A NAVAL PARLEY DURING DECEMBER PROPOSED Serious Plane Accident—Contest Promised In Compton

A Conference Of Principal Naval Powers Planned

Present Proposal Is for a Parley by Great Britain, Japan, France, Italy and United States as Early in December as Possible—Exchanges Among Powers, Which It Is Expected Will Be Started During Coming Week, Will Be Means of Determining Whether Powers Other Than Britain and United States Are Willing to Participate in a Naval Conference.

(Associated Press Despatch) WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Diplomatic conversations looking toward a conference of the five principal naval powers are expected to begin both here and in London during the coming week.

The present proposal is for a parley by Great Britain, Japan, France, Italy and the United States as early in December as possible. It follows agreement on the basic factors in the British and United States navies, which caused the breakdown of the tripartite conference in 1927.

The December Conference would consider all categories of vessels, including capital ships, aircraft carriers, cruisers, destroyers and submarines, and, by an agreement of the powers signatory to the Washington arms treaty of 1921, would take the place of a conference which President Hoover would have to call under the terms of that treaty in 1931.

Exchanges Will Be Started Immediately. The exchanges among the five powers, which it is believed here will be started during the coming week, will be the means of determining whether the powers other than Great Britain and the United States are willing to participate in a naval conference, a tentative plan for the matters to be considered at such a parley and the time and place it will meet.

Informal talks have already been going on for some time, both here and in London, between American and British officials, and the diplomatic representatives of the other three powers regarding the progress of the naval negotiations between Ambassador Dawes and Premier MacDonald.

Acceptance of France and Italy Must Be Obtained. The manner of approach to the other three powers regarding the calling of a conference has not been determined upon, but Secretary Stimson, who has been president Hoover's chief adviser in the Anglo-American negotiations, feels that the problem of arranging for a conference should be looked into as soon as possible, in order that full preparation for its holding could be had in ample time before the actual meeting.

The acceptance of France and Italy of invitations to the conference must be obtained, and whether they are more ready today to enter such parley than they were in 1927, when they declined Premier Coolidge's invitation, is unknown.

EVACUATION OF RHINELAND NOT PROVING EASY

Commander of British Rhineland Occupation Forces Due in London Today for Important Conference on Question—Stated that French Troops Will Take Places of British Forces.

(Associated Press Despatch) LONDON, Sept. 16.—A despatch to the Express today from Wiesbaden, Germany, says that Lieutenant-General Sir William Thwaites, commander of the British Rhineland occupation forces, has received an urgent request from Right Hon. Thomas Shaw, Minister of War, for an important conference on the whole question of evacuation. He is due here later today and is expected to confer with Premier MacDonald, as well as the minister of war. The Express correspondent intimates that a difficult situation has been created by the announcement that as the British troops leave their zone, French troops will take their places. This was said to have caused intense anger in the Rhineland.
The despatch added: "All kinds of diplomatic complications have to be sorted out."

Six Killed When Airplane Crashed To Ground During Ontario Airport Opening

Five Passengers and Pilot in Toronto Commercial Plane Instantly Killed in Crash Which Marred Opening of New Air Field at St. Catharines—Cause of Disaster Not Known, But Inquiry Set Up by Government.

(Canadian Press Despatch) ST. CATHARINES, Ont., Sept. 15.—A tragedy that cost the lives of six persons cast its shadow of gloom over the Niagara Peninsula today, and marked the opening festivities of St. Catharines airport. Five passengers and the pilot of a Travelair cabin plane, operated by the Skyways, Ltd., of Toronto, crashed to their death shortly after 7.30 o'clock last night, less than two miles from the landing field.

An explosion followed the crash, and as the gasoline fed flames quickly devoured the fabric and non-metal structure, the bodies of the six victims were tossed amidst the leaping tongues of fire. Three bodies were disengaged from the burning plane by frantic rescuers, while the others were burned and charred almost beyond recognition. Not an occupant of the plane escaped, and all met instant death.

The dead are: J. L. F. Bond, aged 40, of 83 Henry street, St. Catharines; Allan Bond, his son, aged 6; J. A. McDonald, 43, of 229 Geneva street, St. Catharines; Government photographer at the Welland Ship Canal; Mrs. Agnes Bennett, widow, 35, Aberdeen street, Hamilton, formerly of St. Catharines; Louis Bennett, 23, of St. Catharines Heights, no relation to Mrs. Agnes Bennett; Pilot Frank "Doc" Bradfield of Toronto, aged 38; formerly of Virgil, near St. Catharines.

A Government board of enquiry has already been named and held its first sitting here yesterday afternoon. When its work is completed, a report will be made to the Department of National Defence at Ottawa.

No indication has yet been made of what the board of inquiry will report to the Department of National Defence at Ottawa. J. A. Wilson, director of civil aviation, was in St. Catharines for the opening of the Niagara district airport. He participated in the official opening on Friday when rain spoiled the air carnival and the events were postponed until Saturday. Mr. Wilson was at the field when the tragedy occurred. He immediately got in touch with Ottawa and was instructed to arrange the board on inquiry. The board is made up of G. H. Holmes, inspector of civil aviation, Department of National Defence; Capt. F. G. M. Sparks, of Montreal, and Captain Sanderson, instructor

Disarmament Has Already Begun In British Navy—Five Cruisers Withdrawn From Active Service

Are Ordered Placed on Disposal-for-Sale List—Fourteen Other British Cruisers, Which Will Reach Age Limit of Retirement by 1936, to Be Retired—Total Tonnage of 102,540 to Be Scrapped by 1936.

(Associated Press Despatch) WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—In preparation for a treaty agreement with the United States for naval disarmament, the British Government already has begun to withdraw from active service some of the cruisers which it will be obliged to scrap prior to 1936, but which have not yet reached the age limit when, under the prospective terms of the treaty, they will be retired and their tonnage replaced in part only.

Five British light cruisers which have not reached the age limit have been ordered placed on the disposal-for-sale list. They are: Yarrow, 5,250 tons, whose age limit for retirement will not be reached until 1929; Sydney and Melbourne, 5,400 tons each, age limit 1933; Birmingham, 5,400 tons, age limit 1934; Conquest, 3,750 tons, age limit 1935. The total tonnage of the cruisers is 25,200.

Cruisers to Be Retired. Fourteen other British cruisers, all of them small, will reach the age limit of retirement by 1936. All of them will be retired in accordance with the projected terms of the disarmament treaty as they reach the age limit, and will be replaced in part only. All the larger British cruisers are new, and the oldest of these will not reach the age limit until 1935. These vessels are: Dartmouth, 5,250 tons, due for retirement in 1931; Lovatoff, 5,400 tons, age limit 1934; Comus, Carysfort, Cleopatra, Calope, Champion and Castor, each of 3,750 tons and each due for retirement in 1935; Brisbane, 5,400 tons, age limit 1936; Cambrian, Canterbury, Constance, Centaur and Concord, each of 3,750 tons and due to be retired for age in 1936. The total tonnage of these fourteen ships is 57,340.

Work on New Vessels Suspended. Prime Minister MacDonald has announced that, in the interest of bringing down the larger British cruiser tonnage to an approach to parity with the United States cruiser fleet, work on the construction of 20,000-ton cruisers, the Surrey and the Northumberland, has been suspended. With five cruisers of a total tonnage of 25,200 already ordered disposed of, fourteen cruisers of a total tonnage of 57,340 to reach the retirement age by 1936, and two cruisers of a total tonnage of 20,000 not to be finished, the grand total of British cruiser scrapping, retirement or non-construction up to the world there. Whether it be from the emigration viewpoint, the viewpoint of investment, or the Dominion's position is supreme.

BOY KILLED IN AUTO SMASH AT SAWYERVILLE

Austin Elliott, Aged Twenty, Instantly Killed When Automobile Which He Was Driving Left Road.

(Special to the Record) SAWYERVILLE, Que., Sept. 16.—Austin Elliott, aged twenty, of Sawyerville, was instantly killed last evening in an automobile accident between Sawyerville and Eaton Corner. Elliott and a friend, Basil Gaulet, went for a drive after supper in the former's car. They went a short distance past Eaton Corner and then started on their return journey. After passing through the village on their homeward trip, the car struck a soft spot on the road and headed for the ditch. Leaving the road, the machine turned over in the field and then righted itself. The two boys had been thrown out, however. Gaulet, who was not seriously injured, saw that his friend was unconscious and rushed for help. Dr. Gillander, of Sawyerville, was called, but found Elliott dead, with a fracture of the skull and a perforation of the right lung. Elliott was driving the car at the time of the accident.

KING'S HEALTH IS EXCELLENT, SAYS REPORT

His Majesty Spending Quiet Life at Sandringham—Physicians Order King to Spend Coming Winter Living Very Quietly and Carefully.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—The King is fighting his way back to health on a literary diet of detective yarns and thrilling mystery stories. The Daily News reported the health of His Majesty is extraordinarily reassuring after his long siege of illness last winter. At Sandringham, the Royal country estate in Norfolk, where he is spending his summer holidays with the Queen, the Daily News says the King's existence is simple. There are none of the great house parties which in former days featured the life at his country seat, and there is no indication the King will be permitted to engage in his favorite pastime of shooting. His physicians felt it would not be wise to make undue demands on His Majesty's reserve strength and he must prepare to spend the coming winter and future winters living very quietly and carefully.

Hon. P. C. Larkin Denies That He Contemplates Resigning Office

High Commissioner for Canada in London Claims There Is No Foundation to Rumor of Resignation on Arrival in Canada for Annual Visit—Premier King Confirms Statement.

MONTREAL, Sept. 16.—Reports current in Montreal that Hon. P. C. Larkin, High Commissioner for Canada in London, is on the eve of resignation were effectively spiked Saturday when Hon. Mr. Larkin, accompanied by Premier King who met him at Quebec, reached this city on the C. P. S. Montclair.

An emphatic "No" was the reply of Hon. Mr. Larkin himself to the question on the rumor's veracity. To which the Prime Minister added: "We wouldn't let you resign, Mr. Larkin." The High Commissioner, who appeared in excellent health and spirits, was paying his annual visit to the Dominion to consult with the Privy Council at Ottawa on questions touching on his important office in London. There were, he intimated, many things he might talk about, but that he could scarcely speak much on anything until he had met the Privy Council. He had spoken about the Hague Conference which took place at Quebec Friday, and that was about as far as he could go. But on the general question of the status of Canada in the British mind, he was eloquent. "Canada," he said, "stands above all nations in

Conservatives Ready To Fight In Compton If Leaders Willing

Party Appoints Committee to Meet Mr. Camillien Houde in Regard to Contesting County in Coming Provincial By-Election, in Which McMaster Will Run—Annual Meeting Held and Officers Elected—Senator Pope Congratulated on 72nd Birthday—Many Prominent Speakers Present for Demonstration in Cookshire.

YOUTH KILLED AS MOTORCYCLE HITS MUD PILE

Wesley R. Safford, of Sutton Junction, Killed on Way to Montreal Yesterday Afternoon.

COOKSHIRE, Sept. 16.—That the Conservatives of Compton county object to Hon. A. R. McMaster, newly appointed Provincial Treasurer, being sent into their constituency as a candidate for the Legislative Assembly of Quebec in the coming by-election, and are prepared to fight if their provincial leaders signify willingness, was apparent on Saturday, when the annual meeting of the Compton County Conservative Association was held here in the afternoon. Regret was expressed that Mr. Camillien Houde, M. L. A., provincial Conservative leader, found it impossible to be present, but a committee was named to interview him and his other lieutenants to ascertain their wish in the matter of contesting the by-election.

The day was not only the occasion of the association's annual meeting. It was also the occasion of celebrating the seventy-second birthday of Hon. Rufus Henry Pope, veteran senator and former member of the Parliament of Compton, at the event being marked by a demonstration on the Cookshire Fair grounds in the afternoon.

That there was to be a by-election Compton county has known for some weeks, especially since Mr. Nicol has been through the county with Mr. McMaster for the past few weeks, introducing him as his successor as Provincial Treasurer, and member for Compton, a circumstance not known to the public generally until Thursday at noon when Premier Taschereau at Quebec, after a Cabinet meeting, announced the change into the government.

The committee named to meet Mr. Houde on Monday is composed of Sam Gobeil, of La Patrie; C. M. MacRae, of Cookshire; A. W. Pratt, Cookshire; Laurent Lacour, East Angus; Wm. Martineau, St. Edwidge; M. McKenzie, Scotsdown, and E. Hooper, Cookshire.

Officers Elected. Antoine Drolet, K.C., of Lake Megantic, was re-elected president of the Association, and A. W. Pratt, of Cookshire, elected joint president. For district No. 1, J. Hooper was elected vice-president; for district No. 2 Gaspard Marchessault was elected vice-president; district No. 3, J. Hooper, vice-president; district No. 4, J. L. Aude, vice-president; district No. 5, Dan Lamont, vice-president. The joint secretaries are Ulric Rousseau and A. H. Pope.

The afternoon meeting of the Conservatives, of whom there were representatives of groups from all parts of the county, and the birthday of Senator Pope were intermingled, but that did not detract from the political aspect, since no speaker was able to refer to the Senator without referring to politics.

Bennett Congratulates Pope. There were many telegrams and letters of congratulation. The letter from Hon. R. B. Bennett, leader of the party, to Fred R. Cromwell, former Conservative M.P. for Compton, was a full page in the "Morning News."

"I have heard that you are to celebrate the 72nd birthday of our old friend, Senator Pope, on Saturday, the 14th inst., with a basket picnic, commencing at 10.30 in the morning."

"May I express to you my regret at not being able to be present as I have to address the Canadian Chamber of Commerce in Calgary on the preceding day, otherwise I would have endeavored to have been with you."

SUTTON Jct., Que., Sept. 16.—A motorcycle accident claimed the life of Wesley R. Safford, of this place, yesterday afternoon. Young Safford, aged 22, had started out for Montreal on his machine, and when in the vicinity of Sutton the front wheel struck a pile of mud that was thrown up on the road. Safford was hurled over 150 feet before striking the ground. Passing motorists rushed to his aid, while a doctor and an ambulance were called. The victim was rushed to the Sweetbough Hospital, but died before admittance. The funeral will take place from his late residence, Sutton Junction, on Wednesday afternoon.

active interest in the politics of the day, and no one looks to the future with more supreme confidence in the destiny of our country than the distinguished Canadian whom we all love to call 'Uncle Rufus.' I trust your picnic is an unqualified success."

At the picnic in the afternoon speeches and sports by the boy scouts were intermingled. Hector Verret, K.C., of Coaticook, referred to the example which the life of Senator Pope furnished to young people. It was evident that elections, provincial and federal, were under way, hence all should work together to re-kindle the old fires of Conservatism.

Mr. Lynch's Opinion. W. H. Lynch, K.C., of Sherbrooke, president of the Conservative Association of the Eastern Townships, spoke of the feeling of the Eastern Townships for Senator Pope. As to the political situation, said Mr. Lynch, the Townships suddenly heard that there was a new Provincial Treasurer who lived in Montreal, and had a summer home in Brome, who was to replace Hon. Jacob Nicol, and who had been sent into Compton by Premier Taschereau to be elected.

"What choice have you people of Compton got?" demanded Mr. Lynch. "Have you no fitting candidate in your own county to represent you at Quebec? If I were a resident of this county I should resent the intrusion of a stranger here, on whom you are interested, owns no property here, and is being foisted upon you. You are told that he is the choice and that you must elect him."

Mr. Lynch referred to the calling of a Liberal convention for the county, who had interested themselves in the Sherbrooke papers, this being to the effect that the convention will be held on Saturday, September 21, in the Town Hall, at Bury, and reading as follows: "The Liberal delegates of Compton county are requested to meet in a convention, Bury Town Hall on Saturday, September 21, to offer to Hon. A. R. McMaster the candidature to finish the term as Provincial Treasurer for Hon. J. Nicol, resigned as member for Compton county in the Provincial Government." This advertisement is signed on behalf of the Compton Liberal Association by D. L. MacRitchie, president, and R. L. Gale, secretary, and apparently means that a Liberal candidate to contest the vacant seat in the Legislative Assembly, during the interim, of Mr. Nicol as M.L.A. for Compton, is to be selected; also to convey the intelligence that His Majesty has selected Mr. McMaster as his Provincial Treasurer for the province of Quebec.

"I am not saying anything against Mr. McMaster," said Mr. Lynch. "I have met him in Brome county, and I know him very well personally. He may make a very good Provincial Treasurer, but the question is whether you people of Compton want him to be your representative. Probably this is the first and last appearance of Mr. McMaster in the county of Compton for there will soon be general elections and you will probably find Mr. McMaster will not appear again as a candidate in Compton, but will stand in some other constituency, but in the meantime the people of Compton are being used to further the interests of Mr. McMaster and his friends. I am not tendering

NO MORE HOSPITALS

"The commonest thing we do is the thing we know least about-eating. Someday people will learn how to eat, and there won't be any more hospitals." No—that is not a question from one of my articles, nor was it written by any rabid anti-medical advocate. It came from the lips of one of America's great business men, Henry Ford. Of course, Mr. Ford was using a shocking figure of speech to startle his interviewer. We will probably always need hospitals for the injured for those totally ignorant about correct living.

In the interview, Mr. Ford urges the clergy to take up the study of diet to preach a religion of good living. Some ministers are already doing this, but I hope that Mr. Ford's suggestion will stimulate many more to add dietary teaching to their sermons about good living habits.

Sometime ago, when lecturing in Denver, I had a nice visit with Dr. Bell, who is a minister of the Episcopal Church, and who is actually spending a large portion of his time in teaching his congregation the principles of correct eating. Dr. Bell has found out that Mr. Ford has so aptly said, "That there are such great changes of mental attitude to be obtained by correct habits of diet, but it would better pay the clergy to attend to the commoner and more respectable habits, such as eating, than to some of the bad results of bad eating." Many in the medical profession will foolishly fear that this will result in the giving of what doctors call "misinformation." Such fears are without foundation. Many of our best ideas regarding diet have come from the laymen or, at least, from those who have not been recognized as ethical, licensed physicians of the dominant school of medicine.

The masses are hungry for practical information about correct diet. The one who sets himself up as a teacher of dietetics will not last long if his theories are not sound and if good results do not follow such teaching.

The Bible is full of instruction about living a clean, healthful life. The hygienic laws of Moses were good for the people of that day, and many of them cannot be improved on at the present time. New prophets of clean living will arise, and if the medical profession remains too concerned with surgery and microscopes, we may yet find that our best health teachers may come from the clergy and the laity.

Instead of spending so much money to enlarge our prisons, and instead of different communities beating about how many new hospitals they have, perhaps the day will come when some of this money and energy will be diverted into channels for health education. Is it too much to hope that the number of hospitals and jails might actually be decreased if we had Commissioners of Health who made a serious study of eating, which is the commonest thing we do to develop sickness and crime? If our public officials cannot realize that this is what the people need and want, we may still hope for help through both the financial and inspirational assistance of such clear-thinking business men and philanthropists as Mr. Ford.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Question—A. T. asks: "Will you please tell me what sugar poisoning is? Is it curable and how should it be taken care of? Do people get it on their hands only? When one has it, does drinking alcoholic liquor make it worse?"

Answer—From your question I would be led to believe that you are suffering from some form of eczema caused by using too large an amount of sugar. Try leaving sugar out of your diet entirely for a short time. Alcoholic liquor would make such a condition worse until you are completely cured of the general acidosis which makes you so susceptible.

Question—Mrs. M. P. asks: "Will you please make some suggestions on making vegetable fillings for sandwiches of wholewheat bread? My husband is a carpenter and has to take his lunch. Also, will you print your recipe for making peanut butter dressing for cauliflower?"

Answer—I will be glad to send you an article on the subject of making wholesome sandwiches, but cannot take the space to give you this information in the Question and Answer Department. The peanut butter dressing is made by thinning the roasted peanut butter with milk or cream. You may use any reasonable amount of this dressing over the cauliflower or any other vegetable.

Headache After Meals
Question—H. G. F. asks: "Will you please tell me what might be the cause of a headache in and just above the eyes after meals?"
Answer—The kind of headache you write about is usually caused from an irritation of the gastrointestinal tract, as in gastritis, duodenitis or colitis. Bad mixtures of food which produce stomach irritation are perhaps the most responsible for the sudden headache just after the meal.

Tattle-Tale Skin

Your skin can't keep a secret. No matter how you try to hush it up with creams and lotions and powders, it tells on you every time. If you're a bit bilious, the skin tells on you with liver spots. If your stomach is out of order, and you have frequent attacks of indigestion the skin lets everyone know it. If bowels and kidneys are not keeping the blood free of waste, pimples and blotches mar the smoothness of the skin. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL PRICES SHOW INCREASE

Dominion Bureau Report Shows that Forty-Six Food Items Were Up Substantially—Fuel and Lighting, Rent and Clothes Also Up.

MONTREAL, Sept. 16.—Both retail and wholesale prices advanced in Canada during August, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics announces in a report received here.

The weighted index of retail prices, rents and costs of services (1926-100) rose from 99.4 in July to 101.1 in August. Higher levels for foods were accountable mainly for the advance.

The index for 46 food items was up from 98.6 to 104.2, due to higher price for butter, eggs, flour, potatoes and some meats. Fresh eggs rose from 36.0c to 39.2c and cooking and storage eggs from 32.0c to 34.9c per doz. Dairy butter was up from 39.2c to 40.2c per lb., while creamery butter was 44.1c and 44.9c, respectively, for July and August. Flour, reflecting the rise in wheat prices, advanced from 4.8c to 5.3c per lb. Potatoes, with the old variety off the market, advanced sharply from 30.1c to 55.3c per peck. Fresh pork was up from 31.6c to 32.8c and bacon from 39.6c to 41.0c per lb. The fuel and lighting index rose from 96.0 to 96.2. Seasonal advances in anthracite coal and coke prices at some centres were responsible for the advance. The indexes for rent and clothing have been revised back as far as the month of May. The results indicate a rise in the former from 101.2 to 103.6, while the index for clothing registered a slight decline from 97.3 to 96.9. The index number for miscellaneous items was unchanged.

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics index number of wholesale prices on the base 1926-100, rose from 96.0 to 98.1. 67 quotations were higher, 47 were lower, and 388 remained unchanged.

Vegetables and Vegetable Products continued upward from 96.0 to 99.1. Wheat, barley, raw rubber, and raw sugar were lower, but advances were recorded by a large list of commodities which included foreign fruits, fresh and dried, flax, oats, rye, flour, bread and potatoes. Animals and their products also advanced from 108.3 to 109.8. Price increases for veal, pork, smoked meats, butter, and eggs, were of more account than declines for steers, beef, lambs, cheese and sole leather. Fibres, Textiles and Textile Products moved down from 91.5 to 91.1, due largely to lower prices for woolen fabrics and hemp which more than offset advances made by raw silk and sisal. Wood, Paper and Paper Products remained unchanged at 94.0. Iron and its Products were almost inert, moving only from 93.4 to 93.5. Non-Ferrous Metals remained at 95.5. Chemicals and Allied Products advanced from 95.7 to 96.0.

Donald found the new United States note highly satisfactory, and not so divergent from the stand he had taken himself but that he considered reconciliation a practical certainty.

The London afternoon press vied with the morning press today in the welcome accorded to the news of the popular Prime Minister's visit to Washington, with its implication that a naval agreement between Britain and America is in sight.

It was a feature story with banner headlines in all newspapers, and was further emphasized by appreciative and congratulatory editorial comment.

The announcement of the impending visit was made at No. 10 Downing Street, traditional home of British Premiers, shortly after a conference between the Premier and United States Ambassador Charles G. Dawes, who, it was understood, conveyed the latest note relating to the naval reduction negotiations to Mr. MacDonald.

The presumption was Mr. Mac-

SACRAMENT SUNDAY AT TRINITY CHURCH
The pastor of Trinity United Church, Rev. Dr. W. S. Lennan, conducted both services yesterday. It was sacrament Sunday, the Lord's Supper being administered after each service.
In the morning subject of the brief precommunion address was, "Complete in Him." The choir sang the anthem, "Seek Ye the Lord," the solo part being taken by Mr. Rhys Lloyd, tenor soloist of the American Presbyterian United Church, of Montreal, who is visiting in Sherbrooke at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. Walter Green.
The afternoon session of the Sunday School was an interesting one, and was well-attended.
In the evening, a solo, "Rock of Ages," was rendered by Mr. Rhys Lloyd, and the pastor preached on the subject, "Our Blind Spots." The sacramental service following was participated in by the larger part of the evening congregation.
At both services special announcements were made about the services of next Sunday. In the morning of that day the Masons of St. Francis District will worship in Trinity Church, and in the evening Rev. Dr. W. T. NO CHANGE IN CONDITION OF MR. ALBERT WIGGETT
Reports from the Sherbrooke Hospital this morning state that very little change was noted in the condition of Mr. Albert E. Wiggett over the week-end. Mr. Wiggett was brought to the hospital on Friday morning suffering from shock.

SERVICES YESTERDAY AT ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH
The regular services and meeting of the Sunday School, the minister's class for men and the primary department, were held yesterday at St. Andrew's Church. There was, as usual, a display of beautiful flowers in the church, and these were, as is customary, taken to the Sherbrooke Hospital and homes where there is illness.

Rev. Joseph Cordner, B.D., preached at both morning and evening services. His morning subject was "Taking Things Up Again," from the passage, "We returned all of us to the wall, everyone to his work." (Nehemiah IV, 15). "What seemed a very simple thing," the preacher said, "led in it the seed of heroism. It was one of those quiet and unilluminated actions which are greater than they seem. For it was an arduous and stuporous business, that business of building again those ruined walls. Few things in this world are so unsettling as a mighty outburst of military ardor. We have had experience of that, some of us, in what we speak of now as 'The World War.' Under its throbbing, our common daily drudgeries seemed in an hour a thousand miles away. Yet here," the speaker went on, "the moment the alarm was over and the tidings brought of a retreating enemy, we returned to the wall, every man to his work."

"This betrays the spirit we all need in these days," declared Mr. Cordner. "We must all master our unquietness, and nobody is exempt from them. First, I would say we all need that spirit when we come back to work again after holidays. A holiday may be a very blessed business or it may be a very unsettling business. Some men are so afraid of this unsettling that they never take a holiday. Nehemiah's workmen were twice active when they returned after their brief essay of arms. We ought to be like them."

"We all need this spirit after a time of sorrow. Let us not brood over our sorrows, but rather try to remember that God is in them."
"Very specially," said the preacher, "is this what the backslider needs. I mean the man who was professedly a Christian but went back again to his worldly ways. Such a person needs to come back and take the thing up again just where he laid it down."

"This was so characteristic of our Savior that every preacher may urge the necessity of it always. We see that in the life of our Lord there were days when the deeps were broken up, when the windows of Heaven were opened wide above Him."

There was a marked improvement in the attendance at the afternoon meetings. At the seven o'clock service Mr. Cordner gave an illuminating address on "Rest," the text being taken from St. Matthew XI, 28.

IMPORTANCE OF TRAINING CHILDREN
At the morning service at St. Peter's Church, the Rev. W. J. Bradbury, eastern field secretary of the General Board of Religious Education, was the special preacher. Mr. Bradbury took for his text, "As for me and my house we will serve the Lord." The speaker gave an eloquent and forceful sermon on the importance of "training a child in the way it should go," stressing the fact that home influence lasted through life. "People speak of the wonderful wealth of Canada," her minerals, timber, etc., but the greatest asset Canada has are the boys and girls of today who will be the citizens of tomorrow, and it rests with their parents to bring them up so that they will not only be good Christians, but good citizens."

Mr. Bradbury said, "There are four opportunities in a child's life for religious training. In the home, in Sunday school, day school and in church, but the home influence is the strongest and greatest. It is not only what parents say, but what they do, and children brought up in a Christian home are equipped and ready to face temptation when they go out into the world, as all have to do at some time during their lives, and the early training in their homes will ever be a guide and help. If Canadian children are brought up to be Christian men and women, think what a power for good they will be, not only in the church, but as citizens of this fair Dominion," concluded the speaker.

SOUTH STUKELY MAN THROWN FROM HORSE

Georges Gregoire, aged 40, of South Stukely, was brought to the St. Vincent dePaul Hospital yesterday afternoon, suffering from a broken collar bone received when he was thrown from a horse, on his farm yesterday morning. Reports from the hospital this morning state that his condition is satisfactory.

HARVEST THANKSGIVING AT ST. PAUL'S MISSION YESTERDAY

At St. Paul's Mission yesterday the annual harvest thanksgiving services were held and all four were well attended. The church was very beautifully decorated with grain, autumn leaves, fruit and vegetables of all kinds, and flowers in great profusion. The altar was exceptionally lovely with six vases of white and pink asters, which were placed there by Mr. Samuel Smith and family in loving memory of Mrs. Samuel Smith, who entered into rest on September 15th, 1918.

At the morning service the Rev. W. H. Cheverton preached an inspiring sermon, taking for his text part of the third verse, ninth chapter of the Book of Isaiah, "They joined before Thee according to the joy in harvest." The sermon was listened to with rapt attention by the large congregation. Mr. Cheverton preached when the church was filled to overflowing. Taking his text from the 5th verse, 8th chapter of Saint Luke's Gospel, "The sower went out to sow His seed," the speaker gave an eloquent and forceful sermon, appropriate for the thanksgiving service.

The music was well rendered by the choir, with Miss Elizabeth Robinson at the organ, and was chosen to suit the harvest festival.

A house that can blend good tea can blend good coffee

TRUE, coffee blending requires specialized expert knowledge quite different from the knowledge of tea.

But the principal requirement is the unswerving purpose to market the finest product obtainable at a proper price. To that end expert knowledge can be bought, the buying and blending financed and directed, the necessary immense reserves of stock created.

The well-known excellence of King Cole Tea is a result of high standards of buying and blending. Those same high standards have created King Cole Coffee.

SPOKE ON "ESCAPING FROM THE CROWD"

At Plymouth Church yesterday morning the minister, Dr. Ellery Read, preached on "Escaping from the Crowd." Basing his sermon on Christ's invitation to the twelve apostles after they had returned from their first missionary tour, "Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest awhile, for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat" (Mark 6:31) he stated that Christ was at the time passing through the most perilous period of his ministry, the period of popularity. He had sent his twelve disciples to preach the great fundamental truths of the Kingdom of God and they had returned full of joy because of their wonderful experiences. They were eager to tell their Lord and Master all about these, but it was impossible to find a place where they could be quiet and uninterrupted with him. For this reason Christ called them apart. The attempt to get away from the crowds did not meet with much success, for they soon followed Christ in even larger numbers.

If we are going to live the quiet and reasoned spiritual life it is necessary for us today to get away from the crowds. This is a difficult matter. It was never more so. There was a time when to live apart from the great cities where men crowd at every turn was to enjoy a measure of retirement and quiet. If one caught the sound of the multitude it was only occasionally, and then as a far-off rumble, the newspapers, the radio, the swift and ever-swifter means of locomotion all bear it to us today. The smallest hamlet, the loneliest homestead, hears and feels the throbbing life of the crowd, and it has strange and powerful influence over us.

One may see something of this subtle influence in such a common thing as fashion in clothes. Once a rustic was known by the clothes he wore. It was not expected that a country-dweller should be in the mode. But the great department stores, with their huge catalogues, aided and abetted by a cheap postal system, have changed all in ideas and movements the country is not far behind the city. Political, social and religious ideas and ideals were soon at home in the country as well as in the city.

Today there is an increasing tendency towards the crowded life of the city. Even our system of education has nurtured this tendency. The boy who receives his elementary education in a one-room little school house at the crossroads far away from the city catches a glimpse of large opportunities for economic advancement and makes up his mind to try for it. Popular education has done a great deal to depopulate the countryside. It was inevitable. The average man today wants to get into the crowd, or is driven into it by force of circumstances.

Notwithstanding this movement to the city and the crowd, there is an instinct for solitude that nearly all of us feel at times. It is not just the instinct to be alone, but to be with God. This instinct sometimes keeps us within doors, or leads us out into the silence of the great spaces. One of the blessings of the automobile is that it has enabled millions to get away into quietness occasionally. We need this quietness for meditation and reflection upon life and its issues. Especially is this needed by those who are grappling with the great problems of our modern life. No man can give anything to his age if he does not know what it is to drink of the springs of life. Christ found it needful to retire in solitude that he might come forth in the plenitude of renewed strength to minister unto the multitude. Much more do we need to escape from the crowd for a time that we may live more helpfully in the crowd.

The choir sang the anthem, "Blessing and Honour" (Rachmaninoff). At the evening service Mrs. Alberta Adams sang Caro Roma's composition, "Oh Dry Those Tears", and the choir sang the anthem, "God is Love" (Shelly), with solo by Mr. Roy Whitehead. By J. S. Fletcher

Then came an interchange of answer and question; within another minute Landale put the thing down and turned to us again.

"He's coming round here—he wants to see me at once about Hadrill. Don't go, you two—stay where you are. I shall tell him, if need arises, that you're here on the same errand—Hadrill's defence. But look here—not a word about your discoveries at Nice, or about Mrs. Weaver, or about anything concerning myself until I give the word. Appear to know nothing—at least, appear to let Hadrill be your only concern. Let's hear what Riddington has to say before we do or say anything. Let him talk—we'll listen."

"That statement you mentioned?" asked Trapper.

"Let it rest till he's gone—I'll see you then," said Landale. "I feel all the better since I got it. But now—careful about Riddington. As I said just now, let him talk, our job's to listen." He touched a bell, and gave a sharp instruction to the clerk who answered it.

"I'm expecting Dr. Riddington," he said. "Bring him in as soon as he arrives, and then see that we're not disturbed on any account."

In a few minutes Riddington came bustling in. It was plain that he was excited; in his excitement he paid no attention to Trapper and myself.

"Landale!" he burst out. "I've come around to see you about Hadrill's defence! Hadrill must be cleared of this ridiculous charge, Landale, at any cost!"

CHAPTER XIX
DR. RIDDINGTON SUGGESTS

I had not seen Riddington close at hand since the night he had called at my house, and I was at once struck more than I can say, by the difference in his appearance. When I had first seen him, he had impressed me as a wonderfully well-preserved man who looked nothing like the age I knew him to be. But now he looked that age; his hair had whitened, his whole frame seemed to have shrunk, his eyes and entire expression betokened anxiety, his face was haggard, that of a man who is experiencing troubled days and sleepless nights. There was a change, too, in his manner; it needed but a glance to see that he was in a highly nervous condition. His eyes were all over the place; his hands were never still—I could see at once that if he took a seat he would be out of it again in a minute and back to it another. And instead of being spick and span in his dress, as he had been, noticeably, when he called on me, his whole appearance suggested that he had hung his clothes on anything, and had never noticed whether his linen was clean or his necktie under his chin or his ear. Clearly, Riddington was passing through a period of terrible anxiety, and I shrewdly suspected that it was not because of Hadrill.

Landale affected not to notice anything. He drew forward a chair, and after waving Riddington to it, indicated Trapper and myself.

"These gentlemen are here on the same errand, doctor," he said. "Perhaps we can put our heads together."

Riddington looked at us. I am sure he had not recognised me when he entered; indeed, I question if he had seen me. He looked at us now with a tart and a frown. Then he saw who I was and stretched out a hand. It was a very different hand to that he had given me under my own roof. That was cool, firm, decided in its grip; this was hot, shaky, nervous.

"Oh! Mr. Gaisford!" he exclaimed. "Yes—yes—to be sure. How do you do?" He glanced at Trapper, suspiciously. "Your friend?"

I introduced Trapper in due form; fortunately, Riddington asked no more questions about him. He turned to Landale.

"As I say, Landale," he began, talking at a rapid rate. "Hadrill must be cleared of this charge, at any cost! Hadrill is an innocent man—we all know that! This has occurred because he happened to be my locum tenens ten years ago. I will bear the cost—anything! Now I haven't a word to say against the man you retained, not a word. Linacre is an excellent fellow—"

COL. E. MURRAY SEEKS EMPIRE MARK ON GOODS

Secretary of British Empire League Arrives from Britain to Advocate Plan to Manufacturers—Visitor Praises Canada—Suggests Development of Travel Facilities.

MONTREAL, Sept. 16.—The development of communications and travel facilities within the British Empire as the best way of bringing all parts into closer contact, stimulating business and bringing the prosperity which should follow in its wake was suggested by Col. Eric Murray, O.B.E., secretary of the British Empire League, in an interview at the Windsor Hotel yesterday.

"The increase of trade between not only the Mother Country and the Dominions and Colonies but also between the Dominions and Colonies themselves is on the move," he thought. "The increased consumption of Empire food products in Great Britain is a welcome sign and the provision of adequate defences for our far-reaching trade routes is a cause for satisfaction to an immense population such as that of the Mother Country."

"On this, my first visit to any country within the Empire, I gladly express my pleasure and wonderment at the beauty of the Dominion of Canada. From what I have already experienced my chief hope is that my next visit may not be for of in order that I may renew the happy acquaintances I have made."

Col. Murray is paying a fleeting visit to the principal cities of Eastern Canada on behalf of the British Empire League. One of the chief matters that he has been suggesting and is about to discuss with business men in the Dominion and more particularly members of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association in Toronto is the question of placing a uniform Empire mark of origin on products from all parts of the British Isles, the Dominions and colonies.

A British Empire Mark of Origin Association has been formed in England by the British Empire League and it is largely in order to get suggestions on matters pertaining to the organization of the Association, and to investigate conditions in this country that Col. Murray is here on a visit.

DOUKHOBORS OF WEST ASK FOR INVESTIGATION

Sons of Freedom Send Telegram to Premier King, Requesting Dominion Government to Look into Case—Claim Problem Is for Federal Authorities to Settle.

(By Canadian Press.)

NELSON, B.C., Sept. 16.—Members of the Sons of Freedom Doukhobor sect, encamped outside the city limits, sent a telegram to Premier Mackenzie King at Ottawa requesting that the Dominion Government look into their case.

Following is a copy of the telegram: "Our progress based on love, teaching of Christ. Authorities of British Columbia commitment mutilation; not considering the cause, beat us brutally to unconscious state. After all delivers to custody. Children left alone without parents' care. Over 200 now under police guard encamped near Nelson limits. Investigate the matter soon; do not leave it to the provincial Government. We were accepted by the Dominion Government. Don't let disgrace exist in country. The time has come for freedom and set free the motherland. We cannot stop our deeds in progressing the teachings of Christ. We sacrifice our lives. Unchangeable. (Signed) C.C.U.B., Sons of Freedom."

MEDICAL AUTHORITIES ASK FOR CREATION OF CANCER INSTITUTE BEFORE SENATE

U. S. Senate Committee Considers Best Means for Cure of Disease—Opinions of Medical Men on Subject Studied.

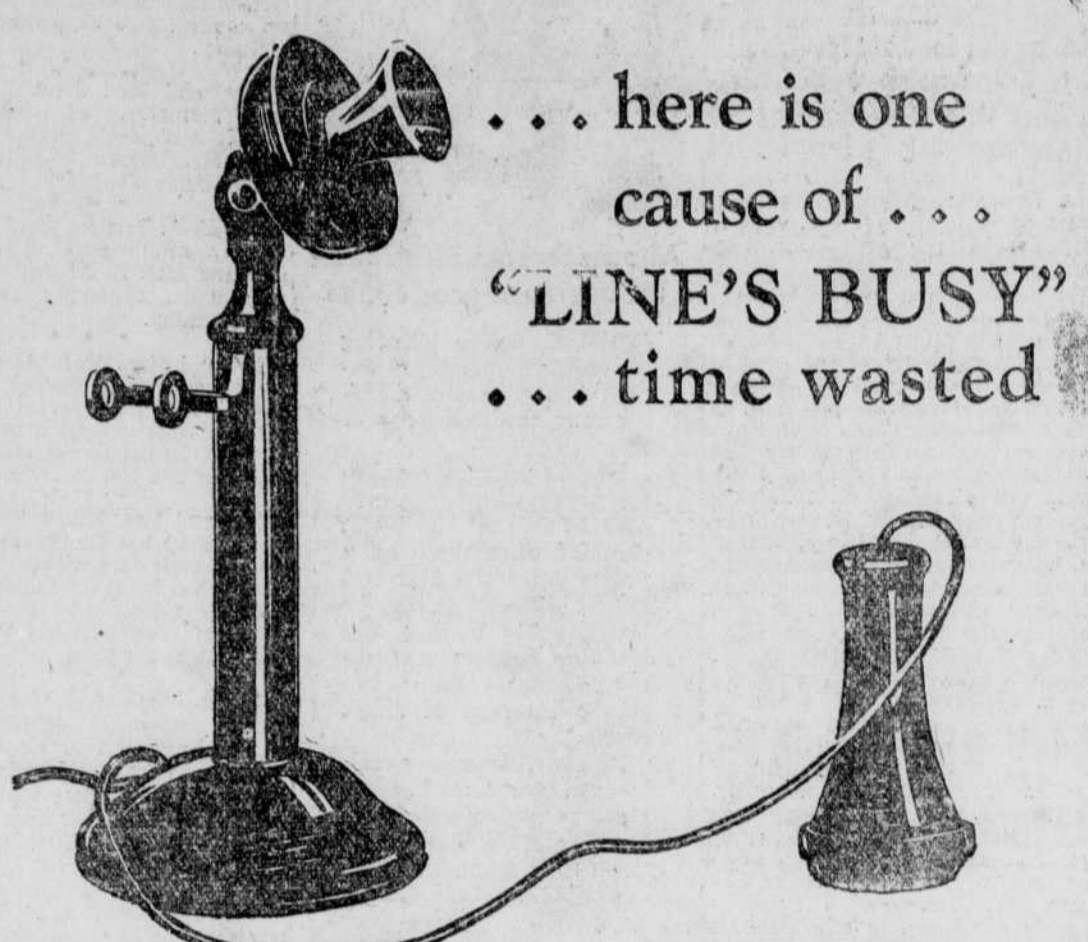

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Letters from medical authorities were before the Senate Commerce Committee in its investigation of the best means of Government aid in the search for a cure for cancer.

All the letters agreed that more money for existing institutions of research and earlier diagnosis of the disease was urgently needed.

Recommending that the Government authorize a cancer institute along the lines of those established in Europe, Dr. J. M. Wainwright, of Scranton, Pa., said he believed it was important also to aid existing institutions, suggesting that the problem could be solved only through many points of attack. (most cancers can be readily cured in the beginning; there are often a Dr. J. Shelton Horsley, of Richmond, Va., wrote: "We know that early, but most cancers are painless well advanced.")

... here is one cause of ... "LINE'S BUSY" ... time wasted

ANYONE trying to call this telephone will be told by the operator: "Line's Busy". But the line is not busy. It is really idle. Someone at the other end of the office is wanted and the telephone waits there until he arrives.

The idle telephone, with its receiver off the hook, is a common cause of "Line's Busy", and a common cause of uncompleted calls which are wasting two million minutes every day in Ontario and Quebec. Other causes of unnecessary "Line's Busy" are inadequate office equipment, long conversations during peak hours, trying to repeat too soon after the "busy" report, and asking another to get your party for you.

Many offices may not need more telephones, but they do need to have their present telephones more conveniently located. You may be losing calls because your line is thus "Busy", but really idle. And you may be losing business.

We want you to have the best possible telephone service and we are making every effort to provide it. We are ready at any time to survey your telephone equipment and submit a report.

it takes 3 to complete a call

*New telephone plant and service improvements will mean an outlay, for 1929 alone, of more than $27,000,000.

exposition. He was still excited, but yet more master of himself than on his first coming, and his voice was steadier.

"Now listen!" he said. "We take it as a settled thing that James Machin met his death in the house in Tuesday Market on the night of December 12th, 1915. Now—"

"A moment," interrupted Landale. "Let me point out, to begin with, that, in order to establish a successful alibi, we've got to prove, first, that Machin was murdered on that particular night, and second, that the murder took place at the house in Tuesday Market. I have no proof of either fact! However, let's suppose we can prove it. We'll take those two suppositions as being established. Go on, doctor."

"Machin met his death in the house in Tuesday Market on the night of December 12th, 1915," said Riddington. "Now I will tell you what Hadrill has told me of his movements from six o'clock that evening until nine o'clock that morning, and his word can be corroborated by Mrs. Hadrill; by two servants, who can be traced; by a gardener, who can be traced; by a Jeweller, my dispenser; by two persons in the town here, a highly respectable man and his wife; and by our case-book and an old diary of Hadrill's. But I will set his doings out in order, if you will follow me.—From six to seven o'clock on that particular evening—"

"Wait a moment, doctor," interrupted Landale. "I'll take a note of what you're going to tell us—it'll come in handy when we get to business. Now," he continued, assembling his writing materials, "go ahead as you like!"

"From six to seven o'clock that evening, the 12th December, 1915," repeated Riddington, "Hadrill was at his own house. That can be proved by his wife, their governess, and their servants. At seven o'clock he went round to the surgery, and was there until a quarter to nine. That can be proved—and that is never left it—by Jemmett, our dispenser, and by several patients."

"Pretty stiff, thought, asking patients to recall exactly what happened between certain hours of an evening ten years ago!" muttered Landale. "Still, I suppose it can be done."

Four years ago Mr. and Mrs. Drake celebrated their golden wedding anniversary and all joined in congratulations, and the Women's Christian Temperance Union took the opportunity of honoring Mrs. Drake with a life membership in this Society, to which she was devoted and in which she acted as secretary for many years. She was also a devoted member of the Anglican Church and gave much time and thought to all its activities and services. Mr. and Mrs. Drake had no family. The funeral service was held at Trinity Church on Saturday afternoon, September 7th. In the absence of the rector, Rev. A. T. Love, of Montreal, a former rector and dear friend, officiated. Favorite hymns, "Rock of Ages," "Jesus Lover of My Soul," and "On The Resurrection Morn" were sung. Mr. Love in his remarks said that the name "Saint" had usually been reserved for those who had passed beyond, but in the case of deceased the appellation had been quite applicable in her life-time for her unselfishness and faith in God were its outstanding features.

Deceased is survived by her husband, three sisters, Sarah, (Mrs. Goatcher, Montreal), who tenderly cared for her sister during the past few months, Alma, (Mrs. Bond), of Buffalo, and Miss Grace Gaulton, Capetown, Essex, England.

Those present were Mrs. Goatcher, Miss Annie Gaucher, niece, Mr. Philip Gaucher, of Montreal, nephew, Mr. Frank Gaucher, of Toronto.

The bearers were Messrs. F. E. Draper, B. Lodge, W. J. Bell, G. Hamlet, F. Gauthier, and D. Lockhart. The casket was covered with beautiful floral offerings. Interment was made in the Union Cemetery.

MRS. FRANK MORRISON, COATICOOK, QUE. On September 9th, there entered into rest Mrs. Frank Morrison, nee Adelle Edson, after a lingering illness, at the age of seventy-three years.

Prayers were said at three o'clock on Wednesday afternoon at her late residence, the funeral cortege proceeding to the Baptist church at three thirty. Mr. Chas. Akhurst conducted the funeral, with the Rev. W. H. Wallace, pastor of that church, to which the deceased was a member, officiating. Favorite hymns of the deceased were rendered by the choir.

The bearers were Messrs. A. L. and E. B. Parker, Robert Wilson, Jr., Robert Flanning, H. A. Baldwin and A. R. Morrison.

Three children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Morrison, one daughter, (Glady), Mrs. H. A. Baldwin, and two sons, Messrs. A. R. Morrison and Turner C. Morrison, the latter having predeceased her some years ago, also her late husband, who passed away ten years ago. The deceased is survived by one brother, Mr. A. D. Edson, of Dixville, and seven grand children.

The floral tributes were many which testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held. The interment took place at Gould cemetery near Kingsford, beside her late husband.

Among those who attended the funeral from out-of-town were Messrs. A. D. and Fred Edson and sister-in-law, all of Dixville, Que.

Co.

The remains arrived at the home of his parents on Thursday, August 22nd. The funeral service was held in St. Luke's Church, at Waterloo, Que., on Friday afternoon, August 23rd. Rev. W. O. Macfarlane, assisted by Rev. O. Strowbridge, conducted the service. The hymns, "Rock of Ages," "Lead Kindly Light" and "Nearer My God to Thee," Mrs. Candlish presiding at the organ.

The late Mr. Whitehead was born December 31st, 1888 and had lived most of his life in this town, having moved away a short time ago. On August 1st, 1918, he married Myrtle Emma Menard, of Waterloo. He leaves a wife and one daughter. Other relatives are his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Whitehead; five brothers, Messrs. Homer, Arthur, Frank and Adrian Whitehead, of this town, and Mr. Olek Whitehead, of Attleboro, Mass., and three sisters, Miss Minnie Whitehead and Mrs. Richard Hillicker, of this town and Mrs. Fred Loach, of Lennoxville, and other relatives. He will be deeply mourned by those nearest and dearest to him.

MRS. HELEN BAKER ELDER, BEEBE PLAIN, QUE. BEEBE PLAIN, QUE., Sept. 16.—The death occurred here on August 25th, of Mrs. Helen Baker Elder, wife of Mr. John Elder and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bator. She was born in Stanbridge East, on January 5th 1866, and came to Bebe Plain, with her parents, more than fifty years ago. She was married to Mr. Elder on October 8th, 1891 and has lived here ever since. She was a member of All Saints Church and an earnest worker in that denomination, with membership in and several times president of the Ladies' Guild.

She was essentially a home body, devoted, loyal and faithful to the highest home ideals. Modest and unassuming, she did what came to her hand for the pure pleasure of it, without thought of nor anticipation for any reward or preferment. She was always cheerful, happy and intensely sympathetic in her relations with all she met, and her loyalty to friends and to the right was a marked characteristic.

Her unselfish service has been a blessing to the community in which she lived and leaves a beautiful memory, warm in the hearts of all who knew her. To those who are left to continue alone "life's journey this memory will be an inspiration to more lofty purpose and will long remain enshrined in the hearts of a community which loved and respected her. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, John Elder, one daughter, Mrs. David M. Camp of Quebec City, and a son, Arnold B. Elder, of Montreal.

She was laid to rest in the presence of a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends with simple and dignified services, conducted by Rev. Eardley-Wilmut, assisted by Rev. W. de Gruchy. A wealth of flowers, which she loved so dearly, attested the esteem in which she was held and the sympathy felt for the bereaved ones.

GOLF AS CHAMPIONS PLAY IT. Diagrams showing golf techniques: cutting ball, wrong grip, bent knees.

When a player once gets into the habit of slicing how should he proceed to cure himself? Answered by BOB CRUICKSHANK, Winner of Los Angeles, San Antonio, Hot Springs, North and South Open Championships, 1927. Maryland Open, 1928.

There are many causes for slicing. First of all there is the player who brings the club face right across the ball causing the side spin which makes the club back in an arc which is outside a straight line back from the ball. The club should be started back low and a little nearer the body. This brings the left shoulder around into a better position, and allows a hit straight through. Sometimes, of course, the grip is all wrong and the left hand is too far below the shaft with the right hand too far on top. To remedy this, shift the left hand over the shaft until the third knuckle is seen, then bring the right a little more to the right side of the shaft. Sometimes the slicer hits with both knees bent. This causes side pivoting of the body instead of pivoting of the head of the club is too far behind the hands so that the shot is mistimed. It should be played so that the left knee is straightened out and as the ball leaves the clubhead, follows through and the right knee bends inward to allow a turn. BOBBY CRUICKSHANK. LOCALS DEFEAT WATERLOO BY SINGLE POINT

Sherbrooke Had Close Call in Annual E. T. Meet—Waterloo Took Big Lead in Senior Section, But Locals in Junior—Hammond and Adams Outstanding Individually.

The sixth annual Eastern Townships Amateur Athletic Meet was held at the Parade ground on Saturday afternoon, when Waterloo gave Sherbrooke a somewhat bad score, taking forty-four points against forty-five by the local athletes. Waterloo had a lead of nine points in the senior events, with thirty-five to twenty-six points, the other sections represented being Richmond and Bishop's College, the former getting fourteen points and the latter nine.

There were some surprises, the big surprise being the pole vault, in which Adams for the first time in a number of years was defeated by Hume, of Waterloo, Adams, of Granby, coming a good second. The sprinters, however, caused more excitement, and Hammond, of Sherbrooke, put up a very fine performance in the 100 yards and 220 yards, taking the former in 10 2/5 seconds, and the latter in 25 seconds. He also took the 440 yards in 1 7/8 seconds. Hall, of Richmond, did not do as well as expected, but took first place in the half-mile and third place in the quarter-mile.

Only two starters entered the five-mile race for the Y.M.C.A. cup put up for annual competition, one of these Gleason, of Richmond, came in first. The other runner was Goodhue, of Sherbrooke. The time for the race was 41 minutes and 23 seconds. Last year Fratt, of Montreal, won this event.

In the junior section, Sherbrooke showed up very well, Mutchler, of Sherbrooke, taking the 100 yards very easily in 11 1/5 seconds and McGregor the high jump with 4ft. 8 1/2 inches. The following is the list of events and standings of competitors, with the time or distance:

Senior Events. 100 yards—1, C. Hammond; 2, Stockwell; 3, Hume. Time 10 2/5 seconds. 220 yards—1, C. Hammond; 2, Stockwell; 3, D. Watson. Time, 25 seconds. 440 yards—1, B. Hall; 2, Hewitt; 3, Frangley. Time, 2 min. 16 seconds. High Jump—1, Adams; 2, McCullough; 3, C. Hammond. Distance, 5 ft. 3 1/2 inches. Broad Jump—1, Adams; 2, Hume; 3, McKergow. Distance, 18 ft. 1 inch. Pole Vault—1, Hume; 2, Adams; 3, Young. Distance, 10 ft., 1 1/2 inches. Shot Put—1, C. McKergow; 2, Stockwell; 3, A. McKergow. Distance, 30 ft., 4 1/3 inches. One Mile—1, Young; 2, McCullough. Time 5 min., 50 seconds. 440 yards—1, C. Hammond; 2, Frangley; 3, B. Hall. Time 57 3/5 seconds. Five Mile—1, Gleason; 2, Goodhue. Time 41 min., 20 seconds. Junior Events. 100 Yards—1, C. Mutchler; 2, McGregor; 3, D. Johnston. Time, 11 1/5 seconds. 220 Yards—1, B. Hall; 2, C. Mutchler; 3, McGregor. Time 26 1/2 seconds. High Jump—1, McGregor; 2, Hume; 3, B. Hall. Distance, 4 ft., 8 1/2 inches. Pole Vault—1, Bushey; 2, Hume; 3, D. Johnston. Distance, 8 ft., 6 inches. Individual Standing. Seniors—C. Hammond, Sherbrooke, 16 points; Adams, Granby, 13 points; Stockwell, Stanstead, 13 points; Stantard, St. Mary's, 12 points; Waterloo, 7; B. Hall, Waterloo, 6; Young, Waterloo, 6. Juniors—McGregor, 9 points; C. Mutchler, 8; Hume, 6; B. Hall, 6. Town Standing—Sherbrooke, 45 points; Waterloo, 44; Richmond, 14; Lennoxville, 9. The officials for the meet were: starter, J. P. Watson; timers, L. Keeler, B. Watson, H. Clark; judges, H. McCullough, N. Lathrop, R. Loughhead, P. O. Ripley; scorer, F. McCaw; announcer, W. Peak. Pleading comment was heard on Saturday on the conditions at the Parade ground, everything having been so well arranged and the credit being run off without any difficulty whatever. The success of the Meet is largely due to these arrangements, which were all in the hands of G. C. Walker, clerk of the course.

TENNIS TILDEN REGAINED U. S. CROWN NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The dominion of William Tilden over American tennis was re-established by title as well as in fact on Saturday. Three years after his reign was brought to an end by an interlude of French triumph, the 35-year-old Philadelphia veteran captured the national championship for the seventh time, thereby equalling the record held jointly by Richard D. Sears and William A. Larnar, and assuring himself of being ranked first in American tennis for the tenth consecutive time. A gallery of 9,000 at the stadium of the West Side Tennis Club at Forest Hills witnessed the restoration of the crown as Tilden defeated Francis T. Hunter, of New Rochelle, in the final round of the forty-eighth annual tournament. The match went to five sets, with Tilden trailing 2 to 1, but there was never any question as to the ultimate reckoning, and the final two chapters found the once invincible monarch of the courts electrifying monarch as of yore with a withering onslaught of drives and service aces that brooked no opposition. The score was 3-6, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2, 6-4.

RUGBY ANOTHER PRACTICE TONIGHT The regular practice for the Athletics rugby team will be held tonight at 6:30 on the parade ground, when every last man who wants to make the team should be on hand. Last year the Sherbrooke men had some difficulty standing up to the better seasoned players, largely because the locals did not get down to hard practice. This year, with stronger combinations in all the other teams, unless Sherbrooke is satisfied to stay at the bottom of the ladder, the fellows must get at it in real earnest. Tonight the practice will be with full equipment and Mr. George Walker, physical director, will be on hand to help out.

Conservatives Ready To Fight

(Continued from page 1) you any advice in the matter, but you know the facts, and the circumstances under which Mr. McMaster comes into your country. You have but a short time in which to make a decision."

Mr. Bunbray Speaks John Bunbray, K.C., of Montreal, who has fought in many political battles in this county, said the present event showed the autocratic nature of the Quebec Government, and he did not think that the electors of Compton, Liberals as well as Conservatives, would remain insensible to the conduct of the Government.

You are invited to go on the 21st of this month to offer the candidature to Mr. McMaster. He said, "and that is a little strong. I should think that Compton people should know to whom to offer the candidature without being told. Why should the young men of this county who have legitimate political aspirations be satisfied? I have nothing against Mr. McMaster. He is known as an honest man, a man of probity, and he is a friend of mine, but what position can Mr. McMaster take at Quebec? He left Ottawa because he objected to ministers being directors and shareholders of companies which he contracts with the Government. What will he do in a cabinet with Mr. Perron, Mr. Galipeault, Mr. Taschereau and other ministers who have business with the Government, for the stand he took at Ottawa? Liberty is left to you whether you will make a fight or not, but in the face of the insult offered me I ask you if it is not a duty to show your feelings, no matter what the result may be. You will at least show the Government that the voice of the people must be heard."

Mr. Bunbray referred to the new leader of the Opposition, Camille Houde, saying that he was yet unknown to the rural sections but well known in Montreal as the man who had hady defeated Mederic Harrin and the Liberal ministers in St. Mary's division, and he felt sure that electors of Compton county would find that he was not the man to bow his head to the wishes of the Government. He was the man who after the next general elections would be called upon to conduct public affairs.

Agriculture Dealt With Sam Gobell said that Hon. Mr. Perron had told the people they were to forget politics while he saved them from the disastrous position in which they were, and had adopted the Conservative agricultural policy. On one hand, Hon. Mr. Carleton, a farmer, had preached that the farmers were prosperous, and on the other hand a Montreal lawyer had appeared to tell them they were in a bad way, and he would save them if they forgot the past. To forget the past was to forget the record of the Government, the fact that in order to get a job at $2 a day working on the roads one had to be a Liberal, that for a municipality to obtain permission to do anything it was necessary to elect Liberals to the municipal council; that the people had to elect Conservatives to the school commissions if they wanted anything from the Government, and to forget, generally, the state of slavery into which the Government had led the people for the last 15 years. If Hon. Mr. Perron is sincere in his desire to help agriculture, said Mr. Gobell, he should go to his constituents and demand that the Quebec farmers be protected as to the sheep raising industry against Australian wool, and against the United States as regards vegetables, fruits and other foodstuffs, and as well in the matter of leather.

Message from Mr. Crepeau "I have been commissioned by my leader, Mr. Houde, to express regrets at not being present today, due to a previous engagement," said Armand Crepeau, M.L.A. for Sherbrooke. "He has asked me to express to Senator Pope his most sincere congratulations. The name of Pope is linked with Compton county since Confederation, and also linked with the history of Canada. To the electors of this county I offer my sympathy for the recent cruel loss you have suffered, but there must be comfort for you that some one else has been chosen to replace Mr. Nicol without yourselves being given any trouble in the matter. If the electors of Compton desire to fight, I am authorized to say on behalf of Mr. Houde that there will be doings in the county out of the ordinary. You may be sure that Mr. Houde and all the Conservative deputies and friends will give their support if we have a contest."

Senator Pope's Reply Senator Pope, in replying to the eulogies delivered, said perhaps he chapters found the once invincible monarch of the courts electrifying monarch as of yore with a withering onslaught of drives and service aces that brooked no opposition. The score was 3-6, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2, 6-4.

Would Vote Against McMaster Turning to the present pressing political situation in Compton county, Senator Pope said he had nothing to say against Mr. McMaster, and nothing to say against the Government. "I know him, I know his past, and I would not vote for him, and if anyone else runs against him I will vote for him," he announced. "I shall not vote for Mr. McMaster for certain reasons: first, because of his war record; secondly, because he knows nothing about us and cares nothing about us; thirdly, because he lives in Montreal. I voted against Mr. Nicol because he did not live here, and if the people of Sherbrooke would not vote for him, I did not see why we should do so. He has left the Government. We do not know, but we know he is clever and has his ear to the ground and perhaps find it would be too chilly in the open, and prefers the warmth of the Legislative Council. Whether Premier Taschereau wanted him to go or not, we do not know, but we do know that he slipped out very easily."

The Senator paid a compliment to Mr. Houde, saying he was of the people and knew the people, their problems and their troubles.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK MARKET QUOTATIONS

(Canadian Press Despatch) MONTREAL, Sept. 16.—Cattle receipts 1,589. Buyers were offering lower prices for cattle this morning, only a few cows and light steers being sold. Steers of pretty fair quality, weighing around 1,000 pounds, were sold for $7.50, and plain steers to go back to the country for $6.50. One load of good steers was sold for $8.60, but there were not enough early sales to form a basis for quotations.

Calf receipts 2,029. Calves were of better average quality, and with an offering of 1,400 head less, the calf market was 20 to 50 cents higher on lower grades. Grassers sold from $5.50 for the poorest kinds to $7.25 for good quality, with the bulk between $6 and $6.50. Top veals brought $14, with the bulk of the good calves brought $11.50 to $12.50, and medium kinds $9.75 to $10.75. Common $7.50 to $8.50.

had spent more time in public matters than had been good for the personal matters, but he had been born of a Conservative family, was a Conservative, and was happy that at no time had he ever had occasion to regret his political faith. At different epochs of importance in the history of Canada sincere Liberals had been obliged to leave their party in great numbers, and he thought the Conservatives in bringing about big events, such as at Confederation, in building railways, in 1878 when the National Policy had been framed, and again in 1911 when it was sought to make us servants of the United States instead of continuing as citizens of the best half of the North American continent under the British flag. Again, when the war for the preservation of Christianity and civilization had come about, Liberals had to leave their party to join the Conservatives; hence, said the Senator, there was plenty of evidence that he had been fortunate in being born a Conservative.

Senator Pope said he had no blame to attach to the United States because of their policies to protect their people, since that was their own business, but what he wanted was an equalization of conditions for Canadians who had to come about, Liberals had to leave their party to join the Conservatives; hence, said the Senator, there was plenty of evidence that he had been fortunate in being born a Conservative.

CUBS TODAY ARE ONLY ONE GAME FROM PENNANT

Chicago Handed Out a Bad Trouncing to Dodgers Yesterday—Many Double Headers Were Played.

(By William J. Chipman, Associated Press Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The major league dipped down into the minors yesterday for an idea to bolster box offices weakened by the unseasonably early start of the pennant races in mid-September. Games scheduled for later dates at Boston, Cincinnati and St. Louis were advanced to manufacture artificial doubleheaders as fan bait. Some fifteen thousand Cardinal clients contributed cash at the turnstiles to see the Giants perform twice at St. Louis, but there is no report of any riots before the gates of Redland Field or Brave Field, Sunday home of the Red Sox.

The Cubs filled Wrigley Field on a one-game basis and delighted their forty thousand customers with a victory over Brooklyn by 13 to 4. The result placed the Cubs within one victory of the flag, and dropped the Robins to sixth place, below the idle Phillies.

Charlie Root held Brooklyn safe at all stages as the Cubs flailed Buck Newsome, Doug McWeeny, John Morrison and Win Ballou. Rogers Hornsby picked up his thirty-seventh homer and one other hit. Have Three Chances to Nail Their Flag Today

The Cubs have three chances today to nail up their flag and doubleheader will make good on one of them—their own game against Brooklyn, and the Pirates must play twice against the hard-swinging Phillies.

Bill Walker pitched masterful baseball against the Cardinals in the opener to win by 4 to 0, on four runs presented to him by his support in the very first inning, but Larry Benton failed in the nightcap by 6 to 4.

Any designs the Braves may have had on seventh place were quieted yesterday when the Reds won both ends of the Cincinnati bargain by 6 to 1 and 4 to 3.

This double triumph gave the men of Hendricks a margin of ten games in seventh place and a fighting chance to overhaul either the Robins or the Phillies, if not both.

The Pirates and Phillies were idle and Indians Divided Honors

At the Yankee Stadium a surprising crowd of forty thousand turned out to see the fallen Hugobald divide a natural double-header with the Indians.

The veteran Zachary just outpointed Willis Hudlin to win the opener by 1 to 0, adding his eleventh victory to a record which shows no defeats.

The Indians walloped Waite Hoyt and Fred Hainsaw impartially in the second game, piling up fourteen hits to win 10 to 0. Cleveland remained two games ahead of the idle Browns in the battle for third place but of course failed to improve its slight chance of overtaking the Yankees.

Detroit increased its margin over Washington to two and one-half games by winning the first half of a doubleheader 15 to 2 and then fought the Senators to a 3 to 3 tie.

ST. ROCH DOWN THETFORD TO TAKE SERIES

Morin Pitched a Fine Game Yesterday—Held Visitors Scoreless Until Eighth Inning—Score Was Five to One.

St. Roch showed their superiority over all Eastern Townships independent teams when they defeated a semi-pro team representing Thetford Mines by a score of 5 to 1 at the ball park yesterday afternoon. Over one thousand fans wended their way to the ball park, and they were treated to one of the best exhibitions ever seen this year on the local diamond. The game yesterday was the fifth of the series between the two teams, the teams dividing the four previous contests.

Yesterday's game was better contested than the score would indicate. In fact, it was a pitcher's battle between Morin and Cummings, with the former having the better of the argument. Besides pitching one of his best games of the season, Morin distinguished himself at bat, sending a runner across the plate when he tripped in the fourth. He had nine strike outs to his credit, while he walked four men. Cummings, who pitched for Bedford in the E. T. Baseball League, fanned six men and issued free passes to two locals.

Sherbrooke took the lead in the second inning when they tallied three runs and were never headed. Perron led off with a triple and scored when the visiting center fielder muffed Lepage's sacrifice fly. Perron romped on to second on the error and to third on Pinard's out, from where he scored on Gagne's single through second. Morin lined to second and was out at first. Gagne going to second. Blanchard singled to second and Gagne brought the locals' score up to three. Blanchard was caught stealing second to end the inning.

In the fourth Sherbrooke added two more to their total. Perron was out when he lined to third. Lepage singled, but Pinard struck out. Lepage advanced to second on a passed ball and was brought home when the visiting fielders misjudged Gagne's fly. Morin tripped to score Gagne. Blanchard made the third out.

Visitors Tallied.

In the eighth the visitors made a vain rally to overcome the locals' lead but could only score once. Tanguay lined to short and was safe on Pinard's error. Desrochers doubled to centre field, but Tanguay was caught at the plate on a fast play. Aronson singled between first and second to score Desrochers. Morin tightened up and fanned Gross, while Dragget forced Aronson at second. Morin breezed through the ninth inning in fine style and sent the majority of the thousand fans home convinced that Sherbrooke had a ball team worthy of consideration.

Next Sunday the locals will play a double header against Dave Major's All Stars of Montreal to decide the championship of the Province. Two good games are anticipated, and local fans will have an opportunity to see an old favorite in the box, as Henry Thormahlen is expected to pitch one of the games. Yesterday's game was in charge of Umpire Bruneau, of Montreal, and G. Roy, of Sherbrooke, and they handled the contest to the satisfaction of all.

The box score follows:
Thetford Mines
Desrochers, 3b. 4 1 2 0 0
Aronson, cf. 4 0 1 0 1 0

RAILROADERS AND CELANESE PLAYED DRAW

League Leaders Failed to Reach Decision—Regiment Defeated Windsor Mills 4 to 0.

Celanece increased their hold on second place in the Eastern Townships Football League as a result of their two all draw with Quebec Central at the Parade Grounds on Saturday afternoon.

A few minutes after the game started, Drummondville opened the scoring, on a well placed kick by Lloyd. Shortly before the interval, H. Grimes equalized for the Railroaders after a lone dash.

The visitors forged into the lead again early in the second half only to have their hard earned goal counteracted when the Quebec Central scored on a penalty. Hard work on both sides proved unavailing, and although the Sherbrooke boys forced the visitors, excellent work in front of the net by Barker, prevented the Railroaders from breaking the tie.

Mr. E. Croft acted as referee, with Messrs Spencer and Shand as linesmen. The line-ups were;

Celanece—Barker, Howarth, Beachwell, Clements, Tweeves, Inlah, West, Tattersall, Bridge, Moore, Lloyd.

Quebec Central—Stoyles; Pearce, McHarg, Leach, Joiner, Twyman, Pentland, McNally, B. Grimes, Milne and H. Grimes.

Regiment Downed Windsor Mills
The Regiment journeyed to Windsor Mills and brought back their second victory of the season, defeating Papertown boys by a count of four to nothing in a rather one-sided encounter.

weight championship last night when he won from Harry Wills, erstwhile "black menace" of American rings, on a foul in the first round of their ten round bout. Wills outlasted the Spaniard in the first round, but made the serious mistake of hitting Castano on the jaw after the bell rang. Wills apparently had not heard the gong. Castano, after momentary hesitation, dropped to the canvas and then refused to proceed with the bout. The judges immediately awarded him the decision on a foul. (Additional sport on page 9)

Tomorrow....
The Store Presents The Latest Trends Of The Mode In A Fall Showing of New Fashions

The Coat Takes Unto Itself A Flare

TO subtle it might suggest a wisp of wind flirting with the hem of the garment or flaring out brazenly, confident of its position in a world of fashion... madame, your new fall coat must flare if it be unimpeachable... furs bow only to the flare in importance... tremendous collars that lie off-the-face... cuffs that reach the front and along the bottom... the use is indiscriminate... they are triumphs of the designer's art.

Dresses Have A New Air Of Femininity

THE boish figure is passe... women shed the mantle of tradition and after a fling at freedom they have found that their emancipation cost them their feminine charm... and they're going back... going back to the skirt that is long and the waist that is high... to the flare and the godet that soften the line. It's a season of browns from the beiges to the chocolates... black is again immensely popular as is green and blue... fabrics include canton, satins, light woollens and velvets.

Up In The Front And Down In The Back

RISING low and sharp in the front and hugging the head very closely, the new hats for fall drop sharply down the back of the neck... the fisherman hat... of course sport hats still show the narrow brim. The materials are of soleil, velvet or felt.

Fashion Flashes

Mme. Hale Miller, eminent style authority, recently returned from Paris, advises that:

- Skirts are three to four inches longer for daytime wear.
- Evening dresses must touch the ground at some point.
- The flare distinguishes both coats and dresses.
- The nose veil on Autumn hats is a nigh fashion that is finding favor.
- Broadcloth and Kashagrande are the favored coat fabrics.
- Some designers effect the high waist-line with cleverly placed belts.
- The Agnes Tam is a pronounced favorite in millinery. The draped turban is noticeable.
- Panne velvets and transparent velvets are both good.
- Sport gloves of pigskin, deerskin and cape have a strong following.
- Chanel makes a great feature of the jerseys in plain and fancy weaves.
- She also shows a decided attraction for colored laces in evening gowns.
- Paquin coats have a pronounced dip at the back—a feature also noticed in suit skirts.

Gloves Almost Reach The Elbow

FASHION is "long" on the Paris market... even gloves have adopted length that almost reaches the elbow... of washable suede, many of them showing a slight flare... others in cavalier style with bracelet of finely braided leather... beiges is the shade.

Paris Says It With Jewelry

B RILLIANTS and pearls... as many as you can possibly wear, thick bracelets... long ropes... sparkling earrings... make the mode... marvelous colors also distinguish some costume jewelry.

Ensembles Have Added Further Lustre To Fashion

THE ensemble which stormed through the spring season on the crest of a universal acceptance again challenges the leader for Autumn. Styles are dressier... they have put on company manners... the coats reach to the hip or are three-quarter length... tweeds and silks seem to be the favored materials... worn with the becoming and sensationally popular tuck-in blouse, they are an indispensable complement to most wardrobes.

Handbags Match The Costume

IT IS best to harmonize says Paris... your handbag anyway... the browns, the greens, the blacks and the blues... of antelope in pouch or underarm styles. The handbags for evening are larger.

Lingerie Follows The Outer Silhouette

L INGERIE and foundation garments are in step with dresses and evening frocks... where dresses are backless, so too is lingerie... where waists are higher, foundation garments are likewise... it's a game of follow the leader and a fascinating game for the style-wise women.
