NAZIS REGISTER FURTHER GAINS AGAINST REDS

Another Block In Stalingrad Falls To Nazis

Intensity of German Attacks on Stalingrad Reported Slackening, Due Either to Exhaustion of Attackers or Withdrawal of Troops to Meet Possible Opening of Second Front in Western Europe.

Moscow, Oct. 19.—(P)—German troops, advancing over the bodies of hundreds of their dead, added a new block of Stalingrad's crumbling buildings to their holdings within the city today as the Russian defenders moved in fresh troops in a desperate effort to blunt and defeat the latest Nazi assault, now in its sixth day.

Nevertheless, the force of the onslaught seemed lessened from the fury of attacks earlier in the siege, and some observers here questioned whether this was due to an exhaustion of forces or to a German shift of strength to the West to face a possible second front.

The danger to Stalingrad still remained acute, with the German attack concentrated into narrow salients in a desperate effort to achieve a final breakthrough.

Earlier reports had placed the fiercest fighting in the besieged city in the Northern Factory area and it was assumed that the new German gain was registered there.

"Hundreds of enemy dead were left in the street and eighteen tanks were knocked out," the mid-day communique said.

Fourteen German planes supporting the German assault were brought down by Red Air Force pilots and anti-aircraft fire, the communique said, indicating the intensity of the German drive toward their objective.

Among the Axis troops thrown into the battle for Stalingrad, the Russians said, was the Croatian Legion of 4,000 troops, forming part of the German 100th light infantry division.

Pravda reported that of the original 4,000 members of this legion only a single company of approximately 200 men remained as the German commanders relentlessly pushed their troops toward the Volga river.

The fighting Northwest of Stalingrad was only of local importance, the communique said, but it added that a German concentration of infantry preparing for attack in that area was dispersed by Red army artillery fire.

German attacks in other sectors of the area were reported, it was reported.

Red army troops resisting the German drive toward the Gronzy oil fields in the Mozdok region wiped out three companies of German infantry and destroyed eleven tanks in repulsing an attack there, the mid-day communique said.

The fighting in the Caucasus, at Mozdok and Novorossisk, the German-occupied naval base on the Black Sea, was pushed into the background by the dramatic defence of Propaganda Minister Declares in Munich Address that Coming Year Is Nazi Last But Biggest Chance.

Berlin, (From German Broadcasts), Oct. 19.—(P)—Propaganda Minister Goebbels declared in a speech at Munich yesterday that the coming year was Germany's "last but at the same time biggest chance" for victory.

"This year we must take the last but at the same time biggest chance in our national history," he said. "We are fighting for our very existence. We will never have a more favorable opportunity than we have today."

He said that time was working for the Axis powers, that Germany had not been forced into a defensive position, and that exploitation of victories against Russia would require only time and patience.

(A BBC version of the Berlin broadcast, heard by CBS, quoted Goebbels as saying that to subdue

United Powers And Axis Forces Draw Battle Lines Of Showdown Encounters On Distant Fronts

By CLYDE A. FARNSWORTH Associated Press Staff Writer

United States and Japanese battle lines were drawn today for a showdown on Guadalcanal in the Solomon Islands in the Southwest Pacific while thousands of miles away, in another vital theatre of the world conflict, the battle of Stalingrad took another turn against the Russians.

The German struggle to conquer Stalingrad bit by bit—a tactic necessitated by the stalwart Russian defence—was marked by an advance over hundreds of new German dead which added one more block of Stalingrad's battered buildings to the German holdings within the city.

But the Russians, on this 56th day of siege and sixth day of a renewed, all-out assault by the Germans, still were moving fresh troops across the Volga into the ruins of Stalingrad in an unremitting effort to quell the German threat or kill as many of the foe as possible.

The Russians reported that 2,500 of their besiegers fell on Sunday alone—the price of the new German gain in Stalingrad, evidently in the Northern factory area of the elongated, riverside city.

The German high command said that a recently-conquered industrial area of Stalingrad had been mopped up and that in the Western Caucasus German infantry had "stormed new heights and in a steep ascent took a mountain strongly fortified with six pillboxes."

While this land action was going on in Eastern Europe, British Lancaster bombers—ninety-four of the huge warbirds—struck in daylight at one of the sources of Hitler's armed strength, the vast Schneider Le Cuesot armament plant of Occupied France.

For seven minutes just before dusk the four-motored aircraft roared in quick succession over the target, which included also the nearby Henri Paul electrical transformer plant which supplied horsepower to the Le Cuesot factories and also sent current to Germany.

One British aircraft was lost. U.S. Marines and army troops, entrenched in the greenery of Guadalcanal, were ready for full-scale assault by Japanese land forces which had been landed there with heavy equipment in a mighty effort to wrest back the first fruits of American offensive action in the Southwest Pacific.

But the Guadalcanal force was not alone in its ordeal. Powerful bombers from Government bases in the Macao and command zone were engaged in repeated sweeps of Japanese supply lines and depots in the Northwestern Solomons.

Large concentrations of Japanese ships in the Buna-Shortland area were the particular targets of Allied bombers over the week-end. They were believed to have hit three cruisers, a seaplane tender and several other vessels. Buna harbor was hit with twenty-two tons of bombs dropped by four waves of bombers in a second successive night attack.

In the New Britain area Allied medium bombers destroyed an ene-

THREE ALARMS IN LONDON AS NAZIS RETURN

Germans Take Advantage of Low-Lying Clouds to Carry Out Reprisal Raids on British Coast Areas.

London, Oct. 19.—(P)—German daylight raiders, taking advantage of low clouds, attacked several points on the East coast of Britain today, causing considerable damage and some casualties and giving London three brief alarms.

The Nazis, flying singly and far apart in an apparent attempt to confuse the ground defences, machine-gunned and bombed scattered areas.

The shopping district of one town was bombed by a low-flying plane, which circled back to spray the main street with machine-gun fire. A number of persons was believed trapped in wreckage.

Hardest hit was an area in East Anglia near the Thames estuary. In one coastal town a raider machine-

Alberta Towns Exceed Quota As Victory Loan Drive Gets Underway

Stettler and Pincher Creek Exceed Objective in Opening Hours While Four Large Subscriptions Totalling More Than $2,000,000 Encourage Dominion Organizers—Spectacular Displays Feature Opening.

TWO GERMAN AIRCRAFT SHOT DOWN IN MALTA AIR FIGHTING

Cairo, Oct. 19.—(P)—British fighters shot down two German fighters over Malta yesterday as Axis raiders continued to blast the rocky island but at a diminishing tempo, a joint headquarters-R.A.F. communique said today.

The two air victories yesterday brought to 117 the number of Axis planes shot down over and around the island since October 1.

The communique reported that the Axis bombers inflicted "very little damage" in yesterday's attacks.

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—(P)—With two small Alberta centres over their objective on the first day of the loan and with four large subscriptions totalling more than $2,000,000 reported, canvassers in Canada's Third Victory Loan campaign set out cheerfully today in their quest for $750,000,000.

Stettler, Alta., was the first community in the West known to have gone over the top, although its objective was thirty per cent higher than in the Second Victory Loan last spring. The other Alberta town to exceed its quota was Pincher Creek.

"Stettler knows there is a war on," said National Loan headquarters in its morning statement for the press. "Thirty men were reported casualties in the Dieppe raid and B Squadron of the Calgary Tank Regiment was in the vanguard of that famous attack."

The four large subscriptions announced officially here today were Robin Hood Flour Mills Co. Ltd., of Moose Jaw, Sask., $625,000; Canadian Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, $500,000; City of London, Ont., $750,000; and Wawanesa Mutual Insurance Co. of Wawanesa, Minn., $300,000.

Pincher Creek passed its objective despite the fact investing is in full swing and farmers were very busy. Loan workers, however, talked to the farmers as they did their harvesting. Headquarters said many canvassers gave various farmers a helping hand.

Before noon today the municipality of Richmond, B.C., near Vancouver, reported subscriptions from 100 per cent of its Municipal Council, the office staff of the Board of Works, Waterworks and Provincial Police, including the municipality's own subscription for the total for the first few hours mounted to more than $30,000.

Citizens of Saint John, N.B., saw a spectacular display of Canada's air power in Victory Loan ceremonies yesterday. During an open-air Commando concert, the total for the first few hours mounted to more than $30,000.

Davis praised the way Canada handled the news of the Dieppe raid. "A free people wants to know and has a right to know how the battle is going, and will fight all the harder if it realizes how hard it must fight for victory," he said.

"Here in Canada you have lately witnessed a convincing demonstration of that faith in your handling of the news of the Dieppe raid. The

At Least Two Fliers Die In Bellechasse County Crash

Mayor of St. Charles de Bellechasse Declares that Bi-Motored Plane, Apparently United States Mail Plane, Crashed to Earth Following Explosion in Mid-Air—Exact Death Toll Unknown.

St. Charles, Que. Oct. 19.—(P)—Mayor Ovide Prevost, of this Bellechasse County town said today that a bi-motored plane, apparently a United States mail plane, crashed in flames near here last night following an explosion in mid-air.

Mayor Prevost said that he did not know how many occupants there were in the plane but that two identification tags had been found which indicated that one of the men came from Texas and the other from Indianapolis.

"There were no bodies found in the plane," he said, "and it is impossible to say how many men were in the plane as bits of bodies were strewn all over the place. There were at least two or two pocket books, one containing $196 and the other $90 and a similar number of identification tags, were found near the crashed plane."

Mayor Prevost told how the plane, apparently not in difficulty, had suddenly exploded in mid-air and then plummeted to earth.

"The engines were buried four or five feet in the earth," he said. "The rest of the plane was crushed like a pancake. Several bags of mail also were found near the wood where the crash occurred."

Meanwhile, Supt. Ldr. J. G. Archambault, Officer Commanding the Royal Canadian Air Force Centre at Ancienne Lorette, headed a search party which arrived here to investigate the crash.

HALF YEAR ON JOURNEY FROM PHILIPPINES

Two United States Army Officers Safe in Australia After Hectic 159-Day Voyage from Jap-Held Islands.

Allied Headquarters, Australia, Oct. 19.—(P)—Capt. William Lloyd Osborne of Los Angeles, and First Lieut. Damon Gause of Winder, Ga., have arrived safely in Australia after a dramatic escape from the Philippines and a 159-day, 1,500-mile journey by foot and small boat.

"We arrived here not by any expert navigation but by the grace of God," Osborne said.

During their long Southward trip, which ended October 11, the officers hid by day and travelled by night, several times escaping by a narrow margin encounters with Japanese troops and ships.

They survived a machine-gunning by a Japanese plane almost within sight of Australia and once sailed right by two Japanese cruisers which ignored them.

Despite the vicissitudes they endured, both men put on weight during the long, hazardous trip.

The final lap of the voyage was made in a 22-foot native-built motorboat, in which they set out August 15. They completed their journey by making a landfall within fifteen miles of the point they had set as their goal.

The log which they kept during the trip ended with this entry: "We close this log with much relief and rejoicing."

Both men apparently were in excellent physical condition when they reached Australia.

Ottawa Woman Dies In Leap From WARD

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—(P)—Martha Gallagher, twenty-three, of Ottawa, leaped from a second storey window of the Ottawa General Hospital early today, landing head first on a concrete coping bordering the base of the building. She was killed instantly.

Three other patients in the ward at the time saw her climb out of the window but were powerless to save her.

Coroner Dr. Edward P. Byrne investigated and decided an inquest would not be necessary.

Steady Improvement Registered In United States Plane Quality

Washington, October 19.—(P)—Coupling unvarnished criticism of American fighter planes with an overall analysis of all army and navy air types, the United States office of War Information concluded today that "on average the combat performance of United States aircraft is good" and improving.

In a 10,000-word report to the public designed to dispel the fog of confusion concerning American planes the O.W.I. said "the truth lies between the two extremes" of adverse and favorable criticisms.

Specifically, it said: 1—The Curtiss P-40, Bell P-39 (Airacobra), and North American P-51 (Mustang), standard army fighters already in action, have many good points but are definitely inferior to foreign types in high-altitude combat. Improved types are in production but haven't been battle-tested yet.

2—Chief fault of United States fighters is the tardy and incomplete development of the Allison liquid-cooled motor.

3—For daylight precision bombing Flying Fortress B-17S and Liberator B-24S are unsurpassed.

4—Medium bombers, Mitchell B-25S and Martin B-26S have no competitors.

5—Latest navy fighter, dive-bomber and torpedo types already in action are the best carrier planes in the world.

6—Other types patrol, reconnaissance, cargo and transport, artillery fire-spotter, and seaplanes are "satisfactory in quality" within their own fields.

Stressing that only results in battle provide valid standards of criticism, the report suggested no full appraisal will be possible "until the war has been won."

It told how alternate superiority of Britain and the United States in various types gave the United Nations, as a team, a better choice of weapons than the enemy.

WAR BULLETINS

London — The German controlled Paris radio broadcast a report today that a bomb had been thrown in Baghdad, Iraq, at the British ambassador, Sir Kinahan Cornwallis. No details of the reported attack were given.

London — The Moscow radio said today a Soviet submarine operating in the Baltic had sunk five German transports totalling 36,000 tons.

Washington—The War Department announced today that the United States army has leased for the war's duration the short line White Pass and Yukon route railway linking the new Alaskan highway with the Pacific coast. The line extends from Skagway, Alaska, to Whitehorse, Yukon Territory, through which the new Alaskan-Canadian military highway passes.

WARNS CANADA OF INCREASING SUPPLY FAMINE

Harry J. Carmichael, Production Co-ordinator, Claims Time Has Come to Conserve Fractions of Ounces.

Toronto, Oct. 19.—(P)—Harry J. Carmichael, Co-ordinator of Production in the Department of Munitions and Supply, told a one-day meeting of nearly 1,500 Canadian munitions manufacturers here Saturday that shortages of vital metals are so critical in Canada that it is "absolutely essential and necessary" that all manufacturers conserve "not pounds, but fractions of ounces."

He said it is vital that the use of materials, manpower and machines be drastically conserved if Canada is to remain a potent factor in the war.

"This is not an economic scare," he said. "There is an honest-to-God shortage of these things that are necessary to carry us to victory."

Representatives of the United Kingdom and Canadian Inspection Board for the navy, army and air force told the gathering that all substitutions and changes in war equipment were rigorously tested and that the prime test was whether the quality was unimpaired by the change.

Harvey McMillan, President of Wartime Merchant Shipping, told the meeting that September was the first month since the beginning of the war that merchant shipping production by the United Nations equalled the volume of ships sunk by enemy action.

Warning of the need for merchant ships he said the United Nations now have less tonnage than the Allies had in 1917 and 1918.

Canada has reached her budget in shipbuilding and so far has sent fifty-seven merchant ships, each of 10,000 tons, to the sea, he said.

HOWARD ROSS HEADS RATIONS COMMITTEE

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—(P)—Howard I. Ross, of Montreal, previously director of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board's programme to establish more than five hundred local ration boards across the country, has been named to succeed S. Boyd Miller as Supervisor of Rationing, the Board announced today.

The Board earlier this month announced that Miller was compelled by the serious illness of his father, J. E. Miller, of Montreal, to return to private business at the end of October.

Russian Press Frankly Demands Hess Trial On Atrocity Charges

Moscow, Oct. 19.—(P)—A Pravda editorial demanding the immediate trial of Rudolf Hess, former Nazi leader now a captive in Britain, said today that "It must be finally established who Hess is now—a criminal subject to trial and punishment or a plenipotentiary representative in England of the Hitler Government who enjoys inviolability."

The editorial in the Communist Party organ reviewed the October 15th statement of the Soviet Government calling for immediate trial and punishment of any German ringleader "who, in the course of the war, has fallen into the hands of states fighting against Hitlerite Germany."

Pravda said: "The victims of Fascist atrocities must be revenged and this is an immediate necessity which should not be delayed."

"It is perfectly clear," it went on, "that there cannot be any wavering about the righteousness and basis for such a demand."

"The idea of an immediate trial is clear and against it nothing can be said which is not apart from living reality, from the demands of the people victimized by the Hitlerites and the masses of people in countries occupied by German troops, and from the demands of our duty to the victims of the Hitlerite hangmen and to ourselves.

"The lack of foundation for any argument against the idea of an immediate trial is discovered as soon as the question takes concrete form, if we judge by the actions of the English press we see they have in mind the Hess case.

"It seems that because Rudolf Hess came to England in the uniform of a German flier that he already is not one of the most notorious national leaders of the criminal Hitlerite gang but just a plain prisoner of war.

"The well-known criminal Hess had only to put on the uniform of a Hitlerite flier and to fly to England and it seems he can count on the possibility of hiding from an international court."

A British spokesman last week in commenting on Russian demands that Hess be tried immediately, said such a trial would be impossible in wartime because, among other reasons, of the grave danger that Hitler would retaliate upon the thousands of British prisoners and internees he holds in Germany and the conquered lands.

American Ground Forces Fend Off Jap Air Attacks On Guadalcanal

Washington, Oct. 19.—(P)—Fending off aerial attempts to soften them up, American forces entrenched on Guadalcanal Island braced themselves today for an expected full-scale assault by Japanese land fighters.

"As the enemy moved his artillery into position and placed troops and equipment at strategic spots along the island's North shore, Allied headquarters in Australia sent out four waves of heavy bombers to harass Japanese supply lines and depots in a wide sweep over the Northwest Solomons.

Whether the vigor of these bombings was delaying a frontal assault by land troops could only be conjectured.

Heavy concentrations of supporting enemy ships in the Buna-Shortland area to the Northwest were the special target of Allied bombers which were believed to have hit three cruisers and several other vessels.

A communique from Allied headquarters, reporting the second successive night attack on Guin, said the airforce used by the Japanese in their Solomons operations was bombed heavily.

After lighting up the crowded harbor with parachute flares, the Allied raiders spilled 22 tons of bombs,

TWO BICYCLISTS ARE INJURED IN LOCAL MISHAPS

Soldier from E.T.A.A. Barracks Also Slightly Hurt When Truck He Was Driving Fell Down Embankment.

Two bicyclists were injured in accidents with automobiles and a soldier from E.T.A.A. barracks, driving a Department of National Defense station wagon, suffered nervous shock when the machine went down a small embankment across from 38 Park Avenue during the week-end.

Following the mishap, the injured youth was taken by his brother, Roland Lessard, to St. Vincent and Paul Hospital, where he was treated by Dr. Richard Bellisle. He was reported to be resting comfortably today.

Driver of the car figuring in the collision was Romeo Beaudou, 39 Alexander Street. The machine and wheel, travelling in opposite directions, were damaged.

Right leg bruises were suffered by Armand Pelletier, fifteen years old, when his bicycle was involved in a head-on collision with a car in front of 6 Larocque Street.

While backing into a yard at 164 Belvidere Street, a car operated by Andrew Gariety, 66B Laurier Avenue, was damaged slightly in a collision with another car, driven by Albert Arguin, R.M.D. No. 4, Sherbrooke. Arguin was travelling from North to South on Belvidere Street at the time of the mishap.

Napoleon Lemieux, of Acet Corner, also reported to police that his car was damaged when it was struck by an auto with licence number N-189 in front of 14 King Street West.

GRANDSON OF EAST CLIFTON MAN KILLED

Robert J. Hodgen, American Army, Lost Life in Plane Crash at Valdosta, Georgia—In Line for Commission.

He was one of three brothers in the service, with Sgt. George C. Hodgen at the Army War College in Washington, and Alden R. Hodgen at the Officer's Candidate School at Fort Belvoir, Va. Awaiting call to report as a flying cadet is another brother, Edmund T. Hodgen.

He leaves to mourn his loss his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Robert J. Hodgen, of Gloucester, and four other brothers, Isaac A. of Belverton, John W. of East Hartford, Conn., Woodrow W. of Amesbury, and John E. Hodgen, of Oberlin, O.

"In sharp combat during the day (Sunday) enemy casualties were relatively heavy," said the communiqué. "We carried mortars, light machine-guns and other equipment. The enemy launched several local counter-attacks in the evening which were repulsed with heavy losses."

In the Aleutian corner of the Pacific war, the navy reported, army bombers scored five hits on an Japanese destroyer Northwest of Kiska and four on a second. The attack, about forty-five minutes in duration, was executed last Friday.

"Heavy explosions and fires resulted and when last seen both ships were stopped and burning and the crews were abandoning ship," the communiqué said, reporting that this resounding success cost only one plane.

report of your Defence Minister, Mr. Ralston, was a model of candor and common sense. In that operation the casualties were proportionately very heavy. But prompt announcement of those casualties was a proof that your Government had faith in the strength of the Canadian spirit. And that incident set an example which every free people in this war should remember and profitably follow."

Canada has also pioneered in "tackling the thorny problem of inflation."

"Back in December, 1941, you embarked boldly on the uncharted sea of general price control and it was your courage, I may say, that helped convince us that it could be done."

"You made taxation a weapon against the rising cost of living as well as a gigantic down-payment for the war; and it is amusing now to look back to the time, only a few years in the past, when my conservative friends in the United States used to threaten to move to Canada to escape taxation."

"You beat us by several months with the issue of a first general rationing book. You gave us an example of self-denial when you put tea and coffee on the list of rationed goods. We know what restrictions like these mean to you and we are determined that, however our pattern may vary from yours, in the process of fighting our belts we shall not remain many notches behind you."

Members Of Air Cadet Squadron Visit Windsor R.C.A.F. School

No. 67 Sherbrooke (Rotary) Squadron, Air Cadets, spent yesterday at the Windsor Mills Elementary Flying Training School, where they were guests of Mr. Green and his staff. Although the weather was anything but favorable, over one hundred Cadets made the trip and thoroughly enjoyed the few short hours spent there.

By flight instructor, the young A.F. students flying. However, they are looking forward to that on their next visit.

As a result of inclement weather, falling below zero, the lads did not have an opportunity to see the R.C.A.F. students flying. However, they are looking forward to that on their next visit.

Stalingrad. Sunday alone, said the midnight Soviet communiqué, 2,500 Nazi soldiers died for Hitler's unfulfilled dream of taking Stalingrad. But the city, now in the fifty-sixth day of siege, was still in grave danger.

The Germans were reverting to frontal assaults in the city and its immediate suburbs. The Russians said they destroyed 45 German tanks Sunday in the course of bitter fighting, seventeen in a furious battle for possession of a factory, probably the Red Baricade gun works.

The Germans earlier had driven a wedge into the Russian positions in this factory area. Yesterday, the Russians said, 1,000 Nazi officers and men were killed in a costly and unsuccessful attempt to widen this advantage.

In another sector, the Germans sent tanks and infantry supported by aircraft thundering at the Russian positions, but Red army troops held firm and destroyed "twenty-eight tanks, eight guns, ten mortar batteries, ten trucks and about three battalions of enemy infantry," the communiqué said.

(The Berlin radio reported last night that "an outstanding effort to get winter equipment to German troops in Eastern Europe to all practical purposes was already completed.") Apparently with bitter recollections of last winter's suffering by German troops, the announcer asserted "the German armies this time have been made absolutely safe against all surprises of even the ablest Russian command."

Heavy fighting was reported from the Mzoklok front in the Caucasus where the Germans are attempting to drive to the Grozny oil fields and in the region Southeast of Novorossisk.

At Mzodok, the communiqué said, Russians frustrated several German attacks and killed some five hundred soldiers. Southeast of Novorossisk, the Germans broke through Russian defences in one sector, but the communiqué said Russian troops were resisting stubbornly and "dealing counterblows to the Germans."

The capture of some German positions there was announced and one Soviet unit wiped out about two companies of German infantry.

Australian headquarters said the tempo of ground fighting in New Guinea is stepping up as Australian troops encountered resistance in their push toward the Japanese base at Kokoda. Within twelve miles of their objective, the Australians met Japanese counter-attacks, all of which were repulsed with heavy losses to the enemy.

Closer home, in the Aleutian Islands area, they reported two Japanese destroyers were hit during a low-altitude attack by army "Marauder" bombers October 16. When last seen Northwest of Kiska, both destroyers were on fire and being abandoned by their crews.

Canadian planes have been active in this area but the communiqué did not say whether they participated in the October 16 assault.

All Citizens Urged To Lend Support To Third Appeal For Funds To Finance War Effort

Quota for Sherbrooke County Announced at $2,000,000—Voluntary Savings Through War Bonds Needed to Raise Ninety-Five Per Cent of Amount to Be Borrowed in Present Fiscal Year—Townships Divided into Two Zones for Purposes of Campaign.

This announcement was made at joint-headquarters of Divisions Number Five and Six of the Eastern Townships in the New Sherbrooke House at noon today.

At a similar ceremony at the viewpoint of subscriptions, objective of the drive for the Dominion is $750,000,000 and that for Sherbrooke County is $2,000,000, while quotas for Divisions Five and Six total $8,815,000.

ABOUT

EVERY EARNER CAN BE PROPERTY OWNER

With practically every employable Canadian now at work, authorities are pointing out that wage earners can establish themselves as tomorrow's "people of property." Anyone who can save as little as $10 per month can buy a Victory Bond on the instalment plan from his bank; and Victory Bonds represent the safest and most valuable property in existence.

A Victory Bond is as "marketable" as cash. If you hold a bond, you can go to any bank and sell it, or borrow money on it at any time, without delay. Thus you are protected against emergencies, while being paid interest on your investment by the Government.

Canadian Johns-Manville Co. Limited is pleased to assist the Victory Loan by using this space regularly to urge Canadians, "Buy Victory Bonds!"

brooke County Chairmen of the campaign, it was pointed out that while the basis of taxation is now considerably higher than it was during the two previous drives, which will make it difficult for some people to subscribe as much as formerly, on the other side of the ledger, there are far more people gainfully employed at good wages.

A pertinent factor revealed in the statement was that deposits in the banks are higher than they were a year ago and there is no doubt that the vast majority of people are wholeheartedly curtailing their living expenses in order that they may be able to do their share in subscribing to the Loan.

The local Chairman also reminded the public that when the Hon. J. L. Halsey, Minister of Finance, was in Sherbrooke recently, he explained that the income tax deduction for compulsory savings would only raise a little over five per cent of the amount to be borrowed in the present fiscal year. Voluntary savings through War Savings Certificates and Victory Bonds would be needed to raise the other ninety-five per cent.

The E.T. District is divided into two zones for purposes of the loan—No. 5 and No. 6, which have quotas of $2,912,000 and $5,603,000, respectively.

Sherbrooke county has the biggest quota, $2,000,000, with Megantic next in line with $1,450,000, Richmond county citizens are being asked to subscribe $1,010,000. Objectives in the other nine counties are below the million dollar figure.

Objectives were announced as follows:

District No. 5: Arthabaska, $435,000; Compton, $572,000; Nicolet, $180,000; Wolfe, $115,000; Megantic, $1,450,000; and Frontenac, $160,000.

District No. 6: Missisquoi, $740,000; Brome, $318,000; Sherbrooke, $2,000,000; Stanstead, $870,000; Shefford, $665,000; Richmond, $1,010,000.

Total district No. 5: $2,912,000; Total district No. 6: $5,603,000.

Ingersoll-Rand And Pneumatic Tool Companies In Whirlwind Campaign To Attain $82,500 Quota In 24 Hours

Two Leading Sherbrooke Plants Had Subscribed $60,000 at Noon Today in Determined Drive Which Got Under Way Two Minutes After Midnight—Workers Urged to Invest in War Bonds—Objective Expected to Be Reached if Not Surpassed by Tonight.

At noon today the steam whistle atop the Canadian Ingersoll Rand Company plant had tooted the three dots and a dash "V" for Victory signal six times since midnight to indicate that the whirlwind Victory Loan campaign at the Rand and the Sherbrooke Pneumatic Tool Company had attained the $60,000 mark against the combined objective of $82,500.

Mobilizing a crew of keen and enthusiastic canvassers numbering some 200, these two leading Sherbrooke industries got off to a flying start at exactly two minutes past midnight determined to attain and if possible surpass the $82,500 objective within twenty-four hours.

Company campaign organizers announced at noon that $60,000 had been subscribed, with $39,000 credited to Rand employees and the balance of $21,000 to Pneumatic Tool Company workers. The two plants have 2,100 workers.

Col. Johnny Bourque, M.L.A., and Maurice Gingues, M.P., addressed the Pneumatic Tool employees, the former speaking at a few minutes past midnight and the latter this morning at seven o'clock. Both urged the men to purchase Victory Bonds to the fullest extent of their pocketbooks, stressing the Government's imperative need for funds with which to continue to finance the war effort—build planes and tanks and ships and munitions for the fighting forces.

"This is not the time to discuss the reasons for our being in the war," declared Col. Bourque. "The thing is that we are in it, and we must win it, and to do that the Government must have money." He added that while the Government relied upon the insurance companies and other large concerns for big subscriptions it was also counting upon the worker to do his share and in this respect all had a duty to perform.

It was also important for the post-war period that workers invest in war certificates and that they keep these securities as long as they could.

A similar appeal was voiced by Mr. Gingues this morning when he addressed another of the three shifts at the Pneumatic Tool.

At the Ingersoll Rand the employees "Band-in-Ovards" played martial airs through at the plants as the campaign got under way at midnight. In addition Sergeant McCormack of the (21st) Sherbrooke Regiment played suitable airs on the bagpipes at both the Rand and the Pneumatic Tool.

Pre-campaign publicity and training meetings for plant canvassers helped to bring home to the employees of the two companies the vital co-operation needed to make the loan a success. The campaign canvassers were addressed on Saturday by B. I. Cassidy, joint Chairman of the Payroll Division of the National War Finance Committee, Montreal, and illustrated sound films were also shown.

Each Department in the plants was kept advised today by means of large thermometers of the progress of the campaign in their own and other sections.

Progress of the campaign was indicated to the people of Sherbrooke by the blowing of three dots and a dash, the "V" for Victory signal, on the main whistle of the Rand plant as each $10,000 was reached. The whistle had blown its staccato signal six times at noon.

General Chairman of the Victory Loan Committee at the Ingersoll Rand is Charles Steele, assisted by George Liddell, Ken Thompson and H. Pearton. The Victory Loan Committee at the Pneumatic Tool is directed by D. McLeman and W. Palmer.

In the March 1942 campaign the objective for the Rand and Pneumatic Tool was $70,000 and was oversubscribed by $12,000.

"Commando" Dagger Ceremony Held Yesterday Morning At Local Cenotaph In Connection With Canada's 3rd Victory Loan Drive

Third Victory Loan Sunday in Sherbrooke was highlighted by the presentation of a real Commando dagger by the Hon. Jacob Nicol, Chairman of the Provincial National War Finance Committee, to Mayor A. C. Ross, as pictured at left, at a ceremonial held at the King Street West cenotaph, which was flanked on the four sides by 400 soldiers from the Lord Sherbrooke Training Centre. Threatening rain and over-cast skies failed to dampen the spirit of the 500 citizens who attended the ceremony, in charge of H. A. Peabody and J. A. Rouleau, Joint Chairmen of the Public Relations Committee of the Sherbrooke County N.W.F.C. The top is a scene at the cenotaph during the ceremony.

In addition to similar ceremonies throughout the Eastern Townships, held in connection with the Third Victory Loan campaign which opens today and continues until November 7, there were high masses celebrated in Catholic Churches and special services held in churches of other denominations for the success of the three-week drive, both here and in the Eastern Townships.

"When this community attains its objective in the war loan drive, the Commando dagger will be dispatched to a Sherbrooke unit Overseas," said Mayor Ross in accepting it on behalf of Sherbrooke County from Mr. Nicol. He added that the dagger will be for actual use in battle by a member of a Sherbrooke regiment and will stand for a pledge from the folks back home to supply the armed forces Overseas with all the weapons and equipment they need to reach Berlin.

Others making brief remarks regarding the new war loan were M. Gingues, M.P., Col. Johnny Bourque, M.L.A., and Col. Leopold Chevalier, O.C. Tenth Infantry Brigade, who stressed the slogan of the drive, "Nothing matters now but victory." Talking along the same lines, the three speakers pointed out that the Third Victory Loan presents all with an opportunity of giving support, in terms of money and morale. They emphasized that every Canadian soldier, sailor and airman has the right to expect one hundred percent backing from the civilian population.

The Sherbrooke Harmony Band played military airs during the ceremonial. Following the short programme, the militia split up in groups of fifty and marched to local churches to attend services.

Members of the local National War Finance Committee at the ceremonial were Louis F. Codere, H. W. S. Downes, C. Picard, D. J. Salls, Georges Delongchamp, Col. A. A. Munster, Dr. A. Dupuis, M. T. Stenson, Gilles Deroches, Elie M. Barbet, L. R. Hebert, H. A. Clark, Henri Fuzeeon, Arthur Kidd, A. P. Kennedy, H. Robitaille and Bruce Miller.

THE CRUELTY OF THE NAZIS

In all history there is nothing to compare with the inhuman cruelty now being practised by the Germans on millions of men and women throughout Europe, forcing them to work in the fields, factories and mines of the Reich or starve.

The Nazis are using food as a weapon, just as they use the firing squad and the concentration camp, to force collaboration from the captive states of Europe. They need men and women to take the place of the millions now in their armed forces, particularly to make up the material losses created by the Russian campaign and the Allied bombing raids on German factories and arsenals.

To get these workers, Germany is drawing the rack tighter and tighter on the captive countries. When Goering told the German people that before they went hungry the peoples of the occupied lands would be allowed to starve, he was not only reassuring the Germans but also was emphasizing his blunt threat to the captive nations.

The Germans are planning that hunger, cold and physical threats will get them the slave labor they must have this winter to prepare for the inevitable two-front war or multi-front war they will face in 1943. Their plan is simplicity itself: Drain all the food from France, Belgium, Holland, Norway and such Balkan countries as Yugoslavia and Greece and workers will "volunteer" for jobs in the Reich in order to escape starvation.

Washington expects that Europe, with the exception of Germany, will face suffering and death this winter on a scale never experienced before in all its history. It is likely that hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions, will die of hunger and malnutrition and that future generations will be scarred by the privations and sufferings of those who survive.

As for Germany, itself, there probably will be no actual suffering this winter. Before the war, the Reich was at least eighty-five per cent self-sufficient in food and most authorities here agree that it has an adequate supply, perhaps as adequate as Britain. The severe winter and late spring may have injured German food production to some extent but, as an offset to that, the Nazis have under their control practically all the arable land of Europe.

The Ukraine probably has not yielded anything like the return the Germans expected, one reason being the thoroughness with which the Russians destroyed crops and machines and scattered and evacuated skilled workers. But it has added to Germany's potential resources, if the war lasts long enough.

It is difficult to say what European countries will suffer most this winter but authorities suggest that Greece, Belgium and Yugoslavia probably occupy that unenviable position with Norway, Holland and perhaps France not far behind. Even Italy, once proud and boastful member of the Axis, has been stripped of surplus food by the Germans and rations are low, even allowing for the frugality of the normal Italian diet.

Authorities sometimes are frankly dubious of Russia's ability to feed all her people this winter, considering the vast agricultural lands that have been lost to the Germans, but they also admit they have been wrong before in their estimate of the resilience and stamina of the Russian people and in their under-estimates of Russian preparations for this war.

Meanwhile, food is being shipped to Russia by both Canada and the United States and there is no outward sign of acute shortages.

STRENGTHENING JAPAN'S HOME FRONT

General Tojo's Government is concerned about Japan's home front. Its agencies responsible for civilian morale have been working overtime and Tokyo is in the throes of a week-long festival devoted to the dedication of those who died on the battlefields of the Philippines, Malaya and the Indies.

Radio Tokyo is broadcasting thousands of words extolling the achievements of the Tojo regime, the excuse being the anniversary on Sunday of its inauguration last year as a preliminary to the attack on Pearl Harbor.

There is no denying that Tojo and his sword-rattling clan have gone a long way in one year. Not even Hitler's record can show twelve months of such successful plunder. And there is no false modesty in Radio Tokyo's telling of it:

"No Government in history has ever seen such rapid expansion of its complete or partial jurisdiction within one year. . . . No less than 120,000,000 people of different languages, races, culture and environment have been brought together in one gigantic community by Japan for the building of Greater East Asia."

Then follows a catalogue of the millions of tons of rice, petroleum, rubber, sugar, jute, iron ore and countless other essential material resources brought within the scope of this enterprise.

Now it cannot be denied that much of this boasting is founded on fact. But the interesting point is that so much of it should be thought necessary at this time in conjunction with religio-patriotic ceremonies appealing to the strongest emotions of the race. Obviously Japan is at a crisis of her Pacific war and her leaders feel the need of strengthening popular enthusiasm for the war effort. These leaders naturally are not tipping their hands. It may be, of course, that some new adventure is in the making, such as a smash at Siberia or a thrust deeper into the Southwest Pacific.

But circumstances suggest that the psychological preparation is for a different phase of the war, one essentially defensive and, therefore, more difficult for the home front to endure. Already the Japanese people have been warned that the war will last for two years—perhaps one hundred years, Tojo has said—and it is likely that the Imperial Command looks forward to a long period of battling to retain booty already grabbed. Such a phase offers few brilliant victories to celebrate, nothing like the fall of Singapore or the reduction of Bataan.

The great battle now joined in the Solomons does not alter this picture. No matter how it goes it cannot change the essential fact that Japan is fighting now primarily to hold spoils already won. If the forces the Japanese have thrown into the battle of Guadalcanal should overwhelm the grimly-fighting Americans, that should hardly represent that to his people as a fine victory. For he already has told them that Japan has conquered in the Solomons and destroyed there what was left of the United States fleet after the Coral Sea and Midway.

BUDGET YOUR TIME

By Grenville Kleiser

Men who accomplish most—men like President Roosevelt, Knudsen, Willkie, Stettinius, Sloane—know how to allot their time so as to make the best use of it. They know when to work, when to play, when to rest.

Plan your time so that you get an adequate amount of real rest, both physical and mental; but make sure that you know what is adequate. Over-rest becomes, paradoxically, tiring. A day idled away often leaves one more weary than a day spent over-strenuously. Find out how much rest you really need to keep healthy and alert, then plan to get exactly that amount.

Spare hours can be filled in all sorts of beneficial ways—by exercise, by mental culture, by conversation.

It is impossible to suggest a limit of hours to be spent in rest; such a period varies with every individual. We all have a sure instinct, however, which tells us how much rest and sleep we need; to disobey that instinct on either side is folly.

Many people find that their income seems to go further if it is exactly budgeted—so much allowed for this, so much for that. A budget of time would help a person who has so far been unsystematic in its allotment.

The careful housewife makes her money-allowance; so much for this necessary commodity; so much for that; so much for fuel; so much for food; so much for furnishings. The careful man should plan his time in the same orderly fashion.

He should allow so much for business, so much for sleep, so much for meals, so much for mental culture, so much for exercise. In recent years factory processes have been speeded up more by planning than by new machinery.

Experts have studied the working of these processes and have eliminated waste in activity. Study yourself in the same way. Hustlers don't necessarily accomplish the most real work or fill their time to the best advantage. They generally waste time in telling you how much they have to do, and in rushing about from one place to another in a fever of activity.

The noiseless, smooth-running machine is the powerful one, the machine in which every part fulfills its own functions perfectly, accurately and constantly. System in your life will enable you to produce far more power, and therefore far more effect, than bustle and aimless hurry.

Some people find that they can plan their time best if they arrange a chart, a kind of timetable, and adhere to it firmly. This is a good plan for those who are likely to squander time unduly; but if it becomes too rigid, the man will be ridden by his own method.

PRESS COMMENTS

AS FRENCH AS THE MARSEILLES HYMN

Under pretext of forestalling Edouard Herriot's possible flight from France, the Government at Vichy has placed that doughty republican under domiciliary detention. Ten inspectors of police form a cordon of custodians to see that he make no unauthorized departure from his country home near Lyons. He could have remained at liberty under parole, but refused to give any pledge to a regime which he holds in supreme contempt. That is, he once more proved himself the stout, honest, independent middle-class Frenchman he always has been. The jacks of Vichy can pin him up, but they cannot break his spirit.

That they have hesitated to silence him forever is due to no instinct of decency. It is due to wholesome fear of the effect which more ruthless procedure would have upon the French public. Whatever may have been said of Herriot in the acrimony of political debate, nobody has ever dreamed of questioning his loyalty to the republic. He is as French as the Marseilles hymn. It was as a Frenchman to Frenchmen he spoke when he warned Vichy, the other day, not to try to lead the French people into the war against the Allies. For saying this he needed no other commission than his own standing in the respect and confidence of his countrymen.

In part his arrest is doubtless a penalty imposed upon him for that bold statement. In part also, it may be designed to keep him out of the way when the storm breaks over the proposed new plan to conscript French workers for service in Germany. But the main reason is that it is dangerous for jacks to have an unfriendly lion on the loose in their neighborhood. Indeed, the day may come when any Frenchman of importance who remained at liberty throughout the ascendancy of the savants may feel impelled to admonish himself to apologize to posterity.

COMPLACENCY DIES HARD

Wishful thinking was supposed to have died an unlamented death after the fall of France in 1940, but we had more than enough of it in the East before the popular racing horse. And in spite of that grim lesson it persists to a tragic extent in the Union. South Africa's reaction to the new perils of the war shows that habit dies hard in an easy-going and easy-living community. At the first breath of danger, it is true, the Union took the Japanese threat seriously and started to make realistic preparations to meet it. . . . Durban took the drastic step of discussing the cancellation of the July Handicap and the Durban season, but on second thoughts decided to hold its popular racing festival and explained that its warning to non-residents to stay away only means that it wanted the unhappy war evacuees to leave and make room for July visitors. For a city that has deservedly won a world-wide reputation for its racing festival and explained that its warning to non-residents to stay away only means that it wanted the unhappy war evacuees to leave and make room for July visitors. For a city that has deservedly won a world-wide reputation for its racing festival and explained that its warning to non-residents to stay away only means that it wanted the unhappy war evacuees to leave and make room for July visitors.

When Einstein gets busy Woodstock Sentinel Review Albert Einstein, propounder of the Einstein theory of relativity, is not only unique in the sublimated field of higher mathematics but also in his personal affairs. E. E. Edgar tells this interesting story in The Milwaukee Journal: "Albert Einstein threw the trustees of Princeton University into a dither before he became a member of the Institute of Advanced Study at that university. Negotiations had proceeded smoothly until the ticklish matter of pay came up. Somehow that had been overlooked. A letter was sent to the scientist, requesting him to state the salary he desired. His reply sent the bewildered trustees scurrying into conference. His demands were unthinkable, preposterous. Whoever heard of such a ridiculous figure? Another letter was dispatched to the father of relativity. The trustees were very sorry but they could not possibly meet his demands. That was simply out of the question. They had, therefore, made a slight adjustment which they hoped would be satisfactory. The 'slight adjustment' was to offer the unbusinesslike professor port was imminent. This was followed by a Vichy French decision to evacuate European women and children from the zone. Now, the Nazi-controlled press of Paris is suggesting that the West African base can be preserved only with German aid.

As it never has been a German custom to hold back when there is an advantage to be gained, it may be assumed that Nazi plans for strategic Dakar are far beyond the incompleteness hinted at by the Paris press.

The fact, too, that Dakar's Governor, Pierre Boisson, has at least nominally ordered the evacuation of civilians adds to the suspicion that something under-handed is being planned for the base by Vichy and Berlin. Boisson has been blamed, and perhaps with truth, for the abortive British-French assault on Dakar two years ago. It is said that he agreed to surrender the port to General de Gaulle, who took him at his word and planned a token expedition. But when this expedition reached Dakar, Boisson offered resistance. The campaign failed.

There is, of course, another side to the situation as it currently affects Dakar. The United Nations do not have to be told what all-out German occupation of Dakar would mean to their supply lines and their strategy. Vichy has thoughtfully built a route that the Nazis can use to run men and equipment to the port, but the Allies still command the seas. It is not outside their power to strike swiftly at Dakar when they see fit.

A GHASTLY TOTAL

Ottawa Citizen Nazi executives in conquered European countries have run their ghastly total of murders up to 207,373. This is the latest figure compiled by the Inter-Allied Information Committee in London, and is based on information received by exiled United Nations governments.

It is an appalling number. It reveals more graphically than any preaching the poverty of Nazi ideas in the realm of human relationship, the utter moral obliquity of the Hitlers and Himmlers and Heydrichs and the Nazi system of "co-operation" in the new order is one of cruelty and ruthlessness. Thousand of the victims of the Nazi firing squads and executioners have been murdered as hostages. This is something new in modern warfare. The practice of taking hostages is very ancient, of course, but the practice of killing them is a German invention. For centuries prisoners were treated strictly as prisoners of war. It was left to the Nazis to break tradition, interfere with the laws of nations and national law and all the laws of humanity, and slaughter thousands for deeds they did not commit.

President Roosevelt, among others, has promised to try before properly constituted tribunals all those Axis criminals who have during the occupation of Europe and North Africa inflicted unjust and barbarous punishments upon helpless victims. This is as it should be, and let us hope that this time there will be no misguided "magnanimity" to afford escape to the culprits. But the trials will be many, and it may take years to arrange and hold them. Held they must be, however, if justice is to be done.

Poland, as one might conclude, is the chief sufferer in this great tragedy. Of the 207,000 executions reported 200,000 involved the inhabitants of Poland.

Activity at Dakar Windsor Star Time will not disprove this, but as matters stand today there are reasons to suspect that a Nazi coup is in the fire at Dakar, with heavy-boated "tourists" and "technicians" prepared to reveal themselves as German troops, and declare that the port has been taken into "protective custody."

The pattern that has been unfolding itself at Dakar for several weeks back is altogether too familiar. First, there was talk that a United Nations' foray against the three times as much as he had asked for."

It is no trick at all for Professor Einstein to puzzle anyone. If he puzzled the Princeton trustees, consider how deeply he puzzled the world a decade or so ago when the Einstein theory swept like a comet across the intellectual scene. It was said that only a dozen persons really understood the theory and they were not confidential, even with each other. It had to do with time and space. Light waves were curved by the action of the sun. Hence nothing was absolute; only relative.

One illustration was something like this: Two railroad trains are moving side by side in the same direction at the same rate of speed. To the passengers in each train, looking into the other train, the train does not seem to be moving; to them it is standing still. Relative to a person on the outside, the trains are moving. All you have to do now is to apply the implications, lessons and suggestions to time and space and you have a nice set of philosophies to ponder over.

TOUGH ON THE SMALL TOWN

Listowel Banner Little business and little towns are facing a dilemma. The small town has witnessed an exodus of its young men to the armed forces. It has seen a departure of more men to war industry centres. The buying and spending potentialities of these groups has reduced the mercantile revenues of small merchants. Increased living costs, higher wages, heavier taxes and less merchandise to sell to a smaller group of buyers have put the small town merchants in a precarious position. Priorities have further reduced the selling opportunities of many lines of business. Careful buying and the cutting of costs to a minimum are real necessities.

HAVE A SMILE

A countryman heard that the job of watchman at a single-line railway crossing was vacant.

"You'll have to undergo a strict examination," the man in charge said when he applied for the job.

"Ask me anything!" bragged the applicant.

"All right," spoke up the examiner. "Supposing you are at the crossing and two trains are coming along from opposite directions, what would you do?"

"I'd blow my whistle," "Suppose your whistle was out of order?"

"I'd always wear a red shirt and I'd take it off and flag the trains."

"Let's say this happened at night."

"Then I'd swing my lantern."

"But suppose you had no oil in your lantern."

"In that case I'd call my sister."

"Your sister? What for?"

"I'd just say to her: 'Come on down, sis, and see the mightiest wreck you ever saw in your life!'"

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By Wm. E. McKenney, America's Card Authority.

OVERBID OF HAND MISLEADS PARTNER

I recently watched Waldemar von Zedtwitz and Charles Van Vleck play a few hands, using the Van Vleck system, with which they combined the Blackwood convention. In the Van Vleck system, only aces and kings are counted as high cards. An opening bid of one requires three high cards, one of which is an ace, or four high cards (kings). On the hand shown, Van Vleck had shaded his bid of one spade. Von Zedtwitz' bid of one trump showed three high cards. When Van Vleck bid hearts, Von Zedtwitz knew he held five spades and five hearts, and four trump asked his partner to show ace.

Van Vleck felt that he had stretched his hand in opening the bidding with one spade, and now, wanting to put the brakes on the bidding, he bid five clubs, denying an ace. That was exactly what Von Zedtwitz wanted to hear—that South held four kings and no ace. You can see that with four kings and a five-card heart suit, Von Zedtwitz' hand is cold for seven hearts.

If Van Vleck had bid five diamonds showing an ace, Von Zedtwitz would have stopped at six hearts, realizing that he could be off one of the kings—as he was.

Moral—When using a convention, be honest with your partner!

IN THE WOMEN'S SPHERE

AYER'S CLIFF MISSION GROUP HELD MEETING

Plans for Annual Thanksgiving Session Drawn Up at Meeting of Women's Missionary Society.

Ayer's Cliff, Oct. 19.—A very interesting meeting of the Women's Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. R. G. McHarg on October 8, when an average attendance was present.

Mrs. Crook, President, conducted the short business session when plans were made for the annual Thanksgiving meeting, which will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Baldwin, when it is hoped to be able to have a guest speaker.

A complete and fine report was given of the sectional meeting which was held at Stanstead South United Church.

Mrs. W. H. Rexford had charge of the programme for the afternoon. Her subject for the devotional period was "Home" and she read portions from the 5th Chapter of Matthew for the Scripture and suitable hymns were used.

A very excellent and instructive paper was read by Mrs. Rexford, which had been prepared by her daughter, Mrs. Harold M. Cass, of Beche, who, owing to illness, was unable to be present. This was regretted by all, but her paper was very much appreciated, as she told much of the country of Norway and many of its customs and in keeping with this Mrs. Rexford spoke of one of the noted Norwegian musicians, Edward Greig, and of composers of music and she played a piano solo, typically Norwegian, and this was followed up with a vocal solo, Solveg's Song by Greig, sung by Mrs. R. G. McHarg.

This programme made a delightful version from the usual Missionary programme and was very thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

THANKSGIVING AND HARVEST SERVICE

The Thanksgiving and Harvest Service held in Beulah United Church on Sunday morning was very well attended and most impressive. Special music was rendered by the choir under the able direction of Mrs. Willard Rexford, when the anthem, "Rejoice and Sing," was excellently rendered and an old familiar hymn was the second special number, "Harvest Time Is Here," and Mr. Alfred Keeler sang the "Beautiful Garden of Prayer."

The Pastor, Rev. Sanderson, delivered a forceful sermon on "Thanksgiving," taking his text from the 21st verse of the 1st Chapter of the Epistle of Paul to the Romans. "Neither were they thankful; but without cease and without ceasing, their foolish hearts were darkened." Around these words Rev. Sanderson built an impressive appeal for people to be "more thankful for their many blessings" and gave many reasons for the season of thanksgiving and for gratitude. He stressed the sin of ingratitude and in spite of the tragic time in which we are at present living, he pointed out many things that the people of this land have to thank God for, such things he named as the liberty we have in this our grand country and of the abundance we also have. He asked the congregation how many thanked the Divine Giver of all gifts for these things and emphasized the fact that the people should never cease to thank God for all the blessings He bestowed on His people.

FILMS ENJOYED
Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Clough invited a few of their neighbors and friends to spend the evening with their son, Mr. Roy B. Clough, Mrs. Clough, Mrs. Ruth and Master Lee Clough of Valois, who have been spending a holiday at their home.

The evening was most enjoyable. Mr. Roy Clough has been for some years assembling pictures and several reels were shown, starting off with family pictures taken from the every-day happenings, including fishing trips and preparations and returns from same. The second and third reels were equally fine showing Mr. and Mrs. Clough and their daughter starting on a motor trip to Gaspe, and the many excellent pictures of the entire trip. Lastly was shown "An Autumn Hunting Trip." Many of these had been taken not very far away and the colors and clearness of each picture were indeed to be commented upon and the assembling of same was really a work of art.

All voiced their appreciation to the Clough family for the opportunity of seeing these beautiful pictures, which they had thoroughly enjoyed.

Soft Fluffy Rug to Make Yourself

Of Tufts of Candlewick Yarn

You may be "all thumbs" but we insist you can make THIS rug—a fluffy tufted boudoir beauty that sets off your dressing table and you! The hardest thing you do is tie the knots!

Your materials, for a striped design, are three soft shades of candlewick yarn—perhaps white, rose and blue—and a muslin base! Pencil the stripes evenly along diagonal creases in the muslin and parallel to the creases, rule lines an inch apart over the whole surface. Make dots an inch apart on the lines.

Now, passing a needle threaded with candlewick through a dot (see our sketch), take an 8-inch stitch and lay a tuft of sixteen 2 1/2-inch lengths of yarn across it. Then tie the ends of stitch around tuft in a tight knot.

Soon the whole rug is tufted and you're ready to sew rug to backing! For complete directions see our 32-page booklet. Describes and diagrams exactly how to make the tufted rug; tells how to make hooked, woven, braided, crocheted rugs, in many beautiful designs.

Send 15c in coins for your copy of "How to Make Your Own Rugs" to Daily Record, Home Service, Sherbrooke, Que. Be sure to write plainly your name, address and the name of booklet.

"WHY SHOULD I BUY VICTORY BONDS?"

"WHY?... I'LL TELL YOU WHY!"

"BECAUSE Victory Bonds are a sound investment—the soundest investment you can buy today—backed by all the wealth and resources of Canada, and by this country's record of paying every obligation in full, both principal and interest! They yield a fair rate of interest, you can borrow against them; and they are readily available when you need the cash.

"Now, as never before, we must not falter or fail in our war effort. Think of our men who went to Dieppe. Would you have had them go lacking the most deadly armament that we can provide? Buying Victory Bonds supplies these men the weapons they need... aye, and cares for their wounds. You are asked to lend, not to give... and you'll be paid interest for your money!"

"Taxes? Of course we're paying taxes... heavy taxes, too. But man, what are they compared to what Canadians are giving over there?"

"We're lucky! We're only asked to lend money. You say you can't do any more? Take stock of yourself. Figure out the things you can give up, and put their cost into Victory Bonds. There isn't one of us who can't do more than he thinks he can!"

"And the money you lend... lend, mind you!... will give these valiant Canadians overseas the weapons of Victory with which they can save your dearest possessions from the ravaging, grasping brutes that threaten your family, your home, your garden, your job... all that you've got, even your life itself."

STANSTEAD DEFEATS LOCAL HIGH BY 9-1

Second Encounter In Home And Home Series Was Quite Close

Stanstead, Oct. 19. — Stanstead College and Sherbrooke High School completed their second game of a home and home series at Stanstead on Saturday afternoon. Both teams played a good game with Stanstead coming out on top by a score of 9-1. Sherbrooke High also lost their home game by a score of 19-5.

Rivalry between Stanstead College and the Sherbrooke High School basketball teams has been quite keen for many years and for the past few years many of Stanstead's teams have been unbeaten, but this year Sherbrooke High is striving for a come-back. This is clearly shown by the stiffer opposition which they are bringing out to other teams this season.

In the first quarter the game was rather ragged with both teams not feeling too sure of themselves. Stanstead tried a few passes which failed to click while the Sherbrooke line failed to open up large enough holes for their ball carriers.

Stanstead opened up early in the second quarter, however, when Bushnell snared a pass from Chadcock on the High School's twenty-yard line to major. Poapst booted a placement to give his team an additional point. Shortly after this Sherbrooke High gained possession of the ball and threatened the Stanstead team on several occasions, but their plays failed to click and it was not until late in the quarter that Campbell booted a rouge to give the school their only point of the game.

Successive line plunges by Chadcock kept the Stanstead team on the offensive for a greater portion of the third quarter and on two occasions they were on the Sherbrooke five-yard but were unable to advance further.

Early in the last quarter the border boys took the initiative again and Poapst accounted for three points by booting a placement. Play then saw-sawed back and forth until the end of the game with Stanstead pulling through with a 9-1 victory.

YOUTH LINE-UP ALREADY LEADS TORONTO SQUAD

Youngsters from both Eastern and Western Canada Already Loom Large in Plans of Toronto Maple Leafs.

By The Canadian Press
The youth movement is getting places already at the Toronto Maple Leaf camp. Working with the first squad are Defencemen Douglas (Red) Garrett, of Toronto, Doug Baldwin of Winnipeg and George Boothman of Calgary, last year with Sydney Millionaires of the Cape Breton League. Still another youngster, Don Webster of Toronto Marlboros, is being used at right wing on the third line.

Montreal Canadiens and Boston Bruins no sooner started to practice on Forum ice than they had to vacate. The Forum is tied up with a wrestling match and rehearsals for a Victory Loan show. Canadiens will drill at Verdun, Que., and Bruins will do their conditioning for the time being in Cornwall, Ont.

Canadiens with fingers crossed are Elmer Lach, Maurice Richard and Tony Demers. Last season, Lach injured his arm, Richard suffered a broken wrist and Demers was injured in an automobile accident. But they're all going along fine now in training spins.

One of the shining stars of the Ranger training camp has been Rob Kirkpatrick, dark-haired, 24-year-old centre from New York Rovers who established an Alberta Senior League scoring record a few years ago. Ralibirds say Kirkpatrick may earn a regular pivot berth with Rangers.

Another bright Ranger prospect is Gordon Davidson. The husky defenceman starred with Regina Rangers two seasons ago when they upset Sydney Millionaires to win the Allan Cup.

Last National League team to start training are the Chicago Black Hawks. Eighteen players were on skates yesterday for Hawks' first workout.

ROBINSON HELD FAVORITE FOR MAKING RECORD

Harlem Dandy Expected to Extend Record of Thirty-Seven Victories with Win Over Izzy Jannazzo Tonight.

Philadelphia, Oct. 19.—(AP)—Ray "Sugar" Robinson, the Harlem dandy who has cleaned up the lightweight and welterweight boxing ranks in much the same manner that Joe Louis has in the heavyweight division, pits his undefeated ring record against tough Izzy Jannazzo, in a ten-rounder tonight.

Promoter Herman Taylor expects a capacity crowd of 10,000 to jam the arena to watch the heavily favored Robinson try for his 37th triumph as a professional. As an amateur he won 101 bouts in a row.

Overnight odds were as high as 10 to 1 on Robinson, but many think that the skillful Jannazzo, who holds the Maryland version of the welterweight title, has a good chance of upsetting the dope.

Jannazzo has demonstrated he knows how to jab. He fought Johnny Walker in his last Philadelphia appearance and jabbed his way to victory. Walker, who packs a punch as vicious as Robinson, never got close enough to do any damage. Jannazzo just kept jabbing away at long range.

Edmonton Softballers Reflect Value Of Efficient Executive

By CHARLES EDWARDS, Canadian Press Staff Writer
Toronto, Oct. 19.—(AP)—Enthusiastic, well-considered executive work can do wonders in sport. The Edmonton Softball Association started in 1940 with exactly $6.72 in the coffers. Since then it has built and paid for Kingsway Park, valued at $2,500 not including the land. And this year Kingsway sent forth the Edmonton Walkrites who won the Western Canada girls' softball title.

The expert says:
Gnr. Ted (Toronto Telegram) Reeve gives a thought to Annis Stukus, backfield coach and star player of Toronto Oakwood Indians in the Ontario Rugby Football Union and a sport writer for a Toronto paper to boot: "The busiest man we have seen on a football field in many years... is Annis Stukus, coach-quarterback and cheer leader of the Indians. As he is also tackle-in-chief, does their forward passing and placement kicking and probably in his profession as sport scribe is their press agent, you can gather that large Stuke is full of hustle and bustle this autumn... Coach Stukus of the Indians has Quarterback

Incidentally:
Harry (Calgary Albertan) Scott recalls that Johnny Longden, the Taber, Alta., jockey, predicted two years ago that he would quit racing after another year or two in the saddle and buy himself a few horses. Longden is returning to Alberta for a vacation next month but Harry figures the famous jockey won't retire until after the Kentucky Derby next spring. Longden has had the mount on Count Fleet with that son of Reigh Count rated an early favorite for the Derby... Tracy Shaw, who moulded the great Oshawa General junior hockey teams of the past four years, is reported likely to be named coach of the Toronto city hockey team and Cy Wentworth, former Montreal Maroons star, is under consideration as coach of the Toronto Navy Club... Corporal Johnny Chad, former Chicago Black Hawks hockey star, is stationed at the R.C.A.F.'s No. 2 Wireless School at Calgary and is expected to play with the air force team there this winter.

Dick Irvin Favors Canadiens To End Up In Third Position

By HAROLD ATKINS
Canadian Press Staff Writer
Montreal, Oct. 19.—(AP)—Like baseball managers who figure on a strong line "down the middle" as a basis for their title chances, so Richard (Dick) Irvin has a system to judge his Canadiens. If his calculations are right, then he believes Montreal should wind up in third place in the National Hockey League standing this season.

The silver-thatched coach's system is based on the number of goals scored by his team and in a nutshell here's how he allots the 155 points:

By placing his squad in third slot, Irvin said Detroit should finish on top with Toronto in second place. "Detroit looks strong at this point," commented Irvin. "They haven't lost many of their players from last year."
"Toronto has lost a half dozen good men, but they still have considerable power and I think they'll be able to put out a strong club."
The Habitant mentor believes New York Rangers will also have to be reckoned with despite the loss of the Colville-Shibekey line and in speaking of Boston, Irvin said any club with a goalie like Frankie Brimsek "already has a jump on the rest of the teams" of Chicago, Irvin said: "I don't know just what their setup is yet. They've lost good men in (Defencemen) Joe Cooper John Mariucci and (Goalie) Sam Lo Presti."

Mariucci and Lo Presti are in the United States armed forces and Cooper is in the Canadian army. Although the makeup of his club is still uncertain, Irvin at this stage is counting on two right wingers to supply the bulk of his scoring power this season.

"I figure both Gordie Drillon and Joe Benoit will give me 25 goals apiece," said Irvin. "Then there's 'Doc' Blake who should get 20 and if Tony Demers is right I'll look for 17 from him."
Demers was injured in an automobile crash midway through last season's schedule and was on the shelf the rest of the campaign.

he thinks his club should get this winter:
"First line, 55; second line, 45; third line, 40; the rest, 15."

This is YOUR Fight FOR Life...

Don't think this war can't be lost ... it CAN.

Make no mistake about it ... the Axis wants you for a slave like the French, the Czechs and Greeks. The Huns and Japs will stop at nothing to gain their objective. They intend to win this war.

For many years they prepared ... they are ready to fight for many more.

France felt safe when war broke out. Remember the Maginot Line ... yet in seven short weeks all was lost.

Some say Canada is safe behind the oceans that wash her shores. Make no mistake about that, either—Singapore was counted impregnable—now the Japs have it. And nearer to our shores, the Japs have occupied the Aleutians. In the Atlantic, Canadian ships are being sunk and our sailors lost within sight of our own land. The war already is on our doorstep.

Remember: Canada— with her great natural resources— is a prize worth more to the Axis than all the conquered nations combined.

This war will not be won until every Canadian is working and giving till it hurts—till every Canadian rolls up his sleeves and fights ... with his good right arm—with his working energy—with his dollars. We need more planes, more ships, more tanks. We must have them quickly—more and more of them. That means money and more money. It means that every red-blooded Canadian will dip into his savings and future earnings and buy Victory Bonds.

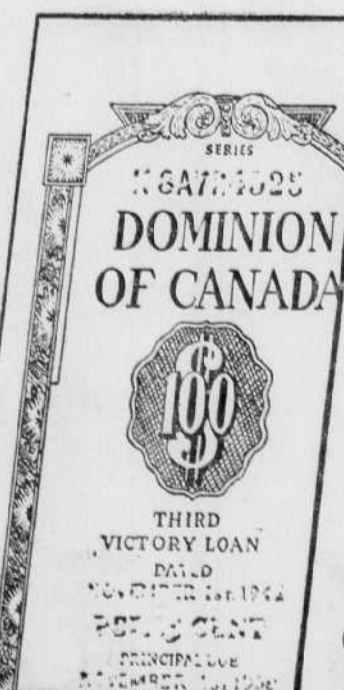

Don't say "I can't afford it". We've just got to afford it ... every one of us—by doing without. The price of victory will be high ... the price of defeat infinitely more—complete economic ruin for Canada—abject poverty for every one of us—slavery, stark and unadorned.

This is YOUR fight for life... fight for all you're worth by lending all you can.

When You Buy YOUR Victory Bond ...

- you are staking your claim to Victory and personal freedom
- you are investing in the safest security in Canada ... your investment is the country itself
- you are building a nest-egg for the future ... to buy the things you want when Victory comes
- you are making your money earn interest at a good rate
- you are justifying your existence as a worth-while Canadian
