Visiting Pipe Band Tours Quebec

Thursday, July 4th was a real red-letter day for the members of the Chateauguay Valley Highland Pipe Band, when they visited the Parliament buildings in Quebec City as the guests of Mr. Ken Fraser, M.P.P. for Huntingdon County.

After arriving in Quebec, they were shown to the office of Mr. Fraser, where kilts, etc. were donned, and then they assembled in front of the Parliament buildings where a short concert was given, which was much appreciated by the tourists who were waiting to tour the buildings. After this, the band entered the Cafe du Parlement, a beautiful dining room where many of the members of the House were eating, and played for the entertainment of the diners. Mr. Fraser had previously sent a notice to all the members, advising them of the band's presence, and many were quite interested and showed it by a good round of applause. Then, outside again, to play for the public once more, and this time a good many cameras were clicking and whirring.

By this time, it was 2 p.m., and lunch was the order of the day. While eating in the Cafe du Parlement, Mr. Lesage came and met each member of the band, as did Mr. George Kennedy of Chateauguay. The band was dissappointed not to have been able to meet Mr. Johnson, who unfortunately had been taken to hospital the previous day.

A short time was spent viewing the Legislative Assembly in session before it was time to return home, very tired, but very pleased.

The band is most grateful to Mr. Fraser for this visit, and appreciated the fine meal he had served to them.

The band has been asked to play on Monday night, August 19th, at the Grange night at Malone Fair, and are looking forward to this event.

Canada Night At Malone Golf Club To Become Annual Event

Last Wednesday evening in place of the usual Men's Night, the Canadian members of the Malone Golf Club took charge of the program. The Canadians showed their appreciation for the wonderful way they have always been received by their American friends at the Golf Club by holding a draw for a long list of Canadian food received prizes of Canadian cheddar cheese, bacon, maple syrup, pea soup, bread, beer and ale. One lucky member was awarded a pair of dacron and wool pants made from cloth produced in the local Cleyn and Tinker Mill. The dining room was decorated with pictures of Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau, Canadian flags and the food products that were given as prizes. A draw was also made for the flags that decorated the tables.

The idea for Canada Night was conceived by Dr. Ben Cohen, chairman of the Men's Night Committee at the Malone Golf Club, Dr. Cohen assisted Jon Proudfoot who acted as Master of Ceremonies.

In his remarks Mr. Proudfoot pointed out how much the Canadian members of the club appreciated the warm welcome and fellowship that always prevailed when they came to Malone to take part in the activities of the Golf Club and the many friendships that he and the other members had developed over the years. The American members gave a standing ovation to their Canadian members at the close of Mr. Proudfoot's remarks. (As we can see from this report there is not too much wrong with international relations along this part of the border).

The dinner served by the staff of the Malone Golf Club was excellent, pea soup and Johnny cake, roast beef, mashed potatoes, peas and a dessert of cake and maple syrup.

The trophy winners for the evening were Cy Lepine, Dutch Prochel and Barry Delany. Jean Charette and Guy Bourbonnière, visitors from Montreal, received prizes for the evening's event.

Canada Night was a great success. Next year the Canadian members plan to make it bigger and better.

JULY MEETING OF HUNTINGDON W.I.

The July meeting of the Huntingdon W.I. met at the home of Miss Emily Kimball, with the President in the chair. There were 12 members present, who responded to the roll call by naming their favorite tree. The maple seemed to be the most popular. Mrs. Westley was a visitor. Agriculture. Mrs. Reid spoke about the number of weeds, which could be used for greens, also to be very careful when spraying with insecticides. Agriculture is the biggest industry in Canada.

Publicity, some details were given about the Tweedsmuir Competition.

The members are asked to bring folding chairs to the next meeting at Mrs. Leboeuf's cottage at the lake.

The salute to the Flag was given, followed by "O Canada" and "Hymn of all nations.

Miss F. Turner read an amusing story, written by Nellie McClung, about a picnic, which the early settlers in Manitoba, held on July 1st., 1882.

Mrs. Reid had a quiz on the provinces.

The prize was won by Mrs. Westley. Delicious refreshments were served by Miss Kimball, assisted by Mrs. Moore.

NEW HARVESTER FOR PEAS

Something new on the Canadian agricultural scene is the Green Pea combine pictured above. Owned by Green Giant they were recently introduced at the Henderson farm on Route 4 near Howick and six of these 9-ton brutes can harvest 8 acres of peas in 2 hours.

To avoid as much waste as possible five machines are kept busy harvesting while one is being cleaned. This system of rotation is beneficial to the pea farmer who is being paid by the ton of shelled peas.

Cattle farmers might have a few words of a different nature about these machines. The shells, vines and waste left by the old harvesting methods are a very desirable feed for cattle, but after a Green Pea combine has harvested a field the waste is spread over the field and used as fertilizer instead of cattle feed.

It looks as though the cattle farmers will have to do without, as automation in farming methods shows no sign of slowing down.

GOOD USE OF POOL MADE SINCE OPENING A WEEK AGO

The Swimming Pool has been a mecca for the past weeek as people of all ages have been using this for swimming instruction and fun. There has been an average attendance over the past week of about 400 which includes those taking swimming instruction as well as those just using the pool for fun.

The concrete slab for the building has now been laid and the carpenters are on the job erecting the framework of the building. Volunteer help will soon be required for the job of filling in this framework and such other work that can be done. The warm weather has allowed a lot to be done and it is hoped the work will go along well.

Apparently some people raised a question of a sum of money amounting to $500 that had been received from the Town. It should be explained that this is part of a grant made by the Town strictly for mantenance and operation of the pool. As the pool has now to be maintained and is in operation, this was needed to pay for same. It is used for just that purpose and that purpose only.

There are a few who do not want to abide by the rules of conducting the swimming pool. The Committee wishes to inform all using the pool that the rules are made for the benefit of everyone and everyone must abide by them. If they are not lived up and have to be enforced, such persons will be required to obey those in charge, or suffer suspension or whatever other measures are necessary.

Miss Mabel Moffat, R.N.

Ormstown Lady Living Alone Found Dead In Her Apartment

The Late Miss M. Moffat

Ormstown was the scene of a tragic weekend death that cast a shadow of gloom and sadness over a wide area. Miss Mabel Moffat, 51, was found dead on the kitchen floor of her apartment at nine p.m. Sunday. Parts of her night attire were found between where her body lay and her bedroom. She had suffered second degree body burns but Dr. George Lefebvre of Huntingdon, District Coroner, attributed her death to asphyxiation.

It is believed that the victim awoke to find the mattress alight and the room full of smoke and that she collapsed while attempting to reach the kitchen door of her apartment at 17-A Bridge St. As the windows were closed the fire fortunately burned itself out.

On Saturday evening, Miss Moffat had been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dickson. On Sunday, when she failed to contact her friends as arranged, little was thought of the matter until early evening when Mrs. Dickson became concerned as there had been no answer to several attempts to reach her by phone. About nine o'clock, fearing Miss Moffat might have become ill as she had not been feeling well for a few days, Mrs. Dickson phoned Dr. Merrill Stalker and asked him to accompany her and her husband to the apartment. As the doors were locked, it was only after they forced their way in that they made the grim discovery.

Miss Moffat, a Registered Nurse, spent the past twenty-five years in Ormstown with the exception of a year when she nursed at a hospital in Alberta. She was employed at the Ormstown Medical Centre until about a year ago when the dispensary was closed and she transferred to general duty at the Barrie Memorial. She endeared herself to many during her career and it was not at all uncommon to hear youngsters and people of all ages refer to her as "My Nurse".

The deceased was born at Russell, Ontario and graduated from the Russell Continuation School there later training at the Cornwall General Hospital from where she obtained her degree. Her untimely death is keenly felt by a wide circle of friends including members of Ormstown bridge clubs, the curling club etc. as well as the medical and nursing staffs.

Left to mourn her loss are her mother, Mrs. George Moffat of Russell; a brother and sister-in-law also of Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Moffat; a sister Miss Nellie Moffat of Toronto; a brother Stewart of Vancouver and three nieces, all of Russell.

A service was held at the McGerrigle Funeral Home in Ormstown on Monday evening and the funeral service is being held today (Wednesday) at the Russell United Church at 2:30 p.m. Interment will follow in the family plot in Russell.

Dr. Allana Reid-Smith:

REGULATION 1 IS IMPOSSIBLE UNDER GOVERMENT NORMS

For over three years now, teachers have been attending meetings and workshops: principals have been juggling time-tables and even carpenters have been knocking down walls — all in the name of Regulation 1. "Regulation 1" has become almost a byword in the educational field — but a wonderful byword which stood for progress. By it, and through it, boys and girls would be able to proceed at their own pace unhampered by rigid grade systems; they would really learn by doing — not just pay lip service to the activist approach; they would be treated as individuals whose talents and interests could be developed to the full. The intellectual millenium was upon us; then came the blight of "government norms."

The Department of Education laid down the decree that the ratio of pupils to teachers in the elementary school must not be more than 28 to 1. So? — twenty-eight pupils to one teacher — what's wrong with that? Wha's wrong with it is that teachers and administrators are rising in righteous indignation because they are convinced that regulation 1 cannot possibly be implemented with this ratio. No matter which way you slice the cake, you cannot get a good progressive education with this ratio. If you take the ratio literally then you have to eliminate all the specialists, the French specialist, the music, art, home economics and industrial arts specialists who have for so many years played such an important role in the English Protestant schools of the province. If you include the specialsit in your average, then you will end up with classes of thirty-five to forty children in each class — and where is Regulation 1 and individualism then? Either way, implementation of the government norms would put education back at least twenty five years in the English Protestant schools of Quebec.

This whole ploblem was the subject of very serious discussion by the officers of three major organizations involved in English Protestant education — the Provincial Association of Protestant Teachers, the Quebec Association of Protestant Administrators and the Quebec Federation of Home and School Associations. They pointed out that at present several Protestant School Boards are operating at a ratio of 22-25 pupils per teacher and even then the teachers find it difficult to spend the necessary time challenging their students and evaluating progress. The Presidents of the three groups — Dr. Allana Reid-Smith, Mr. Leslie J. B. Clark and Mrs. Dorothy Frankel are unanimous in their opposition to the government imposed norms. They are prepared to accept a maximum class size of 30 if it is necessary in certain subject areas, but claim that a desirable class size for the implementation of Regulation 1 should be no more than 20. Since the whole area of pupil-teacher ratio is being negotiated at present between the teachers and the school boards and government, the three groups felt that it was essential that parents be alerted to the potential threat to education which is carried in the government demands. There was a strong feeling among the three groups that the government was playing a double game — on the one hand, encouraging parents to prepare for the implementation of Regulation 1 and on the other hand, preventing this from happening by their own directives. It was considered obvious that the critical financial situation of Quebec was responsible for this dougle game — but if this is the case, the educators feel that the Department of Education should say so and stop trying to hoodwink the parents with their propaganda on educational reform.

"The teachers are keen and eager to put Regulation 1 into practice. They are convinced that the best education is that tailored to the individual student — but how can you possibly do that with 35-40 children in your class?" said Dr. Smith, President of PAPT. While Mrs. Frankel, President of Quebec Federation of Home and School Associations fumed "The parents must be alerted to this threat to the education of their children." Mr. Clark, President of QAPSA summed it up concisely, "It is the opinion of QAPSA that Regulation 1 and present government directives are completely incompatible."

(Ed. Note) Dr. Allana Reid-Smith is known to many in the Chateauguay Valley area. She is the daughter of the late Dr. Allan S. Reid, formerly of Rockburn, and step-daughter of Mrs. Allan Reid of Huntingdon.

Quebec Ladies Again Invited To Participate in Handicrafts At '68 Provincial Exhibition

Quebec City — Nimble-fingered Quebec ladies will be able to display their talents again this year in the domestic handicrafts competition at the province's annual exhibition. The 57th Exposition Provinciale will be held here from August 29 to September 8.

Prize money totalling $2,000 will be available for a number of competition categories such as dressmaking, weaving and knitting. The items submitted for judging will range from ready-made clothes to Catalogne rugs, as well as book covers, tablecloths and napkins. The contest is divided into two sections, one designed for members of the Cercle des Fermières (ladies farming organization), the other for the general public.

In 1967 more than 1,000 items were submitted by nearly 300 contestants. The vigorous "new look" programme implemented for the 1968 exhibition is expected to increase the number of participants significantly.

The jury will consist of women staff-members from the domestic science school attached to the provincial agriculture department, which, also, will provide some of the prize money. Prize-winners can permit their entries to be displayed in special showcases and sold during the exhibition.

Contest information and entry forms may be obtained by writing to Jacques Lavoie, Secretary, Agriculture Pavilion, Exhibition Grounds, Quebec 3, P.Q. The deadline for aspirants, who must be residents of the Province of Quebec, is Friday, August 9.

Over 300 Enjoyed The Fun At Howick Lawn Social Last Week

Howick Unit B's Lawn Social 1968 held on cold evening July 10 was a great success. About 325 people gathered at Terrace Bank Farm, home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Ness.

A large moon shone above the stage and coloured lights were strung about the grounds. The weather was fair but rather on the cool side and old-timers who had sat through warm and cool socials knew that warm clothing, even winter woolies were a necessary part of one's costume.

The programme was almost 100% a local production and many of the husbands and children of unit B members took part. Isabel Frith one of the members acted as M.C. and her comments and stories added to the evening's fun.

O Canada was followed by the Howick String Ensemble, with seven little violinists playing. They were accompanied by Mr. Ainsworth Johnstone and conducted by Mrs. Johnstone. As usual their skill, poise and beautiful music delighted everyone. The violinists were: Bruce Barr, Melanie Gruer, Carole Ness, Diane Demers, Kenneth McRae, Grant Roy, Brian MacFarlane, all four to seven years of age.

Mario Legault, a four-year-old step-dancer from Montreal was another charmer with clever footwork. Music for this number was provided by the McRae Family.

Mr. Mannagh from Havelock who had played at a United Church Social many years ago paid a return visit this year and his fingers appear to be as agile as before. He was accompanied by Mrs. Crawford.

Cathy and Janice McFarlane, sisters, and Lynn MacFarlane, a cousin made their first appearance before such a large audience, as a singing and guitar playing trio. Not only were they lovely to look at but their music was harmonious and pleasant to the ear.

The next number was a complete change. Mrs. Robert E. (Joan) Ness produced a "Mr. and Mrs." Show, adlibbing and directing operations with the aplomb of a seasoned M. C. Her assistants were Larry and David Ness, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Gruer and Mr. and Mrs. Ken MacDonald's names were drawn to answer questions. All were taken by surprise but the show was fun from beginning to end.

Michael Fingland, one of our promising young vocalists, pleased the crowd with his song. He was accompanied by Florence Crawford.

Intermission was used to crowd around the booths for refreshments which disappeared like magic, especially the hot food and coffee.

The second part of the programme opened with music by the McRae Family. They are favourites on any occasion and played so well we were wondering if they are going extra practise to keep ahead of Ken Jr. who plays in the string ensemble.

The 1967 womanless Fashion Show was repeated by special request and was a highlight of the social. Laughs from beginning to end.

Madame Butterfly (Douglas Templeton) introduced her lovely models, who appeared as the wedding party and guests at the wedding. It is impossible to describe all the costumes but the bride and her attendants were as beautiful as any we have seen.

Leslie Orr, pretilly dressed in a bouffant style gown of yellow organdy with large picture hat and white sandals was priceless as the soprano soloist. No one will dare sing 'I Love You Truly' at a local wedding after this performance.

Willard Greig, all 6 ft + of him, stood out as the elegantly dressed mother of the bride; Peter Miller and Eldon Orr were the gossipy aunts who took note of everything that was happening. All were ushered in by Keith McKell and Andy Tolhurst.

Those who took part were: Douglas Templeton, Keith McKell, Andy Tolhurst, Willard Greig, Eldon Orr, Ivan Knox, Donald Templeton, Peter Miller (guests); Wayne McKell, Murray Templeton, Ralph Templeton (bride), Campbell Gruer, Malcolm Peddie, (bridesmaids) Mark Templeton, Roy Templeton, (attendants) Bobby Tolhurst, Gary Allan (minister) Leslie Orr (soloist (Mrs. R. Stewart was the accompanist for the soloist)

After this fairly lengthy number which left everyone helpless with laughter there was a quieter number when Ken Lamb made his first appearance as an accordionist, accompanied by his wife Evie. We hope to hear him again.

The Kitchenaires playing again, by special request, offered several new selections, including 'Hello Dolly'. All these ladies are members of Unit 3 of Howick United Church U.C.W. They were directed and accompanied by Mrs. Russell Stewart.

Others who helped to make the evening a success were Sybil Gruer (make-up) and Harry and Roy Younie who operated and installed the P.A. system, kindly loaned by Bury McGerrigle.

Net receipts for all their work and fun amounted to more than $300.

The following appears in a column of the Albertan of June 7th, '68 and concerns Prof. A. C. Blackwood, a grandson of Mr. Robert Blackwood of Huntingdon and Mr. William Saunders of Athelstan.

The article has to do with rubbing shoulders with some famous people and goes on thus:

"Then there was Prof. A. C. Blackwood on the faculty of McGill University who curled with the noted Charles Wilson, one of the masterminds of Britain's $7.5 million train robbery. "A plausible fellow he was too...." the former Calgarian told me The Wilsons lived in a nearby neighborhood (35 miles west of Montreal) and you know said Mrs Blackwood, the former Mildred Marsh of Drumheller. "the residents took up a petition requesting Mrs. Wilson be permitted to remain in Canada."

Prof. Blackwood was a Fellow of Canada's most distinguished Learned Society, The Royal Society of Canada, founded in Montreal in 1881 by the Marquis of Lorne who was Governor-General of Canada 1878 — 1883, and later ninth Duke of Argyle.

Ontario's Art Ashbury Wins Title At Valleyfield Regatta

Calm waters and high temperatures helped to push competitors to 10 Canadian records at the 30th annual Valleyfield international boat racing regatta over the week-end.

Five records were broken on each of the two days of week-end competition.

Art Ashbury of Dwight, Ont., Sunday, pushed his craft, Miss Canada, past all opposition to win the Province of Quebec championship and the seven-litre class honors at an average speed of 79.893 for the five-mile course.

About 65,000 spectators saw the fast moving Miss Quebec team fight in vain for the 280 class honor, but go down to defeat at the hands of Andy Miller, of Berlin, N.J.

Marcel Laberge, who was unable to place in the 7 litre race, came back in force in the 266 class section to capture the trophy. He moved his "Fleur de Lys" at an average of 72 m.p.h.

Canadian 266 champion Andre l'Heureux of McMasterville, Que., finished in third spot with his "Canada Maid II". Second position went to Roland Legault's "Gravy II", although Legault earned a spot in Canadian record books with an average speed of 74.689 m.p.h. in trial heats.

OBITUARY

The Late John James Peddie

One of the oldest residents in the Howcik district, John James Peddie, died at his home on Friday, July 5. His funeral service was held at the United Church on Sunday afternoon, July 7, 88 years from the day of his birth, July 7 1880.

John James Peddie was the elder son of the late Archie Peddie and his wife Catherine Currie. His life was spent on the original Peddie homestead but during his years of semi-retirement he lived in another home across the road.

He received his formal education at the little school which stood on the site of the present Howick Elementary School, but like all farmers' sons he was educated from his earliest years in the ways of a farm.

He loved the life and through the years with the help of his wife, Eva Susan Brown, whom he married June 2, 1915, built up a fine dairy business. They had two children, Archie and Margaret. Five grandchildren were his pride and joy.

Mr. Peddie liked people and was interested in all that went on in the community. He was a member of the council for two terms and Mayor for two terms; a charter and life member of Howick Men's Curling Club; was associated with various farm organizations and was a founding member and former elder of Howick United Church.

The Rev. John Anderson conducted the funeral service and spoke of the Holy City as it was seen in a vision by the apostle John. A huge city covering 1500 square miles, with Jasper Walls. He spoke of the three gates in each of the four walls where people from all the world could come from different roads, but all led to the City of God. The minister spoke of Mr. Peddie as a public-spirited man who backed all community affairs which were for the benefit of all.

The choir under the direction of Mrs. Russell Stewart sang beautifully the hymn "Peace, Perfect Peace", a favourite of many of the older people. The congregation joined in the singing of "The Lord is My Shepherd".

The church was crowded with friends and relatives who came to pay their last respects. Many beautiful flowers also testified to the esteem in which Mr. Peddie was held. Interment was at Georgetown Cemetery.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, Eva; Mr. and Mrs. Archie Peddie, Malcolm and Janice; Mr. and Mrs. (Margaret) Donald Chisholm, Dale, Gordon and Donald.

This and That in Town

MALONE FAIR will be a five-day event this year and one of the highlights will be a demolition derby. An advertisement appears elsewhere in this newspaper asking for drivers for the cars to be wrecked in front of the grandstand. This appears to be a good opportunity for some legal 'cowboy' driving and should prove interesting to young fellows on both sides of the border. Off the record, we've heard that a young lady from the 'other side' is filing an application and if she does, a friend not too far from Huntingdon will do likewise. This isn't official and we don't even know if the weaker sex will be considered for the derby by the officials, but.....

ARCHIE (Texaco) Brunette, GEORGE (Surge) Renaud and JAKE (Auctioneer) Higgins are taking off this week for P.E.I. and all points east. To be sure les mesdames are going (Betty, Gladys and Kay) as one remarked, who would do the driving if we didn't?

ALL WE SAY is that there's a real exodus from la belle province during the current Q.L.B. strike.

NINE-YEAR-OLD GERRY DAY of Cutler, Ont. recently caught a muskellonge the hard way: he was sitting on a dock near Peterborough last Wednesday, deep in the personal problem of whether to go swimming or not. As he dangled his bare feet in the water, he'd almost made up his mind to jump in when a six-pound muskie clamped its jaws on Gerry's toes. The startled boy pulled his foot out of the water, reached down and grabbed the 28-in fish and pulled it onto the dock. The fish ended up in the frying pan and Gerry in a doctor's office where three stitches were required to close the wound on his foot.

WHICH REMINDS US: most of us would probably be afraid to swim in good old Lake St. Francis if we could see some of the monsters that inhabit the water. A 30-pound muskie can open its jaws wide enough to encircle a man's head and, before they annually lose their teeth, these babies are real fighters. We've heard tales of hooked muskies ramming headlong into the sides of boats in a desperate effort to free themselves. They look fierce and they are fierce. Somehow we think swimmers are quite safe though: our muskies aren't as cannibalistic as the one that caught young Gerry's foot at Peterborough. Thank heaven.

RIGHT WAY — Mr. Toussaint Beaudoin, a Montreal printer, started his annual vacation on Saturday in the right way. Leaving his Sylvester's Point summer home to go fishing at 9.30, he returned about a half-hour later with a ten-lb. Muskie. "You've got your Muskie for this year, Dad" his son Claude remarked. "That's what you think" the senior Beaudoin replied and headed out again. Once more, within a half-hour, he returned with another beauty, even larger. That's the limit, two per day, so we hereby end the lesson for this hot and humid Sunday but if Toussaint shows us up again before press time we'll add a postscript.

BIG SELLERS — Trailer loads of ski-doos continue to pass through the Trout River port on their way to various U.S. centres, local and down-state. Man, in this weather it's hard to remember the cold nights when we nearly froze our knuckles off riding one of those things around. Funny thing though, with all this hot weather we haven't seen any of those Ski-Doo machines like Ken McNiece had at Ormstown Fair.....you remember, they go like hades on water instead of snow. Seems we remember him promising he'd bring one out some day and let us try it out, too. Lapse of memory there, boy? Jet-engine types, seems they skim through weeds like nobody's business.

TALKING ABOUT WEEDS — People are browned off with the weeds in the lake. Not just Lake St. Francis but Lake St. Louis and all lakes. Dead eels baking in the hot sun aren't relishing either. We know some people who say they plan to build swimming pools in a year or two at their lakeside homes. We know others who threaten to sell their summer homes. What's causing the darn things to grow abnormally fast? The Federal Government is declaring beaches around Ottawa so polluted that they may have to be closed and they are planning to study pollution in that area. The St. Lawrence has been getting worse every year but we don't hear that our government is planning to investigate the cause on the Seaway. Why not? If any Members are desirous of becoming big wheels in the eyes of taxpayers we heartily suggest they move their posteriors and get something done about the St. Lawrence Seaway. Chemicals are available that will kill surface and submersed plant life without being injurious to fish, why not treat the whole river? Our money is being spent hand over fist on a lot of sillier programmes, why not study the feasibility of cleaning up the St. Lawrence? At least a dozen people have asked this summer why we don't complain about the floating weeds and the green slime on the once-clean rocks and lake bottom; well, every year we do try in our feeble manner but every year one big wheel keeps passing the buck to someone else and that's all the satisfaction one derives. Maybe some reader has some ideas about how to overcome this nuisance? If so, please contact us. (Contrary to what Joe Blow is thinking at the moment, the weed problem doesn't affect us, so choke on that).

THE LAUNDROMAT (Dave & Eric sideline) in Ourtown will NOT be closed while Huntingdon Dry Cleaners is shut down for annual vacation, so people can be HALF clean at least.

THE BEAUTIFUL HOME at the corner of Wellington and Dalhousie in Ourtown owned by the late Mrs. Mae O'Connor was sold Monday evening by H. P. (Jake) Higgins, on behalf of the estate, to Mr. Jean Lussier. Ca c'est bon, Jean.

DID YOU KNOW Bob and Margaret Gill and family are moving back to their farm home here? Bob will commute to Ste. Anne de Bellevue where he teaches. Teacher Paul Dobrik who lived in the Gill home for the past couple of years has built his own home on some 40 or 50 acres he purchased from Donald MacGregor on the Boyd Settlement Road.

J. M. (MAC) & MADGE Smellie are enjoying their vacation in the Canadian West; likewise Ken & Jean Ferns, Stan and Ella Ruddock, Russell and Grace McDonald, Arnold and Marjorie Milne and others.

SECTIONS of Cleyn & Tinker Ltd. will be closing down this week-end for annual vacation. We say 'sections' because some divisions of the complex will be running on a 24-hour basis as usual.

ONE-DAY stomach 'flu (or something) is going the rounds since the heat wave settled in. We know some valued readers who stayed out in the sun too long too, don't we, Mary? It's okay for those who tan, but even with old crankcase oil or sure-fire-brown at two bucks an ounce some of us light up like cooked lobsters if we're out in sol's rays for an hour, and we're the types we feel sorry for, aren't we! (Maybe we should run over that again, I'm a little confused myself with all the we-we's).

WE DON'T BLUSH EASILY but a Bouchette St. lady in Ourtown is quite perturbed because we didn't report the following experience (verbatim) last week. Frankly, we weren't overly concerned about our own rosy red cheeks but we did wonder how some of you, dear readers, might react. We became seasoned last week after The Gleaners hit the newstands without the story however, so now we'll try and if some of you more gentle souls would prefer to read another column, we'll never tell. Here goes:

Phone rings. Lady answers. A charming male voice states he is a telephone employee and is looking for trouble on the lines in the neighborhood. Would she be so kind as to go out on her front porch and count the number of wires on the post in front of the house. It would be such a GREAT help to him if she would cooperate. Lady thinks the repairman is so polite and pictures him heroically climbing poles and softly murmurs "Tee hee, I'm only too pleased to help you". Goes outside, gazes skyward and counts. "One, two, three, four, five, and neighbors wonder if she's counting birds or long-departed dear ones up in the clouds visible only to herself. Lady dances merrily back to the phone and reports "five wires". Repairman thanks her profusely for her kindness, help, etc. and then asks if she's ever noticed another pole, right on the corner. "Why yes, I have", answers the lady, 'do you want me to count the wires on it for you?" Brief silence, radio music in the background, may-be a snicker by a third party, then "Go get that pole and shove it up your.....! Golly M'am, we just can't. We just can't finish. Maybe this will do? Please? Pretty please?

FRANKLY FRIENDS, the above is true, every word. Not only that, but almost every afternoon the lady's phone rings and there is either a stony silence or someone keeps repeating "Hello" every time the lady says it. Our advice was to contact The Bell and give them particulars and they'd look after some joker's clock from there on, but the lady just says she'll have her phone removed if the nuisance is continued. May we suggest that if other readers are being tormented that they contact Bell of Canada immediately..... The Bell is equipped to cope with nuts and knows how to crack them.

HAPPY DAYS — Homeowners at the lake are for the most part quite happy that the St. Lawrence Seaway Strike is over. It was really pleasant to see the ships plying the channel again and as one main drag businessman remarked "Bejabbers McGee was really glad to see the lights on those ships passing by". A couple of Valleyfield'ers who work here in the printery didn't express themselves quite the same way when they were late again this morning because the bridge going into the city appears to be up more than down since early Monday.

CANADA NIGHT—Was that Earl Lavoie of the National Army Store in Malone who made that nasty remark to the Master of Ceremonies at Canada Night in Malone last Wednesday? When Safety Sam said he felt he had as many friends in Malone as in Huntingdon, someone blurted out "Do you mean to say that you also have two friends down in Huntingdon"..... One long-time member of the Club was taken with all the nice things said about our American friends, he said "Usually all we get from Canada is criticism and cold weather, this was a nice change".

YIKES, PIRATES! Right on the St. Lawrence, at that. In fact, on Lake St. Louis. It all started with that terrific wind storm on July First that played havoc with roofs, trees and almost anything standing, especially along the north shore of the St. Lawrence. It also caused the 326-foot "The Bulkarier" owned by Canada Cement to break loose from its moorings. The ship, used to transport products manufactured by the company to various ports on the Great Lakes, was anchored at the entrance to the Soulanges Canal near here during the St. Lawrence Seaway strike. One man was supposed to guard the boat, but when the wind hit he was away purchasing food supplies. When the ropes broke, the vessel started drifting towards a number of big ships anchored near Melocheville. A number of Melocheville residents who now refer to themselves as "the soft water pirates" saw the predicament and, visualizing the damage that could be caused, set out in a powerful yacht to overtake the drifting ship. Due to the turbulent water (the St. Lawrence isn't always as peaceful as it looks) and high wind, the party experienced considerable difficulty climbing aboard) but finally succeeded in getting the anchors overboard when the ship was less than one thousand feet from another cargo vessel, "The Lawrence Cliff Dock Hall". The captain of the latter craft congratulated the group for their bravery. Now, according to marine law, Willie and Daniel Arsenault, Henri Haineault, Sylvio Cyr and Paul Roy can rightfully claim ownership of "The Bulkarier" or at least demand compensation for the damage they averted. Accordingly, the next day when the President of Canada Cement attempted to board ship, the group refused. A settlement of $3,000 was offered, but the 'pirates' scoffed at this amount. Risking limb and life in the bounding main is worth more than that, they say.

LAST WEDNESDADY was nomination day in St. Anicet. The two aldermen whose term expired were re-elected by acclamation. They are: Mr. Yvon Latreille, seat No. 4 and Mr. Alcide J. Caza, seat No. 5.

Gremlins In The Machine

Seems a little gremlin got into either the ink or the machine of the last issue. In our report of the Explorer's activities during the past year, the litle number -1- got left off from the number of girls who attended camp this year. With the number 1 missing the impression was given that only 4 (four) girls attended; in fact fourteen (14) girls attended.

Strike 1-2-3- Out!

With the postal strike at hand, every effort has been made this week to have The Gleaners off the press and in hands of subscribers earlier than is the custom. This meant stepping on it a little more than usual, especially since news editor Sidney Smith was not at his desk, the latter part of last week.

Sid appeared seedy after his trip to England last month but we attributed the condition to the fact that most of us find it difficult to get down to business after a few weeks of vacationing; however, last Tuesday morning he arrived late (unusual for him) and after a couple of uncomfortable hours at the office, left early. Next morning we learned he had contracted pneumonia. This in itself might not seem serious, but we since learned that he also had a mild case of the disease while he was in England.

The postal strike and our news editor's illness is causing concern. The Gleaner will continue to be published as usual irregardless of the duration of the strike, but we're earnestly asking the cooperation of our correspondents, representatives and the general public, as well: please submit all news as it happens, don't delay until the first of the week. The Gleaner covers a wide area and when news items don't arrive in this office until Monday afternoon or Tuesday when all machines and employees are working at full speed, some regretfully have to be held over until the following week. We don't like doing this because by then the news is old and who wants stale news? Besides, it only complicates the succeeding week.

While we realize our correspondents and representatives will do everything in their power to cooperate as they understand the problems we sometimes face, we respectfully request all others with news to submit it early.

As mentioned, this newspaper will be published regularly. Local post offices will receive their bundles by car and subscribers should receive their copies in the regular manner, with only bundles going through the Montreal channels being affected. U.S.A. subscribers will receive their Gleaners as usual.

Now about these strikes: don't they grab you where it hurts? We've heard some people say they'd be quite happy if the St. Lawrence Seaway strike kept on for the next ten years. These people either travel over that lift bridge near Valleyfield regularly or they have summer homes on Lake St. Francis or Lake St. Louis and they've never favored the ships that ply the mighty St. Lawrence. Some of them even blame the ships for the increasing pollution of the river and no doubt they're partially right at least. Take the postal strike, too: it will cause serious interruption of communications and if it lasts long enough some businesses will be forced into bankruptcy. The prize of them all, however, is the Quebec Liquor Board strike. We aren't advocating a nation of teetotalers any more than we're condoning alcoholics, but doesn't it seem absurd? Our government advocates free enterprise and then runs the nation's liquor outlets single-handed! Our neighbors south of the border have a much better system; they have about as many liquor retail stores as drug stores, and that's saying something! Add to this the fact that there aren't more alcoholics per capita in New York State than there are in Quebec or Ontario and one could readily deduce that some serious thought should be given to a complete change in the manner of retailing spirits. Oh yes, the big bugbear of course is that sizeable hunk of cash our governments derive every time a sale is rung up. So? Don't think for a second that Uncle Sam's taxes aren't collected too.

In brief, every strike costs the consumer cash, directly or indirectly. The postal strike will cost us money (just see if it doesn't) and in the end the Seaway strike will cost us dough too. The cost of a bottle of cheer will be upped again when the Q.L.B. strike is settled (meanwhile we'd like to own what Quebec is losing hourly with its liquor strike and Ontario is missing with its beer strike). A little hard thought on the part of our representatives at Quebec is certainly acceptable with regard to the Quebec Liquor Board employees' strike. The land of the Stars and Stripes could teach us a few things about retailing liquor and you'd better believe it.

Seems we jumped the tracks when all we started out to ask was the cooperation of our collaborators in getting The Gleaners out early during the postal strike, but that word 'strike' sort of makes us want to do just that and the handiest things to hit were the keys of this old typewriter. If you disagree, drop us a Letter to The Editor; if our ideas concur, write us anyway. If we can start the ball rolling, maybe everyone will benefit. Come to think of it, wouldn't it be something to work in a nice clean store (probably in the very same building that houses our local Q.L.B. outlet) but with the merchandise ON DISPLAY? Man, big bottles, little bottles, round bottles, square bottles, tall bottles, short bottles...and don't think there'd be more boozing it up, the only difference would be free enterprise plus the fact that people would be seeing what they're buying.

"Strike" once conjured up a 'fun' feeling like dive, swim, skate, shoot, etc. It meant a game of scrub over in the field, big-time stuff like Ormstown vs Huntingdon at the Fair Grounds, even a Big League Game a couple of times. Well, "them there days is gone forever". When kids today hear 'strike' they probably wonder if their old man's not going to work the next day. It's a funny world: some who don't work at all get 'pensions'; some who work part of the time get unemployment insurance; some work and get paid and draw unemployment insurance at the same time. Others strike for higher pay and some of the latter would be on dole in a week if they were only paid their true value. Of course, there are exceptions, but by and large there's a heck of a lot of over-estimating one's value. John Q. Public is going to react some day to rising costs and the rules of the old ball game will be revived — Strike One, Two, Three and OUT.

Swimming Pool A Popular Spot

Despite the fact that all the amenities of the Swimming Pool are not in place, swimming during the past week has been allowed. There is no doubt but what it has been welcomed judging by the number present during the opening hours. It is also evident in the large number who have registered during the past week for swimming instruction. This is most encouraging to the members of the Civic Centre Committee who have worked so hard since the latter part of 1966 to secure this pool for the people of the County of Huntingdon. Their work is still not complete and they can not yet sit back and rest on their laurels, so to speak. More money is needed to complete the project and while it had been hoped that some assistance might be forthcoming from the Provincial Government, this still seems as far off as ever.

Meanwhile there are items which have to be paid for and the maintenance of the pool has to be looked after each week. Thus there is every need for generous people to keep up contributions for some time yet. When the time comes the committee will be only too happy to announce that all monies in connection with the original cost of the pool have been received and all that has to be taken care of is maintenance. Memberships, instruction fees, and daily admittances will help to defray such cost. Judging by the good use to which the pool has been put for the past week, such cost should not be too hard to meet. Keep up the good work, give your best support and make this pool the success it was meant to be.

In other words — "Get into the swim of things".

An Inheritance For New Government

Prime Minister Trudeau has been handed a fine bunch of problems to try to unfathom as a start of his new governmental career. The matter of a cabinet seems to have been handled satisfactorily, it will now be a matter of getting this cabinet to work on the many problems that have been shaping up while he was getting elected and while he was readying his government to handle the various matters that will need attention.

A strike has already paralyzed the St. Lawrence Seaway shipping and by Thursday, the country will be in the grip of a postal strike that could have some upsetting results before it is over. While measures are being taken by various companies to ensure their mail getting through, there will be thousands of others whose service in this respect will be unavoidably disrupted and could cause serious loss to businesses relying on mail order trade.

Such systems as Eaton's, Simpson-Sears in particular, who do a tremendous mail order business throughout the length and breadth of this country, could suffer serious losses and complications. There are lesser houses which do mail order business, which are going to suffer losses and tie-ups in numerous directions. Some companies are going to operate pony express systems, but is is hardly possible for such firms to operate in this manner.

Canada has a terrific mail order business of many sorts, just simply firms doing business with their customers and between themselves by using the mails as a means of delivery and pick-up. Some firms have announced arrangements to have their mail sent from points in the U.S. to other countries where their export business is concerned. One firm in this country doing extensive business in England has bought large quantities of English postage stamps and is sending individual parcels by air express in large crates and then mailing at points in Britain. A strike in the postal service will disrupt everything and in a country like this can have a disastrous effect in a few weeks.

Mr. Trudeau seems to have a policy of keeping the Government hands off strikes and letting those concerned do the mediating. If the post office were a private concern, this might well be the way to handle it. However we are faced with a different proposition for this is a government works and government controlled. The final word will have to come from the government before a settlement is reached. We are not prepared to say if the demands of the postal workers at this time are just, or not, but we do feel that anything which disrupts the working of the country should not be treated lightly. It is well that other forms of communications are not under the Post Office as they are in some other countries, or our plight might be even worse. However this form of communications does add considerable to the cost of doing business.

What can the government do in a case like this? Not much perhaps, that could be done in a hurry. It could call Parliament and command the workers back to the job while a solution is worked out and in order that the services not be disrupted in the meantime. This would take some time however and already the country could be in a sort of chaos. The Government could pass an Act and declare all strikes illegal and thus take a means of action from the workers.

We have other strikes for which the Federal Government is not responsible, one of which is the Quebec Liquor Board Strike. While this has nuisance value it does not affect everyone in the same way as the postal strike. It could go along for a long while without bothering too much.

It Has Occurred To Me

The Human Element

When something goes awry in nature, what is the reason? That's right — the human element has once more been careless Man is forever fighting against nature, often unwittingly, in order to better himself (he thinks).

Still, I'll admit that with populations increasing as they are, there is often little choice as far as mechanization of farms and high speed industrialization, but wouldn't you think that man, being clever enough for all this, should have found a method to foresee the dangers inherent in all mass progress and that he could have offset foreseeable after effects as he went along?

Ah, clever man! With all his pesticides to improve the crops of the land he has neglected to reason that the balance of nature cannot be tampered with lightly. We pay by the pollution of our great waterways and the air we breathe. Man with his higher income has also found himself able to build the great society of summer camps, two-car families and all the other "little" luxuries in order to "get away from it all."

But governments have been very lax, hoping that nature would right all in the long run. The blame rests mith Mr. Average Citizen, but the solution lies in the hands of our government, for only they are capable of making and implementing laws for the solution of the problem.

Surely we all see that the advent of air pollution has also spread in a fantastic manner — edging its way from the great southern cities until now it stretches as a pall over all our cities. One sometimes wonders if it was really an advantage to change the electric cable cars of the cities for the great carbon monoxide spewing buses.

Isn't it strange that the more advantages this modern life offers, the more it detracts from the natural balance? The motorcycles and motor boats, and even the wonderful automatic washing machines. Multipy these washers by the amount of water and detergent required to wash each load and spill all that into our great waterways and you can understand what is smothering our fish, drying up our river beds and depositing layers of slime over once sparkling streams and rivers.

Each person thinks only of himself and his own. We don't realize that gradual accumulation is the most insidious of all pollutants.

Look at the garbage of the cities, as witness the great N.Y. city garbage collectors strike. There is no doubt that we know how to manufacture and package things in this modern world in such a way that when four boxes of groceries come in the house, five boxes of garbage go out.

This century should go down as the great age of waste. No doubt some day we will find a solution for the problem, but the time for action is, or should be, now—and it should be stressed at the manufacturing level and at the personal level. Could there not be some means of processing industrial by-products so they can be readily assimilated by nature without harmful residues?

Don't we already see the effects of water pollution in our own great St. Lawrence River? So far the greatest response to all our pleas has been that the matter is "under study."

Incidentally, I had never believed that all those weeds washed ashore along the lakes was caused by seaway traffic, but since the seaway strike we have had several really windy days, and no weeds. Now we shall have the perfect means of testing. Once the boats start moving again and we have a really windy day, camp owners should be out watching for the great islands of torn up weeds coming shoreward. This should be proof positive of some sort. I wouldn't think of wishing that the strike continue for the summer months as the use of this waterway is so vital to our economy but surely if it is proved that the big boats are the reason for the torn up weeds we should then be able to approach the problem from a positive direction.

Now, here's a little something for all those who toss bits of debris from their cars along the highway. Of course you do not mean any harm, and you can't imagine that your little pieces of occasional garbage can make any difference, but think about this: According to a televised program two weeks ago, it cost the tax payers five hundred MILLION dollars per year to clean up litter along the highways of the United States!! Imagine if for one whole year, absolutely no one threw anything onto the highways, there would be all that five hundred million dollars to put somewhere else, or better yet, to leave off your taxes — because surely you know who pays for this. Certainly no one who deliberately throws even a gum wrapper out the car window has the right to complain about high taxes. (What he figures are for litter collecting in Canada, I have no idea, but I should imagine it must have about the same per capita rating.) Remember, "As ye sow, so shall ye reap."

MANY THRILLED AS CANADIAN RECORDS SET AT SEIGNIORY PARK SWIM MEET HERE

The cream of Quebe's age-group swimmers converged on Seigniory Park Country Club in a two-day swimming meeting sponsored by the Canadian Amateur Swimming Association. The Outdoor Provincial Open Championships were held in the year's sunniest and hottest weekend of the year to date, and attracted hundreds of spectators from across the Province. Participating swimming clubs were Le Centre des Loisirs, St. Sacrement: East End Boys and Girls Club: Montreal Amateur Athletic Club; Penguins of Montreal (en ce moment, les Pingouins de Montreal: Pointe Claire Aquatic Club.

Meet Manager John Beveridge of Lachine told the Gleaner last weekend that the avowed purpose of the championships held in Eastern Canada's only Olympic-sized pool was to provide the opportunity for making attempts on Canadian age-group records. Top swimmers at the two-day meet would go on to compete in the Quebec Outdoor Open Championship to be held on 27th and 28th July, also at Seigniory Park. Winners at that meet would go on to compete in the Canadian National Championships in Winnipeg the week of August 12th. The next meeting in Seigniory Park would be open to all comers, and entries were already assured from Quebec, Ontario and the United States. Former Olympic swimming star Mr. Cameron Grant, a familiar figure at Seigniory Park, would share in master of ceremonies duties at the meet.

In the Boys 11 and 12 100 metre backstroke, Jackie Sinnet of Chateauguay Terrace was first at 1 minute 21.1 seconds, a full four seconds ahead of second place. Jackie swimming for the Penguins of Montreal, was also second, by only .8 second, in the Boys 11 and 12 100 metre freestyle.

The weekend meeting was dominated by a three-sister combination from Pointe Claire, Judy-Lynn, Sheree and Jill Prodan. Sheree's victory in the 10 and under 50 metre freestyle was the high point of the meet. In this event she smashed Elaine Tanner's Canadian record by .2 second. Miss Tanner is widely regarded as the top female swimmer in Canada and one of the best in the world. Other results were:—

Boys 10 and under, 50-metre freestyle—1. Lester Jackson, PCAC; 2. Rick Piche PCAC; 3. Paul Midgley, PCAC. Time 33.9.

Girls 10 and under, 50-metre freestyle—1. Sheree Prodan, PCAC; 2. Barger Jeutter, PCAC; 3. Janice Frost, PCAC. Time: 34.3.

Boys 11 - 12, 100 - metre breaststroke—1. Steve LeReverend, PCAC; 2. Gilles Lebuis, Penguins de Montreal; 3. Richard Gosselin, East End Boys Club. Time: 1:26.0.

Girls 11 - 12, 100 - metre breaststroke—1. Danielle Sanregret, Penguins de Montreal; 2 Jill Prodan, PCAC; 3. Ginette Bouchard, Penguins de Montreal. Time: 1.32.0.

Boys 13-14, 200-metre freestyle—1. Mike O'Neil, MAAA; 2. Brad Bradner, PCAC; 3. Doug Farnell, MAAA. Time 2:23.2.

Girls 13-14, 200-metre freestyle—1. Debbie Prince, MAAA; 2. Debbie Hughes, MAAA; 3. Suzanne Gosselin, MAAA. Time: 2:27.8.

BLOOD DONOR CLINIC — GIVE

"Giving blood does not hurt" says Mr. Ronald Ronaldson. And he should know. He has donated 72 pints of blood to the Red Cross. Donations can be made every three months without affecting the health of the donor. The next Red Cross clinic will be held in Chateauguay at Marguerite Bourgeoys School's Gymnasium on July 19th, 1968 from 2.30 p.m. to 5.30 p.m. and from 7 p.m. to 9.30 p.m. The objective has been set at 200 units of blood.

LAST CALL FOR THE BLOOD DONOR CLINIC THIS FRIDAY

Further details of next Friday's Blood Donor Clinic have been released by Chateauguay Committee Chairman, Mrs. Guy Marchand of Youville Boulevard, Chateauguay Centre.

The Red Cross have set a minimum target of 150 donations, which by all rights should be handily met by Greater Chateauguay's near 30,000 population. Hours of the Clinic, to be held in the gymnasiums of the Marguerite Bourgeoy School, 66 Principate Street, Chateauguay Centre, are from 2:30 p.m. to 5.30 p.m. and for the convenience of Montreal commuters, from 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Light refreshments will be served to all donors during the short rest period following the donation.

Assisting Mrs. Marchand in the organization of the clinic are: Mrs. Réne Reid (Telephone Committee): Mrs. Philippe Berthault (Publicity): Misses Hélène Cécyre and Nicole Reid (Reception): Mrs. G. Masse (Transportation) and Mrs. Gerard Laberge (Donations.)

A man, woman or child needs your blood. You can save a life by giving a very small quantity of your blood. It will only take half an hour, including the rest period. In the opinion of Dr. Gilles LaLabarre, Doctor in charge of the clinic, some people feel even better after making a blood donation. The act of giving is so little — the reception can mean so much and can save a life.

OPEN LETTER TO BOARD OF TRANSPORT

Town of Chateauguay,
Chateauguay Station, Que.
July 8, 1968.

The Board of Transport Commissioners,
1050 Dorchester Blvd.

SUBJECT:—
Bus Fares of The Metropolitan Provincial, Inc.

Sirs: I have been instructed by the Municipal Council of the Town of Chateauguay to protest against the increase in bus fares put into effect by the Metropolitan Provincial Ltd., on June 21st, 1968.

As the ratepayers of the Town of Chateauguay consider these fares unjust and unreasonable, and as article no. 19 of the Board of Transport Law states that the Board can, after an investigation on its own initiative or at the request of an interested party modify prices and rates demanded by an owner of a transport service, in a manner which is just and reasonable, it is hereby requested that you consider a less excessive rate for the daily commuters who use the Metropolitan Provincial bus company. Such consideration will be much appreciated.

Thanking you for your kind attention,

I remain,
Yours truly,
Mrs. Gisele Lalumiere,
Assistant Town Clerk.

Chateauguay Little League Inc. CHATTER and RESULTS

Some facts:

Obtained a franchise from Little League Baseball in Williamsport in 1963. Started activities with 4 teams in the Major Division, playing on Mercier Park. The organization has developed steadily, enabling more and more youngsters in the larger Chateauguay area to participate. In 1968, Chateauguay Little League Inc. has three divisions playing on 5 properly equipped baseball fields. These fields are equipped and looked after by the Municipal authorities. The Major Division has 6 teams, The Senior Division 4 teams and the Minor Division 10 teams. Scheduled games are played during the month of July, the last scheduled games determining a league champion team in each division. To extend the period of play, a "round robin" type of schedule will be played during the month of August.

Chateauguay Little League has entered Tournament Teams to take part in Eastern Canada and, if successful, in subsequent tournaments finishing in Williamsport, Pa., this year, for both the Major Division and the Senior Division.

Scheduled games are normally played on Monday through to Thursday evening, starting at 6.30 p.m. These games are played on Mercier Park, St. John Park, Chateauguay Nord Park, Reid Park and Colonia. This year's president is Raymond Leduc. Vice President of the Senior Division is Art Walker, V.P. of the Major Division is Ronald Hastie, and V.P. of the Minor Division is Laurier Auger.

A partial report on the results of this week's games as follows:

Major Division —

Giants 7	—	Astros 6
Braves 18	—	Orials 10
Astros 15	—	Braves 2
Pirates 11	—	Yankees 3

Senior Division —

Dodgers 3	—	Cards 2
Cubs 10	—	Cards 9
Mets 16	—	Dodgers 9
Cubs 9	—	Mets 3

Minor Division

Padres 5	—	Suns 4
Padres 11	—	Suns 6
Maple Leafs 14	—	Bisons 10

Guess the extremely nice weather kept a lot of officials away from home. Next week we should be able to give a more complete report and include the standings to date.

Service Awards

To those people within the Y organization who performed their tasks above and beyond the call of duty, Service awards were accorded the following hard working individuals. Congratulations to: Mr. Guy Barreyre, who, was the campaign chairman of the second annual sustaining membership campaign, and to Mr. Bill Bartlet, who, as vice-chairman, was instrumental in achieveing over half the Y's objective. Wow!

Mr. Colin Keleher, who was director of public relations, and served on many committees related to the success of the membership campaign. Good ideas, good work, and unfortunately goodbye, as Colin is now in sunny California: Mr. Pat Wilkins, who contributed many photos related to activities of the Chateauguay Y.C.M.A.

Last but certainly not least we come to Course Certificates, and recognition of all those who: A) won Yellow Belts for the Judo Course; B) participated in the Art Courses, and had their work shown to the public at the Cultural Centre and C) to all those wonderful teens who asked questions and commented, on the problem of today in the MIND OUT.

To enumerate everyone is next-to-impossible, however we have tried to show some of the co-operation and wonderful benefits of having a branch of the Y.M.C.A. in our community.

Congratulations to all concerned.

K. N. Strike,
Public Relations Director
Chateauguay Y.M.C.A.

MAYORS ON THE SICK LIST

Mayor Richard Sutterlin delighted his many friends by appearing at last Wednesday's Little League Golf Dinner at the Rustik Restaurant. Mr. Sutterlin, still under doctor's orders, will be taking it easy for a while, but will make a start at resuming his Mayoral duties this week.

Mayor Joseph Laberge is still under observation in La Salle General Hospital, where he is expected to undergo surgery this week. All the best Joe, from your well-wishers in Chateauguay.

Says Willing To Discuss Route 3 Right-of-Way

DELISLE RE-ELECTED CAUGHNAWAGA CHIEF

As anticipated, Mr. Andrew Delisle was re-elected last Saturday to a third two-year term as Chief of the Caughnawaga Council. Mr. Delisle's name was proposed by District No. 1's Councillor Ron Kirby and seconded by District No. 2's Councillor Frankie Curotte. Chief Delisle's election was carried by acclamation.

Proposer Ron Kirby was elected the previous week along with Chief Delisle as District No. 1's two representatives. Mr. Curotte headed the poll in District No. 2 by a wide margin.

Interviewed by the Gleaner last week-end following his re-election, Mr. Delisle stated that he was obviously very happy to have been given a further term of office. He said that the Council's programme for the next two years would be decided at a meeting this week of the new Council.

Mr. Delisle, who is also Commissioner of the Indians of Canada Pavilion at Terre des Hommes stated that his Council has no objection to discussing with the appropriate authority the granting by Caughnawaga of a right-of-way for the proposed extension of Route 3 through reservation territory. Mr. Delisle complained that the various news media had mis-represented the Caughnawaga stand on the long-mooted "Chateauguay By-Pass," but exempted the Chateauguay Gleaner from his complaint. "Our problem", said Mr. Delisle, "is largely the lack of communication. We have never been approached by either the federal or provincial Government for a right-of-way for Route 3. All we know is what we have read in the newspapers. Of course we are willing to negotiate on this question. But we must be asked".

Mr. Delisle cited the recent creation by the Provincial Government of a new Bureau of Indian Affairs as Typical of the non-Indians' approach to Indian problems. "We were never consulted," said Mr. Delisle," and this just adds one more office through which we must conduct our affairs."

Asked about the failure of the Seaway Authority to clear up the mess left behind by Seaway construction ten years ago, Mr. Delisle stated that Caughnawaga had no disagreement with the Canadian Government on the problem. "Our argument is with the Seaway Authority, not with Canada" said Chief Delisle.

Rev. Howard C. Fraser To Leave Chateauguay

It was announced last week that Rev. Howard C. Fraser has been called to become the minister of the Lansdowne — Mallorytown pastoral charge in Ontario.

Mr. Fraser has been Minister of St. Andrew's United Church in Chateauguay for the past seven years. A tireless worker for St. Andrew's and in countless other activities in Chateauguay, the departure of Mr. Fraser and his wife and family will be widely regretted. Mr. Fraser's call to the newly amalgamated rural charge near the Thousand Islands will become effective early in October.

A Congregational Meeting of St. Andrew's United will be held next Monday, to appoint a Pastoral Relations Committee.

Rev. Ralph Watson, Secretary of the Montreal Presbytery, has agreed to chair the Congregational meeting and will explain the duties of the Committee.

Fourth Annual Little League Golf Tournament, Chateauguay

Over 200 golfers took to the greens last Wednesday in the fourth annual Chateauguay Little League Golf Tournament at Bellevue Golf Club in Ville de Lery. The weather was well-nigh perfect as sports personalities mingled with golf addicts in the day-long tournament.

On the 72-par course, Fernand Murphy of Ville de Lery won the Low Gross Trophy Perpetual with a very creditable 73. The trophy was presented for annual competition by Mr. Jules Dumouchel, proprietor of the Rustik Restaurant in Chateauguay. Last year's winner of the Perpetual Trophy was this year's winner of the Low Net with a 69 (76.7), turned in by Jean Paul Trottier of Chateauguay. Mr. Trottier won the Little League Trophy for Low Net.

Following the tournament, prizes were awarded at the Golf Dinner in the Rustik Restaurant. So many prizes were awarded that every player was a winner.

The unexpected appearance of Mayor Richard Sutterlin at were awarded the every player was a winner.

the dinner was an added bonus to the nearly 300 guests. Mr. Sutterlin's visit was the more welcome since he had only recently returned home to convalesce following surgery in LaSalle General Hospital.

Others present included Yvon Cournoyer and Jacques Lemaire of the Canadiens, N.H.L. referee Wally Harris, Phil Goyette, New York Rangers, Jimmy Orlando, Bob Trudeau, Bob Bisson, T.V. personality on Channel 10, and Rocky Brisebois, sports columnist and radio personality (C.J.M.S.) and Little League President Ray Leduc.

Marcel Mallette and Alain Seers organized the tournament for Chateauguay Little League. Mr. Seers, nephew of Mr. Jules Dumouchel, is associated with the latter in the operation of the Rustik.

BICYCLE THIEVES APPEAR TO BE ACTIVE IN CHATEAUGUAY

Last week a young lad rode his brand new C.C.M. bike to Gilbert Park at the end of Primeau Street, parked it in the ramp provided and went into the park to have a swing. A short time later he returned only to find his bicycle was no longer there. Thinking someone might have borrowed it he waited for a while, but it never was returned.

His parents checked with the police. It had not been seen but they would keep a sharp look out they promised. They kept their promise. A week later the anxious parents got a call saying the bike had been found in the woods in the rear of west end, minus the wheels, seat, pedals, and handlebars. All that was left was the frame.

Who is to blame? It is hard to believe that there are such people living in our midst who would do such a thing, and yet the fact remains it happened. We have all heard of car thieves who strip cars down and sell the parts, could there be a ring such as this operating in our midst who strip bikes? Let's hope not.

CHATEAUGUAY PADDLERS PLACE THIRD IN REGATTA

The Canoe Club of Chateauguay improved its position in the regatta held last Saturday at Otterburn Park, by placing third to Lachine and Cartierville. For the first time in this year's series of the Eastern Division of the Canadian Canoe Association regattas, a team from Quebec City entered the competition. In the Juvenile C 2 race, Chateauguay's Barry Oliver and Ferenic Somogy emerged as winners, as did Don Moore — Glen Emberly — Barry Oliver — Ferenic Somogo in the Juvenile C4.

These fine performances augur well for the Chateauguay paddlers' future. In years to come the Chateauguay youngsters will certainly make their presence felt in senior events.

Overall results of the meet were: — Lachine, 143 pts; Cartierville, 132 pts; Chateauguay, 70 pts; Carleton Place, 58 pts; Otterburn Park, 57 pts; Quebec City, 49 pts; Grand Trunk (Verdun), 30 pts.

Chateauguay's improved standing at the meet is the more impressive as the competition was, at least in theory, much stiffer than at previous regattas, including the team from Quebec City and newcomers to the circuit, Carleton Place.

EDUCATION IN THE VALLEY

No. IV-8

Provincial-Teacher Negotiations

Quebec's teachers have been offered an extensive new plan for group sickness and accident insurance. The new proposals were presented formally at recent negotiations in Quebec City. To date the teachers have not indicated approval on the major items in the new plan.

The latest Group Insurance proposals of the Board/Government negotiators represents a considerable change in position from the original counter-proposals on this topic.

There is general agreement on two specific provisions of the Group Insurance proposals. The types of coverage will be chosen exclusively by the teachers' unions, and the contributions of the school boards and teachers to the plan will be 50% each.

The teachers' unions claim the right to be the sole selector of the insurance company or companies which underwrite the plan. Quebec's school boards have agreed to this demand but on condition that the selection of the company proceed by public tender and that the unions indicate to the employers their reasons for selecting the successful company.

A second area of disagreement centers about the problem of membership within the Plan. The unions want compulsory membership for all teachers. The school boards prefer the protection of individual teacher freedom but, are prepared to accept automatic membership in any Plan on a limited basis, for example, provision of an "opting out" clause for those who for reason of conscience wish to exclude themselves.

Two major points of contention are financial. The school boards agree that the dividends from the teachers' contribution of 50% be returned to the teachers' unions. They propose that the dividends gained from the 50% contribution of the boards be used for bursaries for further study in accordance with the sabbatical leave plan.

The second financial problem involves contributions. The school boards are prepared to contribute up to a maximum of $35. per year per single teacher and $85. per year per married teacher to the Plan that is accepted. This will mean that the present contribuions of most Protestant boards will double.

On the other hand, the teachers' unions insists that the boards' contributions be $72. and $144. per year per single and married teacher respectively.

To date, the teachers' unions have not indicated their willingness to accept this latest Group Insurance proposal from the Board/Government group.

Director General.

THE WEEK AT SEIGNIORY PARK COUNTRY CLUB

The club was a hive of activity this week as frantic preparations were carried out for the Quebec Junior Swimming Championships which were held on Friday and Saturday. There was a tremendous turn out for the races and standout performances were given by the Prodan sisters, Suzanne Gonelin, Barge Jeuter, Steve LeReverend, Chateauguay's Jackie Sinnett, Milke O'Neill and Michel Gagne.

The swim meet was organized by John Beveridge, the Club's Assistant pool manager and was sponsored entirely by the Community Association of Greater Chateauguay.

The swimming events were broken into two periods to allow members to swim. The events began at 8:30 a.m. and finished at 6:00 p.m. with a three to four hour break for general swimming in between.

The bus service which was instituted to enable members to reach the club premises is now operating on a regular basis but greater use of this is required to allow us to continue to run this service. At present we are subsidizing the transportation but it is hoped that soon it will become self sufficient.

Work is proceeding in an attempt to introduce movies as a regular feature of the entertainment scene at the club but we are having a few problems in locating a screen large enough for the purpose.

A dance was held on Saturday evening with pianist Joe Blanch and a drummer. Approximately forty members showed up and the evening was a roaring success. When Joe plays for us we wind up paying more for piano repairs than we do for the pianist. He is a great performer and those that attended had a wonderful time.

Our next extravaganza will be a gala Caribbean Night with a Trinidad Steel Band. The dance will be held on the patio and pool deck and should be the dance of the season. This dance will be held on Saturday July 20th., at 9:00 p.m. and all members will be admitted free of charge. Members' guests will pay the standard $1.00 entry fee. Next Friday there will be a teen dance with a big name group — probably the 'Haunted' performing for the younger set. The dance will be fully chaperoned by adult club members.

Chateauguay 'Y' Community Awards

One of the most rewarding events of the season occurred at the recent Annual Meeting of the Chateauguay Y.M.C.A. After hearing about the Y's successful year in review, and seeing the Annual Report, the audience at the Georges P. Vanier Cultural Centre heard the names of those people designated as recipients of community, service, and course certificates.

Community Awards

In order to work within any comunity, the community itself contributes to the Y's success. Facilities for meetings, areas set aside for Y activities, and able men contributing time in a specialized field of endeavour. This is what makes the Y work for all of us. To the following people, our hearty congratulations:— Mr. Nick and Frank Vorias, of the Casa Valencia, Mr. Jules Dumouchel of the Rustic Bar-B-Q. Mr. Albert Jean Labreche of the Chat-O-Centre Motel, and Mr. Tom McDade, as the Public Relations Manager of the Y's recent campaign for associate members.

✓ Featured on page 3 of last Tuesday's Montreal Star was Chateauguay's Miss Daria Kiperchuk. Daria, a resident of St. Francis Blvd. was photographed as she fed a six-week-old tiger cub at La Ronde (Man and his World). The tiger-cub is under the special care of Daria. Lucky tiger!!!

✓ Elsewhere in this issue you will find a copy of a letter sent to the Board of Transport Commissioners concerning the recent increase in bus fares. The subject is the topic of conversation all over Chateauguay. We understand the bus company "got around" the necessity of applying for an increase, by merely changing the zones.

✓ Chateauguay Centre has published nine by-laws in this issue and we ask the readers to take note of each one, and the dates and times of Electors meetings.

✓ The Town of Chateauguay sold $478,000. worth of debentures on Tuesday, July 9th at the rate of 91.65, to a Syndicate headed by the Canadian National Bank. Seven firms were represented by the bank. Only one tender was received by the Town, so it looks as if they had to accept, more or less.

✓ The Town has accepted tenders for the installation of a yellow flasher signal to be placed on Salaberry Blvd. between St. Francis and Lang. This spot is the scene of many accidents. The flasher will be installed on the Bell Telephone post. Date of installation not known at the moment of writing.

✓ The Town has granted permission to Robert Morin Marine to install a gas pump for the exclusive use of motor boats.

✓ A fire in a field last Friday morning sent up quite a large pall of smoke over the Heights area, and attracted a few of the curious including this reporter. The Town's fire equipment arrived, but all was under control. The fire was at the top of Dupont Street, and we presume weed control was the purpose.

✓ Normally we do not use the following items in this column but are making an exception this time. The Fred Berrys of Hillsdale Drive (Centre) will celebrate 49 years of wedded bliss on July 23rd, and we would like to offer our hearty congratulations to them. Fred is well known in this area being very active in the Proprietors League and a J.P. We are looking forward to your next anniversary — the 50th.

✓ Mr. Bud Roper, who for several weeks has been writing a series of articles on Chateauguay Property Owners Association affairs, is now a regular Gleaner correspondent covering Colonia News. Nice to have you with us, Bud.

✓ Centre Police told The Gleaner that they had a very quiet week-end just past.

✓ Apologies to Mr. R. D. Mosher for a slight error in last weeks' "Education in the Valley". Instead of Vol. IV - 7 it was printed as No. 6 In this week's issue you will find, Vol IV - 8 concerning Provincial - Teacher Negotiations.

✓ Town Police report seven minor traffic mishaps since the beginning of July. Three of these were in Towers Parking lot, all accidents causing property damage only.

✓ Town Police told The Gleaner that there is another rash of bicycle thievery, mostly all bikes missing from around local swimming pools.

✓ Have you husbands ever been awakened during the night by your wife saying she "heard somebody" prowling inside the — house? Next time don't tell her to go back to sleep but get up and investigate. This actually happened early last Monday morning to residents of Dunver St. Mrs. X awoke her husband around 2 a.m., said she heard someone in the house. Mr. X made the usual reply — "Go back to sleep." However approximately 4:15 to 4:30 a.m. Mr. X awoke to see a stranger — male of the species — just leaving their bedroom. Unfortunately Mr. X was unable to catch the burglar. To the time of writing, it had not been determined what, if anything, had been stolen.

✓ During the night of last Saturday/Sunday the Town Police sergeant on duty at the station saw a moving light at the rear of Centennial Park School in the Terrace. (The side windows of the Police station provide a good view of the school). A police car was sent immediately to investigate. They found two thirteen-year-old boys and one twelve-year-old boy — sneaking a forbidden smoke. Apparently the boys were not actually up to any great harm. They were supposed to be sleeping in a trailer on Melba street, but because of the heat decided to take a walk and have a ciragette on the side.

✓ Two boys, one eight, the other nine years old also took a walk in the middle of the night last week in the Station area. They entered some buses parked near the owners' home and stole keys and fire extinguishers. The following day, the parents took the boys to the police station and handed over the stolen keys. However the fire extinguishers are still missing.

✓ Vandalism continues unabated in the Town, principally in homes under construction. Police are at a loss to explain this destructive practice of presumably young people. The damage seems to be done under the cover of darkness. As mentioned in this column before, the damage done is quite extensive in some cases.

✓ Fourteen-year-old Guy Montambault, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jules Montambault of Salaberry Blvd. was injured last week while trying to anchor his motor boat at the riverside. Apparently Guy slipped and fell into the water and was badly cut by the still-running motor. He was taken by ambulance to Lasalle General Hospital.

✓ Police Chief Paul Meloche of the Town told The Gleaner that last week's convention of Police and Fire Chiefs, held in Chicoutimi provided some very interesting and informative speakers. Two of these were from the Montreal Police Dept., Sgt. Labelle of the Youth Dept. and Sgt. Durocher, who is well known in Chateauguay for his many visits here to speak to both parents and youth on the subject of drugs. Incidentally the weather was very rainy during the convention.

✓ New president of the Province of Quebec Police and Fire Chiefs Association is Police Chief Desrosiers of Rimouski.

✓ Town Police Sgt. Albert Dubuc is at home suffering a broken left arm. The mishap occurred at his home last week. Sincere commiserations Sergeant! I still have twelve more days to go and exit cast! (hopefully).

Colonia News

The Chateauguay Property Owners Association officially welcomed two delightful young ladies from Western Canada to their pool on Saturday, July 13th. The two girls, Miss Joanne Rocan and Miss Claudette Gagnon, were the guests of Ward 8 Alderman Phil Bonneau, and are members of the Girl Guide Association in their home town of St. Boniface, Manitoba.

The girls who attended Man And His World during their stay, departed on Monday for the Lake St. John region to attend the Interprovincial Guide camp along with Diane Bonneau, who was earlier chosen to represent the Chateauguay Rangers at the camp. Marie Bonneau, is currently in western Canada as District representative to the Girl Guides western camping trip, which will enable her to see the Calgary Stampede and enjoy the camping facilities of Banff National Park.

The C.P.O.A. Splash which was held last Saturday evening proved a great success with a large turnout of teenagers enjoying the festivities.

The music of The Tide set the mood for the evening, and the pool which remained open all through the dance and was enjoyed by the boys and girls who conducted themselves in fine fashion and indicated the fact that they appreciate the efforts of the executive on their behalf.

Girls' softball is thriving at Colonia Park. After a one year absence, teams are now playing on Tuesday and Thursday evenings with more persons showing up weekly to assist in the operation of the girls' teams.

The initial effort on behalf of the girls came from Madeline McHenry, Barbara Anderson and Dorothy Roper of the C.P.O.A., and these ladies have since welcomed Lise Lemay, Carla Klol, Mrs. Snow and Jane Herter to the league staff.

Al Albrant of the Terrace Recreation Club, has lent strong support to the league, and in addition has organized a softball system for the boys, although details are sketchy on the boys games at this time.

Through the cooperation of Ron Hastie and the Chateauguay Little League executive, arrangements have been made to supply hats to a large portion of the girls league, and it is indeed a laudable effort on the part of Little League, who play such a large part in the recreational programme in Chateauguay.

Damages to park equipment at Colonia and other parks in the Town are causing headaches to the Sports department and to the Police. It is not feasible to locate a constable at each of the parks in order to prevent the late evening destruction by some of the weaker-minded teen-agers, and it is essential that residents of the areas surrounding the parks and playgrounds take an active part in protecting the equipment that their tax dollars provide.

Any resident who sees these malicious acts being carried out may simply inform the police department and can feel certain that they will not be identified as the one responsible for the action.

The effectiveness of the mosquito spray in the Town should be determined shortly. It is a very necessary service to the community, and had weather conditions been suitable, the process would have been completed earlier in the season. As of now, plans are for a weekly round of spraying throughout the Town of Chateauguay.

310 Seigniory Drive
691-9583

The Faughnans and the Horsburghs met for dinner last Friday in Terre des Hommes' Shillelagh. It transpired that that day was the Glorious Twelfth, or Arangeman's Day. Russ told us that on the twelfth, every good Irish Catholic is supposed to take out a Protestant to dinner, presumably with a dash of proselytism on the menu!

Russ, of course, as an editorial writer accredited to T.D.H., has a large store of information on Expo and Expo's son at his fingertips. He said that a Montreal columnist had recently been complaining at the noise of the helicopters over the islands. Personally, I did not find the noise from the rotors one quarter as infuriating as these Seigniory Park pests, motor cyclists. Certainly as far as decibels are concerned, the helicopter have a long way to go before they will even come close. Of course, I'm not referring to all motor cyclists — only to those who show gross disregard of the public peace and quiet by having no or inadequate silencers attached to their exhausts. Why our police let them get away with it is an eternal mystery to me.

While we were sitting in the Shillelagh, Ken Taylor of Montmorency, off-duty from the Brewers' Pavilion, came up to say bello and unravel a little of the Children-Warning sign puzzle. It appears that Ken, some weeks ago, found the sign lying somewhere in Woodbine Park. Having read in this column that I was agitating for the re-erection of this sign, Ken reckoned that he would help things along by placing the sign in my carport. Incidentally, the sign has since been installed at the corner of Woodbine and Seigniory Drive, for south-bound traffic. As this corner already had a Stop sign, it would have made more sense to have erected the sign south of the park entrance. Certainly there should also be one for North-bound traffic.

Home Owners President Bill Vanderleden tells me that a general meeting of the Association will be held in the near future to elect a new executive for the coming year. Bill says that the present executive have their hands full running the Beach Club and that they cannot do justice to their Home Owner responsibilities at the same time. So it looks as if once again we shall have a brand-new slate for the Home Owners.

Mesdames Elaine Robitaille, Malvina Chart, Lillian Hofstatter and Jane Horsburgh last week attended the organizational meeting of the new Parkview Nursery School. Some weeks ago Mrs. White of Parkview telephoned Mrs. Chart asking for a place next year in Seigniory Park's Nursey School. By that time there were no more vacancies in our school, and Mrs. Chart suggested that Parkview consider forming a new co-operative nursery school. Subsequently a long meeting was held between representatives from Parkview and Mrs. Chart and former Chairman Mrs. Pat Bedard. The new group was put in touch with the Lakeshore Council, and last week's organizational meeting followed as a matter of course. Best of luck to the new school.

Former Seigniory Parker Ken Perry was a guest at last week's golf tournament-dinner organized by the Rustik's Jules Dumouchel on behalf of Chateauguay Little League.

Yet another of Seigniory Park's original maple trees came down last week-end. One of the Horsburgh back garden maples had died and become a potential danger to the house in a thunderstorm. Son Brian climbed up the tree about fifty feet and cut off the top thirty feet. This death-defying manoeuvre attracted the attention and interest of neighbouring loungers to such an extent that I was tempted to charge all viewers 50 cents a-piece plus tax!

May I say a few words of thanks to The War Amputations of Canada Key Tag Service for returning my ring of keys stolen along with my car three weeks ago. The keys are in very good condition, indicating that they were not merely thrown away anywhere by the thieves.

I wonder how many of my devoted readers would be interested to learn that this present column starts the seventh year of "Letter From Seigniory Park." And I have never missed a week yet, though sometimes it came very very close.

Activités de la Pastorale de l'école de Huntingdon

Voici un compte rendu de la "Pastorale de l'Ecole Polyvalente" de Huntingdon. Comme nous l'annoncions antérieurement la Pastorale a visité chaque paroisse regroupée excepté Ste-Agnès dont nous n'avions aucun représentant dans cette paroisse mais à l'automne prochain nous les contacterons et nous serons heureux de les accueillir parmi nous. Les assemblées se sont avérées asez bonnes dans chaque localité, les assistances étaient plus ou moins considérables selon les paroisses mais on peut dire que ça été un succès.

Nous tenons à remercier les Dames Chrétiennes et le Cercle de Fermières qui nous ont si gentiment reçues et aussi nous remercions les jeunes gens qui sont venus à ces assemblées.

Les abbés Wallot et Fafard nous ont presenté un aspect de la Pastorale a savoir l'importance et même le rôle qu'elle aura à jouer auprès d'une école aussi considérable que sera l'école Polyvalente "Arthur Pigeon"

Les problèmes traités à ces réunions furent ceux qui regardent l'aspect humain de l'école, conditions d'une véritable éducation chretienne; respect et essor des personnes individuelles, esprit communautaire, mixte et promotion féminine, la créativité et l'expression chez le jeune, dynamisme de l'enseignement, qualités et responsabilités des différents agents de l'éducation.

Donc voyez-vous parents l'importance de la Pastorale à l'école? sans Pastorale c'est comme un corps sans âme, ce sont les bases de toute une vie, une génération et que sais-je encore. Donc Parents chaine humaine d'amour et tous ensemble formons cette de charité et de cette façon nous les parents nous essaierons de faire comprendre à nos jeunes ce que c'est que la Pastorale, car indubitablement ce sont eux les futurs maillons de cette chaine a perpétuité.

En terminant la Pastorale souhaite à tous et à toutes bonnes vacances et qu'à l'automne nous nous retrouverons tous en forme pour une nouvelle année de vraie Pastorale.

Publiciste de la Pastorale.

Situation de l'emploi

Le bilan de la situation de l'emploi tel que préparé par le Centre de main-d'oeuvre du Canada, pour le mois se terminant le 30 juin, révèle pour le second mois conséeutif, une diminution des chercheurs d'emplois de l'ordre de 10.8%.

En effet au 30 juin 1968, il y avait 2,688 chercheurs d'emplois comparativement à 3029 le mois précédent, ce nombre se repartissait comme suit: 1792 hommes et 896 femmes, et incluait;

— 168 personnes détenaient au emploi, mais ambitionnaient de l'améliorer,

— 11 suivaient des cours de formation professionnelle aux adultes.

L'amélioration de la situation se situe aux secteurs suivants:

—Métiers de la construction: 409 clients au 30 juin 1968 comparativement à 505 au 31 mai 68,

— Services: 297 clients au 30 juin 68 comparativement à 307 au 31 mai 68. Le secteur du travail de bureau et de la vente est demeuré stable: 434 clients, comparé à 430 en mai.

— Le secteur manufacturé comptait 315 clients contre 319 le mois précédent. 145 clients ont trouvé un emploi de par l'entremise du Centre de main-d'oeuvre du Canada soit 43.8% de la diminution de 341 chercheurs d'emplois, constatée pour juin 1968.

Les employeurs de notre région sont donc invités à maintenir la coopération qu'il nous accorde; cet esprit d'équipe avec le Centre de main-d'oeuvre du Canada ne peut être que profitable à l'économie de la région!

Concours d'artisanat domestique à l'exposition provinciale de Québec

Québec, le 8 juillet 1968— Les Québecoises aux doigts de fée pourront, cette année encore, faire valoir leurs dons d'artisanes en participant au concours d'arts domestiques organisé par la direction de la 57ème Exposition Provinciale qui se tiendra à Québec du 29 août au 8 septembre prochain.

Divisé en deux sections, dont l'une s'adresse uniquement aux membres du Cercle de Fermières, les concours offre des prix en argent d'une valeur totale de $2.000. et comporte plusieurs catégories de travaux manuels dont la couture, le tissage et le tricot. Les articles soumis vont depuis des ensembles confectionnés en tissu aux tapis Catalogne en passant par des couvre-livres, nappes et serviettes de table.

En 1967, près de 300 artisanes québecoises avaient fait parvenir plus de 1,000 articles. L'intérêt n'a fait que croitre au cours des années et le visage neuf, en même temps que le programme-choc que promet l'exposition Provinciale pour 1968, devrait augmenter considérablement le nombre de participantes.

Le jury se composera de femmes spécialistes de l'Ecole d'Economie domestique attachée au ministère québecois de l'agriculture et de la colonisation lequel collabore à l'octroi des prix en argent. Les articles sélectionnés pourront, selon le voeu de leurs créatrices, être exposés dans des vitrines spéciales et mis en vente pendant toute la durée de l'Expoition.

Les fées de l'aiguille résidant au Québec peuvent se procurer des formulaires de participation et connaitre tous les détails du concours en écrivant à M. Jacques Lavoie, secrétaire, palais de l'agriculture, Parc de l'Exposition, Québec 3, P.Q. Les formulaires doivent parvenir au secrétariat du concours avant le 9 août, date limite pour les inscriptions.

A hearty welcome to all the folks visiting in our area and especially to two wonderful people I met last week, Mr. and Mrs. John Cox of Giffnoch, Glasgow. Mr. and Mrs. Cox are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. McKendrick of St. Andre St. and they arrived last week and are staying in Chateauguay until Friday of this week. Then they will be off to Edmonton to visit their daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Gunn. They also plan to visit Mrs. Cox's Aunt and Uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Kerr in Red Deer, Alberta whom Mrs. Cox has not seen in 35 years. Following this they plan to visit California before returning home. During their 5½ wk. stay in Canada and the U.S. we sincerely hope they will enjoy every moment of it and have a truly memorable holiday.

Mrs. McKendrick journeyed to Toronto last week to visit her daughter Mrs. R. Gregg and her very first grandchild Robert who was born only last Sunday. Congratulations Mr. and Mrs. Gregg.

Christopher Vierech of St. Andre St. left on July 6th on a Luftansa Chartered Flight for Kassel, W. Germany for a one month's vacation with his Grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Vierech, and Grandma Nitsche.

A belated happy birthday to my son Michael who celebrated his 8th birthday on June 27th. Michael's guests at his party included Mark Hawkhurst, Pedro, Gabriel and Fransisco Castavo.

Any folks visiting at your house? if so do give me a call and will include it in your column. 692-9272.

Perspective: —

New Era For Canadian Politics

by Russ Faughnan

We have all seen another election where the Canadian Public refuse to be fooled. I will no trehash the results except to note my under-estimation of Trudeau Power from Quebec to the west. The overall result and the popular vote were pretty much as expected. I feel that even the Creditiste vote was more anti-National Union.

The point is that the Liberals are in and it's a new game. The old world politics of King, St. Laurent and Dief the Chief are gone. From now on, it's men like our own Ian Watson who will call the tune. In fact, I expect Mr. Watson will have increased responsibility in the new Government. Not at Cabinet level of course but probably close to it. And for the future, he's one of the men to watch.

The Cabinet itself looks very good. Giant Killer Eric Kierans is a worthwhile addition to the group. He does not have the public image of a P.M. but is a top man in the political world of administration that is so needed today.

The appointment of John Turner to the Justice post is another good example of the new breed. Turner takes over from Trudeau himself and will continue to bring to this important portfolio, the young, fresh outlook needed to bring about needed revisions. Turner's campaign manager, 36 year old Ron Basford takes over as Minister of Consumer Affairs.

It should be noted that these and others are not simply young men. They are men of proven ability in administration. Their records are not of old hard line politics (as Trudeau's is not) but rather of vision, of planning and of conviction that reforms are needed and can be made.

We will see many reforms over the next few years. Some we will not like. But most we will agree are long overdue. Changes in the Criminal Code, the Election Act, Parliamentary procedure and even the general operation of Government will be stressed. Amendments to the tax structure should have high priority. This will involve Provincial cooperation but at least Trudeau will now be dealing from strength.

It should be an interesting few years.

St. Andrew's Notes

congregations in the Montreal-Ottawa Conference area are invited to attend a Summer School at Macdoald College, P.Q. The theme of the conference this year is "Rights and Responsibilities". Mrs. Besner, 692-2233, U.C.W. President, has further details.

THE PRO SHOP

The football season is upon us once again with several exhibition games having been played by the time you read this. It has ben said before at this time of year but, off the Red and White game, the Alouettes look like an interesting company. They ran and passed and looked far more experienced than last year. Which is ,of course ,what they are This is especially true of Carol Williams. If he can hold his quarterback spot for the full year, we should see tremendous improvement.

O.K. Dalton looks like the steady type coach who will forego the musical-chairs attitude of his predecessors. If he doesn't he may see the last of the few remaining Alouette supporters. On the other hand, a team with real scoring potential would win the fans if not games.

Tony Golab, the new G.M. sems to be trying to stay out of the limelight. He has done pretty well in the signing dept. except for Al. Ecuyer who has not even reported. It's probably the old bit and he will come around. Phil Brady had a tough break with that shoulder separation in the Red and White game. He did not play well and could use the rest to study the play book.

We noted a few weeks ago that golf great Arnold Palmer was having his troubles. Our opinion was that he was due for a long rest. Now, unfortunately, that seems certain. Arnil's poor play in the U.S. and Canadian Opens was witnessed by millions. This is the man who did for golf what Babe Ruth did for baseball and it is a shame to see him fall apart in public. We hope he takes that year off to divorce himself from his business interests and then comes back to play golf as only he knows how. He owes it to the game and to himself.

Without Arnie, we have too many new names, few of them with color. The Buick Open last week-end proved that it Names like John Stevens, Fred Martin, Rod Funseth and Rod Horn were prominent. Did you ever hear of them? Sure the winner was Tom Weiskoff who has been around for a while but a kid named Milke Hill actuallly lost it on the last hole. Hill turned pro in April.

And one hockey note. Canadian's big Jacques Lemaire had his "day" in Lasalle last week. Civic leaders, big parade and large crowds. Not bad for a rookie

Come To The Fair

Drapeau Says Its Permanent — Belles Youth And Trains

The word is out, loud and clear, Man and His World is here to stay. It's as permanent as Niagara Falls says the man who should know, Jean Drapeau. In fact, it may well become another Honeymoon Haven if the dynamic Mayor has his way. And he usually does.

In any event, we can stop worrying and start enjoying the fair. It's ours to use, ours to build. I feel a bit sorry for those who have not yet taken in the magic of it all, this year. Sure it's not Expo 67. Nothing else is or ever will be. But mark this down. Man and His World is right now more beautiful than Expo. There is not the same excitement, true. Now it's more peaceful, more a place to relax and enjoy. And for those who think they saw it all last year, there is lots that's new. For example:—

Belles of yesterday refers to antique automobiles. It is in the old Great Britain Pavilion and should not be missed. There are dozens of old cars, all restored to perfect condition. Some will bring back fond memories. For our Editor, there is even a convertible or two. The highlight of the exhibit as a reproduction of an old Montreal street. It is very well done, with store fronts, ads and, of course the cars of the times Don't miss

The youh of the world have made an unusual contribution to the Fair. From Youth with Love, opposite Korea on Isle St. Helen, is a collection of paintings by kids from around the world. It is not an art exhibit. The children were asked to draw their impressions of the world around them. Their family, their home and their country. Each piece is identified only by country of origin and age of the artist. From four to fifteen. As the saying goes, they are very interesting. You might be surprised.

The Pavilion of Maine has become Ferrovia, the story of railroads. There are a couple of large exhibits but the main show is taken up with models of trains through the years. This is a great place for kids, and a few fathers with long memories. You may go back to the good old days of railroad modeling (before TV). Frankly, to heck with the kids, it s fun.

As it always is when you . . Come to the Fair.

MARRIED IN ILLINOIS

TANNER - HOLLEY

The chancel of the Wellesley Congregational Church, Wellesley, Mass., was decorated with a large burst of white gladioli, mums, majestic daisies and pompons, with cibotium ferns and candelabra, for the double wedding of the Misses Sharon Lee and Donna Rene Holley, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Holley of Arlington Heights, Ill. Mr. Holley, with a bride on each arm, escorted his daughters down the aisle and gave them in marriage. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. R. Rust, and both couples were blessed by Rev. W. H. Hiland of St. James the Great Church.

Mr. Lorne Richard Tanner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tanner of Willowdale, Ont., took Miss Donna Holley as his bride. Miss Sharon Holley exchanged marriage vows with Mr. John Edward Mango, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Mango of Wallingford, Conn. The sisters served as maid of honour for each other.

Alencon lace trimmed the floor length Empire styled gown of ivory silk organza with a full train worn by Donna Holley. Her full length silk illusion veil was attached to a matching crown and she carried a French swag of white tiara roses, marguerites and ivy.

Identical floor length gowns in lime with turquoise sashes were worn by her bridesmaids, Mrs. Terry Mills, Willowdale, sister of the groom, Mrs. Dennis Boudreau, Framingham, Miss Mary Ellen Provasoli, Marlborough and Miss Cynthia Henmon, Columbia, S.C. Their headpieces were lime green Dior bows and veils and they carried French cascades of pale yellow carnations accented with turquoise marguerites, baby's breath and ivy.

Best man for Mr. Tanner was Mr. George Campbell of Toronto. His ushers were Mr. Donald F. Wagner of Niagara Falls, N.Y., a cousin of the bride, Mr. Terry Mills Willowdale, brotherin-law of the groom and Mr. Gary Thornton-Porcupine, Ontario.

For her daughters' wedding Mrs. Holley chose a celery silk and wool ensemble with flowered hat. Mrs. Tanner chose a green tulle hat with her mint green beaded corded silk dress. Each mother wore a Cymbidium orchid corsage.

Both couples chose a Cape Cod honeymoon. Mrs. Tanner travelled in a yellow linen suit with white accessories and a corsage of white marguerites. Mrs. Tanner was graduated from Wellesley High School in 1965 and Forsyth School of Dental Hygiene in 1967. Mr. Tanner graduated from Northview Collegiate, Willowdale, 1964 and is a member of the Class of 1969 at Northeastern University, in Boston. They are making their home in Brighton, Mass. Mr. Tanner is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Robertson of Riverfield, Quebec.

Girls Lead in 4-H

In his "Chapman's Corner" column in Family Herald Lyman T. Chapman made some interesting comments anent Ormstown Exhibition, itself, and its 4-H Calf Club Show. By the way Lyman, a former Associate Editor of Family Herald, has a farm and a Jersey herd at Hudson, Que.

Quoting part of his observations: "Once again I had the pleasure and privilege of presenting the Family Herald Trophy to the winner of the 4-H Judging Competitions at Ormstown Fair. This year's winner was Lynn Margaret MacFarlane, of Howick, Que. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Brodie MacFarlane, and has been in 4-H work six years, is in grade IX at School and plans to take the Teacher's Course after finishing high school. She also takes music (piano) lessons and plays the guitar.

"One other feature was the success of girls in the judging contests. Last year's winner, Carolyn Templeton, also of Howick was a 4-H exhibitor and won a good share of the prizes and trophies. Two years ago Janet Cavers of Ormstown won the Family Herald Trophy. Her brother, Garth, won it two years before but in recent years the girls have had a corner on the judging competition."

Horse and Pony Show

Lyman Chapman also says, in part: " A recent issue of

BELL LINES

As our new long distance rate reductions went into effect last week, I thought I might use my column this month to explain the various time bands and rates. The reductions are part of our continuing program to provide you with the best possible service at the lowest possible cost. These newest long distance reductions are based on the principle of "The later the hour, the better the bargain". And, for Bell Canada customers making calls between any two points in our Ontario, Quebec, Labrador and Northwest Territories serving area there are real bargains.

Beginning every evening at 6 p.m., in time bands of two hours, rates begin to go down for station-to-station calls. Further reductions are effective at 8 p.m., 10 .pm. and midnight. In fact, our new "After 10" rate for a 10-minute call between any two points in our serving area is generally lower than any calling rate in the world. Our "After Midnight" rate is a real boon for night owls. . .providing the friends that are called are night owls too! If you can make your calls at times when lines have spare capacity, you will benefit from these bargain rates.

From time to time in the past I've reminded you about our Family Calling Time Plan which allows you 10 minutes of conversation for the price of five, 12 minutes for the price of six, and so on. The new low rates apply to this Plan which now takes effect at 10 p.m. instead of 8 p.m., Monday through Saturday, and, of course, all day Sunday.

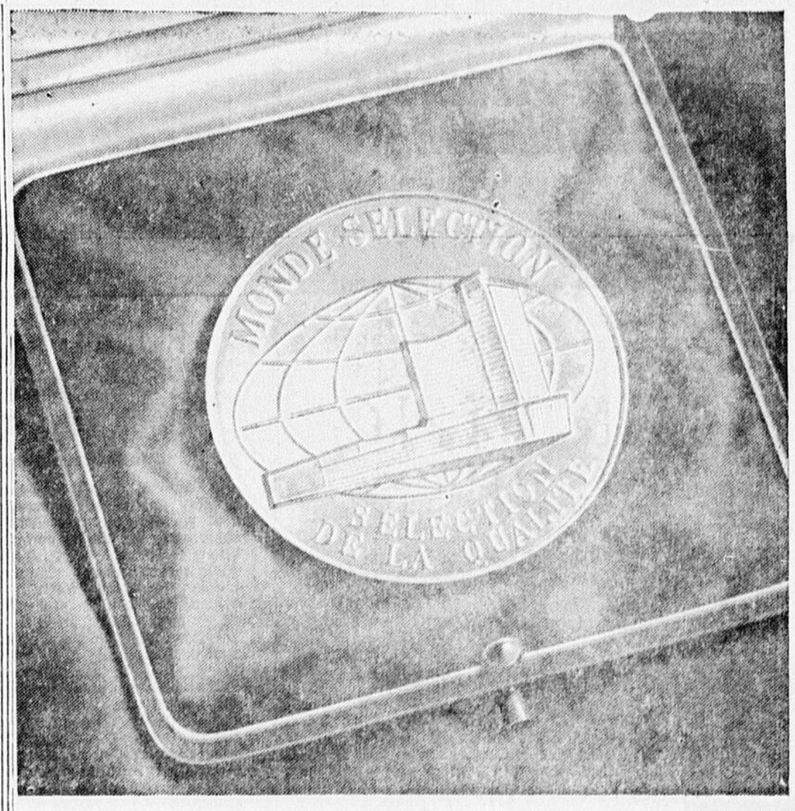

The chart below explains the times when the new long distance bargain rates are effective. Just remember that all rates are quoted for the initial three minutes of a call.

	MON	TUES	WED	THURS	FRI	SAT	SUN
Day Rate (6 AM — 6 PM)	$2.00 OR LESS

the Nova Scotia Farm News (N.S. Department of Agriculture) carried a report on a most unusual 4-H Horse and Pony Club. It is located in Amherst, N.S., and not a single member lives on a farm. It is called the L. G. Best Light Horse and Pony Club. The late Mr. Best, a former Assistant Agricultural Representative in Cumberland County, who had a short meeting with the group one evening, was obliged to leave to keep a previous appointment some miles away and enroute was killed in a car accident. However, it is going forward under the leadership of Garnet Gallant. It is described as A Canadian Horse Show Association authorized Horse Show in the Cumberland County Exhibition Arena at Oxford, on Saturday, July 20.

"It was organized in about 18 months. And for several months the 25 members have been promoting their show in horse circles . . . It is expected that riders from all over the Atlantic Provinces and many from New England will be on hand to compete in the 22 events."

4-H Club Camp

Also says Lyman Chapman in part: "Another unusual 4-H Club has been organized in Cape Breton, N.S. Again we quote from the N.S. Farm News: The 4-H Clubs of Richmond County, with the assistance of their 4-H Leaders Council and led by Mrs. Eva Landry of Samsonville, have bought a 50 acre farm in the beautiful Bras d'Or Lakes. With help from local business firms, parents and private individuals, they are constructing a summer camp for use of 4-H Clubs in area.

Better Pastures

Conditions, including the weather, etc., are, of course different in the Egin, or Morayshire district of the North East of Scotland from what prevail in this part of Canada. However, it may be that some farmers in this area, may be interested in learning about the paddock grazing trials with beef cattle which are being carried out by Eric Anderson, Keam Farm, Hopewell, near Elgin. It is true that the cattle figuring in the said experiments are steers, but grass is grass be it grazed by beef or dairy cattle. The same also as regards nitrates, whatever the Trade Name of the mixture in which it is comprised.

According to Scottish Farmer: In 1915 the pastures at Keam Farm received 60 units N. in 3 cwts (a cwt = 112 lbs.) of a 2: 1: 1: compound (per acre) at the start of the season. That season the same grass was stocked with one and a half yearlings to the acre. In 1966, the manuring rate was raised to 100 units an acre and stocking rate went up to two animals.

Sandy Park

Last year, continues the Keam grazing report, a sandy park (field) of 47 acres was used. There were some fears that the light soil might not cope, but nonetheless a total of 180 units N went on in that season — 6$ units in early March, again at the end of May, and then again in June. Despite relatively dry weather, there was no burning and morning dew satisfactorily dissolved the granules. Grass went well through the year and 100 cattle grazed the park.

Elecric fencing was used to provide a four-paddock shift, cattle staying in each paddock until the grass was well eaten. This year the park will be grazed by 120 six-quarter yearolds again on a four-shift system.

On another area of 25 acres in two fields, 71 are now grazing. These are also grazing on a four-shift basis, on grass which already has had 60 Units N in a 2: 1: 1 compound. After the first grazing it will get either one application of 3 cwt Nitro 26 or two applications each of 2 cwt depending on the weather.

So far this year a total of 191 animals will graze on 72 acres — a rate of a little short of three to the acre.

Satisfactory Progress

The Scottish-Farmer quotes Mr. Anderson as saying, in effect: "Until the past four years our grass management was pretty poor. We grazed only one to the acre previously. Nowadays it is grassland management that is the key to farm policy."

A typical result of the previous system of management was shown in one field where uneaten grass ran away, was thin and spindly and in due course self-seeded to give new growth of poor quality. This often meant that yearlings which should have bloomed on grass and finished by the backend had to be taken inside. So the basic need in ley (pasture) improvement was to nourish the grass and get it cropped.
