Quyon citizens' committee building B of M clientele

In a desperate search for 100 new customers for the Bank of Montreal branch in Quyon, a Citizens' Committee has been at work under the leadership of Eddie McCann.

With a contribution of $145 from the Pontiac Council, the committee has mailed out 1500 letters to residents in the Luskville to Bristol area, asking them to use the Quyon branch of the B of M. Only if they can recruit 100 new clients by the end of May will the B of M Quyon branch continue to serve the community.

There are about two thousand customers in that branch at present but the bank has decided to remove services unless there are a hundred more by month's end.

As an added incentive to the Citizens' Committee, the bank has proposed to keep Saturday hours which would be a convenience to the many people in the area who work and bank in Ottawa and are never in Quyon when the local bank is open.

If they follow through on this offer, the Saturday banking would be a great asset to cottage owners in the whole area. The Quyon branch would likely close one other day, such as perhaps Monday, but if the Saturday hours are initiated this would provide a full six day banking in the area, between Shawville and Quyon.

The Citizens' Committee is acting entirely on a volunteer basis, unpaid, in this promotion work for the B of M. A large "thermometer" has been erected beside the bank to indicate their progress in attracting new customers to the bank. As indicated on the "thermometer", they have thus far added 15 names to the list of B of M depositors in the Quyon Branch.

Hotel changes hands

Gavan's Hotel in Quyon, owned and operated by Lennox and Marguerite Gavan since 1946, came under the ownership on May 3rd, 1983, of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Matechuk of Sault Ste. Marie.

For the past twenty years Nick Matechuk has worked for the Algoma Central Railway (famous for the Agawa Canyon Tour) as a machinist. His wife, the former Laurena Robinson of Beachgrove, an elementary school teacher in Sault Ste Marie, is completing the school year there before joining her husband in Quyon. The Matechuks have two children, Lori-Ann, 17, and Kathy, 7.

While Nick leaves behind a family of two brothers and two sisters in Sault Ste Marie, the move is a home-coming for Laurena who has nine sisters and four brothers.

As far as future plans for the hotel are concerned, Nick says he plans to leave the name unchanged and will work hard to maintain the Gavan traditions laid down over the years and strive to live up to their well-earned reputation for hospitality.

Lennox and Marguerite Gavan have moved out of the hotel to a house just a stone's throw away.

Radio Pontiac is under new management

Having survived almost two years during which everything terrible that could possibly happen did, Radio Pontiac is still alive and broadcasting eighteen hours a day.

The new coordinator is Luc Chevrier who comes with some previous community radio experience, some experience working with governments, and is a bilingual native of Aylmer.

Annette Gravelle is the new program manager for the station, a role to which she is eminently well suited. Annette has worked with Radio Pontiac since it went on air and will host its second birthday at her Leslie Ranch on Sunday, July 24th.

Assisting this bright, young, and hard working pair, are a team of employees and an even larger group of unpaid volunteers. The staff consists of Marcia Herault who is in charge of advertising, Lorraine Gagné, Gilles Gervais, Donna Skelly, Patrick Dubé, Robert Junior Denault, Valerie Anne Lance, and Michel Graveline. The volunteers are many and change from time to time and now include Maynard (Red) Bennett, Helen and Revel Robinson, Greg Hunt, Michel Chartrand, Suzanne Paradis, René Corriveau, Margot Routhier, Robert Wills, Monik and Paule Amyotte, Carl Morin, Josée Lance, Madeleine Colton, Luc Laroche, Richard Lalonde and others. Only a few of these are on-air helpers and Annette is always interested in new people to help out in many capacities.

A part of her duties at the station include the teaching of an on-going course in community radio, covering every aspect of broadcasting, the technical aspects and the necessity to conform with the CRTC regulations. Reshaping the station to abide by these regulations is the major project being tackled by Annette at this time. After two years of experience, finding its way out of one large problem after another, Radio Pontiac must now conform to the law without delay.

The board of directors at present consists of Neil Nevilled who is acting president, Fred Ryan, Elden Denault, Patricia Skripsky, Marcia Herault, Annette Gravelle and Luc Chevrier, the last three being permanent employees at the station.

The language of broadcast at Radio Pontiac changes five times a day, starting and finishing in French but using English for two periods of three hours, morning and afternoon. There is one period when the announcements are in French and the records are in English.

The language at the station is a comfortable mix, everyone using the language they feel most at home with. There is a relaxed and happy atmosphere at the station these days, giving one the impression that everybody up there is trying to build a new tradition in friendly communication with the community.

The station is in St. Peter's School in Fort Coulonge and the call letters are CHIP. It can be found on the FM dial at 101.5, and the programming will continue to be just as interesting as Annette can make it with as much help as possible from the rest of the community. Her number at CHIP is 683-3155.

Need for a CLSC office in Shawville

The Adina Rebekah Lodge sent form letters to different organizations, ladies auxiliaries, and church groups in and around Shawville asking for certain basic CLSC services.

First - regular service by a Social Councillors at least once a week. Second - we request that various CLSC prevention and information programs be provided in Shawville (pre-natal courses, nutrition courses, public information programs aimed at youth etc).

We received twenty letters back from the different groups signed by their President and Secretary.

The Rebekahs then contacted Mr Carlos Guiliani who is on the Board of Directors for CLSC and asked him to put this proposal on the agenda for their next meeting. Four Rebekahs, Mrs Jean Horner, Verna Armitage, Mary Draper and Gloria Green attended the meeting in Fort Coulonge and took the twenty letters with them.

The town council agreed to permit the CLSC people the use of a room in the town hall one day a week. The Board of Directors from CLSC seemed impressed with our letters and the fact that we had a place for them to work from. They also agreed that there was a need for a CLSC office in Shawville but didn't know if their budget would allow for a councillor to come to Shawville.

Gloria Green then met with Mr St Denis, the President of the Board of Directors, Mr Pigeon who is in charge of the Bryson office and Mayor Allan Black to see if the room in the Town Hall would be satisfactory to work from for a councillor in the way of privacy. The men thought the room was suitable and thought the location was very central.

As it now stands we are writing letters to Mrs Geraldine Hutton, Directrice Intarimaire, CSSSO, 1040 Blvd St Joseph, Hull, Que. J8Z 1X9, asking for an office in Shawville.

Any group or individual who would like to see a C.L.S.C. office in Shawville may also write to the above address. We can use all the support we can get as things seem to be at a stand still.

Shawville United Church

Following the morning service at Shawville United Church on Sunday, May 11, 1983, Mrs John R McDowell who has been secretary of Maple Grove Cemetery for 35 years, was presented with a reading lamp on behalf of the Cemetery Committee, by Mrs Stan Widdicombe.

At the same time, Walter Kilgour who served as Clerk of Session for the Shawville Pastoral Church for the past 33 years, was presented with a book, by Kenneth Wentworth, on behalf of the Congregation of Shawvill United Church.

Colombo's Concise Canadian Quotations

Edited by John Robert Colombo

Hurtig Publishers-Edmonton

Colombo's Concise Canadian Quotations is a collection of familiar and memorable Canadian quotations which are the thoughts and sayings of some of those who call themselves Canadians — a celebration of Canada. It presents 2500 quotations, arranged according to 600 subject categories, with an index of 1000 authors. The detailed index does not simply list page numbers, but presents a précis of each quotation along with its page and column number.

For every familiar quotation like ("The twentieth century belongs to Canada") there are perhaps ten that deserve to be familiar, like (Pessimism is a form of intellectual laziness). It is only through a book of quotations, carefully selected, that such remarks will reach and remain accessible to a wide Canadian public.

As well as providing enjoyment and instruction the quotations should provide good topics for conversation. For example, "The desire to take medicine is perhaps the greatest feature which distinguishes man from animals." - Sir William Osler.

"To me, the apex of life is to have dinner with a beautiful woman — my wife, preferably." - Arthur Hailey.

"If men could get pregnant, abortion would be a sacrament." - Laura Sabia.

"You won't find me very interesting. I never do anything but work." — T.C. Douglas.

"The Senate is the saucer into which we pour legislation to cool." — Sir John A MacDonald.

"Adultery is the same the world over; it's only the method of approach that varies." - Sir James Lougheed.

"Art is anything that people do with distinction." - Louis Dudek.

"The future really belongs to those who will build it." — Pierre Elliott Trudeau.

"For permanent peace by the help of God, let us build more Friendships instead of Warships." — Jack Miner.

"All true wisdom is only to be found far from the dwellings of men, in the great solitudes; and it can only be attained through suffering. Suffering and privation are the only things that can open the mind of man to that which is hidden from his fellows." — Igjugarjuk (An Eskimo).

"While there's snow on the roof, it doesn't mean the fire has gone out in the furnace." (John G. Diefenbaker speaking of old age.)

There are 2489 more quotations all derived from Canadian sources and intended for Canadians. Colombo spent approximately six years compiling the material for this book hoping that it would not only heighten national awareness and provide gleams of wisdom, but also tell us lively and intelligent things about ourselves, and at the same time "stir up a little controversy in our somewhat soggy cultural climate."

[Colombo's Concise Canadian Quotations was donated to the Shawville-Clarendon Municipal Library by the Canada Council.)

Pembroke Lay Ministries flourish

The First Pembroke Diocesan Lay Ministries Bilingual Programme has been a tremendous success. Candidates from across the diocese have just successfully completed a two year program. A large crowd joined with Bishop Windle and many priests in celebration of the Ascension Mass where the candidates were mandated to serve the People of God in general Parish Ministries.

In commending the candidates last Sunday for their dedication, Bishop Windle noted that, "In this the Holy Year, the diocese is indeed blessed to see such a vibrant program flourishing. He emphasized that this is just a beginning of the learning process for the Candidates."

Rev. Patrick Dobec, Director of the Lay Ministries program, mentioned that the participants in the Weekend Courses complete a study in catechetical methodology, basic doctrine, scripture, Christology, church, sacraments, Mariology, morality, liturgy and social justice. "They are also encouraged to work along with their pastors to meet the needs of their parish and to grow in their commitment and fulfill the mission laid down by Christ on Pentecost Day and highlighted by Second Vatican Council.

Mrs Eileen Miller, President, opened the meeting with the Ode and Collect.

The minutes of the April meeting were read by the Secretary, Mrs Carol Clark, and approved. In the absence of the treasurer, a report was given by Mrs Isabelle Graham.

A thank you note was read from Wyman MacKechnie, in appreciation for the gift presented to him at the banquet on April 16th.

Convenors reports were given. Citizenship Mrs Irma Trudeau, read an article on 'Learning from History'. Health and Welfare- Mrs Nina Stewart, Using shampoo, Most people use too much. This can be costly to hair condition as well as to your pocketbook.

The new program books were available and a motion was made by Mrs Marlowe Campbell and seconded by Mrs Irma Trudeau that the payment be made from the funds for the books.

Mrs Isabelle Graham moved that we purchase two pair of tea towels for the sale table at the convention being held at Macdonald College. Mrs Nancy Mayhew seconded this motion.

A complete report from the County Convention held in Quyon was given by the delegate, Mrs Jean Finlan.

The Agricultural Convenor was in charge of the program. Mrs Rena Graham read several tips on spring planting. How spring planting adds zest to your summer menus. She then held a quiz from her readings and in true teacher style if you were not listening to the hints, your marks were low, much enjoyed by all.

The June meeting will be held at the home of Mrs Blanche Johnson, in Renfrew.

There being no further business the members then enjoyed a lovely lunch served by the hostess.

CHAMPION

Québec has some of the best forest fire fighting equipment in the world. The Québec government's water bombers are known throughout the world for their efficiency. It is, however, much easier and less costly to PREVENT forest fires.

Before starting a camp fire, choose a clear spot, free of wind, close to water, and at a reasonable distance from trees. Let us heed GAROFEU's call.

FROM MATTAWA TO OTTAWA

We all know about Big Joe Mufferaw who paddled down the Ottawa, all the way from Mattawa, in just one day. But we also know that not even Big Joe could do it today because of the various dams along the way, not to mention the rapids.

However, there's hope on the horizon that some clever ways will be devised, even in our lifetime, to surmount these impediments to progress along the beautiful Ottawa River.

With the help of launching ramps and boat lifts which will be affordable and not interfere with the environment, a boat will eventually be able to do the whole distance and more, opening up this beautiful waterway which has been our own private paradise for so many years.

Since tourism is the major expandable industry in the area, a navigable river will be of immense importance to the economy. Boating is one of the few sports that can involve the whole family so any encouragement that can be afforded to boating, is also encouragement and support for the basic unit of our society: the family.

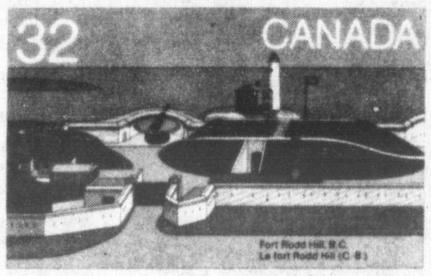
There are more than two and a half million pleasure craft in Canada and 713 boat builders and other related recreational manufacturers. Canada's recreational boating business develops a direct value of $1,800,000,000 every year. There are more fresh-water lakes and rivers in Canada than in any other country in the world and a large percent of these are in the Pontiac. Canada's lakes cover close to one and a half million square miles and our major rivers run for over twelve thousand miles. Canadians own twice as many boats per capita as U.S. Citizens do, and Canada has about 2,725 marine dealers and marinas.

When the facilities are installed on the Ottawa River to bring boats up from Ottawa and Montreal and the U.S. there will be room in Pontiac County for a number of these dealers and marinas, and many more jobs for local people.

Big Joe, here we come!

Ten new stamps for Canada Day

The Canada Post Corporation has decided to use military forts as the theme for ten Canada Day stamps this year. Three forts in Quebec, three in Ontario and one each in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Manitoba and British Columbia, all now preserved as National Parks or historic sites, will appear on these 32 cent domestic mail stamps. Official issue date is June 30, 1983.

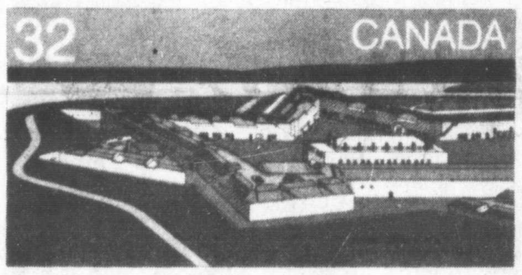


Fort Rodd Hill

Fort Rodd Hill, overlooks the entrance to Esquimalt Harbour on Vancouver Island, British Columbia. From 1896 to 1956, its batteries of disappearing guns served as part of the coast defence system for the west coast of Canada. Located very near the fort is the historic Fisgard lighthouse, the first to be erected on Canada's west coast.

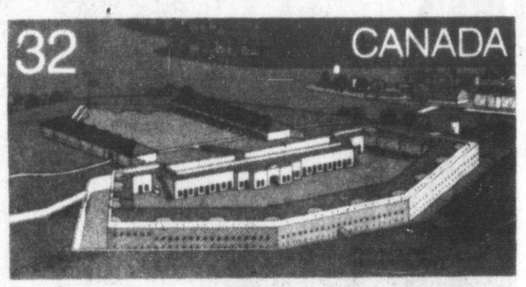
Fort Beauséjour

Fort Beauséjour, at Aulac, New Brunswick was built in 1751 to defend French territory near the Bay of Fundy. It was captured by the British in 1755 and renamed Fort Cumberland. In 1776 during the American revolution, it was beseiged but withstood an attack by New Englanders. It was garrisoned until 1833.



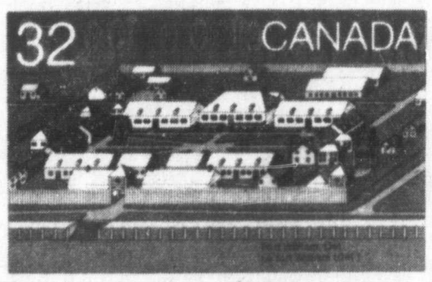
Halifax Citadel

Halifax Citadel-Fort George, Nova Scotia is one of the best surviving examples of 19th century fortifications in Canada and is the 4th and most extensive structure to occupy the site overlooking Halifax and the harbour. Built to defend the landward approaches to the naval dockyard, it was later adapted to defend the harbour. It continued in use until the end of World War II.



Fort Henry

Fort Henry, Ontario was built of a series of six detached casemated redoubts in the early 19th century to defend the port and naval base of Kingston. It occupies a strategic peninsula, the site of an earlier Fort Henry used in the War of 1812 and overlooks the site of the former naval dockyard and harbour.

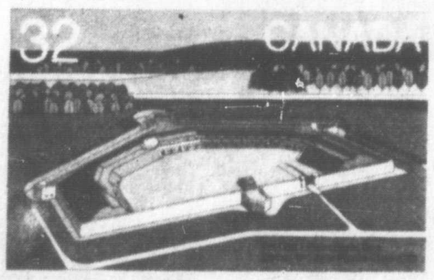


Fort William

Fort William, at the mouth of the Kaministikwia River near Thunder Bay, Ontario, was the inland headquarters of the North West Company and served as a major trading depot for trading expeditions into the west. Construction began in 1801 and the fort was used until 1816 when it was seized for 9 months by Lord Selkirk of the Hudson's Bay Co. When the Northwest Co. amalgamated with the Hudson's Bay Co. in 1821, the fort continued in use until 1883.

Fort Chambly

Fort Chambly, southeast of Montreal, Quebec, was built in 1665 by Jacques de Chambly to defend the Richelieu River and the approaches to Montreal. The present stone fort was built in 1709 and is the third on the site. It was captured by the British in 1760 and during the War of 1812 served as a supply centre.



Point Lévis

Fort No. 1, at Point Lévis, Québec opposite Quebec City, formed part of an entrenched camp. Its intended purpose was to defend the south shore and deny an enemy approach to Quebec from that side of the river. It is one of the few existing examples in North America of a fort built on the polygonal system and defended by caponiers.

Fort Prince of Walls

Fort Prince of Wales at the mouth of the Churchill River in Manitoba was built by the Hudson's Bay Co. in the 18th century to protect its fur trading interests in the far north. Construction began in 1731 but was not completed until 1771. Samuel Hearne set out from Fort Prince of Wales on his overland expedition to the Arctic Ocean.

Fort Coteau-du-Lac

Fort de Coteau-du-Lac is southwest of Montreal. The fort was constructed to protect a supply depot and to defend the first canal built in the St Lawrence. The locks of the canal are within the fort's grounds. During the War of 1812, it served as an advance post for the defence of Montreal.

Grist and miscellaneous

As mentioned previously, school board elections will be held on June 13th, but only if there are some nominations. The nominations must be made on Monday, June 6th between the hours of noon and 2 p.m. in the Board Office in the S.E. McDowell School for seats 3 and 7 and in the Onslow School at Quyon for seat 9. Seat 3 represents Clarendon South, seat 7 represents Shawville South of Main Street, and seat 9 represents the Quyon area east of Bristol.

Everyone in business in Shawville is urged to attend a meeting of the Shawville Business Association on Thursday morning, May 26th, at 8 a.m. at Bob Smith's Restaurant.

Letters from our readers

OPEN LETTER TO THE PARENTS OF PPHS

Last Thursday evening, Brian Swan, outdoor physical education consultant for the Protestant Regional School Board of Western Quebec, was at the high school. He gave an excellent verbal and slide presentation to ten parents (all school committee members except for two), Mr Barry McGown, Vice Principal, and Mr John Petty, Physical Education Department head.

This week approximately 65 students from the high school will be visiting the outdoor center near Poltimore. Where were the parents of these students? It is very discouraging for the School Committee when meetings like this are organized and only a handful of parents show interest.

The education of your children is of major importance - especially with the proposed white paper on School Reform.

We are not asking you to join the School Committee although it would be nice to have more parents involved. We are asking you to show interest and support to the School Committee and persons directly involved with the education of your children by attending meetings such as the one held last week.

Helen Routliffe

Dear Sirs:

There was a meeting held by the Pontiac Tourist Association, Thursday, May 19, 1983, at Campbell's Bay, P.Q. discussing new policies and goals.

The new president, Mr Fuoco was eager to start the ground work towards promoting tourism, throughout the Pontiac. The Pontiac Tourist Association, through the Equity, will keep you posted as to the progress.

For the present time, any information required may be obtained at 648-2055.

Thank you.

Yours truly, Judy L'Ecuyer, Sec.

Fort Wellington

Fort Wellington at Prescott, Ontario, was built during the War of 1812 to help protect the vital St Lawrence transportation route. In February 1813 its garrison marched across the frozen river to capture Ogdensburg, N.Y. In 1837 during the Upper Canada rebellion, the fort was rebuilt by the British Army. In 1838 the garrison of the fort helped to defeat a force of rebel "patriots" and American sympathisers at Windmill Point near the fort. The fort was garrisoned until 1870.

FOREST FIRE PREVENTION

WE ARE RESPONSIBLE

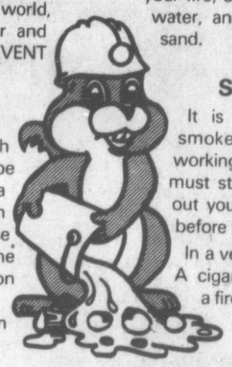
Human beings are the cause of more than three-quarters of all forest fires. At least one thousand fires occur each year destroying 15 000 to 20 000 hectares of woodland. Québec has some of the best forest fire fighting equipment in the world, but it is far easier and less costly to PREVENT fires.

LUNCH FIRES

When lighting a lunch fire in the woods, be sure to choose a clear spot away from the wind and close to water. Clear the area of all vegetation and scrape down to mineral soil within a one-metre radius, to prevent the fire from spreading.

You can easily cook a whole meal on a SMALL fire. Never leave it unattended and add wood only when ncessary.

Use plenty of water to extinguish your fire, stir the ashes, add more water, and finally cover it with sand.



SMOKERS!

It is forbidden by law to smoke while walking or working in the forest. You must stop to smoke, and put out your cigarette thoroughly before throwing it away.

In a vehicle, use the ashtray. A cigarette stub could start a fire.

YOUR SOCIÉTÉ DE CONSERVATION

There are seven Sociétés de conservation in the province of Québec. They are non-profit organizations created specifically for forest conservation. They work to prevent, detect and suppress forest fires. Support them.

Remember that, in the province of Québec, one person out of seven earns his living from the forest.

Person to Person

HOW DELIGHTFUL

What a lovely gift the Recreation Association has made to the Home on the Hill! The complete eco-system represented by the beautiful fish tank with its plants and large size tropical fish will provide hours of interesting enjoyment for everyone in the Home.

This imaginative gift demonstrates a real understanding of the people who will benefit the most. Wheel chairs are always needed, and special beds, and a hundred other practical pieces of equipment, but for recreation and an ever-changing hobby that can be entered into by any number of people, that fish tank is a winner.

It's beautiful. I've spent a lot of time in years past when, from time to time, we have had tropical fish for the amusement of the children, watching the colorful little creatures interacting with eachother. I know how entertaining they can be. I'm sure the folks on the Hill will enjoy many hours with their tropical fish. How nice that the whole ensemble was obtainable right here at the pet shop on Main Street, Shawville. And just to make sure that the tank and its bright contents are properly maintained, the chairman of the board of directors of the home has volunteered to check it daily and keep it sparkling.

Bravo to the Recreation Association— Bravo to the chairman of the board! The whole project is purely delightful.

Prime Minister opens new digs

Prime Minister Trudeau paddled across the Ottawa River from Parliament Hill to Parc Laurier in Hull last Friday morning to take part in a ceremony to open the excavation of the site of the new National Museum of Man. The archaeological dig will be carried out before building of the new museum begins. Archaeology buffs are invited to visit the site. Planners are even giving some thought to permitting enthusiastic amateurs to help with the dig.

In the background, across the Ottawa River, are the Parliament Buildings.

Archaeological research suggests that the site was visited five thousand years ago and served as a campsite and portage point in the early 1600's as well. During the 17th and 18th centuries the Ottawa River provided a water route from the St Lawrence River to the interior, used by native people, explorers, voyageurs, missionaries and settlers, all of whom left traces of their presence. The archaeological digs at the museum site are the first in a "rescue archaeology" program undertaken by the federal government because of the historic significance of the area. The National Museum of Man has a mandate to investigate Crown property before any construction is undertaken, unearthing Canada's buried heritage before the bulldozers move in.

[Dr. Elizabeth Dickson is travelling for the next three weeks as a Member of the Governor General's Study Conference, so her regular columns "Liz on the Hill", and "Around the World" will not appear until she returns to Shawville.]

Bristol Schools. A large number of ratepayers representing school districts of No. 4, 7, and 10 of Bristol met with Bristol School Board requesting that said schools be kept open. The school board had decided to consolidate schools 4, 7 and 10 into an enlarged No. 9 and ratepayers and parents have now made their feelings known to the contrary through their petition.

Vinton Leads Baseball League. In a scheduled double header of the Upper Ottawa Valley Baseball League at Campbell's Bay on sunday, Sheenboro and Campbell's Bay tied 1 to 1 in the first game, and Campbell's Bay took the second game 3 to 1. Pitchers were Cecil Vibert and Jack Thomas for Campbell's Bay and Jimmy Fox and E. Walker for Sheenboro. Vinton still leads the league in point standings.

Campbell's Bay Council. The election at Campbell's Bay this week brought three new councillors into office, namely Dick Bowie, Frank Hampell, and Jack O'Neill.

Shawville Home and School Meeting heard an address by G.A. McLeod, Inspector of Public Schools in Renfrew South. Mr McLeod proposed that the four pillars of civilization, reading, writing, speaking, and thinking should be more thoroughly taught in school. He deplored the modern day habit of turning everything over to a committee. Shawville president Walter Kilgour gave a report on the Quebec conference of Home and School Association. Arthur Dagg, in thanking the speaker, remarked that as much education can be received out of schools as in classes, by the reading of good books.

Lions Attend Rally. Upwards of 150 Lions, the largest gathering of Lions from Region 22 ever to assemble for an annual meeting, met at Forest Inn, Bryson, with Shawville Lions as hosts.

Died. Christopher (Christy) Jennings, well known and lifelong resident of Sheenboro, died recently at his home there. Mr Jennings was in his 100th year, having been born at Sheenboro, Dec. 25th, 1858.

Homes must aid schools. Too much is expected of the schools, by the public generally, Dr G.W. Parmelee, former head of the Protestant education in Quebec recently told a Quebec service club.

Shawville Hockey Club Tendered Dinner. Messrs B.H. Cochrane & Son, of the New Pontiac House, entertained the officers and members of Shawville Senior Hockey Club to a bountiful turkey dinner at the hotel on Friday evening of last week.

Married. At Christ's Church, Aylmer, on May 19, by Rev F.A. Allen, Opal Esther, oldest daughter of Mrs Langford and the late Mr Stanley Langford, of Shawville, to Norris R Horner, youngest son of the late Mr and Mrs Hugh Horner.

The Anniversary Services of the Shawville United Church are to be held on Sunday, June 25th, with a lawn social on the following evening.

Vinton . . .

Deepest sympathy is extended to the family of the late Mrs James Kelly. Mrs Kelly died at the Bonneschere Manor on May 13th, 1983. A large funeral was held on May 16th in St Elizabeth's Church in Vinton.

Get well wishes go out to Mr Gedeon Pilon who underwent surgery at the Pontiac Community Hospital. Miss Cheryl McGee spent a week recently visiting her parents Bertha and Leo McGee. Then she went to Mattawa, Ontario to visit her brother Dillon, Diane, Allison and Lesley.

Fishing in troubled waters

The Gazette, Montreal, Wednesday, May 18, 1983.

The Quebec government should not operate fishing vessels. It is trying to do just that, possibly as a nationalist relfex. The people of the Magdalen Islands are paying a heavy and unnecessary price for this Quebec policy.

Agriculture Minister Jean Garon has seized six fishing vessels belonging to Madelipêche, a company owned 51 per cent by Quebec's United Fishermen co-operative and 49 per cent by the province's Société de Développement Industriel.

Legally, Mr. Garon acted within his rights since his ministry held the mortgages to the boats and $300,000 in payments were late. The vessels are worth $10 million; $1.3 million was still owed on their mortgages. The Quebec government has given them to one of its crown corporations, Soquia (Société Québécoise d'Initiatives Agro-alimentaires).

Mr. Garon has asked the federal fisheries department to transfer to Soquia the fishing permits of the six seized vessels. Soquia is also offering to rent the fish processing plants of Madelipêche.

All of this can only mean that Soquia wants to catch fish, process them and sell them, which it is unlikely to do at a profit, judging by the track record of other Quebec crown corporations. But then Canada's fishing industry is in deep financial trouble and Quebec seems irresistibly attracted by poor financial prospects.

The federal government has refused to transfer the fishing permits to Soquia. It is bringing down, in June, a plan to help restructure distressed east coast fishing enterprises such as Madelipêche.

Meanwhile Ottawa has told all creditors that they needn't expect to obtain fishing permits if they seized boats before the projected restructuring of the industry. Ottawa doesn't want foreclosures all over the east coast.

It begged Quebec not to set a bad example for other creditors by seizing the boats of Madelipêche. Quebec would not relent. Was Quebec's foreclosure designed to forestall a federal rescue plan and impose one made in Quebec instead?

Meanwhile, Madelipêche has offered to rent its seized boats from Soquia and get the fishing season started — weeks have been lost already and 500 people have remained jobless. Surely, Mr. Garon should let the fishermen and fish plant workers of the Magdalen Islands work again and worry about jurisdictional disputes with Ottawa later.

Mill Fire. Mr Hugh S. Elliott, of the Sheneaux, who sustained the loss of his sawmill by fire on the 1st of April, has a new mill in course of erection, but has been hampered in its completion by the high water in the Ottawa River.

Politics. We trust our readers will pardon us if we devote more attention these days to political than other matters. The battle will be short and we want to be in it while it lasts, so that when the smoke clears off, we may justly claim a place in the ranks of those who won the fight on the principle of "Pontiac for the Pontiackers!"

Died. Mr William McVeigh, of the Clifton House, Bryson, passed away at three o'clock on Monday morning, after a lengthy period of declining health.

Scobie House Opening. The opening of the Scobie House, Norway Bay Hotel, will be held on May 25th. Every arrangement is being made to have a pleasant time. Professor Workman is expected for pianist. A good floor manager from Ottawa has been engaged. Come one and all and join the sport. W.J. Scobie.

Early Rising Dangers. It may comfort many lazy people to know that the shock of immediate rising in the morning may produce insanity, and that the wakefull rest in bed is necessary for one's health, according to the Parisian scientist Dr. Savary.

Liberals. A shuffle among the leaders and wire-pullers of the Liberal Party in Pontiac whereby Mr Gillies drops out of sight and Charles R Devlin is projected upon the political canvas, constitutes the development of the past week so far as Pontiac is concerned.

Conservatives. Choice of Dr McNally Ratified. As a result of the convention held here last Thursday, Conservatives throughout the County of Pontiac will not be in doubt as to who their candidate will be at the provincial election on Monday. Dr McNally, having once put his hand to the plough, so to speak, is not a man to turn back. Mr Edward Davis, who with Mr James Colton, were here Thursday attending the Conservative convention, reports that the Coulonge River is exceptionally High this Spring.

Shawville Notes

On May 17, Mr and Mrs Clifton N. Woodley celebrated their diamond wedding anniversary with their family at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Catherine and Norman Horner.

The Laurin plan...

When Dr. Laurin introduced his original White Paper on school reorganization, parents and citizens wasted no time in letting him know they wanted no part of it.

The Minister planned to abolish locally elected school boards and create thousands of individual "school corporations" which could offer less resistance to government regulation. His scheme was vigorously opposed.

A recent public opinion poll confirmed Québecers disagreement with the Minister.

83.2% think schools should be under the jurisdiction of school boards. 76.6% say school commissioners should continue to be elected by universal suffrage. Only 5.7% feel any urgency to reorganize our school system.

Québecers want to retain their local school boards with real authority to manage and operate their community's schools. They want the right to choose representatives who will make sure that schools deliver quality education. They want to be certain that schools can never be used as a forum for partisan politics.

Now the Minister says he has changed the plan, but when you read the fine print, there are no real changes at all.

The Minister's costly revisions ignore demands for strong school boards that provide a sensible balance of power between the state and the local community. Instead, Dr. Laurin is trying to mislead the community with verbal maneuvering and political subterfuge.

By shifting public elections to the school council level and creating literally thousands of school commissioners, he will eliminate school board access to a real public mandate. The Minister's plan will atomize local leadership and open the door to further centralize and bureaucratize our school system. The quality of education is certain to suffer.

Dr. Laurin says he will give Anglophone communities their own school boards. The truth is, all communities will lose their school boards, and the Minister will be left at the top of a new educational pyramid where he will be master of all he surveys.

Real democracy is still in danger.
Keep up the fight to save your rights.

Gardening
by Tom Towle

Flowers give more than aesthetic beauty to our homes and gardens, they show other people that we care about the appearance of our dwellings. Whether it is a mansion or a more humble abode, flowers add that something special which makes people stop to admire a tasteful arrangement of colours. In the garden certain flowers can repel pesky insects as well as brightening up the gardens horizons with friendly colours.

It doesn't have to be something new and exotic to catch the eye, in fact some of the best results can be achieved by using the more common flowers geraniums and petunias but using them in unusual ways: Dusty Miller, with it's silver lace-like foliage is the perfect border plant that contrasts well with all varieties of flowers; set among a bed of Coleus. Dusty Miller will bring out the rich-textured hues and shades of colourful leaves and make them stand out all the more. Both these plants will do well in partial shade or sunlight and should be spaced approximately 8 to 10 inches apart. Coleus like so many of the major bedding plant species have been expanded to include umpteen varieties to suit every whim but all of them have brightly coloured leaves which take on a deeper, richer hue when in the shade; they can be taken into the house int he fall very easily by taking cuttings and rooting them in vermiculite.

If you have an area which you want covered for the summer try the quick growing annual Black-Eyed Susan, which will hang or climb anywhere and is covered with a profusion of yellow flowers; Thunbergia in a hanging basket is a real showpiece and likes full sunlight. For dry sunny areas Portulaca will perform well and has a bright mixture of colours and you need not worry about watering as it thrives in dry conditions.

Marigolds too come in every size from the Petites to the Giant Crackerjacks and everything in between. For companion planting among cabbage and the other crucifers the French Dwarf will help control the white moths which lays the eggs to the ravenous green worms that destroy so much of the crop. Yellow Boy is a compact plant that can be set out and left on its own to stand guard in the cabbage patch.

Whatever you plant a little bit of ingenuity and careful planning can give you a whole season of pleasure and continuous display of colours. It is always wise to get the healthiest and strongest plants possible for these will do the best when transplanted out.

We can take some consolation in the wet, late spring in that the trees should have a record year of growth.

Bell Canada is 100% owner of Télébec Ltée; For these reasons, we ask that the clients of Télébec Ltée benefit from the same services at the same rates as those of Bell Canada.

a letter relating to the application of Bill No. 33 (Professional qualification of contractors) was introduced by Mayor Rhéal Racine.

Resolution: Moved by Hilgert Bretzlaff and seconded by Delbert Zacharias that for the following reasons:

1. Contractors are obliged to follow the regulations relating to construction as set out by the Office de la Construction du Québec; thereby hiring workmen who meet the requirements of the regulations;

3. There are a number of important competent workmen within the municipalities and county without work, who do not conform with the regulations of the Office de la Construction du Québec but who are capable of accomplishing the work required by the contractors:

We ask the Lieutenant-governor in council to exclude from the application of Bill No. 33 (Professional qualification of contractors) the licence of contractors who are operating within the territory of a municipality of 5,000 souls or less.

Semaine de sécurite à bicyclette au Club Optimiste Grand Calumet

Le Club Optimiste Grand Calumet tient sa Semaine de Sécurité à Bicyclette du 22 au 28 mai, événement qui fait partie de ses nombreux services rendus aux jeunes de sa communauté. A cette occasion, la Municipalité du Canton de Grand Calumet a bien voulu proclamer cette semaine sur son territoire.

La Semaine de Sécurité à Bicyclette était créée par les Clubs Optimistes pour souligner qu'une coexistence intelligente peut se faire entre les cyclistes et les automobilistes sur nos rues et grandes routes. Les enfants dans nos écoles élémentaires apprendront les principes de la sécurité en bicyclette à l'aide des démonstrations pratiques et épreuves d' adresse.

Les activités prévues par le Club Optimiste Grand Calumet pour souligner cette Semaine se sont déroulées dimanche, le 22 mai. Des jeunes ont alors reçu de la documentation sur la sécurité à bicyclette et ils ont pu démontrer leurs habiletés dans cinq épreuves, soit: équilibre à basse vitesse, conduite en cercle, freinage, la conduite elle-même et des manouevres.

Une plaque a été remise au gagnant dans chacune des catégories: Pierre La Salle chez les 6 à 9 ans, Richard Ladouceur chez les 10 à 13 ans et Colline Gagnon chez les 14 à 16 ans, tous de l'Ile du Grand Calumet.

Un trophée, fabriqué à la main par les deux responsables Henri La Salle et Roger La Salle jr, a été remis pour l'année à Richard Gagnon de l'Ile du Grand Calumet pour la bicyclette la mieux décorée.

Les membres du jury étaient composés de Roger La Salle Jr, Claude et Thérèse Lussier, Richard Cliche, Ghislaine Gagnon et aux chronomêtres de Lianne La Salle et Carole Asselin.

La Société de radio-télévision du Québec annonce le lancement d'un premier concours de scénarios-TV, doté de trois bourses de $4,000, pour les jeunes auteurs dramatiques de moins de 30 ans. Ecrits pour un public de 14 à 18 ans, les trois scénarios primés feront l'objet d'émissions, en vidéo, de 85 minutes environ, au cours de l'année 1983-84.

C'est principalement dans le but de combler une lacune dans le domaine des textes pour la catégorie des 14 à 18 ans que Radio-Québec initie ce concours par le biais de Jean Salvy, chef de production. Ce nouveau projet va également permettre à Radio-Québec d'instaurer un dialogue avec les auteurs et les aider à exercer leur métier.

Les scénarios peuvent prendre les formes les plus diverses: la dramatique traditionnelle, la comédie musicale, le documentaire, etc. Les critères et normes qui guideront les jurés sont l'originalité et la qualité des personnages, la situation et la construction dramatique: la possibilité de réaliser l'émission avec des moyens limités, c'est-à-dire de 1 à 6 personnages; de 1 à 3 décors simples.

Les candidats intéressés doivent s'adresser à Radio-Québec pour obtenir les règlements du concours à: Concours de scénarios-TV 1983, bureau C-422.5, 800 Fullum, Montréal, H2K 3L7, ou à un des bureaux régionaux de Radio-Québec (514) 521-2424.

Tous les textes, signés d'un pseudonyme, devront parvenir à Radio-Québec avant le 30 septembre 1983, à midi. Le jury annoncera les noms des gagnants (es), un mois plus tard, soit le 31 octobre.

Semaine de la Famille d'Accueil

Du 23 au 29 mai se tient au niveau provincial la "Semaine de la famille d'accueil". L'objectif de cette semaine est de faire connaître le rôle et l'apport des familles d'accueil au sein de la communauté et à l'intérieur du réseau des affaires sociales. Les familles d'accueil hébergent plus de 24,000 enfants, adultes et personnes agées, une ressource donc très importante dans le réseau des affaires sociales et pourtant très mal connue de la population.

Une famille d'accueil est, au sens de la loi sur les services de santé et les services sociaux "Une famille qui prend charge d'un ou plusiers adultes ou enfants, d'un nombre maximum de neuf, qui lui sont confiés par l'entremise d'un centre de services sociaux". La famille d'accueil est donc reliée par contrat avec un CSS qui est l'établissement responsable de l'évaluation, de la reconnaissance, de la supervision des familles d'accueil et assure également le suivi professionnel des personnes placées.

On retrouve en familles d'accueil environ 15,000 enfants et 9,000 adultes et personnes âgées. Pour les enfants (0-18 ans) Placés en familles d'accueil, plusieurs ont vécu et vivent encore des problématiques de tout ordre, séparation, mauvais traitement, abandon, inceste, etc. En familles d'accueil pour adultes, on retrouve des déficients mentaux, des handicapés physiques, des ex-détenus et patients psychiatriques, des personnes âgées, etc.

Etre responsable de famille d'accueil n'est pas une mince tâche. Une disponibilité de 24 heures par jour et de Sept jours par semaine est nécessaire. Mais en plus de cette disponibilité, les besoins des personnes confiées aux familles d'accueil exigent beaucoup de compréhension, de générosité, d'amour et une qualité de présence incontestable.

Ces ressources du réseau des affaires sociales ne reçoivent bien souvent que très peu de compréhension et d'appui de la population dont elles sont pourtant aux services des plus démunies.

Cette semaine des familles d'accueil à laquelle collaborent activement le ministère des affaires sociales, les centres de services sociaux, les conseils régionaux, la fédération des familles d'accueil du Québec (FFAQ) et la Corporation des pavillons et familles d'accueil pour adultes (COPFAA) se veut donc une expression de reconnaissance et de gratitude à l'égard des responsables des familles d'accueil qui accueillent les 'Mal Aimés" de notre société afin de leur donner une place au soleil.

Le centre de services sociaux C.S.S. une ressource du milieu

Les C.S.S. et les personnes âgées. Parmi les 400,000 personnes qui ont bénéficié de l'aide apportée par les Centres de services sociaux du Québec (C.S.S.) au cours de la dernière année, se retrouvent plus de 30,000 personnes âgées. Ce sont des personnes qui à un moment de leur vie ont dû recevoir une aide temporaire pour leur permettre de traverser des périodes plus difficiles. La situation de Joseph T. et de son épouse Marie l'illustre très bien.

La situation de Joseph T. et de Marie. M. Joseph T. et son épouse Marie demeurent depuis plus de quarante ans dans leur maison. Ils ont tous les deux plus de 70 ans. Jusqu'à maintenant, ils ont vécu une retraite heureuse et sans histoire. Le couple n'ayant pas eu d'enfant, leurs relations se limitent au voisinage et à la visite peu fréquente d'un neveu et d'une nièce.

Un jour, la maladie frappe l'un des deux conjoints. L'hospitalisation s'en suit et le difficile retour à la maison. A cause de l'état de santé précaire de l'un des conjoints et la capacité d'autonomie diminuée de l'autre, se pose le délicat problème d'assurer à ces personnes toutes les conditions nécessaires au maintien d'un environnement le plus satisfaisant pour elles.

Le Centre de services sociaux a offert à ces personnes un support humain nécessaire pour analyser avec elles leurs besoins, les ressources nécessaires et les volontés du couple.

Au fur et à mesure de l'évolution physique et psychologique du couple, diverses alternatives peuvent être utilisées. Dans des situations comme celles-là, le travailleur social du C.S.S. essaie de mettre à la disposition des personnes âgées diverses ressources, telles, un intervenant qui assure une présence périodique, une aide ménagère en collaboration avec le C.L.S.C., une famille d'accueil ou finalement un centre d'accueil.

Les interventions du C.S.S. se font toujours dans l'optique de permettre aux personnes âgées, de vivre des changements importants de leur mode de vie, dans le respect de l'évolution physique et psychologique de ces personnes.

PERSPECTIVE

Rev. Ed McCaig

"Do you mind if I ask you a very personal question?"

The young woman's voice was quiet and serious, in a way that suggested she had something very important on her mind. She was speaking to a man who once had been her minister, many years before. He was now in his sixties, not many years from retirement; she was in her mid-twenties, with flowing black hair and soft gentle eyes that could have led her to become a model. What could she possibly want to ask him that was so important, he wondered. Yet even as he wondered, it was as if he almost knew.

As she was speaking, his mind went back a quarter-century, to a small town a thousand miles away, where something had almost happened, but something else had happened instead. He and his wife had decided to adopt a child, to add to their family of two, after the doctors told them they could have no more of their own. They had gone to the local Children's Aid, and the social worker had told them that a child was expected for adoption in the near future. If they were prepared to accept that child at birth, they could count on being his or her parents. They agreed to that arrangement joyfully, and began to make preparations.

The weeks that followed, however, brought a sudden change of plans. The minister's wife became very ill, and it was immediately clear that this was not the right time for a new baby to come into their home. Sadly, the couple informed the Children's Aid that they could not accept the child after all.

Not long after, however, the social worker called the minister again for another reason. A family in the minister's church had applied to adopt a child, and had given his name as a reference. All that was needed was a postive word from him and the adoption would be approved. The child they had in mind for this family, the social worker added confidentially, was the very one that would have come to the minister and his wife. The Children's Aid hoped to receive his letter of reference within a few days.

When the minister sat down to write the letter, however, the words would not come. He had some reservations about the lifestyle of the family in question, but that was not the real problem. His concern was that this child he was asked to recommend was the one who had almost been his own. This child - as yet unborn - was nevertheless still special to him. Was this the family where the child belonged? After many hours, the letter was finally written, and sent, and the adoption was approved. A few weeks later the family in his church had a new baby daughter. Only the minister and the social worker knew that she had almost come to live in the manse.

Not long after, the little girl's parents asked if she could be baptized in the church, and the minister agreed. But then he decided to do something he had never done before: he went out and bought a children's book of Bible stories, the very best he could find. On a Sunday that he would never forget, he took the little girl in his arms, baptized her with a special secret love in his heart, and offered his own silent prayer for God's blessing on her life. Then after the service he presented the surprised parents with the book of bible stories, to be read to her when she was older.

In less than a year the minister and his wife moved to another church hundreds of miles away. For a time they kept in touch with the little girl's parents, but then her family moved as well, and the minister lost contact altogether. Still the little girl lingered on in his thoughts, and day by day found her way into his prayers.

Now, strangely enough, twenty-five years later, here she was again. She had made a point of searching the minister out. During the meal that they had just shared, she had told him her story. She had always known that she was adopted, she said, but her family had given her a wonderful Christian home. Her parents had often read to her from the book of Bible stories, and she still had it. Now she was reading from it to her own little son. But there was something she still could not understand. Perhaps this was the moment to ask her one other question.

"I know I have not been in touch with you since I was very young," she began again, feeling a little foolish. "But that book of Bible stories has always been very special to me, and I have always felt that somehow I was special to you." She paused. "Tell me, are you related to me?"

And in as steady a voice as he could command in that moment, the minister had to say simply that he was not related to her, and did not know any more about her natural family than she did. What he did not say was that something beautiful had just happened in his heart.

And when God does something that beautiful, all you can do is say "Thank you."

Tuesday supper guests with The Thruns were Mr and Mrs Peter Ebert who are now staying in their country home at Barnes Lake.

Mr and Mrs Walter Yack and Mrs Reinhold Pasch attended the centennial services of Zion Lutheran Church in Pembroke last Sunday.

For unknown reasons perhaps unusual weather or pollution or other causes the Eastern bluebirds have failed to come back to their usual meeting place. While Killdeers and horned larks and house wrens have almost dissappeared in this district while other birds are scarce even the blackbirds.

IN MEMORY

DALE - In loving memory of a Dear Husband, Father and Grandfather, who passed away May 25, 1980.
When evening shades
are falling,
And we sit in quiet alone,
To our hearts there comes a longing,
If he only could come home.
Friends may think
we have forgotten
When at times
they see us smile,
But they little know
the heartache
Our smiles hide all the while.
Lovingly remembered by wife, Genevieve and family. BM25

To meet again.

we love you still.

Clean-up time and forest fires

Michael O'Leary

If spring brings back pleasant weather it is also for the Société de Conservation de l'Outaouais the time when, at the beginning of its forest protection season, most forest fires are detected.

At this time of the year all fires, except for some rare exceptions, will be caused by people. Almost all are caused by clean-up fires and grass fires.

The Société de conservation de l'Outaouais is a non-profit private corporation whose mandate is to prevent, to detect, and to suppress all forest fires to be found on its territory, no matter how small they may be. This task is not easy. Last year the SCO had to cope with 374 fires on its eighty thousand square kilometers of territory, private and publicly owned land. This is a hundred more forest fires than the yearly average recorded since 1972, the year of the incorporation of the seven Sociétés protecting the province's forests.

Of these only 47 forest fires in 1982 can be directly related to a natural cause: lightning. This means that last year 327 fires (87%) were caused by careless or negligent people, resulting in damage or destruction to hundreds of hectares of forests. It is difficult to positively identify those directly responsible for these fires. It is, however, possible to determine during what kind of outdoor activity they were ignited, whether it be by mistake or, as very rarely occurs, intentionally.

Contrary to popular belief, forest workers are not one of the major groups responsible for igniting forest fires, even though they spend most of their time in the forest.

In 1982 only four forest fires were attributed to forest operations. Those who enter the forest only occasionally, and are not familiar with basic notions of fire prevention, are responsible for the majority of forest fires. Last year 243 fires were ignited by people travelling through the woods for recreational purposes.

During this season the Société de Conservation de l'Outaouais must deal with a relatively high number of fires ignited by persons residing on or near wood areas. Since the easiest way to get rid of trash for many people is to set fire to it, many grass fires and clean-up fires are being lit. These are two of the most direct causes of forest fires in spring.

Grass fires, which are prohibited by more and more municipalities, are useless and even damaging to some soils. They cause more damage than benefits, as evidenced by the many burned buildings and destroyed plantations. As for spring clean-up fires, they should only be lit when fire danger is low and after all the necessary precautions have been taken.

Prudence is the key word, not only in the forest but also in its vicinity, especially during springtime. As the forest fire protection mascot says: "Cease fire!"

EMPTY BOTTLES

What percentage of forest fires is caused by glass bottles . . . 0%. There is no use fooling ourselves; man is the direct cause of more than 75% of forest fires. Wild animals, the usual victims, never start fires.

Remember that, in the province of Québec, one person out of seven earns his living from the forest.

Preserve our resources by heeding GARO-FEU's call.
