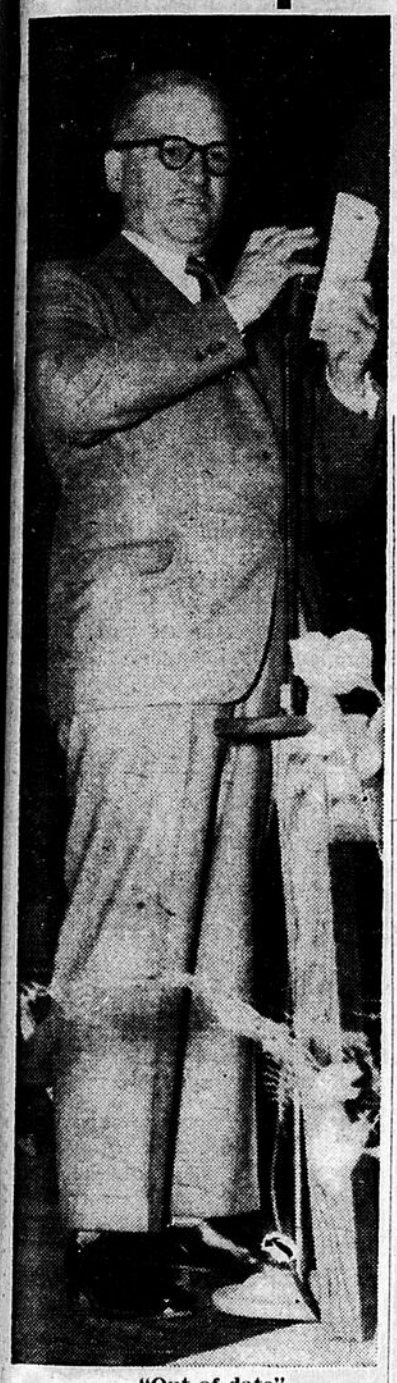
VOL. XXIV, No. 50 — WESTMOUNT, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1953 — PRICE 5c

ANNEXATION IS 'OUT OF DATE' ASSELIN TELLS WESTMOUNTERS

Metropolitan Commission Head Municipal Association Speaker



. . . "Out-of-date"

Annexation as a solution to metropolitan difficulties is out of date, J. O. Asselin, chairman of the Montread Metropolitan Commission and chairman of the executive committee of the city of Montreal told members of the Westmount Municipal Association last night at a meeting held in Victoria Hall.

He gave two reasons for the rejection of what for generations had been considered a simple expedient when the city-suburb shoe began to pinch.

(a) In most annexation imposes an unfair additional cost on the taxpayers of the larger city;

(b) It weakens and breaks down local community interest and responsibility for local municipal affairs.

Annexation, or amalgamation, Mr. Asselin said, are not good democratic solutions to the problem of multiple municipal governments in metropolitan areas.

Will Wait and See

Mr. Asselin, who spoke in a preamble to an informative address on the history of the Montreal Metropolitan Commission, refused to ally himself with any of the current prophets who are prescribing remedies for the municipal ills of the local metropolitan area.

There are those, he said, who advise the borough system, or amalgamation, or annexation, and even the suggestion that the area be a separate province — but "I do not propse to enter the field of controversy by pronouncing myself in favor of this or that possible solution."

"We have a problem," he continued, "and I am of the opinion that the time has come when Montrealers, both those who live in the city and those who live in the suburbs, should face up to its implications."

And he continued: "I think, when we do, we will discover that the metropolitan problem in Montreal is not one but many inter-related problems and that an adequate solution is more complicated and more difficult than most people suspect or realize.

"It is for this reason that I think it highly unlikely that we will solve our Montreal problem by a simple adaptation of some form of metropolitan government being developed elsewhere. There may be aspects of the experience of others that are applicable to our peculiar set-up and needs but none of them offers a ready-made panacea.

"Whatever may ultimately be devised, it will have to be hewn out of the peculiar and particular realities inherent in the Montreal situation. In other words, it must be a Montreal solution to the Montreal problem — a logical and practical arrangement based on the realities and not a theoretical conception predicated on some abstract form of local administration.

"Hitherto, when problems have arisen affecting the administration or provision of municipal services in and between the City of Montreal and the suburban municipalities, we have resorted to compromises and expediencies. Some have worked out quite well, others have been costly and unsatisfactory.

"A form of expediency frequently resorted to in the past has been to amalgamate or annex suburban towns to Montreal.

"This simple and direct expedient, however, has gradually gone out of fashion. It has gone out of fashion elsewhere as well as in Montreal. It has been rejected as a device for solving the problems of a metropolitan community largely for two reasons: First, because, in most instances, it imposes an unfair additional cost on the taxpayers of the larger cities; and, second, because it weakens and breaks down local community interests and responsibility for local municipal affairs. It is not a good democratic solution to the problem of multiple municipal governments in metropolitan areas. It is significant that, since 1900, there have been no annexations in such cities as New York and San Francisco, and only very small areas have been added to the metropolitan areas of Philadelphia, Boston and Minneapolis. In Toronto, a proposal of amalgamation instead of the federated form of metropolitan government which they are about to introduce, was rejected, not only by the sub-

Roslyn Home And School Group To Operate Own Skating Rink

Deprived of a public rink on the Roslyn School grounds by decision of the City of Westmount, members of the Roslyn Home and School Association approved operation of the rink by their association at a meeting Monday.

The Association also strongly condemned what they considered to be an arbitrary and unreasonable decision by the city.

Roslyn rink was maintained continuously by the city for 35 years until last year, when their yard was cluttered with material being used in construction of an addition to the school. Residents understood, however, that this was for one year only.

When queried earlier on the reason for not running the rink, city officials replied that they didn't think there was adequate space, and it was part of the general policy of the city in effecting a reasonable economy. They added that the public rinks were best placed to serve the citizens.

After additional pleas to the council and city officials failed, the Home and School group held their meeting to see what could be done.

The 500 citizens who attended the meeting agreed unanimously on a motion censuring the city for their action. They said:

"Whereas adequate recreation facilities such as skating and hockey rinks are of the utmost importance to the health and welfare of the citizens,

"and whereas the logical place for one to be used by children is on the school grounds,

"and whereas the city has maintained one there continuously for 35 years until last year,

"and whereas reduced facilities in that year were not considered adequate for a complete program,

"and whereas the members feel that if the city's expenditures must be reduced, other methods for saving should be sought before recreational activities are curtailed,

"(It is noted that while the city parks department expenditures have been reduced by only $180, or .14 per cent, between 1951-52, the recreation department expenditures were decreased by $13,712 or 19.8 per cent,)

"therefore the members of this association strongly condemn what they consider to be an arbitrary and unreasonable decision of the city council to eliminate skating and hockey rinks on the school grounds."

They agreed on going ahead and running the rink themselves, but hope the city will reconsider their decision at least for next year. First estimates point to a cost of less than one half what the city said it would take, but it will still take all their surplus funds to keep it going.

They also found there was more than ample space for the rink, while lighting facilities are already installed.

This reduction in the number of public rinks runs counter to an urge of the Westmount Municipal Association which would like to have more recreational facilities provided in the city, plus better all-around service.

Monday, Club members went to the polls to cast their votes in favour of their choice as to who would be elected King, Queen, Prince and Princess of the Club. Voting will continue until tomorrow with the polls scheduled to close at 5 p.m.

Voting week was preluded by a club-wide election campaign conducted by Club members. The campaign produced many fine orators who used speechmaking as their method of introducing their favourite candidate to the voters. Others displayed their talents in poster writing and litterally covered the walls with signs and posters of every discription and design.

The climax to the entire affair will take place on Friday, December 18, when the winning candidates will be officially crowned in an impressive ceremony. In the meantime the names of the winners will be withheld until Coronation Night.

'Forgotten Children' Need Great; Toys And Skates Head The List

Each Christmas there is a definite danger the "Forgotten Children" will be forgotten again.

"Oeuvre des enfants oubliés", an organization which has as its prime object the extra-curricular care of several hundred mentally retarded children, is making its annual appeal for toys and clothing now--and a most worthy appeal it is.★

The group, founded by Madame Laurent Jodoin in 1951, has an honorary president Mrs. Camillien Houde. This Christmas season Mrs. Jodoin and her committees are anxious that none of the "Forgotten Children" be forgotten, for in addition to the usual appeal, there is the fact that Madame Houde herself is dangerously ill, and unable to be of assistance.

Depot in NDG

Mrs. C. Lange, a member of the committee and a local resident, has kindly offered the use of her home as a depot. People willing to contribute things for the "Forgotten Children" may send them to Mrs. Lange at 5155 Hampton avenue, or may arrange for them to be picked up by calling DU. 8-7500.

The children especially need toys, old or new, skates, sizes three and four, but anything will help. In respect to rubber balls, only soft rubber ones should be donated.

Madame Jodoin first got her idea of forming the club after reading Pearl Buck's book in which the authoress described the hardships of providing a decent life for the mentally-retarded child, who frequently does not reach a mental age of more than four.

Upon first visiting the Gamelin Institute, operated by the sisters of St. Jean de Dieu Hospital, the group was amazed to see the children eating off tin plates. Most of them should have been in high chairs, but instead were seated on straight chairs or benches from where their unco-ordinated movements kept toppling them over.

They were told that aside from the occasional visit from a heart-broken and ashamed parent, the children, who need comfort and care more than any others, received none.' '

Provided Refreshments

Plastic plates, bought with the group's own resources, were first donated. Later they arranged for weekly deliveries of ice cream, candy and biscuits, none of which had been on the scene before.

During the winter, only one or two had warm enough clothing to go outside, while the others merely sat around inside their dull rooms. Now matters have become somewhat more bearable, but there is still much to do.

Plan Children's Home

The long term plan of the group is a home of their own for the children, and their efforts were considerably heartened when the city announced plants of just such a place. Right now they are still confined to the asylum, only place where room can be found.

Later two concerts were held to raise funds for operations, while their biggest project was a Christmas party for the children.

Current Events Clubbers Hear Juan Sheridan

Voted recently the most improved Canadian rugby player on the Alouettes, Juan Sheridan, star lineman with the Montreal club visited 80 members of the Westmount High School Current Events club Wednesday. (For his play he was last week awarded the Berkely Hotel Trophy.)

Before going into detail about the games this season, Sheridan spoke about football on the whole. He told the boys to consider it less important than their algebra, geometry, geography and other school subjects.

"It is not good to depend on one thing or one sport just because you like it," he said.

He then went on to some of the games which took place this year, indicating in each case the different formations that were used and the result of each. Adding humor to his talk, he asked three boys to stand in front of the class for a demonstration of the "mousetrap" play. He also spoke on passing and the duties of the players in the different positions.

After Sheridan's speech there was a question period, and Renee Rothman thanked the speaker on behalf of the Current Events club.

President Margery Klein announced that Tuesday's speaker will be James Ereaux of Eaton's Department Store, who will speak on "The organization of the annual Santa Claus Parade."

Westmount Rotarians Hear Story Behind Modern Shopping Centre

An outline of the planning and detail of a modern day shopping center was given to the Westmount Rotary Club at their weekly meeting Wednesday by Harry Suffrin, director of research of Steinberg's, Ltd.

As the preliminary step, he said that six years ago president Sam Steinberg, feeling that shopping centers were the future retail district, set up a team consisting of an economist, architect, builder and real estate man to study centers in the United States.

For six years this team made annual visits to various centers there, studying and observing the development and operation of these centers.

After a thorough study of the Montreal area, they made the recommendation that the Dorval Circle would be an ideal spot for the community type of center, consisting of about 40 stores. The land was acquired and the center is now under construction.

Dorval Center

The first stage of the planning of the center was an economic analysis of the site. This dealt with the number of people in the trading area, their income, what they spent in stores, an estimate of the competition in the area, access to the site by foot, public transportation and automobile, and a forecast of what the population was likely to be like in 20 years. All these facts were necessary to make sure that the site was a worthwhile one.

It was only after this economic analysis that they came to the second stage — that of the actual purchase of the site. The purchase of so large a tract of land required skilled negotiation and handling.

Then followed preliminary architectural studies, such as soil tests, drainage conditions, contours and shapes of land and preliminary traffic and engineering studies. The architect then drew up five sets of plans each showing a different land use of the Dorval Circle land.

These plans were submitted to a group of shopping center experts who from five plans selected the one they considered the most suitable and that is the plan that was finally adopted.

Thereafter there followed detailed architectural and engineering studies. Traffic planning and engineering was brought in at this stage as well as mechanical and engineering design, he said.

Key Tenants

At this point negotiations were started with some of the key tenants as well as the department store. The department store is regarded as a key tenant in this type of center. The selection of the proper department store may well influence negotiations with other tenants.

It then becomes necessary to negotiate for mortgage financing. The Dorval Center will cost in the vicinity of two million dollars, he stated.

The next step is approval by different public bodies such as planning commission, town councils and county engineering bodies.

It is only possible to start construction after all these steps have been taken.

The Dorval Gardens Shopping Center will be the largest shopping center on the Island of Montreal, with a parking lot capacity of 2,300 cars at any one time, with over 6 acres of stores and shops, with such established names as Morgan's, Holt Renfrew, Birks, Reitman's, Steinberg's and some 35 other leading Montreal merchants. It will be Montreal most modern shopping center when it opens this spring and will remain so for many years to come.

Effect of Auto

The automobile has undoubtedly had a greater effect upon retail trade than any other influence during the last hundred years. The automobile has given the average shopper a greater mobility than it has ever had before. This factor together with the social changes that have brought a greater income to both the middle and the lower income groups, has enabled families to own cars who never owned them before.

With so great a portion of people

Safe-T-Cones Purchased by Local Police

Safe-T-Cones, 28 inch high traffic guides, are being put to use by Westmount police to safeguard children on their way to and from school. Nine of the cylindrical stands are scattered throughout the district.

Brightly colored with 'SLOW' painted on them, they bear 'SCHOOL ZONE' signs on top.

Police have put five on Western avenue, near Westmount Junior High School, Queen's, King's and St. Leo's Schools. Another one has been placed on Cote St. Antoine near St. Paul's, one more near Victoria for Roslyn School.

Two others have been placed at higher levels to protect children walking down to Roslyn — one at Grosvenor and The Boulevard and another south of The Boulevard.

Police says the cones are very satisfactory, and help to enforce the new 20 mph speed limit in school zones.

Westmount Fire Chief W. C. Cobb Stresses Safety At Christmas

Christmas is the time to be extra careful, Westmount fire department warns, because every year, from a few days before the holiday to the week following New Year's, a plague of fire rages up and down the country .Many of the fires result from the extra hazards which exist only during the holiday season and from carelessness that would not be tolerated at any other time .

Little careless acts — that seem so unimportant at the time — cause these holiday tragedies.

Chief Cobb especially wishes to emphasize that trees should not be burned in fireplaces; this is just asking for a resin fire. They should be taken out to await collection by the incineration department. These are some rules for a fire-free Christmas:

The Tree

Cut a growing tree or try to buy one that hasn't dried out from prolonged storage. (When too dry, tree branches are brittle and shed needles easily.)

Stand the tree in water or snow outdoors until you're ready to use it indoors.

Bring the tree indoors just before Christmas and take it out as soon afterwards as possible. (December 26 is recommended.)

The larger the tree the greater the hazard, so don't get one any larger than you need.

Just before setting up the tree, saw off the trunk at an angle at least one inch above the original cut.

Place the freshly cut tree trunk in water and keep level of water above the cut the entire time the tree is indoors. (Check the water level at least once a day for absorption and evaporation.)

Support the tree well. Don't put it near sources of heat (fireplaces, radiators, etc.) or where, standing or fallen, it could block the way out of the room and out of the house.

Lighting

Do not use candles on the tree or nearby where there is any chance for an open flame to contact the tree or combustibles piled beneath the tree.

Check lighting set each year before using for frayed wires, loose connections, and broken sockets.

Be sure the fuse on the electrical circuit you use is not over 15 amperes.

If any extensive holiday wiring is planned, call a competent electrician; don't try to dit yourself unless you are so qualified

Don't plug too many cords into one outlet.

Make certain that all tree lighting is turned off before retiring or leaving the house.

Decorations and Wrappings accumulate in the home; place Dont let Christmas wrappings them in your metal covered trash barrel or burn them in your incinerator as soon as possible.

Use non-combustible material (metal, glass, asbestos, etc) to decorate the home for Christmas wherever possible. When you must use combustible materials, be sure they are "flameproofed," particularly if they are to be anywhere near the tree.

Untreated cotton batting, paper and certain cloth costuming will ignite easily and burn with great intensity unless they're "flameproofed." Santa Claus whiskers have caused Christmas tragedies; be sure they're "flameproofed," too.

GIFTS

Don't buy pyroxylin plastic dolls, toys or non flameproofed cowboy suits, etc. Toys operated by alcohol, kerosene or gasoline are especially dangerous; they may upset and set fire to children's clothing, the tree, or to the house itself .

Look for the Underwrtiers' Laboratories label when buying electrical toys. This means they have been tested for fire and shock hazards and may be considered safe if properly handled and maintained.

Don't set up electric trains or spirit-fueled toys under a Christmas tree.

Miscellaneous

Don't allow smoking near the tree amidst decorations or piles of wrapping; have plenty of safe ash-trays around and use them.

Plan on what you must do if fire breaks out.

Guard against flying sparks from a fireplace with a substantial screen and don't use the fireplace to burn up Christmas wrap pings and decorations.

Keep matches, lighters and candles away from tiny hands. Have watertype fire extinguishers that work, buckets of water or even your garden hose connected to a faucet, within reach of the tree. But remember, unless you can put a fire out immediately, call your fire department at once.

Former Ascension Parish Curate Is New Archbishop Of Halifax

Most Rev. Gerald Berry

A former curate at Ascension Parish, and now Bishop of Peterborough, Ont., the most Rev. Joseph Gerald Berry has been named Archbishop of Halifax and Metropolitan of the dioceses of Charlottetown Antigonish and Yarmouth.

The announcement was made by the Canadian Catholic Conference on the authority of Msgr, Luigi Dadaglio, charge d'affairs at the Papal Legation in Ottawa. Archbishop Berry succeeds the late Archbishop John T. McNally who died Nov. 18, 1952.

Born in Montreal June 7, 1902, Archbishop Berry received his early education at St. Patrick's school and then went to the University of Montreal, the Montreal Seminary and the Grand Seminary.

He was ordained a priest in 1927 and went to the Ascension Parish as curate, or assistant parish priest. In 1938 he left Westmount to study for his master of social sciences and social services degree at the Catholic University, Washington, D.C., and returned to Montreal in 1940 as director of the Catholic Welfare Bureau.

Archbishop Berry was named Bishop of Peterborough in April, 1945, and was consecrated on his birthday, in June, in St. Patrick's Church here, by Msgr. Ildabrando Antoniutti, then Papal Legate to Canada.

Three brothers and a sister live in Montreal, John is with the Canadian Customs, James E., is principal of St. Roch's School and Richard Berry is with the Bell Telephone Company of Canada. His sister is Miss Alice Berry.

Msgr. Wilfrid E. McDonagh, parish priest, said that even as a young priest, Archbishop Berry faced problems with poise and confidence.

He was well liked as a curate, Msgr. McDonagh said, and successful as head of the Catholic Welfare Bureau. Msgr McDonagh said the new Archbishop now has a big job on his hands but that he has the ability to handle it.

urban municipalities themselves and by the Province of Ontario, but also by a large number of Toronto citizens.

Past Annexition

Here in Montreal, we have had considerable experience with annexation. From 1883 to 1893, fofur suburban municipalities were merged with Montreal. Between 1899 and 1910, five other towns were annexed as well as portions of other municipalities. In 1910, another batch of municipalities were merged with the city. There have been no annexations, however, since that time.

There have been no annexations since that time for the simple reason that, by 1910, after having annexed 23 suburban municipalities in 27 years, Montrealers had ahd enough of this doubtfully desirable and very expensive method of enlarging its territory... All in all, annexations have proven a costly and dubious answer to the problem of metropolitan government, at any rate insofar as Montreal is concerned.

For, while it is true that, through this process of annexation, area of administrative responsibility has been extended and thereby there has come about a consolidation and a more rational development of civic services throughout the larger area, it is also true that annexations have created new problems for Montreal. There is still a school of thought which believes that the answer to the metropolitan government problem in Montreal lies in creating one single unit of municipal government for the entire area but, on balance, while there is an element of logic in this proposal, there are too many counter-arguments to ever make it adaptable and acceptable to the vast majority of the metropolitan community.

Back in 1920, there was still a vivid recollection of the annexations of earlier years. So much so that, when four other suburban municipalities, about this time, found themselves in financial difficulties and sought to relieve themselves of their problem by being annexed to Montreal, there was a wide public outcry against the proposal. Joining in it were not only the citizens of Montreal but the citizens of the other municipalities as well. It was this set of circunstances that led, in 1921, to the formation of the Montreal Metropolitan Commission. In effect, the establishment of the Metropolitan Commission was a compromise. It has worked out very well.

No one of course would pretend that, merely by setting up the Metropolitan Commission, all the administrative, finance and other problems of municipal governments in the metropolitan area, including Montreal, were thereby resolved. By no means! This was not the purpose of the Commission. Its shpere of responsibility is limited by law and explicitly stated, namely: To supervise and control the financial affairs of the suburban municipalities which comprise the defined metropolitan area. By an amendment to its charter, it was also given the authority to plan and establish a Mertopolitan Boulevard but, by and large, its function is to exercice certain financial controls over the suburban municipalities and to exercice administrative control, to the extend that it may be necessary, over the affairs of the aided municipalities.

In addition to the factor of financial control, however, there still remains a vast number of vexing problems occasioned by the fact that, instead of a single consolidated municipal government for the metropolitan area, there are 15 separate autonomous or semi-autonomous municipal administrations. Besides these, there are 23 other municipalities adjoining the immediate suburbs. Altogether, there are 38 separate municipal governments on the Island of Montreal.

Warm And Intimate Christmas Is Aim For Every Weredale Boy

A warm and intimate Christmas, so that boys from broken homes may enjoy a Yuletide celebration as war and cozy as that of most families, is the aim of Weredale House. Every effort is made to insure a Christmas as far from institutional as possible.

Santa Claus arrives Christmas eve to start the holiday and there are at least three presents in his sack for every boy. Always an item of clothing, games for the younger ones, and a razor for those who are noticing their first light fluff.

The presents are handed out a big party — held as usual this year at Weredale Hall, complete with concert, games and a spread designed to make mouths water.

Christmas Day is open house at Weredale. The boys either spend it with relatives, with outsiders who have sent an invitatition to the home for a boy, or at the home itself.

For those who remain, turkey, plum pudding and all the trimmings feature the midday meal.

"There are always people who phone in and say they want a boy for Christmas. The practice has been for the boy to visit these homes before Christmas, so that all are acquainted on Christmas Day. This helps the boy to avoid feeling like a complete stranger," an official said.

Most of the boys go to some church service Christmas Day, but they are free to do as they wish.

"The older boys, specially those who work, take the younger ones in tow. They often buy presents for them, and try to make sure that the little ones have a good day all around," the spokesman added.

"There are actually very few boys who do not have someone to go to, or to be with at Christmas time," he said.

In addition to celebrations among themselves and at the home, the boys are also entertained by clubs. At least two big dinners are on the agenda, one given by the Rotary Club of Montreal at the Mount Royal Hotel and another by the Westmount Women's Club at Victoria Hall.

Who Changed Sabbath? Evangelist Is Asking

"Who Changed The Sabbath?" is the title of the Bible message to be given by Harold Brendel, Pastor-Evangelist, Sunday night at 7.30 p.m. in the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Mr. Brendel has announced that he will prove from history as well as the Bible exactly why it is many people worship God in churches on Sunday instead of Saturday.

Mr. Brendel stated that he will show what the word of God teaches about Sunday. Is it the Lord's Day? Is Saturday the Lord's Day? Why we do have some people worshipping on Saturday and the majority of them attending church on Sunday? He will show with his colored pictures the real truth to these controversial truths and said he will prove with the simplest means what history, Bible, and prophecy have shown us. He will show what came about in the third century to alter the plans of man and make clear why so many people observe Sunday as the Lord's day instead of Saturday.

History, Brendel says, proves that the word of God is true on the subject of deciding which day is the Lord's Day and, in fact, had to come about as a result of Bible Prophecy.

The doors open at 6.30 p.m. in the Seventh-day Adventist Church on Sunday night and at 7.30 evangelistic singing and music commence. The public is invited to attend this meeting. There is no admission charge.

History, Tradition of Rice Recalled By Local Studio

By TRACY LUDINGTON

The advent of Rice Studios to 4404 St. Catherine street west adds a new and promising chapter to the history of a photographic firm that has its roots deep in the earliest days of the art on this continent.

Birth of the business goes back to 1860 and the city of Washington, D.C., where Amos I. Rice and his brother Moses P. Rice who soon found their infant venture in the midst of a Civil War.

Amos, father of James B. Rice who is now owner of the new studio in Westmount, settled in Cape Breton and later moved to New Glasgow, where the family name is still well known. Lewis Rice, a relative, operated studio car and by rail covered the province, carrying with him the first piano ever seen there. George Rice, another relative, nephew of Amos, gave his life searching for food while on the 1883 Greenley-North Pole expedition with General Horace Greeley and a General Brainard.

In Montreal since 1882, the first Rice Studio was at 141 St. Peter street, then north of Craig, then at St. Catherine and McGill College, then in the Morgan Building on Union avenue and then to 750 Sherbrooke west opposite McGill where the business operated for more than 20 years.

Parallel with photography in the Rice family there has been a marked musical ability. Amos, one of the founders, was a renowned choir leader in his day, Charles P., a son, was for some years organist at a local church.

Gitz Rice, the youngest son, became famous during the first World War as leader of the first overseas concert party to build troop morale and as a writer of such well-known popular songs as "Dear Old Pal of Mine", "I want to go home", "Call Out the Army". He was also the composer of a hit song "Land of Promise — My Home In Canada" which he wrote exclusively for Bea Lillie.

The present proprietor, James B. Rice, well known as a raconteur in half a dozen dialects, is carrying on the famous Rice photographic tradition which has been generations of Canadians pleased with portraiture that bears the Rice credit-line.

Name 3 Outstanding Architects To Judge 'Home Of Tomorrow'

Two Canadians and one of the leading architects in Europe have been named to the jury selected to judge the entries on the International Calvert House Competition for the Canadian Home of Tomorrow, sponsored by McGill University's School of Architecture.

The three members of the jury, announced here today by Professor John Bland, director of the McGill School of Architecture are: Eric Arthur, F.R.A.I.C., F.R.I.B.A., professor of architecture, University of Toronto; Humphrey Carver, A.R.I.B.A., chairman of the research committee, Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, Ottawa; and Gio. Ponti, distinguished Italian architect and editor of Domus, the international architectural magazine.

Conditions of the competition have now been released to architectural associations in 16 European countries and to provincial associations in Canada and architects have been advised to secure copies through their local associations. The closing date for entries has been set at April 15, 1954.

Gio. Ponti, selected as the European member of the jury, founded Domus, the architectural magazine in 1928. For more than thirty years he has been a leader in the design of homes, hospitals, schools, hotels and public buildings and he also has an international reputation as an industrial designer. Since 1936, he has been professor of architecture as the Politecnico in Milan.

Mr. Ponti will be coming to North America early next year to attend an exhibition of his work being presented by the Institute of Contemporary Art in Boston, Mass. He will then come to Canada where he will spend a month visiting Canadian housing developments before working with the other members of the jury to select the best Canadian home.

Police Searching For Local Girl, 14

Westmount police are still searching for a 14-year old girl who left her Greene avenue home Nov. 24 and has not yet returned.

Parents of Audrey Cook still believe she is in vicinity, however.

They gave police permission to broadcast her description earlier this week, having given up hope she would return of her own accord.

She is five feet tall, weighs 115 pounds, is blond, and was last seen wearing a two-tone brown leather windbreaker, blue jeans and loafers.

After accepting two additional students for financial aid this year, the committee has $1,800 on loan.

The Dog and the Bone

A DOG was crossing a plank bridge over a stream with a piece of meat in his mouth, when he happened to see his own reflection in the water. He thought it was another dog with a piece of meat twice as big; so he let go his own, and flew at the other dog to get the larger piece. But, of course, all that happened was that he got neither: for one was only a shadow, and the other was carried away by the current.

JAMIE SANDILANDS helps Santa Claus by donating his favorite toy train to the Nearly New shop (1212 University St.,) where it will be sold to benefit the Royal Victoria hospital and the Childrens Memorial hospital. Jamie, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Sandilands, started school this year at Herbert Symonds and has less time to play with his many toys, so decided to use them to help less fortunate children. The volonteer accepting the donation is Mrs. Ronald T. Riley, a member of the womens auxiliary of the Royal Victoria Hospital, which with the auxiliary of the Childrens Memorial hospital, staff and operate the shop. The stock which includes almost anything except clothing is donated and the profits are shared between the two hospitals.

JUNIOR SEE, JUNIOR DO

When children see their parents gulping down a cup of coffee and eating perhaps a piece of toast for breakfast, it becomes clear to them that grownups regard breakfast as an unimportant meal. Nutritionists say that breakfast should be the most nourishing meal of the day since it breaks the longest fast. It should contain at least one third of the day's food intake.

going to and from work in cars, shopping in cars, as well as finding their recreation by means of the automobile, the problem of parking in the central city had become greatly accentuated. Few people will walk more than eight hundred feet from a parking place to a shop or store, with a result that the downtown district of most cities are crowded with more cars than they can conveniently hold. The streets of most cities were planned and laid out for the horse and buggy age and are physically incapable of accommodating all the cars of shoppers and others who converge on the main business district.

In addition to greatly increased car ownership the other factor that caused the mushroom growth of shopping centers in suburban areas was the tremendous shift of population from the central city to the suburbs. In cities of United States and Canada census figures bear out the fact that the past twenty years, more and more people have moved out from the city to the suburbs. There are many reasons for this shift. But the primary one was the very large number of new families that were formed after the last war, their demand for a home of their own. Houses could be built cheaply only when done in large numbers and in places where there were large tracts of vacant land available. The suburbs were the only areas that filled these needs of cheap land and large tracts of it, he said.

In Montreal the area that showed the greatest growth during the past ten years was the Lakeshore where increases of population in the order of 200% occurred.

It was this combination of increased car ownership and population shift to the suburbs that made the shopping centers possible.

3 Types

Shopping centers have been divided into three distinct types; corresponding to the city shopping areas.

First, there is the neighborhood type of shopping center with 10 to 20 stores and serving a population of 10 to 20 thousand people, which has as its core food and drug. These are by far the most common and the most numerous of centers, e.g. Champlain Village.

The second type of shopping center is known as the community type of center. It will have from 20 to 40 stores and have from 20 to 100 thousand people in its trading area. In addition to convenience goods, it sells apparel and hardware. Examples of this type of center are the Boulevard Center on Jean Talon and Pie IX and the Dorval center which is now in the advanced stages of construction.

The third and largest type of center is called the regional center. This will have in at least 100 stores and serves the needs of a population of at least 100,000 people or more, it has one or more major department stores. The regional center is the replica of a downtown district. It will have in it a very large branch of a departmental store as the key tenant. In the overall picture in Canada and the U.S.A. there are very few regional centers, he said.

Phenomenon

The location of stores has been an interesting phenomenon to watch.

Montreal's Representation

Paul Earl Draws Attention Again To A Glaring Injustice

Speaking in the Quebec Legislature last week, Paul Earl, Notre Dame de Grace's M.L.A., made some timely remarks on the inadequacy of Montreal's representation in the Legislature. Mr. Earl chose as his subject a recent resolution of the Young Men's Section of the Board of Trade urging an increase in the number of seats for Greater Montreal. He pointed out that there is, at the present time, somewhere between nine hundred thousand and one million voters in the Greater Montreal area, and that these are represented by only fifteen members, whereas the rest of the province is represented by seventy-seven members. Montreal's fifteen members represent well over one-third of the entire voting population, while the other two-thirds has more than five times the members. Mr. Earl further pointed out that of Quebec's seventy-three members in the House of Commons at Ottawa, twenty are from the Island of Montreal, which is a fairer deal to the metropolis, and much closer to a true representation by population.

Mr. Earl's remarks were well taken, but it is not likely the government will do much, if anything, about the matter, for the government and the population that there is a glaring injustice here. If you say it often enough, action will come eventually.

Witch-Hunting

By Rev. Canon R. Kenneth Naylor

(Rector of Trinity Memorial Church)

One of the more discreditable features in the history of the English-speaking world was the witch-hunting of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. Certain people—especially women—were supposed to hob-nob with the Devil, and then to plague their neighbours in various ways. If a plague broke out among the pigs in the neighbourhood, or a mildew on the crops, it was supposed to be due to the activity of a witch. Then there was a searching out of the most likely victim—a half-witted or neurotic old woman, who may have half believed herself to be a witch. She was tried and people were ready to give evidence that she could change herself into a mouse or a cat or any other absurdity—and she would be condemned out of hand.

There was an outbreak of witch-hunting in Salem, Massachusetts, in 1692-93, which began with a group of girls accusing three old women of bewitching them. The Salem people lost their heads and hundreds of people were arrested and imprisoned. Nineteen were hanged. Then suddenly the plague of folly and suspicion lifted in 1693; the governor appointed a day of repentance; the judges confessed that they had acted wrongly; the prisoners were released. Salem was not the only place which had its witch trials, both before and after. The trials were held according to the English law of the time. The point at which Salem differed from the rest of the country was in the mass hysteria which accompanied the witch hunt.

We do not believe in witches any more; but we still have something corresponding to witch hunts. At the present time they centre in Washington rather than Salem; but all the other ingredients are there. There is the same hysteria, the same readiness to find victims and the same popular excitement, and the same disregard for human decencies. I refer to the outbreak of McCarthyism in the United States.

I have spoken of the resemblances between McCarthyism and witch-hunting, but there are differences as well. The Salem magistrates did not seek political advantage; they probably did not seek notoriety; and when they came to themselves they did public penance. Senator McCarthy is probably too insensitive to realize, now or in the future, that he has created a scandal in democracy that is worse than anything that every happened in Salem. In fact, in adopting the smear tactics and the bullying of Communism and Nazism he has come dangerously close to an essential part of totalitarianism—and any totalitarianism is a danger to democracy. Of course there are Communists and we must defend ourselves against them; but what is being done in Washington today is more likely to win sympathy than condemnation for Communism.

It would not become a Canadian to say this about a prominent citizen of a friendly country, but for two reasons: in the first place the American republic has by force of circumstances assumed the leading role in the democratic world, and through his action Senator McCarthy discredits democracy in the eyes of the world. We all suffer for it. In the second place the Senator and his friends have made a deliberate attempt to draw Canada into the same way of life. It is encouraging to see that the whole Canadian parliament has drawn together to repel an invasion by a very evil thing.

Christian Science

How spiritual understanding of God's protective care can bring freedom from accidents will be brought out at Christian Science services on Sunday, in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God the Preserver of Man".

Bible readings will include the following from Psalms: "The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve they going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore."

Relevant citations from the text book "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following: "Accidents are unknown to God, or immortal Mind, and we must leave the mortal basis of belief and unite with the one Mind, in order to change the notion of chance to the proper sense of God's unerring direction and tthus bring out harmony."

The Golden Text is also from Psalms: "Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord: let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me."

C.N. Lists Special Holiday Trains For Christmas New Year's Season

With Christmas and New Year holiday travel expected to be the heaviest in years, passenger department authorities of the Canadian National Railways have arranged the operation of numerous special trains and services, J. Ignorance Of God Cause Of Troubles Speaker Declares

World problems, as well as individual problems, have their origin in age-old misunderstanding of God—of His plan, His purpose, and His intention for His children — and they can be solved in the degree that God is acknowledged and understood as infinite good and as the only real power, according to Grace Jane Noee of Chicago, who lectured on Christian Science Thursday evening in Victoria Hall, Westmount.

Problems of health, as well as social and economic problems are the result, Mrs. Noee said, of "undisciplined thinking—of false beliefs entertained, not rejected — the effect of fear and hatred and greed."

False human beliefs are to be avoided, she added, because "humanly we are always just where our beliefs have brought us. Our happiness, our health, our whole experience, is constituted of and formed by the beliefs we entertain. What we ourselves accept constitutes our experience of body, of home, of business, of government."

Mrs. Noee spoke here under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Westmount, in the course of a nationwide tour as a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship.

Christian Science demonstrates, the lecturer declared, that the same divine Truth illustrated by Christ Jesus is operative today to heal all who turn understandingly to God. She said the remedy for any problem could be found in the acceptance of God as "the only cause, the only creator, the only presense, the only power."

Social Personal Engagements Weddings

Miss Gloria Abbey, of Storrington, Sussex, England, will arrive by plane on December 13 to spend a month with Dr. and Mrs. Graham Ross.

The Officers' Mess is now equipped with a television set and hockey fans can watch the Montreal Canadiens play the Boston Bruins.

Montreal Women's ORT To Hold Annual Bazaar In The Montreal Show Mart

Annual Bazaar of Montreal Women's ORT will be a gigantic undertaking when it opens at the Show Mart on Tuesday, December 15, at 9 a.m., and continues all day Wednesday, December 16, from 9 a.m. to 1 a.m.

ORT women have enjoyed the reputation of staging one of the largest and most attractive bazaars in the city. However, with the increased enthusiasm from ORTists to expand, the bazaar has moved to the largest exposition hall in Montreal, the Show Mart. This will mark the first and only time this year that a charitable organization has held a function in this centre.

Although the affair will follow the general pattern of Bazaars, but on a much larger scale, many other features have been added to make this bazaar particularly outstanding. A large variety of commodities will be available ranging from men's, women's and children's apparel, yard goods, toilet goods, jewellery, toys, groceries, delicate pastries, fruit baskets, household and electrical appliances. There will be several snack bars with a selection of Chinese and American food, also hot and cold drinks. A convenience for lady shoppers will be a section reserved for all kinds of games where husbands can while away the time while wives fill their baskets. On Tuesday and Wednesday, Steinberg's Good Neighbour Club will be broadcast from the Show Mart in both Euglish and French. Literally hundreds of valuable prizes will be distributed, such as a sewing machine, vacuum cleaner, lamps, luggage, radio, jewellery, toilet and perfume sets. The Grand prize is a beautiful Ford Sedan.

An Exposition is incorporated with the Bazaar. Many outstanding commercial firms have rented space to display and sell their merchandise.

A total of over 65 booths will be featured. Taking place at the height of the Christmas shopping season, a record crowd is expected to attend the ORT Bazaar and Exposition. Co-chairman for the function are Mrs. H. T. Herbert and Mrs. B. S. Harrison.

B and P Club

The Business and Professional Women's Club is holding its annual Christmas party to-morrow, at six o'clock at the club house, 1467 Crescent St. There will be a buffet supper followed by a social evening.

Betty Speirs will hold a fashion show in aid of the Queen Mary Veterans on Monday, December 14, and a variety show in aid of the Darby and Joan Club, on Thursday, Dec. 17.

Many Fine Examples Of Craftsmanship Seen At Recent Exhibition: Prize Winners Listed

Among the many fine examples of Canadian Craftsmanship to be found in the current Exhibition of Pottery and Ceramic Sculpture, now on view at the Canadian Handicrafts Guild, 2025 Peel Street, are a number of interesting pieces made by local residents. Tiles made into a small table and teapot stands by the Grant Smarts, Olivier Avenue, have drawn many admiring comments, as has the impressionist wheel-thrown figurine by Eileen Reid, Cote St. Antoine Road. A free form ash tray with a gold-flecked glaze, made by Mrs. Reid, drew the only Honourable Mention awarded by the Judges to a local potter — all the other awards going to the West Coast, to Toronto and to New Brunswick. Miss Lois Naylor, Dorchester Street, is represented by some tiny but well-made pieces, and the work of other members of the Potters' Club is also shown.

At the well-attended official opening of the Exhibition at 3 o'clock last Saturday afternoon, when Mr. John Steegman, Director of the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts, gave the opening address, tea was served by Miss Jean Hawthorne, ably assisted by other members of the Potters' Club. Westmount was also represented on the Judges' panel in the person of Mrs. Fred R. Mulligan, Rosemount Crescent. Acting with Mrs. Mulligan in this capacity were Mrs. Nancy Dawes of Senneville, and Mr. Jean Cartier of Montreal. All agreed that this present Exhibition could well compare with high quality European pottery and expressed their pleasure in finding all parts of Canada so well represented.

"India At McGill" An Exhibition And Sale Sponsored By The National W.U.S. In Canada

The World University Service Committee at McGill invites the public to attend a display and sale of Indian arts and crafts which is being held in the second floor lounge of the McGill Union until Saturday, Dec. 12.

The Handmade treasures which you will see are the result of many long hours of exacting work on the part of the poor craftsmen of India. For many of these people the sale of these goods mean the difference between enough to eat and starvation. In buying these exquisite articles you will be helping these craftsmen while providing yourself with beautiful souvenirs and interesting Christmas gifts for your friends.

The exhibition and sale has been touring universities from the Maritimes to British Columbia and has met with success at all the universities it has visited so far this year. Maybe you remember the exhibition from last year, or heard about it from your friends —now is the chance for you to make up for it if you didn't.

In sponsoring this exhibition and sale, the W.U.S.C. committee hopes to achieve several ends; to show Canadians some of India's fine craftsmanship, and by this means, provide the food, clothing, and shelter for inhabitants of India, which we all take so for granted.

The handicrafts to be shown are divided into various classes depending on their nature of manufacture.

Manchadi Seeds

One of the crafts in which Travancore excels is the making of the carved Manchadi seeds. After these seeds which are about the size of a pea have been carefully dried and hollowed, a tiny carved ivory elephant of minute detail is inserted and seale dinside. India legend maintains that it is ten times God's good luck to own one.

Articles For Sale

Some of the most popular articles include silk tissue scarfs from Benares in many colours and sizes; silver filigree jewelry, tinted glass bangles, ivory paper knives, embroidered velvet cigarette cases and evening bags, original oil and water colour paintings, linens, bedspreads and carpets, walnut wood carved boxes and trays inlaid with ivory and many other particles as well. Hours of the sale are today, 2 to 6 p.m. and 7 to 10 p.m; tomorrow, 1 to 6 p,m. 7 to 10 p.m.; and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. in the McGill Union, 690 Sherbrooke St. West.

Jewish General W. A. Plan Membership Tea

A Prospective Member tea is being planned by the Executive Board of the Women's Auxiliary of the Jewish General Hospital as the opening move in the Auxiliary's drive for a larger membership.

The campaign, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Herbert Dobrin, Mrs. David Kirsch, and Mrs. Moe Lippman, is being launched with the desire to substantially increase the membership of the auxiliary. Evermounting costs of current projects of the auxiliary make it imperative that additional income sources be found, in order not to jeopardize any of the vital undertakings which are the auxiliary's responsibility.

The new wing of the hospital, under construction now, will mean 150 additional beds, increasing the size of the hospital by another two-thirds. It is the dues brought in by general membership in the Women's Auxiliary that pay for all linen supplies for these beds. A larger membership, therefore, is essential to meet the exxpanding needs of the hospital.

Thirteen hundred invitations have been sent out to Prospective Members for the tea, which will take place on Wednesday, December 16, at 2 p.m., in the Auditorium of the Nurses' Resirence of the hospital. It is hoped that a large proportion of those invited will become members of the Women's Auxiliary of the Jewish General Hospital and, by so doing, make an actual contribution to the welfare of the hospital.

BIG CANADIAN SHIP LAUNCHED: Mrs. Donald Gordon, wife of the president of the Canadian National Railways, above, christens the largest ship of its type ever built in Canada, the motor vessel "William Carson" which was launched recently at the Canadian Vickers shipyards in Montreal. Built for the Depart of Transport it will be operated by the CNR across the Cabot Strait between North Sydney, N.S., and Port aux Basques, Nfld. The first all-electric driven ship to operate in northern ocean waters, and one of the few with "push button" control, the 7,500-ton icebreaker is 351 feet long and accomodates 266 passengers, 83 motor vehicles, 25 cattle and 800 tons of freight. It will be capable of a speed of 16 knots, and will make the 90-mile crossing in six hours. The official party includes Mr. and Mrs. Gordon, Rev. William McLean, chaplain of the Montreal Sailors' Institute, O. H. Barrett, president of Canadian Vickers and Mrs. Barrett, Hon. Lionel Chevrier, Minister of Transport, Hon. J. W. Pickersgill, Secretary of State, Chesley W. Carter, Member of Parliament for Burgeo, Nfld., and representing Premier Joseph Smallwood, and J. E. Labelle, chairman of the board, Canadian Vickers.

Cranberries Or "Craneberries" As Originally Named Are Now Being Cultivated In Many Parts Of Canada

This Christmas when you are buying cranberries for Christmas dinner, turn the carton over and read the printing on the back, you may find that these berries were grown in Canada. The home economists of the Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture tell us that cranberries are now being cultivated in the Maritime Provinces, Quebec, Ontario and British Columbia.

The Lingenberry is a member of the cranberry family and both are of the same botanical family as blueberries. Cranberries were originally called "'Cranberries" because the stalk resembled the neck of a crane, and these "crane-berries" were orginally found growing wild in marshy low lands in North America. From the Indians, the pilgrim women learned how to use them. When farmers decided to cultivate the cranberry, the first thing they did was to study how and where the berry grew in the wild state. As a result, we now find cranberries being cultivated on low-lying lands in man-made bogs.

Cranberries are harvested before the heavy frosts can damage them. If the frost happen to come too early and the berries are not ripe, the bogs are flooded with a small amount of water which protects the berries and keeps them from freezing.

Cranberry sauce is the natural partner of roast turkey at the Christmas dinner, but after the turkey is finished sometimes some of the sauce is left over and many homemakers do not know what to do with. Of course many people enjoy cranberry sauce with other meats and some like it on their morning toast, but the home economists of the Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture have sent us some good ideas for using left-over cranberry sauce. They are very interesting ideas because they seem to have taste appeal as well as eye appeal. Take for instance this dea — ice cream with cranberry sauce topping. It sounds good and we can just imagine how colorful it is! The home economists mention that for a dessert with a festive air, the ice cream can be served in a meringue pie shell, vanilla ice cream of course, topped liberally with cranberry sauce. Just thinking of this dessert brings to mind the line of poetry about "a thing of beauty is a joy forever."

Spices Give Fresh Flavor To Hot Soups

A steaming bowl of hit soup on a cold day appeals to almost everyone, and the range of possibilities in this dish are practically without end. Thin soups, cream soups, thick soups that provide a large part of the meal—the home cook may choose from these types in almost any flavor she can think of. Meats, fish, vegetables and even fruits contribute their part to making soups attractive to the taste and eye.

Cream of Celery Soup

1 cup finely diced celery
2 tablespoons butter
1 beef bouillon cube
1 cup hot water
2 teaspoons grated onion
1 cup nonfat dry milk
3 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon each, pepper and paprika
3 cups water.

Brown celery in butter in small skillet. Dissolve bouillon cube in the cup of hot water and add to skillet mixture. Sprinkle powdered milk, flour, salt, pepper and paprika over the 3 cups water in top of double boiler. Beat with rotary beater until blended. Cook over hot water until thoroughly heated. Add celery and onion mixture. Continue to cook for 5 minutes. Serves 6.

If you'd like a "company" soup, try this mushroom-shrimp bisque. You may use canned mushrooms for a time-saver. Those broiled in butter before they're canned add richness to this soup. This recipe makes 3 generous servings.

Mushroom-Shrimp Bisque

2 cups well-seasoned chicken broth
1 can chopped mushrooms (3 ozs.)
½ pound raw shrimp
2 teaspoons flour
½ cup heavy cream
Additional seasoning, if you like

Heat chicken broth and add mushroom liquid; add mushrooms and heat. Peel shrimp and cut each one in about 6 pieces and add to liquid. Combine flour and cream into smooth mixture. Add gradually, stirring constantly until boiling point is reached. Serve immediately.

Let's Eat

By IDA BAILEY ALLEN

A heart-warming thing about Christmas is the inexpensive little gifts from little children to loved adults, gifts which the children have painstakingly made, or bought with their own money which they have saved up in the piggy bank.

When the family clan is large, and there are a number of relatives to be remembered, parents are often tempted to contribute toward the child's Christmas fund. It's far better to let children earn the money; this gives them a sense of real accomplishment and greater joy in giving.

Gifts for Kitchen Use

"There are a number of very inexpensive gifts for kitchen use that children could give," mused the Chef. "I am thinking of small boxes of assorted rubber bands to use in securing wrappings on foods for the refrigerator or freezer. Also, a kitchen slate and pencil to jot down needed supplies would be good. Or a small loose-leaf notebook for shopping lists."

"And, Chef, many homemakers also would appreciate another set of measuring spoons, or a heat-resistant glass measuring cup. And comparatively few have a special plastic measure for coffee, or cooking tongs for lifting vegetables or turning meat. All these cost very little, and meet the requirements of limited budgets."

Tomorrow's Dinner

Winter Vegetable Soup in Bowls
Sausage and Sweet Potato Bake
Apple Chutney
Peanut-Tossed Green Salad
Bread and Butter Custard
Coffee Tea Milk

All measurements are level. Recipes serve 4 to 6.

Sausage and Sweet Potato Bake

Peel and coarse-grate 6 good-sized sweet potatoes. While doing this, put one pound sausage meat in a frying pan. Separate with a fork; half-cook, stirring constantly; do not let it brown. Drain off the fat.

Then in a two-quart oiled baking dish, put first a layer of one-third of the sweet potato, then a thin layer of one-third of the sausage meat. When 3 layers of each have been made, dust with salt and pepper. Add ½ cup warm water. Cover and bake 45 minutes in a moderate oven, 375 deg. F.

Apple Chutney

(A jar or two of this would be a welcome Christmas present in any home.)

Peel, core and chop 18 large tart apples and 1 peeled good-sized onion. Remove the seeds and cores from 3 sweet green peppers and chop fine. Then combine the apples, onion and peppers with 1½ cup chopped raisins, 1½ pints cider vinegar, one tablespoon salt, 1½ (eight ounce) glasses currant or other tart jelly, 1½ cup granulated sugar, the juice four lemons or ½ cup canned or reconstituted frozen lemon juice, 1½ tablespoon ground ginger and ¼ teaspoon cayenne pepper or tabasco sauce. Cover and simmer about 1½ hours, or until thick.

Better slip an asbestos mat under the saucepan the last half hour. Transfer to sterilized jars, filling them to overflowing. Seal at once.

Peanut-Tossed Salad From the Chef

(Very nice combination with the Sausage and Sweet Potato Bake.)

Toss two quarts mixed crisp salad greens with three parts olive or peanut oil and one part cider or wine vinegar. Add ½ cup fresh salted peanuts.

Cereal Loaf Bran Muffins Supply Protein

Everyone needs certain amounts of protein during the day. One of the least expensive sources of protein is cereal, enriched, whole grain or restored to whole grain values.

Cereals can come to the rescue of cost-deflated food budgets not only in breakfast foods, but also in hot breads, in combination with meats for main course dishes, and in combination with fruits for desserts.

Cereal Meat Loaf
(Serves 8)

One pound ground beef, ¼ pound ground salt pork, 1 cup rolled oats, ¼ cup chopped onion, 2 teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon mustard, 1 egg, 1 cup cooked tomatoes.

Combine all ingredients, mixing thoroughly. Pack firmly into loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 1 hour. Slice and serve hot or cold.

Apple Bran Muffins
(Yield: 9 muffins)

Two tablespoons fat, ¼ cup molasses, 1 egg, 1 cup whole bran, ¾ cup milk, 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour, ½ teaspoon salt, 2½ teaspoons baking powder, 1 apple, 3 tablespoons sugar, ¼ teaspoon cinnamon.

Cream fat; blend in molasses; add egg and beat well. Stir in bran and milk; allow to soak until liquid is absorbed (about 20 minutes). Sift together flour, salt and baking powder; add to bran mixture and stir only enough to moisten dry ingredients. Fill greased muffin pans, 2½ inches in diameter, two-thirds full. Pare apple and slice in 18 wedges. Roll slices in mixture of cinnamon and sugar. Press 2 slices into top of each muffin. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) 25 to 30 minutes.

Prune Whip
(Serves 4-6)

One and one-half cups cooked prunes (1 pound dried), ¾ cup oatmeal, ¼ cup milk or cream, ¼ teaspoon cinnamon, ⅛ teaspoon salt, 2 egg whites, 3 tablespoons sugar.

Remove pits from prunes; mash the pulp. Add cooled oatmeal, milk, cinnamon and salt. Beat egg whites until stiff; gradually beat in sugar. Fold into prune mixture. Chill thoroughly and serve plain or with whipped cream.

Fresh Poached Eggs Are Served Eight Hours After Being Cooked

Flying 350 miles an hour high over the Atlantic Ocean on our way to Paris, we had tender poached eggs for breakfast. They had been poached almost eight hours earlier at Gander Airport, Newfoundland.

Eve Mariano, manager of food service for Trans World Airlines, flew with us and explained the magic of the eggs. At the Gander commissary they had been poached briefly, then dropped into ice water to stop their cooking further.

Next they were drained and 2 placed in each individual glass casserole. Trays of these egg-filled casseroles were slipped into the cooling compartment of the Constellation's galley. Half an hour before breakfast, the trays were transferred to an electric warmer.

Miss Mariano, the first woman food supervisor of any airline, had planned all the meals for our plane as well as for the 250 other TWA planes flying that day, from her headquarters in Kansas City, Missouri.

"We cook all meats and potatoes and desserts in our Kansas City commissary under controlled conditions. That's the only way we can be certain they come up to our high standards," she explain- by air to our food units where our planes take them aboard, restore them and serve aloft. All salads are prepared fresh at the airports and kept in dry ice."

Miss Mariano, daughter of a noted Italian chef and highly trained in food preparation, is responsible for 700 tons of food a week and the preparation of three-and-a-half million meals a year.

The Ambassador Service dinner on our return flight (the menu has a Paris scene painted on it) consisted of cocktails and aperitifs, an amazing array of hors d'oeuvres, consomme with tiny cheese straws, filet of sole with excellent sauce, stuffed squab, shoe-string potatoes, French peas, crisp lettuce salad, an elaborate cake, coffee, champagne and trays of fruit and cheese.

Canada produced about two-thirds of the entire world output of asbestos in 1952.

Autumn Is The Season For Stews Try This Recipe For "Curried Lamb"

This is the season for lamb and the home economists of the Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture are certainly taking advantage of it. They are busy testing all kinds of lamb recipes and of course, they did not forget that important dish "Curried Lamb," or "Lamb Curry"—whichever you want to call it. When a recipe was first discussed amongst the home economists — they always discuss recipes that are concerned with a special, shall we say, "national" dish — there was a difference of opinion as to whether curried lamb should be made from left-over cooked lamb or from fresh raw lamb.

Their recipe calls for raw lamb but they tried the same recipe using left-over cooked lamb, decreasing the length of cooking time of course they felt that curried lamb made this way was also acceptable. The recipe has a fair amount of curry in it, however, for people who prefer more curry powder, the amount can be increased. When the home economists choose a recipe, they have to choose one which would suit practically everyone but they realize some people like their curry much, much hotter

Curried Lamb

- 2 lbs. boneless stewing lamb
- 1 cup finely chopped onion
- 2 tablespoons rendered fat
- 1 cup hot water
- 1 tablespoon chopped parsley
- ¼ teaspoon thyme
- 1 clove garlic, crushed (optional)
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch
- ⅛ teaspoon pepper
- 1 tablespoon curry powder
- ¼ cup cold water
- ½ cup raisins or 3 tablespoons chutney
- 1½ cups chopped tart apple

Method

Cut lamb in 1-inch cubes, trim fat and render. Brown onions in fat in a fryig pan. Add lamb and brown thoroughly. Drain off excess fat. Add water, parsley, thyme, garlic (if desired) and salt. Cover and simmer until tender, about 1 hour. Combine cornstarch, pepper and curry powder. Add cold water and mix to a smooth paste. Add a little of the hot liquid from the meat to the paste, blend well and stir gradually into meat mixture. Add raisins or chutney and apples. Cook 15 minutes longer. Six servings.

B'nai B'rith Women To Present Program Of Great Interest

Montreal Chapter 257, B'nai B'rith Women will have an Open Meeting on Wednesday evening, December 23, at 8.30 in the Community Hall of the Spanish and Portuguese Synagogue, Lemieux Ave., when they will present a program entitled The Jew in the Modern World in a prologue and five scenes, with a commentary, linking the scenes.

The theme is an adaptation of the works of Dr. Ludwig Lewisohn's "American Jew" and Rabbi Milton Steinberg's, "The Making of the American Jew", and the title is borrowed from one of the Seminars conducted last summer under the auspices of the B'nai B'rith Institute for Judaism, for leaders in the field of Youth and Adult Education. The scenes to be portrayed deal with problems which occurred and do occur in the lives of Jewish Canadians over a period of the last half-century.

Among those participating are Mesdames H. Goldhamer and B. Davidow of the Blue Star Chapter; Mesdames C. S. Issenman and J. Levine of the Laurentian Chapter; little Miss Lee-Ann Issenman and Master Melvin Leitman; Messrs. (Dr.) I. W. Kaufman, Jos. Shacter and Barney Grosser and the commentary will be given by Mrs. Wm. Salit. The program has been adapted and will be produced by Mrs. Aaron Genser, Program Chairman of Montreal Chapter. Dr. Kaufman is in charge of directing. Mrs. N. Richler is Chapter President.

Invitations have been extended to the Sister Chapters of B'nai B'rith; to the Presidents and Cultural Chairmen of Synagogue and Temple Sisterhoods, as well as to Representatives of Women's Organizations in Montreal.

Dr. Donald Mackay President Of Institute Founded By Relative

Presidency of the Mackay Institute for Protestant Deaf Mutes remained in the family after the retirement of Allan O. Mackay at the annual general meeting. A cousin, Dr. Donald Mackay, succeeded him in the organization founded by a relative 83 years ago.

Mr. Mackay, who held the post for three years, will remain on the board of managers, of which he has been a member for 25 years. His mother, Mrs. George B. Mackay, and wife, are both directresses of the institute.

Mrs. Robert Loring was named honorary president.

The retiring president in his report stated 88 pupils had attended the school during the term ending last June. He said enrolment this year stood at a near-record high of 91 students taxing our limited facilities to capacity."

$5,000 Deficit

Twenty-one children are from Quebec Province and 67 from other provinces. Their ages range from five to 16 years.

"Total income for the year amounted to $100,000, another all-time high," Mr. Mackay said. "Operating expenses also increased, but by careful management we were able to keep the deficit down to $5,000."

Contributions for the year totalled $23,670. Legacies included $4,769 from the estate of the late James A. Eardley; $500 bequeathed by the late William B. Blackader, and $500 by Miss Amy I. Law.

"The Mackay Homecraft Studio, Victoria street, where pupils practise handicrafts taught at the institute, contributed $5,000, bringing the total from the studio during the last few years to $85,000.

"Our operations would be severely handicapped without this support of the studio," Mr. Mackay said, James M. Fraser is president, and Mrs. S. Bang teacher and supervisor."

Many Montreal service clubs have helped the institute during the year with money and other contributions. The latter include a TV set, movies and athletic equipment. One club raised $800 for the pre-school children's group established in September.

A medical advisory board has been formed, and the institute is awaiting a report from Dr. S. Richard Silverman, director of the Central Institute for the Deaf. Mr. Mackay said. Dr. Silverman made a survey of the school to study the adaption of new teaching methods.

Mrs. Charles F. Burns, Alan F. Gill, Hazen Hansard, Hon. C. B. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hutchison, Mrs. J. D. G. Kippen, Mrs. Walter Molson, B. M. Ogilvie, Adam L. Sellar and C. G. Wallace were named elective governors.

William F. Shepherd was appointed to the board of managers, to replace Mr. Ogilvie, who has retired after 12 years. Others elected to the board were Miss Mabel Evans, C. Howard Gordon, Dr. A. L. Walsh, Dr. D. G. Mackay and Mrs. J. Kippen. Other appointments were: Mrs. R. Loring, honorary president; vice-presidents: Dr. A. L. Walsh, James M. Fraser; directresses: Mrs. George B. Mackay, Mrs. A. O. Mackay, Miss Mabel Evans; Gordon S. J. Payne, secretary-treasurer; honorary physicians: Drs. G. Edward Tremble, Alan Bourne, W. G. M. Byers, R. Kerry, W. Roland Kennedy, J. J. McGovern, A. L. Walsh and P. D. Ryan.

Mackay, Julius Richardson Parties Set To Bring Santa To Children

Two leading west end children's institutions will hold Christmas parties Tuesday, Dec. 22 to bring the festive atmosphere to young people. The Mackay Institute for the Deaf and the Julius Richardson Memorial Hospital both have scheduled warm and intimate affairs.

At the Home, the party will last from 5-7 p.m. with movies from the Montreal Rotary Club. F. C. Lydon will supervise, while J. Hewitson will be in charge of the carol-singing. Santa Claus will be on hand to give out presents and Rotarians will donate gifts for each child.

The St. George Kiwanis Club will provide entertainment, and have arranged for the Unity Boys Club Talent Parade to be on hand. This group proved to be immensely popular last year.

The Julius Richardson's Women's Auxiliary, Crown Trust, Montrose Ladies Club, and the Douglas Church Women's Auxiliary will also help out.

A fair number will spend the Yule with their parents, a spokesman said, but more than 100 guests will be present at the celebration. These will mainly consist of members of the board of managers and governors, and their wives.

At Mackay, the day will feature an afternoon and evening party supper. Another party will take place Christmas Day, when the presents will be distributed and stockings filled.

St. George Kiwanis have arranged for a program—the International Brotherhood of Magicians, Montreal ring—to entertain the children.

The Kiwanis group previously donated 42 pairs of slippers to the Mackay Institute, another 50 pairs to the Julius Richardson Home and 80 pairs to St. Patrick's Orphanage.

Letters Of Junius Topic Of Address

Contents of the Letters of Junius and the identity of the person who wrote them was the subject discussed by A. J. B. Milborne before the St. James Literary Society Tuesday evening.

Mr. Milborne said Junius wrote in the heyday of political satire, and that he had no equal in that field. "The accuracy of his facts, the clearness of his statements, the finish of his style and the terrible vigour of his invective have secured for Junius the immortality for which he fondly hoped as the only reward for his labour" he said.

"The identity of the writer had puzzled the literary world ever since the letters appeared in the London newspapers," he said, "and the identification of Sir Philip Francis as Junius, out of every forty suspects, rested upon circumstantial evidence."

Many of the topics discussed by Junius, said Mr. Milborne are of contemporary interest for the prerogatives of the Crown, the abuse of which he exposed, have passed in Canada into the hands of the cabinet which supported by overwhelming majorities in the Senate and in the Commons, tends to become progressively more powerful.

Junius wrote "Both liberty and property are precarious, unless the possessors have sense and spirit enough to defend them" and the speaker said this statement is as true today as it was in the latter part of the eighteenth century.

Canadian-Made Atomic Device In Widespread Use

Canada plays an increasingly important role in the development of atomic fission for peacetime purposes. This fact was borne out by the disclosure that Canadian-made nuclear fission instruments are in operation in many U.S. research centres, and in other countries as far away as India.

The device employs crystals which have the property of glowing visibly under radioactive bombardment. An "electric eye" picks up the pinpoint flashes of light, and the resulting current is amplified and made to operate a counter. Already the "kick-sorter" has advanced the frontier of scientific knowledge in the atomic field.

So complicated and sensitive is the "kick-sorter" tha tit sells for about the price of a Cadillac! The cost is small, however, compared to the incalculable benefits to mankind that such instruments make possible.

Bishop Of Arctic Speaks Tuesday At Joint Meeting In Trinity Hall

Bishop of the Arctic, the Right Reverend Donald B. Marsh, D.D., will be stopping off in Montreal for one day, Tuesday, December 15th on his way home from England where he has been on a speaking tour for two months.

During the course of his tour he will have made over one hundred speeches explaining the work being done in the Diocese of the Arctic and appealing for men and women to come and help him in that work. While in London one Sunday he preached to congregations of over fifteen hundred persons in St. Paul's and St. Martin's-in-the-Fields.

In Montreal the Bishop of the Arctic will be the guest of the Missionary Committee of the Dioces of Montreal in the Boy Scouts Association Headquarters Building, Bishop Street, at a luncheon presided over by the Chairman of the Missionary Committee Rev. R. R. Latimer. In the evening he will attend a meeting in Trinity Memorial Church Hall being held under the auspices of the Men's Association and the Hi-Try Club of that Church. The meeting will be open to the public and will be at 8:15 p.m. R. C. Stevenson, convener of of the meeting for the two organizations will preside. The Bishop will speak about his overseas trip and the work in his own Diocese.

At 3:00 p.m. he will adress a meeting of the Executive Committee and the Presidents of the Ladies Auxiliaries of the Boy Scouts Association at Scout Headquarters at which Mrs. A. F. Anderson, President of the Scout Auxiliaries will act as chairman.

The dioces of the Arctics covers a total area of 1¾ million square miles of land. There are at present only six ordained missionaries to minister to 7,000 Anglican Ekimos in an area of over a million square miles. Obviously there is a great need for more missionaries to carry on this work in the far north and there is also a great need for nurses, nurses' aides, cooks and matrons in the Arctic schools and hospitals. It is because of these two great needs that the Bishop made his trip overseas in an endeavor to secure people to help aleviate the shortage of workers in this vast territory.

Presbytery Women's Assn Formed -- Officers Elected

For a great many years it has been the fond hope and prayer of many of the Woman's Associations of the United Church of Canada in Montreal to have representation at the Dominion Council and at last through the untiring effort of a few stalwart persons this end has been accomplished.

It was decided at a rally of local associations held at Calvary Church in October that a presbytery Woman's Association should be formed and in St. James United Church, recently, an organizational meeting and election of officers took place.

The following officers were elected and immediately installed at a brief ceremony by Reverend N. A. McMurray, B.A., B.D.; Mrs. L. Harman, president; Mrs. A. McK. Porritt, 1st vice-president; Mrs. F. H. Dance, Pointe Claire, 2nd vice-president; treasurer, Mrs. J. F. Emms; recording secretary, Mrs. W. B. Anderson, Summerlea, corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. Thompson. Como, Que.; literature secretary, Mrs. P. G. Carrier, St. Laurent; press secretary, Mrs. D. Bowes-Lyon.

Mrs. Porritt conducted a short question and answer period which clarified the policy of the organization, and urged the women to modernize their effort in church work to fit the times.

Mrs. Harman summed up with the statement: "The Presbytery Woman's Association makes no demands and claims no authority over the local association but it is organized to help deepen the spiritual well-being of the members; to promote Christian Fellowship; and to increase interest in the local church by financial aid."

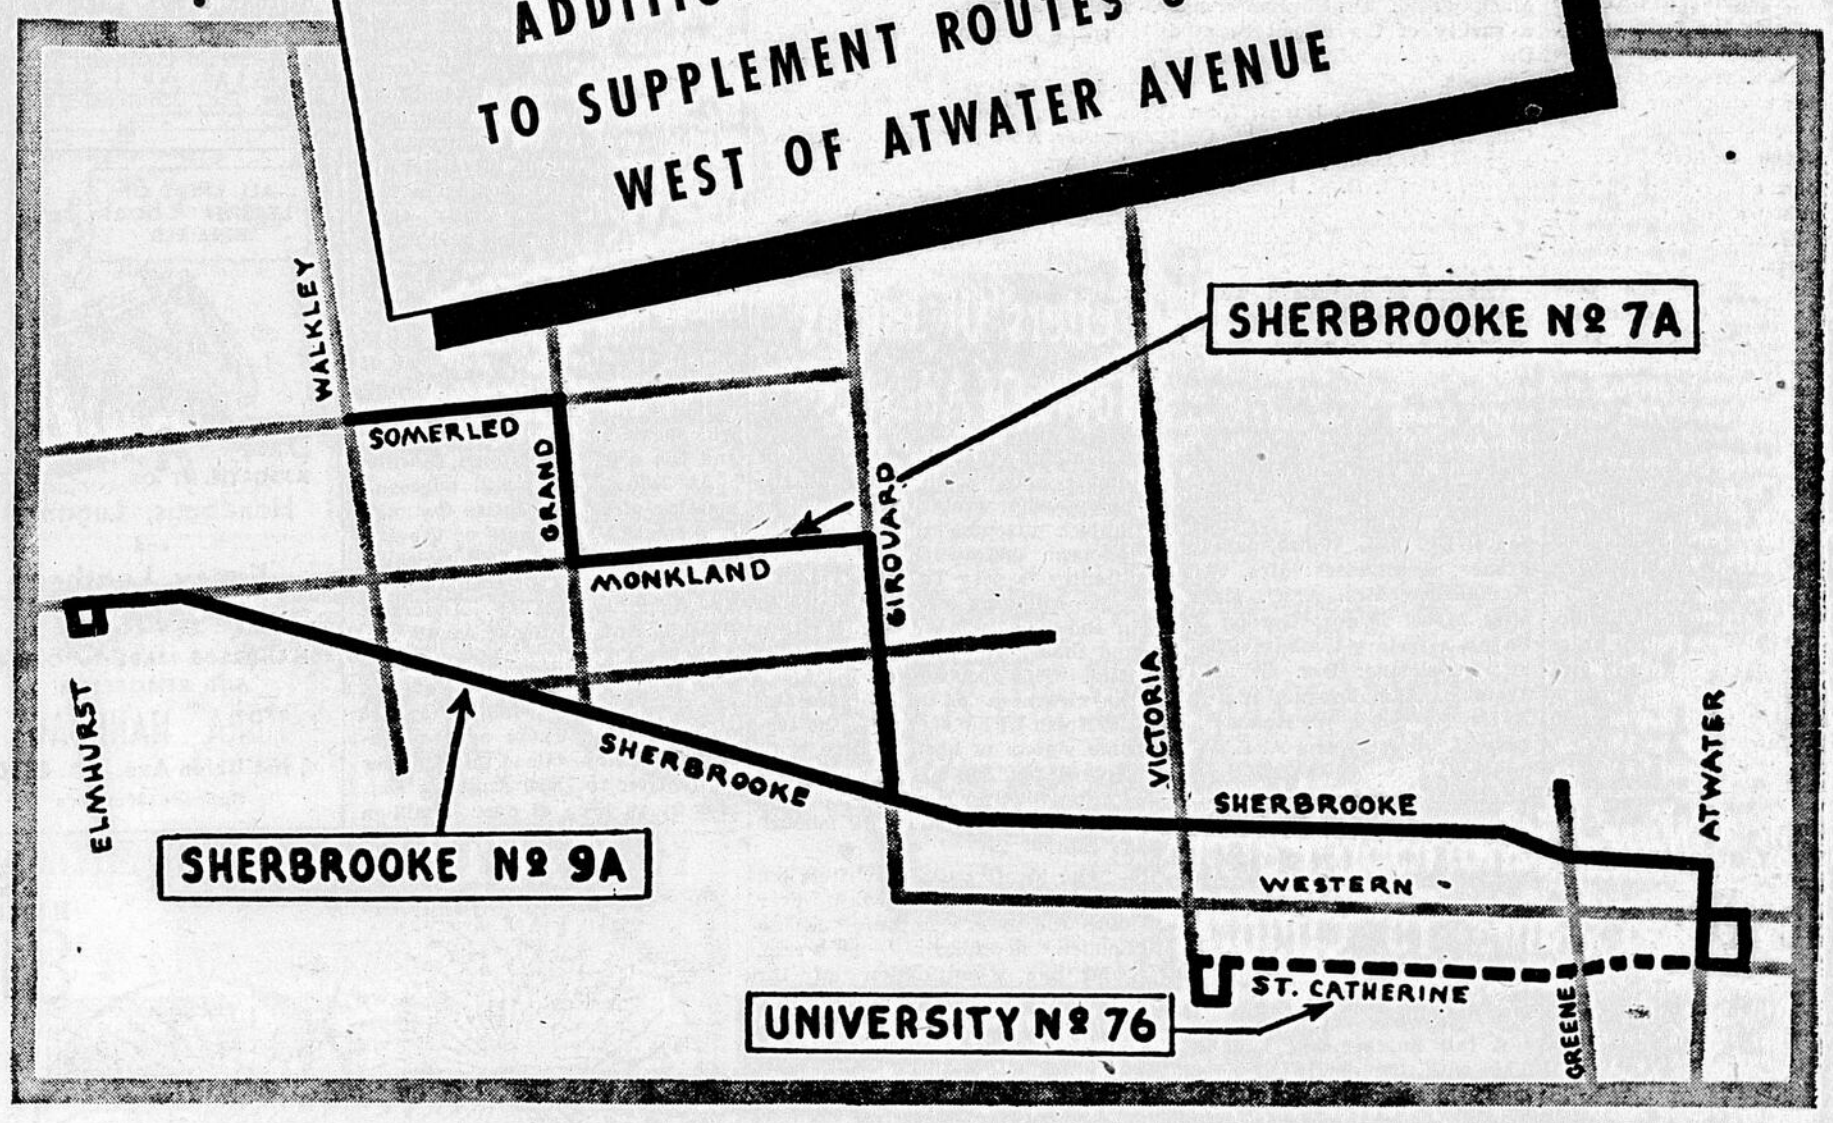
NOTICE

ADDITIONAL TRAMWAY SERVICE TO SUPPLEMENT ROUTES 3 AND 3A WEST OF ATWATER AVENUE



Because of the serious congestion of traffic on St. Catherine St. most of the day, and particularly during the Christmas shopping season, service on St. Catherine tramway routes Nos. 3 and 3A is frequently disrupted.

Consequently, persons wishing to use these services in Westmount and Notre Dame de Grace are subjected, at times, to long waits and irregular service.

In order to assure residents of these areas a more dependable service on Sherbrooke St., Monkland Ave., and Somerled Ave., additional cars will be operated from the corner of St. Catherine St. and Atwater Ave. (Forum), to Elmhurst Loop, and others to Somerled and Walkley Aves.

As these cars will have their eastern terminal at the Forum, they will not be subject to delays in the centre of the city. These additional services are being established by the Commisson on a trial basis to better serve locally the areas of Westmount and Notre Dame de Grace. At the same time transfer may be made at Atwater Ave. with other routes operating in the central part of the city.

These additional services will commence Wednesday December 9th and will operate on weekdays (including Saturdays) from 9.30 A.M. to 11.00 P.M.

Cars of both routes will operate in both directions via Sherbrooke St. and Atwater Ave., and will loop around the Forum. They will be designated:—

Aquarium Society Looking Ahead To 21st Birthday Early In New Year

The Montreal Aquarium Society, a group born to further the study and advancement of the aquarium hobby, will come of age shortly. With a large portion of the membership from the west end of the city, they will reach their 21st birthday on Feb. 27.

Founded in 1933 by Ralph Dawson, one of the society's two honorary life members, they have placed their emphasis on the popular and rapidly growing hobby of raising and keeping tropical fish. Monthly meetings are held at 1140 Drummond street, and an effort is made to have a speaker who can authoritatively discuss some phase of the subject at each meeting.

Films are also shown, and auction sales are frequently held to enable members to dispose of their surplus fish and plants.

Tropical fish keeping has proven to be a wonderful way of occupying the time of shut-ins, and the society has donated completely-equipped aquariums to the Children's Memorial Hospital, the School for Crippled Children, Queen Mary Veterans' Hospital and the Ste. Anne de Bellevue Military Hospital. These aquariums are stocked with fish and aquatic plants and are maintained in proper condition by members as a public service.

The group in its membership boats two active members who were on the original board of officers - Stanley Barnes and Lyle Hayter. They along with Howard Lees, and George Crites formed the initial executive.

Presently George Woodman is president, Jean Matte vice-president, Sgt. W. Powell vice-president, Mrs. J. Weightman secretary, Eugene Lemieux treasurer and Thomas Chick, program and publicity.

The Society also publishes a monthly paper, The Bulletin, with E. LeGoff as editor.

While the Montreal Aquarium Society has a city-wide membership, many of them hail from NDG, Westmount and Snowdon areas. These include James Baird, William Bexton, C. Gordon Brown, Eugene Fournier, A. E. Hague, F. L. Harford, V. B. Harris, C. T. Harris, Mrs. J. Weightman, Eugene Lemieux, R. Shadley, J. O'Reilly, R. T. Somers, Mrs. A. Taylor, R. Vaillancourt and George Woodman.

In addition, four pet shops are operated in the area by members. Mr. and Mrs. J. Kelz have the Pet Shop, Mr. and Mrs. J. Goard the Ferndale Aquarium, Rufiange's St. Henri Tropical Fish and Aquarium, and J. Bourque's B and B Pet Shop. These stores supply many of the hobbyists with new varieties of fish and underwater plants, as well as food for the finny pets and remedies and accessories.

The Society extends a cordial welcome to all interested in the tropical fish hobby at its meetings, held the second Thursday of each month.

"The Desert Rats," battle spectacle opening at the Monkland United Theatre this Saturday to run four days, is a reverse sequel. That is, it delineates the further adventures of Field Marshall Erwin Rommel, first introduced to moviegoers in "The Desert Fox", but the episodes in his life it depicts are those which took place a year and a half before the events shown in "Fox" got under way. Playing the role again briefly is James Mason, who follows the stellar billing of Richard Burton and Robert Newton.

This feature wages the North African campaign from the Allied viewpoint, and describes in detail the stand taken at Tobruk in 1941, which first disproved the invincibility of the Rommel blitzkrieg technique.

Unity Down Holy Trinity

Coming to life in the fourth quarter of the ball game, Unity Boys Club made it two wins in a row in Montreal Intermediate Basketball League play Sunday night when they downed a battling Holy Trinity quintet 61-41 on the spacious Mont St. Louis floor.

The offensive star of the evening was William Jack "Errol" McKissock, the raven-thatched Snowdon Fastball Leaguer, who swished an even 20 points through the hoop in the course of the evening's proceedings. It was the McGoose's most prolific scoring display of the young 1953-54 season.

The Unity larrigans held a 10-point bulge at half-time but the fighting HT aggregation came roaring back in the third quarter to come within a point of tieing things up.

BIG FOURTH QUARTER

The Unity larrigans caught fire in the final stanza, combining some accurate passing with some deadly shooting to take a commanding lead that they never relinquished.

Number two man on the winners' scoring ladder was George Cochrane, who scored 10 points, all of them in the second half. Next in line was southpaw Dave Barnard with nine.

Sematos and T. Pappas were the big noises for the losers with 15 points apiece.

Unity will be out to make it three in a row Friday night when they play host to the Owls, a team composed of evening students at Sir George Williams College.

After the first 60 games of the 1953-54 National Hockey League season had been swept by the boards, not one single "Hat Trick" had been registered. There were two for the same period a year ago

West Squads Take Two Tilts, Local Gals Relay Champions

It was carnival night at the Montreal Forum Monday and some 5,000 enthusiastic followers of high school hockey gathered at the St. Catherine street emporium to root for their favorites.

The occasion was the third annual High School Hockey Carnival sponsored by the Greater Montreal Interscholastic Athletic Association. Total proceeds from the event will help participating schools to finance their inter-school hockey programs this winter.

There was a little bit of just about everything on tap Monday as the teacher committee in charge of the event went all out to provide the customers with a Christmas month menu as spicy as a Yuletide cake. Three all star hockey games, relay races for both girls and boys, girls' hockey, a duds' game and a teachers' broomball exhibition all helped to round out the big evening.

At intermission time Dr. Harrison Jones' famed Town of Mount Royal High band played several selections while the TMR drum majorettes went through several scintillating routines on skates.

EAST TAKE HONORS

Thanks to a prolific scoring display by their Bantam all star aggregation, the East took the honors in the hockey realm, scoring a total of eight goals to the West's five in the three dream team battles.

The Bantams put the East way out in front by hammering their opponents 8-2 in the first of the night's trio of all star jousts. The West won the other two contests, the Juniors eking out a 1-0 verdict, the Seniors winning 2-0.

The Senior A game was a rough, bruising contest with both clubs dishing out plenty of body-checking. Things got so hectic at one stage that the East's Jim Gilnore, a D'Arcy McGee student, was disqualified for fighting.

Alan Costigan and St. Leo's Tommy St. James potted the West's two markers.

ANDERSON SCORES

Dick Anderson, one of Lower Canada College's top puck prospects, was the hero of the Junior fray, rapping home the sole tally of the hard-fought contest.

Cal Strike, a Verdun High lad, turned in a sparkling game between the pipes for the victorious West Juniors.

TWO FOR ACHESON

Catholic High's Eddie Acheson potted two goals to pace the East Bantams to their one-sided win. Singletons came from the sticks of Mount Royal's Jimmy Peters, McGee's Larry Langill and Bob Fleming, Rosemount's George Willis and Chambly County's Don Hollingdrake.

The West's pair of tallies were accounted for by Dick Prendergast of Loyola and Ian MacCallum of Westward.

EAST GALS WIN

A smooth-skating, dipsy-doodling lass from D'Arcy McGee paced the East's femme sextet to a 3-2 win over the West in the gals' hockey game. She was Sandra Powers, who turned in one of the night's top performances and did it all with the cool aplomb of a National Hockey Leaguer. Sandra rifled home all three of her team's goals—the only hat trick of the evening.

Westmount's Carol Roberts and Mary Lawson scored the West's goals.

The duds' hockey game was as hilarious as ever while the teachers' broomball contest ended in a scoreless stalemate.

RELAY RACES

Following are the results of the relay races: senior, Loyola; junior, Verdun; bantam, Catholic High; elementary, St. Malachy's senior girls, Westmount and junior girls, Westmount Jr.

Westmount Y In Swim Title Win Over NDG Group

Westmount YMCA boys upheld their name as city swim champs when they won the City-Wide Inter-Y Swim Meet Friday. The Westmounters piled up a score of 50 points to take the lead position from NDG Y boys who scored 34 points. International Y was third with 26 points and Southwestern fourth with 10.

NDG girls team led a field of six "Y" teams with 36 points. In second place was Southwestern with 30; followed by Northmount 29; International 27; Westmount 10; Rosemount 7.

Individual honours go to Gerald Arich of Westmount, high scorer for boys with 14 points; Bill Keating, International 12 points; and Marc Callaghan, Westmount 11 points. Bryan Ireland NDG and Tom Gardner, International tied for fourth place with 10 points.

Keen Girls Competition

Competition in girls' section was made by Mary Corbett, Northmount; Caroline Ireland, NDG; and Carol Gowing, International, when each girl scored 10 points. Maureen White, NDG was in second place with 8 points, Janet Chapman, Rosemount, third with 7; and Patsy Lawlor, NDG, fourth with 6.

Other Westmount boys who scored points for their team were Evan Black and Preston Thom, 9 points each; David Stanway, 3; Jim Millington, 1.

This was the first year Westmount Y has entered a girls team. The girls entered in the junior section and scored a total of ten points. Girls scoring were Mary Dowe, 5; Joanne Buckmaster, 3; Lois Anne Clark, 2.

ONLY TEAM NOT SHUT OUT

New York Rangers were the only NHL club that hasn't been shut out at least once this season. Rangers and Toronto are the only clubs that have failed to score a shut out. Montreal Canadiens have been shut out more than any other team during early season games. The Habitants have been blanked three times. Chicago Black Hawks and Toronto Maple Leafs have each been kept off the score sheet twice this year. Detroit Red Wings and Boston Bruins have each gone scoreless in one game.

McIntosh Leads Brewers To Southwestern Y Win

Paced by the consistent deadly sniping of bucket man Ian McIntosh who tallied 25 markers, the Dow Brewers came up with their best game of the young season to down the Southwestern "Y" crew, last year's intermediate champs, 73-59 in an M B L senior "B" tilt played on the Verdunites' floor. The lanky centreman had a brilliant shooting average of .476, sinking 10 to 21 shots tried from the floor.

This was well matched by forward Frank Swinburne who notched 6 out of 9 tries for a sensational average of .667. The Dow squad averaged .418 in this department, showing a complete reversal of form from their opening tussle against the Giants when they hooped a meagre .160 from the court.

The Southwestern crew showed their usual spirited close checking game during the first half and the Dow boys had to be on their toes to advance the ball from their own end of the court. This paid off for the black clad crew as they assumed a 33-30 lead in this canto.

O'Toole Fills Breach

In the second half, when guard John Field incurred his fifth personal foul late in the third quarter, it was Mike O'Toole, a recent acquisition by the Breweres, who came in to fill the breach and pull down many a rebound from the back boards, besides amassing 9 points in the process. O'Toole performed for the Hi-Aces, Dominion junior finalists, last year, and should prove a very useful addition to the Dow outfit.

From the outset of the second half the grey and purple Dow squad pecked away at the home crew's lead and gradually drew ahead, paced by McIntosh, Swinburne, O'Toole and Stryde, as the homesters seemed to fall apart when they fell behind. Things looked black for the visitors when John Field had to leave the floor with his team only 5 points up. However, the disorganized Southwestern crew only managed to fall further behind, due to the play of the foregoing foursome.

McIntosh Big Star

Starring for the Dow outfit besides McIntosh, were Frank Swinburne with 14 points, John Field with 13 and Mike O'Toole with 9. For the losers, Ron Irwin with 15 points, Jim Rattigan with 9, and Al Watson and Ken Gellately with 8 each led the way.

The Dow team will be further strengthened for their next league tussle against International Y on the Roslyn School floor Monday, at 8 p.m., with the addition of forward John Bollen, who performed for the senior Alfa sewers last year. Bollen's methodical style should help the Brewers no end in their quest for the B title.

Dow Brewers (73) - Swinburne 14, Stryde 8, MacDonald 3, McIntosh 25, Smith 1, Field 13, Bogue, Siemers, O'Toole 9.

Southwestern Y (59) - Irwin 15, Watson 8, Rattigan 9, Wicken 5, Tsonos 4, Jarvis, Gellately 8, Nelson 3, Haukkala 5, Daignault 2.

McKissock Leads Unity To Win

Sparked by the deadly sharpshooting of Jack McKissock, Unity Boys Club handed a quintet from the RCAF base at Lachine a 44-37 setback in an exhibition fray reeled off on the airmen's home court last week.

McKissock came through with a 14-point performance, was a going concern all night. Next in line in the point-getting realm was Grant "Oscar" Peterson, the ex-West Hillian, who potted 10 points, all but one of them in the second half.

It was a close, cleanly-played contest all the way. The Unity laddies had a one-basket lead, 11-9, at quarter time. By half-time they had increased their margin to three points and were ahead 25-22. By the time the whistle shrieked to end the third quarter, the UBC aggregation had jumped the lead by another point, the three-quarter score being 31-27.

THE LINEUPS

Stars Jolt Royals, Staynor Wins Again In Municipal Loop

Patty Lomasney's Avenue Stars came out 45-30 over Royals in a roughhouse encounter in the opening game of Tuesday's basketball twin bill. Al Turner was high man for the Stars with 16 points. Hugh McDonald with 11 and Lomasney with 9 also played well. Don Tinning, having been sidelined by the recurrence of an old toe injury, marked his return to the line-up by hittinp the scoring column. Ted Jackson was again the main scoring threat for the Royals as he hit for 15. Don McDonald and Kev Kennedy worked well, while rookie Cliff Gill came up with 5 points. Referees Earle MacDonald and Gray Easton called 32 faults.

In the nightcap Staynor won their eighth consecutive game with a convincing 64-42 win over Frosst. MacDonald led his squad with 23 points, as every player in the line-up counted. 62-Point Second Half Splurge Gives Unity Win Over Buddies

George Presho's Unity Boys Club cagers made their official 1953-54 season curtain riser an event to remember Friday night when they handed the Buddies a decisive 95-72 setback. The game was reeled off on the UBC larrigans' home court.

For a long while it looked as though the Unity squad was going to drop their inaugural. The Buddies outplayed them consistently in the first half with the home club not helping the cause any by shooting and passing in an erratic fashion that had their supporters retching.

At the half the Buddies were ahead by nine points, 42-33. A gentleman named Blackman had done most of the damage. Mr. B potted 29 points in those first two quarters, added nine more in the second half to walk off the court with 38 points to his credit.

STRATEGY

That drop from 29 points in the first half to nine in the second merits explanation. At the halftime respite, acting coach Maurice Mariasine figured that his UBC'ers had to stop Blackman if they were going to get back into the ball game.

So big John Reddon detached himself from the Unity zone defence with the special assignment of watching Blackman. The strategy worked. Reddon blanketed the sharp-shooting visitor like a January snowfall while his mates quickly hacked the Buddies' halftime lead to shreds and then began to pour the leather through the hoop in a veritable stream.

62-POINT HALF

In that big second half, the UBC quintet pumped home 62 points. Grant "Oscar" Peterson led the scoring parade with 20 points. Next in line were Johnny Reddon with 15, Dave Barnard 14, and Dick McGrail, 12. McGrail, who swings a mighty potent bat for Steinberg's Snowdon Major Fastball League entry during the warmer months, climbed off a sick bed to play Friday night, turned in a fine two-way game.

Braithwaite was second high man for the Buddies with 14 points.

Unity beat the Buddies earlier this season in Golden Ball play.

THE LINEUPS

Unity Boys Club (95)—D. Barnard 14, M. Barnard 9, Cochrane 7, McGrail 12, Sutherland 9, McKissock 9, Peterson 20, Reddon 15, Rice.

Buddies (72): A. Braithwaite 14, Browne 6, Daniels 3, Blackman 38, Talbot 7, Harrison 3, Braithwaite 1.

MacRae to Second After Laurel Loss

St. Laurent Laurels, former league doormats, came off the floor with a vengeance Saturday to win their third straight and knock MacRae Electric into second place. Leaders by one point, the Electricians loss coupled with a win by NDG Regents once again left them one point back.

They get a chance to climb back into the driver's seat tomorrow when they take on the Regents, and coach Don Tinning is sure his charges will be up for this match.

The Laurels took a 2-1 decision, withstanding a big third period drive by the locals. They took a 2-0 first period lead, went through a scoreless middle stanza, and then Ron Brambell put MacRae back in contention early in the final.

Rookie Jim Beasant missed a chance to tie it up when his shot hit the cross bar, while numerous other opportunities were completely missed. The Electricians, league champs for three years, lacked their usual scoring punch, while Laurel goalie Jim Kerr thwarted them at every chance they did get.

Only two penalties were called in the affair, both in the second period. Stu McCowan of MacRae and JohnDell Ellce of the Laurels went off for roughing midway through.

Bedard from Cherrier, and Sleith unassisted were the two marksmen for the Laurels.

McGillis Plans Hockey Program Over 200 Register For 16 Teams

No hockey at St. Leo's? Better ask Andy McGillis about that.

The Academy's all-round mentor has more than a few well-chosen words to say on the subject of cutting out the winter sport for his larrigans, and they add up to a present registration of over 200 students for 16 teams.

According to McGillis, the coming season should see all records for enthusiasm broken if all turn out, and it is upon his broad shoulders that the talk of sorting out and arranging them into squads falls.

Present plans call for teams to be entered in an intramural league, the City QAHA leagues, and the interschool loop.

Paperweight Teams New

Two paperweight teams, embracing youngsters seven and eight years old are the basis of the organization. Two more teams will compete in the mosquito section of the QAHA — these are boys under 10. Four teams will skate in the pee wee league, all under 12, while the bantam intramural league will have four squads. An additional bantam team will be entered in the QAHA, with an under 14 age limit. Two more teams, with students under 16, go in the QAHA midget league, while a senior B team will carry the Academy colors in GMIAA play. This all adds up to 16 teams, playing in six leagues.

Meanwhile practice and more practice is the order of the day as coaches Ron Sharp and Ross Firth drill their teams for coming play. Both the basketball and hockey mentors are hopeful of more than a few exhibition games to keep their boys in trim over the holidays, while a keen edge will be insured through constant workouts.

Hope For Exhibitions

The hoop squad will work out Fridays at the plush Roslyn gym, two other days at the high school layout, at least until the new year. Sharp is shopping around for a couple of teams to relieve the boredom in the two weeks before then, and figures his crew can stand some real live play before forced to line up in the interschool senior B loop.

Recreation Department Seeks Hockey Trophies

The Westmount Recreation Department is endeavouring to locate several missing hockey trophies. Among them are the Jack Rimmer Shield for pee wee hockey, the P. R. Adams Trophy for intermediate hockey, the George Marler Midget Trophy, the Walter Merrill Bantam Trophy, the Rotary Club Cup for pee wee hockey. These awards should be returned for competition.

If you have any information about them please contact Rocky Rothwell or Johnny Garland at FI. 6975.

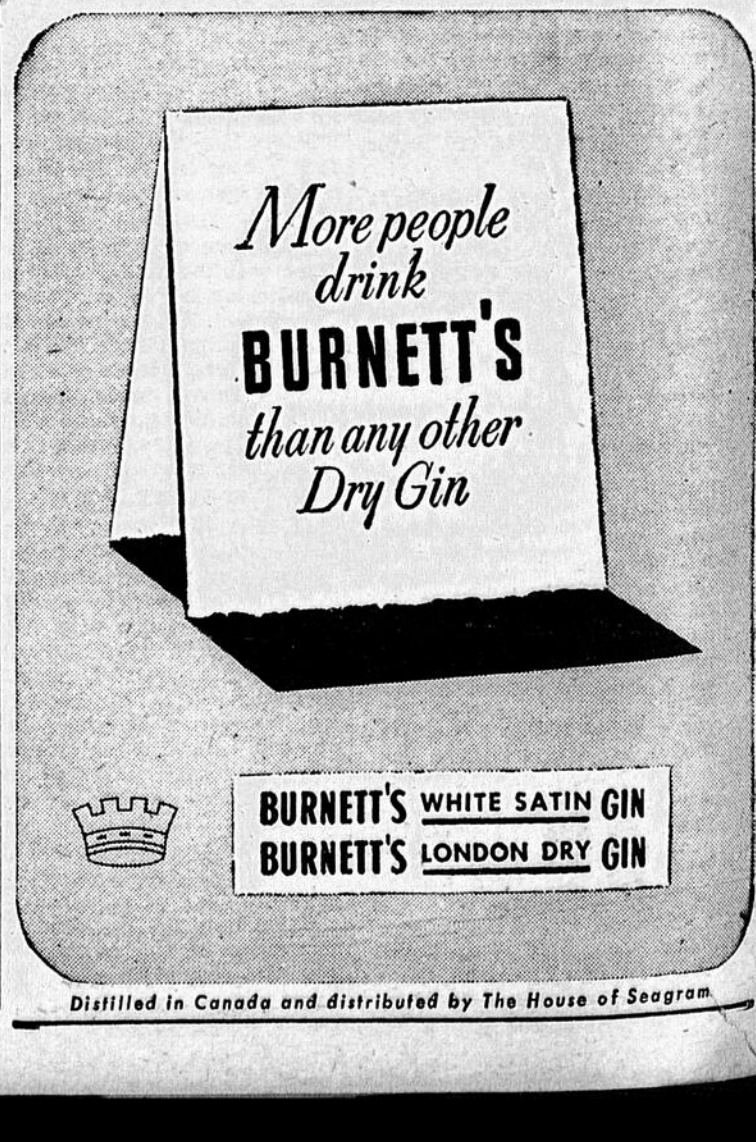
Co-eds Prepare For Winter Athletics

Taking the play away from their male counterparts this past week, especially at the high school hockey carnival, Westmount Senior and Junior High girls also are preparing for coming athletic season. They took both relay titles at the Forum Show.

The Senior High gals gave a good display in the high school swimming meet, with Judy Kaulback, Judy Barlow, Wendy Mathews, Mimi Cooper, Ann Sinclair, Suzanne Stevens, Carlotte Garcia, Pat Scarf and Joan Fish taking part. They ended up third in total points.

Basketball, badminton and skiing are just around the corner, with interschool leagues scheduled to start after the holidays. Joan MacMillan, directing operations, has her program running smoothly and her charges should be set to start as soon as possible.

Bliss Mathews at the Junior High is also keeping the girls busy, and looks forward to another bumper ski instruction class. Last year some 250 participated. She is assisted by Jane Thompson.



SIDELIGHTS on Sports

by MARTY GOODMAN

● THIS PAST WEEK saw many new developments in the Montreal and Westmount ice situation. Locally, the Roslyn Home and School Association agreed to run the school outdoor rink this year, and censured the city for their failure to do so. Public feeling would not run so high over one rink were it not for the general hue and cry over lack of ice everywhere. As it is, they found they could run the rink for less than one half of what the city said it would cost, at the same time using less than all the available room; one of the city's reasons for not building the rink was that there is not enough room.

St. Leo's Academy already had decided to enter the high school hockey leagues, but their program as detailed this week will encompass a lot more than one team—Andy McGillis will have 16 squads in six different leagues. At the same time, he waxes enthusiastic whenever queried about his senior B team, rated one of the strongest in years to carry the Academy colors. Many of the boys are used to A competition, but there are others who will be finding themselves for the first time, and this will tend to neutralize any higher intentions. Like Westmount High School, they face the problem of a small enrollment, and in the long run the shift to senior B will prove beneficial and wise.

Outside of the city limits, West Hill announced their intentions of re-entering interschool hockey, after first saying they could get no practice time. School officials were offered 7-8 am at Verdun Auditorium, but first refused because of the early hour and necessity of getting players back to school on time. Later, after talks with the boys involved, they decided to try it for this year, and began negotiations with the Forum for the same hour. The latter arena is closer to school, and presents less difficulty to boys in getting up, then returning to school after practice.

At the same time, Loyola announced that contracts had been awarded for the construction of their artificial ice rink, and expect it to be ready for use by Jan. 15. This will not be the boon to high school hockey it appears to be. It is not an additional rink, merely a change in an old one. In fact, until it is completed, their teams will practice on whatever natural ice they can get from the city, while no intramural program can be taken on at all.

Formerly they maintained a natural ice arena, complete with roof, and so had more ice than other open arenas. Bantam, junior, senior B and A, and a college team used it to practice. Now, these teams will be playing all their games away from a time, but at least they have the realization that there is a rink coming. When that time arrives, an intramural hockey program rivalling their famed bantam football one will be put into use, taking up practically all the extra time after team practices.

Because of this quite natural primary consideration for their own school, not much time will be available to others. They have already been swamped with calls from commercial organizations, but as yet have formulated no policy for ice rental. The best idea would be for the schools to begin planning an artificial ice arena of their own, instead of waiting for some private body to come along and offer them services—at a rate.

It is imperative that such a plan be put into effect immediately, for Mont St. Louis has entered and been accepted into bantam and junior GMIAA basketball, making it the first French-speaking school to enter in modern days. Next year they would like to enter hockey teams, while other such schools are also desirous of joining the organization. Their acceptance would make the situation get worse, though their presence on the whole will be beneficial.

● CARNIVAL CAPERS: The system of running scores used at the high school hockey carnival was responsible for the East team win, as West squads won two of the three games. As usual, the duds game, featuring boys who never skated before, proved most popular with the fans, while the girls hockey game turned up a real star in Sandra Powers of D'Arcy McGee. She picked up a hat trick as East beat West 3-2. Westmount's Carol Roberts and Mary Lawson scored the West's goals, while the relay entries took both senior and junior championships.

Millionaires Expand to Three Teams

The hockey leagues in Westmount are ready to open up a new season so coaches in all categories are going about their business signing players.

The Westmount Millionaires have expanded their organization from the one juvenile team that they had last year to a juvenile, midget, and a new and powerful junior "C" team.

Ritchie Bell, managing director of the Westmount Millionaire Hockey Association and coach of the juveniles, already has his officers for the season. President will be Talbot Nelles, secretary Ian McCrae, and assistant general manager and coach of the midgets. Grant Hill.

Get Sponsors

Westmount Barbecue, 5151 Sherbrooke street west and Steinberg's Ltd., are contributing to the sponsorship of the clubs. The new chicken house will operate the junior C team, this year entered in the N.D.G., Snowdon district, with home games in Westmount. The Grocers will outfit the midgets.

Grant Gill has been working overtime getting his midgets into shape. He has all his contracts now and has signed some talented young players as forwards, such as Bob Anderson, Chriss Carr and Kenny Copeland, defencemen Bob Perry and Brendan Guilfoyle.

Ritchie Bell has thinned his juvenile team down to playing size, and has signed five holdovers from last year's team, including defencemen John Donaldson and Mario Chartrand, forwards George Robillard, Grant Gill and Dick Christensen. New faces to the Millionaires will be goaler Woody Woodman, Harry Seifert, Dick Dunbar, Doug Perry, Frank Jago, Ron Ahearn and Brian Sheridan.
