Wilder's Patent Salamander Safe.

The only Safes with Wilder's Patent and Rick's

Patent combined.

Great Fire at Edgefield Court House, S.C.
Edgefield Court House, S.C., 2nd Aug, 1852.
Messrs. Stearns & Marvin, accessories to Richmond, No. 146 Water Street, New York:

Gentlemen,—It is with pleasure we have to inform you that the fire which consumed your store, and three others, also the one, we preserved all our books and papers in the goal of your Salamander Safe, purchased from your Agent in Richmond, and which was placed in the middle of built up niche, and the heat was truly terrific.
The crowd present ridiculed the idea of anything standing such a fire, yet we never lost confidence in the safe, and were not disappointed.
In the presence of those who witnessed the fire, the greatest astonishment prevailed when they saw everything inside the Safe perfect, and without the least injury, what arose from the steam
of the Salamander.

We shall call upon you next month to select another Safe, and remain, yours, respectfully, Wm. H. Stearns & Marvin.

The above letter shows that in a real hot fire, RICH'S BANNER BRANDS (Wilders' Patent) are the only Sades to be depended on.

Manufactured by STEARNS & MARVIN, owners of the exclusive right of Wilders' Patent for the States of New Jersey, Maryland, District of Columbia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Tennessee, Ohio and Indiana; and joint proprietors, with Herring, for New York, Texas and California—and sold by
