

TRAMWAYS CO.'S PROPOSALS FOR IMPROVING SERVICE ARE BEING MUCH DEBATED

Opposition to Opening Sherbrooke Street Results in Board of Trade Council Recommending a New East and West Route—Correspondent Highly Indignant at Prospective Loss of Cross-seats—Simple Remedy for Relieving Tramway Congestion on St. James Street by Abolishing All Stops at Junction With McGill.

Interest in the tramways question is renewed to-day by the fact that the Tramways Company's proposals for the opening of new streets were the subject of a discussion by the Board of Trade Council yesterday afternoon. The Council expressed its opposition to one of the company's proposals, namely, to run cars on Sherbrooke street, but put a new phase on the question by suggesting as an alternative the opening up of Burnside Street right through, so as to give the additional east and west route, which the Tramways Company declares is so necessary.

ABOLISHING THE LEVEL CROSSINGS.

Another interesting phase is in regard to the suggestion of Mr. Robert Fox, instead of level crossings, to build trunk tracks, a series of subways for the main arteries should be built, and the other streets closed, a plan which could be carried out in a single season at perhaps one-tenth of the cost of elevating the tracks, and give far better street and tramway connections. The announcement which the president of the Grand Trunk made to the 'Witness' yesterday, that he would have his engineering department report on the proposal, gives promise that the long-talked-of schemes for abolishing Grand Trunk level-crossings will become a live issue again in the near future.

Meanwhile many diverse opinions in regard to improving the tramways service are being sent in by correspondents.

Mr. Samuel J. Mathewson, of the well-known wholesale firm of Mathewson & Sons, writes to the 'Witness': "The clear, businesslike statement from the Tramways Company, published in the 'Witness' last night, ought to remove all possible friction between the city and the tramway company, and form the basis of negotiations which should result in the needed relief."

WANT THE CROSS SEATS RETAINED.

A protestant, who encloses his name and address, but signs himself 'Habitant,' writes: "A great effort is being made to boost up the tramway service, which is a good thing, but the so-called experts regarding tramway service, unless better suggestions can be made than Mr. Fox has made, I would suggest that the natives of Montreal be given a chance. His suggestions re double track on St. James and St. James street, from McGill to the Main street, shows ignorance of the street traffic otherwise than tramway service. The same is true of the proposal to tear out all these seats and bulkheads at night. Why not tear out all seats, as no one has any comfort riding on the old style side-seat car, with people swinging on the straps and tramping on one's feet, also on stepping down to look out of the window to see where they are and breathing in the seated passengers' faces while doing it. Tear out the bulkhead, and when the weather is below zero the rear passengers will appreciate this Solomon's advice. Now, Mr. Editor, the Tramways Company has had me visit London and Paris, where traffic is handled. If the papers would stop their senseless knocking at closed street rail, it is in more of the spare cars during rush hours, but the press and others make it a point of blaming the companies for using those cars temporarily."

TO RELIEVE CONGESTION ON ST. JAMES STREET.

W. H. writes: "Sir—In relation to the street car problem, concerning which the city seems to be at last progressing, in virtue of the engagement of experts and the bringing together of tramway and civic heads, towards constructive criticism, it may not be inopportune to recall a suggestion made at the City Hall some time ago, with the object of relieving some congestion of the cars during the rush hours."

St. James street, between the post office and McGill streets, was pointed to as the most marked example of this congestion, owing to the fact that as no fewer than five different routes of tramway cars converge, each must wait on the other opposite the Eastern Townships Bank, where they diverge.

A remedy was suggested by the adoption of a new traffic rule, under which:

Windsor and Wellington cars should proceed beyond Victoria square before crossing St. James street.

Beaver Hill cars should likewise proceed a little further west, then turn right on to St. James street, and stop right at the corner.

Notre Dame cars should turn into McGill, then west into Notre Dame street, and cross St. James street.

Centre street cars should turn into McGill and stop immediately beyond the Notre Dame street crossing.

It is suggested that the cooperation of switchmen, this rule was quite practicable.

PROTESTS FROM RESIDENTS.

The report of the secretary-treasurer referred to protests from residents near the site of the new High School. University and Shuter streets, that they were being caused loss and inconvenience by blasting going on. Mr. Blomere explained that the blasting made blasting necessary, and that in one case—that of Mr. Fineberg, of Shuter street—pieces of rock had damaged skylights and windows, while the shocks had necessitated the removal of the house. In regard to the expropriation of certain property on Cole des Neiges street, the Board's property and that of the Board were proposed, and the Board concurred in the proposal, that a price per foot for the land equal to the average price paid to owners of adjoining lots be required, plus $250 for the school building.

NEW HARBOR COMMISSIONERS' SUMMER PLANS

Another Entrance From Harbor Basin to Canal May Be Started.

WILL RUSH ADDITION TO NO. 1 ELEVATOR.

Victoria Pier to be Transformed to Meet Requirements of Freighters.

The harbor commissioners may begin the enormous work of providing a new entrance into the Lachine Canal from the harbor basin this summer. The plans have been discussed by the commissioners on a number of occasions since they assumed office at the first of the year, and while nothing definite has been settled, yet it would be no surprise if the task of cutting a more modern entrance into the Lachine was begun this coming summer.

The plans that the old board had decided upon provided for a new pier running from the foot of McGill Street across the canal near the lower gates, and blocking the present entrance. A new entrance was to be cut into the canal basin No. 2, just above Black Bridge from the Windmill Point basin. A twin twenty-four foot lock was to provide better and more rapid transit through the lower part of the canal. This part of the job must be performed before anything can be done towards the construction of the new pier, the building of which will block the present entrance into the canal.

The work is divided between the Harbor Commission and the Department of Railways and Canals. It may begin this summer, although no definite decision has been reached yet.

For the general development of the port, the commissioners will rush the work of erecting the addition to the old elevator—No. 1—as fast as possible, while the task of transforming the pier to meet the requirements of the ocean freighters and the river vessels will continue. It is not likely that any attempt will be made to build a big shed on the wharf there, however, as the pier is in fact the only pier in the basin of the harbor basin, and the shed would be a great hindrance to the work of the present board.

The commissioners have a busy summer outlined already with the Victoria Pier and elevator works, and the general repair and development of the big port.

Suffragette Pleads an Alibi

Destructive Instruments Found Under Studio of Woman Charged With Attempted Arson.

London, March 13.—An extensive storehouse of destructive instruments used by the militant suffragettes in their attacks on private and public property was unearthed by detectives from police headquarters at Scotland Yard in the Kensington district to-day.

Armed with a warrant for the arrest of Olive Hocken, who is wanted on a charge of being concerned in an attempt to burn the members' pavilion on the Roehampton Golf Links a few weeks ago, the detectives searched an artist's studio in Campden Hill Gardens and found under the flooring three sets of telegraph wire-cutting apparatus. In other parts of the building bottles of corrosive fluid, such as has been used in letter box outrages, hammers, flints and other tools for breaking windows were discovered, as well as a number of false identification plates for automobiles.

Olive Hocken appeared this afternoon at the police court and the magistrate remanded her for a week in custody.

When she was arrested Miss Hocken said her mother would be able to prove she was not at Roehampton on the night of the outrage, but for the present she remained in custody. Emmeline Pankhurst has been released from her indisposition and has left for Scotland to continue her campaign.

EXPECT MANY TRAMP STEAMERS

Great Supply of Wheat Ready For Shipment Will Attract Them.

Port officials are delighted with the prospect of having a larger number of tramp steamers coming to the harbor next season. The great supply of wheat that is ready for shipment as soon as the ice goes out of the river, one port officer said this morning, would result in many more steamers coming here for loads, especially in the early part of the season. The long trip of one thousand miles each way from the sea with pilchote fees and high insurance, has kept many a steamer away from Montreal when cargoes were not so quickly secured. Last year there was an increase in the number of such arrivals here, but the coming summer looks better than ever.

ABOLISH HOUSE OF LORDS IS AIM OF MR. ASQUITH

Promises That Upper Chamber Shall be Replaced by Another Body Next Year

HEREDITARY PRINCIPLE TO BE STAMPED OUT.

New Chamber to be Simply a Revising Chamber of 150 Members.

(By Marconi Transatlantic Wireless from our own Correspondent.)

London, March 13.—These members of the Opposition who have been writing the Liberal Government as not daring to undertake the reform of the House of Lords, received a shock last night, when Mr. Asquith threw a bomb into their camp by declaring that the Government would abolish the House of Lords next year, and replace it by a new body, which would contain no vestige of the hereditary principle.

The plan of the Government will probably be to elect a second Chamber of some 150 members, which would act as a revising chamber in the true sense of the word. Mr. Asquith's declaration has given great satisfaction to all sections of the Progressive party.

BRITAIN AND THE CHURCHILL MEMORANDUM.

The discussion in the Canadian Parliament in respect to the Dominion's policy on the many question is being followed here with the greatest interest. The general opinion of the latest phase in regard to the Churchill memorandum is that the Opposition has misconstrued its meaning, and has read into it something that it was never intended to mean.

The 'Daily News' (London) says: "Mr. Churchill had no intention of interfering. The views given in the memorandum were simply an expression of opinion made in the course of negotiations with Mr. Borden."

The matter is one for the decision of Canada, and Canada alone.

WESTMINSTER.

MR. ASQUITH GLAD TO SHATTER HOUSE.

London, March 13.—An important statement was made by the Right Hon. H. L. Asquith, Prime Minister, in the House of Commons last night regarding the Government's plan for the reform of the House of Lords. Mr. Asquith said in the evening, speaking on the subject, said he would take the earliest available opportunity of proposing a plan which would make the House of Lords a revising chamber, and would stamp out the hereditary principle. Under no circumstances would the House of Lords be restored. The House of Lords would be abolished during the lifetime of the present Parliament. This is as far as Mr. Samuel L. Borden, Postmaster-General, in the House of Commons last night, is likely to be an elected second chamber of about 150 Senators, or Lords of Parliament.

The question of the reform of the House of Lords arose in the course of the debate of the Opposition amendment to the Address, moved by the Right Hon. Walter Long. It is concerned with the operations of the Parliament Act, and submitted that it would be improper to proceed further with measures of so great importance as the Government of Ireland Bill and the Welsh Disestablishment Bill, while the House of Lords is still incomplete and without reference to the electors.

Mr. Long said the Government had chattered the constitution by the failure of the Government to fulfil their debt of honor and reform the Lords. The country has been left under single-chamber government, for the House of Lords is at present paralyzed and as ineffective as a goose.

Mr. Asquith, replying, asked: "Who shall carry it out?" "Our old constitutional argument was shattered," he answered, "when some three or four years ago the House of Lords rejected the Budget. Everything that has since happened in the re-arrangement of our constitutional system is the direct, legitimate and inevitable consequence of that arbitrary and revolutionary proceeding."

After declaring the Parliament Act as an 'imperfect and incomplete act,' Mr. Asquith added, "I shall welcome with unaffected sincerity the day, and I hope it will very soon arrive, when I shall have the honor of proposing a new House of Lords, which shall be a second chamber into a truly impartial and judicially-minded revising authority."

RETIRES FROM SPORT TO TAKE UP REAL ESTATE

IS ALDERMAN NOW IN THE CITY OF VERDUN.

Led Victorias to Championship and Made Success of Canadiens.

An event of considerable interest in sporting circles in Montreal is the retirement of 'Billy' Noseworthy, the well-known coach of the Canadian Hockey and Lacrosse Club, who is about to quit sport to go into the real estate business, starting as agent for the J. A. Davis Company's Wedgwood Park property in Verdun. He was recently elected an alderman in Verdun for Ward IV, and municipal duties seem to have given him a still more serious turn.

For a number of years he has been trainer for the 'Club Canadian' and he is one of the very few English-speaking trainers who have found high favor in the French-Canadian sports circles.

In his sporting career he has had his full share of success. Beginning twelve years ago as trainer for the Victorias, he led them to the championship of the existing hockey league. The Victorias were the premier amateur hockey club of that time. Later he went over to the Nationals, and his first year with them resulted in their winning the championship of the N. L. U. Final he transferred his allegiance to the Canadiens, and his work there has been much appreciated.

Mr. Noseworthy has had a true idea of sport, and his many friends, while regretting to see him leaving the game, will wish him success in his new business, which he will carry on in Verdun. His brother, Fred Noseworthy, is the champion cross-country snowshoe winner of Canada.

OXFORD WINS BOAT RACE BY QUARTER LENGTH

Cambridge Held Lead Right to the Final Spurt For Winning Post.

Putney, March 13.—Oxford won the boat race against Cambridge this afternoon.

The race over the 4-1-4 mile course took place late in the afternoon, owing to the lateness of the tide.

Cambridge, who won the race for the first time, immediately took the lead and maintained it, pulling a stroke of 36 to the minute. By the time Craven Steps had been reached Cambridge was half a length ahead.

At the mile the Cambridge crew was still leading, and at Hammer-smith Bridge, about half distance, was a half length in front, but Oxford then began to gain slowly.

By the time the two crews had reached Barnes Bridge, a little over a quarter of a mile from the finish, Cambridge was still leading, but the superior power of the Oxford crew carried them to the front and they won by a quarter of a length.

Oxford has now won thirty-nine races and Cambridge thirty, while one was a dead heat. Oxford's time was 20 minutes 53 seconds.

ANNIVERSARY OF CONNAUGHT WEDDING.

London, March 13.—Thirty-four years ago to-day the Duke of Connaught married the third daughter of Prince Frederick Charles of Prussia. The ceremony took place at Windsor, and the Archbishop of Canterbury, four bishops and nine lesser clergy assisting. The late King and Queen were present, and the King and Queen of the Belgians.

PEACE COMMEMORATION.

England to Establish University Chairs of Anglo-American History.

London, March 13.—The English scheme for the commemoration of a hundred years' peace between Great Britain and the United States, provides for a permanent fund of $1,000,000 for a purpose of a million dollars. It is proposed to acquire Sulgrave Manor, the Northamptonshire seat of the Washington family, make it the centre for American visitors, and also establish university chairs of Anglo-American history in London with Mr. James Bryce as the first professor.

CUSTOMS WILL SELL GOODS UNCLAIMED

Two Thousand Packages Will Come Under the Auctioneer's Hammer.

AUTOMOBILES, GUNS, STRAW HATS OR MACARONI

Some Addressed to Firms That Had Collapsed Before They Came.

Over two thousand packages of unclaimed goods, gathered from the four corners of the earth, and embracing almost everything from four barrels of marbles to one dead engine, the property of one of the big Canadian railways, will be sold at the annual clearing out of the unclaimed goods held in the Customs Examining Warehouse on Monday next. It is a strange assortment of odds and ends, things big and little, valuable and of little worth that will pass under the auctioneer's hammer on that day. Some of it has been in bond over two years, some of it is goods seized in transit, while a big lot is unclaimed freight and express left in the Customs previous to last September.

There are cases of tomatoes, cocoa butter, currants, macaroni, cocoa, almonds, cherries, a bag of beans and another of sugar, four boxes of cheese that have been in bond for over two years, and which should have acquired 'age' in that time, salted herring, like-wise two years in bond, with an enormous supply of wines and liquors of all kinds and conditions for those who desire such things to complete the dinner.

There are tobaccos and cigarettes in large quantities, marbles, bundles of wall paper consigned to the big departmental houses of the city, some raw sealings, fish foods, straw hats, and mammoth examples of the milliner's art: bicycles, automobiles, electric goods, balet of rosary beads, while guns, settlers' effects and hunters' outfits are mixed in with the strange assortment.

Hundreds of the packages are addressed to well-known residents of the city or big commercial firms well known here. Scores of St. Catherine streets merchants are in the list of those who have goods to be sold in the customs sale. Odd bundles of goods that go astray from the rest of the hundreds of articles that are left offentimes in the customs. Spring hats that were delayed in transit until the summer is well gone figure in the list, too. There are goods there that were not like the samples from which the orders were taken, so the owners say, and so they have returned. There are also some firms collapsed before the articles that had been ordered arrived. There were lost packages, disputes about charges, quantities of shippers' goods, and a score of other things that entered into the decision to let the goods pass under the hammer of the auctioneer.

MR. CHAS. H. BLACKADAR DEAD.

The death of Mr. Charles H. Blackadar, formerly of the firm of Stivenston, Blackadar and Co., occurred last evening at his home, 506 Sherbrooke Street West. Deceased had been in failing health for some years. Mr. Blackadar arrived in the city, after afterwards went to Brantford, Ont., where he joined the firm of Gault Bros. Later he formed the company of Blackadar, Blackadar and Co., and carried on business for about ten years, retiring from active affairs five years ago. Mr. Blackadar married Miss Florence Gault, daughter of the late Mr. M. H. Gault, M.P. of Montreal. He is survived by three daughters and one son, also by two brothers, Dr. A. D. Blackadar, of Mountain street, and Mr. W. B. Blackadar, also of Montreal.

BIDS FOR SEWERS.

Palermo and Frascarelli were found the lowest bidders for constructing sewers in five instances, when tenders were opened for about a dozen by the Board of Control yesterday. Mr. Palermo's prices were: Vitre Street, $2,253; Arcade street, $2,159; Robin St., $778; Hingston Street, $2,258; and Notre Dame de Grace Avenue, $1,105. The City of Montreal had in bids lower than other contractors in two cases only: Notre Dame street, Duquesne to Beaugrand, $43,363; Basin street, $758. Ricci and Company tendered lowest for Hector street, at $15,816, or $5,000 lower than the city. Gilbert and Payne were the lowest bidder for the eighth section of Sherbrooke street at $52,193. These bids were sent to the city engineers for a report.

Challenge Rejection Provokes Protest

Allegation is Made That Refuse Sir Thomas Lipton's Conditions for America Cup Race Was Railroaded Through Meeting.

London, March 13.—Sir Thomas Lipton, the British challenger for the America Cup expressed the greatest surprise this morning when informed of the decision of the New York Yacht Club declining his challenge because it did not comply with the conditions of the deed of gift governing contests for the cup.

Neither Sir Thomas nor the Royal Ulster Yacht Club had at the time been officially notified of the rejection of the challenge, and Sir Thomas said he had not had time to consider whether he would amend the conditions of his challenge so as to meet the objection of the New York yachtmen. He expects, however, to confer with his designer Mr. Charles E. Nicholson, of Gosport, England, on the subject immediately.

Sir Thomas, of course, fully recognizes the right of the New York Yacht Club to decline his challenge because of the stipulation that the defending yacht must be of the same size as the challenger. Nevertheless, he is greatly disappointed, as he fully expected that the challenge would be accepted.

It is understood that Mr. Charles C. Allom, the owner of the yacht 'Istria,' is a prospective challenger for the America cup. Mr. Charles E. Nicholson, of Gosport, built 'Istria' for him and during the past year he made some attempt to organize a syndicate to build a challenger, but it was understood that the matter had fallen through.

Mr. Allom, it is believed, is at present in the United States.

LOYALTY CHALLENGE WAS REJECTED.

New York, March 13.—Intimidation that a challenge from some other English yachtman than Sir Thomas Lipton for the America Cup is anticipated by members of the New York Yacht Club caused considerable speculation in yachting circles to-day, but there was no prospect of a challenge being made by the rumors of another challenge were the result of the decision which the New York Yacht Club reached late last night to decline the Lipton challenge, which was made in his behalf by the Royal Ulster Yacht Club.

It came as a surprise to many members of the club when they read the challenge for the first time last night to find that Sir Thomas not only proposed a challenging vessel not to exceed seventy-five feet to the waterline, but that he would require the defender to be of the same dimensions. In the gossip concerning the terms of the challenge, it had been intimated that Sir Thomas made no conditions as to the defender except that, if in excess of the seventy-five foot length, the usual time allowances should be figured.

The deed of gift of the America Cup allows competing vessels of any length from sixty-five feet to ninety feet and the maximum length has always been valued. To be forced to reduce this to a seventy-five foot limit under the terms of the challenge was held by the New York Club to be contrary to the spirit of the deed of gift. The vote in rejection of Sir Thomas Lipton's terms was given unanimously, but this means unanimity only forty out of the three hundred members of the club who attended last night's meeting. The forty members, however, were all that were privileged to vote as the balloting was confined to the actual boat-owning membership present.

Among other members was a protest against the alleged arbitrary action of the club. Mr. Evans, R. Dick, Jr., a member of the club, who expressed such protest, declared that the motion to reject the challenge was 'railroaded' through the meeting.

SLIPPERY ROAD IS BLAMED FOR GIRL'S DEATH

SHOULD CARRY WEDGES IN WRECKING OUTFIT.

Jury Found Verdict of Excusable Homicide at Inquest on Mabel Jordan.

A verdict of excusable homicide was rendered in the inquest held at the morgue this morning to enquire into the death of little seven-year-old Mabel Jordan, who died in the West-end hospital early last evening, as the result of being knocked down and crushed beneath the wheels of a street car at the corner of Victoria and Somerville avenues, Westmont, about 9 a.m. yesterday. It was shown that the child was trying to cross in front of the car, seemed to realize her danger, and tried to step back off the car track, but slipped on the icy roadway and fell under the car, her left leg being caught beneath the front wheel of the forward truck.

Mr. John McCormack, of 290 Madison ave., manager of J. A. Davis & Company, Ltd., who saw the accident, stated that in his opinion had the roadway not been slippery, the child would have been able to throw herself back out of the way of the car. He also suggested that the Tramways Company include in their wrecking outfit a pair of wedges to be under the wheels when the car is being jacked up, to prevent it falling back on the victim in the event of the jacks slipping, which he stated occurred several times during yesterday's accident.

Munro Albinovitch, 8 years of age, of 483 Sherbrooke street, who gave evidence to the effect that he was walking to school, with his eight-year-old friend, Harold Fischel, of 420 Pimlico street, who was with him when he had stopped for a moment at the corner of Victoria and Somerville avenues to look in a store window. They saw the child about to cross the street, and shouted to her not to cross, for they had seen the approaching car, and thought that it was going too fast for her to cross. She did not seem to hear the shout, however, and continued on her way across the street, and was struck by the car. Alfred Daegle, motorman of the car, testified that he had just passed a car going in the opposite direction, ringing his bell in so doing, when he saw the child coming out as it were from behind the car, and sounded his bell for the crossing of Somerville avenue, and that his car, which was going about five or six miles an hour, was almost on top of the child when he saw her and applied the brakes, and stopped the car within twelve or fifteen feet. The child was struck by the front vestibule of the car and slipped under the wheels. She was got out after about fifteen minutes and hurried to the Western Hospital, where she died about six o'clock last evening.

ORIENT WILL HAVE ITS OWN CHRISTIANITY

Dr. Boyd-Carpenter Says India and China Will Not Adopt Our Form.

PROBLEMS OF THE CHURCH IN CANADA.

Co-operation Does Not Mean Depriving Denominations of Their Services.

The future of Christianity in Canada is very bright, but even at this early stage in development of very Western countries big problems are making their appearance and calling for solution.

The Right Rev. Sir William Boyd-Carpenter, distinguished cleric, scholar and orator, who has held for many years an important place in the councils of the Anglican Church, returned to Montreal yesterday after a tour of the Dominion, and certain of the States south of the border, his journey having kept him moving from place to place since October last.

Among the problems, said Sir William to "Witness" reporter yesterday, is one of co-operation among the churches. It is very important, and it is a matter of general knowledge that it is an attractive and interesting great attention at present. Overlapping in religious effort should be avoided in Canada as far as possible.

"Of course, it is not necessary nor would it ever be the intention to deprive the various denominations of their services.

"This desire for co-operation is evident in place to place from British Columbia to Ontario," continued Sir William.

Asked to speak of the future of Christian work over the face of the globe, Sir Edward said: "It is a difficult matter to predict in which direction we will travel. But with the growing necessity to push Christianity forward the non-essentials, I think, will drop away, and leave the real essentials. The activities of our missionaries in foreign fields have had an effect upon the churches. We learned years ago that while the Hindu and the Chinese will take up Christianity, it will not be quite identical with our own—will be Indian or Chinese Christianity. Gradually, necessities and what are not. Then, of course, we get back to the old position—more insistence on the spirit, and less of the letter."

The distinguished visitor lectured later in the afternoon on the subject of "Dante's Inconviction Hall of the Royal Victoria College." In spite of the fact that he is in his 72nd year, he has thoroughly enjoyed his visit to this continent and expressed himself as feeling refreshed with his new experiences.

LEADER OF GANG OF YEGGMEN

'Australian Mack' Accused of Looting Bank of Montreal in Vancouver.

John McNamara, alias 'Australian Mack,' under indictment in New Westminster, B.C., as the leader of a gang of safe robbers, who looted the Bank of Montreal in that city, on Sept. 14, 1911, after gassing the watchman, and escaping with $375,000 in notes and gold, was at detective headquarters in this city, last night for Vancouver.

McNamara was given in charge of the Canadian detectives at the border, and at once placed in the cell room at detective headquarters, acting Chief Charpentier placing the office at the disposal of the men who are responsible for his delivery at New Westminster. McNamara was arrested in the United States over a grand extradition proceeding hanging fire so long that for 14 months he has been in the Tombs at New York awaiting developments.

In the meantime five others, alleged to be of the gang of cracksmen, who did the job at New Westminster, have been rounded up, and must stand trial at the same time. Last night $20,000 of the $375,000 stolen from the Bank of Montreal has been recovered, this sum being discovered in a vacant field near the bank.

$7,000,000 REAL ESTATE DEAL NOW UNDER WAY

Big Offer For Grey Sisters' Property on St. Catherine Street.

A seven million dollar deal in Grey Nuns' real estate in this city is under way here now. The Grey Nuns' property, fronting on Dorchester street and bounded by Dorchester, Guy, St. Catherine and St. Matthew streets, is once more in the limelight with a big made for it of either $15 or $18 per square foot. As there are 440,000 square feet of land in the great block, the money involved is somewhere between $6,600,000 and $7,920,000. If the deal goes through, the initial payment will be one million dollars, with a second one of the same amount to be made within a year after the block is transferred to the new owners. A local syndicate is at work on the deal and, according to what a "Witness" reporter was told this morning, it looks like a sale at an early date.

PREDICTS HALT TO TUBERCULOSIS ON PRINCIPLE OF VACCINATION

Dr. Friedmann Tells Ottawa Gathering of Research That Led to His Finding a Bacillus Which Originated From the Turtle, and That is His 'Cure.'

Ottawa, March 12.—Made notable by the presence of Dr. Friedmann, the celebrated German, who claims to have discovered a serum for the cure for tuberculosis, the annual meeting of the Canadian Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis opened here to-day.

The Hon. Adam Beck presided, and among the other notable guests were H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught, the Hon. Martin Burrell, and many of the leading physicians of the Dominion.

Dr. Friedmann addressed the convention, and this afternoon conducted a clinical demonstration at the Water Street Hospital.

In his address Dr. Friedmann outlined his three years of research work to find a tubercule that was not toxic and virulent, a substance that would be absolutely harmless even in large doses. There had to be found, he said, a live bacillus of natural avirulence, and it had to remain avirulent and atoxic in the tubercular as well as the non-tubercular individual. He finally discarded human tubercule bacilli which had been rendered avirulent by artificial means, because the results were too dangerous. The desired end was attained when he succeeded in finding a bacillus which originated from a cold blooded animal—the turtle, which bacillus became avirulent and

No Opera Next Season Montreal Opera Co. Decides

Not Enough Public Support and Unsuitable Theatre Are the Reasons Given.

For a time at least there will be no more recognized opera season in Montreal. The directors of the Montreal Opera Company met on Tuesday and decided that, under the circumstances, opera in Montreal should be abandoned for next season.

Col. F. S. Meighen, to whose personal efforts and financial backing the three opera seasons which Montreal has had were largely due, was asked to-day the reasons for the decision of the directors. He gave out the following statement:

"The directors of the Montreal Opera Company have decided not to give a season of grand opera next winter, but, as the company is an incorporated body, the organization will be kept in existence, with the expectation of going on again in the future.

"The reasons for discontinuing are insufficient support from the public, and the unsuitability of the theatre for opera purposes.

"At the 72 performances in Montreal, there were only 24 full houses, and, granted that some of the operas given failed to please, the proportion of full houses is nevertheless too small. The lack of a sufficiently large and well-equipped stage for grand opera also made the productions of the past season very difficult and expensive.

"An regards the prospects for grand opera, there are rumors that a sort of travelling outfit of the Boston Company may visit Montreal for a short season, but as yet there is nothing definite known, and in any case it would have no connection whatever with the Montreal Opera Company, and could not sing under the name of the Montreal Opera."

Further inquiries elicited the information that the whole of the professional organization of the company has been disbanded, and Mr. Clerk-Jeanette, the manager, is no longer connected with the company.

NAVIGATION MAY OPEN EARLY IN NEXT MONTH

Government Icebreaker Now Ploughing Way Through Ice Jam at Cap Rouge.

Quebec, March 12.—The Government ice-breaker 'Montcalm' started yesterday to break up the ice jam at Cap Rouge, and up to the noon hour to-day had ploughed her way as far as Lotbiniere. The ice jam west of Cap Rouge is from seven to eight feet thick, and blue ice is two feet thick. After the ice-breaker forces her way through the jam she anticipates little difficulty in ploughing up the river channel to Three Rivers, where she is expected to arrive on the 25th inst.

The Department of Marine expects the channel to be open to navigation all the way to Montreal by the first week in April.

LITTLE GIRL FELL ON CAR LINE

Knocked Down, Had Her Leg Severed, and May Die.

Crossing Victoria avenue, Westmount, near the corner of Somerville avenue, on her way to school yesterday morning, about nine o'clock, Mabel Jordan, seven years of age, of 24 Winchester avenue, Westmount, slipped, and was knocked down by a street car, her left leg being completely severed at the hip. She was rushed to the Western Hospital, where she lies in a very critical condition, though she has regained consciousness.

The accident was witnessed by a large number of Westmount people on their way to business, and gave them a painful shock.

Chinese Wife as a Witness

Gave Evidence to Clear Her Husband in Attempted Murder Trial.

"Mrs. Charles King" called the Crier in the Court of King's Bench yesterday morning, and much to the surprise of the spectators, a demure little Chinese lady tripped down the aisle, and took her place in the witness box. She explained that she had been summoned to appear on behalf of the defence, and that Charley King, erstwhile Chinese interpreter for her husband.

"This is the first time that a Chinese lady has appeared in the local courts, and she did so with a surprising fluency of English, was able to make herself understood, and appeared to be quite at ease in the box. Her evidence was distinctly in favor of the defence. She stated that on the night of the attempted murder of Moon On in the house at 50 LaGauchetiere street west, her husband, who was alleged to be implicated in some way, had remained at home with her. She was accompanied to court by three witnesses, and she testified that she had seen her husband on the night of the murder, and that he had remained at home with her. She also testified that she had seen her husband on the night of the murder, and that he had remained at home with her.

$21,000 FOR A WESTMOUNT PROPERTY

The big solid pressed brick and stone residence, No. 52 Trafalgar Ave., Westmount, with the vacant lot adjacent, was sold at auction on Tuesday by Messrs. Lighthall and Lightfoot, for $21,000. The property is situated on the upper level, the residence being built by the late Mr. A. W. Hirsch, contractor, for his own use. The lot upon which the dwelling is erected has a frontage of 50 feet, and a depth of 130 feet, while the vacant one adjoining has the same frontage, but a depth of 145 feet. The bidding for the block was very keen.

WESTMOUNT A. A. A. GROUNDS SOLD.

The grounds of the Westmount Amateur Athletic Association, situated in Notre Dame de Gracia, were sold Tuesday when the committee which had in charge their disposal offered the tenders which it had received. The secretary of the association, Mr. N. Clare Wright, said this morning that a tender had been accepted but whose it was and for what amount he could not say just yet. It is known that a little while ago an offer of $48,000 was received for the land and it is hinted that the sale figure is in the neighborhood of $50,000. The property cost the association about $20,000. It has an area of about 139,500 square feet.

BAR SILVER LOWER. Bar silver was quoted in New York this morning at 57 7/8 cents per ounce, drop of a half cent from Tuesday.

LIMIT HEIGHT OF BUILDINGS TO WIDTH OF STREET

Tall Building Question is Again Brought Before the Administration of the City.

The tall buildings problem will again come before the Board of Control and the City Council. A suggestion was made by Mr. H. Walker Dorken, of Dorken Brothers & Company, to limit the height of the building to the width of the street in a letter to Mayor Lavallee. This letter is as follows:

"We see a number of remarks passed in the papers about traffic, and wish to draw your attention to what we consider the chief difficulty in the city—it is the narrowness of the streets and the height of the buildings.

"If a by-law could be passed prohibiting the further erecting of any building higher of the width of the street, we believe that all difficulties in regard to traffic, danger of fire, proper day-light, fresh air and excessive values of certain districts would be settled. In other words we propose that no house, on any street, should be higher than the distance from the foundation to the foundation of the building opposite.

"We are on one of the widest streets in the city, still the height of the building opposite us have darkened our place so much that we cannot work any more without artificial light. We should really be compensated by parties for erecting such high structures. Montreal's tallest buildings are about one-third the height of New York's tallest skyscrapers. A big objection to tall buildings in this city is the lack of a high pressure water system.

"The Chief Preliminary said that on this account the city could not cope with a fire in a building much over the present limits of twelve stories. Mr. Albert Chausse, city building inspector, said about the same.

In Toronto the new C. P. R. building is sixteen stories high, and another building twenty stories in height is being erected.

FOUND THEIR EMPLOYER HUNG

Drivers Had Painful Shock on Entering Arthur Allard's Stable.

Entering the barn, in rear of 170 Montgomery street, shortly before 8 p.m. Tuesday night, Arthur Desjardins and Joseph Lacombe, found their employer, Arthur Allard, master carter, 38 years of age, hanging from a rafter, by a bridle rein, one end of which was tied in amoose round his neck.

The two men immediately cut the body down, and seeing that he was quite dead, notified the police, who, after a preliminary investigation, had the body removed to the morgue, where the case was disposed of yesterday morning as one of suicide.

DROPPED DEAD ON STREET. Joseph King, aged 48, of 33 Turgeon street, dropped dead at the corner of St. James and St. Rose de Lima streets, about 5 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. The passers-by saw him pitch forward and remain motionless, and after an examination, a doctor in the crowd pronounced him dead. The police of the St. Henry station were notified, and the body was removed to the morgue, where the case was disposed of by Coroner McMahon, this morning, as one of death due to natural causes, the deceased having been subject to chronic bronchitis.

Does Not Give His Name But Claims Experiments Have Given Better Results Than Any Shown by the German Physician.

Ottawa, March 12.—Dr. Friedmann, who claims to have discovered a serum which cures tuberculosis, and who demonstrated his method in Ottawa yesterday afternoon, has had his pretensions rivaled by those of another, though anonymous, investigator, to whom the statements of Dr. A. ## QUEBEC AS VIEWED BY TORONTO MAYOR

Tells Orangemen Neither Speech Nor Press is Free in Province.

Windsor, Ont., March 12.—Speaking at a public meeting conducted by the Orange Grand Lodge of Ontario west, in Windsor Armoury last night, Mayor Hocken of Toronto declared that the Orange order was capable of doing more for Canada than any other organization except the Christian church. Its basis, he added, is tolerance. Its ideals are high. The Catholic church has produced martyrs and men to whom there have been no superiors. That is the religious side and with that I have no quarrel, but the papacy we are fighting the world over. Catholics themselves will lose their liberty unless we succeed. When I tell you there is no free speech in Quebec I strike at one of the cardinal points of the hierarchy. Unless the press is free the people are not free, and the press in Quebec is free only so far as it neglects to discuss certain things.

Langlais' arrest was made after the elimination of the regular men. When arraigned before Judge Lanctot he pleaded not guilty, and was remanded till the 19th.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

CLOSURE MAY PUT END TO NAVAL DEBATE

General Election Likely to Result Through Senate Rejecting Curtailing Bill.

PREMIER DEFENDS MR. WINSTON CHURCHILL.

(Witness' Staff Correspondence.)

Ottawa, March 13.—The introduction of an amendment to the Rules of the House, the effect of which will bring into effect some form of closure will, it is stated, be the next phase of the fight to break the Parliamentary deadlock over the naval proposals of the Government. The members of the Cabinet who were not in the House, and a number of front benchers, who are well versed in the knowledge of law, were in conference yesterday afternoon, and after the conference was over the report became general that to-day formal notice would be given of the intention of the Government to introduce an amendment to the Rules.

The expectation is that as two days' notice is required, consideration of the proposed rule will not be taken up until Monday, or, at the earliest, on Saturday. A minute of the House, when questions in regard to the report, did not confirm it, but contented himself with the remark that "something would be done soon."

The Opposition members say that the notice of the amendment to the Rules will be given on behalf of the Government either by Mr. Arthur Meighen, of Portage or Mr. J. M. Aikens, the member for Brandon.

One of the more militant Liberals, in discussing the situation, said that the introduction of closure would mean a general election, because the majority in the Senate would in all probability decline to pass the bill if put through the House in the manner now suggested.

PREMIER DEFENDS MR. CHURCHILL.

The feature of the debate yesterday was a short speech by Mr. Borden, in which he deprecated the Liberal criticism of Mr. Winston Churchill, the First Lord of the Admiralty, and the reply by the Hon. Dr. Pugsley, who was leading the Opposition when the speech was made.

Mr. Borden said some aspersions had been cast upon "certainly" information which had been placed before the House on a previous occasion. "He himself had considered that the information was sufficiently complete, but the Opposition had demanded that it be all brought down. I did not like," said Mr. Borden, "to be under any implication of motive of concealment. I, therefore, got me to lay the remainder of the correspondence on the table."

Now the wrath of members opposite has been turned from me to Mr. Winston Churchill. I, as Prime Minister of Canada, thought it best to get the information which I wanted from the most reliable source. I so turned to the Admiralty. I consider it was not only right, but the absolute duty of the First Lord of the Admiralty to reply to my request and to furnish the information required. It is not deducible to the dignity of this House to blame him for doing so. The honorable gentlemen should realize that Mr. Churchill was not given the full information, and that he gave it in a fair and impartial manner. Whatever wrath there may be regarding this letter should be visited on my head and not on that of the First Lord of the Admiralty.

MR. PUGSLEY'S REPLY.

MARCH WEATHER RHEUMATIC WEATHER

Victims Can Cure Themselves with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

With the coming of March people who are afflicted with rheumatism begin to have unpleasant reminders of their trouble. The weather is changeable—balmy one day, raw, cold and piercing the next. It is such sudden changes of weather that sets the pangs and tortures of rheumatism, neuralgia and sciatica going. But it must be borne in mind that although weather conditions start the pains, the trouble is deeply rooted in the blood. It is not cured by rubbing through the blood. All the lotions and liniments in the world can't cure rheumatism. Rubbing may seem to ease the pain while you are rubbing, but there its value ends. Only through the blood can you cure rheumatism. That's why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have so many thousands of cures of this trouble to their credit. The new, rich blood which they actually make drives out the poisonous acid and rheumatism is vanquished. Among many sufferers from rheumatism who have been cured by this medicine is Miss Mary B. Kelly, South Dummer, Ont. Miss Kelly says: "Some time ago I had a very bad attack of rheumatism. At times I would be confined to bed for a couple of days and would seem almost paralyzed with the intense pain in my back and legs. At such times I could not walk and my joints were stiff and swollen. I consulted different doctors and took their medicine, but did not get more than temporary relief. At this time a neighbor advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I got a supply. After taking a few boxes I found they were greatly helping me and I continued their use until the trouble completely disappeared. I can strongly recommend this medicine to others who suffer as I did from the pangs and tortures of rheumatism. If you suffer from rheumatism, or any other disease of the blood, begin to cure yourself to-day with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont."

SWEDEN SOON TO ADOPT FULL PROHIBITION

The Temperance Movement There Continues to Make Great Progress.

Stockholm, March 13.—The temperance movement is making strides in Sweden. Both houses of the Riksdag passed the bill forbidding the sale of wine, beer, or liquors at the Riksdag restaurant after January, 1914.

In spite of the fact that the majority of the Riksdag has not yet declared in favor of prohibition, this decision is considered significant of the great progress of the temperance movement, and forecasts the introduction of full prohibition in the near future.

REGULAR GRAFT GETTING SYSTEM

Declares Crown Prosecutor in Dealing With Chinese Attempted Murder Case.

That a regular 'system' was engaged in collecting graft, and indulging in gunplay such as to cause a reign of terror in Chinatown, was pointed out by Crown Prosecutor Walsh yesterday afternoon at the trial of King Tung Sun, Lee Yok, and Lee Yoo.

When all three were found guilty of having attempted to murder one Moon On, in a gambling house, at 50 Lagachiere street West, in July last, the jury was out only a few minutes when they returned the verdict.

That the affair was one of conspiracy between members of different Chinese societies, was the contention of the defence. Crown Prosecutor Walsh, in his address to the jury, pointed out that even if this were so, action should be taken which would prevent such happenings in the future.

Montreal did not want any of the Tong was common in New York and San Francisco. The whole trouble, he said, was a matter of collecting graft from those conducting gambling houses, and that it was the refusal to pay this which caused King and his gang to swoop down on the place and attempt to seize the money on the table. When resistance was made, revolvers were drawn, and Moon On was shot through the cheek.

Mr. Walsh pointed out that King Tung Sun had used his influence to procure permits for the others to carry revolvers, but this was objected to by Mr. James Crankshaw, jr., for the defence, who stated that while King had procured permits for four Chinese, it had not been proved that the accused were the ones. The objection was allowed.

Mr. Justice Lavergne, in a brief charge to the jury, pointed out that while three verdicts might be returned in the case—acquittal, guilty of attempted murder, or wounding with intent to do grievously bodily harm—in his opinion there should be no reduction of the charge in the present instance. He reviewed the evidence in which an alibi had been made to prove an alibi for King, and stated that the credibility of the witnesses might be questioned. Lee Yok had attempted to prove that he had been working on the night of the shooting, but this was also to be doubted.

In the case of Lee Yoo, twelve witnesses had sworn that he had been present, and had been one of those who did the shooting. The jury were out but eight minutes when they returned a verdict of guilty.

A fourth Chinaman, Lee Yix Yung, was also mixed up in this affair, but made his escape before the trial opened. Mr. Walsh stated yesterday that in his opinion the man had been the strong arm of the party.

AGAIN UNDER OPTION

The north-east corner of Bleury and Dorchester streets is under option again at $18 a square foot, a figure that makes the deal in the near neighborhood of $375,000. New Yorkers are said to be the holders of the option this time. It is a short term one, similar to the one that local parties held on the block a couple of weeks ago.

NEW GRAVEYARD IN LONGUE POINTE

Archbishop Bruchesi Meets the Controllers in This Matter, and It is Left to His Grace.

The application of Archbishop Bruchesi for leave to have a new graveyard in Longue Pointe Ward was the subject of discussion at a meeting of His Grace and the Board of Control yesterday. The by-laws of the city prohibit cemeteries in the city limits, but matters have been mixed up by late annexations. The present graveyard in Longue Pointe Ward is too small for requirements, and another is wanted. The matter was left in the hands of His Grace.

Applications for burying-grounds are expected from other wards, and it was given out that probably the by-law would require amendment to permit opening more cemeteries.

Some time since a deputation of old soldiers asked the Board of Control to provide for the upkeep of some old

SIR PERCY SCOTT LEAVING NAVY

Publicly Announces That His Retirement Will Take Place This Week.

London, March 13.—Speaking at the banquet of the Chamber of Commerce last night, Vice-Admiral Sir Percy Scott said: "At the end of this week I will be out of the navy. There is a reason for me to remain here I only block the path of promotion of those my junior."

The Admiral declared that the British navy was never more efficient than at the present time. In the last two months the Admiralty had made greater strides in gunnery efficiency than in five years previous.

Vice-Admiral Sir Percy Scott was for a long time director of naval gunnery practice. He is the inventor of night signalling apparatus now used in the Royal navy and of various other devices for improving heavy sea shooting. He entered the navy in 1870.

HE NOW BELIEVES IN "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Because He No Longer Suffers With Headaches

TAYLORVILLE, ONT.

I was a sufferer from Fearful Headaches for over two years. Sometimes they were so bad that I was unable to work for days at a time. I was treated by physicians, but yet the headaches persisted.

A short time ago, I was advised to try "Fruit-a-tives," and I did so, with a most confess, very little faith. But after I had taken but three days, my headaches were easier and in a week they left me.

After I had taken a box of these tablets, my headaches were quite cured. My appetite was always poor and my stomach bad—and now my appetite is splendid and my digestion excellent.

I had become thin and weak from the constant headaches, but now not only have I gained weight, but I feel like a new man.

then knew where their next meal was to be cooked, and it troubled his wife even more. Indeed, the mother was so grieved at the thought of the boys and girls who might starve that she went out together for a little walk in the lane. Perhaps it will help you to feel better." So out into the lane went the husband and wife, and there they saw some sparrows that were chirping away as sparrows will. I expect that when they saw the bird they wished they had brought the youngest child with them, for it was a pity when small children miss seeing happy little birds. But anyhow the gentleman stopped and gazed hard at the chirper.

"Look at that bird," he said to his wife, "at that sparrow. Do you not know that it has been here all day, and yet it is singing the praises of God? And certainly it knows where its dinner will come from. Be hold the fowls of the air, for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your Heavenly Father feeds them. Are ye not much better than they?"

At the words great comfort came into the hearts of both of them, and they turned homewards, again feeling strong through their trust in God. MCGILL UNDERGRAD ORCHESTRA CONCERT. The second annual concert by the McGill Undergraduate Orchestra and Chorus, was well attended last evening at the Royal Victoria College. A mixed programme of popular and classical music was carried out by the joint orchestra and mandolin club, and the programme, as the following musicians got down to their work with a vim that was infectious.

The work of the Mandolin Club was first of all a success, their rendering of "Moonlight" being particularly clever and deserving the approbation bestowed by the audience for the melodious rendering.

Mr. Ernest Nelson and Mrs. John Harvey poured the tea and coffee, and the serving was done by Mrs. William Cook and Miss Doris Reinhardt. Before dinner-time kind friends unasked for the first time since her marriage. The hostess was gowning in white chamoise satin, and was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. Bruce Savage, wearing black satin trimmed with shadow lace, and veiled in chiffon. The reception room was decorated with pink carnations and hydrangeas, and the tea-room looked very pretty with yellow and white flowers, a silver basket of roses, and daisies in the centre of the table.

Those who assisted in serving were Mrs. William Galbraith, Mrs. H. R. Barber, Miss Marion Cooke, and Miss Alice Nairn. The reception room was decorated with baskets of daffodils and marguerites, while the color scheme in the tea-room was pink and yellow, the tea table being decorated with baskets of pink and yellow roses.

A LOVE CURE.

(By Rose Gardner, in "M. A. P.") My dear Val,—I sent our correspondence rather recently, I don't want to have to put an end to it. You know there was a subject which you were never so much as approach again. Always your friend, Ve.

My dear Val,—It's no good. I know it's hopeless, and silly and everything controllable that you can possibly say about it. How could such a freak as I am ever expect anyone to care about me? But I can't write to you without letting you know what I think of you. I've tried—I really have. I have sat down here in my studio and made myself write letters about the things that don't matter. And I know they've been sent to you, but you haven't answered them. And then I've tried not writing to you at all. And that has been worse than anything. I wanted to persuade myself that I'd forgotten you, but I haven't. I've got to get on with my life, and I deserve anyone who chooses to say or do to me. I wait your scolding in all humbleness. All I ask is that it may be swift.

VALENTINE.

It was this correspondence that made her feel uncomfortable when she was sitting at the desk in the room. She knew from a flicker of his eyes as she came in that he had seen her. He did not look again.

She prayed that she might be able to do something for the evening. It would be extremely awkward, to meet him with the answer to that letter of his still unwritten. Meanwhile, as he rudely kept his eyes in any direction but hers, she had time to examine him.

There was nothing new. Even the fresh interest of finding him to be so deeply in love had faded. It was only a charm to the plainness which had so markedly distinguished him for all the years she had known him. It was not as though he were even manfully ugly.

There was no other word but "plain" that could fit those goggle eyes, that ridiculous nose, that woeful lack of chin. He had not even a decently shaped pair of shoulders to give any charm to the plainness which had so markedly distinguished him for all the years she had known him. It was not as though he were even manfully ugly.

When dinner was announced, she found to dismay that he was making his way through the other guests towards her. He gravely addressed her late, Leon Hurteau.

"I'm to take you down. I tried to get out of it. You'll understand, won't you?" She rose without lifting her eyes. An almost annoying blush, she knew, was creeping over her neck and up to the tips of her ears. She could not show him a face like a penny. They went downstairs in silence.

She trusted he did not feel how she had which she would allow to hardly more than touch his arm, was trembling. The predicament vexed her. She left that the proper and conventional reply to his letter would be a severe reproof. And yet he was so humble that she would have welcomed any excuse not to give it. She had almost decided not to answer at all. And now here he was, in this meeting, to complicate matters.

She had to make up her mind how he was to be treated. It would not be fair, she felt, to behave as if nothing had happened while she held a reprimand over his head. And in any case, with such a subject between them, any attempt to get back to work would be a severe reproof. And yet he was so humble that she would have welcomed any excuse not to give it. ## ARE COMING ON A SCOUTING TOUR OF THE EAST

Western Magnates Hope to be Able to Pick Up Some Good Material Here.

Vancouver, B.C., March 12. — Vancouver and Victoria lacrosse officials are going down east on a scouting tour within the next couple of weeks with the hope of picking up a few players to bolster up the Coast teams for the approaching season's Minto Cup series. It is not the intention to raid any of the 'Big Four' clubs, as it is believed an agreement has been reached between that organization and the Coast League that there should be no raids on clubs in either organization, but if the N.L.U. goes out of business and the 'Big Four' becomes a 'Big Six' League by taking in two of the present N.L.U. clubs, the Coast magnates will be able to pick up some new talent in the clubs not taken into the Dominion Lacrosse Association.

Victoria has decided to compete in the British Columbia Lacrosse Association this year. John Virtue will finance a professional club, and has been assured support by many prominent men in the Island City, including Sir Richard McBride and the Hon. W. J. Bowser. Lionel York, the old Vancouver player and a former president of the British Columbia L.A., will manage the new Victoria Club. He will leave shortly for the East to hunt up players, and, according to reports, Con. Jones, president of the Vancouver Club, will also make another trip east to grab one or two players to fill the weak spots in last year's team.

WILL INTRODUCE AUTO POLO IN EUROPE.

London, March 13.—Richard Klein, an American promoter, who introduced auto polo in London during the coming season, has proposed to bring over the eight participants from the games held in Madison Square Gardens. Klein says he has several English backers, who believe Londoners will be interested in this thrilling and dangerous sport, and has already arranged with American motorists who are ready to sacrifice life and limb. He says the contests will occur either in the Olympia or at the Shepherd's Bush Stadium, probably in May. Klein is also bringing two semi-professional baseball teams to Philadelphia to Paris in April to introduce auto polo as a national game in France.

SOCCER MEETING WAS POSTPONED

The annual meeting of the Rees and Thistle Association Football Club, which has been postponed until April, the club is looking forward to a successful season, and will have several new players to choose their team from.

Y. M. H. ASSOCIATION.

This evening, at the Baron de Hirsch Institute, Beury street, the Montreux section of the Can. Snowshoes' Union will close the season by a well-arranged concert, given under the auspices of the Young Men's Hebrew Association Snowshoe Club. On account of the inclement weather, the march through St. Catherine street, which was contemplated, will be dispensed with, and it will not be necessary for members of the Union to attend in uniform. The concert will start at 8.15 p.m., and will consist of instrumental and vocal numbers, together with selections by the Y. M. H. A. Symphony Orchestra of twenty pieces. Prof. S. D. S. Fratesco of Ottawa, will entertain the audience with a wonderful demonstration of card manipulations, which will be followed by boxing and wrestling matches between well-known amateurs of this section. The program will close with a general vote to determine who, of the members of the Montreal Snowshoes Union, is the most popular, and the member receiving the most votes will be presented with a handsome silver cup, donated by the Y. M. H. A. Snowshoe Club. It is expected that nearly every snowshoe club in this city will be well represented.

Throat Was So Sore Could Hardly Speak.

Mr. Gordon Murphy, Elliott's Mills, P.E.I., writes: "Too much praise cannot be given your valuable remedy, Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I suffered terribly from a severe cold during the early part of last winter, and found it almost impossible to get anything to relieve me. Hoarseness seemed to be continually troubling me, and my throat was so sore I could hardly speak for a long time. At last I was advised to try your remedy, and in a short time I got relief, and have never been troubled with a sore throat or hoarseness since. I hope others will be fortunate enough to give your remedy a trial and be convinced that it is all I say it to be."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is without an equal for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Bronchitis and all Affections of the Throat and Lungs.

Price, 25 and 50 cents a bottle, put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark.

Be sure and get "Dr. Wood's."

RAILROAD REDS WON.

The regular three matches were held at the Grand Hotel last night, with Railroad Reds, Colonial Blues, and Railroad Blues. The Blues were the victors, but smaller than the usual custom, but few of the players reached two hundred.

WANT ART ROSS TO STOP AT PORT ARTHUR

Port Arthur, Ont., March 12. — Efforts will be made to have Art Ross and his All-Star N.H.A. team stop over in Port Arthur for a game while on the way west. Port Arthur could put on the whole of the team which represented Moncton in the Maritime League this year, and which at the end of the season was considered the best in the league.

HAVE TURNED DOWN CHALLENGE OF SIR THOMAS

New York Yacht Club Will Not Accept Restrictions Imposed.

New York, March 13.—Sir Thomas Lipton's challenge for the America Cup has been declined by the New York Yacht Club. This action was taken last night at a special meeting of the club members at the club house. The refusal on the part of the club to entertain the challenge was due to the restrictions imposed by the British yachtman in stipulating that the defending vessel should not exceed 75 feet on the water line, which was a handicap contrary to the spirit of the deed of gift.

THIS CHALLENGE HAS BEEN TURNED DOWN BY THE N.Y. YACHT CLUB

The action of the members of the New York Yacht Club followed the precedent set in 1909 when Sir Thomas Lipton challenged with a 68-foot yacht. At that time the challenge was issued through the Royal Irish Yacht Club, and the stand taken by the New York Yacht Club plainly indicated the attitude of the club in respect to challenges, which must be free and unrestricted.

CUP WILL BE PRESENTED TO THE CHAMPION CHAMPETRES AT TO-NIGHT'S GAME.

The trophy will be presented with the 'Art Ross' Cup just before to-night's game at the Arena takes place with the champions of the Manufacturers' League.

MILITARY INDOOR BASEBALL GAME.

The Royal Highlanders and Victoria Rifles played their final game last evening in the Craig Street Drill Hall to decide which team was to secure the Col. Fisher Cup, and the 'Vics' were victorious, the score being 3 to 7, which was one of the closest this season.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CORNWALL LACROSSE CLUB

Special Mention Was Made in Annual Report to Winning the N.L.U. Cup.

Cornwall, Ont., March 13.—The annual meeting of the Cornwall Lacrosse Club was held last evening. There was a good attendance, including several of last year's players. W. Fitzgibbon, president, occupied the chair. The secretary's report was read by J. E. MacPhee, making particular mention of the fine season gone through by the local club, making special reference to the winning of the N.L.U. championship, and the fine showing made by the local team against the Minto Cup holders.

The financial report showed the receipts to be $4,706.47, and the expenditures $4,706.47. The officers elected were as follows: Hon. president, W. Fitzgibbon; president, Dr. W. B. Cavanaugh; first vice-president, C. Broderick; second vice-president, Ralph Douglas; secretary, J. E. MacPhee; treasurer, A. P. MacPhee; executive, Dr. O. L. Weaver, S. M. Gray, and C. L. Rose. Two vacancies on the executive will be filled by the present executive and officers. Auditors, D. G. McDonnell, T. E. Fletcher.

LACROSSE LATEST.

Percy Quinn's Arrival from Atlantic City. It was exclusively announced in the 'Witness' that no solution of the lacrosse tangle so far as the Minto Cup is concerned would be forthcoming until the annual meeting of the club this month, and to-day there is no change in the position.

Until Percy Quinn returns from Atlantic City, said George Kennedy to the 'Witness' sporting man last night, there will be nothing definite done by the 'Big Four.'

A six club league has never been considered, or discussed by the 'Big Four,' but on President Quinn's return, if there is any proposition from the other side, it will be considered.

I have lost $11,000 on lacrosse so far, and will lose three times this amount before I quit. My Association has been lucky in other branches of sport, and can afford to take further chances so far as lacrosse is concerned, and we shall not let go out of our own accord or be crowded out, until we have given on the game a fair trial.

YANKEES TRIMMED THE SKEETERS.

Hamilton, Bermuda, March 11.—Frank Chance put his Yankees through their first nine-inning game of the season here to-day—also the first of the series of exhibition games with the Jersey City team of the International League. The Yankees won by a score of 9 to 1.

As the Jersey City pitchers have not rounded to form sufficiently to use either speed or curve, Manager Chance loaned two of his pitchers to the Skeeters for the game, and both pitched fine ball. Viebahn, of the Jersey City squad, occupied the mound during the fifth and sixth innings, and it was in these chapters that the Yankee batsmen piled up 6 of the 9 runs scored. Schultz and Hoff, of the Yankees, work in the other innings for the Skeeters, and the Yankee regulars did not do much damage to their offerings.

Manager Chance divided the pitching for his team between McConnell, Warhup and Ford, each of these bowlers working through three innings. The Skeeters got only three hits off the trio, Ford being especially effective in the last three innings. The New York pitcher was mowed down three times by the Jerseyites on strikes during his term on the rubber and did not allow anything that looked like a hit. Not only did the Yankees reach first base while Ford took care of the pitching.

LE MARIN WON TWO STRAIGHT LAST NIGHT

Defeated John Pohl Abs in Interesting Bout Before Good Crowd at Sohmer Park.

The wrestling season opened at Sohmer Park last night, with eclat and distinction, the 'piece de resistance' in an excellent bill, being the bout 'twixt John Pohl Abs and Constant Le Marin. Herr Abs, as his cognomen would imply, is Germany's representative of the wrestling cult, while Monsieur Le Marin is a worthy exponent from la belle France, age 24 or thereabouts, and the logical successor with another year over his head, and a little more experience, of Frank Gotch.

The annexation of Abs and Lorraine was amply avenged last evening by Le Marin, in a scintillating set to with his Teutonic rival, who gave a very commendable imitation of Raymond Casazac, his best—or worst—according to the fancy of the wrestling expert.

The more the habits of Le Parc Sohmer, the more they appear to worship him in the sporting sense, and as a bright mind of the advertising world once put it—there's a reason.

Constant Le Marin, a genial personality combined with a handsome cast of feature, is scrupulously fair in his methods when engaged in pursuit of his glorious calling, and withal is a fast, strong and clever exponent of the mat art, that time—and very little of it—will mould into a world-beating champion.

Montreal and Montneuve claim this exceptional product of the wrestling arena as their own, seeing that it was in the celebrated mecca of the grip art, that he first made his debut, hence his popularity, and the thousands who greeted his return to the city last night, cheered his every movement and success, in the manner loud, long and vociferous.

Abs was there with his customary strut, and a marked improvement in appearance and style of working, since the memorable occasion when he and Casazac rolled into the orchestra together.

The advantage he had in weight was, however, counterbalanced by his advancing years, and the comparative slowness of his methods in consequence.

For all that Abs put up a game and resolute battle with his youthful opponent, who improves on every appearance, to the unfeigned delight of those who already regard him as the coming champion of the world, and it was no disgrace to the rental German to concede two straight falls to Le Marin.

There was introduced to all and sundry in a preliminary bout, a gentleman from Cuba, of ebony colored skin, burbushy head, and flashing ivory, who, Othello like, was consumed with jealousy at the efforts of those already referred to and who during the interval challenged the winner of the New York bout, and went from Ottawa. Roman is the only one who is sure of going. The Ottawa's returned from New York this morning, where they were beaten by the Wanderers, 10 to 8 on the round. They had only seven players, including two goalkeepers, and were thus under a heavy handicap. Hamby Shover remained over and may assist the Wanderers in the finals against Quebec. The Ottawas disbanded after their return to-day. They just about cleared expenses on the New York trip. The New Edinburghs will not challenge for the Allan Cup if they win out in the Interprovincial Amateur Hockey Union. The Wanderers have announced to-day that they had closed arrangements for a long tour. They will leave the latter part of next week and play at Boston, New York, Cleveland and Detroit. The impression is that Grand Merit will beat out New Edinburgh in the Interprovincial finals, which will likely be played on Wednesday, March 13th, and Saturday, March 22nd. Without Benedict, Merrill, Atkinson and Broadbent they are not nearly as strong as they were last year.

A FEW SCRATCH GAMES PLAYED LAST EVENING

Curling was practically ended yesterday by the thaw, though at one or two rinks granites were used for scratch games. A few club games were played, but these competitions are so they will be completed with difficulty.

ROUND THE RINKS.

At Montreal a Vice-President's prize game was played, the result being: Geo. Darling, J. W. Pike, J. W. McNaught, J. Blair.

ALL-MONTREALS DEFEATED ANTLERS.

The All Montreal team defeated the Antlers hockey team at the All-Star hockey rink last night, by the score of 5 to 1. The Antlers were the team lined up as follows:

SENATORS HAVE DISBANDED

They Just About Cleared Expenses on the New York Trip.

Ottawa, March 13.—Clint Benedict, "Steele" Roman and Harry Broadbent will probably be Ottawa's representatives on the All-Star hockey team which Arthur Ross will take to the Pacific Coast next week. Percy LeSueur and Hamby Shore were invited to go, but, with Jack Darragh had to refuse. Broadbent is having difficulty in getting off and may be obliged to withdraw. Last year Roman, Darragh and Shore went from Ottawa. Roman is the only one who is sure of going. SIR ARCHIBALD DOUGLAS DEAD IN ENGLAND

Distinguished Naval Officer Was Born in Quebec and Held Command in Fenian Raid.

(Canadian Associated Press.)

London, March 13.—The 'Times' announces that Admiral Sir Archibald Douglas, G.C.B., died yesterday at Newham, Hants, in his 71st year. At the end of last year he underwent a serious operation and though he had been able to do a certain amount of work he never really recovered.

Of high professional attainments and wide experience, Sir Archibald Douglas was a diligent worker and served loyally and ably in many responsible posts. His rank and generous disposition secured for him the regard and respect of a wide circle of friends, by whom he will be sincerely mourned.

Admiral Sir Archibald Lucius Douglas, A.D.C., K.C.B., G.C.V.O., G.C.B., F.R.C.I., Knight of the Legion of Honor, second son of the late George Melville, D.M.P., and Charlotte, daughter of the late Archibald Campbell, Queen's notary was born at Quebec on February 8th, 1842. He entered Quebec High School, where he pursued the usual course of studies, and in April of 1856, entered the Royal Navy as a cadet on the nomination of Sir E. W. Head, Governor-General of Canada.

In 1861, he was promoted to the rank of sub-lieutenant, receiving the rank of lieutenant in 1862. He first saw active service in 1860 with the Naval Brigade in the Congo and Gambia as a gunnery lieutenant, and later in 1866, during the Fenian Raid commanded a gunboat on the Canadian lakes. He was promoted to the rank of M.S. 'Cambridge' for three and a half years, and in 1872 was appointed commander, and became instructor in the use of Harvey's torpedo to the Channel and reserve fleets.

In 1873 he was appointed commander of the mission to instruct the Japanese navy. From 1874 to 1875, he was commander of the Imperial Japanese Naval College at Yedo, and won the Japanese Order of the Rising Sun; in 1880 he was promoted to the rank of captain, and in 1884 commanded the 'Seraphis' during the Sudan expedition, winning thereby the Khedive bronze medal. He was made rear-admiral in 1885, and commanded the East India fleet in 1898 and 1899, from which latter date until 1902 he was second Lord of the Admiralty, having been made vice-admiral in 1901. He commanded the North American and West Indian stations from 1902 to 1904, and the Portsmouth station from 1906 to 1907, when he retired from the service.

Sir Archibald Douglas has several times visited Canada during recent years, and he took a great interest in the Montreal harbor works.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S SMILE AS CONTAGIOUS AS MR. TAFT'S.

Washington, March 13.—President Wilson's determination that his official as well as private life at the White House shall be as simple as possible is causing him no little inconvenience, it was learned yesterday, as regards his wearing apparel.

In recent years Mr. Wilson's predecessors have favored formal attire, including frock coats, and this garb, though not as comfortable as perhaps as a sack suit, was time saving, because it was uncertain just when some gorgeously attired foreign dignitary might wait on the chief executive, and it was fitting for the President to be 'dressed for the occasion.'

Mr. Wilson, however, comes to his office dressed in a grey sack suit, because grey is becoming to him and because he does not like to 'dress up.' The result has been that there have been occasions—enough of them to annoy the average man—when Mr. Wilson, informed that a call at his office was contemplated by some foreign diplomat, has had to make a lightning change of his clothing, discarding the grey sack suit and returning to his office to greet his caller clad in a suit of stiff and formal black, in which he plainly felt uncomfortable.

The President takes an automobile ride every afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. Wilson. Mr. Taft liked to have his chauffeur maintain a speed of at least thirty-five miles an hour, but Mr. Wilson has instructed his driver that the limit is twenty miles.

President Wilson has accepted membership in the University Club in Washington, but will pay his dues like other members. The University is the first club the President has joined in Washington.

ONTARIO BY-ELECTION.

Messrs. Ebbs and McLean Candidates in South Lanark.

Perth, Ont., March 13.—The nominations for candidates to fill the vacancy in the Ontario legislature in South Lanark, caused by the death of the late Colonel Matheson, took place in the town hall this afternoon. Three candidates were nominated—Mr. John C. Ebbs, Conservative; David McLean, Liberal; and Mr. W. G. Ferguson, Independent. Before the nomination, Mr. J. B. Lytle, Independent Conservative, had declared himself a candidate, but he was not nominated.

Shortly after the nomination Mr. Ferguson declared that he would drop out and leave the field to a Conservative or a Liberal. He stated that he had entered the field of his own wish and had dropped out in the same manner, and that he would support Mr. Ebbs. The contest will now be between Mr. Ebbs and Mr. McLean.

THE POINT CARS.

'Might I be permitted to suggest, through the columns of your valued paper, a hint to those who are at present at work on a means of bettering our tramway service, especially in connection with the Point St. Charles route?'

'The most direct line to the "Point" is by way of McGill and Wellington streets, and in the latter street we find a single track and two switches between McGill and Ann streets, where a lot of valuable time is lost to the Tramway Company and its patrons. Now here is an opportunity for the city to come to the relief of both, by widening the street, between McGill and Ann, to admit of double tramway tracks. The few buildings on the east, or side next to the canal, are of very ancient construction, and the proposed widening could not be done at a more opportune time, before the C.N.R. Company build their bridge

BUY HARRISON'S BREAD

BECAUSE HE KEEPS THE QUALITY UP. ASK YOUR GROCER, OR TELEPHONE MOUNT 386. between Dalhousie and Nazareth streets, across Wellington street, in reaching the wharf. There must of necessity be a lot of extra traffic on the street when the C.N.R. freight sheds are located at this point; and what hope of a quicker service can we expect if the present conditions are permitted to remain? In this connection, I think it might be well to suggest that the bridges to be erected by the C.N.R. Company across St. Maurice and Wellington streets, should be designed so as to provide for the widening of St. Maurice street to the homologated line, and for the suggested widening of Wellington street, which, in the case of the latter, would call for the present expropriation of the necessary strip of land between Nazareth and Dalhousie streets.'

CONNOR O'NEIL.

Mount St. Louis Literary Union St. Patrick's Day Entertainment.

The Mount St. Louis Literary Union held their annual St. Patrick's Day entertainment at Mount St. Louis Institute yesterday afternoon. Rev. J. C. Brophy, D.D., was in the chair, and the college theatre was well filled with students and their friends and relatives. The piece presented was 'Connor O'Neill,' a five act tragedy, acted by the members of the Literary Union. The play tells of the religious and political struggles of Ireland, and the story of the sixteenth century, under Edward VI. of England, Connor O'Neill, once king of Ulster, is wavering between his love of Ireland, his native land, and submission to the will of the English king. His elder son, Shane, endeavors to bring him back to Ireland, while Richard, his younger son, who hates his brother Shane, does all in his power to prove Shane a rebel. Quarrels and dissensions between the father and his sons make up the story of the play, but at last right triumphs over wrong, and Shane wins back his father to his old faith and Ireland, and is crowned king of Ulster. As the aged, careworn king, who, rent as he is by the cares of his position, is always a loving father, Mr. L. Lacoste deserves more than ordinary mention. His interpretation of the old king's anger, remorse, and despair was very fine. Mr. F. Kiernan played a fine part in the role of William Gray, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and the parts of Richard O'Neill, and his brother Shane, were equally well filled by Messrs. T. McCaffrey and J. Buckley, respectively. The role of O'Kervalan, Bishop of Cloghan, was well interpreted by Mr. W. Norman, and Mr. A. Riordan played a good part as Robert, Connor's former bard. By no means least deserving of mention was Master R. Pelletier, who as Richard O'Neill's little son Hugh, won the hearts of all present. Other characters of the play were well filled by Messrs. E. Brushey, H. Gray, W. T. McCauley, R. Laffin, R. Hudson, E. Phelan and H. Rouleau. All these budding young actors owe a deep debt of gratitude to the Rev. Eros Jerome, and Nellie, to whom the thanks and congratulations of the audience are due for the success of the play. The Mount St. Louis orchestra, under the able direction of Prof. J. J. Goulet, was in attendance, and rendered suitable selections throughout the course of the entertainment. The musical numbers included a saxophone quartet by Messrs. L. Lacoste,

NEW GRAIN CAR.

Has Hopper Bottom and Big Capacity.

Mr. J. Coleman superintendent of the car department of the Grand Trunk Railway, whose device for holding the bodies and trucks of cars together to prevent telescoping in case of accident, has attracted some attention, has received favorable reports of the trials of another of his inventions, a hopper bottom grain car.

Hopper bottom cars which unload coal almost instantaneously, have been in use for some time, but the problem of devising a practical device which would prevent grain from escaping the hitherto been difficult solution, the Coleman steel hopper bottom box car No. 9950 has been in service on the Grand Trunk since its introduction. The car has a perfectly level and tight bottom, and is in every way the same as an ordinary box car, except that it completely dumps grain, few seconds. It is used eastward with grain and westward in a movement with coal, it is stated, does not injure the car in any way for grain service. The new car has a greater capacity by 700 bushels than the standard grain car.
