses. The official estimates of the loss range from six millions to ten millions. There is no insurance.

Victoria Park and the whole desolated district is full of splinters and timbers driven into the earth, in some cases two feet deep. One woman was found dead had a splinter clear through her. Dr. Cullum took a splinter out of the back of another woman, who is still living.

It is a matter of weeks, and not days, before the debris will be cleared. It is feared that more bodies will be found to-day.

WESTERN SPIRIT RISES TRIUMPHANT.

Regina has been badly hit. Election talk is dead. For a fortnight past the question was Regina did not get the university was prominently urged. That seems a mighty small consideration now. What the men of Regina have amply proved themselves men. There is no other spirit abroad here other than that of quiet confidence, doggedness and stolidity. Before the tragedy is twelve hours old the Regina Leader has the words in type—

"Regina is called upon by a Providence whose ways men may not know to face a supreme test. It is a test before which cowards would falter and quail. The men and women of Regina will neither falter nor quail."

The best brains in Regina early took council together. Premier Scott was one of the first to be on hand in the City Hall, and at once promised $25,000 from the Government, and more if it were required.

Strange to say, although between 4,000 and 5,000 people are homeless, or with their homes in such a condition that it is dangerous to live in them, it has not been necessary to house the homeless in any of the public buildings. The cots acquired for the Dominion Fair last year were got out, but were used only for the carrying of the dead. Tents are going up in all directions, and many are being taken care of in the homes of friends.

Every carpenter in the city was at work to-day, as well as many men who were not carpenters. The Unions are to the fore in the organization of relief work.

ELECTIONS LIKELY TO BE DEFERRED.

It is likely that the election in Regina will be deferred. This, however, can only be done by both sides agreeing not to nominate on July 4th.

All the Regina papers to-day have no reference to politics. They will probably not have until the funeral of the cyclone's victims has taken place. This will be either on Wednesday or Thursday, and there will probably be a public memorial service.

Nothing definite has yet been arranged with regard to the funeral of the victims. Whether the funerals will be of a public nature or private has not been decided, and will depend upon the wishes of relatives. It is probable, however, that great mass memorial services will be held in some of the public buildings, that escaped damage.

Hundreds of citizens from Regina who at present are in Quebec owe their escape to the fact that they left this city ten days ago to go as pilgrims to the shrine of Ste. Anne de Beaupre with Mgr. Mathieu, Bishop of Regina.

The way the cities of the Dominion are rallying to Regina in its hour of grief, is one of the bright spots in the gloom of the catastrophe. Thirty-five thousand dollars has been already been subscribed for the relief fund, and offers are pouring in hourly to the Mayor.

The fund, which was started by the Saskatchewan Government, his already grown to forty thousand. The Saskatchewan Government subscribed $25,000, Sir Thomas Shaughnessy has subscribed $5,000 more, the citizens of Regina have already subscribed $10,000. Three hundred members of the Moose Jaw Board of Trade came to Regina on a special train this morning, making a very fast ride. The members threw themselves heart and soul into the work of relief, and assisted in raising tents and in other work. They returned to Moose Jaw late in the afternoon, and they are going to send a train load of tents and supplies, which will, to a certain extent, relieve the suffering caused by the cyclone.

Mr. Bruce Walker, superintendent of immigration, arrived at Regina late to-day to see what could be done on behalf of the city in the way of relief by the Dominion Government.

That the loan companies will extend the time for repayment of loans made on mortgages is the opinion of a representative of one of the principal firms here, but with the exception of the north side he did not think much difficulty would be experienced in meeting these payments.

The section most affected on the north side was built up about six years ago and the mortgages which would have been placed on them, at that time would be on the basis of 50 per cent. value, and as a considerable portion has already been paid off the amount would look very small to-day. On the other hand, the property in this section has advanced considerably in value since the mortgages were first taken out.

MESSAGES OF CONDOLENCE FROM EVERY PROVINCE.

The Hon. F. D. Perley, acting Premier yesterday sent the following despatch to the Mayor of Regina.

"In Mr. Borden's absence I wish to express on the government regret for the heavy loss Regina has sustained, and deep sympathy with the sufferers. I shall be glad to receive particulars. Have instructed Commissioner of Mounted police to render every assistance he can."

The acting Premier also instructed the Militia store authorities in the west to furnish supplies if requested.

RAVAGED CITY CRIES TO EAST FOR 1200 WORKERS

Mr. R. L. Werry, secretary of the Builders' Exchange, received a telegram from Calgary, to-day, asking that 1,200 carpenters be sent west with the least possible delay, in order to start rebuilding Regina.

The wind storm that wrecked a portion of Regina was not, properly speaking, a cyclone, but a tornado, according to Mr. R. Graham, one of the teaching staff of the science department at McGill.

Mr. Graham states that a cyclone usually covers an area of something like five hundred miles in extent, and is really a huge whirlwind. On the outside edges of this whirlwind, small local whirls, or tornadoes, are caused, and it is these local whirls that do so much damage.

The prevailing winds on this continent, he continued, are mostly from the west, or southwest. The cyclone which caused the damage at Regina was predicted in the weather map published by the Meteorological Service from Toronto, on Saturday last. This showed that there would be a great low pressure area in the Western States, of which Yellowstone Park would be approximately the centre. The outside edge of the wind whirling into this low pressure area was shown to strike up from the southwest into Canada near Medicine Hat, and to whirl back south near Qu'Appelle. Regina is about midway between these points, and it was undoubtedly the centre of a local whirl of tremendous intensity, caused by a cyclone much farther to the south.

Turmoil Over Secret Training

British Athletes Found to be Practicing in the Stadium—Americans Surprised.

Stockholm, July 2.—American Olympic athletes are in a turmoil over the discovery made by Chairman Sullivan that the Britons have been training secretely in the Stadium. Americans and others have been forced to train in a very haphazard fashion at out of the way places, and it was supposed that no one should use the Stadium until the games opened.

Sullivan, looking into the Stadium early to-day, was astonished to find the members of the British team at work. He at once hunted up the Swedish authorities, and demanded that his athletes be allowed the same privileges. The Swedes apologetically complied.

To-day the Americans abandoned their dilapidated track in the suburbs, and worked out handily in the Stadium.

The Britons were absent, however. It is feared the incident will cause trouble similar to that which made the Americans and Britons bitter rivals in 1908 at London.

Surprise at the Early Return of Hon. George E. Foster From Trade Commission.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 2.—It is learned that the Hon. G. E. Foster, who has been in London attending the sittings of the Imperial Trade Commission, is coming home very shortly. This news has caused some surprise, as it had been anticipated that the Minister of Trade and Commerce would be absent for a much longer period.

As a result there is some speculation as to whether or not the proceedings of the Imperial Commission are going as smoothly as might be desired. It will be recalled that considerable criticism has been directed against the body in England by reason of its preponderant personnel of Free Traders.

MINISTERIAL CRISIS THREATENS SPAIN.

Madrid, July 2.—Spain is again threatened with a ministerial crisis over a bill to increase the powers of the Provincial Councils. Premier Canalejas declaring that he will resign unless the bill is passed.

Ex-Premier Moret and a majority of the Liberals oppose the bill. They consider that the Government is treating what is merely a local affair, as a matter of national importance, and they ask that the bill be transformed in conformity with their view, declaring that a Cabinet crisis at the present moment would be tantamount to an admission that the carrying out of the Liberal programme is impossible.

DECLARES THAW DANGEROUS.

White Plains, N.Y., July 2.—Dr. Austins Flint, insanity expert, went on the witness stand again this morning and swore positively that Harry K. Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, who began to prove that he is now sane, is a dangerous paranoiac, and that his release from Matteawan Asylum would be ill advised. Dr. Flint swore that it is possible to detect paronoics in thirty seconds.

THIS CANADIAN WON JAPS' KING'S PLATE TWICE IN SUCCESSION

J. C. Fletcher, of Toronto, Captures What is Known as the Empress Cup.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 2.—J. C. Fletcher, formerly a resident of Toronto, and lately one of the most prominent owners of race horses in Japan, returned yesterday to the old haunts. Mr. Fletcher has the distinction of being the only foreign resident in the land of the rising sun to win the Empress Cup twice in succession. This race conforms to the English Derby and to the King's Plate at Woodbine. Both of Mr. Fletcher's big winners, one named Blue Bonnets, after the race track at Montreal, were picked up for a song, one being purchased for $50 and the other for $200. Some of the Japanese owners have spent big money for their horses, in some cases as high as $10,000. Mr. Fletcher has been nine years in Japan running races during that time, and has had a great success.

Sporting Views And Reviews

It is the same old interesting story of which the public never tires—nip and tuck with the Shamrocks and the Montreals. That is what makes the rivalry of the two teams so popular. It was the Shamrock's turn to get nipped on Saturday, at least is was found to be after the match had been played. And the two teams will meet again and again and go at it just as if they did not know who can win. And neither will they until the match is over, which is the fine thing about it all.

Any way, it was a victory for the sons of Erin, for was not one team the Shamrocks, and was not the other led to victory by a man named Hogan, assisted by another Hogan, and by another named Walsh, and so on. Which ever team might lose the Irishmen were bound to be victorious. With them it was a case of "heads I win, tails you lose."

Cornwalls' winning streak was broken, and from now on the Factory Town boys must look out for themselves, because any thing is likely to happen. However, they should not begrudge the Capitals their victory. They needed it badly, and can use it first rate in their business. The Caps were beginning to think they were under a hoodoo, but they now see that no one has any spite against them, and that fortune will give them the victory, provided they play well enough.

As far as can be gathered from the returns that are at hand the Torontos are one or two shades better than the Tecumsehs, and the latter themselves have a suspicion that such is the cold truth of the matter. Considerable evidence of the truth of that assertion was collected on Saturday afternoon on the Island grounds, which, expressed in coudensed form, becomes simply twelve to four, being at the ratio of three to one, which is good enough considering it is somewhat of a late summer.

By winning a thirteen-innings game the Royals have made it clear that they have raised the hoodoo under which they have laboring and they also give the assurance that from now on they will be doing things that will make the fans feel that life after all is worth living.

Whatever superstition may linger in the minds of the Skeeters respecting the unluckiness of thirteen, the Royals will have no more fear of thirteen than they have of nine.

The restored harmony in the ranks of our Olympic team will continue, it is hoped, until the games have been held, and the Canadians have won their share of first prizes. Then there will be time to go into the question of diet and discipline, sleeping hours and training hours, and all the rest of it. Time is too precious just now to permit its being taken up, but it will have to be threshed out or Howard's Winnipeg backers will claim that the West has another grievance, worse than that based on the shortage of grain cars, the too great abundance of wheat, and the scarcity of easy money.

Ottawa has got the baseball fever bad. It has a professional team of its own, and its team is doing remarkably well, much to the disgust of western Ontario. But that does not satisfy Ottawa. It wishes a team from one of the big leagues to go up to the Capital and be butchered to make a holiday for the Civil Service. It seem that the Royals were invited to be the victims. The Royals, it is said, were willing to die for their country, but for a consideration which Ottauw thinks rather a high price. The feeling in the Capital is that one defeat more or less for the Royals ought not to hurt their feelings very much, so that they are in a position to grant a cut rate. No doubt it was hard to refuse Ottawa, but with the Royals business is business.

CLOUD OF PIGEONS OBSCURED THE SUN.

Five Hundred Were Sent up in an Exhibition Flight at Parc Lafontaine.

Even to strangers in Columbarian affairs, it was a pretty sight in Lafontaine Park, yesterday morning, as 500 young pigeons were liberated in an exhibition flight, and for a moment obscured the sun. These birds belonged to members of the Montreal Homing Pigeon Society, one of the finest in the district. On Sunday they pulled off a 450 mile race, and have more planned ere the season closes. Many spectators watched yesterday's flight, and one deeply interested, evidently a Lancashire man, from the home of the homer, said: "Eh lad, this is a sight for sore eyes." The secretary will be pleased to give particulars to any fancier of homing tendencies. Address, M. P. Braem, 2180A St. Denis street, Montreal.

MANY HURT AND A FIRE AT CORNWALL.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Cornwall, Ont., July 2.—The Montrealers and Cornwalls furnished an excellent quality of lacrosse in their league enjoinement here on Dominion Day which as enjoyed by about 1,500 spectators. The Montrealers were accompanied by a good body of supporters who were not low in showing their sympathies. In this one goal was scored in the first quarter and it fell to Montreal on a scoop-in by Frank Hogan, 15 minutes from the face, after Milloy had lobbed the ball in front. A few minutes after the game opened J. Hogan had to retire with an injured hand and McNamara took his place. Just before the gong sounded Sommerville was knocked out by F. Hogan, but was able to resume after a short delay. Cornwall evened the score when the second quarter was going only 37 seconds via Ransome. Nicholson made it 2 to 1 for Cornwall in 4.05 and it was evened up by F. Hogan in 50 seconds. Walsh was injured in a scrimmage and Rafferty went on instead. The next fell to Montreal in 3.50 by way of Milloy. Again the figures were evened by M. Cummins scoring in 3.45 after a siege at Montreal's net. Ransome again came into the scoring column on a fine running shot in 3.40. Both tried hard to add further but the quarter was called with the score 4-3 in Cornwall's favor. M. Cummins gave Cornwall a two goal lead 1 1-2 minutes after the third period started. The play was very close and exciting and the excitement was intensified when smoke was seen to rise at the south end of the Grand stand where fire had caught in the grass. It was quickly put out without any damage being done to the stand. Only 1 1-2 minutes of the quarter remained so the rest was given and this time added in the last quarter, score 5 to 3 for Cornwall. Bob Degan scored for Cornwall in 5.45 and made the figures 6 to 3. McDonell added the next for Montreal in 4.15. Ambrose Degray was injured and came off and Corbet Denneny took his place. Rafferty was the next to bite the dust and Neville replaced him. The Cornwalls had the best of the play for a considerable time and though shot after shot was rained in, Fyon and his defender turned all aside. With the game going on in this way full time was called and the Cornwalls were winners by 6 goals to 5. The teams, officials and summary follows:

Montreal downed Shamrocks by 8 to 6 on Saturday at the M. A. A. A. grounds in a spirited and well contested game. After the first ten minutes of play the game was nip and tuck till the final gong. This was their third encounter this season, and Shamrocks had won the two previous games. Nearly two thousand people witnessed the match. Bicycle Races — Life-Saving Stunts and Band Concert at Waterloo.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Waterloo, Ont., July 2.—Ideal weather favored the Canadian Wheelmen's Association national championship meet, which opened here before an enthusiastic crowd of 8,000 people. Westside Park, the home of several such meets, looked elegant, with its beautiful lawn and terrace in foliage, as if in preparation for such an event. TORONTOS WON FROM KENNEDY'S TEAM.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 2. — George Kennedy's Irish-Canadians, flushed with their Saturday victory over the Nationals, met the Torontos at Scarboro Beach, but, as was the case when they visited here before, they went down to defeat, this time by 6-3. There was no scoring in the first quarter, while in the second quarter Toronto scored two. They each scored one in the third, while Toronto secured three to the visitors' two in the fourth.

The game was witnessed by a fairly large crowd, who saw an excellent game of clean lacrosse, full of clever passing and nice combination playing. The teams were evenly matched throughout, and until well on in the fourth quarter the issue was always in doubt.

The Irish-Canadians presented the strongest line-up they have had this year, the addition of Gagnon to the defence being a big source of strength, while Nick Neville also found his correct position at point. John White was in the game all the time, but Aspell, Munday and Kane did not have the speed of their opponents.

Fred. Scott was bothered throughout the game with an injured leg, but was a decidedly dangerous player.

The Torontos were without their point player, Norman Harshaw, whose injuries on Saturday prevented him from playing. Billy Braden was brought in to play point, and Tommy Fitzgerald was used at third defence.

The first shot of the game was made by Geo. Roberts almost from the draw, which Gibbons turned aside, and the two teams battled for eighteen minutes without a let- up, the longest time a lacrosse match has gone this year without a stop of some kind. The line-up:

Torontos — Goal, Gibbons; point, Broden; cover, Marshall; defence, Powers, Stagg, T. Fitzgerald; centre, Danden; home, W. Fitzgerald, Longfellow, Donihee; outside, Kalls; inside, Warwick.

Irish - Canadians — Goal, Brennan; point, Neville; cover, Gagnon; defence, White, Aspell, Munday; centre, Kane; home, F. Scott, Layden, H. Scott; outside, C. George; inside, Geo. Roberts.

Referee—W. McIntyre; judge of play, E. C. St. Pere.

AUSTRALIAN CRICKETERS TO COME HERE TO PLAY

The Montreal Cricket Club Arranging for a Match Through Messrs. Tom Wall and Jack Davidson for October.

The Australian Cricketers who are now playing in the triangular matches in England, have an idea of coming home by the way of Canada, and wires are now being pulled to have them play in Montreal on the Montreal grounds sometime in October next.

The Montreal Cricket Club is doing the wire-pulling with the aid of Mr. Tom Wall of Spaldings and Mr. Jack Davidson, General Manager of the M.A.A.A., and it looks very much just now as if they would succeed.

Cablegrams of considerable length have been exchanged during the last three days, and the Australians are willing to play one match in Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver each, if satisfactory terms can be obtained as far as expenses go.

If they play a match here, it will be against a team made up of the best Montreal and Ottawa players.

THE STAR'S SPECIAL FROM TOM FLANAGAN

Pays Compliment to Flynn and Tells Him He Will Never Forget July 4, 1912.

(By Tom Flanagan)

East Las Vegas, July 2—I accidentally met Jim Flynn in Promoter Jack Curley's office. At Jack Johnson's request I have remained away from the Fighting Fireman's camp, though a few days ago I had planned to make the trip to Montezuma and get a look at the white boy. What I saw when Flynn entered Curley's office as I was seated there was remarkable. It was hard for me to believe that Flynn was anything but a 175 pounder. Yet he is every bit a 190 pounder and I guess it's right that he is weighing 194 pounds.

Furthermore, Flynn looked seven years younger to me than he did in Toronto last winter when he knocked out Al Williams, his present chief sparring partner in two rounds. I was surprised at what I saw and certainly neither Flynn nor Curley can make any excuses after Thursday and after Johnson has knocked out, this game, elegantly trained, white fighter.

Flynn is every bit the gentleman as well, and our talk was an interesting one. I told him that he would never forget this fourth of July as long as he lived and all he told me was "TO BE SURE AND HAVE THE BIG BLACK READY." Flynn certainly is in trim, but for that matter Johnson is absolutely perfect form.

TOM FLANAGAN.

FOLLOWERS OF HORSE RACING IN BIG CROWDS AT DELORIMIER PARK ON FIRST TWO DAYS OF MEET

The first two days of the mid-summer meeting of the Montreal Driving Club, at Delorimier Park, have drawn big crowds. Taking the old familiar journey to the north end track on Saturday, local turfmen found the extension of the grand stand and the construction of a chute to give a ¼ straightaway, new features that greatly improve the plant. The flaunting statement repeated several places on the programme, "Notice, no children will be admitted," was given the lie, by the numerous boys and girls of all ages that played around the grand stand.

The contests on the half mile track are as exciting as ever, and the ten books have all the business they can handle. Favorites had a good day on Saturday, but form players were up against it yesterday, when only three of their mounts came home. The track is in exceptionaly fine shape, and the new chute has resulted in some splendid times being hung up.

Saturday's card was featured by accidents in the first three races, which fortunately resulted in no serious injuries. A hole by the rail at the first turn caused a horse in the first and third race to fall, and another to stumble in the second. This slight imperfection was soon fixed up with the harrow.

LOOSE BASEBALL FEATURED YESTERDAY'S EVEN BREAK BE-TWEEN ROYALS AND BISONS

After a long absence from our mi dst and in order to celebrate the work the Fathers of Confederation put acr oss several moons ago, our peerless athletes returned to the metropolis ye sterday a.m.

The performance abroad of our representatives will stagger down the avennes of fame with about the sam e resounding joy as that with which the Libs. greeted the results of the la st election in New Brunswick.

This, as the average elector is a ware, can hardly be classified with the great gladness of which the poet s sing.

In other words, our peerless athletes came back to us looking as if they had got the wrong decision in a dog fight but maintaining a deathlike clutch upon the lid of the cyclone-pr oof cellar of the gentlemanly Mr. E. Barrows' eight-storey structure.

Every cloud has a silver lining, a s the late Mr. W. Shakespeare-learned-ly remarks in his life of Mr. W. J. Bryan, the great speller and our peerless athletes may find some comfort in the fact that, unless the bot-tom falls out of the cellar they are o ff that sliding stuff.

Electors Turned Out in Force.

According to established custom, t he f.t.d. provided two contests yes-terday for the price of two admission s, and great multitudes of the free and independent electors parted with re al money to see our stricken athletes perform. This was intensely gratifyin g to the f.t.d. who were on hand to listen to the merry chink of the coin as it was separated from its resting place by the malefactors in the box office.

Mr. F. Roth, our esteemed erstwhile clutcher, was spiked at the plate and went away for repairs.

Mr. J. Jones, who first sacks for the Herd contributed generously to our cause in the p.m.

According to the latest returns, th e exact amount extracted by the artists near the death-dealing turn stiles was $6,382,944.15, the fifteen being pinched from a small boy wh o wandered too near the gate of the ballyard on his way down town to buy a load of firecrackers. It was rumored at a late hour last night that t he chief magnate of the Bank of Montreal had been called home from his holidays in order to open up the safe to get it in.

The latter, however, could not offi cially confirmed at an early hour to-day.

In order to demonstrate their a ppreciation of the generosity of the electors, our athletes went out in the a.m. session and lost the combat, but in the p.m. struggle finally consented to accept the honors.

Mr. F. Smith Get s a Wrong Decision.

Mr. F. Smith, the expert piano-mover, heaved in our behalf in the morning, but got stalled on the stair s, and was unable to deliver the goods, a pirate by the name of Beebe being the cause of the blockade. The final court showed that our cause had suffered defeat by 3 votes, and that the ticket headed by Big Chief Stallings (the great yam magnate), had been adopted by the convention.

The seventh ballot was the cause of Mr. F. Smith's undoing, five of the delegates from the opposing camp attacking our cause with much slaughter. Two of the aforesaid miscreants each telegraphing an extra vote in full view of the entire convention.

In the early contest, the delegates pledged to us slipped up a few cogs and made the machinations of the enemy more effective.

The Afternoon Affair Went Our Way.

The after-luncheon battle went our way, the final round up being 7-3. Tossing in our behalf was the talented Mr. W. Viebahn who, according to Burke's Peerage, is a nephew of the distinguished Herr Pilsener, of Wurtz-burger, Germany, the great Hofbrau king.

The performance of Mr. W. Viebahn was highly satisfactory to old and young alike, although the courtesy of several gents on the opposing line-up had much to do with the final outcome of the sanguinary affair. One of the latter, Mr. Jones, who first sacks for the Stalling's brigade, is par-ticularly to be commended in this respect. This athlete on three separate and distinct occasions, assisted our c ause materially, as did Mr. Mitchell, the clutcher of the enemy's camp. The latter, in an effort to head off one of our forces at second, threw the ball through the gate leading to the grand stand against the Arena wall. This was very considerate on the part of Mr. Mitchell, and figured in the run getting.

Mr. F. Roth Was on Hand.

Mr. F. Roth (who used to clutch in our behalf with great eclat, but who incurred the wrath of his immediate chief, and was sold to Buffalo at a critical juncture in our career), appeared with his new employer yesterday and received the glad hand from the multitude. In the afternoon struggle, however, our erstwhile athlete was the victim of a painful accident, when in an effort to stab our Mr. Cunningham at the home platter, he was spiked with the sharp spikes of our second sacker.

A eminent surgeon was called to the scene of the disaster and the stricken Mr. Roth was conveyed to the clubhouse, where it was decided that amputation was not necessary, and that there was hope that the great clutch-er's life would be spared. Mr. Mitchell, mentioned above at great expense, succeeded the afflicted one and the game went merrily on.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

That it is lightest is the weightiest reason why you should own a Ford. Every added pound which an automobile carries above that which is needed for strength means added expense and added danger. The Vanadium-built Ford is strongest for its weight.

Seventy-five thousand new Ford Model T's will go into service this season—a proof of their wonderful superiority. The price is $775 for the roadster and $850 for the five passenger touring car — complete with all equipment, f. o. b. Walkerville, Ontario. BASE-BALL

An even break was the best we could do with the dying Herd.

Manager Stallings says he hopes to get his team back on their feet again before leaving Montreal.

The Royals played bad ball in the morning, but the Bisons went them one better in the afternoon.

Purtell, who was kept on the club by the skin of his teeth, now looks like the best ball player in the outfit.

Hanford is still lame and his inability to cover the ground in right field made the first game easy for Buffalo.

Besides pitching an excellent game, Beebe went a long piece towards win-ning his game by pounding out two sin-gles and a double.

Murray's stick work was a feature of the morning game. Twice the visiting centre fielder hit the ball on the nose when a hit was needed.

The Royals had three chances during the morning game but they allowed them all to pass. With the bases full, one out and a runner already forced across the plate in the fifth, Joe Yeager made the second out on a weak pop to Bues and Demmitt rolled an easy one to Beebe.

Roth and Mitchell allowed the Royals to steal seven bases during the matinee. Their work behind the bat was also far from what might be expected.

Roth was spiked by Cunningham in the fifth inning and was forced to retire from the game.

"Texas" Jones, who has been out of the game for three weeks on account of illness was back in the Buffalo line-up yesterday, and he celebrated his return with three boots.

Viebahn had one bad inning during the afternoon when his opponents scored three runs off him, but he settled down again after that and was never in seri-ous trouble again.

Connolly gave the fans an exhibition of base running yesterday that was pretty close to the stuff Ward Mille, used to pull.

Murphy caught both games yesterday. He had four passed balls, but looks to have, the best throwing arm of any catcher we have had on the club this season.

Bransfield is on the hospital list, and it is not known when he will turn out. Angermeier looks better than any first base man we have had since Gandil's time.

Russell is also on the sick list, but is expected back in the game before the team leaves home.

Taylor will in all probability be Man-ager Lush's pitching choice for to-day.

Regals Duplicate.

The Regals advanced another step on Sunday in their upward climb in the Senior Montefiore League and the Eureka's for second place by de-feating the Y.M.H.A. by the score of 15 to 9.

The game was a very closely con-tested affair, the Y.M.H.A. assuming a lead in the early part of the game, but the Regals fighting hard managed to even up the score in the fifth inning. Until the eighth inning it was either team's game, when the Regals struck a batting streak and knocked 5 runs off Silverman.

For the Regals Levin pitched great ball, allowing his opponents but one run during the seven innings he pitch-ed. The rest of the team worked to-gether in fine style, having but two errors marked against them, especial-ly the work of L. Blumberg, who worthy of note, both at the bat and in the field. The fielding and batting of Godel and Sigler is also worthy of mention.

Batteries—

Y.M.H.A. Sherman and Gitfor.

Folly of Abolishing the Army Canteen.

Since the abandonment of the canteen by the U.S. Army, there have been so many desertions, so much drunkenness and vice that army officers have become alarmed.

When the canteen existed, intemperance was unknown, because good beer and soft drinks only were sold.

Good lager like Dawes Konigsbier is doing more to promote the cause of temperance than anything else.

It has placed within the reach of everyone a pure non-intoxicating beverage—wholesome and refreshing.

Insist upon having Dawes Konigsbier, and to drink it at its best it should be placed on ice about half an hour before using.

REVIEW OF THE WEEK'S END SOCCER ENGAGEMENTS

Sons of Scotland Victors Over C.P.R., and G.T.R. Drew with Sons of England.

Saturday's soccer was notable for one thing, that out of twelve games there were only two draws, Crusaders-Rosemount and Grand Trunk-S. of E. The remainder were, in most cases, clean-cut wins.

Sons of Scotland did the best thing of the afternoon, defeating C. P. R. at Angus by 4-0. Unfortunately for C. P. R. they were without the Brothers Anzel and Bush. This was no fault of the S. O. S. for they deserved the invaluable points.

Grand Trunk and Sons of England played a peculiar kind of a game, an unusual score of 4-4 being served up. The forwards on both sides beat the defence, which was weak. Taylor on his part running out too much. Grand Trunk retain the lead, but Locos are close up.

Royal Rovers had a very easy trip with Fairmount, winning 4-0. Fairmount are in a bad way, with two points only out of seven games.

Locos were very little better than Valleyfield in a 2-1 affair. The visitors played the best game seen at Longue Pointe this season. Locos opened the score in three minutes through McFarlane. Valleyfield equalized through a penalty. Twenty minutes from the end Bald gave his side the victory.

Lachine didn't mince matters with Rose and Thistle, scoring six goals, without response from the R. and T's. This victory tightens Lachine's grip on the chance of jumping into the first division.

Maisonneuve scored a creditable 3-2 victory over Cote St. Paul, but there was little in the game on the play.

Crusaders had to be content with another draw, 2-2, Rosemount taking away a point. Royal Highlanders surprised themselves and Maples by winning 5-1.

Valois Boating Club Dance.

The special Dominion Day dance held at the Valois Boating Club last night was an immense success and attracted a great number of visitors both from the city and Lakeshore points. The club-house was decorated en fete for the occasion.

The most important game of the league was played last Sunday morning on Fletchers field between the Disraeli's and the Eurekas, and it was a game to see.

The Disraeli's cracker were behind up to the 4th inning and landed on Kline in the 5th for 6 runs and held piling up their runs in the rest of the innings to win the game. The score stood at the end of the ninth innings:

Three games were scheduled for this ball league last Sunday morning on Fletcher's field and the games proved very interesting.

The game between the Vics and the Greys was very exciting as the Greys promise to stop the winning streak of the Vics nearly came true in the ninth and won out with score standing 15-16 in favor of the Vics.

In every hard hitting contest the Montefiores beat the re-organized Leafs to the tune of 21-11.

Taylor is the pitcher selected by the Royals management to oppose the Bisons this afternoon.

The baseball team of Ahuntsic defeated the Laval University aggregation of Montreal by a score of 14 to 10. A large crowd witnessed the game on the Ahuntsic Grounds, corner of George Fifth avenue and Gouin Boulevard, and there was great enthusiasm displayed. The day before, the other Ahuntsic baseball team, playing under the colors of the Ahuntsic Artistic Association, defeated the St. Louis Baseball Club.

ORIOLES RELEASED PITCHER JIM DYGERT

Has Not Shown the Speed Which Won Him Glory Last Year Going South.

Baltimore, Md., July 2.—The first of several long expected cuts in the Oriole pitching staff was made this morning when an unconditional release was handed Jimmy Dygert. The little spitballer from the Athletics did great work for the Birds last year, but this season has been a big disappointment. Though several times he has given flashes of his 1911 form, Jimmy has not showed his old style any time this season.

After a poor start last year Dygert rounded into an almost unbeatable pitcher. He had won 25 games when he threw his arm out late in August, and has never been right since. This year Dunnie was not surprised when he started out badly and was hopeful until a few weeks ago that Jimmy would get on his old strike. Apparently Dygert is still master of his spitter and curves, but the necessary smoke is lacking. With July 4 almost here Dygert is credited with only two victories in the league.

It is believed that Dygert would pitch better ball were he to go to the Southern League where the climate is warmer.

The young pitchers, of whom much was not expected, proved the real winners, and Dunn intends to look to them for great things in the future.

James Hogan, of the Montrealers, had his hand broken, and had to be taken to the hospital, and Walsh, of the same team, received such a cut on the head that he had to be taken to a similar institution.

From coast to coast, from Halifax to Vancouver, PLAYER'S NAVY CUT CIGARETTES can be purchased from all dealers.

If you have not smoked them, buy a packet. The fascinating smoothness, the rich, mild aroma of these famous little smokes ensures perfect cigarette enjoyment.

EXCHANGE OF 20 P. C. PREFERENCE WITH WEST INDIES

Trade Agreement Ratified by Dominion Government — First Step Towards Imperial Reciprocity.

MAY BE LIMITED TO DIRECT IMPORTATIONS

As Distinguished from Imports Shipped Through U. S. Channels is Provision.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 2.—The Borden Ministry has taken its first advance step in the direction of Imperial reciprocity by the conclusion of a trade agreement with the West Indies, the terms of which have just been announced. At the last general election, when the then Government proposed reciprocity with the United States, the Conservative party put forth, as a more desirable alternative, trade agreements within the Empire. In the case of the West Indies an agreement was reached with much greater facility than had been expected, having regard to past negotiations. A similar arrangement with Australia is now the subject of negotiations, and the propaganda will be carried on.

Briefly stated, Canada and the Islands exchange a 20 per cent. preference on an enumerated list of commodities. In some cases the British Preference already is extended to the West Indies, and at a rate higher than is provided for in the new agreement. The latter, however, is for a specified term, and not subject to change.

Meanwhile, there can be no doubt that a large operating consideration in bringing it about was the undertaking to improve steamship and cable communication with the Islands. Tenders for this service are now invited.

What is regarded as a noteworthy feature of the agreement is the right to stipulate that its benefits may be restricted to direct imports, as distinguished from those transhipped through United States channels.

Parties to the Agreement.

Agreement entered into this 9th day of April by the Government of His Majesty's Dominion of Canada, represented herein by the Honorable George Eulas Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce; the Honorable William Thomas White, Minister of Finance, and the Honorable John Dowsley Reid, Minister of Customs. And

The Government of:

Trinidad, represented herein by Henry Barclay Walcott, Collector of Customs; British Guiana, represented herein by John McIntosh Reid, comptroller of Customs; Barbadoes, represented herein by Dr William Kelman, Chandler, L.L.D., C.M.G., Master in Chancery; St. Lucia, represented herein, by Edward John Cameron, C.M.G., Administrator of the Colony; St. Vincent, represented herein by Francis William Griffith, Supervisor of Customs; Antigua, represented herein by William Douglas Auchinleck, I.S.C., herein by Thomas Laurence Roxburgh, C.M.G., Administrator of the Presidency; Dominica, represented herein by William Henry Porter, I.S.O., Treasurer, and Monserrat, represented herein by Lieutenant-Colonel Wilfrid Bennett Davidson-Houston, C.M.G., Commissioner of the Presidency.

(b) On all goods enumerated in Schedule C hereto, being the produce or manufacture of any of the above mentioned colonies, imported into the Dominion of Canada, there shall be no duties of customs, but on like goods, when imported from any foreign country, the duties of customs shall not be less than those therein set out.

(c) The act of the Parliament of Canada entitled, "An act respecting duties of customs," assented to on the 12th day of April, 1907, as amended by Chapter 10 of the Acts of the Parliament of Canada, 1909 shall, in addition to the amendments necessary to give effect to the foregoing provisions of this section, be amended as follows:—

(1) Tariff item 135c to be repealed.

(2) Tariff item 137a to be repealed.

(3) So as to provide that upon arrowroot the produce of any of the said colonies imported into the Dominion of Canada the duties of customs shall not exceed fifty cents per one hundred pounds.

6. Provided that should the discretion herein granted be at any time exercised by the Government of Canada, provision shall be made in all contracts entered into with steamships subsidized by the Dominion plying between ports in Canada and ports in the colonies, which are parties to this agreement, for an effective control of rates of freight.

7.—This agreement shall be subject to the approval of the Parliament of Canada and of the legislatures of the above-mentioned colonies, and of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, and upon such approval being given it shall be brought into operation at such time as may be agreed upon between the contracting parties by a proclamation published in the Canada Gazette and in the Official Gazette of each of the said colonies.

8. After this agreement shall have been in force for the period of ten years it may be terminated by any one of the parties thereto (in respect of such party) at the end of one year after the day upon which notice shall have been given by the party desiring such termination.

In testimony whereof the said parties have signed this agreement in decemplicate.

LABOR LEADERS DECLARING WAR AGAINST STRIKES

Keir Hardie Believes Legislative Action Will Produce Better Results.

London, July 2.—War against the strike as a weapon for workmen has been declared by some of the old time labor leaders of Great Britain, including men who have heretofore advocated extreme measures to obtain better wages and conditions.

Phillip Snowden, one of the cleverest of the Socialist members of the House of Commons was among the first to sound the warning that the men were gaining nothing by continual strikes. As, however, he often takes an independent stand, not much surprise was expressed.

When Keir Hardie, Mr. Snowden's more extreme colleague, followed his example, however, there was a wrinkling of brows. Mr. Hardie says he is more than ever convinced that legislative action would produce more permanent results than could be hoped for from strikes.

Reform enacted by the State, he says, becomes permanent and cannot be taken away, but concessions won by a strike during good times might be lost by a lockout in bad times.

Therefore, labor representatives should be sent to Parliament to enact the right kind of legislation.

HOW THINGS SHOULD NOT BE DONE

Mr. Hardie instanced the late attempt of a national strike of transport workers, which dismally failed, as a case of how things should not be done.

The Union officials are beginning to realize that trades unionism is not in a healthy state in England at present.

Last year men went on strike against the advice of their leaders and gained little or nothing. This year the officials ordered the strikes, but the men, following the more astute leaders, refused to respond.

The fall in the bank balances of the unions, and the failure in most cases to secure any appreciable benefit through strikes have made the men more cautious.

STARVING MAN EATS HEARTY MEAL AND DIES

Saying that he had not had a bite to eat for three days, Charles Ashton was brought to the Notre Dame Hospital yesterday morning, having fallen unconscious on the street. After a square meal he was so much better that he was allowed to go, but the morning he died suddenly in Morin's dining-room on St. Paul street and was taken to the morgue.

Ashton who is 57 years of age, has no home and no relatives in the city.

APPEAL IN COTTON CASE.

A cablegram has been received from London this morning by Messrs. Meredith, Gibbons, Casgrain, Mitchell and Casgrain informing them that the petition for leave to appeal from the Supreme Court judgment, in the case of Cotton vs. H. M. the King, to the Privy Council, has been granted.

The case at issue is one involving $20,943, succession duties claimed from the estate of the late Henry H. Cotton, of Cowansville, and the appeal is now being taken up at the instance of Charles S. Cotton and Carl E. Cotton, trustees of the estate.

Enter Appeal in Chiniquy Case.

WEDDED DESPITE MOTHER

Miss Daisy Coxe Wright Becomes Mrs. Wm. Innes Forbes.

Philadelphia, July 2.—Miss Coxe Wright, at postponement owing to the objections of the mother of the bride, William Innes Forbes, well known clubman and former commodore of the Schuylkill Navy, was married to-day to Miss Daisy Coxe Wright, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Townsend Wright and the grandniece of Mrs. Eckley B. Coxe, of Drifton, Penn., widow of the millionaire anthracite operator who spent many years in Montreal.

Some months ago Miss Wright announced her engagement to Mr. Forbes and the mother immediately recalled it and said that such a marriage would not have her consent. Miss Wright was obdurate and insistent and informed her mother that she would marry Mr. Forbes. She even arranged for the wedding and engaged the rector of St. Mark's Church to perform the ceremony. Finally, Miss Wright's mother, persuaded that her daughter was determined to marry the man of her choice, begged her to wed in the parish where the family attended, and the date for the wedding was again changed, and finally in the little Episcopal chapel of St. Mary's, at Wayne, at noon to-day, the Rev. Charles M. Armstrong performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Wright opposed the match because there is a difference of twenty-four years in the ages of the couple. Mr. Forbes is a member of the Philadelphia Lawyers, University, Rittenhouse, Pennsylvania, Barge and Bryn Mawr Country clubs. Miss Wright has an annuity of $30,000 from the estate of her grandfather, and her share of her mother's wealth will reach the millions unless there is a permanent estrangement between them. The bridegroom and the father of the bride were in college together. W. T. Wright was in the class of '87 and Mr. Forbes in the class of '89 at the University of Pennsylvania.

MAN FAMINE HAMPERS INDUSTRY AT DRUMMONDVILLE

Work Waiting for 5,000 Men, While 60,000 Horse-Power Is Running to Waste.

With the object of putting an end to the "population famine" and showing to the public in general the opportunities for industrial development offered, the town of Drummondville was "at home" yesterday to visitors.

It was a very big "at home" too. "Fete de la Puissance" it was called, and it certainly was a fete of enjoyment and interest to all. Recognizing the fact that the natural advantages possessed by Drummondville, have not yet been fully appreciated, it was decided to hold a celebration in the town, and extend invitations to various organizations of business men and financiers.

The programme consisted of a picnic luncheon, an automobile tour of about eight miles, and a "grande finale" in a banquet at the Manoir Drummond.

Drummondville is one of the prettiest towns to be found in the Eastern Townships, and it also has the advantage of a water power capable of giving 60,000 horse power at present undeveloped.

Drummondville is, however, suffering from a "man famine." To-day there are nine large factories in Drummondville, running at a third of their capacity on account of the shortage of labor. Drummondville in itself is a little town of about two thousand five hundred people, and the number of workmen in this population is far too small to supply the factories with sufficient hands. Mayor Garceau says employment could be given to 5,000 more men could they be obtained. To attract these people to the town was one of the objects of the Fete de la Puissance held yesterday.

Give Visitors Picnic Dinner.

Another very prominent object of the fete was to show to representative financiers and business men the opportunities offered by the town for industrial development. Although 60,000 horsepower could easily be developed from the St. Francis River, there is only one small electrical power company and one sawmill at present making use of the power.

Among those who made the trip were Senator Lavergne, Senator Wilson, Mr. Bishop, of the Bishop Construction Company, Mayor Garceau, of Drummondville, Messrs. Ovide Brouillard, M.P.; Charles Manseau, J. E. Goodenough, and representatives of the Chambres de Commerce of many cities of the Province of Quebec and the Board of Trade of Sherbrooke.

At the conclusion of the auto tour, the guests were tendered a picnic dinner in Bishop Park. At this function, both Senator Lavergne, Mr. Brouillard and Mayor Garceau, addressed those present. Myaor Garceau in his speech, pointed out that the natural advantages of Drummondville are not appreciated. "The police regulations," said the Mayor, "are all suspended for the day. So you may go ahead and have a good time." Senator Lavergne and Mr. Brouillard also spoke.

Banquet in the Evening.

After the luncheon, time was devoted to athletics. A mile and a half race was well run, and was hotly contested by both Albert Bouchard and Arthur Laboncoeur, the former winning out with a margin of a few feet. The second man took revenge on his victor, however, in the 100 yards dash. Bouchard came a close second in this event. Later in the afternoon, there was boating on the river. Many yachts and skiffs were out and the visitors spent much time on the water.

The "Coup d'Etat" was pulled off in the evening at the Manoir Drummond, where the banquet was held. Speeches were made by Senators Lavergne and Wilson, the Mayor, several of the aldermen, and Messrs. Charles Manceau, J. E. Perrault, Ovide Brouillard, M.P., J. Marrier, C. H. Lalonde and others. The toasts were: The King, Canada, Drummondville, Our Guests, The Press and The Ladies.

On the whole, the celebration was a great success, and the people of Drummondville hope that it will bear results.

THE NORTH SHORE'S LAST INDUSTRIAL OUTPOST.

Railway Commission and Inter-State Commerce Board to Be Approached.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Ottawa, July 2.—A new feature in the situation brought about by the cutting in two of the duty on cement is the probability of a joint appeal to the Canadian Board of Railway Commissioners and the Interstate Commerce Commission of the United States.

The circumstances which create the need for such an appeal have arisen in the most natural manner. The reduction in the duty on cement by 26 cents a barrel gave American manufacturers a chance to cut into the Canadian market. This meant money to the American manufacturers, and the American railways did not see why they should not get part of the benefit at least.

So they raised their rates. They did this in a very simple manner. They had been accepting cement under what is known as a "commodity rate"; that is a rate for the special commodity lower than the rate on the other articles in the same class. They merely set aside the "commodity" rate on cement and refused to accept it for shipment except under the "class" rate.

This state of affairs was quickly brought to the attention of the Canadian Board of Railway Commissioners. The situation was beyond their control, however. The rates, in question being international rates, the Canadian Commission has control over the part of the rate on the Canadian section of the route.

They could take action with regard to this, but the American railways could reply:

"Well, if you object to this through rate, all right, we will bill the cement only to the frontier, and then your consignees will have to pay two local rates instead of one through rate." As that would leave the rate higher than ever, that remedy is not open.

The Government naturally does not desire that when it has surrendered part of its revenue, it should merely be turning that revenue over to the American railways. Consequently it is not likely to let the matter drop here. It is stated in railway circles that there is a remedy by an appeal made jointly to the Railway Commission and the Interstate Commerce Commission, and it is probable that this course will be followed.

CANON GAUTHIER APPOINTED BISHOP OF THIS DIOCESE

Is Auxiliary to Mgr. Bruchesi Owing to Bishop Racicot's Retirement.

A cable from Rome to His Excellency Mgr. Stagni, announces the appointment of Rev. Canon George Gauthier, rector of St. James Cathedral, as Auxiliary Bishop of Montreal, in place of Mgr. Racicot, who resigned on account of ill-health.

The Bishop-elect was born in Montreal October 9, 1871. He was ordained by the late Archbishop Fabre in September, 1894. He spent the next two years studying in Rome, where he won the degree of Doctor in Civil Law. On his return to Montreal he taught for two years in the Montreal Seminary. His glowing eloquence soon attracted attention and the Archbishop added him to the staff of the Cathedral in 1898. In 1900 he was made a Canon and in 1902 chaplain of the Cathedral Chapter.

When in 1904, Archbishop Bruchesi created the parish of St. James the Major, with the Cathedral as the parochial church, Rev. Canon Gauthier was made the rector. The new Bishop is looked upon as one of the most eloquent of the French-Canadian clergy in Canada. It is well known that he was the choice of Archbishop Bruchesi for the See of Ottawa.

Bishop-elect Gauthier is at present attending the Congress of Working Women, which is being held at Turin.

WINDSOR HOTEL COMPANY VIOLATED LABOR LAW.

Convicted of Importing Waiters in Contravention of Alien Labor Act.

The Windsor Hotel Company was fined $50 each on seven counts Saturday afternoon by Recorder Weir for violation of the Alien Labor Act. The fine is the minimum provided under the act.

This is the second occasion on which the Windsor Hotel Company has been convicted of contravention of this act. Last March the company was found guilty in four out of five actions and fined $50 on each count. These cases were appealed to the Court of the King's Bench and will be decided by Mr. Justice Gervais this week.

The Windsor Hotel Company was charged with importing seven waiters from New York.

FATHER AND SON ARE DROWNED WHILE FISHING.

Boat Overturned by Swift Current Near Rapids in Back River.

Morris Edelman, 31, years old and his nine-year-old son of 117 Metcalfe street, were drowned Sunday afternoon in the Back River at Bordeaux when their boat was overturned by the swift current near the rapids. The father's body was recovered after a search of an hour but the body of the younger victim has not yet been recovered although the river has been dragged and re-dragged. The two were out fishing and ventured too near the rapids before they realized their danger.

STE. AGATHE'S FETE.

Big Preparations Have Been Made for Coming Anniversary.

A few changes have been made in the programme for the jubilee celebration at Ste. Agathe des Monts on the 9th and 10th of July. Visitors will be officially received on Tuesday the 9th, at half past three, by the mayor and the president of the committee, Dr. Edm. Grignen. The train will leave the Viger station at 9 a.m., and will reach Ste. Agathe shortly before noon. Dinner may then be obtained at the tent near the church or in the various hotels and boarding houses. Arrangements have been made so that the carriage rates will not be raised during the celebration, while the train rates from Montreal, Mount Laurier and intermediate stations have been reduced to first class fare for a return ticket good until Thursday the 11th. All information may be had in the "Album Historique," prepared by the Committee, which gives many interesting views of Ste. Agathe and its inhabitants and contains the programme of the celebration.

W.C.T.U. COMMENDS MINISTER OF MILITIA FOR CANTEEN ORDER

Mothers Discourage Enlistment in Militia Because of Drinking in Camps.

The members of the Fairmount Women's Christian Temperance Union have taken occasion to commend the Hon. Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia and Defence, for his stand regarding the sale of liquor at the militia camps. The correspondence follows:

Hon. Sam Hughes,

Minister of Militia and Defence.

My Dear Sir, I am instructed by Fairmount Women's Christian Temperance Union, a temperance society of over three hundred members, to express to you our deep gratification at the decided stand you have taken re canteen abolishment and to congratulate you upon a course of action which, in our opinion, will have a far-reaching effect not only upon the character and morals of those who have already enlisted in the militia, but also upon the members and social standing of future recruits.

It may not be known to you Sir, but we have no hesitation in making the statement (which our location and activities qualify us to do) that the mothers of the Province of Quebec to a very large extent exercise their influence to discourage their sons from enlisting in the militia, on account of the drinking habits customary in camps.

That this condition of affairs is known and recognized in military as well as civilian circles is shown by the following advertisement, which appeared in the Montreal Daily Star of June 18th, 1910:

85th Regiment.

Recruits Wanted.

To complete establishment camp at Three Rivers, June 24th to July 5th. Enrolling names at Armory, Craig street, from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. Mothers, send your sons. Whiskey is tabooed. A loyal temperance camp. By order,

C. E. A. Patterson, Major.

In view of these conditions and of the steadily decreasing numbers in attendance at the militia camps, we believe that you have taken the wisest possible course, in enforcing stringent temperance regulations, the results of which will be seen in a largely increased numbers of recruits and in the greater general efficiency of the volunteer forces of our country. I have the honor to be, Dear Sir,

Your Obedient Servant,

Isabella Scott, Sec. F.W.C.T.U.

Reply.

Militia and Defence, Minister's Office, Ottawa, June 22nd, 1912.

Dear Madam,—Will you please accept my sincere thanks for your very kind letter of the 21st instant, written in behalf of the Fairmount Women's Christian Temperance Union.

I am very pleased to know that the ladies of your Association endorse the stand I have taken in connection with the sale of liquor in camps.

Again Thanking You,

Sam Hughes.

Timely Aid

When one's digestion is "out of fix" a good straightforward test of food is worth much.

Many who have suffered from stomach troubles have discovered that a dish of

Grape-Nuts

is not only easily digested, but actually assists in the digestion of other food.

The power of proper food—the kind the stomach will digest, and at the same time yields nourishment—is almost unlimited.

THE BEST TEACHER

Experience Still Holds The Palm.

For real practical reliability something to swear by experience—plain old experience—is able to carry a big load yet without getting swaybacked.

A So. Dak. woman found some things about food from Old Experience, a good reliable teacher.

She writes:

"I think I have used almost every breakfast food manufactured, but none equal Grape-Nuts in my estimation.

"I was greatly bothered with weak stomach and indigestion, with formation of gas after eating, and tried many remedies for it but did not find relief.

"Then I decided I must diet and see if I could overcome the difficulty that way. My choice of food was Grape-Nuts because the doctor told me I could not digest starchy food.

"It has been a great benefit to me for I feel like a different person since I begun to use it. It is wonderful to me how strong my nerves have become. I advise everyone to try it, for experience is the best teacher.

OPPOSITION TO PROPOSAL FOR CIVIC LIBRARY SITE.

Portion of Fletcher's Field is Proposed for the New Building.

Much opposition is developing to the proposal of the Board of Control that a portion of Fletcher's Field be used as the site for the civic library. It is declared by the opposers of the plan that instead of curtailing the extent of the city playgrounds, they should be enlarged and that the use of a part of the field for the library will only set a precedent which will lead to demands for other parts of the field.

The special committee of the council has sent in its report to the Board of Control recommending that $500,000 be set aside for the purchase of a site. Three sites were suggested by the committee, St. Lawrence Market, the centre of St. Louis Square and that part of Fletcher's Field bounded by Park and Pine avenues and the Hotel Dieu.

The subject was taken up at the last meeting of the council, but was held over until the next meeting to-morrow night, when it will be discussed at length.

FAILS TO RECOGNIZE OWN SON UPON FINDING BODY

Mr. George Bilodeau Returned to Search After Taking Body From the Water.

Failing to recognize the body which he assisted in dragging from the flume adjacent to the Ogilvie Flour Mills Company on Seigneurs street, as that of his eleven-year-old son who was drowned June 23, Mr. George Bilodeau, of 62 Chatham street, returned to the work of searching for his son's body. It was not until his wife and daughter had visited the morgue and identified the body by means of the undervest upon it that Mr. Bilodeau learned that he had himself found his son's body.

Rene Bilodeau slipped into the water and was drowned almost unknown to anyone while watching some boys playing ball. His was the second violent death in the Bilodeau family within a month, his older brother, Armand, having been killed in a collision on the C. P. R. near Fort William on June 14.

SO MANY STRANGERS. IDENTIFICATION IS DIFFICULT

The cosmopolitan nature of the population of the city of Regina has been revealed by the catastrophe. Victims lying in the same wards in the General Hospital are to be found coming from Eastern Canada, the United States, Great Britain, Norway, Italy, China, almost every nation, and certainly every continent, of the world.

It is also a city of strangers, for few of those who have been killed or injured have friends in Regina. This has made the work of identification very difficult. So many young men also are strangers in the city that it is feared when the gains of the big boarding houses are excavated on Smith and Lorne streets and the down-town sections are thoroughly examined, many more bodies will be found.

Reports are continually being received of men missing, and whether they have escaped or not will probably not be known for several days.

"A great many Americans are included in the list of injured."

PATHETIC SCENES AT THE HOSPITAL.

The scene at the General Hospital is heartrending. The hospital is crowded with victims from basement to garret. Every available foot of space has been at one time or another occupied. Cots are lined along the hall and every ward is filled.

"We have not turned away a single patient," said Dr. Deakin, Medical superintendent of the hospital.

The doctor has been on duty practically without any rest for twenty-four hours. Other city doctors have worked as long and as heroically. Nurses and doctors are here from Moose Jaw and other outside points. Those who are not busily engaged with the patients are preparing bandages and dressings for the injured.

The nurses, like the doctors, have been steadily on duty since the cyclone struck Regina and are wearily but cheerfully performing their duties of mercy. The hospital is being visited by hundreds of anxious relatives, and many a pathetic and touching scene has transpired.

The injuries range from slight concussions to broken backs and limbs and terribly crushed bodies. The moanings of the suffering and the dying are heartbreaking. The most touching appeals are made by the wounded who piteously inquire about parents separated from their children and wives and husbands ignorant of each other's fate. Every effort is being made to secure the information, but in the present state of chaos this is impossible.

At the Grey Nuns' hospital as many as space will accommodate are being treated.

The same conditions apply at the General Hospital. Among the patients is a woman and her three little daughters who keep continuously crying for news of her missing husband and little baby.

PLUCKY LITTLE BOY SCOUT'S FINE EXAMPLE.

In one of the wards at the General Hospital lies the little golden-haired Kenneth Dann, hardly five years of age, son of James Dann, of Dewdney street. Little Kenneth was playing at a neighbor's house on Sunday when the cyclone struck his own home and lifted it bodily on the one he was in, crushing it flat. Kenneth was knocked in the ruins and his little leg was broken.

Willing neighbors were soon on the scene and for four hours and a half they wildly dug to release him. He bravely never uttered a cry. "I am a boy scout," he said to the rescuers. "Boy Scouts never cry." And all the time he was under the wreckage he cheered on the workers.

Since he has entered the hospital although suffering intense pain from his broken leg he has never let a moan pass his lips. His bravery has made him a general favorite with the nurses, and doctors, and he always adds with pride: "I am a boy scout." In a near-by ward lies his mother, who, although painfully bruised, is not seriously injured, and is enormously proud of her courageous son.

The handsome Y.M.C.A. building is also a complete wreck. There are some fifty rooms in the building, fortunately, coming to the hour of the afternoon, very few were occupied when the cyclone swept down on the city.

A relief committee with ex-Alderman McConnell at its head, has its headquarters in the Mayor's office to deal with all cases of personal need. Citizens whose homes escaped destruction file in, offering one, two or three rooms for the accommodation of the destitute. Up to noon yesterday very few cases had been brought to the attention of the committee as the rescued ones have to a great extent been accommodated in the homes of their friends without the intervention of the relief committee.

The most important work at present is that of clearing up the debris, the further rescue of bodies and fitting up of partially dismantled houses for the use of the survivors.

City Engineer Allan is at the head of this work and had fifteen gangs of carpenters making houses habitable yesterday. Engineer Bull, with the assistance of Mr. Wenger, and a large gang of workmen, was busy cutting off the wires of this area and stringing them west so that the people west may have lights.

By to-night it is hoped that practically every home in which people are living will have light.

All the available waggons and teams of the different civic departments are at work clearing away the debris from the streets. It is being carried to the outskirts of the city, where the danger from fire will be less. All material that can be used for the repair of buildings or in any way to relieve the distress will be carefully salvaged.

PERMITS REQUIRED TO VISIT RUINS.

Supply departments have been established at the Victoria School and the North Side Fire Hall, and competent men placed in charge of them, so that while every case of need will be met, nothing will be wasted. The heads of the local trade unions came early to the City Hall, and offered their organizations' services in the work. Their coming served to swell the strength of the army of workers. The busiest place in the hall, however, was the Police Department, where permits were being issued to pass the line of special constables that have been drawn into a cordon about the storm area. Every one is compelled to get a permit before being allowed to visit the ruins. This, to a great extent, cuts off vandalism, while it inflicts no hardships on the sufferers.

The Finance Committee met last night, and Mayor McAra laid before them the messages of sympathy and offers of help of the cities of Winnipeg and Moose Jaw. If the commissioners decide that it is necessary, these cities may be asked to send tents for the housing of the homeless, as it is the aim of the committe to reunite families which have been scattered, with the least possible delay.

Commissioner Thornton asked that the committee arrange to give them the power to issue orders on the different stores and lumber wards, and this was granted. Mr. Reid, of the Government treasury department, was present to assist them in their deliberations. One of the things to which the committee directed the important attention of the commissioners was the sanitary arrangements in connection with the temporary quarters which are being provided.

HOW THE CYCLONE WORKED ITS WAY, SPREADING DEATH ALONG ITS PATH, THRILLING STORIES BY SURVIVORS.

The tornado which wrecked Regina came practically without warning. Until a few minutes from four o'clock, on Sunday afternoon, there was scarcely a cloud to hamper the heat of a sultry summer afternoon.

The black storm-clouds, which appeared in the south-west at about that hour were welcomed as presaging rain and a relief from the heat. This rapidly moved towards the city, apparently splitting into two separate storms just before reaching the new Government buildings. One cloud bore off to the east, the other continued straight on towards the little body of water called "Wascana Lake," which was crowded with canoes and small skiffs. How many were drowned has not yet been learned.

From Macintosh to Scarth streets, south of Victoria avenue, the greatest devastation occurred. It is here that the death list will prove the heaviest. On the other side of Victoria avenue, the Methodist church was the first to go, followed by the new Y.W.C.A. Building and the Methodist parsonage, the new Public Library, and the Presbyterian church.

East of Lorne street, where Regina's finest residences are located, almost as much damage was done. Premier Scott's house is a total wreck, and the homes of J. Bolbolds, C. W. Bell, H. J. Pots, Judge Lamont, and Mr. Cousland, to mention a few of the more prominent, were utterly destroyed.

Further west the same tale is told. The new Western Building is badly damaged, the big Donahue Block is smashed, and the Telephone Exchange is a complete wreck. The huge building of the Winnipeg Elevator Company was thrown across the tracks, the Tudhope warehouse was demolished, and the C.P.R. sheds have suffered badly.

One of the most thrilling stories which is told is by Matthew Henderson.

"I was in the club-room at the rear of the Methodist Church," he said, "when the storm broke. I ran to leave the building when I saw bricks flying through the air, through the doors and windows. I ran back to see if anyone was in the main body of the church. No one was there. I started madly to the Sunday School room, thinking some children were still there.

"However, it was empty. The noise was absolutely deafening. The whole church rocked, and it seemed as if the church were coming to an end. I ran back to the rear entrance, and attempted to open the door, but the wind was blowing so strong that I hesitated with it partly open.

"Plasing my knees against the door, in that position I stood for the fraction of a second. Then the whole side of the church collapsed and fell in front of me, brushing me by a hair's breadth with a mass of stone, brick and timbers. I then crawled out over the door that had acted as a shield, over the ruins of the church. How I escaped, I cannot comprehend. It was marvellous. As I look at the wrecked building now, it seems impossible that I got out alive. I don't think there was anyone else in the church at the time."

Next door to the Y.W.C.A. the Methodist parsonage is in ruins. The wife of the Rev. J. Lewis is an invalid. She was lying in her bed in the sun-room over the porch, Mr. Lewis rushed in, grabbed her in his arms, and took her out, just as the room collapsed. She would have been killed instantly had she remained in her bed. Mr. Lewis carried her in his arms towards the back entrance, with the whole house flying around him. He could not get out there, so he made for the front entrance, but this was also blocked. Holding Mrs. Lewis in his arms, Mr. Lewis sat on the stairs, while they waited for what they expected would be instant death. They expected to die in each other's arms.

Two girls, who are still unidentified, were caught in the park when the storm broke, and rushed to Mr. Lewis's home for shelter. They got as far as the porch, but were hit there by a mass of flying brick and picked up dead. Another man who sought shelter at the rear of Mr. Lewis's house was also found dead.

THIS MAN WATCHED THE CYCLONE FORM.

Charles Templeton, of the John Deere Plow Company, experience in similar disasters, and being an eye-witness of the Regina catastrophe, is in a position to give a graphic description of Sunday's storm. He was in his room on the top floor of the Wascana hotel and viewed the formation of the cyclone and portion of its awful work.

"I noticed," said Mr. Templeton, "the gathering of a dangerous-looking cloud in the south-east. It was moving rapidly towards the west. The intense sultry heat of the day reminded me of the conditions which preceded the destructive cyclone in Houston, Texas, last winter. I called the attention of my companions to the ominous cloud, and while watching it noticed an almost similar cloud travelling from southwest. When it was certain they would meet, I warned my friends that there would be a cyclone.

"As the clouds met they assumed a terrible funnel-like appearance. During the few seconds I gazed, it was like some fabled giant flaying all obstructions in its path. The awful roar could be distinctly heard, even at that great distance. Lashing, rending, and smashing, it presented a terrorizing spectacle. I yelled to my companions to make for the basement, and as I went out the door and the window followed me.

"While the whole scene was of only the briefest duration, it left an impression that years will not remove. Nothing more terrible or terrorizing can be conceived of than the vision of that awful monster sweeping towards us in its career of death and destruction."

SAVED BY ARCHED BEAM OF TIMBER.

T. H. Williams, of Galt, Ont., now a patient at the General Hospital, gives a graphic description of his experience. "G. Tierman and myself," he said as he lay on his cot, "were in room twelve. We had both been reading, and had fallen asleep in our beds. I was wakened by the rattle of rain on the windows. The noise was so terrifyingly loud that we jumped up in bed to look out. I was looking over the north buildings and saw debris flying. We leaped to our feet and made a rush to gain the lower floors, but we had hardly reached the entrance when the whole building shook like a leaf and appeared to tumble about our heads.

"That is the last that I remember until I woke to find myself on the ground, pinned under a mass of wreckage far removed from the building. How I could ever have been hurled so far is impossible to imagine. A big timber was bent like a match, and sustained the weight of the brick partition which would have otherwise crushed out our lives. I am not badly injured and my friend never even had to go to the hospital. When we were released at the end of about fifteen minutes, Mr. Tierman started out to help in the rescue work."

HOUSE ROCKED, THEN TWIRLED ROUND AND ROUND.

Mr. Reid, of Vinton, Ohio, had a remarkable escape at 2,202 Lorne St. He is one of the three inmates at the time of the disaster one of whom has already died from injuries, while the life of the other is despaired of.

Mr. Reid, while not at all seriously injured, is a mass of minor cuts and bruises from head to foot. This house was one of the first ruined in the city. The walls are simply ground to powder, while the timber is smashed into the finest of wood. The building was levelled to the ground, and how any one could have escaped from the structure is one of the many marvels of the catastrophe.

"I was in my room when the house first began to rock," said Mr. Reid. "It reminded me of a ship at sea. Then it started to twirl round and round, and I was hurled from wall to wall, tossed back and forth like a plaything. I am sure that I struck all four walls before I finally lost consciousness. I woke up to find myself lying on this cot."

The stories of hair-breadth escapes which are told seem innumerable. J. Bielby, stone mason, of Smith street south, and his family had a miraculous escape. They were in the upper portion of their house when the cyclone struck them. The house was cut in two as with a giant knife. The upper portion, with the family, was hurled through the air fully one hundred feet, and landed on the other side of the road. The family climbed out of the windows practically unharmed.

CLERGYMAN HAD THOUGHT OF STAYING IN CHURCH

The Rev. S. J. Farmer was debating with himself the advisability of leaving the Baptist Church after Sunday School and going home to tea previous to his evening service, or whether to stay in the church until the approaching storm blew over. He says:

"I can only think it was a wonderful miracle that I did not stay in the church. Had I done so, I would most assuredly been killed. To my knowledge there was no one in th church when I left. So far I have heard of no one killed and only a few of the injured belonging to my congregation. This is the worst experience I have ever had. I remember the Hamilton disaster some years ago, but this is much worse.

"While extremely sorry at the appalling death-list and the large number injured, I feel truly thankful the area was confined to the district covered.

"It was also fortunate it occurred on Sunday, perhaps, otherwise the working men of this city would have been sadly affected at their duties. Another fortunate feature was the lack of fire, either from stoves or from the electrical equipment, which is lying in a mass in the streets."

Mr. Wm. Martin, M.P., when seen to-day remarked:

"We are all safe, but it has been such an awful disaster, we hardly know what to think of it. There will have to be some organized relief financially for the many people who have lost their homes, and the sooner it is started the better."

"MUST BE PROVIDENCE," SAYS ONE RUINED MAN.

Harry J. Potts, 2065 Lorne street, of the firm of Potts and Smith, plumbers, lost practically everything. The only piece of furniture that seemed intact was the piano stool. At seven o'clock this morning he was discovered sitting on a stool by the ruins of his house, reading a book.

"Here is a strange coincidence," said Mr. Potts cheerily. "I found this book blown into my yard, and it is entitled 'Business Hints for Beginners.'"

"It must be Providence, for this loss means I have to start life over again. There is twenty years' work gone," said Mr. H. B. Smith, manager of the National Trust Co., with tears in his eyes as he picked his way over his line home.

"Do you see that room flattened like a pancake? My two boys were in there. How they got out alive I cannot imagine, but strange to say, they are perfectly safe. Fortunately Mrs. Smith and myself were in another part of the city. We should be thankful that our lives all are preserved."

Judge Lamont said:

"I watched the cyclone blow up from the south, but did not realize how bad it was. I rushed upstairs to close the windows and was in the bathroom when the storm hit the house. I saw the wall giving away, and rushed to the other side. Bricks, furniture, plaster and timbers, rained around me. How I came out alive, I cannot imagine. Mrs. Lamont was downstairs and was also uninjured.

"The walls of our house are still standing, but I guess it will have to be all torn down and started over again."

WHIRLED OUT OF CANOE TO SAFETY ON LAND.

An almost incredible story is told by young Len Marshall, aged 13, who was picked up in Victoria Park, near the centre of the city.

"I was canoeing on Lake Wascana, he said, "when I saw the storm coming. I paddled for shore as fast as I could, but long before I reached land the clouds swooped down on me and the last I remember was the sensation of being hurled through the air. When I came to myself, someone was bending over me in the Park."

Len was lying on about five feet of the canoe bottom in which he had been on the lake. He is at present in bed, badly shaken up, but otherwise uninjured.

Mrs. Paul McImoyle, 14th Avenue, was killed instantly before her husband's eyes, while they were endeavoring to get into the cellar with their children. Mr. McImoyle says:

"We were trying to get into the cellar after seeing that the storm had taken such large dimensions, and with my wife, I was within one second of being safely in the cellar beneath our little store, when I was horrified to see my wife fall, struck by something, and myself made helpless to render any assistance to her by the debris which was piled all around me. It is indeed a very hard loss to bear, with three motherless, small children."

HORSE SWEPT AWAY BY THE TORNADO.

Howell Smith, of Cornwall street, South, had his home wrecked, but with his family escaped. His motor garage was blown from the yard and smashed to splinters. His car stood on the floor, uninjured, and he was able to take it out after the storm and proceed with the work of rescue.

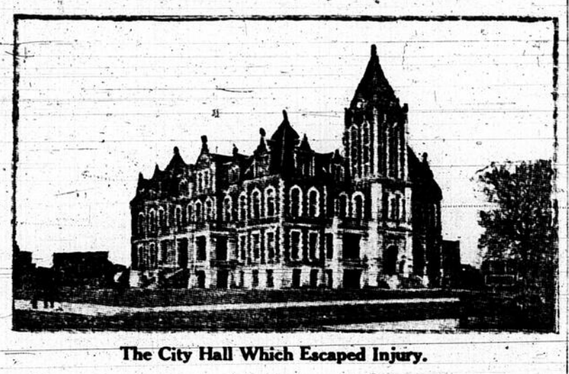
Jack McPherson, on Cornwall street, was one of the fortunate ones whose home remains in fairly good condition. The tornado blew his barn down and demolished it. He has been unable to locate his driving horse since.

Vincent H. Smith, a well-known real estate man, was canoeing on Lake Wascana, when the cyclone struck him. His body was found early yesterday morning half a mile from the scene.

Andrew Boyd, a retired farmer, died in the hospital yesterday. George Appleby, one of the leaders in the Boy Scout movement, was found dead yesterday morning. He was in a tent at the rear of a house on Cornwall St., at the moment the cyclone struck. He ran towards the house and just as he reached it, the building collapsed, crushing him. He was very popular.

John Ferguson, a well-known butcher, was reported dead, but has turned up in a neighbor's house, where he had been taken in. He is very seriously hurt, but will likely recover. The body of George Pratt was found yesterday.

IN STORM SWEPT REGINA



The City Hall Which Escaped Injury.

FEARED BODIES BURIED BENEATH ONE CHURCH.

It is feared that there are ten or twelve bodies buried in the ruins of the Methodist church.

Mr. E. St. James, law student in the firm of MacKenzie and Brown, was making his way across Victoria Park when the cyclone started, he immediately fled for refuge to the Methodist Chrcuh. He stood in the vestibule, alongside one the the large pillars all through the storm, and although the building fell in ruins at his feet he himself escaped uninjured, except for a couple of small cuts on the head from falling bricks, which just grazed him.

Mr. James stated that from ten to twelve people took refuge in the church after he went there, and added that they all went further into the building than he did. After he had climbed out over the pile of bricks and stone which covered the porch where he had stayed, he looked for some signs of the others but could not locate any of them.

The Rev. Mr. Lewis told one of the city constables that so far as he knew there were no people under the ruins of the church, but Mr. St. James is positive in his statements that no one of those he saw take shelter there after he did came out after the cyclone had passed over.

As Mr. D. L. Stewart was on his way across Victoria Park to phone his son, he was suddenly caught up in the dip of the cyclone. With all haste he made for the doorway of the Presbyterian Church. Having got there, Mr. Stewart pressed himself hard against the door to resist the suction of the wind, which was pulling at him desperately. Just as he thought the worst was over, the roof of the church fell in with such force that the door up against which he was leaning was thrown out into the middle of the road, taking Mr. Stewart with it. He fell amongst a shower of bricks.

QUEEN CITY OF THE PRAIRIE IS THIRTY YEARS OLD TO-DAY

Regina, the "Queen City of the Prairies," is just thirty years old. Thirty years ago, the buffalo ranged the plains on which the city of to-day stands, undisturbed save by foraging expeditions of roving Indians and the occasional passage of some adventurous spirits from eastern civilization seeking excitement and big game. In May, 1882, an advance party of settlers arrived at what was then known as Pile o'Bones Creek, near where the reservoir was afterwards build. This first party consisted of T. S. Gore, D.L.S., H. G. Forsyth, Geo. S. Patton, Geo. B. Moffat, Inspector N.W.M.P., T. C. Kerr, Geo. R. Binger, Henry Le Jenne, and T. N. Christie. On the following 10th of June the small party of pioneers was augmented by the arrival of D. S. McCannel and his brothers John and Neil McCannel, Archie McCannel, Hector McGilvray and Donald McDougall, who camped on the edge of the Wascana, close to the present jail site.

The first movement to the great "Last West" had commenced.

Pioneers Pitch Their Tents.

Describing the spot where these pioneers of the city of Regina first pitched their tents, full of enthusiasm at the prospects which they believed to lie before the country of boundless rolling plains, the early historian of Regina, J. W. Powers, wrote in 1887:

"A few miles down the creek from the site of the North-West Mounted Police buildings, stands a small hill or bute which some years ago bore on its modest crest a collection or (pile) of buffalo bones. In the buffalo hunting days hunters usually camped at that crossing of the stream, killing and preparing for winter the bison captured in the fall hunt. The rich and vast prairie for miles around the 'pile' was a favorite haunt of the buffalo, and where could a hunter's camp and pemmican factory be more conveniently established than contiguous to the bute aforesaid? That great essential, water, was at hand; poles were to be had for drying scaffolds; the adjacent grounds were level as billiard tables for the stretching and drying of the skins, and above all, the spot lay in the centre of a region abounding in choice game. Every season contributed its quota of bones to the 'pile' and the red man's nomenclature, which is of a piece with his entire surroundings, readily furnished a name to the meandering creek which drained that section of country. Oskana in the Cree language means bones, and from this word is derived the more mellifluous and dignified Wascana. And the tortuous stream, which has its marshy source fifteen miles south west of the Hurricane Hills, and meanders northwestwards along a dozen townships until it reaches the Qu'Appelle River some twenty miles from Regina, is now known to the map-makers, and world in general as the Wascana, or Pile of Bones Creek."

C. P. R. Reaches Banks of River.

At nine o'clock on the morning of the 23rd of August, 1882, the Canadian Pacific Railway in its march across the continent reached the banks of the Wascana, a large party assembling in Mr. Van Horne's special car for the purpose of being present at the christening of the new Northwest capital. Among those present were Lieut.-Governor and Mrs. Dowdney, Hon. Judge Johnson; Duncan McIntyre, Vice-President of the railway, the Hon. D.A. Smith (now Lord Strathcona) and Miss Smith; General Manager Van Horne; Hon. J. J. Abbott; J. H. McTavish, Land Commissioner; Messrs. Graham and McDonald, of the Hudson Bay Co.; Rufus Stephenson, Mr. Clouston, of the Bank of Montreal; Messrs. Cassels, William Stephens, Henry Nathan, Rev. S. A. Venables, of Nice; John Ross and C. E. L. Porteous, of Lindsay, John McIntyre, Jas. Wright, H. B. Coy; Mr. Armit, secretary of the H. B. Co., and Mrs. Armit, and John Burns, chairman of the Credit Valley board of directors.

The toast of the new city, called after the great queen who then ruled as Empress of the British Empire, was drunk amid the greatest enthusiasm, and the "Queen City of the Plains" was formally launched upon its career.

Eastern firms and large financial corporations began to see the possibilities that lay before the city. Great warehouses were built, branch banks of Canada's great chartered banks were established. The Provincial headquarters of innumerable large business concerns, Canadian, British, and American were established. Buildings of a commanding and substantial character began to rise.

In 1903 Regina was by an enactment of the Territorial Assembly raised to the status of a city and in the same year the first steps were taken towards the comprehensive scheme of public improvements which have been quickly making the city one of the most imposing and modern of Canada's great business centres.

Settlers Come Rapidly.

Settlers now began to arrive rapidly. The "roughing" by the first-comers forms the most interesting period of the town's history. The old-timers are full of gossip of its early days. The Post Office was a very primitive affair. Whenever letters arrived there were handed to ers, who tossed them into an empty orange box, and each man came and picked out his own. This was hardly satisfactory, as if there were not a letter for any particular person, there was nothing to prevent his covering his disappointment by taking one belonging to someone else. Accordingly, Mr. E. B. Read (the first tinsmith) collected a subscription of six fifty-cent pieces to telegraph a memorial to the Post Office Inspector at Winnipeg. The work was undertaken by the Rev. W. J. Hewitt, Methodist minister (who had a gospel tent at the place) and as a result, a Post Office was granted, with Mr. Joseph C. Irvine as Postmaster, and a very popular official he proved. It is worth mentioning that the gospel tent was next to the billiard tent, and while services were going on, Sundays and other days, the clinking of the billiard balls was as distinctly audible to the worshippers as were the praying and preaching to the billiard players.

It is worthy of note that among the first settlers of Regina, the 'rough' element was almost entirely absent. Mr. Nicholas Flood Davin was very early on the scene, and tells that when dining in a tent that served as an hotel he noticed the gentlemanly bearing of the two waiters, and afterwards found they were two Munsons, nephews of the Duke of Bedford, who with Major Edward Granville, a nephew of the Earl of Garnville, had come out to settle, and were getting their hands in by running a hotel. Mr. Davin himself was noted as a brilliant scholar, 'whose gown had swept the corridors of the universities of Europe,' to quote his own words.".

During the eighties and the earlier nineties the growth of the city was slow. The "Last West" had indeed been discovered and its limitless possibilities were spoken of in confidence by many. But it had not yet come into its own.

Last West Comes Into its Own.

The usual signs of healthy development made their appearance in orderly succession. In 1883 a fire brigade was formed and in the same year, the first school house was erected. As the Territorial capital, various government offices and buildings made their appearance one after another, including the Indian Offices and Land Office and Legislative Chamber. The jail was built in 1884-5, the Court House in 1888, and the City Hall, later superseded by a magnificent structure in 1895.

But although the town steadily progressed, its progress was comparatively slow up to the early years of the present century. As late indeed as the year 1902 there was little to lead a casual observer to predict the city of to-day. The population in that year was under 3,000 and the town had a comparatively sleepy and apathetic appearance. That year in many respects, however, marked the division between the old era and the new. The time had come when at last the outside world was to acknowledge that the unshakeable confidence of those early pioneers who had stayed with the place was well justified and that Regina was marked out to be the great commercial market of Canada's middle West. In that year a local freight tariff was conceded to the town by the Canadian Pacific, thus assuring its supremacy as a distributing point. From that time the progress of the place has been rapid.

Links of Peace And Prosperity

Canada is Bound to the Empire, Much as She Loves the United States.

Chicago, July 2.—"There is no problem of to-day that creates as much sentiment as the peace and good feeling between Canada and the United States, and one sure sentiment we have, true to our Mother Country, we shall remain a portion of the British Empire," said Mr. George Tate Blackstock, K.C., of Toronto, at the annual banquet of the Canadian Club of Chicago last night.

"One hundred years of peace and prosperity binds us to that Empire much as we love our sister here. Many people think that when Canada separated from the Mother Country she should have thrown her lot with the United States. I believe that Providence prevented this. We are both exploiting a new future and country."

PROCRASTINATION WOULD HAVE BEEN DANGEROUS.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 2.—For putting aside red tape methods, Lieut.-Col. Smart, of Montreal, commanding officer of the Farnham military camp, has received special commendation, and the personal thanks of the Minister of Militia. While the camp was in progress, a cavalry man from the Sherbrooke district developed symptoms of smallpox. On the orders of the commanding officer the man was sent to the isolation hospital in his own district, while his companions in arms were placed under medical supervision in a separate tent on the grounds. Col. Smart further ordered that the blankets and accoutrements should be burned. An officer of the Permanent Staff demurred, on the ground that the property of the country could not be destroyed without first holding an inqury as to the reasons for smallpox and all pertaining to the outbreak. Seeing the danger of infection by procrastination, Col. Smart answered:

"Burn the blankets and tents first, then hold you inquiry."

The efficacy of the order was demonstrated by the fact that there was not further case of smallpox in the camp, and the men left, after training, without, being aware that there had been such a case. Whenthe matter was reported to the Department, instead of censure for Col. Smart, it was given the personal thanks of the Minister, and his action warmly commended.

ABSOLUTELY RUINED

Restored and Successful

A Montreal man, who was drinking for 25 years, was ruined in business by drink, and everything he possessed was seized. He came to the Gatlin Institute, and in the short period of Three Days, was positively and permanently cured of the enthralling Drink Habit. To-day he has over $60,000.00 orders on hand, and has made a lot of money in real estate. He says this is due to a clear, strong brain to-day, which he had not a year ago when he was drinking. The good work and success of The Gatlin Treatment is perfectly wonderful, and it never fails. This is the only original and reliable Three Day Drink Cure. Records show more permanent cures than all others combined. As all great successes have many worthless imitators, and for your own protection, we urge your most careful investigation. Do not hesitate to take this reliable cure which has stood the test of time. Every comfort and accommodation, good location, successful treatment guaranteed. Write, telephone or call to-day. NO LIBRARY FOR FLETCHER'S FIELD

TERNAL vigilance is clearly the price we must pay for Mount Royal Park and the play-grounds which are associated with it. We no sooner repel one attack upon this holiday resort of the poor and the young than another is made, and often the attacks come from which ought to be the last to countenance such e and invasion of the all too few privileges of the people. irteenth sometimes, indeed, they come in so benevolent a guise ich is even the elect might be deceived.

The last suggestion that the boys of the city be robbed a part of their play-ground, arrives in the form of a proposal to erect upon it a Library. Now, a Library is good thing. Everybody is in favor of a Library. If any stitution could break its way into Mount Royal Park, it could probably be a Library. But it would be a high time against the growing youth of this city if even a Library were permitted to despoil them of any part of their play-ground.

We are always complaining that our growing boys find many deadly temptations awaiting them on the city streets. Traps are set for them an all sides. When they are caught, they soon degenerate into thieves and even more dangerous criminals, and become a menace and a burden to the community. Now, the antidote for this tendency is plenty of open space for play. Boys are in no danger from these street-side temptations when they are out on the streets at all, but are flying over the springy turf of a mountain's play-ground. The best school in which to bring up honest and healthy and capable citizens is the school of the open air; and our "school space" of this order is already too small for the rapidly increasing boyhood of Montreal.

If the authorities, who are thinking of filching a piece of it for their musty Library, would only go up there some fine afternoon, they would change their minds. The whole vavant space on what is known as Fletcher's Field, is occupied by a succession of ball games; and there is not one of them which could be spared without risk that its possible participants would be driven down into the city streets with their numberless death-traps. The very part on which it is proposed to plant this Library is seldom without a game in progress. A baseball "diamond" lies where these bucks would be stored.

Now, a Library is better than a saloon; but when a Library drives boys to a saloon, its value becomes more dubious. And to think of this being seriously considered by the rich city of Montreal, which can easily afford to buy all the land it needs for Libraries. If our authorities will look about a bit, they will find infested "slum" centres which it would be a public benefaction to clean out, and there they could plant their Library right in the district where it is most needed. Instead of driving boys out of the fresh air, a Library so located would drive them and their families into the fresh air; and through the long winter evenings it would offer a safe attraction to the men and women of the neighborhood.

Our civic authorities should leave Fletcher's Field alone; and make the very location of the Civic Library a blessing instead of a curse.

THE STAR AT SUMMER RESORTS

The fetiches of "regularity" and "machine-like obedience may prevent the "split" from having its full and final effect this year; but it is sufficiently obvious that for the future the American people must reckon without the familiar Republican and Democratic parties. They have outlived their usefulness. New issues have arisen which they do not agree or disagree about. The citizens who has his opinion of the war on the Trusts, cannot express it neatly by voting simply for this or that party. Both parties are hopelessly divided on the matter.

Bryan is naturally wroth to find the Democratic party which he has made pretty thoroughly Radical slipping out of his fingers. He would like it to be the Party of the People, which such men as La Follette and Roosevelt must come in time. But while the "safe and sane" Democrats may have been willing enough to let him have the party when it was foredoomed to disaster, they are in no such yielding mind in this year of its greatest promise. Still, Mr Bryan must always have felt that his hold on the real machinery of the party was fictitious and unsubstantial. In the East, they tolerated him because they must, and because there was not much at stake.

The Roosevelt movement has been holding its breath while the struggle went on in Baltimore. It could not hope for the "limelight" during this gigantic combat; and its members hardly knew into what sort of a "free-for-all" they would be plunging until the Democratic Convention had settled its troubles. This whole exhibition this year must amount to a serious arraignment of the bi-party system. We have seen that it tends to become wooden and unrepresentative. It binds the people to the framework of dead issues when they are eager to be free for the handling of the lives of modern problems. If the "group" system arises out of this party cataclysm, no one need be surprised. And the American Democracy will be the gainer if it secures this more representative method of personifying public opinion in Congress.

SOUTH AFRICA EXCLUDES ASIATICS

THE South African Union has decided to keep out Asiatics. The despatch announcing the decision intimates that the method chosen is by an educational test such as is already in force in Australia. This test is very similar to the Natal Act, which was so long the high water mark of Asiatic exclusion legislation. The Australian Act carries the principle of the Natal Act one step further. The Australian Act provides for the exclusion of "any person who, when asked to do so by the officer, fails to write out at dictation and sign in the presence of the officer a passage of fifty words in length in a European language directed by the officer." The Natal Act merely required the writing out of an application for admission "in the characters of some European language." The Australian gives the immigration officer the choice of the language and the choice of the passage to be written. This, it will readily be seen, makes the test much more severe.

The adoption of some such law by South Africa was inevitable. The Asiatic problem has been much more acute for them than it has been on our own Pacific littoral. Indian coolies came into Natal and the Transvaal under indenture in such large numbers that they have threatened to swamp white control of gardening and small trading. The coolies were imported to meet a great need of labor, and there would have been no outcry against them if their presence in the country had ended when their indenture ran out. What caused the trouble was that at the end of their indentures these Indian laborers were free to stay in the country, and, on doing so, proved themselves able to compete disastrously with the white gardeners and retail traders. The new arrangement, the cable indicates, will still allow for the importation of needed labor; but, in all probability, provision will be made for the deportation of the laborers to India at the end of the contract.

A hopeful feature of the announcement made by the Union Government is that their proposals have the approval of both the Colonial Office and the Indian Government. This is also true of our own provisions for the exclusion of East Indians, which are the result of a conference between Hon. Mackenzie King and the British Government. It is highly important that there should be the fullest co-operation between the Dominion Government and the Home authorities in dealing with this problem. The problem is closely connected with issues vital to the future of the Empire. Moreover, the British authorities have had experience in dealing with peoples of other races, which eminently qualifies them to give sane and practical advice. The problem is also a vital part of foreign policy, where it can best be solved by common advice and action on the part of the Dominions and the Imperial Government. This issue is, in fact, one of those which have made foreign politics look real to us. They have at once steadied our somewhat theoretical attitude towards world politics and emphasized for us the value of the British fleet.

One fact stands out from this motor car problem very plainly; and that is that, while the horse is naturally a more dangerous citizen of the highway than the automobile, the automobile does more damage. Any motorist will admit that he can stop his car more quickly than a driver can stop his horse. Then a car does not fling out iron hoofs in front of it when it is stopped. Still, the horse does not kill people like the car. Yet there are ten horses on the streets for every motor. What is the answer? Surely it can only be that the motor is driven more recklessly. When the chauffeur is as careful as the driver, the problem will be solved. And why shouldn't he be?

Yesterday America's first woman aviator, Miss Harriet Quimby, was killed, and an Austrian aviator made the world's highest record with a passenger. Thus the desperate game of aviation goes on. Men—and, it seems, women, too—love to play with death. These daring adventurers know the terrible percentage of chance which lies against them, and yet they constantly make the venture. To continue to fly is almost to make certain of an early death through a flying machine accident. It is a species of war that these people wage, and the casualty lists are always coming in.

Use of the Word Billion.

Phoenix, Saskatchewan: "Speaking to the British business men and manufacturers, at present on a visit to Canada, Hon. W. T. White said that Canada's total trade this year will pass the billion mark. That statement was calculated to make the Britishers gasp, for according to the British method of numeration it is equivalent to about forty times the amount of Great Britain's foreign trading which is the largest in the world. Mr. White, of course, was using the word billion in the sense in which it is used in France and generally on this continent as meaning one thousand of millions. In Great Britain a billion is equal to one million of millions. The unsophisticated British business man would certainly be startled at the mention of a trade equal in his mind to $1,000,000,000,000!"

Quebec's Lost Opportunity.

Apropos of the failure to relieve the railway congestion in Quebec, the Telegraph says: "It is saddening to think how many splendid opportunities Quebec has lost to retrieve its fallen fortunes. But it is maddening, in the face of what is actually happening, to recall that we deliberately, through lack of proper spirit and enterprise on the part of local business men and capitalists, put it out of our power to avail ourselves of the great one which is now knocking at our doors."

It will now be in order for the folk along the road to offer a reward for the apprehension of motorists who exceed the speed limit. Endangering life should be as serious an offense as damaging tires.

CITIZENS AND THE AUTOMOBILE

WHO, INDEED?

To the Editor of The Montreal Star:

Sir,—This outrageous and dangerous nuisance of automobile speeding has been going on now for so long a time without let or hindrance from the authorities that I suppose the average chauffeur looks with scorn and contempt upon the laws which are supposed to protect pedestrians from reckless driving.

If does not make much difference what part of the city you visit, it is equally in evidence. Beaver Hall Hill, in the heart of the city, is as bad but no worse than St. Catherine Road in Outremont, or Lafontaine Park in the East End, or Sherbrooke street in the West End.

Your campaign has opened the eyes of the people to the extent to which the law is being violated. Now who is going to open the eyes of those who are supposed to see the law is enforced?

CURIOUS.

A SHERBROOKE ST. CASE.

To the Editor of The Montreal Star:

Sir,—What proportion of the automobiles which race up and down Sherbrooke street have any regard for the law? I will wager that the number will be found to be practically inconsiderable.

Here is an instance. The other day a touring-car passed me, it held five people and was travelling evidently as fast as its engines would carry it. At the corner near where I was standing, it had to pass over the stones which are let into the road proper to form a crossing in muddy weather. So great was the speed of the car that the jar caused by changing from the roadway to the stones nearly threw the passengers from the machine and so sharply compressed the springs that the sound of the body of the car striking the axles could be heard for some distance.

If any evidence about speeding is needed, Sherbrooke street is the place to get it.

RESIDENT.

WHAT IS THE STANDARD?

To the Editor of The Montreal Star:

Sir,—Thanks for your speed-mania articles. For the last half-dozen years, the pretence of enforcing the law regulating the rate at which automobiles may travel through the streets has been one of the most absurd of all the farces which the police of Montreal enact.

There is, I understand, a young lawyer in Montreal whom the Provincial Government specially retains to proceed against reckless drivers of automobiles when it is desirable to do so. Could the public not be informed exactly what the Government regards as desirable and undesirable in the matter of breaking this particular law?

KEEPING POLITICS OUT OF FRENCH TONGUE CONGRESS

Senator Desired Government and City to Be Represented on Committee.

CENSURE ON BISHOP RULED OUT OF ORDER

Attacking Bi-Lingual Schools is to Assail Confederation Was Sentiment of Congress.

Quebec, July 2.—At the Congress on the French Language an effort was made to renew the attempt to censure Bishop Fallon, of Ontario for the position of bi-lingual schools in that Province, but the chairman, Mgr. Roy ruled the matter out of order.

Another exciting period was when Senator Choquette moved that as the Provincial Government and the city of Quebec had contributed generously to the success of the Congress they should be represented on the permanent committee.

Abbe Courturier, of Three Rivers, raised an objection, saying that this was really asking too much to permit the Government and Quebec city to impose on them their delegates.

Mr. Omer Heroux was of the like opinion. He remarked that both Premier Gouin and Mayor Drouin had attended the congress and they had been well received. The congress was to be an international movement and, moreover, as both the Government and the city of Quebec Council contained diverse elements in their ranks, Mr. Heroux said he failed to see why they should have the right of appointing committee members.

OBJECTION TO INTRODUCE POLITICS.

Abbe Plamondon stated his objection to the proposal was that it would introduce politics, and the municipal coterie into their organization, which they did not want. This statement fairly raised a shout of approbation from the audience, it being evident the speaker had given voice to the innermost feelings of the delegates.

Senator Choquette adhered to his resolution, although he said he would not ask for a vote.

Mgr. Roy turning to the audience, requested those who favored the suggestion of Senator Choquette to stand up. The majority were seated and they remained so, while fully a hundred standing in the rear dropped down.

The resolution was thus defeated.

Mr. Leduc then asked what had become of his motion on the diocese of London.

The Rev. Pere Hudon replied without making specific references, by saying that certain motions had to be set aside as being outside the scope of the assembly and as they did not agree with the suggestion of the mover it had been omitted from the report.

Mr. Leduc rose again and said his motion referred to the diocese of London.

Mgr. Roy—"Not a word about that here. It is a local affair. We have to remain in a higher sphere of action."

"I will not permit any quarrel of any kind here. We will complete our organization which will take charge of all political questions." (More waves of cheering). "We don't want our congress to be led into unknown regions."

GRIEVANCES SHOULD HAVE PUBLICITY.

Mr. Leduc sat down and Senator Choquette was again on his feet.

The chairman raised his hand, asking if it was on the same question. The Senator replied in the negative, quoting from a newspaper Senator Choquette stated that Pere Lebel, a Jesuit of Ontario, had told the congress in committee that where French-Canadians had grievances they should give them publicity.

One of the priests on the platform informed the chair that the subject was foreign to the report under debate and could not be introduced at that time as the report on the remarks of Father Lebel came under another section.

The chairman then ruled that the point raised by the Senator was out of order, but as the Senator tried to continue he was told by the chairman that he could not speak, and he sat down, with cheers and various noises in support of Mgr. Roy, coming from all points of the assembly room.

Senator Choquette took his seat and shortly after both he and Mr. Leduc left the meeting.

SELECTION OF STANDING COMMITTEE.

The following members of the standing committee were submitted to the meeting and adopted. They represent all sections of the Dominion, New England and the state of Louisiana in the following order:

Mgr. Roy, Sir Joseph Dubuc, Hon. Judge L. A. Prudhomme, Hon. Judge P. A. Landry, Hon. N. A. Belcourt, Hon. Thomas Chapais, Hon. J. O. Rheaume, Hon. Aiphonse Turgeon, Hon. A. E. Arsenault, Hon. T. Ledoux, Dr. A. E. Brien, Mr. J. H. Guillet, Dr. J. A. Bedard, Mr. Alcee Fortier, Rev. Abbe L. P. Gauthier, Rev. Father A. F. Auclair, O. M. I.; Mr. Edouard Montpetit, Mr. J. E. Prince, Rev. Father Chas. Charlebois, O. L.; Rev. Abbe Elie Auclair, Rev. Abbe S. A. Lortie, Rev. Abbe P. Fillion, Rev. Abbe C. Roy, Mr. Amedee Denault, Mr. Adjutor Rivard.

The Congress came to a close on Saturday with the sentiment that to attack bi-lingual schools was to attack the spirit of the Confederation Act of 1867. The Congress has been in session a whole week, and has adopted a series of resolutions emphasizing the rights of French-Canadians to their maternal tongue. While no other formal resolution was presented to-night the large audience gave enthusiastic support to the declaration of Mgr. Roy that they would never cease speaking French and never cease the defence of their language.

One resolution adopted states that when Canada was ceded to England in 1763 French Canadians were a distinct nationality; that in 1867 the political rights of language was secured for all the provinces at that time as a right of the minority and also of other provinces to be formed, and that to attack this right was to violate the spirit of the said Constitution. The resolution continues that whereas there has been a violation of these rights and neglect of the promises in several provinces, that steps should be taken to have the rights of the minority respected.

PRIMARY COURSE IN FRENCH DESIRED.

Another resolution declares, Whereas, in Alberta, the French language has not the place it should have, it is resolved that the French element of Alberta and of Saskatchewan, by invoking the law, should not rest content with the half-hour of French in the schools, and that they should see that a primary course in French be given wherever it is possible; that we demand the creation of normal bi-lingual schools; and the appointment of Catholic bi-lingual inspectors; that whereas Canada is an Anglo-French Confederation in which both tongues have equal rights by the Federal Constitution, that where French-Canadians are settled they should have bi-lingual schools; whereas Ontario suffers in a particular way the first Congress of the French language resolves that this Congress demands the French Canadian press of America to protest against the reduction of French in our primary schools of Ontario and against the double inspection by English and French inspectors.

The same resolution contains a clause calling on the children of French schools in America to recite every day an Ave, followed by an invocation to the Sacred Heart for the safeguard of bi-lingual schools of America.

LANGUAGE IS DESTINED TO LIVE.

Mgr. Roy, president of the Congress, at the closing session declared the Congress was the reply to those who were foretelling the death of the French-Canadian race in North America. Their language was destined to live, unless and only when it was neglected and betrayed by those who could or would not defend it. The little colony of 20,000 had kept the maternal tongue, and it was impossible to imagine that their descendants, numbering 3,000,000 would fail in their duty.

The chairman concluded his remarks with a solemn declaration that it was his will that his tongue might cleave to his mouth if he ever forgot or neglected the defence of his mother speech. This was the pronouncement which he sent out from the rocks of Quebec. The declaration was accepted by the big audience with loud applause.

SCROGGIE'S ALTERATION SALE

THE experience of over a quarter of a century of underselling supremacy is behind this Sale which will mark a new epoch in retailing.

When the doors of this establishment swing open to-morow morning, you will find here a sale that will mark an Evolution in Canadian Retailing, out of which will be born a new—unique—and different kind of an establishment. One that will meet the demands and ideas of our new organization. Within a few days the builders will be at work.

The tearing down and alteration of the Eastern Section of our Building and the construction of a new one (which will be one of the finest in the land) is exactly what we are going to do with the business it will house—and this process heralds a revolution in business methods that is destined to become of National importance in its influence. We must sell the entire stock of merchandise we have at present in this section of the building. This means a tremendous loss—but it must be taken philosophically as part of the plan—but we can afford these losses in view of the beginning of the new era. But all parts of the store join hands in this phenomenal sale and the result is many lines of merchandise are offered as low as fifteen cents on the dollar. To-morrow we begin to work out our new plans and

E CONVENTION KEEPS ON [illegible] REGULAR BALLOTS.

[illegible]timore, Md., July 2.—With mono- [illegible] regularity the Democratic Na- [illegible] Convention went on all day and [illegible]ght, with the exception of a [illegible]our recess, balloting in a vain [illegible]t to pick a candidate, and ad- [illegible]d at 12.43 a.m.

[illegible]rnor Wilson gained steadily on [illegible] Clark throughout the day, but [illegible] passing the 500 mark, while the [illegible]ker went far below his initial [illegible] of last Friday morning, the tide [illegible]ed a little just before midnight, [illegible] on the 42nd ballot the New Jer- Governor fell off a couple while [illegible] Speaker went forward in the [illegible]me proportion. The vote for Oscar [illegible]nderwood — meanwhile fluctuated [illegible]ithin ten of the 100 mark.

"Champ" Clark "Disappears."

Speaker Clark disappeared from [illegible]ashington to-day and for a time no- [illegible]dy could tell just where he was. [illegible]s badly needed, as both Houses [illegible]ngress had met to extend the [illegible]propriations so that the business [illegible]e Government could go on. The [illegible]essary legislation was adopted, but [illegible]ere was no Speaker to sign the bill. [illegible]fter a vain search, Congress ap- [illegible]inted a temporary Speaker so that [illegible]e bill could be signed by the Presi- [illegible]nt, who was on his way to Phila- [illegible]phia.

Friends of the Speaker said that he [illegible]as in a highly nervous condition [illegible]d had gone away to get a little [illegible]ep. Late this evening, however, it [illegible]as announced that he was here at [illegible]e residence of Mayor Preston, and [illegible]at he had been in consultation with [illegible]s Missouri leaders.

Two attempts to adjourn were made [illegible]re midnight. One was withdrawn [illegible]soon as made and the other went [illegible] roll call, but as leaders of both [illegible] were voting against it, it was withdrawn, and the 42nd ballot [illegible]on. This gave Wilson 494; Clark, Underwood, 104; Harmon, 27; [illegible]an, ½; Kern, 1; Foss, 28; Gaynor, J. Hamilton Lewis, of Chicago, 1.

Attack on Bryan.

The most striking feature of the [illegible] came on this ballot, when John Stanchfield, of New York, candi- [illegible] for governorship of that state [illegible] Bryan was candidate for the [illegible]idency in 1900,' denounced the [illegible]raskan in unmeasured terms as a [illegible]ney grubbing, publicity hunting, [illegible]sh, office-seeking marplot from [illegible]aska." He added that any man [illegible] the taint of Bryanism upon him [illegible]ks half a million votes [illegible] the state, and said that [illegible] expelled from [illegible] man who, for [illegible]

Titanic Inquiry Is Nearing Close

Regarded as Certain That No Censure Will be Passed on Capt. Smith.

London, July 2.—The Titanic inquiry is approaching a close, and the findings of the court, it is expected, will be rendered some time this week.

It is taken as certain that no censure will be passed on Capt. Smith, while J. Bruce Ismay will escape criticism as not having exercised any influence upon the navigation of the ship. Lord Mersey, from the remarks that he interpolated during Finlay's speech, appears to have reached the conclusion that Ismay was only a passenger, and that Capt. Smith's action in showing him the wireless warning of ice was hardly more than a courtesy due to the director of the line.

112; Harmon, 29; Marshall, 30; Foss, 38; Bryan, 1.

On the 28th roll call, Indiana broke and there was a yell of delight from the Wilson ranks as Senator Shively announced: "Kern 1, Wilson 29."

The result of that poll was: Clark, 468½; Wilson, 437½; Underwood, 112½; Foss, 38; Harmon, 29; Bryan, 1; Kern, 1.

It was during the thirty-third ballot that the greatest disorder arose, and the bitterness of the contest was made manifest. The Missouri delegates had got a banner prepared with an extract from a speech of W. J. Bryan, praising Champ Clark, emblazoned on it. This was displayed to the cheers of the Clark supporters. Then a hot-headed Missourian shouted "Show it to Nebraska." The banner was accordingly carried down and planted in front of Bryan. The Nebraskan shook with anger while some of his followers started a fisticuff engagement with the Missourians, and the police had to interfere. Chairman Ollie James was absent temporarily, but had to come back to try to quell the riot. He succeeded only partially. Bryan started for the platform and the Missourians, with their banner, tried to follow him. There was a great deal of fighting on the floor, but Bryan smiled through it all. When finally he got a chance to speak he made a question of personal privilege, asking whether the Missouri delegation was responsible for the insult to him. He was ruled out of order but exclaimed that if it was merely the act of some individual he did not care, but he did wish to know whether the Missouri delegation countenanced such tactics. He was assured by one of the delegates that the Missourians as a body, did not countenance such action, and appeared satisfied, though it appeared at one time as if he would be assaulted as he stood in the aisle merely smiling at taunts from infuriated Missouri delegates.

Chairman James ordered the police to arrest the first man who tried to carry any kind of a banner anywhere in the Convention hall. A new squad of blue coats was called in and the voting proceeded.

The steady gain which Wilson had been making all day continued on the 35th ballot, the New Jersey Governor securing fifteen votes net. Clark lost 14, Underwood's vote remained at 101½. Kern lost one.

The delegates were a bedraggled looking set of men, and every incident gave rise to disorder. Attempts to provoke a demonstration were fruitless. The public had been invited to take seats in the galleries, but the crowd became so great that the police were ordered to keep out everybody and great crowds besieged the armory in vain.

Wilson Passes 500.

On the 39th Wilson for the first time passed the 500 mark by 1½, while Clark fell to 422. On the 40th Clark got one of Harmon's votes and the others stood pat. The 41st showed a turn of the tide, Wilson getting 493½, while Clark got 424.

ANOTHER WOMAN FLYER IS CRASHED TO HER DEATH

Miss Quimby Was the First Woman to Cross the English Channel in An Aeroplane.

Boston, July 2.—Miss Harriet Quimby, of New York, the first woman to win an aviator's license in America, and the first woman to cross the English Channel in an aeroplane, was instantly killed with her passenger, W. P. Willard, manager of the Boston Aviation Meet, at Atlantic, last night, when her Blerlot monoplane fell into Dorchester Bay from a height of a thousand feet.

Miss Quimby and Willard were returning from a trip over the harbor to Boston Light and back, a distance of 20 miles.

The flight was made in 20 minutes. Heading back into the 35-mile gusty wind, Miss Quimby started a volplane. One of the gusts caught the tail of the machine, throwing the machine up perpendicular. For an instant it poised there. Then Willard's body was thrown clear of the chassis, followed almost immediately by Miss Quimby's. Hurtling over and over, the two bodies shot downward, striking the water twenty feet from shore. The monoplane plunged down 15 feet away. The water was only five feet deep. Men from the Savin Hill Yacht Club, nearby, were on the spot quickly, and, leaping overboard from their motorboats, hauled the two bodies out of the mud, into which they had sunk deeply. Death was probably instantaneous.

Both bodies were badly crushed. Several of Miss Quimby's bones were broken, and there were many large bruises. Willard, who weighed 190 pounds, hit the water face first, and over one eye there was a gash from which the blood was flowing. He, too, had several fractures and bruises.

When the victims were laid out on the ground at Squantum Head, on the edge of the aviation field, the crowd rushed over, but a troop of state cavalry held the people back, while Dr. George Sheahan, the field surgeon, with his staff, made hasty examination of the bodies. In a few moments ambulances arrived, and the victims were taken to the Quincy Hospital.

MISS SCOTT HAD NARROW ESCAPE.

Flying high overhead at the time of the fall was Miss Blanche Stuart Scott, another aviatrice. From her high altitude, Miss Scott had watched Miss Quimby's splendid flight, and was nearby when the gust upset the monoplane. In the excitement of the moment no one noticed the lone aviatrict, but when Miss Quimby's body was brought ashore all eyes were directed aloft, and Miss Scott was seen making sweeping circles over the field at a height of 500 feet. Twice she started to descend, but each time she was seen to falter.

In another moment, summoning all her nerve, she turned the nose of her machine downward, and landed safely, collapsing in her seat before any one could reach her.

Before going up on their last flight, Miss Quimby talked confidently about her plans to make an altitude record in the future that would stand as a woman's high mark.

In crossing the English Channel on April 16th Miss Quimby flew at an altitude of 6,000 feet, which was believed to be the record for women. Miss Quimby said she felt sure that she could beat this mark, although she did not believe she could excel the record of 13,943 feet set by Garros.

BALLOON EXPLODES IN MID-AIR, FIVE HURLED TO DEATH IN ATLANTIC

Melvin Vanniman and Four Others Killed in Presence of Three Thousand Startled Spectators—Huge Envelope Rent by Terrific Force—Theory is That the Gasoline Used for Operating the Engines Exploded.

Atlantic City, N.J., July 2.—While three thousand spectators stood too startled to utter a single sound, the big dirigible balloon Akron was shattered by the explosion of the gas bag and blown to atoms at 6.38 this morning, a half mile off-shore over Absecon Inlet. Melvin Vaniman, who had built the airship, with the idea of flying across the Atlantic Ocean; Calvin Vaniman, his younger brother; Fred. Elmer Walter Guest, and George Bourtillion, his crew, were instantly killed. No trace of their bodies has been discovered.

The dirigible was sailing at a height of 1,000 ft. and had been in the air since 6.15 o'clock when the accident occurred. She was a quarter of a mile south of Brigantine Beach, which is across the inlet from this city. The huge envelope, containing nine thousand pounds of carbonic gas, was rent by the terrific force of the explosion, probably caused by expansion from the sun's rays. It burst near the middle.

A mass of flames hid the ship from view. For a space of possibly ten seconds the half million dollar dirigible was invisible, while the air about the spot where she had been hovering seemed to be all flames. The fire dissipated and then the ship outlines against the sunrise, was seen to fall like a plummet. First the understructure, or car, in which were penned the unfortunate men, held in by a mesh work put on after the second trip of the balloon three weeks ago, unable to escape, broke away from the envelope. It up-ended, the bow turning first in a slow arc. Then it reversed suddenly and plunged downward.

SMOKING MASS OF RUBBER AND SILK.

Directly above, twisting in a long spiral, was the gas bag, a smoking mass of rubber and silk with flames shooting out from a dozen sections as it collapsed. It fluttered a moment, and then streaked down after the car.

In the descent, something which appeared to be the body of a man, shot out to the left of the wreckage, and hit the descending mass. It was reported that this was the headless body of Calvin Vaniman.

At 8.20 a.m. a message was relayed ashore from rescuers that this body had been recovered. With it came the statement from Captain Lambert Parker, of the Absecon Federal life-saving crew, that this was true, and that the other four members of the crew were entangled in the wreckage beyond reach for the present in eighteen feet of water. Efforts are to be made to drag them to the surface.

Thousands of persons from every part of the resort are gathered along the Inlet, board walk, and about the Vaniman cottage, just across from the hanger, at the Inlet, where Mrs. Vaniman has collapsed and is unconscious from the shock.

For a week past the intrepid airman had been planning to make another flight and only waited for favorable winds. Last night the conditions appeared satisfactory. At daybreak the conditions were still favorable, and the word was given.

APPEARED TO HAVE COMPLETE CONTROL.

Huge crowds who expected the flight, saw the Akron out of the hangar for the last time. Once clear of the shed, Vaniman jumped into the car of the ship where his other four men had already gone, and he gave the word to "let go."

Instantly the ship rose, slowly at first and swaying from end to end. Then she rose rapidly. Vaniman appeared to have complete control, and after circling about the Inlet and on the mainland, the ship's nose was pointed out to sea.

An eye witness of the disaster told this story of what he saw:

"When about one thousand feet in the air, I saw a sudden puff of smoke from the forward end of the great gas bag. In a minute it was exploded.

"To those who have witnessed the many flights of Vaniman this one seemed at the start more successful than any yet attempted. The crew seemed to have better control than ever before. Starting out from the hangar, the ship rose slowly from the ground, and passed easily out over the water of the Inlet, grazing the mast of the fleet of yachts anchored there.

BODIES PLAINLY SEEN PLUNGING DOWN TO SEA.

"Soon after the puff of smoke was seen the men on the airship were observed gathered together on one side of the craft, but this proved to be a ripping of the entire right side of the big gas envelope. The spectators, however, did not realize that anything had happened until suddenly the huge bag was seen to buckle from the two extreme ends, forming a perfect "U." There was no report, but immediately the collapsed bag fell toward the ocean with frightful velocity.

"The forms of five men could be plainly seen plunging down through the air from the great height; their bodies turning over and over again before they sank in the sea just off the outer bar and not far from a can buoy. From the board-walk, abreast of the life saving station, it looked as if the now limp gas bag and its metal frame work covered their bodies.

MEN TURNED AWAY WHILE WOMEN SCREAMED.

"Men on the board walk turned their eyes from the sickening sight, and women screamed. One man, who appeared to grasp the situation made a dash for the Royal Palace Hotel to telephone for help. A large launch on the way to the fishing grounds, started to blow a whistle to attract the attention of the other boats, and in a short time the waters were black with boats rushing to the aid of the men."

No single aerial catastrophe has ever demanded such a toll of human life as this tragic accident to Vaniman's airship. The nearest approach to a similar occurrence was when the French military dirigible Republique, while travelling from Paris to Antibes, on September 25, 1909, at a height of 600 feet, exploded and fell to the ground, killing the four French officers in the gondola.

Laborers on C.N.R. Work Struck.

One hundred Italian laborers, employed by the C. N. R., struck this morning, refusing to pay a charge of 15 cents a fortnight for medical and sanitation charges in the camp behind the mountain. The laborers were dismissed by the officials and others taken on in their places.

MUST BE UNITED ON NAVAL POLICY; LORD MONTAGU

Small Units Useless Without Co-operation When Empire is in Danger.

The questions of naval defence as affecting Canada, and of street railway transportation as affecting Montreal, were discussed to-day by the Right Hon. Lord Montagu, of Beaulieu, with a representative of The Star. His Lordship is visiting Canada in connection with various undertakings in which he is interested.

Lord Montagu, before succeeding to the Peerage, sat in the British House of Commons from 1892 to 1905, as Conservative member for the New Forest division of Hampshire. During his 47 years he has played a vigorous and distinguished part in the fields of athletics, science, engineering, travel and politics. Passing from Eton to Oxford, he stroked the winning college eight in 1887. His interest in military and naval affairs has always been keen, and few members of the House of Lords are more alive than he to the vital elements of the problem of Imperial defence. He is colonel of one of the battalions of the Hants regiment, and acted as correspondent for the London "Times" in Rhodesia, during the Matabele War. He is deeply interested in railway and all transportation questions, including automobilism, both from the standpoint of pleasure and that of utility. He is the founder and editor of the well-known motoring journal The Car.

Britain's Naval Policy.

Lord Montagu, asked by The Star representative to give his views on the present naval situation, said:

"I am glad to see that The Montreal Star has taken up the attitude it has on the navy question."

"I should like," he continued, "to be allowed to point out to The Star's readers that the navy of the Empire must be wherever the life of the Empire is threatened—whether it be in the Indian Ocean, the Mediterranean, the North Sea, or at the mouth of the St. Lawrence."

"It is of no use whatever, for purposes of strategy and war, to have the navy of the Empire divided into small units separated from each other by thousands of miles of sea."

"You think it important that this principle should be recognized more clearly outside of Great Britain?"

"I do," answered Lord Montagu. "I think that if this great and magnificent Dominion of Canada desires to assist the Mother Country in the matter of naval defence, it must realize that any sacrifice or contribution on its part will be useless unless that idea is borne in mind."

"At the present moment, owing to reasons which I need not mention, it is important that a strong naval force should exist in European waters."

"May I point out," continued Lord Montagu, "that were the fleet to be defeated the farmer in Manitoba and the merchant in Montreal would suffer as much as, if not more than, the citizen of the Old Country! Any disaster to England, or to any part of the Empire, would react at once on the rest of the Empire. Supplies of capital would be entirely cut off, industrial development would cease, and atrophy would overtake the Empire's limbs and extremities as well as its heart."

Asked regarding the expectation in Britain as to the policy of Canada in the matter, his Lordship said:

Must Stand or Fall.

"I am sure that Great Britain, while not asking in any way that undue sacrifice should be made, would greatly appreciate the co-operation of the great dominions in the necessary work of naval defence. As an Empire, we must stand or fall together."

Turning to a subject nearer home, in which Lord Montagu's experience makes him an authority, the representative of The Star asked what opinion he had formed of the system of street railways in Montreal.

"It seems to me," said his Lordship, "that the pavement of your streets is not so good as it should be, and that your street railway tracks are unworthy of so prosperous and progressive a community. I am surprised, too, that no use has yet been made of motor 'buses. Besides being able to work at cheaper fares, they are much more convenient and less noisy than tramways."

It may interest The Star's readers to know, that the motor 'bus development in London has been marvellously successful. Fares of one, two and three cents are being charged for considerable distances, and the competition of the motor 'buses has brought down the cost of travel by over 50 per cent. in the last six or eight years."

SHIPS RETURN TO OLD OCEAN LANES

Ice Conditions on the Atlantic Have Now So Much Improved That Change Can be Made.

Washington, July 2.—Ice conditions in the North Atlantic have improved so that the hydrographic office has recommended that trans-Atlantic steamships return to the ocean lanes adopted on April 19, just after the Titanic disaster.

These lanes were located about 60 miles south of the existing routes just after the wreck, but discoveries of heavy ice even south, resulted in a further southerly shift to their present location.

The steamship companies now have the suggestion under consideration.

LORD STRATHCONA PLEADS FOR MORE EMPIRE KNOWLEDGE

Canada Must Do Something to Guard the Empire, Hon. Mr. Foster Says.

London, July 2.—At the Dominion Day banquet last night, at which Lord Strathcona presided, the following notabilities were present: Lord Mayor Sir Edward Morris, Sir G. Reid, Hon. G. E. Foster, Canadian Minister of Trade and Commerce, A. W. Smithers, Lord Northcliffe, Sir Thomas Skinner, Chief Justice Mulock, Sir C. Moss, chief justice of Ontario, and Sir Charles Rose.

Lord Strathcona in giving the toast of the Dominion declared that what was wanted in order to promote the solidarity of the Empire and the common interests of its people was a better knowledge of its component parts, its resources and potentialities. He believed the recently appointed royal commission would do a great work in supplying this need. There were now three or four great questions of paramount importance to the different parts of the Empire before the public. The first question was of communications; we had not got steamers of from 22 to 25 knots passing to and from British ports and Canada, but still hoped to see the service done in four and a half days. He also regarded as a matter of first importance the improvement in cable communications. The matter of the cost of transmission was attracting considerable attention. There were also the questions of the development of imperial commerce and the arrangement of a system of defence in which all parts of the Empire will bear their proper share. The presence of so many members of the Canadian Government in London within the next few days would no doubt have a bearing on these questions. Any advance was good, and was bringing us nearer to the time when we should be united for common purposes, and when all the great dominions would have a voice in the policy of the Empire.

REMEMBER THE FOUNDERS OF CANADA.

Mr. Foster, in a striking reply, referred to the remarkable development of the Dominion. He trusted that Canadians would never forget the founders of their nation, among whom were Sir Charles Tupper, the honored chairman. Canada now possessed eight millions of people whereas in 1867 there were only three millions, said Mr. Foster. If in 1866 the United States had made the same propositon she made in 1911, could any one say what would have been the position of Canadian nationality to-day? Then Canada was knocking at the door of America. Her petition was unheeded. Then Canadians came together and began their national life. (Cheers.) From 1867 they had been cradled in perfect peace; they had slept at nights without fear of invasion; they were not like Israelites, who worked with sword in one hand and trowel in the other, but with perfect security they worked under the protection of the British army and navy.

The Canadian people were conscious of all that they owed for their birth and guarantee of their liberty and security. They couldn't live long in that consciousness without doing something towards building up guarding and keeping thir great Empire safe. (Cheers.)

Other speakers were Sir William Mulock, the Lord Mayor of London, Sir Edward Morris, Sir George Reid, and Dr. Parkin.

(Signed) T. G. Shaughnessy.

The reply to this was as follows:

Your message of sympathy to the people of Regina in our bereavement is received and sincerely appreciated. ZIONISM IS REMEDY FOR PERSECUTIONS

Purchase of Land in Palestine for the Use of Hebrew Settlers.

Ottawa, July 2.—With about two hundred delegates in attendance from nearly every city of importance in Canada, the twelfth annual convention of the Canadian Federation of Zionists Societies is now proceeding here.

Mr. C. I. De Sola, Montreal, in his presidential address, said that the most important undertaking launched by the federation at the last convention held in Toronto had been a special Canadian fund for the purchase of land in Palestine for the settlement thereon of Hebrew colonists. He was now able to announce that this hope had been literally fulfilled and that 50 per cent of the total cost of the first allotment which it had been intended to collect had not only been fully subscribed bu had been actually remitted in cash to headquarters for the first purchase of land in Palestine bearing specifically the name of the Federation of Zion Societies of Canada.

After referring to the different persecutions of the Jewish race of late years, the speaker went on to point out that Zionism, and Zionism alone, had offered any roemdy for them. "The Jewish question," he stated, "is not a question of almsgiving. It is a big national question. We scorn to treat our brethren as though they were mere subjects for charity. We recognize that they are a deeply wronged, self-respecting people, entitled to freedom, justice and happiness in a legally secured home of their own."

BINDING ENGLISH AND FRENCH LITERATURE

Sir James Grant Refers to Good Results from Canadian Royal Society.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 2.—Sir James Grant, K.C.M.G., delivered an address yesterday to the members of the American Library Association who are at present in convention at Ottawa.

After referring to some of the authors who have made their mark in American literature, science, and art, and whose names are household words in Canada, Sir James reviewed the history of Canadian letters from the early days of the French occupation, and the works of the Jesuit fathers down to the works of the present day.

He referred in particular to the splendid results achieved by the Royal Society of Canada during the last thirty years, especially in the direction of binding together the French and English literature and thus promoting true Canadian sentiment and feeling in the Dominion.

Traders' Bank Approves Deal---Rally in Rio---General Market Quiet

RALLY IN RIO, POWER STRONG, OTHERS FIRM

Toronto Rails were also firm at 141¾ to 142¾.

C.P.R. held at 256, and Richelieu was unchanged at 114.

Power was active, but the price was remarkably steady around 215¾ to 216.

Steel was fractionally under at 61¾ to 61⅝, and Dom. Iron steady at 35.

Other features of the dealings were Converters, Dom. Coal pfd., and Mexican 66.

In Wall Street

In point of strength, to-day's early stock market offered a refreshing change from recent conditions. Industrial stocks and tractions were the foremost features at the outset, but later the movement took in most of the standard railways.

Steel resumed its leadership, while Brooklyn Rapid Transit added substantially to yesterday's rise, and sold at the highest price in some years. Interborough-Metropolitan issues displayed unwonted strength.

Of the less active industrials General Electric climbed higher, and Westinghouse moved sympathetically. Other minor stocks gained materially, except the Tobaccos, which were inclined to react.

Emergency Money

Every loan must have security and the best security procures the best loan.

Every person at some time or other experiences the necessity of securing an immediate sum of money. In each case some security has to be given, either by promise or by actual transfer. Naturally, the better the security the quicker and larger the loan that may be obtained. One of the many advantages of owning a Municipal Debenture is that a loan can generally be secured without delay for 95 per cent of its value. There are few investments so nearly "as good as gold" as Municipal Debentures are.

Let us send you our descriptive circular of Municipal Debentures.

SCIENCE FAILS TO STIR INVESTORS

London, July 2.—So far there has been a very poor public reception of the issue of 4 per cent preferred & shares of Synthetic Products Company, in which Sir Wm. Ramsay, Professor Perkin, and other noted scientists are interested. The capital is £500,000.

The Company has been heralded by wide advertising of synthetic rubber. The directors now state that they expect annual profits mainly to come from acetone and fusel oil.

They say they can manufacture rubber at 2s cents per pound, or probably less, out of maize, salt and lime.

FINANCIAL PERSONALS.

Sir H. Montagu Allan leaves to-morrow on a trip to the Pacific coast.

Mr. F. E. Archbald, of Oswald Bros., has returned from Europe.

Mr. H. V. Meredith has returned to the city.

Mr. Andrew Allan has gone to Cacouna.

Mr. C. B. Gordon has gone on a fishing trip.

Mr. J. P. Morgan not expected home before September.

Chairman Gary, of United States Steel, sails for Europe on the Mauretania.

MR. MORGAN AND THE KAISER.

There is considerable speculation in Berlin as to the ulterior motive in the Kaiser's marked attention to Mr. J. P. Morgan and other American financiers. With the present inadequate finances of Germany, it would not be surprising if the Emperor were discovered to be trying to enlist the sympathies of the noted financiers with the cause of Germany.

Mr. Travers and Mr. Ryan re Farmers Bank

Toronto, July 2.—Mr. Peter Ryan yesterday in response to his own inquiry, following the evidence of Travers in the Farmers Bank inquiry on Saturday, received the following telegram from the Russell House, Ottawa:—

"You registered here on November 28, 1906, but did not have a room."

W. R. Travers, former general manager of the wrecked Farmers Bank, in his evidence on Saturday, said:—

"On the back of the cheque I put a number which I think represented Mr. Ryan's room number."

Consols Weak Again London Market Better

London, July 2. — The stock market developed a better tone to-day under a smart recovery in home railroads, and fresh buying of foreign rails, rubber and oil shares, but Paris selling in the afternoon weakened coppers and diamond shares. Consols were weak, and fell 5-16.

The market for American securities ruled generally firm throughout on light covering and some New York support. The close showed fractional net advances over yesterday's final prices.

Rubber shares were firmer on rumors of the failure of the Synthetic Products Company's issue of $2,500,000.

JUNE NOT SO HEAVY.

Trading in the local market in June fell below May considerably.

Total transactions were 187,666 shares, 22,328 mining shares, and $484,800 bonds. This compares with a little over 300,000 shares in May, when Dominion Steel alone contributed approximately one hundred thousand shares to the aggregate.

NORFOLK AND WESTERN.

McCuaig Bros. & Co., have issued a market letter calling attention to the value of Norfolk and Western Railway as an investment.

TRAM. AND POWER STRONG.

Tramway & Power was strong at 38½ to 39.

Issue of City Realty Gold Debentures

Attention has already been called to the issue of $1,000,000 City Realty Investing Company's 5 per cent. convertible gold debentures offered for public subscription at 97½ and interest. A considerable part of the offering was taken up privately, and the balance is now announced for subscription.

For the four months ending April 30th, 1912, the net earnings amounted to $334,112.74, which is equal to over 1½ per cent. on the Common Stock, after paying all salaries and the entire annual Bond Interest and Sinking Fund.

The debentures are redeemable at 105 per cent. and accrued interest on any interest date upon two months' notice, and are convertible at the option of the holder into common stock at par at any time during the life of the debenture upon giving fifteen days' notice to the company. One million dollars of the authorized common stock is specifically reserved against the conversion of the debentures, and the company further covenants not to issue the remaining $500,000 common stock until such time as all the debentures have been converted or redeemed.

FAILURES IN PAST WEEK.

OPINIONS ON THE MARKET.

Lounsbery & Co.—Hear on good authority U. S. Steel earnings should be above 25 million this quarter.

Oswald Bros.—Bulls seem more numerous than bears, and the crop situation is certainly favorable to higher prices.

J. S. Bache & Co.—Tractions promise great activity when convention is off of the way. Look for much higher prices for all these issues.

Burnett & Co.—Strength and activity characterized the stock market this morning.

E. & C. Randolph.—The market became quite active on the advance but has since reacted moderately.

Sheafson, Hammill and Co.—We cannot believe that we will not feel the effects of the unrest which accompanies a political campaign.

Laidlaw and Co.—July disbursements will gradually return to the street and be a help toward regulating the money market.

R. M. Bauer.—For the time being profit taking on sharp rallies is advisable.

TRADERS' BANK APPROVES OF ROYAL DEAL

Toronto, July 2.—The shareholders of the Traders Bank, at their special meeting this morning, unanimously approved of the deal with the Royal Bank of Canada.

This is the first of the two final formalities necessary to seal the union of the two banks.

The terms of the purchase by the Royal Bank of Canada were announced some weeks ago.

The shareholders of the Royal Bank meet to-morrow to put their approval on the deal.

At the same time they will pass a by-law increasing the capital stock of the Bank from $10,000,000 to $25,000,000, by the issue of one hundred and fifty thousand shares of the par value of $100 each share, pass a by-law increasing the number of directors of the Bank from twelve to sixteen, and to approve the agreement for the purchase of the assets of the Traders Bank and issue Royal shares to pay for the same.

TOPICS OF THE STREET

NO NEED TO WORRY ABOUT PANICS JUST AT PRESENT.

Mr. Henry Clews seems to be worrying not a little about what would happen in Wall Street if disaster overtook Canada and our banks suddenly found need for that $115,000,000 out on call, principally in that market.

No one denies that our money is kept in the handiest emergency market available for the hour of need, but such has been the policy of the banks for many years.

Fortunately, Canada has had no reason for a long period to disturb Wall Street in such a manner, and there is no reason to feel just now that there is cause for ringing the alarm bell.

The very fact that Canadian banks are in a strong position to meet any emergency offers one good reason why there should be none.

SIGNIFICANCE OF CHANGES IN UNION BANK.

The Union Bank of Canada is now to all intents and purposes a Winnipeg, instead of a Quebec, institution.

The new president is a resident of Winnipeg, while that city also has a vice-president.

Quebec retains the honor of having the honorary president, and a vice-president, but the active management will be in the western city.

Hon. John Sharples retires full of honors and in Col. John Carson, the new director, the bank secures the advice of a successful and conservative business man.

REMARKABLE FIGURES OF BANK CLEARINGS.

It has been evident since the beginning of the year that the record of bank clearings would far exceed those of the preceding year.

The complete figure for the first half of the current year are now available and fully bear out the expectation.

The total for June is $245,227, an increase of $41,026,049 over the same month a year ago.

For six months the total is $1,309,341,121, an increase of $187,718,295. This indicates the enormous extent to which banking business has developed in the past few years.

April showed the largest monthly increase with $46,539,814, but June comes a close second with $41,056,049.

These increases are truly remarkable, and it will be still more remarkable if the record is kept up.

Look for Further Reaction in Prices

McCuaig Bros. & Co., in their market circular, say:— "It was not surprising to see such a substantial reaction as has occurred during the last day or two, most of the active securities having discounted any expectations at the high levels attained, and now that the most important announcement has been given out, it would not be surprising to see a further decline in prices in the less active market which is likely to ensue at this time of the year."

Gibbs, of the Grain Commission, are in the city. The plans for the elevator have not yet been determined, but it will have a capacity of at least three million bushels and it is intended to proceed with the construction as soon as possible. This undertaking marks the commencement of the principle of State Ownership, as applied to elevator facilities, and the experiment will be watched with great interest. If it proves to be successful it will doubtless be extended, forty-seven acres of land have been secured and every arrangements made for building additional elevators if considered desirable.

New Grain Rate Goes Into Effect

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, July 2.—Reduction of one cent in rail rates on export grain from Buffalo to New York, which became effective yesterday is expected to give the lines between the two cities millions of bushels of grain which otherwise would have been diverted to Canadian ports. The rate is now 5½ cents as agreed upon by members of interests at Fort William and Port Arthur, who have stored great quantities of wheat at those points awaiting the time when it could be moved at advantage, which was afforded by the reduction.

The domestic rate of 6.5 cents bushel remains unchanged, also the canal rate of four cents on wheat. Elevating interests at Buffalo have been making preparations for handling the increased volume of business. Last year, according to official figures, 63,000,000 bushels of Canadian wheat went through the Canadian canal at Sault Ste. Marie, 43.8 per cent. of which went to Buffalo.

PACKERS MOVE TRADING POST AT TORONTO

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 2.—Two of the largest buyers at the city cattle market said yesterday that hereafter they would buy all their cattle, sheep and hogs at the Union Stock Yards. They are Gunns Ltd., and the Harris Abattoir Company, Ltd.

Cattlemen of authority predict that the removal of this trade from the city's market will be a serious handicap to the continuance of this institution.

The above is only the natural course of events wherein the Toronto packers have been forced to establish a packing centre of their own.

It was not long ago that the city of Toronto had the opportunity to get control of the Union Stock Yards, but they did not care then to do so. Swift and Co. took advantage of this and obtained control of the Union Stock Yards, and this with the necessity of removing and creating a packing centre has become almost compulsory to the Harris Abattoir Co., Ltd., who have recently closed their city plant and are now building a new and larger abattoir, close to the Union Stock yards where Gunn's Ltd., and Swift Co.'s houses are already in operation.

CHATS ON CHANGE

Capt. E. Wayte, of steamship Blythic was introduced on 'Change to-day by Mr. T. R. McCarthy.

Chats on 'Change to-day consisted chiefly of "Where did you spend your holiday?" And the general answer to questions was, "I don't know, I just got back, myself, this morning."

Lieut.-Col. Labelle says: "The price of flour is no doubt due to advance in the near future owing to the upward tendency of wheat."

LA ROSE FIRMER.

La Rose was firm to-day at 3.35 to 3.37½.

"CROP KILLERS" MUST LOAF

From Our Special Correspondent on the Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, July 2.—For a time at least the "Crop Killers Union" will be obliged to give its attention to something else besides the suffering wheat of Western Canada as well as our own North-West.

That entire country was wet down thoroughly during yesterday, last night and this morning the moisture according to advices received here being ample to carry it for some time. Considerable wheat was sold on these rains and an early price break resulted.

July sold off 1c to 106 1-2, but advanced to 107 5-8. September at 103 7-8 to 104 compared with closings of 107 3-8, and 104 1-4 respectively at close of yesterday.

On the decline there was short selling of considerable of the September and December but around a certain level investors and shorts came into the market and sharp reactions and advances resulted. As for some time past the volume of business was confined largely to the professionals at Chicago with orders from the smaller markets of moderate size.

There were declines in all of the wheat market of the old world, losses being shown of 1-8c at Berlin, 3-8d at Liverpool and 3-4c at Paris.

Budapest and Ontwerp were unchanged for wheat. Spot wheat at Liverpool was 1d up to 1-2d lower and flour at Paris was 1-4 to 2 1-4c lower.

The foreign crop summary as cabled by Broomhall was less favorable. Weather in the United Kingdom continued wet and in France it is not of the kind desired for crop improvement—being too cool and wet. Russia reported unfavorable crop conditions in the Volga district. There would have been a greater loss in the price of wheat in the markets of the old world had it not been for covering of shorts on the big decrease in the European visible which totalled 5,592,000 bushels compared with a decrease of 2,000,000 bushels a year ago. The total European visible is now 87,352,000 bushels which is 6,250,000 bushels in excess of the corresponding time a year ago.

Buenos Ayres reported shorts in July covering owing to a better export demand, light port arrivals with reports that interior stocks are smaller.

That Mysterious $3,000 Cheque.

Toronto, July 2.—There is another bomb ready to match the one that went off Saturday when W. R. Travers, manager of the wrecked Farmers' Bank said he left a $3,000 check for Mr. Peter Ryan at the Russell House, Ottawa, in the days when the Farmer's Bank was trying to make friends and get its charter through.

Mr. Ryan's denial immediately followed Travers' statement.

Since then Mr. Ryan has received a communication from Senator Smith stating his client was prepared to make an affidavit which would have an important bearing on the case.

This client was in prison on a certain occasion when Traverse occupied the adjoining cell. He says Travers told him who got the $3,000 check and that Peter Ryan's name was not mentioned. Somebody else's was.

DON'T BLAME YOUR SHOES It's the work of the foot that caused Corns, Bunions, Callouses, Sweating, Smelling and a hundred other discomforts. And yet folks persist in throwing away money trying to get relief from shoes not responsible for the trouble. Drop into a shoe store and get a pair of Foot-Ease to shake into your shoes. It's simply to sprinkle and shake to find how comfy your feet can be. Foot-Ease makes new shoes easy, and how far it does make your shoes last. Don't take substitutes, you don't need 'em. ONLY ONE TENDER FOR THE QUEBEC DRY DOCK PUT IN

If Government Accepts it the Company Will Get Large Subsidy.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 2.—The time expired at noon to-day for receiving proposals for the construction of the new dry dock at Quebec. Only one was received but it has not yet been opened. If it is accepted, the company submitting the proposition will be entitled to the Government subsidy on five million dollars annually. The site favored by the Government expert is at St. Joseph de Levis. The dock is planned to the largest in the world.

NEW ARCHITECT FOR MONTREAL POST OFFICE

Ottawa, July 2.—That the public of Montreal, particularly those whose business takes them to St. James street, have suffered from difficulties, which had arisen between the contractors and architects on the Central Post Office, Montreal, is the information from the Public Works Department and the Hon. F. D. Monk, Minister of Public Works, with a view to remedying an intolerable state of affairs, has placed a new architect in charge, Messrs. Marchand and Haskell, of Montreal. It is expected that the lower part of the building will be open to the public at the end of next month for the sale of stamps and the posting of letters.

MR. ROWELL APPEALS TO SIR JAMES WHITNEY.

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, Ont., July 2.—Mr. N. W. Rowell, the nOtario Liberal leader, addressing a crowd of 3,000 persons in Queen's Park yesterday afternoon, appealed to Sir James Whitney to cease "his straining for an ineffective and inefficient substitute," and to join with him and let the both political parties unite to wipe out the bar. "Sir James," Mr. Rowell declared, "can accomplish nothing by great weak measures. Let him grapple with this big problem in an earnest, thorough and capable manner and he will have our hearty support; we want from this policy not power; we want the public good."

SHELL EXPLODES ON BRITISH BATTLESHIP.

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, July 2.—The new battleship Thunderer narrowly escaped disaster at Devonport yesterday, when a 13.1-2 inch lyddite shell, which was being taken on board, fell from the upper deck into the magazine.

The force of the impact will be realized when it is stated that the weight of the shell was eleven hundredweight, and the distance which it fell was over thirty feet. Those on deck appeared as if they were stunned when they saw what had happened. The magazine was practically full, and it is considered little short of miraculous that the shell did not explode.

OTHER COUNTRIES SHOULD RETALIATE.

Canadian Associated Press.

Sydney, N. S. W., July 2.—The Sydney Daily Telegraph, referring to the Canadian threat to retaliate against the United States if American shipping through the Panama Canal receives preferential treatment, suggests that other countries besides Canada should impose differential dues.

The popularity of Williams' Shaving Soaps for so many successive generations, can be accounted for only by their superlative qualities.

That peculiar creaminess of lather, and the softening, soothing effect upon the face, found only in Williams' Shaving Soaps, have made them always the first choice of discriminating men.

Williams' Shaving Stick

The comfort or discomfort of shaving isn't half so much in the razor as in the lather. Williams' Shaving Stick produces a thick, smooth, creamy, lather that maintains your comfort during the shave and preserves it afterwards.

Williams' Shaving Powder

Just shake a little on the wet brush—the result is the same smooth, creamy lather that you've always known in Williams' Shaving Soap and Shaving Stick. The hinged-cover box, operated with one hand—snap open, snap shut—makes the box, like the powder, quick and easy.

The Company covenants, however, not to issue any further bonds or debentures secured by specific registration or otherwise ranking prior to this issue.

2. The Company's assets consist chiefly of revenue producing real estate situated in the City of Montreal, on commercial streets where values are constantly increasing. In every case, the present market values are in excess of the price paid for the properties when acquired.

Debenture holders will be entitled to receive cash for the amount of accrued interest on their debentures up to the date of conversion.

7. One million dollars of the authorized Common Stock is specifically reserved against the conversion of the Debentures, and the Company further covenants not to issue the remaining $500,000 Common Stock until such time as all the Debentures have been converted or redeemed.

8. Cumulative Sinking Fund at 2½% per annum commences June 1st, 1913, and if no Debentures are converted this provision is sufficient to retire over 45% by maturity at 105 and accrued interest.

9. Redeemable at 105% and accrued interest on any interest date upon two months' notice. In the case of Debentures being called for redemption the holder has the right of converting the same into common shares provided such right is exercised within sixty days following the first notice of the call.

OBJECTS TO LIMIT OF EIGHT HOURS ALTHOUGH EIGHTY

Sir William Crookes is Busy Man Despite Advanced Age.

London, July 2.—"I hope they won't pass a law limiting me to eight hours' work a day."

Sir William Crookes, O.M., the discoverer of thallium, the radiometer, radiant matter, the genesis of elements, and the spintheriscope—to mention only a few of his notable contributions to scientific research during the past 50 years—contemplated £3,000 worth of radium in his laboratory, and made the remark quoted above. He had completed the eightieth year of an extraordinarily full and active life, and there was an alertness about the sparely-built figure, the searching eye, and the intellectual forehead that emphasized the force of his words.

"I consider," said the wonderful octogenarian, "that a good deal of my success in science is due to having lived so long. Supposing I had started when I did, and had gone on with scientific work for twenty or forty years—and then died. I should have done nothing like so much. Every ten years has given some addition to my knowledge."

Thought-Transference.

So long ago as 1892 Sir William Crookes was foretelling wireless telegraphy, and even at that day he talked learnedly of overcoming difficulties with regard to want of secrecy.

"In some parts of the human brain," he said then, and he reiterated yesterday, "may lurk an organ capable of transmitting and receiving other electrical rays of wave-lengths hitherto undetected by instrumental means. These may be instrumental in transmitting thought from one brain to another."

Food From the Air.

Sir William Crookes is insistent upon the need for "fixing" the nitrates in the atmosphere, if posterity is not to run the risk of starving. "The wheat growing land in the world," he said, "is being gradually used up. The accumulation of nitrates in the soil is diminishing and artificial manure is required. The amount of wheat per acre over the world is about 12 1-2 bushels; by manuring artificially with nitrates we can get up to 25 and 30 bushels; but of course that costs money. If we are only going to get 12 1-2 bushels per acre all over the world, we shall not have wheat enough to supply the wheat-eaters of the world in about a generation.

"The only chance of avoiding trouble is by increasing the fertility. The Chili nitrates are becoming exhausted, and the only way I can see is by fixing the atmospheric nitrogen. The best way of doing that, in my opinion, is by passing a high tension electric current through the air. If we can get nitrates from the atmosphere we can go on increasing the fertility of the land to almost any extent."

SEVEN KILLED WHEN BEAM OF CRUSHER GIVES WAY

Fearful Accident Attributed to Overloading of Stone Machine.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Jonquiere, Que., July 2—A fearful accident resulting in the death of seven men occurred at Kenogami, near here, about four o'clock this afternoon.

The victims, who were in the employ of the Canadian Stewart Co., who are erecting the large pulp mills for the Price Bros. Co. at Kenogami, were at work under a stone crusher, when a beam suddenly gave away, said to be due to being too heavily loaded, resulting in the crushing to death of seven men, all French-Canadians, with the exception of one, an Englishman. It was impossible to learn the names of the victims, some of whom are married men with families.

The coroner has been notified and an inquest will be help immediately.

Predicts Eruption of Etna Soon.

Boston, Mass., July 2.—Frank Alvord Perrett, known among men of science as "Perrett of Vesuvius," an associate of the department of geology, whose profession is unique among all callings—the study of volcanoes and earthquakes—predicts that in the near future, Italy will be visited by another volcanic catastrophe. He says:

"I believe that we may look for another eruption of Mount Etna within three or four years."

MORE THAN 40,000 LEAVE MONTREAL FOR DOMINION DAY

Special Trains Pour Thousands Into Laurentian Resorts and Other Breathing Places.

There was a whole-hearted celebration of Dominion Day by Montrealers, practically all the stores and places being closed, and the population turned out en masse, to enoy the brilliant summer weather, either in the parks and playgrounds of the city, or at the summer resorts within easy reach.

One of the attractions for those who stayed in the city, was the firing of the customary salute of 21 guns on the Champ de Mars by the 1st Battery of the Montreal Heavy Brigade. The salute was fired from four twelve-pounders, the firing party being under the command of Major J. A. Ewing, with Capt. A. Cole and Lieut. Ward.

The railways transported huge crowds to, and from the city during the week-end. The C. P. R. carried over 20,000 people out of the city. An equal number is estimated to have gone out by the Grand Trunk, while thousands went out over the Canadian Northern, to places on the Quebec line, and in the Laurentian Mountains. The Grand Trunk carried its passengers mostly on short hauls to Lakeshore and Eastern Township resorts, while on the C. P. R. the heaviest traffic was on the Nominingue line, on which many special trains had to be run.

Mount Royal Park and St. Helen's Island attracted many thousands, and the boats on the river were all filled to capacity. A large number of people who went out to Lachine to make the rapids trip back to the city were disappointed, and had to come back by train. The boat was delayed so much on her journey by excursion traffic, that she got to Lachine too late to run the rapids.

GOOD TEMPLARS INSTAL MANY MEMBERS

Annual Session Closes at Verdun With Large Installation List.

Mr. John H. Roberts was the principal speaker at last night's meeting of the Good Templars in Verdun. He claimed that temperance advocates could hold themselves as patriots of the highest type. He said cheap labor was to be had in Montreal, because there are nearly 1,100 licenses, with the result that the wages of the workers are spent in a destructive commodity.

Last night's meeting was the final session of the annual gathering of the Grand Lodge of Quebec of the International Order of Good Templars, and was presided over by District Chief Templar F. Grant Smith. In his opening remarks Mr. Smith alluded to the world-wide character of the Order, its fraternal and democratic spirit, and enlarged especially upon the necessity of propagating their cause among the young.

Bro. W. H. Lambly, Grand Chief Templar, made a strong speech inveighing against the rum traffic, and regretted the fact that so many men put party politics before temperance principles.

After Mr. J. T. Dyson, Grand Chief Templar of the lodge of Ontario, had spoken briefly, the public installation of officers took place. This was carried out by Deputy Chief Templar of the International Lodge, Dr. Lambly, and the investiture was performed by Mrs. J. H. Roberts.

Following were installed: — Grand chief templar, W. H. Lambly (Inverness); grand counsellor, John H. Roberts; grand vice-templar, Miss Fields; grand treasurer, J. Rawlings; grand chaplain, Rev. R. E. Nicholls; electoral superintendent, J. Sharkey; superintendent juvenile work, J. Hill; chancellor of study, G. W. Jones; grand marshall, S. Stark; past grand chief templar, F. G. Smith; grand guard, A. S. Elliott; grand sentinel, F. Beresford; organist, C. Maxwell; assistant secretary, N. M. Bloore, grand deputy marshall, Miss Ulley; representative to National Grand Lodge, Moncton, N.B.; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Roberts.

DROWNED AT ORMSTOWN.

Mr. Earl Geddes Went in for Fatal Plunge Near Home.

A holiday swim yesterday proved fatal to Mr. Earl Geddes, 19 years of age, who was seized with cramps in the river at Ormstown, and sank in spite of the efforts of his companions, Messrs. Arthur Kearn and Harold Young, of Montreal.

Mr. Geddes was the only son of Mr. Joseph Geddes, of Ormstown, and had been employed for the last four years in the Windsor street offices of the C. P. R. Yesterday the young men went for a swim before dinner, and Geddes was soon seen to be in trouble. Mr. Kearn, who was nearest to him, went at once, to his help, but the drowning man caught hold of him so tightly that they both went down together. Kearn finally shook himself free, but before further attempts at rescue could be made, Geddes had disappeared. The body was recovered with a grappling iron.

The funeral will take place at Ormstown to-morrow.

More Promotions Among Police.

Constables Lanteigne, Brunette, Comette and McRae have been promoted by Chief Campeau to the rank of sergeants to fill the vacancies made by recent promotions.

DECORATE GRAVES OF DEAD FIRE-FIGHTERS

Ceremony is Conducted This Year on Larger Scale Than Usual.

One hundred and fifty firemen of the Montreal Brigade, under the command of Chief Tremblay, celebrated Dominion Day by decorating the graves of their dead comrades, who have been laid to rest in the Mount Royal and Cote des Neiges cemeteries.

Around the graves of the dead firefighters was gathered yesterday the largest number that has ever assembled to honor the memory of the departed firemen.

Two former chiefs of the brigade, Bertram and Patton, with three subchiefs, McCullough, Beckingham and Mitchell, rest in Mount Royal cemetery, with thirty other members of the brigade, while the body of Sub-Chief Naud and half a hundred others rest in Cote des Neiges Cemetery.

While the number of graves where firemen have been laid to rest do not total very high, considering the number of serious fires which have taken place in the city since the brigade was organized in 1863, there are many others who have become disabled for life while battling with the flames.

The most serious loss of life to the Fire Brigade took place in the Canadian Oil Cabinet and Novelty Works on St. Urbain street in the year 1877, when firemen were crushed to death under a falling wall. The falling of the floors in the building of Gilmour Bros., St. Peter street, on October 16, 1893, carried three of the fire fighters to their death.

After every grave of the fire-fighters had been decorated with flags and flowers, a luncheon was served on the mountain during the course of which short addresses were delivered by Controllers Lachapelle and Dupuis, Aldermen Giroux, Poissant, Clement, Letourneux and Judge, ex-Chief Benoit, Canon Renaud, Abbe Bedard and Chief Tremblay.

It was stated last night by Chief Tremblay that in future Dominion Day would be the firemen's annual Decoration Day.

FALSE AMBULANCE CALLS NOW POPULAR.

The Western Hospital reports that it has been subjected to serious annoyances from false alarms for ambulances in the last two weeks, no fewer than six having been sent in from the same place in Cote St. Paul. The police have been notified and offenders will be seriously dealt with as a false alarm not only involves an expense of from three to five dollars but keeps an ambulance out when it might be badly needed in another place.
