PEACE,

Set to Music by

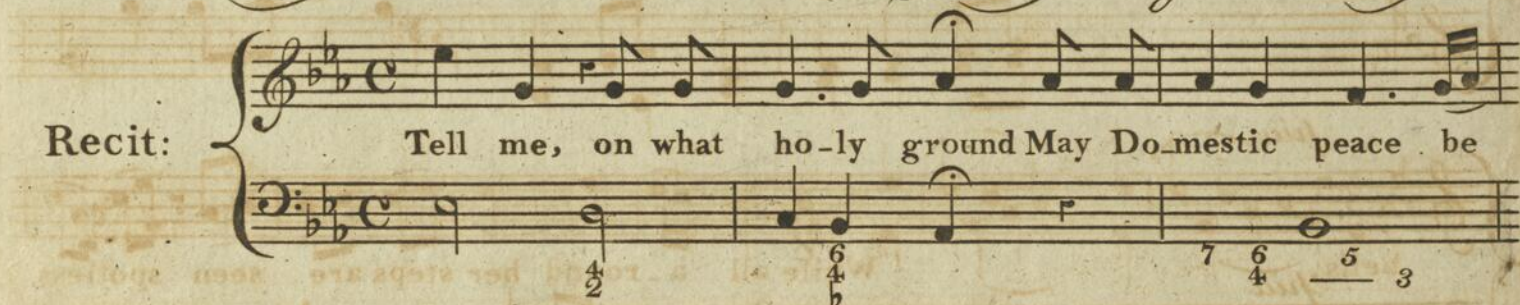

W. Carnaby.

Organist of Huntingdon, Late of His Majesty's Chapel Royal. Pr 7s

London Printed & sold by R. Birchall at his Musical Circulating Library 133. New Bond Street

Recit:

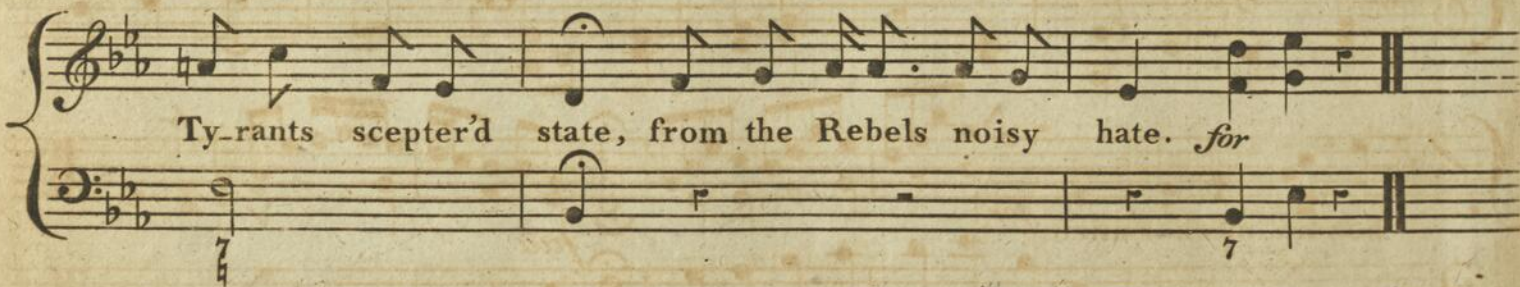

Tell me, on what ho-ly ground May Do-mestic peace be found, Halcyon daughter of the Skies; Far on fearful wing she flies from the Ty-rants scepter'd state, from the Rebels noisy hate. for

Love the Sire of pleasing fears,
Sorrow smiling thro' her tears;
And mindful of the past employ,
Mem'ry; bosom spring of joy.
