Makes appeal

Contends families need aid

STE. ADELLE, Que. (CP) — The first Canadian conference on children, bringing together doctors, teachers, social workers, and interested laymen, was opened Sunday by an appeal for more help to families.

Sir Geoffrey Vickers, research chairman for Great Britain's mental health research fund, said the family is becoming increasingly unable to meet all the demands made on it in the upbringing of children.

He said the family must be helped to fulfill some responsibilities, and some responsibilities should be taken over by social institutions.

The family could be helped with living space, money, time, education and specialist advice.

CLAIM ON SOCIETY
This could be done through things like housing plans, family allowances, a shorter work week, pre- and post-natal child care clinics, and home nursing or other home services.

All children — the exceptionally brilliant and the exceptionally retarded, as well as the handicapped — had a claim on society to help them lead the fullest life possible.

Parents of such children must be taught to aid in their development, and must be themselves aided.

In other opening speeches, Quebec Social Welfare Minister Emile Lafrance announced that his government will shortly promulgate a juvenile code.

SPECIALISTS HIRED
Specialists in all fields concerning the province's children's services have been hired to help prepare the code, he said.

They are to suggest a code that will adequately provide for children's education, health and morality.

He, too, emphasized the role of the family.

"Will we base our system of protection of children on the family? Educators, sociologists, social workers, and other specialists repeat to us that the natural environment of the child is the family."

"I think we will have to give a special attention to this fundamental question."

Heiress to go on trial

STE. ADELLE, Que. (CP) — Mrs. Beverley Ann Weary, 28-year-old heiress to a railroad fortune, armed herself with a rifle last spring because, by her own account, she feared for her life.

She borrowed the rifle from a friend May 16. That night at a party in her home in this Laurentian town 45 miles north of Montreal a shot killed Clifford Bruce Bridger, 33, a guest at the party. A .22-calibre bullet went through his left arm into his heart.

At the opening Tuesday of the October assizes in the Terrebonne County seat of St. Jerome, Mrs. Weary is scheduled to appear to have a date fixed for her trial on a charge of manslaughter.

The crown sought a murder trial when the preliminary hearing opened June 6. However, Judge Camille de Martigny, in a decision rendered June 13, emphatically rejected the murder charge and committed the accused to trial for manslaughter.

Mrs. Weary, a great-granddaughter of Sir William Van Horne, first general manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway, was later freed on bail of $5,000.

Mrs. Weary — divorced from her first husband, James Beatty, and estranged from her second, Martin T. Weary — told a coroner's inquest May 31 the reasons she feared for her safety.

She said wheels had been stolen from her own and a friend's cars and the steering mechanism of her car had been deliberately cut. These incidents she reported to the Ste. Adèle police.

For a few weeks in late April and early May she hired an armed detective. One day he fired two shots at a dark-haired, leather-jacketed prowler trying to break into the house. The prowler escaped.

This, she said, was why she borrowed the rifle.

Today's Chuckie
"It's not the work I enjoy," said the cab driver. "It's the people I run into."

Reds won't recognize decisions

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — (AP) — Soviet Premier Khrushchev today challenged Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld to resign. He threatened to refuse to recognize UN decisions unless the world organization's peace-making machinery is revised.

Khrushchev, addressing the assembly under "right to reply" procedure, unleashed a new, heavy attack on Hammarskjöld. He is seeking to replace the secretary-general with a three-man executive with veto powers.

"To avoid misinterpretation, I want to reaffirm that we do not trust Mr. Hammarskjöld and cannot trust him," Khrushchev said.

"If he himself does not muster up enough courage to resign, so to say, in a chivalrous manner, then we shall draw up the necessary conclusions from the obtaining situation."

NOT PROPER
"It is not proper for a man who has flouted elementary justice to hold such an important post, as that of secretary-general."

The Khrushchev attack came as the General Assembly's 98th session opened.

Dissent, rivalry splits UK labor

SCARBOROUGH, Eng. — Reuters — The British Labor party today went into annual conference torn by dissent and rivalry for power.

Delegates representing labor unions, regional party organizations and members of Parliament kicked off the 59th conference at this northeastern resort with a relatively uncontroversial discussion of African affairs.

The issue which some political experts said would break up the party — defence and possession of the H-bomb — was due to be decided Wednesday.

The Labor party, which governed Britain for six years after the Second World War, lost ground to the governing Conservative party in three national elections in the last 10 years.

The official line on defence laid down by party leader Hugh Gaitskell and his supporters — upholding the nuclear deterrent and the Atlantic Alliance — is challenged by members of the movement who hold that Britain must scrap its own nuclear weapons and call for the withdrawal of nuclear-armed American forces in Britain.

The party also is divided over economic policy, the official leadership holding that the old line of total nationalization of industry must give way to recognition that a mixed state-run and free enterprise system is best.

Individual opponents in the power struggle are Gaitskell and Frank Cousins, leader of the powerful Transport and General Workers Union.

The rivalry was heightened on the eve of the conference when the party's national executive Sunday night turned down a proposal that the opposing sides should confer on their differences before Wednesday's showdown.

Anthony Wedgwood Benn, at 35 youngest member of the executive, resigned when the executive turned down his peace-making proposal 13 to 7.

His resignation caused a sensation at the conference but "right wingers" said it was unlikely to influence Gaitskell's course of action.

Gaitskell suffered a second setback Sunday night when his own executive overruled him by one vote to decide that the Labor members of Parliament should conform to conference policy decisions.

The Labor party has long been divided on whether Labor MPs are bound by conference decisions.

Poll shows Nixon, Kennedy tied

WASHINGTON (AP) — Neither Richard Nixon nor John Kennedy now has a substantial lead in the race for president. Experts rate the states with the big votes as tossups.

At this stage of the campaign, Nixon, the Republican candidate, apparently has more electoral votes in his pocket than Kennedy, the Democratic candidate.

But Nixon's lead is slim and his total far from a majority. These are the conclusions that emerge from a survey of 50 states by The Associated Press.

The survey showed Nixon leading in 22 states with 161 electoral votes and Kennedy leading in 14 states with 123 votes.

The difference is only 38 votes, and neither man comes within 100 votes of the 289 votes needed to win the presidency.

The survey rated six of the largest states — New York (45), California (32), Pennsylvania (32), Ohio (25), Texas (24), and Michigan (20) — among the tossups, although there was some indication Kennedy had an edge in Ohio and Texas.

If either Kennedy or Nixon could take all or most of these 178 votes, he probably would win the election.

There were some indications Kennedy's Roman Catholic religion was hurting him, particularly in the south, somewhat in California and Illinois, and increasingly in Arizona.

At the same time, the issue seemed to be waning in North Carolina and Oklahoma and helping him in Pennsylvania and Wisconsin.

SIU charges lockout

MONTREAL (CP) — Four fleets of ships were to start tying up today in a move by lake shipping companies to support the strike-bound fleet of N. M. Paterson and Sons, Ltd.

The grain season, one of the busiest periods for ships, is expected to be drastically affected by the strike and the shutdown that will take 104 ships out of service and put about 1,600 seamen ashore.

The four companies who with the Paterson firm form the Lake Carriers Association decided to shut down shortly after the Seafarers International Union (ind.) struck last Wednesday to enforce wage and working-hours demands.

The association charged that the SIU illegally abandoned many of the Paterson ships, some of them in positions dangerous to the ships, their cargoes, and other water traffic.

The SIU has denied the charges and terms the shutdown a lockout.

NO PROGRESS REPORTED

The association and the union were both negotiating through federal conciliator Remi Duquette, but there was no progress reported.

The association charged Sunday that it had asked SIU cooperation in manning the ships "illegally abandoned" or left in dangerous positions, but had received no help.

The union said it would cooperate with any port of government authority that asked for removal of a ship, but "there is a strike in progress" and there would be no co-operation with the companies.

The union said it gave the companies plenty of notice that a strike was coming and arrangements for berths could have been made well in advance. The crew had no say as to where a ship would dock — this was left to the company or the ship's master.

"We're not going to sail ships to their home ports," a union spokesman said.

North Ward contest

English-language vote may decide election

By CUTHBERT JONES
(Record Staff Writer)

The English-language vote may well determine the outcome of Wednesday's aldermanic election in the North Ward where Ald. Everett Nicol, seeking election for his fourth term as representative for Seat No. One, is being opposed by Gerard Marchand, a florist.

It is estimated that approximately 40 per cent of the 4100 voters on the lists are English-speaking. If these turn out in substantial numbers, the re-election of Ald. Nicol seems assured. However, electoral apathy would probably work in the interests of his opponent. The latter is spokesman for a group of individuals who have long been critical of the manner in which affairs are conducted at the City Hall and it is probable that they will cast almost a 100 per cent vote on Wednesday.

Polls open at 9 a.m. and close at 7 p.m., 14 polling stations being established throughout the ward.

According to City Clerk Henri Paul Emond, who is the chief returning officer, those eligible to vote Wednesday are:

All persons owning property within the ward, regardless of whether their taxes are paid up or are in arrears;

All tenants whose tenant tax was paid up on February 1, 1960;

All persons living in the ward whose poll tax was paid on the same date;

CHICAGO (AP) — Clifton Kendrick, 15, will have to make a new start on his Grade 9 biology class project — collecting insects.

His younger brother, 21-months-old Timothy, disapproved of the collection that took Clifton more than a month to round up.

The boys' mother came upon Timothy Saturday as he was gulping down the last of the collection, a butterfly. A physician said Timothy would suffer no after effects. But the mother was given a tranquilizer and put to bed.

Advises impoverished noblemen to form their own labor union

LONDON (AP) — Impoverished peers of the British realm were advised Sunday to form a labor union.

The advice came from Leslie Pine, who resigned last week as editor of Burke's Peerage, official register of British nobility.

"Taxation has crippled the aristocracy," Pine said in an interview. "Once the aristocrats brought us prestige. Now they are letting us down all over the world."

"They are becoming so impoverished that soon they will be as broken down and ridiculed as many European counts and princes."

P.M.'s mother critically ill

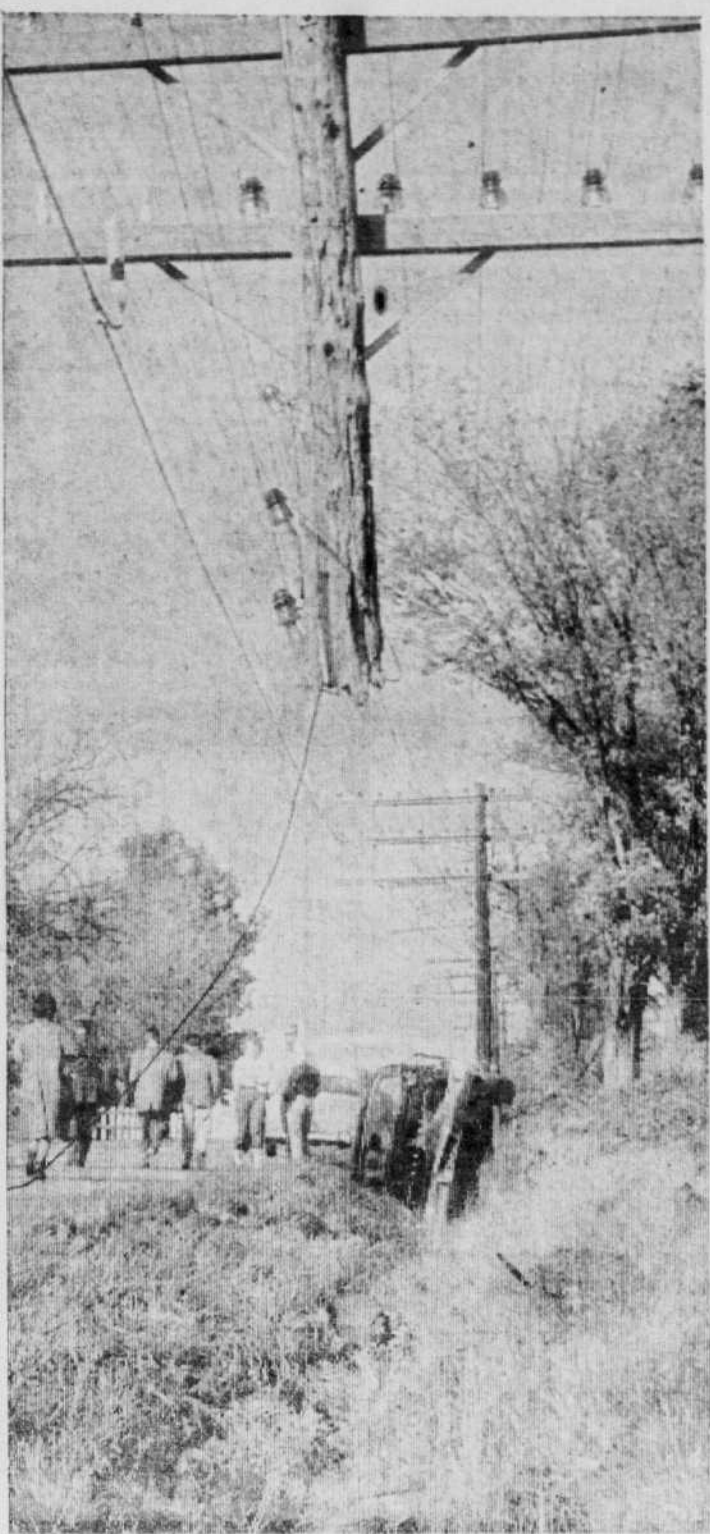

SASKATOON (CP) — Mrs. Mary Florence Diefenbaker, 87, mother of Canada's prime minister, was in critical condition in hospital today with a lung infection.

She has been confined to a wheel chair since 1957 and 18 months ago suffered a stroke.

The prime minister and his wife flew here from Ottawa Sunday night to be at Mrs. Diefenbaker's bedside. They were greeted at the airport by Mr. Diefenbaker's brother, Elmer.

Hold Sherbrooke man

Probe two deaths at Brompton Lake

Autopsies are expected to take place some time today by Montreal medico-legal experts investigating the fatal shooting of two elderly Sherbrooke men, Eugene Dupuis and Ovide Martin, yesterday morning in a small cabin near the Brompton Lake Bog, not far from St. Elie d'Orford.

Sgt. Detective Eugene Morin, of the Sherbrooke Provincial Police detachment said a Sherbrooke man, aged "between 40 and 50" is being held for questioning.

Dr. Louis Gagnon, Sherbrooke district coroner, said a date will be set for an inquest following the completion of the autopsies.

The two victims were Eugene Dupuis, 63, formerly of 197 St. Louis Street, Sherbrooke, recently the occupant of the cabin; and Ovide Martin, 67, 1485 Beckett Street, Sherbrooke, owner of the property.

Dr. Gagnon said Dupuis had been shot twice through the chest while Martin had been shot only once, also through the chest. He said the shots appeared to have been fired by a third person.

Near one of the bodies, police discovered a .22 calibre rifle, believed to be the weapon used in the shooting.

The bodies were first discovered in the cabin yesterday afternoon by two Sherbrooke men, Henri Langlois and Ovide Forest. Subsequent investigation by Dr. Gagnon placed the time of death of the victims at about 2:00 a.m. Sunday.

Police had to break a window to enter the cabin when first called to the scene, but a later examination of the premises showed tracks or footprints leading away from a basement door towards the road.

On the floor of the cabin police found a case of empty beer bottles and a half-empty bottle of beer stood on one of the tables.

Solve own problems Love advises C of C

CALGARY (CP) — Businessmen must be strong enough to resist the temptation to invite government to solve their problems, H. Gordon Love, president of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, said today.

Expressing the chamber's philosophy in an address to its annual meeting, Mr. Love said businessmen are dedicated to a belief in competitive enterprise and are not frightened by change.

"Change and competition," he continued, "are synonymous." As competitors we welcome change and, if we are good competitors, we adjust to change.

"This is the whole point of our insistence upon freedom. In order to adjust to change we must be flexible and we must be free. If we become subject to too much control we become rigid — we cannot bend and we must break. We must strive to be allowed, as businessmen and individuals, be free to solve some of our own problems through our own organizations and associations."

Mr. Love's comments were contained in a text made available to the press in advance of delivery.

Seven injured in week-end accidents

Four people were injured in traffic accidents and three others suffered injuries in other mishaps, district police reports showed today.

Mr. Steven Pye of Sherbrooke, suffered facial cuts Saturday afternoon when his car went off the road and struck a telephone pole near Massawippi (see picture above).

Mr. Pye had swerved to avoid collision with an overtaking car. Mrs. Pye, with him at the time of the accident, was uninjured.

Roger Jutras, aged five, of Ayer's Cliff, was taken to the Hotel Dieu Hospital Saturday after being struck by a car on Route 5 near Massawippi. The youngster suffered a fractured arm. Driver of the car was Mrs. Edith Haselton, of Beebe.

Two Sawyerville residents, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Houle, both aged 25, are resting comfortably in the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, Sherbrooke, with minor injuries received in a traffic accident on the Johnville road last night. Both are suffering from lacerations and bruises.

Fernand Desrochers, 26, 435 Terrill Street, suffered painful injuries late Saturday night at the Sherbrooke racetrack as a result of a spill during one of the heats.

Desrochers was hit by at least two other horses after being thrown from his sulky. He was taken to the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital for treatment.

Leon Levesque, 64, 572 Mercier Street, Sherbrooke, suffered a fractured leg yesterday afternoon while he was a passenger in a bus. According to police reports, Mr. Levesque's foot was trapped and as the bus moved suddenly, he fell, breaking his right leg.

Henri Boisvert, aged 50, of South Durham was taken to St. Croix Hospital in Drummondville late Friday when his tractor overturned, trapping him beneath. His injuries are not believed critical.

PLOUGHING MATCH — At the Sherbrooke Ploughmen's Association annual ploughing match held Saturday, Jim Beattie, 76, of Lennoxville was the oldest ploughman on the field, and Kelly Ross, 10, of Brompton was the youngest. (Record Photo by Gerry Lemay)

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — From Australia to Hollywood to Hong Kong—the rising, round-about career of Rod Taylor.

The new TV season has been greeted with a rash of adventure series—trench coats all over the channels. One of the more promising offerings is Hong Kong, out of the 20th Century-Fox stable, which has hit (Adventures in Paradise) and missed (Five Fingers) in the adventure field.

If Hong Kong succeeds, a major factor will be Rod Taylor. He is a seasoned performer who has made fine impressions in such films as Rainree County, Ask Any Girl and the current Time Machine.

He achieved star status in the last. So why does he need TV? "I had turned down 25 offers to do TV series," he admitted. "But when this one came along, it seemed like something I could do with real integrity, as well as making a bit of money for myself."

The series was put together by ace producer Robert Buckner. Taylor plays a newspaper correspondent whose beat is the modern Orient. He liked the authentic air to the scripts.

SOUGHT AUTHENTICITY
"The thing we have to avoid is making it like the old Charlie Chan and Fu Manchu pictures," he said. "That's why we went to Hong Kong and shot 55,000 feet of background action. We got some great stuff."

Taylor was born in Sydney, the son of a steel construction contractor.

He dabbled in dramatics, came to Hollywood five years ago and worked his way up through bit parts and TV films.

CamelotCanadian stands out in musical

TORONTO (CP)—The old childhood tale of King Arthur and his knights of the round table is being retold in a glittering new musical, Camelot, having its try-out in Toronto before it goes to Broadway.

The lavish production and the new O'Keefe Centre in which it is displayed were both launched Saturday night with all the trappings of a Hollywood premiere—searchlights, radio and television interviews under a floodlighted marquee and squads of police to hold back bystanders crowding in front of the theatre to watch the celebrities.

The musical, staged and written by the team who made My Fair Lady a hit, has some rough edges to be trimmed during its three-week tryout in Toronto. It goes to Broadway Nov. 17.

Director Moss Hart told the formally-attired first-night audience that length was one of its faults. It ran 3½ hours and it was early Sunday morning before the final curtain was lowered.

Broadway stars Richard Burton as King Arthur and Julie Andrews as Guenevere head the cast of 39 principals. Another 43

GOULET'S FIRST

Playing in his first big musical, Canadian star Robert Goulet as Lancelot whose love for Guenevere turned the round table into a triangle got a special ovation Saturday night when he sang If Ever I Would Leave You.

Critic Herbert Whitaker of The Globe and Mail said what strength lay in the show was in Burton's performance. He said Camelot's potential was not as great as that of My Fair Lady but it would appeal to a more specialized audience.

George Kidd of the Telegram praised singer Goulet as fitting the role and competition as well as he fits his sparkling costume.

The first - night performance was sponsored by the Central Ontario Drama League and the women's committees of the Art Gallery of Toronto, the Canadian Opera Company, the National Ballet of Canada and the Toronto Symphony Orchestra.

All 3,200 seats in the new theatre were filled and the performance has been practically sold out for its whole Toronto run.

The opening performance in the theatre, built by the O'Keefe Brewing Company to be operated as a non-profit enterprise, went off without a hitch.

This man needs help...

IF you are like this man, over the years you have probably purchased a variety of life insurance policies for varying amounts, perhaps with different beneficiaries and varying methods of settlement.

At the time you bought each policy, its purpose was clear. But is it now? Looked at today, in the light of changing conditions, do these policies still do the job you intended them to do? The answer to that question calls for a study of your program.

To help you get your policies under control and up to date, your Metropolitan Representative will develop a personal brochure so you may easily review and manage your insurance protection.

It is called "MY LIFE INSURANCE PROGRAM"—a loose-leaf booklet, custom-made to your needs by the man especially trained to do the job... your Metropolitan Representative.

Right to form union demanded

Labor Council supports Laramie bus drivers

A resolution urging the Provincial Federation of Labor (CLC) to take action to assure that employees of the Laramie Service Inc., and Laramie Coach Lines be given full right of union organization was approved at a meeting of the Sherbrooke and District Labor Council held Sunday.

The action by the District Labor Council results from an extended dispute between the companies and their employees, during which a number of drivers were dismissed. According to union spokesmen, the dismissals resulted from efforts by the men to form a union affiliated with the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees and Other Transport Workers.

A statement released today by Roland Moisan, president of the District Council, declared:

INFORMED

"Sherbrooke and District Labor Council, grouping on the regional level all the unions affiliated with the Canadian Labor Congress, has been informed at a general meeting called for the purpose of the dispute between Laramie Enterprises and its employees and of the difficulties of the latter in practising their rights of association.

"The Council has heard a full report on the situation made by the representatives of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees and Other Transport Workers, also by the officers and members of the Laramie Service local.

"Having verified the numerous dismissals during the peaceful organization campaign and being aware of the undermining of the rights of association of these employees, the Labor Council has unanimously adopted a resolution of censure against the employer and has ordered the officers of the Council to bring all the facts to the attention of the Quebec Federation of Labor, also to all competent authorities, so that energetic measures may be taken to assure these employees may fully enjoy the democratic rights of association."

Godbout memorial unveiled

FRELIGHTSBURG (Special) — Quebec's modern education system owes much to the work of the late Senator Adelard Godbout, Premier Jean Lesage told a gathering of Liberal leaders from all over the province who were here Saturday for the blessing of a monument to Senator Godbout, former leader of the Quebec Liberal party and premier of the province from 1939 to 1944.

Premier Lesage noted that Mr. Godbout was premier during the difficult years of the Second World War and that during his term in office he not only passed laws in favor of public instruction but never missed an opportunity to persuade others of the importance of education.

Former Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent lauded the stand taken by Mr. Godbout in the matter of dominion-provincial relations and described him as a "great Canadian who made a valuable contribution to the history of his province and his country."

Rock Forest man is charged

A Rock Forest man was formally charged Saturday morning with criminally negligent driving in the deaths of four persons in a collision on the Sherbrooke-Bromptonville highway on Sept. 2.

Denis Leonard, 25, had been held criminally responsible by a coroner's jury on Friday night for the death of Mrs. Maurice Therrien, Mrs. David Therrien and Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Lafortune. Fourteen witnesses were called at the inquest presided over by Dr. Louis Gagnon, coroner for the district of St. Francis.

Immediately after the inquest, Leonard was placed under arrest on a coroner's warrant and held until his appearance before Justice of the Peace J. M. Grogan on Saturday morning. His request for bail was denied.

The accident in which the four people died occurred about 6 p.m. on Sept. 3 and involved a car driven by Maurice Therrien and another driven by Leonard.

Evidence given by Provincial Police detective Guy Dupont who investigated the accident, indicated that the car driven by Leonard was on the wrong side of the road at the time of the collision.

Leonard said he had not been travelling at an excessive speed.

Lennoxville High commencement

Have courage, grads urged

Have the courage to "hook your wagon to a star." This was the advice of W. W. Roberts, principal of Beaconsfield High School, when he spoke at the graduation exercises of Lennoxville High School on Saturday night.

Courage is one of the four qualities which should be very important in the lives of the graduating class, he said. Knowledge, self-discipline, and personality were the other essentials which Mr. Roberts discussed.

Knowledge of whatever field the graduate has chosen is essential and courage to stick to his decision must be added to this knowledge. "Knowledge without courage is a sword without temper," he said.

In discussing self-discipline Mr. Roberts reminded the students of the words of, Plato "Know Thyself." Once you have realized your strengths and weaknesses you can exercise inward control, he said. Self-discipline is the mark of a mature person. Personality is affected by the people with whom you associate, the speaker said. Therefore you should pick your companions with care so that you can develop a personality that arrests attention and predisposes others in your favor.

The presentation of special prizes followed Mr. Roberts' address. The Lieutenant Governor's Medal for Grade XI went to Janet Fraser who had an average of 87.2 per cent; Birks Medal First General Proficiency Grade X, James Baker; Birks Medal For Citizenship, Glen Way; Men's Own Club Prize for Citizenship, Union Screen Plate Company of Canada Scholarships, Janet Fraser, Bruno Klossner, James Baker, Margaret Matthews, Ronald Clark, Donald Bauer, Mary Masters, and Frank McNair; Beatrice Cameron Memorial Scholarship, Sybil Fish; Commissioners Scholarships, Bruce Caswell and Sybil Fish; Sherbrooke County Teachers' Bursary, Sybil Fish, Harold Pye Memorial Trophy, Donald Hodge; John Brady Memorial Trophy, Bruce Hodge.

Janet Fraser in her valedictory speech spoke of the twofold benefits received from an education at Lennoxville High. Not only had the graduating class received an excellent training but also they had learned how to get along with people, and what it means to have perseverance and application.

The prize list is as follows: GRADE VIII — Maple Copse Chapter, I.O.D.E. Prize for Citizenship, Judy Woollerton; Al-latt's Bakery Prize for Improvement, Mary St. Dizier; Royal view Dairy's Prize for Effort, Hilary Dougherty; Hunting's Dairy Prize for Improvement, Gordon Turner.

GRADE VII — Maple Copse Chapter, I.O.D.E. Prize for Citizenship, David Simons; Lennoxville Women's Institute Prize for Effort, Sutherland Richardson; Smith Memorial Lodge No. 1042, I.O.B.A. Prize for Improvement, Nancy Allen.

GRADE VIII — Maple Copse Chapter, I.O.D.E. Prize for Citizenship, Judy Woollerton; Al-latt's Bakery Prize for Improvement, Mary St. Dizier; Royal

Hire the handicapped

This week, the Eastern Townships, along with the rest of Quebec, is observing "Hire the Handicapped Week."

The theme of the campaign is mainly concerned with educating the public of the rehabilitation and placement of the handicapped and older workers and on the role of the National Employment Service in that field. The main objectives of the campaign are:

To develop and create in the general public a favourable attitude towards the rehabilitation and hiring of the handicapped;

To bring together all persons and organizations interested in social problems, in the hope of bringing about an increase in the number of rehabilitation services and facilities and the development of these already existing;

To convince the employers of all the economic and social benefits that can be derived from the employment of handicapped persons;

To combat out of date notions on the handicapped which hamper the rehabilitation and the placement of this type of applicant.

In the Sherbrooke area alone, there is a great deal that must be done with respect to handicapped and older workers. Last year, out of a total of 1391 handicapped and older applicants, 391 were placed. In the first six months of 1960 alone, 874 applicants were received, and only 192 placed.

Recent surveys carried out in Canada and the United States have proved that, if the selection is sound, handicapped workers give an equal or even better performance than non-handicapped. It was further revealed that handicapped workers generally possess personal qualifications looked for by employers: attendance, stability, loyalty, ingenuity, etc.

There is also an economic aspect in hiring the handicapped.

These people, if employed, become tax payers instead of tax consumers. The salary they earn will considerably lighten the burden imposed upon municipal, provincial, or federal governments and social agencies or relatives who otherwise have to support them.

While the campaign only runs a week, it is the year-round interest and support of employers which are sought in order to achieve the objective in mind: the continuous hiring into suitable employment of handicapped and older workers.

No pie in the sky

One of the greatest economic fallacies of the present day, and one which appears gaining strength in many quarters is the belief that the government can legislate prosperity — that somehow or other the state can provide work for everyone, assure right prices, high for the producer, low for the consumer, and generally make a good life for all.

Too often abandoned are the old fashioned ideas that people should try to help themselves, that business must take risks and try to fend for itself. Now paternalism, safety and security are the order of the day.

But state paternalism cannot save the Canadian way of life. Canadians must face this grim fact. We are living in a highly aggressive and competitive world. We must meet this competition or go under. The state cannot long provide safety and security. There are too many other people throughout the world who are up and doing — who are working harder than we are working and who are coming along rapidly with new ideas, new techniques and often — and cheaper — things to sell.

Mental Health Year

This year, 1960, is World Mental Health Year. And to publicize this fact the Belgian Radio network recently broadcast a special program of concert music.

All of the composers represented — Robert Schumann, Mussorgsky, Hugo Wolf, Chabrier, and Ravel — had something in common beside their genius. All had, at one period or other of their lives, suffered from mental disturbances.

The concert was dramatic and effective proof that former mental health patients can and do produce works of artistic merit. And in doing this it did a very real service toward achieving a major aim of World Mental Health Year — fighting the prejudice from which former mental patients in all walks of life often suffer.

The non-vanishing Indian Part III

'Indian his own worst enemy'

By ARCH MacKENZIE
Canadian Press Staff Writer

HUDSON, Ont. (CP)—"The Indian is his own worst enemy," says a typical northern Ontario businessman.

The words ring familiarly to Arnold J. Boisvert, a placement officer with the northern Ontario regional office of the federal Indian Affairs branch — one of a handful of men across the country striving to pry open more industrial jobs for Indians.

"Kindness is just a sign of weakness to the Indian," says the businessman who recalls leading $10 to an Indian who asked for help and being told a year later when he tried to collect that he was stupid to have loaned the money in the first place.

Mr. Boisvert has heard most of it before in making his rounds over a huge area stretching from home base at North Bay, Ont., to the Manitoba border.

He also knows that the criticism of the Indian he has heard in this CNR mainline hamlet is refuted elsewhere across the country by thousands of Indian workmen in steel, railroads, logging, fishing and construction.

Four placement officers were appointed in 1957 and more have been added since — but many more are needed because of the huge area that must be covered.

The first emphasis has been on quality rather than quantity, says the branch, with the view "to dispelling false impressions as to the desirability of the Indian as a worker and laying the basis for a more widespread demand by employers for Indian employees as their worth becomes proven by actual experience."

About 500 persons have been placed so far in nursing, teaching, clerking, as technicians or construction hands. The placement officer works closely with the National Employment Service to locate jobs, picks suitable applicants who are likely to succeed and then keeps on with financial assistance and encouragement to fit the young man or woman into a strange community.

"The problem in a province like Manitoba, for example, is to find an industrial job, an employer and a trained applicant," an official in Winnipeg said.

Mr. Boisvert's selection of applicants for jobs in Sault Ste. Marie, Port Arthur or Sudbury must often come from brighter members of bands literally a few years from the northern Ontario tundra where the seasons and sun are the clock, and time, saving and work in the non-Indian sense are ludicrous.

"The essence of life was found in being—and NOT in becoming something we are NOT today," says Dr. Ben Reifel, American son of a Sioux mother and German father, in suggesting the essential aspect of the Indian tradition which most non-Indians fail to grasp.

The appointment of placement officers indicates recognition of a major shift in the pattern of Indian economic life.

The Indian generally is no farmer—historically or by training—and the branch now seems inclined to agree that farmers tend to be born rather than made.

Mechanization in logging and fishing have hit many Indians hard. Traditional game and furs, main source of income still for many northern Indians across the country, are economically hazardous, although many will have to depend on them for years to come.

There are some standing attitudes inside and outside the Indian Affairs branch.

"The southern prairie Indian has been spoiled," said one senior official. "We have done too much for him and now he won't do enough for himself. The northern Indian hasn't reached that stage yet and I hope he never will because he works hard for a lot less, but he works."

Liquor? The public image of the Indian tends to depict a loafer with a bottle of beer in one hand and a family allowance cheque in the other.

But only two of a number of observers queried across the country felt the Indian couldn't hold his liquor or that he invariably indulged to excess. Most favored full liquor rights. One dissenter had been in Indian work only 18 months and the other was commenting on northern Ontario bands where beer parlors are a novelty in the main, to be experienced a few days every year "outside."

"The Indian drinks no harder than the white man around here," said an Ontario provincial police constable at Sioux Lookout along the line from here. "He comes out and the whites set him a bad example but he's no worse by a long shot."

"If I had as little trouble with the non-Indians as I have with the Indians, I'd be out of a job," said an RCMP officer in British Columbia. Back at an interior BC city after a six-year absence, he said he noted an immense improvement.

"Perhaps it's television that keeps them off the streets now. Anyway, they don't hang around much anymore."

That is not true everywhere, but tends to be where the Indian is making enough money on his own to be economically independent. The bad spots are the economically-barren ones, by and large.

"The B.C. Indian handled the beer parlors pretty well when they came in," says F. E. Anfield, acting Indian agent for B.C. "Once the novelty wore off, it worked out pretty well."

But, in the tremendous transition facing the Indian in the last few years, the woman may have suffered more than the man, he suggests. Oakalla prison is a point. So is the situation in Manitoba. Women prisoners of Indian ancestry predominate in both Oakalla and Portage la Prairie jails.

Women picked up for being drunk and disorderly enjoy a prison term in conditions which often are vastly superior to their own homes and then elect to take their release in Vancouver or Winnipeg rather than being sent back to their homes. That starts a cycle of prostitution, vagrancy and re-arrest that rarely breaks until the victims are hopeless derelicts.

So far, says Mr. Anfield, fears that narcotics addiction might leak back to reservations have not been borne out, perhaps because addiction costs a lot of money. The ring of reservations around Vancouver has been a stabilizing factor for the local Indian population.

The experience of off-reservation Indians in cities has led numerous groups to urge a program of assistance for Indians taking jobs there. Federal medical care for Indians stops 12 months after they leave a reservation and most municipalities and provinces tend to assume—wrongly—that the Indian is a federal ward for keeps.

In Winnipeg, which has its allied Metis problem, there is no indication of any large surge of Indians to the city. Welfare statistics don't list recipients by race but a survey indicated that most Indians had been there for some time.

"There appears to be a certain flux back and forth and most would prefer to stay on the reservation," says F. Floyd Lenon of the welfare council of Greater Winnipeg. The pattern is for arrivals with little money to head for lower-income areas.

"The men know what to expect but it is tough on the women, especially if they have children."

SOUTH WATCHED TOO CLOSELY

This week's articles will be devoted to hands from this summer's national tournament. We start with a defensive play by Curtis Smith of Austin, Texas.

Curtis sat West and opened the nine of spades against the three no-trump contract. South needed four heart tricks for his contract and his normal line of play would be to play king, ace and ten of hearts in order. This play would give him four heart tricks against any three-three break or against any singleton or doubleton honor. In this case East held the doubleton queen.

However, when South led the king of hearts Curtis followed with the five spot and, of course, East played the deuce. On the lead of the heart three Curtis continued his deception by playing the seven and now South had a problem.

True enough, the fact that Curtis had played the five and seven had not changed the original probabilities at all. He could be false-carding (and actually was), but Curtis looks very young and innocent at the table.

South thought a while longer and finally decided that Curtis had played the five and seven because they were his only low

Uncertainty follows UK talks

LONDON (CP)—Seldom has a meeting of Commonwealth ministers left an aftermath of greater uncertainty than the one held in London last week.

The reaction among delegates has left observers divided and wondering whether this is some subtle point they have missed.

The difference of emphasis can be seen in two varying accounts of what took place in the two-day meeting of finance ministers.

One paper says the meeting has revealed "unexpectedly strong opposition to any closer British approach to Europe."

Another paper, apparently in flat contradiction, says the ministers agreed during their meetings that "there is need for Britain to be associated with the European Common Market."

As for the communiqué, it says the ministers recognized the "importance" of political and economic unity in Western Europe.

And that wording was followed only upon Canadian insistence. An earlier draft made it sound as though the rest of the Commonwealth had given the United Kingdom a blank cheque to go ahead and join the Common Market.

There is no doubt about the Canadian position. Before, during and after the meetings, Finance Minister Fleming spoke firmly and pointedly, saying that Canada is distinctly worried about any British moves that might jeopardize Canada's "commercial arrangements" in Britain and Europe.

It was understood from conference sources that virtually all the countries attending the conference took much the same line.

The conclusion seemed to be that Britain had invited the views of her partners on United Kingdom moves toward European economic integration, and had been told unmistakably that such moves would be viewed with alarm unless Commonwealth interests were safeguarded.

What seems difficult to understand is that some British sources, apparently including government spokesmen, appear to be trying to give the impression that the Commonwealth more or less agrees to Britain "getting into Europe." At the same time, there seems little real enthusiasm among government officials for the European idea.

Another curious aspect of press coverage was that in discussing the new plan for aid to Africa—the Special Commonwealth African Assistance Plan—no mention is made of Canada's decision to contribute $10,500,000 over a three-year period. The suggestion emerges that the plan is mainly concerned with institutional arrangements, and that little new money will be forthcoming.

One official comment has been made. Ghana's finance minister, K. A. Gbedemah, said in a statement Thursday the program did not go far enough to suit Ghana. "We are in agreement with the technical assistance suggestions of the conference, but we had hoped to have a more comprehensive program including definite proposals for capital assistance."

Emily Post (Ottawa Journal)
Changing times may bury some of Emily Post's rulings under changing customs. Her dictum on which hand should hold the fork when one is eating a salad may not rule forever. But her code of etiquette was more than a list of rules on how to arrange the silverware or compose invitations. Her basic creed was that to be polite is to be thoughtful, that the purpose of good manners is not to impress others, but to make them comfortable. She did not originate this gospel, but she preached it well. That is a legacy to be valued.

Letter To Editor

Dear Sirs:

With reference to the article written about me and appearing in your issue of 28th September, I would like to call to your attention an error; my age is given as 92 but I only celebrated my 89th Birthday on 1st June 1960 and I am loath to claim credit for more years than are actually mine as yet. I feel possibly a correction might be in order; otherwise the photo and article are both very fine.

Yours very truly,

REDS WON'T

members waited expectantly for new efforts to bring Khrushchev together with President Eisenhower. The U.S. president indicated last night he is not ready for such a meeting in view of Soviet behavior.

"If the machinery which is called upon to solve the major international issues with due regard for the interests of all states, if this UN machinery—the Security Council and the secretariat—resolve . . . questions to the detriment of the socialist (communist) and neutralist states, then, naturally, these countries will not recognize such decisions and will rely on their own strength to defend the interests of their states, the interests of peace.

OFFERS CHOICE

"This is the choice that now faces the United Nations. Either we truly unite our efforts and do our utmost to consolidate the United Nations, thus ensuring co-operation among all states toward preserving peace, or else the forces reflecting the interests of the group of imperialist states will go on dominating the United Nations and its machinery, which will inflict great damage upon the cause of peace and international co-operation.

"Let those who support the policy of strength and seek to impose their will on others through the United Nations clearly realize where they stand and what responsibility for the future they are assuming before the world.

"I would like frankly to say to the delegates of this session: Do not submit to the clamorous phrases pronounced here by Mr. Hammarskjöld and the representatives of the colonial powers in their attempts to justify the bloody crimes perpetrated against the Congolese people by the colonialists and their stooges.

"I would like to say that the U.S. president who spoke here was defending all that is old, rotten and already collapsing."

WANTS OWN TERMS

Khrushchev rejected the idea of a meeting with President Eisenhower unless there was what he called a desire to reach agreement on the part of the president.

"Some say that Khrushchev and Eisenhower should be locked in a room and kept there until they reach an agreement on disarmament, but this, of course, is naive."

"We may sit together indefinitely, but if no desire to come to agreement is evinced by the president, and particularly by those quarters that back him, no smoke will come from the chimney as is the tradition when a pope is elected."

On exchange visit to France

Mr. Lemieux will also visit, as part of the exchange, the University of Paris, the University of Toulouse, the Grenoble Polytechnical Institute, and will spend some time conferring with the national board of the Renault manufacturing industry.

New Bank of Commerce building opens Oct. 5

Innovations introduced

The official opening of the new Bank of Commerce building at the corner of King and Bryant will take place on October 5.

The friendly atmosphere is the most outstanding feature of the new building. Several innovations have been introduced to help produce this impression. This bank branch has no wickets. Instead the building is equipped with mobile unit tellers. These can be wheeled around and placed in any desired location.

They are more convenient and add to the relaxed atmosphere. Modern furniture with the customer's comfort in mind is artistically arranged in the bank. Special posture chairs have been provided for the staff. Blue wall hangings and light colored walls complete the modern decor. The bank is entirely air conditioned, and a fully equipped kitchen has been included for the use of the staff.

the new Bank of Commerce building is that there is no manager's office. Instead of having an office far from the view of the public, the manager of this bank has his desk in the main room. This is another innovation designed to make the bank seem a less formal place.

However, there is a conference room for people who desire a greater degree of privacy for their negotiations. This room is also available for customers who wish to use it for business purposes. This is one of the added services provided by this branch of the Bank of Commerce.

The vault in this bank is one of the most modern in town. There is also a night depository service which has been installed in such a way as to eliminate the threat of theft.

The exterior of the bank is another of its attractive aspects. Large windows and a combination of brick and Old Canadian masonry provide a pleasing design. There is parking space for 20 cars at the side of the building.

Mr. Albert Tasse, the manager, has been with the Bank of Commerce for 23 years. He started out in one of the Montreal branches, and after serving five years in the armed forces, worked for the bank in East Angus and Trois Rivieres. In 1954 he was transferred to Sherbrooke where he set up a new branch of the Bank of Commerce. It is this branch that is being transferred to the new building.

EMPLOY THE HANDICAPPED WEEK

OCTOBER 2nd to OCTOBER 8th

"HOW OLD IS OLD?"

Our National Employment offices across Canada report a gradually growing recognition by management of the employment value of older workers.

There is good reason for this.

Because of their specialized experience, mature workers often turn out a better quality product — which in turn means bigger profits for the firm that employs them.

In terms of dollars and cents, therefore, the hiring or retention of qualified older workers in your organization is a practical and wise investment.

Also to be remembered is the valuable contribution that older employees make, through the purchasing power of their earnings, to the economy of Canada.

In asking you, therefore, to give consideration to the employment of older men and women capable of performing an efficient job, we do so not so much for humanitarian reasons — they do not want sympathy — but because it makes sound business sense.

If we can be of any assistance to you in your hiring arrangements, or if you need more detailed information respecting pension plans in relation to the older worker, please do not hesitate to call upon us.

The National Employment Service is dedicated to serve you.

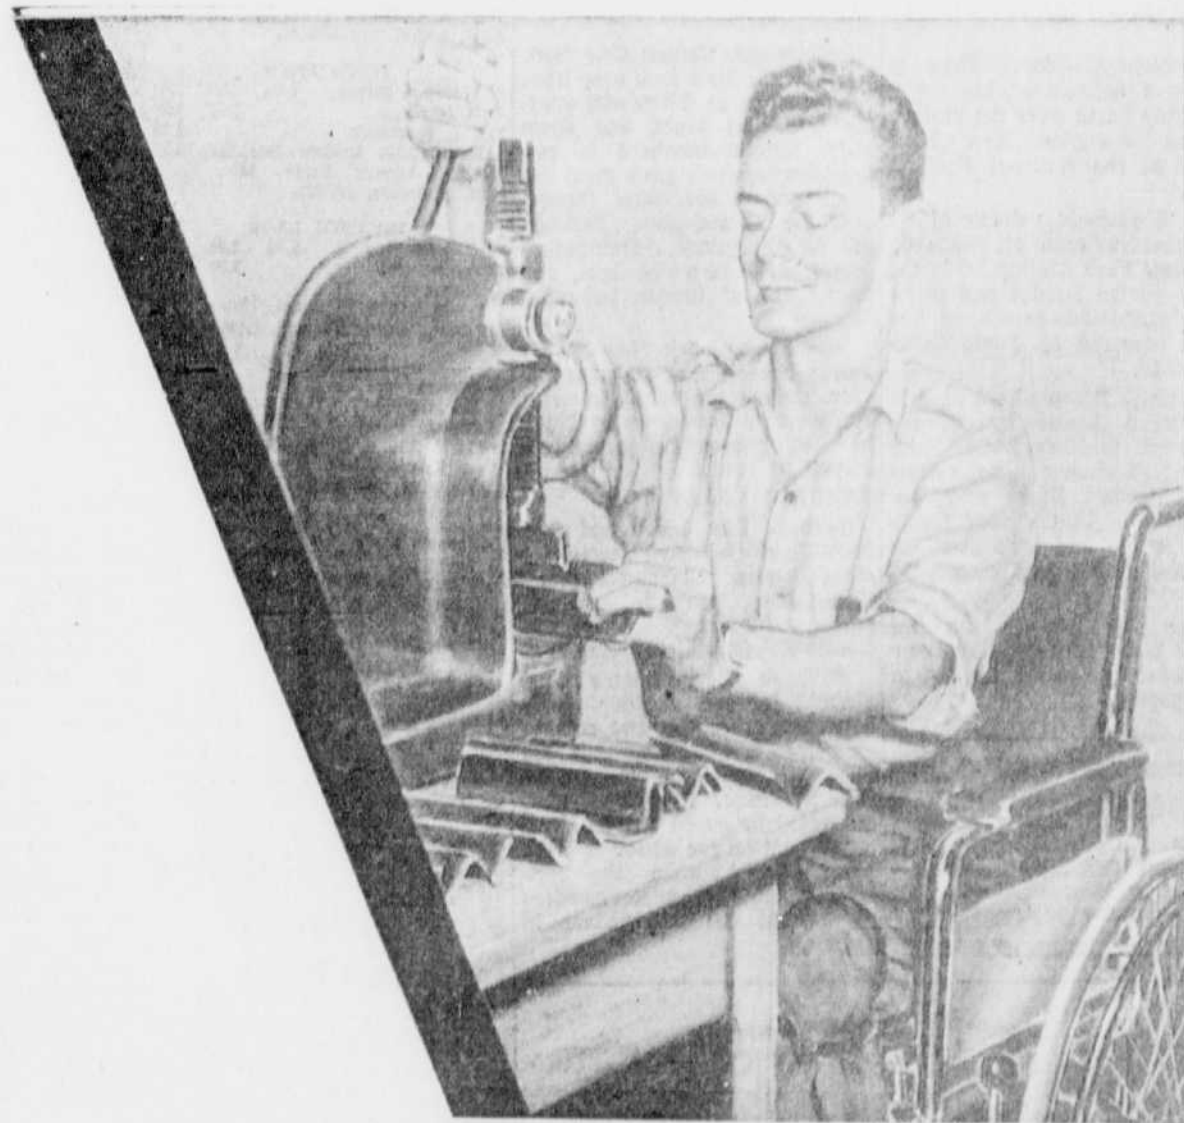

During this week, the emphasis is placed on the advantages of hiring handicapped workers.

Tobin Rote Breaks Record And Ties Another Tossing Toronto To Victory; Bernie Faloney Clicks On Four TD's

Toronto Argonauts, the last-place team of last year, and Hamilton Tiger-Cats, who wear that dark mantle so far this season, passed their way to important Big Four Football Union victories Saturday.

Toronto swamped Montreal Alouettes 50-15 and Hamilton took Ottawa Rough Riders 27-18.

In winning, Toronto and Hamilton dressed the stage for their own head-on collision next week-end which, depending on the Ottawa-Montreal outcome, could tangle the four-team standings into two ties.

Quarterback Tobin Rote broke one passing record and tied another as he threw to victory—three touchdown passes to Dick Shatto and one each to Dave Mann, Ed Ochiena, Boyd Carter and Cookie Gilchrist. Cookie was seven-for-seven with the converts and Mann punted a 60-yard single.

HITS FOR TWO

Sam Etcheverry passed for touchdowns to Tom Moran and Bill Bewley, who converted both and added a single.

Rote's seven touchdown passes erased Etcheverry's 1954 record of six, which the Montreal quarterback equaled in 1956. The seven heaves also tied the team mark—also owned by Montreal.

Tommy Grant picked off two of Bernie Faloney's touchdown passes—the Hamilton signal caller clicked on four payoff passes in 20 minutes. John Barrow and Garney Henley got the others, Gerry McDougall kicked three converts.

For Ottawa, Russ Jackson and Bobby Simpson scored touchdowns which Gary Schneider converted. He also kicked a field goal. The other point came when fullback Dave Theilen fumbled over the Hamilton goal line.

The action moved Toronto two points ahead of Ottawa into sole ownership of first place. It moved Hamilton to within two points of the faltering Alouettes and that third and last playoff spot.

The Thanksgiving weekend schedule has Hamilton playing in Toronto Friday night, with Montreal in Ottawa Saturday. Monday, Toronto visits Hamilton and Ottawa goes to Montreal. Thus Ottawa has two chances—against the faltering Als—to catch Argos who have moved two points ahead. And the resurgent Tiger-Cats have two games in which to make up the two points that separate them from Montreal.

Toronto lost one of the best defensive tackles in the Big Four when Bobby Jack Oliver tore ligaments in his right knee. Doctors say he may be out for three weeks. He set up the first touchdown Saturday with an interception in the shadow of the Montreal goal line.

Toronto's passes weren't all into the end zone. Shatto rambled 32 and 35 yards with two of them; Carter lugged his 46 yards and Mann's covered 57 yards. Mann also had a 57-yarder which didn't go to a touchdown, but left Ochiena with only four yards to carry his payoff pass.

Hawks And Bruins Post Victories In Exhibitions

National Hockey League teams, swinging into high gear for opening games of the 1960-61 season this week, limited challengers to five goals in six exhibition victories during the weekend.

Chicago Black Hawks twice took on the Eastern Professional Hockey League's Sault Thunderbirds, winning 3-0 Saturday and 10-1 Sunday.

Paced by Leo Labine's two-goal attack, Boston Bruins downed the EPHL's Hull-Ottawa Canadiens 5-1 in a game broken up by a third-period brawl.

Referee Gordie Pranschke called 10 penalties as a result of the fracas. Five-minute fighting majors went to Bruins' Fern Flaman and Dick Meissner, and Canadiens Al McNeil and Willie O'Ree.

Montreal Canadiens exploded with third-period goals by Don Marshall, Dickie Moore, Billy Hicke and Jean Beliveau to defeat Quebec Aces of the American League 7-3.

Other AHL teams fared less well. Buffalo Bisons lost 5-0 to Toronto Maple Leafs and Hershey Bears watched Detroit Red Wings fire seven unanswered goals and wind up their exhibition season with their 12th straight victory.

In Montreal, the EPHL's Montreal Royals took a three-goal lead and managed to hold off the AHL's Cleveland Barons to win an exhibition game 3-2.

Doug Davies Elected President Of Lennoxville Golf Club

Doug Davies was elected president of the Lennoxville Golf Club at the annual meeting held Saturday evening following the closing dinner.

Davies takes over from Jim Potticary, who in his closing remarks thanked all who helped to make the 1960 season an outstanding success, and wished the new president the best for 1961. He stated that his task would be light if the members gave him the same co-operation they accorded him during the past season.

Claude Gregoire takes over as the new captain, a job which has all kinds of complications. Real Casteau is the retiring captain and he wished his successor the best luck for next year. Gregoire announced that at the start of the 1961 season that several new plans will be put into effect. Real Casteau was named second vice-president while Gratton Crosby was elected first vice. Bob Blake remains as secretary and treasurer while Jack Edgar was named chairman of the Membership committee and Doug Loomis in charge of the handicaps.

Charlie Warner will be in charge of the greens committee and the members hope that number eight would be restored as soon as possible in order to play on it.

Pete Runnels Wins AL Batting Crown But Mantle Takes Home Run Title With Maris Second, Edge Sox 8-7

Pete Runnels won his first batting title, and a couple of young right-handers, Jim Perry and Chuck Estrada, were the winning pitchers. Washington Senators won 73 games, their best total since 1953. And Baltimore's modern-day Orioles finished second, their highest yet.

But the American League champions? The New York Yankees, and no doubt about it. With Mickey Mantle winning the home run crown with 49, one more than teammate Roger Maris who took the RBI title with 112, the Yankees broke their AL home run record, gave manager Casey Stengel his 10th pennant in a dozen years, and finished with a 15-game winning streak—the longest ever for a club headed into the world series.

The Yankees, their pride stung by last season's frustrating third-place failure, bounced back for a 97-57 record, their sixth best under Casey, and crushed Baltimore's surprising bid by winning 19 of their last 21 games.

FINISH WITH FLOURISH
They finished with a flourish, coming from behind in Sunday's regular-season windup for an 8-7 victory over Boston Red Sox on a two-run homer in the ninth inning by Dale Long that sent them barreling into next Wednesday's world series opener at Pittsburgh against the Pirates—Long's one-time teammates.

Long, 34, a left-handed hitting first baseman picked up from the Giants in late August, batted .368 and drove in 10 runs while fitting perfectly into the Yankee pattern of plucking bench power off the NL waiver list for the stretch run. His game-winning shot against the seventh-place Red Sox, 3-1 victims of New York Saturday, was his third as the same co-operation they accorded him during the past season.

That was the 193rd home run of the year for the champs, who had set the old standard with 199 in 1956 (the same year Cincinnati tied the New York Giants' 1947 major league record of 221).

Duke Maas was the winner for a 5-1 record as the fifth in a string of Yankee pitchers which began with Ralph Terry and probable series opener Whitey Ford. Arnold Earley (0-1) was the loser as Boston (65-89) closed its worst season since owner Tom Yawkey took over in 1953.

Runnels, 32-year-old Red Sox second baseman, sat out the final game and finished with a .329 average. Al Smith, injured Chicago White Sox outfielder, was second with .315.

Perry (18-10) pitched a five-hit shutout for Cleveland as the fourth-place Indians defeated the 1950 champion White Sox 4-0 Sunday after edging them 9-8 Saturday. Early Wynn, last year's top winner with 22, was the loser Sunday for a 13-12 record.

Estrada, a rookie who lost 11, won his 18th for Baltimore Saturday with a three-batter as the Orioles defeated Washington 3-2. Baltimore clinched an undisputed runner-up finish by beating the Senators 2-1 Sunday on Jackie Brandt's 15th home run in the eighth inning. It was the seventh straight defeat for the fifth-place Senators, who missed the first division by winning only three of their last 19.

Last-place Kansas City beat sixth-place Detroit 2-1 Sunday after losing 6-4 Saturday for an almost even-break in the Tiger-Indians managerial swap of Aug. 3. Jimmy Dykes, who left the Tigers for Cleveland, was 26-32 with the Injuns. Joe Gordon was 26-31 with the Tigers.

Dick Groat And Pete Runnels Win Respective Batting Championships

NEW YORK (AP)—Dick Groat of Pittsburgh Pirates and Pete Runnels of Boston Red Sox won major league batting championships Sunday. Groat captured the National League title with a .325 average while Runnels took the American League crown with .329.

Groat finished with the lowest winning percentage in the senior circuit since Ed Roush of Cincinnati led with .321 in 1919. Runnels' mark was the lowest for the American League champion since George Starness of New York Yankees won with .309 in 1943.

Groat, 29-year-old shortstop, is the first pirate to win the crown since Debs Garms in 1940. Groat, who had one hit in four tries in Sunday's final game against Milwaukee, was sidelined from Sept. 6 to Sept. 27 because of a fractured left wrist. He hit .275 last year.

LARKER SECOND
Norm Larker of Los Angeles, the National League leader most of last month, finished in the runner-up position with a .323 average. He had one hit in three times at bat Sunday. Willie Mays of San Francisco was third with .319.

Runnels, 32-year-old second baseman, narrowly missed winning the title in 1958. He batted .322 that season, but finished second to teammate Ted Williams' .328. Runnels hit .314 last year. Al Smith of Chicago White Sox was the No. 2 batter in the junior circuit with .315. Smith missed the final two weeks of the campaign because of a pulled hip muscle.

Mickey Mantle of the Yankees won his fourth American League home run championship. He hit 40, one more than teammate Roger Maris. Maris had the most runs batted in, 112.

Ernie Banks of Chicago Cubs hit the most National League homers, 41, while Hank Aaron of Milwaukee led in RBI with 126.

Peter Ryan Wins Grand Prix At Harewood Acres

JARVIS, Ont. (CP)—Peter Ryan of Mont Tremblant, Que., made a thrilling last-hour drive at nearby Harewood Acres Saturday night to win the six-hour Sundown Grand Prix sports car classic.

Battling cold and darkness, and a determined challenge by Toronto's Francis Bradley and Ludwig Heimrath, Ryan and driving partner Roger Penske of Villanova, Pa., hurled their Porsche RS-60 to a major share of $2,700 prize money. They won by slightly more than a minute.

It was good enough to set the fastest time of the day, 1:20.8 for the treacherous 1.9-mile course—a phenomenal mark for after-dark driving.

It was a clean sweep for the rear-engine German cars. Jack Ensle of Cleveland came third in a Porsche RSK.

SHS Blanks LHS 2-0 In Soccer Tilt

Sherbrooke High School eked out a close 2-0 win over Lennoxville High in the opening game of the High School Soccer league. The game was played Saturday morning on the High School field. Five teams are in the league, Drummondville, St. Pat's, Magog, Lennoxville and Sherbrooke High School.

Saturday's tilt was a keen and close affair all the way. At the nine minute mark of the first half Johnny Haffenden taking a pass from Dickie Palmer put the Sherbrooke boys one up. Haffenden's close in shot gave the Lennoxville goalie no chance to save.

Play ranging from end-to-end in the second half kept both defenses on their toes and there were many close calls by both goalies. Dickie Palmer, who showed up well in the Sherbrooke forward line, notched the second goal for Sherbrooke scoring on a nice solo rush down field.

Lennoxville tried desperately in the closing minutes of the game to get into the scoring column but good defensive work by Mills, Marshall and Cadman kept the eager Lennoxville forwards from doing any damage. Sherbrooke ran out winners 2-0. Standing out for the winners were Leekie, Cadman and Denis Mills.

ARDMORE, Pa. (AP)—The United States, with Jack Nicklaus contributing his fourth straight sub-par round, won the world amateur golf team championship Saturday by a whopping 42 strokes.

Nicklaus, playing the Merion Golf Club course in windy, cool weather, finished with a two-under-par 68 for an outstanding 72-hole total of 269.

His score Sunday, with ordinary 75s by Deane Beman and Bill Hyndman, put together a three-man aggregate of 218 for the final round and a four-day total of 834. Only the best three scores of each four-man team each day are counted in the team scoring.

Australia, the defending champion, finished second with an 876 aggregate while the British-Irish team was third with 881. Australia won the inaugural world team title at St. Andrews, Scotland, two years ago, beating the Canadian team with a 72-hole total of 298. Glenn Hall Outstanding As N.H.L. All-Stars Edge Canadiens 2-1

14,030 Watch 14th Annual Classic, Howe Injured, Claude Provost Gets Montreal's Tally In Close Battle

MONTREAL — (CP) — The National Hockey League's All Stars, featuring goalie Glenn Hall of Chicago Black Hawks in a spectacular role, lived up to their billing Saturday night by defeating the Stanley Cup champion Montreal Canadiens 2-1 in the 14th annual All-Star game.

All goals came in the second period. Frank Mahovlich of Toronto Maple Leafs and Andy Hebenton counting the winner while his team was short-handed.

Claude Provost gave Canadiens a brief 1-1 tie on a clean break away, saving the champions ignominy of what could have been the first shutout in the history of hockey's pre-season showpiece.

The game drew a crowd of 14,030, nearly 400 short of the record 14,422 set in Montreal in the 1953 game.

After an unsteady first period the All Stars seemed able to coordinate their play better and cut loose with their pay-off offensive in the second.

The Canadiens struck back in the last period with everything they had but were stopped cold by Hall. At one stage the All Stars came up with their best defensive stand, playing two men short for 50 seconds.

Gordie Howe, Detroit Red Wings as scorer, was lost to the Stars in the first period when checked by Montreal's Bob Turner. Howe suffered a sprained left knee but is expected to be ready for the season's opening game Wednesday when Detroit plays in Chicago.

Coach Toe Blake used only his regulars from last season. The retired Maurice (Rocket) Richard was given an ovation when he faced off the puck at the start of the third period. Blake used three forward lines, plus Don Marshall. None of the rookies, or Phil Goyette, who has a slight injury, was used.

Toronto coach Punch Imlach, handling the All Stars, started with Howe, Bobby Hull of Chicago and Bronco Horvath of Boston up front but did some line-switching later.

One of his most effective lines was Hull with Chicago teammate Bill Hay and New York's Andy Bathgate. Another was the Toronto combination of Mahovlich and Red Kelly plus Detroit's Norm Ullman.

ALL STARS LEAD

In their five appearances in the annual game as cup champions, Canadiens now have won two, lost two and tied one.

The All Stars hold an over-all margin. Since the pre-season games were begun in 1947 they have won six and lost four. There were two ties and two occasions brought together the first and second All-Star teams.

Mahovlich put the Stars ahead after 40 seconds of the second period, scoring from the side of the crease on a pass from Pierre Pilote of Chicago.

Canadiens pulled even at 11:40 when Andre Pronovost broke up an All Star attack near centre ice and Ralph Backstrom fed a pass to Provost who was in the clear and went into beat Hall.

Hebenton scored at 14:47, taking a pass from New York teammate Red Sullivan and blasting a 20-footer that went in off goalie Jacques Plante's pads. Plante caused a brief delay in the third period when he went off for medical attention, saying his eyes bothered him.

Eight minor penalties were called, four against each team. Canadiens outshot the Stars 33-29.

SUMMARY

First period: No scoring. Penalties: Talbot 7:22.

Second period: 1. All Stars, Mahovlich (Pilote, Kelly) :40; 2. Montreal, Provost (A. Pronovost, Backstrom) 11:40; 3. All Stars, Hebenton (Sullivan) 15:15. Penalties: Sullivan 12:17, Hull 14:47, Johnson 17:03.

Bob Cleroux Rated No. 10 In NBA Ratings

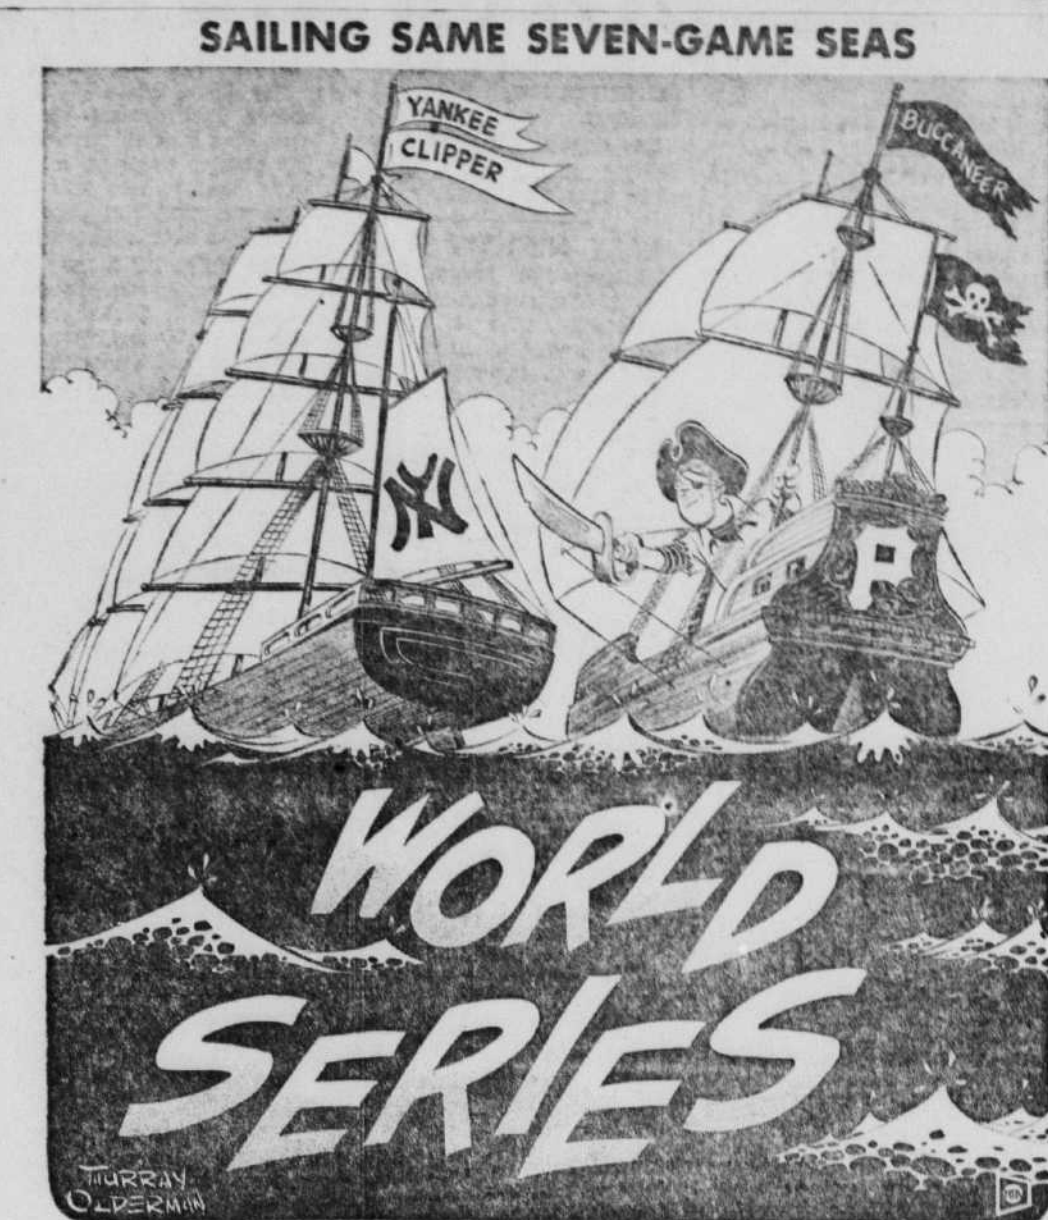

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—Bob Cleroux of Montreal, Canadian heavyweight champion, has cracked the National Boxing Association's list of top 10 challengers for Floyd Patterson's world crown.

Cleroux, who won the Canadian crown from George Chuvalo of Toronto last Aug. 17, is rated No. 10 by the NBA in monthly ratings announced today.

Former heavyweight king Ingemar Johansson of Sweden was dropped to third from second place behind Sonny Liston of Philadelphia and Eddie Machen of Portland, Ore.

The NBA named flyweight champion Pone Kingpet of Thailand fighter of the month for his impressive title defence recently against Pascual Perez of Argentina.

Floyd Patterson of New York is heavyweight king and the light-heavyweight champion is Archie Moore, San Diego, Calif. The middleweight champ is Gene Fullmer, West Jordan, Utah.

Right-Handed Pitching Duel For Series' Opener

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A right-handed pitching duel between Vernon Law of Pittsburgh and Art Ditmar of New York was forecast today for the opening game of the 1960 world series here Wednesday between the National League champion Pirates and American League champion Yankees.

Law was officially named by Danny Murtaugh Sunday after the Pirate manager was assured the 20-game-winning right-hander had completely recovered from a slightly sprained right ankle. The injury hampered his work in a series tune-up against Milwaukee last Friday night.

Another encouraging note to Murtaugh was a report from Dick Groat on the left wrist he fractured last Sept. 6. The Pirates' captain and shortstop, who Saturday made his first start in more than three weeks, rapped two hits and fielded faultlessly, reported no ill effects.

"Groat positively will play in the series," said Murtaugh. "This is the best news I've had since we clinched the pennant. I don't mind saying I was worried about him although I had confidence that young Dick Schofield would do a satisfactory job. Schofield did a tremendous job for us filling in for Groat."

Murtaugh was so happy he even named his pitchers for the second and third games. Right-hander Bob Friend (18-12) will pitch here Thursday and southpaw Vinegar Bend Mizell (14-8) will hurl the first game in Yankee Stadium Saturday.

Yankee Manager Casey Stengel is expected to open with Ditmar, his top winner, and save Whitey Ford, his veteran southpaw, for Saturday's game. Bob Turley, another right-hander, is the second-game possibility. Ditmar (15-9) last worked on Friday, pitching five innings against Boston.

A capacity partisan crowd of some 38,000 is certain to fill every available nook and corner of Forbes Field in hope the Pirates will avenge the Yankees' four-game world series sweep in 1927, the last time Pittsburgh won the National League pennant.

Excitement over Pittsburgh's first championship in 33 years has reached a boiling point. The games have long been sold out and scalpers are asking and getting $35 for a $7.70 reserved seat and as much as $60 for an $11 box seat.

All games are slated to start at 1 p.m. EDT except that of Sunday, which will start an hour later. The weatherman predicted partly sunny skies and cool weather but no rain. All games will be televised in the U.S. and by the CBC in Canada.

Series Fever Sends Pittsburgh's Temperature Soaring As City Gets Set For Classic, Yanks Favorites

By JACK HAND

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — Pittsburgh Pirates play host to their first World Series since 1927 Wednesday. They meet New York Yankees in a battle between hit-and-run scrappers and home-run sluggers.

The last time the two clubs met in the series, Babe Ruth and company sauntered into Forbes Field and started a four-game sweep with an awesome power display. But Pirate fans are confident that Danny Murtaugh's "Beat 'em Bucs" will make up for that humiliation.

Because of Manager Casey Stengel's 10 pennants and the know-how accumulated by Yankee teams down through the odds makers have made New York a 13-to-10 favorite. They call the opening game even and quote 170 to 1 against the Yanks winning four straight and 20 to 1 against the Pirates sweeping.

The first two games, each scheduled for 1 p.m. EDT, will be played at ancient Forbes Field Wednesday and Thursday. After an off day Friday, the series will be resumed in New York Saturday and Sunday, and continue there Monday if a fifth game is necessary.

BIG TICKET CHASE

Frantic Pittsburgh customers, aroused by this first National League pennant in 33 years, quickly gobbled up all available tickets for the park, which can handle about 35,000. The series will be broadcast on network television and radio.

The Pittsburgh Club are expected to start Vern Law, a 20-game, and follow with Bob Friend in the second. One of the left-handers, Wilmer Vinegar Bend Mizell or Harvey Haddix, will work the third game when the teams shift to New York. Stengel has been debating about starting Art Ditmar, Bob Turley or Whitey Ford.

Ditmar has been Stengel's top winner but has a tendency to throw the home run ball. Law, the Pirates' big winner, is like him in that respect. Turley, the star in 1958, has completed only four of 24 starts this year.

Ryne Duren looks as though he is back on the ball and ready to join Luis Arros the right-left team in the bullpen for New York.

FACE'S FORK BALL

Murtaugh, of course, has no worries about relief. He has Elroy Face, the righthander whose fork ball has been baffling National League hitters for years.

The big boom in the Yanks' attack is provided by Mickey Mantle, Roger Maris, Bill Skowron and Yogi Berra. However, anybody on the club with the exception of Bobby Richardson is a home run threat.

Murtaugh has a well-balanced team with good speed, hit-and-run ability and solid pitching. Roberto Clemente, Bob Skinner, Dick Stuart and Don Hoak have been the big men at the plate. And Smokey Burgess is one of the most feared hitters in the league.

For the figures filberts, this is the way matters stand in the World Series: This will be No. 57. The American has a 33-21 edge. New York has won 25 pennants and is 18-6 in series play. Pittsburgh has won five pennants and is 2-2 in series competition.

Pirates End Season In Grand Style Belting Lew Burdette In His Bid For Third Consecutive 20-Game Season

Putting first things first at the finish, the first-place Pittsburgh Pirates roll into their first world series in 33 years with their first batting champion in two decades after winning 95 games in a National League season for the first time since 1925.

One week after clinching their first flag since 1927, the beat 'em Bucs wrapped up the regular season with a 9-5 victory over the second-place Milwaukee Braves Sunday. And they did it by whipping Lew Burdette, blocking his bid for a third consecutive 20-victory season and completing a somewhat fantastic rout against two of the best pitchers in the NL.

It was the Pirates' second victory over Burdette in three decisions, and it came on the heels of their fifth victory over Warren Spahn in six decisions this season. That gave the Pittsburghers a 7-2 record against the two Milwaukee aces, who won 40 between them.

GROAT GETS TITLE

Dick Groat, back in the lineup for the final two games and feeling no pain in his injured left wrist, was 1-for-4 in the finale and finished with a .325 batting average. That gave the spark-plug shortstop, a definite world series starter now that his wrist has healed, the first batting championship to be won by a Pirate since Debs Garms hit .355 in 1940.

Norm Larker of the Los Angeles Dodgers was 1-for-3 and finished second at .323 as the 1959 world champions defeated the Chicago Cubs 4-3. Willie Mays of San Francisco had two hits in five trips, one his 29th home run, and finished third at .319 as the Giants beat the third-place St. Louis Cardinals 8-2.

Last-place Philadelphia finished with a three-game sweep over Cincinnati, beating the sixth place Reds 6-1.

The Pirates, first Bucs club to win 95 since the 1925 champs who went on to beat Washington in the world series, tagged Burdette (19-13) for 15 hits while Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell won his 14th. Mizell gave up six of the Braves' 10 hits in his five innings. Then Harvey Haddix, who with Wilmer supplies the left-handed pitching manager Danny Murtaugh has planned when the series swings to Yankee stadium next weekend, finished up. He allowed four hits and one run.

WINS RBI TITLE

Hank Aaron of the Braves drove in one run, giving him the RBI title with 126. Ed Mathews, adding two against the Bucs, was second, two behind, giving the Braves a two-slugger total of 250 RBIs. Aaron was second in the home run race behind the Cubs' Ernie Banks, who hit 41. Aaron had 40 and Mathews, third hit 39.

Louisville Colonels Could Wrap Up Little World Series Tonight, Leads 3-2, Steve Ridzik To Go

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Louisville Colonels could wrap up the junior world series tonight, partly because an Ontario-born Yale graduate never took up the industrial engineering profession he pursued in college.

Ken MacKenzie, a strong-arm southpaw out of Gore Bay on Manitoulin Island, took to baseball instead. And to 6,182 partisan fans the wisdom of his choice was proved Sunday as he bailed the Colonels out of potential trouble in a 4-0 decision over the Toronto Maple Leafs.

The Colonels took a 2-2 lead in the best-of-seven series and called upon another left, rookie Bobby Hendley, to try to end the proceedings tonight.

Hendley at 19-10 is the American Association's winningest left-hander this year. He'll be opposed by Steve Ridzik, formerly with several National League clubs, who beat him in the second game of the series last Thursday.

MacKenzie drew a walk in the bottom of the 11th inning Saturday night and forced in the winning run as the Colonels squeaked out a 5-4 win.

He had come to the mound in the top of the 10th in relief of Bob Botz, who had bailed out started Vic Rehm in the bottom of the second.

Russ Heman, Toronto's third pitcher, delivered the fatal walk. Starter Bob Chakales went out in the sixth and Wynn Hawkins took over.

Four hits and two walks at the expense of Al Cicotte gave Louisville all its runs in the first inning Sunday.

Colonel starter Don Nottebart mowed down the Leafs the first three innings, gave up singles in the fourth and fifth and two each in the next three rounds.

When he surrendered a leadoff double to Chuck Tanner and a single to Earl Hersh to open the eighth, MacKenzie came on to face three southpaw swingers. He got them on a strikeout and two infield outs.

"MacKenzie was ready and he's been doing a real good job," explained manager Bill Adair in recounting his strategy move.

Denver Broncos Take Over First Spot In AFL

Al Dorow and Frank Tripucca, old professional quarterbacks splashed through a fountain of youth when they joined the American Football League, have their teams atop the league's two divisions today.

Dorow, who played for Washington Redskins and Philadelphia Eagles in the National League, Toronto Argonauts of the Big Four and British Columbia Lions of the Western Interprovincial Football Union, passed for four touchdowns and gained 281 yards in the air Sunday as New York Titans defeated Dallas Cowboys 40-10.

37-00 to gain the top spot in the eastern division.

Denver Broncos moved into sole possession of first place in the western division by beating Oakland Raiders 31-14, as Tripucca fired two touchdown passes to end Lionel Taylor. Tripucca once toiled for Saskatchewan Roughriders of the WFLU and Ottawa Rough Riders of the Big Four.

Los Angeles Chargers defeated Buffalo Bills 24-10 in the only other scheduled game.

LAST NIGHT'S STARS

Pitching—Jim Perry, Indians, tied for American League leads in victories, with 18, and shutouts, with four, by beating White Sox 4-0 with five-hitter, striking out nine.

Tottenham Hotspur Comes Through With 4-0 Shutout Over Wolverhampton

LONDON (Reuters)—Tottenham Hotspur did it again Saturday, whipping Wolverhampton Wanderers 4-0 to extend its record winning streak to 11 games in the English soccer league's first division.

The Spurs played superlative soccer to overcome the handicaps of a visiting team minus a top player, dynamic left-half Dave McKay, who was ill with food poisoning. But Tony Marchi proved an able replacement.

The Wolves, F.A. cup holders, were forced to concede two goals in each half. The scorers were Cliff Jones, Danny Blanchflower, Les Allen and Terry Dyson.

Sheffield Wednesday kept at Tottenham's heels by taking a 2-1 away win against Nottingham Forest. Sheffield is only three points behind Tottenham.

EVERTON TIES CHELSEA

Everton did well to snatch a 3-3 tie in London against Chelsea, keeping it in third place with 15 points. Fifteen minutes from the end, Everton's Scottish international winger, Tommy Ring, went to hospital with a broken leg.

Promoted Aston Villa ended its perfect home record when Leicester City cracked in three goals against Villa's single. Bolton Wanderers and Manchester United, locked near the bottom of the first division, battled to a 1-1 tie at Bolton.

In the second division, Sheffield United maintained its two-point lead over Ipswich Town with a 2-1 home win over Lincoln City.

Ipswich, which has played one game less than United, staged a spirited rally at Leeds to win 5-2 after trailing 1-2 at the half.

Five goals were scored by left-winger Johnny Summers in helping Charlton Athletic beat Portsmouth 7-4.

NEW LEADERS

New leaders appeared in both the third and fourth divisions.

Watford gained a 3-1 home win over Chesterfield to overtake Grimsby at the top of the third division on goal averages. Grimsby tied 1-1 at home against Nottingham County.

In the fourth division, Peterborough went to the top of the standing with a 4-4 tie at Gillingham.

Rangers shot out in front of the Scottish first division with a 4-2 away win over third-place Lanark. It was the 11th win in a row for the Glasgow Club.

Dundee United tied 1-1 in Edinburgh against Hearts to cling to second place. Once-mighty Celtic, making an unhappy start to the season, lost again, 2-0 at Airdrie.

In the second division, Montrose took a one-point lead over Stirling Albion after whipping East Stirling 6-0.
