PRICE—TWO CENTS

M.R.T. BY-LAW APPROVED BY CITY COUNCIL

Proprietor - Electors Make No Objection to Granting of Lease to Group

The Montreal Repertory Theatre has finally reached its long sought after goal and is free to proceed with construction of a theatre of its own on a site between Olivier and Greene avenues just north of Western avenue. There having been no objection raised by proprietor-electors to the City leasing land to the group for the nominal fee of $1 per annum, the by-law was passed at a regular meeting of the City Council Monday night.

When questioned this week officials of the theatre group refused to give out any details regarding the type or size of the building to be erected. This information will be given out in full next week, it is believed.

The size of the structure naturally depends on the available funds and it is considered probable that its design will permit of additions from time to time. Plans presently under consideration call for a building having a capacity of between 700-900 people. Facilities are also to be provided for drama classes.

There is a strong possibility that the group will lease or share use of the building to other non-profit making dramatic and concert organizations in order to help defray the cost of maintenance. The Wednesday Nine O'Clock's group is said to be keenly interested in such an arrangement.

The Montreal Repertory Theatre is now an established institution in Westmount and has produced many of its most successful plays in Victoria Hall. Over half of the group's three thousand members are residents of Westmount and its success has been largely made possible through the support of citizens here.

There is no doubt that erection of the building will give the amateur theatre movement in the Montreal area a great opportunity to forge ahead. At the present time the MRT is one of the most successful amateur drama groups on the continent and once it has a theatre of its own it will be able to progress even more vigorously.

VICTOR HARRIS NAMED HEAD OF AGENCY FORCE

Appointment of Grosvenor Avenue Resident Announced by Sun Life Official

Appointment of Victor B. Harris, of 507 Grosvenor avenue, as Superintendent of Agencies, Central United States Division of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada has been announced by W. S. Penny, director of the Company's world-wide Agency force. Mr. Harris, who for the past five years has been Assistant Superintendent in charge of Canadian agencies, succeeded C. H. Heyl, recently transferred at his own request to a managerial position in the field. Entering the Sun Life at Montreal early in 1920, Mr. Harris was appointed Chief Clerk, Profits Department, the following year. In 1923 he became Assistant in the Field Service Bureau where he was placed in close touch with Agency problems.

His abilities in this direction were quickly recognized and in May 1924 he received a well-earned promotion to the position of Secretary, Montreal City Agency Division. Just three months later he became Secretary of Agencies, Canadian Department.

In February 1927 Mr. Harris was appointed Inspector of Canadian Agencies, which position he retained until 1934. In that year the title of Assistant Superintendent, Canadian Agencies was conferred upon him. It is in this position which he relinquishes with the acceptance of his present promotion. In his announcement of the appointment, Mr. Penny expressed confidence that under the leadership of Mr. Harris, the Central United States Division would continue to set new records, and that its reputation of service to the insuring public would be increased and further strengthened.

Mr. C. H. Heyl will take over the management of Sun Life's branch office at Charleston, West Virginia, according to Mr. Penny. These appointments are in addition to those announced by Sun Life's Director of Agencies early in January.

GAME WARDENS SET TRAP FOR POACHERS

An organized racket that had become big business in Maine was smashed wide open when the Department of Inland Fisheries and Game sprang a carefully set trap... catching scores of poachers and seizing a large number of frozen deer which they were about to sell. The drive was the result of months of careful planning and all of the state's 100 wardens played a part. For many years poachers have slaughtered deer in sprawling forests of Maine and other states in all seasons. The heaviest kill has been during the fall and early winter, when the hunting season is on and the flesh of the animals will not decay.

Residents Helped Firemen Battle Flames

Appreciation of the manner in which local residents rallied to the aid of firemen fighting the blaze that almost totally destroyed the St. George Snowshoe Club last Thursday was expressed this week by Chief W. Gough of the Westmount Police and Fire Departments.

"They helped firefighters haul the heavy hose lines up the steep grade to the scene and brought coffee to the men," he told an Examiner reporter. The 60-year-old building, constructed almost entirely of wood dried-out by age, was an easy target for the flames and it was a difficult undertaking to bring them under control. A temperature of six below zero coupled with a 24 mile an hour wind further hampered the firemen in their work.

Bystanders aided in holding in place the eleven hose lines which poured water, from all angles, into the blazing structure and prevented the spread of the blaze to nearby houses. Many expressions of praise for the way the force, under Chief Gough and Sub-Chief Burrows, succeeded in keeping flames confined to the clubhouse have also been expressed by civic officials and witnesses to the fire.

Fireman William Youngson, a veteran member of the force, who suffered minor chest wounds in a fall from the roof of the building, is back on regular duty. At the time of the mishap he was anxious to remain at the fire but was sent by ambulance to the Hopscotch on orders of Chief Gough. He was allowed to return home following treatment and was back on duty the next day.

PRESTON ROBB GUEST SPEAKER

An interesting speech, concerning a boy's attitude towards sport was delivered by Mr. Preston Robb to the boys of the Westmount H.Y. Club on Wednesday evening, February 22. In the course of his speech, Mr. Robb stressed the fact that a game should be played cleanly at all times, and under all circumstances.

He mentioned an incident of pure sportsmanship which he had noticed several years ago while playing college football, when a Queen's University player stopped to pick up an injured opposing player. "It would be a fine thing," Mr. Robb said, "if every player could have such sportsman-like qualities." The speaker was thanked by Ian Fraser, the club's vice-president.

A. F. M'CURDIE WELCOMED BY BRIGADE UNIT

Well Known Cornetist is Special Band Instructor Of First Company

A. F. McCurdie, renowned cornetist and band instructor, was welcomed by the officers and boys of the First Westmount Boys Brigade Company last Friday night, when he made his first appearance as their special instructor. During the instruction period, much was gained from his rich experience in band work and it is felt that the company band will have excellent chances of bringing the Battalion shield to Westmount. Much more concentrated study of the trumpets will be given from now on.

The Brigade campaign funds will go over the top, early returns indicate. Thus far Jack Goodfellow, one of the newest recruits, is in the lead. Tonight there will be some keen rivalry as the other returns come in and it is hoped that by Feb. 28, full announcement will be made as to the prize winners.

The First Aid Class appointed Sgt. James Patterson as assistant instructor and his valuable assistance will greatly aid Lieut. Sutcliffe who has been managing an extremely large class for some time. Billy Lewis has been appointed Recorder and will have full charge of the equipment.

The Company's educational department has arranged some trips of interest to take place for the next few Saturdays, under the direction of Captain Howard Richardson who will be assisted by Sgts. Gordon Leach, James Patterson, Clifton Blair and Lance-Cpls. William Mulligan, Philip Lamb and Donald Taylor. Every boy will have the opportunity of enjoying to the fullest these features and will derive much from them educationally.

These past two weeks, classes in the various crafts have been depleted of a number of boys suffering from the present spell of colds, but this week it is expected that there will be a full turnout. Herbert Truax was welcomed as a new recruit, having made application for admittance to the Company.

The life boys of the first team are progressing very efficiently and appointed Robert Burrows as a team captain last Tuesday night. Their program is extremely active and is under the leadership of Robert Beal and Robert Morrow, with Captain Richardson as supervisor.

Progress Club Members Hear of Movie Making

"Hollywood—The Inside Story How Movies Are Made" was described by John Pitt at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Canadian Progress Club last Tuesday in the Windsor Hotel. Mr. Pitt has had a remarkable career in the movie field, his experiences in Hollywood with the major producing units, were unfolded in a most interesting manner.

In the introduction of Mr. John Pitt, the chairman referred to the speaker as the illustrious son of an illustrious father—Ernest Pitt, one of the charter members of the club and a prominent resident of the city of Montreal. Claude E. Hinnan presided. Head table guests included Gerald G. Maguire, J. Lovell Baker and B. W. Timberlake.

The most outstanding event of the luncheon meeting, was the

IMMIGRANTS FINE CITIZENS AND SHOULD BE WELCOMED HERE, SPEAKER DECLARES

John Murray Gibbon Addressed Regular Weekly Luncheon Meeting of Westmount Rotary Club—Spoke On "Nationalism and Internationalism"—Immigrants Make Good Patriots, He Said

"The recognition of the good qualities that are inherent in other races than our own should govern our own Canadian attitude to the settlers from Europe who are making new homes in Canada," John Murray Gibbon, of the publicity department of the C.P.R., and noted author, stated in an address before the Westmount Rotary Club at its regular weekly luncheon meeting in Victoria Hall on Wednesday. The speaker had as his subject "Nationalism and Internationalism."

"So far from vilifying them or belittling them because they were not born British or French, surely we should welcome them with the traditions and characteristics that are worth while, and from which we can learn something," he continued.

"It is a mistake to think that these newcomers constitute a danger to Canadian nationalism. Joseph Chamberlain, in a speech he made on the subject of immigration into Great Britain, made a very shrewd remark when he stated: 'Your naturalized alien is your most ardent patriot,'" Mr. Gibbon said.

The best kind of internationalist, the speaker believed, was one who is such a lover of his country that he considers patriotism a virtue and sympathizes with men and women of other lands who also love their own country. The mistake he must avoid was that of overdoing his sympathy, and of seeing so much good in other countries that he cannot see any good in his own. When he does this he comes into the little list mentioned in the patter song of Gilbert and Sullivan's "Mikado." "They'll none of them be missed," with the lines:

"Then the idiot who praises with enthusiastic tones. All countries but this, and every country but his own."

"I don't think he'll be missed! I'm sure he'll not be missed!" The speaker contended that it is the part of a good Canadian to be a lover of Canada; that it is wrong to belittle Canada and say that we must do this or that in the way that other countries do it because they know better than we do; that it is equally wrong to do it in the Canadian way because no other country has anything to teach us; and that it is unwise to advocate a provincial self-determination, ignoring the enormous progress that Canada has experienced under Confederation as a Dominion.

Referring to the extent of immigration into Canada, Mr. Gibbon quoted the following statistics from the census of 1931: Montreal's population (including Verdun) at that date was given as 879,322, of whom 213,430 were British and 546,340 as French, with 113,164 as coming from other European countries—that is to say more than one out of three of the white population exclusive of the French-Canadians.

In the same year, Toronto's population was 631,207, of whom 510,432 were British and only 10,869 were French. This might make you think that Toronto was essentially of British stock, until you remember that there are 104,400 whites of other European stock to be accounted for—representing one to every five of British stock.

Both the Roslyn Avenue Home and School Association and the King's-Westmount Home and School Association, went on record Monday night as being in disagreement of the action taken by the Montreal Board in attempting to gain legislation for the improvement of the report of the special group of the Protestant Education Committee named to study the recent Survey findings. The local school bodies were of the opinion that the Montreal board was acting in a hasty fashion.

Action by any individual school authority at this early date, it was contended, may have a harmful effect on the concerted action which is expected to take place when the report of the Protestant committee is announced. In the meanwhile, the associations held, it was better to let the matter stand.

The Roslyn avenue group drafted a protest to this effect and is forwarding it to Premier Duplessis and Protestant members of the Cabinet.

The Roslyn avenue meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. F. C. Charters, while Mrs. William Dawson, King's-Westmount president, was in the chair at an executive session of that group.

SNOWSHOE CLUB, RAZED BY FIRE, TO BE REBUILT

New Building Will Be Erected as Soon as Architect's Plans Approved

The St. George Snowshoe Club, almost totally destroyed by flames last week, will be rebuilt as soon as architect's plans for a new building are drawn up, it was announced at a meeting of the Board of Directors, Monday night, with the president, Hon. Gilbert Layton, presiding.

No immediate plans have been formulated as the directors are awaiting replies of a questionnaire sent to members asking their opinions as to what they would like to have embodied in the new building.

A special committee has been formed to make definite plans for temporary quarters in the near future.

Plans for an outdoor fair in the early summer, discussed last Saturday, have been definitely abandoned, President Layton announced, although a ball, with proceeds going to charity, may be undertaken.

The regular weekly luncheon meeting will be held tomorrow at the M.A.A.A. clubhouse, Peel St.

SPRING FLOWER SHOW

An event of interest to all local gardeners and home owners—and, indeed, to everyone who likes flowers—is the annual Spring flower show being held next week in the Auditorium of the Sun Life Building. The show, the only one of its kind held in Montreal, is sponsored by the Sun Life Horticultural Society and the Quebec Gardioli Society, and includes a botanical display by the Provincial government as well as numerous professional and private showings. The show is not only one of great variety, but is a superb display of beautiful blooms—a breath of Spring when the ground is still locked tight in snow and ice.

STRENGTHENING THE BONNE ENTENTE

The new series of thirteen weekly seminar sessions now being held at Sir George Williams College is designed to give English speaking young people a better understanding of their French neighbours. Although these people learn French in school, they learn nothing at all about French Canadians. Accordingly this course will present thirteen aspects of French Canadian life. Each seminar session touches upon a special aspect: Journalism, religion, philosophy, historians, writers and poets, political outlook, and so forth, will all be discussed, and each discussion is being led by an outstanding French Canadian authority.

Friday of this week the fourth session will be held. About sixty students attend, attracting much comment in the French papers. It is hoped that this is a step in the right direction for promoting better understanding between the two races. Insofar as is known, this is the first course of its type, and it is largely experimental. Sessions are held every Friday morning. After the introductory discourse by the guest speaker, a discussion period is held during which students may ask what questions they wish.

College authorities hope that by acquainting young English speaking students with the background and outlook of French Canada that the English students will be better able to understand their fellows of the French tongue.

It is to be hoped that this lead will be followed by other schools and colleges, both English and French, and that the day will thus be hastened when Canada will be referred to as "that country of two tongues but one heart."

THEY PREFER BRITISH

The Italian people are not sure that they want to be close friends with Germany, if that friendship means they will have to forfeit good will with the British.

In the Great War the Italians decided they would rather stick with Britain than with the Reich. Since Hitler veered towards a Rome-Berlin duet, there has been a lot of heart-searching by individual Italians. Although they follow Mussolini obediently, in their hearts there is the desire to keep on the good side of the British at all costs.

There has been a lot of ranting in Rome against Britain, but many of the people still believe that Italy should put her money on the British against Germany any day.

During his address the other day Chancellor Hitler drew a fine distinction between the Nazis and former political parties in Germany.

Where other groups had placed loyalty to party first, the Nazis have driven to power by placing Germany first.

There's something in that for all political leaders to think about. Every nation would make stronger advances if country were placed first and party second.

SHAAR HASHOMAYIM

Master Eugene Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Moses I. Gordon, will be called to the reading of the Torah this Saturday morning, at the Shaar Hashomayim Synagogue, in honor of his Bar-Mitzvah.

At the Saturday morning services of the Junior congregation, those called to the reading of the Torah were: Lazarus Cohen, Allan Bloomberg, Jack Cummings, David Solomon, Marvin Feldman, and Neil Phillips. Robert Rubin opened the Ark and Joan Levinson explained the Sedra.

The guest speaker at the services this Saturday morning will be Harry J. Halpern. Meta Levin will explain the Sedra.

"Purim in Persia" will be presented by a cast consisting of thirty-two pupils of the Shaar Hashomayim Religious School, at the annual Purim Banquet which is being held on Sunday evening, March 5th, in the Assembly Hall. The play is being directed by S. Lerner, with musical accompaniment by Mrs. M. N. Fineberg.

Monday afternoon the first session of a newly organized Rhythm Band for young children was held in the Board Room of the Synagogue. The Rhythm Band provides musical expression and experience for the youngsters, while at the same time, teaches them the basic elements of all music and familiarizing them with a good deal of melody.

The band is under the direction of B. E. Chadwick.

THE FORUM

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C.

NOTE:—The opinions expressed in these columns are not necessarily those of this newspaper and it does not accept responsibility for them. They are published for their general interest, variety and originality of treatment.

"The mass of the American people," Stuart Chase has recently said, "are decent folks." They have no desire to deprive the rich of their possessions. They have never asked for the confiscation of the property of the wealthy. But the common man has come to the realization that he is entitled to a greater portion of the national income than has hitherto been so meagerly meted out to him. He has become cognizant of his power to enforce his demands for a more just distribution of the plenty with which our country is blessed. He wants a better break.

"The income of the people of the United States for the year 1935 will probably be about $60,000,000,000. Let us see how this is to be distributed. Based upon an analysis made by the Brookings Institution of the distribution of our national income during a previous year, the $60,000,000,000 will be distributed about as follows:

"One-third or about $20,000,000,000 will go to four and one-half per cent of the more fortunate in our population, while the other two-thirds will be parcelled out to the remaining 95½ per cent.

"Twenty-five and a half million individuals, comprising the poor—20 per cent of our population, will either get nothing, or at most will get just about enough to provide for a bare existence. While at the same time less than one per cent of our population, approximately 1,000,000 will enjoy 25 per cent of our national income or $12,000,000,000. One million get very much more than they need while 25½ million are left in abject poverty. Our democracy cannot thus endure!"—From a radio address by A. M. Lampert of the A. M. Lampert & Co.

The underground bakeshop of the Army Service Corps will be a favorite spot if war comes.

When Joseph Robbitt Churchill, saddler, walked the streets of London carrying a saddle and reading a book, people laughed at him as being a poor saddler and a dreamer. While he walked he studied Greek and Latin classics eventually took his B.A. degree at London University and became a distinguished tutor. He died recently possessing many honors at Burnham-on-Sea, England, aged 71.

Canadian reindeer are thriving, the original herd of 2,370 having grown to 3,750 during one year and 1000 at least since that time. Although the pastures are 200 miles North of the Arctic Circle, mainly at Richards Island, east of the Mackenzie River delta, 85 per cent to 90 per cent of the fawns survive. They have great vitality and a few hours after birth walk awkwardly about and in a few days are digging for moss to augment the milk provided by the mothers.

The Canadian delegates to the conferences at Oxford and Edinburgh are now bringing back their impressions. All seem to recognize that while this continent has been very rich in first class scientists, it has no such wealth of scholarship. The profound knowledge revealed at those conferences by many of the European leaders left a disturbing impression on the delegates.—Dr. Ernest Thomas of Toronto.

ST. ANDREW'S GROUP HEARD V. WANSBROUGH

Principal of Lower Canada College Addressed Young People Tuesday

V. C. Wansbrough, Principal of Lower Canada College, was the guest speaker at the inaugural meeting of the Young People of St. Andrew's held in the church on Tuesday evening. His remarks on the Hepburn Report were very much to the point and he gave a vast amount of information in a very short address.

After touching on the highlights of the report, he ended with the statement that his report is the best thing that has ever happened to Protestant Education in the Province of Quebec and then warned the meeting that, unless there is a very definite movement among citizens to urge that this report be acted upon, there is the danger that the matter may be dropped and a most valuable opportunity for the reform of our educational system will be lost.

Following the speaker, a constitution for this new group was presented and adopted and elections were held, the results of which are as follows: President, Mr. Lyle McMaster; vice-president, Miss Marjorie Brodie; Secretary, Miss Violet Pick; Treasurer, Mr. Jim McSweeney. This executive will appoint committees to be in charge of membership, program, and social service.

Several outstanding speakers are being lined up for future meetings and wide support of this new organization is expected.

Rev. J. H. Ridell Will Preach Here

Rev. J. H. Ridell, ex-Principal of Wesleyan College, Winnipeg, will assist the minister at Westmount Park Church on Sunday evening. Dr. Ridell is visiting Montreal at the invitation of the Laymen's Association of Montreal Presbytery and will also address a supper meeting for Elders at St. Andrew's church on Monday at 6.30.

The Rev. J. Lavell Smith of Westmount Park Church, will preach at the morning service on "The Altar of Sacrifice."

All great and noble action is accompanied by astonishing difficulties.

"RELIGION ON THE HIGHWAY" SERMON TOPIC

Rev. T. W. Jones, of Calvary Church, to Speak On Vital Subject

In Calvary Church, on Sunday night, the minister, the Rev. T. W. Jones, will preach on the theme "Religion on the Highway." In this sermon will be sounded out a challenge for making religion applicable to the needs of life today, to bring the inspiration of faith into living, vital association with the facts of life as men meet them. The preaching service will be followed by a social hour in the church parlors. Old favourite hymns will be sung.

At the morning service, Dr. Jones will continue the helpful series of Bible Studies, the theme of this service being "Gems of Truth from the Book of Deuteronomy." These early books of the Bible are proving a source of great inspiration to the congregation worshipping in Calvary on Sunday mornings. All who love Bible study are invited to attend. Bibles are provided in all pews of the church.

Regular sessions of the Church School will be held at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. The Men's Own Brotherhood will also meet at 3 o'clock. The Teacher Training Class will be held at 3 p.m. under the leadership of Miss Gladys Watson.

The Pastor's Training Class for Church Membership, will be held in the S.S. Hall at 4.15 p.m. Young people of 14 years of age and over are invited to attend.

On Monday at 8.15, the regular weekly meeting of the Y.P.U. will be held in the Macaulay Hall. On Sunday, March 5th, the Communion of the Lord's Supper is to take place following the evening service.

This week, Friday, February 24th at 8.15 p.m., in the Church Hall, the Junior Square Circle will give its first dramatic presentation, "Love, Inc.," a comedy in three acts. Tickets, 25 cents each, children with adults, 15 cents.

Calvary Church Group To Give Play Tonight

The three act comedy farce "Love, Inc." written by Ronald Else will be presented this evening by the Junior Square Circle Club of Calvary United Church in the Church Hall.

The complications in the play start when Len Merrick, just from college, and his pal, Bob Loomis, start an agency called by the name of the play. Their own love problems, however, are sufficient to keep their company in business and one humorous situation follows another to an amusing climax.

He that is master of his own spirit is a hero indeed.

He that is master of his own spirit is a hero indeed.

He that is master of his own spirit is a hero indeed.

He that is master of his own spirit is a hero indeed.

He that is master of his own spirit is a hero indeed.

He that is master of his own spirit is a hero indeed.

He that is master of his own spirit is a hero indeed.

He that is master of his own spirit is a hero indeed.

He that is master of his own spirit is a hero indeed.

He that is master of his own spirit is a hero indeed.

He that is master of his own spirit is a hero indeed.

He that is master of his own spirit is a hero indeed.

He that is master of his own spirit is a hero indeed.

Tyrone Power Endures
Hardship In "Suez" Role

How would you like to be drenched in the Mediterranean blistered by the Egyptian desert sun and for a thrilling climax, buried in a Sahara simoon?

Well, these are just a few of the things that Tyrone Power goes through in his latest screen role. And if you want to see him get mugged up as no young romantic star in Hollywood has been in years, go to the Westmount United Theatre, where he will appear until Saturday in the role of Ferdinand de Lesseps.

The picture is "Suez," the spectacular drama into which Darryl F. Zanuck has poured all his production effort and skill. Power portrays the man who built the canal, despite raids by Arab hordes, intrigue in Paris and London, and the savage forces of nature.

"Father Malachy's Miracle" Is M.R.T.
Latest Offering

Realizing one of its ambitions—that of presenting a play by a Canadian playwright as a major production—the M.R.T. is offering as its fifty-sixth major production "Father Malachy's Miracle," at Victoria Hall, commencing Tuesday, a charming and delightful comedy by Brian Doherty of Toronto, which achieved a successful run on Broadway last year.

Revolving around a simple-hearted monk who has left his monastery for the first time in fifteen years, Mr. Doherty, has, to quote Brooks Atkinson of the New York Times, "fashioned a fantastic comedy that is both droll and reverent, if such a thing can be possible." Though the play deals with matters which are subjects of religious controversy it treats them in a so simple and heart-warming a manner that none can take offense. "America," the well-known Catholic review says of the play, "it is our opinion that it has a sound spiritual thesis, that it does not offend either moral or theological senses."

The great virtue about Father Malachy's miracle is that everything about it is homely. The good canon of the Church of St. Margaret in Scotland has long been vexed by a brazen dance hall that makes the night hideous just across the narrow Edinburgh street from his church. Father Malachy does not frown on the dance-hall but is much upset by the assurance of a neighbouring Anglican clergyman, who cultivates modernism, that miracles are religious flummery and utterly impossible. Provoked by such heresy, Father Malachy makes a wager that with God's help he will perform a miracle at nine o'clock that evening. He will remove the dance hall through the air to any place the clergyman will name. To the intense surprise of everyone except Father Malachy himself the miracle comes off to the minute.

Father Malachy has his surprise at the universal misunderstanding of his miracle. The papers treat it as a tabloid sensation, the bishop thinks it too showy, the police propose to arrest him for disturbing the peace, the dance hall proprietors demand large compensation and Rome itself refuses to recognize it. Father Malachy's simple faith, however, carries him through all his ordeals to a satisfactory ending.

BENNY ABDICATES

Sad news for the jitterbugs reached this desk last night with the wired report from Hollywood that Benjamin Alloys Goodman is shortly to abdicate his throne in the realm of swing and concentrate his future efforts in active business management of the several crack bands he has already started on the road to fame . . . Swing has swung many millions Goodman's way during the four years since he first leapt into prominence, and the bespectacled bantowner can well afford to spend the rest of his days tanning at Palm Beach . . . Westmount's Lila Deane left last week for a belated winter vacation in Hollywood. Her plans call for no professional engagements on the west coast . . . Wally Reef, news editor of KFEL, Denver, resigned his station post this week to enter the local mayoralty race. Should Reef win the contest, he should be the second aircaster to capitalize on kilocycle popularity in a major political campaign. Lee O'Daniel, the Texas hillbilly, is now governor of his state . . .

TRENDS

Signing of Max Gordon, Broadway producer, by the National Broadcasting Company to assist in the production of television programmes is taken by many writers this week as indication that regular television schedules will be inaugurated in the near future, with low-priced sets soon to be available to the general public . . . CBC's new local air-cast will be equipped for television transmission, and Montreal, may well become the television capital of Canada . . . Ronald Colman's departure from The Circle is not permanent. Colman requested a rest, and will return to the show at frequent intervals . . . Frank Baker's debut on "Tonight at Eight" is a welcome innovation, but this reporter fails to understand the blindness of local producers in consistently ignoring the obvious talents of Russ Titus. Titus heads south for several engagements below the border in the near future, and will undoubtedly be snapped up by some wideawake Yankee kilocycle magnate . . .

Colman, Dee
Starred In Love Roles

A verse-writing rogue from the backstreets of Paris, who saves an empire and loses his heart all in one unforgettable week, and a beautiful princess, whose love makes her defy the commands of her king, form the romantic team in the new Frank Lloyd production, "If I Were King." Ronald Colman and Frances Dee, teamed together for the first time, play the two famous lovers in an epic version of the story of Francois Villon.

In the Paramount picture playing at the Monkland United Theatre until Saturday, Colman is presented as one of the best-loved and most romantic figures in all history. Villon, the verse-writing vagabond of fifteenth century Paris, whose poems even today thrill the hearts of lovers, was made ruler of France for one tumultuous week by the caprice of eccentric King Louis XI, who took a fancy to the lovable ruffian during a street brawl. His love for Katherine De Vauclles, a princess of the royal court, forms one of the grandest chapters in all romance.

The "If I Were King" script contains the most colorful and vivid episodes of the Villon story. Made grand constable of France, after raiding the king's storehouses, Colman, in the title role, is faced with the problem of conquering the powerful Burgundian armies and the heart of Miss Dee before the week is up.

The high point in the story comes when Colman throws the vast royal storehouses open to the populace and arms the Paris mob as a people's army to meet the enemy — a rabble-army against the most powerful troops of Europe.

DICK DUCKS

Dick Tood is off Bob Benchley's CBS show after one month's run. Indications are that Tood is being badly handled . . . Corey Thompson's Major Bill drops from the CBC web April 30 and will not return . . . Suzanne Silvercray, wife of the Belgian minister to Canada, will be featured on NBC's "Let's Talk It Over" programme Friday at 1.15, speaking from Ottawa . . . NBC's descriptive broadcast from Vatican City just thirty minutes after the Pope's death was the culmination of eighteen months of waiting and planning. For the past year and a half, Phil McKenzie, NBC representative in Europe, has lived in a hotel room overlooking the Vatican waiting for the death of the Pontiff. Special wires connected a microphone in his bedroom with the studios of the Italian Broadcasting Corporation . . . Bill Thorne, bass of NBC's Royalist, became a proud daddy last week. Daughter Adrienne was born at the Homoeopathic Hospital . . .

PADEREWSKI GETS PLENTY

Paderewski will receive $10,000 for his fifty-eight minute concert on the Magic Key through CFCF Sunday at 2, according to an NBC representative who passed through town last night. NBC has booked him into twenty cities, with the pianist guaranteed at least $7,500 per concert. Paderewski is 81 . . . Orson Welles took his troupe to Boston this week, and will hit Baltimore, Washington and Philadelphia in that order . . . Jack Small, formerly first saxophonist with Jan Garrier, is currently practicing law locally and brings his orchestra to the NDG Community Hall for a one-night stand March 4. Since his recent graduation from McGill, Small has made music his hobby . . . Purchase of the World Broadcasting System, powerful electrical transcription outfit, by the Columbia Broadcasting System was hinted this week by William Paley, CBS president. When and if the acquisition is completed, CBS will have put itself on a par with NBC in the realm of waxed entertainment . . .

GOOD NEWS DIES JULY 1

Metro's "Good News of 1939" will hang on until July 1, despite announcements to the contrary in the national press. It is also possible that Fannie Bilec and Frank Morgan will head a new set-up following cancellation of the film show on Dominion Day . . . Carol Bruce, ex-vocalist with Huntley, opens a two-weeks engagement at the Walton in Philadelphia Monday next. Carol is due for a network buildup next autumn . . . Marconi's Town Topics is a step in the right direction. Engrossing and well-handled, the show emanates from Tudor Hall Friday at 9. Adrienne Arcand's evasion of all questions highlighted last Friday's debate

TAKES TO ICE HOCKEY

Ice hockey has made such strides in South Africa that the National Ice Hockey Association has been formed and it is hoped to send a team to compete in the 1940 Olympic Games.

Canadian Group In American Premiere

Based upon the unusual theme that every man has his own personal demon to combat in life, "Ascent of F-6," the new psychological drama by Christopher Isherwood and W. H. Auden, will have its North American premiere here on March 2 when presented by the Department of the Drama of Sir George Williams College in Budge Memorial Hall.

The play calls for unusual settings based upon surrealistic patterns. It will receive its United States premiere in the spring when presented by the New York Theatre group.

Directed by Douglas Burns Clarke, "Ascent of F-6" will be presented for three nights, March 2, 3 and 4. It is the only major production of the Sir George Williams group this year.

Fossils Club On Fourteenth Revue

Fossils Club of Westmount are hard at work on production of their 14th Annual Revue, to be held at Victoria Hall. The revue is again under the very capable direction of Leonard "Red" Martin, who was largely responsible for the success of last year's show.

As in all previous years, the pattern of entertainment is that of a revue, consisting principally of skits, written entirely by club members, and interspersed with music and songs.

A few of the old favourites are still on hand, and Bob Goodier, Joe Brennan, Art Prevost, Cam Grant, and Charlie Moore will present their wares. Newer members in the persons of Art Mann, Hugh Kemp, George Downes, Mel Hearn and John Rice, who starred in last year's show, will also put in an appearance.

Musical entertainment will be provided by Blake Sewell and his orchestra, who will play for the dance to be held in the lower hall, following the Friday night's performance.

Few are qualified to shine in company, but it is most men's power to be agreeable.

Tracy Is Mickey
Rooney's Model
As "Tops" Actor

Mickey Rooney figures he must have been born with a rabbit's foot in his hand, he's that lucky. It's not because he happens to be working in pictures as a whole but because right now he's working alongside Spencer Tracy where he can watch the fellow he considers the greatest actor in the world.

He explains it this way. A little less than two years ago, Mickey worked with Tracy in "Captains Courageous." Being 100 per cent honest and not given to pulling punches even on himself, he admits he was more interested in having a good time when not before the camera than he was in sitting around watching Tracy work.

"Boy, have I kicked myself all around the lot since that picture was finished," says Mickey. "I guess I really was a kid when that picture was made because I booted my chance to learn from the swiftest teacher you can find."

"When Tracy got that Oscar for his work in 'Captains Courageous' I got to doing some hard thinking. I was tickled pink he won the award but I was not so tickled at myself. Right there in front of my eyes was a fellow doing the best acting job of the year and I hadn't taken advantage of it. I thought I'd never get another chance at what I missed but I said to myself if I do just watch me."

So Mickey went around the M-G-M studios visiting Tracy on the set whenever possible and itching to get into a scene with the star. Then, Director Norman Taurog called Mickey into his office and told him that he was going to direct "Boys Town," now showing at the Snowdon United Theatre, and that Mickey was going to be starred along with a fellow named Tracy.

"You could have knocked me over with a snow flake," says Mickey. "Right then and there I knew that prayers really work because I'd sure been praying for that chance."

Extraordinary diligence renders potent ordinary gifts.

Sisters of Service Day Held By League

Westmount Sub-division of the Catholic Women's League held its Immigration and Sisters of Service Day in St. Leo's School hall last Friday afternoon. Following a short business session, Mrs. Andrew Darling, diocesan convener, spoke of the good work that is being carried on by the Sisters of Service at the Residential Club for Girls, where there is a home-like atmosphere and practical assistance in the way of free meals and beds, where necessary.

Miss O'Connell Hayes addressed the gathering on the Business Girls Bureau, where girls are afforded the opportunity of learning things that will fit them for the business world.

John J. Robinson, of the United Airlines, showed a very interesting film entitled, "Coast to Coast by United Lines."

Miss Germaine Lefebvre, soprano soloist, was accompanied by her sister, Miss Helmine Lefebvre, at the piano. Miss Elizabeth Marnell was the convener for the day.

Thanks were extended to the speakers and artists by Mrs. V. Cormack, on behalf of the gathering. Tea was served by the social committee.

A mid-city shoe shop, making a timely bid for business, put out the sign:

LINED UP FOR SPRING

Reminiscent of the basque-like gown grandmother wore when she had her picture taken for the family album is this charming creation for early spring. It is made of red and white striped taffeta, trimmed with red velvet ribbon bands.

TEA TIME TOPICS

Not contented with going "Old Fashion" in evening dress, the modern woman will now wear "Gay '90's" petticoats. Wide lace around the bottom of the slip will be trimmed with contrasting shades of ribbon running through, and tied in little bows. Ribbon is also used through the shoulder straps and bodice, giving the slip a very girlish appearance. Of course these garments are made to be worn with the popular skating silhouette.

According to the ladies, spring has arrived. We saw several spring bonnets around town during the past week-end. Most popular seemed to be the small shiny straws, closely resembling something that is pictured by a futuristic artist in his most fantastic dreams. These little bits of straw were all topped with the ultra smart dotted veils, and multi-colored ribbons. It is understood that these hats (with due apologies to milliners) are not meant to keep lady's head warm, they are merely worn because it is the custom to keep the head covered. In the realm of conservative head coverings, was the ever popular sailor, worn by ladies who lack the confidence of the younger set. These models also sported the heavily dotted veils and colored trimmings. Last year's hats looked like stove lids, we shudder to think about next year. Women must be catered to, particularly in head gear.

Quebec Habitant furniture is gaining in popularity every day. At a recent convention of hotelmen throughout the country, it was decided to use the gay hand woven rugs, carved figures and sundry pieces of furniture made by the Habitants of this province. The individuality expressed in these colorful furnishings will add greatly to small country inns, besides giving a helping hand to the makers. While the making of these articles have not realized a great deal of money for the makers in the past, articles were made solely for the purpose of tourists. The decision of these men will in all probabilities be the starting of a new industry for the French Canadians.

Bar Would Prohibit Mail Order Divorce

The American Bar Association recommended recently it be made a crime for lawyers to engage in the mail order divorce business.

Informing that in some states the solicitation of divorce cases by mail had become almost scandalous, the Association House of Delegates voted to sponsor in Congress a bill prohibiting the practice and providing the maximum punishment of a year in jail and $1,000 fine.

The Association's committee on judicial salaries was instructed to consider and submit to the House proposal for "legislation making proper and adequate increases in the compensation." Federal district judges now receive $10,000 a year. The salary of Federal circuit judges is $12,500 a year.

There were two attacks on the Association's bill of rights committee in the final hours of the meeting, but both were squelched by the chair.

If you have a smile in your heart, be sure to wear it on your face.

WESTMOUNT SENIOR SQUAD DEFEATS MONTREAL HIGH 10-2 IN CONTEST STAGED AT FORUM

Senior Section Inter-School League Hockey Match Took Place Tuesday Afternoon — Was Final Game of Schedule for Both Teams — Purple and White Had Easy Victory

Playing outstanding hockey Westmount High defeated Montreal High 10-2 in a senior section Inter-School Hockey League fixture at the Forum Tuesday afternoon. The Purple and White squad chalked up the season's highest league score.

Both teams were playing their final game of the schedule and the outcome of the match brought the local squad a point up on West Hill and Strathcona, as far as the standing on Wednesday was concerned.

Westmount defeated its younger rivals with little difficulty scoring four goals in the opening period and six in the final stanza. Montreal High chalked up its two counts in the initial session.

Westmount's first goal was rammed in by Bob Blair during the first minute of play. Buddy Hellyer shot home the second goal bringing the score to 2-0.

Victoryless throughout the season but always a fighting team, Montreal High struck back to tie the score midway through the period. Hutchison whacking in a couple of goals within a minute of each other.

Ireland gave Westmount the edge, again, however, and Bob Bennett increased it before the period ended. It was all Westmount in the final period. Blair scoring twice and Edge, Bennett, McConnell and Darling tallying one each.

Roslyn School Hockey

By E. Cochrane

In a Roslyn School interclass hockey game on Monday, sixth year, Room 19 defeated fifth year, room 18 by a score of 2-1. The game was the second in a two out of three series for the championship. The sixth year team won the first game by a score of 4-1.

The game on Monday was a hard fought battle, with the fifth year team showing much improvement. The fifth year group received a one goal handicap. The first period went scoreless, with a lot of bodychecking.

As the second period opened, Grant broke away for fifth year with only defense man Ross to beat. In the tenth minute of play, with the face off at the right side of fifth year's net, Captain Hawker sent an accurate pass to Cochrane, who was uncovered in front of the net. Taking his time Cochrane sent the puck flying in to the left hand side of the net, to tie the score. McCrae, in the nets, had no chance to stop the shot. Putting on the pressure, sixth year took the lead in less than five minutes, staging a power play with Magee carrying the puck. Following their successful drive, sixth year put on a splendid defensive display, which stopped fifth entirely.

They will carry a complete stock of tennis equipment, fishing tackle, and bicycles for winter and summer.

Well Known Pilot To Greet Guests

Coming Down to earth with a jolt, Irving Koren, 21-year old test pilot, who has been a west-end resident will join representatives of the legal and advertising professions in receiving the guests at the gala informal hop, sponsored by thirty young people's organizations, March 4, at the Notre Dame de Grace Community Hall.

At 21, Koren is one of the youngest instructors and test pilots in the business. His friends call him "Tiny" because of his height—six feet, two inches. At the moment, he is engaged in testing several of the giant new ships recently completed for experimental army work, and he may be seen almost any morning zooming through the clouds above the city.

Jack Small's orchestra, which is featured on Decca records, will provide music for the affair, and leading entertainment figures will provide the incidental amusement. With all proceeds going to aid unfortunate young victims of political persecution in Germany, a crowd of over 1,000 is expected to be present. Tickets may be obtained at any Macy or Gray drug store.

Fitness Display as Part of Westmount Hobby Show

For the first time in its history the Westmount Boys and Girls Hobby Show is to hold a Fitness Display. This has been an outgrowth of a small health education program which has been held from year to year in conjunction with the Hobby Show. This year is to exceed anything of this nature ever held in conjunction with the Show and is probably the first Fitness Display of its kind to be held in the City of Westmount. The show will take place on Tuesday March 7th at the Westmount High School.

The Display has been organized by Em Orlick, Director of Health and Physical Education at the N.D.G. Y.M.C.A., who has been interested and actively working towards a National Fitness Scheme for some years. Mr. Orlick is the National Organizer of a Body known as the National Fitness League of Canada, which has as its aim 'physical fitness for every man, woman and child in the Dominion'. The Westmount Display is just one of the ways by which Mr. Orlick hopes to develop 'health consciousness' among the citizens in this part of the Dominion.

Those on the Organizing Committee include Ken Murray, the physical director at the Westmount High School, Hugh Noble, health director at the Westmount Y.M.C.A., and Vernon Estano, the director of the Westmount Boys and Girls Hobby Show.

On an imposing list of officers and directors of the display are to be found the names of Dr. J. H. Paquette, Minister of Health and Education, Dr. J. P. Brennan, director of the National Department of Health, as honorary advisors, and Dr. A. Lamb, physical director of McGill, Miss J. Herriot, physical education department of McGill, Dr. A. Groulx, director of health of Montreal, Dr. F. M. McNaughton, Westmount Health Officer, as advisors.

Double "D's" and Y.M.H.A. To Try For First Place

Featuring the last week of the Montreal Basketball League's "Big Six" play is the second meeting of the Dominion Douglas and Y.M.H.A. teams this season. The rivals for the 1938-39 crown will meet next Saturday night at the Notre Dame de Grace Community Hall, a home fixture for the double D team.

While the two teams are qualified for the two out of three playoff series the game this Saturday has considerable interest attached. Y.M.H.A. can clinch first place in the final standing by winning for the second time over Johnny Ferraro's forces this season. The right to play against McGill in the Dods Cup match (city championship) will go to the team winning first place in the "Big Six" race. A victory for Y.M.H.A. will give them the trophy game rights, first time a Hebrew club has figured in this match since it was inaugurated a few years ago.

While Dominion Douglas top the rest of the "Big Six" rivals in matter of points scored so far this season Y.M.H.A. will likely enter the series slight favorites to win. The "Y" have been in the playoffs in each of the last two seasons but failed to win the title for the first time for the northend association.

In losing to North Branch Y last Saturday, Dominion Douglas showed lack of practise, one handicap which has been facing the

Hobby Show Final Entry Date Near

Prizes are on exhibition in Yervant's Oriental Rug store window, 4903 Sherbrooke St. W. These include the Rotary Club cups for the best exhibits in the entire show by boys and girls. The prize posters in the poster contest are on exhibit in the Westmount library. The Hobby show dance is being held in the Westmount Athletic Grounds on Friday, March 10th, with Archie Etienne and his orchestra providing the music.
