NO QUESTIONS ASKED IF SIGN RETURNED

A. Richler, an optometrist at 5715 Sherbrooke street west, reports that the sign outside his office building was carried off by "pranksters" on Sunday night.

The sign is described as being about a square foot in area and is of no use to anyone but Mr. Richler. If the "pranksters" will return it, no questions will be asked, Mr. Richler says.

Three Airmen Selected For Air Crew Training

For the first time since the inauguration of auxiliary air force squadrons, ground crew members have been selected for a year of special air crew training. Announcement of the selection of three airmen of 401 (Fighter) Squadron, with urban headquarters at 4450 Sherbrooke street west, was made yesterday by Wing Commander J. W. Reid, DFC, officer commanding the squadron.

The three lucky local airmen are I. R. McDonald, 2188 Decelles Avenue, N. C. Patton, 5187 Clanranald Avenue, and D. R. N. Hanson of Rosemount. They proceed to Toronto, next week and will have the rank of Flight Cadets during the year of their training. They will receive their wings and officer's commission upon successful completion of the course and will be required only to join the ranks of an auxiliary squadron once their training is over

Activities at 401's newly renovated quarters picked up apace this week with the officers of the squadron tendering the airmen an oyster party on Tuesday evening to open the season's activities. Officers and mer are combining to give their first squadron dance together this Saturday evening.

Many former squadron members of the original 115 Fighter Squadron were among those attending or invited to attend the functions. They included Victor M. Drury, Frank S. McGill, H. de M. Molson, Canon G. Oliver, Roy Foss, C. M. McEwen, A. Deane Nesbitt, G. R. McGregor, P. S. Fisher, Russell Smith, Paul Pitcher, Frank Grant, Eric Beardmore, W. R. Pollock, George Keefer, and Walter Conrad.

Season of Activity

The squadron is ready for its first full season of activity now that extensive training facilities have been provided in the urban headquarters. Official opening of the operational "ops room" is scheduled for later this month and signals equipment and a works shop are also being put to use.

Recruits in some trades are still being accepted with a sudden influx of applicants in the last week. All vacancies are expected to be filled in the next month.

B.A. of W. Thanks Parks Department

The directors and members of the Business Association of Westmount wish to extend a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. E. J. Anderson, Mr. W. Smith and Mr. H. Linder, of the Parks and Playgrounds Department, for their enthusiastic co-operation and wholehearted interest in staging the sports day held yesterday in Westmount Park.

"They have more than done their share to make this event a success," P. Page, president of the association, said, "and the teachers and physical training instructors have given unstintingly of their time and energy."

CRIPPLED CHILDREN TAG DAY REALIZES $1,191.31

The tag day sponsored by the Rotary Club of Westmount and held last Saturday in this city in aid of crippled children, realized $1,191.31, which is approximately 10 per cent. of the total amount raised in the Montreal area. This amount was slightly larger than the total receipts from last year.

John Bridgeman collected the largest single amount, $18.30.

One box, containing a small amount of cash, was lost when the youngster selling tags left the city limits to search for more customers.

Will Officiate At Unveiling Of War Memorial

His Excellency, Viscount Harold Alexander, Governor General of Canada, will arrive in Westmount, Sunday, November 7, to officiate at the unveiling of the addition to the Westmount war memorial. Following the unveiling, a commemoration service will be held honoring the dead of the two world wars, in the park in front of the City Hall, corner of Sherbrooke street and Cote St. Antoine road. The beginning of the ceremonies is scheduled to start at 2.30 p.m.

The Governor General will come directly from his residence in Ottawa to Westmount and after the services, will be entertained by Mayor P. Adams, and the City Council, at a special reception.

Among the scheduled events will be an inspection of the guard of honor, following the unveiling ceremonies; a community service; an address by the Mayor and by the Governor General; placing of floral tributes by Westmount organizations; and a march past by troops with Viscount Alexander taking the salute.

High army, navy and air force officials and many leading men in public life will be invited. Next-of-kin or relatives will receive special personal invitations and will occupy space reserved for them.

It is to be noted that although many city organizations will be laying wreaths at this service, anyone who may wish to do so, may pay his or her personal tribute to the dead of World War I or II by placing his own wreath at the foot of the monument.

Westmount Designer

The whole monument was an original design by Professor Percy E. Nobbs, a Westmount resident on Belvedere road. The first part of the memorial was a tribute to the dead of World War I and was unveiled on November 11, 1922. Mayor P. W. McLagan was chief magistrate of the city at that time and he and General Sir Arthur Currie, G.C.M.G., K.C.B., and Rear Admiral William S. Sims, of the United States Navy, officiated at the unveiling. The sculptor work was done by the world renowned George W. Hill.

After the second World War, Professor Nobbs was called on to design the second part upon which are inscribed the names of all those Westmount residents who made the supreme sacrifice between the years 1939-45.

BOULEVARD ACCIDENT

Cars driven by Nathan Levitt, 5003 Victoria Avenue, and George Brigall, 1605 Richardson street, were involved in an accident on Saturday on Westmount Blvd., causing slight damage to both.

A. E. Larkin, of the Westmount Police Department, investigated.

CITIZENS URGED NOT TO BURN LEAVES

Fire Chief W. C. Cobb, of the Westmount Fire Department, urges all residents to refrain from burning dead leaves that may pile up either in yards or at the curb, because calls to the department to put out these bonfires may leave the trucks out of position for more serious alarms at the same time.

Local Police Set To Check Autoists On Traffic Laws

The Chairman of the Metropolitan Police Chiefs' Discussions Club has requested all police chiefs from Lachine to Pointe-aux-Trembles to rigorously enforce traffic law in every possible case, and Chiefs Harris of Hampstead, Hunter of Montreal West and Byford of Westmount fully intend to aid the campaign in every way, they assert.

"Immediate forceful action is necessary to curb the over-enthusiastic impulses of our city's speed demons. Otherwise polite and intelligent persons turn into brazen, senseless and speed-crazy robots when they sit behind a wheel," the chiefs say.

They also ask the co-operation of everyone connected with the automobile business, viz. oil companies, garage owners and car dealers in this better driving campaign, scheduled to start this fall.

Regardless of repeated warnings for more careful driving, with the automobile companies co-operating with the Metropolitan Police Chiefs in their advertising, there has been to date in the Province of Quebec, an alarming 50 per cent more traffic accidents in 1948 than in 1947.

Resolution Is Made

The Metropolitan Police Chiefs have already sent a resolution to the Prime Minister to the effect that no licence be issued to the applicant until he has passed a proper driving test and it is hoped that this resolution will be passed in the coming parliamentary session.

A campaign to enforce the observance of traffic light regulations by pedestrians is also being prepared and it is the intention of the police chiefs to see that street cars and busses obey the traffic laws.

The "Metropolitan Police Safety Guide" will soon be available at oil stations and automobile dealers.

Scouts & Cubs

BY REG GROOME

Last weekend, five Scouts and two Scouters, including your reporter, were the guests of the Rawdon Scout Troop in Rawdon, Quebec. The occasion was a re-union of those who had met at Tamara-couta and included around twelve of the Rawdon Scouts who attended camp, and seven of us who were also at camp, in the second period, all staying at Cumberland House. Richard Dendy and Edward Keller of Willingdon Troop, Paul de Savoye of Queen Mary United Troop and Tony Wilson of St. Columba Troop comprised the boys from Western Area along with John Dalziel of 20th Ascension Troop.

Oliver Stevens, formerly of Montreal West, and yours truly, were in charge of the expedition and we deem it more than safe to express the opinion that all had a wonderful week-end. The trip started Friday afternoon, when we left for Rawdon, and ended with our arrival back in Montreal Sunday at 6 p.m. The Rawdon lads acted as hosts, with our fellows all staying at various homes. Mr. Stevens and myself were warmly welcomed, to put it mildly, at the "Edwards" mansion, and were left to the none-too-tender "mercies" of Patrol Leaders Billy and Donald Edwards. Scoutmaster Frank Had-dad, of Rawdon, also put up (with) two Scouts, John Dalziel and Richard Dendy. The programme included a hike, camp-fire, church parade and many smaller items. All in all, it was a grand idea, and we hope to see much more of the Rawdon gang.

St. Saviour's Units

Thursday last found St. Saviour's going great guns . . . at least five Cubs will be coming up shortly . . . a hike is planned for Thanksgiving Day, weather permitting . . . Note to S.M. Doherty, of St. Augustine's . . . how about another game of floor hockey? . . . let's hear from you . . . maybe your team won't be as strong now as it was at camp.

The Cub Pack still has to settle down . . . 17 Cubs present last week . . . Larry, Donald and Bobby should be back from the country soon . . . a Corn Roast is planned for tomorrow night . . . Jimmy Ranger is out of hospital now . . . and now we hear Bruce Westwood was quite sick with bronchial pneumonia . . . see you soon, Bruce . . . The Cubs did a good turn last Saturday, delivering 1,100 letters to parents with regard to a new school . . . something badly needed.

YEBA Club Hears 3 Discussions

The questions—what do Canadian young people think of their prospects in this troubled year of 1948? how do they regard the chances for securing the kind of jobs they think will enable them to live a satisfying kind of life? what about the way youth spend their leisure hours? and, most important, can they expect any sort of peace in Europe, which would allow them to make normal plans for the future? will be discussed by representative young Canadians in a series of three broadcasts under the general title "Youth Speaks Out". Beginning tonight, the series will be heard on the Trans-Canada network, Fridays at 8 p.m., E.S.T.

The Y.E.B.A. Club of the Westmount YMCA will sponsor a listening group for this series of three discussions.

The first topic for discussion is "Youth and Employment"; on subsequent weeks the topics are "What Should We Do With Our Leisure?" and "The Temper of our Times: A Report on Europe".

Each broadcast will originate from a meeting of young people. The younger men and women on the discussion panel will engage in a free and lively exchange of opinion with the guest speakers, and the audience will have a chance to ask questions from the floor of the meeting.

W. S. Kickley Now Overseas Discussing Lack Of Autos

Despite the efforts of American and Canadian automotive companies to catch up with the demand for new cars, there has been no dent made in the backlog of orders, according to W. S. Kickley, president of Toledo Motors Limited, and eastern Canada distributor for Morris cars who sailed for England on Saturday. It now remains for Great Britain with her increasing facilities for the production of sheet steel and strike-free plants to ease the pressure here in Canada.

Of the 5,000,000 units produced in North America since the war ended, almost an equal number of prewar models have had to be scrapped, and the industry's top executives forecast that five years *will elapse before output and distribution are back to normal. Even at that the demand will not be filled to the point of complete absorption.

STEINBERG'S OPEN NEW STORE, OCT. 14

Another new, extremely modern Steinberg groceries will open Thursday, October 14, on Greene Avenue, near Western Avenue. Designed to give speedy, efficient service, the new store will be self-service, in keeping with the Steinberg tradition.

There will be several cashiers, thus assuring fast moving traffic once a customer has made his choice of purchases and large open shelves will give the customer plenty of chance to find the merchandise he wants.

A large beautifully designed front will grace the store and will add to the modernity of Greene Avenue, helping to make this section of Westmount one of the main shopping areas in the district.

In the field of imported cars, Mr. Kickley, who resides at 424 Metcalfe Avenue, was most optimistic. There has been a wide-spread interest in the various Morris models both for city and rural use and the sales here have encouraged the British factories to increase their Canadian allotments to almost double the figure forecast at the beginning of the year when Canada lifted her four-month ban on the importing of automobiles and trucks.

The increasing use of aircraft assembly line production systems has enabled the Morris plants to turn out more cars than ever before, and Mr. Kickley will discuss the possibilities of the Canadian market with Lord Nuffield and other directors of the Morris firm with a view to getting more cars and delivery vans shipped to this area.

"A car is no longer a luxury in this country," Mr. Kickley stated, "it is a necessity. The fact that British factories are turning out cars ideally suited for our climatic conditions and with the added attraction of low fuel consumption, makes it natural that we should bring in as many as we can get and distribute them to the people who need cars to get them around from one place to another."

The work of selection has been done by a committee of Montreal school librarians, under the chairmanship of Miss Elizabeth Bunting of Lachine High School, and assisted by Miss McEwen of the Westmount Public Library.

The books to be on display will cover both fiction and non-fiction, and will range from those suitable for elementary school pupils, through junior and senior high schools. Mimeographed lists are being prepared, and for those unable to visit the convention, copies may be consulted afterwards at the Westmount Public Library.

Westmount Baptist

Thanksgiving Services will be held in Westmount Baptist Church, morning and evening, on Sunday. "Seed to the Sower and Bread to the Eater". This will be the theme of the morning address. Grand old Thanksgiving psalms and hymns will have a prominent place in the worship.

The Bus Service from Montreal West, in connection with the Sunday School, will be continued on the same schedule as last week. This bus, which is marked "Westmount Baptist Church" may be hailed by anyone along the route. Visitors or new pupils to the School will receive a warm welcome.

At the Evening Service Dr. Johnston's Theme will be "Presented to the King". This address will set before the congregation the Spirit of Thanksgiving on the highest Christian level.

AWARDED ROTARY SCHOLARSHIPS

Two high school graduates, Lindsay A. Graham, left, of Westmount High, and Langley H. Desjardins, right, of St. Leo's Academy, were awarded scholarships by the Rotary Club of Westmount, at their regular weekly meeting on Wednesday. They are pictured above with Donald B. Ross (centre), president of the local club. A. Callard made the presentation, saying, "It is a pleasure to feel that if you become community leaders in the future, Rotary had a hand in it."

Eighteen Year History For A. Ross Grafton Co.

The firm of A. Ross Grafton & Company is owned and operated by A. Ross Grafton. It was founded in 1930 and has been continuously located in the City of Westmount, although, prior to that date, its founder, for eleven years was associated with another organization in the hardwood flooring business. During one year of that time he represented them in Great Britain.

They have specialized in the supplying, laying surfacing and finishing of hardwood flooring in homes, hotels, and industrial plants throughout Eastern Canada. Wood block floors which are laid in Mastic on concrete are one of the many interesting types with which they are thoroughly familiar. Another variation is the "random-width" plank floor which usually has the end of each board screwed down and wood plugs inserted.

In Montreal they handle that widely known sealer known as Vitra Seal. This imparts a hard wearing, water resisting finish which when waxed, gives a really beautiful satin gloss to the wood.

During the war years, over a million and a quarter square feet of flooring was laid and finished by their craftsmen in residences, The Saguenay Inn, the Recreation Centre, and many other buildings at Arvida for the Aluminum Company; while to come nearer home, the flooring at the Mont Tremblant Lodge and other developments of Mr. Joseph Ryan; and the plank floors at the beautiful Laurentide

Be On Guard Against Communism, C. H. Lowe Warns at Rotary Club

After a long battle against the Japanese, "China is now faced with another enemy and that enemy is Communism," C. H. Lowe, of the Chinese Government Information Office, told the Westmount Rotary Club on Wednesday at their weekly luncheon held in Victoria Hall.

During their 25 year fight against Communism, China has tried to patch up the trouble (in 1937) on the advice of the United States of America, he said, but has met with no success and China has lost many opportunities to strengthen her armed forces because of Communist infiltration.

Mr. Lowe stated that people of Canada might think that all this is far away and does not concern Canadians, but he warned, "You must start thinking of Communism before it is on your doorstep."

Long ago, he continued, China printed copies of a known Japanese plan for world conquest.

Public Defenders Urged For Quebec By Nat Jacobs

Nat. W. Jacobs, K.C., of 4326 Sherbrooke street west, urged "the imminent establishment, in our province, of public defenders so that there be no odds in justice, and that these public defenders be appointed and maintained by the same government authority as creates Crown Prosecutors," in a radio address last Saturday.

"Usually accused persons have their own attorneys to defend them, that is, if they can afford the expense, but what of the poor defendants who are without means to retain counsel," he asked.

"He is told that he can state his case and he invariably begins by telling his story. He is soon interrupted by the court and told that he must only question prosecution witnesses, or answer questions when in his own examination," Mr. Jacobs said. "He is not told that cross examination is the finest trap into which he can lead himself, or that it is something to be avoided except by experts."

"What really happens," he continued, "is that such accused becomes bewildered and demoralized and pleads guilty just to get rid of the agony."

"The Crown Prosecutors are public servants, representing the sovereign power of the state, by whose authority and in whose name all prosecutions must be

NO MONOPOLY IN INSURANCE

The life insurance business is the most highly competitive of all business activities in Canada today, J. G. Parker, president of the Imperial Life Assurance Company, told delegates to the annual meeting of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association.

Mr. Parker is Chairman of the Standing Committee on Institutional Advertising of the Canadian Life Insurance Officers Association, which was host to the Weekly Editors at luncheon.

After describing some of the problems of the business in Canada, the speaker said that the cry of "Monopoly" was sometimes raised against the life insurance companies.

Said Mr. Parker:

"The charge of 'Monopoly' is ridiculous because it is without foundation. If the charge were true you would find that the number of companies operating in Canada was sharply reduced from what it is today.

"Canadian companies are not afraid of competition. In fact, we welcome competition. How else would we be able to enjoy such an enviable position throughout the world if it were not for the competitive spirit that dominates the entire life insurance business here in Canada?"

"Canadian life insurance companies are so highly thought of that they successfully operate in 68 different countries besides Canada. Indeed, they do nearly 40% of their business outside Canada.

"While Canadian life insurance companies are pushing their ways into the life insurance markets of the world, notwithstanding the competition of strong local companies most places they go, companies of other countries are entering the Canadian market.

"During the past year, four new companies have started operating in Canada. Two of them are of Canadian origin and the other pair of United States origin. Besides Canadian and United States companies operating in Canada, there are eight British companies operating here too. Altogether, British and United States companies write more than one-third of the life insurance written in Canada today.

"Does that sound like 'Monopoly'? If the Canadian life insurance business were a 'Monopoly' would we allow companies of other countries to come in and take our business away from us?"

"But we are not a 'Monopoly'. We are firm believers in the competitive enterprise system. We believe that only through competition in our business can the public good best be served."

St. Andrew's United Church, Westmount, will show a religious movie film in place of the sermon Sunday evening, October 10.

It is a top quality dramatic production with a forthright religious message intended to bring eternal truths in a form anyone can understand.

It does not depict Biblical characters, but present day people.

Sixteen major Protestant denominations joined together to finance the making of this film. It is designed to awaken in each individual a new sense of his own personal Christian mission.

It is hoped that others besides the members of St. Andrew's, will take advantage of the opportunity to see the film.

Why do they belong to the eternal order of things?

A baptismal service will be observed on Sunday morning. Parents who desire to offer their children for Christian Baptism are asked to contact the Minister.

The Official Board meets on Wednesday at 8 p.m. It is desired that reports be presented from all organizations on the year's work to date.

Christian Science

"Are Sin, disease and death real?" is the subject of the Lesson Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday.

The Golden Text is from Psalms 30.2 "O Lord my God, I cried unto thee and thou hast healed me."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible:—"And, behold a woman of Cahaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil. But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs. And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour." (Matthew 15:22, 26-28).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

"If sickness is real, it belongs to immortality; if true, it is a part of Truth. Would you attempt with drugs or without, to destroy a quality or condition of Truth? But if sickness and sin are illusions, the awakening from this mortal dream, or illusion, will bring us into health, holiness and immortality. This awakening is the forever coming of Christ, the advanced appearing of Truth, which casts out error and heals the sick. This is the salvation which comes through God, the divine Principle, Love as demonstrated by Jesus. (Page 280).

The Secret Is Out

Two weeks ago I told you about a little secret I had heard at the C.S.L. Gift Shop, 1480 Sherbrooke St. W. a minute walk from Guy St. and ladies, I have now been given the green light to let the secret out. It is THE CLOSE OF NAVIGATION SALE. If you remember last year, The Shop had a sale in October, you know what bargains were to be had. The sale the C.S.L. are having from the 18th of October is something that no thrifty housewife CAN afford to miss. Some prices have been slashed down to below cost. Next week I will be telling you more about the articles and prices. When I visited the shop this week, I had a preview of what will be on sale, and I certainly will be there bright and early MONDAY OCT. 18th, to pick up some of those woolen skirts. The girls are working like beavers, repricing all the merchandise. Last week I had the pleasure of meeting Bevis Turnbull, and also receiving his latest book, HIGHLIGHTS OF MONTREAL. It was not until I had started reading this book, that I realized how much of Montreal I had missed. I would say that this is one book that every Montrealeur should have, and I can't think of a more welcome present to one who has lived here, and now is elsewhere. One of the outstanding features of the book are the real life-like pictures, a type that has never been used in book form before. Mr. Turnbull was telling me that the picture of the clock over the Seminary of The Gentlemen of St. Sulpice, Page 13, is the first time the ancient time piece has ever been photographed. If you have not visited The Shop recently, then here is a real chance to purchase this book, for $1.00.

A Night Of Fun

Last summer when I was playing in a Sadie Hawkins golf tournament, I thought then what an excellent idea this would be for treating one's best Boy Friend. Maybe his birthday... or an anniversary... in other words you make it a Sadie Hawkins evenings. You ask the gentleman friend to have cocktails, first at the most famous rendezvous in town, The Mount Royal Hotel's Piccadilly. Here one may rub shoulders with a great Radio, Stage or Screen personality. Or perhaps meet an old friend whom you haven't seen in ages. With this combination for atmosphere, you are all set for an evening of fun and entertainment. Through these portals you will pass into the beautiful Corinthian room, where you will be charmed by the dignity of the Mount Royal's Main Dining Room, which is very different from any other eating place in Montreal. You will find a quiet and mellow atmosphere here, after the chatty gaiety of the "PIC". Since you are the Sadie Hawkins, the boy friend now has the opportunity of ordering first, in fact you will both have a grand time ordering a dish that only a chef at the Mount Royal could provide. The finishing touch to this delightful evening will be the restrained playing of Dorothy Perron on the organ, offering up melodies old and new, but at all times soothing and haunting.

Gowns especially designed by the well-known couturier, Madame Marguerite Alain, were featured last Thursday afternoon, at a fashion show held at the Normandie Roof of the Mount Royal Hotel, under the auspices of the Women's Association of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind. Among the fashions shown by Madame Alain, who acted as commentator, was the latest in dinner dresses, afternoon wear, suits, topcoats, and negligees. In materials, it was light wool crepes and heavy satins that held the spotlight, while the predominant color was grey.

Junior Red Cross Names New Director

Provincial headquarters of the Canadian Junior Red Cross, has announced that Miss Lorraine How, of Montreal, former officer in the Royal Canadian Air Force, has replaced Mrs. R. B. Shaw as director of the Juniors in this province.

The announcement explained that Mrs. Shaw has been made co-director, with Louis Poitras, for the work of the blood donor panel which will play a vital role in the forthcoming free transfusion service of the adult Red Cross in the province.

The new director of the Junior Red Cross assumes her post at a time when the organization is growing steadily and faces important tasks, said Ross Clarkson, chairman of the JRC committee. It has 65,000 members in over 2,000 school classrooms throughout the province and its services include: practice of hygiene among its members; aid to indigent sick children; financial aid and technical advice to school lunch projects; therapeutic treatments for polio and speech-defect victims; collaboration with the Junior Red Cross of other nations to promote international understanding and mutual help.

As with the adult Canadian Red Cross, the Canadian Junior Red Cross is independent of the Red Cross in any other country, provincial headquarters pointed out, and the young members — school boys and girls — make most of their decisions themselves at council meetings.

Charles Rittenhouse Speaker At NDG Women's Club Opening

Addressing the Notre Dame de Grace Women's Club at Victoria Hall on Friday, Charles Rittenhouse, supervisor of speech arts, Montreal Protestant Central School Board, conducted a brief survey of playwrights across Canada, under the title "Contemporary Canadian Drama."

In his East-to-West discussion of contemporary Canadian dramatists and their works, Mr. Rittenhouse spoke first of Shirley Fowkes, Chester, N.S., whose "Salvation of Socrate Lebel" he considers "undoubtedly one of the best one-act Canadian plays ever written". Next considering Montreal, Mr. Rittenhouse had only praise for such French-Canadian playwrights as Fridolin, whose "Tit-Coq" is currently playing in Montreal, and Pierre Dagenais. So far as Montreal's English-speaking playwrights are concerned, however, Mr. Rittenhouse said that some (Continued on Page 10)

 "were among the very worst in the whole history of the theatre". This statement did not include such members of "Canada's theatrical centre" as Mada Gage Eolton, of Montreal West, whose "Her Affairs In Order" has been received with wide acclaim throughout the British Commonwealth, but has gone unsung in Canada; nor Janet McPhee, of Westmount, author of the comedy "Jupiter in Retreat", "one of the most expert full-length Canadian plays ever written". Other talented English-speaking playwrights mentioned, were: Margaret MacFarlane, John Hoare, William Petty, and Percy Jacobson.
 Of Ottawa, Mr. Rittenhouse

said, "the Drama League there has done more to encourage Canadian drama than any other single agency". In connection with this society, the speaker mentioned such outstanding contributors to Canadian drama as, Geoffrey Evans, author of "Overlooking the River", Joseph Schull, and Munro McLennan.

Speaking of the contributions of Toronto playwrights to Canadian drama, mention was made by Mr. Rittenhouse of Lister Sinclair, radio dramatist, and John Coulter, author of "House in the Quiet Glen".

In Western and Southern Ontario cities, such as London and St. Catharines, the speaker said, "the community theatre is thriving," and has helped to create a collection of new plays". Outstanding examples of this, according to Mr. Rittenhouse, are the works of such authors as Hilda Smith, Robertson Davies, Dr. S. J. Betts, and Bill Digby.

Concluding his survey of Canadian drama with mention of Vancouver playwrights, Mr. Rittenhouse spoke of George Palmer and Alexander Ramsay, both of whom, the speaker said, are inclined to favor the supernatural in their writing.

Mrs. J. W. Perks, the president, introduced Mr. Rittenhouse, and he was thanked by Mrs. Robert Japp. Mrs. Iris Laduke, soprano, conducted in our Dominion, but our law makes no provision for them to defend."

Mr. Jacobs then asked, "Is the contest between the prosecutor with all his power and the pauper defendant charged with an offence, undefended by a lawyer, an equal one? This situation," the speaker said, "can be compared to the David and Goliath legend."
 "All that it requires to bring about the appointment of public defenders is the awakening of public conscience. In our desire to protect ourselves from all foes, we must not overlook the importance of safeguarding the liberties of our citizens, so that no injustice be done to them. We should, with all the force and power of an aroused public opinion, demand the creation of the office of Public Defenders in Quebec. This is a national necessity in a democracy," he concluded.

George Gahan's Record Rendez-Vous

Victor has just released one of its best albums of the year with the piano rhythms of the one and only Count Basie. This set includes such hot numbers as, "Backstage Mat Stuff's", "Basie's Boogie", "Swingin' the Blues", and best of all, "Sugar", which is really something sweet.

As a matter of fact, Victor has come up with a lot of good stuff lately, for instance "Bella Bella Marie" by piano master Larry Green, "Oscar's Boogie" and "Poor Butterfly" make for good listening by another pianist, this time Montreal's own Oscar Peterson. Then, too, there's the new Dizzy Gillespie bop recording of "Manectra", and Tommy Dorsey's already popular "Until".

Songstress Nellie Lutcher has released a really groovy number titled "Little Boy." Only thing wrong with this recording is that it doesn't have enough of Nellie's wonderful piano.

T. D.'s alto-playing brother makes an appearance here towards the end of the month, on a one night stand. Jimmy's new band is said to be the greatest he's ever waved a stick at, and judging from their MGM records, I'll agree to that one hundred per-cent. And don't forget tonight and tomorrow are your last two chances to hear Charles Trenet, the famous French singer and composer (he wrote "Beyond the Sea") at the famous St. Urbain St. Opera house.

Trumpet man Louis Prima was a big hit with his Montreal audience last night and we sure hope he'll be back real soon... Johnny Holmes' band is even greater this year... sparked by great piano of Bud Hayworth... might be a

Gay Musical Starts Sunday, For 3 Days At Westmount

Reproducing the pomp and glory of ancient Rome or any other place or period is everyday work to the technicians of Hollywood. It is a process of intensive research, designing and building of sets, assembling of properties, costumes, uniforms and people.

Reproducing Vienna in the days of Johann Strauss, in the reign of Franz Josef, the happiest and gayest period in the city's history, ingood idea for the Canadian Recording Co. "Maple Leaf" to start pressing records of this band as soon as, and if, this ban is called off.

involved many tasks unusual even to the technicians when this was done for "The Great Waltz," musical spectacle based on the composer's life and featuring his music. It comes to the Westmount Theatre for 3 DAYS ONLY starting SUNDAY.

To stimulate Strauss' own orchestra, strings predominated in a ninety-piece orchestra composed of the cream of symphony musicians. Twelve genuine Stradivarius and Amati violins were assembled, mostly from the Erich Lachmann collection, for the first row of the orchestra. A chorus of eighty voices, accompanied the voice of Miliza Korjus, Viennese opera star.

Unusual "props" on the set included two ancient "bone shakers," forerunners of the bicycle, built in 1948, a year before gold was discovered in California, a harpsichord built in the same period, which was used in the pit of the Imperial Opera, a genuine fiacre, forerunner of the cab, brought from the Austrian capital, three silver services worth fortunes and actually used in Vienna in the period.

Elaborate sets included the grand ball in Hohenfried Palace, a room the area of a city block with six giant chandeliers, a grand staircase, marble pillars, twenty-four arches, inlaid onyx and marble floor, with 200 dancers performing the minuet. Twenty-two different uniforms, authentic copies of all the officers' uniforms in the Austrian army of the time, dragoons, uhlands, hussars and the rest, were created for the sequence.

The Imperial Opera with its diamond horseshoe, candle footlights, great chandelier, the emperor's box with the royal coat-of-arms, was built from pictures and authentic descriptions and peopled with several hundred patrons. Albertina Rasch reproduced the ballet of the story as it was staged at its opening performance. There were 128 dancers.

Luise Rainer, as Strauss' wife, Fernand Gravet as Strauss and Miliza Korjus as the opera singer who won the composer's love, head the brilliant cast.

Bulldog Drummond fans — indeed, all lovers of good mystery films — are bound to enjoy their most solid entertainment yet with the added attraction. In sheer suspense, excitement and tantalizing mystery, the new Drummond thriller, with Tom Conway as the suave amateur detective, will more than satisfy the most avid "whodunit" fans.

"13 Lead Soldiers" puts Drummond to just about the most challenging test he has ever met, with the elements and clues involved as the unusual as they are complicated.

First there is the business of the 13 toy soldiers which, with the murder of a scholar who posessed only two of them, suddenly become very much in demand by certain persons who make it clear they play for keeps. Then there is svelte, mysterious Estelle Gorday who tries to get Drummond to march the toy soldiers her way; and Cynthia who knows the secret value of the toys, and is bitter enough about her father's murder to commit murder in turn. And, of course, there is Philip Coleman, who's afraid to hold two other toy soldiers and gives them to Drummond for safe-keeping; and there is Vane, who steals them from Drummond and complicates things even more by himself turning into a corpse. All of which adds up to a pretty game of death.

Added feature attraction is the thrilling mystery thriller with Joan Bennett and Michael Redgrave in Fritz Lang's "Secret Beyond the Door."

Frank Capra admits that he believes in only one hero in American life. That is the Average Guy.

His belief has paid off. Capra and his homespun hero have won five Academy Awards, about two up on his nearest competitor. In the past fourteen years a Capra picture has always landed among the nation's top ten box-office hits. This same average citizen has been the hero of some thirty-two Capra pictures, only one of which ever flopped.

Instead of shiny armor, Capra's hero is clothed in ordinary work clothes slightly baggy at the knees. He is an individual who has faith in humanity, believes the meek shall inherit the earth, and that happiness comes from making others happy.

Corny? Maybe. But it's true, says Capra. And he has turned his theories into box-office success. "It Happened One Night," "Mr.

Derek Farr and Barbara White appear in a romantic mood in this scene from the hilarious British comedy "Quiet Weekend," which will have its Montreal premiere at the Avenue Theatre starting Saturday.

Gay British Hit Will Have First Montreal Showing at Avenue Sat.

Montreal movie-goers will be delighted to know that one of the brightest British comedies in years will open at the Avenue Theatre Saturday. This will be the first local showing of the filmization of the famous hit play "Quiet Weekend" by Esther McCracken which ran for 3½ years on the London stage. It has been thoroughly enjoyed wherever shown, the now being shown at the Monkland Theatre, Capra has his favorite hero, the self-made man with ideals, a good business head and plenty of ambition. Tracy, in this role of a candidate for the presidential nomination has the country's smartest business men bait him with every American boy's proof being its 12 fun-filled weeks in Toronto; 7 rollicking weeks in Vancouver and 5 hilarious weeks in Winnipeg. Starring Derek Farr, Barbara White, George Thorpe and Marjorie Fielding, with a wonderful supporting cast, it tells the story of a family who take a country cottage at Thropleton, there to spend a quiet weekend. Congratulating herself that on this parties "Goes to Washington," "Lady For a Day" and "It's a Wonderful Life" are pictures that bear him out. His hero's universal appeal stems from the fact that whatever befalls him has at one time or other befallen you or someone you know. He is an ordinary fellow who gets involved in humorous, sometimes tragic, but always moving — residence in the White House. Never afraid of controversial subjects, Capra brings his political comedy out in a political year. His hero, however, faces two issues — one his career; the other, his marriage. Capra is as much concerned with his hero's heart as with his head.

The producer-director's conviction in the soundness of people's instincts is proven in his method of shooting several endings to his pictures. He previews each ending at various theatres and lets the audience decide on the best one.

Roberta Beatty Directs MRT Play

Roberta Beatty is directing the Montreal Repertory Theatre's production of Clemence Dane's "Will Shakespeare" to be staged at Moyse Hall, McGill University, October 19 to 23.

Before coming to Montreal Miss Beatty was a featured American actress and directed troop shows for the army of occupation during the war. She directed many previous plays for MRT, including "The Barretts" and "Amphitryon 38", as well as the popular "All My Sons".

The production of "Will Shakespeare" is the largest undertaking ever attempted by MRT. The cast will number forty, including Eleanor Stuart and Christopher Ellis. Fifty costumes have been designed by Virginia Watt, while settings for the six scenes have been designed by Hans Berends.

AT THE SNOWDON SATURDAY!

John Mills and Joan Greenwood are the romantic leads in the new British film "October Man," which will be shown for the first time in Montreal at the Snowdon Theatre starting Saturday.

Premiere of "October Man" Showing At Snowdon Saturday!

"The October Man" which will be shown for the first time in Montreal starting Saturday at the Avenue Theatre is a suspense picture and not a who-dun-it?" From the skilful pen of author Eric Ambler, who wrote "The Mask of Dimitrios" and "The Way Ahead" it co-stars favorite British performers including John Mills and Joan Greenwood with a strong supporting cast headed by Edward Chapman, Kay Walsh and Felix Aylmer.

The setting is a typical London suburban hotel to which John Mills, a young chemical engineer just released from hospital suffering from the results of a brain accident, goes to live. When a girl resident who has befriended him is murdered, the police and other guests suspect him of the crime. As the film builds to its climax, Mills' resistance to his suicidal tendencies begins to give way. However, the real murderer is caught and Mills is saved from killing himself by Joan Greenwood, his girl friend.

CANADA SHOULD PROTEST

HOLLYWOOD, October 6 — Canada's government officials charged with luring American film troupes north of the border should lodge a protest with Warner Brothers. These gentlemen have just produced a Whale of a movie, set in its entirety against Montreal and Nova Scotian backgrounds — but the whole thing was made in California.

"Johnny Belinda" is the picture in question, and it's sure to be nominated for the 1948 Academy Awards. Starring Jane Wyman and Lew Ayres, with a powerful performance by veteran Charles Bickford. Elmer Harris' stage hit has been transferred to celluloid with loving care and has actually gained in the process.

The story is laid mainly in a tiny community on Cape Breton Island where the hardworking folk divide their time between fishing and winning a hard living from the soil. The plot revolves around a farmer whose wife dies at childbirth, leaving him with a deaf mute daughter whom he grows to hate. Miss Wyman plays the mute so tenderly she rates an Oscar for the chore.

Into the village comes a young doctor, enacted by Lew Ayres. He is falsely accused of fathering Miss Wyman's cinematic child, and the ensuing complications fill nine reels of adult celluloid.

The script writers have wisely used mythical names for the townships wherein the action occurs. But what should put a burr in Ottawa's bonnet is the fact that Warners sent a location company to Fort Bragg and Mendocino in northern California where the coastline and landscape is said to duplicate Nova Scotian countryside.

These locations are almost 600 miles from Hollywood, and it would not have cost the studio too much extra to have photographed the story against its authentic Canadian settings. At the same time the Messrs. Warner might have built for themselves considerable good will in Canada through participation in the Canadian Co-operation Project.

Nonetheless, they have given us a fine film, for which we should be grateful. "Johnny Belinda" is herewith recommended to you as excellent adult entertainment. Take an extra handkerchief, ladies, for you'll weep even more than usual.

But there's a happy ending, so you'll go home with a smile.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL

The Canadian collegiate rugby season opens next Saturday afternoon, with Montreal's representative among the rah-rah boys, the Redmen of McGill University meeting Queens, and the power-packed Western Ontario Mustangs clashing with the league's other strong team, the Varsity Blues.

As a result of exhibition games to date, none of these teams, with the exception of the Mustangs, can lay claims to greatness, and none of the others have showed anything to remotely compare with the Metras-coached powerhouse. The Mustangs played twice in pre-season tilts, whipping O.A.C., 39-3, and rolling over the Sarnia Imperials, 42-0, in the best display of football speed and power seen on a Canadian grid this season. McGill have played and won twice, downing Ottawa U., 39-0, and breezing past O.A.C., 24-1.

Queens can hardly be rated as a threat, even after their 17-0 win over a weak Ottawa team, while Varsity's 7-7 tie with Toronto Beaches-Indians shows them as not being in Western's class. The Imperials, victims of that devastating Mustang punch, last week licked the Beaches-Indians, 12-7. Where does that leave Varsity?

On this basis of comparative scores, the Redmen seem to be next in line to the mighty Mustangs, but they can't be given much of look-in, as far as their chances of upsetting the Metrasmen are concerned. This is probably the best McGill team since that championship Red and White crew of 1938, or at least it looks so on the record of its exhibition games. However, the Redmen are notoriously brilliant pre-season players, with a tendency to fold against tougher conference foes, so it might be wiser to just wait and see before passing any hurried comments on the Montreal team.

IMPROVING ALOUETTES

That was a big victory for the Montreal Alouettes last Saturday over the weakened Argos, for it left the Montrealers' season record at a win and a loss against each club. Also, the Als are in fine shape for the rest of the schedule, and should pull through to finish in second place, behind the high-flying Ottawa Rough Riders, who would seem to be by far the best professional team in Canada. Notwithstanding the latent power, evident in the recent Alouette wins over Hamilton and the Krol-less Argos, we can't see anyone beating Ottawa this season, barring a minor miracle. Any team that can go on winning games with a gent like Tony Golab out of action, is just about the best there is around in Canada. In fact, Ottawa took the pesky Argos twice on successive Saturdays, without the aid of the amazing Mr. Golab, no mean feat in itself.

Then with such other backs as Wilf Tremblay, who seems to get better as he grows older, and the two good Americans, Howie 'Touch-down' Turner and Bob Raffrath, and a rough, tough line in the old Ottawa tradition, the Roughriders should go merrily on their way, all the way to the Grey Cup final. This is a team that has it.

NOTES

Dutch Davey, bulwark of the Dominion champion Montreal Navy team of 1944, is now plying his trade as kicking half for the Sarnia Imperials, currently in a second place tie with Toronto Beaches-Indians in the O.R.F.U. . . . However, a second-place tie in the O.R.F.U. is just about worthless when a club like Frank Filchok's Hamilton Tigers are leading the league . . . Look for Western's Jack Parry to have another big season. He gave an indication of things to come when he scored half of the Mustangs' 42 points in that rout over Sarnia . . . Bronco Reese, Alouettes' great lineman, is bidding fair to replace Virgil Wagner as the Als' most popular player. The big boy's driving line play and spectacular runs have won him the acknowledgement and admiration of Montreal fandom . . . They are hailing Pancho Gonzales as the greatest thing to hit American tennis in years, and some over-enthusiasts are even calling him a second Jack Kramer . . . Watch for ex-N.D.G. junior George Valois to be the big gun for McGill this season. We're afraid Murray Hayes will have to move over and make way for this ex-Montreal High flash . . .

Best of Three Games Series to Start at 2.30

By GEORGE COCHRANE

In the immortal phrase of Red Skelton, "They dood it," the colloquial words refer to Patrick Patterson's doughty Thrift crew of horsehide retrieving larrigans, who last Saturday won the Snowdon Senior Fastball League championship with a 6-1 win over Columbus at Macdonald Park. The victory gave the grocer boys the final series four games to one.

This Sunday at Macdonald the Thriftians will be out to do it again. For at 2.30 on the Sabbath day the local champions will trot out to do battle with the Quebec City champs for the provincial softball title. This will be a best of three games affair, the second and third (if necessary) games will be played at Quebec under the

This Sunday's battle looms, therefore, as one of the best of the season and it is likely to be the last senior tilt that Snowdon fans will be able to see again until sunny days return next May. Patterson's boys will enter the series as favourites, a rating they didn't enjoy in their jousts with Jay Killoran's Columbus squad, of which more below.

DEADLINE FLASHES

By BOB LUNNY

Did you ever hear of the word "click" or "pull"? Well, when we hear of those words it reminds us of sports, especially hockey. Let's suppose a player wants to try out with a Junior team. This player, who feels he is sufficiently adept to make the grade, goes up to the Forum and asks one of the coaches for a tryout with his team. If he is unknown to the coach, there is one strike against him already. Some coaches perhaps won't even give the boy a chance. Well, this coach gives him a break, tells him to put on his equipment and report to the player's bench. Most probably he will find himself on the fifth or sixth line and will only be on the ice twice in the practice. When the player does get on the ice the coach, presumably, will be talking to some spectator or trying to arrange his first three lines. After the practice the youngster will be told to leave his telephone number with the assistant coach, which in other words means the brush-off.

Now, in another case a boy's father knows the coach fairly well and through his father's name gets a tryout with the same club and is put on one of the better lines to show his ability. This aspirant will get a 50 per cent better chance than the fellow without a name. These examples show what is going on at the Forum at the present time.

If a player was judged by his hockey ability and not by his name there would be better balanced Junior teams in the J.A. H.A. But the trouble is that there is too much favoritism being shown by some of the coaches in the Junior league and something should be done about it. We know of certain players who would be stars in this league if only they had a chance to show their talent. Last year a high school hockey player was turned down by a Junior club solely because he was not known. It only goes to prove more forcefully that connections are certainly needed nowadays because the player I have in mind is now at the Detroit Red Wings training camp and is labelled an excellent prospect. He will be playing with Windsor Rockets this year. The coach of the team from which he was turned down mentioned the other day that he would be pleased to have him join the club but the assistant coach didn't take a liking to him and consequently turned him down. Since when does the assistant coach give orders to turn men down!

Crucial Tilt Week From Tomorrow With Rosemount

By BRIAN TIFFIN

"Make the playoffs" is the battle cry of the Westmount Junior grid team; for sadly enough the local footballers realize that first place is not for them.

A win for the purple and white a week from tomorrow over Rosemount will virtually insure the fourth place playoff spot. The locals have an open schedule tomorrow.

TENSE STRUGGLE

It was a tense struggle last Saturday that saw Eastwards and Westmount tie 5-5.

Hefty Mike Maruska charged around end for Westmount's major while Tyler of the Eastenders ran 30 yards to tie the score. 1,500 grid enthusiasts saw the play saw up and down the field for the remainder of the game without the deadlock being broken.

Maruska proved to have a talented toe as he punted an average of 45 yards throughout the game. His fast off-tackle runs were also an asset to the locals.

Binmore Starry

Dave Binmore played magnificently for the purple and white. He pounced on a fumble that saved the game in the last quarter and made several brilliant tackles.

Ernie Duley, Jack Dudley, "Moose" Young and Nelson Hicks also starred for the locals. Bak-tis, Letang, Bremner and Tyler were outstanding for the Eastenders.

Sporting Notes

Bob Lunny predicted three weeks ago that Ascension would take Thrift in the Snowdon Fastball League's playoffs. Thrift then eliminated the parishioners. To atone for this error, Bob called that Burma was in danger but said he hoped he was wrong. It was only a few days later that Burma was attacked and he was proven right.

China Affects Canada
"In this country," he said, "we take it easy and forget about the remote parts of the world, but trying to warn the world. Today, she issues the same kind of warning, but Communism is going to be a much more pernicious enemy than Japanese imperialism."
"These dangerous forms of Communism are shaping up to form a vast Red empire in all the Orient."
Not Civil War Only
"The war in China is not only a civil war but is an international war that cannot afford to be lost or else many parts of Asia will be endangered," he said.

At one point, Mr. Lowe said that he was in Burma in conference with the governor, before making a radio speech concerning the war situation. He told him we must remember that oceans like the Atlantic and Pacific, no longer divide the world into separate parts. The happenings in China are going to affect the Canadian way of life and thinking.
Mr. Lowe concluded by quoting Governor Thomas Dewey, "It is time for us to end our tragic neglect of our ancient friend, China."

John G. Ireland Wins $100 Prize

John G. Ireland, 539 Victoria Avenue, Westmount, P. Q., and John S. Moyses, 1557 St. Mark Street, Montreal, obtained a sufficiently high standard in passing the early joint examinations of the Actuarial Society of America and the American Institute of Actuaries to qualify for $100 prizes offered by the Canadian Life Insurance Officers Association, it was announced at Toronto today.

Mr. Ireland, a student at McGill University, and Mr. Moyses, a student at the University of Toronto, qualified for similar prizes last year.

The prizes are offered for competition among candidates sitting for Part II and Part III of the examinations and are designed to interest promising young Canadians with an aptitude for mathematics in embarking on an actuarial career.

All of the students writing this year were in attendance at Canadian Universities during the 1947-48 term and pursued their actuarial studies along with but independent of their regular University work. Nineteen students in all Canada were successful in winning prizes this year.

FAILED TO STOP

An accident happened Saturday morning on the corner of Mountain and Montrose avenues, between cars driven by Hubert Ashley Hibbard, 24, 1575 Summerhill avenue, and William K. Nonnenman, 35, 148 Cote St. Antoine Road, when Hibbard failed to stop at the stop sign. Both cars were damaged.

Crucial Tilt

Best Of Three

developed an almost infallible sixth sense which tells him when to yank a hurler. The sixth sense came in handy again on Saturday at Macdonald Park as Thrift and Columbus locked horns for the last time in 1948.

The big yank came in the last of the seventh. Thrift held a slim 3-1 lead at the time and two Knights were on base, both on walks by Moe Saucier. Jay Killoran was on third, Dottie Gray on second when The Lean Man waved Laurin from the bench to the mound.

Laurin forced Scully to pop to centre and that was that. In the eighth and ninth the Knights collected only one hit, a single by Paul Kay. Two other Columbus larrigans reached first on free passes. It was a typical bit of Laurin relief hurling.

Three Off Saucier

Saucier hurled fine ball until he was afflicted with a touch of wildness in the seventh. He gave up only three hits, all of them singles and two of them in the infield. While on the hill he fanned five and didn't walk a man until the seventh.

George Scully toed the slab for the losers and turned in a fair game. The grocers nicked him for eight hits. The eight included one homer, one triple, two doubles. The Scull whiffed four, walked four.

Slugger Gaudet

Big man at the plate as Thrift won the game that gave them their first Snowdon title, was Roger "The Moustache" Gaudet. The Moustache was hitting the pellet with considerable ferocity on Saturday. The big fellow belted a homer and a double to drive in five of the six Thrift runs.

CCF Condemns Housing Shortage

Condemning the present housing shortage, the St. Antoine-Westmount C.C.F. Club went on record as favouring an extension of the present rent controls until April, 1950, and a motion to that effect was adopted unanimously at the annual meeting held last Wednesday evening, September 29th.

Officers elected for the coming year were, president, Miss Estelle Gahan; vice-president, Lloyd Williams; secretary, George Ascroft and treasurer, Mrs. S. H. Griffin.

It was decided at the annual meeting that the Club should meet at least once per month and that an active campaign be undertaken to recruit new members and to acquaint the general public with the C.C.F. program.

The new pastor was introduced to one of his flock, a Mrs. Hummick. Since it was hard for him to remember names, he decided that he'd rub his stomach when he saw her and the association would recall her name to him.

The next day he met her on the street and with a smile on his face, as he rubbed himself, he cried: "Hello, Mrs. Kelly!"

Burlesque isn't as popular as it used to be, says a writer. But it's still not on its last legs.
