Russia Would Admit Debts Under Certain Conditions

SOVIETS TO ACKNOWLEDGE ALL PRE-WAR DEBTS AND CANCEL CLAIM AGAINST ALLIES, IF ALLIES WILL DO LIKEWISE WITH RUSSIA'S WAR DEBTS

Financial and Economic Experts of Great Britain, France, Italy and Belgium Continue Discussions Today—Soviet Delegates Were to Have Made Their Reply to Report Today, But This Has Been Postponed Indefinitely and Probably Will Be Based on the Understanding Reached at the Present Series of Conferences.

(Associated Press Despatch.)
GENOA, April 15.—Financial and economic experts of Great Britain, France, Italy and Belgium gathered this morning to continue the discussions begun yesterday, of the condition under which the rehabilitation of Russia will be undertaken.

The discussions were started yesterday at an informal meeting of the more important delegates in the villa of Mr. Lloyd George, British Premier, the basis of this being the report prepared by the Allied experts in London, copies of which were handed to the Russians earlier in the week.

The Soviet delegates were to have made their reply to the report today, but this has been postponed indefinitely and probably will be based on the understanding reached at the present series of conferences.

It is understood that Soviet delegates have expressed willingness to acknowledge Russia's pre-war debts and to cancel their claims against the Allies if the Allies do likewise with Russia's war debts.

Yesterday's informal meeting really marked the introduction of a steering committee, and is in line with the efforts of Mr. Lloyd George and other leaders to speed up the work of the Conference. It is believed differences of opinion can be more easily adjusted in private conference, thus eliminating long debates at full sessions of the various commissions of which the conference proper is composed. There has been a total absence of formal dinners and luncheons, but the leaders are dining together in small groups and utilizing the meal time for conference business.

The designation of numbers of small sub-committees also is in line with this policy of time-saving. Under this scheme consideration of the main subjects is left chiefly to experts and discussions by those not thoroughly informed are avoided.

One month has been set as the time limit in which the diplomats generally expect it will be known whether the conference will achieve its purpose. Mr. Lloyd George expects to leave on April 27th, and is making every effort to have the big decisions arranged before then.

Although the conference worked uninterruptedly through Good Friday, it was announced today there would be no meetings of commissions on Easter Sunday.

LLOYD GEORGE STATES RUSSIANS MUST GIVE A FAVORABLE REPLY

(Associated Press Despatch.)

LONDON, April 15.—A Reuter despatch from Paris last night stated that a French official statement issued at the close of yesterday's meeting of the "Big Four," of the Genoa Conference, Premier Lloyd George as having declared that unless the Russian delegation had given a favorable reply by eleven o'clock this morning to the proposals presented this week, the Genoa Conference, so far as Russia was concerned, would be ended.

Thefts in Bedford Mines District.
Two young lads, Joseph Breton and Emile Laliberte were charged with shopbreaking and theft, the complaints being laid by Adjutor Bourgeault and Ulric Lessard respectively. The lads are about twenty years old.

It appears that during the past few months a series of serious burglaries have occurred at Bedford Mines, Black Lake and other points in the district. Three barber shops, a clothing store, a drug store, a pool room and a jeweler's store were among the ones broken into the large quantities of stock stolen. The value of the robberies run into several thousand dollars and include hundreds of rings, suits, razors, etc.

The two lads in question were arrested at Valley Junction and a number of articles have since been located. The hearing of the evidence was commenced and will be continued on Thursday next, April 20th, when it is expected other complaints will also be laid.

ON EASTER MONDAY, APRIL 17, THERE WILL BE NO ISSUE OF THE DAILY RECORD.

PRES. HARDING GIVES HIS VIEW ON NAVAL BILL

Would Be Greatly Disappointed if U.S. Enlisted Force Was Cut Below 86,000.

(Associated Press Despatch.)

WASHINGTON, April 15.—President Harding, in his first public utterance on the 1923 naval bill, declared in a letter presented yesterday to the House that, while the decision must lie with Congress, he would be greatly disappointed, as he believed the country would be, if the enlisted force was cut below 86,000.

The opinion was not sent gratuitously. It was given in response to a request for the President's view by Representative Longworth, Republican, Ohio, one of the leaders in the fight to defeat the proposal in the bill limiting the force to 67,000.

Development In Ireland Over Week-End Awaited With Anxious Expectation-The Insurgents Seize Buildings At Sligo

Will Be Surprising if Sunday Passes in Sligo Without Trouble—Arthur Griffith's Latest Statement Is that He Is Determined to Fulfill His Promise to Speak, and There Seems Every Reason to Expect that, if He Attempts the Address, a Clash of the Rival Parties Will Result.

LONDON, April 15.—Developments in Ireland over the week-end are awaited here with anxious expectation in view of the Republic's seizure of the four courts in Dublin and Arthur Griffith's determination to hold his pro-treaty meeting in Sligo tomorrow over the decree of the local Irish Republican Army commander.

The situation is described as very serious by the morning newspapers. General disappointment is expressed that the peace conference between representatives of the Free State and Republicans adjourned without any sign of agreement, and this is commented upon as a bad omen.

It will be a surprise if Sunday passes in Sligo without trouble. Mr. Griffith's latest statement was that he was determined to fulfill his promise to speak, and there seems to be every reason to expect that if he attempts the address, a clash of the rival parties will result.

It is reported that since the occupation of a number of public buildings at Sligo by Republican forces yesterday, Free State troops have been gathering there in considerable numbers. Many alarming rumors are afloat, one being that the Republicans have laid plans to seize the heads of the Provisional Free State Government.

COMMENT ON LATEST MOVE.

Disavowal by the De Valera party generalissimo, Rory O'Connor, of starting another revolution by the seizure of the four courts in Dublin, fails to allay the anxiety of the Daily Chronicle.

The newspaper editorially asks, in effect, that if the seizing of courts and turning them into sandbagged fortresses so as to prevent the country's judges from functioning is not revolution, what is? Or does O'Connor mean it is nothing to what he will do next?

The Daily News says: "The outlook is one of almost unrelieved blackness."

SPOKE IN PLAIN TERMS.

The Westminster Gazette says it "can scarcely believe Michael Collins' tolerance will survive this outrage in the capital of the country for whose government he is responsible. If O'Connor's attitude is anywhere misunderstood, it is not his fault, as he spoke in the plainest terms to interviewers. The correspondent of the Westminster Gazette quotes him as saying:

"We have nothing whatever to do with politics. We are plain men who stand by the Republic all prepared to sacrifice our lives rather than allow the Republic to be subverted. It possibly may come to fighting, but if it does, the responsibility for civil war will rest upon the shoulders of those supporting the treaty."

INSURGENTS STRENGTHENING THEIR HOLD.

(Associated Press Despatch.)

BELFAST, April 15.—Forces of the insurgent section of the Irish Republican Army are strengthening their hold on Sligo, where Arthur Griffith has announced he will hold a pro-treaty meeting tomorrow. The Republicans have followed up their seizure yesterday of the post office, town hall, guild hall and barracks, until now they control virtually every position of vantage.

The office of the newspaper, The Sligo Independent, was commandeered last night, and an armed guard was posted there. This position dominates Castle and Market streets, where the post office is situated, and also commands Wine and Knox streets, adjoining. The streets are being patrolled by armed par-

REPORT OF E. T. IMMIGRATION SOCIETY FOR YEAR PRESENTED; MANY SETTLERS IN TOWNSHIPS

A Good Proportion of Men Settled by the Society Were Taken from the Ranks of the Unemployed—Mr. Best, President, Pays High Tribute to Mr. Hillhouse—Hope Expressed that Men Located on Farms Will Remain There—Preference to Be Given to Those Anxious to Take Up Farming for a Living and Not Merely as a Convenience.

(Article No. VI., E. T. Boards.)

THE annual report of the Eastern Townships Immigration Society, incorporated, presented by the Secretary, Mr. W. M. Hillhouse, at the annual meeting of the Eastern Townships Associated Boards of Trade, was listened to with considerable interest, and it was unanimously admitted that the work accomplished by the Society was extremely satisfactory.

Since this report was presented, Mr. Hillhouse is in receipt of a cable from the Hon. Pelletier, asking whether arrangements can be made for the placing of a number of the I. R. C. who have recently been disbanded in Ireland. The men referred to are said to be competent farmers with sufficient capital to see them well settled.

The work assumed by the Immigration Society is not generally appreciated to the extent it really deserves, but its importance to the Townships was clearly outlined by the President, Mr. H. A. Best, of Bedford.

The annual report presented by Mr. W. H. Hillhouse, secretary, was as follows:

"I have much pleasure in laying before you briefly a summary of the work accomplished by the Eastern Townships Immigration Society during the year 1921, which has been the most successful in the history of the Society. The Society received an unusually large number of applications for help from the farmers of the Eastern Townships, which were all filled, I think, satisfactorily. A number of farmers have written us that the help received through the Eastern Townships Immigration Society has been the most satisfactory, and wishing us every success in our work of helping our farmers to solve the help problem.

The Society has during the year carried on vigorously, as far as our funds would permit, its immigration work, which could have easily been trebled or quadrupled with sufficient funds for this purpose.

"During the year we have brought over direct from England 49 persons, Scotland 10, Wales 1, Australia 2, Denmark 2, the United States 9. Total 82.

"These eighty-two immigrants were all experienced farmers, several of them having already purchased farms of their own in the Eastern Townships. These results were brought about by direct correspondence with the immigrants before they decided to come out to Canada. In most cases two or three letters passed between the office here in Sherbrooke and the prospective immigrant, and a large number of our Eastern Townships pamphlets were mailed to them, this often being the deciding factor in inducing them to come out to the Eastern Townships. I find our Eastern Townships pamphlets of very great assistance in immigration work. In the agricultural possibilities of the Eastern Townships are clearly and truthfully set forth, the illustrations are excellent, the paper of the best quality, and altogether it is far ahead of any pamphlets issued by our different provincial governments. This is the verdict of recipients overseas.

"In addition to our immigration work, which I have briefly described, the Society has continued its efforts in bringing out from Montreal and other large cities numbers of the unemployed. These men all had previous experience on the farm, and many of them had spent their last dollar and in some cases were actually feeling the pinch of hunger when your secretary met and engaged them for the Eastern Townships. Needless to say, these men are thankful to receive a small wage with a good home and food in the country, and they are eager to remain in the townships as long as their services are required. This part of the work seems to me to be the most commendable, transplanting the unemployed from the cities to the country to become producers of food, instead of useless consumers of same.

Dr. Derome Makes Report Following Examination of Body of Joseph Racine.

(Associated Press Despatch.)

OTTAWA, April 15.—Dr. Wilfrid Derome, whose testimony was largely responsible for the arrest of Rev. Adelard Delorme on a charge of murdering his half-brother, Raoul Delorme, made an examination of the body of Joseph Racine, at Gauthier's morgue, Hull, last night, and stated positively that the fracture which is apparent upon the skull was not caused by a blow administered through a human agency. He was emphatic in his statement that the smashing of the skull was due to friction between the body and submerged logs when they came together beneath the waters of Leamy Lake, where the corpse was discovered on Thursday.

Dr. Derome has been commissioned by the Quebec Attorney-General's Department to perform an autopsy upon the body and report to Coroner Davies. The Attorney-General has also placed the criminal investigations in connection with the case in the hands of Provincial Detective Houle, who is one of the foremost criminologists on the staff headed by Chief D. D. Lorrain.

FIFTEEN BOILS ON NECK AT ONE TIME

Any one who has suffered from boils can sympathize with poor old Job.

There was no Burdock Blood Bitters in those days, so Job had to suffer in silence, now-a-days no one need endure the misery of boils.

Boils are simply evidences of the bad blood within coming to the surface and just when you get rid of one, another seems ready to take its place and prolong your misery.

All the poulticing and lancing you may do will not stop more coming.

What you have to do is to take

and the blood will be cleansed of all its impurities, and then every boil will disappear.

Mr. Roy McSwain, High Bank, P.E.I., writes:—"I was troubled with boils for some time, and had as many as fifteen on my neck at once. After taking one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters they commenced to get better, and after I had taken two bottles I was relieved of them and felt much better. I think B.B.B. is a grand blood medicine, and can recommend it highly."

PLAN TO BUILD A NEW SCHOOL HOUSE AT BURY

Catholic Board of School Trustees Considering Question—School Is Badly Needed.

BURY, Aug. 15.—An important meeting of the Catholic Board of School Trustees was held last Sunday. The principal business before the Board was the question of building a new school house in Bury village. It was decided that the school was an imperative necessity and should be built this summer.

Various prospective sites were considered and one at the rear of Mr. Henry Lower's was the one most favored, and a committee was appointed to open negotiations with a view to immediate purchase.

General Notes.

Although almost everyone seems to agree that the times are exceedingly hard, there is evidence of much activity this coming summer in the village and vicinity. Besides the new school house mentioned above, Mr. S. J. Prangley is erecting a new house, and Mr. Henry Bouchard is putting up a small saw and door factory. Mr. Abel Whitehead has also purchased a building lot and will in all probability build this year.

The Catholic citizens are also contemplating the erection of a new Church, though this work may not materialize just yet.

Mr. Emile Paquette is improving his store, raising it up and making a new basement with cement walls. Mr. Paquette has engaged Mr. E. Champagne, his brother-in-law, of Montreal, to assist in the store.

One of the signs of spring is the re-opening of the Creamery, Mr. Lapalme states that he will commence operations for the coming season on April 17th.

The Bury W. M. S. will hold their Easter meeting on Easter Monday, April 17th, at the Methodist Parsonage. At this meeting the Easter Thank Offering envelopes will be received and should any member be unable to attend, they are asked to arrange to have their contribution at the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Webster have taken up their residence with Mr. William Ellis. Mr. John Simpson is moving to Cookshire and is renting his house to Mr. Sid Prangley.

The Misses Blanche and Bertha Lapalme are spending Easter with their uncle, Mr. Leon Paquette, of Beecher Falls.

The Odd Fellows have installed an up-to-date moving picture machine in their hall and are now showing pictures of a high grade every Tuesday evening. Mr. Gwilym Lawrence is the operator.

One of Bury's prominent citizens, Lt. Col. W. W. Dunsmore, has sold part of his Bury properties, including his fine residence, to Mr. Walter Armstrong. Mr. Dunsmore has purchased a residence in Lennoxville and will be moving in the near future. All regret the loss to Bury, as Mr. Dunsmore, a former Mayor of the town, has always evidenced a keen interest in Municipal affairs, and all that has concerned the welfare of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Orley Lapointe returned on Monday evening from a two weeks trip to Murray Bay, where they have been visiting relatives and friends. They report having spent a most enjoyable holiday.

Mr. O. Dupuis, of the Bank of Montreal, here, spent the week-end at his home in Johnville.

The public are reminded that the Bury stores will all be closed on Easter Monday.

Mr. John Lapointe spent the week-end visiting his sister and brother at Lennoxville.

NERVOUS BREAKDOWN
COULDN'T SLEEP NIGHTS

To those on the verge of a nervous breakdown the following symptoms present themselves: nervous headaches, a feeling of depression, fitful, disturbed, restless and unrefreshing sleep, often troubled with frightful dreams, avoidance of crowded places, dread of being alone, horror of society, etc.

When the nerves become affected in this way the heart generally becomes affected too, and on the first signs of any weakness of the heart or nerves, flagging energy or physical breakdown do not wait until your case becomes hopeless, but get a remedy that will at once quiet the nerves, strengthen the heart and build up the entire system.

This you will find in

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

Mrs. M. Damand, Young's Cove Road, N. B., writes: "I was bothered very much with my heart and nerves; had nervous headaches and dizziness, could not sleep at night, and my appetite was all gone. I was on a nervous breakdown when a neighbor told me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. This I did, and before I had the second box used I was better and would advise anyone who has nerve trouble to take them."

EAST BOLTON COUNCIL HAD TO ADJOURN

No Quorum Was Available, So Session Was Postponed—Several Matters Discussed.

EAST BOLTON, Que., Apr. 15.—The East Bolton Municipal Council met at its usual place of business, at the Town Hall, Bolton Centre, on April 15th. There were present Mayor E. C. Juby; Councillors Cameron, Lavoie and Lacour, and the Secretary Treasurer, Wm. E. Juby. As no quorum was available for the first hour, the necessary adjournment was made until 1 p. m. sharp, and a special effort was made to get another Councillor present. This, however, failed, so at 1 p. m. it was found necessary to further adjourn until April 15th, so that necessary business can be carried on. This tardiness on the part of the Councillors not attending causes considerable inconvenience to town officials and town affairs, necessitating further attendance of those who have already attended, and were unable to carry on business owing to their confers not being present.

Although no business could be done, certain matters were talked over and certain letters read particularly in regard to the Board of Health rules and regulations. There has apparently been some violations of these most important laws, and it is the intention of the Board of Health, supported by the Superior Board of Health, to see that these laws are enforced and violations of some duly brought to account. This move is a worthy one, and certainly should command the respect of every right thinking person, and the Secretary Treasurer is to be commended for the interest and able manner with which he is handling this matter.

The very unfortunate case of an old gentleman who is blind and helpless was brought before the members present, and being an emergency case, the Mayor was instructed to give his attention to same. This he has done, and the man in question is now safely placed in the Sacred Heart Hospital in the City of Sherbrooke, having been conducted there under the personal care of the Mayor, who has given the matter very considerable and prompt attention.

General Notes.

East Bolton is about to lose some of its worthy citizens, as Mr. J. M. Bryant and family are having a sale of their live stock, consisting of high grade Holstein cattle, also horses, among which is a fine matched pair of Clydes, and all farm equipment.

Mr. Bryant is leaving for Boston almost immediately, to enter the ice business, and it is understood that Mr. Bryant will shortly leave. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bryant have been highly esteemed residents of this section for many years, having always taken an active part in all affairs for the benefit of the Church, and the good of the community, and their removal will be a genuine loss to East Bolton, which all hope will only prove temporary and that they may again take up residence here.

Read conducted the service and gave a short address in which he spoke of the revelation of the character of the Divine Sufferer, as made known in the awful hours of his agony. In that experience before which the whole world is lost in reverential awe, Christ manifested those characteristics which he had revealed in all of his ministry—tender sympathy and consideration for others, trust in His Father and an unwavering conviction that he had come to do the will of God.

A trio composed of Mrs. Alberta Adams, Mrs. George Osgood and Mr. Albert Blier, gave a very beautiful rendering of "There is a Green Hill Far Away," and the Junior Choir sang very effectively a sweet Passion carol. The great Passion hymns of the church were sung with deep appreciation and solemnity by the whole congregation.

SERVICE IN WESLEY HALL YESTERDAY.

The climax of a very interesting series of services was held last evening in Wesley Hall. The value of the lantern in giving a message at these services has been clearly demonstrated, as it has been found that the attendance at the lantern services far exceeds that at the ordinary ones. The slides used were most instructive, and portrayed the last week of Christ's life on earth.

Rev. B. B. Brown gave an address on "Love's Final Triumph," pointing out that the great principle actuating Christ in all His relations and dealings with men and God was love. The love expressed itself in benevolence, mercy, kindness and helpfulness, culminating in His death on the cross. The apparent or seeming deceit of love on Calvary was eclipsed by His victory over the tomb and His rising triumphant on Easter morn.

The real triumph of Christ's love is found in the individual Christian who portrays and actualizes Christ's principles and lives up to His ideal every day life," said Mr. Brown. Mrs. F. H. Bradley sang two solos, "There is a Green Hill Far Away," and "Redeeming Love."

MONTHLY MEETING OF WALES HOME AUXILIARY.

The regular monthly meeting of the Wales Home Auxiliary was held on Thursday afternoon in the Y. W. C. A. Assembly Hall, with Mrs. George Cross, 2nd, vice-president, in the chair. The Auxiliary was very grateful for the following donations: A quilt given by Mrs. Malcolm MacKay; a pair of blankets and a shawl given by Mrs. Saultry; two nightshirts and a large family bible, given by Mrs. Fred Hovey; two large folding screens for the dining room from the Bridge Club; one pair of men's slippers from Mr. E. M. Armitage.

Mrs. Farnale, convener of the Entertainment Committee, reported that an entertainment was to be given by Mrs. Adams and Mr. Albert Blier at His Majesty's Theatre on April 29th. Part of the proceeds from this entertainment will be donated to the Wales Home Auxiliary.

ON EASTER MONDAY, APRIL 17, THERE WILL BE NO ISSUE OF THE DAILY RECORD.

PRICES AND DETAILS OF SHERBROOKE MARKET

Conditions at Lansdowne market showed little change yesterday with excellent supplies of dairy produce being offered at reasonable prices. Eggs which have shown a very heavy tendency during the past few weeks were fairly steady around thirty cents while a few of the dealers offered same as high as thirty-five cents a dozen. The supply of new laid eggs was very good and while a little stronger demand is being evidenced over the week-end, due to the approach of Easter, it is not expected that there will be any material change in the prices.

The butter market remains steady with choice dairy and creamery selling at thirty-five cents to forty cents a pound. The average price was thirty-five cents a pound with good offerings.

Maple syrup and maple sugar showed a great improvement over the previous week and the supplies were pretty good on the whole. The prices for maple syrup were fairly well maintained and one dollar and fifty cents was the average price per gallon. Maple sugar was offered in all shapes and forms and sold at anything from fifteen to twenty cents a pound.

Poultry continue to be scarce and sold at forty cents a pound. There is little likelihood of any increased supplies at this time of the year.

Cheese prices were firm, ranging all the way from twenty-eight cents to forty-five cents a pound. New Ontario sold at thirty cents a pound, Kraft at forty cents and Oka at forty-five cents a pound.

Potatoes were firm at a dollar a bushel and supplies are still fairly plentiful. Cabbages fetched ten, fifteen and twenty cents a head according to size. Tomatoes sold at 25c a pound, and Boston lettuce at twenty and twenty-five cents. Root vegetables were unchanged.

Celery sold at 10c to 20c a head, same being imported produce and a few cauliflower were disposed of at forty cents each. Spring onions sold at ten cents a bunch or three for a quarter and radishes sold at ten cents a bunch.

In the fruit market apples were still plentiful and sold at from sixty cents to a dollar a peck. Grapefruit were offered freely and ten cents each and two for a quarter was an average price. Bananas fetched forty-five and fifty cents a dozen, a slight decrease over the previous week. Strawberries sold at 35c a basket.

Oranges were to be had in all sizes and at all prices, running from thirty-five cents to sixty-five cents a dozen. Pineapples sold at thirty-five cents each.

The provision market showed little change and good supplies of beef and veal were offered on the market.

RHEUMATISM LUMBAGO NEURITIS vs. T.R.C.'s SCIATICA

Have you given up? Have you resigned yourself to that old, gnawing pain that nothing seems to relieve? Do you think because you can't go to Hot Springs or take some expensive treatment that you have no other alternative? We have many cases considered hopeless, tried everything, baths, serums, electricity, who found recovery in using T.R.C.'s (Templeton's Rheumatic Capsules). We have thousands of letters that prove beyond doubt T.R.C.'s to be the most practical and successful Rheumatic remedy sold. At drug-gists, $1.00 per box. For Free Trial write Templeton, Toronto. Sold by Duberger's Drug Store having changed hands at $6.75, and smaller lots $7 per bbl. ex-store. Winter wheat patents have sold at $7.50 per bbl. in new cotton bags ex-store. White corn flour was slow sale at $5 to $5.05 per bbl. in jute bags delivered.

ROLLED OATS.—A moderately fair business is reported in rolled oats, sales of standard grades being reported at $2.95 to $3 per bag of 90 lbs.

MILFEED.—A steady market for milfeed has transpired during the week. Car lots of Manitoba bran were placed at $32.25, and shorts at $33 per ton, including bags, ex-track. Broken lots of bran in mixed car orders brought $28 to $28.50, and shorts at $30.25. Pure barley meal sold at $38 to $39 per ton, pure grain moullie $37.50 to $38 and feed cornmeal $34 to $35 per ton, including bags delivered.

HAY MARKET

Montreal, April 15. HAY.—The market is firm and higher under light offerings, and a good enquiry for local and outside requirements. The sale of 25 cars of No. 2 timothy was made a few days since at $30 per ton. There is still some demand from Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. We quote No. 2 Timothy $29 to $30 per ton in car lots, No. 3 timothy $27 to $28, and clover mixed at $25 to $26 ex-track.

COUNTRY PRODUCE

Montreal, April 15. EGGS.—A remarkable feature of the egg trade is the manner in which the consumptive demand has kept up in face of the large receipts, and the fact that there are no accumulations of any consequence. A packer stated that he intended to keep out of the market for storage purposes until the consumption abated somewhat, and brought values down to a safer basis upon which to operate. Advances by last mail from England stated that owing to the large number of hands out of employment much lower prices than ruled last year were looked for. The principal trading has been in straight gathered candled stock of which the market has been cleared daily, and sales of selects have transpired at 33c to 34c. One firm had no difficulty in getting 36c for specials which are scarce. Some dealers are taking their chances in putting down selected stock for future use.

BEANS.—The market is strong at $4 per bushel in car lots, smaller quantities quoted at $4.25.

HONEY.—The demand for honey is rather slow, but prices are steady at $4.80 to $4.85 per pail of 30 lbs., and $4.25 for buckwheat honey per pail of 30 lbs.

MAPLE SYRUP.—There is a fairly good demand for maple syrup at $1.85 per tin of 13 lbs., and at 13c per lb. in wood. The sale of a good sized lot of syrup in tins was reported at a $1.75 per tin. Maple sugar sold at 16 to 17c per lb.

POTATOES.—The market is quiet supplies being liberal with prices on the easy side. Car lots of Quebec whites are offered at $1.05 and reds at 95c. The sale of a car of Quebec whites to arrive is reported at $1.00 per bag of 90 lbs.

A Modern Colonial Home

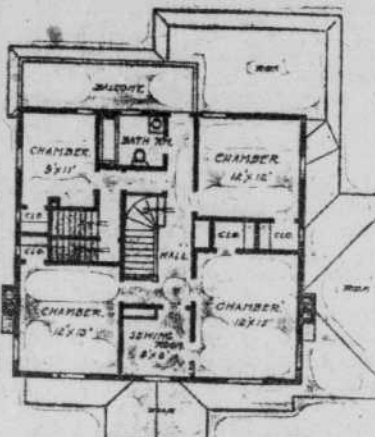

NO house design is proving so popular as the Colonial type home. The portico entrance with the wide side porch is the latest in house designs and one of the nicest things about this type house is that it can be built of any material and still maintain its simplicity and charm. The house shown today is a shingled house built on Colonial lines. It is essentially for the large family although by adding a bath tub to the first floor toilet it could very easily be made into a two apartment house.

From the vestibule entrance one steps direct into the living room which has a large brick fireplace and plenty of windows. Directly off from the living room is the sun porch which may be glassed in in winter and serve as an outdoor sitting room in summer. A fireplace could also be made on this porch as the chimney is there. While the living room is a delightful, cheery room, nevertheless we would like to wager that it would be the library that would be the favorite spot for the family to gather in the evening. It also has a fireplace and plenty of wall space permits the happy arrangement of furniture. A charming bay window makes the dining room an exceptionally pretty room.

Pantry is between kitchen and dining room and a service porch has room on it for the refrigerator. The garage in the rear of the house and under the same cover is a happy idea in which the owner of an automobile will rejoice.

Upstairs there are four bed rooms, a bath, sewing room and ample closet space. There is also an attic finished with three rooms. This house as shown here is of substantial frame construction with shingles, stained moss green. The roof shingles are stained a silver gray and all trimmings, cornices, etc., are painted white. The interior is finished throughout in white enamel with mahogany doors and oak floors. The total width of this house is 34 feet wide (main part), and 32 feet deep; the first story being nine feet high, second story eight feet six inches, and basement eight feet. Between $8,500 and $10,000 it is estimated will be required to build it, exclusive of plumbing and heating.

BUILDING COSTS IN ONTARIO NOT SATISFACTORY

Only About Twenty-five Per Cent. Lower Than in 1920.

The amazing growth of wages paid to the employees of the building trades is graphically shown by a table prepared by Watt & Blackwell of London, Ontario. In 1901 bricklayers were receiving 40 cents per hour, in 1918 it had risen to 62 cents, and in 1920 (peak wages) to $1.03, from which it was declined to $1.00 for the past year. Carpenters' wages throughout the above period ranged from 25 cents per hour to 79 cents in 1920, and have declined only one cent since then. Electricians' wages increased from 23 to 81 cents and have also declined one cent per hour, or an increase of 37½ cents over pre-war wages. Painters were paid 22½ cents per hour in 1901, 40 cents in 1913 and 73½ in 1920, and as yet has not been reduced. Laborers were paid 31 cents before the war and at the peak they were receiving 56 cents (1920), and to date they have declined 3½ cents per hour.

So that on an average wages paid to these trades today have only declined from the peak wages of 79-1-6 cents per hour to 77-1-3 cents, as against pre-war wages of 44-5-6 cents.

In turning to the comparative wholesale prices, all quotations for at Toronto, we find that average price of brick per thousand before the war was $15.00, increased to $18.00 in 1920, and has declined to $17.00 at the present time. Structural steel reached a peak of 30 per cent. over the pre-war prices, and at the present time is 5.5 per cent. of the peak. A barrel of cement in 1914 cost $9.95, reached a peak of $4.20, and is now listed at $3.70. Oak flooring pre-war cost $90 per thousand feet, touched $240 in 1920 and now cost $140. Shingles per thousand cost $3.50 pre-war and now sell at $6.25.

So that the average percentage of the prices of 15 materials used in building in 1921 to those of 1914 amounts to 54.5 per cent. and the reduction to date from the peak totals 28.4 per cent. While this condition lasts the cost of building cannot be reduced to a very great extent.

INTEND TO RESUME CLOSE RELATIONS WITH SOVIETS

Such Is the View Taken as Result of Notice Sent Out by Czechoslovakian Government.

PARIS, April 15.—The Czechoslovakian Government has sent circular letters to members of its diplomatic service to learn which are available for service in Russia, says a Prague dispatch to the Hungarian Telegraph Agency.

This is taken by the political commentators as substantiation of the theory that Czechoslovakia intends to resume close relations with the Soviets, after the Genoa conference.

FEW YOUNG MEN ARE ENTERING APPRENTICESHIP

Alarming Scarcity of Skilled Mechanics in Building Trades.

There is a very alarming scarcity of skilled mechanics in the building trades; few young men are entering apprenticeship, says Builders' Guide, which declares there are several contributing causes to this unfortunate situation, chief, perhaps, the seasonal character of the industry. Questionnaires have disclosed that on small jobs, such as residences, winter construction is feasible only when the weather favors and when labor relations are exceptionally good. The additional cost of special heating and protection appliances for winter work on large construction brings such costs up from 3 to 15 per cent. above summer construction costs. Average opinion is that materials and wages should each take approximately a 10 per cent. winter mark down, based respectively on prices and hourly wages. The contractor should co-operate by taking a mark down of about 2½ per cent. of the total costs.

The real object of equalizing building construction throughout the year is to reduce building costs, and this will come because more uniform employment will reduce wage scales, and builders will be better able to keep and train men; the men will work better for a steady job and an employer they personally know; steady employment will attract the younger generation into the building trades, perhaps the most important advantage.

Publicity of agreement to reduce material and labor costs, started locally, would, it is suggested, quickly spread the practice, while special prices might be quoted on non-industrial buildings which can be started at any time in order to keep them from being held back for summer construction when the industrial work is due.

MILDEST WINTER KNOWN IN ARCTIC FOR YEARS

(Associated Press Despatch.) TORONTO, Apr. 15.—Sir Frederick Stupart, director of the local observatory, has received the first communication from Harold Bibby, Toronto meteorologist, who left on June last to record weather observations and maintain a magnetic station on the rim of the Arctic Circle.

Mr. Bibby wintered at Fort Good Hope, three hundred miles from the mouth of the MacKenzie River. He reports that he has had a pleasant time, thanks largely to Bishop Bregnault and the priests of the Roman Catholic Mission at Fort Good Hope, who have assisted him in his work and provided him with living accommodation at the Mission.

The temperature during the winter hovered around 40 to 50 below zero, which was the mildest known in the district for many years. Mr. Bibby will return to Toronto this summer.

STRIKERS ATTACKED DEPUTIES

(Associated Press Despatch) PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 15.—Blackstone Valley strikers two thousand strong, thronged the state house corridors and besieged the doors to the Senate Chamber in an attempt to force action on the Lavender forty-eight hour bill yesterday, while the Senate twenty-six to seven, refused again to take the measure from the judiciary committee and bring it out on the floor for a decision.

The strikers, denied admittance to the Senate Chamber or Gallery, went to the plaza in front of the state house and there, with right hands raised, repeated after Thomas F. McMahon, president of the United Textile Workers, a pledge "to go out and clean up this state from the rottenness that now controls it." Three North Providence men were in court yesterday on charges growing out of an attack in the village of Mariville by about five hundred strike sympathizers upon a dozen deputy sheriffs and one hundred employees of the Jenckes Spinning Company. The attack developed into a veritable battle in the course of which stones and other missiles were thrown and clubs wielded. As far as could be learned no one was seriously injured, but a number were bruised and battered. The trio arrested were held for trial later.

JUDGE W. H. MULVENA.

After twenty-five years on the bench, Judge H. W. Mulvena has retired, creating a vacancy which it will be difficult to fill. For the past forty-two years he has been closely associated with legal matters of all descriptions and it was in 1880 that he was called to the bar after having completed his studies at St. Hyacinthe.

The loss of the benefit of his experience will be sorely realized throughout judicial circles in the Districts of Bedford and St. Francis. In addition to sitting in the local magistrate's court, Judge Mulvena has presided over the court at Swetsburg and Thetford Mines with commendable regularity, and his intimate knowledge of legal matters, particularly of criminal law, has been the envy of many of his conferees.

He has occupied a difficult position in a very creditable manner, and his thorough knowledge of both languages has represented a considerable factor in his success.

Judge Mulvena has always displayed a tendency to call a spade a spade, and if he disapproved of anything or of anybody he did so in no uncertain manner. While some people believed he was occasionally a little too severe in his judgments, others took the position that he was too lenient, but the Judge never tolerated outside interference with his official duties and assumed full responsibility for all his actions.

Although Judge Mulvena retires from active work in connection with the court and takes a well merited rest, it is the hope of his many friends that he will be spared for many years to come and be able to enjoy a period free from official cares and responsibilities.

TRUE TO LIFE AT LAST.

There is much to be said for the latest effort of the motion picture magnates to bring realism to the screen. We have always suspected that some of our pictures of so-called fashionable life were not all they should be; but now that a full-license butler with years of experience in the best English mansions has been hired to supervise the training of motion picture butlers, there is no longer any need for suspicion.

We shall now know the truth about how lords and ladies and princes and dukes behave; what they do with their napkins; how they hold their teacups, and whether they pick up silverware inadvertently dropped. There is no detail and phase of fashionable social life which this high grade butler does not know.

This new moving picture butler-trainer, for instance, has already divulged some secrets which ought to make it easy for us to tell whether this or that screen butler is correct in every detail. Butlers, we are told, should never wear side-whiskers, better known as "mutton chops"; they should never wink at parlormaids; they should never appear in full dress at nine in the morning. And, above all, we should never represent a butler with a feather duster in his hand. Butlers never do the dusting.

Then there is the matter of who opens the door to guests. From our ordinary, unsupervised moving pictures we have learned that butlers sometimes do this. But now that Charles Green, butler de luxe among the nobility, is going to train them, our moving picture butlers henceforth will refrain from doing anything so menial as opening a door to guests. That little job will be done from now on only by footmen, unless otherwise engaged.

These things are not trivial matters at all. It is always gratifying to be able to tell the sham article from the real thing—even in the case of moving picture butlers. But, above all, let us have truth, even on the screen.

HAS MAN REACHED ZENITH?

The dictum of the Princeton University professor that modern society has no place for the genius of the non-conformist is no news to representatives of either of these classifications who persist in making their appearance without leave. Despite the movement among college professors and social workers for the encouragement of genius, those who are such, or believe themselves to be such, will tell you they have a hard row to hoe; and they will heartily concur in the Princeton professor's statement that the tendency is to preserve a general state of mediocrity.

But genius, happily for it and for the world, has a way of creating a place for itself, and just for this reason no professor has so far been able to define the rules which govern its appearance or its ruling qualities. It springs out of the common clay of humanity without warning and drives over obstacles supposed to be insurmountable. Because such persons have existed mankind believes still in the miracle of genius, although the professor may have convincing proof of his pessimistic conclusion that all signs indicate man has reached his greatest development not only along physical but also intellectual lines.

BETTER TIMES ARE HERE.

The New York stock market is discounting the future not so much as the present. This is the accepted explanation of the general advance in securities prices during the last few months. Those whose business it is to know the industrial and commercial trend are convinced that the long-desired revival is under way and will not be arrested in the near future. They are acting consistently with their information and belief. They are pushing the good thing along for their own advantage and, as the sequel will prove, to the vast benefit of everyone.

TODAY'S A HOLIDAY.

April 15, 1922.

Holy Saturday.

The ceremonies attendant on this day, the eve of Easter, begin in Catholic churches with the early morning. New fire is struck from a flint, and this spark is used to light a three-stemmed candle, affixed to a reed, which is carried up the church by a deacon, who three times chants the words: "Lumen Christi."

The baptismal font is also blessed on Holy Saturday, as is the Paschal candle.

At Rome the houses of the devout are blessed by the priests. The curate walks about, accompanied by a little choir-boy who carries holy water, and enters stores and homes alike, sprinkling the water on them. He is rewarded in every case by a small gift.

In Ireland great preparations are made on Holy Saturday for the end of Lent. At midnight there is a general clapping of hands and everyone cries a Gaelic phrase which means "out with the Lent." Then all retire, arising before dawn to witness the Easter morning sun dance which is performed in honor of the Resurrection.

Our idea of an optimist is a seller who announces "popular" prices.

Even though one company has failed, the phonograph business remains sound.

In the old primitive days table cutlery would cut, but now it's more eatlery.

A lot of men who are otherwise sane continue to list their 1920 cars as assets.

Still, if it wasn't for the men who think they are distinguished looking, what would photographers do for a living?

Apparently the only thing they can't get on a record is the voice of the people.

A smile may be intended to show good humor, and it may be intended to show good teeth.

The police seldom appear baffled, however, if a few innocent bystanders are exposing their heads.

When a girl's eyes are downcast, that means modesty; when a man's eyes are downcast, that means ankles.

One reason why the bandit business is holding up is because the supply nearly equals the demand.

The modern girl may be a little affected, but she doesn't "put on" as much as the old-fashioned girl did.

PRESS COMMENT

NOT AN ACHING VOID.

(Chicago Evening Post.) If Lenine has stomach trouble it is unfortunately not the sort that is afflicting millions of his subjects.

SUCCESS FOR THEM, CERTAINLY.

(Springfield Republican.) Whatever the diplomats may think, the Genoa hotel keepers are sure that the conference is to be a great success.

EVEN THE TABLES ARE DOING IT.

(St. Paul Pioneer Press.) Liquor was discovered by revenue officers in the fifth leg of a table. This innovation will doubtless be called by courtesy the bootleg.

LENINE AND "JIGGS."

(Winnipeg Tribune.) The extension of this graceful tribute to Nicholas Linine and his entourage is one of the curiosities of modern history, and the spectacle of Lenine escorted through civilization under the friendly surveillance of the International secret police, has about it elements of humor in real life, transcending the doings of Jiggs in high society which adorn the comic supplements.

KU KLUX KLAN BEWARE!

(Calgary Albertan.) The Ku Klux Klan threatens to come across the Niagara River, kidnap the negro Bullock, who is fighting extradition in Hamilton and take him back to punishment. If a Ku Klux Klan sets foot in this country it will have to be a very fleet organization if it gets away with its own members, not including any baggage it may try to pick up after crossing the line.

MORDANT NORTHCLIFFE.

(Worcester Telegram.) No one can accuse Lord Northcliffe of partisan aims in his comment upon American affairs. He has no axe to grind. His discussion of effects of the doings and sayings of our chief figures cannot be howled down as "spiteful" or "calculated" or "disingenuous." Therefore the friends of Mr. Wilson cannot attribute to bias, or politics, or animus, his candid observation on some of the sayings of Mr. Wilson in the past three years. There is a world of feeling between the lines of:

"How those bearing the white man's burden bless Mr. Wilson for his self-determination phrase." Not even Mr. Lodge has equalled the lambent satire of that.

THE TARIFF AND FOREIGN DEBTS.

(Christian Science Monitor.) Within the United States, the new tariff bill, reported to the Senate this week, will arouse general interest chiefly because its rates are shown to be higher than any measure of that sort ever entered, and because of the very sensible action of the Senate Committee in doing away with the cumbersome and problematical provision for assessing duties upon the estimated American valuation of goods imported, instead of upon the prices actually paid for them in the foreign markets.

Outside the United States it would seem that, except among those manufacturers who take a purely commercial interest in the limitation of their markets by protective tariffs, the bill will create interest chiefly because of the extraordinarily effective way in which it is going to make it increasingly difficult for foreign debtors of the United States to pay their debts.

RUSSIA: BLOCK AND KEY.

(New York Commercial.) Russia is really the key to Europe's recovery. If trade relations could be re-opened with her by all the countries of Europe, including Germany, it would start the great economic machine moving again in all its parts. The loss of Germany as a trade factor has been a serious matter, but it is being corrected because, however slow the progress, Germany is working toward the goal of re-establishment of her commercial relations with all the world. Russia's loss from the world's trade has been felt throughout the world. She is like a house burned down. The land is there, but before it can be made useful a new structure must be reared. The Soviet Government is merely poking among the embers. It may be that Lloyd George can at least begin to clear them away. He does not promise too much; he merely hopes to make a beginning, and in that ambition he should have the encouragement and support of all the civilized world.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor of Record:

Dear Sir,—I also have read with much interest the various letters you have printed re "Daylight Saving," but as most of the writers are making protests I would like to say a word for the other side.

It seems to me the "Stukely Farmer" should blame his two accidents last summer to his own refusal to change his clock, otherwise he would have been "on time" with other people.

I am a farmer's wife, and I call "Daylight Saving" a great benefit to farmers and I know a great many farmers here in Stanstead County who are in favor of summer time. I think they must have different methods of haying in Belvidere, according to what the lady from that section wrote, as we mow our hay before the dew is off, and last year my neighbor who has a very large farm used to be out mowing at four o'clock, new time.

I see the inconveniences of the system unless it is made universal but for summer time itself I have the greatest praise and I think the fault lies with the backward people who refuse to accept anything new.

One or two shops or stores could not start anything like opening an hour earlier without inconveniencing others, and then you're right back to where you started.

Yours truly,

"PRO DAYLIGHT SAVING."

Massawippi, April 15, 1922.

RE DAYLIGHT SAVING.

Editor of Record:

Sir,—We note the Sherbrooke Council opposed daylight saving. The arguments for and against were strong, but the church authorities, as we rural people expected, were instrumental in deciding the matter. One important point, not referred to by the Council, concerns the manufacturers, who are so strongly in favor of daylight saving. Who supports and gives work to your citizens? Do the churches and schools? Where does the money come from to support your clergy, build your beautiful churches and feed your people? It comes from the manufacturers. This being the case, we sincerely hope the manufacturers will adopt daylight saving to suit their convenience, as they have the just and sacred right of absolute precedence in this matter over any other class of business in your city, including church authorities as well.

Regarding sports as a secondary issue, as mentioned in your Council, those who labor in your factories and other industrial lines, should have a say in the matter of daylight saving, and should voice their statements publicly, as without them your plants could not run, and furthermore, your churches and schools would suffer for want of support.

Last, but not least, who furnishes the capital in your city to give employment to your people, is it the denomination and class against daylight saving, or those in favor of it—perhaps the latter!

Thanking you for space,

RURAL DISTRICTS.

SALE OF CITY POWER.

Editor of the Record:

Dear Sir,—Will you please publish this letter in denial of the statement made by Mr. O. H. Cote, trade commissioner for the city of Quebec, to the effect that the city of Sherbrooke was offering unfair inducements to prospective industries in the sale of electricity for power purposes at prices lower than cost. The affairs of this department of the city of Sherbrooke are controlled by a regular by-law, or amendments, and no offer has been made within the knowledge of the department to any concern for any purpose at rates deviating from those prescribed by such ordinance, nor has any other concession of any description been offered to any industry, prospective or otherwise, within the knowledge of the council.

Yours very truly,

H. E. PAWSON,

Manager,

Gas and Electric City Department.

SUTTON

On April 6th Donald Cleland, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Shufelt, passed away at the age of thirteen years and eleven months after only four days' illness of grippe and meningitis. The funeral was held in the Methodist Church at Sutton, the service being conducted by the Rev. J. Rough, who preached a beautiful sermon and spoke many words of comfort to the sorrowing relatives and friends in attendance. The bearers were Messrs. Gordon Hazard, Herbert Derby, cousins of deceased; Gordon Bennett and Jos. Gagnon, intimate friends. The interment took place in Fairmount Cemetery, Sutton, in the old family lot beside his Grandfather and Grandmother Shufelt. The hymns sung were "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and "In the Dawning of the Morning." There were a number of beautiful floral tributes, consisting of a wreath and sprays of carnations and spray of geraniums. Donald was a bright, active boy with a natural talent for music, and could play the violin with considerable skill for a youth of his age. He was a general favorite among his playfellows and schoolmates, who were deeply grieved and shocked on learning of his sudden death, and amongst whom he will be greatly missed. The relatives from a distance were Mrs. J. H. Stebbins, Sherbrooke; Mr. K. MOTOR TRUCKS

for Heavy-Duty Work

Heavy "Duty" is right. The duties of a motor truck in every-day service for the average busy concern are "heavy" to say the least. Heavy loads, hard pulls, fast work—demand real, true "bone-and-muscle" construction.

This is one reason why a nationally known concern has upwards of 300 International Motor Trucks in city and country service where road conditions are exceptionally severe.

International Motor Trucks are built as strong as expert mechanics can accomplish, using the highest grade of material obtainable. Further—each truck is watched and inspected by International road engineers at regular intervals—as long as you own it.

This is a combination that means cheaper hauling for you, in your business. Let us demonstrate at your own work.

The regular saving of a stipulated sum of money is not only within your power—but a habit every thoughtful person should cultivate.

Hupmobile Dealers Wanted In Sherbrooke and Eastern Townships

Every city and town in the Province of Quebec needs, and will soon have, a Hupmobile dealer.

The Hupmobile, while ranking with cars that cost much more, sells at the remarkably low price of $1875.00 f.o.b. Montreal fully equipped.

This brings it within the reach of persons of ordinary means, and makes it a wonderful proposition for the dealer.

The man we are looking for to represent the Hupmobile in your territory, is a hustler and a good business man.

To such a man, we can practically assure many prospects, sales and exceptional profits.

This is the first year we have been able to supply the great potential demand for Hupmobile outside of the metropolitan centers.

Now the Hupmobile factory has greatly increased its production to supply this demand.

This creates a money-making opportunity. You may be the man we want.

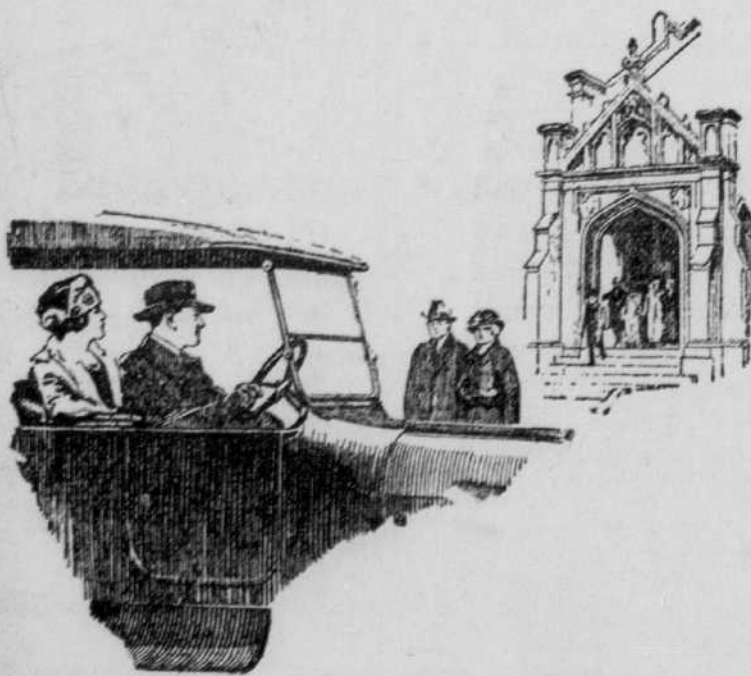

Remember that we have no back-breaking requirements—nothing but what will enhance your bank standing. And our discount rate is much more liberal than is ordinarily offered.

It is unmistakably to your advantage to talk this over, absolutely without obligation. Let us hear from you at once.

Reasonable bank credit and moderate initial investment required.

The W. A. of St. Peter's Church held their regular monthly meeting for March at the residence of Mrs. Henry S. Osgood, some thirty members being present. GIVE DETAILS OF METHODS OF 'WHISKEY RING'

Another Arrest Made at Detroit
—Claim "Ring" Had Headquarters in Canada and Mexico.

(Associated Press Despatch)

DETROIT, Mich., April 15.—Joseph Michaelski, said by Department of Justice operatives to be a member of an "international whiskey ring," with headquarters in Canada and Mexico, is under arrest here.

United States Commissioner J. Stanley Hilyard yesterday held him under ten thousand dollars' bond for appearance on a liquor law charge in Toledo, where alleged confederates are in custody.

Outlining the methods of the whiskey ring, Federal agents said the scheme was to ship a carload of liquor from Canada to Mexico, routing it across the central states, in which members of the band were stationed. These confederates would break the car seals and obtain supplies of liquor to be sold in this country, the car reaching its destination in Mexico empty.

MOST RECOVERED.

EXPECT A BUSY SEASON AT THE QUEBEC PORT

Chairman of Quebec Harbor Commission Discusses Prospects for the Ensuing Year.

(Associated Press Despatch)

QUEBEC, April 15.—More than two hundred vessels are expected in the Port of Quebec during the coming summer, according to Chairman Power, of the Quebec Harbor Commission.

When interviewed, Mr. Power stated that there was a sum of $1,500,000 in the supplies at Ottawa for the Quebec Harbor, and that item would be passed soon after the Easter recess of Parliament.

Speaking of the grain trade, he said that the farmers in the West had not begun sending yet, and it was a little early to say how the grain movements would turn out. It was very evident, however, that the Port of Quebec would be ready to receive all comers. So far as the Harbor Board was concerned, there would be no idle moments for the grain elevators. The rest was for the farmers to decide.

BANDITS MAKE HAUL AT CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND, April 15.—Diamonds valued at fifty thousand dollars were taken from the office safe of the Max Kurjan Company, jewelers, in a downtown office building this morning by three bandits, one masked, who entered the store with drawn revolvers, drove David Gimp, office manager, and a friend into the safe, seized the diamonds and escaped.

SCHOONER WITH LIQUOR CAR-GO SEIZED.

NEW YORK, Apr. 15.—The two masted schooner W. F. Dodge said to be bound from Nassau in the Bahamas, for St. Pierre Miquelon, with a load of liquor, was seized by a police patrol as she was entering the narrows late last night, it was learned today.

New LIBERTY Six

"All the World
Loves a Winner"

$2100 Fully Equipped

F.O.B. Sherbrooke

Owners of previous Liberty models have been generous in their praise of the new Liberty Six. For they saw in the Liberty new elements of beauty—a grace of line, a wealth of conservative smartness, a richness of beauty entirely original and refreshing.

They saw a roomy and inviting interior construction with high-backed seats pitched to fit the normal body posture, deeply cushioned, and upholstered in genuine leather.

They saw in the new Liberty a prophecy of the fine, dependable service they have learned to expect from every Liberty—for beneath the new exterior they found the same superb character of chassis construction that has been a part of the Liberty since the beginning.

They saw the same Liberty triple head motor whose buoyant power and economy is the exclusive property of Liberty owners; they saw the finger weight controls, the smoothly setting brakes, and the soft clutch which prevent the slightest semblance of driver fatigue; they saw all the familiar details which represent years of study, research, and designing, months of thinking and refining, and hours of scrupulously careful toil—and which insure that constancy and steadfastness of performance which have won and held their very real affection.

They saw five superb new body models, each appointed and equipped with smartness and distinction, and each so conservatively priced as to offer an amazing value.

See the new Liberty Six today. Let your judgment confirm what Liberty owners have so freely said.

'The SNOWSHOE TRAIL'

By Edison Marshall

"Why, Harold, you are to be our little truck horse," Virginia replied, as she handed Bill more thongs. "You are going to pull the sled and show the way down into Bradleyburg."

XXIX
When the dawn came full and bright over Clearwater, Bill and his party were ready to start.

When Harold had been thoroughly cowed and his full instructions given him, the thongs had been put about his ankles and removed from his wrists, and he was permitted to do the packing.

That procedure was exceedingly simple; all available blankets were piled on the sled and made into a bed for Virginia, and the ax, candles, and such cooking utensils as were needed were packed in front. And then they had a short but decisive interview with Harold.

"I won't go—I'll die first," he cried to Virginia. "Besides, you don't dare to use force on me; you don't know the way and Bill can't see. You know if you kill me you'll die yourself."

"Fair enough," Virginia replied sweetly. "But take just this little word of advice. Bill and I were all reconciled to dying when we thought of you—and we won't mind it now if we're sure you are going along. And Bill will tell you that I can shoot straight. Perhaps you learned that fact last night."

They lengthened the thong that tied his ankles together, giving him room for a full walking step but not enough to leap or run.

They put on his hands a pair of awkward mittens that had been stiffened by mud and water, and lashed them to his wrists.

Then they slipped the thong of the sled across his shoulders and under his arms like the loops of a kyach. They were ready to go.

"I haven't much hope," Bill told Virginia when she was tucked into the bed on the sled. "But it's the only chance we have."

She smiled at him. "At least, Bill, we'll have done everything we could. Goodbye, little cabin—where I found happiness. Sometime, perhaps, we'll come back to you!"

The man bent and kissed her, and she gave the word for Harold to start.

At the end of three bitter days, Bill Bronson stood once more on the hill that looked down upon Bradleyburg. The twilight was growing in the glen beneath; already it had cast shadows in Virginia's eyes. She sat beside him on the sled.

It had been cruel hardship, the three days' journey. But fortune had played them well in this—they had found the food Vesper abandoned.

Virginia was on the rapid road toward recovery from her wound. It had not been severe; while she was lying still on the sled it had had every chance to heal.

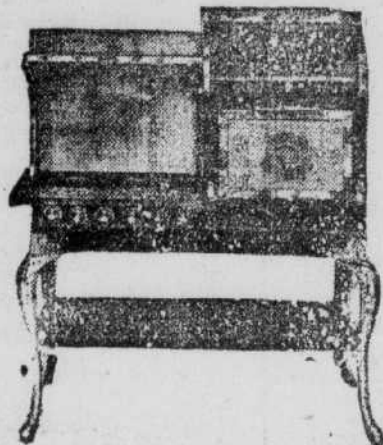

Bill's sight had grown steadily better as the days had passed; already the Spirits of Mercy had permitted him, at close range, to behold Virginia's face.

A half-mile back, just before they approached the first fringe of the spruce forest, they had met a trapper just starting out on his line; and he had gladly consented to take Harold the rest of the way into town. He was to be lodged in prison to face a charge of attempted murder—a crime that in the northwest provinces is never regarded lightly.

"And you weren't drowned!" the

Don't Cook Over a Hot Range KEEP COOL! Cook Electrically

The discomfort of a hot range and a hot kitchen has always been associated with the preparation of family meals. This need no longer be the case—thanks to the development of electric cookery as brought to perfection in

The Electric Range

In this appliance the electric heat is concentrated at the cooking points, and all of it goes into the cooking—none into the kitchen. The range itself is perfectly cool except over the cooking plates. The thickly insulated oven allows no heat to escape into the room.

Its cleanliness of operation and perfection of result are of essential importance to the comfort and health of the family.

trapper marvelled, when he had got his breath. "We've been mournin' you for dead—for months."

"Drowned—not a bit of it," Virginia answered gayly. "And don't mourn any more."

Bill felt wholly able to follow the broad snowshoe track the half-mile farther into town. The footsteps of the men had grown faint and died away—and Virginia and he were left together on the hill.

They saw the church spire, tall and ghostly in the twilight, and Bill's strong arms pressed the girl close. She understood and smiled happily. "Of course, Bill," she told him. "There is no need to wait. In a few days I'll be strong enough to stand beside you—at the altar."

Giants Knocked Mammaux Out of Box — Bancroft and Snyder Got Homers.

(Associated Press Despatch.)
NEW YORK, April 15.—Sherrod Smith, of the Brooklyn, made his debut as an underhanded flogger against the Giants at the Polo Grounds yesterday and had poor success.

Replacing Mammaux, in the secondinning, Sherrod started hurling in the queer style employed by Carl Mays, of the Yankees, and while he had plenty of speed, the Giants took kindly to his offerings, gathering nine hits while he was on the mound. Bancroft and Snyder, of the champions, each added a home run to the National League's early season collection. Lee Phillips, right fielder, connected with one of Rube Marquard's benders for a homer at Philadelphia and ran up the National League's home run total for the season to nine. American League batters have but one to their credit. Lee's homer helped his team but little, as Marquard hurled well and won a six to two game for the Braves.

After three costly infield errors, the Red Sox used two extra pitchers and a pair of pinch hitters in an unsuccessful effort to defeat the Athletics at Boston.

Rain and cold caused a postponement of other Major League games.

"POP" ANSON DEAD.
(Associated Press Despatch.)
NEW YORK, April 15.—The passing of "Pop" Anson, grand old man of baseball, was mourned today by an army of his friends in New York.

John McGraw and Higgle Jennings, of the Giants, Wilbert Robinson, of the Brooklyn Club, and their players were told of Captain Anson's death after the game yesterday afternoon at the Polo Grounds. All were deeply grieved.

Sport writers and a great number of other persons who know, admired and loved Captain Anson, recalled his presence at the last world's series. He was one of the liveliest spectators, enjoying himself by poking fun and swapping stories with other old timers.

Scores of messages of condolence and sympathy have been sent to Captain Anson's family in New York.

Captain Anson made two trips abroad as a baseball player. In 1874, he was a member of the United States team that toured England, playing baseball and cricket. The players knew little or nothing of cricket, but their terrific batting offset their other playing defects, and they had unexpected success. In 1888 Anson toured the world with National League players which party included John K. Tener, then a pitcher of the Chicago White Sox, A. O. Spalding, John M. Ward, Ed. Hamilton and other noted figures. In the twenty-two years of his diamond career with the Chicago Club, Anson played in 2,250 games, knocking out 3,013 hits and scoring 1,665 runs in 8,947 times at the plate, giving him a grand batting average of .337, one of the greatest long distance records in baseball history.

"Come in and have your ladders repaired so they will be invisible." "Why should one take a ladder to be repaired at a hosiery shop?" The explanation is simple: A "ladder" in England refers to that kind of a "run" women don't like to get for their money.

It is alleged the accused have been under suspicion for some time. After the preliminary hearing the accused were taken on Thursday to St. Joseph, Beauce, for further hearing.

J. D. CAMIRAND TROPHY WON BY SHERBROOKE

Local Trapshooters First in the Tournament Held by Grand Trunk Riverside Gun Club.

(Associated Press Despatch.)
MONTREAL, April 15.—Sherbrooke trapshooters won the J. D. Camirand Trophy yesterday when their five men team scored 112 at the registered tournament of the Grand Trunk Riverside Gun Club. The defending Grand Trunk team was second with a total of 109 and the Ottawa team third with 108. J. J. Henry won the high gun and G. G. Abbott the long run, although F. W. Morris, (pro) made a run of 60. Forty-seven contestants took part in the tourney, which had been sanctioned by the American Trapshooting Association and all scores made were officially recorded.

The Sherbrooke scores:
S. G. Newton 22
S. R. Newton 24
C. C. Goodhue 20
W. H. Southwood 22
J. E. McCrea 24
Total 112

It is interesting to note that Messrs. W. H. Southwood and J. E. McCrea were also awarded medals for securing the high score in two of the events. The Sherbrooke trapshooters have made an auspicious start and it promises well for future season events.

Mrs. Crandall is visiting her sister. Miss Frances Willis is spending the holidays at Brownville Junction, Me.

Latest reports from Mr. Clifford Beaton, who is in the Sherbrooke Hospital, state that he is doing as well as could be expected.

Mr. C. M. McCrea, of Cookshire, district deputy grand master for St. Francis district, paid an official visit to Fidelity Lodge, No. 77, Megantic, on Tuesday, April 11th. After the functions of the evening a social hour was spent, followed by refreshments. Mr. McCrea was accompanied by Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Pratt, of Cookshire.

The recent heavy rains have raised the level of the lake some four feet, reaching the top of the Government wharf on Thursday.

The Late Mr. M. S. Persons.
The funeral of the late M. S. Persons, who died at his home on Saturday, April 8th, from heart failure, took place from his late residence on the Ditchfield road on Tuesday morning to St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The procession formed at the house was met on its arrival by a large number of citizens, who followed to the church.

At the church the service was conducted by the Rev. James Cormack, who spoke words of comfort and condolence. The choir rendered the hymns "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," "Lead Kindly Light," and "Peace, Perfect Peace," with Miss Helen Beaton as organist. The bearers, all old friends of the deceased, were Messrs. Allan McDonald, C. Bramhall, E. Rider, S. Veary, M. A. McLeod and W. J. Kelly. On leaving the church the solemn cortege proceeded to Echo Vale Cemetery, where the body was laid to rest.

The deceased leaves to mourn the loss of a faithful and loving husband a wife, a daughter, Estella, having predeceased him seven years ago.
Among relatives present from out of town at the funeral were Mr. Joseph Lewis, a by-lawyer, and his wife, Emma Warder; James Lewis, from Cowansville; Osborne Lewis, from Waterloo, brother-in-law; Mrs. Bull, a sister-in-law, from Foster, and Joseph Persons, a cousin, from Farnham.
The late Mr. Persons was born at East Farnham, Que., on July 3rd, 1852. He was married at North Troy, Vt., on December 3rd, 1876, to Miss Lewis, who survives him.
Mr. Persons settled in Megantic some forty years ago and has a long and faithful record to his credit in the community, having been a great worker in the Methodist Church in the old days before the church was burned, and for many years served as choir leader. He was once mayor of Agnes before the joining-up of Agnes and Megantic as one municipality. The high esteem in which he was held was fittingly shown by the church being filled to its capacity. In the passing away of Mr. Persons the community loses a highly-respected citizen, and one that will be mourned by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

MUCH INTEREST IN GYMNASTICS AT BISHOP'S

Annual Competition Held at Bishop's College School.

The annual gymnastic competition in connection with Bishop's College School was held in the school gymnasium. Increased interest was taken in this year's display owing to changes in the formation of teams, and many friends and relatives of the boys were present.

The training of the boys was under the direction of Sergeant-Major J. Pyke, who received many congratulations on the efficiency and good work of the boys.

The first day's competition embraced the row of rings, pair of rings, climbing rope and bridge ladder. The exercises on the apparatus were principally muscle tests, and the condition of a performer can therefore easily be judged by his work.

ESCALADING RACE.
The second day's competition comprised the horizontal bar, parallel bars, buck and pomel horse. The exercises on these apparatus call for considerable activity, presence of mind and precision. Napier, Sullivan, Baker, Moseley and Neel showed capital style and execution on these apparatus. The closing event, an escalading race, was, as usual, the most interesting of the series.

Twelve cups are presented every year by Mr. J. K. L. Ross, chairman of the board of directors.
Judges—Rev. A. J. A. Butler, Lieut.-Col. Leacroft, Mr. H. F. MacLeare, Sergt.-Major C. Brown, R. C. R.

CUP WINNERS.
Class 1, seniors—Napier 162½ points, Sullivan 160, Baker 145½.
Class 2, intermediates—Sise I, 116 points, Harcourt 115, Monk II, 114½, MacLaren 114.
Class 3, juniors—Hamilton I, 93, Dale 92, Patton 90½, Campbell 90, O'Mara 88½.
