Play by Junior Guild Well Received

—o—

St. Paul's Junior Ladies' Guild scored another success when they presented their three-act play, "Sunbonnet Jane of Sycamore Lane" at Shawville Theatre on Monday night.

Although this was a repeat performance, the hall was again packed to capacity, and the large audience appeared to thoroughly enjoy the presentation which was again ably directed by Mrs. G. G. McDowell.

Miss Muriel Strutt excelled in the leading role of "Sunbonnet Jane", while characterization of the two maiden aunts, Grace and Miranda Jasper, played by Miss Gwenneth Shaw and Miss Melba Hodgins, were equally well portrayed.

Louis Judd, "Toby Simpkins" as Jane's partner in crime, and Mel McNeely as stingy old "Jason Gouch" were well supported by Miss Robina Wallace, as "Ollie Dinkleberry" an old-maid school teacher; Miss Joan Corrigan, as "Nola Millar" tattletale, Miss Shirley Judd as "Crystal Cluett" a snobbish girl from the city; Miss Jean Judd, as mother of the fun-loving "Jane"; Keith Brownlee as "Schyler Pell" a wealthy lawyer and John Howard as "Douglas Smith" who marketed a formulae for perpetual paint to net Sunbonnet Jane a handsome royalty, which concluded the plot of the play.

V-E Day Celebrated With Worship Service

—o—

Victory Day in Europe was celebrated in Shawville without any marked degree of hilarity, noise or confusion. When word of the surrender of Germany was first announced, Monday morning, business people got busy hoisting flags and decorating, as well as did many in the residential sections of the village.

The Mayor's Proclamation for a Public Holiday in town was not observed until Tuesday, after Prime Minister Churchill delivered his proclamation, then Church bells peeled out the glad tidings that war in Europe was officially over.

The actual celebration of Victory took the form of a Worship Service and parade which was carried out in a very orderly and reverent manner. The parade formed at the High School and was headed by Mayor W. C. Schwartz, followed by a troup of School boys riding decorated bicycles; the eight clergymen, representing the Clarendon Ministerial Association, a company of Girl Guides, then the School children (most of them carrying flags) and their teachers; followed by a long string of cars. The parade led to the Memorial Park, where a halt was called, while Rev. H. Kielty, president of the Ministerial Association delivered a brief address of Remembrance for those who had fallen; a two-minute period of silent prayer observed and a prayer of remembrance was made by Rev. P. R. Stote, of Charteris.

The procession then entered the Agricultural grounds, where it was estimated that over 2000 people had assembled, for the service of thanksgiving, which was presided over by Mr. Kielty.

The opening of the Worship Service was timed for the reception of His Majesty, the King's address, which was heard quite distinctly over the public address system, arranged by Mr. Willard Elliott. Mayor Sshwartz then delivered a brief address, calling all to join in the service of Thanksgiving and Worship. Rev. C. Randell led reading of responsive scripture, and prayers were offered by Rev'd Stote, McFarlane, Wendt, Patterson, and Stobbart. The main address was made by Rev. A. F. Fokes, veteran minister of Shawville. During the service four well-known and appropriate hymns were sung, including one "O God our Help in Ages Past" which was sung by the School children. The singing was led by Mrs. Edgar Hodgins, piano. Messrs Glen Hodgins, saxophone, and Lindsay Judd, violin.

The service closed with the Benediction by Mr. Kielty, and the large assemblage retired quietly.

Welcome Party for Staff Sgt. Billy Shore

—o—

Staff Sgt. Billy Shore, who recently returned from overseas was tendered a welcome party on Friday night, when a large gathering of the town's young people gathered at Wilson's Hall.

Although this was not considered the official welcome by the town, the friends presented the young soldier with a sum of money.

Day of Dedication

—o—

His Majesty King George VI has set aside in the British Empire, and President Trueman, in the United States of America, Sunday, May 13th as a National Day of Dedication. Our King has called on all people everyfhere to gather in the Churches of their choice and there dedicate themselves to the high task of completing the Victory by the defeat of Japan, and the establishment of a world in which peace, brotherhood, humanity and justice shall be supreme.

The Prime Minister of Canada and his Government have also, by proclamation, urged that Sunday be set aside for this purpose in Canada.

Surely all true British subjects will feel like honoring God, who has given us this glorious Victory, and our King, who has issued this appropriate challenge by gathering at the hours of the regular services on Sunday, May 13th.

We have yet to finish our struggle with an utterly ruthless, treacherous, and brutal foe,—to fight on until Japan lies prostrate at the feet of the democratic nations of the world.

We need Divine Providence to guide us in this task and to grant us wisdom and skill that we may be prepared to bring universal peace for all times to come. Let us make Sunday a day of dedication.

No V-E Day Until Total Nazi Defeat

Gen. Eisenhower was quoted in a shortwave broadcast last week as saying "There will be no V-E day until Germany is completely occupied, including all pockets of resistance, and the German army is completely destroyed."

Canada now ranks second among the gold-producing countries of the world.

Two Will Call At Your Door

Soon there will be a knock at the door of the Canadian home. On the threshold will stand the Victory Loan salesman, confidently expecting an invitation to come in. It will be the eighth time that he has knocked at the door, and his confidence will not be badly founded. For more than three million Canadians have long since learned that he is indeed a friend and brings with him something of real value for the householder.

But let us not forget that there are two callers at the door when the salesman knocks. Behind him, in spirit, is the Canadian boy in uniform who is backing up the salesman in his effort to increase the size of individual Victory Bond purchases—not so much because of his concern for the future material benefits to the purchaser, but because those purchases help to guarantee the continued flow of arms and ammunition to the battle-fronts.

The Canadian who decides to buy a hundred-dollar Bond after listening to the Victory Loan salesman may change his mind if he looks over the shoulder of the salesman into the eyes of that sailor, soldier or airman who counts on folks at home to back up his efforts overseas. Such a look may prompt a two-hundred-dollar purchase.

Truman's Prayer

At the conclusion of his message to Congress, President Truman said:

At this moment, I have in my heart a prayer. As I assume my heavy duties, I humbly pray to Almighty God, in the words of Solomon:

"Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this, thy so great a people?"

I ask only to be a good and faithful servant of my Lord and my people.

IT'S OVER!

—o—

Germany surrendered unconditionally to the Western Allies and Russia at 2.41 a.m. French time, Monday May 7.

The surrender took place at a red school house at Reims, France, which has been the headquarters of Gen. Eisenhower.

The surrender which brought the war in Europe to a formal end after five years, eight months and six days of bloodshed and destruction was signed for Germany by Col.-Gen. Gustav Jodl.

Jodl is the new Chief of Staff of the German Army.

It was signed for the Allied Supreme Command by Lt-Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, Chief of Staff for Gen. Eisenhower.

It was also signed by General Ivan Susloparoff for Russia and by General Francois Sevez for France.

General Eisenhower was not present at the signing, but immediately afterward Jodl and his fellow delegate, General Admiral Hans Georg Friedeburg, were received by the Supreme Commander.

They were asked if they understood the surrender terms imposed upon Germany and if they would be carried out by Germany.

They answered yes.

Germany, which began the war with a ruthless attack upon Poland followed by successive aggressions and brutality in internment camps, surrendered with a appeal to the victors for mercy towards the German people and armed forces.

After signing the full surrender, Jodl said he wanted to speak and was given leave to do so.

"With this signature", he said quietly in German, "the German people and armed forces are for better or worse delivered into the victor's hands. In this war which has lasted more than five years both have achieved and suffered more than perhaps any other people in the world."

Foreign Nations Possess Funds for Reconstruction

The prospect is that the demand for American goods by foreign countries after the war will be exceptionally large, according to the Alexander Hamilton Institute. The western European countries will be in the market for manufacturing equipment while the eastern and more agricultural countries will require farm machinery. The question has arisen, therefore, as to how the various countries will pay for the commodities which they contemplate buying from the United States.

An analysis made by the treasury reveals that foreign countries have substantial assets in the United States, amounting to over $13,000,000,000. This total includes earmarked gold valued at $2,500,000,000, bank deposits amounting to over $4,000,000,000, stocks and bonds estimated at $3,160,000,000 and direct investments of $1,950,000,000.

Of the total, enemy countries own nearly $500,000,000 while enemy-occupied countries own $4,000,000,000. Consequently, European countries own about $4,500,000,000. Funds belonging to other blocked countries amount to about $2,683,000,000. These figures indicate that foreign nations are in a position to buy substantial quantities of commodities in the United States.

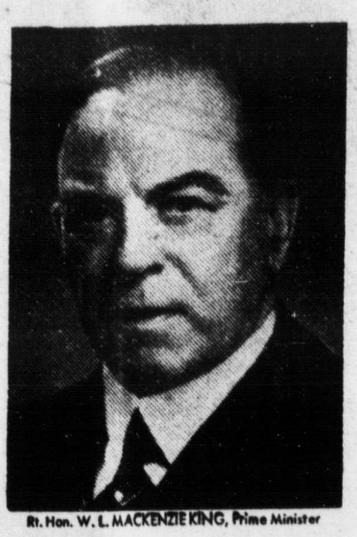
U. S. Comics Take on New Names in S. America

So firmly have our comic strips entrenched themselves in the southern republics that they now appear as regular weekly supplements to most of the large newspapers published in Latin America. Except for occasional changes in the names of characters and Spanish, Portuguese or French texts instead of English, they are identical with comic strips distributed in this country.

In this way, the Brazilian planter sipping his morning coffee and the Argentine gaucho sipping his mate are as familiar with Mandrake el Mago, Henry, Tarzan, El Gato Felix and Pepe Palooka as any North American addict. This universal appeal of the funny papers is creating new ties of affection and understanding between the peoples of North and South America. Alley Oop becomes Trucutu, Donald Duck, El Pato Pasqual and Etta Kett, in San Salvador at least, mysteriously metamorphoses into Queta Pando. And in that Central American republic, the Katzenjammer Kids cut their capers under the title of Maldades de dos Pilluelos, while the incorrigible Jiggs, plain Pancho to his addicts, suffers his interminable bringing-up in a strip called Educando a Papa. The formidable Maggie, known as Ramona, does the honors.

Cuquita la Mecanografa resolves herself into the beauteous Tillie the Toiler, sharing honors in several comic supplements with Tapon Lopez. Tapon Lopez, on closer inspection, reveals himself to be none other than Snuffy Smith, peerless yardbird. Pedro Harapos is unmasked as Hobo Pete, Chiquito Abner as the inimitable hillbilly and Pepita y Lorenzo as Blondie and Dagwood, respectively.

Opportunities for ALL



Rt. Hon. W. L. MACKENZIE KING, Prime Minister

YOUR Liberal Government under Mackenzie King has taken practical steps to see that every Canadian after the war shall have a wide-open chance to make a real success of his life. It can be done by giving everybody the opportunity to get ahead faster and go further.

Isn't that what you want — a chance to make your own way IN your own way?

Here are definite, practical steps which the Liberal Government has taken (not just talked about, but taken) to make this Canada a better place to work in and bring up your children.

You will have to decide whether you want the men who devised these measures to carry them through, or whether you wish to entrust your own and your family's future to others.

1 Reconstruction
Plans for jobs for 900,000 more workers than in 1939; and 60,000 more each year as the population grows. Every kind of enterprise will be encouraged. The Liberal Government has already set up the machinery: the Department of Reconstruction.

2 Foreign Trade
Liberal objective: Sixty percent increase in value over Canada's pre-war export trade. This means thousands of jobs, and is based on the number of jobs created by Canada's normal export trade.

3 Credit for Enterprise
The Liberal Government set up the Industrial Development Bank to provide money at low interest for long terms to help enterprising Canadians to develop new business. Another step towards creating full employment.

4 Exports Encouraged
War-torn countries will want to buy tremendous quantities of Canadian goods. To facilitate this, the Liberal Government has set up the Export Credit Insurance Act to do two things: (1) to insure Canadian exporters against loss, and (2) to make loans to foreign governments under contract to Canadian exporters.

5 Farm Improvement Loans
Your Liberal Government has made low interest loans available to farmers to finance their work and make improvements.

6 Guaranteed Markets
To provide farmers with a better wartime income, the Liberal Government made contracts for definite quantities of important products at agreed prices—notably bacon, eggs, cheese and beef. These contracts have worked out so well the Liberal Government extended many for longer periods.

7 Family Allowances
From July next, Family Allowances are to be paid monthly to assist parents in raising their children—$250,000,000 a year direct spending power in the hands of people who need it most.

8 New Homes for Canadians
The Liberal Government's new $400,000,000 National Housing Act enables hundreds of thousands of Canadians to own their own homes. In the first year after Germany's defeat, at least 50,000 dwellings will be built.

9 Returning Veterans
Gratuities, benefits and grants of $750,000,000 will enable men and women of the Armed Services to apply their energies in building the prosperous Canada for which your Liberal Government has been planning.

10 Floor Prices under Fish and Farm Products
To protect farmers and fishermen and to maintain prices, the Liberal Government has provided floor prices under their products. Prosperous farmers and fishermen make a prosperous Canada.

11 Better Labour Conditions
In co-operation with organized Labour, the Liberal Government has confirmed collective bargaining, provided unemployment insurance, appointed labour representatives on government boards. (More than 600,000 workers, because of the Liberal Government's attitude towards Labour and the labour movement, now get annual vacations with pay.)

12 Reduction in Taxation
The Liberal Government will gradually reduce taxation when the European war is over to free spending power and to give Canadians every opportunity for prosperity, employment and freedom.

What you have done in war—you can do in peace. You can do your part by supporting the Liberal Candidate in your constituency.

FAMILY ALLOWANCES
AND INCOME TAX

THE following announcement will help to clarify the relationship between Family Allowances and Income Tax credits for dependent children. Family Allowances are payable from July 1st, 1945, and the registration of children is now taking place.

The Family Allowances Act was designed to help equalize opportunities for all children, and when the Act was passed, Parliament approved the principle that there should be no duplication of benefits by way of Family Allowances and Income Tax credits for the same child. An amendment to the Income War Tax Act will be made to deal with this duplication. In the meantime, however, the Government proposes, for the last six months of 1945 during which Family Allowances are payable, to remove duplication by adjusting the income tax credits received for children.

It is natural that parents in the low income groups will be expected to receive maximum benefits from Family Allowances. Partial benefits will be received, however, by parents with incomes up to $3,000.

The table below shows the effect of the adjustments which the Government has decided to make. For convenience and simplicity the benefits received by each income group are shown as a per cent of the Family Allowances received. The table shows:

(a) Heads of families receiving incomes in 1945 of $1200 or less will benefit to the extent of the full amount of the Family Allowances received. As they are not required to pay income tax, there is no duplication to remove.

(b) Heads of families receiving incomes in 1945 in excess of $1200, but not in excess of $3,000, will in effect retain the full value of their present income tax credits and in addition a percentage of the actual Family Allowances received.

(c) Heads of families with incomes in excess of $3,000 will retain their full income tax credits for children if they do not receive Family Allowances. These taxpayers may, however, apply for Family Allowances to protect themselves against a possible decrease in income at a later date which might bring them into a lower income range where they would benefit from Family Allowances. In such cases if the income remains in excess of $3,000, the income tax credits for children would be reduced by the full amount of Family Allowances received.

TABLE SHOWING EFFECT OF ADJUSTMENT FOR 1945

AMOUNT OF TAXABLE INCOME		Percent by which taxpayers will benefit from Family Allowances in addition to present income tax credits, for 1945.

NOTE:—This table applies to married persons and others having the status of married persons for income tax purposes. For the relatively small number of single persons supporting children and not having married status for income tax purposes, and for members of the Armed Forces, special tables can be obtained from the Regional Director of Family Allowances in each provincial capital.

Family Allowances will be paid in full

In all cases, those who apply for and are eligible to receive Family Allowances will receive them in full, month by month. See scale below:

SCALE OF MONTHLY ALLOWANCES FOR THE FIRST FOUR CHILDREN

For each child
Under 6	$5.00
From 6 to 9 (inclusive)	6.00
From 10 to 12 (inclusive)	7.00
From 13 to 15 (inclusive)	8.00

Where there are more than four children under 16 in the family, the monthly allowance for each child after the fourth will be reduced in accordance with the provisions of the Family Allowances Act.

As far as is possible, to take care of the adjustments necessary to avoid duplication of benefits, current income tax deductions at the source will be adjusted to take into account the new situation when Family Allowance payments commence. This will avoid placing an awkward burden on the taxpayers at the end of the year.

FAMILY ALLOWANCES ARE NOT TAXABLE

Special attention is drawn to the fact that the income ranges used in the table above refer to taxable income, and any amounts received as Family Allowances should not therefore be included in calculating income for this purpose because Family Allowances are not taxable.

Family Allowances are also additional to dependents' allowances for servicemen's families and military pensions.

For children registered after July 1st, 1945, Family Allowances will be paid as from the month following the month when registration is made. Family Allowances are not paid retroactively.

CHRONICLES of GINGER FARM

By Gwendoline P. Clarke

Here is a little bit of information that may interest farmers who are wondering where help is coming from to take off this year's crop. An employee of a city plant told us that men and boys who previously owned or lived on farms are now being laid off right and left, and of course selective service is sending them back to the farms. Some of them are glad enough of an opportunity to get back to the land—others are not so happy. It remains to be seen how many will really settle down again.

* * *

How often that age-old problem presents itself — how to keep the young folk on the farm ... how to make farm life sufficiently attractive so they will want to stay. Personally, I don't think the answer lies so much in the farm as in the young people themselves. Some of them want to farm — others do not. Proof of that can be found in any average farm family. Naturally home conditions are the same for Bill as for John, yet John develops an unrest which only a job away from home seems to satisfy, while Bill is quite content to till the land. He takes an interest in Dad's pure bred cattle; he asks nothing better than to be given the responsibility of driving and caring for the tractor; and as he ploughs up and down the field his thoughts leap ahead to the time when he will be farming on his own. Conditions on the farm may not be quite as he would like them at present, but he has vision and he looks forward and figures out ways and means of making improvements — shorter hours, more conveniences.

* * *

John, on the other hand, gets a job that pays big money. But it isn't long before he finds that the money isn't so big as he thought it was. There are so many deductions from his pay ... it costs an awful lot of board ... and when a fellow eats out even an odd snack costs a quarter .. not like at home where the cookie jar was always kind of handy. And of course a fellow has to have some fun. He kids himself along by thinking what a dull time Bill is having — the dope — and how little he gets for all his hard work. And then one week-end at home there was Bill telling him about the Victory Bonds he has put away.

"You've got Victory Bonds, Bill?"

"Sure — come in mighty handy after the war. But you have some too, John ... I remember you saying so."

"Yes," said John slowly, "I did have but I cashed them in ... had to .. that smash with my car .. had to have a new engine. It cost me plenty."

* * *

Poor John ... he had to learn the hard way. It may be that after he has savoured city life for a few more years he, too, may realise that there is more than hard work to be found on a farm. There is a freedom that is found nowhere else on earth. And it provides greater opportunity for initiative than many a city job. On the other hand, although the going may be tough, John may eventually find his niche in the business or professional world — he may never return to the farm for more than a visit. But that will not be the fault of the farm or farming conditions — it will just be the natural order of things. Farming is Bill's way of making a living — John's choice is something entirely different. What road every Bill and John will follow can only be determined by giving each one a chance to shift for himself. And in so doing we need have no fear for the future of agriculture.

Love of the land is too deep-rooted in the soul of man or it ever to die out to any great extent. As long as the human race survives there will be farmers — successful farmers, who till the land from choice — not by compulsion. I have no figures to prove my theory but it is my opinion that among the unsuccessful farmers of this, or any country, we shall find men, who in their youth were victims of overbearing parential authority and made to stay on the farm against their will, ploughing the land while they were eating their heart out to be a mechanic .. coiling hay while longing to join the navy .. milking cows and wishing for wings to fly.

* * *

Youth is a time of unrest ... and after a war, when men have seen so much that they wish to forget, is also a time of unrest. That is something we should all do well to remember. Rehabilitation is something in which we all can help — by buying Victory Bonds and by a sympathetic understanding of all returned men.

She should always mail a letter of introduction, whether it is addressed to a man or to a woman. 3. The girl should go first. 4. No; she should wait for the man to pick it up. 5. Wait until all four of the players ahead of you are too far away for your drive to interfere. 6. No.

IT SHOULD KNOCK

People often fail to recognize opportunity because it looks so much like hard work.

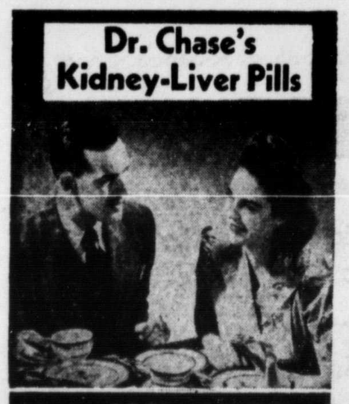
Soapless Soap

A "soap" which is no soap at all will be used in kitchens and bathrooms after the war. Technically it is a detergent or wetting agent. It looks like soap and cleanses like soap, but it has new merits. It works as well in hard or salt water as in soft, and no ring is left around the bathtub because the salts found in hard water, generally lime, do not react with the "soap" to form an insoluble curd. A molecule is built up of an oily part (coconut oil) which will dissolve grease and a salty part that dissolves in water. The oily end of these detergent molecules does not react with the salts found in hard water to make a curd.



HEARTWARMING ... that describes Maxwell House Coffee. It's a superb blend of choice Latin-American coffees—each selected for its own particular quality of fine flavor, fragrance or body.

TANK BECOMES A 'FORT'

From the house in the background of photo above, German snipers were popping off men of the First Army's famed 1st Infantry Division as they fought through St. Andreasburg, Germany. So up rolls a tank, swings broadside across the narrow street, and makes a nice little "fort" behind which our soldiers take cover, while the tank's cannon blasts away at the sniper-infested houses.

"He was knee high to a grasshopper..."

"It does my heart good to deliver letters like this. It's from that youngster who lived at one hundred and ten. He's in the thick of it, his mother says.

"Funny—but I can't help thinking of him as I knew him first... a chubby little chap in short pants. But he'll have learned plenty about being a man by now—though I'll bet he's as chipper as ever and spunky as they make 'em. Everything we love and hope for is in his hands ... his and his pals'!

"I never thought they'd have to fight so long. When I can't sleep at night I think about the awful cost... the terrible things they go through and the debt to them we can never repay.

"That's why I've never failed to buy Victory Bonds—don't see how anyone can. They must fight... we must provide the means of fighting. It's that simple!

"This time I'll buy an extra bond... especially for that youngster from one hundred and ten. And if enough others like me will only think straight, this 8th Victory Loan will go over bigger than ever!"

Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days,

Where no farewell tear is shed.
