Pony picnic on Saturday at John Smith's

The pony picnic at John Smith's farm this Saturday will be something quite different from anything seen heretofore. For instance the program includes a parade in which every entry wins a first prize, and a race where the last one in gets the red ribbon.

Third item on the program is a contest to determine the happiest looking female teamster and then comes the "poorest teamster" class.

OBITUARY

J. Emile Paquette

Joseph Emile Paquette died suddenly on June 22 at Ottawa Civic Hospital. He would have been fifty in August.

His passing took Bryson and the surrounding district by complete surprise as Mr. Paquette had been one of its most energetic citizens. He had become a friend, not only of his fellow citizens of this area but also was well known to travellers who came here, staying at his motel or eating at his restaurant, The Oasis.

Particularly well known and liked by those who have been here in connection with the building of the Consolidated Paper Corp. Mill Mr. Paquette worked with them in various ways to help the project along.

His sudden death leaves his widow, the former Rena Poisson and two daughters both in Cornwall, Claudette (Mrs. Rene Bergeron) and Barbara. Also surviving are two grandsons, Daniel Pierre and Marc-Andre Bergeron.

The funeral was from Ringrose Brothers in Campbell's Bay with burial Sunday June 26th at Immaculate Conception cemetery, Bryson. Rev Father T. P. Tait conducted Requiem High Mass on Monday and Gaetan Lance and the Sisters Mary of Namur sang at the service. Pall bearers and honorary pall bearers were members of the Knights of Columbus.

The deceased was a son of the late Joseph Paquette and his wife who was the former Aurore Racine. He was born at St. Isidore de Prescott in Ontario in 1916.

Mr. Paquette was a member of Knights of Columbus Council 755 and a faithful member of the Roman Catholic Church. Besides his wife and children he is survived by seven brothers and three sisters: Lucien of Timmins, Omer of Three Rivers, Rene of Brockville, Raymond, Roland, Roger and Jean of Cornwall, Mrs. Joseph Sigouin (Stella) Mrs. Armand Lavigne (Germaine) and Mrs. Thomas Crowe (Marie) all of Cornwall. The funeral was widely attended by people from Cornwall, Ottawa, Hull, Malartic, Val d'Or, Sudbury, Defereit, New York and Brockville as well as many from the villages of Pontiac County.

And so on—here's the whole list:

1. Parade (hitched) all firsts!
2. Race (hitched) slowest wins!
3. Happiest female teamster!
4. Poorest teamster!
5. Best child driver under 16 yrs
6. Best teamster male (one hand)
7. Fastest female to harness, hitch and circle

(One of the sensible features of this particular little informal pony show is that all the harness classes will be held before the intermission and a ten minute break will take place before the saddle classes begin).

8. Saddle parade (any age) all firsts!
9. Pony pick-up bare back
10. Potato race, any age bare back

11. Best child rider
12. Barrel race and more games if time permits.

Lunch is to be provided by each family bringing one roll of bread in sandwiches and drinks will be supplied on the grounds FREE.

This pony party is free for everyone who wishes to come and should be the biggest and best pony event for the children to take place in this pony-conscious community yet.

As the Smith's farm is between Quyon and Shawville it is easy to get to from anywhere and ponies from Calumet Island, Otter Lake and everywhere in fact are more than welcome.

Stephens - Holt wedding

On June 18, 1966, Judith Holt daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Rebertz became the bride of Sidney Stephens son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stephens in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Shawville. Rev Frere Kennedy officiated and Mrs. Asa Horner was the organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by the bridegroom's sister Miss Elaine Stephens as maid of honor and by Miss Millie Langdon and Miss Julie Hodgins as bridesmaids. Flower girl was Miss Diane Rebertz, the bride's sister.

The best man was Mr. Brian Holt, brother of the bride and the ushers were Mr. Bobby Carson and Mr. Beverly Cluff.

For the ceremony the bride chose a white full length gown and carried a bouquet of red roses.

Her attendants wore matching dresses with maid of honor attired in yellow, carrying white and yellow mums, and bridesmaids in blue, carrying white & blue mums. The flower girl, who was dressed in yellow, carried a small bouquet of white and yellow mums.

Car, jeep collision on Otter Lake Rd

Four people were injured in a car-jeep accident on the Otter Lake Road, two miles north of Campbell's Bay on Sunday at 5.35 p.m.

Involved was a car driven by Guy Amyotte 25, of Fort Coulonge and a jeep driven by Gilles Dupont 42, of Hull.

Dupont's wife Jeanine and their two children Daniel 8 and Serge 5 were slightly injured and later located at St. Joseph's Hospital in Hull. The other driver Amyotte was injured but not hospitalized.

Campbell's Bay Q.P.P. detachment investigated.

Final meeting of museum committee

At its closing meeting in Shawville Council Hall Monday night, the Centennial Museum Committee resolved to return the money collected for the reconstruction in Shawville of a Pioneer Farm. Within the next few weeks, everyone who contributed any money to the project will be receiving it back from the treasurer of the committee.

The only other matter of business at this terminal meeting was the turning over of bills to Council. As the committee had been appointed a committee of Council for purposes of the Centennial Project, expenses of the committee are now payable by Council; and as the ratepayers of Shawville rejected the Provincial grant which was to pay for these and all other expenses, these now become payable by the town. The only major expense involved is the architect's fee which normally is five or more percent of the value of the total project.

The reconstruction work for which the grant had been approved was to cost $66,000.

SOME OF THE REASONING BEHIND THE HILTON STRIKE

An officer of the Steel Workers union local 5656 has brought more information to light in connection with the demands of his organization which is now striking against The Hilton Mines at Bristol.

The Equity last week published the management of the company claim that Hilton must mine from two to three times as much material as other Canadian iron ore operations in order to produce a ton of pellets so a larger work force must be maintained in relation to production. In the same article was published the union's original request for the top rate of $2.40 as at Marmor, and their subsequent compromise down to a parity rate of $2.20 retroactive to March 1st, 1966.

Using Marmor once more for comparison purposes, the Union official points out that a document from Harry J. Waisglass, Research Director for Canada of the United Steelworkers of America, shows that in 1963 Marmor shipped 387 thousand long tons of iron oxide pellets and in 1964 shipped 555 thousand long tons. Another report in the hands of the union official lists 272 employees at Marmor in 1965 which he feels would not be much different from the 1963 and 1964 employment figures.

25 Years Ago in The Equity

July 10, 1941

The following members of military units of Ottawa and district spent the weekend at their respective homes in town and vicinity; Lieut Orville McBride, Lieut Melvin Hodgins, Sgt Ebert Horner, Corp Douglas McDowell, Ptes James Allen, Alex Holliss, Wallace Belsher, Donald McDowell and Eric Judd Ac's Bruce Findlay and Herb Wickens.

A miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mr. Edward Tubman, in honour of his daughter, Miss Sarah Tubman, on Monday evening June 23rd whose marriage took place the following Wednesday. An enjoyable evening was spent by all in playing games.

Births — At Kirkland Lake Hospital, on Wednesday, July 2nd, 1941, to Dr. and Mrs. Jack Willard (nee Margaret McDowell) R.N. a son:

On Tuesday evening July 1st, the ladies of the Holiness Movement and Wesleyan Churches met at the Wesleyan Camp and took the opportunity after the evening meal, of presenting Miss Holbrook and Miss Connaughty of the Standard Church with an appropriate gift prior to their leaving for other fields of labour.

Hilton is listed by the Weisglass report as shipping 871 long tons of iron oxide pellets in 1964 and 899 in '64 and their number of employees has been about 350.

These figures and probabilities lend support to the argument that Hilton is not maintaining a proportionately larger work force than Marmor and we have been asked to publish these facts to further explain the purpose of the strike now in progress.

Another point which has led to misunderstanding between the union and the management seems to be the interpretation of the 51 cent package deal. The Union understands this package to be about 41 cents. Three weeks vacation, they say for instance, will not be enjoyed for three years at least by any of the employees, and therefore is not of benefit now.

This would seem to these officers to reduce the value of the package. Also termination pay is not of benefit to anyone except those who remain employed at Hilton until this mine closes or they become 65 years old. Information from the union also claims that the company's comparison with the Caland package is misleading. The company has said that the changes offered by Hilton equal the cost of the Caland Ore Company settlement. The Union official Mr. John Kirkham states that it is not a package equal to Caland which the men want but a rate of $2.32 minimum pay for job class one equal to Caland.

Further to the matter of the high cost of this particular settlement as compared to other recent three year settlements in the iron ore industry, Mr. Kirkham has explained that there is a valid reason for this particular settlement being more costly.

The contract negotiated between the Union and the Mine in 1963, he says, was considered by the Union to be far behind the times. At that time, with mass unemployment and a long list of applicants for every job at the mine, the Union was forced to settle for an unsatisfactory agreement. At this time the demands seem greater because the union says it is trying to catch Hilton Mine up with the rest of the iron ore industry in Canada.

Green Lake will soon have its complement of summer lodgers, some of our citizens having already gone into occupancy of their cottages at that quiet lovely spot.

The mercury registered 88 in the shade on Friday last—the highest point reached this summer so far.

Mr. Edward Schwartz of Lady-smith, who raised about 1000 pails of strawberries last season, has also a very large crop this year, which he is disposing of as fast as they can be picked. During the past ten days he has sold a large quantity to Shawville citizens.

Ice cream and cake will be served at the home of Mrs. H. T. Argue on Saturday evening of this week, proceeds of which will be devoted to Red Cross work. Good homemade ice cream and cake—a treat. Admission 10c. After numerous suggestions it has been decided to change the name of the Ontario town, Berlin to Kitchener. The change will take place officially on July 17.

A very pretty simple dignified wedding took place in St. Paul's Church Sydenham Place, on Wednesday June 28. The bride was Miss Arbena Lucille Moore, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Moore of Kingsley, the groom was Mr. Leonard Stanley of Wyman.

Main Street, Shawville looks better all the time, what with the new outsiders on Clarendon Hotel, to match the modern interior which Frank Finnigan and sons built there several years ago and with the renovations and expansions at Cote's store.

Members of the Shawville Pony and Saddle Club will be meeting at the Diamond T Ranch on Saturday afternoon, July 9, at 2 o'clock. Among other things, plans will be made for the Western Rodeo to be sponsored by the club on August 7th.

Regret has been expressed out loud in various corners of Shawville that there is no Board of Trade or Chamber of Commerce in this town. It would be difficult to persuade anyone differently.

It has also reached this office that "there ought to be some sort of historical society in Shawville" !!! True.

Incidentally there are a lot of things "there oughta be" around here but each of these things depends on somebodys time and energy and there are very few people around these days with time and energy for anything but their own business. Especially when they know for a certainty that if they do try anything for the common good they'll be blocked on all sides by those who do nothing.

A MESSAGE FROM 5656

Mr. Hubert Elliott, an official of USWA local 5656, has asked us to publish the following excerpt from the by-laws for local unions of the United Steel Workers and in compliance with his request, we take pleasure in publishing this here. (Let it be remembered by all who read this that there is NOTHING between the lines that there has never been any previous suggestion or even thought of Communism or the Ku Klux Klan, or fascism in connection with this union and that the following is being published at the request of Mr. Hubert Elliott).

"No person shall be eligible for membership, or for nomination of election or appointment to, or to hold any office, or position or to serve on any Committee in the International Union or in this local union to serve as a delegate therefrom who is a member, consistent supporter, or who actively participates in the activities of the Communist Party, Ku Klux Klan, or of any fascist totalitarian or other subversive organization, which opposes the democratic principles to which our nation and our Union are dedicated."

End of message.

SHAWVILLE CLAIMS HIM TOO

The people of Winchester, Ontario, have claimed Rev. and Mrs. Schamehorn and, through their weekly newspaper The Winchester Press, are bidding to keep him there when he finally decides to retire from the ministry.

His present term expires at Winchester next year which will be his 40th year in the ministry. While he was pastor at the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Shawville, he and Mrs. Schamehorn built a home here where they intended to retire, and actually where they did retire for one short year. During this year Rev. Schamehorn was busy in various activities connected with his personal Christian evangelism and was the spiritual mainstay of many here. However, he answered one more call to Winchester and has been there for three years.

The Schamehorns have seen joy and tragedy through a lifetime of raising four children, three of whom have since passed on: one on active duty in the war, one as a brilliant doctor died from heart failure, one as a married woman of 34 died of pneumonia.

Their continued faith through such personal defeat seemed to fit Rev. and Mrs. Schamehorn to carry the burdens of others around them and during their stay in Shawville they became one of this village's needed strengths. When they left for Winchester it was the hope of the people here who knew them that they would return.

It still is.

Closing exercises at Onslow school feature sports

An assembly was held in the auditorium with pupils from all grades participating in the closing exercises on June 23. At the close of the program three trophies were presented to deserving students. The jr girl's Cup won by Marilyn Young at the County Track Meet in Shawville was presented to her by Mr. Horner. The Woods Trophy for smaller schools won by this school at the Meet was also presented by Mr. Horner and was received by Joyce Young. The school Plaque for sports this year was won by the IMPALAS who defeated the MONARCHS by a slight margin. Mr. Horner presented this plaque to Jean Draper, captain of the Impalas. The rest of the morning was spent in sports, races and a ball game. At noon an excellent lunch was provided by the la-

Dinner to honour retiring teachers

Mrs. Louisa Wills and Mrs. Mary Pitt were entertained by the staff of La Pesche Intermediate School at a dinner at the Wakefield Inn, Wakefield on Friday, June 24.

Mrs. Wills and Mrs. Pitt have been on the teaching staff for the past thirteen years and are retiring from the teaching profession.

Mr. William Caves, chairman of the LaPesche Protestant School Commission presented engraved silver trays to these ladies for their many years of dedicated teaching.

Prior to this occasion Mrs. Wills was presented with a vase by the pupils of Grade 5 and Mrs. Pitt received a lamp from the pupils of Grade 3.

Another Centennial Idea

The Editor,
The Equity,

In considering the future cultural and recreational development of Shawville and District I wish to make a few suggestions.

Adjacent to the Park containing the Agricultural Hall is the old school, the old rink, and the Cliff Woodley place. The three properties added to the Park would make a perfect Community Centre Complex. To begin with the Woodley house (which is now for sale) could be turned into a combination Public Library and local Museum. In a few short years the Victoria School will be available. This plan could be an ideal Centennial project.

Would it be possible to use the donations and proposed Government grants from the discarded Museum project for this purpose?

Time for Enlightened Search

Shawville, Quebec,
July 4, 1966

Editor,

The Equity,

In June 30th "Pastoral Comment" Rev Atkinson states: "We cannot simply say that God's Word doesn't mean what it says or try to avoid it by slipping around the issue."

A suggestion to Rev Atkinson or any other member of the clergy for future "Pastoral Comments" would be the explanation of the following quotations from the Bible, and the reason why these are not taken literally: Christ, when speaking of John the Baptist, said: "If ye will receive it, this is Elias which was for to come."

Revelations 3:12—"Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall GO NO MORE OUT."

The question of the disciples to Christ regarding the blind man: "Master, who did sin, this man or his parents, that he was BORN blind? The cart is before the horse. While Christ explained that neither the man nor his parents were responsible for this affliction, He did not reprimand the disciples for false belief.

In view of the large number of religious sects, one must presume that there is difficulty in interpreting the Bible. Possibly the time has come for a more enlightened sharing and searching for truth, without prejudice and without arrogance.

"Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap" was simply a re-statement of the law of cause and effect, or action and reaction, or the law of compensation, readily understood by Eastern religions as the law of Karma. It applies to the theory of reincarnation just as well as it applies to Christianity.

Sincerely,
Dorothy Yemen

Mugwumps Keep Heart

Luskville, June 27, 1966

Dear Editor,

In response to some criticism from a few Mugwumps which by the way are friends of mine and who represent about 30% of the people in Pontiac I would like to offer some more information on the subject for further comment.

The "died-in-the-wool" or "died in the wool" whichever suits the reader, are a hopeless group so why try to activate them!

In Lewis Carroll's "Through the Looking Glass" as in Alice's Adventures in Wonderland they can't tell the difference between the Tweedledees and the Tweedledums and down to earth and around home we Mugwumps and people who think cannot tell the difference between the two traditional political parties. I asked six so-called Liberals and Conservatives to define the main differences and the answers were as ambiguous as the differences.

The healthy thing about the 30% is that they try to use their thinking process to make decisions, while the dyed in the wools just act mechanically.

I suggest that those who belong to the 30% know that words are important, try to make mental pictures of words, use qualitatives to compare words, mentally sort these words out, observe and structurally analyse them, see how the results will work in practice and connect seemingly unconnected situations forming in their minds and in the community through action a medium for co-ordination between the different worlds of thought in our area.

From what one can observe, except at election time, the seventy percent—died in the wools, non-voters and alienated souls are being manipulated by a few of their own kind who call themselves leaders.

In a world which is changing fast, how can this small group expect to survive, they are disappearing in the cities and it's only a matter of time until their

St Edwards CWL

A general meeting of the ladies of St. Edward's parish hall was held in the parish school on June 15th at which time final arrangements were made for the annual picnic to be held July 3rd.

Following this the regular business was held with the Pres Mrs. Allen presiding.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and the treasurer's report given and both accepted as read.

A motion was made by Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. Chabot that a prize be donated to the child at taining the highest marks in religion in each grade.

A motion was also made to the effect that this council would send a $5 donation to the Legion of Mary Society.

A discussion period followed on The Emerging Layman, the word layman is a Greek word laos meaning people—all Catholic people as stated by Pius XII are apostles.

Today laymen play a most important roll in their everyday activities and by loving and serving Christ in the world and taking their place in the many lay organizations in their parishes and there is also the constant demand for lay persons who can devote time in the missionary work thus fulfilling the basic meaning of the word laity—the people of God—the chosen followers of Christ.

A social hour followed with hostesses Miss Inez and Joan Hannaberry and Mrs. Eileen Smith in charge.

WHO PAYS FOR ACCIDENTS?

How much do industrial accidents cost?

Who pays for industrial accidents?

Everybody pays!

The workman pays in bodily suffering and mental anguish. Too often he pays with his life. He pays with years of struggling against the handicap of permanent injury.

The worker's family pays. Widows and fatherless children, are the tragic victims of fatal industrial accidents. Sorrow beyond measure, women forced to take on unexpected responsibilities and children deprived of a father's care. The worker's family pays a bitter price for industrial accidents.

The employer pays. He pays the compensation costs—a percentage of his pay roll. He pays for the plant doctors and all the safety expenses, as his direct cost of injuries. He pays for the cost of replacing the injured man with a new man and training. He pays for the inefficiency of idle machines and shorthanded crews, for the confusion and time lost following the accident. He also pays for the indirect cost of industrial accidents which are four times the direct cost.

Is it any wonder that the fair-minded executive, who has protected by safeguards every known point of danger in his plant, turns to his foreman to do his full part to keep his men from hurting themselves on jobs which cannot be guarded by mechanical means?

The foreman who does not wage war on accidents in his department is not only failing in his duty to his fellow workers, but also he is failing in one of his best opportunities to keep down production costs.

Indifference to or neglect of safety makes a foreman unworthy of his position of trust, no matter what his technical skill, his ability, to get work out of his men and his production record may be.

Upon foremen rests much of the responsibility for accidents to workers under their direct supervision.

If you are a farmer, storekeeper, banker, or a housewife, what have you done to prevent accidents in your home, or business?

Pastoral comment...

Rev Jos. E. Gravelle

How did Christ Fulfill the Old Testament?

The great step in passing from the Jewish Tradition to the Christian Church, which Christ came to establish, is most interesting. It is so simple and logical in each step. We admire the Wisdom of God in planning this marvelous transition, from the Old Testament to the New. Only a God could have thought out and placed in the First, what was to form His Church and serve as a means of salvation for mankind, in the Second.

FIRST — The Old Testament is prophetic in nature. It speaks continually of great things to come, great changes that were to end the terrible misfortunes which the Jewish people suffered. THE MESSIAH was to come, the Saviour, the Redeemer, who would bring the world closer to God than ever before, who would reveal many important revelations, unknown up to this time. Jesus of Nazareth was this redeemer, though the Jews did not recognize Him as such. . . . In this way Jesus was the fulfillment of the Old Testament prophecies.

SECONDLY—The Old Testament presents a Code of Morality. The principal laws are summed up in the Ten Commandments of God. Now Jesus fulfilled this moral code, or completed it, by showing what each law meant, what each law implied, yet was not expressly stated. For example He showed that the fifth commandment did not only forbid the external act of murder, but also all the internal acts of anger, hatred, desire for revenge and all that would lead to the external act. He taught that not only an external act against the sixth commandment was sinful but that permitting a bad desire to be formed, was committing this sin in the heart.

THIRDLY—The Old Testament told the Jews how to worship God, the manner of purification and just what was to be done for one to be sanctified and made worthy of God's love. This was a law of ritual or ceremonies which they must observe. They were not worship in its most perfect form, but types, vaguely foreshadowing the more perfect manner of worshipping God. Circumcision, for example was the rite of initiation into the chosen people of God. Joshua saw to it that all his band were circumcised before entering the promised land. . . . Jesus established the more perfect rite of initiation, Baptism, which gives the new spiritual life and makes one a member of the Mystical Body of Christ. Instead of sacrificing animals, Jesus substituted the Sacrifice of His death on Calvary. He becomes the Victim of Sacrifice, much more worthy of being offered to God in atonement for sin.

FINALLY the Old Testament had its civil code, promising earthly rewards to the good and threatening to rain down earthly punishments upon the wicked. Jesus fulfilled this civil code, by promising a heavenly reward to the good and eternal punishments in hell for the wicked.

All these changes could not be called the destroying of the Law, given to the Jews but the making of it more perfect. An artist, before working on a great painting will first draw a rough sketch on the canvas then using these lines as a guide, he will work upon his picture, adding colour and expression. The original sketch does not disappear, but becomes the framework in which the work of art is contained. One of God's greatest works of art is the establishing of His Church, to meet his designs and our every need. How we should marvel at this great work of His. How we should love to contemplate and admire THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH, THE GREAT WORK OF GOD.
