SHERBROOKE, QUE., MONDAY SEPTEMBER 8 1913

JEROME TRIAL THIS AFTERNOON

Will Face Magistrate at Coaticook, at 4 p.m. on Gambling Charge. Thaw Remains in Coaticook. Application For Bail Not Likely. Will go to Montreal For 15th. Miscellaneous Notes on Case.

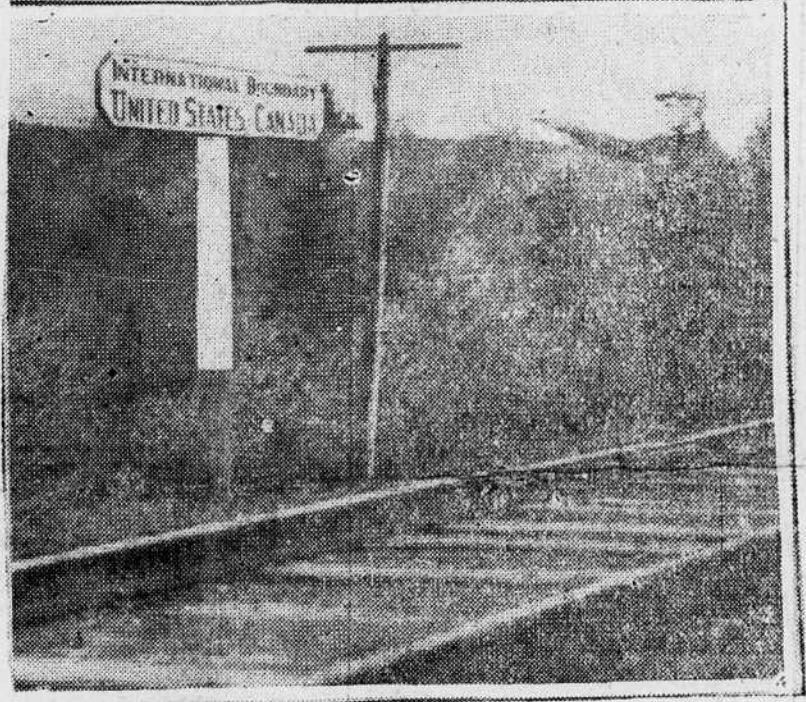

Coaticook, Sept. 8. — (Special)—Contrary to expectations, William Travers Jerome will come up for trial at 4 o'clock this afternoon. At least that is the understanding now. The change in date followed a series of conferences between Jerome's attorneys and the prosecution. These conferences were held yesterday, and it was not until a late hour last night that the agreement to change the date was arrived at.

JEROME ARRIVED ON NOON TRAIN.

Mr. Jerome, who spent the weekend in Montreal, returned to Coaticook at noon to-day. He was accompanied by J. Nicol, K.C., one of his counsel.

INTERNATIONAL BOUNDARY

The point at which it was proposed to deport Thaw, showing the boundary post beside the Grand Trunk track, between Stanhope, Que., and Norton Mills, Vt.

companied by J. Nicol, K.C., one of his counsel. MAY APPEAR BEFORE JUDGE MULVANA.

It is possible that Mr. Jerome may appear before Judge Mulvana, of Sherbrooke. This would expedite matters, as all Magistrate McKee could do would be to remand him to Sherbrooke to stand his trial before the district magistrate.

THAW PASSED PLEASANT SUNDAY.

With the path to his ultimate freedom never clearer from obstacles, Harry Kendall Thaw yesterday spent a most pleasant Sunday. For the first time since his arrival here, he had no opportunity to read the newspapers, and judging from the smiles which adorned his countenance as he read the various and vivid descriptions of Jerome's arrest, as reproduced in the different American newspapers, it was plain that he was greatly pleased.

Mr. H. J. Rice, his private secretary, spent the entire day with him, and together they disposed of a large volume of correspondence which had gathered since his arrival at Coaticook. With the exception of his lawyers, no others were allowed to see him. Mr. E. Blake Robertson left written orders that Thaw was to see no persons but his lawyers.

NOT LIKELY TO ASK FOR BAIL.

Reports to the contrary notwithstanding, it is not thought that Thaw's lawyers will ask for bail between now and the 15th. They realize that possibly the court would refuse such bail. Should the court fix the bail at a figure in proportion to the seriousness of the only charge they have against Thaw, the amount would be small, and his best move would be to forfeit bail and leave the country. Should he do this the courts would be criticized for allowing him to escape, and the Thaw millions and their effect on justice.

A second objection from the standpoint of the defence is the effect it would have on their case should the court allow Thaw his liberty, but fix an exorbitant figure for bail. This would tend to magnify the importance of the charge against Thaw.

All things considered it is not thought that the defence will make application for bail at the present time.

JEROME WANTS HIS TRIAL TO-DAY.

All day yesterday William Travers Jerome, through his lawyers, were trying to arrange with the prosecution to have his case called and dealt with to-day. Up until a late hour last night the prosecution, or rather the complainant, had refused to consent. Magistrate James McKee, before whom Jerome appeared, is determined that the former district attorney or New York will be given full punishment for the offence which he is alleged to have committed. Judging from Magistrate McKee's remarks on Saturday, when Jerome's lawyers made application for an adjournment, he will commit Jerome to stand his trial at Sherbrooke, if the evidence supports the charge.

An effort is being made to have District Magistrate Mulvana, of Sherbrooke, come to Coaticook to-morrow and deal with the case. WAS IN MONTREAL YESTERDAY. Jerome passed through Coaticook

THREE LOST THEIR LIVES

Brother and Two Sisters Drowned at Old Town, Me.

WERE OUT ON PUSAWA LAKE WHEN THEIR CANOE UPSET, WITH ABOVE RESULT.

Old Town, Me., Sept. 8.—(Special)—Leavitt Soucie and his two sisters, Mrs. Peter Bishop and Mrs. Jerry Dubay, all of Old Town, lost their lives in Pusawa Lake, near here, last night by the capsizing of a canoe. Joseph Duguay, who was also of the party, was saved. He clung to the canoe supporting Mrs. Dubay for a time, but was forced to let go when a large dog, which had been in the boat, leaped repeatedly on his head and shoulders in playful antics. A nearby boat rescued Mrs. Dubay as she was going down, but she died soon after reaching shore. Soucie was 38 years old.

PREPARING TO TAKE THAW TO MONTREAL

Montreal, Sept. 8.—(Special)—The re-appearance here of Mr. E. Blake Robertson, assistant superintendent of immigration, who has charge of the Thaw case for the department is taken as an indication that preparations are being made to bring the celebrated prisoner to Montreal, within the next day or so.

Mr. Marchand, K. C., who has been the legal advisor to the immigration department in the Thaw proceedings, is busy preparing arguments against the interim prohibition order and habeas corpus writ obtained by Mrs. J. N. Greenfield, K. C., and N. K. Ladouceur, K. C., which is now preventing the immigration authorities from taking Thaw across the border.

Light for him to this extent, at least. MANY NEWSPAPERMEN HAVE RETURNED HOME.

Several New York, Boston and Montreal newspapermen returned to their homes on Saturday last. They realize that as far as the Thaw case is concerned the story is practically dead until September 15th, when he will be brought before the Court of Appeals in Montreal. On that date there will be a gathering of the clans, and Thaw will once again be held down the front page of hundreds of metropolitan dailies.

DOMINION POLICE STILL ON HAND.

Sergeant Frank Littlefield and Constables Frank McFadden and Peter Charron are still on hand and take turns in guarding the celebrated prisoner. The three officers in question are members of the Dominion Police force.

RIGGED OUT WITH NEW CLOTHES.

Mr. John Duff, of Sherbrooke, who took Thaw's measurements for a new suit and overcoat, brought both garments up to Coaticook, and now Mr. Thaw is well rigged out for Canadian weather. The order was given some time ago, and the fact that an order was made showed the Thaw, at least, had faith in the statement of ex-Governor Stone when the latter said: "Thaw will be here till the snow flies."

WIRE SERVICE CONGESTED.

Newspapermen on the case have experienced great difficulty in getting their matter transmitted out of Coaticook by wire. Only four wires were available, and one of these was leased by the Associated Press. The remaining three had to carry the stories for the remaining dozen or more papers represented. In justice to the telephone company it must be said that they did all they could to expedite matters.

The telephone service was also congested. The Coaticook exchange did all in their power, but this cannot be said of Sherbrooke. Time after time calls were held up at Sherbrooke, and the Coaticook central was helpless to get them through. Several complaints were lodged, especially by the Montreal men, who had great difficulty in getting their calls through.

JEROME INTERVIEWED IN MONTREAL.

Montreal, Sept. 8.—William Travers Jerome, wandering about the foyer of the Windsor last night, did not look much like an apprehended criminal. He did not, in fact, seem to feel like one, and when asked about the little affair of Friday the matter seemed to have slipped his memory entirely.

"What little affair?" he asked.

"Oh, that?" was his comment when reminded. "Why, I understand the case has been remanded. How long? I'm sure I don't know—several days." (Continued on Page 8)

THREE DROWN WHEN LAUNCH CAPSIZED

Party of Friends Were Out on Lake When Storm Came Up

STRUGGLING DESPERATELY IN THE WATER ALL MADE FRANTIC EFFORTS TO SECURE HOLD OF LAUNCH.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Sept. 8.—News of a triple drowning in which two of the victims are residents of this city, reached here last night from Cedarville, a summer resort on the Michigan side, a few miles from the Soo.

The drowned: Albert Darbos, Soo, Ont.; Mr. Albert Darbos, Soo, Ont.; Mrs. Robert Anderson, Soo, Mich. A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Darbos, O. E. Pierson, and Mr. Elgin Troyer, motored over from the American Soo yesterday afternoon to Cedarville where they were to have a gasoline launch was chartered for a trip through Les Cheneaux Islands.

The party had been out but a short time when a heavy windstorm, accompanied by thunder and lightning, came up without warning. The launch, under the guidance of its owner, George Lefleur, was headed directly in the teeth of the wind and for the shore, but after going a few rods, a huge wave broke over it, half filling the craft with water. An instant later a "comber" rushing forward seized the launch and capsized it. Struggling desperately in the water, all of the occupants made frantic efforts to secure a hand hold on the overturned launch, but it was beyond their reach.

Mr. and Mrs. Darbos were last seen clasped in each other's arms as they sank to their death in the water. The other members of party were rescued.

The cement side walk is now nearly finished up to the street leading to the wharf, and it is certainly a great improvement over the old wooden sidewalk.

BODY OF AN UNKNOWN MAN TAKEN FROM THE MAGOG RIVER

Tickets Revealed Fact That he Came From Robertson, Q. C. R. May be Husband of Woman Who Returned Home to That Place From Sherbrooke Alone. Two Return Halves of Tickets Found in His Pocket. Police Communicating With Robertson.

Quite a sensation was caused in the city at an early hour this morning, when it became known that the body of a powerfully built and unknown man had been recovered from the Magog River, opposite the shops of the Canadian Rand Co.

The first to notice the body floating in the river was a young man, whose name has not been ascertained, who was passing along the river bank shortly after seven o'clock. He rushed to the C. P. R. Depot and informed the police authorities of his discovery.

Acting Chief Boudreau and two officers immediately proceeded to the spot indicated in the message and found the body floating in a water close to the edge of the river. With little difficulty they drew it and conveyed it to the morgue, and the Coroner was notified of the matter.

HOURS IN WATER. It is not known how long the deceased had been in the water, but from its condition it is evident that at least 24 hours must have elapsed between the time the unknown entered and was taken from the river.

DESCRIPTION OF MAN. The deceased was well dressed in a blue suit and patent leather shoes. He had a sandy complexion, brown hair, a reddish moustache, and was apparently from 40 to 45 years of age. His height is about 5 feet 10 inches and his weight is estimated at 175.

COULD NOT IDENTIFY HIM. Several persons called at the morgue during the morning, but Excursion' and had been issued at Robertson on the 4th, instant.

MONEY FOUND ON BODY. Twelve dollars and thirty cents were found in the dead man's purse, the bills being two of the five-dollar denomination and two of one dollar, while the thirty cents was in small change. The other articles taken from his pockets by the police are a pipe, pouch, knife and an unopened flask of Cognac.

IN COMFORTABLE CIRCUMSTANCES. In addition to being well dressed the body appeared to have been well nourished, and the whole of the circumstances point to the unknown having been a man in a fairly comfortable position.

NO MARKS OF VIOLENCE. The police examination did not reveal any marks of violence on the body, and the general opinion of the cause of the fatality is that the man had been imbibing freely and had fallen into the river, and consequently was not able to call for help.

COMMUNICATING WITH ROBERTSON. After examining the railway tickets, Acting Chief Boudreau speedily got into telephonic communication with the station agent at Robertson, who was able to throw some light on the affair, as he informed the Sherbrooke authorities that a woman whose name and address were unknown to him had returned home alone after visiting the Sherbrooke Exhibition, having, it was stated, lost her husband in this city.

Enquiries are being vigorously pushed.

HAS BEEN IDENTIFIED AS S. N. PLANTE, FARMER, OF ROBERTSON.

As a result of further telephonic communication with Robertson, it has been ascertained that the name of the missing man is Plante, and that he has a brother-in-law in Sherbrooke named Charles Labrecque, residing at 36 Brooks street.

Mr. Labrecque has since identified the body in the morgue as that of S. N. Plante, farmer, of Robertson, who visited him on Thursday last.

INQUEST TO-NIGHT. An inquest will be held this evening at 8 o'clock. Coroner Bachand will preside.

Ralph Cannon, son of a Hitchin nurseryman, was savagely attacked by a large polecat upon entering his hen-coop. The animal flew at Mr. Cannon's face, but he killed it with an iron bar.

Betting on Motor-car Numbers
When three men were charged with betting at Cannock it was stated that they bet on the numbers of motor-cars as the cars passed along the road. The defendants were ordered to pay the costs of the case.

"The Fish for the People"
"God gave the fish for the people," was the defence which the mother of a Welsh girl put forward at the Holywell Sessions, when her daughter, Jane Davies, was charged by the Dee Fisheries Board with setting stake nets in the estuary of the Dee near Bagillt.

Veteran's Belated Pension
An aged, feeble veteran named David Davidson, of Belfast, Ireland, late of the Royal Irish Regiment, was awarded a special campaign pension of 18 cents a day. It is thirty-one years since he left the colors after serving twelve years, during which he saw active service.

Whale In the Forth
While a party of North Berwick fishermen were engaged fishing off the Craig, a whale of the Greenland or finback species between 25 feet and 30 feet long, was seen making its way through the water on the south side of the Craig. It is a long time since a whale has been seen so near the land.

Vinegar for Whiskey
In the case of two men who pleaded guilty at Glasgow Police Court to theft from a railway car, it was stated that one of them had in the first instance taken four bottles of raspberry vinegar, but on realizing his mistake he had returned and appropriated thirteen bottles of whiskey.

Sergeant With a Charmed Life
Sergeant Hore, of the Army Service corps, Colchester, was knocked down by a motor-car with such force that he rolled over and over. When picked up he was not badly injured. He bears a charmed life, having been shipwrecked, tossed by a bull, and rolled on by his horse on several occasions.

Within Reach of $50,000 Gift
At a meeting of the Liverpool Cathedral Committee it was stated that only a few hundred pounds were needed to reach $250,000, which is required to enable the committee to claim Mr. Arthur Earle's conditional promise of $50,000. When this has been received it will leave a sum of $215,000 to be provided to complete the first tranche.

Show Competing With Church
At the meeting of the East Flintshire Federation of the Church of England Men's Societies, Mr. T. J. Reney, J.P., called attention to the opening of cinematograph shows on Sunday evenings after church hours. He said people stopped at home on the Sunday evenings in order to be in time for the show.

Clergyman Buried In His Garden
The funeral of the Rev. John Clough Williams Ellis, of Glasfryn, Wales, a large landowner in Carnarvonshire and Merionethshire, was, according to the deceased's instructions, strictly private, and his body was buried in a lonely corner among trees in his garden, near the house. There were no fittings nor any inscription on the coffin.

"The Petty Poet"
An unusual charge was preferred against Alexander Barron, a laborer, in Inverness Court. It was alleged that he stole three trees from the Battledown Wood at Culloden. He denied the charge and said he was a journalist and a poet, and was known as "The Petty Poet." Sheriff Grant: "I suppose you mean 'Petty' geographically." The prosecutor: "Yes. It is the name of the district near Culloden." The accused was admonished.

Mr. Walter Corliss and family would occupy one-fourth of the Packard place. It should have read they will reside on the Packard place.

There will be an ice cream social Sept. 19th on the church lawn if pleasant. If not, it will be in the school

MORE ABOUT LARK MEGANTIC.

"L'ennui naquit un jour de l'uniformite."—Boileau.

Dear Sir,—The Chronicle's correspondent from Ditchfield is at it again. Alas! do his best, 'tis ever the same sing-song, with a derry-down chorus of expletives meant to distract one from the matter in hand. His muse has turned from the satire of facts to the satire of song, and in his own last essay of the 27th inst., after prelude in a very indifferent solo, he thought of dividing his chorus into parts, and distributing them over his allotted sheet of the Chronicle like so many frogs in hiding, that one could hear piping under the orate around the circuit of a shallow pond. Yet, even there, with such amplitude of space for his oratorio, and so much sympathy Thawing in his favor, the topmost ring of his voice or voices meant despair.

There is, in the luxuriant wilds of tropical America, a winged animal of the family of mocking-birds, whose only song is a wailing cry, but so dismal and heartrending is it that the traveller, taken unawares, will start and cast all around an affrighted stare, as though imminent peril were at hand.

Not so with us of Megantic. We have shown less dismay by the monotonous wail of our mocking-bird in Ditchfield—admit having become second nature. Good reason for that. During the lapse of many mortal twelve-months, our ears have been getting inured to weekly partitions of the self-same concert, all from the shady banks of Spider Lake. So that, after all, we find it very true that Providence hath adopted man's means to all possible contingencies by means of a peculiar elasticity in the mind called use.

Timon, of Ditchfield, then had all his latitude to sing or howl ode, dirge or incantation the whole round of time, and none of us has taken to his heels yet.

On the contrary, the sameness of that monotonous and rather insipid but regularly-timed lament, had come to act upon our senses like a lullaby, and we slept under its shell, as the villagers on a lakeside do, with the evening choir compounded with the hum of insects and the harpsicord of batracians.

'Twas only when our townsmen at the helm of affairs began to concern together on ripening and executing a heavy emprise, when the solemn hour of settled resolve and weighty design had rung, and the silence of deep meditation hushed everything around, that this weird, outlandish, peculiar shaft of a venomous drom from the Spider Pond became, as it were, conspicuous and distracting. One sudden twirl of the pen to hunt it off; but it would come again at the pitted time, and must keep buzzing in our ears. Another! But who can ward off a mosquito bent upon blood, or switch away the tsetse fly from the toiling oxen on the veldt? And thus it kept ring . . . ring . . . ringing in our ears its vicious, sanguinary and hateful song.

But lo and behold! Our ears attuned to the vocalist, and battered to the pitch of his diapason, have become of late days sensible of what a music composer would call a variation, a marked change on his key-board, and very appreciable at that. As an instance thereof, let us listen to his last two cantos; and we find that whereas, in the past his song applied to the many—not to say all—the units of responsible heads in the place or elsewhere, whether in Council Board or Cabinet, at the present season his elegy, in its application, is thinned to one party, condensed into one head, the stanzas vocalized in solo style for the benefit of one only auditor; and this, your humble correspondent.

Many thanks for the same.

Well, you are quite welcome. I view it as a soothing improvement for the community at large; in this sense, that one single pair of fated ears remain implicated in the timeworn racket, and kept attentive to the "batrachomyomachia" melopoeia arising spasmodically from that cypress grove—Fret not at the word, it is one of old Homer's own fabric, and shows, in its terminology, that there were frogs, with other vermin, could sing a vicious stave against the busy toilers, even in his time one thousand years before the Christian era.

One man alone then to be the butt-end of that chronic weekly annoyance. Eheu! tristitia fata! Well, the better so, for the people of Megantic even now cannot but feel relief, such as might be experienced by a multitude hitherto brain-hammered by some world-without-end dissonance, when the latter gets diverted from its pristine direction, to worry some other echo into vibration.

Or, if this be found a more apt simile, the relief may be compared to the blissful moment, when a roaring, beast of the forest has, once for all, selected and snatched his choice of a prey from a defenceless group, and vanished in the distance.

Thus was it with the Cretans after the Minotaur had set his clutch into the human bloodstained dedicated for the sake of all.

I am then the self-devoted Psyche of Megantic to the bristled Minotaur of Ditchfield.

And now, ye fathers of the much depreciated Megantic, from this moment it might be you are saved the fearful consequences of the Chronicle monster's rage. To no then you will be owing such good-will as a jeopardsy of such magnitude can inspire. On my part I will pledge to keep down my emotions, and stifle my agonies, to the end that peace to the men of good-will in Megantic and Frontenac—not to mention Quebec itself—come out of it all!

So mote it be—Amen.

FRONTENAC.

Why "FORCE" is so Good for Children

BREAKFAST foods can be made of almost any cereal —and they are.

But corn has too much vegetable oil; that makes it undesirable as a steady diet.

Rice has too little nutriment for people who live in northern climates and need good red blood.

All the other lower grains lack some one of the qualities that make wheat the perfect cereal for us who need real food.

"Force" is finest wheat, cooked with malt, flaked and toasted to an appetizing crisp.

LATE ROBERT JOHNSON, ULVERTON. (Contributed.)

Mr. Robert Johnson one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Ulverton passed peacefully away at the home of his son, Mr. Edgar Johnston as previously announced. He was predeceased by his wife in January, 1884. Although he had been a sufferer for many years which was borne with Christian fortitude, he was not confined to his bed until about three weeks before his death, which occurred at the age of eighty-four years, three months and ten days. During the past two years his sight has been gradually failing until he could only discern daylight from dark, yet his memory and intellectual powers were bright to the last, and realizing that God was with him, he was anxious to enter into rest, although all that kindness and care could do to make him comfortable was done by the family. His daughter, Mrs. Armstrong, who assisted in caring for him until his death, his bedside during his illness except for very short intervals. The remains were interred on Sunday afternoon, August 31st, in the Congregational Cemetery. There was a large concourse of friends and relatives who attended to pay the last tributes of respect to the departed. Rev. Mr. Craik, officiated and preached a very comforting sermon to the bereaved ones from Isa. 46th. chap., 4th verse, "And even to your old age I will carry you." The following hymns were sung very feelingly, "Jesus lover of my soul," "Rock of Ages," and "Asleep in Jesus." Mr. and Mrs. Alexander of Richmond sang very beautifully "Step by step, to the Glory Land." The bearers were grand nephews viz Messrs. Henry Smith, Henry McManus, John Armstrong and Sam McManus. The floral tributes were many and very beautiful. Deceased was born near the town of Armagh, Ireland, in the year 1829 and came to the Township of Dorham with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnston in 1832. The County was then a wilderness and his boyhood days were spent on the farm adjoining the one where he died. He was married in early life to Miss Betsey Armstrong, daughter of Mr. George Armstrong and settled within half a mile of his old home, where they became the happy parents of four sons and two daughters. Nathan the second son died in the prime of young manhood in January, 1884. Two weeks later his mother was also borne to her grave. Their daughter, Sarah, also passed away in early life on December 7th, 1890. Loving memories of these will be cherished by those who knew them best. Deceased was a member of the Congregational Church, a deacon for many years, a man of sterling character, unobtrusive, a regular attendant

PINK LADY TO-MORROW NIGHT. If ever a play will give an audience its money's worth it will be "The Pink Lady," which comes to His Majesty's Tuesday night. Rich and warm it is one of the best musical offerings of a decade and when all the ephemeral nonsense and soulless music that masquerades under that title have been forgotten, the haunting melodies of "The Pink Lady" will be vividly and pleasantly remembered. The music has substance, richness and warmth with a pretty swing and a sweet insinuation that simply pervades one's whole being. The authors had ideas and gave them not only musical form but invested their emotion with light laughter and gave, avoiding the bete noir of many musical comedies.

with pronounced strength in the Cop-

(To be continued.)FINE CRICKET WITNESSED AT LENNOXVILLE.On Saturday afternoon at Bishop's College Grounds, the Sherbrooke
Cricket Club played their final match of the season against a Lennoxville XI. Lennoxville won the toss but put in Sherbrooke first. Cowles and Burrows commenced the batting. Cowles missed a straight ball from Parker in the second over, and Manning went in. Then for an hour some very good and spectacular batting was seen, all bowling seemed alike to the batsman who scored all around the wicket.
Manning particularly made some very pretty strokes. After scoring 30, Barrows was out and Gibson continues to treat the bowling very lightly. At 5 o'clock the captain for Sherbrooke declared their innings closed for 101 runs and only two wickets down. Manning's score being 48 runs not out. Time being short,
Dr. Robertson and Oddy commenced the innings for Lennoxville.

Dr. Robertson after being rather badly hit on the arm with the ball was caught by Burrows without scoring. Hobart came in and hit out in great style, scoring 28 in quick time. Gittens was the only other man to make much show for Lennoxville against the bowling of Burrows and Cowles, their inning eventually closing for 60 runs. Considering that this is the first year of the revival of the cricket in Lennoxville, a number of most enjoyable afternoons have been spent at Bishop's College Grounds.
All members are indebted to the authorities of both the College and School for the use of their ground.
It is hoped that next year arrangements will be made, whereby the cricket practice can be held on the parade ground.

CITY NEWS

Miss Florence Purdy has returned from Leeds, Que., where she has spent the summer vacation at her home.

The Young Ladies' Guild of Plymouth Church will meet with Mrs. J. R. Sangster on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Frank Willis and Mrs. Lucke have returned to Lennoxville after a pleasant stay in Keene, N.H.

Mrs. Courson and Miss Marie Courson, who have spent the summer at North Hatley, have returned to Montreal.

The marriage of Mr. Ovide Pelletier, of this city, to Miss Marie Louise Huet, of Beloeil, is announced to take place Sept. 9th, at the parish church.

The engagement is announced of Miss Winifred Taylor, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Taylor, of London, Ont., to Mr. Frank Bonser, of Toronto. The marriage will take place the latter part of September.

Miss M. O. Vaudry, W.A., formerly Principal of Lennoxville Academy, has begun her duties as one of the staff of the St. Lambert Academy, of which Mr. C. W. Ford, M.A., well known in the Townships, is Principal.

The Rev. C. W. Mitchell, M.A., of London, Eng., who has been spending his holidays with his father, Mr. R. Mitchell, "Maple Braes," Lennoxville, returned on the S.S. Canada, for England, to resume his duties at the Merchant Taylors School, London, Eng.

The engagement is announced of Miss Eva Isabella Drummond, daughter of Mr. John Drummond, to Mr. John O. McCallum, of Thetford Mines, Quebec. The marriage will take place on September 23rd in Montreal.

The engagement is announced of Miss Ethel G. Dawson, daughter of Mrs. J.A. Dawson, of Coaticook, to Mr. Stewart Lowe, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lowe, Sherbrooke. The marriage will take place this month.

Mr. Eugene Desève, Mrs. Desève and two children left yesterday for Montreal where they will spend a couple of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sylvestre, Mrs. Desève's parents. While absent Mr. Desève will visit the Exhibition at Ottawa.

The lunch counter under the charge of the Ladies' Committee of the Sherbrooke General Hospital, at the Exhibition, was unusually successful this year, but the exact receipts have not yet been ascertained until the accounts, etc., are made up, when they will be given.

Miss Margaret Ross, of Vancouver, B.C., hastened home from Paris, where she had spent the summer vacation, on account of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Donald MacRae, and on landing last week went at once to Toronto. She was barely in time to see her sister a short time before she passed away.

The Lord Bishop of Quebec, who has recently returned from his pastoral visit to the Gaspé coast, arrived in Hatley Saturday and yesterday administered the rite of Confirmation at St. James Church, Hatley, followed by Holy Communion, and at St. Stephen's Church, Coaticook in the evening.

Yesterday, September 7th, being the eleventh anniversary of the induction of the Rev. Canon Shreve, as Rector of St. Peter's Church, Canon Shreve, previous to his sermon, gave some interesting statistics of the Parish during his Pastorate, and preached very appropriately from the text: "I will hearken on what the Lord will say concerning me." Psalm 35:8.

The story comes to the city to-day of an attempt to hold up a prominent Sherbrooke doctor while on his way home by auto from Brompton Lake last night. For half an hour the bold highwayman disputed the right of way. A member of the doctor's party, however, finally solved the problem by a well-directed shot. It was a foolish attempt on the part of the hold-up man, for there was no money among the Sherbrooke crowd. They returned home only with a "scout."

MIDWAY AT TORONTO WICKED.

Toronto, Sept. 8.—Vulgar, indecent and immoral are the words the Social Service Council used to describe the midway at the exhibition this year.

In the opinion of the council, formerly called the Moral and Social Reform Council of Canada, which had concluded its annual meeting in St. George's Hall, with Rev. Dr. Carman, Superintendent of the Methodist Church, in the chair, no place in Canada can be found so degrading as the Midway.

A resolution was unanimously passed by the council criticizing the management of the Canadian National Exhibition for allowing such immoral forms of entertainment as were presented on the midway.

COAL TRUCK DASHED DOWN INCLINE

One Man Killed and Another Very Seriously Injured

CABLE BROKE AS CAR WAS DESCENDING SHAFT IN AN ALBERTA COLLIERY.

Drumheller, Alta., Sept. 8.—(Special)—Harry Holden was instantly killed and Henry Wheatcroft seriously injured in an accident at Drumheller Colliery last night. The men were riding down an incline in a coal truck when the cable broke, the truck dashing the full length of the incline at frightful speed.

Holden was thrown against the side of the shaft, and when picked up was dead. Wheatcroft sustained internal injuries. Thomas Mackin, a third man in the car, escaped unharmed.

The mill destroyed was only rebuilt three years ago, new machinery being installed at the time.

U.M.W. MAN ARRESTED.

Vancouver, B.C., Sept. 8.—George Pettigrew, international board member of the United Mine Workers of America, was arrested on Saturday afternoon, charged with intimidation and rioting, and will be given a preliminary hearing on Monday.

WAS A CONFIRMED DYSPPEPTIC

Now Finds It a Pleasure to Enjoy Meals

Here is a case which seemed as bad and as hopeless as yours can possibly be. This is the experience of Mr. H. J. Brown, 384 Bathurst St., Toronto, in his own words:

"Gentlemen—Have much pleasure in mentioning to you the benefits received from your Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets and can cheerfully recommend them. I simply had confirmed dyspepsia with all its wretched symptoms, and tried about all the advertised cures with no success. You have in Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets the best cure I could find. It is now such a pleasure to enjoy meals with their consequent nourishment that I want to mention this for the benefit of others."

The fact that a lot of prescriptions or so-called "cures" have failed to help you is no sign that you have got to go on suffering. Try Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets and see how quickly this sterling remedy will give you relief and start your stomach working properly. If it doesn't help you, you get your money back. See a box at your druggist's. Compounded by the National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Montreal.

HELD UP PRESENT.

EUROPE'S Dullest COURT

Elderly Needlewomen Occupy the Time of Carmen Sylvia

Court life in Roumania is perhaps the dullest in Europe, although this is hard to believe of a court over which "Carmen Sylvia," the brilliant novelist and woman of letters, presides.

That the old friends of Queen Elizabeth seldom ask for an audience now is said to be due to the fact that the queen is surrounded by three old women who prefer to sit and knit and cannot understand why one should want to talk about books and art. But when the court is at Sinaia and the old ladies have gone to Wiesbaden for their annual cure, the old friends of the queen come back. But in Bucharest the queen sees none of them. Even when they ask for an audience she does not know of it, because her maids of honor refuse on the ground that her majesty is very tired.

The queen is a splendid needlewoman herself and makes many beautiful things for her invalid niece, Princess Elizabeth of Wied, who is so delicate that she lies literally wrapped up in cotton wool.

More Drinking in Italy

Till a few years ago the Italians were among the most temperate peoples in Europe; but with the growth of industrialism and social luxury an enormous development has been witnessed of the bar system.

The marked increase in direct crime and insanity due to the abuse of intoxicating drink roused the attention of the Government, and a Bill for checking the evil was introduced in the Chamber of Deputies, prohibiting the sale of liquor to children and drunks, limiting bars to two for every 500 inhabitants in the smaller towns, and one for every 500 citizens in the larger centres. The latest figures show one street bar for every 159 inhabitants.

ROLL HOMOLOGATED.
Councillor Smith moved and Councillor Dyson seconded that the valuation roll for 1913-1914 as amended, be homologated. The roll shows a real estate valuation of $768,875.00. The rental paid is $30,121.00 and there is a levy on 144 polls, 62 dogs and 118 horses. The real estate exempt from taxation is $187,900.00.

A letter was read from Mr. W. J. Ewing, stating he had purchased the property in ward No. 4, owned by George Gauthier and requesting that his name be substituted for that of Mr. Gauthier on the valuation roll as owner of said property. There was also a letter from Dr. B. W. Brock, stating he had purchased the property heretofore owned by Miss M. A. McGovern and requesting that he be entered as owner thereof on the valuation roll. A letter was also read on behalf of Mr. Teiford Bannerman to the effect that he had bought Mr. Wm. Wheeler's property in ward 1, and desiring to be placed on the valuation roll as proprietor thereof. Moved by Councillor Smith, seconded by Councillor Dyson that the Secretary be instructed to make the necessary changes in the valuation roll to accord with the requests of Dr. Brock, Mr. Ewing and Mr. Bannerman.

SCHOOL TAXES.
By-Law No. 103 providing for the Municipal School expenses of this Corporation for the year commencing October 1st, 1913, was introduced and read.

FORTUNE TELLER CHARGED WITH THEFT

Alleged That She Touch- ed "Patent" For the Sum of $45.

SEVERAL PARTIES FINED FOR SELLING LIQUOR ON EXHIBITION GROUNDS DURING FAIR WEEK.

A number of cases were dealt with by Judge Mulvena at a sitting of court here.

Charles Albert Bartle, of North Hatley, was arrested on complaint of Dr. Edgar, his employee, for theft of a gold watch of the value of $50, and after a preliminary hearing was committed for trial at the next term of the Court of King's Bench. Subsequently he applied for a speedy trial and pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to four months at hard labor in the common jail.

SENTENCE RESERVED.

In the case of Mrs. Davidson vs. Charles Albert Bartle, for theft of a fishing rod and line from the summer cottage of Frank Wilson at North Hatley, the accused was committed for trial and subsequently asked for a speedy trial and pleaded guilty. Sentence was reserved pending his serving the months on the conviction for stealing a watch from Dr. Edgar.

SIX MONTHS AT HARD LABOR.

Albion Boisvert vs. Francis William Stewart on a charge of stealing a watch from Robert Strapp, of Bury. The accused was remanded to jail till the 6th of September for a preliminary hearing, and on the 6th September the evidence was heard. The accused was committed for trial. He then asked for a speedy trial and pleaded not guilty. After hearing the same evidence, the guilt of the accused being conclusively proven, he was sentenced to six months at hard labor.

AUTO LAMPS WERE UNLIT.

Jas. F. Morkill et al vs. Lee Hyndman for operating a motor car more than one hour after sunset, with lamps unlighted. The accused pleaded guilty and was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs.

GUILTY OF FISHING WITH NETS.

SOLD LIQUOR ON FAIR GROUNDS.

Jas. F. Morkill et al vs. Joseph Poliquin for selling liquor at the Sherbrooke Fair grounds without a license was fined $50 and costs or three months in jail.

SENTENCE WAS SUSPENDED.

William Donahue, of Sherbrooke, arrested on the complaint of Aurelie Rousseau, his wife, on a charge of non-support, pleaded guilty, and on his promise to reform sentence was suspended for one week to allow him an opportunity to make good.

FINED FOR ASSAULT.

Philippe St. Laurent, of Massawippi, for assault and battery on Sanford Edison, of the same place, was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 and costs or thirty days in jail.

FORTUNE TELLER CHARGED WITH THEFT.

Joseph Belanger, of Colebrook, N. H., vs. Elizabeth Ivano, a gypsy fortune teller, for having stolen $45 from the accused, after having told his fortune on the Exhibition grounds, was heard. The evidence was very lengthy and quite contradictory. The accused was finally committed for trial and afterwards asked for a speedy trial and pleaded not guilty. The trial was fixed for Monday and the accused went to jail in the meantime, being unable to secure sufficient bail.

ANOTHER CASE DISMISSED.

In the case of F. O. Chanvrelain, of East Burke, Vt., against Annie Miller, a sister-in-law of the Ivano woman, for having stolen the sum of $30 from him under similar circumstances, was dismissed, the complainant having failed to put in an appearance, having gone home.

MAITRE LABORI IN THE CAPITAL.

Ottawa, Sept. 6.—Maitre Labori, the distinguished French advocate, arrived here at noon yesterday, accompanied by the Hon. C. J. Doherty, and the Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux. M. Labori was met at the station by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. W. J. Gerald, president of the Canadian Club, which he addressed yesterday afternoon at the Chateau Laurier. The Rt. Hon. R. L. Borden was also one of the speakers.

On the subject of his quest in Canada, however, Mr. Jerome was more communicative. "Oh, yes," he drawled, "I think that, sooner or later, you'll find Thaw smuggled comfortably down in that little old boarding house on the Hudson."

Although the principal in the "gambling" case would say nothing of his adventure in Canadian criminal law, Mr. Jacobs, of Montreal, representing the State of New York, expressed his opinion that Jerome's arrest was one of the most disgraceful things that could have happened.

"It is a reflection on the whole Canadian Bar," he stated, "when a visiting attorney, just because he happened to be connected with the side of a case not popular with some people, is treated as neither he nor anyone else would be under other circumstances. It is a case of plain, petty spite, and although the defence also disclaim any connection with the affair, I think it was instigated by someone not entirely unconnected with the Thaw forces."

"I have heard that some action was pending against Mr. Kennedy, too. I think it was all part of some plan to try to make Mr. Jerome unpopular with the people across the line, taken when it was thought Thaw was likely to be deported at once."

"In any event, and for whatever reason, Mr. Jerome's arrest was a very small piece of work, and certainly a disgrace, if anything is, to Canadian justice."

"I am given to understand," was what Mr. Kennedy had to add, "that the crime of which Mr. Jerome is accused is no crime at all. The act, I believe, forbids gambling on trains or on boats, but he is charged only with gambling on railway property."

NO LEGAL CHARGE AGAINST JEROME.

Coticook, Sept. 8.—(Special)—It is understood that Mr. A. C. Hanson, who is acting for the prosecution in the charge of gambling against Jerome, stated today that there was no legal action against Jerome, and that the case would be dismissed when it came before Judge Mulvena this afternoon.

JEROME ARRIVES.

Mr. W. T. Jerome, District Attorney for the State of New York and Mr. Jacobs arrived here by the noon train today to stand his trial on the charge of gambling.

THOMPSON HAS CLEAN RECORD.

"Gentleman Roger" Thompson is not worrying at all about his end of the case. He was at Coticook on Friday and had a talk with Thaw. He returned to Sherbrooke on the train, and went to Montreal in the morning. He has a ticket to Ottawa.

Thompson will return to Sherbrooke when his case is again called this week. He has pretty well established that he is a British subject, having been born in America, but Mr. Robertson, of the Immigration Department, who has been investigating Thompson's record, says: "This fellow has an absolutely clean record. In the whole thirty-four years of his life, which we have gone into thoroughly, we have not found one single thing against him. We interviewed his employers, and they all spoke in the highest terms of him. He is the sole support of a widowed mother, and has always borne an excellent reputation."

Thompson refuses absolutely to discuss his famous trip from Mattawan. "They say we exceeded the speed limit," he remarked to the Record. "We didn't go eighty miles an hour, though," he added, "because the car wouldn't go quite that fast."

When the time comes he will, no doubt, be permitted to stay in Canada if he wishes to.

CALLS SHERBROOKE'S FIVE HUNDRED GREATEST OF JURIES.

The following letter is taken from the Montreal Herald:

To the Editor of the Herald: Sir: A writer in the Montreal Herald of the 26th of August said: Thaw had been tormented to the last point of endurance by the pitiful tales of his wife, of how she had been wronged and was still being persecuted by White. One night Thaw was face to face with that man when he observed him leer at his wife.

In that place, a cafe, where White pointed his finger of scorn and said: "Everybody's leavings," every drop of Thaw's blood was set on fire and what happened was the result of the most unusual circumstances.

We may take it that the protection of one's wife is as sacred to a man as self-protection.

Very severe criticisms upon Thaw have been published. Would the men who have so criticized have done less than Thaw did, under the same provocation, in the same infuriated state of mind that Thaw was?

The cheers of that greatest of juries, 500 citizens in the court room before Judge Globensky and before the representative lawyers of the United States and Canada, was a vindication of Thaw in the punishment he inflicted on the wrecker of womanhood.

Women joined with the men in the cheers. It was their verdict as well as the verdict of the men, that White's use of his money and application of his artistic tastes to the making of snares for the inveiglement of beautiful women were a menace to their sex.

Who are Thaw's critics? Will it be pretended that one or two writers on the press are more just or humane, or that their opinions are as much in the interest of the public as the cheers of the 500 citizens of Sherbrooke, who were in court judging the character and purposes of the men who had come from the United States to take him from Canada, at the first momentary release they expected in the course of legal developments?

Failing before Judge Globensky, Jerome went to Sir Lomer Gouin, of Quebec, the city of menial notoriety in the strangulation of justice, with the result seen in the court at Sherbrooke on the 2nd of September. As Jerome said, Thaw had money. He must therefore be delivered to the United States. The procedure is sinister, and a menace to the liberties of the people, even as the procedure of some unpunished Quebecers have been for years, and no justice done.

JOHN LIVINGSTONE.

567 University street, Montreal.

A CHANGE OF ATTITUDE.

Since it became known that Harry K. Thaw was going to Montreal, the press of that city has been softening up a bit. It would appear that they are preparing to let themselves down easily, in case some sympathetic Montrealer should shout "Good luck, Harry," when the prisoner is taken to the court house in that city.

The following is from one of the Montreal papers which has been attacking Sherbrooke in connection with this case. The paper talks in this altered tone:

"There is one thing that is being a little forgotten in all this business—a thing that has not much to do with the question whether Harry K. Thaw is a desirable or a deportable person. British subjects used to be rather proud of a thing they called the 'right of asylum,' and used to repudiate indignantly the claims of foreigners that men and women whom those foreigners were pursuing should be handed over to their pursuers, after they had once reached British soil. There was no Immigration Inspection in the days when the runaway slaves of the Southern States found themselves free men and women when they had crossed the Canadian border. If there had been, and it had operated as it does now, the chances are that those runaway slaves would have been asked whether they had fifty dollars and were free from disease, and if they hadn't the fifty dollars or had a disease they would have been promptly chucked over the border again into the hands of the bloodhound-aided posse who were pursuing them. . . . Do we want to see our Immigration Department used as an assistant deputy policeman for the State of New York? Do we want to have it laid down as part of the law of this country that no man whom the State of New York, or any other State or country, had declared insane can ever find asylum in Canada? This is the pretension that Harry Thaw is trying out, and he is spending unlimited money to try it.

The avowed refuge has no money to spend, and has to resign himself to whatever the Immigration officials like to do with him. It is notorious that persons accused of non-extraditable offences, or persons against whom no case for an extraditable offence has ever been properly made out in Canada, are constantly being 'railroaded' over the border into the hands of their pursuers in the United States. Usually the result is a South side of justice; but the possibilities for injustice—for what we Canadians might have to consider injustice, having been born in America—viewed for their sense of justice is widely different from ours—are ever-present. Isn't it rather a good thing to have a 'test case' now and again, put up by somebody who can really fight? And isn't it a good thing to be reminded that we used to regard this particular piece of British soil as an asylum for the oppressed?"

MISCELLANEOUS PARAGRAPHS.

Talk about getting on the map! Coticook walked all over it when it looked up in the local dungeon the former District Attorney of New York.

The Montreal papers have enlarged their daily slander column to take in Coticook. And yet the Herald fairly bursts with pride in telling its readers of its big scoop over the Star, beating its rival by fully two hours in announcing that Thaw was coming to Montreal.

There is ample precedent in international matters for the court at Montreal to block the deportation of Thaw. Exactly the same course was taken when the Ellis Island authorities sought to deport Cipriano Castro, and the immigration officials, backed by the authorities at Washington, refused him entry. The courts granted a writ of habeas corpus that upset the action of the American officials, and precisely the same procedure is being followed in the Thaw case.

Thaw offers to put up bail for Jerome. Mr. Jerome has not, up to the hour of going to press, sent in for publication any card of thanks in this connection.

New York Telegraph: "Too much—entirely too much—is being made of the Thaw situation at Sherbrooke, anyway, and it is not only impertinent—it is insolent—for this Government or this State to interfere with orderly processes there. Thaw is an alien in a strange land, and, like any other American, he may invoke his treaty rights; he may employ as many lawyers as he wishes. If this subject, the ends of justice, then our quarrel is with the international convention of comity and not with a human being fighting desperately to keep from being immured for life."

The Immigration Board of inquiry, during their seven hours' cross-examination, were actually if not nominally giving Thaw a sanity test. At its conclusion Inspector Reynolds, of Ottawa, stated to the press, according to report: "He is a wonder, and I would give a house and lot to be able to remember details as he does."

The Board then proceeded to order his deportation on the ground that he had been an inmate of an institution for the insane within five years. This is quite in accordance with the demand made by a Montreal editorial writer, the other day, that swift "cold steel justice" be meted out in this case. That certainly got the "cold steel" end of justice, at least, when his judges, if they believed him sane, in effect, ordered him back to

BROME FAIR OPENS TO-MORROW

Everything Looks Bright For a Successful Exhibition

SUTTON HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY WILL ALSO HOLD SHOW AT THE SAME TIME.

Brome, Sept. 8.—(Special)—The annual fall exhibition under the auspices of the Brome County Agricultural Society, and also the Sutton Horticultural Society, will open here to-morrow. During the past few days the fair grounds have been a scene of bustle, through the exhibitors getting their locations and getting exhibits into shape.

The directors have worked hard during the past few weeks, and with the improved buildings accommodation will be found to be satisfactory to all.

Granted good weather and the fair will be a success from the point of view of attendance, that from the exhibitors' end being already assured. The racing this year promises to be better than ever, the improved track having attracted many new comers.

The management has engaged an efficient police force, so that there will be no unruly visitors allowed on or the grounds, and a sharp watch will be kept for any gambling tricks or confidence men.

the madhouse, through their deportation order.

The Eastern Townships Associated Boards of Trade have been complaining that the Department of Immigration is paying no attention to the Eastern Townships. Their complaint no longer holds, in view of the tall thinking they are now doing in this direction.

Boston Post: "The public should suspend judgment on the question of Mr. Jerome's guilt as a poker player. Hearsay evidence that he lost $5 in a game of penny ante is insufficient to secure a conviction. In court it may turn out that he won $5, or the defense may set up insanity as an excuse. A brainsorter should let Mr. Jerome off just as it did Mr. Thaw, but we doubt if he would be sent to Mattawan. Maybe it was solitaire after all. You can't trust the eyesight of Coticook farmers, who may have been following the three-shell game. The good Noah Webster and his successors are very reticent about poker and dismiss the word in their dictionary with a three-line reading notice. This is disappointing. Probably at some time they sat in a game and lost and had no heart to elucidate facts. The Webster crowd however, say that the etymology of poker is uncertain (so is the game), but observe that it originated in the Southwest about 1835. It has spread since that time, as members of the fourth generation could testify if caught with the goods. National in scope as the game is, it now for the moment has an international interest. We draw the veil here. 'Three cards.'"

Col. A. C. Hanson, one of the joint Crown prosecutors of the district, is reported to have drawn up the complaint against W. T. Jerome at Coticook. The Boston Post published this explanatory statement from Col. Hanson: "We were shocked to see Mr. Jerome playing cards for money in public, and it was our duty to arrest him. Little children saw him and were talking about it. We have never had another arrest of its kind here. If Jerome tries to leave this jurisdiction he will be arrested."

The Immigration authorities still expect to get Thaw deported. Dominion Officer Robertson, in a statement in Montreal, said: "Why, there is only one conclusion to this story. Thaw will be deported. It is true they have succeeded in securing a delay, but that will not make any difference with the ultimate outcome of the case, which means that Thaw will be deported. He will come before the Court of King's Bench on the fifteenth, as that is the day set for his hearing, and then we will get him and there is no doubt about that at all."

Attorney W. K. McKeown, in a statement to the press, severely criticized the Board of Inquiry proceedings. He says: "The Board had previously announced that it would meet at 4 p.m., when its decision would be announced, but the restraining order of prohibition and the habeas corpus writ were served upon them by the Clerk of the Court of Appeals at 3 o'clock. The Board immediately went into session. When I presented myself before the Commission to make formal application for the carrying out of the orders of the court, the chairman of the Board ignored me, and spoke at the same time as I did in rendering his judgment. This high-handed business is the culmination of all the irregularities which have been attempted by the Immigration officials."
