

1946	APRIL	1948
S	M	T
4	5	6
11	12	13
18	19	20
25	26	27

Sherbrooke Daily Record

WEATHER

Cold and cool. Wind northwest 15 decreasing to light this afternoon. Sunday: Warmer, showers in evening. Temperatures yesterday: Maximum 60, minimum 25. Year ago: Maximum 36, minimum 19.

THE PAPER OF THE EASTERN TOWNSHIPS

Established 1897. PRICE: 5 CENTS SHERBROOKE, QUEBEC, SATURDAY, APRIL 17, 1948. Fifty-First Year

World News In Brief

Paris, April 17.—(AP)—The world's newest political and economic legislature—the Council of European Ministers on the Marshall Plan—holds its first working session here today.

The Council is composed of foreign ministers or others representing the 18 signers of the agreement yesterday which set up the European organization for economic co-operation. It meets in the French Foreign Ministry.

Cincinnati, April 17.—(AP)—The Ohio river flood crest swung down on Cincinnati today while across the river at Newport, Ky., workers fought an around-the-clock battle against rising waters.

Newport police predicted townspeople and 640 soldiers would win their fight to keep the Licking river from an area housing 10,000 persons. But it was an enormous task.

Athens, April 17.—(AP)—Dispatches said today the Greek army is pressing its thrust against more than 2,000 miles of rebel-infested territory in central Greece.

Several sources said the large-scale attack was the opening of the Nationalists' spring offensive. One said 20,000 to 30,000 troops are involved.

Tokyo, April 17.—(AP)—Baron Kantaro Suzuki, whose career paralleled the rise and fall of the Japanese empire, died today of a liver ailment at 79. Suzuki, an admiral, was Nippon's Premier when Emperor Hirohito broadcast acceptance of allied surrender terms in August, 1945. He resigned after the broadcast.

New Delhi, April 17.—(Reuters)—The Government of India has accepted a plan for formation of a national cadet corps as a nursery for training future officers in the country's armed forces.

Helsinki, April 17.—(AP)—Premier Mauno Pekala said yesterday his Cabinet would resign if Parliament did not approve the Russo-Finnish treaty. The friendship and military assistance agreement was drafted two weeks ago in Moscow. Parliament is expected to vote on it April 23.

Berlin, April 17.—(Reuters)—Air Commodore R. N. Waite, head of the British inquiry commission which yesterday concluded its investigation of last week's Russia-British air collision over Berlin, left today for London.

He was carrying a brief case containing the inquiry commission's report which later today in London he will present to Gen. Sir Brian Robertson, British military governor in Germany.

Singapore, April 17.—(AP)—Nearly all this big port's harbor labor force of 6,000 men struck today demanding higher wages and protesting police raids on union headquarters. The strike tied up 20 ships and brought work on the docks to a standstill.

Italians Told Election May Be Suspended If Liberty Of Vote Is Compromised

Trieste Issue Raised Again On Eve Of Italian Election

By EDWARD E. BOMAR
Washington, April 17.—(AP)—The western powers landed their final blow of the Italian election campaign yesterday with a third demand on Russia for a yes-or-no answer on the Trieste question. Just six hours before the formal wind-up of the Italian campaign, in which the Communists are bidding for control, the United States, Britain and France in effect called on Moscow yesterday to quit stalling over their proposal to turn Trieste back to Italy.

The western demand served as a final reminder to millions of Italians voting Sunday that Russia blocks the way to the border city's return. The closing diplomatic stroke climaxed a long series of measures aimed at winning friends for western democracy in strategic Italy. The greatest step in that direction was passage last month of the vast European Recovery Program, under which American supplies already are flowing to Italy. United States shipments of food, coal and other aid to the Mediterranean country since VJ-Day now total an estimated $1,900,000,000.

In another last-minute move, Attorney-General Clark reminded Italians in a short-wave broadcast last night that the United States had found it necessary to bar its doors to Communists.

He appealed to the Italian people to return "a resounding victory for God and freedom" in Sunday's election.

T.C.A. Has Deficit Of $1,761,000

Ottawa, April 17.—(AP)—Increased use of air travel by the Canadian public failed to save Trans-Canada Air Lines from a deficit of $1,761,000 on its North American operations last year. T.C.A. (Atlantic) Ltd., however, had a surplus of $136,000 on its flights to and from Britain.

The annual report of the companies, signed by President G. R. McGregor, was tabled in the Commons yesterday by Reconstruction Minister Howe. The finances of the domestic and Trans-Atlantic operations were presented separately.

T.C.A.'s loss was suffered despite a 40-per-cent increase in passenger traffic and a 38-per-cent jump in express. Air mail was unchanged. The company's operating revenues last year were $15,279,346 which did not offset expenses of $16,799,401. This resulted in an operating deficit of $1,499,145. The company also had interest charge of $261,987, which are included in the total deficit.

In 1946 revenues were $12,810,805. Expenses were $13,925,800.

Mr. Tummon said that the period after the removal of ceiling prices on feed grains was "disastrous for hog producers." Their costs had risen sharply before hog prices increased.

He explained that when subsidies and ceilings on feed grains were removed the hog producer found himself bearing increased costs. These equalled the former subsidies without an equivalent rise in the price of his own product. This period lasted from Oct. 22 until the end of the year.

He charged that feed grains were

Continued on Page 8

The newest demands on Russia were carefully timed. The State Department published the note from Under-Secretary Lovett to Soviet Ambassador Alexandru S. Panyushkin just six hours before the deadline set by the Italian Government to provide a 32-hour breathing spell before the polls open.

Lovett noted that Moscow had said in a note last Tuesday that the procedure suggested for returning the free territory of Trieste was "unacceptable." In reply, he said that if Russia only would agree to the idea "in principle," the United States would be glad to receive Moscow's suggestions on how to arrange the transfer.

The British and French notes were similar. The Trieste proposal was unexpectedly advanced March 29 and quickly accepted by Italy. When Russia failed to respond promptly, the western powers followed up with a prodding reminder April 9 suggesting a meeting in Paris early next month to agree on arrangements.

The western powers had proposed revising the Italian peace treaty to permit the return of Trieste. At present the disputed city and a small adjoining area are set up as a free state, under United Nations supervision, United States, British and Yugoslav troops are in temporary occupation.

The speech-making campaign ended, apparently in peace, last night and a 32-hour pre-election cooling-off period began under a cabinet decree forbidding further political meetings.

The authoritative Rome newspaper Messaggero quoted the Christian Democratic Premier Alcide De Gasperi as saying in a radio interview last night he thought his party would do better this time than in the constituent Assembly election of June 6, 1946.

In that election, it polled 35.2 per cent of the vote and elected 207 of 555 deputies.

Both De Gasperi and Communist Leader Palmiro Togliatti spoke in the windup of campaigning.

Western leaders and the Vatican have urged votes against Communism. Yesterday the United States, Britain and France served Russia with their second demand for action on their March 20 proposal to give Italy back the Trieste free territory.

Police sought hidden arms last night through wide sectors around

Continued on Page 8

Continued on Page 8

Commentator Is Guilty Of Treason

Boston, April 17.—(AP)—Robert Henry Best, war-time commentator on the German short-wave radio, was convicted of treason yesterday—his 52nd birthday. The 12-man federal jury deliberated only three hours and 40 minutes.

Best, former United States newspaper man in Europe, was pale and tense as he stood in the courtroom. He held his hands behind him and he did not move as the jury foreman announced "guilty."

Best, born in Sumter, S.C., the son of a Methodist minister, testified in the final stages of the 13-day trial he made about 300 broadcasts over short-wave radio from Germany during the war.

He claimed his purpose was to fight Bolshevism and to bring about a negotiated peace.

The Government prosecutor—Tom de Wolfe—termed the partialist, blue-eyed newspaper man a "voluble, garrulous traitor."

Judge Francis J. W. Ford deferred sentence indefinitely.

Interior Minister Says Government Will Be on Watch—300,000 to 400,000 Security Forces Guard Peace—Christian Democrats Confident.

By FRANK O'BRIEN
Rome, April 17.—(AP)—Italy's Interior Minister held out a threat today to suspend this week-end's fateful election "if the liberty of the vote should be compromised."

The election tomorrow and Monday, seating the first Parliament of the Italian Republic, will test whether Italy is to line up with Russia or the west.

A Popular Front led by the Communists has striven to oust a moderate coalition government under the Christian Democrats.

Public security forces variously announced as between 300,000 and 400,000 guarded election-eve peace the country over today.

Mario Scelba, whose Interior Ministry controls police, said in his last campaign speech here last night:

"The Government will be on the watch. If the liberty of the vote should be compromised, it would not hesitate to take the most radical measures, even the suspension of the elections."

He repeated his oft-made charge that Genoa's Communist mayor had issued 30,000 false voting certificates, three to Soviet employees of the Genoa Russian consulate.

But the Government's recent show of strength had "removed fear" from the minds of Italians. Measures had been taken "to assure that the election will take place in an atmosphere of freedom."

The speech-making campaign ended, apparently in peace, last night and a 32-hour pre-election cooling-off period began under a cabinet decree forbidding further political meetings.

The authoritative Rome newspaper Messaggero quoted the Christian Democratic Premier Alcide De Gasperi as saying in a radio interview last night he thought his party would do better this time than in the constituent Assembly election of June 6, 1946.

In that election, it polled 35.2 per cent of the vote and elected 207 of 555 deputies.

Both De Gasperi and Communist Leader Palmiro Togliatti spoke in the windup of campaigning.

Western leaders and the Vatican have urged votes against Communism. Yesterday the United States, Britain and France served Russia with their second demand for action on their March 20 proposal to give Italy back the Trieste free territory.

Police sought hidden arms last night through wide sectors around

Continued on Page 8

Continued on Page 8

UN Security Council Calls For Truce In Holy Land

By NORMAN ALTSEDER
Canadian Press Staff Writer
New York, April 17.—(AP)—The United Nations Security Council early today ordered a truce in Palestine, including terms previously rejected by both Jews and Arabs.

Russia and the Ukraine abstained when the 11-member Council ended a 5½-hour debate at Lake Success with a 9 to 0 vote. The Council thus succeeded in its goal of reaching a truce decision before the special session of the General Assembly, which opened yesterday, reconsidered the Palestine problem for the second time in 4½ months.

30 Die In Shannon Crash

Investigators examine the shattered remains of a four-engine Pan American Constellation, "Empress of the Skies," which crashed and burned during a landing at the mist-shrouded Shannon airport. Thirty passengers and crew members, including 19 Americans, were killed. Sole survivor was Marie Worst, an American, who escaped through a hole in the fuselage.

Quebec Provincial Elections May Be Called To Coincide With Ontario Vote

N.Y. Curb Strike Is Called Off

By WILLIAM STEWART
Canadian Press Staff Writer
Quebec, April 17.—(AP)—Ontario's election, fixed for June 7, was taken here today as a sign of early elections in Quebec, possibly the same month and coinciding closely.

Premier DREW's announcement yesterday of the Ontario date caught Quebec speculating about its own election day and a campaign promising to be bitterly fought.

There was no word from Premier Duplessis, biding his time until he considers it ripe to announce his plans. Liberal Leader Adolphe Godbout, hearing the news from Ontario, said his party was ready.

Premier DREW and Premier Duplessis were thought to have election prospects during a week-end spent here in February. Another speech was thought to have been the power situation, Ontario's main election issue.

Since the visit, political followers here have expected the two premiers, who have acted in concert in their opposition to the Federal Government, to carry out their election campaigns together.

Some recent guesses have been that the elections would wait until September. Premier DREW's surprise action brought a switch of late-election opinion in Quebec and a June date is generally expected now.

Premier Duplessis' announcement may come next Wednesday when his Union Nationale party supporters hold a birthday banquet for him here. The Premier will be 58 Tuesday.

Quebec election laws require a 46-day delay between dissolution of the Legislature and voting day. If Premier Duplessis announces Wednesday that the Legislature has been dissolved, elections could be fixed for any day after June 6.

A reason Quebecers don't think Ontario and Quebec elections will be the same day—Monday, June 7—is that Premier Duplessis would have to break with personal tradition of making all his important moves on a Wednesday, a day of devotion to St. Joseph, his patron saint.

And since the two Governments have been close in many issues of Federal-Provincial relations, the

Continued on Page 8

Continued on Page 8

Names Suggested For Royal Heir

By KAY REX
Canadian Press Staff Writer
Ottawa, April 17.—(AP)—A determined crowd of 300 rain-drenched men and women—claimed by the Government to be Communist led—yesterday stormed Parliament Hill in a vain attempt to speak their piece about prices.

They managed to cause widespread confusion in the senate halls of Government and added a colorful touch to the arrival of Prince Charles of Belgium. They jostled unsmiling R.C.M.P. officers; the sang "Open the Door, Abbot!"—and they finally won permission to enter the visitors' galleries of the Commons.

Crash Near Winsford, Cheshire, Injures 30 Others

Crewe, Cheshire, England, April 17.—(AP)—Twenty-two persons were killed and 30 hurt early today, railroad officials reported, when a Glasgow to London fast mail struck a standing passenger express.

Survivors said a passenger had stopped the express 20 minutes before by pulling an emergency cord. They did not say why.

The wreck, worst since Britain's railways passed into Government hands January 1, occurred at 12:40 a.m. near Winsford, Cheshire.

A British railways press officer said the mail train hit the rear of the London-bound express. Winsford is about 150 miles northwest of London.

Seven coaches of the passenger train were wrecked and four coaches of the mail train derailed.

The survivors said the mail train tore through the coaches at high speed.

Rescuers, working by improvised lights, dug into the wreckage for injured, who could be heard screaming. Water was sprayed to protect rescuers from possible fires as they hacked through the torn coaches with acetylene torches.

Doctors administered morphine to sufferers who could be reached through the debris. A temporary morgue was set up near the crash scene. The wounded were dispersed.

Continued on Page 8

Housewives, And Men, Stage Demonstration In Capital

By D'ARCY O'DONNELL
Canadian Press Staff Writer
Ottawa, April 17.—(AP)—The veterans charter of 1946—a compilation of legislation passed for the benefit of former servicemen—is to be partially revamped.

Veterans Minister Gregg told the Commons last night that experience had shown the need for changes. He made the statement while piloting legislation that would make changes in the War Services Grants Act, the Veterans Rehabilitation Act, and the Veterans Assurance Act.

The veterans legislation moved into the spotlight after members agreed to adopt a motion re-establishing a joint committee of the Senate and the Commons on human rights and fundamental freedoms. The committee will consider the way Canada can implement her United Nations obligations on these liberties.

Besides these other developments: Labor Minister Mitchell announced settlement on the west coast of the six-week-old strike of deep-sea ships' officers. The

Continued on Page 8

Continued on Page 8

U.K. Hangman Is Looking For New Job

Manchester, England, April 17.—(Reuters)—The host of an inn near here called "Help the Poor Struggler" has lost his sparetime job as a result of the House of Commons decision to abolish the death penalty for five years.

It was an important, if rather infrequent, job which took him to many parts of Britain and the continent.

Albert Pierrepont, a smallish, silent man of 43, took over the job of Britain's public hangman at the beginning of 1946 from his septuagenarian uncle, Henry Pierrepont, who had 35 years of it.

He then was manager of a grocery warehouse and used to arrange with his employers for time off when he was needed at an execution. He switched to inn ownership a few months after his appointment.

So far he has made no comment on the abolition of the death penalty.

Naturally taciturn, years of evading questions about his job have made him even more difficult to draw out.

For a long time he was assistant to his uncle—a man whose name struck dread into criminals—and attended the executions of many famous criminals.

Since his appointment as hangman No. 1, however, Pierrepont's busiest days have been spent in Germany, hanging war criminals. In December, 1946, he went over to hang Joseph Kramer—the beast of Belsen—and 10 other concentration camp officials.

This year, travelling under the name of "Mr. Evans" he supervised the execution of 21 other war criminals.

London, April 17.—(Reuters)—The Government's criminal justice bill, amended to include a clause suspending the death penalty for murder for five years, was given third reading yesterday in the House of Commons.

It was forwarded to the House of Lords where it promptly received a formal first reading.

Home Secretary C. E. Rieuftgen announced during the Commons debate that the death sentence for murder, effective from yesterday, is commuted to life imprisonment.

The Home Secretary's announcement means that two men now facing the hangman's noose will escape death. One is James Camb, steward aboard the liner Durban Castle who was convicted of the murder of actress Gai Gilson by pushing her through a porthole into the sea. The other is Joseph Smith, a gipsy convicted of the murder of a 71-year-old business man.

Treason and piracy remain subject to capital punishment.

In addition to suspending the death penalty for murder, the bill abolishes hard labor, whipping and penal servitude. Penal servitude is more rigorous than ordinary imprisonment. All detention in future will be simply "imprisonment." It will be designed to make the punishment fit the criminal rather than the crime.

New detention centres for young offenders are to be established, where the punishment will be mainly deterrent with "brisk discipline and hard work."

Continued on Page 8

Continued on Page 8

Continued on Page 8

Continued on Page 8

Continued on Page 8

INDEX

- Page 2—Theatre News
- Page 3—City News
- Page 4—Editorials
- Page 5—Book Reviews
- Page 6—Classified Ads.
- Page 7—The Trading Post
- Page 8—General News
- Page 9—Social and Personal
- Page 12—Sports News

AT THE PREMIER

John Hoyt as the menacing Colonel Meister. Alan Ladd and Geraldine Fitzgerald, co-members of the highly dangerous and secret government intelligence agency, O.S.S. (Office of Strategic Services) as they appear in Paramount's exciting adventure, "O.S.S." The film, which starts tomorrow at the New Premier Theatre, is the first based on the authentic annals of our undercover organization.

IN HOLLYWOOD

DEANNA DURBIN GETS FORMULA TO RECAPTURE SCREEN YOUTH

Hollywood, April 17.—Deanna Durbin has gone back to the old look. In the facial, not the clothes department. They've scrapped off that heavy makeup she's been wearing in recent pictures for her role in "Washington Girl." It's cameraman William Daniels' idea to recapture the youthful Deanna.

Clark Gable's leg ailment is 90 per cent cured, according to his doctors. The most effective treatment was the simplest—daily sunbaking during an Arizona vacation. It was the medic's prescription and it worked.

Valli and her husband, who ought to know, insist there's no truth to those separation rumors. . . . Lillian Hellman will do the final screen play on David O. Selznick's version of "A Doll's House."

Burt Lancaster's modesty is refreshing in Hollywood. I asked him about his role opposite Barbara Stanwyck in "Sorry, Wrong Number," which he just completed.

"It was a tough part," he said. "A weak character trying to act strong. I understood the part, but I still don't know whether I got it across."

"Bonanza Board," the Saul Chaplin musical which closed for repairs in Philadelphia last fall, is headed for Broadway again. Janet Blair may be the leading lady. . . . Producer Maxwell Shane is paying Susan Hayward for "Salem Frigate."

Lobster Pot The lobster industries of Maine and Connecticut are battling for the right to provide Jabberwock, the lobster that plays Dana Andrews' pet in "No Minor Vices." Both states figure it's worth a small fortune in publicity.

The Producers' Association is plotting a special trailer to ballyhoo Hollywood's new product. The campaign slogan to get people back into the theaters will be, "Great days are ahead for the movie-goers of America."

Mickey Rooney, according to a news item, blushes in technicolor in a love scene with Marilyn Maxwell in "Summer Holiday." Rooney blushing in the presence of any gal is about as farfetched as Arline Judge writing Lana Turner a fan letter.

The story of the Santa Fe Railroad is being offered again as a film fare. . . . Sight of the week: Sonja Henie wearing more "ice" than an ice show at the Gregg Juarez' cocktail party at Circo's.

Miss Margaret Miltimore, B.A. of Drummondville, spent the week-end in Knowlton on business.

Military night players enjoyed a good game in the Jubilee Hall. Six tables being occupied the high score going to Mr. Francis Fortin, Mr. Hiram Webster and to Mrs. Charon.

Miss Margaret Miltimore, B.A. of Drummondville, spent the week-end in Knowlton on business.

She was on the arm of Arthur Little, Jr.

To The Letter Anything can happen at a Hollywood radio show. Dick Haymes told his studio audience to let his hair down and have a good time. An elderly tourist from the mid-west stood up and yelled, "How's this, Dick?" and removed his toupee.

Lyn Duddy has an interesting piece on Hollywood contracts, titled "The Clutching Clause," in the current Liberty magazine. Champ Hollywood clause, according to Duddy: Joan Crawford's contract which covers, among other items, a guarantee that the temperature of her studio set shall be maintained at 68 degrees.

Raymond Chandler, ace mystery-story writer, is quitting Hollywood's $5000 a week to concentrate on his novels. He's telling pals the Hollywood was bad for his morale. . . . The Bob Cummings-Hedy Lamarr love scene in "Let's Live a Little" drew so many set visitors that Bob couldn't resist cracking, "I hope we will get as many people in the theaters."

AT THE GRANADA

Jeanne Crain and Dan Dailey enjoy their picnic in the parlor in this scene from the wonderful, gay, nostalgic treat "You Were Meant For Me" which starts Sunday at the Granada Theatre.

WATERVILLE

Mrs. Peter Rogerson who spent the winter with her daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. Gerald Daine and Mr. Daine, has gone to Knowlton where she will spend an indefinite period.

Miss Sally McGill has graduated from Boyd's Shorthand School and returned to her home in Beebe.

Friends from out of town who attended the funeral service of Mrs. Samuel Edgcombe, held in the United Church, were: Mr. Robert Edgcombe, Mr. Arthur Edgcombe, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Barfield, Mr. Ernest Kemmis and daughter, Carol, of Sherbrooke; Mrs. John McNaughton, Mrs. Wesley Nichol, Mrs. William Moir, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wharram, Lennoxville; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Deacon, Massawippi; Mr. and Mrs. McLean, Lennoxville; Mr. and Mrs. H. Bean, Lennoxville; Mr. and Mrs. Miller Beebe, Etna; Mrs. Etna Neilson, Compton, and Mrs. O. Knutson, of Brosssett's Corner; Rev. and Mrs. Carl Gustafson, Beebe; Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Edgcombe, Lennoxville, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Joyce, of Bishopston, have returned to their homes after being in town called by the serious illness and subsequent death of their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Samuel Edgcomb, whose death occurred on Saturday, March 10. Sincere sympathy is extended to the family by the entire community.

Mr. Gerald Daine will spend a week in Knowlton on business.

Military night players enjoyed a good game in the Jubilee Hall. Six tables being occupied the high score going to Mr. Francis Fortin, Mr. Hiram Webster and to Mrs. Charon.

Miss Margaret Miltimore, B.A. of Drummondville, spent the week-end in Knowlton on business.

She was on the arm of Arthur Little, Jr.

To The Letter Anything can happen at a Hollywood radio show. Dick Haymes told his studio audience to let his hair down and have a good time. An elderly tourist from the mid-west stood up and yelled, "How's this, Dick?" and removed his toupee.

Lyn Duddy has an interesting piece on Hollywood contracts, titled "The Clutching Clause," in the current Liberty magazine. Champ Hollywood clause, according to Duddy: Joan Crawford's contract which covers, among other items, a guarantee that the temperature of her studio set shall be maintained at 68 degrees.

Raymond Chandler, ace mystery-story writer, is quitting Hollywood's $5000 a week to concentrate on his novels. He's telling pals the Hollywood was bad for his morale. . . . The Bob Cummings-Hedy Lamarr love scene in "Let's Live a Little" drew so many set visitors that Bob couldn't resist cracking, "I hope we will get as many people in the theaters."

GRANBY

Mrs. Ross Kitchen has left for her home in Shawinigan Falls, after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Gendreau.

Miss Anne Fowler, and Mr. John Phillips, of Montreal, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Fowler, of Ottawa Street.

Mrs. A. M. Sadler spent the week-end in Abbotsford with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Buzzell, "Mountain View Farm Lodge."

Dr. and Mrs. S. W. Boyd, of Lennoxville, are spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Boyd and family.

Mrs. Guy Rutherford has returned, after spending a week visiting her sister, Mrs. A. Wooley, in Stratford, Conn.

Mrs. C. A. Adams, of Ste. Anne de Bellevue, was a guest of Mrs. Frank Allen and Miss Marguerita Allen, Elgin Street.

Miss Nellie Fairbairn has returned home after spending the past month in Waterloo, with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fanna and Miss Edith Harna.

Mr. and Mrs. William Solomon have returned home after spending a month at Daytona Beach, Fla.

Mr. Walton Blunt, of Montreal, is spending some time in Granby and while here is the guest of his mother, Mrs. H. W. Blunt, City Avenue.

Miss Alice Morse spent the East-over holidays in Toronto, Ont.

Miss Gertrude Yeats, Mr. and Mrs. Erich Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gum, of Montreal, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Austin.

Mrs. Sheldon Ross is visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. Gay, in Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Adams, of Montreal, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Wallace.

Miss Alice Fuller has returned to Baie Comeau, after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Fuller, and Miss Mary Fuller, at "Edgewood."

Mrs. J. K. Wilson, of Montreal, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Lawrence, Dufferin Street.

Mrs. C. Frank Brassard is spending two weeks with her daughter, in Gardner, Mass.

KNOWLTON

Mr. John Ruel, of Brome, was in town for the Recreation Club dance.

Mr. Roger Mullarkey, of Farnham, was a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Mullarkey, on Sunday.

Mr. Douglas Barnes, of Brome, was in town for the Recreation Club dance.

Mr. Ralph Matthews spent the week-end at his home in Fulford.

Mrs. Earl B. Mizener and Mrs. Elton Boeckus spent an afternoon in Waterloo.

Mrs. Gerald Miltimore, of Montreal, and Miss Hazel Stone visited Mrs. Lyman Farmer at the Alderbrook Rest Home.

Mr. James Harvey spent the week-end at his home in Freighsburg.

Mr. V. G. Rexford has returned to his home in Georgeville, after spending the winter in Knowlton.

Mr. Carl Dunn was a guest over the week-end of his mother, Mrs. L. Dunn, in Bedford.

Messrs. Alton Aiken and Gordon MacDonald spent the week-end at their homes in Highwater.

Miss Peggy Tompton, of Bondville, was in town for the Recreation Club dance.

Mrs. Andrew Strachan, of Montreal, and Mrs. Bryce Mitchell were visiting Mrs. J. Kirk and also called on Mrs. Charles Baldwin at the Alderbrook Rest Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Vollen Hastings, of Brome, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hastings.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rogerson and Mr. Ralph Rogerson were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Daine, at Waterville. Mrs. Rogerson remained with her daughter for an extended visit.

Master Austin Pettes spent a few days with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McLaughlin, at West Bolton.

Mrs. Earl Patten, of Brome, was visiting her mother, Mrs. F. Winward.

Mrs. Nettie Wright is confined to her room at the Knowlton Inn through illness.

The Innocent Impostor

By Renee Shann

COPYRIGHT BY RENEE SHANN, DISTRIBUTED BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Patience Mond, primly brought up by two maiden aunts, is in love with Paul Taylor, whom her aunts have forbidden her to see because they have never been properly introduced. Charlotte, Patience's twin sister whom she has not seen since childhood, is a stage star rehearsing a show in London. She invites Patience up to spend a day with her, dresses her smartly from her own wardrobe. Patience meets Roger Dickson, popular actor and Charlotte's boyfriend. She sees Paul again. They quarrel. A few days later, Roger calls for Patience at the dressmaking school she attends in London but she avoids him. Charlotte invites her to the opening of her new show and to stay overnight with her.

CHAPTER XVII. Patience counted the days. And wished they wouldn't drag by so slowly. She thought they'd never pass. And then at last it was Thursday. THE day.

She caught the afternoon train up to London, splurged on a taxi to Charlotte's flat.

The maid opened the door to her. "Good afternoon, Miss. Miss Charlotte told me to expect you. I'm Elizabeth."

She showed Patience around. Told her to let her know if there was anything she wanted. In Charlotte's bedroom what looked like an exquisite bit of fluff lay draped over the foot of the bed. "Miss Charlotte said she thought you'd like this dress, Miss. It's very like one she's wearing herself."

It was long and trailing and billowing. It was of the softest, palest mauve chiffon. It had little cape sleeves and the bodice sparkled here and there with diamante. With it were shoes to match.

Patience rested, bathed and took her time about dressing. Elizabeth brought her a nourishing tea-lunch. She had never felt so luxurious in her life.

The dress transformed her completely. Looking at herself in the long mirrors in Charlotte's bedroom some little while later Patience wondered if she could be dreaming. Was she really as pretty as this? Why, she looked completely different! Different even from that day she'd worn Charlotte's gray dress to go out to lunch with Roger Dickson. Elizabeth, coming into the room again to see how she was getting on, gazed at her in admiration.

"Am I all right, Elizabeth?" "You look wonderful, Miss. And ever so much like Miss Charlotte. You know, I didn't think you was so very much like her when you arrived, but in that dress—Ah, there's the bell. That'll be Mr. Dickson."

Elizabeth showed Roger into the drawing room. Patience leaned forward before the mirror and hastily put the finishing touches to her make-up.

Satisfied at last, she picked up the long velvet evening wrap that Charlotte had also left out for her and went to join him.

"Hello," she said. "Hello! I say you look wonderful!" He came to her and stood there before her, his eyes traveling over her from head to foot and then coming up to meet hers again. "Once more it is and it isn't."

"You mean I'm like Charlotte?" "Incredibly so this evening. And yet there's still that same subtle difference." He took her hands. "Well? Why didn't you lunch with me last Monday?"

Patience drew her hands away. She said she didn't know. And then that she didn't really think she'd very much wanted to. "That's honest, anyway. I hope you don't mind coming to the theatre with me this evening?"

"Of course not. I'm delighted to."

There was a car waiting to take them. They sped through the London streets. Patience, sitting back in her corner, felt her excitement growing. It was more than ever like a fairy tale. A lovely dress and all the accessories that went with it. A handsome and famous man in white tie and tails at her side. A crowd of people watching for their arrival.

They were in a box on the right of the stage one tier up. Patience, who'd only twice before been to a theatre and then in the upper circle, looked at the crowded house with eyes that danced with excitement. Oh, but this was wonderful! The animated scene thrilled her. The beautiful dresses and jewels. The air of expectancy.

Roger glanced at his watch. "The curtain will be going up in a moment," he said, drawing his chair a little nearer to hers.

Patience leaned forward, her eyes scanning the row upon row of people below her. And suddenly her heart seemed to stop beating. A head lifted. There, looking up at her, was Paul. He stared at her, an expression of angry credulity on his face.

looked like an exquisite bit of fluff lay draped over the foot of the bed. "Miss Charlotte said she thought you'd like this dress, Miss. It's very like one she's wearing herself."

It was long and trailing and billowing. It was of the softest, palest mauve chiffon. It had little cape sleeves and the bodice sparkled here and there with diamante. With it were shoes to match.

Patience rested, bathed and took her time about dressing. Elizabeth brought her a nourishing tea-lunch. She had never felt so luxurious in her life.

The dress transformed her completely. Looking at herself in the long mirrors in Charlotte's bedroom some little while later Patience wondered if she could be dreaming. Was she really as pretty as this? Why, she looked completely different! Different even from that day she'd worn Charlotte's gray dress to go out to lunch with Roger Dickson. Elizabeth, coming into the room again to see how she was getting on, gazed at her in admiration.

"Am I all right, Elizabeth?" "You look wonderful, Miss. And ever so much like Miss Charlotte. You know, I didn't think you was so very much like her when you arrived, but in that dress—Ah, there's the bell. That'll be Mr. Dickson."

Elizabeth showed Roger into the drawing room. Patience leaned forward before the mirror and hastily put the finishing touches to her make-up.

Satisfied at last, she picked up the long velvet evening wrap that Charlotte had also left out for her and went to join him.

"Hello," she said. "Hello! I say you look wonderful!" He came to her and stood there before her, his eyes traveling over her from head to foot and then coming up to meet hers again. "Once more it is and it isn't."

"You mean I'm like Charlotte?" "Incredibly so this evening. And yet there's still that same subtle difference." He took her hands. "Well? Why didn't you lunch with me last Monday?"

Patience drew her hands away. She said she didn't know. And then that she didn't really think she'd very much wanted to. "That's honest, anyway. I hope you don't mind coming to the theatre with me this evening?"

"Of course not. I'm delighted to."

There was a car waiting to take them. They sped through the London streets. Patience, sitting back in her corner, felt her excitement growing. It was more than ever like a fairy tale. A lovely dress and all the accessories that went with it. A handsome and famous man in white tie and tails at her side. A crowd of people watching for their arrival.

They were in a box on the right of the stage one tier up. Patience, who'd only twice before been to a theatre and then in the upper circle, looked at the crowded house with eyes that danced with excitement. Oh, but this was wonderful! The animated scene thrilled her. The beautiful dresses and jewels. The air of expectancy.

Roger glanced at his watch. "The curtain will be going up in a moment," he said, drawing his chair a little nearer to hers.

Patience leaned forward, her eyes scanning the row upon row of people below her. And suddenly her heart seemed to stop beating. A head lifted. There, looking up at her, was Paul. He stared at her, an expression of angry credulity on his face.

"Seen someone you know?" asked Roger.

Patience didn't answer. And now the lights were beginning gradually to dim in the theatre. The orchestra struck up the opening bars of the overture. Paul's hard bitter face became a blur until at last she could see it no longer.

She forced herself to focus all her attention on the curtains that were now slowly drawing aside. She wouldn't look down into the stalls again, though in the brilliant lights from the illuminated stage the people in the first few rows were easily to be discerned. She didn't want to be made aware that Paul was here sitting such a short distance from her.

Only she couldn't keep her eyes away from him. She found them wandering again and again from the stage to the center of the third row where he was sitting.

What was the matter with her, anyway? Hadn't she for weeks past now been assuring herself that he no longer meant anything to her?

To Be Continued

BURNS THEATRE NEWPORT, VT.

COMING! Sunday-Monday April 18-19 3 Shows Sun. Eve. 6-8-10 Jack Carson - Ann Sothern in the new musical "April Showers"

ASPIRIN advertisement with text: STOPS HEADACHE Even for double the price you can't buy anything better than ASPIRIN GENUINE ASPIRIN IS MARKED THIS WAY

Raybestos advertisement with text: BRAKES DEPEND ON BRAKE LININGS Check your Brakes FOR SAFETY SAKE WITH Raybestos BRAKE LINING BROTHER YOU STOP HAVE YOUR RAYBESTOS DEALER PULL-A-WHEEL and BE SURE!

MERCHANTS You're invited to CASSIDY'S LIMITED TOY and GIFT SHOW ON DISPLAY CHINA, PORCELAIN, CUT GLASS, TOYS, KITCHEN EQUIPMENT, ETC. The Assortment Is Complete NEW SHERBROOKE HOTEL April 19 to 24, Inc.

HEAR RT. HON. LOUIS ST. LAURENT, K.C. HON. JOHN BRACKEN HON. M. J. COLDWELL HON. SOLON LOW Sunday, April 18th—6.35 p.m. C B C Nation-wide Broadcast in aid of The Canadian Appeal for Children

Three consecutive Want Ads may be inserted for $1.25.

Jack Lenaghan Plays the Hammond Electric Organ every Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. From 9 P.M. to 11 P.M. at the LaSalle Hotel

MARBLETON

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wood, of Lancaster, N.H., and Mrs. Roy Butler and son, Robert, were guests of Mrs. H. G. Weston and Miss Lucy Weston.

Miss Margaret Bartlett, of Sherbrooke, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Hetherington and attended the shower given for Miss Gertrude Westman, R.N.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sutton and Mrs. Maria Gilbert, of Toronto, Ont., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Westman and attended the Westman-Pierce wedding.

* GRANADA: Last Times TODAY! "MAGIC TOWN" with James Stewart and Jane Wyman. Also "LOST HONEYMOON" with Franchot Tone and Ann Richards.

GRANADA Starts SUNDAY Until TUESDAY!

Advertisement for the movie 'YOU WERE MEANT FOR ME' featuring Jeanne Crain and Dan Dailey. Text: It's All The Good Things Rolled Into ONE GREAT BIG MARVELOUS MUSICAL ROMANCE! JEANNE CRAIN - DAN DAILEY YOU WERE MEANT FOR ME with OSCAR CRAZY - BARBARA LAWRENCE Selena Royle - Percy Kilbride - Herbert Anderson Hear These Delightful Songs! "You Were Meant For Me," "Good-night Sweet-heart," "Crazy Rhythm," "Ain't Misbehavin'," "If I Had You," "I'll Get By," "Ain't She Sweet" and many, many other old favorite hit tunes.

Advertisement for the movie 'RED STALLION' featuring Ted Donaldson and Robert Paige. Text: Here is the heart-warming story of a boy's devotion to his horse "Big Red"! See this gallant horse fighting a duel to death, with a savage bear... racing to glory... winning only as a thoroughbred can! Added Attraction! Adventure! Pathos! Comedy! RED STALLION Starring Ted Donaldson Robert Paige • Noreen Nash OUR POLICY: Continuous performances every Saturday, Sunday, and all Holidays from 1 p.m. until closing! On week days, the programs begins in the matinee at 1:30; evenings 7:00.

CINEMA REX SHOWING! Thursday - Friday: $415 Danny KAYE in 'The Kid From Brooklyn' In Technicolor - Leslie Howard, Merle Oberon, in 'SCARLET PIMPERNEL'

THE NEW PREMIER THEATRE $50.00 FREE EVERY TUESDAY EVE. IN CANADIAN SAVINGS BONDS. ONE OF THE SCREEN'S GREAT-EST!... Fateful Fascinating! Bold Intrigue. Cary GRANT, Ingrid BERGMAN, Claude RAINES in 'SINFONIA'. EXTRA "SWEET AND LOW" IN TECHNICOLOR. - STARTING TOMORROW FOR THREE DAYS ONLY - YOU'LL SAY, IT'S THE MOST THRILLING AND MOST UNUSUAL PICTURE YOU'VE EVER SEEN!

ALAN LADD GERALDINE FITZGERALD In Paramount's "O.S.S." PATRIC KNOWLES - JOHN HOYT - Written and Produced by ERIC HART NATHAN - Directed by HEYNE PERLIN ALSO AN ATOMIC BOMBSHELL OF LAUGHTER! YOU'LL LAUGH, YOU'LL ROAR, YOU'LL SCREAM! Loaded with Love, Laughs and Larceny! EDDIE BRACKEN - VERONICA LAKE Hold That Blonde! OTHER SUBJECTS - SUNDAY CONTINUOUS PERFORMANCES STARTING AT 1 P.M.

IMMEDIATE DELIVERY

KAISER - FRASER AUTOMOBILES
 REO TRUCKS - BUSES - MOTORCYCLES - AUTO-BIKES
 TRAILERS - FARM WAGONS - ROTOTILLERS

HODGE MOTORS REG'D

31 Wellington St. South - Sherbrooke, Que.

The City Page

SHERBROOKE, QUEBEC, SATURDAY, APRIL 17, 1948.

Exclusive Wholesale Distributors
 Factory Authorized Service
AUTOMOTIVE ELECTRIC - CARBURETORS - MAGNETOS - SPERMOMETERS - SHOCKS
 "A Growing Organization"
SHERBROOKE AUTO ELECTRIC INC.

Contributions To Community Chest Drive Total $25,000

Contributions to the Sherbrooke-Lennoxville Community Chest campaign have passed the $25,000 mark of the $30,000 objective, campaign officials announced today.

The total, to date, is $25,199 and it is hoped that the objective will be reached in time to wind up the campaign next week.

Seven organizations will benefit from the money collected in this campaign. They are the Sherbrooke and Lennoxville branches of the Canadian Red Cross Society, the Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A., St. John Ambulance Association, Salvation Army, Sherbrooke Library and Boy Scout Camp.

Names of more than 600 employees of the Canadian Ingersoll-Rand Company, Ltd., who among them subscribed $602.86 to the campaign, have been made public. In addition, the company itself gave $750 to the fund.

Because of the length of the list of Rand subscribers, the names will be published over a period of several days. The first group follows:

G. M. Young, G. M. Dick, T. K. Kennedy, G. H. Logie, T. Chapman, G. F. Chapman, W. H. Griffith, J. Mitchell, L. Barlow, R. Forest, Miss H. MacGregor, H. Sims, P. J. Slattery, F. Houde, F. Gelinas, Miss E. Odell, A. H. Cross, H. A. McCullough, C. E. Sears, H. C. Wright, G. N. Weston, M. Sharon, L. Cournoyer, G. Cole, A. W. Hatcher, A. Patterson, P. Pomier, A. Gosselin, A. Aubin, N. Ross, J. Wilkin, A. Tessier, L. Provencher, T. Moore, E. Davies, J. McCallum, J. Morrison, L. Poudrier, M. Fournier, A. C. Britton, G. Meigs, E. Moreau, R. Lesard, G. Pelletier, B. Harro, A. Poulain, A. Beliveau, G. Mouldy, J. Couture, L. Tripp, A. Lapointe, R. C. Winslade, E. C. Turner, Miss V. Giroux, T. Lambert, L. Best, C. D. Coates, F. Duquette, D. Bleson, A. Oliver, E. Neilson, G. Carboneau, W. Parr, Mrs. E. Daniels, Mrs. W. W. Young, Mrs. G. N. Weston, Miss P. C. Wilcox, Miss

LEE M. WATSON & CO., Ltd.

INSURANCE
 Fire, Automobile Liability, etc.
 Sun Life Bldg., Sherbrooke.
 Night and Holiday Calls:
 Lennoxville 381-J

Three consecutive Want Ads may be inserted for $1.25.

albert TRUDEAU
 Eyesight Specialist
OPTOMETRIST
 MOVING MAY 1st
 To CONTINENTAL BUILDING
 Corner King W. & Wellington N.

FORMER E.T. MINISTER GETS NEW CHARGE

Rev. W. J. V. Buchanan, B.A., B.D., of South Mountain, Ont., has accepted a call to Cooksville, a growing town just west of Toronto. He will assume the ministry in this church on July 1, succeeding Rev. A. E. Owen, B.A., who is retiring from the active ministry of the church.

Mr. Buchanan is a native of Northern Ireland, and a graduate of McGill University and the United Theological College, Montreal. He began his ministry at Kingsbury, Que., in 1938, and went to South Mountain almost six years ago as successor to the late Rev. W. R. Johnston, B.A., a former president of the Montreal and Ottawa Conference.

Mr. Buchanan has had a successful and happy pastorate in South Mountain, and has been actively associated with Presbytery activities. Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan have two children, Kelvin James, six years, and Maureen Frances, three years.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS

Sherbrooke Snow Shoe Club Inc. to Carlos C. Skinner of lots 43-13 and 14, Oxford.
 Robert C. McFadden to Arthur E. Fish of the northerly part of lot 362, Lennoxville.
 Mrs. Raymond Cuthbertson Muir to Sherbrooke Young Men's Christian Association of lot 730, North Ward.
 Miss Constance Dubois to Arthur Maille of lot 733-1-14 and 733-22, East Ward.
 Germain Nault to J. O. Alphonse Greigore of the southerly 33 1/2 feet of lot 29a, East Ward.
 Roger Lacombe to Rene Dubois of lot 16b-150, Range 9, Ascot.
 Armand Dumas to Gaston Begin of lot 729-597, East Ward.
 Joseph Alphonse Courville to Remi Fournier of the residue of lot 521-1, North Ward.
 Joseph A. Devoyau to Clovis Lapointe of part of lot 729, East Ward.
 Charles Rogeau to Jean-Baptiste Pelletier of lot 899-72-1, East Ward.

Quebec, April 17. — Quebec Seminary priests prayed last night in their chapel for a non-Communist victory in the Italian elections next week.

Mgr. Ferdinand Vandry, Laval University rector and Superior General of the Seminary, presided at the hour of prayer. Priests recited the Rosary and Psalms of penitence.

Our Congratulations to:
ALBERT TRUDEAU, who is celebrating his birthday today.

Series On "The Atom And You" To Be Published By Record Next Week

How does the atom bomb kill? What strange effect does it have on the human body? Can an enemy without an atom bomb kill with deadly atomic warfare? Can atomic fission be made to work for man's benefit?

Ever since Nagasaki and Hiroshima, man has been asking those questions. At last it is possible to put the answers together from scientific reports and from the scientists who have written them.

S. Burton Heath, NEA's reporter-at-large who saw the atom bomb at work in the tests at Bikini, tells the story of "The Atom and You" in four searching dispatches which give the answers in the simplest man-in-the-street terms.

The first of these illustrated articles by Heath will appear in Monday's issue of the Record.

Local Housewives Keep Kitchens Clean, Say Gas Conversion Men

By ANGUS MORRIS
 Sherbrooke Record Staff Writer
 Whatever other memories employment of the Pacific Gas Corporation take back with them to the United States, they will recall Sherbrooke as a city of clean kitchens and friendly people.

All but six of the 25 Americans who have been going around Sherbrooke homes for the last two months fixing up connections for propane gas are leaving here today, their job done. The six who are staying will handle requests for repairs or alterations.

A mass interview with a number of the group showed that in these men's opinion Sherbrooke stacks up most favorably with other cities they have visited on conversion jobs.

All were emphatic in saying that Sherbrooke housewives kept their kitchens cleaner than they had imagined kitchens could be kept.

Clean kitchens alone would be enough to endear the town to them but, even more, the consistent hospitality shown during their two months' stay has registered for them an all-time high. With a knowledge of French that would not accommodate a school child, they have nevertheless met with such co-operation that, combined with some eloquent arm-waving, they have pulled through all situations.

One of these situations has been the "dating" of French-speaking girls whom they unfeignedly admire. A short burst of Texas twang, they report, has served as a good introduction.

Following the American conviction that progress can be measured by the number of material conveniences and gadgets to be found in a household, they report that Sherbrooke can be ranked with the best of cities.

They remarked, however, that the combination wood and gas stove seen in many houses here has now become a rarity in the United States. Such appliances as automatic water heaters and controlled temperature ovens are installed in about 35 per cent of the homes across the border while in Sherbrooke they number no more than five per cent.

On the topic of food, the Americans rather spread themselves. One man said that he dreams each night of a dish of chili con carne and another reports watering at the mouth each time he thinks of a good state-wide wedge of Boston cream pie. All complained of the lack of fresh vegetables.

Apart from these exceptions the Americans feel that they have felt very well here and at prices well under those of the United States.

Asked what souvenirs they intend taking home, all said they had included a gallon of maple syrup and many had bought Irish linen.

PAINTINGS BY LOCAL ARTISTS ARE ON DISPLAY

Sherbrooke has long been musically inclined, but with the opening of the Schroeder-Clovery Art School, an active interest in art is also being developed.

Classes have been held throughout the winter and the results of the season's instruction are most interesting. Art lovers may view an exhibit of paintings done by local students, at Paul Gagne's Art Supplies, located on Wellington street north.

There are pen and ink sketches and attractive water colors depicting flower studies and still life. It is evident that there is much artistic talent in this city, and, like music, it should receive its share of encouragement.

Some of the paintings are unsigned but among the exhibitors are Miss Madeleine Bedard, her sister, Miss Catherine Bedard, Mrs. Helen Edwards, Miss Peggy Hall, A. Spackman, J. C. Murray, T. Demers, Miss Monique Nadeau, R. E. Beaudoin and Marcel Savoie.

News Of Quebec Province In Brief

Montreal, April 17. — Rev. Leon Merklein, editor-in-chief of La Croix, Roman Catholic daily of Paris, said yesterday that Communism is losing ground in France and all danger of a Communist government seems to have disappeared.

Father Merklein, visiting Canada for the first time, held a press conference at the French consulate. "Conditions are constantly improving in France," he said. "One can predict with confidence that within a few months the country will have recovered its economic and political equilibrium."

Montreal, April 17. — A second stay of execution was granted to Marcel Marcotte, sentenced to hang for the murder of Marcel Boileau, by Mr. Justice Paul St. Germain in the court of appeals yesterday. The new order suspends the hanging to July 30.

Marcotte was convicted of the murder last October 9 by a Court of King's Bench jury. He entered an appeal against the conviction and was granted a stay of execution to April 23 to permit the appeal.

The appeal was set down on the April roll of the Appeal Court but the hearing was postponed to the May term when it became apparent that the records could not be ready for the present term.

Montreal, April 17. — The trial of Pierre Gelinas, 23-year-old editor of the leftist weekly Combat, and David Durocher, both charged with selling liquor illegally at a Labor-Progressive party rally, was delayed until April 23 by Judge Oscar Gagnon.

Long-Term City Employee Favors Civic Pension Plan

If the City Council adopts a pension scheme for city employees, one man who will be heartily in favor is Hermenegilde Rheume, General Superintendent of the Roads Department, the man with the longest period of civic service in Sherbrooke.

Mr. Rheume has been employed by the city for more than 30 of his 58 years and would be among those to benefit by a pension scheme such as that which was proposed by Mayor Alphonse Trudeau when he took office as Sherbrooke's chief magistrate several weeks ago.

"A pensions fund has been needed for a long time and such a fund will tend to give employees a different attitude toward their work," said Mr. Rheume, one of the 69 persons who have worked for the city for more than 25 years.

Thirty years ago, as a laborer, Mr. Rheume, helped build the first Magog dam. At that time he earned $1 a day, plus board, in the summer and $1.50 a day, without board, in the winter. He worked 10 hours a day.

By 1914, Mr. Rheume was learning to be a foreman and the staff of city employees numbered about 100 men. Today, the city has some 400 laborers and more than 20 foremen.

The year 1919 saw Mr. Rheume as a foreman, in charge of 25 men. Up until the year 1930 there was no General Superintendent and the Roads Department, Water Department, Health Department and Parks Department were separate. Now they still have their separate superintendents but are under a General Superintendent.

In 1934 there was a definite lack of equipment and horse drawn vehicles were mainly in use. Paved streets were few and far between and the condition of the roads and streets was poor.

Starting from scratch the Roads Department has now four high powered snowplows, two graders, two bulldozers, two five-ton trucks, and one modern blower. This blower replaced 50 men with shovels. "Within a few years this machine will pay for itself," stated Mr. Rheume.

The hearing was postponed to the May term when it became apparent that the records could not be ready for the present term.

Montreal, April 17. — The trial of Pierre Gelinas, 23-year-old editor of the leftist weekly Combat, and David Durocher, both charged with selling liquor illegally at a Labor-Progressive party rally, was delayed until April 23 by Judge Oscar Gagnon.

IMMIGRATION DELAYED BY SHIP SHORTAGE

By H. L. JONES
 Canadian Press Staff Writer
 London, April 17. — The bustling shipyards of Britain hold the master key to one of the Empire's biggest post-war headaches — the ocean shipping bottleneck.

Thousands await transportation to other countries and all-out trading and immigration plans are curtailed while millions of tons of ships get a peacetime face-lifting. British shipyards are doing the majority of this conversion work besides building scores of new vessels needed to meet inflated post-war ocean transport requirements. But their speed depends on delivery of materials.

Although most British shipping now has been released from the Government authority which operated it during the war, the end of the tie-up is not yet in sight. It is estimated British shipyards alone have enough conversion work to keep them hustling well beyond 1950. In addition new shipping is needed to replace war casualties and overage vessels. And all these jobs take time.

At the outbreak of war Britain requisitioned 535 passenger and cargo vessels of a gross 4,396,000 tons for war purposes, besides many of the vessels of allied countries. At June last year, only 101 ships of 1,641,000 tons gross remained under Government administration. Now there are probably less than 10, though no official figures are available.

Last month the Government released three more passenger-carrying vessels, including the 45,000-ton Aquitania which will join the trans-Atlantic service to Canada after a shipyard conversion job expected to take several months. The 34,000-ton Mauretania, operating as a Caribbean cruise ship until recently to earn American dollars, is scheduled to start trans-Atlantic duty April 27.

Three more ships are expected to be withdrawn from transport duties in April but because of the time needed for conversion, they probably won't get into civilian service until the end of the year.

Shipyards are glutted with conversion work. This and the fact that the Government needed to retain considerable shipping for transport requirements of its own, governed how quickly shipping was released. To meet immediate needs of immigrant and service transport, many vessels were pressed into post-war service without taking off their war paint and only now are getting into the shipyards for a post-war dress-up.

Long the world's leading merchant marine power, Britain had 17,948,839 tons of shipping in 1947 compared with 17,984,158 gross tons in 1939, despite the tremendous tonnage she lost in the war.

By comparison, however, the United States which had 12,003,028 gross tons in 1939, had 30,165,909 tons in 1947, giving her the lead among the world shipping powers, where Canada now ranks seventh with 1,955,989 gross tons. But Transport Minister Barbee,

BRIEFLETS

Dr. J. A. Darche, eye, ear and nose specialist, has returned to his office, 92 King St. West.

Be sure to get your tickets for the High School Operetta, "In Gay Havana," Mitchell School Auditorium, Thurs., Fri., Sat., April 22, 23, 24. Limited ticket sale at door.

Big dance every Sat. night, Burroughs' Falls. Bud Sayer's Top Hatters.

Dance, Cid's Place, Cherry River, Saturday p.m. Western Aces.

Brompton Rd. W.I. Card Party and social eve., Sat., April 17th. Adm. 35c and 25c. Door prize.

Dance, I.O.O.F. Hall, Sawyerville, Sat., April 17th. Tom Coley's Orch.

Joint Alumni meeting, Sher. Hospital and District No. 3, Tues., Apr. 20th, 7:45 p.m., Ply. Church Hall. Guest speaker: Dr. S. Marcus.

Montreal, April 17. — L. A. Meiser, 32, a member of the Jehovah's Witnesses sect who was freed on bail of $25 three days ago after pleading not guilty to causing a public nuisance, appeared before Recorder E. J. McNamany again yesterday on a similar charge.

This time, after a plea of not guilty the Recorder ordered a deposit of $100 or bail of $200, and fixed the trial for April 21 at the same time as the first one.

Meister was arrested while going door to door Thursday carrying a Bible.

In a recent statement, was reluctant to admit that Britain had lost the Trident. Said he: "Nothing of the kind. They (the United States) may have more ships at this moment because of the circumstances of war, but they are not sailing more ships with American personnel than we are — quite the opposite." He did not elaborate.

TONIGHT!
 Coca-Cola Ltd. presents
Spotlight Revue
 starring
SPIKE JONES
 his City Slickers and
DOROTHY SHAY
 Special Guests: THE DINNING SISTERS
 TUNE IN!
 Every Saturday Night
 CKTS — 7:00 P.M.
 DRINK Coca-Cola
 LOCA-COLA LTD. 514

"BUY BUY" for BABY!
 Every proud parent wants the best for the apple of his eye!

In our complete line of nursery needs, you'll find the best, priced to suit you.

PLAY PENS
 Baby can play in safety while mother goes about her housework $9.50

PANEL CRIBS IN MAPLE
 Safe, comfortable sleep for baby. Well constructed, with drop-side $28

DROP-SIDE METAL CRIBS
 In all standard sizes. Finished to match any walnut furniture. From $22

DE-LUXE MAPLE HIGH CHAIRS
 Hard-to-tip design with adjustable foot-rest. Smoothly finished $11

CRIB MATTRESSES
 Well-filled cotton mattresses to fit all standard cribs. From $4

BATHINETTES
 Roomy, waterproof tub, on sturdy enameled stand $14.75

We have GENDRON BABY CARRIAGES, STROLLERS and CONVERTIBLES, in all the new 1948 models and colors. Come in and look them over.

ECHENBERG BROS.
 SHERBROOKE'S LARGEST FURNITURE STORE

TODAY and TOMORROW
 MONDAY
 Meeting Sherbrooke Hospital Ladies' Auxiliary, Monday, at MacKinnon Memorial, 3 p.m.
 Social evening, Monday, Trinity Club Bowling, at Mount Pleasant Club.

IT'S A SHAME to discard shoes which only need a good repair job to give them many more miles of wearability. Bring them here and be amazed at how little we charge to renew worn footwear.

J. A. PIGEON
 REG'D
 68 Wellington St. North

Sherbrooke Daily Record

The Oldest Daily in the District.
The Record is printed and published every week-day by the Sherbrooke Daily Record Company Limited, of which Edna A. Beerworth is Secretary-Treasurer, at the office, 69 Wellington St. North, in the City of Sherbrooke, incorporating the news service of The Canadian Press, The Associated Press and Reuters.

Subscription Rates: Carrier delivery in Sherbrooke and Eastern Townships: 25 cents weekly, $13.00 per year. Mail subscription in Canada, Great Britain or the United States: 1 year $6.00, 6 months $3.25, 3 months $2.00, 1 month $1.00. Single copies 5c. "Authorized as second class mail, Post Office Department, Ottawa."

A STEP FORWARD

The newly signed accord whereby sixteen countries of Western Europe and the non-Russian zones of Germany pledge themselves to co-operate in strengthening their economy and making the best possible use of the aid being extended under the European Recovery Program is an important step towards the goal of a Europe that is economically self-sustaining. This self-sustaining policy does not mean that each nation will seek to live entirely on its own resources or that the areas affected will attempt to find all their necessities within the continent. Rather it means the return to the day when these nations will reach a production level which provides them with a surplus of certain lines of goods which may be exported to pay for such items as they cannot produce economically at home.

The pledge to reduce tariffs on most items is in itself important. For too long one of the plagues of the European economy has been the efforts of each nation to bar as far as possible the products of its neighbors, seeking to produce these items at home. The result has been that output costs have soared to unreasonable levels while the consumers in many cases suffered acute want. On the other hand, certain countries found themselves with overbearing surpluses of their natural and manufactured products, with a resultant economic collapse and unemployment. These conditions, of themselves, were sufficient to permit the growth of Communism and other subversive doctrines, which find their best breeding ground in privations and discontent.

Thus the decision to co-operate in a joint recovery effort marks a complete reversal of the fiscal policies of the pre-war era. This co-operation will go a long way toward easing general conditions, permitting the most efficient use of those resources which are available within Europe and thus permit the money provided by the United States to be spread over a wider list of commodities.

Whether this new pact will have political significance is problematical. Some supporters of the agreement hail it as the prelude to the establishment of a confederation of European states. They do not go as far as to predict a federal union, such as Canada or the United States but they do believe that some sort of a central government may be established to deal with major problems. This will be possible only if the closer economic co-operation which results from the new treaty eases the feelings of distrust which have afflicted European psychology in the past. The differences between the various European peoples are deep-rooted and have established themselves firmly over the centuries and it is too much to hope that they can be completely removed within a brief period. But it can be hoped that a move can be made in this direction.

MR. COLDWELL AND THE RAILWAYS

The question of railway unification in Canada, relegated to the background as war-swollen traffic boosted the revenues of the Canadian National Railways sufficiently to permit the system to show a substantial profit over a period of years, has again come to the fore with the recent increase in freight rates. Transport Minister Chevrier raised the issue when he declared that unless the higher rates were granted, a merger was inevitable.

C.C.F. Leader M. J. Coldwell has entered the discussion with the declaration that he favors the nationalization of the Canadian Pacific Railway, but he has some rather novel ideas for its future operation. He would not merge the system with the present Canadian National Railways but would have it continued in competition with the state lines. This, he believes, would result in benefits for both systems.

Leaving aside any arguments as to the comparative efficiency of private and public ownership, it would be of interest to fathom the reasoning processes whereby Mr. Coldwell believes that when the two systems came under common ownership, competition would be intensified and efficiency improved. Even the most bureaucratic of administrations would soon put an end to duplication of services in the event that the lines began to report substantial deficits.

It is difficult to see how any benefits would accrue from Mr. Coldwell's plan. In fact it seems to embrace all the possible disadvantages of the present set-up and of a physical merger of the properties. The public would be subject to any deterioration of service which might accompany a monopoly, while the taxpayers would be straddled with the cost of maintaining a duplicate set of officials and operating personnel.

GREATER SIMPLICITY DESIRABLE

Canadians, who have been struggling with the "simplified" income tax forms, will regard with interest the move by senior officials of the British civil service to bring out an official dictionary of simpler words to make government documents and announcements simpler or at least less formidable. The book puts forth that the government should start saying "use" instead of "implement," "give" instead of "donate" and "go" instead of "proceed."

This brings to mind a statement by critic of government verbosity that "A cabinet minister will tell you that an 'operation' is one of considerable magnitude" because he thinks this is more likely to be accepted as an excuse than if it is a 'big job.'" Why should anything be in "short supply" instead of scarce?

One recent incident has proved that Canadian officialdom need make no apology to its British counterpart for its ability to use almost ununderstandable language. The Soviet Russians ordered the Lithuanians in Canada to register as Russian citizens, with all the pains attached thereto. As an answer to this demand, the civil servants, at the behest of the government, threw this paragraph from the Department of External Affairs at the Lithuanians, who may understand the language and import hidden within it better than native Canadians. This directive said: "The Canadian Government regards the registration of Lithuanian nationals in accordance with the decree of the praesidium of the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R. as announced by the Soviet Embassy in the Slavic-language press in Canada to be entirely a voluntary matter and recognizes no obligation on the part of any resident of Canada to register."

If the Department of External Affairs means that the Lithuanians in Canada do not have to register as Russian citizens, it should say so in plain English.

Washington Column

By DOUGLAS LARSEN

GRAY CHANGES COMPLEXION OF BRADLEY'S VA REGIME

During his first three months as head of Veterans' Administration, Carl R. Gray, Jr., has tried to do what most smart officials do when they first come to Washington—find out what it's all about and get their feet on the ground.

In the case of taking over the VA this cautious approach is especially important because that agency is the second largest arm of the federal government next to the armed services. It consists of the biggest insurance business in the world and giant medical and educational programs.

Although Gray tried hard not to make important decisions without knowing exactly what he was doing, he already has changed the complexion of the VA from what it was under his predecessor, Gen. Omar Bradley.

It was Bradley's opinion that the big veterans' organizations should be kept at arm's length from the VA. This attitude irritated the officials of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

When Bradley first took the job he was shocked to see just how much influence the Legion and VFW wielded in the VA. He discovered that about the only way to get quick admittance to certain VA hospitals was through the local Legion post. And he was astonished to find that VA doctors were members of special Legion committees and were appearing before the VA in the latter capacity and protesting various VA medical procedures.

CLASHING VIEWS ON VA SCOPE
Fearing that this situation might arbitrarily force World War II veterans to join the World War I organizations, Bradley issued Circular 25 to all employees. In effect it said that no VA worker could hold position in a veterans' organization which might influence his work for the government. During the rest of Bradley's term as Veterans' Administrator, the Legion and VFW never forgave him.

When Gray came in, the first act of the Legion and VFW officials was to petition him to rescind Circular 25. In short order, Gray acceded to their demand and said that he wasn't going to change it officially but that henceforth they needn't worry about the order. This immediately won over the friendship of the powerful veterans' groups. Ever since then Gray's booming voice and jovial presence have dominated every important Legion and VFW function.

Gray's announced conception of his relationship with Congress and of the legal scope of the VA job is also in sharp contrast to Bradley's views. General Bradley never hesitated to override the Budget Bureau in appealing for money from Congress when he believed the VA needed it. And it was Bradley who instructed VA field workers to start investigating leaky roofs and poor construction which had gone into so many veterans' homes, a situation which still threatens to become a national scandal.

Gray, however, believes it is not his function to take the lead in requesting additional funds from Congress. This attitude led to a peculiar brush with the chairman of the House Veterans' Committee, Rep. Edith Nourse Rogers (R., Mass.), who wanted Gray to ask for more money so that certain VA medical personnel cuts wouldn't have to be made. He wouldn't do it.

"CAN'T PLAY LANDLORD"
And on the question of leaky roofs and faulty construction in veterans' housing, Gray takes the stand that it is not the legal function of VA to "bother itself" with such things after the deal has been closed by the veteran. He says, "The VA can't play landlord for the veterans."

In his relations with the press Gray has gotten off to a bad start. At his first press conference after being on the job for three months he pulled a trick which hasn't been seen around Washington since the days of Herbert Hoover. He asked the reporters to submit their questions several days beforehand.

In a widely-circulated veterans' newspaper called the "Army Times-Vet-Letter," its editors have claimed that Gray "has become the prisoner of bureaucracy completely dependent upon inner circle advisers for what goes on around him."

The publication also said, "VA officials have learned that the best way to get Gray's approval on planned moves is to use railroad language, interposing such phrases as 'we can't clear the wreckage behind but we can build a firm clear track ahead.'"

THE JUMPING-OFF PLACE

Sincerely Yours

By REV. B. S. MURRAY, M.A.

Are you interested in how people end their letters? I suppose "Yours truly" is the most popular; I prefer "Always." I recall as a lad receiving a letter from that great educationalist, the late Canon Rexford, signed "Faithfully yours," and somehow that signature suggested a strength, serenity and dependability which the march of Time confirmed.

These are days of crises. The Cross of Christ is under attack. Communism desires the abolition of Christianity. The enemy knows how weak and impractical our expression of It has been. Now the time has arrived for us to proclaim to the world that the Christian life is wholeheartedly triumphant and sincere. And sincerely means "without wax." One lives then must be letters—epistles—written to the motif of "yours sincerely." Christ must reign as King all over the world.

We are within the Easter season with its challenge to develop new views and sentiments; new feelings and affections; new joys and sorrows; new principles and pursuits; new aims and aspirations. In a word, new men in Christ whose desire is to seek first the Kingdom of God. (Matt. 6:33). If we had done that, millions of lives would have been saved brutality and slaughter, forced labor, and all that war has done.

The Master spent the precious forty days after the Resurrection "speaking of the things pertaining to the Kingdom of God." I summon you to a similar study. Jesus was forever glorifying and portraying it; somehow we don't talk about that. Or, do you?

You see we accentuate things rather than God and have exploited others to gain power regardless of human life. All this must be changed. Christ must reign as King everywhere, especially in that spiritual commonwealth whose laws are a reversal of earthly policy. Material things can never be universal; you can't put one size of shoe on every foot; but one glorious idea might conceivably be planted in every mind. The duty and privilege of every religious person is to make the Kingdom of God within him one unit in universal dominion.

"Christ for the world" we sing. You can't present Christ to others until you have a spring cleaning of your mind and throw away prejudices, inharmonies, injustices and stress inroads to others. This requires disciplined thinking and living. And we must spare no effort to become experts in matters spiritual.

BEGIN AT THE BEGINNING

The Master was startlingly refreshing and challenging. His hearers, then and now, agree that shelter and food are the first essentials, yet He proclaimed that before clothes and bread and butter must be put the Kingdom of God. One hundred and six passages in the Gospels refer to His Kingdom. He began His ministry with it; constantly He referred to it and, on the cross, the dying thief asked Him about it. Most of His parables deal with it. In the Lord's Prayer we have "Thy Kingdom Come" and Jesus insisted that we put first things first. In fact, Ruskin reminds us that God won't put up with second place. He must be first. He is the clue to happy sunlit Christian living. Do right, seek first the Kingdom of God, and don't be anxious lest your heavenly Father fail to keep His promises. He cares. He never fails those who trust Him. Never.

Grasp the fact that the Kingdom of God is to be a spiritual empire in which men live as sons of God and brothers of each other. Be ye, therefore, perfect is still the challenge of Christ. He wants a perfect obedience to God and a perfect duty toward man. Jesus proposed to regenerate society by beginning with the individual, to establish a kingdom which men could enter by their own deliberate choice. To Nicodemus who asked about the new way of life, the Master said: "Verily, verily, I say unto you, except a man be born again he cannot see the Kingdom of God." (John 3:3). "Ye must be born again" is the starting point and we have forgotten that. That's why our world is so confused, distraught, upset. Our problems are definitely spiritual and moral and we have been stressing the economic. Let us begin at the beginning, that is, with the Holy Spirit who empowers us to become new men, living in right relations with God, man, and oneself. We talk about a new order but that cannot come about without new people. You can abolish socialism and capitalism; you can evenly distribute money; you can legislate or do what you will but you have the same old people with which to deal. Now Jesus began at the beginning. The way to reform society is to begin with the individual: "Create in me a clean heart and renew a right spirit within me."

WANTED: TWICE BORN PEOPLE!

Jesus proposed to create good men and let them create the conditions of life. And thus He has changed life more than any other who ever walked the earth. He refused to enter politics or have anything to do with physical affairs. His kingdom was to be a spiritual, present one, existing wherever any person seeks to do the will of God and treats his fellows as sons of God. "The Kingdom of God is at hand." It does not come with blare of trumpets, and the sounds of the triumphant host; it is in men's hearts! And it is going to culminate in a complete absorption of all life.—So He taught us to pray first, "Thy Kingdom come—Thy will be done" and after that, "Give us this day our daily bread." To the cause of that kingdom He gave His all with wholehearted abandon.

Now don't confuse the Church with the Kingdom of God. The Church of God is the greatest organized force in the world for helping to build the Kingdom but it is too sadly defective to be the kingdom itself. You observe that the Kingdom of God is bigger than any institution yet seen on earth. It is within, about, and above you. It is practical. Of course, it is the ultimate conclusion, and inclusion of the better hopes of man, and it is as material as it is spiritual in its perfect satisfaction for those who hunger and thirst after righteousness wherever they are found.

No wonder then that those who love the Lord pray daily "Thy Kingdom come" for that time when Christ shall deliver up the Kingdom to God and, having put down all rule, and authority, and power and put all things under His He Himself shall be subject unto God and with Him in the Unity of the Holy Ghost, Three Persons in one God, shall be our All and All for ever and ever. (I Cor. 15: 24-28).

THE SPIRIT OF CHRIST

Anyone who wishes for the kingdom can have it for it is not a place but an attitude of mind, a course of conduct, a manner of life. Its one condition is absolute loyalty. A King controls—by statutes—the Bible; by ambassadors—His Ministers; by special communications—through the agency of the Holy Spirit. The King is all powerful. "All power is given unto Me in heaven and in earth." He said, physical, seraphic, human, spiritual, intellectual, moral, spiritual, yea, atomic power obey His will. "Who holds the winds in His fist and the waters in the hollow of His hand."

No one can enter that Kingdom without the Spirit of Christ. We have tried denominationalism and walked in splendid isolationism as Anglican, Roman, Free and other Churchmen, and are beginning to see how unchristlike that is. Christ prayed that we might be one! Now Communism is forcing us to work together to save civilization and challenging us to make earth like heaven in the great universal fellowship of the Kingdom. This can be done if and when we follow the Divine model and apply the three laws of service, sacrifice and love in daily living, then Peace, Brotherhood and Mutual Service would function effectively and universally. Every day we postpone this challenge we are courting disaster. I know that selfishness prevents us from being 100 per cent Christians. Won't you surrender to Christ and His Kingdom and begin life anew? Midas-like everything we touch becomes enriched with new values and the joy of engaging in a great world-wide constructive effort thrills us day by day. Think what would happen to your village or town, to your nation, to our dark and dismal world if the things of the kingdom were put first and our lives motivated by service, sacrifice and love!

"Thy Kingdom come on earth" we pray it is time we begin to practice it for we really have no business praying for anything for which we do not strive.

KINGDOM COME

Today I challenge you to resolve to become a more vital unit in Christ's kingdom. God is working through you so that "uprightness, peace and happiness through the possession of the Holy Spirit" (Romans 14:17) may be yours. If, then we are to have true vitality and if we are the source from which much shall grow, the spirit of Christ must be enthroned in us. Hugh Redwood in his book, "Kingdom Come," tells of a sinful soul woman who was told to pray. She said she did not know how, so the Salvation Army officer told her to talk to Jesus as she would to a friend. She arose and began, "Dear Sir, I am sorry to trouble you, but"—and then told Jesus the sad story of her life. She finished, "Yours sincerely," and sat down.

If we are to be vital units from which the Kingdom can grow, we will have to close our prayers, "Yours sincerely!"

PRINCIPAL McGREER

Toronto Saturday Night
The tragic accidental death of the Rev. Dr. A. H. McGreer, Principal of Bishop's University, whose body was recovered and interred last week, brought to an end a quarter-century of devoted service in an academic position which calls for qualities somewhat different from those demanded in the vaster degree-granting institutions. Bishop's, though it has three times as many students as when Dr. McGreer took charge of it and a much enlarged and strengthened staff, is still a small university, and the personal relation between its head, its staff and its students is still a most important element in the educational process which it carries on. So influential was the late Principal in that relation—so deep and earnest his affection for all the members of his university family—that his personality was by general admission the most important factor in the highly successful campaign for new endowment which was started just before his disappearance and is still going on. His capacity for friendship was unlimited, and he was not so burdened with administrative duties that he could not afford to exercise it. The result was an academic atmosphere more like that of a European college than is usual on this side of the water.

OUR BARBARA!

Wesley Hicks in Toronto Star
Barbara Ann Scott, a great athlete, a world's champion twice over, an Olympic champion, a fine lady and a little blonde girl as cute as a forget-me-not...

Eight pounds of raw potatoes are required to make one pound of dehydrated potatoes.

From The Record Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO

The military reverses in Flanders have caused considerable criticism of the High Command in the British press. Critics claim that there has been a needless waste of manpower.

Officers named at the Vestry meeting of Trinity Church, Cowansville, were: H. A. Wilson, W. P. Percival, W. P. Kerridge, A. L. Gilman, J. J. Barker, Loren Fuller, T. Larocque, G. W. Boright and George Hawley. Declaring the Crown used "agents provocateurs" the court dismissed actions against a number of local agents for breach of the excise stamp law.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

The United States Government has renewed its pressure upon Canada for the opening of negotiations for the construction of the St. Lawrence deep waterways. The Canadian Cabinet is displaying caution on the proposals.

Taking part in a concert at Magog were: Miss Evelyn Moffatt, Miss Flora Powers, Mrs. E. Whalley, Mrs. A. H. Bice, L. V. Lewis, Mrs. George Chappell, Mrs. A. Sandell, Mrs. George Kinnon, H. D. Roberts, Charles Styan, W. V. Lewis, Ray Kinnon, Mrs. E. S. Logie, Eddie Connor and J. Crainie.

The German airmen, whose trans-Atlantic plane crashed at Greenly Island, Que., have decided to abandon the craft.

TEN YEARS AGO

Increased Anglo-French general staff contacts are expected to follow discussions now going on in London between senior government officials.

The Provincial Government has been called upon to make an inspection of the Wolfe Street bridge following the complaints of numerous citizens that the structure was unsafe.

Charging the administration with a policy of aggression, a group of United States Congressmen have opened a campaign to defeat the proposed construction of large-sized battleships.

FIVE YEARS AGO

Reports reaching Sweden declare that the Nazi authorities in Norway are conscripting young Norwegians for service in the German armed forces.

Two young German prisoners of war, missing from an internment camp near Sherbrooke, have been found hiding within the camp.

Heavy bulk sales at the sugar bush virtually removed all Canadian maple sugar from the retail markets. Official statements declare that the crop this year was virtually a failure.

McKENNY ON BRIDGE

By Wm. E. McKenny, America's Card Authority

A BOLD HEART PLAY MAKES 3 N.T. GOOD

It is my prediction that the annual bridge tournament held in conjunction with the St. Paul Winter Carnival at St. Paul, Minn., will become one of the outstanding events of bridge. I attended the tournament in 1947 but had to break my date for 1948 at the last minute. However, I was pleased to receive a little coin making me an honorary member of the Saint-paulites.

Peter Leventritt, who again won the open pair championship with Charles Groden, gave me today's hand from the tournament, and said, "Don't give me any credit for getting into three no trumps, but as long as I was there, I had to try to make it."

South made a nice play on the queen from dummy, and South opening lead of the three of hearts, made the mistake of winning the He put up the ace and returned trick with the ace. If he had not the four of hearts. However Lev- done so, Leventritt said, they entrant said he was quite sure could have defeated the contract. North held three to the jack, not But now all South could do was three to the king—so he put in lead another small heart, which the queen, which held the trick. North won with the jack.

Now he led the ten of diamonds. However, South's entry was with no intention of taking the going. North returned a club, finesse. He wanted to coax the Leventritt won with the jack in ace of diamonds out of the South his own hand and led the ace and hand. He felt sure it was there, a small spade. Thus he was able to justify South's vulnerable bid to make five club tricks, a diamond one heart.

North obligingly put on the jack, nine tricks in all.

of diamonds, Leventritt played the queen from dummy, and South made the mistake of winning the He put up the ace and returned trick with the ace. If he had not the four of hearts. However Lev- done so, Leventritt said, they entrant said he was quite sure could have defeated the contract. North held three to the jack, not But now all South could do was three to the king—so he put in lead another small heart, which the queen, which held the trick. North won with the jack.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

"Family Doctor"

AROUSE	AVOIDED
SIARD	NOISE
USERS	OBESITY
SEALIC	UPPER
ERROR	ELMER
DANTE	BENSON
OSAN	STILO
LTO	SAFE
ED	WILSON
STRENER	ORATES
STAINS	WADES

- | | |
|--|----------------------------|
| 1.7 Pictorial | 4 Belongs to him |
| 2 Medical | 5 Reverberate |
| 3 award winner | 6 Precipitation |
| 12 New World | 7 Southsayer |
| 13 Revere | 8 United States ship (ab.) |
| 15 Perched | 9 Delirium tremens (ab.) |
| 16 English counties | 10 Airship |
| 18 Legal point | 11 Require |
| 19 Cast off | 12 Quager |
| 21 Heavy blow | 14 Manuscripts (ab.) |
| 22 Scuttles | 15 Sun god |
| 23 Whirlwind | 17 Of the thing |
| 25 Sun god | 20 Gives |
| 26 Bridges | 22 Occurs |
| 29 Capsize | 24 Domestic slaves |
| 33 Heathen | 25 Mountain crest |
| 34 Bowling term | 25 Oxidizes |
| 35 Mountain crest | 26 Health resort |
| 36 Lukewarm | 27 Golf term |
| 37 Electrical unit | 28 Era |
| 38 Symbol for tin | 30 Tree fluid |
| 39 High | 31 Silkworm |
| 40 Mountains | 32 Scatter |
| 41 Capital | 39 Snake |
| 42 Coffer | 40 Tree part |
| 50 Ocean | 41 Equal (comb. form) |
| 51 Tranquil | 42 Native of Latvia |
| 53 Meadow | 43 Symbol for iridium |
| 54 Talking bird | 28 Era |
| 56 Beeseech | 30 Tree fluid |
| 58 He was winner of the AMA's gold medal award | 31 Silkworm |
| 59 Jaeger gull | 32 Scatter |

VERTICAL

1 Oriental nurse	2 Network	3 Credit (ab.)
------------------	-----------	----------------

Sherbrooke Daily Record Saturday Features

Book Reviews

THE GOLDEN HAWK An Historical Novel by Frank Yerby

Author of The Vixens and the Foxes of Harrow

Here is a pulsating novel by adventure, revenge and exotic love in the West Indies of the seventeenth century, when the might of Spain was making its last great stand to retain its conquests in the New World.

Kit Gerardo, master of the Seaflower, was a man without a name. Because the shameful secret of his birth was shrouded in mystery somewhere in Cadix, he had turned to piracy as the only means of winning power and love — and revenge.

Swift as a peregrine falcon, straight as the masts of a brigantine, with eyes as blue as the waters of the Caribbean, he took what he wanted throughout the ports of the New World. Spanish Dons shuddered and crossed themselves when they spoke of him, whispering that he was the volcanic Don Luis who had driven him ever onward, leaving a trail of broken ships and desecrated women in his wake.

This is his story — of his lifelong search for revenge on Don Luis del Toro, the Spanish grandee who had killed his mother and touched his life with unpeppable horror. It was a search that was to take Kit from the Old World to the New, from the buccaner harbors of Sainte Domingue, Porto Bello and Cul-de-Sac to the gray, grim walled city of Cartagena in Spanish South America.

The Golden Hawk is also the story of the women who loved Kit — Rourke, the English gentlewoman turned pirate, Rouge of the sea — green eyes and flaming hair, whose treatment at the brutal hands of Don Luis had left a scar upon her that made her turn against the entire masculine sex. She fought Kit with knife and lash and pistol, goaded to redoubled fury by the slowly dawning recognition that there was one man she could not master.

In the story of Bianca del Toro, wedded half against her will to Don Luis and loving Kit with all the warmth of her Spanish nature — Bianca, whose great love was to bring her pain, anguish and ecstasy.

In the Golden Hawk you will follow the movement of armies and nations — you will meet Lazarus, the leper captain, weeping out his loneliness and pain in his tiny cell; Bernardo Diaz, the converted Jew, seeing his brave people beaten, tortured and humiliated by the remorseless hand of the inquisition; Lady Rosalind Parish, the English beauty who thought she could never be happy with any one man; Ducasse, Governor of Sainte Domingue, who dreamed a dream of French supremacy in the New World. And here among the birth pangs of the New World, Kit Gerardo, Golden Hawk of the Caribbean, fought his long fight to win the love of the woman whose spirits matched his own.

UNCONQUERED

By Neil H. Swanson

The story of Unconquered starts in a little English village, moves on to London, crosses the Atlantic to Norfolk and on to Williamsburg. It reaches out into the beautiful and dangerous Ohio wilderness and rises to a roaring climax at the siege of Fort Pitt. Here its characters battle the Pontiac Conspiracy defending their homes against a coalition of merciless Indian tribes. Frequently the Indians were incited to slaughter by renegade whites who were trying to lay rapacious hands on the riches of the New World.

In part Unconquered is a powerful and exciting narrative of how one man named Martin Garth got control of more than seven and a half million acres of the Middle Border country. In part it is the story of the little people who were swept along in the huge conspiracy and of big men, famous or unnamed — Washington, Sir William Johnson, or simple, Captain Chris Holden, who carried the peace bells where no other dared to go.

Unconquered is based on truth that startles belief. It is an amazing story, drawn from a period when the history of America was being lived by men and women capable of amazing deeds.

HARPER OF HEAVEN

By Robert Service

"Most people play one character in their lives; I have enacted a dozen and always with my whole heart," writes Robert Service in the second and concluding volume of his autobiography, which ranges over many countries in Europe, the islands of the Pacific, Canada and the United States.

In Russia, while being shown the official sites by Intourist guides, Mr. Service found opportunities for his own observations, which are of fascinating interest in the light of present events. During the First World War he was with the Red Cross and tells of experiences immortalized in his Rhythms of a Red Cross Man. In 1939 he was living in Brittany and had an exciting escape, with his wife and daughter, in one of the last ships for England. He found his way to California where, under the exchange restrictions, he was almost without money and had to pay his way by lectures, broadcasting and working for films. His account of how he earned three hundred dollars for three minutes acting with Marlene Dietrich is one of the most entertaining in the book.

"So passed the years of eager effort," he writes, "with not a few exalted, in which I heard beyond the depths of silences those secret harmonies I call the Harps of Heaven. Yet I know the music was in my own heart, that I was the Harper and that Heaven was within me."

When Mr. Service returned to France after the war, his Brittany home had been badly damaged but his apartments on the Riviera were almost untouched, and he was able to take up the life he loves so much — in the sunshine of the Mediterranean.

Harper of Heaven, like its predecessor Ploughman of the Moon, is packed with vigorous, colorful and sensitive passages which have won for Robert Service a unique and widely popular place in contemporary English writing.

MY UNCLE JAN

By Joseph Auslander and Audrey Wurdemann

When Jan Horak came to Wisconsin from Czechoslovakia just before the turn of the century, he wrote home that all one needed to do to bring down fifteen or twenty-five fat pigeons was to point the shotgun at the sky and fire blind. It was only natural that such descriptions should persuade Great-aunt Horak, fat Aunt Vlasta and a host of friends and relatives to pack up their feather beds and move west and follow him to the wonderland of America. It was natural, too, that Jan, being the first, should become the biggest and most important man in New Bohemia, Wisconsin.

But that was only the beginning. For Jan, besides having a flair for getting on in life, had an equally strong penchant for getting himself into hilarious hot water. Through the eyes of the boy of the family, whose hero was Uncle Jan, we live through a whole series of remarkable predicaments. For instance, how could Uncle Jan have known that Ludmila would consider a walk home from church in the moonlight as a proposal of marriage? Or that his efforts to extricate himself from that dilemma would land him in jail?

How could he have foreseen that Anna would come down with the mumps on the very eve of their departure for a honeymoon in Chi-

The Best Sellers

- FICTION:
- Eagle in the Sky $4.00
 - Raintree County $4.00
 - The Ides of March $2.00
 - House Divided $5.00
 - Lucinda Brayford $3.00
 - The Bishop's Mantle $3.00
 - Red Plush $4.00
 - Other Voices, Other Rooms $3.25
 - The Road South $3.00
 - Unconquered $3.00
- NON-FICTION:
- Peace of Mind $4.00
 - Inside U. S. A. $5.50
 - Information Please Almanac $2.50
 - A Study of History $5.00
 - Speaking Frankly $4.00
 - Human Destiny $4.00
 - The Meaning of Treason $4.50
 - Harper of Heaven $4.50

- SPORTS AND GAMES:
- She Skated Into Our Hearts (Barbara Ann Scott) $2.25
 - The Nine Bad Shots of Golf $3.00
 - Masters of the Chessboard $4.50
 - Riding $2.49

Books and Gifts

Sheffield Shop

Magazines, Greeting Cards, Lending Library.

40 Dufferin Ave. Phone 4704-R

Chartered Institute of Secretaries

THE SHAW COURSE provides candidates for the Associates' Degree (A.C.I.S.) conferred by that Institute, a completely revised course, covering every subject included in examination requirements.

Students' tuition conducted under the direction of Prof. W. S. Ferguson, C.A., A.C.I.S. member of the Educational Council of the Institute.

Enrolments accepted for partial course, or for Intermediate or Final sections separately.

Booklet and details on request.

Shaw Schools

Head Office — Toronto, Ont.

Montreal Branch: 315 Sun Life Building, P.L. 7347.

Around THE Armouries

This week we have something to really crow about! We have news from several different units, and we welcome the addition of the No. 67, Sherbrooke (Rotary) Air Cadet Squadron to the "Around the Armouries" column. These lads deserve every possible support in their splendid training program fitting them for good citizenship, so in our effort to boost the current Air Cadet recruiting campaign we devote top spot in the news section of this week's column to the Air Cadets. We salute you!

Also, there's a bit of news for all regimental sergeant-majors this week and instead of rambling along about this and that we are going to give you a glimpse of what the new badge for your R.S.M.'s looks like . . . here it is:

Don't look now, but the Regimental Sergeant Major soon will be sporting a new badge of rank — one that for the first time in the history of the Canadian Army will be distinctively Canadian in design. In describing the badge, Ottawa authorities said it is more colorful than, and differs greatly from, the badge now being worn which is of Imperial design.

Design of the new badge has just been approved by the Minister of National Defence and issue will be made in the near future.

On the badge is embroidered the Canadian coat of arms supported on the left by a silver lion rampant holding a lance bearing the Union Jack, and on the right by a silver unicorn holding a lance bearing a blue banner charged with three gold fleur-de-lis. The Canadian coat of arms is surmounted by a silver Royal helmet mantled, and a silver lion passant guardant, imperially crowned and holding a red maple leaf in the right paw. The whole is encircled with the Imperial crown proper and inscribed in gold on a blue scroll below is the motto, "A Mari Usque Ad Mare."

The Sgt.-Major's Column

The badge is three inches high and two and a half inches wide. It will be worn by all Warrant Officers, Class I, replacing both the R.S.M.'s badge and Conductor's (R.C.O.C.) badge now in use.

—THE SGT. MAJOR

No. 67 Air Cadet Squadron

Air Cadet week got off to a good start with a church parade to the Church of St. Paul the Apostle. The bystanders must have been thrilled to watch this fine body of boys under the command of Sqdn-Ldr. F. Lord, D.F.C., and PO, Charles Kench, M.B.E., marching to attend divine service. The band was in charge of Flt.-Sgt. F. Morin and Flt.-Sgt. I. Richards. The parade was met at the church by its padre, Honorary Flt.-Lt. John Comfort, pastor of the church.

The lesson was read by PO, Charles Kench, M.B.E., and the theme of the sermon was based on the text, "Honor all men, love the brotherhood, fear God, honor the King."

In the absence of FO, Cliff Bryant, the parade was in charge of qdn-Ldr. Forest Lord, D.F.C.

The unit's O.C. was greatly missed on the parade, but the boys did a swell job.

The unit is now making a very determined drive for new recruits. All boys 14½-18 are welcome to join. Apply at William street armory on Friday nights at 7.30

12th Armoured Regt. Band

Well, pay parade is over, and no complaints, Sgt.-Major.

The band has a heavy agenda for the summer so new members are welcome. New recruits to the band are fitting in well with the different sections of the unit.

The band was in charge of Sgt. Corcoran during the pay parade of the regiment.

The band wishes to thank Bandsman G. Hulme for his excellent chief service at the last get-together, a regular feature of band night at William street armory.

5th C.M.R. Reunion

Don't forget the date and the place, June 18, 1948, New Sherbrooke Hotel.

35th L.A.A. Battery, R.C.A.

A leaflet from Divisional H.Q. gives a picture of what camp will be like this summer for the 35th L.A.A. Regiment of which the 35th Battery, Sherbrooke, forms a part.

Situated on the north shore of Lake Ontario, Picton Hill, Picton, Ontario, is a natural launch for a summer camp, using a former R.C.A.F. training ground.

The men of the unit will be billeted in huts, which are supplied with electric lights, individual sleeping cots, hot and cold running water, and all the comforts of a permanent military camp.

Messing will be looked after by the camp personnel, as well as other duties, such as guards.

The training syllabus laid down for this period is one that will be enjoyed by all men of the different units. Gun drill and gunnery will only take one day. Afterwards actual firing in the ranges, at moving targets, will occupy most of the following days. A mobile echelon and a tank shoot will also be a part of the training. A night shoot will also be held, and the sports part of the program is also an important one, with softball, swimming and other outdoor sports to occupy part of the men's time. In addition outdoor movie shows will be held in the evenings, so all-in-all, camp this year, should be really something!

Recruits are still needed for the 35th, and will be interviewed on Tuesday or Thursday evenings at the Orderly Room, between the hours of 8 and 10 p.m.

Attention—All Former Members of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Highlanders

The first Battalion, Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Highlanders has formed an Association with branches in Peterborough and Cornwall. It is hoped to have branches formed in other centres. It has been decided to hold the first Re-union of this Regiment in Cornwall on June 5-6, 1948. A Re-union Committee has been

The Managing Editor's Column

By DOUGLAS AMARON

George Washington and his cherry tree have a modern counterpart in Sherbrooke.

The local George Washingtons are members of the city parks departments and the cherry trees are those in Mitchell Park which have been tumbling down this week beneath saw and axe.

Several persons enquired about the why and wherefore of this tree-chopping enterprise. We learn from the parks department that there is a two-fold reason.

In the first place, the department says, the trees blocked the vision of motorists at park corners and came down as a safety measure.

The second reason is that smaller vegetation was being stunted by these trees so they were removed to give bushes and smaller plants a chance to grow.

Still other trees in the park are being pruned and trimmed of rotten branches.

That big hole on King street, just below the Wellington street intersection, will begin paying dividends in Sherbrooke some time in 1950.

The work being done there is part of the Bell Telephone Company's project for installing the dial system here. The new service is expected to be operating in about two year's time.

Two telephone calls from Sudbury, Ont., had the Record staff in a tither for a few hours this week. Northern Ontario's famous, black-bearded sportsman and woodsman, Joe Laflamme, was reported—said the Sudbury caller—to have been trampled to death by his moose while on a tour of Quebec province.

This was big news, for Joe Laflamme, his moose and his wolves are nationally-known. A check of police and other sources failed to place Joe in the Townships, however, and subsequent checking by Sudbury proved the report to be just a false rumor.

It's another example of what we pointed out a few weeks ago—the speed and distance which rumors travel.

Joe Laflamme comes from Gogama, Ont., and in checking the Canadian Almanac for the spelling of that town's name we discovered that next to it in the Almanac's list of place names is an Ontario summer resort called Gogama.

That set us looking for other unusual Canadian place names and we came across such localities as Bad Heart, Dog Pound, Onefour and Oatseed. For the romantic, by inclined, Saskatchewan offers Honeymoon, Love and Romance and, as though to sum them all up, Superb.

LETTER FROM BRITAIN—

City Of Many Faucets

By COLIN FRASER

"The man who is tired of London," boomed the 18th century lexicographer, Dr. Samuel Johnson, "is tired of life." Certainly, it is a particularly jaded person who cannot find something to interest him in this vast, sprawling metropolis. Yet, despite the size of the city, there is always a certain intimate quality about the events which take place in it. I was reminded of this recently when I watched Britain's 10 Miles National Road Walking Championship.

The race was held in Hyde Park, and the competing athletes had no special treatment. The roads were free to all traffic and as they covered the ground, the normal life of Hyde Park went on as usual. The atmosphere was almost parochial. There was no special stream-lining of arrangements. The pedestrians strolled slowly, the riders cantered their horses along Rotten Row, a National Championship was being decided, but with a pleasant absence of fuss.

Such a race calls for the extremes of self-discipline. For 10 miles the competitors must cover the ground with each step being made heel-and-toe. It demands the greatest display of restraint to continue to complete that movement, while at the same time the entrant, desiring to cover the ground as quickly as possible, I have no idea how many of the competitors would in any match abandon their self-control and give a leap or a skip or run two or three steps, but they are aided in their self-discipline by the judges who are spaced along the course. They are usually the unrecorded in these events. They come out, many of them middle-aged men, with hawk-like eyes and watch each step of the straining athletes.

Although I did not see any infringements of the rules on this occasion, I have watched these judges. Laconically, they will nod to a competitor and he will wheel off in the track, his race ended. In his desire to win, to improve his position in the race, he has failed to "heel-and-toe," and the judge has seen it. Yet, despite the casualness of the whole affair, it is not unlikely that in a few months' time the winner will be competing at Wembley in the forthcoming Olympics against the best walkers in the world, and I like to think with a fair chance of winning.

Preparations at Wembley

Already the work of getting Wembley, a London suburb, ready for this great occasion is far advanced. But I hope that something of this early quality is preserved for even the Olympics. The Germans the Russian ballet; now it is the turn of Ram Gopal to bring an influence into the theatre which is from much further East than the ballets of Diaghilev. Here, for the London audience, is something which owes nothing to Western culture, and which has an atmosphere of color and a tropic splendor which draws its strength from the sun.

I do not believe that Gopal's dance technique will greatly influence Western ballet, the background of philosophy is too mystical—in fact it is the negation of Western principles, but the lovely colors, the warmth of the performances, and the strange simplicity of the music may well create a spark in the minds of Western artists.

I have tried to give you some idea of the variety that is available to the people of London yet there is another angle of interest I must mention. One of the sights worth seeing is the Charing Cross Road, centre of second-hand book-shops, where "bookworms" browse.

Paris as a city with many romantic associations is well known to the people of the world. Many writers have dilated on the charm of the French capital, and described with detail the attraction of the stalls on the banks of the Seine. Yet few, if any, have enlarged upon the magnetic qualities in that direction of the Charing Cross Road.

Paradise For Bookworms

It would like to think that the same atmosphere will prevail this year at Wembley and that while the finest athletes in the world will be seen, the occasion will be one for many international, social gatherings.

By contrast to the truly English display in Hyde Park, London offers her many citizens an entertainment in every way different. It is the Indian Ballet of Ram Gopal, which occupies one of London's biggest theatres and which is drawing large audiences to every performance.

Ram Gopal, a 31-year-old Indian, a great artist with a most modest and unassuming manner. He has brought to England a dance company and a repertoire of Indian dances, collected from every corner of that vast sub-continent.

Throughout the winter there was at Burlington House, Piccadilly, home of Britain's Royal Academy, an exhibition of art from India and Pakistan. It was a unique collection of the art treasures of these two countries. The exhibition has stimulated interest in the art of India and created a first interest in the work of Ram Gopal and his Company but once seen there is no question that London people have been thrilled by the dancing, the costumes and the essential Asiatic quality of the whole presentation.

During each performance, Ram Gopal gives a short address to the audience, explaining the significance of part of the performance, and in a pleasant voice, speaking good English, gives a "background" to ballets which they perform.

A few years ago Diaghilev delighted and fascinated the sophisticated of London with in their Berlin Olympics of 1936 went to extremes. It ceased to be a trial of physical ability between the young men of many nations gathered in the best interests of sport. There was something of the authoritarian control of the dictator state in the Games. Let us hope that in the Games at Wembley there will be something of the intangible quality of democracy present. Throughout World War II Wembley was the scene of many displays. Sometimes Britain's Civil Defence officials gave deft demonstrations of what they did, and would do when they had to battle with falling masonry and flame swept buildings in actual air raids. But even in those days, there was a happy domestic atmosphere about that great arena, for families went there to watch these displays and as the teams marched past there was always heard the cry "There's Dad."

I would like to think that the same atmosphere will prevail this year at Wembley and that while the finest athletes in the world will be seen, the occasion will be one for many international, social gatherings.

By contrast to the truly English display in Hyde Park, London offers her many citizens an entertainment in every way different. It is the Indian Ballet of Ram Gopal, which occupies one of London's biggest theatres and which is drawing large audiences to every performance.

Ram Gopal, a 31-year-old Indian, a great artist with a most modest and unassuming manner. He has brought to England a dance company and a repertoire of Indian dances, collected from every corner of that vast sub-continent.

Throughout the winter there was at Burlington House, Piccadilly, home of Britain's Royal Academy, an exhibition of art from India and Pakistan. It was a unique collection of the art treasures of these two countries. The exhibition has stimulated interest in the art of India and created a first interest in the work of Ram Gopal and his Company but once seen there is no question that London people have been thrilled by the dancing, the costumes and the essential Asiatic quality of the whole presentation.

During each performance, Ram Gopal gives a short address to the audience, explaining the significance of part of the performance, and in a pleasant voice, speaking good English, gives a "background" to ballets which they perform.

A few years ago Diaghilev delighted and fascinated the sophisticated of London with the Russian ballet; now it is the turn of Ram Gopal to bring an influence into the theatre which is from much further East than the ballets of Diaghilev. Here, for the London audience, is something which owes nothing to Western culture, and which has an atmosphere of color and a tropic splendor which draws its strength from the sun.

I do not believe that Gopal's dance technique will greatly influence Western ballet, the background of philosophy is too mystical—in fact it is the negation of Western principles, but the lovely colors, the warmth of the performances, and the strange simplicity of the music may well create a spark in the minds of Western artists.

I have tried to give you some idea of the variety that is available to the people of London yet there is another angle of interest I must mention. One of the sights worth seeing is the Charing Cross Road, centre of second-hand book-shops, where "bookworms" browse.

Paris as a city with many romantic associations is well known to the people of the world. Many writers have dilated on the charm of the French capital, and described with detail the attraction of the stalls on the banks of the Seine. Yet few, if any, have enlarged upon the magnetic qualities in that direction of the Charing Cross Road.

Paradise For Bookworms

It would like to think that the same atmosphere will prevail this year at Wembley and that while the finest athletes in the world will be seen, the occasion will be one for many international, social gatherings.

By contrast to the truly English display in Hyde Park, London offers her many citizens an entertainment in every way different. It is the Indian Ballet of Ram Gopal, which occupies one of London's biggest theatres and which is drawing large audiences to every performance.

Ram Gopal, a 31-year-old Indian, a great artist with a most modest and unassuming manner. He has brought to England a dance company and a repertoire of Indian dances, collected from every corner of that vast sub-continent.

Throughout the winter there was at Burlington House, Piccadilly, home of Britain's Royal Academy, an exhibition of art from India and Pakistan. It was a unique collection of the art treasures of these two countries. The exhibition has stimulated interest in the art of India and created a first interest in the work of Ram Gopal and his Company but once seen there is no question that London people have been thrilled by the dancing, the costumes and the essential Asiatic quality of the whole presentation.

During each performance, Ram Gopal gives a short address to the audience, explaining the significance of part of the performance, and in a pleasant voice, speaking good English, gives a "background" to ballets which they perform.

A few years ago Diaghilev delighted and fascinated the sophisticated of London with the Russian ballet; now it is the turn of Ram Gopal to bring an influence into the theatre which is from much further East than the ballets of Diaghilev. Here, for the London audience, is something which owes nothing to Western culture, and which has an atmosphere of color and a tropic splendor which draws its strength from the sun.

I do not believe that Gopal's dance technique will greatly influence Western ballet, the background of philosophy is too mystical—in fact it is the negation of Western principles, but the lovely colors, the warmth of the performances, and the strange simplicity of the music may well create a spark in the minds of Western artists.

I have tried to give you some idea of the variety that is available to the people of London yet there is another angle of interest I must mention. One of the sights worth seeing is the Charing Cross Road, centre of second-hand book-shops, where "bookworms" browse.

Paris as a city with many romantic associations is well known to the people of the world. Many writers have dilated on the charm of the French capital, and described with detail the attraction of the stalls on the banks of the Seine. Yet few, if any, have enlarged upon the magnetic qualities in that direction of the Charing Cross Road.

Paradise For Bookworms

It would like to think that the same atmosphere will prevail this year at Wembley and that while the finest athletes in the world will be seen, the occasion will be one for many international, social gatherings.

By contrast to the truly English display in Hyde Park, London offers her many citizens an entertainment in every way different. It is the Indian Ballet of Ram Gopal, which occupies one of London's biggest theatres and which is drawing large audiences to every performance.

Ram Gopal, a 31-year-old Indian, a great artist with a most modest and unassuming manner. He has brought to England a dance company and a repertoire of Indian dances, collected from every corner of that vast sub-continent.

Throughout the winter there was at Burlington House, Piccadilly, home of Britain's Royal Academy, an exhibition of art from India and Pakistan. It was a unique collection of the art treasures of these two countries. The exhibition has stimulated interest in the art of India and created a first interest in the work of Ram Gopal and his Company but once seen there is no question that London people have been thrilled by the dancing, the costumes and the essential Asiatic quality of the whole presentation.

During each performance, Ram Gopal gives a short address to the audience, explaining the significance of part of the performance, and in a pleasant voice, speaking good English, gives a "background" to ballets which they perform.

A few years ago Diaghilev delighted and fascinated the sophisticated of London with the Russian ballet; now it is the turn of Ram Gopal to bring an influence into the theatre which is from much further East than the ballets of Diaghilev. Here, for the London audience, is something which owes nothing to Western culture, and which has an atmosphere of color and a tropic splendor which draws its strength from the sun.

I do not believe that Gopal's dance technique will greatly influence Western ballet, the background of philosophy is too mystical—in fact it is the negation of Western principles, but the lovely colors, the warmth of the performances, and the strange simplicity of the music may well create a spark in the minds of Western artists.

I have tried to give you some idea of the variety that is available to the people of London yet there is another angle of interest I must mention. One of the sights worth seeing is the Charing Cross Road, centre of second-hand book-shops, where "bookworms" browse.

Paris as a city with many romantic associations is well known to the people of the world. Many writers have dilated on the charm of the French capital, and described with detail the attraction of the stalls on the banks of the Seine. Yet few, if any, have enlarged upon the magnetic qualities in that direction of the Charing Cross Road.

Paradise For Bookworms

It would like to think that the same atmosphere will prevail this year at Wembley and that while the finest athletes in the world will be seen, the occasion will be one for many international, social gatherings.

By contrast to the truly English display in Hyde Park, London offers her many citizens an entertainment in every way different. It is the Indian Ballet of Ram Gopal, which occupies one of London's biggest theatres and which is drawing large audiences to every performance.

Ram Gopal, a 31-year-old Indian, a great artist with a most modest and unassuming manner. He has brought to England a dance company and a repertoire of Indian dances, collected from every corner of that vast sub-continent.

Throughout the winter there was at Burlington House, Piccadilly, home of Britain's Royal Academy, an exhibition of art from India and Pakistan. It was a unique collection of the art treasures of these two countries. The exhibition has stimulated interest in the art of India and created a first interest in the work of Ram Gopal and his Company but once seen there is no question that London people have been thrilled by the dancing, the costumes and the essential Asiatic quality of the whole presentation.

During each performance, Ram Gopal gives a short address to the audience, explaining the significance of part of the performance, and in a pleasant voice, speaking good English, gives a "background" to ballets which they perform.

A few years ago Diaghilev delighted and fascinated the sophisticated of London with the Russian ballet; now it is the turn of Ram Gopal to bring an influence into the theatre which is from much further East than the ballets of Diaghilev. Here, for the London audience, is something which owes nothing to Western culture, and which has an atmosphere of color and a tropic splendor which draws its strength from the sun.

I do not believe that Gopal's dance technique will greatly influence Western ballet, the background of philosophy is too mystical—in fact it is the negation of Western principles, but the lovely colors, the warmth of the performances, and the strange simplicity of the music may well create a spark in the minds of Western artists.

I have tried to give you some idea of the variety that is available to the people of London yet there is another angle of interest I must mention. One of the sights worth seeing is the Charing Cross Road, centre of second-hand book-shops, where "bookworms" browse.

Paris as a city with many romantic associations is well known to the people of the world. Many writers have dilated on the charm of the French capital, and described with detail the attraction of the stalls on the banks of the Seine. Yet few, if any, have enlarged upon the magnetic qualities in that direction of the Charing Cross Road.

Paradise For Bookworms

It would like to think that the same atmosphere will prevail this year at Wembley and that while the finest athletes in the world will be seen, the occasion will be one for many international, social gatherings.

By contrast to the truly English display in Hyde Park, London offers her many citizens an entertainment in every way different. It is the Indian Ballet of Ram Gopal, which occupies one of London's biggest theatres and which is drawing large audiences to every performance.

Ram Gopal, a 31-year-old Indian, a great artist with a most modest and unassuming manner. He has brought to England a dance company and a repertoire of Indian dances, collected from every corner of that vast sub-continent.

Throughout the winter there was at Burlington House, Piccadilly, home of Britain's Royal Academy, an exhibition of art from India and Pakistan. It was a unique collection of the art treasures of these two countries. The exhibition has stimulated interest in the art of India and created a first interest in the work of Ram Gopal and his Company but once seen there is no question that London people have been thrilled by the dancing, the costumes and the essential Asiatic quality of the whole presentation.

During each performance, Ram Gopal gives a short address to the audience, explaining the significance of part of the performance, and in a pleasant voice, speaking good English, gives a "background" to ballets which they perform.

A few years ago Diaghilev delighted and fascinated the sophisticated of London with

Recruits are being accepted for the Royal Canadian Mounted Police

Applicants must be single—between the ages of 18 and 30 years. For further information apply to the nearest R.C.M. Police Detachment or the Commissioner, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Ottawa

QUALITY PHOTOGRAPHY
NOEL GOYETTE
257 Main St. — Tel. 2590
MAGOG

BOOKS

SHE SKATED INTO OUR HEARTS
The Story of Barbara Ann Scott by Cay Moore $2.25

THE GOLDEN HAWK
by Frank Yerby $3.50

MY UNCLE JAN
by Joseph Auslander and Audrey Wurdemann $3.00

PILGRIMS INN
by Elizabeth Goudge .. $4.00

THERESE
by Francois Mauriac .. $3.00

KING COTTON
by Thomas Armstrong $3.50

LUCINDA BRAYFORD
by Martin Boyd $3.00

Rosemary Gift Shop
Books, Handicrafts, Gifts
Tel. 3245-W — 4 Dufferin Ave.

Classified Advertising Dept. Phone 68

FOR QUICK RESULTS USE THE

CLASSIFIED

TO BUY-RENT LOAN-SELL-FIX TRADE

CLASSIFIED ADS. must be received by 4 p.m. previous day.

SHERBROOKE, QUEBEC, SATURDAY, APRIL 17, 1948.

SUBSCRIBERS Receiving HOME DELIVERY may report missing copies or irregular service by calling 94 before 5:00 p.m.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

Advocates

H. E. GRUNDY, McMANAMY & WALSH Bldg., 10 Wellington St. No. Phone 1859. B. N. HOLTHAM, K.C., ADVOCATE, Room 106, 10 Wellington St. Phone 75. ASHTON R. TOBIN, K.C., ROSENBLAU Bldg., 66 Wellington North. Phone 623. ROUSSEAU, HOWARD & BRADLEY, Olivier Bldg., 4 Wellington St. Tel. 727. Armand Rousseau, K.C., W. H. Bradley, D. S. Howard. General trial practice, estate.

Chartered Accountants

MANLEY R. SICHEL, B.A., MONTREAL, Marquette 2258; Magog, 2605. T. R. FINEY AND CO., 71 PROSPECT Street. Phone 3255. P. S. ROSS & SON, CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS, Montreal. P. N. GOODE, C.A., 70 WELLINGTON N. Phone 1559 and at Granby, Phone 2264.

Dentist

DR. J. A. LANDRY, SURGEON-DENTIST, 130 Wellington St. No. opposite Court House. Phone 725.

Physicians and Surgeons

DR. ETHER, PHONE 674, 4 GORDON St. Electrotherapy, Urinary Disease.

Veterinary Surgeon

SHERBROOKE VETERINARY HOSPITAL, Dr. L. A. Gendreau, 67 Wellington South.

Acme Typewriter Co. Reg'd

W. E. HAMMOND, Prop. Authorized Representative for Underwood Typewriters 74 Wellington South-Phone 3737

Painting, Paper Hanging, Wall Washing

SALVONI DUVAL 65a Wellington N., Apt. 31 Tel. 3513

MATHIAS

Typewriter Exchange Royal Typewriters 243 Office Res 2873

SALE OF FINEST QUALITY VENETIAN BLINDS

Why You Should Buy FLEXALUM Blinds: New Beauty Easily Cleaned Won't Chip or Crack Warp Proof & Rust Proof Fire Proof FREE ESTIMATES FREE INSTALLATION Phone 1642-M H. DOIRON, Local Rep.

Everything Electrical

L. H. McCONE Electrical Contractor 44 Main St. - Lennoxville

BISHOP'S WOODWORKING & REPAIR SHOP

14 Magog St. - Tel. 4798w Store Fixtures, Book Shelves, Cupboards, Doors, Cabinets. FREE ESTIMATES

FLOOR SANDING

Dustless, Modern Machinery. Floors treated with immediate drying FINITEK or Varnish. Asphalt Tile Laid. Work accepted all over Townships. A. BENOIT - Tel. 4275-J

BALING

Hay and straw baled with power baler in field or barn. Baled hay and straw for sale. BARON J. E. de CSAVOSSY Tel. SAWYERVILLE 41

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RATES

CASH RATE - 3 cents per word, minimum charge 50 cents for 16 words or less; three consecutive insertions, $1.25; six consecutive insertions, $2.25. CHARGE RATE - 4 cents per word, minimum charge 75 cents for 18 words or less. ERRORS on our part in advertisements will be rectified immediately on attention being called thereto.

Real Estate For Sale

MODERN HOUSE WITH BATH, ELECTRICITY and garage in Hatley village. Immediate possession. Herbert Colt. Ayer's Cliff. Phone 573. SIX ROOM DUPLEX, ONE SIDE AVAILABLE to buyer. 5 Lorne Avenue, Lennoxville. HOUSE, FIVE ROOMS, 2 BATHROOMS, set tubs in modern cellar, fireplace, hot water heating all year round. Apply 84 Fifth Avenue, Sherbrooke.

Live Stock for Sale

YOUNG DUCKLING, 3 BREEDS. ORDER now, 2 Miller 199 egg incubators, like new. Perfect. Box 121, Record. AYRESHIRE BULL, PUREBRED. PHONE Lennoxville, 137-J-3. HORSE FOR SALE, 9 YEARS OLD, good to work, also one horse wagon and one harness. G. R. Hastings, Knowlton, Phone 1463.

Cars For Sale

ROADSTER, 1941, IN GOOD CONDITION. Phone 412-J, corner Rock Forest and Montreal Road, 3 miles from city limits. 1951 CHEVROLET COACH, GOOD TIRES, $150. W. Dobb, Ayer's Cliff, Phone 1122. 1939 FORD TWO-TON TRUCK, NEW motor, with one year hauling contract included. Box 121, Record. 1937 PONTIAC OPERA COUPE, ALL new tires, motor in A-1 condition. Apply to Baron de Cassovsky, Sawyerville, Que. Phone 41. 1932 CHRYSLER COUPE, RUMBLE, NO reasonable offer refused. Phone 1609-J-3. 1931 FORD ROADSTER, NEW TOP, IN good condition. Apply Box 102, Record. 1937 BUICK LIMITED LIMOUSINE, 7 passenger, model 4933. Engine, body and upholstery, good condition. Low mileage. Phone Lennoxville, 488 any time. 1929 FORD COACH, GOOD CONDITION, new tires. Phone Waterloo, 91-J-3. 1940 THREE TON FORD TRUCK WITH Ruxal and 12 ft. platform, gravel box with bolt, donkey with four new tires and 16 ft. platform. Eric Fisher, Bury, Que.

FOR SALE QUEBEC STREET NORTH of Portland, North Ward, two-story apartment house, eight rooms on each side, hot water heated, furnace on each side, nice lot, paved street. Can be seen by appointment. Jos. V. Ames, 69 Wellington Street North.

FOR SALE ON LAKE MASSAWIPPI

North Hatley, summer cottage, two bedrooms, large living room with fireplace, kitchen and screened-in porch. Cement foundation, asbestos siding and roofing. Running water. Three acres well timbered land, nice beach and garden. Completely furnished. Only finished last August. For further information write Box 150, Record.

TWO FIVE ROOM TENEMENTS, $7,500

each around $3,900. Revenue $780. Apply 66 Short St., near corner St. Charles. Phone 441. Tenement available to purchaser.

Farms For Sale

90 ACRES DAIRY FARM, EAST Sherbrooke, City Limits, modern house, easily divided into two large five rooms. Hot water heating, electricity, modern barn, orchard, bus service. Farm equipment also for sale. Phone 2191-W. 200 ACRE FARM, 2 MILES FROM ULverton, Howard Estate, nice level land to work. Mrs. Reni Boisvert, Melbourne, Que. 200 ACRES DAIRY FARM, NEAR SHERBROOKE, good buildings, electricity, will carry 60 head. Carl Tang, Huntingville.

Baby Chicks

BRAY STARTED PULLETS, OR DAY-olds. Heavy export of cockerel chicks to promote. Most breeds, pullets, cockerels, mixed. Ask for price list. Bray Hatchery, 51 Depot. Phone 2974. EARLY CHICKS MEANS - FALL EGGS. Fall eggs means - Exportation eggs. Ask for our price list today. Grade "A" chicks - 6 breeds. Certified Hatchery. Renaud's Hatchery Regd. J. A. Renaud, Prop., Ascot Corner, Que. Phone 530-W-21.

W. H. Norrie & Sons

GARAGE AYER'S CLIFF Contractors for road work, sand, gravel. A bulldozer and shovel at your service. Call us for prices on excavation work before building. Tel. 31 r 2

Orleans Apartments

75 King George Street ROOMS BY THE DAY OR WEEK

75 King George Street

ROOMS BY THE DAY OR WEEK All modern conveniences; quiet neighborhood conducive to sound sleeping; lots of fresh air. Every apartment contains a large room furnished with Simmons studio, bureau, secretary; tiled bathroom with shower; kitchenette with frigidaire and electric stove. Special attention given to tourists. For reservations telephone 2758-W. Mme. ARTHUR L'HEUREUX, Manager.

75 King George Street

ROOMS BY THE DAY OR WEEK All modern conveniences; quiet neighborhood conducive to sound sleeping; lots of fresh air. Every apartment contains a large room furnished with Simmons studio, bureau, secretary; tiled bathroom with shower; kitchenette with frigidaire and electric stove. Special attention given to tourists. For reservations telephone 2758-W. Mme. ARTHUR L'HEUREUX, Manager.

Miscellaneous

GROUP COMPETENT GIRLS INTERESTED in minding children any night during the week. Phone 679-W. FURNITURE REFINISHING AND SPRAY painting shop. Only specialists in refinishing furniture. Genuine French polishing, repairs on cigarette burners. We modernize your old furniture. Workmanship guaranteed. 250-R Belvidere. Phone 5521-W.

FLOOR SANDING

"Done the way you like it" Expert Workmen - Free Estimates ANTONIO MASSON 10 St. Antoine St. - Tel. 1794-R

Salesmen Wanted

MIDDLE AGED SALESMAN - SELL roof maintenance specialty manufactured in Canada, sold wholesale to all roof owners, including farmers. Accounts payable at Toronto in Canadian Funds. Enjoy good ever-increasing income. Permanent position with old reliable corporation. Advance to territory manager. Write Box 1756 Cleveland, Ohio, U.S.A.

TO A MAN NOW EMPLOYED WHO seeks a better opportunity. If you are between 21 and 30 and bilingual, earning less than $40 a week and interested in a sales job with a future, please contact us immediately. Starred position, large concern. Box 119, Record.

Teachers Wanted

TEACHERS WANTED FOR MUNICIPALITY of East Farnham for 1948-49 for 10 months. Apply, stating qualifications, experience and salary expected, to C. T. Horner, Sec., East Farnham.

PROFESSOR TEACHERS WANTED

One to teach Grades VI to IX and act as Principal. One to teach Grades I to V. Apply, stating qualifications and salary expected to Mrs. P. I. Ramsay, Sec.-Treas., Intermediate School, Phillipsburg, Que.

Stationary Engineers

LET US PREPARE YOU FOR A HIGHER grade certificate and make sure of complete success. Write School of Stationary Engineering, Box 392, Sudbury, Ont.

Male Help Wanted

GARDNER, EXPERIENCED SHRUBS, flowers, vegetables for small country estate. Permanent position. Box 112, Record.

WANTED - PIPE FITTERS FOR PAPER

Mill work outside city. Must be first class and have worked on high pressure piping. Transportation paid. Reply to Box 118, Record.

HOUSEMAN OR JANITOR REQUIRED.

English-speaking. Apply in person. St. George's Club.

25 TO 300 A WEEK! YOUR OWN BUSINESS!

No time clock, independent! The leading line of Home Service Products of Fine city and rural territories available. A vehicle is needed for routes. If you have selling ability and a small capital - write today for Free information. Family, 1699 Desjardins, Montreal.

Farm Help Wanted

FARMER CAPABLE SUPERVISING dairy farming. Home, wood, milk, garden. Yearly. Good wages. Refer. Box 115, Record.

Business Opportunity

"GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY" HERE IS chance for aggressive salesman to make money appointing dealers for forming crew for direct selling of new colorful plastic necessity to be nationally advertised. Profitable commission. Write at once to Kinsey Enterprises, 2929 Bloor St. West, Toronto, Ont.

Female Help Wanted

LEARN PROFESSIONAL CORSETRY. Travel, be independent, part or full time. Chas. 251 St. Joseph, Quebec.

SEAMER EXPERIENCED FOR NYLON

holery wanted. Excellent wages. Hostery Mill, 1001 Centre Street, Montreal, Phone 4190, 4440.

STENOGRAPHER WITH KNOWLEDGE of filing and general office routine, permanent position. Apply J. S. Mitchell and Company Ltd., Sherbrooke.

EXPERIENCED BILINGUAL STENOgrapher, permanent position, good salary. Apply J. S. Mitchell & Co. Ltd., Sherbrooke.

Situations Wanted, Female

COMPETENT MIDDLE-AGED LADY, good cook seeks position as housekeeper for one or two gentlemen in city. No children. Phone 3043-M.

EXPERIENCED CASHIER, TYPIST, knowledge of shorthand and general office routine. References. Box 114, Record.

WIDOW DESIRES POSITION AS HOUSEkeeper for elderly couple. Widower or elderly lady. References. Apply Box 117, Record.

Rooms To Let

ROOM TO LET, USE OF PHONE, IN North Ward. Phone 649-J.

BEING ECONOMICAL USUALLY

MEANS SKIMPING. It's far more exciting to have free reign in the purchase of things and services you like... but when you can get the very best of care for your furs both cleaning and summer storage, without having to pay a fancy price, then being economical is really fun, because you can drop all the worry about moths and th ft, summer heat damage and mildew.

We use the POLARIZED PROCESS

for Fur Care. Your furs are gently but thoroughly cleaned; all moth larvae is destroyed and the original soft, fluff-luster is restored. Our refrigerated storage vault, right in our own building, gives you the positive protection your furs should have.

J. A. ROBERT LTD.

Storage Vault; 310 King St. West - Phone 5042-W Downtown Store: 40 Wellington St. North Remember, it's extravagant to keep your furs in your home closet... It's ECONOMICAL to keep them here. Phone us today.

POLARIZED FUR CARE

I HAVE MONEY TO INVEST IN A partnership business. Anyone interested write to Box 193, Record.

Domestic Help Wanted

WANTED WOMAN BY THE DAY HOUSE cleaning. Write P.O. Box 81, Lennoxville.

WANTED - CAPABLE GENERAL SERVant. Write P.O. Box 57, Lennoxville.

WANTED - GOOD PLAIN COOK-HOUSEkeeper for widow, town in Eastern Townships. Middle-aged preferred. Good position and wages for suitable party. Call WI 843 for particulars or write 211 Clark Avenue, Westmount, Que.

ENGLISH MAID WANTED FOR MAY

1st. Apply 5 Moore Street, or Phone 472.

GIRL FOR GENERAL HOUSEWORK,

good wages. Apply Mrs. Vellion, Wendy Brook Farm, Steepleburg. Phone 799-J.

Male and Female Help

COUPLE REQUIRED FOR SMALL L estate near Magog, permanent position. Garden work and cook-housekeeper. Write Eric Bedford, 460 St. John Street, Montreal.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS - PREpare now for Spring examinations. Write M.C.C. Civil Service School, 417 Laurier Avenue, Toronto, Ont.

Wanted To Rent

SMALL, FURNISHED OR UNFURNISHED house vicinity Lower Melbourne, Que., preferably Congregational Hill, for summer months. Adults. Miss V. B. May, 2105 Claremont Avenue, Apt. 46, Westmount, Que.

Lost and Found

LOST - DOUBLE-VEHISION PLASTIC RIMMED glasses in brown case, between Lennoxville High School, Post Office or on Riviere Street. Return to 143 Main Street, Lennoxville. Reward.

Rugs

RUGS: BEAUTIFUL BROADLOOM reversible seamless rugs made from your old carpets, materials, into any sizes or colors, catalogue, information upon request. Anglo-French Carpet Co., Drummond Ridge, Montreal.

Wanted to Purchase

100 WHITE LEGHORN PULLETS, ready for laying. State price. Cash. George Hall, R.N. 1, Fulford.

WANTED - SIX CAN MILK COOLERS.

Apply Joseph Hamilton, Lennoxville.

WE ARE BUYERS: CORDWOOD, HAY

and softwood slabs, with edgings separated and banded. State prices, quantities and loading point. Boire & Frere, Inc., 2900 Mercier Street, Montreal.

PIANO, IN GOOD CONDITION. STATE

price and make. Lester Goodwin, R. 3, Bury.

15 GOOD JERSEY COWS. MUST BE young, free from Banna disease. Reply, giving price, to Box 148, Lennoxville.

PROPERTY FOR SALE

Beautiful property with large plot of land, for sale at an exceptionally good price. Situated in the centre of beautiful Stanstead Village, near churches, Convent, Catholic School, and Stanstead College. Only half mile from the International Border, at Derby Line, Vt. Many varied manufacturing plants in the vicinity. Stanstead is one of the four Boundary Communities, with Rock Island, and Beebe, Que., and Derby Line, Vt., making one large and very unique international community. If you would like to inspect this fine property, please call after 4 p.m. on week days, or any time Saturday or Sunday. For further information, contact: WILLIAM LEGENDRE proprietor, Stanstead, Que.

So many times BEING ECONOMICAL isn't fun

BEING ECONOMICAL USUALLY

MEANS SKIMPING. It's far more exciting to have free reign in the purchase of things and services you like... but when you can get the very best of care for your furs both cleaning and summer storage, without having to pay a fancy price, then being economical is really fun, because you can drop all the worry about moths and th ft, summer heat damage and mildew.

We use the POLARIZED PROCESS

for Fur Care. Your furs are gently but thoroughly cleaned; all moth larvae is destroyed and the original soft, fluff-luster is restored. Our refrigerated storage vault, right in our own building, gives you the positive protection your furs should have.

J. A. ROBERT LTD.

Storage Vault; 310 King St. West - Phone 5042-W Downtown Store: 40 Wellington St. North Remember, it's extravagant to keep your furs in your home closet... It's ECONOMICAL to keep them here. Phone us today.

POLARIZED FUR CARE

I HAVE MONEY TO INVEST IN A partnership business. Anyone interested write to Box 193, Record.

To Let

THREE ROOMS, TWO BEDROOMS AND kitchenette or sitting room, furnished for light housekeeping. Two middle-aged ladies or elderly couple. Use of phone, quiet house, Centre Ward. Phone 1494-W.

TENDERS

CORPORATION OF THE VILLAGE OF PHILIPSBURG In sealed envelope, bearing the word "Tender" the Corporation of the Village of Phillipsburg, Que., will receive up to 4 p.m. Saturday, May 1st, 1948, offers for the erection of a drying tower for fire hoses.

Blue prints and specification, may be obtained from: R. DUPUIS, Sec.-Treas.

AUCTION SALE

Saturday, April 24th, 1948, AT 1 P.M.

for Mrs. Louis Dubois,

At the Residence of Rene Tramble, Stoke Village, Bury, Que. Will be sold: Dining room set, table, 6 chairs, sideboard, sectional desk, chandelier, lounge, 1 spinning wheel, 1 Majestic 6 tube battery radio, rocking chairs, other chairs, dishes, rugs and runners, carpenter's tools and chest, winch for moving houses or barns, with rollers, 2 Jack screws, hoses, tools in connection with moving houses, stump or stone puller. Terms: Cash.

A. R. ROUSSEAU, Auctioneer,

Phone 69, East Angus, Que.

AUCTION SALE

Tuesday, April 20th, AT 9:30 O'CLOCK

for Rodie Green,

2 Miles from Lennoxville, Near Experimental Farm. Good herd of accredited Holstein cattle, blood tested, 25 registered, 15 grades, 25 cows, 2 two-year-olds, 4 yearlings, 5 calves, 2 work horses, new 18 disc drill, seeder with fertilizer attachment, side rake a most new, good hay loader, insure spreader No. 6, Cockshutt, like new, rare, Chevrolet engine on steel wheels, drag saw, circular saw, 6 foot oil bath, mowing machine, windrowing attachment, two unit De Laval Magnetic milk filter with extra pail and rollers, 6 foot binder with carriage, 1 spring tooth harrow, turnip drill roller, 2 turnip seeders, 3 walking plows, gang plow, 2 double wagons, 1 on rubber tires, boxes, stock rack, sliding hay rack, 2 pair of double side with rack, disc horse box, out throw disc harrow, 3 scufflers, smoothing harrow, 2 sets of double harness, express harness, express wagon, sawdust box, manure sled, stone boat, electric emery, large iron kettle, pipe vice, plow harness, saddle and side saddle and bridles, 4 show cow halters, 10 can Kelvinator cooler, new Coleman oil stove, pump sleigh, churn, 2 strainers, 15 good 3 gal. milk cans, 12 cans, pails, all small farming tools, articles not listed. Hard and soft wood lumber, fanning mill, one of the best farms in Ascot, will be offered for sale at 2 p.m., 212 acres, good buildings and plenty of water, 50 tons of hay, straw and grain. This is a good sale don't miss it. I will sell at same farm on Saturday, April 21st, at 12:30, household furniture, beds, bureau, dresser, desk, 2 box stoves, oil stove, 2 cot beds, hall stand, 2 toboggans, 2 sleds, bob sleds, 2 children's wagons, 102 table, chairs, small articles, 2 sleds, roller, man's fur coat, articles not listed. Terms: Cash. Lunch will be served by W.L. R. M. DEMERS, Auctioneer.

WOOD ASHES

and SLACKED LIME

DOMINION LIME LIMITED

LIME RIDGE We have a few loads in stock at $5.00 a truckload.

Electric Shaver

Repairs

Electric Shaver

Repairs

Electric Shaver

Repairs

Electric Shaver

Repairs

Electric Shaver

Repairs

Electric Shaver

Repairs

Electric Shaver

Repairs

Electric Shaver

Repairs

Electric Shaver

Repairs

Electric Shaver

Repairs

Electric Shaver

Repairs

Electric Shaver

Repairs

Electric Shaver

Repairs

Electric Shaver

Repairs

FOR SALE

300 LOADS MANURE Suitable for gardens.

Apply to:

SHERBROOKE EXHIBITION OFFICE Arena Tel. 926

For Sale

1 only Ricker 1 only Novelty Lathe 1 only Shaper Double Head 2 only 25 H.P. Motors 1 only 1/2

THE TRADING POST

A HANDY GUIDE TO EASTERN TOWNSHIPS' MERCHANTS AND BUSINESS SERVICES

Ayer's Cliff

BLAKE'S TAXI SERVICE
Tel. 100

All passengers insured. Local and long distance trips. Day and Night Service.

Beebe

Seguin Motor Sales
TEL. 254-R-4

We now have a complete line of modern equipment for Body Repairs. Acetylene welding, painting, washing and simonizing. Expert body men at your service.

Burrough's Falls

Announcing the opening of

Paul's Lunch Bar
at Burrough's Falls Pavilion

Day and Night Service.
Lunches, Cigarettes and Drinks.

Cookshire

Cookshire Hardware
Reg'd

Bibeau St., next to Wallace Bros.

Dealer for Massey-Harris Farm Implements and Paris, Construction Material, Rock Wool, Brick Siding. We have a good stock of Wallpaper, Ken Tone Paints, Sherwin Williams and Lynx Varnish.

Tel. 22-r-22.

Lennoxville

LESSARD'S GARAGE

Have your motors rebuilt now for Spring. Shell Products, Firestone Tires, Batteries and Accessories.

24-Hour Road Service With Tow Car.

Tel. 16

St. Francis Taxi

4 cars at your service. Passengers insured. Special rates on long distance trips.

SOUTH BOLTON

Mr. and Mrs. George Burnham were in Waterloo one day.

Mrs. Ethel Coates and Mr. A. Morfee went to Magog where they met Mrs. Hodgins, who will spend the next few weeks with her daughter and family here.

Bruce and Wesley Barrette spent a night in Montreal recently. The W.I. met at Mrs. Etta

HEADACHES SUFFERERS

Take ANTALGINE

the tested formula used by thousands. Try it today.

At your druggist 25c. and 75c.

ANTALGINE

Magog

WM. DAVIES
TEL. 2191 — MAGOG R.R. 3

Purina Chows, Dairy, Poultry and Hog Rations — Concentrates — Neuhauer Chicks — Sanitation Products — Poultry Supplies.

A. LACROIX
Furniture Exchange

2.6 Main St. — Tel. 561

Discount of 20% on all our Furniture during month of April as we are moving.

SULLIVAN'S RADIO SHOP
39 Main St. — Tel. 344

Sales and Service.
Repairs on all makes.
18 years experience.

Waterloo

JOLIN'S NEWSTAND
Tel. 580-J — 4 St. Joseph St. corner of Main St.

GROCERIES
Tobacco and Ice Cream

Stanstead

I am interested in buying milk cows, cows that have just freshened, stock bulls and big bulls for export.

W. A. LANGEVIN — TEL. 397

Plim's with a good attendance. After lunch at the noon hour, routine business was attended to and tickets were given out for sale on the east side of the river. Unless other arrangements are made later, Mrs. Plim will entertain again for the May meeting.

Service will be held from now on each Sunday, in Holy Trinity Church.

Mr. Clarence Shuttleworth, of Mr. James Chalmers, of Montreal, was a week-end guest of his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Burnham and Mr. and Mrs. G. Barnes were in Magog one day.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnham also spent a day in St. Johns.

Miss R. MacDonald spent the week-end with her parents, near Mansonville.

LIBBYTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Davidson, Mr. C. Pedersen and Miss Leora Davidson were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Maurice, at Coaticook last week-end.

Mr. C. Pedersen also visited his father, at Dixville, who met with an accident while sawing wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie McIntyre and son, of East Stanstead, and Miss Jean McIntyre who has just finished taking a business course in Waterville, were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith.

Mr. D. Davidson has returned home from Sherbrooke Hospital, and is gaining slowly from his accident on March 16.

Mr. Wallace Dobb was calling on his brother, Mr. W. O. Dobb, at North Hatley.

Mr. Stanley Moore and daughter, of Capleton, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Dobb.

EAST FARNHAM

Report of Easter exams at East Farnham, No. 2. Pupils are listed in order of merit.

Grade VII: Iris Corey.

Grade VI: Donald Carriere, Janet Butler, Isabel Sutherland.

Grade V: Kenneth Hall, Roland Hall, Allan Webb, Grace McKellar.

Grade IV: Evangeline Elms, Weldon Hadlock, Barbara Butler, Joyce Dawson, Jean Dawson.

Grade III: Allan Horner, David McKellar, Florence Wighton, Mae McKellar, Grace Dawson, Hugh Sylvester.

Grade II: David Shufelt, Harris Shufelt, Frances Dawson, Helen Butler, Billy Sylvester.

Grade I: Gerald Brown, Alfred Elms, equal.

*Austin Hadlock, Shirley Sylvester (unranked).

*Jean McKellar, Betty McKellar (absent for exams).

Reader notices in country locals, 15c per line of 5 words. Lennoxville and City Brieflets, 20c per line.

Three consecutive Want Ads may be inserted for $1.25.

Rock Island

MARTIN AUTOMOBILE
ON BEEBE HIGHWAY

Spring is here! Have your car repaired now. General Repairs. Towing, Day and Night service.

Tel. 432 — Rock Island

North Hatley

JAMES A. RAFFAN
DEALER FOR
Jersey Milk, Chocolate Milk, Cream and Ice Cream.

Tel. Sherbrooke 1019-J

JOHNSON Sea-Horse

OUTBOARD MOTORS

AIR COOLED IRON-HORSE ENGINES and LIGHT PLANTS

REPAIR SERVICE AND PARTS FOR ALL JOHNSON MODELS

BOATS

OUTBOARD SKIFFS
SAIL BOATS
RUNABOUTS

Fittings and Accessories

HATLEY CRAFT
NORTH HATLEY

Clifford J. Reed LIMITED
HARDWARE

Dealer for Crockshutt, Farm Machinery, Tractors and Parts. Also Bentley Agency for Barn Equipment and Electric Pressure Pumps. Systems of all kinds.

Telephone No. 7 R 2

CALL'S MILLS

Mrs. P. G. Crittenden and her son, Malcolm, accompanied by her brother, H. M. Aitken, and Mrs. Currier, of Massachusetts, visited their brother, Florus Aitken, in Montreal on Sunday. Mr. Aitken underwent an operation at the General Hospital and his many friends here are very glad to know he is recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dow and Miss Alice Johnston, of Granby, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnston.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Murns, of Sutton, were day guests of their son, Mr. Harold Murns, and his family. They also called on the brother of Mrs. Murns, Sr., William Richardson, who is confined to his room by illness. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Park motored to East Farnham and visited Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Collings.

THE FUNNY LITTLE MAN IS Settling His Affairs On 5th Avenue, New York, so that he will have a clear mind during his stay in Sherbrooke!

SOUTH DUDSWELL

Mr. Clifford Mackey left on Monday for his home in Dartmouth, Sask., after spending the past two months with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mackey. While here he visited many old friends and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kidd and Mr. and Mrs. Dalby Orr and son, Edgar, visited Mr. and Mrs. Walter Maskell, in Mableton, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gilbert and son, John, of Sherbrooke, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gilbert. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Davis and family, of Bishopton, were Sunday guests at the same home.

Mr. Charles Henry, of Sherbrooke, was a Sunday guest of his brother, Mr. Herbert Henry.

Mr. L. Orr, of East Angus, was a Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Campbell. Other callers at the same home were Rev. M. Little, of East Angus, Mrs. F. L. Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gilbert and son, John, and Mr. Charles Henry, of Sherbrooke.

Mrs. H. Joyce returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Andrews, after spending a few days at Bishopton, the guests of relatives and friends.

Mr. Harry Gorbun has returned to the home of Mr. Herbert Henry, after spending the past three months with his daughter, Mrs. Irving Andrews and Mr. Andrews.

The Misses Reta and Marian Mackey, of Windsor Mills, were recent guests for a few days of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Mackey.

Master Malcolm Campbell, of Bishopton, spent a day with Master Elmer Andrews.

Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Joyce and children, of Rock Island, were recent callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Campbell.

Mrs. Henry Kidd spent a day in East Angus, where she was the guest of Mrs. Bella Currie and Mrs. Elliott.

Mrs. Raymond Campbell had the misfortune to sprain her ankle on Sunday, April 4th. Those who very kindly assisted her during the following week were Mrs. Henry Kidd, Mrs. Vera Main, of East Angus, and Mrs. Oren Campbell, of Bishopton.

Miss M. L'Heureux spent the week-end at her home in Disraeli.

Messrs. Richard and Henry Kidd were recent guests of their brother, Mr. Robert Kidd, in East Angus. The many friends of the latter are pleased to know that he is gaining after his recent serious illness.

Reader notices in country locals, 15c per line of 5 words. Lennoxville and City Brieflets, 20c per line.

There's One Thing For HEADACHE

FOR FAST RELIEF

FOR SURE RELIEF

FOR PROLONGED RELIEF

Instantine

12 TABLETS, FOR 25¢

FING OF THE ROYAL MOUNTED

By Zane Grey

JACKSON, YOUR SUBORDINATE HAS SAID HE'S GOING TO KILL YOU!

MY MAN HAD JUST SAID THAT AND YOU'RE SAYING HE'S A CARELESS DUMB-BELL WHO GETS THROUGH!

COULD I? MY DAUGHTER WENT INTO FOUR AUTO RACS. THEY'RE GOING TO KILL ME! YOU'LL BE DEAD!

HA, HA, HAW!

DON'T WEX THAT AWAY, JACK! AS YOUR PARTNER I'M HAVING YOU AS AN EXTRA GUNNER. THROUGH, HE COULD BE DANGEROUS. VERY DANGEROUS!

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

UN-APART ALL MY DARNING IS A REAL JOY TO ME... SO EVEN-TEMPERED!

I SOMETHING THAN I DON'T HAVE ENOUGH ATTENTION TO THE DEAR?

BY GOLLY, WITH ALL THESE NICE THINGS BEAN SAND ABOUT ME-I WON'T HAVE ANY TROUBLE GETTING OUT TONIGHT!

YES-THERE'S NOTHING LIKE HAVING A DOG FOR A PET-MY LITTLE AFFECTIONATE PUP JUST TWO YEARS OLD!

WHY WILL BE SEVEN NEXT MONTH- BUT I DON'T THINK SHE LIKES ME TO REVEAL HER AGE?

VIC FLINT

By Al Capp

Just as I got the goods on Mark Arbell in his office, I was trapped.

MARK ARBELL!

WHO ELSE, FLINT?

GUESS YOU KILLED ME, MARK, BUT YOU DID KILL ROCKY SLOAN, DIDN'T YOU?

AND FATS AHAHON, TOO, NOT THAT IT'LL DO YOU ANY GOOD TO LEARN, COPPER!

My hands were full and I had no chance to draw. What I did next was a reflex action.

THIS HAD BETTER BE A HIGH HARD ONE OR I'LL BE KNOCKED OUT OF THE BOX!

Now I could draw, but if I did, and hit him, I was an intruder and likely to go to the chair instead of him.

L'I' ABNER

By Al Capp

MAN-IN HIS WILDEST DREAMS OF TERROR-HAS NEVER SEEN SUCH AN AERIAL COMBAT AS NOW RAGES OVER DOGPATCH!!

BILLIONS O' TURKIP TERMITES-EACH AS BIG AS A HOUSE-SLAUGHTERIN' EACH OTHER!!

HOURS LATER

THEY HAS ALL KILT THE TERMITES OFF!! AN THAR GO TH' LAST TWO, IN A DEATH PLUNGE!!

HOORAY! DOGPATCH IS SAVED!!

I-LOOK!! ONE O' DOGPATCH IS A-GITTIN' OUTA TH' CRICK!!

SOB!! DOGPATCH IS DOOMED!!

ALLEY OOP

By V. T. Hamlin

NOW IF I GOT GAMPS DIRECTIONS RIGHT, I'LL FIND THOSE FOLKS I'VE GOT TO LEAD TO TH' HOLE CARVED OUT BY A WATER HOLE ABOUT A DOG'S JOURNEY FROM HERE!

I'VE GOT A FUNNY FEELING ABOUT THIS. I'VE BEEN FOLLOWED!

WELL, NOW JUST WHAT KIND OF A SITUATION IS THIS?

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

By Merrill Blosser

YOU SEE? BETH THINKS SHE'S SO SMART, BUT INSTEAD OF SHOWING HER WHERE HE LIVES, SHE JUST LEADS HER TO A CHICKEN COOP!

IT'S THE FIRST CHICKEN COOP I'VE SEEN WITH CURTAINS IN THE WINDOWS!

ALBERT HENRY! WHERE ON EARTH HAVE YOU BEEN?

ARRESTED! I GOT TWO ICE CREAM CONES AND HONEY-CHILE!

I GUESS 'HONEY-CHILE' IS ME, 'HONEY-CHILE'! HE WAS LOST!

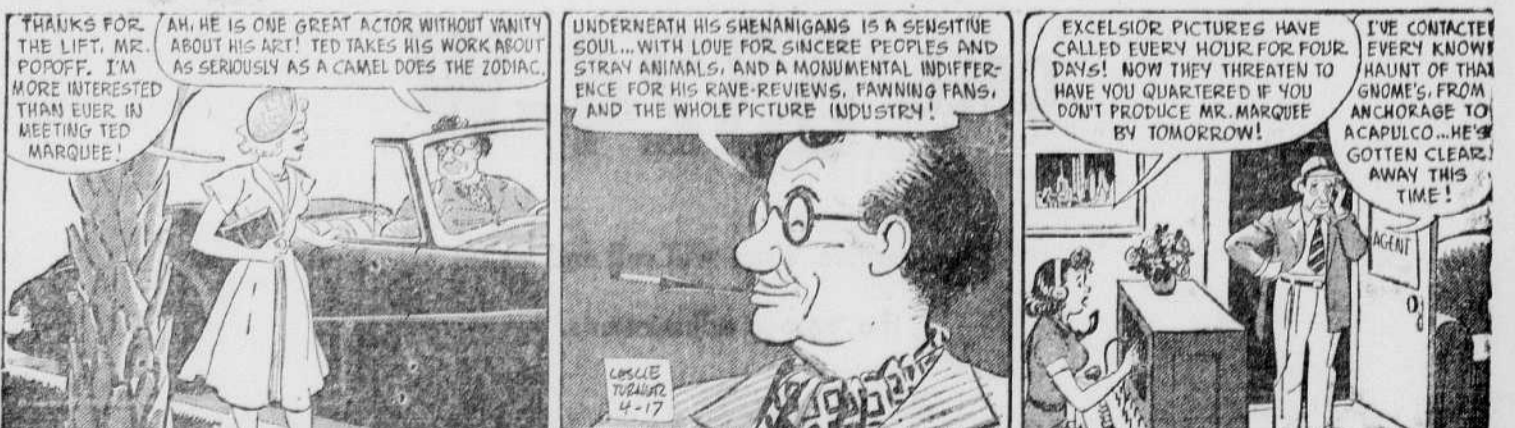

IT'S NOT THAT WE COULDN'T PAY A REASONABLE RENT... THERE'S JUST NOT A THING AVAILABLE FOR A WIDOW WITH CHILDREN!

GOSH THIS IS NO PLACE TO RAISE KIDS!

HOW ABOUT THAT STRAY HOUSEBOAT? IF NOBODY CLAIMS IT-- AND IF WE FIXED IT UP-- AND IF--

WASH TUBS

By Leslie Turner

THANKS FOR THE LET, MR. ABOUT HIS ACT! TED TAKES HIS WORK ABOUT AS SERIOUSLY AS A CAMEL DOES THE ZODIAC.

MORE INTERESTED THAN EVER IN MEETING TED MARQUEE!

AH, HE IS ONE GREAT ACTOR WITHOUT VANITY!

UNDERNEATH HIS SHENANIGANS IS A SENSITIVE SOUL... WITH LOVE FOR SINCERE PEOPLES AND STRAY ANIMALS, AND A MOMENTAL INDIFFERENCE FOR HIS RAVE-REVIEWS, FANNING FANS, AND THE WHOLE PICTURE INDUSTRY!

EXCELGIOR PICTURES HAVE CALLED EVERY HOUR FOR FOUR DAYS! NOW THEY THREATEN TO HAVE YOU QUARTERED IF YOU DON'T PRODUCE MR. MARQUEE BY TOMORROW!

I'VE CONTACTED EVERYBODY I KNOW ABOUT THIS GUY'S FROM ANCHORAGE TO ACAPULCO... HE'S GOTTEN CLEAR! AWAY THIS TIME!

PRISCILLA'S POP

By Al Vermeer

You march right back upstairs, Priscilla! I won't have you going out with nails like that!

But what should I do?

Now that's a foolish question to ask!

What would any lady do if she found her nails needed cleaning?

Paint them?

The Continent over, its

Harwood's RYE WHISKY

ONE OF THE TREASURES OF ALL TIME

Instantine

12 TABLETS, FOR 25¢

Tomorrow And Monday Momentous For World

DEWITT MACKENZIE Associated Press News Analyst

Tomorrow and Monday will rank among the momentous days of the cold war between the Russian bloc and the democracies, for it is then that the anxiously awaited Italian national election is to be held.

Indeed, we may well find that this is one of the decisive engagements of the global conflict, for it is likely to determine whether the western powers have the Bolshevik advance stopped along the present battle line across central Europe.

Some months ago the Communists were showing great strength under leadership of Palmiro Togliatti. They figured then that the Communist party together with other leftist parties would poll some 40 per cent of the votes, thus giving them the balance of power in parliament.

form a Government in the new Parliament.

Several factors have contributed to this change. The Marshall Plan has persuaded many voters to turn to the Christian Democrats. Fear that the United States would withhold help if Communism won also has been a powerful influence.

As Communist stock began to fall there were Red threats of violence. And there were many strong-arm demonstrations. De Gasperi's answer to this was to declare that he would meet force by force, and to back up his words he distributed troops in strategic positions throughout the country.

There is, of course, the danger that the Communists might engineer a rebellion after the elections if they fail badly at the ballot boxes. That naturally would depend on instructions from Moscow, and many observers believe that the Soviet Union would not want to back such a dangerous undertaking at this critical juncture in the cold war.

The Italian Communists have a considerable and well-trained underground army, which observers generally believe to be large. Should it come to a show down, the outcome naturally would depend on the relative strength of the Bolshevik and Government forces — unless some outside power intervened.

De Gasperi has declared that there will be no Communist coup d'etat after the election, and that if necessary he will hold power by force until the new Parliament meets to elect a President in May. He has been displaying determination and a sturdy optimism for which he certainly has considerable grounds at this writing.

Three consecutive Want Ads may be inserted for $1.25.

Housewives And Continued from Page 1

Their leaders sought an interview with Finance Minister Abbott. He gave them some answer. Then came the suggestion of a "March on Parliament."

M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader, brought the matter up in the Commons Wednesday. He wanted to know whether the Government had refused the group an interview.

Mr. Abbott said it had. Experience had convinced the cabinet the Housewives Consumers League had the "primary purpose" of promoting "Communist propaganda." The Government didn't think it should encourage that sort of thing.

Mr. Rae Luckock, president of the Toronto Housewives Consumers League, which sponsored the Ottawa gathering, was in the Commons gallery as Mr. Abbott spoke.

Those were the main developments until yesterday. Shortly before Prince Charles was scheduled to arrive at the Parliament buildings, as part of his two-day semi-official visit to Ottawa, the marchers neared the hill.

They were in two's and three's, carrying banners which explained their goal: "The farmer is our friend—the trusts our enemies," "Labor fights inflation," "Restore the 10-cent loaf," "Prosecute the profiteers."

Veterans Charter Continued from Page 1

In the veterans debate, Briz Gregz said amendments to the Veterans Rehabilitation Act were necessary to eliminate anomalies and contradictions.

The new legislation would provide allowances for children in the process of adoption by veterans. It would provide similar allowances for the illegitimate children of a veteran's wife, providing the children are being maintained by him.

Another change would provide for payments to veterans who started a college course and later decided to drop it. Under existing legislation a veteran student who discontinued a course was barred from benefits of the Veterans Land Act. The bar would be lifted under certain conditions.

Briz Gregz said amendments to the War Services Grants Act were necessitated by a situation which was developing. A five-man board of review had been established under the act to consider whether veterans dishonorably discharged should be granted gratuities and re-establishment credits. The board had only 322 more cases to study.

So far the board had granted gratuities to 4,752 of those dishonorably discharged. It had refused the grants to 2,814.

LEGION VOTES AGAINST LPP AND FASCISTS

Montreal, April 17.—(C)—Quebec Provincial Command of the Canadian Legion voted yesterday to expel any legionnaire avowing membership in the Labor-Progressive Party or in any Fascist organization.

The vote, preponderantly in favor of the resolution, came after short, sharp debate in which Peter Lang of the Montreal Sir Arthur Currie branch said the Labor-Progressive Party is not a political party at all.

The convention's action followed another brief but heated debate that resulted in overwhelming approval of compulsory military training. Four French-Canadians spoke in in favor of the resolution and one opposed it.

The resolution called upon Parliament to establish training for a period of 18 months. All males reaching 18 years of age—or those leaving high school, whichever is later—would be inducted into service.

Opposition to the motion was led by Pat Walsh of Quebec City, fourth vice-president of the Command. Walsh said if the motion were adopted "many French-Canadian branches will fold up" because "politically speaking, Quebec has always been against conscription."

Among those favoring the resolution was delegate Chenier of Branch 65, Montreal, who said he has nine sons and wants them to have training—not for war but to teach them discipline.

Delegate Lafrance of Branch 13, Quebec City, supported the motion and said he has two sons now in the service.

A special committee named yesterday to deal with a motion seeking suspension of Air Force Branch 113, reported unanimously today it found "no indication of any subversive activity on the part of the branch." On the Committee's recommendation the motion was withdrawn.

The original motion was based on complaints that the Branch had acted irregularly and not in conformity with the Dominion and Provincial Commands in efforts to have the housing situation improved.

The special committee's report said it was not felt that the Branch knowingly violated the constitution but a "strong reprimand" to the Branch was recommended.

The convention approved motions asking that government preference in housing be extended to veterans of the First World War; and that vacancies in special housing projects should be made available to veterans without compulsory purchase of the homes.

School Run By Reds Is Raided

Montreal, April 17.—(C)—Police today studied text-books and other documents seized in a raid last night on what they termed a well-organized Communist school for children of Ukrainian descent who were taught about life in Russia.

Police said the school was sponsored by the United Ukrainian Canadian Association. Later they raided a hall operated by the same organization. In each raid police said they seized stacks of Communist literature and propaganda which had come direct from Moscow.

Sgt. Paul Benoit of the Provincial Police said that the school, on downtown Richmond street, had been going for several years although police discovered its existence only recently. It had been kept under observation for some time prior to last night's raid.

Benoit said that about 25 children attended the classes two evenings a week. The classroom had regular benches, a black board and a teacher's desk. Most of the pupils attended ordinary school in the daytime, police said.

Benoit stated that when police entered the school there were about 12 children, aged between 10 and 15, who were getting ready for their regular lessons. A number of other pupils arrived later and were turned away by police.

The teacher, identified by police as Prof. Walter Kostiew, was not detained, but police said he might be taken into custody later for questioning.

Prices Probe Continued from Page 1

held off the market during last year's packinghouse strike although there was a shortage of feed and producers were having difficulty because they could not market their hogs.

"The record indicated, there was no hold-back in marketing of the part of the western farmers," he said. "It was evident that somewhere between the western grower and the eastern feeder there was a hold-back that continued until after ceiling prices were lifted in October."

Mr. Tammon offered the committee a series of proposals for their study.

They should examine the current price of $23.50 a hundred-weight for dressed hogs in Toronto. Mr. Tammon said he understood meat board officials considered this the minimum producers should be paid but many growers felt it was too low.

The committee should also examine wartime prices and decide whether they had been "fair and just."

Questioned by committee members, Mr. Tammon did not suggest they had been unfair, but said he thought a wartime economy was not always suitable to peacetime conditions.

T. C. A. Has Continued from Page 1

061. The deficit that year, including interest charges of $154,368, was $1,269,624.

The line carried 427,967 passengers last year and moved 1,439,314 pounds of express. This was carried out by a fleet which consisted at the end of the year of 30 Douglas DC3s and 1 Lockheed Lodestars.

Italians Told Continued from Page 1

Rome, Naples and other big cities. No incidents had been reported serious enough to prejudice the voting. But with reports the front has slipped in recent weeks, rumors have thickened that the Communists would try to lighten the vote to their advantage by some means of intimidation.

The balloting will be for 574 members of the Chamber of Deputies and 237 Senators to compose the first Parliament of the Italian Republic born in 1946. The make-up of Parliament will determine the make-up of the Government.

Nearly 29,000,000 persons are registered to vote in 42,500 polling places. The air ministry yesterday forecast a cloudy week-end with scattered rain — which should keep many from the polls. Previously, it had been estimated up to 90 per cent would vote.

Voting will go on from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. tomorrow and from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday. (Italian time is seven hours ahead of Eastern Standard.) A complicated system of counting is expected to delay the first returns until Monday night and the full results until Wednesday.

22 Killed Continued from Page 1

tributed among hospitals and infirmaries in Windsor and neighboring communities.

The railway press officer said both main lines probably would be blocked for 24 hours.

The casualty figures were issued by officials of the British Railways Scotland-London main lines the crash occurred.

Unofficial reports said the dead included a German war prisoner, an Olympic swimmer and an infant. Rescuers released a small dog from the wreckage. It was unharmed.

It was the second severe train crash since January 1. Three persons were killed and 30 hurt January 23 in a collision at London Bridge station. Ninety lives have been lost in major rail accidents in Britain in the last 18 months.

RECORD EDITOR NAMED C.D.N.A. DIRECTOR

Toronto, April 17.—(C)—H. L. Garner, general manager of the Peterborough Examiner, was elected president of the Canadian Daily Newspapers Association at the annual meeting here yesterday.

Other officers elected were A. F. Mercier, Quebec L'Evenement-Journal, first vice-president; Roy H. Thomson, Thomson Dailies, Toronto, second vice-president; W. J. Butler, Toronto Globe and Mail, treasurer. I. H. Macdonald is general manager and Duncan MacInnes, secretary.

Directors from Quebec Province are as follows: John Bassett, Jr., Sherbrooke Record; H. G. Brewer, Montreal Star; Emile Castonguay, L'Action Catholique, Quebec; Major C. G. Dunn, Quebec Chronicle-Telegraph.

Philip S. Fisher, Southam Company, Ltd., Montreal; J. P. Hogue, Montreal La Presse; Emile Jean, Trois Rives Le Nouvelliste; A. F. Mercier, Quebec L'Evenement; J. W. C. Euton, Montreal Gazette.

UN Security Continued from Page 1

of essential services, particularly those relating to transportation, communications, health and food and water supplies;

6—Refrain from any action which will endanger the safety of the holy places in Palestine and from any action which would interfere with access to all shrines and sanctuaries for the purpose of worship by those who have an established right to visit and worship at them.

Russia opposed the third and fourth sections but did not use the veto. Soviet delegate Andrei A. Gromyko said those sections worked against the "lawful interests" of the Jews.

Provision for an on-the-spot truce commission to watch over the cease-fire was struck out by the council in a last-minute move.

Quebec Provincial Continued from Page 1

effect of an election victory by its could be useful to the other in this campaigning.

Together Quebec and Ontario have stood aside of taxation agreement with the Federal Government and recently the two were the only provinces to stay out of the freight rates dispute.

Many of Quebec's election issues are expected to revolve around long standing grudes against the Federal Government which Premier Duplessis has charged with trying to invade the field of provincial rights.

External Affairs Minister St. Laurent, object of heated discussion in the Quebec Legislature session, is certain to figure in election talk.

In the Quebec house, Premier Duplessis tossed jibes at the August convention of the Federal Liberal party at which Mr. St. Laurent might succeed Prime Minister King as party leader.

Election victories in both Ontario and Quebec a few weeks before the National Liberal convention would be welcome to opponents of the Federal Government.

Quebec's election shapes up as hotly-contested after the 12-week Legislature session in which there were hurly-burly incidents seldom witnessed before.

The Union Nationale's group of 52 in the House led by Premier Duplessis was vigorously opposed by 33 Liberals headed by Mr. Godbout. Five other seats among the Legislative Assembly's 91 were held by Independents, and one was vacant.

A split of Charlevoix-Saguenay county into two electoral divisions will open an extra seat to campaigning in the coming election fight.

The Union Nationale is said to have a full bag of tricks for the campaign and Liberals consider themselves in good form after their performance in the hard-fought session.

Toronto, April 17.—(C)—A rush of activity, during which more than 40 Government measures were approved and five opposition bills defeated, culminated with prorogation of the Ontario Legislature last night by Lieutenant-Governor Ray Lawson.

The House sat for an hour in the morning and another four during the afternoon to wind up the six-week session which saw legislation dealing with housing, hydro, labor and milk head the list of 99 government bills.

The most spectacular point of the sitting was the announcement by Premier Drew that an election would be held June 7, with the principal issue the Government's $500,000,000 hydro expansion program, which Premier Drew said demanded a renewed vote of confidence in the Government from the people of Ontario.

Premier Drew's Progressive Conservative Government first took office in 1943 when it won 38 seats to become the largest group in the 90-member Legislature, which also contained 34 C.C.F., 15 Liberal, two Labor and one Independent Liberal members.

Defeat on a vote of confidence motion in 1945 led to another election. The Progressive Conservatives won 66 seats, Liberals 11, C.C.P. 8, Liberal-Labor 3 and Labor-Progressive 2.

This year's vote falls exactly three years and three days after that of 1945, which was held on June 4. It comes with the Government's five-year term of office two years short of completion.

C. KENCH IS ELECTED TO LEGION OFFICE

Montreal, April 17.—(C)—W. V. G. Neish of Montreal was re-elected president of the Quebec Command of the Canadian Legion at the provincial branch's annual convention last night.

Other officers elected were: A. B. Morris of Montreal, first vice-president; Peter Laing, Montreal, second vice-president; C. Kench, Sherbrooke, third vice-president; G. Francoeur, Quebec, fourth vice-president; and A. Bozic, Montreal, fifth vice-president.

N. Y. Curb Continued from Page 1 rival Meatcutters' Union (A.F.L.) previously had accepted.

New York, April 17.—(AP)—A temporary truce ended a wage strike against six Manhattan bus routes today and checked the threatened spread of the walkout to other lines carrying 3,200,000 passengers daily.

The truce, effective pending further negotiations, was announced after a conference yesterday with leaders of the Transport Workers Union (C.I.O.) and representatives of the bus companies.

New York, April 17.—(AP)—The executive council of the International Typographical Union (A.F.L.) has rejected a tentative contract negotiated between 13 New York City daily newspapers and their 2,500 I.T.U. printers.

The Council's rejection was disclosed last night by Laurence H. Victory, president of the Union's New York Local.

Victory made public a telegram received from the I.T.U. president, Woodruff Randolph, which declared the tentative agreement—reached Thursday—did not comply with I.T.U. laws and should not be submitted "to the Union for action."

The contract, before becoming effective, had to be approved by the individual publishers, the membership of the Local, and the I.T.U. executive council.

The agreement called for a $9 weekly wage increase, and clauses to substitute for Union security provisions which were in previous contracts but now are banned or restricted under the Taft-Hartley Act. Full details of the agreement, however, were not made public.

BIRTHS

COHOON—To Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cohoon, at the Sherbrooke Hospital, on April 16th, 1948, a daughter, Linda Margaret.

MacDONALD—At the Sherbrooke Hospital, on April 17th, 1948, to Mac and Isobel, (nee Huhter), a daughter, Carolyn Leslie.

DEATHS

MILLS—Entered into rest at Danville, Que., on Friday, April 16, 1948, Mark M. Mills, aged 79 years. Funeral service will be held at Trinity United Church, Sunday, April 18th, at 3 p.m. Rev. C. Foggo officiating. Interment in Danville Cemetery. Remains resting at his nephew's, Joseph Saffin.

ROY—Entered into rest at her home in East Angus, Que., on Thursday, April 15th, 1948, at the age of 66 years, Mrs. Edwin Roy (nee Rosanna Roberge). The funeral will take place on Monday, April 19th, at 10 a.m., at St. Louis de Westbury Church, East Angus. Paquin Funeral Parlors, East Angus.

IN MEMORIAM REED—In loving memory of my dear mother, Henrietta Reed, who departed this life one year ago today, April 15th, 1947. Oft and oft our thoughts do wander, To a grave not far away. Where they laid my loving mother, Just one year ago today. Lovingly remembered by HER DAUGHTER, REBECCA, DORIS, Grandchild, of Birchton. IRENE, Grandchild, of Lennoxville.

LIBBY—In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Mrs. C. W. Libby, who passed away April 15th, 1939. Deep in our hearts you are living yet. We love you too deeply to ever forget. Ever remembered by HER HUSBAND AND CHILDREN Ayes's Cliff, Que.

JOHNSTON'S FUNERAL CHAPEL 21 MELBOURNE ST. Phone 171

GET OUR IDEAS We feel sure we can help you obtain a more attractive Monument—whether you intend to spend a major or a modest amount. Our designers freely offer suggestions. Or, they quickly will put in sketch-form, exactly the Memorial design you are endeavoring to visualize. Send for catalogue!

Memorials E. CHAUSSE & SON Tel. 3492W — 524 King St. W. — SHERBROOKE

GODBOUT CALLS FOR HOSPITAL LEGISLATION

Quebec, April 17.—(C)—Liberal Leader Godbout said yesterday a provincial hospitalization plan is included in his party's election program.

Mr. Godbout, making the announcement at a press conference, said he thought hospital treatment costs today are prohibitive and provincial measures are necessary.

He said the question was "delicate" because of dangers of interfering with doctor's privileges.

"It is a sphere in which there must be action soon," he added. "If the provinces do not act with some kind of legislation, state medicine may be imposed by a Federal Government."

The Liberal leader thought public health was a problem in which there could be co-operation between Federal and Provincial authorities.

On any hospital plan, he said, there should be co-operation with the medical authorities also and with organizations devoted to hospitalization on a co-operative basis.

Mr. Godbout said such measures as provincial support of hospital treatment were the kind necessary to hold off Communism.

He said the world end was toward Government social assistance and contended that the present Quebec Government "does not understand it."

Mr. Godbout was asked about the possibility Quebec Communists might announce support for his Government during the coming election campaign.

"If I were a Communist I would support Mr. Duplessis," he answered.

He noted an address in Quebec by Crown Prosecutor Noel Dorion reported to have declared 35 known Communist clubs existed in Montreal.

Mr. Godbout said if the Crown Prosecutor knew of the clubs' existence all he had to do was inform the Attorney-General's department which had the power to take action.

He added: "Perhaps the Government should move instead against Montreal nightclubs where people are killed at five o'clock in the morning when the clubs are supposed to be closed."

Mr. Godbout said Government assistance is required not only through social legislation but by improving salaries in provincial civil service.

He said if Communism is to be avoided the well-to-do capitalist classes may have to give up a share of their benefits to improve the lot of the workers.

"I think they could easily afford to do this," he added.

CARD OF THANKS To all my dear friends, far and near, I want to express my sincere thanks. I shall never forget their kindness and thoughtfulness to me on my eighty-eighth birthday on April 12th, for all the beautiful cards, flowers, home cooking, candy and presents and those who visited me on that day. They'll never know what pleasure and joy they brought me. MRS. FRANK AUSTIN

CARD OF THANKS I wish to take this opportunity to express my deep appreciation for the kindness shown me during my illness. Special thanks to the Richmond and Melbourne W.A. for the lovely "Cheer Box," Miss Locke for the View Master, all those who sent books, cards and delicacies or who made inquiries and visits; especially little "Mickey" Blenkins, who spent so many hours with me. To each and all my sincere thanks. SAM BILLSON Melbourn, Que.

CARD OF THANKS I wish to express my sincere thanks to the Rebekah Lodge for the baskets of fruit; also the Women's Association for the flowers sent at Easter and to all my friends who called; also for all cards and letters received. JOSEPH WILLIAMS Sawyerville, Que.

CARD OF THANKS I wish to express my sincere thanks to all my friends and neighbors who visited me during my stay in the hospital; to all who sent flowers, plants, parcels and cards also the birthday card shower I received recently at my home here. MRS. FRANK DARRAH West Brome, Que.

J. W. BLAKE REG'D. Funeral and Ambulance Service TELEPHONE 404 86 QUEEN ST.

Advertisement for American Gas Conversions, Incorporated. Features a large 'NOTICE TO ALL GAS USERS' headline, a logo for the City of Sherbrooke, and detailed text about propane gas conversions. It includes contact information for the Gas and Electricity Department and the company's address at 524 King St. W. The ad also contains several 'CARD OF THANKS' and 'IN MEMORIAM' notices from local residents.

Wedding of Interest

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES H. JONES, whose wedding took place recently at Daytona Beach, Florida. Mrs. Jones was formerly Miss Beverly Kathleen Ames, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph V. Ames, of this city.

In The Women's Sphere

Approaching Wedding

MISS JOYCE WALDMAN, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Waldman, of Sherbrooke, formerly of Montreal, and MR. SAUL STANLEY ABRACEN, son of Mr. J. Abracen, of Addison, Ont., and the late Mrs. N. Stine, whose marriage has been arranged to take place in Sherbrooke on May 29th. Mr. Abracen served with the Royal Canadian Air Force for four years.

MARRIAGES

JONES-AMES

Daytona Beach, Fla., April 17.—A wedding of wide interest was quietly solemnized Saturday, April 17, in St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Daytona Beach, Florida, when Beverly Kathleen, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph V. Ames, of Sherbrooke, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles H. Jones, of West Hill Lake, Connecticut, the Reverend Charles R. Palmer officiating.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Potted palms were arranged at the chancel steps with variegated gladioli, stocks, roses and fern on the altar, with standards of the same flowers on each side. Lighted white tapers completed the arrangement.

To the strains of the Lohengrin Wedding March, the bride entered the church on the arm of her father looking radiant in a soft, pearl gray crepe Jampoi original gown, the pointed tunic skirt with insertions of gray Chantilly lace falling gracefully over the pencil slim skirt. The high rounded neckline also carried out the lace motif. Her Rhodes lacy white straw hat was effectively trimmed with pale pink silk rosebuds with a fleck colored veil over the face. She carried a Colonial bouquet of pink roses, Tallman and pink roses, interspersed with pastel bows-knots of ribbon and net. Grey satin slippers and grey mitts ending in points over the hands completed her ensemble.

The bride's mother was becomingly gowned in a cream gabardine suit, a Dobbs Panama hat, with red alligator accessories and she wore a corsage of Talisman roses.

Mr. Boardman Lockwood, of West Hartford, Connecticut, acted as best man and the bride was unattended. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at Chez Bruchez, Seabreeze Boulevard. The bride's table was beautifully decorated with garlands of pink roses, gladioli, fern and silver leaves, the three tiered wedding cake forming the centerpiece. The happy couple left shortly after for Orlando and Silver Springs, Florida.

The bride was educated at the Sherbrooke High School and attended the University of Bishop's College at Lennoxville. She is a member of the Daytona Art League.

Mr. Jones was formerly engaged in the insurance business in Hartford, Connecticut, and during the war years was with the United States War Department and War Production Board.

After May 1st, the couple will be living at 2557 South Atlantic avenue, Daytona Beach, Florida, where Mr. Jones has just completed the building of an ocean front motor court.

Social and Personal

Telephone 94

Mrs. C. A. Joslin, Dominion Avenue, is spending a few days in Trenton, N.J., visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Francis Kenalty entertained the members of the St. Patrick's Tea Committee at her home, Quebec Street, Thursday evening. Arrangements were made to resume the weekly teas, after the Lenten recess. The first tea is to be held at St. Patrick's Church Hall, on Thursday, April 22, with bridge commencing at three o'clock and tea being served from four to six. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostess, Mrs. Rene Blouin, president of the Catholic Women's League, presided at the tea table.

The regular meeting of the Church Union Group took place Tuesday evening, April 13, at the home of Mrs. B. C. Howard, Howardsene. The president, Mrs. Douglas Howard, opened the meeting with the Lord's Prayer. During the devotional period Mrs. D. B. McCrea read two poems entitled "Faith" by Edgar Guest, and "Victory" by Robert Service. In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Walter Mutchler Jr., the minutes were read by Mrs. Charles Mutchler. Mrs. Donald McLennan, treasurer, gave the financial report. Members were reminded to send remittance to the home of Mrs. H. J. Kennedy, Dominion Ave., before May 14, when the rummage sale takes place at the local market. A number of projects were discussed after which the meeting closed with the Mizpan benediction. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Hawley Griffith, Mrs. B. C. Howard and Mrs. Maitland Soles.

The members of St. Andrew's Ladies' Aid Society were entertained at the home of Mrs. J. G. Scott, Vimy Street, Wednesday afternoon, for their annual meeting. Mrs. C. A. Turner was in the chair. Routine business being disposed of, further details were planned for the Maytime Tea, which is to be held in the Church Hall on May 12. Members were reminded of the rummage sale to take place at the market on Friday, May 21. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Marion Scott, Mrs. E. A. Johnson and Mrs. A. J. Morrison. Mrs. George Wells presided at the tea table, which was covered with an embroidered and lace trimmed linen cloth and centered with a single rose in a crystal holder.

The purpose of the supper meeting of the Y.W.C.A. on Monday, April 12th, was to bring the delegates of the Regional Conference together and make plans to raise funds to cover expenses arising from the conference, also to start a fund for a National Assembly delegate to represent Sherbrooke at the Assembly. The National Assembly Conference will be held at "Lake of the Woods," Winnipeg, Manitoba, the latter part of August. Plans were made for a card party to be held on April 28th, at the MacKinnon Memorial Building, 40 Montreal Street, and the following conveners were appointed: Miss Betty Maw, food committee, assisted by Miss Margaret Earnshaw. Food sale table, Miss E. Archambault, with Misses A. Spanswick and E. McIntyre. Prizes, Miss A. Bradshaw and Misses E. Smith, M. Anderson and Jackie Alix. Advertising, Doris Banfill and the Misses Catherine Smith and Kathleen Sultor. The prizes are being solicited from the local merchants who have graciously and generously responded.

Mrs. A. R. Gregoire, who has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Emile Rheault, Ontario Street, and Mr. and Mrs. William Nadeau, Queen Street, has returned to her home, in Asbestos.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hoye, Walton Avenue, motored to Dorval on Thursday to meet their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hoye, who arrived from Los Angeles, California, by plane. After spending the week-end in Sherbrooke with his parents, Mr. Hoye will be away for a few days on a business trip, leaving his wife for a longer visit.

A very enjoyable party was held Saturday, April 10, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Nelson, Stanley Avenue, the occasion being the birthday of their daughter, Isobel. During the evening the guest of honor was presented with a gold necklace, the gift of her friends. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss I. Nelson and Mrs. William Coupland. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Les Humphries, Mr. and Mrs. George Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. William Coupland, the Misses Lillian Morrison, June Taylor, Messrs. N. Ganter, S. May, D. Pearson, G. Ross, Ivan Arnold and Leo Dawning, of Fort Dodge, Iowa, U.S.A.

The real solution is to be found in joint agreement and action of the parents in the group. When your Mary Jane is told to come in at 10, she will protest: "But Mrs. White lets Alice stay out until 11 and Mrs. Gray doesn't care when Inez gets in and Mrs. Black never even knows when Patsy is in." But if you have agreed in advance with Mrs. Gray and Mrs. White and Mrs. Black you can respond with conviction, "That's not what they tell me!"

The adolescents are determined to stand together. It's not so easy to make a platform on which they can all stand together. It can be done only when parents have sense enough to work together for their own good.

MODERN MARRIAGE

YOUNGSTERS AND LATE HOURS

By Dr. Paul Popenoe

Half a century ago—a mother used to try to sit up until her daughter came in at night. Nowadays, a mother tries to sit up until her daughter goes out at night.

"What time are you coming home?" This is one of the commonest topics of debate in almost every family with youngsters in high school, or even in college. Parents complain that social affairs begin at unnecessarily late hours; sons and daughters complain that parents are entirely unreasonable. "I can't leave at 10 when everybody else will stay until midnight." Grace protests. "Why, they won't begin dancing before half past nine!"

The late hours of many teenage affairs are objectionable. They represent, in part, a protest of the young people against being regimented. They have been sent to bed at regular hours, as children; they must now assure themselves that they are no longer children. Parents often have reason to be dissatisfied, but they are starting to deal with the problem at the wrong end, in too many cases. Don't demand that your boy or girl be differing from the rest; try to make the rest different, instead? This isn't easy, but it has been done.

So far as your own youngster is concerned, be ready for some compromises. Accept late hours on the week-end, in return for early hours on a school night. After all, adolescents can survive occasional loss of sleep; and they have great talents for making it up next morning.

The real solution is to be found in joint agreement and action of the parents in the group. When your Mary Jane is told to come in at 10, she will protest: "But Mrs. White lets Alice stay out until 11 and Mrs. Gray doesn't care when Inez gets in and Mrs. Black never even knows when Patsy is in." But if you have agreed in advance with Mrs. Gray and Mrs. White and Mrs. Black you can respond with conviction, "That's not what they tell me!"

The adolescents are determined to stand together. It's not so easy to make a platform on which they can all stand together. It can be done only when parents have sense enough to work together for their own good.

Questions and Answers

Q—Our daughter in high school is trying so hard to be glamorous that the result is painful!

A—A natural ambition. Give her a course in a charm school, and she'll make a better job of it.

Q—Son shows no interest in his high school classes; wants to quit and take a job.

A—Some of the classes aren't interesting—that's a fact! Help him to get into some of the school activities outside the classroom, such as athletics, dramatics, debating, newspaper, or politics.

Q—How can daughter, in first year of college, be persuaded to keep her clothes in shape to wear? They always need pressing, mending, or three shields at the last minute.

A—Help her write out a plan of wardrobe for the whole week, in advance, and organize it over the week-end.

NEW BOOKLET!

FAREWELL TO FAMILY QUARRELS. This excellent, authoritative, 20-page booklet gives the causes of family quarrels, ways to avoid them and an Aggression Test to check your temperament. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope and ten cents to Dr. Popenoe, in care of this newspaper.

SUTTON

The W.M.S. of the United Church met at the home of Mrs. Cecil Carr in Sutton Junction, Miss Winifred Martin, president, opened the meeting with the devotional. Several items of business were discussed. The meeting closed with the benediction. Refreshments were served.

The Home and School Club met in the High School with the president, Mrs. Cecil Carr, in the chair. Mrs. A. A. Thompson secretary, called the roll and read the minutes. A debate was held: "Resolved that Reading is more Educational than Travel." The negative won. The judges were Rev. Sydney Rowe, Mrs. H. L. Davey and Mrs. Kenneth Keefe. Tea was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Cline Worden and two sons, of St. Therese, were tea guests of his mother, Mrs. Frankie Worden, and great aunt, Mrs. Nina Lee.

Miss Bessie Perkins, of Farnham Corner, spent a few days with Mrs. Nina Lee.

Mrs. Roland Sylvester, of Farnham, is staying for a time with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. James Flannagan is recovering from her operation. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur LePitre and daughter, Barbara, of Lacolle, and Mr. Roland Sylvester, of Farnham, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Flannagan.

Grace Anglican Church Men's Club met in the Parish Hall. Rev. Kenneth Keefe expressed the appreciation of the seventy-two men present for the excellent meal the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion put on. Mr. William Dow present called on Corporal Corri-

CANDY-BOX PRETTY

Easy to do and adorable too! Pattern 9334 is just what your busy mothers ordered. Frock opens flat to iron and Sis can dress herself in this gaily scalloped concoction!

This pattern gives perfect fit, is easy to sew. Complete, illustrated Sew Chart shows you every step. Pattern 9334 comes in sizes 2, 4, 6, 8, 10. Size 6 requires 2 yards 35-inch fabric. Send 25 cents in coins (stamps cannot be accepted) for this pattern. Print plainly size, name, address, style number. Send your order to Sherbrooke Daily Record, Pattern Dept., Sherbrooke, Que.

MILLFIELD

Mrs. William Porter was visiting Mrs. George Davidson. Mr. George Currie spent a few days with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Porter.

Mrs. Roy Walker was an overnight guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright. Other guests at the same home were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mathers and Mr. Harold Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bennett and family, of Maple Grove, and Mr. Clifford Bailey, of Kinnear's Mills, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Little.

DOROTHY DIX

Feminine Charm and Men

Are All Males, Single Or Married, Easy Prey To Wives Of Women?

Dear Miss Dix: I have a friend who contends that any woman who sets her heart on winning a man can get him, regardless of whether he is married or single. I am rather inclined to think that there are some men who can be absolutely trusted. What is your opinion?

Answer: I think that you are right. I have seen plenty of women who were beautiful and young and charming, and their every word would fascinate men who are as impervious to their blandishments as if they had been stone images. I have even heard these men speak admiringly of these women's attractions, but they simply made no personal appeal to them.

We cannot explain why we love nor why we are indifferent any more than we can explain why we have a taste for some particular article of food, while another is distasteful to us. Nor when we tire of a person can we explain that. All we know is that the touch of one hand leaves us cold and another thrills us. That we never weary of the society of one person and another one borers us to tears. That we can forgive any fault in one individual and are critical even of the virtues of another.

So, of all impossible tasks, none is more hopeless than trying to kindle the flame of love in an indifferent breast, or to blow into flame again the ashes of a dead love. Of course, there are some weak, vain, silly men who can be cajoled or flattered into thinking themselves in love with any woman who feeds their egotism by trying to take them away from their wives, but these are poor creatures incapable of a real love. And there are thousands upon thousands of other men whose hearts are so securely in their wives' keeping that they never give even a passing sentimental thought to any other woman.

Dear Miss Dix: I am a woman in my late twenties. Have a good job and am considered attractive to men. So far I have not met the man whom I could really love, and as it begins to look like I never will I have recently started to have affairs with several men. I cannot see that my so-called unconventional life will harm me, nor why society should condemn me as long as I do nothing to hurt anyone else. What do you say?

Answer: You say your conduct does not harm yourself. What an awful mistake! Some day you will meet a man with whom you will fall in love, and then you will pay with your heart's blood for every minute of your stolen pleasure. If he is a fine man, with high ideals, he will not want to marry the kind of woman that you have become. And if you marry him without telling him of your past, you will never know a minute's peace, because you will live in dread of his finding out your secret.

Society condemns you because you are not playing the game. You are breaking the rules that religion and civilization have laid down for the relationship between men and women. And in order to enforce this law society has turned its thumb down on the women who defy it.

Dear Miss Dix: I am a boy 17 years old. My father is very good to me and gives me almost everything I want, but he insists that I go to school. I hate school and I want to go to work. We are constantly arguing over the matter and I am thinking of leaving home. What's your idea?

Answer: A lot of boys are driven to go to work at 17 because they need the money, but you are lucky that you can go to school, for the more education you have, the better you will be fitted to your life-work and to make a success of it.

Evidently your father loves you dearly and is doing everything in his power to help you, so why don't you make a proper return for it by showing him that you are grateful and how fond you are of him? And don't leave home at your age. You are bound to encounter hardships if you go out and try to make your own way in the world before you have fitted yourself for it. Why, you haven't even a trade now. You wouldn't even know how to earn a living.

The Record will be pleased to receive any letters to this Dorothy Dix column. They will be forwarded to Miss Dix who will answer them as quickly as possible.

DELICIOUS! Serve hot as vegetable or cold in salad. ALWAYS ASK FOR VAN CAMP'S! VAN CAMP'S MILD CURED HONEY BEANS.

SALON MARINA 21 GORDON ST. — PHONE 2580. Steam Treatments: Oil, Vivax, Breck; Bleaches; Cold Waves; Machine and Machineless Perma-tures; latest Finger Waves; Manicures, etc. Mrs. A. GAGNON, Prop.

MATERNITY CORSETS AND BELTS, ETC. Fitted and adjusted by qualified lady expert. Cudet Pharmacy 29 King St. W. Tel. 3668 Near Bus Terminal

BREAD on the table and... the meal is ready! It's complete if it's ALLATT'S

JUST LIKE NEW! Rugs & Upholstery Cleaned. Carpetings, Twists, Orientals... And Fine Upholstery

McCConnell's Optometrists and Opticians. 102 Wellington St. North. Office open for Repairs and Appointments. PHONE 37

DURA HOME SERVICES REG'D 72 Murray St. — Tel. 6980-W. Free Estimates on Request

Free Buy 1/2 gal JOHNSON'S GLO-COAT. Only $1.95. SELF-POLISHING WAX FOR FLOORS. GET BRIGHTER THAN EVER GLO-COAT TODAY

Tomorrow's Church Services

Church of England: ST. PETER'S CHURCH. Third Sunday after Easter. Rev. Russel F. Brown, B.A., Rector. Rev. C. H. Jensen, Assistant. Mr. W. H. Bishop, F.R.C.O., A.R.C.M., Organist and Choirmaster. 8 a.m.—Holy Communion. 10:15 a.m.—Holy Communion. 11 a.m.—Sung Eucharist. 7 p.m.—Evensong.

Church of the Apostles: CHURCH OF ST. PAUL THE APOSTLE. Corner of McManamy & Fairmount Rev. J. Comfort, Priest-in-Charge. 8 a.m.—Holy Communion. 10 a.m.—Sunday School. 11 a.m.—Holy Communion. 7 p.m.—Evensong.

Church of the Advent: CHURCH OF THE ADVENT. Bowen Avenue South. Canon E. K. Moffatt, Priest-in-Charge. 8 a.m.—Holy Communion. 10 a.m.—Church School. 11 a.m.—Morning Prayer. 7 p.m.—Evening Prayer. Friday, April 23rd. 7 a.m.—Holy Communion. St. George's Day.

Christian Science: FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST. Montreal and Island Streets. Sunday Services: 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Subject: "Doctrine of Atonement." Testimonial meeting: Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Reading room open daily from 3 to 5, except Saturday, Sunday and Holidays. Friday, 7:30 to 9 p.m., at His Majesty's Building.

Trinity United Church: TRINITY UNITED CHURCH. Court and William Streets. Rev. Fred Williams, Minister. Prof. R. Havard, Choir Director. Mrs. R. J. Bell, L.M.S., Organist. 11 a.m.—"For People Who Are 'Mixed Up.'" 7 p.m.—Showing the great film "The King of Kings." Make this your "special." The Church School at 11 a.m.

Plymouth United Church: PLYMOUTH UNITED CHURCH. Dufferin Ave. at Montreal Street. Rev. R. C. Tait, Minister. J. G. Scorer, Organist and Choir Director. 11 a.m.—Church School. 11 a.m.—Public Worship. Same mon theme: "At Our Wits' End."

St. Andrew's United Church: ST. ANDREW'S UNITED CHURCH. Windsor Mills. Rev. W. Dovey, Minister. Mr. J. Scarth, Choir Director. Mrs. A. C. Jondreville, Organist. 11 a.m.—Morning Worship. 7 p.m.—Evening Worship. 9:50 a.m.—Sunday School.

Grace Chapel: GRACE CHAPEL. Montreal Street. Undenominational—Evangelical. Sunday. 10:30 a.m.—The Lord's Supper for all believers in the Lord Jesus. 1:00 p.m.—The Glad Tidings Hour over CKTS. This week Mr. H. A. Welch will begin a series of studies in the book of Ruth. The Study this week will be "Going Into Exile."

Grace Anglican Church Men's Club: Grace Anglican Church Men's Club met in the Parish Hall. Rev. Kenneth Keefe expressed the appreciation of the seventy-two men present for the excellent meal the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion put on. Mr. William Dow present called on Corporal Corrivan of R.C.M.P. to introduce Sergeant Murray Smith and Capt. Perrin to give the history of the R.C.M.P. Three reels were shown of the work. Mr. Frank Suttell of the Angoras of Abercorn, thanked them for showing the pictures to the club. A pleasant evening was had by all present.

Don't Gamble With Your Good Health. If you are troubled by restless nights, irritability, or nervousness, try Milburn's Health and Nerve Pills. They contain only the purest of ingredients. For 50 years Milburn's Health and Nerve Pills have been used by thousands as a tonic for frayed nerves or a general run-down condition. They stimulate the nervous system, help to improve the blood content, increase the appetite and thus help to promote sleep. Milburn's Health and Nerve Pills are sold at all drug counters.

Don't Gamble With Your Good Health. The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

FOSTER

Mrs. and Mrs. William Greer, Miss Dorothy Greer, Mrs. Mabel Wallace and Mr. Ralph Wallace, of Rock Island, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Inglis.

Mr. Allen Whitecher was in White River Junction, Vt., to attend an Encampment meeting of the I.O.O.F. Lodge.

Mrs. R. E. Allen has been spending the past two weeks in Montreal to be near her daughter, Mrs. Peter Ross, and infant daughter, Jorja, who are patients of the Royal Victoria Hospital. Mrs. Allen has been staying at the home of her eldest son, Mr. Wilfred Allen, and Mrs. Allen.

Master Roddy Durrell, of Stie.

FREE SAMPLES OF TREATMENT FOR Stomach Disorder

(Due to Gastric Hyper-Acidity)

Why suffer with terrible burning pains from acid stomach when you can get prompt, safe relief with CANADIAN VON TABLETS? This famous treatment has accomplished amazing benefits in hundreds of really severe long-standing acid stomach cases.

CANADIAN VON TABLETS counteract excess acidity, relieve that bloated, gassy feeling, and soothe acid irritation. No rigid liquid diet. If you suffer from indigestion, gastritis, heartburn, bloating pains after eating, induced by excess stomach acidity, try Von's FREE. Send at once for FREE Samples of this treatment. A Free booklet is included. Call at Bunting's Drug Store or Star Pharmacy, 65 Wellington St. North, Sherbrooke, or write Canadian Von Co., Dept. 725-F, Windsor, Ont.

CARNIVAL

By Dick Turner

"Notice the Chinese characters enter the picture as the artist's mood develops—he probably remembers he has to pick up his laundry!"

PINNACLE

Miss Mildred Goodenough, of Montreal, spent the Easter week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Goodenough.

Mrs. Stanley Taylor spent Easter week-end as the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Grant Monahan, in Lennoxville.

Mrs. Walter Baker, the Misses Ethel and Isabelle Baker, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Gallup recently.

Mr. and Mrs. William McFarlane, of Lachute, are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Milton Baker, and Mr. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Monahan and daughter, Kathleen, spent a day with Mr. and Mrs. Alton Goodenough.

Miss Joan Laxson visited at the home of Mr. Merrick Gallups.

Mr. Frank Monahan was an Easter week-end guest of Mrs. Grant Monahan and family, in Lennoxville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Gallup were dinner guests Easter Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Gallup.

Miss Sandra Gallup was a dinner guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Gallup.

The residents of the community were sorry to hear of the passing away of Mr. James Gallen in Danville, and extend their sympathy to his only son, Mr. George Gallen, and family, of Montreal, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. George Goodenough, of Danville, were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Goodenough.

Mr. George Andrews, of Danville, has bought what is known as the "Stimpson Farm," from Mr. Merrick Gallup, and will take possession the first of May.

Mrs. Hazen Hughes was an overnight guest of her daughter, Mrs. Archie Sparks and Mr. Sparks.

Mrs. Dunean Keay and daughter, Jean, spent Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Alkinson, in Kingsley Falls.

The Ladies' Guild of the Bishop Carmichael Memorial Church. Afternoon tea was served at the close of a pleasant afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm MacFarlane and Miss Kay Kane, of Montreal, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. de Solla and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Phillips, of Oriskany, N.Y., were called here by the death of Mrs. Phillips' aunt, Mrs. J. R. Bockus.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Whitecher were in Granby, where they attended a meeting of the Rebekah Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Dorman, Miss Edwina Dorman and Mr. E. Dorman, Sr., of Sherbrooke, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Inglis.

Very extensive repairs are being undertaken at the parsonage of the Bishop Carmichael Memorial Church following a congregational meeting when it was decided that the necessary work be carried out.

Mr. R. E. Allen spent the week-end in Montreal with Mrs. Allen at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Allen and calling on Mrs. Peter Ross and infant daughter at the Royal Victoria Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden Inglis, of Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Inglis, of Rock Island, and Mr. Gordon Inglis were recently calling on their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Inglis, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Inglis.

Mr. and Mrs. George Allen have been calling on Mrs. Allen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Stowe.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Campbell and daughter, Mauvis, of Montreal, were recent tea guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Johnson, and Mrs. F. C. Johnson.

Mr. Alex Bockus, who was spending a few days in Toronto, Ont., was called home by the sudden death of his mother, Mrs. J. R. Bockus.

Mr. Heman Salisbury and Mr. Maurice Williams accompanied Mr. Baxter Williams to Sherbrooke.

Miss Thora Durrell spent the week-end in Montreal the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Judge, and Mr. Pat Judge.

Mrs. Fred Luce has been calling on her brother, Mr. Guy Streeter, and Mrs. Streeter, in Waterloo.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard de Solla, of Montreal, were guests of Mr. de Solla's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. de Solla.

Miss Irene Barrowman, of Montreal, was a recent week-end guest of Mrs. K. Korner.

FORDYCE

Mr. and Mrs. N. Thompson and daughter, Carolyn, of Sutton, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Lewis.

Mrs. G. A. David spent Sunday in Montreal with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Patterson.

Mr. Gordon Dougall, of Sherbrooke, was a week-end guest of his mother, Mrs. H. Dougall, also his sister, Mrs. M. Lewis and Mr. Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bouchard and daughter, Miss F. Bouchard, Miss J. Bouchard and Miss D. Courades, attended the wedding of the former's son, Mr. John Bouchard, which took place in Montreal on Saturday.

Mr. Carl Clark visited his wife in the B.M.P. Hospital at Sweetsburg.

Mrs. W. R. Jones returned home from Abbotsford on Sunday, where she has spent several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fowler were in Montreal where the latter consulted a specialist.

Mr. and Mrs. Symington, of Danham, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis on Saturday evening.

Miss K. Moore, of Cowansville, was a Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spencer, of Knowlton, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Stevenson.

Mr. Frank David returned to Farnham on Monday, having spent the week-end at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Stevenson entertained the Farm Forum at their home on Monday evening, with an attendance of twenty. The meeting was opened by the chairman, Mr. M. Mason. It was moved and seconded that two dollars be forwarded for space in the Annual Report, which was left in the hands of the secretary. The committee which was appointed at a previous meeting, gave an outline of the summer meetings, subject to change, which proved satisfactory. After the business meeting "500" was played at four tables. Prizes were won by Mrs. Hilton Smith and Mr. George Hooper, consolation by Mr. and Mrs. Syberberg. During the evening Miss Margaret Stevenson gave a few selections on the piano, which was much appreciated. The summer meetings will be held the second Monday of each month. Mr. and Mrs. George Hansen will entertain the May meeting.

I want to know...

when should I buy TERM INSURANCE?

As a general rule term insurance is bought only when a man assumes some special financial obligation of a temporary nature, and wants additional protection for his estate during that period or requires protection when financially unable at the moment to buy ordinary savings-insurance.

Term insurance pays only in the event of your death within the limited term of the policy—just as a fire insurance policy pays only in the actual event of fire.

A Mutual Life of Canada representative will be pleased to show you how this kind of insurance can be fitted to your present plans if there is a need for it.

Everyone's insurance needs are different, and personal consultation with an experienced adviser is the only way to arrange a satisfactory plan. The Mutual Life representative has been trained to help you work out the type of insurance best suited to your needs. Call him today and arrange an interview.

Low cost life insurance since 1869

THE MUTUAL LIFE OF CANADA
HEAD OFFICE
WATERLOO, ONTARIO

Branch Office for the Eastern Townships in the Province of Quebec:
6 Wellington St. North, SHERBROOKE, P.Q.
C. L. GREGOIRE - Branch Manager
REPRESENTATIVES: - B. M. Millar, Sherbrooke, P.Q.; Jean-Marie Cadorette, Sherbrooke, P.Q.; J. B. Lavalliere, Lake Megantic, P.Q.

SLOAN'S HEAT RELIEF

brings swift relief from muscular aches and pains

STILL 35¢

heat in a bottle

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

Sloan's Liniment is a reliable first aid remedy for all muscular pain. For the penetrating heat of Sloan's summons healing blood to pain spots... resulting in quick relief and comfort.

To The Public!

SHEFFORD WOOLLENS OF GRANBY

New Innovation!

DIRECT SALE OF WOOLLEN CLOTH AT MILL PRICES TO THE PUBLIC

Open Daily 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. and All Day Wednesday

56" Cloth 100% Wool

11-12 oz. weight

$1.95

per yard

rear 60-B BALL ST., SHERBROOKE

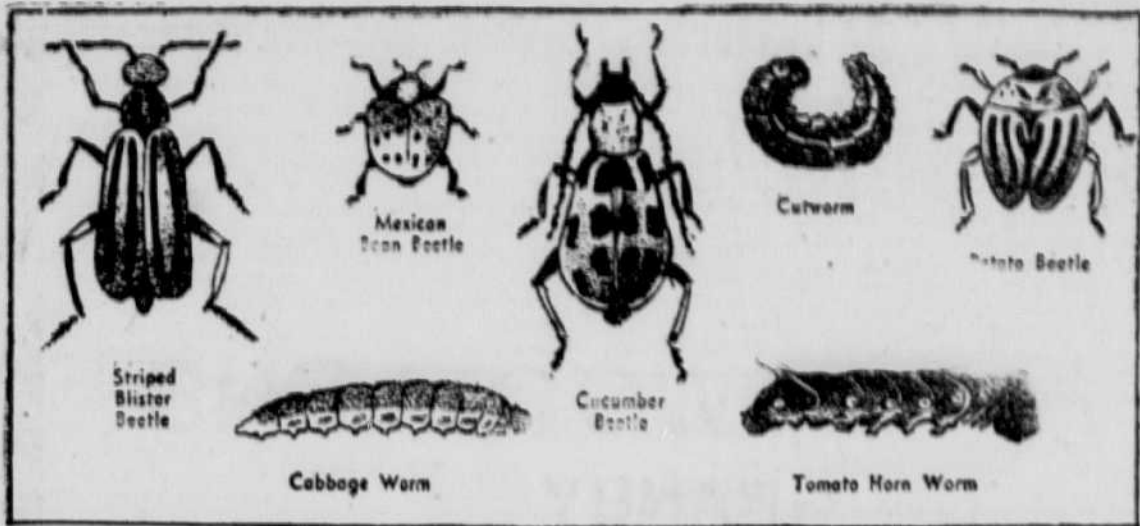

JOE PALOOKA

By Ham Fisher

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

By Edgar Martin

Learn Your Bugs If Garden Is To Be A Success

Public enemies of the vegetable garden are these voracious pests. While there are many other insects which attack vegetable plants, these seven are the most annoying. Study them, learn their characteristics—and fight them, without quarter.

By NEA SERVICE

Last Of Six Articles Planning and planting a vegetable garden—even a small one—is a job. Many vegetables need attention during the hot summer months, and the actual planting and cultivating is hard work. But it's worth that pay for itself many-fold in the satisfaction and delight of eating home-grown foods.

ed in plant foods. Acid soils need the addition of limestone. Alkaline soils need more fertilizer. Nitrogen and phosphorus may have to be added, too. Consult your county agent for the needs of your particular locale.

You'll definitely need sprays or dusts to keep away insect pests. If your garden isn't fenced, you may need to spread an edging of lime around to keep out rabbits. You may need mole traps, too. The commonest sprays used are lead arsenate, rotenone, Paris green, cyroline, pyrethrum and DDT against "chewing" insects—beetles and caterpillars—and pyrethrum, rotenone and nicotine sulphate, which kill the "sucking" insects—aphids and thrips.

All in all, for a garden about 50 by 150 feet, your equipment should not cost more than a few dollars. With any sort of luck, you should harvest about $150-$175 worth of vegetables, much of which you can store for winter consumption.

The biggest complaint of most gardeners is probably weeding. But, if weeds are left to grow as they please, you'll soon find yourself raising nothing else. They choke out tender seedlings of vegetable plants. While newly developed chemical weed-killers, such as 2,4-D, have proven effective, the old standby, a hefty swing with a hoe, is still the surest method of killing weeds.

Another energy-expending garden chore is cultivation. That's merely breaking up the soil around the plants into smaller pieces, so that moisture and plant food can more readily mix with the soil. This, too, is a chore that results in healthier and quicker-growing vegetables.

Besides foodstuffs, your vegetable garden can produce ornamental, too. Gourds, which are a non-edible type of squash, and are as easily grown, are an interesting crop. They grow in gracefully varied shapes and colors. When ripe, a thin coating of varnish or shellac can be applied, and several grouped together make a lovely centerpiece arrangement.

Besides the vegetable garden, like carrots and peas and corn, it is always inexpensive fun to experiment with unusual vegetables. Try radish, or endive, or kale. You can ever put in some peanuts, which are grown commercially only from Virginia south, but make a garden novelty as far north as Massachusetts.

A herb garden is another addition to your garden that will serve to add spice to gardening. It requires very little space. Just two or three plants of your favorite herbs, like sage, mint and thyme. And, for added zest, try some of the unusual spices, like marjoram and rosemary. Dill can be grown, too, and you'll soon be making your own dill pickles.

In another year or so, you might like to add a small berry patch in a corner of your vegetable garden. Not too much room is needed—one strawberry plant yields a pint of berries, one blackberry bush may yield as much as 10 quarts of delicious berries. Another fruit that doesn't require too much care and can be planted in the vegetable garden is the grape. Even one vine will produce sufficient grapes for several glasses of jelly.

Depending on your seriousness in the garden project and the availability of materials, construction of flats helps to give you a head start over nature. They enable you to start your seeds indoors before frosts are over, so that, when transplanted into the garden, they are well on their way to maturity. Science has done a lot to improve the vegetable garden. Hybrid strains are increasingly resistant to disease and increasingly productive. Newly developed weed and insect poisons help eliminate threats from that direction. Better gardening techniques are planned to get the most out of the garden. But—you'll still need good weather and good luck. That's one of the things that makes gardening fun!

WEST SHEFFORD

Mrs. J. R. Armstrong, of Knowlton, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ladd for a few days and while in town called on several friends.

Mr. P. M. Taylor, of Montreal, and Mr. Stanley Taylor, of Ste. Amel de Belevue, spent the weekend in town guests of the Rev. Mr. Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McMahon, Mr. and Mrs. Mike McMahon, Mr. Joseph McMahon and Mrs. Arthur Dunn, were in Granby one day, attending the funeral of Mr. Thomas Loring.

Mr. Miles Enright entertained the men at their club, Tuesday evening last.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McMahon entertained at three tables of "500" Saturday evening, after the games Mrs. McMahon served a very delicious lunch that was thoroughly enjoyed by the guests.

Mr. Frank Armstrong, of Lennoxville, spent the week-end with his aunt, Mrs. E. Donaway and Mr. Donaway.

Mr. Edward Lunlavy is still at St. Joseph's Hospital, Granby, suffering from a broken hip, he sustained from a bad fall on the BRIDE-TO-BE HONORED AT A "SHOWER"

Marbleton, April 17. — Miss Gwen Gilbert was hostess at a miscellaneous shower held at the home of Mrs. William Hetherington, in honor of her cousin, Miss Gertrude Westman, R.N., whose marriage takes place shortly.

The rooms were decorated with baskets of spring flowers, and to the strains of "Here Comes the Bride" played by Mrs. B. S. Gilbert, Mrs. Hetherington escorted Miss Westman to a gaily decorated chair, where Miss Dawn Gilbert dressed as a Red Cross nurse, handed her the daintily wrapped gifts from a large box "First Aid to Housekeeping," made by Mrs. J. A. Stewart.

Mrs. James Westman assisted her daughter in unwrapping the gifts, after which the bride-to-be expressed her thanks for all the lovely gifts and good wishes.

Mrs. James Westman and Mrs. B. S. Gilbert presided at the lace covered tea table, which was centered with a silver bowl of tulips and daffodils and tall pink tapers in silver holders.

Mrs. Hetherington, Mrs. Clifford Weyland and Miss Hunt assisted in serving.

ice at his home this spring.

Mr. Loren Dunlavy has purchased the Farrell farm and is moving there with his family soon.

Mr. David Dutilly is making good progress with his broken wrist that he received while indulging in games at Victoriaville College.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlavy were in Granby visiting their daughter, Mrs. Peter Dunn and family, while there they called on Mr. E. Dunlavy at the hospital.

Mr. William Phillips is not retaining his usual good health as quickly as his many friends would like to have him.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Courteaux of Merriville, were visiting their daughter, Miss Theresa Courteaux one day at her home here, with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell.

Mr. Orval Lewis and Mr. Leon Lewis and son, Bobby, of Waterville, were calling on their cousin, Mrs. Ernest Donaway and Mr. Donaway, recently.

The young people who are employed in Granby, spent the weekend at their respective homes.

Mr. Walter Williams and daughter, Beulah, of Iron Hill, were calling at the Donaway home on Saturday. Mrs. Albert Dionne, of Granby, was also a guest at the same home.

Reader notices in country locals, 15c per line of 5 words. Lennoxville and City Brieflets, 20c per line.

BURY UNITED CHURCH W.A. HAS MEETING

Bury, April 17. — The April meeting of the Women's Association of the United Church was entertained by Mrs. R. N. Mayhew and Mrs. Eva MacRae at the home of the former, with Mrs. MacLeod, the president, in the chair. The devotional period was conducted by Mrs. D. B. Hopkins and Mrs. A. Whitehead.

All outstanding accounts were ordered paid. Communications were read and a report of the St. Patrick's supper and sale was heard. In this latter connection the executive wish to thank every one who helped to make the event the outstanding success it was. At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Winston Prangley, of Donnacona, spent the Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Prangley.

Mrs. Charles Lindsay spent the week-end with her husband at Orleans, Vt.

The flowers on the altar of St. Paul's Church on Sunday were in memory of Col. Pope from his family.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Provis was christened on Sunday at St. Paul's Church by Rev. W. Rowe and was given the names, Constance Eleanor. The sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bennett and Mrs. Matilda Worby.

Mr. L. Vance, of Ottawa, spent the week-end with his wife and family at the home of Mr. J. H. Saunders.

SAWYERVILLE

Mrs. Henry French was in Cookshire to visit her brother, Mr. Herbert Chaddock, who is ill and Mrs. Chaddock.

Mr. L. H. Hunt accompanied by Mr. Abel Whitehead, of Bury, were in Quebec City recently.

Mr. William Whitesides, of Cookshire, was in town recently.

Mrs. G. Clark and two daughters are spending a few days with relatives at Waterville.

Mrs. Raymond Bervick and four children were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Palmer.

Mr. George Loveland was in Richmond recently.

Little Anne Cote has been confined to the house by illness, friends are glad to hear she is improving.

Mrs. Gordon Bedard, of Sherbrooke, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dempsey. No service was held in the Anglican Church on Sunday owing to illness of the pastor, Rev. H. C. Denton.

The regular Odd Fellows Lodge meeting was held on April 13, with

INTERESTING TALK GIVEN AT BOUNDARY CLUB

Rock Island, April 17. — "Over twenty-one million people visit Canada each year, which means that we must have something to offer them," was the theme of the talk by Walter L. Payne, of the Public Relations Department of the Canadian Pacific Railway, at the regular Monday evening meeting of the Rotary Club of the Boundary, held at the Del Monty Hotel.

Mr. Payne called his talk, "From Charm to Charm," getting his title from some notes by Tom Moore, who took a partial tour of Canada many years ago. Starting on the Atlantic coast, the speaker took his audience with him across Canada to the Pacific coast, ending as he had begun with an especially attractive ocean scene. The talk was illustrated with some very attractive slides in color, many of them taken by the speaker, and all of them showing various types of Canadian beauty.

It was apparent that Mr. Payne believed that Canada is a very lovely country, one that is well worth a visit, and one that has a great deal to offer either the tourist or the person wishing to pay a longer visit. His pictures captured a great many of the most charming scenes of flowers, buildings, lakes, parks, and mountains. Those watching the pictures and listening to the speaker could hardly help but want to take a trip to at least some of the spots displayed. All in all, it was a very fine and very effective talk, and one that completely pleased the group present.

As it was Ladies Night for the Boundary Club, the attendance was well over forty, and a very fine steak dinner was provided by the Del Monty. As an added feature, piano music was supplied by Donald Stewart, and some fine songs by Gordon Stewart, all of which added to the pleasures of the evening.

The speaker was introduced by Lawrence Tilton, and thanked for his interesting talk by C. R. Darby, who also thanked the Stewart brothers for their contribution of fine music. The visiting Rotarian at the meeting was Harry Rice, a former president of the club now living in Newport, who was accompanied by Mrs. Rice.

Tickets for the coming concert on May 1st by the Montreal Men's Choir were passed out to the members present, and all were urged by the chairman of the committee, Ernest Hills, to get behind this concert and put it over with the success it deserves. The concert by the same group was so successful last year that there is little doubt that the Haskell Opera House will be sold out for this return engagement.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the Del Monty Hotel next Monday evening, when the speaker will be Cyril Peake of the Dominion Textile Company at Magog, who will talk on Nature. This talk was originally scheduled for last winter, but had to be postponed owing to road conditions. Further details of the concert will be given out, and there will be other interesting events at the meeting.

a large attendance. The second degree work was conducted on candidates from Bishopton. Visitors from Sherbrooke Lodge were also present. Lunch was served.

Miss B. Barrow, of Cookshire, was in Sawyerville.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE with Major Hoopla

East to West OGDEN'S Rolls Best

Advertisement for OGDEN'S FINE CUT VIRGINIA LIVERPOOL CIGARETTES, featuring a cartoon character and text: "OGDEN'S IS THE FINEST 'MAKINGS' EVEN WHEN YOU'RE DOWN TO SHAKINGS"

Hunter Saves Comrades Caught in Fierce Blizzard WINS DOW AWARD

LAURENT VANDAL OF SHERBROOKE, QUE., shows courage and endurance in night-long battle against storm

The three men had hiked a dozen miles through the Lac Frontiere woods in the deep snow... the last few dragging a huge deer which they now realized they must abandon. Darkness had fallen and the blizzard was becoming more furious every minute. The men were hungry, almost exhausted and desperately cold. Around 7.30 P.M. Ernest Boulanger collapsed. The soft snow seemed comfortable and he slumped, almost unconscious.

Proulx, the guide, was in no better condition and soon fell asleep. Laurent Vandal knew that the lives of the two men were in great danger. Covering Proulx with his mackinaw, Vandal finally succeeded in lighting a fire. At 1.30 in the morning the storm was getting worse... the cold more bitter. Vandal roused the two men and forced them to move on. When they fell he picked them up and urged them to continue. Through snow 22 inches deep they stumbled... until, at four in the morning, they reached camp.

Without the courage, endurance and determination of their comrade, the two men would almost certainly have perished. We are proud to pay tribute to Laurent Vandal of Sherbrooke, Que., through the presentation of The Dow Award.

Advertisement for THE DOW AWARD, a citation for outstanding heroism and includes a tangible expression of appreciation, a $100 Canada Savings Bond.

LISTEN TO THE DOW AWARD RADIO SHOW SATURDAY—8.30 P.M.

SEEDS PLANTS AND GARDEN SUPPLIES NEW CATALOGUE FREE 42 WH-PERRON & CO. SEEDSMEN & NURSERYMEN 955 ST. LAWRENCE BLVD., MONTREAL

FOR SALE 186-188 Victoria St.

Two storey brick cased building containing two 6-room heated flats.

Hot water heating system with Stoker. Continuous hot water, summer and winter.

This property, modern in every respect and most desirably situated in good neighborhood — is offered substantially below replacement cost.

Price and other details on application to

Sherbrooke Trust Company

Advertisement for BELMONT MANOR, Bermuda Calls You to a Semi-Tropical Vacation. Favourite Bermuda resort hotel among Canadians, the Belmont Manor offers guests not only fine living and luxury accommodation, but luxury accommodation, but luxury accommodation, but luxury accommodation.

FUNNY BUSINESS

By Hershberger

SIDE GLANCES

By Galbraith

"I'll be there in exactly one hour, Mrs. Jones—and please don't wait till I ring the bell before you start straightening up the house!"

Advertisement for CHRYCO Super BRAKE FLUID DOES A BETTER JOB. Through greater extremes of heat and cold... NEW CHRYCO Super BRAKE FLUID retains its fluid state! Contributes to safer driving.

Through greater extremes of heat and cold... from 240 degrees Fahrenheit to 80 degrees below zero, NEW CHRYCO SUPER BRAKE FLUID retains its fluid state! Contributes to safer driving.

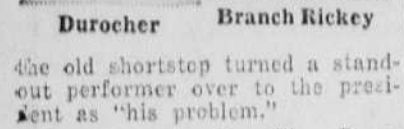

What CHRYCO means CHRYCO is a trade name coined from "Chrysler Corporation". Paris and... associated bearing this trademark are guaranteed by the men who design Chrysler, Plymouth, Dodge and DeSoto motor cars, Fargo and Dodge trucks and Chrysler Industrial Engines.

Advertisement for Morisset Ltee. Phone 2015 21 Wellington St. South

Branch Rickey Running Club, Which Accounts For Confusion In Brooklyn

New York (NEA)—Branch Rickey is running the Dodgers, accounting for all the confusion. Even the balls used by the Superbas in training were autographed "Branch Rickey's Specials, Brooklyn Dodgers."

The new, new Leo Durocher has no say beyond the direction of the club on the field. Mahatma Rickey deals directly with the athletes, thus creating headaches for Durocher, attempting a comeback as a manager after a year's banishment.

Durocher

In at least one case this spring, the old shortstop turned a stand-out performer over to the present as "this problem."

Because only Peg Wee Reese and Bruce Edwards know precisely where they stand, there is dissatisfaction, and the combatants are on edge.

From the goings-on in Ciudad Trujillo and at Vero Beach, one would have suspected that the Brooklyn finished dead last instead of taking the Yankees to the seventh game of the World Series.

Seven men each were tried at first and third bases, for instance. With the idea of employing Jackie Robinson in his natural position, second base, Murgoy Stanky was peddled to the Braves, and as a first baseman Branch Rickey took Ray Sanders, who has been out of baseball a year and a half with a badly-broken glove arm.

When it became obvious that Sanders would not be able to play a complete game for a month, and no one else would do, Pete Reiser was thrown into the breach.

This despite the fact that everybody who has played with or against Pistol Pete pointed out that he fought ground balls even in the outfield. On top of that, the Pistol charges balls so ferociously that he is a menace to himself and everybody else in the infield. It was because the St. Louis lad couldn't refrain from bouncing off them, that the Ebbebs Field walls were padded.

Thus when the Brooks returned to Flatbush for their first major league opposition in the form of the New York Americans only four days before the opening of the season, and after seven weeks of training and exhibitions, Lippy Leo Durocher was still confronted with a conundrum on the right side of the infield.

The baseball writers were afraid to write much about it, however, for they were the most perplexed of all. You never know what Rickey is doing, and a trade was expected to change the entire complexion of things momentarily.

The opening lineup was all set, a year ago for example, when Spider Jorgensen turned out to be a surprise starter at third base. Total unheralded Bull Edwards popped in from Mobile in June, 1946, to do all the catching, etc.

Rickey shakes a tree and they fall out.

It was the same early-season disorder, however, that had much to do with the Cardinals winning just one pennant from 1932 through 1941.

Rickey remained with the Red Birds through 1942, but Sam Breadon grew tired of theories, and called back Billy Southworth as manager in mid-June, 1943.

It was shortly thereafter that Rickey suggested that the great Statts Marie might do better at second base. It was then that Southworth asked Owner Breadon to keep Rickey upstairs, and in a year and a half Billy the Kid had the blazes in the red blazers straightened out and on the winning track again.

Branch Rickey finds players quicker than any other baseball man, and has no peer as an appraiser of ivory, but sometimes his clubs wind up with so much material that they don't know where to put it—or him.

Branch Rickey

Frank Selke, manager of the Montreal Canadiens, will be the guest speaker at a banquet tendered by the St. Patrick's Academy Sports Committee in honor of its hockey teams, on Monday evening at the Chateau Frontenac.

The St. Pat's bantam, midget, Boy Scout, juvenile and junior teams, all of whom won titles this year, will receive crests. The bantams, midgets and juniors won Eastern Townships titles, while the juveniles won the Eastern Townships title and the Montreal district title, but were beaten out in the finals for the provincial title by the Quebec Generals.

The Diamond Taxi Trophy, which the juniors have won for the past three years, now becomes their property permanently, and will be presented by Emmett Kenalty, president of the E.T. Junior Hockey League. Forest Keene will present the Keene Juvenile Trophy to the juveniles, who have won it for the past two years. The midget and bantam trophies will also be presented by their donor, Jean Paul Perrault. The Boy Scout shield will be presented by Henry Crochere, Scoutmaster of the St. Pat's Troop.

Among those who have been invited to attend the banquet include: His Worship Mayor Alphonse Trudeau, the Aldermen, Hon. J. S. Bourque, Maurice Ginguere, M.P., Rev. Father Moisan, Eugene Lalonde, vice-president of the Q.A.H.A., Emmett Kenalty, president of the E.T. Junior Hockey League, Lorenzo Couture, minor convenor, Antonin Deslauriers, Forest Keene, Jean Paul Perrault and Dr. Paul McMahon.

The new executive of the Sherbrooke Baseball Club got the jump on quite a few teams in the country when they signed Roland Gladu as their playing-manager. Gladu is well known throughout the country as a ball player, having been up in the major league with the Brooklyn Dodgers and should prove a valuable acquisition to the local club.

Ed. Pilgrim, of Bishop's University, is leaving this afternoon for Boston to take part in the famous Boston A. A. Marathon on Monday. Ed. is well noted for his running ability, and many a mile he has scooted up and down the football field. So Ed, good luck to you and here's hoping that you finish well up near the top.

The trails for the local Rotary Golden Gloves to choose candidates to take part in the tourney in Montreal will be held next Thursday at the Y.M.C.A. The event is being held under the joint chairmanship of Rotarians Phil Mathias and Forest Keene, and from what I hear it looks as though a good number of boys is taking part in the event, and that the district will be well represented at Montreal. The Golden Gloves tournament is an annual event sponsored by the Rotary Club and draws contestants from all over the province.

Maurice Guillet, ex-manager and owner of the Sherbrooke Baseball Club, and Leo Fournier, who acted as umpire last season in Provincial, are leaving next week to attend the Empire's Baseball Clinic at Stanford, Conn. The school is run by Art Donnelly, George MacDonald and Al Weaver, of the American League, and is open to all umpires, with the required qualifications. Both Fournier and Guillet will work in the local loop this coming season and are going down to the school for a brush-up on the rules and interpretation.

The Maple Leafs, of Toronto, wrapped up the Stanley Cup, for another season, Wednesday evening when they overwhelmed the Red Wings 7-2 to take the series in four straight. The Leafs, backed up by wonderful goal tending by Walter "Turk" Broda, waltzed right through the Red Wings. They had too much all-around power for the Motor City boys. Ten thousand home fans turned out to welcome the team home, at the civic reception when the boys affixed their signatures in the Golden Book at the City Hall. So it is all over for another year and Conny Smythe's boys hold onto the silverware for the second straight season.

Sorry to hear that Marcel Bouchard lost his mother recently. On behalf of local sports fans, Marcel, please accept our deepest sympathy in your bereavement.

The Victoriaville Sporting Association held a banquet this week for their hockey champions, the Tigers, and 300 fans attended the dinner to pay homage to the club. A special gift was given to Robert, while Normie useault received a wrist watch. On the whole I guess everybody had a wonderful time, and no doubt the Tiger fans talked about plans for next year.

The St. Pat's Sports Committee is going to give its hockey teams a banquet Monday evening at the Chateau Frontenac. Frank Selke, general manager of the Canadiens, will be the guest speaker. The green and white squads made a clean sweep of their respective classes and the Sports Committee will be hosts to the boys, their coaches and a few invited guests.

The Sherbrooke Curling Club is holding its closing dinner Monday evening while the ladies will have theirs on Tuesday. The curlers have had a wonderful season and interest in curling circles really increased 100 per cent. New members at both Lennoxville and Sherbrooke held their own and gave a good account of themselves. Prizes won during the season will be given out Monday evening and then the stones will be put in storage until next fall.

To Cindy (Newport Daily Express) Remington, congratulations. Your column "Trottin' Jottin's" is really good and should go over big with the horse people of the district. See where Lucien Dugre has moved his stable of high-stepping steeds down to Roaring Brook Park at Barton. From advance reports Clever Volo, with a record of 2:07 2-5, should give a good account of herself, as well as good old Canada Direct with a 2:08 1/4 mark, for Mr. Dugre and his popular trainer, Emile Larente.

The four juveniles who went to Montreal to take part in the special hockey game did all right by themselves. Austin Cook, Guy Lindley, Edgar Dussault, all members of St. Pat's Juveniles, and Marc Dussault, of the Canadian Juveniles, were the boys who took in the Southern Quebec team and swamped the Northern Quebec club by the score of 6-2. Cook and Dussault each tallied a marker while the other boys drew assists. The Powers-that-be seemed highly pleased with the boys' showing and I believe they offered them something for next year. Just the case of some more local youngsters going to greener fields.

Frank Selke

Ed. Pilgrim, of Bishop's University, is leaving this afternoon for Boston to take part in the famous Boston A. A. Marathon on Monday. Ed. is well noted for his running ability, and many a mile he has scooted up and down the football field. So Ed, good luck to you and here's hoping that you finish well up near the top.

The trails for the local Rotary Golden Gloves to choose candidates to take part in the tourney in Montreal will be held next Thursday at the Y.M.C.A. The event is being held under the joint chairmanship of Rotarians Phil Mathias and Forest Keene, and from what I hear it looks as though a good number of boys is taking part in the event, and that the district will be well represented at Montreal. The Golden Gloves tournament is an annual event sponsored by the Rotary Club and draws contestants from all over the province.

Maurice Guillet, ex-manager and owner of the Sherbrooke Baseball Club, and Leo Fournier, who acted as umpire last season in Provincial, are leaving next week to attend the Empire's Baseball Clinic at Stanford, Conn. The school is run by Art Donnelly, George MacDonald and Al Weaver, of the American League, and is open to all umpires, with the required qualifications. Both Fournier and Guillet will work in the local loop this coming season and are going down to the school for a brush-up on the rules and interpretation.

The Maple Leafs, of Toronto, wrapped up the Stanley Cup, for another season, Wednesday evening when they overwhelmed the Red Wings 7-2 to take the series in four straight. The Leafs, backed up by wonderful goal tending by Walter "Turk" Broda, waltzed right through the Red Wings. They had too much all-around power for the Motor City boys. Ten thousand home fans turned out to welcome the team home, at the civic reception when the boys affixed their signatures in the Golden Book at the City Hall. So it is all over for another year and Conny Smythe's boys hold onto the silverware for the second straight season.

Sorry to hear that Marcel Bouchard lost his mother recently. On behalf of local sports fans, Marcel, please accept our deepest sympathy in your bereavement.

The Victoriaville Sporting Association held a banquet this week for their hockey champions, the Tigers, and 300 fans attended the dinner to pay homage to the club. A special gift was given to Robert, while Normie useault received a wrist watch. On the whole I guess everybody had a wonderful time, and no doubt the Tiger fans talked about plans for next year.

The St. Pat's Sports Committee is going to give its hockey teams a banquet Monday evening at the Chateau Frontenac. Frank Selke, general manager of the Canadiens, will be the guest speaker. The green and white squads made a clean sweep of their respective classes and the Sports Committee will be hosts to the boys, their coaches and a few invited guests.

The Sherbrooke Curling Club is holding its closing dinner Monday evening while the ladies will have theirs on Tuesday. The curlers have had a wonderful season and interest in curling circles really increased 100 per cent. New members at both Lennoxville and Sherbrooke held their own and gave a good account of themselves. Prizes won during the season will be given out Monday evening and then the stones will be put in storage until next fall.

To Cindy (Newport Daily Express) Remington, congratulations. Your column "Trottin' Jottin's" is really good and should go over big with the horse people of the district. See where Lucien Dugre has moved his stable of high-stepping steeds down to Roaring Brook Park at Barton. From advance reports Clever Volo, with a record of 2:07 2-5, should give a good account of herself, as well as good old Canada Direct with a 2:08 1/4 mark, for Mr. Dugre and his popular trainer, Emile Larente.

The four juveniles who went to Montreal to take part in the special hockey game did all right by themselves. Austin Cook, Guy Lindley, Edgar Dussault, all members of St. Pat's Juveniles, and Marc Dussault, of the Canadian Juveniles, were the boys who took in the Southern Quebec team and swamped the Northern Quebec club by the score of 6-2. Cook and Dussault each tallied a marker while the other boys drew assists. The Powers-that-be seemed highly pleased with the boys' showing and I believe they offered them something for next year. Just the case of some more local youngsters going to greener fields.

Ed. Pilgrim, of Bishop's University, is leaving this afternoon for Boston to take part in the famous Boston A. A. Marathon on Monday. Ed. is well noted for his running ability, and many a mile he has scooted up and down the football field. So Ed, good luck to you and here's hoping that you finish well up near the top.

The trails for the local Rotary Golden Gloves to choose candidates to take part in the tourney in Montreal will be held next Thursday at the Y.M.C.A. The event is being held under the joint chairmanship of Rotarians Phil Mathias and Forest Keene, and from what I hear it looks as though a good number of boys is taking part in the event, and that the district will be well represented at Montreal. The Golden Gloves tournament is an annual event sponsored by the Rotary Club and draws contestants from all over the province.

Maurice Guillet, ex-manager and owner of the Sherbrooke Baseball Club, and Leo Fournier, who acted as umpire last season in Provincial, are leaving next week to attend the Empire's Baseball Clinic at Stanford, Conn. The school is run by Art Donnelly, George MacDonald and Al Weaver, of the American League, and is open to all umpires, with the required qualifications. Both Fournier and Guillet will work in the local loop this coming season and are going down to the school for a brush-up on the rules and interpretation.

E.T. Amateur Boxer

At a recent meeting of the Rotary-Y.M.C.A. boxing committee final arrangements were cleared for the Eastern Townships amateur boxing championships and Golden Gloves eliminations. This tournament sponsored by the Rotary Club and Y.M.C.A. of Sherbrooke will be held in the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium Thursday, April 29.

According to the number of entries received to date a full evening of boxing is assured. It is expected that the program will also feature a special exhibition bout, or possibly two, between well known fighters. Entries so far have been received from Drummondville, Magog, Lennoxville and Sherbrooke.

All competitors in this competition will receive competitors' crests, winners in each weight will be awarded a trophy suitably engraved.

Ottawa Rough Riders Make Bid For Filchock

Ottawa, April 17.—(P)—Ottawa Rough Riders of the Interprovincial Rugby Football Union have added their bid for the services of Frankie Filchock, and Barry O'Brien, a member of the Ottawa executive, said today that Filchock is "definitely interested in coming to Ottawa."

It was also learned that E. K. (Eddie) Emerson, Rough Rider director and president of the Big Four, is motoring to Washington and will attempt to close a deal with the American quarterback star this week-end.

Barbara Scott Still Debating Pro Offers

Ottawa, April 17.—(P)—Barbara Ann Scott, Ottawa's Olympic figure skating queen, said today she has made no definite decision to turn professional.

Questioned concerning a Prescott, Ont., report which quoted Herbert Caldwell, wealthy manufacturer and friend of Miss Scott, as saying she expected to turn professional at the end of a series of benefit exhibitions now under way, Barbara Ann said there was "no change" in the situation.

Miss Scott, who won her Olympic title early in the year, also holds the Canadian, North American, European and World titles.

In Schumacher, Ont., last Friday, Miss Scott said she will not sign any contracts for appearance in motion pictures or other forms of entertainment until she has completed her present commitments to appear in amateur skating carnivals.

She added she was booked up until May 8.

Johnny Colontine, Right Handed Hurler, Signed By Manager Gladu

Johnny Colontine, right handed pitcher who played a few games with the Montreal Royals in 1945, has accepted the terms offered by Manager Roland Gladu and will perform with the local club, stated Gladu last night from Montreal.

Colontine is the fifth player that Gladu has signed since the beginning of the week. The others were, Lauro Pascual, catcher, Jergo Torres, second baseman, Gilles Dube, outfielder and Pete Taillefer, shortstop.

Colontine was used by the Royals of Montreal during 1945 as a relief pitcher and won two and lost two. The following season he was optioned to Trenton in the Inter-State League and came up with eight victories and four losses.

In 1946 he played with the Newport-News, of the Piedmont League, and won five while losing four. He took part in twenty-five games, twirled 101 innings, facing 375 batters, and gave up 117 hits and 55 runs, of which only 14 were earned. He issued 49 bases on balls and struck out 52 batters, giving him an average of 3.56 runs per game.

In the field he had only one error charged against him in twenty-five games, and took part in one double play.

As the majority of hurlers, his batting record is rather weak, having connected for only nine hits in 63 official trips to the plate, one being a two-bagger.

Colontine, who resides in Hamilton Ontario, according to Gladu has perfect control, and should be very useful to the local club in a relief role.

The players will report in Sherbrooke Tuesday morning, with the exception of Pascual and Torres, who are in Cuba and will report only around the 25th of the month. However, both players performed in the Cuba League during the winter months and will not require as much time as the others to get back in shape.

Power Laden Buffalo Bisons Are Rated Strong Contenders In I.L.

Waxahachie, Tex., April 17.—(P)—Laden with power, a superb defence and fine catching, Buffalo Bisons of 1948, for the first time since 1941, must be reckoned a pennant contender.

The Bisons have everything except speed and established pitching, but manager Paul Richards has a capable staff in the making. One or two pitchers from the parent Detroit Tigers can make his hurling corps an outstanding one.

With Anse Moore and Coaker Triplett in left field, Johnny Groth in centre and Chet Laabs in right, the herd opens the campaign with the best outfield in the International League.

Richards had a crack double play combination in Manuel Hidalgo, the Chinese-Cuban shortstop, and Johnny Bero. At third base, Cy Block, up from the Southern Association with a .360 average, looms as a great help. Norm Jaeger, a refugee from New York Giants' farm system, wor the first base job from Frank Heller, who led the Eastern League in runs batted in.

Probably the most improved BISON over 1947 is catcher Eddie Mordarski, who led the I.L. catchers in hitting last year with .297.

Tex Shirley, who underwent an arm operation last winter, may hold the key to the herd's pitching. If his comeback is true, he may be the bellow Richards has been seeking. Hard luck Clem Hausmann looms as the opening day pitcher.

Rated right behind Shirley and Hausmann are Hank Perry, Andy Bush, Sol Rogovin, Aaron Silverman, Ted Wybernac, Lew Faith, Pete Appleton and Bill Connelly.

The professionals give adequate assurance of player protection,

Announcement NOW IN ALL 3 SIZES BOLLS V.O. GENEVER GIN

Obtainable at the Liquor & Mail Order Stores of the Quebec Liquor Commission.

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330

Popular Makes and Models SPECIALLY PRICED $42.50 ROLAND BLAIS 172 Main St., Lennoxville. Tel. LEN. 330