Abbott Gives Final Budget

Story Of Westmount Soil Told To Rotary By Mayor

The City of Westmount is really "on the rocks," Mayor Roy L. Campbell admitted Wednesday.

Only these rocks are of a historic type, constantly changing, he added, rather than the throes of bankruptcy.

Addressing the weekly luncheon meeting of the Westmount Rotary Club, he gave an illustrated lecture on the areas now known as the Monteregian Hills.

Applying it to Mount Royal, the earth first cooled in the astronomic time and a hard crust was formed. "For millions of years these very hard crystalline rocks were acted upon by the elements, and then occurred submergence of the Precambrian rocks for millions of years," he said.

During this time, a variety of granular materials flowed into the depressions under the sea, forming the Potsdam Sandstone.

Further changes resulted in the forming of the hard cores of the Monteregian Hills. Then, world changes of climate brought continental glaciation moving here, and great areas of soft rocks and ground up rock were left as one boulder clay.

Even closer to us in time, there was another sub-

Four Promotions Are Revealed In Fire Department

The promotion of Capt. E. G. Durocher to the rank of deputy chief featured four Westmount Fire Department promotions announced Wednesday by T. J. Hughes, general manager.

Lieut. E. C. Harper was promoted to the rank of captain, and fireman T. Hovenden and fire inspector J. W. Armstrong were both made lieutenants.

The promotions were made by the City Council at its meeting Monday and became effective Tuesday.

Deputy chief Durocher entered the service in April, 1923, was promoted to Lieutenant in June, 1936, and to Captain April, 1944.

Capt. Harper entered service in May, 1932, and was promoted to lieutenant April, 1952.

Lieut. Hovenden entered service October, 1933, and Lieut. Armstrong entered May, 1941.

The budget didn't seem to excite Westmounters too much this time. In fact, most of the office girls hadn't even read it. This didn't apply to all the women in Westmount, though. Mrs. W. H. Bell, 418 Claremont Avenue, and formerly of the New York Times, said, "I'm smoking a cigarette. I think that the government might have done something along this line. The price is putting bad thoughts into people's heads. I just think that the government's attitude of not lowering the price of our little vice is doing harm, i. e. smuggling." She thought a minute, and then said, "I'm in favor of the taxation for defence spending. But I think that the

If people would only consider for a moment, they would realize how cruel it is to desert an animal; yet thousands are left to starve and run the streets.

When animals are moved from one house to another, it is wise to keep them shut in for a few days otherwise they may become frightened in the strange surroundings and try to find their way to their old familiar home; many animals are lost in this way.

Purple 'N White REVIEW

by Gord Wasserman

THE EXAMS ARE OVER and Westmounters have again taken up their usual positions at Macy's, after a week of hectic last-minute studying. The Easter examinations concluded, it means, for grade 11, that the next set to be tackled is the dreaded matriculation. Since it is upon these tests that students' college entrance depends, they have been the topic of conversation from the day of entry into Senior High, and will remain so until students find themselves face to face with the matric papers. Although these have been much emphasized and exaggerated, they are not completely unconquerable, and the majority of students have been known to survive. Start studying now, give it all you've got, and here's hoping we see some familiar faces among the top ten . . .

tax might have been lowered on something like tobacco. Smoking is a simple man's pleasure, as well as a wealthy man's. There are a lot more simple men than wealthy men. I think that government men have forgotten about the simple pleasures of the general public.

Quite a furor went on in the Westmount Police Station when they were asked about the budget. As Lt. C. Baker said, "I don't like it, but I don't want to play politics."

Finally, Lt. Baker decided to talk. "Well, the government doesn't see fit to decrease our taxes by more than 5%. They are worried about autonomy. Bah! Who's worried about it? Are you?" This last to Inspector R. Edmonstone.

Inspector Edmonstone replied, "I don't see that there's much change. We still have to pay. Also, it's still the same for smokes and drinks. There really won't be any difference — Unless a toaster burns up at home." This was in reference to the special excise tax of 15% which was repealed for electrical appliances.

The Inspector continued, "The only thing I notice that could make any difference in the Police Department, is the municipally purchased equipment, such as uniforms, if they can be considered equipment."

The clothing stores had their own views on the low decrease in taxation. Mrs. Glen Harmon, of the Juliette Shop, near Claremont Avenue, remarked, "I think that the budget has a temporary effect on women's feelings towards clothes. But as soon as real spring comes along, you'll forget all about that, and start getting spring hats, and the rest."

The proprietor of Nick's, the Italian restaurant on Green Avenue, said, "It's no good. We were waiting to buy cigarettes until the prices were lowered, but they didn't lower them, so . . ."

Mitchells, electrical appliance and music store, on Green Avenue didn't see that there was too much of an improvement. Mildred Mitchell, daughter of the owner, said, "The 15% tax on electrical appliances was a concealed tax. Half the public wasn't even aware that there was a tax. But I guess it should effect us." Her brother Douglas Mitchell said, "I don't think it'll help us one bit. The reduction isn't enough to decide people to buy a TV set."

A business man, Walter Warren, architect, who has his business at 4490 Sherbrooke Street West, said, "I think that Duplessis and Abbot have their own reasons. But, Quebec was supposed to get some money. Why did they refuse it? They must have had some good reason for it. Really, for the average person it won't be very noticeable."

Flying Officer From Westmount Tours Florida

Spending 10 days in sunny Florida during the winter - a pleasant dream to most Canadians - turned into a reality recently for Flying Officer D. M. Duffley, 526 Lansdowne avenue, Westmount.

A Radio Officer with the RCAF's Greenwood, Nova Scotia based 404 Maritime Reconnaissance Squadron, he and his crew took off from the Annapolis Valley Station in their four engine (MR) Lancaster aircraft one morning recently and in the afternoon landed at the U.S. Naval Air Station Jacksonville.

However, it was not a case of basking in the Florida sunshine and sipping fresh orange juice. Less than three days after landing in Jacksonville aircraft from 404 (Buffalo) Squadron were in the air taking part in a North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) sea-air training exercise called "New Broom".

The five day exercise, involving U.S. Navy submarines, surface vessels and aircraft, R.C.N. surface craft, and the "Buffaloes" was held off the south-eastern coast of Florida and provided training in anti-submarine and hunter-killer operations. During "New Broom", F/O D. M. Duffley operated the communications equipment in the Lanc while he and his crew were carrying out anti-sub patrols.

F/O Duffley was born in Montreal and educated at Catholic High School and Sir George Williams College. In August 1951, he joined the Air Force and was awarded his Radio Officer's wings eleven months later, on completion of training at RCAF Station Clinton, Ont. He then completed a course at 2 (Maritime Operational Training Unit (formerly at Station, Greenwood, now at R.C.A.F. Station Summerside P.E.I.) and was transferred to 404 (MR) Squadron.

Mayors Federation President Urges More Uniform Valuation

The taxpayer has a misapprehension regarding municipal valuation and tax rates, according to Councillor J. O. Asselin, chairman of the City Executive Committee, and president of the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities.

He was speaking at a one-day convention of the Montreal Real Estate Exchange, at which a resolution was unanimously adopted favoring the establishment of uniform valuations in all Quebec municipalities.

Several hundred real estate men attended this first "real estate clinic," held at the Cercle Universitaire.

In addition to Councillor Asselin, other principal speakers were Hon. Yves Prevost, Quebec Minister of Municipal Affairs, and John E. Pitt, Eugene Therien and de la Bruere Fortier, leading real estate figures.

Councillor Asselin said: "If municipalities assessed properties within their respective limits at their real value in this province, then we would discover that our province is really worth more than is reported."

Delegates unanimously urged that all Quebec municipalities should adopt uniform assessment methods and called on the Provincial Government to compel the townships of the province to assess land and buildings on the same basis.

Exchange members also emphasized that properties in this province should be evaluated on a more scientific basis rather than by the "haphazard methods in use by too many rural communities."

These resolutions were adopted after Mr. Prevost stressed the importance of city planning for all communities and Councillor Asselin declared that "all properties in Quebec should be assessed at their real value."

Mr. Prevost said that "city planning has been relegated to the rear as an unimportant factor in the real growth and development of Quebec communities."

Development of municipalities in accordance with new city planning techniques would provide additional sources of income for communities, Mr. Prevost said.

The Minister emphasized that adoption of city planning systems does not mean more expenditure for the taxpayer.

Mr. Pitt considered the public grossly misinformed regarding real property values.

In many cases, the real value of land and buildings was looked on as the selling price, Mr. Pitt said. "This is a deplorable misconception of real property values."

"After all, a property may have a higher value in one district than in another," Mr. Pitt stressed. "Furthermore, the real value of a property is not the sum of building costs and land prices."

Determining the value of a property was not an exact science like "two and two makes four," he said.

"Expropriation hearings before the Quebec Public Service Board will prove this point beyond a doubt. At these hearings, you will find two experts, equally competent and honest, give very different figures on the same property."

Chef Is Injured By Taxi Locally

Frank Oster, 43, 941 Lacasse Street, suffered severe injuries Tuesday when he was struck by a taxi while crossing Sherbrooke street at Victoria avenue, Westmount police reported.

They said that Thomas Gavin, 25, of 3573 Decarie boulevard, was driving a passenger east on Sherbrooke and was crossing Victoria alongside a streetcar, also going east.

He said that just on the west side of Victoria, Oster ran in front of the taxi from in front of the streetcar.

Oster, who is employed as a chef at Macy's Drug Store, 4853 Sherbrooke street west, was taken by ambulance to the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, where officials said he had seven fractured ribs on CHILDREN REMEMBER CASEY: Neighborhood children, who for some 10 years have been attending the birthday parties of Casey, owned by well known pianist Billy Eckstein, chipped in to buy the dog a wreath. Casey, who lived at 5682 McLynn avenue, died Tuesday as he was going on 20 years old. A friend of every child, Casey also was popular around the house with his mistress Kitty Eckstein. Billy invited over 60 children to attend the birthday parties, all from the district. Burial will take place at 1 p.m. today in the Pet and Dog Cemetery in Caughnawaga.

Crippled Children's Society Reports '53 Record Year

A record number of clinics — 16,123 — were held at various city children's hospitals, and more than $34,000 was spent on orthopaedic appliances for crippled children during the 1953 fiscal year of the Province of Quebec Society for Crippled Children, W. J. Bryant, president, said this week.

In a year end statement presented at the 24th annual meeting of the PQSCC held at the Ritz Carlton Hotel, he said that the clinics included 7,737 physiotherapy treatments; 3,208 occupational therapy clinics for cerebral palsied children; 1,713 speech clinics; and 914 remedial gymnastic clinics.

"In addition to the clinic, there were 14 children hospitalized, 88 new cases registered, and 398 home visits made. For the clinics and various calls for crippled children, we have the use of five ambulances, and a station wagon — and the necessary staff — including three nurses, eight clinic attendants, and six chauffeurs," Mr. Bryant said.

Of the $34,000 spent by the society on orthopaedic appliances — including braces, boots, alterations, wheel-chairs, walkers and crutches — about half, or $17,195, went to Ste. Justine Hospital; $3,500 to Pasteur Hospital; $2,048.30 to Victor Dore School; $6,598 to the CMH; $800 to the School for Crippled Children and another $2,336 for special cases at the Royal Victoria, Montreal General, Sacred Heart and St. Luke Hospitals.

Tony Shorgan, director of the Crippled Children's Camp at St. Alphonse de Joliette, said in his report that the 1953 summer season "was most active — 222 boys during July, and 188 girls during August."

The enrolment, which included some 40 children from other Quebec cities, was an increase of 85 over 1952 registration. During the camping months 23 young crippled boys passed the required tests and received their swimming certificates from the Red Cross.

Reporting on the medical side of the camp's life, Dr. J. M. McIntyre said 3,134 treatments, including massage, hydrotherapy, educational and medical gymnastics were given; and that daily clinics were held. The in-camp medical staff consists of a doctor, three nurses, two physiotherapists and eight nurses' aides.

Following the meeting, Mrs. L. de G. Beaubien, president of Ste. Justine Hospital; Dr. J. E. DeBelle executive director, Children's Memorial Hospital, Conrad St. Armand, director, Social Welfare Department, City of Montreal; and Dr. G. E. Wride, Department of the National Health and Welfare addressed the members briefly.

At elections following the 24th annual meeting, Mr. Bryant was re-elected president.

J. T. Beaudin, Chief Judge Roland Paquette, Q.C., E. S. Saunders, and D. W. Stewart were elected vice presidents; Lucien Viau, treasurer; J. E. Martin, secretary; Miss M. A. Daigle, executive director, and Tony Shorgan executive secretary.

Directors are: J. T. Beaudin, D. D. Beveridge, P. Bronfman, William J. Bryant, E. A. Cleaver, E. J. Courtois, P. C. Dawson, G. Dennis, E. Doucet, J. P. Elie, G. Favreau, K. P. Farmer, Col. M. M. Forget, Lt. Col. G. R. Gamache, G. S. Gilham, H. J. Humphrey, R.

Pair Rob Cabbie On Elm Avenue

Elzear Courcelles, 32, of 4148 Parthenais street, was robbed of $20 Monday by two men who entered his cab at Fort and Sherbrooke streets.

They ordered him to drive west on Sherbrooke, and then to turn up Elm avenue, Westmount police said.

Then one of the men pulled out a gun, and told him to hand over his wallet.

"Is it money you want?" Courcelles asked the thugs.

At the affirmative answer, he took some $20 in loose bills and gave it over to the two men, he said.

They got out, hailed a cab, and went east, he told police.

One was described as 18 years old, about five feet, nine inches, brown hair, wearing a blue trench-coat, no hat, and brown leather gloves.

He said the other was around 22, about the same size, and wearing a grey-blue winter coat with leather gloves.

CONSERVATION WEEK

Conservation Week for 4-H members in the Province of Quebec will take place May 9-15, it was announced this week. It is dedicated to the conservation of natural resources, especially forestry.

During the week, public demonstrations in honor of trees will take place in numerous villages throughout the province.

SPRING HIKES

Hiking in springtime, before the insects get around, calls for outdoor meals. A not-too-bulky lunch, eaten under a sunny sky, adds a great deal to the pleasure of a walk. Nourishing sandwiches of wholegrain bread with meat, cheese, egg or peanut butter, raw carrot slices and dried or fresh fruit, will set the hiker up for a few extra miles. With the repast, there may be a temptation to take a drink from some bubbling wayside stream but, unfortunately, natural waters are often unsafe for drinking until they have been boiled. It's much better to carry a vacuum flask of milk or hot beverage to round out the meal.

Westmount Area Is Getting Set For Blind Drive

Final organizational details in the western district are being cleaned up this week in preparation for the forthcoming Combined Appeal for the Blind.

In the Westmount area, for instance, the campaign leaders report that things are well in hand, except that additional volunteers would be welcome assurance that the campaign will be an outstanding success.

In the Westmount area Mrs. D. W. Ferrier, Mrs. Lionel Cote, Mrs. B. M. Tate, Mrs. William Carter, Mrs. R. V. V. Nicholls, Mrs. W. Norman Clelland and Mrs. P. G. Sise are the campaign executives.

In the Montreal West region the drive plans are in charge of Mrs. Herbert W. Reynolds and Mrs. F. W. McLaughlin.

The Combined Appeal, which begins April 26, is seeking funds on behalf of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, the Montreal Association for the Blind and

A PROJECT OF WESTMOUNT ROTARY CLUB

By Maurice Mariasine

Over 2,000 members, parents and friends attend various special events at the Unity Boys' Club during National Boys' Club Week. The main attractions were: a penny carnival, the Wheel Chair Wonders, a gymnastic display, exhibition basketball games, the annual hobby show exhibition, a basketball banquet and a barn dance.

HOBBY SHOW

Nearly 200 youngsters were on hand Friday to see the results of the Association Canadienne Francaise des Aveugles.

The west-end district leaders stressed this week the many advantages of operating a single campaign instead of one for each of the organizations.

They pointed out that the friends of the blind are asked to contribute to only one appeal, instead of three, and thus can consolidate their givings. They also pointed to the considerable financial saving in operating one campaign instead of three.

Too, the volunteers are asked to work in only one campaign, instead of three, and thus can put all their efforts into ensuring its success.

The quota for the combined appeal this year will be the same as last, $250,000, despite an increase in costs.

This has been achieved through a close study of the financial needs of the three organizations by a budget committee. The committee comprises W. Norman Clelland, Theodore Beausoleil and Aime Domingue.

The whole campaign is under the direction of two leaders in Greater Montreal community life, Maj.-Gen. R. O. G. Morton and Jean Joubert. Mme. E. de B. Panet and Miss E. Meredith Hodgson are co-chairmen.

Crafts and Hobbies Workshops. On display were articles produced in the following classes: Woodwork, fretwork, lathwork, leatherwork, creative crafts, model aircraft, wood carving, art crayon work, pottery, needlework and miscellaneous articles. Ribbons were awarded the following: Keith Gavin, Sandra Horwood, Teresa Pouliot, John Muir, Ruth Driver, Richard Blais, Michael Harper, John Sabourin, Malcolm Bennett, John Clarke, Billy Stewart, Shriley Arkinson, Sandra Walker, Dorothy Laviolette, Trudiane Walsh, Carol Neilson, Jean man Neilson, Carolyn Scanlon, Gibson, Ruby Squires, Alice Beasant, Phyllis Lynch, Elizabeth Prengent, Donald Doherty, Leopold Gariepy, Yvon Bertrand, Deanne Scanlon, Barbara Doherty, Diane Rutt, Beverley Doherty, Donna Braut, Marlene Doherty, Shirley Braut, Carole Fisher, Christina Gallagher, Claire Fisher, Geraldine Galley, Beverley King, Zita Tagieff and Bobby Carter.

BANQUET HELD

70 basketball players attended a banquet Saturday at which His Worship Mayor Roy L. Campbell was guest of honour. Also on the honoured list were members of the Intermediate Basketball team, champions of the City of Montreal Basketball League. Dick Schroeder, representing the M.B.L. presented the Bunny Sabbath Trophy to team captain Jack McKissock and crests to each of the players. He also made reference to Ted Rice having won a trophy for having been picked as all-star guard at the Provincial Tournament in Shawinigan Falls. He paid tribute to the Unity team for having shown good sportsmanship throughout the season.

Mayor Campbell gave a resumé of the basketball activities conducted at the Unity Boys' Club during the season and lauded the team coaches and the players for a fine showing in interclub competition. He officially welcomed the visiting National Guard Basketball team from Malone N.Y. and commented on the excellent comradeship and sportsmanship during and after the game.

Other head table guests included W. G. Morley, president of the Unity Boys' Club and C. A. Wylie, Executive Director of the Montreal Boys' Association, Charles Cazazza, manager of the Malone team. Club Director Maurice Mariasine was chairman.

Appreciation

Sincere thanks and appreciation is extended to the following members who contributed valuable assistance in making National Boys' Club Week a huge success: Colin McDonald, Harry Slaney, Hugh Laws, Kenneth Knowles, Terry Gray, David Gray, Sylvia Rosvald, Pat Sheehan, Nicky Wright, Keith Gavin, Richard Blais, Westley Bennett, Douglas Mariasine, Geraldine Giblin, Fred Pennell, Pat Baker, Tony Lark, Winnifred McDonald, Beverley Hurst, June Darlington, Claudette Walsh, Dorothy Mariasine, John Sabourin, Bryn Kakely, Donald Doherty, John Black, Donald Laviolette, Donald Tani, Bobby Stewart, Malcolm Bennett, John Muir and Dorothy Laviolette. Gratifying Success

Response to Appeals of Red Cross and French-Canadian Charities is Excellent

With so many demands upon the average citizen's purse these days it is gratifying to note the success of such worthy causes as the Federation of French-Canadian Charities and the Red Cross. The Federation went well over its objective, while the Red Cross, with $615,000 reported to date and many returns still to come, is also expected to exceed its mark of $750,000.

There are over fifty major drives conducted in the Greater Montreal area each year, in addition to numerous tag days and minor campaigns. With costs still going up and consequently objectives having to be raised, it reflects considerable credit upon the generosity of the public and also upon the public-spiritedness of the hundreds of men and women who volunteer to help make these drives successful.

100 Per Cent Taxes

A Dubious Piece of Reasoning
By Former McGill Professor

An interesting suggestion is put forward by Professor Benjamin Higgins, formerly of McGill University, that "there is no reason why a strongly supported government should not collect 100 per cent of personal income, and pay it out again in family allowances, pensions, interest on debt, etc., without any economic effects whatsoever." Writing in 'Canadian Journal of Economics and Political Science, Professor Higgins asserts that "if the goods and services provided by government yield satisfactions as high as those formerly bought in the market, there is no reason why people should not accept a higher ratio of taxes to income."

This somewhat dubious bit of reasoning may doubtless be attributed to the fact that Professor Higgins was, by his own admission, in Indonesia when he wrote it and, not by his own admission, was employed as a U N official free from the necessity of paying any income tax whatsoever.

Past, Future Are Outlined At L.C.C. Meet

The past and the future were outlined at the annual meeting of the Lower Canada College Old Boys Association, held Friday at the school.

V. C. Wansbrough, head master at the college from 1935-41, now vice president and managing director of the Canadian Metal Mining Corp. in Toronto, offered reminiscences of his days at the school to provide the past.

Herbert K. Crabtree, chairman of the board of directors, dipped into the future and announced the school will have an artificial outdoor ice rink for the winter season of 1954-55.

He said he could report "at this time that the financial campaign has been a success."

He added: "It is just a question of how additional funds can be raised to put a roof on the rink."

He said that A. Alan Renaud and M. O. Haskell, co-chairmen of the rink committee, were renewing fund raising efforts to obtain the extra funds necessitated by this "more ambitious project."

Mr. Wansbrough recalled a visit by Lord Tweedsmuir to LCC when he was Governor General, and quoted the first thing he said upon arrival:

"You know, Mr. Headmaster," the Governor General commented, "I have a great deal of difficulty in persuading my wife that the distinction between Upper Canada College and Lower Canada College is not a moral one."

Mr. Wansbrough said that Canada was "in the mainstream of world affairs."

The destiny and welfare not only of Canadians but of others in the world as well, were dependent on the brains and character of the leaders of this country, he said.

Christian Science

How sickness and disability may be overcome by bringing thinking into accord with the truth of God and man through prayer will be the topic of Christian Science services Sunday.

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon. Selections to be read from the Bible include the account (Matthew 9) of Christ Jesus' raising of Jairus' daughter from the dead, his restoring of sight to the two blind men, and his healing of the "dumb man possessed with a devil."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following passage will be read: "Jesus strips all disguise from error, when his teachings are fully understood. By parable and argument he explains the impossibility of good producing evil; and he also scientifically demonstrates this great fact, proving by what are wrongly called miracles, that sin, sickness, and death are beliefs — illusive errors — which he could and did destroy." The Golden Text is from Jeremiah: "Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise".

A Study In Isaiah - V

By Rev. Canon R. Kenneth Naylor
(Rector of Trinity Memorial Church)

Isaiah had a vision of God and the whole vision was accompanied by manifestations of majesty. Not only was the Temple filled with the skirts of the robe of God, but the attendants of the most High surrounded it. Above it stood the seraphim, the burning ones, prepared in modesty and in adoration to go on His errands of service. They chanted like a choir, "Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord of Hosts, the whole earth is full of His glory." When we pray, "Thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven," our mind should rise to this vision. It is God's plan for us that we should stand before Him, in the modesty of humility, not in self-righteousness; covering our faces in adoration and awe, not in the self-glorification of humanism, and constantly ready to do His will no matter what it may be. And the spirit of worship will always leave us ready for activity.

Even the House of God was affected by the voice of him that cried, for the posts of the door were moved. The House of God was the work of man, and it reminds us that nothing that man has done can stand firm and unaffected in His presence.

But most of all man himself was moved in the person of the prophet. And his response was immediate and startling. It was the sense of sin in himself and in particular an acknowledgement of evil-speaking - "I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts." He was probably thinking of the plots and agreements of the King and his advisers with Egypt and against Assyria, in the face of the command of God. He and they had offended in word. But the sin was brought home to him by the sense of awe. Abraham had felt that sense of awe in his sacrifice; in the next generation God had been to the patriarch "The Fear of Isaac," and the third of the patriarchs, Jacob, had wakened from his sleep to say, "Surely God is in this place and I knew it not." But Isaiah belonged to a generation which had forgotten the fear of the Lord which is the beginning of wisdom. They were unclean because they depended on man and not on God. But Isaiah did not stop with acknowledgement - there was penitence and submission.

God's response too was immediate, but the response came through His ministers, the burning ones. The angel knew God's will. He did not wait for command. He took a coal from the altar, a coal for cleansing from the place of cleansing, and laid it on the young man's lips. The cleansing was applied at the point where the sin was felt.

Now that he was cleansed there was a new possibility. The cleansing made him able to hear as well as to see. He was sensitive to the new situation, which was that God had a word for the people of Judah and so far no one ready to speak it. We spoke of the need of both priest and prophet. Job felt the need of a daysman, a mediator who would stand between him and the Almighty and lay his hand on both to reconcile them to one another. That was the function of the priest from the one side, and of the prophet from the other side. The priest spoke to God on behalf of the people, the prophet spoke to the people on behalf of God. The prophet is a man of two languages; he must be able to hear the word of the Lord and to understand it; and he must be able to speak the language of the people that they may understand him. From that point of view there never was a perfect prophet. Each prophet in the Old Testament hears the word but his hearing is blurred by his own circumstances, though sometimes the very circumstance provides a form for the message. The word becomes more human and intelligible, but its divine content may be affected. Each prophet of the Old Testament who heard the word added something fresh to the content of revelation, but it remained for the Prophet of Nazareth to draw it all together and present a perfect transmission of the Word of God. He could do that because He is the Word of God Incarnate, able with perfection to testify that He has heard, and to transmit it unimpaired by sin to His people. The same is true of His Priesthood. The priest presents his people to God with their sacrifices and prayers. But there never was a perfect priest, one who was in perfect sympathy with the offerer, and in perfect harmony with God; until the Son of God Himself offered the perfect sacrifice.

So it is with Our Lord. But He expects the same attitude from His Church. He has handed on to us His task, to be the Daysman between the world and God. To hear God's word because we are sensitive to the things of God and can hear Him, to transmit them to the world because we are in it and speak its language; to offer up the sorrows of the world as a sacrifice because we have a sympathy however imperfect with those sorrows; and to approach God with them because we know His love; and to be sure that we can do these things not through our own competence but because of the Spirit who dwelleth in us.

I have for the moment neglected Isaiah. He heard the word "Whom shall I send and who will go for us?", and he answered "Here am I, send me." He did not question his competence for he had been cleansed. He did not doubt his power because God would speak through him.

His obedience was immediate and out of his obedience came his ministry and all the influence which we ascribe to him. We look back to the beginning and find that it was disobedience that brought the separation between God and man. And God has constantly asked for man's obedient response to His call. You find it in the story of Abraham, in the story of Moses, in the story of David, and of all the prophets. Sometimes an obedience lacking in knowledge, sometimes an obedience deeply tinged with love; but always obedience, until we come to Him of whom it was said that He emptied Himself and became obedient even unto death.

HOLLYWOOD, April 8 — Suzanne Cloutier, the young Ottawa actress who starred with Orson Welles in "Othello", a film lensed several years ago but not yet released in America, is back in Hollywood this week — but not as an actress. She's here as a housewife, more or less, accompanying her husband, Peter Ustinov.

Suzanne's last trek to Hollywood a couple of springs ago was something of a bust. She collected her salary for six months but didn't face a camera once. Then she returned to Europe.

My interest in Suzanne is more than academic. After a job as a model in New York, she came to Hollywood first in 1946, a shy youngster not long out of convent. Her first interview was with me for The Standard. Producer Director George Stevens took her under his protective wing — and proceeded to turn down several offers for her services claiming the roles were not suitable to her talents. She did make one movie, "Temptation", with Merle Oberon. But life with her young medical-student husband, Francois LaFleche, was a tenuous affair. When their savings gave out he returned to McGill and she tried for success in Europe. This led to ultimate annulment of their marriage.

Today Suzanne seems to be putting marriage first and career second, although she'll soon be seen in "Derby Day" with Michael Wilding. Her recently-acquired husband won fame as Nero in "Quo Vadis" and is back in California to take a top role in "The Egyptian". He is also a playwright of distinction, author of "The Love Of Four Colonels". He and Miss Cloutier live in an old London house once owned by Ellen Terry.

Suzanne is a daughter of Edmond Cloutier, the Queen's Printer in Ottawa.

TICKETAPE. — "The King and I" will cost 20th-Century-Fox $4,500,000 to film in Technicolor Cinemascope. Darryl Zanuck paid $1,000,000 for screen rights to the Broadway hit by Rodgers and Hammerstein based upon "Anna and the King of Siam" — which his own studio produced as a movie starring Irene Dunne several years ago.

While Rudy Vallee is a multi-millionaire, the U.S. accepted $31,000 from him in full settlement of $72,000 in back taxes the government claims he owed. Why? . . . Clark Gable plans one film a year at most from now on.

First color-TV receiving sets will cost about $1,000 in the States, more in Canada, and have only a 15-inch tube. They go into production this month by RCA. . . . Upkeep on a color set will cost the average owner over $200 a year, I am told. . . . Opera star James Melton is distributor for Budweiser Beer in southern Texas. . . . Metro loses Greer Garson in June. Without Gable, Garson, Van Johnson, June Allyson and others the studio no longer enjoys the regal look it once had.

THE NEW LOOK in film finance has been pioneered by a slim chap named James Stewart, currently on display across the land in a tuneful biography titled "The Glen Miller Story." Stewart is a freelance actor who picks his parts carefully and works only for a salary and a share of the profits. "End of the River", a western made by Universal-International, brought him an estimated million dollars — far more than any actor was ever paid in straight salary.

Now indications are that Stewart will rake in close to $2,000,000 for his chore in the Miller musical. The studio is

★ Marlene Dietrich May Try Comeback

It is rumored around that Marlene Dietrich may make a film comeback in a picture tentatively titled, "Premiere at the Lido" which would be shot in VistaVision. Story would follow on action and chase lines to do with the solving of an intracabaret mystery.

Xavier Cugat and Abbe Lane will do a musical for Sam Katzman at Columbia this summer.

★ Great Hemingway Story

"The Snows Of Kilimanjaro"

Co-stars Gregory Peck, Ava Gardner and Susan Hayward

Once again the dynamic pen of Ernest Hemingway has turned out a great, thrilling story in "The Snows Of Kilimanjaro," which in Color by Technicolor will be at the Monkland United Theatre this Saturday.

Considered by many the greatest living American author, Hemingway has been responsible for many of Hollywood's finest motion pictures and through his unusual characters many of our leading actors have come to prominence.

In this splendid feature, Gregory Peck, Ava Gardner, Susan Hayward and Hildegard Neff handle the important roles in this story which moves at a rapid pace from start to finish.

This is the story of a famous writer and big game hunter who reviews his life, loves, adventures and frustrations while awaiting possible death beneath the shadow of Mt. Kilimanjaro in Africa. Via the use of the flashback, the writer traces his career through Paris, the French Riviera, Africa and the Spanish Civil War.

As the writer-hunter who searches the world for truth, Gregory Peck plays the most romantic role of his brilliant career.

Frank Sinatra signed to star in "Suddenly," Robert Bassler's first independent production, with Lewis Allen directing.

Gary Cooper plays a love scene with Denise Darcel entirely in French for the Hecht-Lancaster film, "Vera Cruz."

Walter Wanger will produce "The Strange Case of Officer X," a crime story, for Allied Artists.

Donna Reed will play the role of Mrs. Sigmund Romberg in Metro's "Deep In My Heart," her first offer since winning the Oscar.

happy to pay him this stipend since it profits equally. If the film did poorly at the boxoffice Stewart's return would have been much smaller.

More and more stars are going in for a share of the profits. Danny Kaye and Bing Crosby each have about 15 per cent of Irving Berlin's "White Christmas", and Crosby and Bob Hope get a percentage of all their films. Such deals are an incentive for the stars to work harder and for the studios to produce better pictures. Thusfar the policy has paid handsome dividends in good entertainment.

★ The Avon Players Soon To Present 3 Act Comedy

An uproarious comedy, "Kempy" in three acts by J. C. Nugent and Elliott Nugent, will be the next production by the Avon Players.

The story has to do with Kempy James, a plumber with aspirations to be an architect, who makes what he thinks is a routine call to fix a leaky pipe and ends up getting married. This is further complicated when he discovers that his in-laws don't like him, his wife doesn't love him, but that her younger sister does. How he gets in and out of this predicament makes for an evening of care-free enjoyment.

Plan to see this perfect blend of romance and light-hearted comedy, "Kempy" on the 14th or 15th of May.

Columbia's Production Of "From Here To Eternity" Ties All-Time Oscar Record

Hollywood, Apr. 4. — The Columbia Production of "From Here To Eternity" with a total of eight Oscars, enabled that studio to win the 26th annual Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences by a margin of one.

Paramount and 20th-Fox were tied for second place with seven awards each, and Metro finished fourth with five, one of which was a special award to retiring Pete Smith. RKO and the Buena Vista Film Distribution registered two apiece and Warners one. The RKO and Buena Vista awards were created by Walt Disney, giving him a total of four.

All of the eight awards won by Columbia were for "From Here To Eternity," and tied the all-time Oscar record established some years ago by Metro's "Gone With The Wind."

★ What Will Be Next For Frank Sinatra

Hollywood, April 4 — Robert Bassler has announced that Sterling Hayden will co-star with Frank Sinatra who has the role of an assassin in the independently produced feature "Suddenly."

Hayden will be seen as a small-town sheriff who attempts to halt Sinatra's efforts to kill a president of the United States.

Gloria Grahame will star in four pictures at UI, starting with "The Troubled Stream."

★ At The Westmount

Esther Williams In M-G-M Musical

"Easy To Love" in Color by Technicolor till Tuesday

To the legion of Esther Williams fans, "Easy To Love," now at the Westmount until Tuesday will prove an entertainment field day. In her latest M-G-M Technicolor musical Hollywood's most popular water belle swims with an alligator, "explodes" from a barrel, jumps through paper hoops and water geysers and, in a breathtaking climax, is towed on water skis over a 12-foot jump by a helicopter to an altitude of 75 feet, then dives into the middle of a horse-shoe formed by 100 skiers!

But these thrill highlights are only part of the story. In addition there's a new twist to the "eternal triangle", involving Esther's co-stars, Van Johnson and Tony Martin. Johnson plays the boss of Florida's Cypress Gardens, where Esther is the star of the water-ski ballet. Esther wants something warmer than a business arrangement with her boss but gets nowhere fast. Tony Martin is the New York night club singer who tries to catch her on the rebound but whose ardour becomes somewhat dampened when a now aroused Van takes him on as hectic and frenzied motorboat chase as has been seen on the screen in a long time. The plot twists are finally happily untangled to an accompaniment of thrills, spills, love and laughs — plus an assortment of engaging tunes sung as only Tony Martin can sing them. Among them are the title song, one of Cole Porter's biggest hits, and such new melodies as "That's What a Rainy Day Is For," "Did'ja Ever," "Coquette" and the infectious "Look Out! I'm Romantic!"

Half of this Westmount program is shared by "Take The High Ground" in Color by Technicolor, starring Richard Widmark with Karl Malden and lovely new-comer Elaine Stewart. This is a rugged comedy-drama of the life, loves and fights of two top sergeants at an army training camp.

Sir Cedric Hardwicke has the role of King Priam in Warners' "Helen Of Troy."

"Top Banana," "Red Garters," and "Hell's Half Acre" were handed "B" ratings by the National Legion of Decency.

Lance Fuller, recently released by UI, will play the male lead opposite Cleo Moore in Hugo Haas' "Turmoil."

Henry Morgan drew a featured role in Paramount's "Strategic Air Command," his fifth picture with James Stewart.

Universal-International is negotiating with June Allyson as female lead opposite Jose Ferrer in "The Shrike."

James Cagney will star in "Run For Cover", to be filmed in Vista-Vision and Technicolor at Paramount.

Merle Oberon has signed with Metro for the role of Dorothy Donnelly in "Deep In My Heart," biography of the late Sigmund Romberg.

Esther Williams currently assigned to Metro's "Jupiter's Darling," will follow it in "Say It In French," to be produced by Joe Pasternak.

★ Outstanding British Film

"The Kidnappers" At The Kent

Commencing Today For One Week

"The Kidnappers", an outstanding British film that keeps audiences on the knife-edge between tears and laughter, will be the feature at the Kent theatre starting today. This screen translation of one of Neil Paterson's finest stories, "Scottish Settlement", is a delicate, deeply moving and charming film which those, who see it, will love and cherish in their memory of picture experience.

The story of "The Kidnappers" depicts early-Century in life in Canada's rugged Maritimes. Its central figures are two happy, imaginative orphaned youngsters full of fun and spirit whose zest for life is soon blunted by their grandfather's tyranny. Running parallel with the story of the children is the tense theme of the daughter's love for the local doctor who, because he is a Boer, is automatically excluded from friendship with the grandfather's family. The girl's struggle against the rigid discipline of her home life and the near tragedy that overtakes her attempt to break free, opens the first breach with the old man's pride. This story of great conflict, imbued with basic tenderness, emerges with a natural humour and a climax which illustrates the inspiring effect brought about by the young in heart.

The cast of "The Kidnappers", which was filmed for the greater part in the beautiful Glen Affric in Scotland, an almost perfect replica of the Nova Scotian scenery at the period of the picture's story, includes Duncan Macrae, Scotland's Number One actor as the grandfather; Jean Anderson as his wife; Adrienne Corri, tempestuous redhead, as his daughter in love with Theodore Bikel as the doctor; and Jon Whiteley and Vincent Winter, two of the most impish, snub-nosed cuddlesome children you've ever seen on the screen.

The special added featurette will be "The Royal Symphony" in color by Technicolor, Sir Malcolm Sargent conducting The London Symphony Orchestra.

★ Kaye as 'Court Jester'

Danny Kaye's second independent picture, "The Court Jester", will be released by Paramount. It will be filmed in Vista Vision, starting in July.

Norman Panama and Melvin Frank, who wrote, directed and produced Kaye's first Dena production, "Knock On Wood," will repeat on "Jester".

Mickey Rooney will star in "The Atomic Kid," to be produced at Republic by his manager, Maurice Duke.

Hugo Haas signed Cleo Moore as female lead in his independent production, "Turmoil."

Rick Jason has the male lead opposite Linda Darnell in 'Night Music.'

The United Theatres are expected to make an important announcement with reference to CinemaScope shortly.

Monsarrat Will Bring Yacht To Compete With "Bluebottle"

Nicholas Monsarrat, author of "The Cruel Sea" and head of the United Kingdom Information Office in Ottawa, will be bringing a Dragon class yacht out from England this spring to Canada to compete in the races in which the Royal Dragon "Bluebottle" will sail, it was announced recently by R. C. Stevenson, honorary president of the Canadian Yachting Association.

Mr. Monsarrat, who is a member of the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club and has had considerable experience in sailing yachts in England and other parts of the world, has purchased the yacht "Valhalla" which is well known on the other side of the Atlantic. "Valhalla" has had a consistently successful racing record since she was built in 1947, as the following list of flags accumulated from that year to 1953 shows:

1947-48-19, 78 flags; 1950, 31 starts, 21 flags; 1951 40 starts, 24 flags; 1952 29 starts, 21 flags, 1953 34 starts, 26 flags; and she was also a winner of the Royal Burnham Yacht Club points cup four years running.

In making the announcement Mr. Stevenson stated that he felt sure that Canadian yachtsmen will be pleased to know that a Dragon class yacht built in England would be among those which will compete with the "Bluebottle" which is owned by Her Majesty the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh.

It is not known yet on which ship the "Valhalla", which will be the first Dragon built in England to sail in Canada, is coming to Montreal, but it is expected that she will be here in ample time to be "tuned up" before the "Bluebottle" arrives on the Canadian Pacific flagship "Empress of Scotland" on June 4th.

The teams were tied 1-1 in games in the best of three final series, with one match tied.

Bussiere Scores Opener

Bussiere also scored the game's first goal in the opening period. Bill Ranson started the play by firing the puck into the corner as he reached the MacRae Electric blue line. Frank Read raced in for the puck and got it out to Bussiere in front of the net and the latter made no mistake on his shot.

Westmount MacRae Electric fought right back and before the second period was half-way through, they were out in front by a 2-1 score. Defensive lapses by the Druggists allowed Jim McCarthy and Al Turner to blink the light behind Val Chartier, with Stan Simmons picking up one assist.

Brambell Tough Foe

Royal Pharmacy's turn to fight back was next but they had a tough foe in Doug Brambell, the Electrician's goal janitor. The Druggists found the range with only seconds remaining in the sandwich session. Frank Read got credit for the score and knotted the count at 2-2.

The third period saw both goalers at peak form and with no scoring by either side the stage was going to end in another deadlock. However Don Bussiere had other ideas, for with MacRae Electric playing a man short, the red head decided the game had gone far enough.

Patterson Praises Team

After the game, coach Pat Patterson praised the Pharmacists for their determined effort which brought them the title after being close to defeat. He gave extra plaudits to the young and strong Westmount team and especially to Doug Brambell in the Electrician's goals.

For the Pharmacists, big Dick Goulet, Cliff Pogue, Ted Jackson, Dod Richardson and Walter David were stand-outs besides the other players already mentioned.

Along with scoring two goals in the game, one being the winner, Bussiere also won the playoff scoring title, a fitting climax to his regular season crown.

Title Grip Broken

This year was the first time in the last three years that Westmount's hold on the league's championship has been broken. Last year, Westmount captured the Dr. Rondeau Trophy, first year that it was up for competition. The Westmount dentist was on hand to present the winners the spoils.

Long Logue McDonald led the losers with 16 points. Wenty Young, local football player who made a name for himself playing for Winnipeg Blue Bombers last year, turned out for Royals and played a strong game at guard.

Local Sailors Are Awaiting Spring Water Opening

Signs of spring are many and varied. Your Aunt Matilda may swear by the first robin or an easing of her "rheumatiz." The thoughts of some men will lightly turn to what the girls have been thinking of all winter.

But to an increasingly large group of local guys and gals of all ages spring happens when they suddenly find themselves gathering together the impediments of boating gear for another season. Sales of sandpaper, paint, caulking compounds, marine hardware and rope jump ahead, and hardware clerks say "Ah, Spring!"

The urge to get afloat has sparked a most amazing surge of embryonic yachtsmen ever since the last war. Whether the urges is satisfied with a cat-rigged dinghy, a lordly yawl, a palatial cruiser, or a skiff with an outboard — getting out on the water is the thing.

Co-ordinating the water-born activities of yachtsmen in these parts is the St. Lawrence Valley Yacht Racing Association—S.L.V. for short. Twenty-seven yacht clubs from Quebec to Kingston, and including Ottawa, belong to the S.L.V. and compete for a lengthy list of trophies this year. The season fixture card, which will be released shortly, will show every week-end spotted with a regatta up and down the waterway. Many special events will keep interest high. The visit of the Duke of Edinburgh's yacht "Blue-bottle" will be marked by a special regatta at Royal St. Lawrence in June. The international Y class championships—Canada vs U.S.A. will be held on Lake St. Louis off Pointe Claire later in the summer. Canada swept this series last year. Sail-offs to decide Canada's representative to the North American Championships will be held in Montreal waters.

To get the yachting season off to a running start the S.L.V. is sponsoring a gigantic Spring Ball on Friday, April 9. To give this event the proper nautical atmo-

Unity Cagers Top Malone 102-72

Unity Boys Club hoopla artists wound up their cage activities for the season in memorable fashion last Saturday afternoon. The UBC'ers handed a visiting National Guard aggregation from Malone, New York, a thorough 102-72 drubbing in a fast-paced display reeled off on the Unity laddies' home gym.

The first half was a fairly even affair with the score at the coffee and doughnuts break standing at 51-41 in favor of our heroes. The last two stanzas of the ball game were a completely different tale as the UBC laddies poured on the speed to outscore their visitors 51-31.

Report Shows More Teams Played Hockey

More teams participated in Westmount municipal hockey this year than ever before, a report by the Westmount Recreation Department to the City Council shows.

Thirty-six teams, including 540 players, entered five leagues over the past season.

There were also more games played—151—than ever before.

As a section breakdown, there were eight mosquito teams, 120 players, and 18 games; 10 peevee teams, 150 players, and 39 games; eight bantam teams, 120 players and 42 games; seven midget teams, 105 players and 42 games; three juvenile teams, 45 players and 10 games.

There were 33 coaches during the season, including teachers, parents and young men.

The report also said there were 26 referees, and added that general volunteer help was most encouraging, along with good parks department co-operation.

First-string quarterback for the Washington Redskins last year, Eddie LeBaron reportedly will quit that club to play for the Calgary team in the Western Football Conference. LeBaron, a former College of Pacific star, reportedly has been offered $26,500.

Here arrangements are being made to handle a large boat-load of sailing and power boat skippers and their crews. Entertainment at half-time will feature a showing of the famous Irving summer sportswear and the renowned Beatrice Pines beachwear. Commentator and MC for the fashion show will be Art Thomson.

The girls will be able to get an advance look at what should fascinate the boys this approaching summer while the boys can get a peek at what is in store for them.

An oddity of the cleanly-played tilt was that the winners compiled exactly the same number of points—51—in each half.

The win atoned for the 69-62 shaving which Unity suffered at the hands of this same Malone Club down in the Yankee Town at the beginning of March.

McGrail Stars

Dick McGrail, the fleet McGillian, proved to be the number one thorn in the Maloners' collective sides on Saturday. He broke through for 20 points, tops for the day, and turned in a stellar ball-hawking game on defence.

Captain Jack McKissock, he of the raven locks and big brown eyes, was number two man on the winners scoring pole with 16 points while the brothers Barnard, Christian-named Mike and Dave, each potted 14.

The club's two centremen, the Messrs. Grant "Oscar" Petterson and George Cochrane, were each good for a dozen.

Ashland and Buindtree were tops for the losers with 18 points apiece.

Banquet Held

Members of both clubs, as well as the Unity Bantam, Midget and Juvenile clubs, were guests at a banquet held at the club immediately after the game.

Dick Schroeder, referee in chief of the Montreal Basketball League, complimented the Intermediate club on its fine showing and presented the championship trophy to captain Jack McKissock and the championship crests to the players.

Schröder singled out Teddy Rice for special praise, referring specifically to his glittering display at Shawinigan Falls during the provincial tournament there three weeks ago. Ted was named to the all star team.

Unity Boys Club (102): Cochrane 12, D. Barnard 14, Rice 16, Mc-Grail 20, Sutherland 6, Reddon 6, M. Barnard 14, Peterson 12, McKissock 16, Hubbard.
