THE ANGELS TOLD ME SO.

WORDS BY RESAIDNEY D'EER

THE ANGELS TOLD ME SO.

This song was written by thoughts suggested from the following narrative.

The Angels Told Him. A beautiful incident occurred in a family near this city a short time since. A son, some eight or nine years of age, lay very ill, and had been so for some days, when a little brother, between six and seven years old, came into the house and said to his mother: "Alle (the sick brother) is going away where we can't see him. He is going to heaven; two little angels came and told me he was going, but he would come back and see me after he went away." In a day or two "Alle's" Spirit took its departure. The little brother was informed of it and supposed he had departed bodily. Previous to the funeral the father took the child into the room to see the body and explain to him his mistake. When he entered the room he exclaimed: "Oh, there's Alle; the little angels told me he would come back and see me?"

Tho' they may lay be-neath the ground, The form of Al-le dear, I know his spi-rit hov-ers round And min-gles with us here: His home may be in heav'n a-bove— Yet oft to us be - low, He will re - turn to breathe his love, The An - gels told me so.
