PRICE—THREE CENTS

PAUL A. McFARLANE

Fireman Severely Injured While Fighting Blaze -

A fire which broke out in the basement of a dwelling at 4293 Dorchester street west on Tuesday evening resulted in the hospitalization of a fireman who received a badly slashed wrist while fighting the blaze, the death, presumably by asphyxiation, of a dog, and extensive damage to the dwelling concerned.

Shortly before 7.30 p.m., the Westmount Fire Department received a call, and immediately responded. Arriving at the scene of the fire, they found that the blaze had started underneath the stairway in the cellar from unknown causes, and had worked its way up into the kitchen and continued to the rear part of the upper storey.

Two streams were used before the flames were finally brought under control around 8 p.m., but the rear portions of the first and second storeys were badly damaged.

While fighting the flames, Fireman Leo Fitzgerald ran to a window to get relief from the dense smoke. His arm struck the frame ridged with shattered glass and the main arteries in his wrist were severed. He was helped from the building, given first aid on the spot and rushed to the Western Division of the General Hospital, where his condition was found to be serious from loss of blood.

The dog, reported to be a red setter, was found dead in one of the upstairs rooms.

Chief Cobb added that in responding to the fire, there was a minor collision between a hose wagon and a street car as the apparatus was rounding the corner from Kensington avenue onto St. Catherine street. Little damage, however was done.

Quarter-Century Club Receives Six Members

Six members of the staff of the City of Westmount have recently completed their 25th year of service with the municipality. In recognition of this fact, the Municipal Council has passed a resolution ordering that their names be entered in the roll of the City's Quarter Century Club.

These new members of the club are: Ernest Beausoleil, Light and Power Department; Matteo Carlo, Roads Department; Miss Ethel M. Reid, Finance Department; Auguste Beausoleil, Light and Power Department and Capt. Charles A. Carmichael, Fire Department. Their addition to the Quarter Century Club brings the number of its members to 60.

BREAKFAST DISHES RATTLED BY QUAKE

An earth tremor distinctly felt and with a rumble like the roar of a passing heavy truck shook tables and rattled dishes of West End Montrealers at breakfast a few moments after 8 a.m. on Friday.

Several telephone calls were received asking if the earthquake shocks would be prolonged and if it would be safe for children to go to school. It was noted that no adults telephoned to ask if it would be safe to go to work. They just went—as usual!

"Star Night" Held Wednesday Great Success

More than 1,000 people of all ages gathered at the fourth annual "Star Night" of the Montreal Centre of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada, held in Westmount Park on Wednesday evening, to peer through the 24 big telescopes set up there at various celestial bodies and to learn something of the mysteries of the universe which have fascinated the minds of men since the dawn of history.

Originally scheduled for Tuesday night, the "Star Night" was postponed due to overcast skies, since clear skies are necessary for successful astral observation.

The many telescopes, varying in size and power, were first trained on the moon and the planet Venus, the two brightest bodies in the sky. When it became a little darker, Mars, Saturn, the Bee Hive Cluster, Mizar, Polaris and other celestial objects were brought into focus.

The telescopes were particularly fascinating to the younger members of the gathering. Biggest attraction was the 12.5 inch Cassegrainian telescope, the only one of its kind in Montreal, owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Saul Herscovitch.

The event was officially opened by Alderman W. S. Green, who represented Mayor Percy Adams. Dean H. F. Hall, of Sir George Williams College, explained the various features of the moon. Slides of Celestial objects were shown on a screen, with E. Russell Paterson acting as commentator.

F. L. Hellyer Elected President Of Young Liberals

F. L. Hellyer, an honour student in philosophy at McGill University, was elected president of the Westmount Young Liberals' Association by acclamation at a meeting held on Monday evening in the Reform Club. Also vice-president of the Comité de Pratique Oratoire de l'Association de la Jeunesse Libérale de Montreal, Mr. Hellyer succeeds Mr. W. A. MacDonald, founder of the Westmount Young Liberals' Association, who will leave to study law at Osgoode Hall, Toronto.

Other officers elected to the executive included: Robert R. Sproule, 1st vice-president; N. Halford, 2nd vice-president; J. Pepper, secretary; N. Eaves, treasurer and D. R. Thompson, corresponding secretary.

Three Children Perish In Local Fire On Monday

Three little boys perished in a brief but terrible fire which occurred in Westmount this week — mute and tragic evidence of the frightful consequences possible when fire gets out of control. The fire in which they lost their lives occurred shortly after 4 p.m. on Monday afternoon in the rear of the three-storey apartment building at 4636 St. Catherine Street west.

The dead children are: five-year-old Richard Charles Williams, nephew of Fire Chief Cobb; four-year-old Harold White, of 104 Blenheim Place, and three-year-old Jean Douglas Hamilton, of 33 Bethune avenue.

Chief Cobb states that the Fire Department responded to a call received at 4.03 p.m., and on arrival at the scene of the fire, found dense black smoke emerging from the rear of the three-storey dwelling; an inside spiral stairway was burning furiously.

The treads at the bottom of the stair were burned away, and entrance had to be forced into the stair well from the veranda of the second and third storeys.

Fireman Kenneth A. Ryan was playing a hose on the second floor of the stairway through the door he had smashed in when he found the first of the bodies. Chief Cobb found the other two bodies at the top of the stairway on the third storey.

A verdict of accidental death was rendered on Tuesday at an inquest into the deaths of the children. They were held to have met their death by asphyxiation after they ran up the stairway to escape the flames and smoke.

Claude Root Attends Annual BBB Conference

Delegates from Better Business Bureaux throughout the U. S. and Canada convened on Monday at Galveston, Texas, for their 34th annual five-day conference. The conference theme is "Building Confidence in Business".

Last year's Conference was held at the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec, with the Better Business Bureau of Montreal as host Bureau. At Galveston, the Canadian Bureaux of District No. 8 (Canada) are represented by their Governor, Claude Root, of 481 Victoria Avenue, General Manager of the Montreal B.B.B. The Conference Agenda will consume four whole days, a Golf Tournament to follow, with the Montreal Bureau's "Canada Cup" as main prize. President Victor Nyborg of New York deems this conference one of the most important in B.B.B. annals, as the movement has shouldered a vital task in acting as an instrument of honest business in upholding its reputation against subversive undercurrents which would impair confidence in the validity of a decent economic society.

The proposed three-point plan of Bureaux generally will be:

To revitalize the principle of self-regulation of business by the adoption and application of ethical codes and standards of practice;

To strengthen the fight against misrepresentation and deception; and

To educate employees and public about business, and warn them against loss of their purchasing dollars through fraud.

Annual Meeting Of P.Q.S.P.B. In Westmount

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police drew praise for its role in the protection of bird sanctuaries, at the annual meeting of the Province of Quebec Society for the Protection of Birds, held in the Mechanics' Institute, Atwater avenue, on Monday evening.

"We are deeply indebted to the R.C.M.P. and all those who assisted in the protection of our bird sanctuaries. Many infringements of the law were reported and dealt with during the year. This shows how necessary it is for a society such as ours to strain all our efforts toward the enforcement of such powers as the law provides, so that our sanctuaries may be kept safe for the birds that frequent them," it was stated in president G. Harper Hall's annual report, read to the members by Mrs. L. M. Terrill.

A satisfactory year was reported, and it was recalled that in 1947 seven lecture meetings were held and five field trips undertaken. Paid membership in the society rose to 477.

Miss R. S. Abbott, chairman of the education committee of the society, stated in her report that more than 1,500 school children had attended two meetings held in Montreal and West Hill high schools and had become junior members.

G. Harper Hall was re-elected president of the society. Other officers elected included: Mrs. L. M. Terrill and W. H. Rawlings, vice-presidents; A. R. Lepingwell, treasurer and Miss R. S. Abbott, secretary.

Members of the executive committee are: Miss R. S. Abbott, J. P. Anglin, W. R. B. Bertram, J. A. Decarie, Dr. M. J. Dunbar, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Elliot, J. D. Fry, G. H. Hall, W. S. Hart, Mrs. C. L. Henderson, Mrs. G. Hibbard, H. A. C. Jackson, A. R. Lepingwell, G. H. Montgomery, Miss L. Murphy, G. G. Ommanney, W. H. Rawlings, Miss M. Seath and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Terrill.

Rev. Charles C. Cochrane Preaches At Huntingdon

An event of interest to Westmounters took place at St. Andrew's Church, Huntingdon, on Friday evening, when Rev. Charles C. Cochrane, M.A., recently inducted minister of Melville Church, Westmount, conducted the devotional service at the induction of Rev. Randolph D. MacLean into pastoral charge of the Huntingdon church.

Mr. Maclean, a native of North Sydney, N. S., is a graduate in Theology of the Presbyterian College, Montreal.

Scouts & Cubs

BY REG GROOME

Twenty-seven Cubs were present at Monday night's meeting of Trinity Memorial Pack. Sixer Roy Smith of the Gold Six led the opening Jungle Ceremony and Grand Howl for the first time. John Anrum, Second of the Brown Six, was presented with his Homecraft Badge. Bagheera Armstrong was present at this meeting, though not yet officially. Neckerchiefs were the special feature of Inspection. Instruction saw Akela again on signalling, Raksha on First Star work, and Baloo reviewed First Star work with the Sixers. A relay was run and then the Sheetbend Relay was played again. A decided improvement was evident but the Sixers still need practice apparently. Another instalment of the Jungle Story and pack formed the council circle for the Lord's Prayer, Cub silence and the Grand Howl.

Eleven boys have already indicated they would attend Camp, five being old Campers. The deadline is this Saturday, Cubs, so make sure to send your applications to Akela immediately. The annual Spring Party is being held this Saturday, May 15th, at 2.30 p.m., full uniform. If the weather is fine, it will be an outdoor event, otherwise a full afternoon of games indoors, — whichever way, of course, there will be supper, and then the movies at the Pack expense which are usually held at the Church on Saturday night. So be sure to tell your Dad and Mother that you won't be home until after the movies. Sixers are scheduled to report to Baloo on Saturday morning. Six Competition was won by the Sand Six again. Bob Manktelow, Sixer, received the Good Hunter pennant. Only five more meetings now, Cubs.

The Boy Scouts Association in England has received a letter from a Wiltshire landowner, calling attention to the assistance given by Scouts in fighting a forest fire on his property between Freshwood and Westwood, Wiltshire.

He writes: "Scouts from Trowbridge and Bristol who were camping at Iford Manor at the time did a first-class job without fuss or bother, cutting through dense thorn and undergrowth, and arresting the fire before it had reached a neighbour's house. A strong wind was carrying the flames rapidly, and but for the good work of these Scouts, under their Scoutmasters, much damage might have been done."

The best testimonial came from the Captain of the Fire Brigade, who said, "You have to thank the Scouts, not us."

The Troops concerned were the 1st and 3rd Trowbridge and the 19th Bristol.

The award is announced of the Gilt Cross to Senior Scout Derek Vincent, aged 17, of the 26th Shrewsbury Group, England, for a plucky attempt to rescue a girl who was being carried down the middle of the River Severn by an exceptionally strong current.

Brian, who is an apprentice printer, received the award from the hands of the Chief Scout, Lord Rowallan, at a Rally of all Shropshire Scouts held in Shrewsbury.

The incident occurred on January 18th last. Not a strong swimmer, Brian struggled through the flooded towpath in an attempt to overtake the girl and throw a lifeline. Unfortunately she was swept away by the fast current and drowned.

HE'LL FIND OUT

Algy was, or had been, Aunt Matilda's favorite nephew. His name was still on her list for the New Year gift distribution.

"What did you give him last year?" asked her companion.

"A cheque," said Auntie, "and, poor boy, he told me he couldn't find words with which to thank me."

"And what are you giving him this year?"

"A dictionary."

Champion Typist Visits Graham's Business College

Graham's Business College was honoured last Friday by a visit by Miss Erma Wright, present holder of the World's Amateur Typing Championship, which she won in California.

In a demonstration of typing to more than 65 pupils, she pointed out the principal facts to be observed in good typing — posture, rhythm, etc., and typed up to 143 words per minute without difficulty.

After the demonstration was over, a few pupils were selected to type for Miss Wright and were judged excellent.

Miss Wright's visit and demonstration to the students was highly appreciated by those privileged to be present.

Gideons Complete Giving Grade V New Testaments

Members of the Montreal Gideons, all local business men, have just completed presenting to every child in Grade V in Montreal's Protestant Schools, and in a number of Towns and Village Schools, a copy of their splendidly bound, maroon coloured New Testaments with Psalms and Proverbs. Over 4,000 copies have been so distributed this school term in addition to a like number distributed during the 1946-6 school term. Grades V at Willingdon School and at Queen's School, Westmount, were among the latest recipients.

This School distribution is carried out by Gideons from all parts of the City and some of these local members include W. McG. Gardner, and Frank Kettle, of Westmount; E. L. Loveless, H. R. Hart, C. C. Simpson, Jack Parkes, Frank Hosking, Russell McKenzie and Gilbert Scott, of Notre Dame de Grace; J. A. Dunlop, F. P. Duguid, and Chas. Coombs, of Mount Royal and Outremont; and G. K. Eastwood and Ed. Raymer, of Verdun.

All these busy business men give freely of their time to have a share in this ministry of giving a free copy of the Word of God to many children in this great Metropolitan area, while 150,000 of these Testaments are required annually to cover Grade V across Canada.

Send Bibles Everywhere

The Gideons main service throughout all of North America is, of course, the placing of their famous Gideon Bibles in Hotels, Hospitals, Prisons, Schools, Railway Trains, Ocean Steamships and Passenger Planes. The travelling public will find the Gideon Bible in practically every Hotel in the United States and Canada today, and many foreign countries are also being supplied with these Bibles. Canadian Gideons have undertaken to provide Bibles to Palestine and to date over 1600 copies have been placed in Jerusalem and other cities in the Holy Land.

Six months ago the Gideon International Cabinet appointed the Dominion Gideon President to be International Extension Director to give personal direction to getting as large a volume as possible of the Word of God into the war-torn countries of Europe and other lands, where there is a real famine of the precious word.

Only recently 1100 Gideon Bibles were placed in the new Laurentien Hotel where an overflow crowd attended to witness the largest single dedication of Gideon Bibles yet made in Canada.

The Bible and Testament distribution work of the Gideons is supported entirely by voluntary contributions.

Three Children

identified substance were found at the scene of the fire, and while they might have been the possible cause of the fire, there is no evidence to prove that they were, declared Chief Cobb.

Mrs. William was in the house at the time of the fire, unaware that the children were in danger. A child playing on the street gave the alarm. Mrs. Williams ran to the rear of the building but could not find her son.

According to the parents and other children in the vicinity, the three victims had gone into the stairway unnoticed. When the blaze was discovered, other children gathered around to watch. No screams or other indication was given that anyone was inside, otherwise, the dead children might have been rescued.

Chief Cobb stated that this was the most tragic fire in his experience.

HER HANDICAP

Little Betty, returning from school one afternoon, said: "Johnny Wilson's examinations papers were so good the teacher keeps them on her desk to show visitors."

Asked about her own, she had to confess that they weren't so good.

"I know, mother," said Betty, "but Johnny Wilson comes from a very bright family."

Winter Exercises Of Boys' Brigade Drawing to Close

The 1st Company are steadily preparing for their display and closing exercises, which will be taking place very shortly. The band have been getting a good brush up by Dave Milner, the instructor, and look forward to performing. Drummers have been making good progress with buglers not far behind.

Camp Stedfast will open officially this year on the 10th of July, running through to the 24th, and will again be under the direction of Capt. J. H. Richardson, who will have Capt. A. G. Anderson associated with him as well as the Rev. C. A. Selby, B.A., of Flint, Michigan, as camp chaplain. Mr. Selby, a former Dominion President of The Boys' Brigade, was a well beloved figure at camp for a number of sessions and his return will be most welcome. Edwin Goring one of the 1st Company's stalwarts will be on the staff. Councillors are being carefully trained by the Commanding officer and will number 8 this session. Due to restricted accommodation the Camp membership is limited to 45 and reservations are practically all booked up to the moment.

A survey shows that boys get to know more words than do girls by the age of six. But the girls know better how to use the few they do know.

On Friday evening the Principal and some members of the staff visited Riverside School in Point St. Charles to see a concert consisting of three plays, some choral, speaking and songs by the school choir. The pupils put on an outstanding performance.

A number of pupils in the upper grades visited the Redpath Museum on Saturday and were taken on a conducted tour of the building. They were also shown some films on bird and animal life. The visit was sponsored by the S.P.C.A.

Hobby of Stamp Collecting Described to Rotarians

Philately, or stamp collecting, is a hobby which enjoys an enormous following by enthusiasts all over the world, declared Donald W. Partridge, addressing the members of the Rotary Club of Westmount this week. It is a hobby, he added, which knows no national boundaries and enjoys the support of many governments and postal organizations, which find it a profitable business. In fact, he said, the demand for stamps by philatelists all over the world is so important, economically, that stamp dealers in Britain were declared essential at the beginning of the last war as a measure to aid the British Pound Sterling.

Because stamps are an easily transported commodity in an active world-wide trade, they are one of the best known means of converting currency, stated Mr. Partridge, citing the case of a refugee who came from Europe to New York with a lot of valuable stamps who had little trouble in exchanging them for valuable currency with which he set himself up in business in this country. Some rare stamps, he declared, sell for many thousands of dollars each.

Because of their ease of conversion, the business of counterfeiting stamps has developed into a fine art, he said, adding that various complex tests and equipment had to be devised to uncover counterfeit stamps, some of which are almost impossible to detect.

Stamp collecting is not just a hobby for children or old folks, he said, citing many famous individuals who have taken great pleasure from their hobby. Among them he named the late King George V, President Roosevelt, Hirohito, King Carol of Roumania and others who have acquired collections of great value.

The hobby of philately is one which can be followed by almost anyone, declared Mr. Partridge. One needs only a few dollars worth of equipment and he is set to go. Anyone may enter in stamp collection competitions with a fair chance of winning, even when up against valuable collections, be-

R.M.R. To Hold Church Parade Sunday Afternoon

Annual Church Parade of the Royal Montreal Regiment (MG) Battalion will be held on Sunday, May 16. The Battalion will parade at 1400 hrs. in battle dress, khaki berets, anklets, belts and black boots (bugle band in scarlet uniforms) and will be turned over to the Adjutant at 1435 hrs.

The Battalion will parade east on St. Catherine St., to Metcalfe avenue and north to Cote St. Antoine Rd. where the column will separate and proceed to St. Matthias Church and the Church of the Ascension.

The parade will be led by Lt-Col. R. Schwob, M.C., commanding the regiment.

Services at St. Matthias Church will be conducted by Hon. Major G. F. Leigh assisted by Hon. Sq. Ldr. Rev. Canon G. Oliver, M.C., and Hon. Major J. W. Forth M.B.E. Services at the Church of the Ascension will be conducted by Rev. Wilfred McDonagh and Rev. F. McMahon, C.F.

Following the service the salute will be taken at the corner of Park Place and St. Catherine Street. On the Battalion's return to the Armory, the Drums and Bugle band, under the command of Major H. R. Hale, will give an exhibition of drums and bugling for the benefit of the whole Battalion and guests.

cause the competitions are weighed not only on the basis of value of the stamps involved, but also on the basis of philatelic knowledge, completeness of the collection, method of mounting, eye appeal, etc.

Because of its world wide following, stamp collecting leads to new friends at home and abroad. It teaches many little known facts of geography, history, art and science. Mr. Partridge suggested that anyone starting a stamp collection specializes on the stamps of one, certainly not more than two countries. The stamps of Canada, he added, are ideal for the purpose. Canadian stamps in the past have increased at a rate of about 6 per cent per annum.

A Children's Theatre production directed by Dorothy Davis and Violet Walters. Denise Leroux as Snow-White and the Seven Dwarfs appearing at Victoria Hall Saturday afternoon, with a repeat performance on Saturday, May 22nd.

Marler Speaks Monday Night To Joint Groups

There will be an open meeting of the N.D.G. Young Liberals' Association and the Westmount Young Liberals' Association at Victoria Hall on Monday, at 8.30 p.m.

Main speakers will be the Member of the Legislative Assembly for Westmount-St. George George C. Marler, and the Member of Parliament for Kenora-Rainy River, William Benidickson.

Mr. Marler was first elected to the Provincial House in a bye-election held in 1942. He was re-elected in the Provincial Election of 1944 by an overwhelming majority in which all other candidates lost their deposits.

He is widely considered as the Honourable Adelard Godbout's choice for the position of the Provincial Treasurer, should the Liberal Party under his leadership be returned in the forthcoming provincial election.

Mr. Marler will start the opening guns in the coming campaign, discussing the issues involved in the widely heralded provincial campaign.

Mr. Benidickson is one of the leading young members of parliament in the present House of Commons, and will discuss the attempted "mixed marriage" of Drew and Duplessis, with particular reference to the June election being held in his own province, Ontario.

This is the first open meeting to be held by the Westmount and N.D.G. Young Liberals' groups, and is the first of a series, designed to bring young Liberal thought and activities before the electors of the two constituencies.

FREEDOM TO CRITICIZE—COMMUNIST STYLE

Even the top despots of the Kremlin realize that if the average Russian is to remain properly docile, he must be allowed to blow off a little steam about the appalling Soviet graft and corruption. This is apparent from material published in Russia and collected by Harry Schwartz, a member of the Board of Russian Studies at Syracuse University, who reports on some of his findings in an article in the New York Times of April 25.

The Kremlin "line" is to allow newspaper criticism of minor bureaucrats in such a way as to strengthen the position of those on top. Mr. Schwartz comments: "In theory . . . all Soviet officials and institutions are open to criticism. The close reader of the Soviet press soon realizes, however, that certain persons and institutions are immune. Stalin, his collaborators in the Politburo, the Soviet economic and political structure — they are never mentioned except in terms of praise. Actually, skillful manipulation by Moscow propagandists enables them to use the fault-finding mechanisms to enhance the aura of infallibility they seek to maintain about the top level. When things go wrong, the blame is shifted to external factors or to lower echelons of authority. When success is achieved, credit goes to Stalin's genius and the wisdom of party leadership."

This policy allows the natural resentment of the Soviet citizen against poor housing, corrupt and inefficient government and civil service, shortage of food and supplies and so on to be directed harmlessly against the lower bureaucracy. Every now and again a few members of this class may be sacrificed to propitiate the crowd. But the criticism is never allowed to get out of hand. Mr. Schwartz says that "the Soviet Government and its subsidiary organs maintain thousands of inspectors and investigators to ferret out the delinquent and negligent among the high and low of Soviet society and to examine complaints." Complaints which indicate a basic dissatisfaction with the system are, of course, summarily dealt with.

But though this criticism may be only a carefully manipulated safety valve to top

Soviet officials, they cannot prevent the published comments escaping the country, and presenting to Democratic eyes a sad and shameful picture of desperately low living standards, corrupt bureaucracy, inefficient machinery and shoddy goods.

MEN MUST BE FREE TO CHOOSE

In his book, Mainspring, Henry G. Weaver emphasizes the point that the environment in which Americans work is the chief factor in their creativeness, writes William Feather. Inventive and scientific talent of a high order doesn't function unless men are free to choose and pursue their objectives.

It is characteristic of this country that important inventions came from the minds of men who at the time they were doing their best and earliest work were unknown even to their neighbours. If known at all, they were regarded with mild suspicion. We think of Whitney, Goodyear, Edison, Burbank, Mergenthaler, Howe, Morse, and the Wright brothers.

The creative mind, Weaver insists, discovers itself. Educational activities are useful in distributing knowledge but creative thinking leading to new discoveries and inventions depends on individual initiative.

Another important factor in the rapid progress of America is the prospect of personal gain. Financial reward may not be a dominating motive in all men, but it is important in most.

Our system of enterprise encourages the individual and his family to make needful sacrifices in the expectation that they will be well paid in the end.

In Mainspring this theme is developed in detail with enthusiasm. It is published by Talbot Books, Detroit.

MORE TRADE — MORE JOBS

"More Trade — More Jobs" is the slogan selected for World Trade Week in Canada, to be observed from May 30 to June 5, this year. It is sponsored by a number of national and international trade organizations, whose members are trying to stimulate a greater interest in the development of Canada's foreign commerce. The fact that it is to be held during the period of the Canadian International Trade Fair should add to the impact and success of World Trade Week.

In a world where all nations are interdependent, it is important that there be sufficient exports to satisfy the needs of our neighbours, and imports to fill our own needs. This exchange of goods encourages mutually friendly relations, and an appreciation of the problems of other countries. The purpose of World Trade Week in Canada is to direct public attention to the potential contribution of world trade to employment and general well-being at home, and to learn from one another what must be done to develop and strengthen participation in that trade.

The performance of "Snow White and The Seven Dwarfs" which takes place at Victoria Hall on Saturday afternoon, a Children's Theatre production directed by Dorothy Davis and Violet Walters, is creating great excitement amongst the young folk of this city.

The story of Snow-white and the Seven Dwarfs is known and beloved by every child and grown-up too, and according to the directors of the Children's Theatre, this will be one of the most elaborate and colorful stage productions. The lovely Snow-white will be played by Denise Leroux who has already distinguished herself with this talented group of juveniles. The Queen will be portrayed by Lola Kipnis, another popular stage and radio player of the Children's Theatre.

Sir Dandiprat Pompus will be in the capable hands of Walter Wakefield, the only guest artist in the cast, Bernie McMurray will play the role of the Chief Huntsman, and Dick Easton has his first opportunity for a leading role, and will be seen as Prince Florimond.

Corinee Copnick, another talented young thespian, will be seen as Witch Hex, and the Seven Dwarfs, Doc, Grumpy, Sneezy, Happy, Dopey, Sleepy and Bashful will be played by David Luck, Howard Jay Katz, Leonard Cytynbaum, David Lockhead, Lionel Packer, Albert Brull and Norman Bordo, and Eleanor Lightstone plays the peddler woman, and Frances Moscovitch the Magic Mirror.

Phyllis Gibson plays Rosalys, and there are all the lovely ladies of the court, the flower girls, the pages, and three magic cats. There is everything in Snow-white to delight the hearts of all young people. The delightful Snow-white music and songs are introduced, and the lovely voice of Ann McCubbin will be heard in many of these numbers.

BOOK REVIEW By H. S. Ross

"Devil by the Tail" by Langston Moffett, Longmans, Green & Co., Toronto, Pages 431, Price $3.75.

This novel is the striking portrait of likeable, immature Gordon Sullivan, who tried to escape the stark gray ugliness of sobriety through the dreams and refuges provided by alcohol. It is the story of his musings, adventures, futilities and Gargantuan drinking bouts in Mexico, Europe, America and Canada on his long flight from the devil which he had by the tail.

Unable to break away from his mother's apron-strings, unwilling to cope with the responsibilities of his own wife and children, and hopelessly confused by the persistent, dim urge to be a writer, Gordon Sullivan found his solace in the up-turned bottle. Despite tragic undertones, he is an appealing figure as he swings back and forth on the pendulum between alcoholic fog and headache reality, as he rises on flights of gradeloquent fancy, as he indulges in phony reasoning, and as he surveys with occasional clarity and rueful humor the depths to which he has fallen.

His long struggle to regain control of his life and to escape from mental and physical chaos through medical treatment, religion and psychiatry, is recounted in fascinating detail, by turn Rabelaisian, grand in gesture, expansive in manner, terrifying, humorous and fantastic. The dramatic fight with his own personal devil reaches its climax at the moment when Gordon becomes master of his soul and of his destiny.

Devil by the Tail is not the story of a short alcoholic interlude in a man's life—rather it is a compelling, expertly drawn picture of the effect of alcohol upon a whole lifetime, from early manhood to years of maturity. Mr. Moffett has painted that picture in long, sure strokes, his own artistic restraint adding to the dramatic quality of flamboyant, unforgettable Gordon Sullivan.

This is a powerful story and compels a reader to feel Gordon's nightmarish sense of helplessness and of a terror and of conscious irresponsibility. All through the first two parts one feels uncomfortable but never feels like putting the book aside because the element of suspense is so skillfully managed.

The author is a former newspaperman who now devotes his time to writing and painting. After years of globe-trotting, he has settled down in America's oldest city, St. Augustine, Florida, with his wife, his two sons, his typewriter and his paints.

This is his first book. He began his professional writing career immediately following Dartmouth College days, when he began to collaborate with his father, a well-known playwright and author, in the writing of short articles for the magazines. After this came various newspaper jobs, including an assignment on the staff of the Paris Herald. He then became publicity man for an archeological expedition to the Libyan Desert, the purpose being to locate Cleopatra's emerald mines. Upon his return (without emeralds) the Moffetts lived for a while in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, "the last of the musical comedy kingdoms", later shifting their headquarters to Quebec City. The author became interested in painting in 1939 and was surprised when his first picture was bought for the Whitney Museum permanent collection. He had his first one-man show in New York in 1947.

On his fortieth birthday he began to write this book, remembering a conversation he had during an Atlantic crossing with Ford Madox Ford who said to him that no man knew enough to write a novel until he reached forty years of age. Devil by the Tail required more than two years to write.

SUBJECT:
"What Mean Ye by This Service?"

Whitsunday this year falls on the True Day of Pentecost 7th Sivan.

It is also the day following the giving up of the Mandate for Palestine by Great Britain, May 15, 1948. The Zionists intend to proclaim Palestine a Jewish State on this day. Such a State will never function permanently for it is in opposition to the Divine Plan.

The First Whitsunday in the Christian Era was of supreme importance—Will the Law of Terminals operate again and May 16th become a milestone on the path of History?

Similar Services will be held in all the principal cities across Canada from Halifax to Vancouver. Many will be conducted and addressed by Rev. E. J. Springett, by Electrical Transcription.

Christian Zeal More Than Ever Necessary Now

"Vigilance and zeal imbued with the spirit of the first Christians is the need of the hour," declared Msgr. Joseph A. McDonagh of Toronto, president of the Catholic Extension Society of Canada, in an address at the annual Communion breakfast of the Holy Name Society of the Church of the Ascension of our Lord, Westmount, held in the Ritz-Carlton Hotel on Sunday. Today's Christian must assume the role of missionary and apostle in the face of ruthless, Godless movements which threaten our world, he stated, stressing the value of missionary work at home, particularly among the new Canadians of the Eastern Catholic Rite.

The addition of the doxology at the end of The Lord's Prayer, "For Thine is the Kingdom, The Power and the Glory", which is the form adopted by Protestants in reciting this prayer, is still currently used by millions of Catholics of the Eastern Rite as an ancient part of Catholic tradition, the speaker explained.

In this connection, an interesting ceremony recently took place in Edmonton, he said, where, in the presence of the Cardinal, and some 28 Canadian Bishops, the "Our Father" was publicly recited according to this old Eastern Catholic tradition.

The speaker was introduced by Rev. Wilfred E. McDonagh, pastor of Ascension Parish, and thanked by Mr. Justice F. T. Collins. W. E. Dawson presided.

Dr. A. E. Cliffe At St. James Utd.

Last Sunday evening in St. James United Church, Dr. A. E. Cliffe, director of "Lessons in Living" class, addressed a capacity congregation of some two thousand people when he spoke on "The Joy of Living". Intense enthusiasm was aroused by his stirring message. His appeal to the people to "get on the beam" and to let Jesus Christ have complete mastery of their lives, had a ready response.

At the morning service, in connection with "Mothers' Day", Dr. Douglas J. Wilson gave a very appropriate message on the theme "Containers with cracked crevices." He dealt with four points in our modern life in which there is great danger of the treasures of God seeping away through cracked crevices — education, democracy, the home and the Church.

The choir of St. James, under the leadership of Mr. Warner Norman, rendered appropriate music at both morning and evening services.

On Sunday morning Rev. B. B. Brown will preach on the theme, "Seeing the Unseen". Dr. A. E. Cliffe will give an address at the evening service on, "Do you want happiness?" and will also preach on May 30th at the evening service on the subject, "You can change your life."

Christian Science

"Mortals and Immortals" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Church of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday.

The Golden Text is from I Corinthians 15: 49. "As we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible:—"For we knew that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea though we have known

St. Andrew's Recital Well Received

In the first recital to be given by the choir of St. Andrew's Church, Westmount, since Phillips Motley became its director a few months ago, a pleasing programme of music by choir, organ and solo violin was presented to an appreciative audience on Tuesday evening.

Despite the short time since the change of directors, the choir singing was performed with a clarity and technical competence which bespoke fine training. Included among the choral works were "If Ye Love Me" by Tallis and Elgar's "Torrents in Summer." It concluded with a selection of Russian Church pieces, among which was Tchaikovsky's "Hear, Lord."

Arthur Davison, solo violinist, gave an excellent performance of several works including Healy Willan's second sonata. In duets with the organ, played by Mr.

Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more. Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold all things are become new."

(2 Corinthians 5: 1,16, 17)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science & Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. "We cannot build safely on false foundations. Truth makes a new creature, in which old things pass away and "all things become new." Mortals can never know the infinite, until they throw off the old man and reach the spiritual image and likeness. By putting "off the old man with his deeds," mortals "put on immortality."

"Draught! Fountain! Rivers". These three words which reveal the sequences of a satisfying Christian experience that meets average human needs will be the Morning Sermon in Westmount Baptist Church. Dr. J. A. Johnston, who recently returned from a Preaching Mission in London, Ontario, will occupy the pulpit. The members of the Sunday School, which meets at 9.45 a.m., join in the Morning Service, but those belonging to the Nursery, Kindergarten and Initial Grades adjourn to their own departments for a special programme of instruction during the balance of the Worship Service.

The School is splendidly staffed and these same thoroughly qualified teachers care for the children during the major part of the church service.

A team from Toronto Bible College, under the leadership of Rev. C. A. Armstrong, M.A., will conduct the evening service, with Dr. Johnston carrying through the Worship period. Mr. Armstrong, will be the speaker and he will be assisted by a Ladies Double trio and by Mrs. Marion Crowley Newby, contralto soloist.

A great Fireside Service, in which all the members of the said Teams from Toronto Bible College will participate, will be held following the evening service. This inspiring gathering will be under the direction of Rev. D. A. Burns, B.A., B.Th., one of the ranking members of the Faculty of Toronto Bible College.

Dominion-Douglas

Whitsunday will be observed in Dominion-Douglas when, at the morning service, Dr. Smith will preach on the subject "Pentecost Today".

Music at the morning service will include an extended work by a contemporary American composer, Randall Thompson. The work is quite unusual in that it is sung entirely to the one word of "Alleluia", which word is also the title. It is interesting to note that this short work was composed by Serge Koussevitsky, the conductor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, for presentation at the Berkshire Festival, held each year at Tanglewood, Mass.

At 3 p.m. the Church School will hold its closing session for the season when prizes will be presented to outstanding Church School scholars.

On Tuesday the Women's Association will meet at 10 a.m., with luncheon at 1 p.m.

There will be the usual meetings of Scouts, Cubs, Guides and Brownies.

"The Clan"

Dear Polly Persian:

For the last two months, the largest gathering of "THE CLANS" has been taking place, and we noticed that you have not made your contribution to this noble assembly. The MacMuskrats, McBeavers, McMinks, the Kolinskys, and to be sure, a few O'Lambs, O'Seals and O'Squirrels are all here, side by side to spend the warm summer days in the nice cool rooms provided for us by L. P. Lazare's, 1454 Peel St. We are a well cared family and need have no worry as to condition of our health, when our owners call to claim us in the Fall, no heat, to shrivel up our pelts. What a reception there will be for the venturesome moth who ever tries to enter the portals of this well run establishment. The guaranteed treatment promised for these pests, is DEATH. If your mistress is contemplating a remodelling job done on your pelt, be sure and have this job arranged for when she makes your reservation for the summer, in order that LAZARE'S expert craftsmen will have time during the summer to work on your new style. We feel so sorry for our confreres who are still being exposed to the dust of the street. If your mistress is one of the guilty ones, she should realize that her fur coat is worth more than any other garment in her wardrobe. We hope that this week your mistress will 'phone MA. 1255, and L. P. Lazare's bonded driver will pick you up, so that you can join the rest of "THE CLAN".

Until then,
SALLY SKUNK

Chairs, Antique and Modern

You may remember that after having last visited the MORGAN TRUST GALLERY, on City Council St. I told you about a picture that I thought in my humble judgment was a find, and true enough one of my readers bought the picture, A Coburn, and learned later that the valuation of this portrait is many times greater than the original price. Today, I am discussing CHAIRS; and I don't know when having seen so many from which to choose, and who knows but what some of these antiques may be a rare find also. First, let's start with four genuine Hitchcock chairs, with cane seats, $75.00 for the four, but please note that these are early American. There is a Sheridan Arm Chair of light colored Mahogany with a cane seat having a separate honey colored velvet cushion, for $65.00. You ladies who have finished your needlepoint seat covers should not overlook the number of odd chairs that the gallery has just received, these being in perfect condition. There is a chair that I found hard not to buy myself as I know it is worth twice the price, a sort of small Cogswell chair reconditioned to be better now than new, and covered with a soft green material, for $38.00. There were several well padded bedroom chairs, covered with rose or blue chintz, for $28.00. Also interesting in the chair line were a small pair, Jacobian in design, for $22.50 each or $40.00 per pair. As you know all articles at The Gallery are in perfect condition. The three piece chesterfield suites of part down for $325.00 having been recovered in blue, green, or maroon.

Trained Attendants Receive Their Graduating Tokens

Nine graduates of the Trained Attendants' Association of Canada Inc., school received their pins and cap bands at the sixteenth graduation ceremony, held on Monday, May 10th, in the Alan Shatford Hall.

Miss Sarah Huckle was in the chair and Mrs. Helen Turnbull, R.N. gave her report on the work of the school and the examinations.

Dr. W. L. Orr in welcoming the graduating class into the association gave a few well chosen remarks by stressing many important points that if applied in daily work, would make for the betterment of all concerned, patient, family, and trained attendants, alike.

The velvet bands were presented to the graduates by Miss Huckle, and the pins by Mrs. Turnbull.

Mrs. E. Harris gave a musical programme, accompanied by Mrs. Colin Forrest. Miss K. Williams thanked the artists and the speakers.

The new Trained Attendants are: Mrs. Elizabeth D. Bell, Montreal, Mrs. Beatrice Caulfield, Westmount, Mrs. Helen S. Colt, Montreal, Miss Una Fennell, Huntingdon, Miss Norma Gillis, Montreal, Mrs. Margaret McD. Harrowing, Verdun, Miss Aline Hepworth, Montreal, Miss Eleanor E. Roe, Town of Mount Royal, and Miss Rita Weissler, Westmount.

Diplomas were also presented to the following Trained Attendants who have successfully completed 180 days of satisfactory nursing under supervision:- Miss Nellie Aquin, Miss Helen Doncaster, Miss Hazel Grant, Mrs. Marion W. Hallifax, and Miss Eileen Paxton.

Spring Musicale

The Women's Auxiliary of the Homoeopathic Hospital, are holding their annual spring musicale, on Wednesday, May 19th, at 3 p.m., in the A. R. Griffith Memorial Hall, at the hospital.

All members and their friends are invited to attend.

Speaking Of Books

When the New York Times Book Review contributes a whole page to a book, the author has indeed cause for elation. But when a Canadian Book society, like the Reprint Society of Canada is paid a similar honour, then it is NEWS. In the May 2nd edition of The Times, J. Donald Adams paid tribute to the Reprint Society for showing such a nice sense of timeliness in choosing "MY EARLY LIFE", by Mr. Churchill. This book as you know is the premium received for joining the Society. Quoting Mr. Adams: "Few autobiographies are as engaging or as lively as "MY EARLY LIFE". You will not find there any of that reverberating roll of Churchillian rhetoric, so profoundly stirring at times, at others, a trifle burdensome. "MY EARLY LIFE" crackles with zestful recollections of good times as a soldier and war correspondent, back in the years when Britain's little wars were a lark for the men who fought them. The youngster pictured there is indubitably "the father of the man". The Greene Ave. Book Store is one of the few stores in Montreal that has the agency for The Reprint Society of Canada, and by visiting here you will see the complete set of books for this year, and I know you have noted the superior type of book that has been chosen, and also the uniformity of edition, you will want to start your own library. This book store also has a very fine lending library, carrying all the latest books, for .04 a day. You can also buy many of the well known classics, some of which I have noted are hard to procure, for $2.50. Miss Frances Liben told me that she can procure practically any book desired. This interesting shop is located at 1354 GREENE AVE., FI. 0796.

A Camping Story

I am sure if some of the little girls or boys could see the sleeping tents at the FIN, FUR & FEATHER SHOP, 1463 Union Ave., they would be after DAD to buy one for the back lawn, so that when the warm days come they can camp out. These nylon tents about 4 x 7 in size are waterproof and reversible, with white on one side and a cool olive green on the other. The tent has a sewn up floor so that Mother need have no fear of spiders getting in while sleeping. A great advantage of this tent is that it can be erected by one person in five minutes, and will roll up to about 18" x 12", and weighs only 9 lbs. Also, when Jimmy isn't using the tent just imagine how DAD would like it for his fishing or hunting trips, all complete with poles and pegs, for $15.00 . . . As for the bed to go with the tent, what could be more perfect than a "LI-LO" Air mattress direct from England. You have a choice of Blue, Orange, or Khaki, and when inflated it measures 78" x 28", costing $9.50. This is also a necessary item for the ardent fisherman or hunter. The next time you are passing Fin, Fur & Feather Shop, drop in and ask to have these two pieces set up for you, and like myself you too will be amazed at the speed which this tent can be erected. There are some very lovely oil and water color paintings depicting a fisherman in the act of catching a big haul, with beautiful scenery in the background. All I can say about rods, reels and hooks is, that if any special kind is being made, then HERE is where you can find them. BE. 1805.

Herbs

A good cook knows what herbs and spices can do to a plain recipe, that is they transform an ordinary dish into a rare treat for a gourmet. Have you ever visited a continental restaurant and wondered how they had treated the beef, or lamb, to give such a succulent flavour? This is the secret, and I am going to pass on to you where you may find the condiments. The C.S.L. Gift Shop, 1480 Sherbrooke St. W. just east of Guy, is the only shop in the West end carrying these freshly picked herbs. You will find eight basic herbs on a little hand-made wooden shelf, these can be hung up on your kitchen wall, an excellent idea for a shower gift. Then there is the vinegar trio; a set of three specially blended imported wine vinegars, smartly boxed. One each, of Tarragon, Garlic, and Herb Bouquet. These are all very inexpensive and are such an improvement for simple dishes like spaghetti, scrambled eggs, soups, salads, etc. Herbs are a seasoning, and should be used in such small quantities that they are hardly recognizable. Start with merely a touch, and you will find them to be a miracle worker with foods. It does seem a bit strange to be giving a recipe when chatting about "The Shop", but I hope you will find this Herb-Cheese Omelet when made with fresh herbs as delicious as I did. 4 eggs, 1/2 tsp. salt, 1/4 cup Milk, 1/2 cup grated Cheddar Cheese, 1/4 tsp. dried MARJORAM, 1/4 tsp. dried SAVORY, 1 tblsp. butter. Beat eggs with fork until yolks and whites are just blended. Add all remaining ingredients except butter. Heat butter in skillet. Pour egg mixture into skillet, and cook over low heat until film of cooked egg forms on bottom of pan. Then with fork gently draw edges to center all around omelet, letting uncooked portion flow to bottom. Then loosen omelet with spatula. Makes 4 servings.

Speirs-Miller Show Of Shows On Thursday

We are all glad when we read of the Speir-Williams Dance Revue because it means that Spring is really here. Betty Speirs states that this recital will top everything done heretofore — which we have to believe after seeing this rehearsal. Peter Miller was in charge and when that man goes to town the results are "Nothing But The Best Is Good Enough". The Tiny tots class will charm you in "Mickey Mouse's Birthday Party" in which the kiddies really steal the heart. This is where their unrehearsed laughs really go over. The usual routines, as I saw them, were tap, ballet and ballroom work, but they were all refreshing in their own line. When Peter Miller and Therese Daly did their speciality "Your Eyes Have Told Me So", then I knew the reason the children have that superb stage presence — these two not only "Teach" they "Do".

In the big numbers I noticed that Harold Morris at the grand piano was really 'In There'. Two Junior Ballets and a Boys' Number "Regent Street" looked very good to me. In the artistic ballet "Les Sylphides" Therese Daly leads the way.

To top off Peter Miller leads out six gents in full dress the same as he led out Johnny Coy many years ago. The usual Speirs-Miller faithful audience will be there filling the hall — but my advice is if you can make it be there — you may be able to say ten years from now — "I saw her (or him) at the Betty Speirs-Peter Miller Show."

Hearty Laugh Finest Tonic

There's precious little wisdom in Canada's hilarious, fun-packed hit, Roy Ward Dickson's "Fun Parade", to be sponsored by the Rotary Club of Montreal at the Forum on May 29 on behalf of the Club's Community Services. Little wisdom except perhaps the wisdom that a good, hearty laugh is the finest tonic in the world. Gets the old digestive juices working, the old blood pressure down, the old circulation working, and the cobwebs out of one's mind.

However, when it comes to age, the daffy "Fun Parade" can lay some impressive claims, though you'd never guess it by listening to it. It is over eight years since "Fun Parade" hit the airwaves and when Roy Ward Dickson and his gang hit the Forum on May 29 on behalf of Rotary, they'll have over 300 "Fun Parade" broadcasts behind them.

Figure it out! According to radio surveys, about 1,600,000 people listen to "Fun Parade" every week. Figure conservatively, 25 laughs per show; 300 shows . . . let's see, that's 700 times . . . no 7,500 times 1,600,000 . . . carry three . . . um . . . 12,000,000,000!

Twelve billion laughs! And this same show rolls on, year after year, packin' 'em in. Prizes abundant for all . . . we've seen the list . . . a wonderful array . . . over $2,000 worth.

Where?
At the Forum in Montreal on May 29, to aid the Crippled Children, Boys' Work and Social Services of the Rotary Club of Montreal. See you at the Forum?

togs to date, comprising ten suits especially created for her by Irene, famous designer.

Sir Cedric Hardwicke, as Ralph Nickleby, pays no attention as Jill Balcon pleads with him on behalf of her father in this dramatic scene from the film version of Charles Dickens' famous tale "Nicholas Nickleby," which will enter its second week at the Avenue on Saturday. This is the first Montreal showing of the highly praised film.

Dickens' Story to Remain Second Week at Avenue

The very much talked-about and highly praised screen adaptation of Charles Dickens' great novel "Nicholas Nickleby" will remain at the Avenue Theatre for a second week starting Saturday. This outstanding film, which appeals to all age groups, is being shown for the first time in Montreal. Dickens was famous for his stories about the everyday happenings of his time and the characters he wrote about were usually people he knew. "Nicholas Nickleby" is about a young man who is given employment in a boarding school for young boys in one part of the picture and Dickens tended to show the absolutely ridiculous way the place was run. This type of filthy school actually did exist and in the tale, the author tells his readers about its disgraceful condition. In fact, so realistic is his description of the utterly heartless headmaster, that three Yorkshire schoolmasters all claimed to be the original of Mr. Squeers. Of these, one consulted his lawyer with a view to bringing a libel action; the second meditated a journey to London for the purpose of committing an assault and battery; and the third remembered being waited on by two gentlemen, one of whom held him in conversation, while the other took his likeness. In passing, it may be noted that Dickens maintained in his defence that Mr. Squeers was a representative of his class and not an individual. The only characters drawn straight from life are the brothers Cheeryble, philanthropists of Manchester; Mrs. Nickleby, who is based on Dickens' own mother; and Kate, who is Mary Hogarth, the youngest sister of his wife, who died in his arms. He evidently had a great affection for the girl, and wore her ring for the rest of his life.

The characters from the book are excellently portrayed by a superb cast including Sir Cedric Hardwicke as Ralph Nickleby, the wicked uncle; Derek Bond as young Nicholas Nickleby; Sally Ann Howes as his sister Kate; Bernard Miles as Newman Noggs, the sympathetic clerk in Ralph's office; Alfred Drayton as the cruel headmaster of the boys' school and many other notable players.

Rounding out what is considered a wonderful program are specially selected featurettes and latest newsreel of world events.

British Film at Snowdon Sat. "Hungry Hill" First Run

Another excellent British film will have its First Montreal Showing on Saturday when "Hungry Hill" opens at the Snowdon Theatre. In this film, Two Cities, producers of many outstanding successes including "Henry V", "The Way To The Stars" and "Beware of Pity" have made a picture of swift-moving dramatic action with spectacular backgrounds. Adapted from the novel of the same name by Daphne du Maurier, famous for "Rebecca", "Jamaica Inn", "The Years Between" and many other books, it has an impressive cast headed by Margaret Lockwood, Dennis Price, Cecil Parker and introduces another handsome newcomer, Dermot Walsh.

The board sweep of this story covers forty years during the region of Victoria and takes place in Ireland. It tells the feud between two families, the Brodricks and the Donovans, over the sinking of a copper mine in Hungry Hill by John Brodrick known as "Copper John".

The Donovans think the land should belong to them, though dispossessed over 200 years before, and Morty Donovan curses John Brodrick and his sons, and their sons after them, for violating the good earth under them.

Margaret Lockwood portrays her part admirably as she grows from a lovely young girl to an old woman. Dennis Price has a sympathetic and Cecil Parker gives robotic tap routine by Audrey Gordon.

The last part of the programme, under the direction of Jeanne Rodier, was well arranged and executed. Dancers featured in this section were: Maureen Donohue, Dorothy Hill, Elsa Heyden, Norman Browne, Derek Shaw, Dorothy Cohen, Marilyn Steinberg, Desmond McDermott, Beverly Mellen, Shirley Cook, Joyce Kogan, Nancy Gerrie, Carol Thomas, Susanne Beck, Carole Hercy, Barbara Ashen, Joyce Lamb, Claire Gill, Sybil Schechter, Hazel Caplan, Mary Saunders, Ann Holland, Nancy Saunders. Tribute must also be given to the hard working pianists, Mrs. Saunders and Mrs. Murray and to Leon Kofman who directed the small orchestra.

The lovely costumes were a riot of colour and showed ingenuity of design. Great credit is due to the three teachers of the school but especially to Miss Jeanne Rodier for her choreography and direction of the performance.

Another Recital with dancing, singing and elocution will be given on Saturday afternoon at the Montreal West High School Auditorium.

a powerful performance as Copper John. Dermot Walsh, a new star, will thrill you as the grandson Wild Johnnie. Jean Simmons, fresh from her triumph as the young Estella in "Great Expectations" plays the role of the young daughter.

Selection short subjects round out a very entertaining program.

Mart Kenney's Band At Belmont

When Mart Kenney and his orchestra come to Belmont Park on Saturday night and Sunday afternoon, to play at the opening of that popular place of amusement, Montrealers will have an opportunity of seeing in person one of the most successful and widely known band leaders on the North American continent.

Mr. Kenney's band, known over the air as Mart Kenney and his Western Gentlemen, has been playing his big hotel engagements and broadcasting over national networks since 1934. This orchestra enjoys the unique record of having seen either the Atlantic or the Pacific or both oceans each year from 1937 to 1947, and they will uphold the record this year by touring the Maritimes in June.

During the war, they travelled over 75,000 miles, giving two hundred shows at which they entertained over 400,000 troops.

Mart Kenney presents as vocalists with his orchestra the contralto Norma Locke, who has won a high reputation in radio, and Roy Roberts, a powerful baritone.

The Canadian quartette known as "The Bordonaires" who can be heard each week on Bordon Cavalcade, will also be featured at Belmont Park.

On Sunday evening, the Management of Belmont Park will introduce Ellis McLintock's orchestra which will remain at Belmont Park throughout the season.

"Call Northside 777" & "Sleep My Love" at the Monkland Saturday

Packing a terrific wallop with the head-on impact that only a story free of make-believe and based on tough unrelentless truth can achieve, "Call Northside 777" emerges as a unique and unforgettable motion picture experience. This fine film starts Saturday at the Monkland Theatre.

The unique quality of "Call Northside 777" is drawn from events that are not fictional. It is a true-life story—and the hard-hitting, realistic, on-the-spot technique which Director Henry Hathaway uses in its telling (the technique employed with such sensational effect in "Boomerang" and "House on 92nd Street") makes the picture a vivid, living experience.

"Call Northside 777" is based on a case which you may have read about. In November 1933 a guy named Joe—Joe Majczek—was found guilty by a Chicago jury of the murder of policeman William D. Lundy, and was sentenced to serve 99 years in the Illinois State Penitentiary. On August 17, 1945, the prison gates swung open for Joe and the state gave him $24,000 for 13 years of wrongful imprisonment. "Call Northside 777" unfolds the story of the battle that won for Joe, known in the film as Frank Wiecek, his freedom. It is a story of a mother's unshakeable faith in her son's innocence. (The film's title is the phone number she inserted in a newspaper ad offering $5,000—saved penny by penny from her earnings as a scrubwoman—for information leading to the real murderer.) But most of all, it is the story of a stubborn newspaper reporter and his fight against overwhelming odds to track down and uncover new and indisputable evidence on the youth's innocence—or guilt.

From out of the real life facts, the film makers have drawn stranger than fiction situations, high suspense and dramatic dynamite that give "Call Northside 777" a vivid quality and excitement all its own.

2 BIG HITS AT THE MONKLAND THEATRE

Coming into the homestretch of his grim battle to free an innocent man, James Stewart makes a hurried phone call as Lee J. Cobb looks on in the above scene from the dramatic film "Call Northside 777." For your added delight, "Sleep, My Love," starring Claudette Colbert, Robert Cummings and Don Ameche, with Hazel Brooks, opens its 4-day engagement starting Saturday at the Monkland Theatre.

Esther Back in Aquatic Role

a role that permits full play of his heroic tenor voice as well as his comedy talents—a part similar to those which endeared him to moviegoers in "Thrill of a Romance" and "Two Sisters from Boston." Jimmy Durante caps a thirty-year career in show business with another of his portrayals as a frenetic piano player, in the grand manner of his recent performances in "Music for Millions" and "Two Sisters from Boston."

The picture has spectacular backgrounds, with much of the footage filmed against the natural setting of one of nature's most magnificent scenic spots—beautiful Mackinac Island in Northern Michigan.

Second Attraction

Greer Garson offers a brilliant acting portrayal as a desperate woman who is forced to choose between two men in one of the most arresting dramatic triangles brought to the screen in some time. The suspense-packed action takes place in M-G-M's powerful new drama, "Desire Me."

Cast in a problem that has found its counterpart in many a post-war newspaper headline, Miss Garson enacts the French girl Marise who, believing her soldier husband, Paul, to be dead, succumbs to the attractions of Jean, the man who returns to Marise's Brittany fishing village to tell her that Paul was shot when he attempted to escape and also tells her that so vivid were Paul's descriptions of Marise that he had fallen in love with her himself.

At first distraught and confused, Marise finally feels that Jean needs her and promises to start a new life with him in Paris. On the eve of their departure, however, Paul turns up very much alive. Hating the man who has almost taken his wife from him, Paul encounters his rival in a dense fog. A desperate gun and knife battle between the two takes place and one of the men meets his death over a cliff. We will not give away which man survives, but audiences can be assured of some spine-tingling moments of suspense before the drama reaches its powerful climax.

Miss Garson's portrayal of the girl torn between two conflicting desires brings out every facet of her acting technique and emotional appeal. The role of Marise is one to stand up with anything she has ever done before. A shrewd choice of leading men was provided for the star in the persons of Robert Mitchum, as her husband, and Richard Hart, as the man who attempts to undermine her marriage.

A health expert suggests that people who suffer from the heat take a pinch of salt. Advice which the perspiring cynic will take with a pinch of salt.

Ascension Meet St. A's Tonight

Locals Out For Second Victory

By GEORGE COCHRANE

Ascension's natively unformed band of fastballers will be gunning for their second triumph in as many Snowdon Senior Fastball League starts this evening when they face St. Augustine's at N.D.G. Park. The game has been called to get underway at 6.45.

The local larrigans, managed by Kevin Kennedy, made their debut in the select Snowdon circuit an occasion to remember last Sunday evening when they fashioned a neat 3-1 win over the strong Steinberg's nine. Big gun in the win was hurler Gerard Lecavalier. The slim right-hander held the grocer team to five well-scattered hits while fanning twelve and walking only one. Lecavalier, who has been pitching in the indoor league all winter, looked really good.

ONE AT A TIME

The Westmounters got their runs one at a time. They broke the scoreless deadlock in the bottom half of the fourth when Toots Provost got as far as second when Jerry Maguire dropped his pop-up to centre field, took third on a passed ball, and home when catcher Dick Barber heaved the pellet into left field.

A pair of singles by Lecavalier and Toots in the fifth, coupled with an error by Jimmy Peters, gave the winners their second tally. Steinberg's got theirs in the sixth but the Ascensionites put the game in the satchel when they pushed another tally across the plate in the seventh.

The game was called after seven and a half innings of play due to darkness.

COVENY STARRY

Frank Coveny, the locals' slim shortstop, turned in a praiseworthy game. He fielded flawlessly and banged out a very timely single in the seventh.

Kennedy's squad will have their hands full tonight. The Saints have a powerful squad, they beat Bill Durman and Hampton 3-2 on Monday night, and will take plenty of handling.

On Sunday evening the Ascensionites play again at N.D.G. Park. A complete schedule of the fastbal circuit games for the coming week will be found elsewhere in this section.

Caledonian Games Slated on May 29

The C.N.R. Recreation grounds at Lachine will be a colorful spot on Saturday, May 29th. There will be lassies and lads in tartan, dancing to the skirl of the pipes, and pipers in full regalia pacing the grounds as they sound their strathspeys and reels.

The date marks the 89th annual Caledonian Games and the third since the revival of this traditional Highland Gathering following a hiatus of 4 years during the dark days of the war.

Sponsored by the Caledonian Society of Montreal, the Games have become a popular annual outing for those who enjoy the colorful routine of the Highland Gathering with its dancing and piping events as well as its "strong-man" feats of tossing the caber, throwing the hammer and putting the shot.

For the outlander who is more interested in the modern sports events, however, the Games have become equally popular because of the long list of track and field events which today constitute such a large part of the day's program and which, because of the handsome trophies and prizes offered and, of course, the prestige carried by the winning of the various events, have attracted year by year an increasing number of competitors from among the leading athletes in the district. As in the past, track events will have the support of the Montreal Track and Field Club and the W.A.A.F. of Canada and officials of these organizations will assist in the capacity of starters and timers.

Anglers' News

The Provincial Government has taken the first step in their efforts to restock Lake St. Louis with Muskie. With the assistance of the Directors of the Lake St. Louis Anglers, on May 2nd, a large pound net was put in the waters of Ile Perrot. This net is under constant surveillance and at the proper time the roe will be stripped from the Muskie in the trap and transferred to the Government Hatchery at Baldwin Mills. They will be raised until they are about 10 inches long, when the Muskie will be returned to Lake St. Louis.

The Bait and Fly Casting Championship for the Province of Quebec was held on May 9th at Lasalle Park in Lachine. Over 60 contestants registered. The Quebec Fly and Bait Casting Association brought honours to their club by winning 5 out of the 7 events.

Les. Jobber of Lake St. Louis Anglers, won the 5/8 oz. accuracy in 1947 and was successful in defending his title this year. The weather was cool with a steady wind which gave the contestants a little trouble in the Accuracy Event. The following were declared champions:

Bait Casting

- 5/8 oz. Accuracy, Senior Champion, Mr. L. B. Jobber, Lake St. Louis Anglers.
- 5/8 oz. Ladies Champion, Miss S. Hoiland, St. Francis Anglers and Hunting Association.
- 5/8 oz. Junior Champion, Mr. F. S. Oliver, Quebec Fly and Bait Casting Association.
- 5/8 oz. Distance Champion, Mr. Louis Simon, Quebec Fly and Bait Casting Association.

Raccoon Beats Concerted Try To Capture It

Two hours of excitement in chase of a raccoon treed near the corner of Clanranald and Bourett Avenues intrigued a crowd and kept several Police Officers, S.P.C.A., workers and the more venturesome among hundreds of people watching the attempted capture of the animal last Thursday evening.

It is unknown where the raccoon came from or where it went when it outwitted its would-be captors aided by the approach of darkness. The furry fellow was first spotted about 7 p.m. and it adroitly slipped from a noose in which it was temporarily caught by a S.P.-C.A. worker, and it scampered away on hitting the ground.

Many in the huge crowd tried in vain to catch the animal but it was able to make good its escape.

Trudy, aged four, was entertaining the visiting clergyman while her mother was upstairs dressing.

"Do you say your prayers every night?" asked the minister.

"Oh, no, Mummy says them for me," answered Trudy.

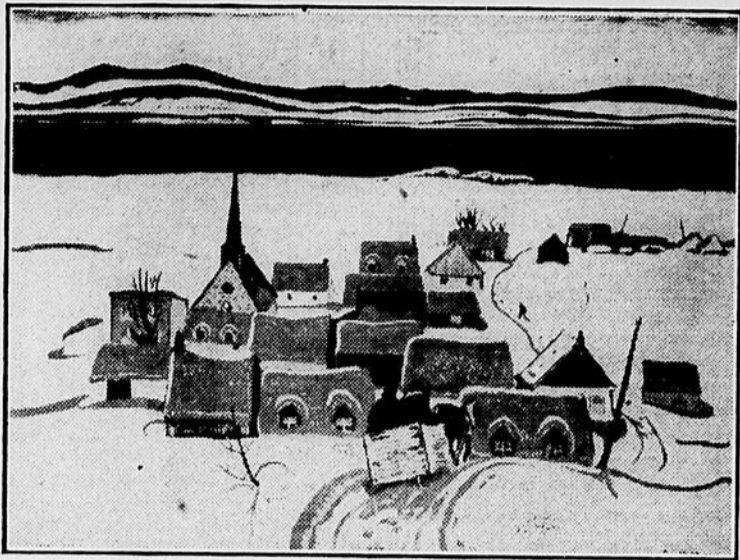

"Indeed, and what does she say?"

"Thank God you're in bed!"

Annuals Furnish Continuous Colour

By Isabel Zucker

There are so many places in the garden where a colorful plant would grow low and close to the ground. For instance, on any rise in the ground level, in the rock garden, on either side of steps or for the edging of a path or border bright, ground hugging plants are desirable.

Perennials will not often do this job and do it well because they do not furnish continuous bloom. Annuals will bloom all summer long. So, it's annuals that are wanted.

Three desirable low growing annuals are verbenas, annual phlox drummondii and ageratum, blue bedder. Verbenas come usually in mixed colors, white, all shades of pink and rose and salmon and red, into the deeper tones of lavender, blue and purple and almost black.

It is also possible to buy named varieties of verbenas and it is with these separate colors that the prettiest garden pictures may be planted. As an example, have you tried the salmon colored Suttons' giant pink with violacea stellata which is a deep violet with a white eye? A vivid combination, but an effective one!

Phlox drummondii are also available in mixture and in a wide range of separate colours. There are buff yellows in phloxes as well as shades of pink, rose, red and scarlet. A white with a dark purple eye is particularly lovely and a bit unusual, as is also a scarlet with a white eye (the eyes being the centers of the flowers). There are violet and violet blues in phlox as well as in verbenas and there is also an extra dwarf type of phlox, available in mixed colors only, that grows but eight inches high.

An entirely different looking annual phlox is called cuspidata or star phlox. The flowers of this type have pointed petals, are as quaint a flower as one can imagine and just as easy to grow as the more frequently seen drummondii type. These come in mixture only.

Almost everybody knows the soft lavender flowers of ageratum, but not everybody knows the latest developments in this flower. Instead of the older, leggy sorts, there are now varieties that are very compact in growth, the plants literally covered all over with flowers, so that few leaves are visible.

New also are a clear pink ageratum called lasseauxi and a vivid dark purple called purple perfection. There are white flowered forms of the common ageratums, but the white is not a clear color, and there are so many good whites among the low growing plants that sweet alyssum or white-flowered candytuft would make a far better garden picture than the white-flowered ageratum.

Why is it so many speedy drivers always follow the middle of the road policy?

An advance tip: the proper time to change seats in a canoe is before you get in.

STAMP CLUB

The Westmount Stamp Club held their regular weekly meeting at Victoria Hall on Thursday evening. There was a good attendance and a lot of business was carried out during the course of the evening. The open part of the meeting was devoted to trading and exchange among members. The Junior section held their session earlier in the evening and the enthusiasm of the younger set is most encouraging.

Next meeting of this popular club will be held in the Victoria Hall on Thursday evening, the 20th of May.

The Junior Section meets at 7.15 p.m. and the Senior at 8.15 p.m. A welcome is extended to all Philatelists to drop into the Club any Thursday evening.

HISTORICAL CORNER
BY CHARLES CLARK

UPPER WESTMOUNT HOCHELAGA HUNTING GROUNDS
When the Gentlemen of St. Sulpice built their Seminary where Westmount Park is now located, in order to remove their mission Indians from the dissolute influence of traders in the Big Town, the hills above were chiefly hunting grounds for the Hochelagans.
Comparatively recent excavations on the site of the St. George Snowshoe Club revealed, however, that these Indians were not the original inhabitants of the area. The series of stone-lined graves exposed were typical of the Indian tribes whose remains were more commonly found in the U.S. midwest. By the time the Frenchmen arrived, this race had been neatly disposed of — under stones, presumably.

PUTTERS' CLUB

The Putters' Social Club had a hilarious evening again on Monday night when the City Supervisors decided that the voices of the members should be recorded for posterity.
Besides Barber Shop Quartettes, Community singing, solos and instrumental items, a special little radio melodrama "Should The Homestead Be Sold. Or Will Justice Prevail", was recorded. Mrs. Drain, Mrs. Anderson, Mr. Harry Smith and Mr. Soden were the principal dramatists. While no Bing Crosby, Mr. W. Stott's whispering baritone excelled, with the Club's accompanist, Mrs. Bryant, punishing the ivories.
The City Recreation Supervisors, besides engineering and M. C.'ing the show, pulled quite a number of tricks out of the bag. Highlight was the Magician's act by 'Professor Whizzo' and 'Fiddilin' and Foolin' culminating in the 'Dance of the Harem'.
Next Monday evening will probably be the final indoor session of the season before going out of doors. Make this a bumper night and roll along to the Victoria Hall — Monday night at 8:00 p.m.
Maybe men like women with small feet because sooner or later they expect to get stepped on.
