FROM OTTAWA.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE STAR.]

THE CHAUDIERE BRIDGE SEIZURE.—OTTAWA, June 22.—In connection with the seizure of the Chaudiere Railway Bridge, the Treasury Board have made the following division of the spoils, viz., to Mr. Bartram and Mr. W. McAgy, $2,400 each, and to Mr. E. Willson, contractor, $800. By the seizure, the Government received some $27,000 extra, and the officials interested in the matter were entitled to one-third the extra amount secured by such seizure, but the Government decided to limit the allowances, considering the plum a little too large.

APPOINTMENT.—Wm. Lukes, of Toronto, has been appointed to a position in connection with the outside service of the Finance Department. It is understood that the office is a new one, which has been created in connection with the bonding system.

She will sail to-day to cruise in the Gulf for the purpose of protecting the fisheries. The expedition will be under charge of Dr. Wakeham, J. P., The steamer will be commanded by Captain Bolduc. The "Druid" is also expected to sail to-day with supplies for the lighthouse. The "Napoleon the 3rd" will not be ready to sail until next month. She will be engaged in supplying the more distant lighthouses in the Gulf of St. Lawrence and those in the Straits of Belle Isle.

PROPOSED BANQUET.—The Conservatives are talking about giving a banquet in honor of Sir Chas. Tupper.

THE NOVA SCOTIA ABSCONDER.—A letter received from Nova Scotia by a gentleman in this city states that the official investigation into the affairs of Van Blarcon, the absconding Savings Bank cashier at Annapolis, N.S., showed that he would not have been afforded an opportunity for his speculations had it not been for the gross negligence of the finance department. Van Blarcon was also postmaster, and had control of nearly the same amount of funds belonging to the Post-office Department as he had of Savings Bank's deposits, but owing to the system of supervision adopted by the former department, he was only able to misappropriate between $200 and $300 of money that should have been handed in to it, while he embezzled upwards of $20,000 of Savings Bank money.

THE IRISH TROUBLES.

The Ulster Farmers and the Parnellites—The Conservatives and the Land Bill—The Irish-American Press—Mr. Parnell Coming to America.

LONDON, June 22.—At an interview between the Ulster farmers and Home Rulers, the Parnellites manifested a willingness to withdraw as many amendments to the Land Bill as were possible, except where vital or important principles were involved. The Ulster delegates expressed the gravest alarm at the idea of the Government expunging from the Bill the direction to the Land Court to exclude tenants' interest from all consideration of rent in fixing a fair rental of holdings. Fear was expressed that, in the absence of some definite instructions, the Court may feel bound to apply the existing Common-Law doctrine, that everything in or on the soil belongs to the landlord, this doctrine being corrected only by the reservation of the tenant's actual improvements, whereas the delegates hold that, besides the improvements, his good-will or occupancy-right should be protected.

The Conservatives have agreed to let the Land bill pass smoothly. Mr. Parnell, in speaking at a meeting in this city last evening, said that the Land League would exist after the passing of the Land bill, which was not a final settlement of the question.

The Pall Mall Gazette, this afternoon, says: "We wish the Government had followed the sound principle of letting O'Donovan Rossa alone. It is very fine for the Telegraph to talk about requiring America to treat planners of insurrection as the English Government has Herr Most, proprietor of the Freiheit. We may require as much as we please, but, unless we are much mistaken, America will give a short answer to such requisitions. It seems extremely improbable that the American Government will be allowed, either by tradition or policy, to meddle with the Irish-American press. Any overt preparations for an expedition it will doubtless put down as it has done before.

The Daily News has an article almost exactly similar on this subject. It says:—"Although it is not likely that America will interfere with the press, her Government has usually acted loyally and firmly when any real danger for a friendly Power was planned within the American frontier."

It is said that Mr. Parnell will return to the United States, and make an extensive stumping tour of the country, as soon as the Land bill has passed through committee in the House of Commons. His speaking will be directed to the advocacy of local home rule for Ireland, and the formation of a great confederacy of the kingdom and colonies.

THE VICEREGAL BALL.

A Brilliant Affair—Over Six Hundred Guests Present.

QUEBEC, June 22.—The ball which took place to-night in the Music Hall was one of those great social events which seem to go on widening and becoming more and more dazzling as the years rolls on. The noble Marquis displayed a grace which attracted general comment, and, as always, those remarks were highly favorable to him. In the absence of his Royal wife, the Governor-General did the honors of the host with much generosity and elegance. The gathering of to-night is certainly one of the most distingue which ever congregated within the old walls of Quebec. The assemblage, although a brilliant one, was also of a very representative character, and included the tout Quebec as well as contingents from other parts. Over 600 guests were present, nearly 1,000 having been invited. The scene about 10 o'clock was one of unusual grandeur and magnificence, as the innumerable dazzling couples flew gracefully over the tampered square of the hall to the sounds of the dreamy waltz or the dashing polka. At a few minutes past nine o'clock His Excellency entered the ball room, surrounded by the members of his staff, and a gathering of several A Battery and militia officers. He was received to the sound of the National Anthem by the A Battery band. He immediately proceeded to the raised dais at the left side of the hall. The interior of the hall is not of a very striking character, as it is plain and unassuming. To-night, however, its usual appearance was greatly changed for the better. The place resembles a hot-house parlor, decorated with flags, emblems, etc. The decorations were of a very costly and appropriate character. The stage was decorated with plants of natural flowers, green bunting and the hundred other little affairs which a talented decorator always invents with success. Over the dais was the coat-of-arms of the noble family of Argyll; on each side of it were the banners of Merry England and La Belle France. Pendent from the summit of the rotunda were some charming cupids, which seemed to carry their charms over that brilliant assemblage of the wealth, the beauty and the talent of one of the first cities of our rising young country. Suspended from the centre of the six alcoves were baskets of floral bouquets of an artistic arrangement. All round the hall were hung mirrors which were enlaced with beautiful wreaths of recherche flowers of the celebrated farm of that old veteran of this special branch, Colonel Rhodes. As a compliment to the Consuls General of France, Norway and Sweden, the United States, Spain and Belgium, who contributed to the success of the ball, hung the flags of their different countries, as an emblem of the peace which exists with the flag of our loved mother-country.

THE SENATORIAL FIGHT.

Caucus of Half-Breeds—Why Jacobs Withdrew from the Candidacy.

ALBANY, June 22.—Immediately after adjournment of the investigating committee this morning, the half-breeds held a caucus in which they agreed upon a programme, to the effect that upon the meeting of the joint convention and before the balloting began, Senator Lynde should arise to a question of privilege and announce a proposition by the half-breeds for a compromise, that would vote solidly for one half-breed and one stalwart, the half-breed to be Depew, and the stalwart anyone but Conkling or Platt, but would not vote for either of those if the deadlock was maintained until December the 31st. In order to prove their sincerity, ex-Vice-President Wheeler was withdrawn and a half-breed commissioner sent around to consult with half breed members, instructing them to concentrate on any stalwart except Conkling or Platt. Wheeler's representative agreed to the compromise after telegraphic communication with Wheeler, and Lapham was selected. The agent was then instructed by Robertson to notify all half-breeds of the intended programme. This agent says the proposition meets the enthusiastic endorsement of all half-breeds.

When Jacobs was asked why he withdrew from the candidacy, he said he had been informed by Republican Senators that the Government had decided that he (Jacobs) was ineligible, and that the administration party had determined to keep pushing Wheeler's vote close to his, in order that in any emergency, should Jacobs be declared elected, the Governor would refuse to give a certificate to Jacobs, and would give it to Wheeler instead, as the man having the next highest number of votes. The information came to him suddenly, and he had not decided to act until he saw the Wheeler vote growing abnormally. He had no time for consultation with party leaders, and acted, as he thought, for the best interest of the Democratic party. Spinola and others urged Jacobs to resume the candidacy, stating that the Democratic party in the Senate would stand by him in any contest. Erastus Brooks made a long speech in opposition, saying that the State Constitution distinctly prohibited the candidacy of a member of the Legislature, and hoped Jacobs would refuse to further embarrass the Democratic party.

QUEBEC LEGISLATURE.

Fourth Session—Fourth Parliament.

QUEBEC, June 22.—After routine, Hon. Mr. Mercier asked—Why has the Government not appointed Commissioners for the summary trial of small causes in the Parish of Ste. Placide, in the County of Two Moutains, as asked for and recommended by the leading citizens of both parties in that district since the month of October, 1880?

Hon. Mr. Paquet—The information the Government is possessed of in regard to this subject is incomplete.

Hon. Mr. Mercier asked—First, has the Government been able to establish, by official documents, whether the cost of building the Court House at Montreal was covered both in capital and interest by the special tax imposed for that purpose on Judicial proceedings? 2nd, does the Government intend to abolish such tax to relieve suitors in the late district of Montreal?

Hon. Mr. Loranger—The subject is under consideration by the Government.

Hon. Mr. Langelier asked—Is it true that Dr. Giard, Secretary of the Department of Public Instruction, has been, or is to be, pensioned?

Hon. Mr. Paquet—Dr. Giard has not been superannuated. He has received six months leave of absence on account of his health.

Mr. Gagnon asked—Does the Government mean that the Quebec and New Brunswick Railway Company, whose terminus is to be between Riviere Ouelle and Fraserville, has lost its right to the grant of 10,000 acres of land per mile granted to it by 32 Vic., chap. 21, sec. 8?

Hon. Mr. Loranger—When the Government will be in a position to give its reply it will give it.

Mr. Meikle asked—Is it the intention of the Government to assist with colonization money the completion of the road and bridge at Beavan's Lake, County of Argenteuil; also, to make the necessary roads in the interest of colonization in the Townships of Chatham, Wentworth, Gore, Mille Isle, Morin, Harrington, Grenville, Arundel and other Townships in the County of Argenteuil; besides that which may be expended on the road leading from the County of Terrebonne to the County of Ottawa?

Hon. Mr. Chapleau—The Government has granted aid to some of the works in question.

Mr. Meikle asked—Will the petition addressed to the Hon. Commissioner of Public Works on the 1st inst., signed by R. J. Meikle and others, members, of this House, praying that the cost of phosphates sent to the different Agricultural Societies be not deducted from the usual grant, be complied with?

Hon. Mr. Chapleau—The Government regrets their inability to accede to that request.

Mr. Meikle asked—Is it the intention of the Government to build a branch railway from St. Andrew to connect with the Government road at Lachute, a distance of about six miles, which would contribute largely to the traffic of the main line.

Hon. Mr. Chapleau—The Government has received a deputation from the County of Argenteuil, and the answer given them is contained in the Government resolutions submitted to the House.

The following motions for papers were carried:—

Mr. Gagnon—Order of the House for a comparative statement of receipts and expenses of the Province of Quebec for each fiscal year from 1867; the said statement to give the details of the receipts and expenses for each fiscal year.

Mr. Gagnon—Order of the House for a comparative statement of the debt of the Province of Quebec for each fiscal year since 1867.

Hon. Mr. Mercier—Address for correspondence between the Government and the proprietors of the Beauport Asylum respecting the expiration and the renewal of the contract for the maintenance of the insane.

Mr. Gagnon—Copies of the correspondence exchanged between the Government and the Quebec & New Brunswick Railway Company, respecting the Government grant of 10,000 acres of land a mile granted to it by the Act of this Province 34 Vic., chap. 21.

The following bills were read a third time and passed: Bill ordering the registration of customary dowers, substitutions and servitudes in certain cases not provided for by law.—Hon. Mr. Marchand. Bill for the better prevention of intemperance.—Mr. Molleur.

The following were read a second time: Bill to annex a part of the Parish of St. Calixte and another parcel of land, which is not yet erected civilly, to the Parish of St. Theodore, in the County of Montcalm.—Mr. Magnan. Bill to exempt from seizure one-half of the wages of laborers.—Mr. Trefontaine. Bill to amend the Act of this Province, 38 Victoria, chapter 12, intituled "An Act to render liable to seizure a portion of the salary of public officers and employes."—Mr. Prefontaine—was defeated.

The House adjourned at 7.10.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

TORONTO, June 22.—The first business of the afternoon session was that of permanent organization and election of officers. Hon. S. H. Blake, ex-Vice-Chancellor, of Toronto, was elected President, and Vice Presidents were elected from all the different States and Provinces of the United States and Canada. The report of the Statistical Secretary was presented and adopted. The report of the Treasurer, showing that the Convention was free from debt and on a good financial basis, was presented and adopted. The balance of the session was taken up by reports from the several States, Territories and Provinces—most of these reporting and all reports encouraging. The evening session opened by service of song and praise, the "Hallelujah Chorus" being rendered under the conductorship of Prof. Sherwin. The reports of the delegates to the Raike's Centennial Convention, in London, on June 18, 1880, were presented, short but enthusiastic addresses being made by the delegates.

Richard K. Fox and James McGowan, of the Police Gazette, Louis F. Post, Joseph Hart and Charles A. Bryne, of the Truth, and G. K. Ackerman, of the Star, have been arrested in New York for misdemeanor in publishing lottery advertisements.

Haunted Me.

A Workingman says: "Debt, poverty and suffering haunted me for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring, which did no good. I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by the advice of my pastor, I procured Hop Bitters and commenced their use, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have been sick a day since; and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop Bitters for less than one doctor's visit will cost."—Christian Advocate.

The Popular Demand.

So great has been the popular demand for the celebrated remedy Kidney-Wort, that it is having an immense sale from Maine to California. Some have found it inconvenient to prepare it from the dry compound. For such the proprietors now prepare it in liquid form. This can be procured at the druggists. It has precisely the same effect as the dry, but is very concentrated so that the dose is much smaller.—Lowell Mail. 144-3 eod

Thomas Myers, Bracebridge, writes:—"Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is the best medicine I sell. It always gives satisfaction, and in cases of coughs, colds, sore throat, &c., immediate relief has been received by those who use it." 8

The fruits of 20 years' practice of such extent and magnitude as probably never before fell to the lot of any one man are fully set forth in the unique medical work published by the Peabody Medical Institute, entitled "The Science of Life." Read the advertisement. 143 6

THURSDAY, JUNE 23, 1881.

JUSTIN MCCARTHY's flank movement is to further the cause of Home Rule by advocating Imperial Federation. He says that the Royal Colonial Institute favors the scheme and believes that it will be the ultimate solution of the problem of Government in every system where different races, creeds, traditions and habits have to be taken into account and reconciled.

The Law of Evidence.

It would be well if the Local Legislature would occasionally bestow some portion of that attention, which it now gives to matters of no earthly importance, upon questions which would, if properly solved, be of real benefit to the people of this province. It is a matter of great regret that Mr. Irvine's bill to permit parties to a suit to give evidence in their own cases has not been passed this session. Litigants in many cases suffer great hardship on account of the absurd article of the code which forbids probably the only person conversant with the facts of a case, from testifying on his own behalf. This province is the only civilized country in the world—save France—where such a rule exists, and if we are not mistaken there is a disposition in France to alter the law in this respect. We fancy there are not ten practising lawyers in this province who are not in favor of the reform, and it is to be hoped that Mr. Irvine will show a little more activity in achieving that success for the measure he has fathered which the public are so anxious to see attained.

Cote St. Antoine and the Grey Nuns.

The contest now existing before our Provincial Parliament, between the inhabitants of Cote St. Antoine and the Grey Nuns, deserves notice. The municipality of Cote St. Antoine have, it appears, experienced for some time past the want of better drainage. Accordingly the inhabitants have applied to our Local Legislature for the necessary powers to effect such a desirable object. The Grey Nuns not many years ago acquired by purchase a tract of land, within the limits of this municipality, which they subsequently sold at a very considerable advance in price, and then, by agreement, retook the land from the purchasers upon the forfeiture, by the latter, of nearly thirty thousand dollars of the purchase money. These ladies have thus shewn the land was bought by them partly, if not wholly, for speculation, and that in so doing they have shown more sagacity than many other recent speculators in real estate. To this no possible objection can be made, on the contrary, they are to be congratulated for their sagacity. But when they apply, as they have done, that this land should be exempted from the costs necessary for drainage on the plea that it is held for religious purposes, they should be told their pretension is not only ungenerous and unreasonable, but groundless in law and in fact. Even to Mons. Tarte, that stanneh advocate of ecclesiastical privileges, in the Quebec Legislature, this claim of the Grey Nuns appeared to be too much, and he voted against it in the Committee of the Lower House. It is to be hoped it will share a similar fate in the Upper. It may not be amiss to add that appearances indicate the time is approaching, when the promotion of such unreasonable privileges, may awaken public attention to the necessity of curtailing the many existing. It were wise then, to be content with what is now enjoyed, and let well alone. The Roman Catholic Church in Lower Canada can certainly have no ground for complaint with its present privileges and exemptions in connection with its vast possessions in real estate in this Province.

City News.

—The immigrants via steamships "Ocean King" and "European" passed through the city yesterday morning.

—Mr. Lighthall, notary, did not go bail for Mr. Sills for $400 as represented, but only to the amount of $100.

—The distribution of prizes of Notre Dame College, Cote des Neiges, will be held on Tuesday, 28th June, at 1.30 p.m.

—An interesting letter from Alderman Stephens on the Grand Trunk indebtedness to the city will be found on the fourth page.

—Mr. Varin, an officer of the 85th Battalion, now at Laprairie in camp, was very seriously injured on Tuesday last by being thrown off his horse.

—A great variety of needle-work will be exhibited by the pupils of Hochelaga Convent, on the 24th, 25th and 26th inst., for the pleasure of the parents and friends of the institution.

—One of the Harbor Police met with an accident last evening on the wharf. The engine of a G. T. R. train frightened a horse and truck so that the Constable was knocked down by the horse running away. He was not seriously injured.

River Notes.

A fire occurred about eleven o'clock last night in Cowan's Ammonia Works at the corner of Dalhousie and Common streets, by which some $3,000 damage was done, the whole loss being covered by insurance. The fire broke out in the lower part of the building, and spread rapidly, and it was only after an hour's hard work that the Brigade succeeded in subduing it.

Bank of Hamilton.

The business of the Bank of Hamilton for the past year, was of a satisfactory nature. The profits amounted to $72,363.90, out of which dividends amounting to 7 per cent. were paid, $20,000 carried to "rest" account, and $4,691.11 carried forward at credit of profit and loss account. The paid-up capital of the bank is $750,500 and the "rest" $100,000 or nearly 14 per cent of the capital. The Directors report a considerable increase in the business during the year.

Police News.

Pierre Bourgeo, accused of stealing a saw, was discharged by the Police Magistrate yesterday, having proved that he had bought it from another man for 50c.

Rose Renaud, 93 Guy street, was fined $50 or six months for keeping a house of ill-fame by the Recorder yesterday. Alexis Vandette, 223 St. Urbain street, arraigned on a similar charge, was fined $10 or one month, and his daughter, Celina Vandette, aged 17, for being an inmate, six months at hard labor and $50, or six months more.

Insurance in Quebec.

At the meeting of managers and agents of the various insurance companies interested in insurance in Quebec, held several days ago, several resolutions were passed on the subject of the various insurance companies using their influence upon the Quebec people towards securing a sufficient water supply. It was thought advisable as a temporary measure to increase the insurance rates 25 per cent. higher than the tariff adopted, but thrown aside again in 1874, which would make the rates about double those now existing. A committee of seven was appointed to examine into the whole matter and report. Nothing, however, has yet been done.

The New Tourist Steamboat Line.

Telegrams received in this city state that the steamer "Rothesay" made her trial trip from Cape Vincent to Dickinson's Landing yesterday. It appears she made the journey, including all her stoppages on her schedule running time and under easy steam. The "Prince Arthur" also arrived at Dickinson's Landing from Montreal yesterday. These boats will commence their regular season trips to-day. The "Rothesay" will leave Cape Vincent at 6.30 a.m., arriving at Dickinson's Landing at 12 noon, where she will make immediate connection with her consort, the "Prince Arthur," which boat is expected to reach Montreal, after passing the rapids, at 5 p.m.

Jodoin vs. Directors Joliette Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

Judgment in this case was given yesterday afternoon by His Honor Mr. Desnoyers. The complaint was that the directors had conspired together and acted illegally; that they illegally declared assessments to the amount of $18,000 on the policy holders, and also cancelled Jodoin's policy, and that these acts were performed by only three directors. The principal point in the case was whether a quorum of directors should consist of only three. The by-laws, produced as voted by the shareholders and acted upon by all, even by the complainant, show that three can act. The judgment held that the directors, in cancelling Jodoin's policy, had acted in good faith, and, on the whole, that defendants had, in no way, acted criminally, consequently the charge against them was dismissed.

Ontario Bank.

The shareholders held their 24th annual meeting at Toronto on the 21st inst. The report refers to the noticeable improvement in the trade of the country and the prosperity attending nearly every branch of industry. The directors complain that though the business of the bank throughout the year has been of a safe and satisfactory character, the net result has been materially affected by the difficulty of finding profitable employment for all the loanable funds of the bank, and by the amount remaining in overdue debts and unproductive assets. The profits of the year, after deducting expenses of management, were $217,714, out of which two half-yearly dividends of 3 per cent. were paid, amounting to $179,869, leaving $37,855 to be carried to profit and loss, which added to the $116,463 brought forward from last year, makes $154,309 at credit of profit and loss.

The Kingston Cotton Company.

At a meeting of the shareholders of the Kingston Cotton Mill, held at Kingston yesterday evening, the provisional directors submitted their report, which showed that the mill was in course of erection at a cost of $31,623, that machinery to the amount of $80,000 had been ordered, and that a site of about an acre and a half had been bought, at the rate of $300 per acre. The amount of stock is limited to $250,000, and of this $161,000 has already been subscribed. The provisional directors estimated that the total expenditure on buildings, machinery, etc., would not exceed $140,000, and that $20,000 would be required for running expenses. The Manager has been engaged in Manchester, and will sail for Canada about the middle of July. The following gentlemen were elected Directors:—J. Richardson, R. Waldon, J. Minnes, J. B. Carruthers, W. R. McRae, J. Breden, B. M. Britton, W. Nicol, J. Brown.

Proposed Regatta.

The Hop Bitters Manufacturing Company, of Rochester, N. Y., make the following offer:

"To All First-class Oarsmen:

"GENTLEMEN,—There being a great desire to witness a grand contest between you while Edward Trickett, of Australia, is in this country, and there appearing no movement in progress to bring about such a contest; we therefore offer a prize of $3,000 for a Single Scull Regatta of four miles, in best and best boats under the usual rules of boating. First prize, $1,500; second, $800; third, $500; fourth, $200. To be rowed the last week in July, or about the middle of August, 1881, as a majority of you express your preference when making your entries to us, which must be done before July 10th. Location of race, selection of referee, management, and other details will be fixed and announced in due time, all of which will be first-class and satisfactory."

United Festival Service.

Christ Church Cathedral was crowded to its utmost capacity last evening with the delegates and friends of the Diocesan Synod and lovers of music generally to attend the united service in connection with the Diocesan Synod. The magnificently solemn service of the English Church was rendered doubly impressive by intonation and the fine singing of the various Episcopal choirs of the city united. The processional was Annesley's andante in "G." The "Magnificat" and "Nunc Dimittis" were sung to Dr. Stainer's arrangement, and the anthem was Wesley's "Blessed be the God and Father." The offertoire was Mozart's largetto in "D." The service was concluded with the Hallelujah from the Messiah. The service was intoned by the Revs. J. Fulton and Ernest Houghton; the lessons were read by the Revs. Canon Evans and J. P. DuMoulin, and the sermon preached by the Rev. Dr. Sullivan from Ephesians 4 ch., 13 v., "The Unity of the Faith."

Diocesan Synod.

When the afternoon session opened yesterday Mr. L. H. Davidson moved that the "Quebec Plan" should be taken into consideration.

Mr. Brydges did not approve of the plan because he thought that the adoption of the plan would bring them into financial difficulties.

Mr. T. White thought that the clergy of the diocese did not sufficiently impress the necessity of giving upon the people.

At 4 o'clock the election of members for the Executive Committee was proceeded with. After this the election of delegates to the Provincial Synod took place. Scrutineers were then appointed to receive the votes for members of the Diocesan Court.

The debate on the "Quebec Plan" was subsequently resumed and Mr. Thomas moved in amendment to the motion of Mr. Davidson that the discussion of the Quebec Plan be left over until the next session of the Synod.

The Rev. J. C. Davidson moved the following amendment that the bishop be requested to appoint committees to visit the missionaries and to impress upon them the necessity of self-support.

As Mr. Davidson wished to speak against these motions and as it was then 6 o'clock the discussion was left over until to-day and the meeting adjourned.

ROAD COMMITTEE.

Another Want of the C. P. R.—The Stone Delivery Contract.

At the meeting of this Committee, yesterday afternoon, all its members were present.

Complaints of certain proprietors on Metcalfe street, of the flooding of their property, owing to the high grading of Dominion Square, were referred to the City Surveyor.

The Chairman said he had received a communication from the C. P. R. Company, asking for leave to lay a double track on Bleury and St. Lawrence streets. Personally he was against such a change.

Ald. Hood said a double track on Bleury street would spoil the only carriage road to the Cemetery and Park. They might put a track on St. Urbain street. The matter was left over for another meeting.

A letter from R. McKeown offering a sample of stone for paving at a certain price was referred to the City Surveyor for report.

A petition from Edouard Desy asking for $300 damages for a broken leg occasioned, he said, by the bad state of the sidewalk on St. Elizabeth street was not entertained.

A petition from certain proprietors on Sherbrooke street was received asking for a sidewalk west of Guy street, they offering to pay half the cost. Referred to the City Surveyor for report.

It was decided to put down crossings on St. Felix, St. Antoine, Dominion and St. Bonaventure streets.

Ald. McCord presented, in behalf of the Williams Manufacturing Company, a claim for $67, the cost of sidewalk the Company was obliged to put down during the Winter in order to protect their property. Referred to the City Surveyor for report.

A letter was read from Mr. Sutlie complaining that Mr. Mann refused to carry out his contract for the delivery of stone for repairing the roads; that he had sent in large boulders, unbroken stone, tin cans, and other rubbish, and that when he (Sutlie) remonstrated to Mr. Mann the latter told him that he was under no obligation to any one but the City Surveyor, and used abusing language towards him.

The Chairman said that if Mr. Mann refused to deliver stone in the proper condition and places he was breaking his contract.

Ald. Hood said he had had no confidence in Mann since he called the City Surveyor a Judas Iscariot, and such a man should not be employed. He moved that Ald. Kennedy, the Chairman and himself be appointed to examine into the matter and report. Carried.

PARNELL'S VISIT TO AMERICA.—LONDON, June 23.—It is stated that Mr. Parnell has decided to revisit America in order to extend and consolidate the Land League organization. He is convinced the Land bill cannot be regarded as a final settlement of the land question. The rumor that he will go when the bill passes through committee, leaving the party under the leadership of Justin McCarthy, is unfounded. He will not leave London until the Lords have sent the measure back to the Commons.

CANADIAN AFFAIRS IN ENGLAND.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.—TORONTO, June 23.—The Globe this morning contains the following especial cable, dated London, June 22nd, 1881:—The following is the first result of Mr. DeCosmos' mission here:—In the House of Commons Lord George Hamilton gave notice of his intention to ask the Under-Secretary for the Colonies whether the attention of his office had been directed to the constant complaints of the inhabitants of British Columbia that although it is ten years since they were incorporated in the Dominion, the main condition which induced them to assent to that incorporation, the construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway system, had, in spite of frequent protests, not been commenced upon that seaboard; whether or not the fact that a large portion of the most fertile part of Vancouver's Island, including large coal fields, had in years past been transferred by Act of the Legislative Assembly to the Canadian Government at their request under the Railway clause of the terms of union to accelerate the construction through Vancouver's Island of the said line of railway; whether under these circumstances the Colonial Office had any intention of representing to the Canadian Government the necessity of complying as soon as possible with the terms of the Carnarvon settlement, which, with the sanction of the Secretary of State for the colonies, were in 1874 agreed to both by Canada and British Columbia.

A Good Investment.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Vermont & Colorado Mining Company in another column. The property of this company is located in the famous Ten Mile Mining District, and adjoining the celebrated Robinson Consolidated mines, the richest in Colorado, which gives ample assurance of the value of the property. A limited amount of the stock of Vermont & Colorado is now offered for sale by Goff, Hastings & Co., financial agents, at the low figure of 50 cents for $10 shares, full paid and non-assessable. It offers a splendid opportunity for the investment of a small amount of capital with an almost absolute certainty of a large and rapid increase in value. In view of Mr. Edward H. Goff's success in managing other mining properties, notably the Boston Gold and Silver, the stock of which has more than doubled in the past six months, we have no hesitation in recommending the stock of the Vermont & Colorado as a safe and profitable investment.—Boston Daily Advertiser. 1m

FROM OTTAWA.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE STAR.]

VENNOR'S PREDICTIONS.—OTTAWA, June 23.—Vennor publishes in a city paper his predictions for July. He says it will give a great deal of rain over a large portion of the United States and Canada, while in Great Britain the weather will in all probability be likewise stormy and wet. The storms of wind, thunder and lightning are likely to be heavy and frequent. Between the 10th and 15th an exceedingly hot term is likely to be experienced in both the United States and Canada. Within a few days from the close of the month, probably about the 27th or 28th, a cool wave will occur, carrying frosts in Canada and cool weather generally with storms of wind and rain throughout the United States.

ST. JEAN BAPTISTE CELEBRATION.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE STAR.]

SOREL, June 23.—St. Jean Baptiste Day falling on Friday this year, our French-Canadian citizens selected this day as the most suitable one for the celebration of their national day. The streets were all astir this morning, firemen, volunteers and members of the different societies which were to join the procession hastening to their respective headquarters to form into line. At 8 o'clock the procession, headed by the town's band, No. 4 Volunteer Company, and firemen, formed and marched to the Parish Church, where divine service was held. After service the procession re-formed and marched down to the Town Hall, where the President of the St. Jean Baptiste Society, Dr. Bowdy, read out the programme of the day, explaining that the steamer "Canada" would be here about 10.30 with the excursionists from Three Rivers and adjoining places, who were coming up to join their fellow citizens in the celebration, and would return to Isle aux Corbeaux, one of the Sorel Islands, where the picnic and speechifying would take place. On the arrival of the steamer an immense crowd from here joined her, en route for the Island. Great regret is felt at the conspicuous absence of the Mayor, Mr. Mathieu, M.P.P., who is unable to take part, owing to pressing parliamentary duties.

THE VICE-REGAL BALL.

The Costumes Worn—List of Montrealers Present.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE STAR.]

QUEBEC, June 23.—The events connected with the ball form the only topic of conversation to-day in town. The costumes worn were certainly of unusual magnificence, several Parisian dresses by Worth being amongst them. It is hard to say who was the belle of the ball, but the appearance of the Misses Sills, Ferrier and Gordon, of Montreal, were much admired. The Marquis danced during the evening with both Miss Sills and Miss Gordon. One of the richest dresses in the room was a Worth one worn by Mde. Paquet. The Countess Des Les Maisons, wife of the new French Consul-General, was present, and great attention was paid her by the leading dignitaries. Her diamonds were very much admired. Very handsome appearances were also made by Mesdames Chapleau, Loranger, J. S. C. Wurtele and the Misses Wurteles. The prevailing colors were white, pink, ecru and cream colored satins, brocades and silks, but blue was also a favorite color.

Amongst the Montrealers present, were the following:—Mr. M. Allan, Mr. J. and Mr. H. Abbott, Judge Cross and Mrs. Cross, M. Chevalier, Hon. J. A., Mrs. and Miss Chapleau, Mr. J. S. Davis, Hon. James and Miss May Ferrier, Mr. Green, Mr. S. Hatt, Mr. W. and Mr. C. Holland, Mr. F. Henshaw, Mr Horace Joseph, Mrs. Johnson, Mr. T. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Kane, Capt. and Mrs. Wilburn, Mr. L. O. and Mr. J. and Mr. C. Monk, Mr. D. Lorn Macdougall, Miss and the Misses Macdougall, Mr. H. A. Nelson, M. P. P., Mr. W. R. and Mr. J. R. Oswald, Hon. Thomas and Mrs. Ryan, Mr., Mrs. and Miss Sills, Miss Torrance, Captain Thibaudeau, Mr. J. R. and Mr. W. Wilson, Mr. Wainwright, Lt.-Col. and Mrs. Whitehead, Mr. Wurtle, M. P.P., and Mrs. Wurtele, and Miss Webber.

WITH THE VOLUNTEERS AT ST. JOHNS.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.]

ST. JOHNS, June 23.—The Canadian volunteers is not an aristocratic institution. There is not a bit of style about it. It can never be charged with "putting on side," or of indulging in the wayward coyishness which marks the regular army as its own. It is made up of the sons of toil, the hard-fisted, and the bony-handed, and it recognizes the maxim that "a man's a man for all that." Burns may have been a poet, and he was one, before he learned to write grammatically; but, in a soldier's eye, a man's a man only so far as he carries with him the front of Mars and the impressement of a soldier's responsibility. But let me be plain. Yesterday all was chaos in the village by the Richelieu; to-day I must admit there is some order. Gangs of disorderly men are no longer seen on the streets, and not one disorderly volunteer is to be found in the thoroughfares. So far as good conduct goes, all is well. Disturbances are unknown, and discipline is exercising a wholesome influence on the camp and its surroundings. I have not seen a drunken man to-day, and when I consider that these raw recruits, fresh from the unrestrained influence of civil life, have been, so quickly brought under control, I can only remind you that it is only what I predicted. I know too well what can be done with even rebellious spirits when the lash of authority hangs over them, and I was not surprised to hear that "all was well" when I visited the camp, yesterday morning. The Militia Act was read, the standing orders given out, five hours drill practiced during the day, and if all did not go as merry as a marriage bell, yet all went well enough to make me thank my stars that I had ventured on the prophecy that "another day would put things in order." But stay! I must not reason without my host. When I say everything was in order I refer to the cheerful obedience of the men and the willing efforts they made to give a ready obedience to orders. They evinced the cheerful temper which indicates the willing mind and that is, at least, one point gained in the struggle for the mastery. But the officers! Well, if I am to be a truthful correspondent I fear I cannot speak so favorably of them as I would like to able to do, and if I am to criticise them I must do so with pleasant tongue but with uncompromising level. We have here, all told, some 1,800 men, and with few exceptions the officers are dressed in a "go as you please" kind of costume, the aged double breasted frock, the later patrol jacket, or the nondescript, nothing at all blending in a singular an unharmonious whole. Cords drawn across the chest do duty for a sash, and swords of the sweet bye-and-bye are to answer for the exigencies of the hour. The men are dressed somewhat after the fashion of the hour, but the officers in many cases belong to a bye-gone age, and suggest the idea that age is venerable in uniform. There are notable exceptions. The 79th still hold the palm, and the Montreal troop of Cavalry and the Shefford Field Battery carry off the palm. But not so all the cavalry. I have seen one "cavalry officer" who wore, and who still wears, a glengarry cap, a rifle cross-belt and, well I do not know what. He was, and is, made up like something you take three sticks a penny at when the horses crowd around the green. And then the volunteers are so democratic. It is very often hard to tell where the private ends and the officer begins. They are to all outward appearances brothers all, and, except on the parade ground, the liberty, equality and fraternity of the martial array is as complete as ever Communist hoped for or as ever Socialist prayed to hear of as being triumphant in the land. Jack is as good as his master and it is impossible to prevent it. As for drill, well, except one battalion, the men do not know their facings, and have no more idea of discipline than to obey their orders, which they do with a cheerful alacrity, which is proof sufficient of their anxiety to learn. Yesterday any man could pass a sentry; to-day passes are required, "Corporals of the guard" are called out, and the men on duty show all the evidence of earnestness, and when told of an error cheerfully admit their own ignorance and their anxiety to learn. The fact is the men know nothing; they are a mob of recruits, and they do as they are told as obediently as children. To-morrow Lieut.-Colonel Worsley commences the rifle practice, and, as an old Hythe man, much is expected from him, and those who expect will, I believe, not be disappointed. Lieut.-Colonel Worsley was, for many years, instructor of musketry in the 60th Rifles, and if a knowledge of rifle practice can be knocked into a soldier in a day, he is just the man to do it. But the difficulties are of the Augean character. In some of the battalions—the 60th for instance and the 51st, too,—boys of 15 have been inlisted, and the staff officers have been obliged to remind more than one commanding officer that boys are not men, although commanding officers may find it convenient to give the boys the uniforms and muster them on the strength of the battalion. But the battalions, or at least most of them, were scraped together, as the rake scrapes the loose hay in a hay field. Of old soldiers there are very few, and more than one commanding officer told me that many of their best men had gone to the States. True, the straw hats are to be seen no more, but I fear I can not say that the men are neat in dress or careful of appearance. But after all they are mostly fresh from the plough and whatever faults of dress there are to be found, should be confined to the officers, many of whom caricature the service by the dress they wear. And, yet, some corps look very well, indeed. Montreal, can I repeat, boast of its troop of Cavalry, and Shefford of its Field Battery, and the 79th retain their place at the head of the list of infantry, but as for the rest, it is suggestive of the story told by the Irish drill sergeant, who annoyed with a squad of recruits, said "Well, now, if you could come out here, and look at yourselves."

The Silver Plume Mining Company.

The case of Crowley vs. Chretien was argued this morning before the Court of Review. This is an appeal from the judgment of Mr. Justice Torrance dismissing the case of Chretien vs. Crowley and allowing Crowley's claim in the cross action of Crowley vs. Chretien. It will be remembered that Chretien bought six houses from Crowley, paying for them with Silver Plume Stock quoted at 72. Mr. Justice Torrance declared, in his judgment, that the stock had been "manipulated" to give it a fictitious value; and the judgment set aside the deed of sale and ordered the return of the property to Crowley. It appears that these actions were brought in the Ejectment Court, one to recover possession of the property and the other to contest it; and it is now contended by Chretien that Mr. Justice Torrance, sitting in the Ejectment Court, had not the power to set aside the deed of sale, which could only have been done by the Superior Court sitting regularly as such. He, therefore, prays that the judgment be set aside as illegal. The case is en deliberé.

The New Associates in Arts.

A number of those interested in the results of the University School examination assembled this morning in the William Molson Hall of McGill College to hear the public announcement of the names of the successful candidates. Upon the platform were seated Principal Dawson, C.M.G., Profs. Moyse, Chandler and Markgraf, Rev. E. J. Rexford, Rev. Canon Norman, Dr. H. Aspinwall Howe, Dr. F. W. Kelley, M.A., Ph. D., Messrs. W. C. Baynes and John Dougall.

Prof. George Chandler then read the list of the new associates and Principal Dawson presented their certificates to them.

Canon Norman in an excellent address congratulated Miss Francis, the Senior Associate in Arts, upon the high position she had taken, and also the High School, of Montreal, ten pupils of which school headed the list, surpassing all pupils of the various other schools which had sent up candidates.

Prof. Moyse made some remarks with regard to the English work in the examinations, pronouncing the work done to be on the whole very satisfactory. Though he had a good deal of praise to bestow, yet he would mention, he said, the few points coming under his notice as an examiner which shewed that there were still a few mental gaps to fill in those who, on being asked to explain "the tower on Shinar's Plain," wrote in answer that it was "Stirling Castle," or those who, being questioned as to what the "Dunciad" was, replied that it was a poem, the hero of which was "Duns Scotus," or who said that Gibbons' "Decline and Fall" was one of the finest poems in the language," and that one of Chaucer's finest works was the "Merry Wives of Windsor." After a short address from Principal Dawson, the proceedings terminated.

THE SHIP LABORERS' STRIKE.

More Intimidation—Arrests.—$100 Fine or Three Months—Police Reinforcements.

There appears as yet to be no indications of an end being put to the strike on the wharves, as the members of the Ship Laborers' Society show no signs of relaxing the conditions of their demand, and the stevedores are determined not to be moved from their purpose.

Joseph Gingrass, Henri Gironx and Treffle St. Amand, took a buggy and proceeded to the various vessels in which landsmen were engaged in the work of unloading, and ordered them to desist, on pain of being made to do so. The Government Harbor Police being put on their track, they were pursued for some distance in another buggy, and were arrested on charge of intimidation. On being brought before His Honor Mr. Dugas, this morning, a fine of $100 or three months' imprisonment was imposed upon each of them. Execution of the sentence being suspended.

Several determined efforts were made by men to-day to board the vessels on which landsmen were working with the supposed intention of spotting them, but they were turned back by the police. To get on board such vessels all sorts of ruses were resorted to; a couple of men donned volunteer uniforms and sauntered on to the quay, others wanted to see their brothers, fathers, uncles, etc., while others wanted work.

One of these spies, however, must have been able to steal on to the "Scotland," as last night a couple of the men engaged on her were brutally assaulted and beaten, on St. Paul street.

The agents of eight of the steamship lines have caused to be published in the papers an advertisement for men not being members of the Union, offering twenty cents an hour.

A detachment of the Quebec Government Harbor Police, consisting of Chief Trudel, two sergeants and thirty men, arrived in town by this morning's boat, and were sworn in for service in the city. The members of our Harbor Police have been on continuous duty since Sunday, being furnished with meals at the expense of the Government, in which respect alone are they in a better position than the members of the City Force, on duty on the revetment wall, who have, as yet, received no rations whatever.

ST. JEAN BAPTISTE.

The Celebration To-morrow—The Finest Display for Years Past—The Procession—The Route—Who Will Take Part.

Ever since the celebration of St. Jean Baptiste Day in 1874, the display made in Montreal has been small in comparison with the manner in which the day will be honored to-morrow. Preparations have been in progress for many weeks back, and some assert that the procession will surpass that held seven years ago. Fourteen distinct societies will be in the line of procession, each accompanied by a band and from one to four allegorical cars representing the different trades. Several bands from the United States will also be present. At certain intervals along the route to be taken, are erected very neat arches, and altogether to-morrow will be a great gala day for our French-Canadian citizens and one not very soon to be forgotten. The following is a list of the societies and parties who will compose the procession:—Ste. Cunegonde, with the Fire Brigade and four allegorical cars; Sacred Heart, St. Jean Baptiste, with Fire Brigade; St. Gabriel, St. Paul, St. Bridget's, St. Joseph, Nativite d'Hochelaga, St. Vincent de Paul, St. Henri des Tanneries, with Fire Brigade; St. Enfant Jesus, St. Jacques, Notre Dame de Grace, invited guests, the Presidents of the National Societies, the ex-officers of the St. Jean Baptiste Society, the Mayor, the President and Chaplain of St. Jean Baptiste Society, and a representation of St. John the Baptist in a car.

THE ROUTE OF PROCESSION.

The societies will march from their different rendezvous and assemble on Craig street, opposite the Champ de Mars, at 7 o'clock. Half an hour later they will take the following route, headed by the Ste. Cunegonde section which will be accompanied by the Prince of Wales Band:—Along Craig to St. Antoine, returning by Seigneurs, St. Joseph, McGill, St. James, and Place D'Armes to the Notre Dame Church where Mass will be celebrated.

The pic-nic of the Society will be held at Isle Gros Bois in the afternoon, when four boats will run between the city and the Island. A good programme of amusements, to take place during the afternoon, has been prepared and prizes will be given for running, &c.

It was by mistake that the papers spoke of H. Steinsen & Co. furnishing an allegorical car for the procession of St. Jean Baptiste to-morrow, but they allow their French-Canadian employees to take part in the celebration.

Messrs. Peters & Co., of Quebec, have received the contract for the building of the proposed new worsted factory, which is to be erected at Hare Point. Work was commenced yesterday on the new factory building near the Marine Hospital. It will be 233 feet by 57, three stories high, and will have 250 horse-power. The contractor is Mr. Simon Peters. Mr. Withall has been appointed President of the Company, and Hon. Mr. Garneau Vice-President.

No. 2 Red wheat sold at 1.26⅛ August in New York.

The breadstuffs market to-day was active and again higher particularly for Superior Extra. The rise is said to be due partly to a fair consumptive demand and partly to an effort by speculators to "corner" the market in view of discouraging crop reports from the Western States. On Change to-day 225 bbls Superior Extra sold at $5.75 and 500 do at $5.85. It was prophested that $6 would even be reached. Wholesale Provision Market.

The dairy produce trade exhibits no particularly new features. The butter trade is checked by the high prices now ruling, and fine Eastern Townships cannot be got under 18c and 19c. Forty packages sold for export yesterday at 19. A contemporary says that there were sales of cheese in the Belleville and Brockville districts yesterday of over 1,500 boxes at 9⅝c, and in this market sales were made of 160 boxes at 9⅝c, 150 do, at 9⅝c, and 200 boxes at 9¾c. In all it is said about 900 boxes changed hands at 9½c to 9⅝c. A good many factorymen have advanced their ideas in the country to 9⅝c to 10c. Butter—New—Wholesale prices—Creamery, fancy fresh, per lb. 20c to 22c; Townships, per lb. 16c to 19c; Morrisburg and district, per lb. 15c to 17c. Western dairy, per pound, 14c. Cheese—Fine Factory, per lb. 9½c to 9¾c; Skims, per lb. 5c to 5½c. Yesterday afternoon eggs sold at 19c and the range to-day is about 18c to 19c. At this time last year eggs were worth 10½c. Mess pork, new, per brl. $19.75 to $20.50; thin do, per brl. $19; Hams, city cured, per lb. 13c to 14c; Hams, canvassed, per lb. 15c; Lard, in pails, per lb. 14c to 14½c; Bacon, per lb. 11c to 12c; Ashes, pots, per brl. $4.05 to $4.10.

Finance and Commerce.

The money market was steady. Call and short-dated loans on sound collateral rule at 4 to 5 and time loans at 5 to 6 per cent. The market for Sterling Exchange is quiet but steady at 8⅝ to 8¾ prem. for round amounts of 60-day bills between banks, 8⅞ to 9 prem. over the counter.

The feature of the stock market this a.m. was the severe "break" in Ontario, which sold down to 87 and closed 2 per cent. weaker at noon at 89½ bid. The rest of the list was steady to firm.

Following were this morning's stock sales:—10 Montreal, 191½, 40 do, 191¾; 325 Ontario, 88, 400 do, 87; 50 do, 87¾, 50 do, 87¾; 377 do, 88, 400 do, 89; 500 do, 89½; 115 Commerce, 146½; 9 Exchange, 138; 75 Merchants, 122¼; 10 do, 122½; 25 Union, 90; 25 Montreal Telegraph, 131¾; 25 do, 132; 58 Richelieu, 60¼; 25 Montreal Cotton, 167½.

The New York stock market opened quiet and subsequently became strong for the specialties. Vanderbilt & Grangers were steady. Coal shares were a shade lower, as was also Erie. Boston Air Line rose 3 per cent. Quicksilver, common and preferred, rose 1 to 1½ per cent. Illinois Central, 1¼, and Peoria, ⅝. Telegraph shares were quiet and unchanged.

The stock market was dull this p.m. and closed generally steady.

Afternoon Sales:—10 Montreal, 192; 300 Ontario, 89½; 25 do, 89¾; 1,370 do, 89½; 25 Toronto, 151, 50 Gas, 138¾; $5,600 Canada Central bonds, 103½.

IN MEMORIAM.

Benjamin Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield.

BORN DEC. 21, 1804. DIED APRIL 19, 1881.

Disraeli dead! The trappings of late days,
The Coronet, the Garter, slip aside,
The peer's emblazonment, the victor's bays,
The pageantry of pride.

Triumph's mere symbols, badges of success,
Who weighs, who marks them now when all is said
In simple words, low-breathed in heaviness—
Disraeli's dead!

So all have known him from that earlier time
Of meteoric and all-daring youth
And through the season of his dazzling prime,
And so to-day in sooth.

'Tis Benjamin Disraeli all will mourn,
Nor he the less unfeignedly whose lance
Against that shield and crest full oft had borne
In combat à outrance.

The fearless fighter and the flashing wit
Swordless and silent! 'Tis a thought to dim
The young spring sunshine, glancing, as was fit,
Bright at the last on him,

Who knew no touch of winter in his soul,
Holding the Greek gift yet in mind and tongue,
And who, though faring past life's common goal,
Loved of the gods, died young.

Like the enchantress of the Nile, unstaled
By custom as unchilled by creeping years,
A world-compeller, who not often failed
In fight with his few peers.

Success incarnate, self-inspired, self-raised,
To that proud height whereof youth's fancy aimed,
Whom even those who doubted while they praised
Admired, e'en while they blamed.

No more that fine invective's flow to hear,
That buoyant wisdom or that biting wit!
To see him and his one sole battle peer
Sharp counter hit for hit.

No more to picture that impassive face,
That unbetraying eye, that fadeless curl!
No more in plot or policy to trace
The hand of the great Earl?

How strange it seems, and how unwelcome! Rest,
Not least amid our greatest! Who would dare
Deny thee place and splendor with the best
Who breathed our English air!

Peace, lasting peace, that strife no more shall break,
With honor none may challenge, crown thee now,
Whatever laid, not faction's self would shake
The laurel from thy brow.

And England, who for thy quenched brightness grieves,
Garlands the sword no more to leave its sheath,
And, turning from thy simple gravestone, leaves
A tear upon the wreath.

Punch.

A SIMPLE WOMAN.

"Of course not, Mr. Sievewright," exclaimed poor Mary, telling a great social fib, though she was the soul of truth; "at least—at least, not if you did not sit there so long, or take me twice into the other room on the same evening."

"Oh, you are prudish, Miss Shenstone," declared Sievewright, bouncing from his seat, "and of course I cannot dispute a young lady's decision, or charge her with affectation. But I'll tell you what Miss Shenstone, you have perhaps done yourself more harm by that speech than you are aware of, or than you are likely to amend in a hurry," and he strode off with his conceited head erect, his nostrils expanded, and the last notes of his voice sounding of all things in the world like a landrail's rattle.

Mr. Sievewright was mortally offended, and at the same moment a deputation, headed by Vie, waited upon Mary Shenstone to beg her to abdicate the piano stool.

"Whatever is the matter with you, Mary? Have you been bitten by a man without an ear? Hem, Mr. Sievewright dances in time, doesn't he? only he turns out his toes like a negro. But we can bear your quadrilles no longer, dear. Perhaps they are intended for sailors, and introduce every now and then a bit of hornpipe; perhaps they are lawyer's labyrinths; but they're not for us, inoffensive, unsophisticated country mortals. Freddy and I are about to execute a set of duets, and nobody is to sit beside us and make proposals, or talk nonsense—a serpent at the ear of Eve: and see if the company don't get along to our music!"

Mary went and hid her diminished head in a corner; she was not altogether dissatisfied with the result of her work, though it had cost her a great stretch of spirit. Mr. Sievewright's leave taking was very like a threat, a great deal too boasting and wrathful for a mere warning: but it was in keeping with the man and his bluster. What could he do to harm her? Sitting there recovering her tranquillity and cheerfulness, and the pretty fresh pink of her cheeks, Mary smiled in her innocence and ignorance at the fancy of Mr. Sievewright's harming her. And Ralph Brooke was watching the transaction with bright, observant eyes, and advanced straight to Mary when all was over. Ralph's aid had not been forthcoming when it was wanted, but alas! for Mary's unbending dignity, she forgave the offence on the instant, and allowed him to lead her off, smiling as she hung on his arm the moment he appeared to fetch her.

CHAPTER IX.

THE CHARGE.

"I don't believe one word of it; it is a gross falsehood!" exclaimed Ralph Brooke, furiously—he was in one of the Buckley preserves with John Singleton.

"Easy, easy, Rafey; Anthony gabbles a deal of nonsense. I should not have taken it on his word alone; but you saw how the creature made up to her—what a dead set he made at her the moment he heard her name. I believe he was ass enough to think that a bleating sheep like him might distance you all yet—win the prize and carry off Buckley. There would have been a sell! It was only after Miss Shenstone repulsed him that he came out with this whispered piece of information, I suppose by way of revenge. But Buckley is not an entailed estate: you Brookes were Brookes of Chisleton within three or four generations, and none of the proprietors cared to entail. And I can tell you, though you may not have been in the way of hearing it—the person most concerned is commonly the worst informed in these cases—your grandfather had a tremendous row with your father just before the old squire's attack, and just after he had been reconciled to his daughter. I have heard my mother say that people thought if your grandmother had been alive, she might have kept things straight; but your mother did no good. Father and son were not on speaking terms, and old Mr. Brooke sent back to the post-office any letters to Harry Brooke or his wife forwarded to Buckley, disowning all connection with them: your father and mother only returned after your grandfather was incapable. If I were you, Ralph, I would just take a run up to London, and have a look in at Doctors' Commons."

"Never," refused Ralph, biting his lips with rage and pain.

"Well, well, you know your own business best: but I thought it was a friend's part to give you the hint. It may be all folly of Anthony's to create a sensation and make himself a person of consequence; only his conduct corresponded uncommonly with the communication; there's the rub, and it serves as an involuntary witness. There may be another way of keeping things straight," continued John, looking at Ralph with a half smile; "a very agreeable way; I see it in the background; but if you would take my advice Ralph, you would attend to your own interests in the first place. There is a mighty difference between king and king-consort, though I must say my father has experienced none; he has acted for my mother quite as if they were one flesh, but then he has both a supple and a firm grasp."

"I wish you would have done, John," interrupted Ralph, impatiently. "You understand many things, but it seems you don't understand my feelings on some points. I hate to have Miss Shenstone's name mixed up with such talk—there I tell you I will not have it, though of course I'm obliged to you speaking out what you've heard, meaning to serve me. But it is a great lie, a shameful, abominable lie, and I would tell Sievewright so if I saw him."

"Fortunately, Ralph, as you are in such a pleasant state of mind, Anthony is in London again by this time, and you say you won't go up to seek him there—not that there would be any old humbug of pistols; I do not know what your principles may be in that walk, but I dare swear Anthony would not kill a mouse unless with his pen. He would give you back as good as he got with his long tongue, unless he was restrained by the consideration of your agency; that would be the whole. By-the-by, I am going up to town myself, Ralph; I have been too long in the country for an idle man," continued John Singleton, with a little restlessness. "There are the clubs, and the park, and the news, and one's acquaintances in the town, to help to pass time and what has one to do but to pass one's time as harmlessly as a fly, if possible!" went on John Singleton, with his old irresponsible, droll dolce far niente. "I am aware it is not a model speech for a clergyman's son, but I don't perceive that my father's work is better by any very much longer chalk. Take what goods the gods send us and be thankful, that's my motto. We aren't Titans, to fight with the gods; remember that, my good fellow and what the Titans got for their pains—buried half the world in ruins; that was their work. Depend upon it, my philosophy is the only one for the upper million."

"When do you leave? Won't you call at the house first?" asked Ralph, abruptly, his words of course in a ferment of passion, and he was unable to be anything but stiff and cold to conceal his agitation.

The Princess Louise.

Mrs. Frechette describes the Princess Louise in Harper as not only an artist but a model house-keeper. The daughter of the Queen does not think it beneath her dignity to go into the laundry and instruct the maids concerning their duties, or to give an occasional eye to the marketing when it is brought in. A friend of Mrs. Frechette was lately dining at Rideau Hall, and during the dinner she remarked upon the excellence of the oyster pates to one of the ladies in waiting to the Princess. "Yes," she replied, "they were made by her Royal Highness."

The Grand Trunk and the City.

To the Editor of THE STAR:

SIR,—As the Editorials in the Gazette and Herald, are in all probability written by Mr. Hickson, the public will no doubt treat them as partisan productions.

The following are the facts of the case:

In the year 1849 the city loaned to the St. L. & Atlantic R. $500,000, taking 5,000 shares of their stock as collateral security therefor.

In the year 1850 the G. T. R. assumed all the liabilities of the A. & St. L. R.

The 1st and 2nd instalments of the debt to the city were paid at maturity.

The G. T. Arrangements Act was passed in 1862. Section 36 of this Act provides that nothing in this Act contained shall effect or prejudice the present rights of the City of Montreal, as holders of shares in the St. L. & A. D. Co'y, or under any agreement in respect thereof.

On the first day of Nov., 1864, the city obtained a judgment against the G.T.R. for $120,150, or over one hundred and twenty thousand dollars.

Execution can be issued for this amount any day. There is no litigation requested for this, and it does not require an able lawyer to realize if the claim is pushed. If a private individual had the judgment it would be realized, within a very short time, inasmuch as the G.T.R. is a solvent concern.

The total amount now due the city, calculated at four per cent, amounts to $681,650; at legal interest to over seven hundred thousand dollars, inclusive of the judgment.

On the 31st of May, 1880, Mr. Hickson offered the city, in full settlement of its claim, four hundred thousand dollars "of the ordinary stock of the G.T.R."

This stock is quoted at 23c.

At 25c we would get $100,000, for a claim of $700,000,—that is to say, if we could sell the ordinary stock at all.

The Finance Committee do not think it advisable to settle a seven hundred thousand dollar claim for 13c. in the dollar, especially when the debtor is solvent, more especially as we have a judgment against the G. T. R. for $120,000, with interest and costs from the 1st Nov., 1864.

This amounts now to about two hundred and thirty-five thousand dollars ($235,000.)

The balance due the city can be recovered by a suit in the same way as we obtained the first judgment.

A twenty-five thousand dollar per annum printing and advertising account is enough to completely paralyze the Chief Editor and the Manager of the Gazette Company. This Chief Editor and his little bait digger allow a column of abuse to be inserted in their paper, for the purpose of scaring conscientious Aldermen from doing their duty.

The Gazette recommends the Council to accept "400,000" of "ordinary shares" of the Grand Trunk reputed to be worth $104,000 in cash, if any one is fool enough to buy them, some of which the Mayor assured the Finance Committee he owned, and which in emphatic terms he stated to be worth less. The Gazette (Mr. Hickson) recommends us to accept ducks and drakes for an undoubted claim of seven hundred thousand dollars from a solvent debtor, who is amply able to pay, but wishes to skulk out of the obligation. Mr. Hickson knows that we loaned this money to the St. Lawrence & Atlantic Railway. That the G. T. R. assumed the debt. That the G. T. R. must pay it, principal and interest, every honorable man will decide. There is no doubt about the debt. The city gave the hard cash and took collateral security for the loan. The Gazette (Mr. Hickson) says we ought not to make the G. T. R. pay because they have done our city so much good.

The G.T.R. offices and workshops are established here because it is the most convenient place. They would change to-morrow if it paid. Anyone who accuses Mr. Hickson, or his board, of sentimental attachments to Montreal will be mistaken every time.

The city of Montreal has grown in spite of the Grand Trunk; in spite of its discriminating freight rates; in spite of a successful opposition to competing lines into our city. The G.T.R. holds us by the throat and there will be no boom in real estate or business here until we have one or two more competing lines to the west. The G.T.R. has received large amounts from the Dominion in grants, guarantee debentures, &c., variously estimated from "fifteen million upwards." From our city it is now receiving an annual subsidy of $6,000 per annum in the shape of interest on $104,000, the cost of Albert and Brennan streets opening. This amount our taxpayers are contributing annually to the Grand Trunk. Besides the Brennan street opening saves the Company at least $100,000 per annum in cartage alone.

In face of these facts the Gazette (Mr. Hickson) says it is "suicidal madness" for us to expect twenty shillings in the pound from a solvent debtor; and Mr. Hickson comes to us in forma pauperis, and offers us about 13c in the dollar nominally. I do not believe we could sell one of the "ordinary shares" of the Grand Trunk Railway. It requires a great deal of assurance on the eve of issuing two millions more of this ordinary stock to make such a proposal. It will be a great consolation to the new subscribers to know what a cunning manager they have here, who can write editorials in two newspapers at once, and pay a dollar with a ten cent piece. This fact will be alluded to by the Chief Editor of the Gazette in his next campaign speech as an additional proof of the loyalty of colonists.

We insist on all our ratepayers discharging their debts to us in full. We even seize and sell the property of delinquent taxpayers. But we love Mr. Hickson and the English stockholders so well, and in token of gratitude for the elegant passenger station they have erected for us, we will consider their 10 cents worth a colonist's dollar.

Yours truly,

G. W. STEPHENS.

N.B.—Would the Gazette (Mr. Hickson) make the proposition to the Quebec Government to take $57,000 for the $575,000 we have to pay them on account of the Municipal Loan Fund. We cannot find any Alderman mean enough to make such a proposition. G. W. S.

TRAVEL, ADVENTURE AND NATIONAL CUSTOMS.

A CHINESE HELL.—A traveller thus describes a representation of the punishment of the wicked after death, according to the Buddhist theory, which he witnessed in the suburbs of Canton:—"After a walk of about a mile, we came to the Temple of Horrors. This is a horrible place—that is, the scenes are hideous. The intention is to represent what a bad man would suffer after death. It is composed of ten different groups of statuary, of clay, and many of them are crumbling to pieces. The first group represents the trial of the man; he is surrounded by his family and friends, who are trying to defend him; the second, where he is condemned and given over to the executioner; in the third he is undergoing a semi-transformation from the man to the brute; the fourth, where he is put into a mill head downwards, and is being ground up; his dog is by the side of the mill licking up his blood. In the fifth scene he is being placed between two boards, and is sawed down lengthwise; sixth, he is under a large bell, which is rung until the concussion kills him; seventh, the man is placed upon a table, and two men are beating him with large wooden paddles; eighth, he is upon a rack, and the executioners are tearing his flesh with red-hot pincers; ninth, he is in a cauldron of boiling lead; the tenth scene represents him upon a gridiron, undergoing the process of roasting. In all these scenes his family are present; also large figures who represent the judge, executioners, little devils, and various instruments of torture."

A RAMBLE THROUGH MAINE.—The traveller and camper-out in Maine, unless he penetrates its more northern portions, has less reason to remember it as a pine-tree State than a birch-tree State. The white pine forests have melted away like snow in the Spring and gone down stream, leaving only patches here and there in the more remote and inaccessible parts. The portion of the State I saw, the valley of the Kennebec and the woods about Moxie Lake, had been shorn of its pine timber more than forty years before, and is now covered with a thick growth of spruce and cedar and various deciduous trees. But the birch abounds. Indeed when the pine goes out the birch comes in; the race of men succeeds the race of giants. This tree has great stay-at-home qualities. Let the sombre, aspiring, mysterious pine go; the birch has humble every-day uses. In Maine, the paper or canoe birch is turned to more account than any other tree. Uncle Nathan, our guide, said it was made especially for the camper out; yes, and for the woodman and frontiersman generally. It is a magazine, a furnishing store set up in the wilderness, whose goods are free to every comer. The whole equipment of the camp lies folded in it, and comes forth at the beck of the woodman's axe; tent, water-proof roof, boat, camp utensils, buckets, cups, plates, spoons, napkins, table-cloths, paper for letters or your journal, torches, candles, kindling wood and fuel. The canoe birch yields you its vestments with the utmost liberality. Ask for its coat, and it gives you its waistcoat also. Its bark seems wrapped about it layer upon layer, and comes off with great ease. We saw many rude structures and cabins shingled and sided with it, and hay-stacks capped with it. Near a maple-sugar camp there was a large pile of birch-bark sap-buckets, each bucket made of a piece of bark about a yard square, folded up as a tinman folds up a sheet of tin to make a square vessel, the corners bent around against the sides, and held by a wooden pin. When one day we were overtaken by a shower in travelling through the woods, our guide quickly stripped large sheets of bark from a near tree, and we had each a perfect umbrella as by magic. When the rain was over, and we moved on, I wrapped mine about me like a large leather apron, and it shielded my clothes from the wet bushes. When we came to a spring, Uncle Nathan would have a birch bark cup ready before any of us could get a tin out of his knapsack, and I think water never tastes so sweet as from one of these bark cups. It is exactly the thing. It just fits the mouth, and it seems to give new virtues to the water. It makes me thirsty now when I think of it. In our camp at Moxie we made a large birch-bark box to keep the butter in; and the butter in this box, covered with some leafy boughs, I think improved in flavor day by day. Maine butter needs something to mollify and sweeten it a little, and I think birch bark will do it. In camp Uncle Nathan often drank his tea and coffee from a bark cup; the china closet in the birch-tree was always handy, and our vulgar tinware was generally a good deal mixed and the kitchen-maid not at all particular about dish washing. We all tried the oatmeal with the maple syrup in one of these dishes, and the stewed mountain cranberries, using a birch-bark spoon, and never found service better. Uncle Nathan declared he could boil potatoes in a bark kettle, and I did not doubt him. Instead of sending our soiled napkins and table-spreads to the wash, we rolled them up into candles and torches, and drew daily upon our stores in the forest for new ones.—June Atlantic.

Prejudice Kills.

"Eleven years our daughter suffered on a bed of misery under the care of several of the best (and some of the worst) physicians, who gave her disease various names but no relief, and now she is restored to us in good health by as simple a remedy as Hop Bitters, that we had poohed at for two years, before using it. We earnestly hope and pray that no one else will let their sick suffer as we did, on account of prejudice against so good a medicine as Hop Bitters."—The Parents.—Telegram.

"I'm all Played Out."

Is a common complaint. If you feel so, get a package of Kidney Wort and take it and you will at once feel its tonic power. It renews the healthy action of the kidneys, bowels and liver, and thus restores the natural life and strength to the weary body. It can now be had in either dry or liquid form, and in either way is always prompt and efficient in action.—New Bedford Standard.

There is not a more dangerous class of disorders than those which effect the breathing organs Nullify this danger with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil—a pulmonic of acknowledged efficacy. It cures lameness and soreness when applyed externally, as well as swelled neck and crick in the back; and as an inward specific, possesses most substantial claims to public confidence. 9

Two Hundred and Forty-four Miles of Stove Polish.

Messrs. Morse Bros., of Canton, Mass., are now making large shipments of "The Rising Sun" Stove Polish to London, England. Their labor-saving machinery enables them to overcome the difference in cost of labor and compete successfully with European manufacturers. Their goods have now been sold in the United States for sixteen years, and in the Maritime Provinces for ten years. The sale of "The Rising Sun" Stove Polish in the United States, Canada, Great Britain and Sandwich Islands in 1880 reached the enormous quantity of 724 tons, 3,864,528 packages. As the cakes are four inches long, the product of 1880, placed in a line, would extend two hundred and forty-four miles. Each package of the genuine bears their long established trade mark—a picture of the rising sun—registered in the United States, England and Canada. The trade and consumers are especially cautioned against dangerous imitations in the market of their long-established trade mark, a picture of the rising sun, by which unprincipled manufacturers are seeking to reap the advantage of the great reputation and superior quality of the genuine article. Their Montreal agents are Messrs. Lyman, Sons & Co., wholesale druggists.

M. M. B. Goodwin, an editor in Chardon, Ohio, says he was not expected to live, being bloated beyond belief, but Kidney-Wort cured him.

Anna L. Jarrett of South Salem, N. Y., says that seven years suffering from kidney troubles and other complications was ended by the use of Kidney-Wort.

John B. Lawrence of Jackson, Tenn., suffered for years from liver and kidney troubles and after taking "barrels of other medicines," Kidney-Wort made him well.

DR. RADWAY'S

Sarsaparillian Resolvent

The Great Blood Purifier.

CHANGES AS SEEN AND FELT, AS THEY DAILY OCCUR AFTER USING A FEW DOSES.

1. Good spirits, disappearance of weakness, languor, melancholy, increase and hardiness of flesh and muscles, etc.

2. Strength increases, appetite improves, relish for food, no more sour eructations of waterbrash, good digestion, calm and undisturbed sleep, awaken fresh and vigorous.

3. Disappearance of spots, blotches, pimples; the skin looks clear and healthy; the urine changed from its turbid and cloudy appearance to a clear cherry or amber color; water passes freely from the bladder through the urethra without pain or scalding; little or no sediment no pain or weakness.

4. Marked diminution of quantity and frequency of involuntary weakening discharges (if afflicted in that way), with certainty of permanent cure. Increased strength exhibited in the secreting glands, and functional harmony restored to the several organs.

5. Yellow tinge on the white of the eyes, and the swarthy, saffron appearance of the skin changed to a clear, lively and healthy color

6. Those suffering from weak or ulcerated lungs or tubercles will realize great benefit in expectorating freely the tough phlegm or mucus from the lungs, air cells, bronchi or windpipe, throat or head; diminishing the frequency of cough; general increase of strength throughout the system; stoppage of night sweats and pains and feelings of weakness around the ankles, legs, shoulders, etc., cessation of cold and chills, sense of suffocation, hard breathing and paroxysm of cough on lying down or arising in the morning. All these distressing symptoms gradually and surely disappear.

7. As day after day the SARSAPARILLIAN is taken new signs of returning health will appear; as the blood improves in purity and strength, disease will diminish, and all foreign and impure deposits, nodes, tumors, cancers, hard lumps, etc., will be resolved away, and unsound made sound and healthy; ulcers, fever sores, chronic skin diseases gradually disappear.

8. In cases where the system has been salivated, and Mercury, Quicksilver, Corrosive Sublimate have accumulated and become deposited in the bones, joints, etc., causing caries of the bones, rickets, spinal curvatures, contortions, white swellings, varicose veins, etc., the SARSAPARILLIAN will resolve away these deposits and exterminate the virus of the disease from the system.

9. If those who are taking these medicines for the cure of Chronic Scrofulous diseases, however slow may be the cure, "feel better," and find their general health improving, their flesh and weight increasing or even keeping its own, it is a sure sign that the cure is progressing. In these diseases the patient either gets better or worse—the virus of the disease is not inactive; if not arrested and driven from the blood, it will spread and continue to undermine the constitution. As soon as the SARSAPARILLIAN makes the patient "feel better," every hour you will grow better and increase in health, strength and flesh.

The great power of this remedy is in diseases that threaten death, as in
