LEBANANESE REBELS GIVE UP

Canada Supports US Move

OTTAWA (CP)—The Canadian government has indicated its support of United States action in sending 5,000 American troops to Lebanon to protect American nationals and bolster the shaky Lebanese government.

External Affairs Minister Smith, in a carefully worded Commons statement Tuesday, said the U.S. step was made "necessary" by the "sudden and alarming" developments Monday in Iraq, scene of a military coup.

Mr. Smith noted the U.S. government's statement that the American troops will stay in Lebanon only until the United Nations security council takes measures to maintain peace and security.

SUPPORT U.S. STAND

He added that the Canadian representative at the UN "has been instructed to support all constructive efforts within that body (the security council) which will have the effect of achieving the objectives outlined by the United States government and minimizing the threat to the peace of the area."

He also informed the Commons that the U.S. embassy in Lebanon has undertaken to look after the 146 Canadian nationals there "as well as they would look after Americans."

Referring to the 43 Canadians registered as being in Iraq—40 of them in Baghdad—Mr. Smith said the government had been unable to learn the exact situation but "we are hoping for the best."

Normally, the Canadian government would have depended on the British embassy at Baghdad, but it had been blown up.

PEARSON AGREES

Opposition Leader Pearson said there was "no doubt" about the "necessity" of the U.S. troop landing to protect American nationals.

H. W. Herridge, deputy CCF House leader, said U.S. "short-sightedness" was to blame for Middle East developments, starting with the U.S. refusal in 1956 to provide a loan to Egypt for the Aswan Dam project.

Outside the Commons, a spokesman of the external affairs department described as "untrue" reports that the Canadian legation in Beirut, the Lebanese capital, would remove Canadian nationals from the country.

Weddings Off

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont. (CP)—This honeymoon city ran out of marriage licences Tuesday. The supply was exhausted both here and in adjoining Stamford Township. A licence is needed three days before the marriage. Both municipalities ordered new supplies and expect to get them today but one girl planning didn't take a chance on today's mail. She drove 20 miles to Fort Erie.

CNR, TCA Budgets OK'd By Committee

OTTAWA (CP)—The 1957 operations and prospective 1958 expenditures of the publicly-owned Canadian National Railways and Trans-Canada Air Lines have been approved by the Commons railway committee.

The committee's endorsement, after a two-day examination of officials of the two corporations, virtually assures Parliament's approval.

Also endorsed by the committee—and also carrying the certainty of parliamentary okay—was Canadian National Steamships plans to wind up its West Indies service and sell its eight-ship fleet.

For the CNR, the committee approved a 1957 financial report showing a $29,600,000 deficit, a 1958 operating budget indicating a $55,000,000 deficit and a 1958 capital spending program of about $302,600,000.

TCA's 1957 report—with a surplus of $404,600—was adopted along with a capital spending program for 1958 of $42,000,000. The airline does not file an advance operating budget with Parliament.

MAY STRENGTHEN

In committee hearings that closed late Tuesday night, major developments Tuesday were these:

1. CNR President Donald Gordon said recent indications are that the company's slumping revenues may strengthen during the last half of 1958.

2. Mr. Gordon said the CNS—which he also heads—may close deals for the sale of some of its ships in a week or 10 days. He did not indicate how many vessels might be involved.

3. Transport Minister Hees said the government is trying—but with little success—to make new trades with the United States and other countries for commercial airline privileges.

4. Committee members got only silence from the minister and TCA officials in attempted questioning on TCA's attitude towards the possibility of competition on the domestic transcontinental air route, now before the air transport board.

5. President Gordon said the CNR will have to borrow about $199,493,000 for its 1958 capital spending program but will not go into the money market until the federal government's huge program of debt reconversion is out of the way.

In discussion on prospective new international routes for Canadian carriers, Mr. Hees indicated to the committee that Canadian officials are getting a run-around from United States counterparts in trying to work out swaps of privileges.

"We've been trying steadily to work out more routes in the and he see a drift away,"

Victoria Says Good-bye

Heat Terrific For Margaret's Last Day

VICTORIA (CP)—Princess Margaret's last day in Victoria was only fairly busy, but terrifically hot.

Her itinerary Tuesday took her on a visit to the veterans' hospital here, to a three-country naval review and a banquet with senior navy officers.

The princess was to leave Victoria at 10 a.m. today to tour several Vancouver Island points before flying to Vancouver for an overnight stay in preparation for her trip to Northern British Columbia.

The temperature in downtown Victoria Tuesday was around 90 degrees. The princess was escorted to the veterans' hospital by Defence Minister Pearkes.

APPEARED COOL

Despite the heat, she appeared cool and bright in a shimmering yellow dress with forget-me-not blue polka dots. A shirt-waist design, the dress was highlighted by a puritan collar. Her hat was of matching material, spiralling in pleats in a mushroom shape to a button on top.

Princess Margaret wore the same outfit in the afternoon when she reviewed the fleet from a plexiglass cabin on the forward deck of HMCS Crescent, senior ship of the Second Canadian Escort Squadron.

She was accompanied by Mr. Pearkes, Lieutenant Governor Frank Ross and Rear Admiral H. S. Rayner, flag officer, Pacific coast.

There were 32 Canadian, United States and British ships in the review. A 21-gun salute greeted the Crescent, a 2,100-ton Algonquin Class destroyer escort, as she swung into the review area.

Each ship in the review performed the "evolution," a highly-disciplined action that pledges loyal tribute. In it the sailors cheer on command and cross their hands on the rail.

Following the review the Crescent anchored at the head while Princess Margaret had tea, then moved into dock where she disembarked.

For the evening banquet, at which senior officers of the review ships were presented, Princess Margaret was beautifully dressed in an evening dress of white taffeta, printed with red roses and olive-green leaves.

The flowing lines of the floor-length skirt were accentuated by a diagonal draping of skirt material which caught at the left hip and fell into a long panel. The gown was cut moderately low in the front and the back.

Her jewelry was topped by a shell-design diamond and pearl tiara. Diamond earrings, necklace and brooch complemented it. She wore white elbow-length gloves.

Princess Margaret's first stop today will be Duncan, about an hour after leaving Victoria, where civic officials will be presented to her.

Ceremonies are also scheduled for Nanaimo and Courtenay before the princess boards an RCAF plane for Vancouver, taking off from the Comox RCAF Base.

Brownies Get Their Chance To See Meg

VICTORIA (CP)—A crowd of eager young brownies and girl scouts will turn out early today for the visit with Princess Margaret they missed Monday.

More than 700 of them waited in the hot sun Monday to see the princess. But the royal entourage flashed by on the way to a garden party and the girls got only the briefest of glimpses.

"We waited for such a long time—and then she went by too quickly," said one wistfully.

But the tears turned to smiles when officials announced that the girls could assemble on the lawn of the Empress Hotel today for a visit. They said the princess will walk among the girls for several minutes and chat.

First RCAF Casualties Wreck Found

JUNIPER, N.B.—(CP)—The four-man RCAF search team investigating the wreckage of a small aircraft that crashed in thickly-forested land near here in 1939 returned to its Greenwood, N.S., RCAF base Tuesday night after completing a two-day investigation.

Some personal effects of the men in the plane, including a wrist watch were found but no remains of Flt. Sgt. J. E. Doan of Toronto, or LAC D. A. Renie, Ottawa, first RCAF casualties of the Second World War, were seen.

It was reported the group will return to the site of the crash in a few days to paint the wreckage, apparently beyond salvage, so it will not confuse future searchers in the area.

Actor Sued

SANTA ANA, Calif. (AP)—Actor James Craig was sued for divorce Tuesday by his wife of 19 years who asked for a court order to prevent him from molesting her. Mrs. Mary June Craig charged mental cruelty.

Food Expert

PONTIAC, Mich. (CP)—Norman K. Smith said he changed his plea to guilty on a burglary charge Tuesday because he was "starving to death" on county jail fare and was anxious for the change in menu at Southern Michigan Prison.

Special UN Force Demanded

UNITED NATIONS (AP)—The United States urged the United Nations security council today to send an international military force to Lebanon to protect the country's independence from the rising tide of Nasserism. The Americans said their marines would be withdrawn when the UN troops took over.

U.S. delegate Cabot Lodge was to press the American resolution calling for a UN emergency force at another security council meeting this morning.

The Soviet Union was promoting a rival proposal for the council to demand immediate withdrawal of the marines the United States landed in Lebanon Tuesday.

Delegates predicted the council would vote on both resolutions by nightfall.

No one expected the Soviet resolution to get the necessary seven votes for adoption, and a Soviet veto of the U.S. proposal was generally anticipated. But one delegate suggested the Russians might abstain from voting and let the American resolution pass, preferring a UN force to an American force.

Diplomatic sources said that if Russia vetoed the American resolution, the United States would not ask for a special session of the general assembly to set up the UN force. Instead it would leave the marines in Lebanon as long as it thought their presence necessary.

The Lebanese government claims President Nasser's United Arab Republic is sending arms and men across its border to aid the rebels seeking the overthrow of pro-Western president Camille Chamoun.

REBEL ON GUARD—A Rebel soldier is shown defending positions in Lebanon, where American Marines have landed.

OTTAWA (CP)—Two Liberals and a CCF member pitched into Commons debate Tuesday to defend three CBC Montreal employees whom a progressive conservative member had described as "leftists."

Mentioned many times in the debate—without specific mention of their positions with the CBC—were Pierre Elliott Trudeau, Gerard Pelletier and Jean-Louis Gagnon.

Louis Joseph Pigeon (PC—Joliette—l'Assomption—Montcalm) said during Commons debate Monday night that Revenue Minister Nowlan, through whom the CBC answers to Parliament, should "house clean" the publicly-owned corporation of left-wing and socialist elements. He then named the three Montreal men.

Guy Rouleau (L—Montreal—Dollard) Tuesday challenged Mr. Pigeon to define what he means by "leftist."

"These are honest people who do their job," he said. There was no need of another royal commission on the CBC.

ATTACKED GOVERNMENT

During the former Liberal administration, Mr. Rouleau said, the Liberal party had been attacked on CBC broadcasts by commentators Andre Laurendeau and Gerard Filion.

"That government never attacked them, nor tried to interfere with them," he said. Perhaps all who criticized the Conservatives now were to be called leftists.

"That Liberal government never tried to show newspaper men to the door, in the fashion of a certain provincial premier," Mr. Rouleau added, Quebec Premier Duplessis two weeks ago ordered a Montreal newspaper man to leave a press conference.

J. P. Deschatelets (L—Montreal—Maisonnette—Rosemont) urged the government to ignore Mr. Pigeon's remarks.

OTTAWA (CP)—The Government plans to seek no new tariff-change proposals in the textile field during the rest of this session of Parliament, Finance Minister Fleming said Tuesday.

He made the statement in the Commons after tabling a Tariff Board report dealing with such materials as rags and waste, and rovings and yarns of wool.

In his June 17 budget Mr. Fleming announced implementation of tariff board recommendations on tariffs against British woollen cloths.

The board also is studying cottons, synthetic textiles, knit goods and fabrics but no reports on these have yet been received.

No Changes In Textile Tariffs Now

Dangerous Game

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP)—The Kenya Soccer Referees' Association Tuesday decided not to serve in African stadiums or at inter-continental, inter-racial matches, after a series of attacks on referees and players. In a match last Saturday, when a Scottish team was beating Sudan six goals, African spectators threw stones injuring a Scottish player and a linesman.

Western Forces On The Move

WASHINGTON (AP)—New units of U.S. Marines headed for the Mediterranean today as United States forces around the world were placed on the alert for possible new emergencies growing out of the grave Middle East situation.

The marines moved out to join the U.S. 6th Fleet as partial replacements for the 5,000-man force ordered into revolt-battered Lebanon Tuesday. A second battalion of 1,800 men started landing in Lebanon early today, to bring the total contingent ashore to 3,600. The rest of the landing force was reported standing by offshore.

The dispatch of more troops to the troubled area came on the heels of President Eisenhower's promise to send more forces if required to help the pro-Western government of Lebanon.

In another development, the U.S. Air Force said transport planes had landed in West Germany to strengthen airlift units in Europe.

The planes could be used to ferry troops or supplies to the Middle East.

These new moves of men and material came as the United States braced itself for a possible counterstroke from Cairo or Moscow over the landing in Lebanon.

President Eisenhower said in a television address Tuesday that American intervention to protect the Lebanese government may have serious consequences.

HAD TO TAKE RISK

But he said the risk had to be taken to save Lebanon from indirect aggression which he blamed on Russia and the United Arab Republic.

Russia already has labelled the U.S. move open aggression.

The Atlantic and Pacific fleets were readied for action under four-hour alert orders. The Strategic Air Command put its units on alert.

Private Funeral

ST. LOUIS (AP)—More than 1,400 bottles of liquor and wine, caught in a warehouse flood recently, will get a private burial because they have been contaminated. "I'd rather not say where we're going to bury it," said Roy Kiergan, a deputy federal marshal. "We want this to be a private funeral without too many mourners."

Further Bulletins

LONDON.—(AP)—Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd announced today he will fly to Washington in a few hours to confer with John Foster Dulles on the critical Middle East situation.

JERUSALEM.—(Reuters)—Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion was reported today to have asked the Western powers for modern weapons.

ANKARA, Turkey.—(Reuters)—The heads of state of Pakistan, Iran and Turkey have urged King Hussein of Jordan to ask for United States military aid to protect the independence of his country.

Ottawa Plans New Farm Program

OTTAWA (CP)—The government is planning a statement in a few days on requested financial assistance for Prairie grain growers.

Trade Minister Churchill said in the Commons Tuesday night he hopes to say "before many more days go by" whether the government will make deficiency payments to Prairie grain farmers.

However, he said that "whether or not deficiency payments will be made, I'm not in a position to say," adding some arguments against deficiency payments.

The government, he said, was thinking of "a comprehensive agriculture program" which would give long-term benefits to farmers throughout the country.

ARGUES

Mr. Churchill was replying to a request by CCF House Leader Hazen Argue for a policy statement on the subject of deficiency payments—a form of subsidy which proponents say is needed to offset inadequate crop returns.

Earlier, Revenue Minister Nowlan, replying to a similar opposition request for a statement on broadcasting policy, said that the government is not planning to change for some time to come its policy of licensing only one television station in any one area.

He spoke just before the Progressive Conservative majority defeated by a vote of 159 to 44 a CCF motion of non-confidence criticizing the government for not announcing its intention to maintain and expand the CBC's radio and TV services.

A Liberal motion of non-confidence asking for a statement of policy on broadcasting, to dispel uncertainties in the industry, then was ruled lost, without a formal vote.

Mr. Nowlan said any change in TV licensing policy will come only after Parliament approves legislation setting up a regulatory board for broadcasting, and after that board is appointed and new regulations laid down.

GET NEW POWERS

The new board would assume regulatory powers now held by the CBC board of governors.

Other developments in the Commons Tuesday:

1. External Affairs Minister Smith said the United States embassy in Lebanon has undertaken to look after 146 Canadians in the Middle East trouble spot "as well as they would look after Americans."

2. Mr. Nowlan tabled the CBC's financial report for 1957-58, showing a deficit of almost $5,000,000—after allowing for depreciation—on an income of $70,567,000 and expenditures of $75,258,000.

Meanwhile, the Senate approved the principle of two bills making extensive changes to acts governing loan and trust companies.

During the debate on broadcasting, which started Monday afternoon, Mr. Nowlan said the time is fast approaching when the government will have to consider a revision of its TV licensing policy.

But no change would come until the new board to regulate broadcasting was set up and had drawn up its regulations. He hoped to introduce the legislation in a few days, but declined to outline what it will contain.

J. W. Pickersgill (L—Bonaville—Twillingate) asked the government to leave the CBC "as independent of the government as is the judiciary."

"We don't want to have a totalitarian type of broadcasting system," he said. "We need one freed by the state, yet controlled by the state to only a degree."

Control should be only "technical matters."

LATE BULLETIN

BEIRUT, Lebanon.—(Reuters)—The leader of the rebels in Beirut, Saeb Salem, announced today he had ordered his men to cease fire against the Lebanese Army.

Salem made his statement 24 hours after American Marines had landed here and after the first night in nine weeks in which not a single shot was fired in Beirut.

Government supporters hailed Salem's attitude as a victory for President Camille Chamoun's policy of bringing in the Marines.

They said it indicated that the opposition now might be willing to seek a political settlement.

Salem's followers and other rebel bands throughout the country have been fighting for Chamoun's resignation as president since May 9.

Second Wave Of US Marines Land

BEIRUT (CP)—A second contingent of 1,800 United States marines landed on the southern outskirts of Beirut today amid steadily mounting tension and rebel advances in the Lebanese capital.

The insurgents seeking to oust pro-Western President Camille Chamoun moved forward about three blocks from behind barricades in Beirut's Moslem quarter, which they have held for two months.

With their rifles at the ready, the rebels at the new advance posts stopped all cars and questioned their occupants. They were reported planning to dig trenches and build new barricades at their forward positions.

It was not known whether the U.S. forces planned to enter the city to bolster Chamoun's troops. The first battalion of 1,800 marines which landed Tuesday quickly took control of Beirut's International Airport five miles south of the city but their commander refused to say what his next mission would be.

Another marine battalion was to move in to bring the total U.S. strength ashore to 5,400 men. That will be more than half the size of the total strength of the Lebanese army.

Elsewhere in the Middle East, British, French and possibly Iraqi forces also were on the move. Baghdad Radio said a loyalist Iraqi army division was marching on Baghdad from Jordan.

An army coup in Baghdad Monday overthrew the monarchy and established a republic, sparking the Lebanon government's decision to call for help in view of the increased threat to its existence.

Show Business

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — There are two ways to combat a studio — the Clint Walker way and the James Garner way.

Both are mad at their employer, Warner Brothers. Both are TV-spawned stars; Walker found fame as Cheyenne, Garner as Maverick. They are hefty, handsome bruisers who feel they are overworked and underpaid.

Walker climaxed his disfavor with the studio by walking out of the Cheyenne series. He announced he was going to sit out the contract and went gold prospecting in northern California. The studio put a new boy, Ty Hardin, into the starring role in the series.

Jim Garner is equally sore at his contract. A columnist reported that Jim was earning $1,500 a week and commented it was peanuts for a TV star of his stature.

SHELL—NOT PEANUT

"If he knew what I was really earning," Garner corrected, "he would think it was the peanut shell."

Yet Garner isn't duplicating the Walker walkout. Far from it. He is well into the new season's product on Maverick. And he's now performing in a feature film Up Periscope.

"As for the contract, I intend to live up to what I signed. I don't intend to tell Clint how to run his business. But as for myself, I signed the contract. It wasn't a good one, but I signed it. If necessary, I will serve out the full five years."

But, he added with the familiar Maverick grin, "I think the studio is stupid not to give me a new one."

FIRST YEAR BUSY

"In my first year at Warners," he cited, "I helped make 65 screen tests, appeared in two features and eight TV shows and did more dialogue recording than I can count. In one picture alone, I was three Mexican voices."

"By the end of this season, I will have made 52 Maverick hours as well as feature pictures. The studio got back my whole year's salary in one picture alone. Now I think that's quite a bit of work for such small change."

Local Residents Say Sputnik III Sighted

By GERALD McDUFF
Russia's Sputnik III blazed across the Eastern Townships skies last night and into the ken of several keen-eyed observers.

The satellite is the largest yet sent up by the USSR and is calculated to be travelling about 130 miles above the earth at a tremendous speed.

Reports last weekend stated that the satellite was crossing the eastern United States. The sputnik was later reported to be travelling towards the Hudson Bay area.

Watchers welcomed royalty into their ranks Sunday as Princess Margaret kept a sharp eye peeled for the sputnik from atop a Victoria, B.C. hotel.

In Sherbrooke, at least six people claimed they saw the satellite gleaming in the night sky. All were in the West Ward at the time.

Leonard Dutil, of 1133 Belvedere St., said he and his wife were visiting his brother, Emile Dutil, at 1355 Bienville St.

"I was looking for the polar star," Mr. Dutil said "while the others were talking. When I saw one star shining more than the others, I told my wife and my brother and then I shouted to the neighbours so they could witness it too."

Mr. Dutil said the Sputnik blinked off and on. He said it took about half a minute to cross.

"An extraordinary coincidence," he added.

Mrs. Dutil said "It was like a star only bigger. It was going fast, fast, fast. We were on the evening the three went for a car ride."

Upon their return, he said they decided to sit on the front gallery and look for the sputnik.

"All of a sudden I saw sputnik. It was blinking on an off. It passed very fast and stayed overhead for about half a minute. It was about 9:20 p.m."

He said it was possible that the satellite ducking in and out of the clouds could have given the "blinking" impression.

Gilles Sauriol, of 1011 Courcellette St., a few streets from Emile Dutil's house, said, he, his wife and a friend, Gerard Martin, were seated on the back gallery.

He admitted that he had heard the satellite was to pass over the district. He said he spotted the sputnik for about two or three minutes.

"It gave me the same impression as a shooting star but it was going up instead of down."

Mrs. Sauriol said she recognized the satellite because it was "round and did not have the kind of points you see when you look at a star."

Just before she saw the object, Mrs. Sauriol said she remarked to her husband "I don't know if we will see it."

She said she looked towards the sky and saw a shooting star flying up instead of down. She pointed it out to her husband.

Sherbrooke residents were not the only ones who had a glimpse of Sputnik III.

Two men from Foster, near Waterloo, are said to have sighted it earlier in the evening. The satellite was headed for Sherbrooke.

Adaption From French Highlight At North Hatley

Dear Charles, by Alan Melville and adapted from Les Enfants d'Edouard, will be the next play at the North Hatley Playhouse.

The four-night run starts tonight at 8:30 p.m.

The play revolves around the frivolous but charming author, Denise Darvel, her three children and a rather scintillating past, "Charles," the imaginary father of the children is remembered vividly in endearing terms. A portrait of him even hangs over the fireplace in the elegant Parisian living-room.

BETTY LEIGHTON

When two of the children are going to marry into the sardine business, however, Denise and the family friend and doctor Edward, decide to divulge the true source of "Charles" and the past life of the authoress.

Before the two families meet, Denise contacts her past life and all three members arrive in response to her invitation. Chaos breaks loose.

Betty Leighton, the fun-filled comedienne of Toronto and Montreal will play Denise. Miss Leighton will be making her third appearance this season as will Norman Etlinger and Chris Wiggins, two "chapters" out of the past. Robert Verniks will be the third member.

Miss Leighton played the same role in a hit production at the Mountain Playhouse last season.

Eric Heath will be cast as Edward and Win Dennis and Kay Fremblay will also take part. Jill Dennis, John Erb and Eric Kosky will appear as the indifferent children and Christine Bone and Ross Heward round out the cast.

Once again the gentle touch of Jean de Savoye will be felt in the direction of this, the third production and the one sophisticated comedy of the season.

Dam Blown
MONTREAL (CP) — The last earth dam at the eastern entrance to the St. Lawrence Seaway was blasted away Tuesday as another step in preparing the new waterway for opening next year.

The man-made dam, erected before locks were built, is a few hundred feet below Jacques Cartier Bridge.

Heavy Specimens
MONTREAL (CP) — Montreal has bought four tortoises to add the weighty dignity of age to the Lafontaine Park children's zoo, the parks department announced Tuesday.

One pair, Hercules and Amazon, bely their names and weigh only 18 and 16 pounds respectively. The other pair, named Avoir and Dupois, weigh 333 pounds and 205 pounds respectively. Avoir is estimated to be 100 years old, and has a life expectancy of another 100.

Importance Of Color To Living Told To Rotarians

The enormous influence of color on everyday activities was pointed out to members of the Sherbrooke Rotary Club at their noon meeting yesterday by Gene Gingras in a classification talk on decorating materials and more specifically, paint.

This was the first meeting to be chaired by the club's new president Ivan Saunders, who succeeded Cyril Pyke after his departure for Saint John, N. B. The president in a short introductory address, requested the cooperation of the members and called to their attention the election on July 29 of a new director and selection of a vice-president.

In his address, Rotarian Gingras said that color influences our choice of food, our feeling of heat and cold, even our conception of weight. It has become an important factor in hospitals and industry where certain choices of color in decoration have been found to have a beneficial effect.

It has taken on increasing importance in every line of production where it has been found that color will determine the volume of sales even to the extent that an inferior product may win out over one of higher quality, he said. In the paint industry, color is all important.

The speaker traced briefly the history of paint and told the sources in every corner of the world from which the raw materials come, and the variety of finishes which are made. He was introduced by Andy Matte, and thanked by Fred Pattison.

A report on the visit of 19 Rotarians to the Crippled Children's Camp at Ayer's Cliff Saturday was given by committee chairman, Doug Racey.

Bert Ross announced that the Club had decided to take on for another year the Foster Parentship of a Polish child and he read letters from the eight-year-old girl and from the Rotary Club in the German town where she lives.

A visit from 33 Air Cadets from Great Britain and the Continent would take place July 29, Cliff Bryant announced, and he requested billets for the boys.

Visiting Rotarians present at the meeting were: J. C. Anspack, Hawkesbury, Ont.; Stanley Osborn, Hartford, Conn.; Lewis Toro, Wayne, Penn.; Harold Bean, Boundary; G. A. MacArthur, Shawinigan; Rene Monty, Boundary. Guests were: Frank Gibb, Toronto; Rev. Tom Everett, New Glasgow, N.S. and E. Denison, Lennoxville.

Local Chamber President To Visit Portland

PORTLAND, Me. — The Portland, Me., Chamber of Commerce will take part in a unique experiment to improve Canadian-American relations July 18-19.

John A. York, president of the Sherbrooke Chamber will spend those days in Portland, Me., one of America's closest cities to Canada.

The Greater Portland Chamber of Commerce, as a follow-up to last week's Eisenhower-Diefenbaker talks, is going to recognize the many years good relations it's had with Canada by inviting Mr. York and representatives of other Canadian Chambers to a round of dinners, tours of that area's beautiful harbor, parties — and just a bit of talk about economic relations between the two countries.

Officials at the Portland Chamber are going to stress informality during the two days which they call "Canadian Friendship Days."

They feel that informality is one of the common traits held by citizens of the United States and Canada. It's a result of frontier living and expansion and has contributed much to the growth of both countries.

The Greater Portland Chamber suggest that other Chambers in the United States, both close to Canada and farther away from it, should set up similar programs for their Canadian friends.

"We hope to set an example that will be followed in many American communities," says Richard H. Pew, chairman of Canadian Friendship Days.

Ex-Sherbrooke Resident Ends Railway Career

For five years connected with the Quebec Central Railway at Sherbrooke, Roy G. Allport, Canadian Pacific Railway engineer, retired from railway service under pension after 47 years of service. His final run, on a diesel was into Smith Falls on June 20.

A native of Smith Falls, the 65 year old railwayman joined the CPR in 1912 as a fireman and was promoted to Engineer in 1918. He worked on the Winchester subdivision line between Smith Falls and Montreal.

In 1941 he was appointed as travelling engineer in a supervisory capacity for eastern lines. In 1944 he was transferred to the Quebec Central Railway with headquarters in Sherbrooke, Que., and returned to Smith Falls in 1949.

Mr. Allport has been active in the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and was local chairman of the Rideau Division 361 which he holds until his retirement. He is a Past Master of St. Francis Lodge AF and AM.

Mr. Allport expects to while away the summertime at his Upper Rideau Lake cottage and contemplates travelling considerably in the future.

Mr. Allport has one son, Dr. Vernon Allport, of Hartford, Conn., three daughters, Mrs. Forrest Davidson, Noreen, Smith Falls, Mrs. Lena Edgerton, Marjorie, Dorset, Vt., and Mrs. Paul Kattick, Charibel, of Arvida, Que., all former residents of Sherbrooke. There are eight grandchildren.

Lesage Undecided On Future Of Quebec Natural Gas Corporation

QUEBEC — Leader Jean Lesage says his Quebec Liberal party would, in power, consider whether the gas-distribution system in the Montreal area should be left to private enterprise or returned to public control.

Mr. Lesage made the statement at a press conference given before launching the second lap of a cross-province speaking tour.

He repeated his demand that Premier Duplessis either set up a royal commission inquiry into the sale of the gas system by Quebec Hydro to the privately-owned Quebec Natural Gas Corporation or call a provincial general election.

KEEP OPEN MIND
Mr. Lesage said he was keeping an open mind on whether the government should repurchase the system because facts of the transaction were lacking. The known facts were "a few fireflies flashing in the deepest night."

The controversy over the sale was started by the Montreal newspaper Le Devoir which in a series of articles said a $20,000,000 stock market coup marked the transaction. The newspaper named seven cabinet ministers, the Quebec lieutenant-governor and Premier Duplessis' private secretary as shareholders in the corporation.

The corporation has said there was nothing irregular in the sale.

Since the articles, Mr. Lesage persistently demanded a royal commission inquiry and started a tour he says is to inform the public of facts the Liberals have learned about the sale.

MONTREAL (CP) — Le Devoir Tuesday received legal notices from two cabinet ministers and the Government leader in the Legislative Council demanding retraction of statements about them in a series of articles on a provincial gas transaction.

The notices were delivered to the newspaper on behalf of Finance Minister Bourque, Roads Minister Talbot and Hon. Edouard Asselin, Government leader in the Legislative Council and chairman of the board of the Quebec Natural Gas Corporation.

Similar notices were received earlier from Premier Duplessis, Lieutenant-Governor Onesime Gagnon, former finance Minister, Labor Minister Barrette and Municipal Affairs Minister Dozois.

On receipt of the notices the newspapers reiterated that "we will retract nothing and we are ready to defend ourselves before the courts."

The legal developments have followed in the wake of the newspaper's series on the sale of Quebec Hydro's Montreal household gas - distributing system to the privately-owned Quebec Natural Gas Corporation.

MONTREAL (CP) — Le Devoir says the driving licence of its veteran political reporter Pierre Laporte has been suspended for three months following his conviction on a charge of driving 40 miles an hour in a 30-mile-an-hour zone.

The newspaper says that every year thousands of motorists plead guilty to driving at 50, 60 and even 70 miles an hour and they simply are fined.

In Mr. Laporte's case, it adds, the action against him was taken under provision of the Quebec Motor Vehicles Act which forces the judge to order a suspension of a driver's licence if he has driven at 10 miles or more an hour above the maximum.

porter could contest the police officer's report of the infraction.

Under the Motor Vehicles Act, the Quebec Minister of Finance may prolong the suspension beyond the date of Oct. 6, 1958, fixed by the court.

Local Troupe Will Play At North Hatley
The Troupe Union Theatre Inc. of Sherbrooke, are scheduled to appear at the North Hatley Playhouse in early September, for a three day engagement. They will present "Bon Appetit" a three act comedy written by Gilbert Laporte.

The amateur group, under the direction of Lionel Racine, won many honors in Three Rivers and Edmonton during the Dominion Drama Festival two years ago.

Dates for the coming French play will either be Sept. 3, 4, and 6 or Sept. 10, 11 and 13. The exact dates will be released later this month.

Sherbrooke businessmen are to finance and sell tickets for the play.

Some of the members of the group appearing in the play are: Andre Breton, Andre Emmond, Raymond Breton, Janine Couture, Lise Dube, Edouard Grenier, Gaetan Dion and Jocelyne Morin.

FINED AT SWEETSBURG
SWEETSBURG. — A Sherbrooke man appeared in Court of Sessions here yesterday and pleaded guilty to a charge of impaired driving while going through Sweetburg.

The accused was fined $50 and court costs and had his driving permit suspended for three months.

Ontario Invasion Underway

TORONTO (CP) — A friendly invasion of Ontario will be launched Thursday when 150 high schools students from Quebec arrive for the second half of month-long exchange visits among boys and girls from the two provinces.

Known as intercommunity visits, the exchange is a joint project of the Canadian Council of Christians and Jews and Visites Interprovinciales. Since July 2, 150 English-speaking Ontario students have been visiting French-speaking families in nine Quebec cities.

The Ontario students, from nine cities in this province, will return home Thursday, bringing with them 150 boys and girls from the families with whom they have lived for the last two weeks. The Quebec students will stay for two weeks in Ontario homes. In both groups girls outnumber boys by about four to one.

The exchange helps young Canadians of the two language groups to get to know one another better and learn the other's language.

CITIES ARE TWINNED
Cities twinned in this year's exchange are: Oshawa and Rimouski, Hamilton and Shawinigan Falls, St. Catharines and Trois-Rivieres, Welland and Sorel, Niagara Falls and Jonquieres, Brantford and Chicoutimi, Windsor and Granby, Sarnia and Riviere du Loup, London and Quebec.

Qualifications for the exchange are at least two years of French or English study.

Their ages range from 14 to 18, average age is 15.

Efforts are made to pair students with families of similar occupations and interests. Doctors' sons or daughter, for example, are placed with doctors' families.

Quebec families were urged to speak only French with their visitors and in Ontario the Quebec students will be expected to speak English exclusively.

Death Removes Noted Novelist, Fishery Expert
MONTREAL (CP) — Capt. Frederick William Wallace, 71, noted Canadian novelist, historian, editor and commercial fisheries authority, died in hospital Tuesday after an illness of several months.

He was founder and for many years until retirement, editor of the trade publication Canadian Fisherman published by National Business Publications Limited of Gardenvale, Que., of which he was a vice-president and director.

Nature of his illness was not disclosed.

Born in Glasgow and a resident of nearby Ste. Anne de Bellevue, Que., Captain Wallace came to Canada as a youngster and soon established himself as writer and authority on Canadian shipping and commercial fisheries.

WAS FOUNDER
One of the founders and past president of the Canadian Fisheries Association, he was honorary president of its successor organization, the Fisheries Council of Canada. He also had been executive vice-president of the U.S. Fisheries Association.

As a marine historian, Captain Wallace specialized in compiling what have since become standard reference works of shipbuilding in the Maritime provinces, recordings of the era when Canadian sailing vessels were noted around the world for their speed and grace.

The works included: Wooden Ships and Iron Men, In the Wake of the Windships, Record of Canadian Shipping and Under Sail in the Last of the Clippers.

Help For The West's Friends

The landing of American Marines at the request of the Lebanese government has committed the West to a firm policy of support for its friends in the Middle East. Whether that action has come too late to do any good remains to be seen. The United States has acted with the support of its allies and in accordance with the charter of the United Nations which permits collective self-defense among members.

The Lebanese charge of "massive intervention" by President Nasser's United Arab Republic has now been put on the agenda of the UN security council. And the Soviet Union's unsuccessful effort to oust the representative of the overthrown Iraq regime from the council leaves no doubt as to the stand the Russians will take.

These fast-breaking developments have taken the world largely by surprise and it is to be hoped now that the action will center on the United Nations Security Council, allowing time for Middle East tension to ease. By taking its action in Lebanon directly to the UN, the United States has acted wisely. It has offered to withdraw its own troops from Lebanon as soon as the international body takes action to stabilize the situation.

Nasser and his supporters, including apparently the Soviets, may be expected to label the American action "imperialism" and a Soviet veto of any effective action by the UN is likely. The Americans could count on wide support in the General Assembly, however, where no veto is possible.

Reports of atrocities committed by the revolutionary forces in Iraq, including the hanging of Crown Prince Abdul Ilah, conflicting reports of the killing of former Premier Nuri Said and the slaying of former Iraqi foreign minister Radhil Jamali, have caused a wave of revulsion throughout the free world. Such tactics will do as much as anything else to create feelings of suspicion and antipathy toward the pro-Nasser forces.

In the circumstances, the Americans were faced with a choice between bold intervention to help the West's few remaining friends in the Middle East and abandonment of the entire area to Nasser, and perhaps ultimately, to Russia. The best that can be hoped for now is a stalemate to give the West time to rebuild its shattered Middle East policy.

Bold Plan For Development

The bold refinancing program announced by the federal government this week will serve not only to make Canada's national debt more manageable but also to clear away the uncertainty which has been overhanging the bond market in recent weeks. For the estimated 2,000,000 holders of bonds of the fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth victory loans, the move offers a chance for reinvestment at substantially better terms, including a cash bonus.

The bond market is a complex affair little understood by the ordinary small investor. It is a market in which experts operate and where the jargon of the trade creates a barrier to those without the interest or inclination to sit down and study its operation. Nevertheless, the bond market is important in its effects on the economy, effects which reach ultimately into the pocketbooks of everyone.

In the simplest terms, the government hopes by this move to clear the financial decks for future expansion of the Canadian economy. If the conversion issue is a success, and this depends on the co-operation of victory bond holders, not only private investment but borrowing by all levels of government will be made easier. This will make possible a greater Canadian development than would otherwise have been possible.

More Information Needed

Sherbrooke ratepayers will be entitled to answers to a number of questions before they are asked to give their approval to the by-law calling for an expenditure of $780,000 on improving parking facilities in the centre of the city.

The first question is: How is the proposed expenditure divided between land purchases and actual construction work?

Others include: What are the probable expenditures and revenues from the two projects and what revenue will be available for the debt charges estimated at $50,000 annually? How many parking spaces will be actually available? Why does the by-law call for a 30-year period for bond maturity instead of the customary 20 years, especially as the buildings are of a special type which may well become obsolete within a short period?

And most important: Why do the aldermen insist upon presenting the two projects in a single by-law?

Little or no opposition appears forthcoming to the proposal for a two-storey garage at the Meadow street site but sharp disagreement exists among the merchants most directly concerned over the location of the Wellington street south lot. This dispute is so sharp that the aldermen appear ready to commit themselves to a third project in the hopes of appeasing certain elements who dislike the original plan.

In all probability the proprietors, convinced of the need of increased parking facilities, are prepared to give their approval to the by-law without the formality of a referendum, but it is more likely that strong opposition will be forthcoming to the combined projects unless the aldermen give the electorate complete information on the various aspects of the situation.

THEN AND NOW

(Vancouver Province)
A Canadian economist, looking back into our history, says modern Canadians are rabid free spenders compared to their ancestors.

Each one of us spends about three times as much as Grandpa did. We have better food, dozens more gadgets, autos instead of horse-and-buggies, expensive air-conditioned dwellings; we're not so afraid of going into debt.

But we have mass production, and Grandpa had to root-hog-or-die pretty well on his own. We have unemployment insurance, baby bonuses, and many other cushions against poverty. Our grandparents had the bogey of hardship staring them in the face all the time, and knew that if they didn't hang on to their cash when they got it, hard times would flatten them sooner or later.

Canada has about 30 times the production of 80 years ago and even though the population has increased five times this means there is a great deal more wealth to share. It's a case of more to spend and more to spend it on coupled with less fear of a pauper's fate that hovered over Grandpa. Then, too, there is the business of keeping up with one's neighbors.

We couldn't, like Grandpa, get away with wearing shoes only on Sunday and barging around in homespuns. A man's got to have an automobile, a TV, and an electrical kitchen to face the world these days.

BARE BONES OF IT

(Hamilton Spectator)
Tucked away in one of Charles Dickens' lesser known works is the story of a young barrister who took a chamber in an ancient building and waited for briefs that never came. After a long time the caretaker remembered him and wondered what could have happened to him, went to the chamber, pushed open the door and the young man's skeleton, which had been leaning against it, fell to the floor.

This grisly recollection came to us the other day when we saw an advertisement in a glossy magazine which invited us to send for a skeleton model, "fully articulated and applauded by doctors." We did not find it difficult to refuse this invitation. We are not among those for whom skeletons — particularly those which are articulated and therefore capable of dancing — can produce "grave-yard-at-midnight" emotions or even a more commonplace wonder at the infinite ingenuity of the human frame.

These skeletons, which are "one-sixth the size of a six-foot man," have other and more playful uses than study of the human bone structure. They can become, by weird paradox, the life and soul of the party; the rattling of the plastic bones and the traditionally grinning jaws being expected, in this age of Karloff and Hitchcock, to be the inspiration for macabre conversation.

What is more, we are assured they make good car ornaments, companions, no doubt, for the dancing dolls which partially obscure rear-windows and add to the hazards of driving. When it comes to this, skeletons leave us cold... not with fear, but with indifference.

Important To Labor

Divergent Views On Recession

By FRED CHAFE
HAMILTON (CP) — A wage battle likely to have a major impact on Canadian labor and industry is being fought here against a background of sharply divergent viewpoints on the business recession, its cause and cure.

An Ontario conciliation board has completed hearings in a contract dispute between the Steel Company of Canada, the country's biggest producer of basic iron and steel with more than 40 per cent of Canadian output, and the United Steelworkers of America (CLC), the union representing about 7,500 employees at the Hamilton works.

No developments are likely until the board's report is released by Labor Minister Charles Daley. It will not be binding on the disputants and either side is free to take action seven days after it is released. The union executive has not asked for a strike vote. The board's task is formidable. Rarely have parties to a labor dispute been farther apart.

The union wants a settlement in line with what it received two years ago—a package deal of about 33 cents an hour, including an unspecified general wage increase. It contends its demands are justified on the grounds of increased production by workers and higher company prices and profits, and that increased consumer spending power is needed to stem the business recession.

Stelco counters with a firm hold-the-line policy on wages, on grounds that its employees are already the best paid in Canadian industry, that a steel price rise would follow an increase in employment cost, and that the recession follows less from lack of consumer purchasing power than from public reaction to inflated prices of the last few years.

The company offers only to negotiate some improvements to the group insurance plan on condition the union withdraws its other demands.

Stelco last year had sales of $275,000,000, a tax bill of $21,000,000, employment costs of $76,000,000 for its 14,500 workers, and a net profit of $21,000,000. It produced more than 1,500 products from steel plates to tanks and sold them to more than 5,000 customers.

"Since steel enters into the production of virtually everything used by modern society at all levels," the company told the conciliation board, "the effect of a further wage-price spiral in the steel industry would be all-pervasive and highly inflationary. In a very real sense, therefore, the secondary industries of Canada, together with all other Canadians, are looking over our shoulders in these proceedings."

Under the contract that terminated last March 31, the minimum rate at Stelco's Hamilton works was $1.73½ an hour. There is an increment of 3½ cents between each of the 26 job classes under a classification system established in 1933. A first-class machinist receives $2.56.

The company estimates that average hourly earnings at the plant for the first quarter of this year were $2.30, including overtime (time and a half) and shift premiums (seven cents for afternoon shift, nine cents for evening).

Adding statutory holiday pay (2½ times normal pay), vacations, a pension plan paid for by Stelco and group insurance, the average hourly earnings for the same period were $2.56, the company says.

The present vacation setup provides one week after a year's service, two weeks after three years and three weeks after 15 years.

The group insurance plan provides $2,500 life insurance for men employees and $1,000 for women continuing after the age of 65 without cost to employees. There is a $9 daily benefit for hospital charges up to 70 days for employees and dependents and $180 for miscellaneous hospital charges. Surgical benefits go up to $300, medical benefits $2 per call in hospital only with a maximum of $140. There is a $30 weekly indemnity for employees only, up to 26 weeks, starting from the eighth day of sickness or the first day of accident.

The pension plan, covered by an agreement expiring in 1961, requires 20 years' service for eligibility and is based on $3 a month multiplied by years of service, with $60 minimum and $110 maximum.

The Steelworkers' 33-cent package proposal is based on an unspecified general wage increase and a boost in the 3½-cent increment between job classes to the prevailing industry rate, which the union says now is 6.2 cents and will be 6.7 cents by the time a settlement is signed.

The rest of the package would be made up of some of these proposals: Supplementary unemployment benefits which, in combination with unemployment insurance, would give a qualified laid-off employee up to 65 per cent of his normal take-home pay; Three days off with pay in case of death in a worker's immediate family.

A ninth paid statutory holiday (there now are eight); Two weeks' vacation after one year of service, three after 10 and four after 25; An extended leave plan providing a paid leave after each five years' of service, ranging from four weeks after the first five to 20 weeks after the 25th year.

Jacoby On Bridge

WEST GREEDY; CARELESS TOO

There were two things wrong with South's two no-trump response. The first was that he only held 12 points; the second that he had no stopper in spades.

West opened the king of spades. East played the six to signal come on and West obliged with the seven. Two more spade leads finished with that suit and West was back in the lead.

Meanwhile, South had been doing some deceptive discarding. He let two diamonds go from dummy and a heart from his own hand. This wasn't much deception and shouldn't have done him any good. Even though the defenders failed to take the heart ace right away South would have to play one heart himself some time.

Actually, most West players would take the ace of hearts immediately after cashing the fourth spade, but this West was both greedy and careless.

It just never occurred to him that South would show up with a five-card diamond suit and West decided he might beat the hand two tricks. So West led his jack of clubs. South decided against a false card and won with the queen.

Now South led his one remaining heart and good old West ducked. South won in dummy; cashed dummy's ace of clubs and the rest of the tricks.

production per man-hour increased 85.6 per cent from 1946 to 1956, while real earnings of production workers increased only 55.3 per cent."

The union also contends that much of Stelco's big post-war expansion has been at the expense of labor and the consumer.

The company has spent about $221,000,000 since 1948 to raise its present steel-making capacity by 1,240,000 tons. Its production last year was 2,178,215 net tons, or 92.6 per cent of capacity. It has been operating at 90 per cent of capacity for the first quarter of 1958.

"The union does not complain that the industry has grown too quickly," the Steelworkers told the conciliation board. "The complaint rather is that labor, the consumer, and the taxpayer—and steelworkers are also consumers and taxpayers—have had to finance too large a share of that rapid growth. A much larger share of the investment funds should have been raised in the capital markets, according to the ways in which a free enterprise system is supposed to work."

"If the industry, and Stelco in particular, had not been quite so persistent and forceful in financing its tremendous expansion by high profits and quick write-offs, it could have paid higher wages and charged lower profits, and still had a reasonable return to capital."

"Considering the substantial expansion that has already taken place, and the big gains that have been made in productivity, Stelco has never been in a better position than it is now to make a significant contribution to the stimulation of consumer spending, by raising wages and cutting prices; and never since before the war has the need been more urgent."

U.S. ENVOY TELLS RUSSIANS

(Toronto Telegram)

The Soviet ambassador to the United States has been given the privilege on certain occasions to televise an address to the American people, and whoever he is at the time generally takes the opportunity to spout some typical Soviet propaganda. For that reason, Ambassador Menshikov, who has spoken to the American people on several occasions may have been instrumental in persuading his masters in Moscow to permit U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson to give an address to the Russian people on Independence Day; the first time an American has been allowed to do so. Mr. Thompson took full advantage of his chance, albeit he refrained as far as possible from offending Soviet susceptibilities.

For 15 minutes Thompson made a sensible appeal to the Russian people, a plea for a free exchange of information so that one of the primary obstacles to understanding could be removed. He also advocated a greater interchange of tourists and the lifting of restrictions on travel where they are now imposed.

In one pertinent paragraph Thompson, who spoke in Russian, said:

"Any number of disagreements and misunderstandings arise between countries because the peoples of governments of the world are ill-informed about events in each other's country."

Relatively speaking there are not many television sets in Russia, but a great many radios, and fortunately the address was also broadcast by that method. The Russian people have been given distorted ideas about the United States and about other non-Communist countries, the United States in particular being represented as a sub-economic nation, and the tools of capitalist warmongers.

Ambassador Thompson's message should make the masses do a bit of thinking. They must note that the American ambassador seeks freedom of travel and information. The speech may start the Russians thinking for themselves. Eventually it may move their government to relax its restrictions, not only on news coming into Russia but on news coming out so that both countries better understand what the other is like in fact instead of in the colored and distorted views so frequently promulgated.

GOODNESS ADMIRER

(War Cry)

It is not true to say that newspapers always like to emphasize the sensational and the shocking. Many of them are glad to seize on anything that savours of real sacrifice and genuine goodwill.

There were many editorial-written about the case printed below, and the following culled from the Toronto Telegram, is a good sample:

While Mrs. Carmela Pasu was enroute from Italy with her two young children, her husband, whom she hoped to join in Oakville, was killed in a fall from a railroad trestle. Because her friends knew she had a heart condition, they decided to spare her the shock of the news until she arrived.

And then the big heart of the Oakville people went to work. Within two weeks they had raised a fund of $14,000 for Mrs. Pasu and her family. This story has been told in the news columns; we are proud to tell it here again.

Winning Journalists Named

OTTAWA. — (CP) — The winning of $1,000 Bowater awards in journalism by Jack Scott, columnist and feature writer of the Vancouver Sun, and Michael Barkway, Ottawa correspondent for The Financial Post, was announced Tuesday.

The awards, for outstanding material published in Canadian newspapers last year, are made for articles or editorials with a social or cultural theme and for reports on economic and business developments.

This is the third year for the awards, and for the first time certificates of merit were given for runners-up.

The certificates will go to Muriel Snider of the Toronto Globe and Mail for her series on the future of coal, and to Gordon Donaldson, Toronto Telegram, and Leslie Wilson, Financial Post, who tied for second in the social field.

Judging panels were headed by Professor Donald Creighton, University of Toronto, in the social and cultural field, and Chief Justice J. L. Isley of Nova Scotia in the economic and business field.

Personal Item

LONDON (CP) — The Daily Herald says one highly personal item that Princess Margaret is carrying with her on her tour of Canada is a portrait of Group Captain Peter Townsend. The Herald says hotel gardener Arthur Saunders saw the portrait beside the princess' bed while he was putting flowers in her hotel bedroom in Victoria.

UN YOUTH DELEGATION — Members of the United Nations Youth Pilgrimage, sponsored by the Oddfellows and Rebekahs, from the central western states and prairie provinces, are shown with their hosts during their brief stop at Rock Island.

PM, Fleming Aid Bond Campaign

OTTAWA. — Prime Minister Diefenbaker and Finance Minister Fleming make a sales pitch to some 10,000 salesmen today over a cross-country, closed-circuit television network to rally them behind the government's bond-refinancing campaign.

The Bank of Canada, which announced the hour-long program Tuesday, calls it "the largest closed-circuit TV sales meeting ever staged anywhere in the world."

The salesmen — from bond houses, banks and trust and loan companies — will meet in TV studios or hotel halls in 37 cities from coast to coast to watch the program beginning at 1 p.m. A.D.T.

ROCK ISLAND — Tomifobia Odd Fellow and Crystal Rebekah lodges were host and hostess for a group of young people on a tour, on Friday evening at the West Park Odd Fellows hall.

The group, the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs United Nations Pilgrimage for youth, of 25 girls and eleven boys, all of the age of 16 and 17 years, with their chaperones, Director N. A. Chomik, of Edmonton, Alta., Mrs. Laura Lyons, vice-chairman of Manitoba jurisdiction joint youth committee, from Miami, Man., and Mrs. Charles Winkler, Council Idaho, leader of the Idaho delegation and Associate leader as well as the Greyhound bus operator, Ira D. Day of Billings, Montana, left Billings on July 4. The trip will be completed on July 27, and will have covered 5106 miles.

The travellers are from States of Idaho and Montana, and Provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba. The tour traveled east and at each overnight stop the group are guests of the local lodges. The tours are arranged by the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and are paid for by donations of lodges across Canada and the United States. The youth are chosen on general proficiency and citizenship in their school and community.

After leaving the Canadian West the group came to Ottawa and were given a conducted tour of the Parliament buildings, later being received by Prime Minister John Diefenbaker. They then travelled to Cornwall, Ont., and followed the St. Lawrence seaway down to Montreal. The trip from Montreal to historic Quebec was made aboard a ship, the bus meeting them at Quebec. This trip was a highlight of the tour for many. From Quebec they came down to the Eastern Townships and were overnight guests at the Del Monty and Mr. Day at Kelleys.

The group were met at the bus by Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, Henry Brock, Curtis Clifford, John Clifford, Richard Middleton and Mrs. Middleton, Bill Brock and Ivan Catchpaw. Later, all assembled at the West Park hall. The tour is an organized one with a president, secretary and committee heads. At the hall a business meeting was conducted by president, Bert Hunter, with several chairmen of committees giving reports and planning for the days ahead. The remainder of the evening was spent dancing, and refreshments were served in the lower hall by those who met the bus and Mrs. Hattie Eryou, Mrs. Eulalie Goodsell, Mrs. James Webb and Mrs. Herbert Chamberlain.

The group was welcomed by Richard Middleton, the lodges were thanked for their hospitality by Vivian Darrock. Each guest gave his or her name and the name of their home town and State or Province.

Saturday morning, the group left about 8:30 a.m. going into the scenic States of Vermont, New Hampshire and New York where in the city of New York they will remain this week as guests of the United Nations. Next week they leave for Washington, D.C., where they will be received by the President, Dwight Eisenhower at the White House. Then on to other States of Ohio, Virginia and to Billings, Mo.

While this tour is taking place, another group under the same arrangement is touring the Canadian and American West and includes five youths of the Eastern Townships.

clear-armed bomber forces in a heightened state of readiness. Eisenhower said he hoped the action taken so far will be sufficient to support the government of Lebanon and that nation's independence.

"We hope that this result will quickly be attained and that our forces can be promptly withdrawn. We must, however, be prepared to meet the situation, whatever be the consequences."

ACTION WAS VITAL In a political sense, administration officials reported that Eisenhower and his advisers considered the decision to go into Lebanon vital for several reasons.

The first of these was that Lebanon's government has long been supported by the West. If it were allowed to fall, Western prestige would suffer a destructive blow and other nations which rely on promises of Western support would lose confidence, officials said.

Another reason was the stunning success of the lightning revolt in Iraq. Had the Washington government not responded forcefully to this challenge, in the administration's view, Jordan and Lebanon might have come under the domination of Nasser and even Saudi Arabia might have been jeopardized.

Such a result would have put the area's oil supplies and transportation facilities into the hands of the United Arab Republic, with its close ties with Moscow, and further endangered the great east-west transportation routes which go through the area.

BEARDS OUT VERNON, Conn. — Town fathers have cancelled a beard-growing contest planned for the community's forthcoming 150th anniversary celebration. Too many men said their employers threatened to fire them if they grew whiskers.

Winter Jobs Action Is Promised

OTTAWA. — A national conference on winter employment has come up with the suggestion, among others, that the federal government spend more money to create conditions that will provide more winter work.

As the two-day conference ended Tuesday, Labor Minister Starr promised quick federal action on "feasible" suggestions emerging from the sessions of representatives from business, industry, labor and all levels of government.

Some who attended the conference thought it had not achieved much.

Angelo Forte, vice-president of the Canadian and Catholic Confederation of Labor, said the recommendations were almost the same as those made in previous years, and they had proved ineffective.

Camera Men Locked In 'Black Hole'

VICTORIA (CP) — Photographers covering an international fleet review from HMCS Crescent today said they were locked in a "black hole of Calcutta" for the 3½-hour voyage.

"I have never been insulted like that in my life, said Vancouver Province photographer Eric Cable. "My dog is treated better."

Victoria Colonist photographer Jim Ryan said: "I had nine years in the Canadian Navy, most of them as a photographer. I travelled all over with the Duke of Edinburgh as pool photographer for B.C. I covered the visit of Princess Elizabeth, and never have I seen treatment like this."

The 13 photographers, from Britain, the United States and Canada, boarded the Crescent at about 1:30 p.m., before Princess Margaret arrived, and were escorted below decks.

They were asked to leave their cameras and other equipment in a handling room and were then locked in the chief petty officer's mess.

The air was "foul" because a porthole couldn't be opened and a fan only stirred up the same air, said Mr. Cable.

Only refreshment during the trip, which lasted until 5 p.m., was a jug of cold water and four "dirty" glasses which had to serve all 13 men.

When the ship reached a break-water, the photographers were allowed on deck for three minutes to obtain posed shots of the princess looking through binoculars.

Two burly sailors "stood guard like beefeaters" to see the photographers did not leave their "hole," Mr. Cable said.

When the Crescent came to the review area, the photographers were told they would be allowed upstairs to another deck for three minutes, three at a time.

Govt. Issues Adjust Quickly TORONTO. — Government of Canada victory-loan issues Tuesday quickly adjusted themselves to the situation created by the government's refinancing plan.

Bonds of all five issues, which had been selling mostly below par, rose to around par, plus the value of the bonus which will be paid for exchanging them for the new securities.

The huge refinancing of $6,416,000,000—the total of the five issues—is primarily a matter of exchanging old securities for new, and so does not in itself create major market activity.

Delicate Blow

STEVENAGE, Eng. (Reuters) Doctors watched anxiously Tuesday as 52-year-old Henry Kingsland took out a handkerchief and cautiously blew his nose. His eye did not pop out. Kingsland smiled and said: "It's a bit painful but not so bad." For two weeks he had not dared blow his nose. Since he fell off his bicycle and bumped his nose, he blew it and his left eye ballooned. He had cracked a tiny bone at the top of his nose which was blocking the nostril and deflecting air into his eye.

WATERHOUSE — I wish to thank all my relatives and friends who remembered me with cards, letters and flowers or visited me during my stay in the Hospital. A special thanks to Dr. Kling, Dr. McDonald and Dr. Smart, the nurses and nurses' aides on the 2nd floor. I also want especially to thank Mrs. Elwin Dewing and Mrs. Ted Dewing for getting up the lovely Sunshine Box that I received on my birthday. A special thanks to all who contributed to it in any way, and to the "Birchton Helping Hand" for their gift, and to all who sent me "get well" cards while I have been sick at my parents' home before going into the Hospital. Your kindness will always be remembered. MRS. JAMES WATERHOUSE, Birchton, Que.

OBITUARIES

OF BARRE, VT.

BARRE VT. — Funeral services for John Murray, of 1 Granite St. Ext., were held Tuesday afternoon, July 1st, at 2 o'clock from the Hooker Funeral Home. Rev. T. Murdock Hall, minister of the First Presbyterian Church, officiated. Burial was in the family lot in Wilson Cemetery.

Mr. Murray, who died suddenly Saturday morning, June 28, at Barre City Hospital, was born in Stornoway, Lewis, Scotland, February 18, 1885, the oldest of eight children born to Donald and Christina (Murray) Murray. He was educated in the public schools of his native town and studied an advanced course in business for three years at Nicholson High in Stornoway.

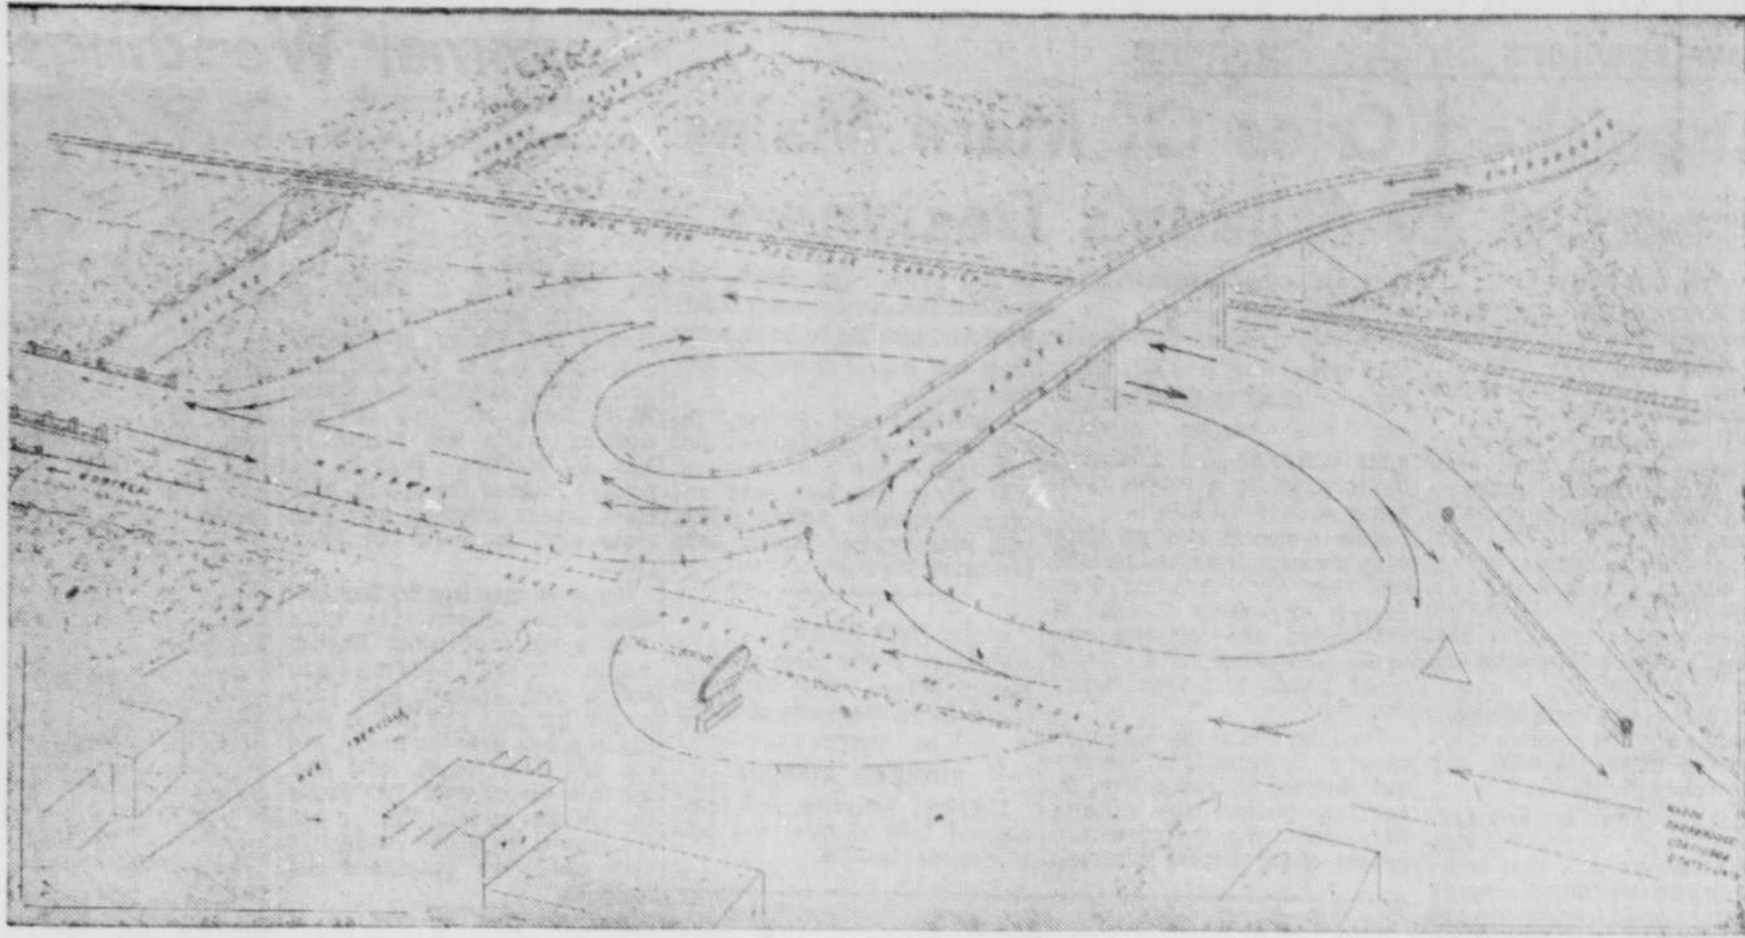

He came to the United States in May, 1913, and made his home with his parents in Granville, Vt. He was employed for two years at the Boutwell, Milne and Varnum quarry, going in 1915 to Hartford, Conn., where he was an inspector in a munitions works. The following year he was transferred to East Springfield, where he was an inspector for the Westinghouse Co.

Mr. Murray joined Co. C, 1st Vermont Infantry, June 4, 1917, later transferring to the 102nd Infantry, 26th Division, at New Haven. He served overseas from September, 1917, until his discharge in April, 1919, with the rank of sergeant. Mr. Murray saw action in France and was the recipient of the Purple Heart decoration, as well as other citations.

Returning to Granville, he was employed at the Jones Bros. quarry from 1919 to 1925, when he joined the Prudential Insurance Co., staff in Barre. During World War II, he was a member of the C.C.C., being employed at Fort Ethan Allen and then in Panama, where he was chief foreman on several construction jobs. At the conclusion of the war, he returned to construction work. More recently he has been a member of the Barre Cemeteries and Parks Department. He was also employed for a time by Cook, Watkins and Patch Co.

His marriage to Lena Marshall took place October 11, 1928, in Granville. His wife survives, as do their two sons, Stewart John and Douglas Marshall Murray, both at home; seven brothers and sisters, Katherine, Mrs. Emmons Lombard, Barre, Margaret, Mrs. Fred McAuley, Williams-town, Mrs. Christine Cerasoli, Barre, John Murray, Randolph, Norman Murray and Mary, Mrs. Gerald Walker, both of Barre, and Angus Murray, Randolph Center; also many nieces and nephews.

MAGOG PROPOSAL FOR SOLUTION TO NEW HIGHWAY ROUTE — Members of Magog Council will meet with Hon. Antonio Talbot, Minister of Roads, this week to discuss the construction of the new highway to be built bypassing Magog. Mr. Denis Gerin, MPP member for Stanstead County assured Magog officials earlier that no definite decision regarding the route will be made until the city's petition has been heard. Magog planners have offered a suggestion whereby the roadway will be built within Magog city limits. Government surveyors have put the route some two miles away. The diagram above is the suggested west-end traffic circle that would channel traffic in and out of Magog should the Magog proposal be adopted.

gion, the deceased received his 35 year pin years ago. He was also a member of the Barre-Montpelier DAV unit, the Yankee Division and the First Presbyterian Church. In lieu of flowers, the family requested that contributions be made to the Memorial Fund of the First Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Murray had many friends and relatives in the Eastern Townships. Among those from Scottstown who attended the funeral were, Mrs. Mamie MacLeod, Mrs. Kenneth Smith, Mr. John M. Morrison, Murdo A. Morrison and John C. Morrison.

A high Mass was sung by Father Breton. The bearers were four sons-in-law, Ken McLeod, Ray Thibodeau, Lloyd Pehlemann, Don Pankovitch, and two nephews Roy Grant and Leo Tracy. Interment took place in the Bury Cemetery.

Relatives and friends from Timmins, Ont., Burlington, Vt., Sherbrooke, Farnham, Sutton, Danville, Montreal, Asbestos and Scottstown attended the service.

MRS. MARIE EMMA SMITH, OF COATICOOK

COATICOOK—The sudden death of Marie Emma Smith occurred at the Ste. Catherine de Labour Hospital, Coaticook, on June 29, 1958, after a brief illness, although she had been in failing health for several years.

Mrs. Smith was born in South Durham, January 5, 1883, the eldest daughter of a family of eleven children of the late John Hudson and his wife, the late Philomene Cote, of South Durham. They later moved to Coaticook, where they lived the remainder of their life.

On June 16, 1903, she was united in marriage to Edward R. Smith, son of the late James H. Smith and his wife, the late Mary Anne Wright, also of Coaticook. Of this union two children were born. A daughter, Alice Myrtle, Mrs. Stanley Jordan, of Way's Mills, and a son, James Henry Smith, of Coaticook. Mr. Smith predeceased her on July 20, 1962.

Besides her two children, Mrs. Smith leaves to mourn her loss, five brothers, one sister, three grandchildren and several nephews and nieces.

The funeral service was held in the Coaticook Baptist Church, July 2, with Rev. W. A. White officiating, assisted by Mr. Jenkins. Favorite hymns of the deceased, "In the Garden" and "The 23rd Psalm," were rendered by Miss Jean Donaldson, organist.

Bearers were Harry Baldwin, John Brennan, Gordon Drew, Arthur McDonald, Joseph Cloutier and William Nicholson. Funeral arrangements were under the direction of Mr. Leonard Akhurst, of the J. K. Knapp Funeral Home.

Interment took place in the family lot in the Coaticook Mount Forest Cemetery.

Those from out of town who attended the funeral were from Boston, Mass., South Paris Me., Rock Island, Magog and North Hatley.

MRS. IRVING HAINES, OF WHITBY, ONT.
(Formerly of Hatley)

HATLEY — It was with sadness relatives and friends in the Eastern Townships learned of the death of Mrs. Irving Haines, of Whitby, Ont., at the Oshawa General Hospital on Thursday, July 3rd.

The remains were brought to Stanstead, where they rested at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Colt, and where numerous friends called to offer sympathy to the family.

The funeral, held on Monday, July 7th, at two o'clock at the Hatley United Church, was largely attended by the family, relatives and friends. Rev. A. G. MacLeod officiated. Organ medleys of favorite hymns were played before and after the service. Bearers were Thomas Ride, James Pidduck, Rodney Bowen, Archie Moulton, Wallace Gemmell, and Kenneth Little.

Interment took place in the United Church Cemetery.

Born at Hatley on July 6th, 1902, Ida was a daughter in a family of eight children of Ephraim and Myra (Bowen) Hodges. After receiving her education, she taught school before her marriage to Irving Haines, of Hatley, on September 9, 1925. To this union were born six children, Joyce, Mrs. L. Kingsley, Ottawa, Donald, just returned home from three year's airforce service in France, Robert, of Unionville, Ont., Freeman, of Vancouver, B.C., Walter, of Whitby, Ont., and Shirley, of Toronto, Ont.

Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Haines resided in Cookshire, then returned to Hatley. For six years Mrs. Haines kept the home fires while her husband was overseas on active service with the army during the Second World War. In 1945, following his discharge, the family went to Ontario where they have since resided.

Mrs. Haines has been in failing health the past year. The high respect in which she was held was shown by the 22 beautiful floral pieces.

Mrs. Haines is survived by her husband and six children, a son in law, and three daughters-in-law and nine grandchildren; three sisters, Carrie, Mrs. Fay Young, of Lyndonville, Vt., who was unable to attend the funeral because of illness, Evelyn, Mrs. Gerald Colt and Mrs. Flora Wilson, both of Stanstead; also nieces and nephews and more distant relatives.

Attending the funeral were Mr. Haines and five children, Mr. Fay Young, Lyndonville; Mr. Larry Wilson, Montreal, and a host of other relatives and friends from many points of the Townships. Mr. Freeman Haines was unable to be present.

ARCHIE SAGER, OF STANBRIDGE EAST

STANBRIDGE EAST — The death of Archie Sager occurred very suddenly on Sunday morning, June 29, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baker. Mr. Sager, who had been in poor health for some time, was in his 74th year.

Born at Pigeon Hill, he was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Sager. In 1913 Mr. Sager married Glenna Corey, four children being born of this union, one of whom predeceased him.

Surviving are his wife and three daughters, Mrs. Cooke, Jean, Mrs. T. Baker, Elizabeth, and Mrs. Stanley Soule, Carol; three sons-in-law; a sister, Mrs. Maude Douglas, of Morrisville, Vt.; a sister-in-law, Mrs. F. Sager, of Pigeon Hill; nephews, nieces and other relatives.

The deceased had lived in this section the greater part of his life, where he was a prominent farmer, active in agricultural and municipal affairs and also in the Missisquoi County Exhibition.

The funeral was held in the Stanbridge Ridge Stone Chapel, Rev. H. J. A. Reynolds officiating. Bearers were F. Corey, Carl Vaughan, N. Baker, B. Callaghan, Clifford Vaughan and G. Hayes. The floral tributes showed the esteem in which Mr. Sager was held.

Interment took place in the Ridge Cemetery.

MR. and MRS. MORRIS KINGDON, photographed following their marriage on July 12 in St. Elizabeth's Church. The bride, the former Elizabeth Raymond, is the daughter of Mr. Edouard Raymond, of North Hatley, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Kingdon, of Magog.

KINGDON—RAYMOND
NORTH HATLEY — The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Raymond, daughter of Edouard Raymond of North Hatley, to Mr. Morris Kingdon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Kingdon of Magog, took place Saturday, July 12, in St. Elizabeth's Church, the Rev. Valere Duplain officiating. Mrs. O. Voisard played the wedding music and Miss Micheline Dion and Miss Huguette Ouellette sang appropriate selections. The fathers of the bride and groom were witnesses.

The bride wore a full-skirted frock of Chantilly lace and tulle having a bateau neckline. Her short veil of tulle illusion was caught to a rhinestone studded diadem and she carried a bouquet of red roses and lily of the valley.

Mrs. Raymond was in a navy blue dress with white accessories while Mrs. Kingdon chose a lilac gown and white accessories.

MANNERS MAKE FRIENDS

Maybe you are such a busy person you can't accept all the invitations that come your way. But busy as you are, you should find time to express your regret at not being able to accept.

It's downright rude to let a hostess assume you are going to attend her party and then not show up for it.

Fashion

Those cage caps are actually caps made of veiling and dotted with flowers or tiny bows. They sit well down on the head and are ideal for summer wear.

New Fashions Strictly Feminine

Anguished Cries Of Mere Males Heeded By Milady's Designers

By DOROTHY ROE
 NEW YORK (AP) — This is the year for the men, says globe-trotting designer Hannah Troy, presenting a collection of strictly feminine fall fashions.

The new clothes for fall shown by Mrs. Troy and most other New York couture designers prove that women do dress to please men, after all. The loud cries of male anguish that greeted this summer's sack dresses, which made most women look like an unmade bed, have been heeded by the gals who set the pace for fashions.

So there are no more shapeless chemises in view, no more of the grotesque silhouettes which suggested mass pregnancy.

Most popular of the new fashions with Mrs. Troy is the high-waisted empire line. It is shown in both slim and flared versions, with accents just below the bust in the form of loose belts, bands or other trimming.

SHORT EVENING DRESS
 For calculated allure, consider Hannah's short evening dress in ice blue satin, with "pouffant" skirt and ostrich hemline, worn with a matching coat.

"Now that women are showing their legs again," says Mrs. Troy, "interest shifts to the hemline—can you imagine anything more intriguing than a moving, fluttering fringe of ostrich about a pair of beautiful legs?"

Male designers also go along with the more feminine, graceful look for fall, including Paul Farnes, who shows a series of new-looking and wearable costumes combining fur-collared tweed jackets with slim empire dresses.

The collection at the New York house of Christian Dior, the second designed by young Yves St. Laurent, features the "liberty line," and tends toward modifications of his trapeze silhouette

Social and Personal

Beauty Tips

Many women whose features aren't considered beautiful develop an atmosphere that makes them attractive. This comes from a sense of poise and serenity and is a result of meeting situations as they come. Note women around you who bite their nails and twist their hair in unnecessary anxiety. These actions break down the overall picture of good grooming.

LENNOXVILLE W. I.
 At the meeting of the Lennoxville W. I. held recently in the club rooms, a splendid report of the Provincial annual convention held at Macdonald College was given by the delegate, Mrs. S. Parker.

In her report, Mrs. Parker noted what with the addition of one new branch, there are now 98 branches in the twenty counties in the province. With 436 honorary life members on the list, it was deemed advisable to compile a remembrance book, and Mrs. G. Parsons of Bury, was named convener of this project. All branches are asked to complete a branch list for reference. Mrs. Parker also spoke highly of the quality of the handicrafts sent to the convention for exhibit.

Mrs. Parker was thanked by the vice president, Mrs. W. Beattie for her excellent report. Convener reports included agriculture—Mrs. Parker reported 10 members had obtained seeds for the county vegetable contest. Ribbons will be given on the point system and a grand prize for the most points. The vegetables will be donated to the Salvation Army following the contest.

Home Economics—Mrs. Wallace distributed quilt blocks for the county sewing exhibit and reported on the successful millinery course held recently. She also asked that each member donate a small hand made article to be sold at the fair booth and to leave it with her before August 20.

Mrs. Warren Ross, convener of the handicraft sales booth reminded the members to have their work ready, properly listed and tagged, and that all articles must be made by Institute members only.

Mrs. R. Smith stated that 11 hours had been given at the Cancer dressings station.

Miss G. Killingbeck, educational convener, was congratulated on her recent broadcast.

Members were asked to report on any scenic spots visited during their summer vacation. Mrs. F. J. Glass spoke of the Eastern Township picnic held in Paris, Ont., which she had attended.

A rummage sale is planned for early in September.

During the picnic lunch served by the members, Mrs. E. L. Atto was welcomed back following her illness.

Summer Weddings Of Interest

PARKER—GILBERT
COOKSHIRE, Que. — St. Peter's Anglican Church, Cookshire, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, July 5, when Dawn Irene Gilbert, daughter of Mrs. Florence Cook of Cookshire, and the late Mr. B. S. Gilbert, of Marleton, became the bride of Stanley Earl Parker, of Shawinigan, Que., son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parker, of Cookshire Canon W. C. Dunn officiated and the wedding music was played by Mrs. D. MacRae. Baskets of peonies adorned the church, with mock orange blossoms and pink roses used to mark the guest pews.

Given in marriage by her brother, Bruce Gilbert, the bride wore a gown of white English muslin over satin, having a fitted bodice with gulfure lace trimmed V neckline and sleeves ending in points over the hands, and the full floor length skirt ending in a chapel train. Her finger tip veil was of tulle illusion and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink and white carnations and rosebuds.

Mrs. S. Day, as matron of honor for her sister, and Miss Carol Norris and Miss Ardith Painter, as bridesmaids, wore identical full length gowns of periwinkle blue silk organza over taffeta, fashioned in Empire style. Their picture hats were of matching material and they carried colonial bouquets of Shasta daisies.

Mr. Robert Chapman acted as best man for the groom and the ushers were Mr. Douglas Parker and Mr. Edgar McCurdy.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Cook, chose a navy blue and white printed silk dress with white accessories, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Parker, was in a Wedgwood blue silk crepe and lace dress and white accessories.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Rockcliffe, Sherbrooke, where pink and white carnations and baby's breath were used to decorate.

For a wedding trip to the Laurentians, the bride chose a white linen dress woven with turquoise thread and matching turquoise duster, with which she wore a large white hat and corsage of red Sweetheart roses. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Parker will take up residence at 840, Mape Ave., Shawinigan, Que.

Guests were present at the wedding from Potsdam, N. Y., Lyndonville Vt., Montreal, Shawinigan Falls, Danville, Dunham, Marleton, Sawyerville, Sherbrooke, Lennoxville, Cowansville, Drummondville, East Angus, Broughton and Bulwer, Que., Niagara Falls, Ont., and Halifax, N. S.

RODGERS—SMITH
WATERLOO — The marriage of Rejane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Smith of Waterloo, to Bernard Rodgers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Rodgers of Montreal, took place recently in St. Bernard's Church, Rev. Bernard Fontaine officiating and celebrating at the Nuptial Mass.

The organist Mr. Jean Jolin played the wedding music and the soloists were Mrs. L. Hardy and Mr. Louis Jolin. The choir of the Daughters of Isabella sang the Panis Angelicus. The altar was adorned with white and pink peonies, yellow lilies and garden wares a light blue dress with white accessories and a pink orchid corsage.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ice blue embroidered organza cocktail length gown. Her diadem of blue rose petals held her short veil, and she carried a lace covered prayer book with white orchids.

Mr. John Rodgers acted as best man for his brother and the ushers were Mr. Roger Logloine and Mr. Laurent Rainville.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Alouette Lodge where the bride's table, centered with a three-tier wedding cake, was attractively arranged with pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Smith, mother of the bride wore a two-piece navy blue dress with matching accessories, and a pink orchid corsage.

Mrs. Rodgers, mother of the groom wore a light blue dress with white accessories and a pink orchid corsage.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers left for Charlottetown P.E.I., the bride travelling in a pink and white ensemble. Upon their return they will reside in Longueuil, Que.

Out of town guests were present from Boston Mass, St. Johnsbury Vermont, Montreal, Sherbrooke, Magog, Bedford and Granby.

Coats' Relaxed Air Belies Their Rich Fabrics

The relaxed look is the big look for fall in coats and all other fashions. But the interpretations given by couture designers in New York this week have varied widely. Your new coat may taper from the shoulders to a narrow hemline or it may flare out from a high bosom line. Then there's the cone shape, trapeze shape, pear shape and trumpet flare. This silhouette by any name is still a triangle. Fabrics, like fur trim show the ultimate in luxury. Magenta fleecy is used (left) by Originals for a double-breasted coat cut with yoke and wide, off-the-neck collar. It tapers to the hemline. Straight coat (centre) is black and white tweed, has three-button closing, is collared in black beaver. Night sky wool coat (right) by George Carmel has trapeze look, is collared in ranch mink. Skirt flares while yoke ties at front with bows. All of these coats show the shorter length. All of them, too, show unusual collar treatment.

Husband: Does Wifey Have a Case On -- Or Against -- You?

Memo to Men: Want to know what faults a husband wishes most often complain about?

I've been keeping score through the years, and judging from what wives write me, your most common faults are:

One. You won't talk. Instead you come home from work and want to know if dinner is ready. And after you've eaten you sit like a lump before the television set until bedtime. That makes you pretty dull company — from a wife's point of view.

Two. You refuse to take any responsibility around home, leaving your wife not only to look after the house, but to take complete charge of the children and keep the yard in shape. Because you can't be bothered, she makes the decisions. But instead of praising her for taking things off your shoulders as you would a competent secretary, you blame her for "wanting to run things."

Three. Instead of picking up after yourself and helping to keep your home neat, you cause her as much work as a toddler. Yet when you can't find something (which you haven't bothered to put away where it belongs) you complain that you can never "find anything around this house."

Four. You are willing for your wife to help earn a living for the family. But you aren't willing to go 50-50 all the way, by doing half the work around the house, in return for her going out each day to earn a paycheck.

Five. You are quick to criticize, but slow to pay your wife the kind of compliments that would make her feel necessary and important.

Maybe none of these complaints could come from your wife. But are you sure?

Miss Pauline Bissonette Feted By Richmond Friends Prior To Marriage

RICHMOND — Upwards of 75 guests gathered at the Richmond Hotel recently to honor one of Richmond's popular young ladies, Miss Pauline Bissonette, formerly on the staff of the Montreal Bank branch here, whose marriage takes place July 19th to Gilles Lafleur of Sherbrooke.

The room was attractively arranged with a number of baskets and vases of summer flowers. On the arrival of the guest of honor, she was greeted by her many friends and escorted to the head table, which was also tastefully decorated with a bowl of pansies flanked by silver holders and pink tapers.

Seated at the table with Miss Bissonette were her mother, Mrs. H. Bissonette, and Mrs. Wilfred Lacroix of Sherbrooke. Miss Denise Houde, on behalf of the guests, presented the guest of honor with a set of crystal glasses in assorted sizes, cream and sugar stand, large sandwich tray, with their very best wishes for a happy married life. Miss Bissonette expressed her gratitude for the beautiful gifts, kind wishes and for the party given in her honor.

During the evening an enjoyable musical program was rendered by the following artists: Vocal solos by Miss Françoise Proulx, Mrs. Richard Rochette, Mrs. P. Pellerin, Mrs. R. Bégin and Mrs. A. Lafleur of Sherbrooke. A humorous recitation by Miss Huguette McKenzie was much enjoyed by all. Mrs. Jules Fortin acted as pianist. A unique game called "Broom" was played. Prize winners were Mrs. A. Bourbeau and Mrs. R. Bégin.

RANDBORO —

The strawberry supper held in the United Church Basement was a decided success in every way. The weather was ideal and people came from Sherbrooke, Lennoxville, Dudswell, Montreal and the surrounding area, as well as across the border. It was one of the biggest crowds ever to attend a local supper.

Residents were shocked when it was learned that Claude Lacroche had passed away suddenly on Thursday, July 3rd. Although he had not been in good health for some time he was able to drive the mail as usual. He went to visit friends during the evening and was suddenly stricken, passing away before medical help could reach him. He will be greatly missed as he has been a life-long resident of this district and has been a mail carrier on Route 2 for the past nine years. He is survived by his wife and family.

Recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Hannah Jones and Mrs. C. Wilder were Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Edgar, of Dundee, Que.; Mrs. A. Ryan and Mr. R. H. Riddell, of Calgary, Alta.; Mrs. Addie Perkins, Mrs. B. Stanbridge East W. I. Meets At St. Armand Home

STANBRIDGE EAST — The Women's Institute was entertained by Mrs. Thomas, of St. Armand, for the July meeting, the president, Mrs. Wanzer, presiding.

A committee was appointed to attend the next council meeting, to discuss ways of beautifying the approach to the village with the mayor and councillors. The secretary read a letter from Mrs. H. E. Palmer, chairman of the Jubilee Committee.

Miss Ann Christie has consented to act as judge at the County Hobby Show. It was decided to write the Home Economics director to ask for a tentative date for a sewing class and visit to the Granby Zoo was planned for the next meeting, August 5. Mrs. Tremblay gave an excellent report on the provincial convention at Macdonald College, at which the High Commissioner for Ceylon and his wife were present. The latter, vice-president of the Associated Country Women of the World, was guest speaker and gave an interesting account of the Ceylon Institutes.

Mrs. P. C. LeBeau, director of handicraft for the Department of Agriculture had been present and Mrs. Gordon Harvey, Quebec provincial president, had been a dinner guest at "Aylmer House," Ottawa, motoring to Ottawa at the close of the convention.

A vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Thomas for entertaining the Institute.

GENERAL NOTES

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Stote were Mr. and Mrs. R. Stote, of Bedford, N.H. They were accompanied by Mr. Edward Stote, who spent a week at the Stote home here, before going to reside at the Eventide Home in Montreal.

Mr. Sidney Ruggles, of Laconia, N.H., was a guest at the Hodgie home.

Mrs. H. A. Lackey, of Toronto, Ont., was a guest of Mr. Lackey and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hodgie.

Miss Irene Corey, of St. Helen's School, Dunham, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cochran.

Mrs. Currie and Mrs. Adams, of Bedford, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Corey.

Mrs. Ethel Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Stone and Miss Barbara Soule have returned from Boston, Mass., where they visited relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James Witts are guests of relatives in Boston.

CLEVELAND —

Mr. and Mrs. Mylen Griffith, of Gore, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Comeau and family, of Beauharnois, were weekend guests of Mrs. Alix Amnotte and Mr. Henry Amnotte. Mrs. Amnotte accompanied her guests back and will spend some time at their guest.

Mr. Emil Amnotte, of Danville, spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Tozer.

Mr. Francis Healy has accepted a position with the Bank of Montreal at Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clarke and Miss Irene Clarke were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morey in Windsor Mills. Other guests at the same home were Mr. and Mrs. Percy Tozer and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Oakley.

SPAIN — BACKSTOP TO NATO — The unsettled political situation in France, kingpin of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, has focused attention on Spain and the complex of U.S. air bases there. Begun in 1953, the 350-million-dollar military building program is about 85 per cent completed. Some 5,000 American servicemen are stationed in Spain; the number is expected to double within a year. The air bases provide a supplement to NATO bases elsewhere in Europe. Map above locates American bases (underlined). They include four major airfields, an air supply depot, seven radar sites, a Navy fuel and ammunition depot and a four-million-dollar communications center. Largest field is at Torrejon, near the capital of Madrid. Its 13,400-foot runways are Europe's largest. A 50-million-dollar, 485-mile underground pipeline ties the bases together, connecting storage facilities for four million barrels of fuel. Spain with a population of 29 million, is a country twice the size of Wyoming, sharing the Iberian Peninsula with Portugal.

Townships Fish And Game Notes

By IVY HATCH
Stanstead County Fish and Game Club has added another weighing-in station for Molson's contest fish entries, that of Frank Clark, Ridgewood Inn, at the Narrows on Lake Memphremagog.

The Eastern Townships Federation of Fish and Game Clubs was re-organized at a meeting held at the New Sherbrooke Hotel the night of July 3rd. Emile Pare will remain as president. Other officers elected included: W. Paul, of Granby, 1st vice-president; Winfield Hunter, Lennoxville, 2nd vice-president; G. Emond, Windsor Mills secretary; Philip Poops, Stanstead, public relations; Rene Paquette, Waterloo, chairman of deer committee, Leonard Deseve, Magog, chairman of anti-pollution; E. Blais, chairman small game committee; George Tremblay, Stanbridge, fieldman.

The treasurer and recording secretary will be appointed by the president and his executive. Other members of clubs were made directors.

Another directors' meeting will be held in August and a general meeting in September. It is these clubs working together that benefit our conservation program.

With many vacationists taking fishing trips it is wise to add to the fishing kit a few Molson's contest forms. If away from home, all an angler has to do is register the fish with a reliable store-keeper, the number of the scales used to weight the fish, have it properly witnessed, then bring it home and send it in from the home club. There is $11,550 to be divided into cash prizes for individuals and Quebec fishing clubs.

Twin fawns were born to Buck and Doe Deer at the Baldwin's Mills fish hatchery. One fawn was sent away as a goodwill gesture to France, but we understand it has since died. The remaining twin is quite in the limelight at its home with Mum and Dad Deer, and is especially popular with the children.

Other attractions at the hatchery are several birds of unknown name, but of beautiful plumage, and the two bears. Among the several species of fish are the Quebec red trout, flashing red and silver as they swim in the aquarium in the main building.

Visitors are always welcome at the hatchery and it is an interesting place to spend a few hours.

Stanstead County Fish and Game Club is soon going to be selling tickets on a fall drawing of a rifle, camp stove and a camera, all handy articles for the hunting season.

THETFORD MINES —

Miss Brenda Robinson spent a week at the Eager Home in Kinross Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. James O'Donnell, of Meriden, Conn., were weekend guests of Mr. O'Donnell's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marshall, and daughter, Miss Nina Neville, also of Meriden, is spending the summer with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, and cousin, Miss Helena Marshall.

Miss Kathleen Smith spent a week at Spooner Pond with a group of Girl Guides of the Richmond High School, where she has been a teacher for the past two years.

Miss Alice Hacker, of Toronto, Ont., was a guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hacker, and daughter, Phyllis, for a few days. Miss T. Smith, also of Toronto, accompanied her. Miss Daphne Nichols, of Essex, England, was also a guest at the Hacker home. Miss Nichols is vacationing in Canada for the first time and it is also her first visit with her cousins. Following her visit here, she continued on to Quebec City, Ottawa and other points of interest enroute to Toronto.

Friends of Mrs. Bill Baillargeon regret to learn that she is a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital, where she underwent surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Daigneau and family, of Windsor Mills, spent a weekend with Dr. and Mrs. P. L. Daigneau and daughter, Dorothy.

Dr. and Mrs. P. L. Daigneau spent a week at Ocean Park, Me., guests at the Nautilus.

Messrs. Howard McHarg, B. Haddow and H. Harvey, accompanied by Mr. Arthur McHarg and Mr. Harold Stark, of Rock Island, motored to Murray Bay on a fishing trip.

71st Birthday Of Derby Line Lady Is Happy Event

DERBY LINE — Mrs. Mamie Aldrich, observed her 71st birthday anniversary on Friday, July 5, and it was a day of pleasant surprises from dawn to dusk.

Mrs. Aldrich, who is a shut-in at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Bacon, and family, Caswell Avenue, was greeted in the morning with "Happy Birthday" from all the family. Then came a box of beautiful flowers from a niece in California, gifts from the family, a sunshine basket from the Auxiliary of the Universalist Women's Society and a sunshine box filled with greeting cards from a host of friends.

With other greetings received in the mail, the cards totaled more than 100. These remembrances made Mrs. Aldrich very happy, and her friends wish her continued progress in gaining health for many more happy days to follow.

BROME —

A meeting of the Ladies' Guild of St. John's Anglican Church was held at the home of Mrs. H. P. Belcher, with Mrs. William Barnes presiding. The devotional period was taken by Canon F.W. Gedye. The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. J. E. Soles. Plans were made to hold a food sale at Knowlton later in the season. At the close of the meeting, lunch was served to 16, three of whom were visitors. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Effie Libby and Mrs. John Osterdahl.

Mr. Ronald Martin, of Owosso, Mich., is spending a week as guests of his sister, Mrs. John Osterdahl, and Mr. Osterdahl. Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Martin and daughters, of Montreal, were also guests at the same home.

Mrs. Della Wilson, of Knowlton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Barnes, and Mr. Barnes. Other guests at the same home were Mr. and Mrs. G. Gould, of Bedford.

Kirkdale Guild And W. A. Plan Summer Events

KIRKDALE — The July meeting of the Guild and W.A. was held in the Church Hall with a small attendance.

The financial report showed the sum of $69 taken in at the Ice-cream social. Plans were made to hold a dance in the Hall on Friday evening, July 18, and the annual picnic for all churches on August 2 on the grounds of C.S. Bogie prior to her departure for Bridgetown, N.S. and Mrs. McCaw gave out material for tea-clothes.

The tea and sale in September was discussed. It was announced that owing to the absence of Mr. Brown on vacation, there will be no church service until Sunday evening, July 27.

GENERAL NOTES

Former friend of Mrs. Thomas Patrick will be interested to hear that she has returned to England and expects to visit Ireland and Scotland. She hopes to spend some time with her sister and aunt, who she has not seen for 40 years. She was accompanied to Dorval airport by her son, Kenneth, his little son, Steven, and Mrs. Wilfred Patrick and children.

Three Villages Happenings

Misses Sally and Marjorie Hamilton, of Willowdale, Ont., have returned home after spending two weeks with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Parker, Stanstead.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond West, Stanstead, with friends from Georgeville spent the weekend in the Laurentians.

Dr. E. Bowler, of Durham University, N.H., is a guest at the home of Mrs. George Garceau Rock Island. Dr. Bowler and Mrs. Garceau visited at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gaston Girard, Mr. Girard and sons in Granby.

Mr. and Mrs. U. E. Cargill, Derby Line, were holiday guests of Mrs. Arthur Lewis, Derby.

Miss Sondra Bedard, of Derby Line, is spending a few days with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gravelin, Greenfield, Mass.

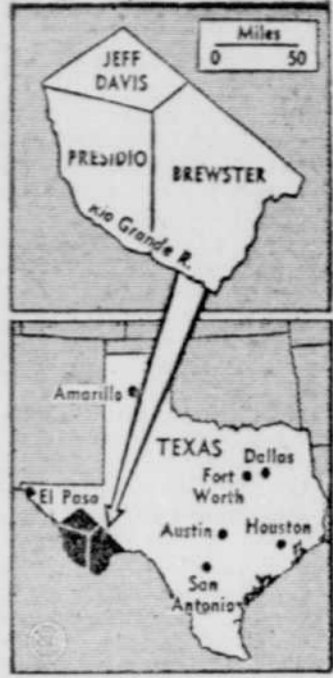

MOE'S RIVER —

Miss Gwen Taylor of Sawyerville, spent a few days recently with Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Luce, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Matheson, of Lincoln, Me., were guests of Mrs. Evelyn Haseltine. Mrs. Haseltine accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Matheson to Springfield, Mass., to visit Mrs. Genevieve Aldrich, Mr. and Mrs. William Patterson and other friends. Mrs. Haseltine accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Matheson to their home in Lincoln, where she will be their guest for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Lundeborg attended the funeral of Mr. Lundeborg's uncle, Mr. F. Lundeborg, which was held in the Waterville Anglican Church. An ice cream social in aid of the Moe's River Baptist Church was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Huff. Ice cream, cake, pie, and cold drinks were for sale, also a table of home made cooking and other articles. The ice cream for the social was donated by Mr. and Mrs. E. Huff. The proceeds were $35.

WEST KEITH —

Mr. and Mrs. Osborne Dougherty and children, Vernon and Roger, were in Lancaster, N.H., to visit Mrs. Dougherty's aunt, Mrs. Joe McConnell, and Mr. Dougherty's uncle, Mr. Warren M. Neely, who are patients in the Weeks Memorial Hospital there.

"STAR" DUST — The Lone Star state may lose one tiny twinkler if the would-be state of "Big Bend" comes into being. Cattle counties of Jeff Davis, Presidio and Brewster have joined forces to seek separate statehood. Under the congressional enabling act of 1845 which annexed Texas to the Union, the Lone Star republic was guaranteed the right to divide itself into as many as five states.

Surprise Shower For Bride-Elect Is Held At Bury

BURY — Mrs. Donald Clarke and Mrs. Kenneth Maguire were hostesses at a surprise miscellaneous shower, held at the home of Mrs. William Provis, in honor of Miss Jean Clout, whose marriage takes place shortly at Brockville, Ont.

Miss Clout was greeted at the door by one of her school friends, Annie Maguire, the former Miss Provis, and was presented with a corsage. She was escorted to a table laden with attractively wrapped parcels, where she was seated with her grandmother, Mrs. G. Midwood, and her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Clarke on either side.

After opening the lovely gifts, the bride-to-be expressed appreciation for their friends, for their thoughtfulness, and to her aunt, Mrs. Clark, and Mrs. Maguire, for arranging such a nice party.

Mrs. Earl Goodenough gave a bit of advice to the bride-elect, which was greatly enjoyed by all. The pleasant afternoon was brought to a close with the serving of refreshments by Mrs. Clarke and daughters, Mrs. Maguire and Mrs. Joyce.

EAST CLIFTON —

About 35 relatives and friends were entertained at a card party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Blair, when 500 was played at seven tables. The winners were Mrs. Philip McConnell and Mr. Jas. Parkinson, the consolation prizes going to Mrs. Elmer Dempsey, of Sawyerville, and Mr. James McBurney, of High Forest. Following the game Mr. and Mrs. Blair served refreshments and the guests departed, thanking them for a most enjoyable evening.

The annual Sunday School and Women's Institute event was held at the W.I. Hall, Races and other sports were enjoyed by the children and prizes given out after which refreshments were served in the hall.

The Misses Debbie and Carol Matthew have returned to their home in Hudson Heights, after spending several weeks with their aunt and uncle, Mrs. I. McBurney and Mr. McBurney, while their mother, Mrs. K. Matthew, was a patient in a Montreal hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gorringer have gone to Ontario to spend an indefinite time with relatives. Mrs. H. S. Streeter and Mrs. C. Randall and sons and Master D. Nelson have returned to their homes in Bernardston, Mass.

Durelle And Holt Both Confident For Tonight's Championship Bout

Frank Lary Of Detroit Beats Yanks For Fifth Straight Time; Red Sox Retain Second With Win Over As

Frank Lary of Detroit is practically a cinch to become the first pitcher in 14 years to beat the Yankees six times in one season.

Lary, 27, had little trouble beating the Yankees 12-5 Tuesday for his fifth over the American League leaders this season.

No one has beaten the Yankees six times in one year since 1944, when a pair of Tiger aces, oddly enough, did it. Dizzy Trout was 6-0 and Hal Newhouser 6-2 against New York that year.

With only nine games remaining between Detroit and New York, it's unlikely, however, that Lary can get enough shots at the Yankees to match the record of nine victories against one club. Ed Walsh of Chicago White Sox did it against both New York and Boston in 1906, and Ed Reulbach of Chicago Cubs did it in the National League the same year, against Brooklyn.

While third place Detroit cut the Yankees lead to 12 games, Boston retained second place, by beating Kansas City 5-2 on Jackie Jensen's 27th home run. Baltimore tied the As for fourth by defeating the White Sox 4-3 in 12 innings. Washington beat Cleveland 5-4.

Lary had a string of 27 shutout innings over the Yankees until a two-run seventh, and finally gave way in a two-run eighth, when Mickey Mantle hit his 24th home run. Lary now is 9-8 for the season, after losing three in a row since his second consecutive shutout over New York, June 21.

Gail Harris, who hit two triples, drove in four runs for the Tigers, while Al Kaline and Charlie Maxwell each brought home three. Kaline, who missed a game after Sunday's wrist injury, tripled with the bases loaded as Detroit built a 6-0 lead against rookie Zach Monroe (1-1) in two innings.

HITS BIG ONE
Jensen, the major league home run leader, hit his one-season high with a three-run shot in the first inning off loser Ray Herbert (3-5). Frank Sullivan won his eighth, but needed relief.

Gus Triandos hit a solo 17th homer and counted the clincher with a bases-loaded, two-out single in the 12th for the Orioles against reliever Turk Lown (0-2). Arnie Portocarrero (8-5) went all the way, giving up seven hits and blanking the White Sox on one hit for nine innings after a two-run first.

Roy Sievers' 21st home run broke up a tie for the Senators in the seventh off Gary Bell (3-3). Herb Score made his first start since April 30 for the Indians, and trailed Trum Clevenger (5-8) won it, blanking the Tribe on one hit in 6-1-3 innings of relief, retiring the last 14 in order.

Nino Valdes Issues Challenge To Johansson

NEW YORK (AP) — Cuba's Nino Valdes Tuesday challenged Ingemar Johansson, Sweden's undefeated heavyweight champion to fight him in Sweden.

"We're tired of waiting for a title shot with Floyd Patterson," said Bobby Gleason, manager of the strapping Cuban contender. "All we've ever gotten were promises. Now Patterson has that fight with Roy Harris on Aug. 18."

"How long can we wait? I'm 66 and my tiger is 34. We wait around any more we'll get hardening of the arteries."

Johansson has cleared up the European field and I understand he's looking for an opponent for August or September. My guy is ready to hop a plane now for Stockholm."

Tommy Bolt To Face Charges For Misconduct

HAVERTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Terrible-tempered Tommy Bolt goes before the United States Professional Golfers Association at Philadelphia today to face charges of golf misconduct.

Bolt has been under probation for misconduct since last January.

The U.S. open champion drew a $500 fine recently, for what PGA officials term abuses, including remarks allegedly made to tournament officials.

Russia To Make Athletes Win Places On Teams

LONDON (AP) — Russia will follow the American example of making its athletes win their places on the track and field team which meets the United States in Moscow July 27-28.

Heretofore members of the Soviet national teams have been selected on overall performances and physical condition. Moscow radio said Tuesday, however, that the team to meet the Americans will be composed of the athletes who produce the best performances at the Soviet national track and field championships at Tallin, Estonia, July 19-21.

The American system of "win your place by competition" has been criticized in the United States and jeered at openly in Europe.

Canadians Do Well In Bisley Rifle Shoot

BISLEY, England (AP) — Canadians did well Tuesday in the "clock tower" long-range match of the annual Bisley rifle-shooting championships which was won by Maj. R. Scott of England.

Maj. Scott scored 86 out of a possible 70. Third place went to Sgt. H. B. Cathline of Camp Borden, Ont., with 32 at 900 yards and 30 at 1,000 yards.

Cpl. D. R. Clarke of Halifax recorded a 55 on 33 and 22.

US Names 1958 Walker Cup Team

NEW YORK (AP) — Seven former Walker Cup golfers, including Harvie Ward, Tuesday were named to defend the America's Cup against Mexico and Canada at San Francisco Sept. 5-6.

Billy Joe Patton was named team captain. Also selected were Charlie Coe, Hillman Robbins Jr., Mason Rudolph, Dr. Frank Taylor and Rex Baxter.

Holt Out To Wear Him Down While New Brunswick Fisherman Will Be Watching For Opening To End Battle

MONTREAL (CP) — Mike Holt, sleek-looking South African fighter, outlined his plans to handle Yvon Durelle in their British Empire light-heavyweight title bout tonight.

"I'll wear him down," said Holt in an interview in his hotel room. "If he wants to make a fight of it, I don't think it will go the limit. I'm not underestimating him but if there's a knockout I think I'll be the one who scores it. I hear he's a wonderful hitter. I can hit, too."

The 12-round bout between Holt and the New Brunswick fisherman from Bale Ste. Anne is scheduled for 10 p.m. EDT at the Montreal Forum. The fight will be televised nationally in Canada and the United States with only Montreal and Sherbrooke, Que., blacked out. American TV stations near the border can be picked up in both cities.

DURELLE SURE

Durelle's ideas about a possible knockout were equally as positive. "If I get my opening he's going to die early."

Durelle said he has been "drying out" and expected to scale just under the 175-pound limit at the official weigh-in at noon and will enter the ring at 178 or 179 pounds.

"I know what he's going through with the drying out," said Holt, who expected to weigh in at 172 1/2. "I did that when I fought as a middleweight and had to get down to 160."

"From this afternoon until Wednesday noon - when, it'll be murder."

"Right," cut in manager Piet Lourens. "He can live 100 years."

Channels 5-8 To Carry Fight

Although Montreal and Sherbrooke Television Stations have blacked out coverage of the 12 round British Empire light-heavyweight bout tonight between Yvon Durelle and Mike Holt the fight may be viewed on both channels 5 and 8.

The bout will be featured on the regular Wednesday night fight program. Fight time on TV is 10:00.

poached eggs and toast for breakfast. An hour or two after the weigh-in he would have a steak, then rest and finally have a cup of tea about 6 p.m.

Durelle had a 30-minute gymnasium workout in mid-afternoon Tuesday. Later he went for an automobile ride with friends and was back at the hotel in the early evening.

"We're not going to lose this one," said manager Chris Shaban. "That's certain. Yvon is strong and ready and it should be a good fight. He weighed 172 1/2 after the workout. We have no weight problem."

Durelle appeared to be in amiable mood all day. He switched from cribbage to take Shaban at auction 45.

WILL GO TITLE LIMIT
"As for the fight," Shaban continued, "I have kind of a hunch it will go the limit but Yvon will win; I've no doubt about that. Some people say he's awkward but he can throw a terrific punch."

Durelle exuded confidence. "I may miss him a lot but if I can catch him he dies right there. I hope I don't have to keep chasing him. All I want is my opening."

Shaban said Tuesday night that he would let Durelle sleep in, going to bed by 10:30. There would be eggs and toast for breakfast, soup or something very light after the weigh-in, then a steak a couple of hours later.

Durelle said if he wins he wants next a bout with champion Archie Moore for the world title. If he doesn't get it, he doesn't want to make 175 pounds any more. "I can do it but it's just a little too hard work."

Errors Prove Costly To Johnson And Baylock As Mates Boot Away Chances; Royals And Leafs Win

They probably felt like crying. We mean International League pitchers Ken Johnson of Buffalo and Gary Baylock of Rochester.

Johnson lost a 1-0 heartbreaker to Toronto Tuesday night as three errors provided the unearned run in the third inning. Montreal took advantage of four Red Wing errors to take a 5-3 decision from Baylock.

Miami beat Richmond 3-1 and Havana defeated Columbus 6-2 in other IL action.

Johnson and Toronto's Jack Crimian ran neck-and-neck in a pitchers duel with the three error, third inning the only undoing.

BOBBLE GROUNDER
Shortstop Bob Morgan bobbled Bob Johnson's grounder to start the third. Johnson was forced by Crimian who was safe at second when Milt Graff dropped the ball on an attempted force out. Luke Easter added the clincher when he flubbed a grounder, Crimian scoring from second.

Johnson (5-11) and Crimian (9-5) each allowed only three hits. Baylock was the victim of three unearned runs as the Wings lost their third straight. Babe Birrer (11-4) was the winner, giving a home run to Baylock. Sandy Amoros homered for Montreal.

Jack Fleck Drops Ace In Warmup For PGA Tourney

HAVERTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Jack Fleck of Rochester, Mich., former National Open champion, shot a hole in one in a warmup Tuesday for the Professional Golfers' Association tournament at the Llanerch Country Club.

Fleck, using a four iron, sank his tee shot on the 190-yard fourth hole.

Clary Harris Picks Holt Over Durelle

MONTREAL (CP)—Treason or not, a Maritimer says Mike Holt will defeat Yvon Durelle in tonight's fight for the British Empire light-heavyweight championship.

Clary Harris, Halifax sportsman said Tuesday night that he has seen Durelle fight several times and saw Holt, the South African champion, score a four-round knockout in 1956 over Jan Scheepers in South Africa.

"I have to pick Holt because I think Durelle has been having trouble making the weight," said Harris. "That could just about make the difference between them although I think it will be a close fight."

Harry Sheppard, who once managed Durelle, said he thinks the fight is an even-money affair and figures the 9-5 odds on Durelle, quoted Monday, an overlay.

"I know Durelle; he's strictly a front-runner," said Sheppard. "He's all right when he's ahead, but he doesn't know what to do when he gets into trouble. If he doesn't nail Holt with one of his wild swings in the first four rounds he'll probably blow the fight."

Roberts, who has won five 1-0 games, has been a shutout victim enough times this season to go on strike. The Phils have been blanked eight times, more than any other National League team, and Robin has been the loser in half of them.

Young Mike McCormick colored the Phils in this one, struggling through with a nine-hitter for his second shutout and a 7-1 record as the Giants, who managed just three hits, stayed with in a half-game of first place Milwaukee.

BRAVES BEAT CARDS
The Braves rapped St. Louis 4-1 on the four-hit pitching of Joey Jay and home runs by Hank Aaron and Wes Covington. Pittsburgh beat Los Angeles 6-2 in the only other game scheduled.

Roberts (7-9) no-hit the Giants until the fifth, then was socked for the run in the sixth on a walk. Willie Kirkland's double and an error Jim Hearn gave up the other Giant hit in the eighth.

ST. PETERSBURGH, NAMED SITE FOR MEETING
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — George M. Trautman, president of the minor leagues, announced Tuesday that St. Petersburg, Fla., will be the 1959 site for baseball's annual mid-winter convention.

McCormick, a 19-year-old southpaw, retired 16 in a row at one stage and didn't get much trouble from the once-hot Phils, who now have lost four in a row—all by one run.

Aaron and Covington split the four hits Sal Maglie allowed, the Braves in four innings—but Aaron's two were his 16th and 17th home runs, while Covington singled and hit his 14th homer for a 3-0 lead that handed Maglie his third consecutive defeat and a 2-3 record.

FINISHES STRONG
Jay (4-3) allowed but one hit over the last five innings, fanning the last four for a total of eight strikeouts.

Duke Snider's two-run seventh homer—a 440-foot shot, longest yet in the Coliseum—gave the Dodgers a tie in the sixth, but the Braves bagged it with four in the eighth off Don Drysdale, who lost his 10th.

Dick Stuart scored the clincher on Bob Skinner's single, after driving in the first two Pirate runs with a single and his third home run.

Ronnie Kline (9-9), lifted for a punch hitter in the eighth, won it, giving up only two hits before the sixth as the Dodgers blew their sixth chance to escape the cellar in a month's time.

McCormick, a 19-year-old

Athletics Move Into Third Place As They Down Coaticook 10-7; Cards Meet Fuller in Top Spot Battle Wednesday

St. Jean Baptiste Athletics hammered out six hits to score six runs in the fourth inning of a Junior Baseball League game against Coaticook last night and won the game 10-7.

The win pulled the A's out of their current slump. They had copped only one game in their last five starts and had dropped their last two played against Coaticook.

Jean Guy Mathieu won the game in relief. Dube was the loser. Lemire crossed the plate three times for the A's and batted two for three. Bissonette connected for a double and a single and led the Canadians two for four.

As a result of the game the Athletics are now in third place with an eight and eight record three games behind top seated Windsor Mills. The loss dropped the Canadians to four games behind the Cards in fourth place.

Errors were costly to Coaticook. They committed only two but the Athletics scored runs on both of them. The A's also had two errors and A. Coupal came in on one of them to score Rousseau who started for the A's allowed one run from third in the second on a walk.

Coaticook opened with three runs as many hits in the second inning and pushed their lead to 5-0 in the top of the third with two more markers. The bottom of this inning saw St. Jean Baptiste counter with three runs on two hits. The storm broke in the fourth. The complete Athletic lineup took a crack at Dube's tiring arm and soon raked up a 9-5 lead. The Canadians had a rally going in the sixth and one again in the seventh but they could manage only one run in each inning.

Lemire was a standout throughout the game as he beat the throw home on two occasions. Langlois continued his hot pace in the batting column connecting for a double and a single.

Thursday night Fuller and Windsor Cardinals play in Sherbrooke in a battle for first place. Fuller are one half a game behind the high flying Cards who have lost a game in their last seven starts. Game time at the local stadium is 7.30.

Canadian Runners Tape Off Training But Others Hard At It; Over-All Picture Bright, Says Manager Osborne

CARDIFF (CP)—Sprinters and quarter-milers tapered off their training Tuesday but all other Commonwealth competitors were hard at work tuning up for the official opening of the British Empire games Friday.

The 111 sprinters and quarter-milers will beat the official opening gun Thursday with elimination heats in the 100 and 440. They virtually closed out training Tuesday.

The other athletes, will begin easing off within the next day or two.

Meanwhile, all is reported well at the Canadian training camp, where another full day of sunshine aided full-scale workouts. No new injuries were reported.

"The over-all picture is looking very bright," said team general manager Bob Osborne of Vancouver.

The Canadians have so far stayed clear of the minor disputes that usually crop up over athlete selections and schedules before the games. Australia and Ghana have squared off over boxing schedules and England's team selectors are getting a roasting for their choice of entries in the three miles.

The boxing dispute arose when Australia asked that opening bouts be held Friday instead of Monday so that no boxers would have to fight twice the same day. Coach Jack Roy of Ghana led a fight against the move, arguing that training schedules could not be changed at this point. A majority of countries, including Canada, supported Ghana.

Canadian boxing manager Lt. Cmdr. J. F. Mackintosh of Deep Brook, N.S., said he thought Australia's suggestion was a good one but voted against it at the request of his boxers. "The boys want to finish up their training and then they're willing to fight two or three times a day."

The ruckus over England's selections concerns Stan Eldon, Derek Ibbotson and Gordon Pirie. Selectors chose Eldon, a 22-year-old Berkshire policeman, for the six miles while Ibbotson, who holds the unofficial world record for the mile with 3:57.2, and the 27-year-old Pirie were selected for the three miles.

Eldon ran both Pirie and Ibbotson into the ground over three miles at the Amateur Athletic Association championships in London last weekend and sports writers immediately protested that either Ibbotson or Pirie should be replaced by the younger runner.

Jacques Marcotte's Hockey Career Has Ended Before It Started; Eye Injury Puts End To Brilliant Future

GRAND'MERE, Que. (CP)—An eye injury has apparently ended a promising hockey career. Jacques Marcotte, a wiry little goaltender who was struck down on the brink of the big time.

Marcotte suffered a severe injury to his right eye last February while participating in his first practice with Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League.

He was left with only 40 per cent vision in the damaged eye. "I guess my playing days are over," said the 23-year-old Marcotte Tuesday. He was selected the Quebec Hockey League's top rookie the season before the fatal accident.

"Doctors have told me the chances of my vision in the right eye improving are practically none. I'm not sure where I can go from here."

But he still retains a faint hope he might, by some miracle, regain enough vision to continue the career that was his ambition since he was a young boy.

"I see an eye doctor every two months in the hope there might be some improvement and I'm going to see a specialist in Boston shortly."

"Hockey is my life. I've wanted to play the game for as long as I can remember. It's what I live for."

Dr. Hugh Smythe, Toronto's team physician, diagnosed the injury following the accident as "minor damage to the retina and the mounting of the lens."

Marcotte, five feet, seven inches tall and 145 pounds, is the property of New York Rangers of the NHL now.

He was acquired by Toronto from New York late last season in exchange for $5,000 and the rights to junior-age centre Bill Kennedy.

TUESDAY'S STARS

Hitting: Hank Aaron, Milwaukee Braves, drove in three runs with a pair of homers and a sacrifice fly in 4-1 victory over St. Louis Cardinals.

Pitching: Mike McCormick, San Francisco Giants; and Truman Clevenger, Washington Senators. McCormick buckled down when the going got rough, giving up nine hits in a 1-0 victory over Philadelphia Phillies. Clevenger struck out seven men and blanked Cleveland Indians on one hit in six innings of relief for 5-4.

If an angler is swept off his feet in swift water and finds it over his head, he can stay afloat until shallow water is reached if he doesn't panic. Water enters waders slowly if fit is correct and top is adjusted snug. The wearer should bend his knees slightly to keep trapped air in legs as he assumes a hammock-like, reclining position to seek and direct his course.

REMEMBER WHEN

Lighthorse Harry Cooper of Chicago won the Canadian Open golf title at Ottawa with a score of 290 for the 72-hole grind, 26 years ago today. Al Watrous of Birmingham, Mich., was second with 293 and Walter Hagen, the defending champion, needed 295, finishing third. Cooper won the same title again in 1937.

Errors Play Big Part In Deciding Outcome Of Senators-Yankees Tilt; Indians-White Sox Clash Tonight

Yankees committed six errors in the fourth inning against the Senators last night and went down to a 14-8 defeat in a Little League fixture played at the Parade Grounds.

Yankees were holding their own up until this point but these miscues gave the Senators eight unearned runs and they took the game on this margin. Tonight the Indians and White Sox battle it out at the Parade grounds at 6.30.

At the end of the opening inning last night the game was tied up each team scoring two runs. Yankees got their two on a hit by Taylor and two walks. Senators with a single by Porritt, two walks and a fielder's choice to make 2-2 when the first stanza was over.

Miscues were pretty much in evidence by both teams in the second and third but neither team was scored upon then came Senators' big 12-run inning. Six hits and six Yankee errors sent the runs home. D. Palmer, P. Palmer, Boisvert, Caron, Neil and D. Palmer hitting safely.

Yankees put on a determined bid to erase the Senators' big lead in the top of the sixth inning. The Senator infield fell apart in this stanza with four errors being chalked up against them. Hits by Gerard and Taylor coupled with these errors gave the Yankees six runs but they were not enough and Senators took the game on the long end of a 14-8 count.

Neil, on the mound for the Senators, pitched good ball and he was ably supported by the Palmer brothers and Boisvert. Yankees had not too many stars but Taylor with two hits rates honourable mention while Majury stood out behind the plate. Courchesne, Webb and Roy were the umpires.

By MIKE TURNESA

The average golfer more often lands on the fringe of the green than on the putting surface.

From there the object should be to lift the ball over the tough fringe grass that can deflect or check it and stop it near enough the hole to get down in one.

Any time you want to stop the ball you should take a lofted club. So, why not use the wedge for chipping from the fringe? Many member golfers don't really know how to use the wedge to get out of sand or rough. These shots require a great deal of practice. But anyone can use the wedge for chipping. It is a fine chipping club. I employ it all the time from the fringe when the ball is too far off the green to use a putter.

Even if you can't blast from sand successfully with this club you can save strokes around the green with it. Anyone can, for compared with blasting out of sand, this is a comparatively simple stroke. And the place to save strokes is near the green. More strokes probably are saved here than anywhere else. The reverse also is true, of course.

Brompton Fish Derby To Be Held Sunday, July 20

The Brompton Lake Fish and Game Club is staging their annual Fish Derby Sunday July 20 commencing at 9.00 with the deadline 6.00.

The first prize will be $25.00 and twenty others will be at stake for the fishermen landing the biggest catches. The fish will be judged at 6.30 and prizes will be awarded immediately after.

The event is open to men, ladies and children with prizes going for the top catches of trout, dore, bass, pickerel and perch. The tourney is open to club members and anyone who registers at the clubhouse.

In case of rain the event will be postponed until the following Sunday July 27.

Marathoner Gordon Dickson Figures He Has Good Chance As Anyone In 26-Mile Event Next Week In BEG

CARDIFF, Wales (CP) — Gordon Dickson, the Canadian marathoner, figures he has a "good chance as anyone" when the big grind starts a week from Thursday.

The slim, 26-year-old redhead, about the hardest worker in the Empire Games village, runs 20 miles a day to keep his weight at a normal 120 pounds while "eating like a horse."

Tuesday he covered the 26-mile marathon course the easy way—by car—and liked it. Except for the courtyard of downtown Cardiff Castle, the course is all pavement with a few hills. The last lap is near Bristol Channel where winds are likely and "this could separate the strong men from the fast men," Dickson says. He has more speed than strength and he is a bit worried about the wind.

RUN 20 MILES DAILY

Dickson plans to run 20 miles daily until Saturday when he will begin tapering off.

The Canadian has prepared for the games by running an average of 15 miles a day since November.

Dickson moved from his native Calgary to Hamilton, Ont., 18 months ago.

Trainer A. V. Smith says prospects for the Canadian marathon champion "look very good." He hopes for cool, calm weather but if not "you will never hear Gordie complain," Smith adds.
