ATTEMPT TO BRIBE ALD. CLEARIHUE.

HE WAS FIRST OFFERED A FLYER IN STOCKS

Which Was to Net Him $3,000 and Later Was Told by a Resident of His Ward That His Vote for a Certain Company Would be Worth $3,000.

(See also page seven.)

The story that Ald. Clearihue will tell to the special committee, which he has asked Council to appoint, as to the attempts that were made to bribe him, in connection with the awarding of the electric light contract, is interesting in the extreme.

At the meeting of the City Council yesterday afternoon, Ald. Clearihue asked that a special committee be appointed to investigate into irregular practices that he believed to have been in vogue in connection with the electric light question. He gave no further information than this and the matter dropped. The notice of motion will not come up again for thirty days.

Upon being seen to-day by a Star reporter, Ald. Clearihue was asked if he had any objection to saying what evidence he was ready to give to the special investigating committee, as regards his own case. After a moment's deliberation he answered: "No, I have no objection to making known what efforts were made to bribe me."

WAS A QUESTION OF STOCKS.

Continuing, Ald. Clearihue said: "About two months ago I was sitting in my house one morning when a man, whom I knew, came in, and after some casual talk said:

"I don't suppose you deal very largely in stocks now, do you?"

"I was a little surprised at the question, as it was unexpected, and I answered that I did not. The man then went on to say that if I desired to go in with him for a deal in electric stocks we could make three thousand dollars each. He mentioned the stock of a certain electric company. I replied that if I ever bought stocks I did so alone, and that I was not buying stocks at present anyway.

"The man now seemed at a loss how to proceed, but still contended that there would be no harm in making three thousand each in stocks. I waited for him to come out more plainly, but he would say no more than I could make three thousand without any danger of loss if I desired.

"As I still refused to buy the electric stock he went away.

ANOTHER MAN APPEARS.

"I was very much annoyed over the matter, for I knew very well that it was not straight, and thought I should now be let alone, but I was surprised, some weeks later, by another man calling upon me and asking me in the most plain manner if I would vote for a certain Montreal company getting the electric light contract.

"He followed the request up by saying that my vote would net me three thousand dollars.

"The man was a resident of the ward I represent, and so as soon as he had got through speaking I asked him if he had voted for me to do my duty honestly in the City Council, or to sell the city, for my own interest, when the occasion arose. I was exceedingly angry over these offers, and used some strong language to this last visitor, winding up with the information that he had better leave my house. Such, in broad lines, are the attempts that were made in my connection. Surely such things as these are worth investigating."

THE NAMES OF THE BRIBERS.

"Will you give the investigating committee the names of the two men who called at your house and offered the bribes?"

"I cannot answer this question now. I shall have to decide the question when I see how the investigation is going."

"Unless you lay specific charges do you think the majority of the members of Council will grant an investigating committee?"

"I presume specific charges may be asked as is generally clamoured for when an investigation is demanded. I do not know what more I can say than that a direct offer was made to me if I would cast my vote for a certain electric company. I shall want the committee to decide what this offer constitutes in law and what should be done about the matter."

WERE OTHER OFFERS MADE?

"Are you under the impression that if an investigating committee is formed it will be found other members were also approached?"

"I do not want to cast any reflections, but I do say that a thorough enquiry into all the facts in connection with the awarding of the contract can do no harm. If there is nothing to hide there need be no fear as to holding an investigation. The special committee can start with my case and find out what there is in it. If it is then found the scope of the enquiry should be extended this can be easily done. I am sure the public would be glad to know all the facts in connection with the awarding of this contract. For my part I know I am very much dissatisfied with the way the contract was rushed through."

SHOOTING AT SEAGIRT.

The Canadians Defeat the Ulster Rifle Association on Long Range Shooting.

NEW YORK, September 9.—(Special).—The Canadians met the Ulster Rifle Association to-day on the long ranges at Sea Girt, N. J., and the honors went to Canada by 13 points on the gross score. The teams were composed of five men each, and they shot over the 800, 900 and 1,000 yard ranges. Canada leads again. Given a fair field and no favor, Canada asks no odds in any contest for superiority. Put to the test, Canada and Canadians know how to excel. That well known product of Canadian skill combined with the choicest procurable foreign grown tobaccos, the Irving Cigar, has made its mark, and reached the supreme position of Canada's leading ten-cent Cigar. The Irving has not achieved this proud distinction without effort. It leads simply because it is far and away the best value offered in the Dominion, and is so recognized by smokers of appreciation. Like all Canadian efforts, the Irving excels through superior merit. A simple test is to mail $1.00 to the makers, J. A BASEBALL DISPUTE REACHES PRACTICE COURT.

The Hamilton, Worcester and Montreal Baseball Clubs are the Parties Concerned.

Mr. Justice Pagnuelo was umpire, and Messrs. Surveyer and Archibald the whole battery in an interesting engagement before the Practice Court to-day. The contestants were the managers of the Hamilton Baseball Club, the Worcester Baseball Club and the Montreal Baseball Company, brought in as garnishees.

The case originated in an action by William Stroud, merchant, of Hamilton, and Charles Collins, manager, of Dundas, owners of the Hamilton Baseball Club, for the balance of the price of the transfer of a player named McAndrews, to the Worcester Club in 1900. The sale price of the player was $225, of which $50 was paid. An action was taken against the Worcester Club and Messrs. Kittridge and Hurley, at Hamilton, and the action was maintained with costs of $27.78 against defendants. On August 16th, 1901, Messrs. McGibbon, Casgrain, Ryan and Mitchell, in the name of the plaintiffs took out an action against the Worcester Club and P. H. Hurley, the owner. At the same time a seizure was taken in the hands of the Montreal Baseball Company of all money due or to be due to the Worcester Baseball Club. Mr. W. Hagar, treasurer of the Montreal Baseball Company, came to the Court, and declared for his company that he had paid over to Mr. Wrigley, one of the players, the amounts due to the Worcester Club, in virtue of a transfer served on Manager, Captain Dooley, for the purpose of paying the players' salaries.

The law provides, however, that no officer of a company may make a garnishee's declaration for that company unless he is authorized by a resolution of the directors of the company. Mr. Surveyer, therefore, asked that the Montreal Baseball Company be held as personally liable for the amount claimed. Mr. Archibald, of Foster, Martin and Archibald, resisted the application. He argued that as this Court had not yet held the defendants to be indebted to plaintiffs, it was impossible to declare the Montreal Baseball Company personally liable.

Mr. Justice Pagnuelo gave the Montreal Baseball Company a delay of eight days in which to make the garnishee's declaration.

AN INJUNCTION APPLIED FOR.

NOTICE GIVEN OF ONE TO RESTRAIN THE CITY

From Giving a Contract to the Royal Electric—The Petitioner is Mr. G. A. Nantel, Who Acted for the St. Lawrence Power Company — Alleges Royal is Non-Existent.

The contract for the electric lighting of the city, after having been discussed for months by the City Council will now be discussed for some time before another tribunal.

Mr. Ernest Pellissier, of the legal firm of St. Pierre, Pellissier and Wilson, acting on behalf of Honourable Guillaume Alphonse Nantel, advocate and journalist, yesterday applied to His Honour, Mr. Justice Pagnuelo, in Chambers, for a writ of injunction restraining the City of Montreal from signing the contract with the so-called Royal Electric Company, and to declare the resolution adopted by the City Council at the meeting of September 3rd instant, to be null and void.

The petition will be presented to Mr. Justice Pagnuelo in Chambers again on Thursday, as the learned justice advised the attorney for the petitioner to give notice of his intention to present such a petition. The notice was accordingly given to-day that the petition will be presented on Thursday.

The petitioner sets forth the fact that he is a ratepayer of the city, and therefore interested in the contract which is about to be signed. He recites the different steps that have been taken by the Fire and Light Committee and by the City Council to have tenders prepared and called for, and besides the consideration of the tenders by the City Council at the meeting on July 10, when it was decided to reject all tenders and call for new ones.

NO TENDERS WERE CALLED.

He goes on to allege that after that date the tenders were extinct, and the deposit which had accompanied them was returned to the owners. There was therefore before the Council no tenders from the so-called Royal Electric or from any other company, and that the City Council had no right by a simple resolution to revive tenders which had passed out of existence.

The petition further alleges that the meeting called for September 3rd at the request of six aldermen, was called for special purposes set forth in the notice for the meeting, and that the resolution offering the contract to the so-called Royal Electric Company was illegal and void, because it went beyond the purposes for which the meeting was called. Moreover, the petition alleges that the notice for the said meeting was illegal, because it reached the aldermen only on the day of the meeting, the two days preceding being non-juridical days.

COMPANY IS NON-EXISTENT.

The final allegation of the petition seems certainly the most important. It goes on to say that the so-called Royal Electric Company has no legal existence; that its legal existence has ceased by the consent of its shareholders and by the liquidation of its assets and liabilities, which it has delivered over, with its franchises to, the Montreal Heat, Light and Power Company.

The fact that Hon. G. A. Nantel acted throughout the proceedings before the City Council and its committees as one of the attorneys for the St. Lawrence Power Company lends additional interest to the application for injunction. The result of the case will be watched with the greatest interest by all the citizens of Montreal.

COURT OF KING'S BENCH SEPTEMBER TERM OPENED

Mr. Justice Ouimet, Who Presided, Referred to the Attempt on the Life of the President of the United States.

The September term of the Court of King's Bench opened to-day, with Mr. Justice Ouimet on the bench.

The court-room has been so changed that there is now room for lawyers and reporters to do their work without the crowding which formerly existed.

In opening the term His Honour read a short address to the grand jury, in which he advised them as to their duties. He referred to the attempted assassination of President McKinley as follows:

"It is the duty of this court to give public expression to the sentiment of horror caused amongst our people by the news of the dastardly attempt on the life of the distinguished and esteemed citizen who presides over the government of the neighbouring republic. We have the deepest sympathy for him and we pray and hope that Providence shall preserve the illustrious President to his country and his family."

The grand jury consists of the following: Wilfrid Mercier, Ludger Daoust, Victorien Goule, Dieudonne Beaudin, Chas. Masse, T. Bouthillier, Patrick Farmer, Ed. Mitchell, Hugh McGee, Ed. Hamilton, James McIntosh, George Esplin.

They were then sent to their room to consider the various bills laid before them, and the petit jurors were discharged until to-morrow.

DESERTED EMPLOYMENT—At St. Hyacinthe last week, Alfred Lord was sentenced to ten days in gaol for deserting the employ of Mr. Colin Campbell at St. Hilaire.

A BIG PARADE OF TORCH BEARERS.

REPRESENTATIVES OF FRATERNAL SOCIETIES SO DECIDE.

A Meeting Held Last Night to Make Arrangements—A Man Who Paraded Before the Prince of Wales to Take Part, Wearing the Same Coat He Then Wore.

An enthusiastic meeting of executive and local officers of the principal fraternal associations of the city, was held last night in the Invicta Hall, 1987 Notre Dame street, and the parade to be held during the visit of the Duke and Duchess of York now promises to be a big one.

The chair was occupied by Mr. C. J. Williams, representing the Independent Order of Oddfellows and the Manchester Unity of Oddfellows. Mr. W. Northy acted as secretary.

The veteran Volunteer Firemen, represented by Messrs. James Knox and James Bickerstaff, who marched in the grand procession, during the visit of the Prince of Wales, in 1861, will wear the same coat in this procession as he did on that occasion.

The Veteran Firemen will turn out in full uniform, and will be headed by the bagpipes, by special request. The various executive officers will, during the week, call a meeting of the different lodges so as to determine on Saturday night next what members are likely to turn out. For the citizens unattached to any society, Mr. William Darlington has undertaken the task of organizing from 500 to 1,000, who will be provided by the Central Committee with music, torches, etc., just the same as all the other societies.

Lieut.-Col. Starke explained that the different athletic associations would turn out in large numbers in uniform, and would undoubtedly make a grand showing. He also stated that the fireworks would likely take place on the Priests' farm on the evening of the 19th.

Mr. James Knox requested, on behalf of the veteran firemen, that they be furnished with new helmets. Col. Starke replied that the request would, no doubt, be granted. It was decided to invite all societies in the city to participate in the demonstration. The time is now short, and all societies are requested to send representatives to the meeting, which is to be held in the same hall next Saturday evening. The place where the procession will form up will be decided on at this meeting. The question of a souvenir badge to be worn by every person in the parade was discussed, but no decision could be arrived at. The matter will be decided next Saturday evening. If it is agreed to have the badges it is the intention to get them up so they will be worth keeping.

The whole line of procession and programme will be mapped out at the meeting to be held next Saturday evening in the Invicta Hall, 1987 Notre Dame street.

MOUNT ROYAL VERY ENTHUSIASTIC.

Mount Royal Lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F., held an enthusiastic meeting last night in the Oddfellows' Hall, 251 St. James street. Bro. C. Lane, N.G., occupied the chair. It was unanimously decided to participate in the procession in honour of their Royal Highnesses, the Duke and Duchess of York. It is the intention of old Mount Royal to lead all others. Bro. Peter Morrison was present, and stated that the Army and Navy Veteran Association would take part in the parade, and would wear their new uniforms and would have two bands. The old Vets will also wear their various medals and other decorations, and they claim they will be one of the most attractive associations in the torchlight procession.

The Archbishop Issues Circular.

His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Montreal has issued the following circular to the clergy of his diocese with respect to the approaching Royal visit:

"The approaching visit of their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York will afford a pleasing opportunity for the manifestation of that loyalty which has ever characterized the Church of England. To this end amongst other means to be used I would venture to request that you and your wardens would make provision for the display of flags from the tower or steeple of the church in your parish and from other prominent places, and that if the parishes are not in possession of a flag the same may be obtained and duly flown during the two days on which their Royal Highnesses will be in the city. Any other possible mark of welcome and loyalty that may be within your power would be grateful to myself as your bishop."

Portland Naval Men Coming.

During the visit of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York to this city the members of the Portland, Me., Naval Reserve Brigade, to the number of from 75 to 100, will come to Montreal. Two of their officers were in the city yesterday arranging matters connected with their transportation with the Grand Trunk officials.

Inspected by Directors.

The royal train, which was given a trial run to Quebec Saturday, was brought around from Place Viger to Windsor Depot yesterday, and inspected by the directors, who are holding their monthly meeting.

AFTER

The guests are gone the smile slips from the face of the hostess and she gives up to the pain which racks her body. Many a woman entertains and wears a smile while her back aches and her nerves quiver with pain. Surely any medicine which offers relief to women would be worth a trial under such conditions. But when the woman's medicine, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, is offered with the proof of efficacy in thousands of well attested cures, what excuse can then be offered for suffering longer?

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It dries enfeebling drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"It is with the greatest pleasure I write you the benefit my mother has received from your Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" says Miss Carrie Johnson, of Lowesville, Amherst Co., Va. "She suffered untold misery with uterine disease and nervousness, had a constant roaring and ringing noise in her head. After taking six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' she was entirely cured."

ST. LAWRENCE COMPANY WILL COME INTO CITY.

The Civic Contract Was Only a Side Issue, Says Mr. M. P. Davis.

"What do I think of the Council offering the contract to the Royal Electric? Well, I think there is only one thing to say about it. It was a most unbusinesslike proceeding."

Mr. M. P. Davis was discussing to-day the recent action of the City Council in passing over the tender of the St. Lawrence Company, at $56 per light, and offering the contract to the Royal at $60.

"But," continued Mr. Davis, "this will not prevent our Company from coming into the city. As I said before, this contract for the lighting of the city was only a side issue. If we got it, well and good, but if not, why we would not break our hearts in grieving over the matter. Our business is to bring power into Montreal, and dispose of it here, and we shall proceed along these lines irrespective of having won or lost the contract for the city lighting."

"When will a definite statement as to the composition of the company be given out?"

"The organization of the company is being proceeded with and a statement will be given out as soon as the matter is definitely arranged."

PACIFIC COAL COMPANY.

Letters Patent of Incorporation Issued—Objects of the Company.

With a view of further developing the mineral products of the Canadian North-West, a number of prominent Montreal and Toronto business men have been incorporated as the Pacific Coal Company. Among those most intimately connected with the new company are Sir W. C. Van Horne, R. B. Angus, and C. R. Hosmer, of Montreal, and E. B. Osler, M.P., and W. D. Matthews, of Toronto. The letters patent have just been issued.

The capital stock of the company will be $1,000,000. The objects of the new company, among other things, are to mine and extract coal in various parts of British Columbia, to produce petroleum and generally to carry on the trade of colliery proprietors, coal and coke manufacturers, oil producers and refiners. The interests of the company will be closely allied with those of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Although the company was formed some little time ago, it has not been decided as yet where the first operations will be started. The directors have not yet decided whether the head offices of the company will be placed at Toronto or Montreal.

AT THE DROP OF THE FLAG.

It was his riding in Montreal that started Johnny Nelson on the career which ended in his death yesterday.

Now that Mr. Thomas W. Lawson has refused to let his horse Boralma meet Cresceus, will he expect Mr. Ketcham, the owner, to break up Cresceus.

If such an inconceivable thing should happen that any member of the Oxford-Cambridge athletic team should fail to pass his final examinations, they would always be able to support himself as long as the present craze for vaudeville lasts.

Sir Thomas Lipton has the right idea. In an interview with P. Jenkins Hains he says:

"There is not a day that I do not feel thankful there are no accidents. These huge light spars of the single-stickers, together with their absurd build, have made the handling of these machines one of considerable danger. They are no longer yachts and can be used for nothing but the purposes for which they are built. If we could only get to using legitimate models there would be much more sport and safety, and the vessels would be yachts. They would stand for something. As it is they mean nothing at all.

"Mr. Butler Duncan told me he had many of his best men leave him because of the danger of handling gear aloft. The lightest squall or puff may cause the carrying away of some line or block and then the man is very apt to lose his hold and go plunging down from a height of over one hundred feet. I, myself, was knocked senseless for many minutes during the accident that occured while the King was aboard the Shamrock II. Many thousand yards of canvas and my mast are still lying there on the bottom, and it was almost a miracle some one was not killed outright. We have to tune the boats up to too high a pitch on these curtailed lines, and it is a great pity."

What Sir Thomas says is what many sailors know. But no one has suggested a remedy for it. There has been no concerted action taken to bring the sport back to legitimate and comprehensive lines. The whole game now is to stick to the rules and keep the other fellow from "lifting" the cup.

"It is your fault entirely," said Sir Thomas, meaning the other side, "for I must abide by the rules. I would, however, only too willingly agree to some new development of the rules by which we might get down to real yachting; that is, use vessels that stand for something in the way of a sailing yacht as the Erin does for those of steam. Then the affair would take on a less professional aspect and be more in keeping with true sport."

"Let everything be taken into consideration," continued Sir Thomas, "and do not narrow the sport down to the caprices that now obtain in it."

Sir Thomas did not outline any particular plan of reform, says Mr. Hains. This, of course, he would not think of doing under present conditions, as it might be construed as "kicking" when the game does not suit. Whatever happens, he will doubtless accept everything in the same spirit that has characterized his actions in the matter from the beginning, and this is beyond criticism.

BASEBALL

GAME STOLEN BY THE UMPIRE.

KELLY GAVE MONTREAL THE SHORT END OF IT.

Souders Struck the Last Man Out in the Ninth, But Kelly Cried Ball and Then the Trouble Began—Team Presented a Patched Up Appearance.

(Special to the Star.)

TORONTO, Ont., September 10.—A rank decision by Umpire Kelly, with two men out in the last part of the ninth, after Toronto had scored one run robbed the visitors of a victory yesterday. Hargrove was at bat and had two strikes on him when Souders floated over a third one which cut the plate in the middle, but Kelly called it a ball. Hargrove made a hit and Schaub singled. Toft's three-bagger to right field cleared the bases and tied the score. Up to this inning Toronto had been unable to do anything with Souders, securing only five scattered hits. Montreal gave him good support and it looked like a shut out until the ninth. Montreal was up against it, however. Shearon missed his train at Buffalo, where he had been spending Sunday. Raub was put in right field and Gordon behind the bat. Gordon injured his finger in the first inning and Raub went behind, Joyce going to the field. Then in the seventh, after Bannon had beat out a slow grounder to Quinlan, the latter made a rush at Umpire Kelly, drawing his glove in a threatening manner and the umpire immediately benched him. This necessitated another shifting around and Delehanty went to third, Sheehan to short and Felix to left field.

Sullivan started in to pitch for Toronto, but the Royals took a liking to his offerings in the third inning and from four hits, including a three-bagger by Joyce, and Sullivan's error, the visitors scored three runs. Bruce then went into the box and was a puzzle, allowing only three hits in the remaining eight innings. In the eighth the locals went up in the air and Montreal scored two runs without a hit on five errors and a sacrifice.

There was a chance to make a run in the eleventh inning when Felix led off with a single, but Joyce and Souders were easy outs, and Bruce deliberately gave Raub his base on balls. Delehanty was next at bat and fouled out to Carr. Toronto opened the eleventh with a single by Bonner to left field, which Felix allowed to get away from him, and Bonner reached third. Hargrove's single scored the winning run. The fielding of Dooley, Sheehan, Johnson, Brown, L. Carr, and Schaub was excellent. The score follows:

ROCHESTER, September 10.—With a crippled team in the field the locals lost to Buffalo yesterday. Crabill was given a try-out by Rochester and did equally as well as Hooker, but the errors behind him lost the game. O'Hagen was put out of the game for protesting one of Lanigan's decisions. The team was pretty much patched up.

Quinlan got gay with Kelly and was benched.

The Queens defeated the Imperials by a score of 31 to 13.

Souders pitched shut out ball and then Kelly got in his work.

Rochester made a season's record in the Eastern League by playing 14 consecutive games without meeting a defeat.

McCann, the ex-Canadian League pitcher, who played a few games with the Brooklyns early in the season, has been signed for Brooklyn for next year. At his own request he will lay off for the remainder of the season in order to get his arm in shape.

For a single game's work at short, Elberfield, of Detroit, surely established a season's, and probably a world's record, Monday afternoon, when he made 12 assists and three put outs without an error, to say nothing of figuring in starting no less than four double plays.

Nicholas Altrock, the clever south-paw twirler of the Toronto baseball club, left yesterday for California. Nick is going to play in the California League with the Los Angeles team. He still remains under a Toronto contract, however, and will play here next year provided he is not sold or traded in the meantime.

Tired Out

That's nothing. Every one is tired at times. The trouble is you can't get rested. It's your impure blood that makes the disturbance. Try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Your doctor will tell you what is in it, and why it will help you so promptly.

"I suffered terribly for 12 years. The doctors said my blood was all turning to water. At last I tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and was soon in the best of health again."

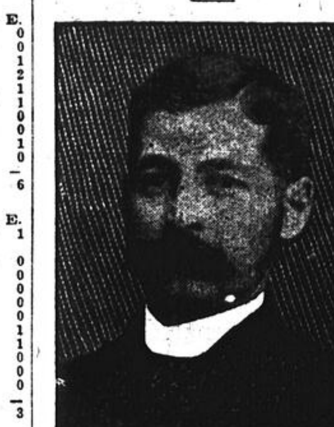
VETERANS IN THE FIELD OF CANADIAN SPORTS



MR. F. A. C. McINDOE.

There are few men better known in Canadian amateur athletic circles than Mr. F. A. C. McIndoe. He was one of the foremost members of the Montreal Lacrosse and Snowshoe Clubs, and was a popular president of the latter. That was in the times when Lacrosse was played a little differently from what it is now. Mr. McIndoe was one of the party that sat down at the Forest and Stream Club this spring to commemorate, as they annually do, their visit to England with the team that played lacrosse before the late Queen. Even now, while Mr. McIndoe does not take any more actual part in athletics, he is never missed from any athletic event of importance, and usually shows up in some important official position.

THE GRAND CIRCUIT NOW AT SYRACUSE

CRESCEUS' TRACK RECORD BROKEN THREE TIMES.

There Was a Sensation at Sheepshead Bay When Paul Clifford Came in First, and the Favourite Only Came in Third—Good Racing at Fort Erie Track.

SYRACUSE, September 10.—The opening of the Grand Circuit meeting furnished excellent sport. The track was fast, and a crowd of 10,000 people was in attendance. The track record of 2.06 1-2, made by Cresceus last year, was three times broken, once by Dariel, once by Harold H., and once by Audubon Boy. The low mark is now 2.05 1-2, made by Dariel, in the 2.07 pace. Shadow Chimes was the favourite in the 2.23 pace, Empire State Stakes, but Audubon Boy gave him a hard race, winning two heats. The Chimes horse, however, had the endurance, and won. Mazotte took the 2.07 pace, after Dariel and Harold H. had each won a heat. The amateur events were won by Senator Horace White, of Syracuse, with Sally Hook, and C. K. G. Billings, of Chicago, with Franker. In the second heat of the 2.14 pace (unfinished), Frank, a brown gelding, burst a blood vessel and was drawn.

The Sheepshead Bay Races.

NEW YORK, September 10—In the Ocean Handicap, at a mile, nine went to the post, with Gold Heels as the favourite. The start was long delayed, but they got away in fairly good order, although Herbert was badly off and never prominent. As they came out of the chute, Paul Clifford set a hot pace and had a couple of lengths the best of it up the back stretch, while the Ten Candles was second, and the favourite close up. Into the stretch the same order was maintained, and on a driving finish Spencer managed to outJockey Wonderly and won by a narrow margin, the others being beaten off, with the favourite third. There was a mix-up in the stretch in the Sapphire stakes, in which Pretorius looked to be the offender, but the stewards would not entertain the claim of foul and placed the horses as they finished. The fifth race was a big upset, for in a close finish Little Gem, at 100 to 1, won. It was reported that some Chicago people won about $70,000 out of the ring, for they backed the horse on every book.

First race, six furlongs—Mobrine, 113, Walsh, 10 to 1 and 5 to 1, won; Smoke, 110, O'Connor, 3 to 5 and 1 to 6, second ; Bellariom, 116, Burns, 10 to 1 and 5 to 2, third. Time, 1.13. Belle of Lexington also ran.

Time, 1.01. Leschen, Sedition, Emma A. M., Zirl, Fontenix, Prophetic, Linora, Lady Tom Tiddler, and Bijou also ran.

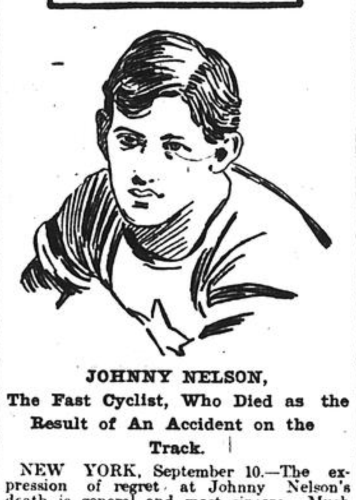
CYCLING



JOHNNY NELSON,

The Fast Cyclist, Who Died as the Result of An Accident on the Track.

NEW YORK, September 10.—The expression of regret at Johnny Nelson's death is general and most sincere. Much admiration was expressed for the pluck displayed by the little Swede, when a trainer who had been at the hospital all the afternoon related how, when told that his leg must come off, he looked at his manager and said: "Go out and get me a wooden leg, Frank. I don't want to stay here forever." According to the same man a woman, who has been constantly with Nelson and has been repeatedly mistaken for his mother, is no relation, but Mrs. F. E. Spooner, the wife of his manager. Nelson's father and mother are in Sweden. The only relatives he had in this country are an older brother, Fred, in Chicago and his younger brother, Joe, who is only 17 years old, but who has already done some remarkable riding as an amateur. Johnny was 21 years of age. He had won $18,000 in prize money this year, of which his net proceeds were $6,000. Most of this he had banked. Before he came into prominence as a cycle racer, which was in 1898, when he won the international amateur championship at the world's meet, Montreal, Nelson was a bicycle repairer in Chicago.

SHAMROCK OUT FOR A SPIN.

On the Reach in From the Lightship She Struck a Fast Clip.

NEW YORK, September 10.—After a successful trial spin of 2½ hours yesterday, the Shamrock returned to her moorings in the bay. There was a good breeze from the south-east when she started at 3.05 p.m. It shifted to the southward and finally to south-south-west. The yacht sailed on one tack out through Gedney channel to Sandy Hook lightship, thence to the southward about three miles, keeping off for home at 4.25. Her speed on the beam reach coming in from the lightship was undoubtedly between 14 and 16 knots. She covered, all told, about 20 miles while she was out. She made fast for the night at 5.30 p.m.

Towns' First Challenge.

WINNIPEG, September 10.—Towns, the new world's champion, has received his first challenge, W. J. Smith offering to put up $250 for a race between Towns and Durnan. Sullivan, on behalf of Towns, declined, unless the race is rowed either in England or Australia. Geo. Towns was undecided as to whether he would row again this fall or not. He declared, however, that he would not row in America for any championship, but that if a regatta was arranged at any place in Canada he might row. He says he is out of training for the present, and he will not likely take up work again before next year.

England is Pleased.

LONDON, September 10. — There was great jubilation here over George Towns' victory in the championship race Saturday at Rat Portage. At Tom Sullivan's hotel, Battersea, there was the greatest excitement and joy when the news of the race had been received. Congratulatory cables were sent to Towns and Sullivan by the score. A big reception will be tendered the new world's champion and Tom Sullivan on their return.

Pearce Won From Hackett.

RAT PORTAGE, September 10.—Harry Pearce, of Australia, defeated John Hackett, of Rat Portage, two lengths in their mile and a half race for $500 a side. Pearce came to Canada with Towns, who defeated Gaudaur for the championship. The time of the day's race was 9.43.

The monthly meeting of the Province of Quebec Association for the Protection of Fish and Game was held yesterday afternoon in the St. Lawrence Hall. Nearly all the members of the executive were present. Hon. Secretary Cleghorn had nothing but good reports. Seven convictions had been secured during the month for infraction of the laws. About ducks there was little complaint, the people near the shooting grounds recognizing their own advantage in preserving the flyers. Taken altogether the club is to be congratulated on their missionary work, and it will be all the better on the 15th, when the season will open legitimately.

ATHLETICS

ENTERTAINED THE SPEEDY ATHLETES.

AN ENJOYABLE SMOKER AT M. A. A. A. GYMNASIUM.

Prizes Won at Saturday's Sports Presented—Col. Knowles Makes An Interesting Address—The Programme Was a Good One—Workman the Lion of the Evening.

One of the most enjoyable entertainments ever held in the M. A. A. A. gymnasium was the smoker in honour of the visit of the Oxford-Cambridge athletes last evening. The hall was well filled and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves immensely. The chair was taken shortly after eight o'clock by Mr. A. W. Stevenson, the honourary president of the association and with him on the platform was Major W. B. T. Macaulay, president; Mr. W. A. Coates, chairman of entertainments, and Mr. E. H. Brown, secretary treasurer.

Mr. Stevenson addressed a few words of welcome to the visitors and hoped that they would be as successful in the future as they had been in the handicaps on Saturday last. He expressed much admiration for the form they had shown and said he was quite sure that they would win when they went up against the American colleges. Nobody knew how much the association appreciated the performance of Mr. Workman on Saturday, in giving the track a new mark for the half mile and he was positive that had the runner been pushed he could have done five seconds better and put the world's record beyond approach for years to come. He was sorry there was such a small attendance at the games, but this was attributable to the many counter attractions. The coming Saturday, however, would see a change in this respect and the visitors would be able to see what a good Canadian audience was.

The distribution of the prizes won on Saturday was then proceeded with and as each of the visitors who had been successful stepped to the platform, he was greeted with rounds of applause. Especially was this the case with Workman, who was made the lion of the hour. Major Macaulay excused the absence of Charley Cameron, the chairman of the sports committee, whom he said had other matters to attend to—"Charley is to be married."

The prizes which were of the useful variety, were very handsome and were presented by Mr. Stevenson. Afterwards Messrs. Tedford and Dugan were called on for a duet, which was a very fine setting of Rule Britannia, with chorus, which was joined in with much spirit by all present.

COL. LEES KNOWLES'S SPEECH.

Col. Lees Knowles, M.P., the manager of the team, was then called upon for a few words. He proved a good speaker, and had everybody with him inside of a minute. He had to thank the good people of Canada for the manner in which the team had been received here. The time they had spent here had been most enjoyable. Everything that could have been done has been done for their comfort. None of them with one exception had ever crossed the Atlantic before, but the people of Canada could rest assured that they would return home with nothing but the best thoughts of the country. They had felt when they crossed the border on the evening of their arrival that they were once more at home. And it was not in Montreal alone that they had been well treated. They had taken a flying trip to Quebec one day last week, and had been received there with open arms, although it had only been known a few hours in advance that they were to visit that city. Col. Knowles then related a few little things in connection with their entertainment here, how they had been made members of the different clubs, and how pleased they had been at the way they have been looked after by the M. A. A. A. people. They had come to this country to win their contests, and he expected that when they were ready to sail for home their record would be a clean one.

FRED HICKEY DOES A TURN.

Mr. Fred Hickey then enthralled the audience with two or three of his popular selections, and was followed by Messrs. Cornish and May, of Oxford, in a duet, which was much appreciated and encored. Mr. Tedford was then called on for a song, which he rendered in good style, after which Messrs. Workman and Dawson, the presidents of the C. U. A. C. and the O. U. A. C., said a few words in appreciation of what had been done for them by the people of Montreal. Mr. Workman said that in coming here and training before the meet they believed that they were doing the proper thing, and that they would not suffer the experience of the English team, which came over in 1895. Their defeat no doubt was due to lack of training after their arrival. No risk was being run on this occasion, and they would go down to New York with much confidence for success. Mr. Dawson could only second what others had said, they had nothing but thanks to bestow for what had been done for them.

This ended the speech-making, and the programme was completed with contributions by Messrs. Cornish, Dugan, Mantananini, Cleave, O. Stewart Taylor, Churchill and Alex. Stewart, who sang the old Snowshoe Club song, "The Old Tuque Bleue," for the benefit of the visitors, who afterwards retired to their hotel. The evening's entertainment was concluded with the National Anthem.

HOW BRITISHERS TRAIN.

A United States Opinion Upon Their Ways.

Mr. J. W. McCoy, of the Boston Herald, who visited Montreal to watch the British athletes train, makes the following observations:

An afternoon's work by the English team differs markedly from that of an American team preparing for an event of such importance. There is less of the systematic, dead-in-earnest look about it. Each man appears to be a law unto himself, though, for all an on-looker can see, the respective captains may prescribe some of the work—its character, amount and order. Mr. Knowles, the manager, doubtless has something to say about it, but nothing of the kind appears.

The men get a lot of fun out of it, however, and spend far more time on the field than, say, the Harvard men. The latter get through their daily stint in an hour easily. The Englishmen think nothing of putting in three hours of an afternoon. During this period some of the men will have a crack at nearly everything going. Sprinters will challenge and forthwith make a trial of a quarter-mile with some crack at the distance. A mile runner may spend most of his time with sprinters, practising starts. Jumpers will give the mile runners a "go," and so on.

Last Thursday, for example, was a fair sample of an Oxford-Cambridge day. It was hot and muggy, wherefore the hammers throwers forebare throwing at all. They did not "feel like it," and in an English college that seems to be quite a sufficient reason. Somebody had beguiled Workman away on a long walk, and he did not appear. Indeed, any one of the team can be thus beguiled by a suitably interesting companion, and their ideas of how long a "long walk" is would astonish an average American collegian.

Howard-Smith was the first to appear on this particular day. After a cursory inspection of the jumping pit, he disappeared to dress, reappearing in his athletic suit about the time Cornish, Cleave, Bulkeley and Cockshott showed up. The men dropped in, in bunches, till, about 3 p. m., all were on the field in their athletic rigs, one detail of which was utterly new to an American observer. It was a piece of fine flannel, about a yard square, dyed of the college colour of the owner. The use of this would not occur to one at first sight. The material is invariably of the finest texture, too good for a towel, and hardly suited to such uses.

Its use was demonstrated in a few minutes, however. It is to sit on. When the man has had enough exercise, for the time being, he looks around for a shady place on the bank, spreads his piece of flannel, and either sits or lies down on it. Whoever has had to look around for a presentable place to sit on in a field, or has battled with the creeping things of the earth, as his head was cushioned on a projecting bit of turf, will appreciate the handiness of this arrangement.

Another thing that the writer has never seen, in many years' experience among American student athletics, is a commonplace among these visitors — a novel. Cleave, for example, one of their half milers, and a good one, began his afternoon with a stroll around the track with Howard-Smith, the jumper, and some of the milers. The whole lot ran about a quarter finally, Cleave finishing first, but paying no care to do an exact quarter. He just won that particular race, and for the time being was satisfied.

He hunted up his prayer-mat, a term irresistibly suggested for the bit of flannel, took out a paper-covered novel folded in it, spread the mat out on the bank, and calmly proceeded to read. Every now and then he desisted for a while, stirred up a friendly argument with some of his associates over their respective abilities at something or other, settled the dispute by a trial on the track, and returned to his novel. Despite this apparent dawdling, he got through all of twice as much exercise as would an American student in training.

Meanwhile Howard-Smith had done a few turns at the high jump, his specialty, interspersed with rests. At one, he cleared, the writer judged, over 5 feet 10 inches, easily. His style is well nigh perfection, and should enable him to clear well over 6 feet with careful training. He started to resume his jumping, but got inextricably mixed up in an argument at the head of the 100 yard path, where nearly the whole team were trying to settle conclusions on speed at starting.

Cockshott, Gregson and McNaghten, all distance men, were bargaining for short handicaps on Hinds, their star sprinter, and all being started with the pistol, running perhaps 50 yards. Howard-Smith proved a good starter, as indeed, were all the Englishmen, even Hind, whose success depends on his start, showing no great superiority in this detail.

Thus it went with all of them in a general way; tries at his and then at that, but the programme including at least one jab at their specialty. It was rare for any of them to go out alone and grind off a definite, prescribed task, as is a common, or, indeed, the usual thing among American students. The method accounts for the undeniably greater all-around ability of the English student in track and field athletes. Nearly all of them can perform creditably throughout the list.

Witness Workman, their wonderful distance man, doing the best half mile as well. Cornish will fill in anywhere in an entry list. Millers, like Gregson and McNaghten, can do more than a good 100-yards dash. About the only men to stick to one thing were Garnier and Allcock over the hurdles who are strictly hurdlers, and do not step over the hurdles, as the American experts do, since Kraenzlein's time. It is pretty work, and doubtless necessary over the English fixed hurdles, but costs something in speed.

"We do not believe in making a task of it," says Capt. Dawson of Oxford. "It is properly sport and recreation, and for college men should not become a pursuit for itself alone. Healthy out-door fun, a relaxation from more important affairs, abilities just good enough in quality to make the game interesting, are the true aims of this or any other college sport. Of course, we want to win, and, to do that, must run faster, jump higher and throw farther than the opposing team, but we are not grinding our teeth in any effort to beat the Harvard and Yale men, and sincerely hope they are not either.

"It is possible, perhaps, by adopting methods more or less professional, that we could assure a win, but I doubt it personally very much. Let a man gifted by some extent athletically, and having a taste for outdoor exercise, do what he likes here, just when he feels like it, and at no other time, and I believe he will be ready on the day of the race to do the best he is capable of."

Kranzlein in for C. A. A. U.

(Special to the Star.)

TORONTO, September 10.—Kranzelin, the fastest amateur 100 yard runner in America, has entered for the C.A.A.U. games at Rosedale. His performance at the hurdles in England recently were greatly admired, and he will no doubt be able to make fast time on the Rosedale track on September 21.

CRICKET

INTERNATIONAL GAME.

All Day's Play at Ottawa Yesterday.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, September 9.—After the Star had gone to press, the Americans succeeded in making 168 runs before they were all out in their first innings in the International Cricket Match yesterday. At lunch time Haines was well set with 32, and he followed up his good bating of the morning, as before, he was disposed of, he had added another 33 and finally retired to a fine catch by Gillespie for 65. It was a beautifully played innings and it was certainly the finest cricket seen for some time on the Ottawa grounds. Mason put up a good article of cricket until he was run out after making 18. Altemus held up his end and hit hard and correctly for 22 and fell to a brilliant catch by Gillespie in the slips. Hal McGiverin captained the Canadians in fine shape, and perhaps the surprise of the match was the bowling of Bristow, who put down 25 overs for 31 runs and while only taking two wickets was almost impossible to get away, and fully justified his position in the team. Laing was put on late and captured two wickets for six runs.

Play was resumed at 2.30, with Haines and Clarke, the bowlers being Bristow and McGiverin. Bristow opened with a maiden. Clarke hit McGiverin for four through cover point. The next over however, McGiverin, had revenge as he caught and bowled him for 6 runs. Total 89—6—6. Bristow was bowling in fine shape the batsmen finding him hard to find. Haines hit McGiverin for 4, a beautiful in drive, and Gillespie was put on at 1.08, only to be placed to the off boundary by Haines for four. At 1.24 Bristow went off for a rest and was replaced by Chambers. After a long stand of about an hour and three-quarters, Haines let one up in the slips and retired for 65. Score 127—7—65. His innings included three four bits and eight threes. Bristow replaced Gillespie at the top end and Laing fast overhand, went on in place of Chambers, the score being 140.

Runs came slowly for a time until the batsmen began to find Laing, but a mistake in judging the runs in a fine squareleg hit by Altemus, led to Mason being run out. Score 153-8-18. Mason has made his runs by correct cricket.

Jordan followed and made a short stay poking up one to his credit at mid in 157-9-1. Pearson followed as last man and a stand was made for a time until caught by Forester. Altemus' inning was a well and patiently played one.

Canadians opened their innings with Lownsborough and Saunders to the bowling of Clark, fast, and Lester, slow. Clark put a maiden down to Lownsborough, and Saunders scored one off Lester. Then Clark clean bowled Saunders, the score being 1—1—1. Cooper followed and drove Clark for 2 and later snicked him through the slips for four. Both batsmen were playing a steady game. Cooper again snicked Clark for a two and a single, and runs began to come fast. Lester was hit for a 2 and a one, and Clark was got away on the legside. Cooper took chances of hitting Lester, and finally was stumped after making a good 12. Score 22—2—12. Bristow only added one before he got out, L. B. W., to Clark, the score standing 29—3—1. Laing had a few balls when he opened out to hit Lester and fell to Pearson at cover point, 30—4—1. Gillespie was next in. He started playing International cricket in 1880, and is beginning to be looked on as an old timer. He was not long there before he drove Lester for two near the boundary.

Gillespie batted in good shape until he tried to pull Lester and went out, 56—5—11. McKenzie followed and Lester got him first ball, 56—6—0. Lownsborough played a fine innings, 56—7—18. Forester then went in and Ackland got Lester away to leg for the 3 and Clark through the slips for 2 and a single. Clark bowled a maiden, and Ackland cut Lester beautifully for 3, but two balls after fell to Altemus in the slips, when trying to drive, 77—8—13. Chambers took one ball when the game was called. The full scores for the day were:

MORE FUNDS.

The Citizens' Committee is appealing to the citizens of Montreal for further assistance to enable it to carry out the programme in connection with the Royal visit in a becoming manner. Mr. George A. Drummond, chairman, and Mr. James Crathern, treasurer, have been indefatigable in their efforts to make the work of the Citizens' Committee such as to reflect credit upon the city, and their hands should certainly be strengthened. There are doubtless many well-to-do citizens who have overlooked the matter of sending in subscriptions and who will seize the opportunity to contribute something. If the celebration should be all that we hope for, those who helped will feel they had a share in it. If it should be less than a pronounced success those who forgot to subscribe would feel personal regret and some personal responsibility.

MONGOLIAN IMMIGRATION.

A letter appears in the London Times from E. Bartrum, D.D., dated Wakes Colne Rectory, Essex. The writer takes for his subject "Mongolian Immigration Into Canada." He pleads strenuously for the free admission of Chinese and Japanese into Canada, and urges that no heed be paid the "politicians of British Columbia."

"I know British Columbia—have a son-in-law there," he writes, "and have argued this question with leading men in that colony; moreover, I have had official communication with the Japanese Government through one of their former representatives at Washington, and in other ways."

In passing, it might be suggested that the only persons who have any right to hold "official communications with the Japanese Government" about Canadian polity or the relations of Canada with foreign countries are the officials of the Colonial Office, and they would hardly presume to do so without the request, or at least consent, of the Canadian Government. Dr. Bartrum would seem to have been carried beyond the bounds of discretion in his zeal, but this is due, no doubt, to his inexperience in the political field.

The arguments presented are as follow: "What is the great want of Canada? A large and industrious population. The extent of territory is enormous, the area being greater, I believe, than that of the United States, yet the population numbers six millions only, Chinese, Japanese and Indians included. The Chinese are the most industrious and useful of all the labourers. The province of British Columbia could scarcely be "run" without them. At almost all the inns and in not a few families the Chinaman is the cook and general servant. They earn very high wages, sometimes even £6 or £8 a month besides board and lodging, simply because there is no competition. The miners do not like them, for they lower the price of labour and set an example of industry which the white man is not always inclined to follow. They are the gardeners everywhere as well as cooks; they milk the cows, and indeed will do anything as long as they are well treated and well paid.

"All manner of charges are brought against them. Some, no doubt, are true, but cannot charges quite as bad and quite as true be brought against not a few of our East-enders?

"John Chinaman treated well and kept under strong control is an excellent fellow; see him at Hong-kong or in the Straits Settlement, see him on board the large steamers, and you cannot withhold your admiration. I have seen him in all these cases as well as in British Columbia.

"The Japanese, too, are flocking into Canada. They have many attractive qualities and are excellent in household matters and laundry work. The Canadian Government dare not keep them out though "working men" would like to do so. If they were excluded the famous Manitoba No. 1 wheat might be kept out of Japan as well as other Canadian products. An increasing amount of wheat goes every year to Japan, and a promising market would be lost to Canada."

He anticipates being answered by some one with an argument, which he apparently has heard before, by saying: "The argument that the Chinaman earns much and spends little is hardly worth examining. He largely increases the products of the soil and therefore, the wealth of Canada; true, he spends but little, but he must spend something and pay taxes on all he imports. In some of our settlements he is not only prosperous, but liberal also.

"If Chinamen and Japanese are to be sent out of Canada a claim might also be set up for excluding the coloured men who are employed in the trains and chief cities.

"Persons with any capital to lose should carefully consider the cost of labour before they decide to settle in Canada. British Columbia has been called by a well-known American writer "the brightest jewel in the British Crown," but wages are so high that in this as well as in the other provinces there is some danger for the future except in the case of the miners and of those who hold mining property. The gold discoveries of Alaska are doing the cattle ranchers good, but, as I have already said, the great need of Canada is cheaper labour. The politicians of British Columbia are trying to make it still more dear. I hope they will not succeed."

We trust the reverend gentleman will not accuse us of being disrespectful if we ask him if he does not think the people of Canada, even the "politicians of British Columbia," may be as anxious for the welfare of Canada, as well as aware of what is necessary to promote that welfare, as he is? Is it not possible that the fact of their living in Canada all their lives, having their little all invested in Canada, having opportunities from day to day and hour to hour of observing what is going on in Canada, may possibly enable them to know as much of the subject they are talking about as he does? But assuming they are all wrong and he—from the fact of having a relative living in British Columbia—is all right, is he not trying to educate the wrong people? If any need to be converted to his views it must be the people of Canada, for it is the people of Canada and only the people of Canada, who can make the changes he desires.

We have heard arguments similar to those now before us, and they were from persons who had not given the subject as much study as they thought they had, or as the present correspondent possibly has.

The statement that we need cheap labour in this country has the merit of frankness.

One of the recent commentors on the smallness of the population in Canada, said that the trouble was that we had too many clever men in this country, and continued that such a statement, though sounding boastful was the absolute truth. We are inclined to think that there is a greater evenness of educated intelligence here than in most countries. In other words, while we may not produce many who actually illumine the world with their brilliance, our absolute dunces are few. The idea of filling up the country with an ignorant population from the lower orders of mankind, going to a distant country and getting the race most unlike our own, in order that we may have a permanent inferior people to rule over, has in it something a little opposed to the sentiment of our day.

We have risen above — or fallen below—that spirit.

A worthy old gentleman who had to toil rather harder than he wished in pursuing the weary path of the agriculturist, was wont to say that "what we need in this country is a peasantry." That is about the same view, in brief, that Rev. Dr. Bartrum possesses. Yet, if there is one thing more than another that we pride ourselves upon it is that we have a country without a peasantry; that we have a country where the highest position is open to those of intelligence, ambition and ability; that if we have not received as large accessions of population as some other new countries, we have not taken in the offscouring of the world. Instead of trying to have this made a country where labour is poorly paid, we have, in our benighted ignorance, been trying to make it a country where labour was well paid, where contentment would take the place of penury, honest toil would be respected, the workhouse not in evidence, and class patronage neither sought nor encouraged.

The importation of a race so near resembling a lower species of being, a race which can never in the ordinary course become really part of a homogeneous population, is so entirely foreign to the spirit of this country that people of all parties agree as to the necessity for Chinese exclusion laws, and, if Dr. Bartrum will pardon us for saying so, the more deeply the matter is looked into the more convinced do those who entertain these views feel that they are right. A good steady stream of Chinese immigrants into a certain orderly parish in Essex, displacing the present parishioners and introducing the dialectic peculiarities, industrious and other habits of the Orient, would do much to enable Dr. Bartrum to take a very practical view of this question.

There continues to be nothing but favourable news from the sick room at Buffalo, and all the world rejoices.

The falling leaves, the gathering in of the harvest of over ripe straw hats, the storage of the bathing suit and the reopening of city residences are harbingers of golden autumn's chilly coming.

Czolgosz is apparently a living example of the danger there is in preaching red hot doctrines of class hatred into the ears of an indiscriminate audience. Some take such doctrine theoretically; others as a behest to go out and commit murder.

It is quite possible that the effort to try and remember how to spell his own name may have unhinged the mind of Mr. Czolgosz, and made him ripe meat for receiving the teachings of anarchy reduced to practice.

CANADIANS DEFEAT IRISH.

The Dominion Team at Seagirt Scores Another Victory.

NEW YORK, September 10. — The Canadian and Irish riflemen met yesterday on the long ranges at Seagirt, N.J., in a special contest, between teams of five men each. They shot over the 800, 900 and 1,000 yard ranges, the Canadians using the English military rifle and the Ulster representatives shooting with Mannlicher's guns. In consequence the Canadians received an allowance of eight points each, or forty points for the team, and the honours went to Canada by 13 points, on the gross score. The net scores were: Canada, 593; Ulster Rifle Association, 620.

Major J. K. Milner made 49 points out of a possible 50, at 1,000 yards. The match was decided on the scores made in the first half of the special all-comers' cash prize match, in which 33 men took part, each of whom had shots at 800, 900 and 1,000 yards. The second half will be shot today.

In addition there was another match between four men who had seven shots each at 200, 300, 500 and 600 yards, which constitute the first half of a contest for three prizes donated by the French shooting societies. The result so far is as follows: Capt. G. C. Shaw, Washington, D.C., 128; Capt. W. B. Martin, Elizabeth, N.J., 125; Lieut. H. M. Bell, Washington, D.C., 115, and Lt. A. M. Allison, Washington, D.C., 109, out of a possible 140 points.

In the all-comers' match those shooting military rifles will be allowed eight points each by those using match rifles, and the net high scores out of a possible 150, are: Major J. K. Milner, Ireland, 136; Frank Hyde, New York, 135; Dr. J. C. Sellars, Ireland, 135; John Morgan, Ireland, 133; Capt. W. B. Martin, Elizabeth, N.J., 132; Col.-Sergt. Skedden, Canada, 131; Thomas Caldwell, Ireland, 129, and James Wilson, Ireland, 128. The summary of the team match is:—Canada, Capt. W. H. Davidson, 122; Private Paupst, 122; Sergt. Skedden, 131;; Sergt.-Major Huggins, 113; Gunner Fleming, 105; handicap allowance, 40. Grand total, 633. Ulster Rifle Association, Major J. K. Milner, 136; Robt. Duncan, 126; W. T. Braithwaite, 122; J. R. Williams, 120; F. W. Henry, 116. Total, 622.

THE PASSING HOUR.

SNAP SHOTS.

Some wives miss their husbands when they are away, and some aim so badly that they miss them even when they are at home.

Police Constable Michael Flynn, of Ottawa, has been suspended for neglecting to salute a magistrate. What a lot of fun Flynn might have had for this penalty in some cities!

Anxious Enquirer.—"Yes. Mayor Prefontaine will have to wear a chain at the Royal reception, but the aldermen will be allowed to run loose."

Some sing because they are happy and bright; some because they are mournful and sad; some from the merest cussedness and spite, and all loud enough to make the neighbours mad.

"Gentlemen of the jury," asked the clerk of the court, "have you agreed upon a verdict?"

"We have," replied the foreman. "The verdict of the jury is that the lawyers have mixed this case up so that we don't know anything at all about it."

It is stated that a detective disguised as a plumber went to work in Czolgosz's cell, and gained the prisoner's confidence by expressing sympathy for him. Yet it has been asserted all along that Czolgosz shot the President on account of the latter's supposed sympathy with the millionaire or plumber class.

Johnny and Amy are quarelling about their grandmothers. Johnny says, triumphantly, "I have two grandmas, and you have only one." Amy will not believe that any one can have two grandmothers, and rejoins: "You want to fool me; how can there be two grandmas for one little boy?". "I don't know," says Johnny, "probably my grandmas are twins."

There is a good deal of kicking among the militia at their being called out for four days for review purposes, when, in the opinion of most of them, three days would suffice. The reason the Montreal men leave for Quebec on Friday night, to be reviewed on the following Monday, is to enable them to get used to living sumptuously on twenty-five cents a day before the Prince sees them.

What is in a name? "That thing we call a 'Czolgosz' by other name might be just as big an ass and just as big a scoundrel. But all the same it seems a pity for Governments on this continent to go out of their way to encourage the immigration of Czolgoszesses. You never hear of a Smith, a Brown, a Jones or a Robinson spouting anarchy and shooting the man with whom he is shaking hands.

Vice-President Roosevelt has been doing a little hand shaking with some horny-handed sons of toil just to show that he isn't afraid. Nevertheless this promiscuous paw-wagging is a silly business. If Presidents and Vice-Presidents have got to shake hands with every Dick, Tom and Harry, just to show that they are not proud, they should adopt the Chinese system of each man shaking hands with himself. This would make it so much hardier for one shaker to shoot the other shaker.

According to most reliable press reports Leon Czolgosz has made and signed a formal confession. Two versions are published, and there is not even a family likeness between them. With regard to the chief point of interest, that is to say, the question of accomplices, Mr. Czolgosz says:

In Version No. 1—"I deny that I have had an accomplice at any time. I had no confidants, no one to help me. I was alone absolutely."

In Version No. II., Mr. Czolgosz says: "I am not alone in this work. I am only one of the great body of Anarchists bound together under solemn oath to accomplish a work and to bring about the results that surely must come."

Mr. Tarte has fyled his plea in the suit of Thomas Mowbray against him for $2,000 for damages caused by the Honourable Minister injuring a statue of the Hon. Alexander Mackenzie. It is alleged, it will be remembered, that Mr. Mowbray sent Mr. Tarte statues of Queen Victoria and Alexander Mackenzie, and when they were returned Alexander's head was found to be knocked off. Mr. Tarte's statement and defence is not complete. He states, among other things, that Alexander was "of a most brittle and perishable nature," and "disintegrated through ordinary exposure." Further, that if his head was knocked off, the damage would not amount to anything."

The Duke of Cornwall and York will not lay the foundation stone of the Ontario Government's monument to Queen Victoria at Toronto. Perhaps H. R. H. does not care to lay corner stones for temporary structures, and in view of the fact that the Ontario Government is pulling down the statue of Sir John Macdonald to make room for the statue of the Queen, he may have had doubts as to how long the provincial ministers would leave the stone where he laid it.

We do not know who originated the idea of charging gate money to see the Prince and Princess at the Toronto review. It is a charming idea; the only difficulty is that their Royal Highnesses may not care to perform at a one-day stand in a little town like Toronto, and we are not sure that the managers of the entertainment would have a good action of damages against the Prince if the Royal couple refused to appear and the audience demanded their money back.

Folly,
Then—back to boarding house and hall-room and his stingy morning meal!

WHY SHE DIDN'T WANT THE TEA URN.

While Francis Wilson, Frank McKee and several others sat around a table at an uptown restaurant in New York the other night "talking shop," the peculiarities of a certain actress, who is anything but popular with members of the profession, were dissected. Wilson finally remarked:

"She is morbidly sensitive."

"I don't agree with you," said McKee, "Why do you think so?"

"She is so nervous that she will not even have a tea urn in her room, that's why," replied the comedian.

Now, every one realized that there was a joke somewhere, so one of the party asked: "What's the answer, Francis?"

The comedian, with a dreamy, faraway look in his eyes, replied:

"She can't bear to hear it hissing; it recalls unhappy moments of her life. See?"

HE WOULDN'T MISS IT.

Irate Parent—How dare you have the impudence to come and ask for your ball back when you nearly killed one of my children with it?

The Captain of the Team—But, please, sir, you've got ten children, and we've only one ball.

COMPLICATIONS.

Mamie—I think Mr. Crustleigh is just too mean for anything.

Fannye—But he married your mamma.

Mamie—I know he did. I jilted him for Harold, then he married mamma, and now he won't let me marry Harold.

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S WHAT

NOVA SCOTIA'S NEW MINISTER.—As a consequence of the retirement of Hon. C. E. Church from the Nova Scotian Government, Mr. Arthur Drysdale, K.C., has become Minister of Public Works and Mines for that province. The new Commissioner of Public Works and Mines is one of the leaders of the Halifax Bar and is one of the ablest lawyers in the province. He is a keen debater, and ranks as one of the most effective speakers in Nova Scotia. He has represented the County of Hants in the Legislature for three terms.

Hon. Arthur Drysdale.

He was born at New Annan, Colchester County, and is 44 years of age. He was admitted to the Bar in 1882 and was appointed Queen's Counsel in 1895, being now head of the firm of Drysdale and McInnes.

RETIRED FROM POLITICS.—Hon. C. E. Church, who has just retired from the Public Works and Mines Department of the Government of Nova Scotia, has been a member of the Executive Council of Nova Scotia for a longer period than any other person since 1847. In 1872 he was elected as a representative from Lunenburg County to the House of Commons, and, being re-elected, sat in the Dominion Parliament until 1878. In 1882 he was elected to represent Lunenburg in the Legislature of Nova Scotia, and since that time has continued to represent that constituency. In 1882, on the formation of a new provincial Government, Mr. Church was appointed Provincial Secretary, which position he held until 1884. Upon the reconstruction of the Government he received the appointment of Commissioner of Public Works and Mines of Nova Scotia, which position he held up to a few days ago.

Hon. C. E. Church.

LEFT THE DUFFERIN RIFLES.—The 38th Battalion, the Dufferin Rifles, of Brantford, Ont., are regretting the resignation of Major Wilkes, the commanding officer. Major Wilkes joined the Dufferin Rifles as an ensign in 1877, and continued with the regiment until 1882, when he left for Manitoba. At that time he was a lieutenant, and after arriving in Winnipeg he helped to form the 90th Battalion, in which he was captain and had command of a company through the Riel campaign of 1885, securing the medal and a clasp. Returning to Brantford in 1887, he again joined the Dufferin Rifles as Adjutant. In 1891 he was gazetted Major and on the retirement of Lt.-Col. Spence, assumed command of the regiment, which he has since held. The Major has served over 20 years as an officer of the Canadian Militia, and has applied for the auxiliary forces officers' decoration for length of service.

Verdict: "That the deceased James Renforth came to his death by congestion of the lungs, which may have been caused by over exertion in the boat race."

Eminent Irish Jurist Dead.

(Special to the Star.)

DUBLIN, September 10.—Michael Morris, the first Baron Morris and Killanin, died on Sunday. He was one of the most eminent of Irish jurists. He was born in Galway on November 14, 1827. He was educated at Galway College and Trinity College, Dublin, and was graduated as First Senior Moderator of the university in 1847. He was admitted to the bar in 1849, and in 1863 was made a Queen's Counsel. In 1866 he was appointed Solicitor-General for Ireland, and in 1867 Attorney-General. He was raised to the bench as Judge of the Court of Common Pleas in the same year, and in 1887 was appointed Lord Chief Justice of Ireland. From 1889 to 1890 he was Lord of Appeal in Ordinary. On September 15, 1885, he was knighted. On December 5, 1889, he became Baron Morris of Spiddal, County of Galway, and on June 15, 1900, Baron Killanin of Galway, County of Galway.

There is a water famine in Cape Breton County, N.S. All the wells and reservoirs are dry, and water has to be hauled a distance of ten miles to the mines. The drought in various parts of New Brunswick is becoming serious, and a bad state of affairs is reported from Kent County, where the farmers are obliged to kill or sell their cattle. The pastures and hay crops have been destroyed, and the dairying industry is a failure.

Paine's Celery Compound

CURES NEURALGIA, BANISHES NERVOUS DEBILITY AND BUILDS UP THE WHOLE SYSTEM.

MRS. M. YOUNG,

Jarvis Street, Toronto, Says:

"I Thank God and Paine's Celery Compound For My Renewed Health and Strength."

When Paine's Celery Compound is used by sick and broken-down women, a solid foundation of health is quickly laid. The bowels are kept regulated, poisons in the blood are banished, neuralgia and rheumatism are expelled from the system, the appetite becomes natural, and sleep and sweet rest prove that perfect health has taken the place of sickness and disease. We urge every wife and mother to test the virtues of that medicine that "makes sick people well."

Mrs. M. Young, desiring to benefit suffering women, writes thus:

"I was a terrible sufferer from neuralgia and nervous debility, and was extremely weak and rundown. While in this condition I tried almost all kinds of medicines without any improvement. My sister finally persuaded me to try your Paine's Celery Compound. The first bottle helped me wonderfully, and, after having used six bottles my health is restored and I am now a new woman. I am pleased to say that Paine's Celery Compound is all that you represent it to be—a banisher of disease and a restorer of health. I thank God and Paine's Celery Compound for my renewed health and strength." 213 1

A STORMY FIRST NIGHT.

Reception of Gillette's Play "Sherlock Holmes" at the Lyceum.

(Special to the Star.)

LONDON, September 10. — "Sherlock Holmes" thrilled a large and critical audience at the Lyceum Theatre last night, but the most dramatic moment came after the final fall of the curtain, when William Gillette, after repeated recalls, raised his hand to secure silence and order, and to thank the audience, which had given unmistakable signs of approval and appreciation of the drama. A small but noisy knot in the gallery attempted to express dissatisfaction by booing, but the protest was silenced by bravos and rounds of applause. The objectors persisted in booing, and it was five minutes before Gillette could be heard. He won hearty recognition for the manliness and coolness with which he held his ground, and in the end made a witty and tactful speech, conveying his thanks, which was warmly applauded.

The play was a melodrama so far in advance of what has been seen at the Adelphi and other theatres in ingenuity of construction, that the galleries were not able to follow some of the cleverest and most ingenious passages. The leading part was subtlety by Gillette. The success of the play will be unmistakable, notwithstanding the disturbance made by the small group of objectors.

Four Young Ladies Take the Veil.

(Special to the Star.)

SHERBROOKE, Que., September 10. — Sunday morning, at the monastery of the Precious Blood, this city, four young girls made their religious profession, three taking perpetual vows, and one, after a year's novitiate, assumed the holy habit.

The names of the three new members of the community are Miss Clarina Mousette, of St. Sylvestre, in religion Sister Marie du Precieux Sang; Miss Melina Ponton, of Brompton Falls, in religion Sister St. Stanislas de Kostka, and Miss Leda Neiderer, of St. Germain de Grantham, in religion Sister Marie Joseph. The fourth, who only took the habit, is Miss Marie Louise Yvon, from Holyoke, Mass.

The ceremony was presided over by His Lordship Bishop Larocque, and was attended by a very large congregation. Representatives of the Convent of the Congregation, the Convent of the Holy Family, and of the Grey Nuns were present at the ceremony.

American Committed for Trial.

(Special to the Star.)

SHERBROOKE, Que., September 10. — George F. Whitcombe, an American, was arraigned before the district magistrate yesterday, charged with attempting to pass confederate money at Louis Smith's jewellery store last Friday evening.

On the evidence of Mr. Smith, he was committed to stand his trial before the Court of King's Bench.

He went into Smith's store and asked for a cheap chain, offering in payment a $10 Confederate bill. Mr. Smith quietly rang the police alarm, which he has under his desk, without the man noticing his action. It is needless to say Whitecombe was very much surprised a moment later when the police patrol dashed up to the door.

Tomaco is besieged by filibusterers from Nicaragua. A considerable expedition was about to start from Corinto (Nicaragua), which was expected to land near Panama on the fifth."

COLON, September 10, via Galveston.—On the publication of the report in Panama on Sunday afternoon that a Venezuelan squadron, consisting of four ships, was bombarding Rio Hacha, on the Caribbean Sea, a mob proceeded to the residence of Senor Cardozo, the Venesuelan consul at Panama, shouting: "Down with the Government of Castro." Cardozo, who is a Danish subject and a native of St. Thomas, immediately took refuge in the palace of the Governor of Panama, where he was well received. The local officials deplore the regrettable incident. The mob was eventually dispersed.

PRESIDENT IS OUT OF DANGER.

SO DECLARED TEDDY ROOSEVELT THIS AFTERNOON.

Preparations are Already Under Way for a Day of National Rejoicing—Bells Will Ring and Cannon Boom All Over the Big Republic.

(See also page twelve.)

BUFFALO, September 10.—The strong assurance given this morning that the President will recover has caused general rejoicing.

The Exposition managers have commenced to plan a day of thanksgiving, not alone for the Exposition, but to the whole country. It is to be given the aspect of a national day of rejoicing. They are arranging that on a certain day the bells of all the cities and towns in the United States be set ringing, and that the rejoicing be heralded with the tooting of whistle and the booming of cannon.

The members of the Cabinet, Senator Hanna, and General Grosvenor only arrived from Ohio this morning, and all the other distinct friends of the President who have remained here to await the issue to the attempt on his life, hurried to the Milburn residence to learn the particulars and join in the jubilation. For hours carriages and automobiles streamed up Delaware avenue. Down town the people gathered in crowds at the bulletin boards and gave vent to their pent-up feelings in open rejoicing and at the Exposition thousands of visitors who read the bulletins posted everywhere burst into cheers.

Vice-President Roosevelt departed from the residence at 12.30, leaving the members of the cabinet still there. "The President's recovery is assured," said he to the newspaper men who surrounded him immediately afterwards. "All around him are convinced of it. I shall leave the city this afternoon or this evening."

"You consider the President completely out of danger?"

"I do," he replied in his emphatic way; "I feel certain of it."

Secretary Hay, who arrived here this morning, called at the Millburn House together with Vice-President Roosevelt, Secretaries Root and Hitchcock, and Postmaster-General Smith, at 11.45 a.m.

THE PRESIDENT'S POCKETS.

Quite An Assortment of Knives, Coins and Pocket-Pieces Found in Them—His Wallet Well Worn.

BUFFALO, N. Y., September 10.—The President's clothes which were removed at the Exposition Hospital have been sent to the Milburn residence where the pockets were emptied. In the right hand trousers' pocket was $1.80 in currency, with the coins was a small silver nugget, well worn, as if the President had carried it as a pocket piece a long time. Three small pen knives, pearl handled, were in the pockets of his trousers, evidently they were gifts that he prized and was in the habit of carrying all of them. A battered coin, presumably a pocket piece, was in the left hand pocket. The President's wallet is black leather and is well worn. It contained $45, in bills. In the vest pocket was a silver shell lead pencil. Three cigars was also found, two of which the Chief Magistrate had chewed. He also had an open faced gold watch. There was not on the President's person a single clue to his identity unless it was on some old cards in the wallet which were not examined.

WARNED BY ITALIAN POLICE.

The United States Was Notified of a Plot to Kill the President.

(Special to the Star.)

LONDON, September 10.—A despatch to the Central News from Rome says that it is learned from a reliable source that there was a plot to assassinate President McKinley, this being proved by letters written by anarchists and intercepted by the Italian police. The latter communicated the information to the American police that anarchists of Paterson, N.J., had decided to kill President McKinley and President Loubet during the year following King Humbert's assassination.

How to Speak the Assassin's Name.

CHICAGO, September 10.—It is very difficult to spell phonetically in English the name of Czolgosz, the miscreant who shot President McKinley. The nearest to it is "Schawgosch," but this is not quite correct There is a suggestion of the letter "T" in the combination "Cz" at the beginning of the name, and the letter "L" is slurred over in rapid pronunciation. The name might be spelled phonetically as "Tschawlgosch," but the sound of the "T" is a little too harsh, as the combination "Cz" is more like the German "sch." The sound of the letter "L" fades away also when pronounced by a native of Poland. There is no meaning to the name of Czolgosz.

New Cure For Goitre

Any Lady Can Quickly Cure Herself of this Ugly and Dangerous Disfiguration in the Privacy of Her Own Home.

Large Trial Package Mailed Free to Prove That Goitre Can Be Quickly Cured.

This charming and beautiful English woman, the Duchess of Newhall, tells of her suffering for years and finally after trying all the great surgeons and doctors in the world cured herself in her own home, with this marvellous home remedy for Goitre. She says: "The first I noticed of my Goitre was a slight swelling on the side of the neck, accompanied by an extreme nervousness, and palpitation. A noted London surgeon examined my neck and pronounced it Goitre and commenced a treatment that he felt sure would remove it quickly. Instead it grew rapidly until my condition was such I retired to our country house. I could not endure the humiliation, my appearance was so dreadful, and I suffered extreme pain. My eyes nearly popped from my head. We sought relief from every surgeon and specialist of known reputation in the country, but they refused to operate for fear of rupture of the jugular vein. My husband heard through an American friend of Dr. Haig's home cure for Goitre, and we tried it as a last resort. Its effect was marvellous. In just a few applications the Goitre began to grow smaller and in a few weeks all trace of it was gone. The pain and suffering I had endured for years ceased completely the first time we used the remedy. I am now completely cured and owe it all to Dr. Haig and his wonderful remedy.—Lucille Lytton."

Goitre can be cured at home without pain, danger, operation or any inconvenience. Send your name and address to Dr. John P. Haig, 2434 Glenn Building, Cincinnati, Ohio, and he will forward a large trial package, postage prepaid. Do not fail to get this wonderful remedy, wherever used its success has been marvellous.

Write at once, send name and address today and Dr. Haig will be glad to send you a trial package of the remedy free. Do not delay. 213 1

FRENCH SOLDIERS CHEER FOR ANARCHY.

They Fight the Gendarmes When Returning From the Manoeuvres, Hold a Mass Meeting, and Pass a Resolution Favouring a Revolution.

LONDON, September 10.—A special despatch from Paris says:

"At Montecau-Les-Mines, some hundreds of reservists, returning in uniform to-day from the army manoeuvres, entered the town singing the "Internationale" and other revolutionary songs. A force of gendarmes attempted to disperse the reservists, but the latter fixed bayonets and charged on the police with cheers for anarchy and social revolution. The gendarmes were scattered. The soldiers then held a mass meeting and passed a resolution in favour of a revolution."

TELEGRAPHERS MOVING.

Preparations for the Reception of the Visitors—Work of the Local Committees.

The committee having in hand the reception and entertainment of the Old Time Telegraphers met at the Windsor last night, Mr. L. B. McFarlane in the chair and Mr. W. J. Camp acting as secretary.

The reports of the sub-committees showed that arrangements were practically complete for the reception of the visitors. Some matters specially arranged were the photographing of the delegates in a body on Wednesday; the route of the drive, which will leave the Windsor Hotel, proceed to Lafontaine Park and the Mountain, via Dorchester, St. James, Notre Dame, etc., and back to the city by Westmount. Theatre night was also decided upon. It will take in the "Fair Rebel," at Proctor's on Friday. The final arrangements for the banquet were dealt with. The banqueting hall will be decorated with pictures of Franklin, Morse, Reid, Volta, Wheatstone, Preece, Galvani, Ohm, Faraday, Edison, Bell, Marconi, and Lord Kelvin. Scattered around the table will be telegraph instruments over which greetings may be sent from the chairman's place.

The Duchess of York will carry the delegates to Lachine from the Duke street dock on Thursday, returning by the rapids. In this connection the street railway people have donated cars and transportation for the convenience of the visitors.

Mr. John Horne, who was present at the meeting, agreed to exhibit to the visitors many valuable telegraphic relics, which he has in his possession, including original letters and telegrams written by "Father" Morse.

The full draft of committees is as follows:

South Shore Railway Case.

The security of $15,000, represented by the Royal Trust Company's bond, has been a second time declared good and valid in the injunction case of Hiram A. Hodge to restrain J. M. Fortier and others from selling the South Shore Railway. Mr. Justice Ouimet, of the Court of King's Bench, to whom Mr. E. Guerin, on behalf of the respondents, had presented a petition for leave to appeal from Mr. Justice Taschereau's judgment, to-day rendered judgment refusing the application. The argument in the case had already begun yesterday before Mr. Justice Pagnuelo, and will be resumed to-morrow. Mr. R. A. E. Greenshields and Mr. S. Baudin, K.C., have already been heard on behalf of the petitioner, Hodge, and the respondents will make their argument to-morrow.

Must Respect the Laws.

The police are after the men who are found breaking the city by-law relative to fast driving. It is not generally known that a man must not drive over a crossing or round a corner at a gait faster than a walk. For this offence Petrix Paquette was to-day fined $3 and costs or fifteen days in gaol by Mr. Recorder Weir.

Academy of Music.

Mr. Reeves-Smith comes to us from New York and London with the best of reputations as a comedian of high merit. Those who saw him last evening at the Academy of Music in the first production in this city of "A Brace of Partridges," came away fully satisfied as to the merits of the actor, of the company and of the play.

In "A Brace of Partridges" Mr. Robert Ganthony has written a play of the older sort; it lacks the frothiness familiar in what is known as up-to-date comedy, and at the same time it lacks the vulgarity which usually accompanies them. On the other hand there is not a dull line. The comedy centres on a case of mistaken identity—not an idea originating with Mr. Ganthony, it must be admitted—and Mr. Reeves-Smith plays the dual parts. The Hon. Arthur Partridge, an impecunious son of an impecunious nobleman; in love with Peggy Stubbs, a landlord's daughter—who, by the way, looked so sweet and acted so well that one could scarcely blame him—is one of the characters assumed by Mr. Reeves-Smith. The other is that of Mr. Arthur Partridge, cousin, but personally unknown to the former young gentleman. Mr. Arthur Partridge has got into financial difficulties and spends a goodly share of his time attempting to dodge a persistent bailiff. There is an American heiress of the pork-packing Chicago variety, also an American Colonel of whom the audience sees but little. Then there is Lord Wallerton, father of the Hon. Arthur; Stubbs, landlord of the Red Lion; Spiffins, a city waiter; Snap, a bailiff; Tom Rushton, a stable boy; Lady Wallerton, the Hon. Arthur's stepmother; and James, a servant. The great attraction of the farce comedy is the naturalness of the characters. They are without exception well drawn. In less competent hands the dual parts assumed by Mr. Reeves-Smith would suffer. The scenes, all laid in England, have the genuine English atmosphere and the characters—one and all—are drawn to a hair.

Proctor's Theatre.

"A Fair Rebel" is the title of the military comedy-drama presented at Proctor's Theatre yesterday. The locale of the play is in South Western Virginia, and the action hinges upon a historical incident of the American war, the celebrated escape from Libby prison of Col. Ross, whereby 109 union officers regained their liberty. The leading roles are cast to Mr. Frank Rolleston as Col. Ezra Mason, of the 1st U. S. Cavalry, and to Miss Adelina Raffetto, as Clairette Montieth, a fair girl of the South. The dashing union cavalry officer and the devoted daughter, of the Confederacy fall in love. Captain Le Vicomte Savarie de Perrin, of the French Army (Mr. Francis Lenz), appears on the scene as an intriguer and rejected lover of the Virginian. He plots, and with the assistance of a Southern "cracker" secures the capture of the union officer and his imprisonment in Libby prison. The play ran well throughout, the situations were well taken and showed careful study of Southern life and manners Mr. Frank Rolleston, as Col. Mason, was an ideal American officer, cool, collected and polished, while Miss Raffetto's portrayal of a daughter of the Confederacy was cultured and refined. Miss Engel Sumner, as Sally Woods, wife of the Guerilla leader, made one of the hits of the evening, her Southern nasal intonation and quaint "cracker" sayings being heartily applauded by the audience. Miss Leslie Bingham, as "Captain Johnnie" did some clever work, while Mr. Francis Lenz, as a French military attache was a typical French officer. To Mr. Sol. Aiken, as Major Stillman, Surgeon U. S. A., and Miss Jane Wilson, as Mrs. Stuart, a widow fell the comedy situations which were forcibly rendered.

The fair rebel quintette rendered some Southern airs very effectively and taken altogether the piece was well presented and well received.

The specialties during the performance were C. W. Littlefield, mimic; Thurman, card manipulator, and Miss Anna Teresa Berger, cornetist; all of whom are clever in their respective lines.

The Theatre Francais.

Melodrama full steam on and a mile a minute; Corsican Brothers, Monte Cristo, Vendetta, Howard Hall and half a dozen dramas rolled into one play and there you have the attraction served up for the delectation of the patrons of the Theatre Francais this week. It is called "The Man Who Dared,' and few others than Mr. Hall would have dared. He is responsible for the piece; for its authorship and staging. No one may say that it is a weak play. It is great, it is marvellously great. It is hard to imagine any production which could have more in it than has this Man Who Dared.

The trouble is that Mr. Hall has provided scenes that are absolutely without reason. The lady's glove could just as well have been taken from the lion's cage with a walking cane, instead of a man foolishly risking his life without one solitary apparent motive; the only comedy scene is provided by a man disguised without object; the bringing in of the body of the dead Lorraine Martaneau to his brother's room fifteen seconds after a terrible runaway accident has motive, but is without common sense; the gambling scene is ridiculously farcical; the cry, "by signing that cheque you will commit felony," is foolish, because it would not be felony, and scores of other incongruous situations might be referred to. Is it not a marvellous play? And furthermore it is a play that is likely to do a big business in the popular priced houses. These very scenes referred to are "featured" in magnificent coloured three sheets, six sheets and stands on the walls of the city, and they will attract more people than will be kept away by those who tell of the "marvels" of production. It is splendidly staged. Mr. Hall plays the principal role himself. He is a good actor, and on more than one occasion he has appeared to advantage on the local boards. Miss Nina Norris is just splendid as the unfaithful wife. Her gowns are beautiful. Mr. Alexander Kearney comes back to us much improved as an actor. He has an important role in the piece, and he takes advantage of the situations to be as near the centre of the stage as any star would allow. Mr. W. H. Vedder is also guilty of this, but who should blame the actor; they don't often get a chance to take the centre. Mr. Charles Malles plays the Marquis in a pleasing manner, and it strikes the audience as unfair, that the author should have him killed at the last—another scene without the slightest motive. Miss Alice Taylor made a sweet Marie, and Miss Minnie Barry did the best she could with the soubrette role. The theatre was crowded to excess, and it is likely to be so all week.

The Theatre Royal.

Messrs. Kennedy and Sheehan should stick to vaudeville, unless they can get a much better vehicle than "A Tipperary Christening," which holds the boards at the Theatre Royal this week. The piece is barren of any feature worthy of a word of praise, but fortunately there are a number of entertaining people in the company, and there are acts that demand frequent encores. Sheehan and Kennedy do an amusing turn in the third act that causes any amount of laughter. Rushmore and Currier are dancers, singers, musicians, high kickers and several other things. They made quite a hit yesterday. The Sisters Reid are acrobats of that style that always takes well at the Royal. There are a number of very good choruses, but there is a complete lack of stage management and pictures that are so necessary in a show of this class. Perhaps a week or two on the road will improve matters.

KNOWLEDGE OF FOOD.

Proper Selection of Great Importance in Summer.

The feeding of infants is a very serious proposition, as all mothers know. Food must be used that will easily digest, or the undigested parts will be thrown into the intestines and cause sickness.

It is important to know that a food can be obtained that is always safe; that is Grape-Nuts.

A mother writes: "My baby took the first premium at a baby show on the 8th inst., and is in every way a prize baby. I have fed him on Grape-Nuts since he was five months old. I also use your Postum Food Coffee for myself." Mrs. L. F. Fishback, Alvin, Tex.

Grape-Nuts food is not made solely for a baby food by any means, but is manufactured for all human beings who have trifling, or serious, difficulties in the stomach and bowels.

One special point of value is that the food is predigested in the process of manufacture, not by any drugs or chemicals whatsoever, but simply by the action of heat, moisture, and time, which permits the diastase to grow, and change the starch into grape-sugar. This presents food to the system ready for immediate assimilation.

Its especial value as a food, beyond the fact that it is easily digested, is that it supplies the needed elements to quickly rebuild the cells in the brain and nerve centres throughout the body. 213 1

DROVE TO BUFFALO— RETURNING TO MONTREAL.

Mr. J. C. Holden and His Daughter, Miss Holden, Enjoy a Novel Jaunt.

Mr. J. C. Holden, the well-known manufacturer of this city, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Holden, are at present enjoying a novel trip. On the sixth of last June, Mr. and Miss Holden left Montreal with a phaeton and a team of horses, and since then have been driving leisurely to Buffalo and Toronto, being at the present time in the latter city.

From Montreal they followed the St. Lawrence and the lake shore continuously. In an interview they said that Upper Canada seemed very interesting for driving through. More so than Lower Canada, as the farms and country were more picturesque. From Stoney Creek to Beamsville, it was like going through an earthly paradise. Orchards were blooming beautifully on all sides. At a great many points they left the road on the water front to visit places of interest, such as Port Perry and the Sand Banks. They drove on an average twenty miles a day. It was remarkable how few people they met on the road. Sometimes they travelled for hours without seeing a person. "Their estimation of distances? Why, that's a thing that interested us greatly," said Miss Holden. "Father had a map showing the distances between different points, but we would ask persons about the distances and they invariably exaggerate them. Our trip was devoid of any adventure, and we appreciated it most for the beautiful peacefulness as we drove along."

Mr. and Miss Holden, who are the guests of Rev. Mr. Gregg, of Washington avenue, Toronto, intend driving back to Montreal.

He left Pekin on June 1st, 1900, three days before the siege, and while his work was interrupted there, visited Seoul, Corea, in making investigation of that country, which will lead, in the near future, to the establishment of associations in that land.

Mr. Lyon will speak of his work in China at the Young Men's Christian Association on Thursday evening of this week, at 8 o'clock.

THE COURTS HAVE RE-OPENED.

Over 90 Motions Up for Consideration in the Practice Court.

This was a record opening day in the Practice Court. Mr. Bedard, deputy prothonotary, who acts as clerk of that division of the Superior Court, stated that not less than ninety motions were up for consideration. Mr. Justice Pagnuelo was on the bench and disposed of the cases with his usual promptness.

All the other divisions of the Superior Court resumed work this morning, after their long vacation. The principal Court room, No. 24 was crowded at the opening of the Court, but lawyers and clients were soon told off to the different divisions, where the several judges took up the hearing of the cases assigned to them.

Mr. P. A. Peterson is Ill

Mr. P. A. Peterson, chief engineer of the Canadian Pacific, is confined to the house suffering from an attack of sun stroke. Mr. Peterson, last week, while inspecting the Lake Megantic section of the road, travelled upon a hand car, and was exposed all day to the sun. Upon returning to the city he found himself completely prostrated, and has been confined to the house ever since. He is, however, reported better to-day.

WHEN THE RENT WAS DUE

The Landlord Had a Right to Collect But Not Before.

Mr. Justice Pagnuelo rendered to-day a judgment of interest to landlords and tenants. Joseph Naud had taken an action against A. Gavel for $25, for rent due up to July 1st, and $225 for rent to elapse until May 1st, 1902. At the same time the plaintiff asked for the resiliation of the lease, alleging that the defendant was insolvent, and had not furnished the premises sufficiently to guarantee the rent. This last allegation, however, was not proved. The Court held that the fact that the lessee was insolvent did not justify the plaintiff in seeking to recover rent before it was due. The allegation that the premises were not sufficiently garnished might justify the dissolution of the lease, but this had not been proved. The fact that the tenant was insolvent did not make the rent exigible at the present. The Court, therefore, gave judgment for the plaintiff for $75 for rent for the months of June, July and August, and dismissed the plaintiff's case so far as the balance of the demand was concerned.

ARRANGEMENTS ARE MUDDLED.

THE UNCERTAINTY IS HAVING A DEMORALIZING EFFECT

On the Different Corps Which Have Been Ordered to Quebec — The Parsimony of the Government and the Unreasonableness of the Military Authorities.

The military arrangements for the big review at Quebec and for the lining of the streets in this city on the occasion of the royal visit to the Ancient Capital and to Montreal, are in such a chaotic condition in so far as the local militia are concerned that the Governor-General has summoned Lieut.-Col. Roy, D.O.C., to Quebec for the purpose of, if possible, unravelling the tangle that exists.

At the present writing nothing definite is known here with regard to the time of departure of the local troops for Quebec and yesterday's order commanding the different regiments to proceed to Quebec on Friday evening next remains, therefore, as binding as ever on the members of the local corps.

Yesterday an urgent telegram was sent by Lieut.-Col. Roy, D.O.C., to the Major-General, in which the general officer commanding was asked to postpone the departure of the city regiments until the time previously arranged, namely, Saturday evening. Although this telegram was despatched yesterday morning, no reply had been received up to one o'clock this afternoon.

A DEMORALIZING EFFECT.

The uncertainty which exists at present in regard to the military arrangements is having a very serious effect on the city corps. Both officers and men are heartily sick of the whole affair, and it would not be surprising if the muster at Quebec in so far as the local troops are concerned would be very small indeed. In fact, it was openly stated to-day by more than one militaman, that if the Government made it compulsory for the members of the Montreal battalions to attend the review, it would be better for them to refuse and pay the penalty for so doing, than to run the risk of losing their positions, as they feel they certainly would, in some cases, if they obeyed the order and absented themselves from work for a period of five or six days.

BLAMED AT HEADQUARTERS.

The officials at the brigade office are not to be blamed for the present chaotic condition of the military programme, in so far as the time of departure of the local troops for Quebec and the military arrangements for this city are concerned. Lieut.-Col. Roy has repeatedly tried to make such arrangements as would be satisfactory to all concerned. He had the guards of honour selected some time ago for the various places the Royal party were to visit. They have since been altered, however, as a new schedule of duties to be performed by the local regiments was yesterday received at the brigade office, which made an alteration in the plans necessary.

It now appears that escorts and guards of honour will have to be provided for the Governor-General as well as for the Duke, the former having intimated that he will accompany the Duke to Montreal and remain here until shortly before his Royal Highness leaves for Ottawa. While in the city his Excellency will occupy the residence of Mr. James Allan.

THE ORDERS RECEIVED.

In this connection the following orders have been received by Lieut.-Col. Roy from Ottawa:

"In accordance with instructions from his Excellency the Governor-General, it will be necessary for you to detail the following escorts and guards of honour during the Royal visit to Montreal:

ESCORTS.

"September 18, 2.45 p.m.—At Place Viger station, a Governor-General's escort.

"September 18, 2.45 p.m.—At Place Viger station, a field officer's escort.

September 18, 8.15 p.m.—At Mr. J. Allan's house, a Governor-General's escort.

"September 18, 8.15 p.m. — At Lord Strathcona's house, a captain's escort, without standard.

"September 19, 9.45 a.m.—At Mr. J. Allan's house, a travelling escort.

"September 19, 10 a.m.—At Lord Strathcona's house, a travelling escort.

"September 19, 2 p.m.—At. Mr. J. Allan's house, a travelling escort.

"September 19, 2.15 p.m. — At Lord Strathcona's house, a travelling escort.

"September 20, 8 a.m., at Mr. J. Allan's house, a travelling escort.

"September 20, 8.30 a.m.—At Lord Strathcona's house, a travelling escort.

GUARDS OF HONOUR.

"September 18, 2.15 p.m.—At Place Viger station, 65th regiment.

"September 18, 3.15 p.m.—At Mr. James Allan's house, 2nd regiment Canadian Artillery; and 1st Prince of Wales Fusiliers.

"September 18, 3.30 p.m.—At Lord Strathcona's house, 5th Royal Scots and 3rd regiment Victoria Rifles.

"September 18, 8.45 p.m.—At City Hall, 1st Prince of Wales Fusiliers.

"September 20, 8 a.m.—At Mr. James Allan's residence, 65th regiment.

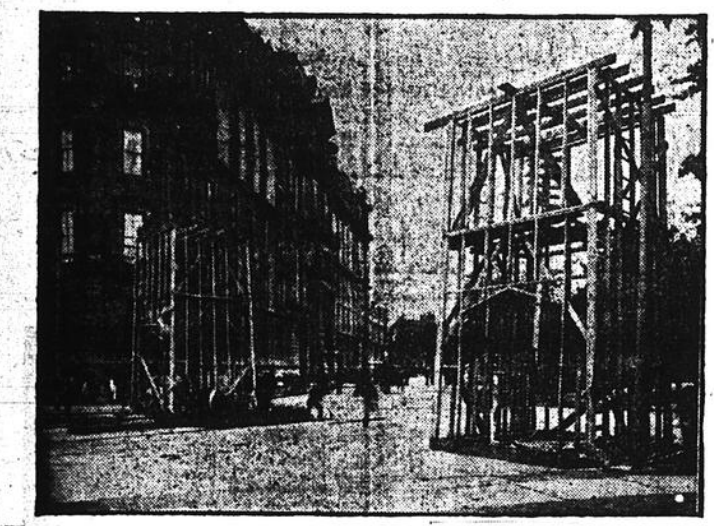
"September 20, 8 a.m.—At the Windsor station, 5th Royal Scots.

"September 20, 8.30 a.m.—At Lord Strathcona's house, 3rd regiment Victoria Rifles.

"Guards of Honour will consist of one field officer or captain, 2 subalterns and 100 rank and file, with the King's colour, and band of the regiment if available.

When compared with the orders issued by Lieut.-Col. Roy, with respect to the composition of the guards of honour, it will be found that the above contain many alterations. The most important are the substitution of the Prince of Wales Fusiliers for the Royal Scots at the City Hall, during the civic reception, and the changing of the guard of honour at Lord Strathcona's house on the day of the royal arrival from the Victoria Rifles to the Royal Scots. The Vics are, however, appointed a permanent guard at his Lordship's residence, while the Fusiliers will perform a similar office at the residence of Mr. James Allan for the Governor-General. The escort will always be furnished by the Duke of York's Hussars, who leave for Quebec to-night, but who will return in time to receive their honourary-colonel.

THE ROYAL RECEPTION—The Stand Erected on the South Side of Windsor Hotel.



THE ROYAL RECEPTION—The Arch Being Erected on Dorchester Street Near the Windsor Hotel as it Now Appears.

TRANSPORT IS MUDDLED.

As an instance of what the local commanding officers have had to put up with in connection with the transport of their commands to Quebec, the case of the Royal Scots may be cited. Some days ago this regiment made arrangements to go to Quebec by special C.P.R. train. The train in fact was ordered, as it was believed the necessary permission had been received from the Government to permit of the regiment proceeding to Quebec by that route. Yesterday, however, the officers received a notification that the regiment would have to travel by the Intercolonial, along with the Fusiliers, Artillery, 85th Regiment and Field Battery. The order had the effect of taking Major Carson to Ottawa, where he is at present endeavouring to secure the necessary permission for the Scots to go to Quebec by the C.P.R.

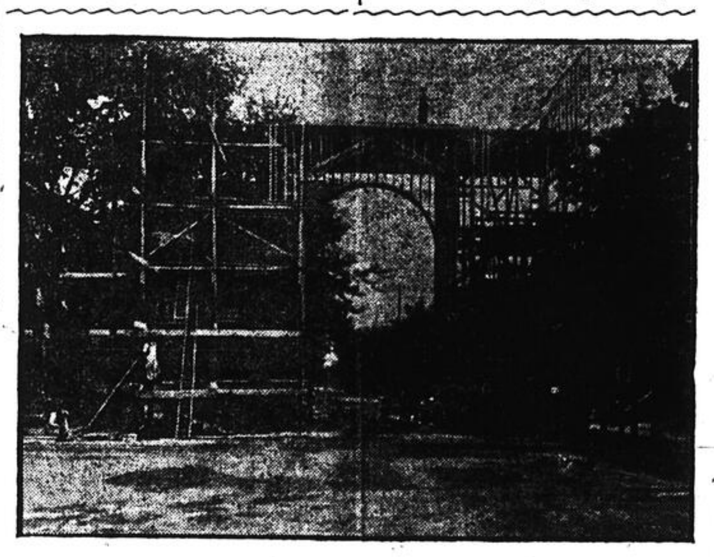
A RUSE TO SAVE MONEY.

It was stated that the order-in-council making it compulsory for the militia to attend the reviews was not ready for publication as yet. It was learned, however, that the order begins with a quotation from section 79 of the Militia Act, after which it sets forth that the heir apparent is about to visit Canada, and that it is desirable that he should have an opportunity of seeing as large a portion of the Canadian Militia as possible. In this purpose reviews have been arranged and 20,000 men are ordered to parade for this purpose. Continuing, it provides that the number of days during which the various regiments are on such duty shall count as part of their annual drill and shall be paid for as such. It is not the intention of the Government that these days shall reduce the annual drill, but next session Parliament will be asked to vote sufficient money to pay for these days as additional to the days of annual drill, which will be as usual.

THE BIG M.A.A.A. ARCH

To be Erected for the Duke's Visit to Montreal.

After the smoking concert at the M. A. A. A. gymnasium, a number of the members stayed behind at the request of the president, Major Macaulay, for the purpose of discussing the plans of the arch to be erected on Peel street by the association in honour of the visit of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York. The president explained what the committee had accomplished in the way of arrangements for making the arch pay for itself. They had received permission to put up a stand on Dominion square one hundred and fifty feet long. This would accomodate about five hundred people, and it had been decided to sell seats at one dollar a piece, to members only. The arch will be a novel one. It will be situated just below Peel street. The design is that of a cover of huge maple leaves, with portraits painted thereon of King and Queen, the Duke and Duchess and other notable people such as the Governor-General and Lady Minto and Lord Strathcona.



THE ROYAL RECEPTION—The Arch on Sherbrooke Street in Its Present Incomplete State.

Mr. S. H. Carpenter is to be Organizer

The Government has appointed Mr. Silas Carpenter, chief of the city detective force, to the position of organizer of the system of surveillance, which will ensure the safety of the Royal party in its tour through Canada. Colonel Sherwood, of the Dominion police, and Major Starke, of the Toronto police, will be in the party. The Montreal force is exceedingly pleased at the great faith which the Government has put in Mr. Carpenter.

OPENING CIVIL COURTS.

The Three New Judges Welcomed by the Bar—Young Lawyers Presented.

The opening of the regular term of the Superior Court yesterday was an unusually brilliant function. Sir Melbourne Tait, acting chief justice, and Messrs. Justices Taschereau, Mathieu, Davidson, Pagnuelo, Lavergne, Robidoux, and Trenholme occupied seats on the bench. Nearly all the members of the bar were present, and a number of ladies pleased the gathering by their presence. After reading the commission of Justice Trenholme, the acting chief justice, ordered the reading of the cases, which had been heard before the late Mr. Justice Charland, in which the delibere was discharged. Mr. W. J. White, K.C., batonnier of the bar of this district, after presenting newly appointed lawyers, congratulated the new justices.

Mr. Eugene Lafontaine, K.C., Syndic, addressed the Bench in French, after which Sir Melbourne M. Tait and Messrs. Justices Taschereau, Lavergne, Robidoux and Trenholme responded.

The members of the bar addressed the justices as Your Lordships, and the acting chief justice expressed his approval of this change of address from the old form of Your Honours.

COURT ETIQUETTE AT CITY HALL.

BOWS AND HOW TO MAKE THEM DISCUSSED.

Request Made for Appointment of a Public Instructor to Teach Those Who Will Attend Reception — Mayor Says "No," However — The Other Arrangements Made.

Court Etiquette and the right and wrong manner in which the bows should be made to the Royal visitors, when Montrealers are being presented to the Duke and Duchess, were subjects discussed at the meeting of the Civic Committee at the City Hall this morning. There was considerable pleasantry indulged in, and the resources of Montreal citizens in the matter of making bows were thoroughly investigated. It was decided by the Committee that the people generally would be able by diligently studying the subject to gain sufficient expertness by the evening of the 18th, to make their devoirs at the City Hall, without the aid of an official instructor in the art appointed by the City Council. The Mayor held that this was a democratic country and that Royalty could hardly expect as much of Montrealers in the matter of Court Etiquette, as in the case of European centres. In this contention he was supported by Ald. Ekers who thought the people would be able to stand the strain without any official coaching.

The matter came up before the committee through an application made in person by Mr. A. Roy Macdonald who suggested that, as there seemed to be considerable interest being taken in the matter of the proper behaviour of those who proposed to attend the civic reception at the City Hall. that he should be appointed an official instructor as regard the etiquette of the occasion.

It was finally decided that no official instructor would be required.

Three More Arches.

Hon. G. A. Drummond announced to-day that the Citizens' Committee has orderd three more arches to be constructed—one at the corner of St. Denis and Sherbrooke—one at the corner of St. Lawrence and Sherbrooke, and another at the corner of Union avenue and Sherbrooke street. These arches will be erected under the supervision of Sir William Hingston.

Ald. Lebeuf to-day applied for $300 more money to carry out the police arrangements in connection with the Royal visit, but the Citizens' Committee decided that no more money could be given. There will therefore be only 75 extra constables sworn in instead of 125 as was the original intention. The committee and Mrs. Robert Scott, who has the contract for the catering at the reception, had to-day a conference with regard to the supper which will be served at the City Hall. The address to the Duke and Duchess was submitted to the committee and accepted this morning. It is in the shape of an album and magnificently illuminated.

The Royal Train.

It has been finally settled that Mr. W. R. Baker, assistant to the second vice-president and general manager of the Canadian Pacific, will go in charge of the Royal train conveying the Duke and Duchess of York across the continent.

Mr. Shaughnessy will not, according to present arrangements, accompany the train, but will meet the Royal party and welcome them at Quebec, on behalf of the company There will be no official reception by the company at Place Viger, the arrangements there being of a civic nature.

Mr. Robillard, superintendent of the Montreal and Quebec division, will be the first of the divisional superintendents to take control of the Royal train.

Appointed Assistant Superintendent.

Major Lacy R. Johnson, of Vancouver, has arrived in the city to assume the position of assistant to Mr. E. A. Williams, superintendent of rolling stock of the C. P. R. Mr. Johnson was Superintendent of Marine Engines of the C.P.R. steamers at Vancouver. He was one of the first who crossed the rockies with the C.P.R., and was first stationed at Yale, where he was for a long time master mechanic. Major Johnson's family will join him here in a short time.

All but the two unfortunates jumped and escaped; one of them was cut in two and another had both legs taken off. The accident occurred about twenty-five miles from here.

Rubber Workers Strike.

Seventeen rubber boot makers who have been working for the Canadian Rubber Company, Papineau square, are on strike as a result of a dispute three of their number had with the foreman. The three objected to certain work, and when they appealed to a higher authority they were told to do the work or none at all. They quit on Saturday night, and yesterday fourteen others followed their lead, leaving only two boot-makers in the shop. Their action is said to materially interfere with other departments.

Royal Welcome Number OF The Montreal Star.

What will Canadians have as a souvenir of the arrival in Canada of the Royal Visitors in the year 1901? This is the question that tens of thousands will want to have answered.

The Montreal Star at very heavy expense has prepared a Royal Welcome Number to be issued on the arrival in Canada of the Royal Party.

This issue of the Montreal Star will be beautifully illustrated. It will be produced on Royal Satin finished paper to preserve as a souvenir and to send to friends in the old country or other parts of the British world. The Royal Welcome Number of the Montreal Star will be something emblematic of the universal desire to make the visit of King Edward's son an episode of Canadian history to live in the memories of those who participate in or behold the welcome to be given by the Canadian people.

The demand for the Royal Welcome Number of the Montreal Star has already grown to enormous proportions. Those who would secure a copy, and run no danger of missing it by reason of the rush, should leave their orders with their newsdealers. The Royal Numbers issued by the Montreal Star will be immediately recognized as the most valuable Souvenir of the Royal Visit, and able judges who have seen the models of the Montreal Star's Numbers are unanimous in the opinion that these Royal Numbers of The Star will be regarded as most befitting mementoes of the New Century visit to Canada of the representatives of the Royal Family of Great Britain, an event that may not recur in the history of Canadians of the present day.

HUNGARIAN STRIKERS CHASE NON-UNION MEN.

The McKeesport Mill is Still Closed Up and May Remain Closed Indefinitely—The Demmler Mill is Still Working.

PITTSBURG, September 10.—There was no attempt made to-day to resume operations at the National Tube Works, McKeesport. The streets were early thronged with strikers, and the men who were turned back yesterday by the strikers did not leave their homes. At the Huey street entrance to the mill a few bricklayers started into the place, but a crowd of Hungarians forced them to remain on the outside. The men operating the light department were unable to get into the works to-day, and it is probable the plant will be in darkness to-night. The tie-up is now about complete, and it is likely the officials will shut down the plant indefinitely.

At Demmler the works were running about the same as yesterday.

The headquarters of the Amalgamated Association was again in charge of the regular officers, the general executive board having adjourned without having come to any conclusion so far as known. It is believed three unsuccessful attempts to open negotiations with President Schwab have been made.

WALL STREET AGAIN NORMAL.

Prices About Where They Were Before the Shooting of the President.

(From the Special Correspondent of the Star in Wall Street.)

NEW YORK, September 10.—The early stock market was active, but there was an absence of the excitement of the past few days, and fluctuations were confined to smaller limits than yesterday. The continued improvement of President McKinley's condition caused a firm undertone, but there were periods of moderate reaction under realizations induced by yesterday's sharp recovery and the additional advance in to-day opening. The market made a nearer approach to normal conditions than at any time since the President was shot. Money opened at 5 per cent., and there was no meeting of the Clearing House Committee, for the reason that there was practically nothing to do. The advance in long term Government bonds gave rise to the impression that Secretary Gage might raise his buying price, as it is known there are some blocks limited at $5,000,000 in the aggregate that might come out at a moderate advance on the current treasury price.

Interest again centred to a considerable extent on St. Paul, which was the pivotal point of the stock situation. The price first ran off ⅜, then advanced 3½ with a slight reaction in subsequent dealings. Southern Pacific was another strong and active feature, gaining 1½. Soo common gained 2, and Evansville and Terrehaute, Sugar, Amalgamated Copper, Smelting and Nickle Plate followed closely. Gains of fractions to a point were recorded in a number of railways, with Union Pacific, Erie and Missouri Pacific quite prominent. There were frequent rallies and reactions in the later dealings, chiefly the result of traders' movements. London was steady.

DEATHS.

KING—At 877 Cadieux street, on 10th inst., William Miles King, late of C.P.R. audit office, passed peacefully away. Funeral will leave above residence, at 4 p.m., Wednesday, the 11th inst., thence to Mt. Royal Cemetery.

BAD REAR-END COLLISION.

Engineer and Conductor Killed in a Railway Accident Near Woodstock.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., September 10. — About midnight last night a rear end railway collision occurred two miles east of Princeton. An empty passenger special went through here east about that time. On the other side of Princeton the passenger slowed up for some reason, and was crashed into by a special freight from the west. Engineer Fred. Denning, of the freight, and Conductor Harmen, of the passenger, were killed. The latest news from the scene of the wreck is to the effect that the debris will probably be cleared by noon. At present all trains are going around by Stratford for the Buffalo and Goderich line.

Hon. David Mills has left Ottawa for London, to attend the funeral of the late Robert Ferguson, M.L.A., a life-long friend of the Minister's.

STOCK PRICES HELD STRONGLY.

PRICE CHANGES WERE NARROW WITH BUSINESS GOOD.

A Bullish Under Current Manifest Which is Liable to Work Out at Any Time—Secretary Gage Offers to Buy U. S. Government Bonds to Aid the Money Market.

The special correspondents of the Star in Wall Street and on the Chicago Board of Trade report in this column that stocks were strong, while wheat was easier. In the local market the feeling was bullish in some quarters and steady in others. Sales on the New York Stock Exchange yesterday were 838,850 shares.

While there was a diminution in the volume of trading, this morning's prices remained very firm, and there is an under current of bullish feeling, which is considered liable to manifest itself at any moment. That is one of the strongest reasons for the buying which is in evidence on the least recession.

Canadian Pacific only changed a small fraction in the course of the forenoon trading, opening at 112, selling off to 111 3-4, and closing up again to 112 at the end of the forenoon board. Wall Street sold as low as 111 1-2, but went up again to 112. Yesterday's close in this market was 111 7-8. London advanced a point to 117.

Another stock which is attracting a good deal of attention is Dominion Coal, and the bulls are predicting a good sized advance before long on dividend prospects. The buying has been good for the past few days, and the price was strong this morning at 43 1-4, compared with 42 7-8 at the close yesterday. Dominion Steel was also stronger, common selling at 25 and preferred at 80.

Toronto Rails continued to be a strong feature, selling actively between 114 3-4 and 115. Richelieu was quiet, but steady at 117. Street Railway was but little changed, sales ranging from 291 1-2 to 292. Halifax Tram jumped 2 1-2 points to 99 3-4, the nearest it has been to par for a long time. It is a 5 per cent. stock, but has had few friends in the market, which doubtless accounts for the low price at which it has been selling.

Dominion Cotton opened at 86, a full point higher than yesterday's close, and about four points higher than it has been for some time previously. The advance did not hold, however, and the price receded to 85. Montreal Power was unchanged at 98.

In New York at noon: Money on call was easier at 5 to 5½ per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 5 to 5½. Sterling exchange fairly steady, 485¼ to ½ for demand, and at 4.83 for sixty days. Posted rates, 483½ to 4 and 4.86 to ½. Commercial bills, 4.82¼ to ¾. Bar silver, 58¾. Mexican dollars, 45½. Government bonds strong.

BRIBERY CHARGES; AN INVESTIGATION.

ALLEGED CORRUPT PRACTICES IN LIGHT CONTRACT.

Ald. Clearihue Wants the Matter Probed—A Protest Served by the Standard Light Company on the City Council in Regard to the Conduit Privileges Given the Royal.

If there has been any crookedness in the awarding of the electric light contract, Ald. Clearihue intends that it shall come to light.

Just as the City Council was about to adjourn yesterday afternoon, no little surprise was created by Ald. Clearihue rising and giving notice of motion that a special committee be appointed to investigate into certain alleged corrupt practices that were believed to have been used in connection with the electric light contract.

In July last Ald. Clearihue made the statement, outside the Council, that two men had called upon him, and asked him to vote for a certain company, hinting at the time that $3,000 would be given for the vote. There was some comment on the matter, but the affair dropped and it was thought there would be nothing more heard about it; hence the surprise at the action of Ald. Clearihue at yesterday's meeting of council.

If the committee is appointed Ald. Clearihue will tell his story as to how he was approached, and may also ask information about other rumours he has heard of things not being just what they should have been in connection with the electric light matter.

WHY THE DELAY?

So soon as the notice of motion had been given, Ald. Lavallee rose and blandly asked why Ald. Clearihue had not given his notice of motion long ago; why wait since July?

Ald. Clearihue made no reply, evidently intending to proceed as he pleased in this connection.

An alderman then called out—"So they tried to buy you, Ald. Clearihue?"

"And I was not for sale," was the laconic answer.

The matter then dropped for the present. It will be thirty days before the notice of motion can be discussed.

A PROTEST READ.

A protest was read from the Standard Light and Power Company, pointing out that the company was empowered by the Legislature to lay its pipes and wires underground in any streets or lanes it might deem requisite; that the city had attempted to prevent the exercise of that right, but was frustrated by the courts of the province and by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council; that the company had transferred to the Lachine Company its underground conduits already constructed, with permission to complete the system by laying such further conduits underground as might be necessary, but reserving the right to certain space in all conduits presently constructed or that might be constructed; that the city had entered into negotiation with the Royal Company for the lighting of the streets and ahd publicly announced that it would confer, as one consideration of the acceptance of the contract, the exclusive right and power to lay wires underground and to build conduits; that the city had absolutely no right to enter into any such agreement or to restrict or interfere in any manner with vested rights already granted; and that, therefore, if the city attempted to enter into such an illegal contract, the city would be held liable for loss, costs and damages and that legal means would be taken to cancel the contract, the Standard Co. to still continue to exercise the rights conferred upon it by the Legislature.

The following letter was also read from the Royal Electric Company:

To the Mayor and Aldermen:

Gentlemen,—The Montreal Light, Heat and Power Company has had communication of the documents showing the terms upon which the city has closed a contract with your company for lighting the streets and public places, etc.

Whenever the necessary documents are prepared for the bond and the intervention of the company, required by the conditions of the specifications and by the resolution of the council, this company will be prepared to execute the same. Meanwhile this letter will serve to bind this company, and you are authorized to forward it to the city for that purpose.

Yours truly,
(Signed) H. H. Henshaw,
Secretary.

The answer from the same company saying it would accept the city's offer of sixty dollars per arc lamp, a year, was also read.

Immediately after the reading, Ald. Hart rose and asked that the proposed contract be sent to the Fire Committee for consideration before it was sent to council.

AN OBJECTION RAISED.

Ald. Martineau—"No; this cannot be done; it is not according to the rules of council. The form to be followed is to send the documents to the city notaries. They draft proposed contracts and then send them to the city council for consideration. I move that this system be followed in the contract for the electric lighting."

The Mayor—"I must say the proper procedure is to send all the documents to the city notaries; they in turn will send the contract they draft to the city attorneys. These latter gentlemen, after inspecting the contract, forward it to council. This latter body can then alter the proposed contract as it pleases."

It was the contention of Ald. Ekers that the aldermen should have copies of the proposed contract befort it was submitted to council; they should have plenty of time to consider it.

The Mayor—"There should be no objection to this being done."

given copies of the contract before it was sent to the city council.

WANTED AN EXPLANATION.

Ald. Ames now rose and asked an explanation as to how it had happened he had not got a notice in time to attend the last meeting of the city council, when the electric contract was awarded.

It was again explained by the Mayor how the notices had been mailed two days before the meeting was called. The fault of the delay must have been due to the postal authorities.

Ald. Ames—"It was well known when the meeting was called that two legal holidays intervened—Sunday and Labour Day."

The Mayor—"That may be, but all that had to be done was to follow the charter in the matter, and it simply says two days' notice must be given before a meeting of council can be held. Two days grace, in this case was given."

After some more discussion the matter dropped.

UNDERGROUND CONDUITS.

A special committee will be appointed to consider the question of underground conduits.

Ald. Jacques, and other members of council, rose and made a kick against the way the assessors had increased the property valuations. Ald. Ouimet hinted that certain aldermen in the western part of the city had not got their properties valued very highly.

He was asked to give names, but would not go this far.

Replying to the general remarks, Ald. Laporte said, that no instructions had been issued to the assessors to increase any property valuation. He would call a special meeting of the Finance Committee for Wednesday to deal with the matter.

The opinion of the City Attorneys was read saying the contention of the Montreal Terminal Railway Company was not well taken when it declared that the refusal of council, to allow it to lay car tracks in the streets, had not been a refusal that was legal. It was the opinion of the attorneys that that Council had acted in a legal way.

Ald. Laporte gave notice of motion for a by-law to establish a pension fund for aged civic employes.

Ald. Lavallee gave notice of motion for a statement of all the recent loans, including the temporary ones.

Council adjourned.

AROUND THE WORLD AWHEEL.

William Smith, of Atlanta, Georgia, Arrived in Town To-day.

William M. Smith, who is touring the world awheel, arrived in the city yesterday from Quebec. He comes from Atlanta, Georgia, and intends taking two years to complete his tour. Smith is an A.B. and B.L. of the University of Georgia, and is also a member of the Bar of the State.

He started out from his native city on June 24, and followed the coast line, taking in the principal cities, until he arrived in Portland, Me. He then came through the State of Maine, making for Sherbrooke. From there he went to Quebec and from there came on to Montreal. Ottawa is his next point, and from there he goes on to Toronto and to Buffalo to the Pan-American show. From Buffalo he goes on to Chicago and St. Louis, and then south for the winter through Mexico and South America. Next summer he will sail for Europe. After touring the continent he will cross southern Asia on his way to the Philippines, Australia and the Hawaiian Islands. On reaching California he will tour the Western States and will arrive back home by way of the Southern States. Smith says he is taking this trip partly for the benefit of his health and also to acquire a knowledge of the world for use on the lecture platform.

Abbe Verreau's Will.

A rumour has been in circulation for some days, and has been published in one of the French papers, that the will of the late Abbe Verreau, principal of Jacques Cartier Normal School, is likely to be contested. The will in question left to his sister, Justine Verreau, all his property, including his beautiful library, which contained the most complete collection of Canadian books extant. This document was found under an old staircase some weeks after the Abbe's death, and it is well known that he made two wills subsequently. The will in question, however, is the only one that has been found so far. It was made on December 6, 1859, when the testator was leaving for a trip to Europe. On the occasion of two subsequent trips he made new wills, which he destroyed on his return, but those interested in the will say that he supposed that the will of 1859 was also destroyed. Miss Verreau transported her brother's library to the Seminary of Quebec, on certain conditions, which the interested parties also contend are not in accordance with the conditions of the will.

Immigrant Child Had Measles.

Mrs. Juliana Fiebelkoun arrived in the city on Saturday with a young child from Russia on their way to join the head of the family at Winnipeg. Mother and child passed the night at the Emigrant quarters. Yesterday the child was declared to be suffering from measles, and Mr. Hoolahan, immigration agent, took up the case. None of the hospitals would receive the child, however, nor would Dr. Laberge, who held that the civic hospitals was not intended for cases of measles. Finally private quarters were obtained, and the child placed under the care of Dr. Guerin. Dr. Laberge says the quarantine officers had no right to allow the child to pass. It is there all the trouble in such cases arises.

THE GATES OF MERCY.

By EVELYN SWAN,

Author of "Will Thou Have This Man?" "The Snare of Gold," "'Twixt Love and Fear," "At the Point of the Sword," Etc.

CHAPTER XXI.—Continued.

"It looks very queer," he mused. "There was only one way in which that letter could get where it was found, unless the man himself picked it up when at Ivybridge. I wonder what her movements were on that evening. I must know them. Was she in her house all the time? If not, where was she? If she did it, she might have put that letter on the man in order to turn suspicion from herself on to this girl. A devilish trick, but possible. The point is: Why she feared him? She did, because she lied to old Wilkins about not having seen him before. But what can the man have know? There's Blake, too. Is he trying to hoodwink me? It looks like it. He may have been the go-between. I always thought it add that he should have had such a waster as Chambers in his employ for so long. Yes, yes; but what shall I do?" he broke off, sharply, as if rebuking himself for his indecision.

"Wait a minute—wait a minute," he said presently to his impatient self. "How did she get a clue to the fact that there was something in the girl's past on which she could work. I've got it—I've got it. Miss Gabrielle must have mentioned that woman Gregory, and my lady followed it up cunningly. I'll go and see her," and, having the address which Gabrielle had given him carefully stored in his retentive memory, Mr. Bridge went at once to Chapham, and in a few minutes had wheedled all that he needed from Mr. Gregory.

"Exactly," was his satisfied comment as he left the house. "And from here she went to Blake and instructed him to find Chambers—an easy enough matter with that address to work on," and he drove straight to Mr. Blake's office.

"Look here, Blake, you've given me a lot of trouble, and it isn't fair of you, old man. I shouldn't do it to you."

"What's the matter now, Bridge?"

"You shouldn't have left it for me to find out from Mrs. Carew herself that she commissioned you to find that fellow Chambers, and that she paid you his wages. All that hokery-pokery rot about the turf frauds was good bunkum, but it wasn't straight between friends. If you'd said at once you couldn't tell me I shouldn't have asked; that's all in the rules of the game, but a bluff of this sort isn't. You made me look almost a fool in Mrs. Carew's eyes." He spoke in a very aggrieved tone.

"What do you mean, old man?" asked Mr. Blake, as if wholly and very innocently surprised.

"All right. Keep it up, old chap," and the detective smiled and nodded knowingly. "Only, as I've seen the letter she gave you to work on, don't overdo it. I don't want to say anything down at the Yard, of course; but if I were you I'd look ahead a bit. This thing's taking a deuced queer turn, and there may be a bit of a black mark put against those who play hankey-pankey to baulk us. You know I'm all right so far as you're concerned, and so long as only you and I are in the thing; but they mayn't take quite my view of things down there. You'd better let me be able to report I got my information from you. It'll look a lot better."

"Of course I can't let out things told me in confidence, Bridge."

"Well, just as you like, only don't forget I gave you the office, even after you'd had me a bit," and he got up to go.

"If she's told you, it can't matter if I say it's right, then."

"Exactly; but now you see you've forced me to bluff you in my turn, see? Only I tell you plainly what I'm doing. I didn't get it from her at all. And now that I know a lot, don't you think you'd better tell me the rest?" and he sat down again.

Mr. Blake was very angry at having been caught.

"There's nothing to tell, Bridge; and you needn't look so wonderfully pleased with yourself, any more than you need have played it, quite so low on me; at least, I think it so." But the detective was too pleased at his success to resent this.

"Sorry you made it necessary, old man; but we needn't quarrel now. I've got what I wanted. Will you have a drink?"

"No, thank you," was the stiff reply; and as soon as Bridge was outside he told his cabman to drive as fast as he could to Mrs. Carew's house.

She was at home expecting him, and he was shewn in to her at once.

"I was expecting you to call earlier, Mr. Bridge, but as the matter is so important I have put off some engagements to wait for you."

"I must apologize, madam, but I have been very busily engaged upon this affair. I think I ought to tell you that of course you are at perfect liberty to answer my questions or not as you please, and that anything you may tell me you must regard as likely to be used against anyone implicated in the matter, whether Miss Carruthers, or yourself, or anyone."

"Oh, yes, of course I understand that. I have been very anxious not to be mixed up in so very disagreeable a matter if I could help it, but it seems that the truth must be told now, whoever suffers."

"I am glad to hear you say so. Believe me, it is by far the best course; indeed, the only one. Perhaps you would prefer to make a statement, then, rather than that I should question you."

"It is a very sad duty that falls on me, because I know that what I have to say may reflect upon a very dear young friend—I mean Miss Gabrielle Carruthers. You were quite in saying she had been at my house, Ivybridge, on the day of this deed. She left me about five in the afternoon or evening, whichever we may call it, as I thought to return to her situation with a Mrs. Overend, who lives some miles from Ashton. She came to ask me to help her, to lend her some money, in fact, because she said she had a sudden and urgent need for some. I gave her ten pounds, two bank notes, and I agreed to help her to leave the country, because she told me she was very miserable in her situation and was also the object of some persecution—the same, I understood, which had driven her once before to go to South Africa. I was to write to her at Mrs. Overend's; and when I came back to London I did so, and wrote saying I had taken a berth for her. That my letter was returned by Mrs. Over-

DR. A. SANDEN, 132 St. James St., Montreal, Que.

Office Hours: 9 A.M. to 6 P.M. Sundays, 11 to 1.

"That is not true," she cried, hotly. "How dare you ask me such questions? How dare you come to me with shreds and tatters of gossip and pretend to ask me for explanations I have said what I have to say. Take your insinuations and falsehoods where you will. Don't bring them to me. This matter is nothing to me. I am not accountable to you for my actoins. Leave my house. I shall know how to protect myself against your slanders and those of others who mislead you."

Mr. Bridge sat on unmoved by her vehement tirade and looked at her steadily.

"I will go if you desire it, madam, of course. Am I to understand that you decline to give me any further explanation Such a course of action must expose you to grave consequences. I think I should warn you of that."

"What do you mean? I am not afraid of what you term consequences."

"It is necessary that the fullest explanation should be given of your connection with the man who has been murdered. I have abundant proof that for some reasons the man was well known to you before his visit to Ivybridge; that he was in the receipt of money from you regularly through your agent, Mr. Blake; and that he went to Ivybridge to demand more money. You need not explain this to me, of course, unless you please, but your failure to do so will place me in a embarrassing position and will expose you to unpleasant suspicion."

"I cannot help that. I have no explanation to give."

He bowed. "As you will," he said. "There is another point. Have you yet been able to remember what money you gave him?"

Joyful News for Weak Men

IT RESTORES MANHOOD.

Give me a man broken down from excesses, or from the result of early mistakes—one of those men who have lost the very essence of manhood—and I will make him feel like a youth of 20 within a month. How? you ask. Simply by pumping a vital stream of electricity into his body in the right way while he is sleeping. It does wonders in a few applications. It arouses all the dormant energies, develops muscular and nerve life, and restores that feeling of youth, courage and manhood. It makes men over; It makes men of the puniest, weakest specimens of "half men." I don't ask any men to pay me first. That's the way I want your case—pay me when I've done it.

Pay When Cured

If you can offer reasonable security. Failure to cure costs you nothing, as I take all the chances.

Nature calls for new strength, and you will never be cured until you supply that strength. This is not found in drugs, all of which are temporary stimulants. The real strength of the nerves and vital organs is electricity. That is what the body has lost and what it must get back. My ELECTRIC BELT supplies this. It is an absolutely positive cure for all forms of Nervous Debility, Loss of Memory, Losses, Impotency, Varicocele, Weak Stomach and all those physical and vital weaknesses, Confusion of Ideas, Kidney and allied complaints, Rheumatism, Sciatica, etc. It has cured thousands every year after every other known remedy has failed.

Write for Free Book If you can't call at my office, write for my beautiful book, which describes my method and prices. All letters are given prompt attention. Statement blanks will be sent you, and upon receipt of your symptons, I will advise you fully whether my Belt will cure you and the cost. I will hold your letters sacredly confidential.

SPECIAL NOTICE—If you have an old belt of any other make which has burned and blistered you or one that did not possess electricity, bring it in and I will allow you one-half the price of mine for it.

DR. M. F. McLAUGHLIN, 214 St. James St., Montreal, Que.

GRAIN MARKET SLIGHTLY OFF.

THE GAIN IN PRICES YESTERDAY DROPPED TO-DAY.

Liverpool Market Was Dull—Large Receipts in the North-West and Disappointing Cables the Cause of the Depression in Wheat — Corn Trade Awaiting Goverment Report.

At Liverpool, according to Board of Trade advices, spot wheat was dull and maize firm. No. 1 standard Cala., 5s 11 1-2d to 6s; Walla Walla, 5s 10 1-2d to 5s 11d; No. 2 red winter, 5s 5 1-2d to 5s 7d; No. 2 spring, 5s 6 1-2d to 5s 8 1-2d.

Liverpool wheat futures quiet, Sept., 5s 6 5-8d sellers; Dec. 5s 8 1-4d value.

Weather in England fair but cloudy. English country markets quieter. French country market quieter.

The Chicago wheat market was easier at 70 1-2 to 70 5-8c for Dec., and 68 1-4 to 68 5-8c for Sept. Dec. corn was down to 57 1-4 to 57 3-8c, and Sept. to 55 1-4c.

Bartlett, Frazier & Co. received the following: Liverpool close wheat unchanged, corn, 1-8d lower. Opening, wheat 1-4d higher; corn unchanged.

Chicago wheat—Large receipts in the North-West, and disappointing cables the cause of the easier feeling in the wheat trade. Chicago corn trade very light, awaiting Government report. The trade generally believes it will be higher than in August. Holders of puts in Milwaukee were buyers of wheat around 5-8c, and steadied the market.

The following table shows the amount of wheat on passage to the United Kingdom and continent:

	Sept. 9, 1901.	Sept. 2, 1901.	Sept. 10, 1900.
Visible supply U. S. and Canada	28,440,000	27,790,000	51,735,000
On passage to the U. K.	19,920,000	18,088,000	17,968,000
On passage to the continent	16,160,000	17,730,000	6,784,000
Total wheat in sight	64,480,000	63,614,000	76,487,000

The wheat shipments from Seattle, Wash., will be much larger this year than any previous year in the history of Seattle, and this growth promises to continue for several years to come. This is due to a number of influences on trade conditions, chief of which is the great increase in the crop of the state over that of last and previous years. Heretofore, almost all of the wheat exported through Seattle has been produced along the line of the Great Northern Railroad. This year the country tributary to the road will produce 4,500,000 bushels, as against 2,500,000 bushels for last year, and less than 2,000,000 for the year before. Practically all of this will go to Seattle.

LOCAL MARKET—Business in grain on spot continues very quiet, with the exception of an easier feeling in oats, which show a decline of 1-4 to 1-2c per bushel, there is nothing new to note. The demand over the cable for Manitoba wheat was fair, and sales of No. 1 hard were made for October shipment on the basis of 77c afloat here. Car lots of No. 2 white oats, for export, sold at 38c afloat, and for local consumption at 39c ex store. Peas continue dull at 79 1-2 to 80c afloat; No. 2 rye at 59c; No. 2 barley at 53 1-2c; and No. 3 extra at 52 1-2c.

FLOUR—Manitoba spring patents, $4.10 to $4.20; best strong bakers', $3.80 to $3.90; winter wheat patents, $3.60 to $3.85; straight rollers, $3.35 to $3.45; in bags, $1.65 to $1.70.

ROLLED OATS.—The market is steady. Quotations are $4.10 to $4.20 in barrels, and $2 to $2.05 in bags.

FEED.—Manitoba bran in bags, $16; shorts, in bags, $18; Ontario bran, in bulk, $15.25 to $16; and shorts, $17 to $18 in bulk; moullie, $18 to $25.

TORONTO, September 10.—Wheat —No special change; new red and white quoted at 65c, middle freights; old winter at 67 to 68c, middle freights; No. 2 goose at 62 to 63c, middle freights; No. 1 spring at 68 to 69c east; Manitoba steady at 81c for No. 1 hard, and 79c for No. 2 hard, grinding in transit, and 79c for No. 1 hard and 77c for No. 2 hard, local delivery, Toronto and west; new No. 1 hard quoted at 70c bid and 71c asked, afloat, Fort William, September delivery.

Flour—Quiet; local exporters bidding $2.90 for cars of barrels and $2.60 for bags, middle freights, and holders asking 2 1-2 to 5c more. Choice brands held 15 to 20c higher. Manitoba steady at $4 for Hungarian patents and $3.70 for strong bakers in cars lots, bags included, Toronto.

COUNTRY PRODUCE PRICES.

Cheese Steady and Butter Unchanged —The English Market.

BUTTER.—The market is steady. English mail advices under date of August 31, stated the week previous had not been productive of any striking feature, trade having been poor, and generally in the buyer's favour. The arrivals continue to be moderate. Quotations range from 82s, 86s, with an occasional 90s for exceptional quality. The supply of Finnish continues to be limited at 88s to 96s. The quality of recent arrivals of Canadian is fairly satisfactory, and there has been rather more doing in this description at 102s to 106s. Shipments of American are moderate, but quite sufficient for present requirements. Creameries sell at 98s, 102s. Factories at 80s, 90s. Irish—The markets on the other side are somewhat easier, and trade here is slow for all descriptions. Creameries are in poor request at 108s, 110s. Factories are quiet at 92s, 98s. French has not been selling so well as of late, and baskets have been reduced 4s, others unchanged.

Local quotations are: Finest creamery, 20¼c; do fine, 20c, and under grades, 19 to 19¼c; western dairy, 16c, and Manitoba do., 15 to 15½c. 200 packages sold at the wharf at 19¼c.

CHEESE.—Prices remain steady with a tendency towards strengthening. At the wharf yesterday 5,000 boxes sold at 8⅞ to 9c, a shade higher than last week. Quotations are: Ontario coloured, 9½ to 9⅝c; do white, 9⅜ to 9½c; Townships, 9¼ to 9⅜c, and Quebec, 9 to 9⅛c.

English mail advices say with regard to the cheese market. Trade during the week has been decidedly quiet. So far as Canadian is concerned the market is dull, and the amount of business put through has been disappointing. Prices have consequently ruled easier, notwithstanding the fact that stocks continue to be light. Recent arrivals are showing better condition and clearer flavour. For finest white holders are taking 46s, 47s, and finest coloured is offered at 47s, 48s. For grades below this there are selections to be had at 44s, 45s.

EGGS.—The tone of the market is firm at the late advances in prices. The demand continues good and sales of fresh fall stock in a jobbing way were made at 13½ to 14c, and in round lots at 13c per dozen, with seconds at 10½ to 11c.

POTATOES.—The market is pretty well supplied and prices are more normal. The demand is good for fine stock at 60c a bag in jobbing lots. Dealers are paying 50c on track.

BEANS—The market is very strong, and quotations are $2.10 to $2.20 on track, according to quality, and 5c more in smaller lots.

HONEY—In the local market new light strained in tins is sold at 7¼ to 8c, and light comb, in pound sections, at 10c to 10 1-4c.

HOPS.—The first receipts of Ontario hops have been received. Last year's hops are quoted at 16 to 19c for good to choice.

"Royal Visit to Quebec."

In consequence of the suggestion that it would be an appropriate welcome for a steamer, with citizens from Montreal, to meet the Royal yacht "Ophir," and accompany it on its passage up the river to Quebec, the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company has decided to place one of its best steamers, the "Canada," in commission for the purpose. The Military Review, the presence of the British North Atlantic Squadron, the illumination of the Ramparts, and both shores of the river, with other demonstrations, will, it is believed, make the visit to Quebec the most important feature of the Royal tour.

It is proposed that the steamer shall leave Montreal on Sunday afternoon, September 15th, at 5.00 p.m., meet the Royal yacht about two hours' sail below Quebec on Monday morning, September 16th, and accompany it, arriving at Quebec at 9.30 a.m., remain in Quebec during the Royal visit, until 10 p.m. Tuesday, the passengers making their home on the steamer at Quebec, as the hotels will be full, and arrive at Montreal Wednesday morning. A short trip will be made on Monday evening to get the full benefit of the river illuminations.

The number of passengers will be limited strictly to the stateroom accommodation, about 200; and the meals and attendance will be the best the company can furnish.

Tickets, including passage, meals and berths for the entire trip $20.00 each. Applications for rooms to be made to Jos. F. Dolan, 128 St. James street. If a sufficient number are secured up to 6 p.m. Thursday, the 12th inst., the trip will be proceeded with. First application will have first choice of rooms.

THOS. HENRY,
Traffic Manager.

No passes will be accepted on this trip. 213 3

PLANS TO GUARD CZAR AND LOUBET

PRECAUTIONS IN FRANCE HAVE BEEN DOUBLED

Since the Attempted Assassination of President McKinley at Buffalo — One Hundred Detectives Will be Brought From Italy and Other Measures Taken.

(Special to the Star.)

PARIS, September 10.—The Echair says that in consequence of the attack on President McKinley, and also in view of the approaching visit of the Czar, the most stringent orders have been sent by the Minister of the Interior to the special police in the provinces to keep dangerous anarchists under the closest surveillance.

One hundred Italian policemen are coming to France to assist the French detectives The strictest police precautions have been taken at Dunkirk and Compeigne to assure the safety of the Czar and President Loubet.

A minute inspection has been made of every passage and outlet from the palace and strong guards have already been posted. The severest scrutiny is exercised over all the persons having business on the premises and especially workmen.

The character of the interest in the Czar's visit to France has been entirely changed by the shooting of President McKinley, at Buffalo. The public and official attention is now wholly centred in the precautionary measures that will be taken to protect the Imperial visitor during his stay in France.

The Temps describing the preparations at Compeigne says that such precautions were never taken before. The workmen employed in the palace have been photographed and their personal histories investigated. Each must carry duplicate of his official photograph, which will be the only passport of admission, similar measures have been taken with the servants who will be employed in the palace during the Czar's stay there. There are many detectives at Compeigne continually among the workmen.

A special police commissary guided by the architect, is exploring every room, passage and exit of the palace. The building is surrounded by numerous sentries day and night. These will be quadrupled before the Imperial party arrives. The measures taken at Compeigne are typical of those adopted at Dunkirk and Rheims.

A Dangerous Runaway.

(Special to the Star.)

BROCKVILLE, Ont., September 10.—A team of horses belonging to a man named Lehigh, attached to a mowing machine in working order, made a thrilling runaway through the principal streets of the town yesterday afternoon. The animals came down Court-House avenue, one of the crowded thoroughfares, at full speed, and after crashing into two vehicles, tore along for some distance farther before being caught. Several persons, including many children, narrowly escaped being cut down by the arm of the machine, where the knives were working at a terrible clip.

Accident at Levis Dry Dock.

QUEBEC, September 10. — A drowning accident occurred on Monday afternoon near Levis dry dock. Three young men—Jos. Kane, son of Patrick Kane, of Ottawa; John Hamilton and another one, known only under his first name, "Peter"—who were in the employ of the Quebec Bridge Company, left about two o'clock in the afternoon in a sail boat. When opposite Gilmour's Cove at St. Joseph de Levis, they were struck by a sudden gust of wind, and the boat capsized. Young Hamilton succeeded in remaining afloat by taking hold of the boat, and was rescued some time after the accident.

That Admission Fee at Toronto.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, September 10.—Major-General O'Grady-Haly denies that there is any authority from him for the statement that a charge will be made for admission to any part of the grounds at Toronto on the occasion of the Royal review. He remembers a conversation with Col. Otter, in which a charge was mentioned, but he did not sanction it. The matter is not in his province, at any rate.

A Reported Mining Deal.

HALIFAX, N. S., September 10.—The Dominion Iron and Steel Company is reported to have purchased the Nictaux iron mines, near Annapolis, for $200,000.

Dress Goods.

Another plain season is before us, plain colours we mean, handsome materials, and, in the case of house dresses, rich trimmings will obviate anything like a commonplace appearance. Many fabrics pleasing to the eye are equally acceptable to the pocket, owing to reasonableness of price Among such are the following:

CAMELS' HAIR, in old blue, new blue, national blue, green, ox-blood and gray, 43 in... 50c

WOOL HENRIETTAS, with a finish like the silk-warp goods; cream, pink, old rose, blue, gray, navy, brown and reseda. Forty-two inches... ... ... 50c

PLAIN CLOTHS in attractive colourings of light cardinal, dark cardinal, grenat, light navy, dark navy and national blue.. Forty-two inches... ... ... 55c

HOMESPUN, one of the most wear-resisting materials shown, shades of gray, brown and blue. Fifty-four inches... ..... 75c

PERSIAN STRIPES, for blouses or handsome wrappers, plain grounds of navy, cardinal, grenat, bright blue and black, with a three-quarters inch stripe of vari-coloured silk threads; most effective. Fortyfour inches. 90c

VELVETEENS to be more in demand this season than ever. If you anticipate difficulty in matching a colour, come straight to us, and save trouble and anxiety. Our 50c quality will surprise you.

A SKIN OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOR EVER. Dr. T. Felix Gouraud's Oriental Cream, or Magical Beautifier,

Removes Tan, Pimples, Freckles, Moth Patches, Rash, and Skin diseases, and every blemish on beauty, and defies detection. It has stood the test of 53 years, and is so harmless we taste it to be sure it is properly made. Accept no counterfeit of similar name. Dr. L. A. Sayre said to a lady of the haut-ton (a patient): "As you ladies will use them, I recommend 'Gouraud's Cream' as the least harmful of all the Skin preparations." LIBERALISM IN CHINA.

Promulgation of Reforms in the Civil Service Examinations.

PEKIN, September 10.—The Imperial edict issued recently provided for reform of the examination, seems to indicate that the Liberals are in control of the court, and its importance, if enforced, is difficult to overestimate. It provides that the examinations must include Western history, Western science and industrial methods. It abolishes the traditional eight-part classical essays, and verbatim reproductions of classics, proficiency in which has been the chief qualification for office holding. It relegates the classics to the background, requiring only expositions of their meanings.

General Yuan-Chi-Kai's troops are entering Pekin to-day and are assuming the work of policing the city.

Please note The Empire Tobacco Company's full-page advertisement in next Saturday's Star. It will give you an idea of the premiums offered to the consumers of plug chewing and smoking tobacco bearing the "Snowshoe" Tag. Do not fail to get a copy of the "Star." Their offer is valuable and is for a limited time only. 211 6

SCROGGIE'S

As a Departmental Store.

—"Many Happy Returns."

This store will celebrate the first anniversary of its birth as a departmental sto to-morrow. The event will be celebrated ina befitting manner—an unusually attracti bargain list being prepared for the one day only.

We review the accomplishments of the past year with no small degree of sati faction. The question: was there an opening for an additional department store in the vicinity of St. Catherine and University streets—has been very em phatically answered in the affirmative. A business greatly in excess of our antic pations has been done the past year. The new departments have become well ar favourably known. It is this fact that causes us to anticipate a greatly extende trade in the year to come.

We thank you for giving encouragement to these ventures of ours in a practic way during the past, and trust that our methods of conducting the departments the future will continue to merit your approval and patronage.

Suit Over Dead Man's Island.

VICTORIA, B.C., September 10. — Judge Martin handed down a decision in the long-pending case of British Columbia vs. Theodore Ludgate, the Chicago capitalist, over the title to Dead Man's Island, opposite the city front at Vancouver, where Ludgate wished to establish a sawmill. Ludgate's claim was thrown out by the court, which held that the title to the land was in the King's name, in behalf of the province. Apoplexy caused the death of John Driscoll, an engineer, 40 years of age, who boarded at 20 Beaudoin street. McKINLEY'S CHANCES GROW BETTER HOURLY.

Attending Physicians Are Optimistic as to His Chances, Although They Have Not Issued a Definite Statement.

Last Night the President Was More Comfortable Than He Has Been Since the Shooting — It Is Expected He Will Be Well Again in Three Weeks or a Month.

MILBURN HOUSE, Buffalo, September 10.—The following bulletin was issued by the President's physicians at 9.00 a.m.:

The President's condition this morning is eminently satisfactory to his physicians. If no complications arise a rapid convalescence may be expected. Pulse, 104; temperature 99.8; respiration, 26.

This temperature is taken by the mouth and should be read about one degree higher by rectum.

(Signed) P. M. RILXEY,

EUGENE WASDIN,

HERMANN MYNTER,
CHARLES McBURNEY.

GEO. B. CORTYLOU, Secretary to the President.

MILBURN HOUSE, BUFFALO. N. Y., September 10.—The weather conditions of to-day were anything but cheerful during the early hours, and the dull skies and drizzling rain gave an outward appearance of gloom and depression. The forecast was for showers and an east wind, but the realization was worse than the prophecy. For the first time since the shooting the sun was hidden by heavy clouds. The bracing air that has lent such comfort to the patient thus far gave way to the chill and muggy wind from the east. For a time the rain pelted the military guards and trickled down their guns. But these more inclement conditions passed away by 8 o'clock; the rain stopped but the dark skies and soggy grounds remained. As the doctors arrived for the formal morning consultation, it was noted that they wore overcoats and were well bundled up.

EVERYTHING WAS LOVELY.

Dr. Park came from the consultation at 9 o'clock and summarized the results of the bulletin soon to be issued by the expression "Lovely." He said all the conditions were most favourable. The patient had enjoyed a most satisfactory night.

Later as the other doctors came from the house, their faces clearly indicated their satisfaction at the condition of affairs. Dr. Park paused at his carriage to add a general survey of the conditions prevailing.

"The condition of the President this morning is entirely satisfactory," said he. "The bulletin will state this, and it sums up the situation. The President spent the most comfortable night he has had since the shooting. He slept well and when he awoke he was cheery and even chatty. He is not receiving any nourishment thus far, except by an enema. This is an altogether natural incident of the case at this stage.

"Do you regard the President as entirely out of danger?" Dr. Park was asked.

"I do not want to go that far. What can be said is that unless there are unexpected complications we expect him to recover."

"Have you considered the prospects of his removal?"

"No, it is too early for that, but when he is moved he will go probably to Washington.

BULLETINS ARE CONSERVATIVE.

Dr. Park referred to the fact that the bulletins were most conservative and gave results such as the medical fraternity would be expected to pass upon in the case of any citizen.

"It would be well to have it stated," he added, "that the President is not being deprived of the benefits of private citizenship. He is being treated exactly as any other citizen would be and is getting the benefit of it. We view the case just as that of any other man who might be similarly afflicted."

Dr. Park's latter statement will explain the fact that official bulletins are based on rigid scientific principles applicable alike to all cases of surgery.

OPTIMISTIC EXPRESSION.

Dr. Herman Mynter was the next of the consulting physicians to come from the house. He was followed by Dr. Eugene Wasdin and they walked down the street together. To the queries of the newspaper men, Dr. Mynter gave voice to the most optimistic expression that has yet been made for publication by any of the attending physicians. He said:

"The President is doing splendidly and is out of the woods if I may express it that way."

"Yes," chimed in Dr. Wasdin, "and he has plenty of daylight behind him."

Speaking seriously Dr. Mynter said:

"I have never been really optimistic because I do not like to prejudge serious cases, but now I can say to you that everything in the President's condition warrants the statement that he is on the road to quick recovery."

Dr. Wasdin said:

"I have believed throughout that the President has a fair chance of recovery. Now I desire to say that the chance against that recovery is very slight. His temperature is splendid and his pulse getting to normal."

The tone of the 9 o'clock bulletin carried joy to those about the president, and the good news spread rapidly, carrying added weight to the confidence that the President's recovery was now as sure as anything pertaining to fallible humanity can be. The doctors for the first time used the expression "eminently satisfactory," and were willing to give official assurance for the first time, that a rapid convalescence might be expected. The pulse had fallen to the lowest point recorded since the operation—104. His temperature was slightly higher, although given at 99.8 degrees. This was due to the fact that for the first time since bulletins began to be issued, the temperature was taken in the mouth. Heretofore the thermometric readings have been made at the rectum, where the temperature usually registers about 1 degree higher than in the mouth.

THIS LOOKS HOPEFUL.

Dr. McBurney Leaves the President's Bedside to Visit Niagara Falls—He is Confident.

BUFFALO, September 10.—Dr. McBurney was in high spirits as he walked away from the residence shortly after the other physicians had gone. This morning his face was wreathed in smiles.

"Is the President out of danger?" he was asked by a reporter.

"We believe he is practically out of danger," he replied, measuring his words. Then he paused. "Of course," he added, "we shall all feel better when a week has gone by. But his improvement is so marked, his symptoms so good, that we feel safe in assuring the public that he will recover. Blood poisoning might still develop, but the chances are remote. As for peritonitis, I consider that the danger from inflammation of the peritoneum has passed."

"Might not an abscess form about the bullet?"

"Yes of course; the bullet may not be clean, but if it does we can easily locate and remove it."

"If the President continues to improve and his convalescence was not checked, how soon will the secondary operation for the extraction of the bullet be performed?"

"Never," replied the famous surgeon. "That piece of lead encysted in the muscles of his back will cause him no harm. Of course, if it gives him trouble, an operation may be performed."

"But you will use the X-ray to locate it?"

He shook his head. 'Why should we," he asked. "To satisfy our curiosity? That would be its only purpose."

Dr. McBurney's supreme confidence in the outcome could not be overstated. His manner and bearing all testified to the conviction he felt.

"We have locked door after door against the grim monster. He said in conclusion: "I am satisfied, I am going to Niagara Falls to-day to see the sights."

With these cheerful words the surgeon turned into the grounds of the spacious residence of Mr. Sprague, where Secretary Root is stopping, to convey the good news to the Secretary of War.

SECRETARY CORTELYOU.

whose faithful attendance on the President in his hour of trial has been the subject of much comment and praise, is 39 years old, and a native of New York City. He was once a school teacher, and is an expert stenographer. He was first in the service of a President as Executive Clerk, who has charge of a great force of stenographers at the White House, in Cleveland's last term, and rose through grade of assistant secretary, created for him during Secretary Porter's absence, to be President's secretary during McKinley's first term.

While in the White House he has studied law and graduated from both Georgetown and Columbia Law Schools.

He married the daughter of Dr. Hinds, Principal of Hempstead Institute, and has three children.

MONDAY WAS A DAY OF PROGRESS.

Not a Single Unsatisfactory Symptom Developed During the Twenty-four Hours.

MILBURN HOUSE, BUFFALO, September 10.—"God's contribution to the American people will be the sparing of the President's life." As the evening shadows were falling last night, John G. Milburn, President of the Exposition, reverently uttered these words as he stood before the house in which the nation's patient was fighting so bravely with death. And all who had been at the Milburn residence yesterday, reflected the view that the battle will be won and the prayers of the world will be answered. Since Sunday night not an unfavourable symptom has appeared. Every hour has been a victory. Faith in the outcome grows stronger and stronger and hope mounts higher and higher until in the minds of some the danger of all future complications is brushed aside, and hope has become conviction. Indeed many of the President's friends seem possessed with a sort of superstitious confidence in the President's recovery, which nothing but an absolute change for the worse can shake. And the basis for the confidence that is expressed is solid. There has been nothing but improvement, gradual and slow, but steady improvement. Every bulletin, every private and public word of the physicians in attendance, breathes encouragement. The reports the physicians have given out are facts as they exist from a scientific standpoint, unmixed with sentiment. Still, that the President is by no means out of danger is the verdict of each of them. Not one of them will risk his professional reputation with the statement that the President will live. All they will say is that with every hour the danger of complications from peritonitis or blood poisoning decreases.

DR. McBURNEY'S OPINION.

Dr. McBurney, the most eminent of the physicians in attendance, expresses the opinion that if the improvement continues it will be a week yet before the President can be pronounced out of danger and convalescent. And some of his colleagues, like Dr. Mann, place the limit of danger still further away. The fear of peritonitis, it can be said positively, has well nigh completely disappeared. With the expiration of the 72-hour period at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, danger from that source was almost gone.

The President himself has been cheerful all day and has expressed confidence in his recovery. Yesterday he asked for a morning paper, but this, of course, had to be denied him. It is with some difficulty that he can be restrained from talking, and Col. Myron T. Herrick, of Cleveland, is quoted as authority for the statement that he has spoken at intervals of several things he proposes to do in the future. He was given nourishment yesterday in the form of eggs beaten in milk, administered through the rectum. The water which has been given heretofore cold did not appear to agree with him, and recently very hot water has been taken into the stomach through the mouth with splendid results. His bowels moved freely during the day and this also was considered an excellent symptom. If he continues to improve it will be gradually. If he should grow worse the change in that direction will also probably be slow. This is the opinion of Dr. Mann. There will be no crisis. If he arrives at convalescence Dr. Park expresses the opinion that it will be three weeks before it will be safe to move him. It is expected that the interior wounds will heal first. The sutures of the lacerated tissues were made so soon after the bullet passed that they are probably healing rapidly. With the exterior wound it is a slower process.

VICE-PRESIDENT AN OPTIMIST.

The extreme optimism of the Vice-President and the members of the Cabinet would be difficult to over-state.

"I am absolutely confident everything will turn out all right," declared the Vice-President, and he said he based his confidnce on information behind the public expressions of the physicians. So relieved are Secretary Gage and Attorney-General Knox at the steady improvement that they returned to Washington last night feeling strongly that their chief would recover, but with the assurance of the physicians that if a change for the worse should come it would be gradual and that they would have ample time to return. In the case of Secy. Gage, there was also a public reason why he should be at his post. New York financiers have appealed to him to relieve the situation in the money market by increasing deposits in National banks, and he feels that he can hardly act at this distance from the scene if he finds that action is desiable. Senator Hanna will remain until the physicians give absolute assurance that Mr. McKinley will live. Comptroller Dawes and some of the other prominent men connected with the administration expect to depart to-day or Wednesday, if the improvement continues.

Vice-President Roosevelt has occupied a peculiarly delicate and trying position since the event which threatened the President's life, but he has borne himself throughout this ordeal in such a manner as to win the admiration and respect of all. Not for a moment has he permitted the idea to be entertained that there was need for considering the constitutional disabilty of the President and the exercise of executive functions, which this would impose on him. On the contrary, Mr. Roosevelt has been one of the most positive in the conviction that the President would recover. Twice during the day and again last evening the Vice-President has called at the Milburn residence to enquire as to the President's condition. During the afternoon call he met several Cabinet officers and Senator Hanna, and spent a short time with them in formal discussion. On the streets he has been the centre of respectful attraction, but he has met this with dignity and composure.

CZOLGOSZ A DEGENERATE.

(Special to the Star.)

CHICAGO, September 10.—In the opinion of Professor Frederick Starr, anthropologist and authority on degeneracy of the University of Chicago, the Bertillon photograph of Leon Czolgosz shows emphatically that the would-be murderer of the President is a degenerate. Frightful asymmetry, or non-balance shown clearly by the front view, is the striking mark of degeneracy stamped on the face of the anarchist.

It was with great reluctance that Professor Starr consented to state his opinion as an expert and to point out the details which confirm the general impression which the picture gives to any one. Professor Starr had just returned from Buffalo, where he had been attending the exposition for a week, and was on the grounds the afternoon of the attempted assassination.

Professor Starr, who is considered to be one of the most careful and conservative, as well as among the most interesting of the research workers at the university, makes it a habit to refrain from studying the details of a great tragedy until after the emotions caused by the shock have given place to cooler judgment. He refuses to give expression to his impressions formed in the immediate excitement of a terrible affair.

However, Professor Starr was greatly interested when a copy of the Bertillon photographs was handed to him at the university. He glanced at it a moment and said quietly: "The man who shot the President."

He laid the picture on his table, leaned on his elbows and looked into the reproduction of the assassin's face fully five minutes, completely absorbed in thought. Then Professor Starr handed it back and said: "I have nothing to say." But on being pressed for a statement he took the photograph again and gave the following explicit statement:

"In the first place, although this is a photograph taken according to the Bertillon system, I don't believe the photograph is a good one. The profile betrays nothing. The front view photograph is the important one, and it is difficult to get a front view in which the subject is not turned a little to one side or the other, thus making differences in the measurements on the sides.

"But if the picture is a good one, the most striking thing from the point of view of criminology is the frightful asymmetry. Asymmetry is non-balance, and in this photograph this is asymmetry to a notable degree.

"Asymmetry is the most striking indication of degeneracy.

"If this picture is well taken he is phenomenally degenerate. Look, to begin with, at the whole pose of the head. You will observe a tilt to the left. If the picture is correct the asymmetry is enormous. Not only one side of the face and neck is shorter than the other, but one ear is too low. The nose bends to one side. The eyes are uneven in height.

"The mouth is the only thing I can be sure of. Whether the picture is well taken or not, we can tell about that, and the mouth is sloping. This alone indicates degeneracy.

"The general impression gained by the photograph is that the man has suffered much from ill health."

The professor was here interrupted, and it was stated that the biography of Czolgosz brought this out. The professor was quick to answer:

"I did not know that. I have not read anything about the history of the man."

The professor concluded his statement of impression gained from the photograph as follows:

"On the whole many men, who are strong characters and stand well in their community, show much stronger marks of degeneracy than the photograph of this man. Apart from the asymmetry, the face is not strongly degenerate."

Dr. Starr does not believe that there is any conspiracy, expressing it as his opinion that Czologolsz did not shoot the President as the result of a plot.

"I think the indications, judging by the character of the man as indicate in the picture and by his actions, show that he was alone in his terrible deed. He is not a strong-minded man. The face gives the impression that he is undetermined. But he was influenced at those meetings to do something; and the particular idea came to him on the grounds. That his mind was not fully made up as to the particular act, is indicated by his hesitancy.

"When he did not shoot the President on the day of the public address, he gave up practically his last known chance. The public reception was not announced until the next day in the morning papers. The public reception was an after thought. I attended the previous reception at which the various guests were invited to meet the President, and I am sure that the public reception was an after thought. If the man was the agent of conspirators, he would not have given up his last known chance for committing his terrible crime."

THE MILBURN RESIDENCE.

PREVIOUS PLOT TO KILL THE PRESIDENT.

The Man Who Was Selected to Do the Work Told His Story to a Detective.

NEW YORK, September 10.—Details of a previous plot against the life of President McKinley are given out, it is said, on good authority by Senator T. E. Ellsworth, according to a special to the Tribune from Lockport, N.Y. He is credited with the statement that the plot was hatched in Paterson, N.J., about the 1st of May, and Emma Goldman and other prominent anarchists are said to have been concerned in it. A young tailor, Michael Anuitzi, it is said, was the one to whose lot it fell to do the deed. At that time the President was on his tour of the West, and Anuitzi left for San Francisco, where he expected McKinley would be by the time he reached there. But he arrived several days ahead, and attended several anarchist meetings, where he met a young man, to whom he told his purpose.

The young man was no other than a secret service detective, and Anuitzi was promptly arrested, but upon the lack of evidence and certain advices from Washington only the charge of vagrancy was entered against him.

The condition of Mrs. McKinley is said to have had some bearing upon the matter, which was hushed up, the prisoner being sentenced for eight months in the San Francisco work-house.

CZOLGOSZ EXAMINED.

He Persistently Sticks to the Story That He Alone Was Responsible for the Crime.

BUFFALO, September 10.—Czolgosz, the assailant of President McKinley, went through a long examination yesterday, at the hands of the police officials, but emerged from it without having added anything material to their knowledge of the case. The chief effort of the detectives was to draw from the prisoner some admission as to his accomplices, but he persistently stuck to his denial. Every possible device was resorted to in the effort to obtain the information, but the prisoner maintained his position and could not be shaken. In answer to question he again went over the events of Friday and told substantially the same story as in the original confession made to Supt. Bull and District Attorney Penny. Czolgosz carefully weighed his answers, and when conclusions that he did not approve were taken from his statements, insisted upon making explanations of his exact meaning.

Czolgosz is still kept secluded and the detectives are the only ones who have access to him. He is still strong and healthy, and eats with a will. Knowledge of the condition of the President is kept from him. He knew on Friday night the President was still alive, but has been given no information since then.

Says He Overheard Plot.

CHICAGO, September 10.—Charles H. McMurray, employed by a wholesale grocery house in this city, has notified the police that on the night of July 12 or 13, he is not sure which, while waiting for his suburban train at the Main station of the Illinois Central road, he overheard three men discussing plans to kill President McKinley and two well-known New York capitalists. After talking a few minutes, the three shook hands and went towards the Michigan Central train for Buffalo.

McMurray says he told the policeman on duty at the station, and after a few days had practically forgotten the occurrence. The description of one of the men given by McMurray is not unlike the appearance of Czolgosz, and it is known that on July 12 he was in Chicago, going east to Buffalo that night.

Anarchists Can be Expelled.

NEW YORK, September 10. — Justice David McAdam, of the Supreme Court, of New York, gives the opinion that Emma Goldman and other anarchists who are naturalized, can be expelled from the country on the ground that they have sworn falsely in that they obtained certificate of citizenship by fraud, in testifying that they were attached to the principles of government, and would support its constitutional laws.

LONDONERS CONTINUE TO DISCUSS McKINLEY'S CONDITION.

Various Suggestions Made as to How Anarchists Should be Dealt With—Individual With Thirst for Notoriety More Dangerous Than Organized Bands.

NEW YORK, September 10.—The correspondent of the Tribune in London cables: There is no abatement of public interest in the bulletins from Buffalo. The President's brave struggle for life and the dangers to which all Government is exposed from the disordered caprices of anarchists remain the chief themes of the press and the platform. When the first tidings of Czolgosz's crime were received there were heard more than one English expression of regret that the assassin had not been torn limb from limb by the mob, and these advocates of stern reprisals urged that there could be no more effective method of preventing similar anarchist attacks upon rulers. The assassin's own confession that Miss Goldman's oration burned in his memory and incited him to commit the crime has convinced many that her arrest and trial as an accessory would be more useful than any act of mob savagery would have been.

FREEDOM OF ANARCHISTS.

Stress is laid by the press here and on the continent upon the impunity with which anarchists in the United States have been allowed to hold meetings and print incendiary appeals to evil passions. The English practice has not been essentially different. Anarchists, as a prominent Scotland Yard official has admitted to me, have not been interfered with or harassed in London. They have enjoyed as much license here as in Chicago or Paterson. Scotland Yard, according to the official whom I am quoting, has not sought to interrupt the meetings nor to suppress the circulars and prints, but has kept them under rigorous surveillance. Anarchists in England, if Scotland Yard may be believed, are never out of the sight of the police. There are spies among them, and whatever secrets they may have are shared with the police. This is the French plan of operations, and there is reason to believe that the English police have adopted it as the most practical method of disarming the enemies of all law and Government. The real source of danger, as the official already quoted confesses, is the ill-balanced mind which broods in silence over the appeals made by anarchists, and yields to a frenzy for notoriety, fascinated by the thought of mischief which can be wrought by his own intervention in the great affairs of the world. This is what London officials have feared when street functions like the Jubilee procession or the Queen's funeral have been planned. It is a form of checkmate King by Pawn, against which the resources of detective wit are not always equal.

MESSAGES OF GOOD-WILL.

Series of messages of sorrow and of good-will were received yesterday at the United States Embassy. Lord Chief Justice O'Brien, of Ireland, was the most important caller. Ambassador Choate remains north of the Berwick, but Henry White has returned to the Embassy.

There was nothing like a panic on the Stock Exchange yesterday, and the prices of American Rails were generally well above New York parity. The prevailing feeling is that the wounded President will recover, and that as soon as his recovery has been assured the rise in quotations will be as rapid as the fall.

PLOT HATCHED IN CHICAGO.

Secret Service Detectives Believe Plans to Kill the President Were Made in the Windy City.

CHICAGO, September 10.—United States secret service officers in Chicago having come to the conclusion that the attempted assassination of President McKinley was the result of a plot arranged in this city, have telegraphed Chief Wilkie, of the Secret Service, who is now in Buffalo, asking him to send Czolgosz's coat to Chicago immediately. The officers believe the mark on the assassin's coat will prove that it was made by a tailor who lived very near the house of Abraham Isaak, one of the anarchists now being held on a charge of conspiracy. This fact once determined, the officers say, it will be a matter of only a few hours to ascertain exactly where Czolgosz lived in Chicago, the names of those with whom he associated, and the length of time he remained in the city.

CINCINNATI, September 10. — George Huesmann, a mounted patrolman on the police force here, was subjected to the humiliating ordeal of having the insignia of his office taken away from him before a crowd of his fellow-policemen in the office of the Chief of Police here yesterday, on a charge of having made a remark that he was glad that McKinley was shot. He passionately pleaded that he had been misunderstood. During President McKinley's last visit, Huesmann was a member of the guard of honour to watch the person of the Chief Executive while here.

BUFFALO, September 10.—After the 9.30 bulletin had been issued from the Milburn residence last night, announcing a continuance of the favourable conditions of the President, there were many indications that the bulletins were but meagre indications of the real improvement of the distinguished patient. At 9.45 o'clock, Miss McKinley, a sister of the President, left the house, and taking a carriage, Dr. and Mrs. Herman Baer, the latter a niece of the President, and Misses Barber, nieces of the President, left the house, and taking carriages, announced their intention of returning to their homes.

Abner McKinley accompanied them to the station, and said:

"The nearest relatives of the President are so confident of his recovery that they have no hesitation in leaving."

SYMPATHY OF METHODISTS.

Kindly References Made at the Great Ecumenical Conference in London.

NEW YORK, September 10.—The correspondent of the Tribune in London cables: The Methodist Ecumenical Conference had a theological morning, an educational afternoon and an evening revel of Anglo-Saxon sentiment. Rev. Frederick W. Bourne led off the polemics in an essay setting forth the principles of Protestantism in antagonism with the practices of modern sacredotalism. Prof. Charles Howard, of Canada, and Dr. Banks, of the Wesleyan Methodist, followed the essayist, and there was a series of five minute speeches. Dr. Charles J. Little read after luncheon a scholarly paper upon Methodism and education in the twentieth century, and there was a prolonged discussion by the English and American delegates in the evening. The meeting in St. James' Hall was deeply interesting, since the subject discussed was the one for which an object lesson had been supplied by the outburst of English indignation over the monstrous attack upon President McKinley. The moral unity of the English-speaking peoples was the theme, and nothing that might be said from the platform could be so effective and thrilling as the evidence of brotherhood and race affinity spontaneously produced under the stress of the strong emotions since President McKinley became the victim of an Anarchist crime. Sir Henry Fowler was the chairman, and the list of speakers included Bishop Grant, Dr. Quayle, Dr. John Potts, R. W. Perks, and W. Oliver, from Kimberley, and Rev. J. Bracken, from Cork.

At the St. James' Hall meeting last evening all the speakers delivered stirring addresses, illustrating and emphasizing the moral unity of the English-speaking people. Mr. R. W. Perks, M.P., presided.

Dr. Potts, of Canada, pointed out amid laughter, that from one end of the Dominion to the other there was no such variation of dialect as that which could be noted in the talk of Yorkshiremen and Cornishmen. Dr. Wilson, of San Francisco, objected to any new version of the Bible. Eminent scholars, had he said, certainly not improved its language. Rev. Dr. Amory Bradford, of New Jersey, speaking at Kensington Chapel, said: "We may differ from our President in many ways, but we honour him, we trust him, we believe him to be as pure, as faithful as any Knight of Arthur's Round Table." Anti-Anarchist agitation in this country is increasing, and the advisability of organizing an international police force is being discussed.

CHASTISED AT CHURCH.

Members of the Congregation Ducked a Man Speaking Against McKinley.

OMAHA, Neb., September 10. — Church service was deferred in the little town of Fairmount, Neb., Sunday, while members of the congregation chastised H. D. Gosser, a detractor of President McKinley. Gosser stood in the centre of a group on the steps of the Presbyterian church. He remarked that the parishioners were simply kissing the hand of their oppressor in expressing regret at his overthrow. It afforded him pleasure, he said, to see a promoter of trusts come to a violent end.

A party of young men interrupted Gosser rudely at this juncture and carried him to a small pond a short distance away, where he was repeatedly doused until he was nearly drowned. He was then set astride a rail and headed a procession along the road. His captors dumped him into a thicket and returned to the church. The congregation awaited the outcome outside the building and, upon the return of the party, entered the church and began the service, an hour behind the usual hour.

The Crime a Local Offence.

BUFFALO, September 10.—Many sensational reports are being circulated about Cabinet action, looking to the wholesale apprehension, and prosecution of Emma Goldman and leaders of anarchist organizations. The great majority of these reports in the words of a Cabinet officer, are "manufactured out of whole cloth."

The crime of Czolgosz is by law a local offence against a citizen of the state, and his trial will take place in the locad courts.

CHICAGO, September 10.—Chief O'Neil later announced that Emma Goldman is under surveillance not far from Chicago, although not in this city. He insisted that she had been located and intimated that she will be arrested soon.

The Pope and the Anarchists.

LONDON, September 10.—"The Pope has been so impressed by the attack upon President McKinley," say the Rome correspondent of the Daily Mail, "that he intends to take the initative in join action by the Christian powers against anarchists. He is writing an important encyclical on the subject, which will be published next month."

Everything Was Closed Down.

Mr. D. O. Pease, district passenger agent of the Grand Trunk Railway, has returned from a short trip to the Buffalo Exposition. Mr. Pease was there during the attempt on President McKinley's life. The indignation and rage of the people, he says, was something he will never forget. Business was at a standstill, and in the Exhibition grounds it was impossible to procure anything to eat or drink. Everything was closed down for the day.
