Stiff US Note

Protest Castro Charges

HAVANA (AP) — The United States prepared to hand Cuba a stiff protest today against Fidel Castro's speech blaming U.S. officials for the munitions ship explosion in Havana Bay Friday.

Strained American-Cuban relations moved closer to a showdown with the Washington note expected to accuse the bearded premier of deliberately making an irresponsible accusation. U.S. charge d'affaires Daniel M. Bradock was to deliver the American denial of Castro's charge.

Cuban authorities Sunday night freed American photographer Donald Chapman, 26, a passenger on the ship, after holding him two days in connection with the disaster.

Castro had personally interrogated Chapman before making his all-out blast at a mass funeral for victims of the disaster, which he blamed on sabotage.

The free-lance photographer was on the bridge when the French freighter la Coubre blew up, killing 50 to 70 persons. He jumped to safety on the dock after the first explosion.

A Cuban civilian court cleared Chapman of any connection with the explosions in a five-minute hearing after Cuban military intelligence had held him incommunicado.

Cuban newspapers and radio stations kept up their anti-American denunciations. They elaborated on Castro's vague charges of sabotage in trying to pin the blame on the U.S.

Castro had conceded that his charges were based largely on U.S. policy rather than any concrete evidence. He declared American officials had tried to prevent Cuba from getting arms by diplomatic means "and we have a right to believe they could have tried to prevent it by other means."

In Miami, an American carrying Cuban government credentials told The Herald that a Cuban anti-Castro, anti-Communist group plotted the explosion aboard the French freighter.

Then there was a wolf who was so poor that he couldn't afford etchings so he asked the girl friend up to see the handwriting on the wall.

Speaking before the Richelieu Club at the Hotel Sherbrooke, Mr. Bourque declared:

"The only solution that exists for occupying the students during the summer months, and at the same time permitting them to make some money, is seasonal military service."

In his opening remarks, the Finance Minister said he had chosen this opportunity to advance his important suggestion because sessions of various educational advisory groups would resume in the near future and he wished them to have the opportunity of studying his proposal.

He admitted that the benefits he believed would accrue from his plan might be partly offset by inconveniences to some individuals and he hoped the groups would weigh the pros and cons of his plan. The average student reacted well during the school term to the educational opportunities provided for him. Mr. Bourque claimed, but frequently got into trouble during the vacation period.

Provincial governments, municipal corporations and private companies employed hundreds and even thousands of students during the summer months, but they could only provide for a small proportion of those seeking work. As a result, he added, many students, idle and without funds, tended to become discouraged.

"I have long sought to find a means of occupying these young men allowing them to make some money during the vacations. Finally I have come to the belief there is only one solution: Seasonal military service. I have the

Winnie's Watch Is Returned After 62 Years

LONDON (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill is again telling the time by a fine gold pocket watch he gave away 62 years ago.

The watch was originally given him by his father, Lord Randolph Churchill. But in 1896 while a young subaltern in the 4th Hussars, Churchill presented it to his batman, Trooper T. T. Walden. It was put up for auction recently by his widow and father-in-law.

The purchaser, London surveyor Maurice Benjamin, asked Sir Winston if he would like his old watch back as a gift.

Sir Winston said "yes" and now is wearing it.

Reluctant British Mother-To-Be Will Give Baby To US Couple

LUTON, England (AP) — A 39-year-old British mother-to-be prepared Sunday to fly to the United States — to have her baby there and give it to an American couple.

Mrs. Yvonne Moore, wife of a bus driver, said: "I've never even wanted to hold a baby in my arms. I'm giving the baby away simply because I don't want it."

Mrs. Moore said her baby will be born mid-April in North Charleston, S.C., and immediately adopted there by Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Prescott.

Prescott is 37 and his wife 36. They have no children.

The father-to-be, Leo Moore, a 40-year-old former army sergeant, said:

"We decided on adoption as soon as Yvonne knew she was pregnant. The Prescotts have assured us the baby will have a good home and good education and I am pleased it will bring them happiness."

Moore said he has only one worry:

"I only hope the fellows at work will not take it out on me. A lot of them are married and may not understand that after 20 years without children Yvonne and I are settled in our ways."

The Prescotts are paying Mrs. Moore's return air fare and hospital fees and will find her an apartment until the baby is born, the Moores said.

Take Father Into Custody

Plastic Bags Fatal To Three Small Boys

SHAWINIGAN, Que. — (CP) — The father of three small boys found dead Sunday in their home was taken into custody of provincial police Sunday night for questioning.

Claude Nadeau, 6, and his three-year-old twin brothers Michel and Denis apparently were suffocated in plastic bags, police said. A plastic bag was still tied over the head of one of the boys.

Their father, Jacques Nadeau, a 35-year-old pulp mill worker, was found weeping beside the bodies when police responded to a call from a neighbor woman. Doctors and St. John's Ambulance workers tried without success to revive the children.

Mrs. Nadeau, 34, was attending church when the children died.

Police said an inquest has been ordered but no date set. In Quebec no charges are laid in cases of violent death until after the inquest.

Coroner Dr. adjutor Deschamps said he would ask for a mental examination of Mr. Nadeau.

The provincial police homicide squad was called in from Montreal, 75 miles southwest of here.

E. German Recognition Angers Bonn

BONN (Reuters) — West Germany said today it considers Guinea's reported recognition of Communist East Germany as a "very unfriendly act."

The declaration was made by the chief government spokesman, Felix von Eckardt, at a press conference here. The East German news agency ADN reported Saturday that Guinea had recognized East Germany — the first non-Communist country to do so.

Von Eckardt said the West German ambassador in the African state, Dr. Herber Schroeder, is expected to arrive here Tuesday to report on the situation. The cabinet will discuss the issue Wednesday.

A foreign office spokesman said the government has still not been officially informed about Guinea's recognition of East Germany.

MOSCOW (AP) — Moscow got its first real Sunday supplement with Sunday's edition of Izvestia. A 32-page, tabloid-size pictorial magazine called Nedelia (Week), the new publication was mainly done in black and white but had splashes of red. The paper also had something like a comic section for children with cartoons aimed mostly at the United States and West Germany.

Gave Up Political Asylum

LONDON (Reuters) — A former RAF jet pilot admitted giving the Russians a list of United States bases in Britain after going behind the Iron Curtain in 1956, the prosecution reported today at a preliminary hearing.

After his voluntary return here from Russia Dec. 15, the prosecution continued, 25-year-old Anthony Maynard Wright told a British security officer he gave the Russians a list of all the American bases in Britain that he could remember, and described where they were.

The former flying officer, discharged from the air force in December, 1956, when he disappeared and won political asylum from Communist East Germany, allegedly also admitted giving the Russians information about British guided missiles.

Wright appeared at Marylebone court here charged with violating the Official Secrets Act by giving information of possible use to an enemy. The hearing will decide whether the case against him is strong enough to warrant trial in a higher court.

Wright, said the prosecution, went from East Germany to Russia but became disillusioned when refused permission to live in Poland. It added Wright went on strike when his mail and newspapers were stopped after he appeared in a skit about the Soviet leadership.

No one in the other vehicles suffered injuries. All were in satisfactory condition after receiving minor treatment for minor scratches.

The crash on King st. W. provided to be the first fatal accident of 1960, and was one of the most spectacular collisions seen in some time.

Dion, Laflamme and Miss Lemire were heading into the city when they collided with the other car, driven by Rejean Cote, of East Angus. Cote was alone at the moment and suffered only minor shock. He was driven to the Hotel Dieu for examination but was released later the same night.

A Coroner's inquest is to be held at a later date.

Quebec recorded 11 accidental deaths during the weekend, most of any province, and raised the national total to 30.

Seventeen traffic deaths were counted in a Canadian Press survey from 6 p.m. local times Friday to midnight EST Sunday. Of these, six occurred in Quebec, four in a level-crossing crash. Five persons died on Ontario roads, two each in Nova Scotia and British Columbia and one each in Saskatchewan and New Brunswick.

Six persons died in fires—four in Quebec, one in Manitoba and one in British Columbia. Plane crashes took two lives in British Columbia and one in Ontario.

Two persons were asphyxiated in a car in Ontario and a British Columbia man was killed under a car that slipped off a jack.

A young Montreal boy was accidentally strangled with a rope, apparently while playing cowboy. The survey included traffic fatalities and death connected with normal weekend activities.

Quebec fatalities: Michel Quirion, 5, and his brothers Pierre, eight months, Mario, 1, and Philippe, 3, in a fire that destroyed their home in Quebec City Saturday.

Josee Daniel, 5, when her sled was hit by a truck in Granby Saturday.

Show Business

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—It was the final scene of The Redhead Meets the Moustache, filmed last month for release on television April 1.

The studio audience laughed heartily at another hilarious adventure of Lucy and Ricky Ricardo. This time the wacky wife had masqueraded as a chauffeur as she tried to get her husband a TV job.

But there were no smiles from Lucille Ball, Desi Arnaz, Vivian Vance, William Frawley and others who had been making the comedies for nine years. Many were mist-eyed as they realized that the 29th of the I Love Lucy shows would be the last.

The public didn't know that until last week, when Lucille filed suit for a divorce. Even Hollywood got a jolt from the news.

SO MANY REASONS

They had so many reasons to preserve their marriage. They had been married (nine years after a civil ceremony) in the Roman Catholic Church. They had their two children, Lucie and young Desi. They had their acting careers, closely intertwined. They shared a vast financial empire.

The reasons for the break may never be made public. Neither would anything to the growing rumors that preceded the divorce news.

Last fall Desi spent a lot of time abroad while Lucie busied herself with the Desilu Workshop, a training group for young performers.

At Christmas time, Lucie packed up the two children and spent the holidays in Sun Valley with her pal, Ann Southern. Desi was in Palm Springs.

They went about their studio duties with deference and courtesy to each other. That was another tipoff; their previous relations had always been marked by an easy give-and-take.

There were reports that Desi was playing too hard — enjoying too much of the night life he liked so well.

Time to go away—and stay away for as long as we feel like it. That's what retirement holds out for most of us

The big question, of course, is—Will you have the means? In other words, if you keep up your present rate of saving, will you have financial independence on retirement?

If the answer is "no," you might look into the excellent Retirement Savings Plans provided by Canadian Government Annuities.

For example:
Supposing you are a man of 28 and wish to secure an Annuity of $100 per month, commencing at 65 and continuing as long as you live. Your monthly premium would be only $14.90.

And your premiums are deductible for income tax purposes within certain limits.

This is only one example of a government annuity. You can purchase plans that start at 50, 60 and 65. What's more there is no medical examination... and the annuity can't lapse... committee of the local YM will meet Mr. Wilson at St. George's Club for luncheon Tuesday and both YM and YW members will receive the World Service secretary at the evening gathering.

For the past five years Mr. Wilson has served the YWCA of Lahore, first as program secretary and then as general secretary. When he first arrived, Lahore had been hard hit by partition and the Y was struggling hard to survive. Today it is financially stable, with a steadily growing membership and rapidly expanding program.

Mr. Wilson was no stranger to Pakistan when he arrived however, as he had spent almost half his boyhood in Lahore. He was born in Kasauli, India in 1920.

A graduate of Princeton University, his plans for a career in medicine were interrupted by the war and a request that as a pilot he serve as an instructor in Naval Aviation. Later he was assigned to a Navy bombing squadron operating out of Attu in the Aleutian Islands. A forced landing in Siberia in 1944 brought eight months internment in the Soviet Union.

On his return to the States Mr. Wilson married and took up Y work where he was assistant boys' work secretary and later program secretary in centres in New Jersey and New York.

In their tilt last week-end with the Sir George Williams University Georgians, the Bishop's Gaitsers were easily defeated by 64-38, with the Georgians using their second string players for over three quarters of the game. WATERLOO — (Special) — A fire broke out in the office of the Adam Lumber Company on Saturday afternoon at 3.30 p.m.

Passers-by saw flames coming from what was apparently the waste paper basket. While waiting for the fire brigade, spectators smashed the windows which were level with the street and shovelled snow onto the flames, extinguishing them.

Approximately $100 damage was caused.

Importance Of Religion Is Stressed As Education Week Opens In The E.T.

Education Week was officially opened in the city yesterday morning by Archbishop Georges Cabana at a special mass held in St. Michael Basilica.

"Parents, school commissioners, teachers, council representatives for public education and the Church should all work with the students to make a harmonious team," said Mgr. Cabana.

"These people are all in the same boat and should be heading towards the same shore of eternal happiness," he said.

"The aim of Christian education is to ensure that the students will become associated with God. Since the 19th century the Roman Catholic church has claimed the right to be the leading factor in the education of school and university students," Mgr. Cabana said.

"In the second place, the family has priority over the education of their children by nature and by right."

In explaining the role of the government in maintaining a high standard of education under its realm, the Archbishop showed how these members could efficiently work together as a team.

Education week was opened yesterday afternoon in Stanstead by a special church service in the Centenary United Church with members of Sunnyside School taking part. A good attendance of students, parents, teachers and friends were present.

Rev. T. W. Tyson, pastor of Stanstead South church gave the invocation prayer.

Howard Smith, Sunnyside grade XI student led the responsive reading of the Psalm. Tom Tyson, grade XI student, read the lesson from the Book of Proverbs and James Edgar, Grade XI, read the New Testament lesson from St. Luke.

Rev. A. L. Salt, parish priest of Christ Anglican church offered prayers. The school choir of over 70 voices under the direction of Mrs. Ashley Scarth sang the anthem, "Ye Watchers & Ye Heavenly Ones".

WISDOM

Rev. R. Rogers, pastor of Wesley United church, Beebe, gave the sermon choosing his text from Proverbs, "Happy is the man that finds the wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding", emphasizing the need to gain wisdom, knowledge, learning and understanding. He said,

"But wisdom is more than a degree, reverence of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and the greatest wisdom is the Bible. To be able to take our place in society is an important thing."

"The words of the Book of Proverbs are as important today as when they were written. The hope of the world lies in the coming generations," Rev. Rogers said.

The benediction was given by

Rev. Frank Stanton, a retired pastor and teacher.

Miss Elsie McFadden played the organ and accompanied the choir and congregation for the singing of hymns, chosen in keeping with the Education Week theme.

Education Week

This week we examine the very fabric of our lives. For education — the continuing process of assuring that we live useful and productive lives — is all of that. And this is Education Week, March 7 to March 12.

In Sherbrooke, and throughout the Eastern Townships, special programs are being planned to bring the message of Education Week home to parents and to pupils. Each day The Daily Record will carry schedules and news items dealing with these events.

As a further observation of Education Week, special articles, contributed by Eastern Townships students will be published.

The first of these by Miss Sybil Fish of Lennoxville who has attended schools in England, appears today on this page and deals with a comparison of English and Canadian schools.

The first Education Week was held in the 1930's with a goal that remains unchanged to this day — to focus public attention on the various aspects of education.

A comparison of our schools of today with those of the 1930's will give some indication of the success of past Education Weeks. But similarly, a look at predicted school enrolments of the future points up the need for continued and even more spectacular success.

Here is the opinion of Governor-General George Vanier on the vital subject of education:

"Canada's young people are her most precious natural resources. Their development and education are the concern of every citizen."

The Happy Signs

Puddles of water at this time of year are happy signs.

Loosed from winter's ice by the warm March sun, they lie limpid during the day on still snowbound streets and roads, freezing over at night, stretching and oozing again next day, basking in ever-growing depressions under the golden rays.

In many places, puddles are becoming bright little rivulets, running merrily like quicksilver along sidewalks, in gutters, seeking release from the iron grip of winter.

Except when there has been a fresh fall, snowbanks now are sodden and sun-soaked. They shrink rapidly each clear day, aiding small trickles to the melting sounds of March.

Soon, now, in woods and pastures, in city streets and backyards the sound will swell to a lively chorus of gurgling and bubbling — a symphony of escape.

There may be more snowflurries, and even blizzards, but these are but winter's dying gasps.

Out in the sugar bush, the sweet sap is beginning to run, and school children are counting their marbles and alleys and smokies, and looking for stretches of bare sidewalk and ground.

March and its harbinger of spring are here.

They Build Too Well

Apparently the fault of Canadian appliance manufacturers is that they are doing too good a job.

This is the conclusion gained from a survey of housewives in Toronto, Windsor and English Montreal.

It seems that even those owning refrigerators of ten or more years are not very interested in getting new ones.

The facts of the case are that customers are satisfied for too many years and consequently manufacturers are unable to sell new models.

It's obvious that the auto industry, with its built-in obsolescence factor and its aggressive advertising with emphasis on style, could show the appliance industry a few tricks for 20th century survival.

A Case Against The Death Penalty

(A bill seeking abolition of capital punishment is presently before the Government of Canada. Yesterday the rector of St. George's Anglican Church in Lennoxville, Archdeacon T. J. Matthews gave his opinions on this controversial subject in a sermon to his congregation. His views are reproduced in part.)

By Archdeacon T. J. MATTHEWS

In considering Capital Punishment, we must, first of all, try to clarify our thinking on the subject of punishment itself. Why do we punish people?

Is it to deter them from committing more crimes? Is it to deter others? Should punishment be used as a deterrent to crime? Or is punishment a kind of revenge? Society getting even? Or is it a way of protecting convicted men from society? Do we punish men in order to induce in them a sense of shame? What are we trying to do when we punish a man? More particularly, what are we trying to do when we hang a murderer? Should the state take human life?

The first recorded sentence for murder to be found in the Holy Bible, is in the fourth chapter of the Book of Genesis at the fifteenth verse: "And the Lord set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him." This is a good place to begin our consideration of Capital Punishment.

A DETERRENT?

There are those who believe punishment should be given as a deterrent to crime. Public hanging was practiced for this purpose. To be really consistent, supporters of Capital Punishment on these grounds should demand the resumption of public hangings.

But the death penalty does not reduce crimes or murder. On the contrary, when the state sets an example of violence, the people follow. In the 18th Century England, and in the Victorian Era, there were several hangings a week at Tyburn. Bleachers were erected and spectators charged admission; they alternately cheered and cursed the victim as he passed to the gallows. But such spectacles did not deter criminals; indeed, they seem to have stimulated them. When public hangings were abolished in 1868 in England, The Times said: "No longer will thousands of the worst characters in England, abandoned women and brutal men, meet beneath the gallows to pass the time in drinking and buffoonery, ruffianly swagger and obscene jests," words which could as well describe the scene on Calvary.

In the days when men were hung for stealing five shillings, violence, brutality and bloodletting were in fashion. Yet, when a bill was advanced in Parliament for the abolition of Capital Punishment, Lord Elinborough said: "This experiment is pregnant with danger and would lead to degradations to an unlimited extent." An Archbishop and six Bishops voted with the majority that rejected the bill.

PUBLIC MANNERS

It was not the death penalty that reduced crime. Public manners became milder when penalties became milder. People followed the example of the State. In Belgium and Norway, where the death penalty has been abolished since 1863 and 1876 respectively, they have the lowest murder rate in the world; in Belgium, 14 per million of population and in Norway five. In the U.S. where forty-two states impose the death penalty, their rate is fifty eight per million of population.

But even if Capital Punishment did deter others from committing murder, on what moral grounds could the practice of killing one man to prevent another man from committing a similar crime, be condoned? It is contrary to all true concepts of morals and justice, to punish a man for another's uncommitted crime. We may not, therefore, in good conscience inflict punishment for the purpose of deterring crime elsewhere.

It is said, that the fear of death acts as a deterrent to murder. Christopher Fry's, "The Lady is not for Burning" suggests that the contrary is true; that the death penalty, far from being a deterrent, is a challenge. If people were afraid to kill because of the fear of death there would be no wars. Fear of death does not stop men from killing.

The death penalty is startlingly revealed in many articles as an act of revenge. The hangman appears as the personification of Society getting even. But revenge is an unworthy motive for punishment. Indeed, it was to protect Cain from this kind of punishment that the Lord "marked" him: "... the Lord set a mark upon Cain lest any finding him should kill him." Here, in the first murder sentence recorded in the Bible, is a clear indication that, far from inflicting the death penalty, the sentence was designed to save the criminal from the murderous intentions of Society.

It is this very murderous intent that the abolitionist seeks to control. We have seen enough of legalized state murder in Nazi Germany, Russia and elsewhere. We have seen what happens when the doctrine that the State has the right to destroy criminals is carried to its logical conclusion. One of the terrible dangers of society faces in dealing with the crime of murder is the shocking possibility that the entire population may be aroused to similar murderous intentions. Capital Punishment as an act of revenge intensifies the horror of murder; it does not reduce it.

If punishment should not be inflicted as a deterrent, if it may not be considered as an act of revenge, what is its purpose? We have already seen one purpose of punishment: "... the Lord set a mark upon Cain lest anyone finding him should kill him," this purpose of punishment is to prevent anyone else committing a crime against the criminal himself... the crime of Capital Punishment.

The other purpose, as revealed in our text, is to induce a sense of shame. "And the Lord set a mark upon Cain." He is branded as a murderer. He is exhibited as a public example; not himself to be destroyed, but a living example of a shameful violator of the laws of God. He is a marked man, an outcast; not a hero, not a headliner. He becomes an object of shame, a disgrace, a man in need of mercy.

THE OLD TESTAMENT

It is true that elsewhere in the Old Testament the death penalty is recommended. "The murderer shall be put to death" (Numbers 35:16) is one of many similar expressions of the "eye for an eye, tooth for a tooth" philosophy which characterizes much of the history of the old dispensation. But Jesus Christ in the Gospel has superseded that: "It was said unto them of old time." He related, "But I say unto you." Surely there is nothing less in keeping with His example and teaching than the doctrine of Capital Punishment. As for revenge, such a thought is inconceivable in the mind of Christ.

Apart from anything else, for a Christian to use death as a punishment is inconsistent with his profession. Death for a Christian is the gateway to Eternal Life, not a punishment of crime. "The

One of the main differences between English and Canadian Schools that I could not help but notice, was the mixed schools here in Canada. In England, from the age of eleven up, there are separate schools for boys and girls. I also noticed that here in Canada, there seems to be no system for separating those who are slow to learn from those who are smarter. In England, at the age of eleven, both boys and girls take the Eleven Plus examination. Through the results of this examination it is decided which students will go to a Grammar school, and which to a Secondary school.

The Grammar school is a school that provides a higher standard of education; it is in fact the best type of school. Every district has at least two Grammar schools and several Secondary schools. The Grammar provides a preparation for college, with more subjects than the Secondary school. In the Grammar school, three foreign languages can be taken up. Again through a series of examinations it is found which students are best suited to take Latin, German, or Spanish. All students take French and English. I think that it is a great pity that Canadian schools don't have a wider choice of languages available. Many people do not

I agree that South was most unlucky. The play went as follows: West opened and continued a spade which was ruffed in dummy with the five and over-ruffed with the six. East returned a club to West's king and another spade was led, ruffed in dummy with the eight and over-ruffed with the nine. East now played the ace of trumps picking up dummy's king and led another club to West. West cashed two more spades and then gave his partner a club ruff.

However, most of South's bad luck lay in the fact that his side had a 40-point part score. This part score might have been responsible for North's rather weak takeout double. It certainly was responsible for his raise to three diamonds.

With no part score North would certainly have realized that his side wasn't going to make a game and would have passed the two spade bid. East would have passed also and Mr. Smith would have made a nice quiet part score.

Wide Differences Are Noted In English, Canadian Schools

By SYBIL FISH
(Lennoxville High School)

There are many students who may make art or music their career, but how can they when it isn't even taught in schools. The House system is used in most English schools. In Canada it is not so frequently used, and when it is used, it is often not set up in the proper way. It is a good system that can be easily ruined. House meetings should be held regularly. These bring students into closer contact with one another and help to develop true school and house spirit. Houses can be named after colours, famous people or places. The system can be made more interesting when the houses compete not only in sports, but also in drama, speech and singing competitions, as well as in swimming and gymnastic contests.

In discipline too, there is an enormous difference between the schools. I think it would probably do some of the students in Canada good to find out what real English discipline is like. There are many other differences, most of them too numerous to mention but I have told you of a few. There is a great need for ambition and diligence, not only here, but in all Canadian schools.

Canada is a young country, a land of opportunity. She may yet develop a really good school system and be able to better the Russians, I for one, sincerely hope she will.

realize the value of foreign languages. If students have the aptitude, they should be given the chance to learn more. In this type of school, one takes from twelve to fifteen subjects each year, for five to six years.

I think that art and music are seriously lacking in Canadian schools. These subjects are two essentials in English schools. You may think that art and music are two utterly useless subjects. On the contrary, they are very useful. They develop your appreciation for the better things in life.

Harrison Smith of Wilkes-Barre writes: "In spite of the fact that I was the fortunate West I must feel a trifle sympathetic to North and South. South did not really rate losing the first nine tricks at his three diamond contract."

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir,
I am surprised at the reaction which my declaration brought, regarding Canada's Hockey defeat at the Olympic Games, because I never intended to discuss the matter, on the same ground as those who objected to the opinions that I expressed, at the last City Council meeting.

The congratulations which I received concerning my attitude on the matter, compensate far more for the criticisms that I had. I still maintain that Canada's loss was humiliating, considering the potency we have in hockey players and I take this opportunity to congratulate, though I don't agree with all he said, Alderman George Webb of Kingston, Ont. for the courage he had in voicing his opinion, which I am convinced is shared by the great majority of not the "A Smiling Good Sport and the Parlor sportsmen category", but by the true and real lovers of hockey.

(Brandon Daily Sun)

Manitoba trappers are catching more beaver than at any time since the days of the great fur trade.

Hon. C. H. Whitney, minister of mines and natural resources, said recently that last year a near-record of 30,564 beaver were taken from provincial trap lines. At the beginning of the 1930s the catch was only slightly over 5,000 and for several years prior to that there had been practically no beaver trapping at all.

The increase in beaver numbers is the result of a number of factors, including adequate protection, good management, high birth rate and good habitat conditions. But also of considerable importance is the province's program of transplanting beaver from one area to another.

Mr. Whitney said this program is nearing its end but again this coming spring and summer it is expected fairly large numbers of beaver will be transplanted from southern areas into the Waterhen, and Lake Winnipegosis districts. Last year between 40 and 50 beaver were live-trapped and taken, sometimes by air, to these areas.

Trapping is forbidden in these districts until the beaver have become firmly settled. Once the colonies have expanded and reproduction is good a limited season is allowed.

In 1940 the Whiteshell area had only three or four colonies of beaver. A transplanting and protection program was started with the result that beaver populations rose and trappers are now taking more than 1,000 pelts a year from the Whiteshell without endangering the stock population.

In the north, beaver transplanting took on an added form. Beaver were taken into new areas and once they were established some of them were caught again and taken to another nearby area.

There are now few areas in Manitoba where beaver can prosper that do not have a beaver population. What few needy areas remain are small and will likely be filled during the next few years. The bulk of the beaver being transplanted now are nuisance beaver taken in southern areas where their dam-building habits have resulted in flooded pastures, crop lands, and ditches, and where they are found to be destroying necessary stands of bush and trees. These are live-trapped by supervision and trucked or flown into the new areas.

A close watch is kept on the beaver by conservation officers to make sure that they are surviving and that poachers do not take them. The province's trappers, realizing the importance of a good stock population of beaver, are also concerned that poachers stay away.

Personally I was a participant, active in different sports namely: baseball, softball, bowling, hockey, etc. I always gave the best of myself and always congratulated my opponents. I always had the greatest respect for them, whether I won or lost and on the teams that I played, I have never met a board of directors who did not take the means to sign the best players, in order not only to take part in the game but also to win it.

I do think that, the writer of the editorial on hockey in the Record, should be the one to be ashamed of his "naivete," when he tries to make people believe, that the athletes who participated in the last Olympic Games, did so only "for the fun of it". I very well know, that we can't win all the time, but at least everything should be done to do so.

I agree with Mr. Crochetiere, on many points he outlined in his open letter, but I don't when he insinuates that the City Council is hardly doing anything for the youngsters in Sherbrooke. I would advise my friend Henry to take a stroll in the City Parks, whether in winter or in summer and I am sure he will find otherwise. I seldom missed in the past, the Minor Hockey Night, but this year something unexpected prevented me at the last minute to attend, but that does not mean that I am not interested in youngsters, and that I am not ready to help the ones who look after them. I am convinced, that my record in sports compares favorably, in many ways, with Mr. Crochetiere's or anyone's connected with Minor Hockey Night.

Now referring to "A Smiling Good Sport" who mixes politics with sport, and reading his poor comments namely: The Province of Quebec had a great big Zero, Our Great Province, Our Great Big Winter, and furthermore outlining the fact, that two players from this province, almost caused us to lose that game against Russia. Well it shows without doubt "A Smiling Good Sport" how narrow-minded he is and the kind of mentality he has. Luckily Sherbrooke including the West Ward, where I was born and lived all my life, was not built by people like you.

I would advise "A Smiling Good Sport" to keep smiling but have next time, the decency and the courage to sign his letter to the Editor, with his real name, so that he will find out his friends and other people will ask him more questions, but not all of them to his liking. Then he will really FEEL HUMILIATED.

In concluding Mr. Editor, I sincerely hope for a better representation of Canada's Hockey Team at the next Olympic Games.

Yours truly,
Antonio Pinard

Never A Dull Moment In L.H.S. Production

Grandpa's Twin Sister is the name of the comedy that has been sending Lennoxville High students involved in its production, into gales of laughter each rehearsal.

The Lennoxville High School Dramatics Society will present it this Friday and Saturday in the high school gymnasium starting at 8.15 p.m.

If ridiculous situations and confusing disguises are your meat, you'll enjoy this rollicking, three-act play by Jean Provençe.

Grandpa enjoys poor health and the thrill of ordering people about—especially at medicine time—but he worries over how to escape the persistent efforts of the Widow Williams to catch him as her fourth husband.

Living with Grandpa are Clara and her henpecked husband, who cannot even call his own tongue and words his own, who want him to let Edgar act as his guardian—in charge of his money, of course.

Then, there is Louise, his grandniece, who wants his money, too, and prospective bridegroom, Henry Collins, who wants Louise only if she has the definite prospects of being an heiress.

There is Betty, his granddaughter, who wants young Doctor Wyatt to stop considering her a child and to pay some attention to her for herself alone. And the cook, Maggie, who wants a husband and is willing to pay a mail-order matrimonial bureau ten dollars for a suitable prospect.

Grandpa handles them all by yelling at the top of his voice until the Widow becomes too, too determined to pop the question. He then appeals to Betty for help. Between them they decide that Grandpa shall masquerade as his own twin sister—who really doesn't exist—and the troubles start.

There are further complications before it all gets straightened out and situations that will keep an audience laughing from beginning to end.

PISA, Italy (AP)—Would you like to make a small fortune, and at the same time become an honorary citizen of this ancient city?

All you have to do is come up with a workable plan for stopping the decline and fall of the leaning tower.

It won't be easy. Experts have been working away at it ever since the tower started to tilt seven centuries ago. In all that time only a few ideas have been taken seriously.

Italy's government Commission of Vigilance for the Stability of the Bell Tower of Pisa fears the problem is becoming acute.

Every June the commission measures the tilt of the 179-foot tower. Since it was built in 1174 it has tipped 15 feet out of line. The ground beneath the foundation was weaker on one side than on the other, and slowly sank.

In recent years the tilt has been increasing by about one millimetre (.039 of an inch) annually. Last year the slant increased 1 1/2 millimetres.

Most pessimistic forecasts are that the tower may topple within 100 years.

Cement was injected under the weak side of the tower years ago. It helped, but didn't stop the ever-increasing lean.

The mayor of Pisa and the city's commission for safeguarding the tower have promised large financial awards and honorary citizenship to anyone who can come up with a better idea.

The most popular suggestion so far has come from an Italian school girl. It was this:

Just dig out some of the sandy soil underneath the other side of the tower, and it will settle back until it's straight.

Bedford Forum Hears Talk On African Farmers

BEDFORD — On Monday evening, Fourth Night for Farm Forms a well-attended meeting with representatives from neighboring Farm Forums, Stanbridge Ridge, Stanbridge East and Fordyce, was held in the United Church Hall. Mr. William Taylor chaired the meeting.

The guest speaker, Miss Frances Walbridge of Mystic, who is on furlough from missionary work in Angola, East Africa, was introduced by Mr. Neil Creller. Miss Walbridge who is a very pleasing speaker, fully justified her reputation and gave an address, which was both informative and factual.

Much was added to the talk with the excellent colored slides, which gave a vivid picture of the country and inhabitants. During the past years, great strides have been made in agriculture, of which there are three kinds, small acreages, farmed by the women of the family, usually with primitive tools, larger farms of the Portuguese settlers and third, the large plantations of the wealthy landowners. Coffee is the chief export. Progress in farming is due to the agricultural experts who visit the farms and give advice regarding the best method of work, and the best crops to plant.

Miss Walbridge said that practically the same products are raised in Angola as in Canada. Thanks to experimentation, the raising of citrus fruits has proved most successful.

One of the first things that the missionaries must learn, is to accommodate themselves to the natives rate of progress, as it is impossible to rush them.

Miss Walbridge is returning to Angola in April, and the wishes of all her friends is for another successful five years. Mr. Rousseau thanked Miss Walbridge, and spoke of his work as agronomist for Missisquoi County.

TRENHOLM —

Mr. W. Knowles is improving after falling on the ice, injuring his shoulder and face. Mr. and Mrs. R. Dewar, Brent and Craig, of Lennoxville, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mastine.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wintle entertained friends from Richmond at a card party recently.

Mrs. Gordon Patrick has returned home from the Sherbrooke Hospital, where she was a patient for four weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stevens, and Mr. Weldon Stevens of Montreal, were guests of Mr. Russell Stevens for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Blanchette, of Richmond, visited Mr. and Mrs. Bryson Reid.

Margaret's Fiance Is 30

LONDON (AP)—Antony Armstrong-Jones, the man Princess Margaret is to marry, today began the most momentous year of his life.

This is his 30th birthday—the first he ever has spent in a royal palace and probably the last he will spend as a commoner.

His days of bohemian life, or working for a living, are firmly behind him.

"A year to look forward to, with a great deal more going on than before," predicts one newspaper astrologer.

"Love interests become steadier and more satisfying." By next March 7, the chances are that Antony Charles Robert Armstrong-Jones will have a title and a stately home of his own. Probably he will be created a marquis.

For unless the former society photographer is elevated to the peerage the children of his marriage to Princess Margaret would be plain "Mr." and "Miss."

And that, says court informants, would be almost unthinkable.

With the title of marquis there is always a secondary title—usually an earldom—which is used by the eldest son. The other children have the style of "Lord" and "Lady."

Billy Graham Won't Consider Moslem Challenge

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham said Sunday he has refused to consider a challenge for a faith healing contest to test the powers of the Christian and Islamic religions.

The proposal was made two days ago by Sheikh Mubarak Ahmad, chief of the East African Moslem mission of Ahmadiyya.

He suggested that 30 incurables be selected and that Graham and six of his followers pray over 15 while the Sheikh and six followers pray for the recovery of the others.

EDUCATION

profound conviction that three months of military service will constitute for all a useful complement, agreeable and at the same time permitting all students reaching employment age a chance to work during the vacations. This new discipline will be necessarily formative, this new way of life will open unknown horizons and the remuneration attached to this service will ease the problem," the Minister continued.

"This contribution by the central government to education is justifiable and at the same time commendable and will constitute a limited percentage of the national defence budget.

"I know very well the objections in principle which this practice may pose, but without enumerating or refuting them, I affirm that the advantages of this system offset the serious inconveniences offered by the existing system, which threaten to become worse and worse."

In closing he said he hoped the educators during the conference in July, would show sympathetic consideration for his proposals.

Mr. Bourque was introduced and thanked by Dr. Charles Goulet, president of the Richelieu Club.

The letters you receive in answer to your advertisements are submitted by each of the applicants with the hope of securing the position offered. When there are many applicants it frequently happens that the only letters acknowledged are those of promising candidates. (Others do not receive the slightest indication that their letters have even been received, much less given any consideration). These men often become discouraged, will not respond to future advertisements and sometimes even question if they are bona fide. Now won't you help keep our readers interested in your advertising by acknowledging every application received, even if you only return the letters of unsuccessful applicants to them marked say, "Position filled, thank you". If you don't care to reveal your identity, mail them in plain envelopes. We suggest this in a spirit of helpful co-operation between employers and the men replying to Positions Vacant advertisements. Humorous Talk At Waterloo By Red Storey WATERLOO — A large group of Kiwanians and friends heard an interesting and humorous talk by Red Storey, a former referee of the National Hockey League, on his life as a referee.

Mr. Storey, who was introduced by Kiwanian Roger McKergow, said that although during his career he had taken much criticism and heckling from crowds, he would not change his life for any other. He strongly advised people to take an active interest in some type of sport. He also advised young people to participate in sports saying that the knocks they receive will help to prepare them for life in the business world.

For a referee to be successful he must gain the respect of the players and must be able to accept criticism from the fans. During his talk he told of many incidents which reflected the humorous side of his career. Red Storey was thanked by Dick Stoddard, who presented him with a certificate of appreciation from the club.

A rousing Happy Birthday was sung to Wally Janks on the event of his 39th birthday, which he shares with Jack Benny.

HOCKEY GAME

CJAD Hockey players met the Kiwanian players at hockey in the Arena and met their Waterloo at the same time. Kiwanians won 5 to 3. A large crowd turned out to give their full support to the benefit game.

An exhibition game by the Pee Wee League entertained the spectators for the first hour. The Senior Hockey Team sold coffee during the games.

After the games, the Kiwanians were hosts to their guests at the Legion Hall. The Ladies' Auxiliary catered to a chicken dinner.

The Doctor Says

'ODD' BEHAVIOR IS OFTEN ONLY THE OTHER FELLOW'S

By Harold Thomas Hyman, M.D.

"All the world is queer save me and thee; And sometimes I think thee is a little queer."

Anonymous Quaker to his wife. I wonder if I can persuade you to heed this saying whenever you're rubbed the wrong way by the "odd" behavior of some member of the family or a close associate.

You must try to remember that the good Lord gave each of us a different set of facial features and personality traits. Even our fingerprints are distinctive. Isn't it only natural then for some of our fellow creatures, from whom we differ, to regard our different features and traits as oddities, peculiarities or eccentricities?

Now just as our oddities differ in character so, too, do they differ in their importance to us, our families and our communities. It is unusual for any of our quirks to interfere in any way with the main stream of our lives or with the welfare of our families or communities.

But when an eccentricity of conduct threatens to interfere with the health or safety of the individual or his daily contacts, it becomes necessary to take remedial measures.

That is why some 17,000,000 Americans have sought or are seeking some sort of guidance or treatment to help them adjust to the challenging requirements of our complex civilization.

That is why half the hospital beds in the United States are presently occupied by persons with mental disturbances.

In contrast to the really serious disorders that require expert treatment and even confinement to a hospital, the vast majority of our oddities are of no importance in the conduct of our lives.

Some may be turned to profitable use. Many others are sources of amusement to our families and friends. And all are readily explainable to understanding fellow creatures, each of whom probably has his or her particular peculiarities that requires our sympathetic understanding.

To illustrate these harmless quirks, take my fear of close contact with any baby who is suffering from a mild upper respiratory infection.

"Don't be such a fuss-budget," I'm told. "After all, it's only a helpless infant with nothing but a mild case of sniffles."

But it was only an infant with a mild case of sniffles that almost cost me my life when the virus I acquired caused a lung infection that kept me in an oxygen tent for almost a week.

Or again, take my annoyance with my wife because of her tireless devotion to the tasks of housecleaning.

"Some fine day," I tell her "your obsession for cleanliness is going to wreck our home. You're going to wash, iron, dust, polish and vacuum until there's nothing left."

Of course, you know her answer. "If I didn't have this cleanliness complex or obsession or whatever you call it," she says, "you'd have twice as many repair bills. And you'd holler and scream every time I had to throw something out and buy a replacement."

Observe that, in each of these instances, the quirk is harmless because it's been satisfactorily explained, and the explanation has been accepted and respected by the original complainant. Observe, too, that in each instance,

KNOWLTON —

The adult Forum met in the United Church Hall for a film strip and a special discussion on the family. The purpose was to assist parents to develop strength and confidence as Christian leaders in their own homes. The High School Band was in Mansonville, where they presented a concert in the Intermediate School. They are also scheduled to appear at the Granby High School on Friday evening, March 11.

Pupils of the High School have been conducted to Montreal by bus on three different occasions, so that as many pupils as possible could have the opportunity to view the movie "Ben Hur". The confirmation class in connection with the United Church, conducted by the Rev. J. David McCord met at the manse and discussed a second chapter of the book, Highways of the Heart.

The dance, originally sponsored by Grades 10a and 10b, which had to be postponed due to weather conditions, was held Feb. 25 and was well attended. Knowlton High School had its mid-term closing, when classes closed on Thursday. Many of the teachers and students spent the weekend at their respective homes or visited friends.

Miss Barbara Soule, of Stanbridge East, is spending a month with her aunt, Mrs. E. Coote.

Mrs. F. M. Bowen was in Granby, where she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. E. Humphrey, Mr. Humphrey and David.

Recent guests of Mrs. Erisa Coote were Mr. and Mrs. C. Stone and Mr. Cyril Soule, of Stanbridge East, Mrs. Helen Bishop, of Farnham, Miss Mildred Coote and Mr. L. Coote, of Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Perry of Lennoxville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hines. Mrs. Perry's father, Mr. J. Watt, returned to Lennoxville with them after being a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hines for the past week.

Mrs. C. P. Thornton has returned home after being a patient in the Montreal General Hospital for a week.

Mrs. Elton Bockus has been confined to her home with illness for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Lepoldin and family, of Chateaugay, and Mrs. Wesley d'Arlois and daughter, Joanne, of St. Laurent, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Partridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rogerson have gone to Calgary, Alta., where they will attend the marriage of their granddaughter, Miss Joan Burke.

Mrs. Carmi McLaughlin has returned to her home here after spending the past two months in Montreal, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. D. H. MacFarlane, and Rev. Mr. MacFarlane.

WATERLOO —

At the service in St. Luke's on Sunday morning the choir sang the hymn, Jesus, Lover of My Soul, as an anthem, with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dix taking the solo parts. Rev. G. E. Norris delivered a sermon on Charity.

Mrs. Fred Jones recently returned from spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. Grant Whitehead, in Alexandria, Ont.

Mrs. J. A. Corcoran was in Montreal recently for a checkup. Friends are pleased to learn Mrs. Corcoran is improving steadily.

Mrs. Lobley, from Sherbrooke, was a recent guest of Mrs. H. Cowling.

The oddity has positive value in the life of its possessor.

But storm clouds develop and conflict arises when the possessor of the quirk gets sore if his eccentricity is called to his attention; if he refuses to give a satisfactory explanation for his odd behavior; if his explanation is ridiculed or rejected, or if he's called a "neurotic" or a "psycho," especially by someone who has little understanding of the meaning of these terms.

Or, finally, if the quirk is merely a surface manifestation of some deep-seated mental disturbance as in the recent case of the Indiana school principal who murdered two members of his staff and then killed himself.

I shall try to explain the differences between these simple oddities, the true neuroses and the bombshell psychoses in later pieces.

Two Derby Line Ladies Honored At Showers

DERBY LINE — The home of Mrs. Ruby Goodall was the scene of a pleasant evening, when 10 friends assembled to honor Mrs. Lindsey Smith of Beebe at a stork shower.

On arrival, Mrs. Smith was escorted to a chair and presented with a corsage of baby gables. Before her was the coffee table decorated in white with pink and blue trim and laden with attractively wrapped packages.

After these had been opened and the lovely and useful gifts admired, Mrs. Smith thanked her friends.

Several amusing games, appropriate to the occasion, were played and the winners awarded prizes.

Lunch was served at the dining table which was decorated in stork motif and centered with a stork cake decorated in white with pink and blue ribbons and a stork centre.

Mrs. Guy Lyons was co-hostess with Mrs. Goodall.

Mrs. Goodall and Mrs. Lindsay Smith were recent hostesses at a stork shower held at the home of Mrs. Goodall, honoring Mrs. Edward Jenne.

On arrival, Mrs. Jenne was taken by complete surprise. She was escorted to a chair decorated in pink and blue with an umbrella, from the top of which flowed streamers holding a gift package at the end.

A corsage of small baby articles, artistically made with ribbons, was presented Mrs. Jenne. After the gifts were opened, Mrs. Jeanne thanked all for their thoughtfulness.

Several games in keeping with the occasion were played and prizes presented to the winners. The 12 friends were seated at the dining table and refreshments served by the hostesses, included an attractively decorated stork cake.

AYER'S CLIFF —

Mr. Randolph Taylor, Miss N. Tyler and David Tyler, of Danville, spent the weekend here with Mr. Tyler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tyler.

Robert and Patricia Wyman, of Mount Herman, Mass., have been spending a week here with their grandmother, Mrs. F. M. Wyman, and uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. McHarg. They also visited their relatives in Hatley.

Mrs. Sam Ashbury, went to Montreal, called there by the condition of her husband who is a patient in the Queen Mary Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Merton Tyler and sons, of Sweetburg, were weekend visitors at the home of Mr. Tyler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Tyler.

The friends of Mr. Reginald Blake, who has been in the Queen Mary Veterans Hospital, Montreal, will be glad to hear that he is much improved and has returned to his home.

Mrs. L. O. Piercy, Mrs. Douglas Piercy and Mrs. Keith Kennedy, were in Rock Island, where they attended the shower for Miss Janet Bacon, whose marriage to Mr. Galen Piercy of this place will take place shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rollins have returned from their honeymoon, spent in Toronto, Niagara Falls, Ont., and other places of interest and now are in residence at the home of her father, Mr. Ulden Dezan.

Mrs. Harry Garwood, Mr. C. Garwood, of Montreal, and Mrs. Z. W. Griffith, of Sherbrooke, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Gale.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Henderson, went to Inverness last week and brought the latter's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wright, home with them. Mr. Wright has been in the hospital for some time and is now under the care of Dr. C. L. Brown.

Canadians Welcome Reversible Coats, Silk Dresses:

Couturier Designs Adapted For Ready-To-Wear

By EDNA BLAKELY

Style-conscious Canadian women are thinking and buying alike when it comes to clothes. Climate affects the date they don their spring togs but the same colors and styles predominate whether in the Maritimes or on the Prairies.

A cross-Canada survey by The Canadian Press shows that Canadian women this spring will be decked out mostly in beige tones or muted shades of green, white and mauve.

They have welcomed the return of the reversible coat, silk dresses and black patent leather shoes. And the pointed toe remains popular.

CANADIAN COUTURIERS

For the first time Canadian stores will stock mass-produced clothing adapted from designs by members of the Association of Canadian Couturiers. Some of the patterns have been modified to suit the ready-to-wear market.

An example is a three-piece travel costume adapted from an original design by the Hamilton couturier, Olivia. A slim skirt has been made to replace the original full skirt. Mass production has brought the prices of such creations within range of the average shopper.

Many women will wear halos. The face-framing hats are competing with cone-shaped beehives and flowered models as the best sellers for spring and summer. In Toronto the beehive is known as the gauchie because of its Mexican look. The new hats are designed to go with the fashionable bouffant hair styles.

Toronto manufacturers say women will look more casual this year in dresses made from manish materials. Checks, plaids and tweeds are used extensively for dresses, suits and coats. Brief rib-cage jackets add a costume effect to dresses.

NEWFOUNDLAND IN STYLE

The national unanimity is reflected in Newfoundland where, says Sylvia Wigh, women's editor of the St. John's Evening Telegram, women are just as fashion-conscious as those in other parts of Canada. "While we are apt to think of clothes bought in St. John's as way out of fashion we are wrong."

There are some regional differences, however slight. Although Montreal stores are well stocked with the nationally popular white-to-brown colors, the sunflower shades of pale yellow to deep gold brighten the picture.

Quebec women are taking to the reversible coats and three-quarter-length coats with matching skirts.

Polka dots, big and small, are sprinkled across many of the fashions in the Maritimes. Separates, units in matching colors that can be interchanged to make a variety of costumes, are big sellers. Some have 10 pieces.

SHIRTWAIST DRESS

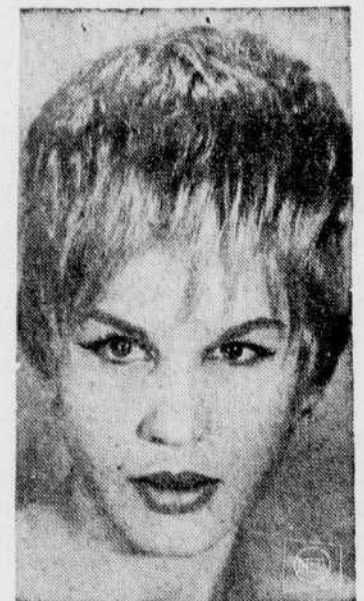

The shirtwaist dress in both silk and cotton is appearing in stores in Saint John, N.B. Sleeves are three-quarter-length or push-up style.

In Vancouver, where the beige and green tones are known as dogwood and willow green, women prefer fitted, dressy coats with shawl collars.

Edmonton women are buying flowered hats but stores expect the trend to give way to the halo style.

Regina adds color with dresses in vivid coral, green apple, golden daffodil, morning glory blue, bolt red, soft lilac, vanilla, oatmeal and chocolate.

Suits are both belted and boxy in Winnipeg where the usual preference for navy has been replaced by muted shades of green, mauve and blue. The spectator pump and stacked heels are competing with the slim-heeled pointed-toe shoes. Matching shoe and purse combinations are be-

Woman Plans Meals For Canadian Army

WINNIPEG (CP) — Housewives who have trouble deciding on the next meal would get the shudders in June Clarke's job.

Captain Clarke is responsible for planning meals for 48,000 men and women. She's the Canadian Army's senior dietitian.

She visited Winnipeg during a liaison tour of Manitoba units, accompanied by food services officer Capt. R. W. C. Meikle.

Her briefcase gave some idea of how far ahead the army must plan. It contained detailed menus for the next four months.

"Everything must be planned ahead, costs, amounts needed, the types of meals that can be prepared with the available equipment, and so on," she said.

LOW COST MEALS

The army is feeding its personnel three meals a day at a cost of 90 cents a man and food offered the soldiers has improved since the Second World War, she added.

Troops were generally satisfied but "of course we still get the complaint: "Why can't we have steak every day?"

The army's food services section is responsible for food policy, training of food service personnel, kitchen planning and kitchen equipment. It sets rations for all sorts of conditions from the far north winters to the spartan life of detention barracks.

Capt. Clarke is one of four trained dietitians in the army. "Of course we need more. One of the sidelights of my visit is to speak to students at the University of Manitoba's school of home economics about the opportunities in the dietetics field of the army."

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. C. Wilson and Mrs. C. McLachlan.

Count Among Your Blessings Friends With These Qualities

Who are your real friends?

Aren't they the ones who——Can always seem to find time for you when you really need them?

—Respond as satisfactorily to your good news as to your bad tidings?

—Would, if they heard anything damaging said against you, immediately react with, "I know that couldn't possibly be true."

—Know without being told what confidences you would not want repeated?

—Usually leave you feeling happy and more pleased with yourself?

—You naturally turn to when you need to have a sounding board before coming to an important decision, because they can offer suggestions without telling you what to do?

—Make you feel welcome at any time, so that you never have the uncomfortable feeling that you are in the way?

—Want others to see you in a good light and so present you at your best when talking about you to others?

—Are completely themselves with you instead of behind barriers that shut you out?

—Accept any help you offer as graciously as they lend you a helping hand?

If you have even a few such friends, hold on to them. For few acquaintances ever turn into such friends as these.

Consolidation Reviewed

Panel Discussion Held By A.B.C. Home And School

COOKSHIRE — A large number of members and their friends of the A.B.C. Home and School Association enjoyed a lively and informative panel discussion on Consolidation or Centralization in Reviews at the monthly meeting held in the auditorium of the Cookshire High School.

Mrs. Heatherington acted as moderator and the members of the panel were Waymer Laberee, Bert Le Seelleur, Douglas Grapes, representing respectively the parents, the Central Board and the local School Board. Due to illness, the school principal, Andrew McGerrigle, was unable to be present to represent the teachers' point of view.

The moderator defined the meaning of the word to consolidate, unite or condense into a system, and traced its source in the United States, its originator, James B. Conant, its foothold in Canada, and finally its gaining momentum and becoming widespread across the United States and Canada.

She then gave a short resume of the purpose of this system of education, emphasizing the fact that education is the business of every one, we have to leave it up to the educators to set the pace in order to bring about the desired results. The parents were reminded that the onus for betterment is not a one-sided responsibility, it is up to them to work in whatever medium possible to take advantage of the facilities granted to them.

BENEFITS POINTED OUT

Mr. Laberee pointed out the benefits that every child could receive from grades one to matriculation through centralization and also give a number of suggestions to further aid the child.

Mr. L. E. Seelleur had numerous figures to prove it had been an advantage to consolidate the school boards, thereby saving a considerable amount of money, getting government grants, by having a wider selection of subjects from which the students could choose, according to the profession or occupation they intended to follow later on in life.

He main ained, however, that in this country it would be a fine thing to have one large High School where commercial subjects, trade school subjects, music, art and more languages could be taught. A guidance officer for career counselling would be of invaluable help to the students in helping them to choose the right courses.

Mr. Grapes upheld the local board's work, and felt that the members had tried to co-operate and do progress.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Questions were invited from the floor, and answered. It was thought that industries might help in paying the increased taxes for the suggested improvements. Although local taxes were not as high as in some other places nevertheless, people who had no children attending school and whose incomes had no increased over the years according to the rising costs in general.

More scholarships could be offered. Perhaps, some arrangements could be made to have some subjects taught, such as music, in the schools with some outside organization helping to defray the expense involved with the added cost of the teacher's salary. Individuals or local

Granby And Drummondville Post Victories In First Playoff Tilts

Vics Edge Sherbrooke 2-1 In Close Battle, Andy Payette Stars For Winners; Next Game In Granby

A fighting Granby team posted a surprise win in the first game of their four-out-of-seven semi-finals of the Eastern Townships Intermediate Hockey League here yesterday afternoon when they edged out the Sherbrooke Beavers 2-1 before 2,250 fans. The series now moves to Granby for the second tilt Tuesday and returns to Sherbrooke next Thursday for the third fixture of the playoffs.

It was a close-checking, wide-open fixture with both clubs going all out in an effort to post the victory. Andy Payette of Granby played a big part in the outcome of the game and his saves kept his mates in the battle. Time after time he was forced to extend himself in an effort to stave off the hard Sherbrooke attacks. At the other end of the ice Andy Pratte did likewise and although two goals got by him he was outstanding.

The teams battled through a scoreless first period. Sherbrooke had the better of the play in the frame but Payette's great saves were what held the Beavers at bay. Time after time he stopped Dube, St. Cyr, Rousseau, Theriault right on his door step. Frankie Reid got a good drive at him but the agile Granby net-minder stopped him and then picked off the rebound.

Real Morisseau was a tower of strength for the Vics and he blocked off as many shots as Payette. The Beavers were without Bob Bedard, who was injured against Asbestos last week and Pee Wee Theriault took over on the Dube-Dussault line. Normie Dussault missed the last half of the tilt but the youngsters picked up the slack.

Giles Dube picked up a pass at centre ice from Theriault and Dussault just before the half-way mark in the second period. He walked in shifted the defense and drove an easy shot on the ice which got away from Payette. It was the last one of the game.

Spike Laliberte was in close but Pratte stopped him as both sides were flying. Play kept moving back and forth at a good clip and it kept the crowded house on their toes. Richard Doyon was in and let go with a hard drive which Payette stopped and then lying on the ice he snared the rebound to rob the Sherbrooke youngster of what looked like a sure goal.

In the third period Vics commenced with a terrific drive and had the locals hemmed in their own end. Spike Laliberte blocked a Sherbrooke shot at his own blue-line and when the puck bounced back he was in the clear and he made sure of his break to beat Pratte and tie the game at 1-1.

This seemed to give the Vics a new lease and they went all out in an effort to get the big one.

The locals slacked off a little and this proved costly as Real Lacroix drove a hard shot on the ice through a maze of legs which Pratte never saw, in fact he never made a move, as his view was completely blocked by his defense and a couple of Granby players in front of him.

This was all the Vics needed and from then despite the strong effort of the Beavers they threw up a strong defense with some good clearing. The locals kept driving but the puck wasn't rolling for them and although they were all over the Vics they just couldn't beat Payette.

In the final minutes of play Coach Dube yanked his goalie for an extra man but even with this the Granby club managed to hold on until the final siren to end the game and pick up the victory. It was a hard, but clean, game and only three minor penalties were called. In the third frame the Vics had the better of the play and they kept clearing out of their own zone while Sherbrooke kept the pressure on but they couldn't dent the twine with the equalizer before the bell sounded.

Lane Picks Tribe For 1960 Pennant

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) Frank Lane predicted a pennant for his Cleveland Indians Sunday and picked defending Chicago White Sox to finish no higher than fourth in the 1960 American League pennant race.

In a one-man filibuster, the volatile general manager of the Indians said he picked New York and Detroit to finish second and third, respectively, denied he had offered Rocky Colavito and Herb Score for Mickey Mantle and predicted the Yankees would acquire pitcher Pete Ramos from Washington for "six players who probably will be good enough for the Senators' Chattanooga farm club."

"It will be a typical George Weiss (Yankee general manager) deal," he quipped.

PAYETTE SAVES — Andy Payette, Granby's goalie, is seen in the act of making a save on a hard shot from a Sherbrooke player. Standing by is his defense Rolfe Morisseau, with back to camera, and Ray Laplante, number 17. Granby won the opener 2-1 and clash tomorrow evening in the second game.

Arnold Palmer Strikes Gold

BATON ROUGE, La. (CP)—Arnold Palmer has struck gold on the United States winter golf trail.

He picked up $2,000 Sunday by winning the $15,000 Baton Rouge open with a brilliant four-under-par 68. The blazing pro from Li-gonier, Pa., had a 72-hole total of 279 and his closest opponents were seven strokes behind.

It was Palmer's second straight tournament win and his third since January. He has won $22,211.86 in the last nine weeks, an unprecedented amount this early in the season.

Jay Hebert, Ronnie Reif and Doug Sanders tied for second with 286 totals. They collected $1,233 each.

Reif had the low round of the tournament, a blazing 66 on the last 18 holes. Sanders had a 71 Sunday and Hebert got a 70.

There was a five-day tie for fifth place. Bob Golaby, Lionel Hebert, Don Fairfield, Jack Macgowan and Doug Ford had 290s. They got $760 each.

NORMAN 15TH
Moe Norman of Toronto and two others were tied for 15th place. He shot 76-73-73-71—293 and picked up $303.

Palmer said the secret of his success was his ability to make good shots when the ball was imbedded in the ground.

"There were about eight shots," he said. "The ball was buried."

Palmer's big hole Sunday was the eighth. He had a two-under-par two on the 232-yard hole after his booming drive landed one foot from the green. His putt rolled about 40 feet over a hump and into the cup.

Sherbrooke Junior Hockey League Semi-Finals Continue Tonight With St. Francis And Maroons Favored

The semi-finals of the Sherbrooke Junior Hockey League continue tonight and two teams face elimination as they go into the two-game total-point series down four goals. The Maroons and St. Francis hold the advantage over their rivals the Indians and the Beavers.

Jacques Rousseau's Saints are favorites to wrap up their affair with the Junior Beavers but Coach Murphy hopes to reinforce his club for tonight's battle with a few of his juveniles from their farm club. Lack of reserves hurt the Murphy squad last week in the opener despite their fight.

Coach Guy Joubert's crew hold the same lead over their rivals, the Indians, and they will be out to finish off things this evening in an effort to win their way into the finals. Guy Lindley will have several of his juveniles up to help his squad in their fight to stave off elimination.

Four goals is a big advantage for any club to overcome and unless something drastic happens both the Saints and Maroons should meet in the finals for the league championship of the Dugre loop. The finals will be a two-out-of-three affair and is slated to commence next Sunday at the arena as the Sherbrooke Beavers will be playing in Granby in their playoffs.

With all the teams at full strength two good games should be witnessed by the fans as it will be a wide open affair. Two clubs will be out to try and protect their lead while the others must go all out from the opening whistle to try and whittle down the big lead.

Elgin Baylor Hits 2,000-Point Mark

NEW YORK (CP)—Elgin Baylor became the fifth player in National Basketball Association history to score more than 2,000 points in a season by hitting 43 Sunday in Minneapolis Lakers' 114-105 victory over Cincinnati.

Baylor, who collected 1,742 points as a rookie last season, joined Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain, Cincinnati's Jack Twyman, Syracuse's George Yardley, and St. Louis' Bob Pettit in the 2,000-point circle.

Twyman, who poured in 36 points against the Lakers at Minneapolis Sunday, and Chamberlain already have surpassed the 2,000 point mark this season.

Baylor needed 37 points to hit the 2,000 mark and he got it with a free throw with 6½ minutes left to play in the fourth quarter.

Willy Forrer Wins Harriman Race Despite Threats

SUN VALEY, Idaho — (P) — Willy Forrer, a Swiss racer who threatened to boycott the Harriman Cup downhill race Sunday, changed his mind and won the event.

Forrer, 24, sped down the 1.9-mile course in two minutes, 12 seconds.

Guy Perillat, 20, of France, world all-around ski champion, and Bruno Alberti of Italy, tied for second place with times of 2:12.4.

MAINTAIN REPUTATION
The Austrians, however, maintained their reputation in the women's races with Putzi Frandl winning the 1½-mile downhill in 1:57.4 and teammate Herline Buehhauser running second in 1:59.1.

Miss Frandl won the Harriman combined last year.

Adrien Duvalier of France unofficially became the Harriman combined winner. He tied for fifth in Saturday's slalom.

Forrer was angry because the second slalom run Saturday was cancelled because of heavy snow and he threatened not to run Sunday's downhill. The French also grumbled.

New York goaltender Jack McCartan who led the Rangers to a 3-1 victory over Detroit Red Wings in his first professional game.

Drummondville Rallies In Third To Tie Tilt And Maurice Boivin Gets Winner In Overtime In Close Duel

DRUMMONDVILLE — Rallying in the last period the Drummondville Rockets came through with a tie and in the overtime edged Victoriaville Canadiens 8-7 in a high-scoring affair here yesterday afternoon before 2,021 fans to take a one game lead in their semi-finals of the E. T. Intermediate Hockey League. The next game will be played tomorrow evening in Victoriaville with the third Thursday evening.

The Canadiens, who held a 7-5 advantage with only three minutes left in regular time, saw their lead dwindle when Gilles Boivin and his brother, Maurice, tallied within thirty-one seconds to knot the count and send the game into overtime. In the extra time Maurice Boivin got the winning tally just around the half-way mark.

Victoriaville got off on the right foot with two quick goals by Bergeron and Lambert but three tallies by Champagne, G. Boivin and Biggs put the Rockets back in the fight. Larry Drouin evened the count but Bob Houde gave the home club a 4-3 edge at the end of the frame.

In the middle session five goals were registered with the Canadiens getting four for a 7-5 lead. Lambert, Michelin, Raymond and Vachon got the markers for Victoriaville while Aubry got the lone Drummondville marker.

Going into the third period the Rockets were down two but this failed to halt them as both clubs kept up the fast pace. Two penalties were called, each club picking up one, but this didn't change matters as the players were clearing well.

The game was one of the fastest seen here for quite some time as both clubs were going all out. The Canadiens bombarded Joe Lacoursiere from all angles and held the upper hand right from the start. Lacoursiere had a total of 47 shots to handle compared to 41 for Hamel.

In the third period the teams kept going but Victoriaville made the same mistake the majority of the clubs do when trying to protect their lead. They were clearing the disc at every opportunity and the Rockets were coming back a little stronger each time.

With only three minutes left in the game Gilles Boivin came through with the Rockets' sixth tally and before the Canadiens knew what had hit them Maurice Boivin, thirty-one seconds later, tied the game at 7-7. This took

Sudbury Consolidate First Place In EPHL, Royals Post Two Wins Over Kingston For Second Place In Loop

There were no upsets in weekend play in the Eastern Professional Hockey League and with the season approaching the finish final standings have begun to take shape.

Sunnyside High Takes Q.A.P.S.A. Title From Waterloo Hockey Team

School From Stanstead Takes Trophy In First Year Of Senior Competition Scores 9 Goals In One-Sided Game

By IVY HATCH
(Record Correspondent)

GRANBY — Senior boys hockey teams of Sunnyside and Waterloo High schools met for the finals in the Q.A.P.S.A. hockey play-downs on Granby Arena ice for the Provincial trophy, on Saturday morning at 11 a.m. won by Sunnyside 9-2.

It was a hard fought game from start to finish with plenty of action on the part of both teams. A total of 15 penalties were called.

In the first two minutes of play, J. Edgar of Sunnyside scored on a pass from Albert Beasse, quickly followed by a goal by Talbot on a pass from Racicot. Brian Perrault on a pass from A. Beasse and Doug Wing, unassisted made the score 3-1 for Sunnyside at the end of the first period.

In the second period Sunnyside scored three goals, George Cooke on a pass from J. Edgar, Doug Wing on a pass from R. Moss and D. Watson and Wing on a pass from Watson. The second score for Waterloo was the finish of the second period by B. Graves on a pass from B. Racicot. Each team was penalized twice.

The third period was one of action with eight penalties handed out by the referees, five going to Sunnyside boys and three to Waterloo.

Sunnyside, despite the penalties potted three goals, George Cooke on a pass from J. Edgar in the second minute; another when Doug Wing came up with his fourth goal of the game on a pass from Watson and Moss, N. D. Fraser shoved one in the net unassisted just a minute before the last whistle blew.

Both goal tenders, Andy Rever of Sunnyside and A. Groulx, of Waterloo played a fine game.

Both teams were cheered on by their school mates and large crowd of spectators representing many points of the Eastern Townships. They were well matched and neither had lost a league game. Saturday's loss was the first of the season for Waterloo. Sunnyside previously lost to Bishop's in an exhibition game.

After the games the teams with their Principals and coaches enjoyed a most delicious banquet in the Granby High school gymnasium, prepared and served by the Granby High school girls who did a most efficient job of feeding between sixty and seventy hungry boys.

At the close of the meal, Mr. Clifford Moore, chairman of the hockey committee of the Quebec Association of Protestant Administrators, gave a brief history of the hockey league, originally sponsored by the Quebec Association of Protestant school boards.

Mr. Arthur Lang, Executive Secretary of the Q.A.P.S.B., congratulated all teams on their play and good sportsmanship, and expressed the appreciation of all concerned to Mr. Wm. Munroe, Principal of Granby High school, the teachers and students who had made such efficient arrangements for the game and banquet.

The trophies were then presented by Mr. Lang to the captain of the winning teams.

2nd Surprise Win For Florida Pro

KINGSTON, Jamaica — Pete Cooper, a now-and-then player on the professional golf circuit, has struck it rich in the Caribbean.

The 45-year-old Lakeland, Fla., veteran pro at Dorado Beach, Puerto Rico—wrapped up his second straight Caribbean trophy Sunday when he won the Jamaica open. Earlier he took the title at Maracaibo, Venezuela. A year ago he won both the Panama and Puerto Rico opens.

Cooper's victory was close, however.

He held a two-stroke lead going into Sunday's final round and came out with a 73 to tie the day with Stan Leonard of Vancouver and Bob Toski of Miami. Cooper took the tournament with a 283 total—two strokes better than Leonard and Toski, who tied at 285 for second.

However, the Caribbean trophy is awarded on the player's showing in four tournaments and while Cooper took first, Ernie Vossler of Midland, Tex., sneaked in for second.

Leonard was third and Toski fourth.

Al Balding of Toronto shot par 72 Sunday, good for a 295 well down the list.

No Censure For Kingston Edile

KINGSTON (CP) — Alderman A.M. McCorkell said Friday he was withdrawing his plan to call for a censure by city council against Ald. George Webb.

Ald. McCorkell said he was fully satisfied with Ald. Webb's explanation in regard to the latter's telegram criticizing C.A.A.'s hockey team for failing to win the Olympic championship.

Ald. Webb issued a statement Wednesday saying the views expressed in the telegram were his own and not those of a city representative.

Mrs. A. Scott's Rink Wins Ladies Bonspiel At Lennoxville While Mrs. I. Saunders Cops Consolation

Mrs. A. Scott's rink won the annual Lennoxville Ladies Mixed Bonspiel Saturday evening downing Mrs. W. Hutchinson's foursome 7-5 in a thrilling final.

Consolation winner was the rink of Mrs. Ivan Saunders who had little difficulty in disposing of Mrs. F. Parkin's quartet 12-5.

Throughout the 'spiel, which saw the ladies take over as skips with men playing as leads, exciting action and good curling were featured. Many very close games were witnessed during the day by numerous spectators who displayed high degrees of excitement at every turn of the matches.

The Scott rink, which consisted of Howard Nichol, Third; Mrs. I. Gingras, second; and G. Bernard, lead, won from Mrs. B. Nichol, Mrs. M. Brosseau, Mrs. O. Parent and finally, Mrs. W. Hutchinson in a well-curling quartet final.

In the final game, play was very close in the first three ends with the Hutchinson rink leading 2-1 at that time. However in the next three ends the Scott foursome pulled into a 7-2 lead, racking up a two-end, a three-end, and a single-end for a well-played six points.

Staggering from this brilliant rally, the Hutchinson rink managed to eke out a one-end in the seventh and entered the final needing four points to tie the match.

However, after the smoke cleared from an extremely well-fought end Mrs. Hutchinson and her quartet could only count two, giving the Scott foursome top honours in the 'spiel by a score of 7-5.

Mrs. Ivan Saunders' rink dropped a single game early in the day, putting them out of contention for the championship crown, but posted three victories over Mrs. C. Taylor, Mrs. B. Nichol, and, finally, Mrs. F. Parkin for consolation honours.

In the final game, a 9-1 lead racked up by the Saunders' quartet the first five ends proved overwhelming for Mrs. Parkin's foursome who tried extremely hard to get back into the match. Trailing by eight points into the sixth, the Parkin rink pulled a superb four-end out of the hat which brought them within striking distance of a win.

The Saunders rink, made up of A. Doirion, third; Mrs. C. Dougherty, second and C. Clarke, lead, were, without a doubt, a superior foursome to that of Mrs. F. Parkin. However, the Parkin rink pulled off some tremendous curling in the final game and made a fine showing.

All in all, the annual bonspiel was a great success and gave spectators, as well as players, some excellent curling action. Throughout the 'spiel, the lady skips proved their worth and turned in a commendable account of themselves.

Lennoxville High School Senior Girls Post 34-23 Win Over Ayer's Cliff In First Game Of Semi-Finals

Lennoxville High School Senior girls posted a 34-23 victory over Ayer's Cliff in an exciting semi-final fixture played Friday evening at the LHS gymnasium.

This battle was the first of a two-game total-point semi-final series with the winners then slated to meet SHS Seniors. The final and deciding tilt is to be contested Thursday at Ayer's Cliff High.

Fast and rugged action highlighted the game with both teams putting on an excellent display of passing and shooting. The hosting LHS club maintained a slim but steady lead over the visitors and finished the struggle in fine style with an 11-point margin.

In the first half, Lennoxville girls quickly racked up a solid lead and held it until the half-time whistle. The Ayer's Cliff squad had trouble in settling down but ended the frame trailing 22-11.

The second frame was even faster than the primary with both teams dumping in 12 points. Thanks to the 11-point lead obtained in the first half, Lennoxville took the fixture to lead Ayer's Cliff in the series by 11.

Topping the hosts were Nancy Knapp, Karen Crosby, and Gail Cameron with 14, nine, and seven respectively. All three girls were backed up a very dependable squad whose defensive line was a key asset in the team's victory.

Heading the Ayer's Cliff club was Lorraine Mosher with 12 points and Judy Stafford with eight. The visitors also exhibited fine basketball throughout the struggle but were beaten by a superior Lennoxville squad.

On the same draw with the Senior girls game was a Senior boys fixture in which Lennoxville and Sherbrooke boys saw action; SHS emerging as victors with a close 26-20 decision.

The boys also are to play a two-game total-point series with the winners slated to meet St. Pat's in a final round.

Another exciting fixture was witnessed by the numerous spectators with fast and furious action being highlighted throughout the contest. A majority of the time the score was in Sherbrooke's favour but the hosting Lennoxville boys kept SHS on their toes during all four quarters.

In the first half, Lennoxville opened the game with a slim lead but were beaten out by halftime on a 15-10 margin. The SHS boys dominated play in the final minutes of the frame and caught Lennoxville off-guard to post their five-point margin.

The final half was much more evenly contested with LHS striving to get back their lead. However, the lead piled up in the first frame by SHS proved a definite factor in their win and gave them the game by a 26-20 score.

Starting for Sherbrooke were Mike Allatt with 12 points and Colin Jennison with seven. Both boys had a very good squad behind them that was well-organized and efficient in dumping in baskets.

Topping LHS boys was Art Mandigo with nine points followed by Bruce Hodge and Pete Crosby with four each. Lennoxville put up an excellent battle throughout both halves but couldn't muster enough strength to stave off Sherbrooke's many offensive plays.

Senior Girls: Lennoxville: N. Knapp (14), K. Crosby (9), Gail Cameron (7), K. Klinek (4), M. Maurice, S. Johnston, B. Clarke, J. Fraser, J. Cathcart, B. King, S. Cleveland, Total—34.

Ayer's Cliff: L. Mosher (12), J. Stafford (8), G. Smith (3), D. Chicago's Glenn Skov who scored two goals and an assist as the Hawks defeated the Montreal Canadiens 4-2 Sunday night.

Four Nations Split Titles At World Figure-Skating Championships With France's Giletti Edging Don Jackson

VANCOUVER — The victory of a persevering French soldier in the men's competition and the continued domination by the British on the ice dancing provided a four-way split of titles at the world figure skating championships here.

Canada, Great Britain, the United States and France divided the top trophies in the five-day competition and turned in most of the runner-up performances.

Alain Giletti, 21-year-old son of a wealthy Paris lingerie manufacturer, climaxed 10 years of effort by winning the men's singles Saturday night at the wind-up of the championships.

His win was overshadowed for the capacity crowd of more than 5,000 by the breath-taking performance of Don Jackson, 19, of Oshawa, Ont., in the free skating. The judges gave Jackson the highest marks of the championship for his dazzling array of spins, leaps and controlled footwork.

CAME BACK STRONGLY — He trailed Giletti by 33 points going into the free skating portion after the six compulsory figures run off earlier — and caught up almost 20 of those in the final accounting.

France completed its coup — Giletti's victory was the first ever for France in the men's — by having Alain Calmat, 19, place third.

Giletti ended up with 1286.2 points to Jackson's 1272.9. Calmat had 1226.9.

The decision ended 12 years of United States domination in the event. First Dick Button, then Hayes Alain Jenkins and, in the last three years, David Jenkins had taken the world title to the U. S. David Jenkins retired a week ago after winning the Olympic title.

J. L. Courtney Jones, a London dress designer, and Doreen Denny successfully defended their ice dancing title by running up a total of 252.2 points.

Jack McCartan Reputation Untarnished After NHL Debut With Rangers

Stops 33 Shots As New York Posts 3-1 Win Over Detroit; Maple Leafs Bump Bruins Twice For Playoff Spot

John McCartan put his shiny new reputation on the National Hockey League line Sunday night and it came away appearing like solid gold.

McCartan, 24, hero of the United States Olympic hockey champions, stepped into New York Rangers' nets for the first professional game of his life and stopped 33 shots as Rangers beat Detroit Red Wings 3-1.

He gave most of the credit to his defensive corps but nothing could be taken away from the lanky goaltender who turned in an almost faultless game.

His work was the weekend's only bright spot for Rangers, who Saturday ran into netminder Glen Hall of Chicago Black Hawks and were shut out 5-0.

Sunday the Hawks and Hall were almost as good, beating league-champion Montreal Canadiens 4-2 before a near-capacity Chicago crowd.

HABS TIE WINGS

Saturday the Canadiens got a third-period goal from Donnie Marshall to tie the Wings 2-2.

Toronto Maple Leafs all but ended Boston's playoff hopes and assured themselves of a place in the Stanley Cup semi-finals with two victories over the Bruins—5-2 in Toronto Saturday and 3-1 in Boston Sunday.

To reporters milling around him after the game, McCartan said "Listen, most of the work was done up front tonight—not by me." The St. Paul, Minn., native, added: "Those guys really put out for me. They didn't have to do that, but they never quit."

Centre Alex Delvecchio was the only one to beat McCartan, smashing in rookie Murray Oliver's rebound with the goal-keeping lying flat after the stop.

He'll play four more games with the Rangers before returning to his army duties.

NEW YORK SNIPERS

Brian Cullen, Andy Hebenton and Dean Prentice beat Detroit's Terry Sawchuk, one goal coming in each period.

Saturday the Rangers fired 33 shots at Glenn Hall—18 of them in the first period—but the quick-handed veteran wasn't to be denied his sixth shutout this season, his second straight.

Ed Litzenberger, playing his second game after missing a month because of injuries suffered in an auto accident, scored twice for Chicago. Bobby Hull, Elmer Vasko and Pierre Pilote added the others.

Hull's goal was his 37th and he also picked up his 40th assist to finish the weekend two points ahead of Boston's Bronco Horvath—held to a single assist—in the scoring race.

TAKE OVER LIMELIGHT

Sunday the Canadiens kept Hawks' big scorers pretty well tied up only to be beaten by second-stringers. Most prominent was penalty-killer Glen Skov, who got his first two goals this season. Rookie Stan Mikita got his eighth and defenceman Dollard St. Laurent scored his fourth.

Utility forward Marshall scored twice for Canadiens to bring his season-total to 13.

Hall, giving Canadiens' Jacques Plante a stiff battle for the Vezina Trophy, stopped 40 shots. Plante had 25 saves.

Saturday Plante was tested 15 times in the first period as Wings went all out but Henri Richard gave Montreal a 1-0 lead that lasted until defenceman Pete Goggin tied it 1-1 at 1:39 of the second. At 12:15 Delvecchio made it 2-1 for Detroit but Marshall scored at 6:14 of the third.

LEAFS NEVER THREATENED

Leafs were never in trouble Saturday, leading 2-0 at the end of the first and 5-0 at the end of the second. Gerry Ehman, Bob Baun, Gerry James, Bert Olmstead and George Armstrong scored for Toronto. Bob Armstrong and Leo Labine for Bruins.

Toronto netminder John Bower turned in a brilliant 32-save game. Red Kelly, moved back to his usual position on defence to replace injured Allan Stanley, was Toronto's offensive hero Sunday, scoring twice. Bob Pulford got one and Don McKenney scored for Bruins.

No games are scheduled until Tuesday when Detroit hosts Canadiens.

Richardson's Rink And Don Groom's Northern Ontario Quartet Clash In Opening Round For Canadian Title

FORT WILLIAM, Ont. — One of the big guns at the 1960 Canadian curling championships will be silenced today as the highly-regarded rinks from Saskatchewan and Manitoba meet in the opening round at Fort William Gardens.

By tonight, defending champion Ernie Richardson from Regina will either be shooting for his second victory in the five-day competition or attempting to get an even break on the first day's play. He plays Northern Ontario's Don Groom on the second draw.

But for Winnipeg's Mac Sales, it will be either a win or a loss for the day as the Manitoba skip drew a bye in the 11-rink competition on the second draw.

Alberta's Stu Beagle, who side-lined three-time Canadian winner Matt Baldwin of Edmonton in the ward Island.

The championships continue until Friday. Two draws will be held Tuesday, two more Wednesday; three on Thursday and the last two Friday morning and afternoon. If a tie results, a playoff will be held Friday night.

Receptions, parades, banquets and tours, with the odd practice game, occupied most of the time of the 44 curlers after their arrival Saturday morning.

Included in the many banquets was a Sunday luncheon sponsored by the Dominion Curling Association at which the official draw was made along with the announcement that the 1961 Canadian championship would be held in Calgary.

Other games on the first round had Mabey against Ted Hunt of Quebec; Ian Baird of Nova Scotia meeting Groom, and John Lyon of Newfoundland playing Doug Cameron of Prince Edward Island. British Columbia's Glen Harper drew the bye.

St. Pat's Cagers Romp To 71-30 Win Over Bury Seniors While Juniors Lose, Meet Sunnyside In Semi-Finals

St. Pat's senior basketball team continued its victory march Friday evening when they rolled over Bury High School to the tune of 71-30 in an exhibition tilt played at Bury. The Sherbrooke club ended the season with an 8-1 slate and will journey to Sunnyside Wednesday for the first game of the two game total point semi-finals.

Mike Bryson was top point getter of the match as he hit for 23 points. Mike Leveque followed closely with 22 and Mike Brooks tallied 15 as the powerful green and white quintet again ran away with the verdict.

St. Pat's jumped into their early customary lead and were ahead 20-10 at quarter time. The Sherbrooke squad potted 18 points in the second quarter and at half time were far in front with a 38-20 lead.

Close man to man defense was instrumental in keeping Bury bottled up as the St. Pat's sharpshooters had a field day of it. Score at three quarters' time read 53-26 for the Irish and they added 18 more points in the final stanza to win the game by a score of 71-30.

The Junior game was a league fixture and the Bury squad emerged victorious, toppling St. Pat's 60-45. It was a fast moving match with each team somewhat loose on the defensive but sharp on the attack. B. Tarrant was the big gun as he collected 34 points for Bury. Mike Wilcox, 6' 7", followed in this department with a total of 18.

B. Tarrant scored 16 of his team's 18 points as the Bury squad jumped into an early 18-10 margin. The half time score read Bury 32, St. Pat's 24. Try as they might, St. Pat's were unable to contain high scoring Tarrant as he led his team to victory. Third quarter score was 44-36 and the final whistle ended the game with Bury the winners 60-45.

ST. PAT'S — Wilcox (18), Mullin (12), Nutbrown (9), Marois R. (4), Lynch (2), Wilson, Leclaire, Tinker, Leveque, Marois A., Hicks, Charlebois. Total: 45.
