MILWAUKEE TRUST CO. CAN WEATHER THE LOSS

Depositors Reassured by a Notice Issued by the Directors To-day. Milwaukee, April 25.—Despite assurances that the Milwaukee Trust Company was in no financial straits, the financial troubles of Frank G. Bigelow, former president of the First National Bank of Milwaukee and confessed defaulter, have caused a panic in the city, and crowds of people to-day waited long before the opening of the trust company bank to withdraw their deposits. The depositors gathered at the National bank where there were comparatively few at first, but the number continued to increase.

THIRTY THOUSAND MEN WILL GO INTO CAMP

Ottawa, April 25.—(Special.)—The militia authorities are busy with preparations for the summer camps of instruction. It is expected that between twenty-five and thirty thousand men will go under canvas in various parts of Canada. Improved hospital tents and mess tents have been arranged. There is also a scheme to improve the footwear of the men. Many militia men show up with boots which are not calculated to stand the training work. To supply footwear for the whole force would cost the country about $100,000 annually. It is expected the Government will arrange to have a supply of regulation boots at each camp, and the man who wears a boot condemned by the inspectors will be required to purchase a suitable pair. Four years ago camps were supplied with boots for men who wished to purchase at cost. Not enough were sold to pay freight charges.

DETECTIVES FOLLOWED MANY FRUITLESS CLUES—MRS. COVELL MAY DIE

London, Ont., April 25.—(Special.)—The two suspects arrested in connection with the Rodney murder have been released, the detectives being fully satisfied that neither one has anything whatever to do with the crime and there does not appear to be the slightest prospect of another arrest being made. The mystery surrounding the murder daily increases. The officers started out yesterday on what they supposed was a clue to the solution of the murder but after spending the entire day on it they returned to the village and reported that they were no nearer a solution than when they started out. If the officers counted at first on getting any help from Mrs. Coville in unravelling the mystery they have abandoned the idea now. The questioning of the woman continues but her experience on the night of the tragedy appears to have affected her mind and she contradicts herself at every turn. Some days ago the opinion prevailed that Mrs. Coville was withholding information that would cause the arrest of the murderer. That opinion no longer exists and the old woman now excites sympathy, not suspicion. In the course of her conversations with the detectives Mrs. Coville made a statement that would point the crime as being the outcome of an old grudge against the idea now. The question of the woman's first husband, Andrew Baker, Mr. Piers recalled that when her assailant kicked her he made the remark that Baker had wronged his (the assailant's) sister. Following this up the detectives visited a neighbor who it was thought might have a grievance against the Coville's, but nothing came of the visit.

HONEST CONFESSION. A Doctor's Talk on Food.

There are no fairer set of men on earth than the doctors, and when they speak they are in error they are usually apt to manifest an honest and manly confession of the fact. A case in point is that of an eminent practitioner, one of the good old school, who lives in Texas. He is an unvarnished tale needs no dressing up. "I had always had an intense prejudice, which I can now see was unfounded, against the use of Grape-Nuts, but I never read a line of the many 'ads.' of Grape-Nuts, nor tested the food till last winter. While in Corpus Christi for my health, and visiting my youngest son, who has four of the ruddiest, healthiest little boys I ever saw, I ate my first dish of Grape-Nuts for breakfast with my little grandsons. I became exceedingly fond of it and have eaten a portion of it every week since, and find it a delicious, refreshing and strengthening food, leaving no ill effects whatever, causing no fluctuations of blood, and I was formerly much troubled, no sense of fullness, nausea, and distress of stomach in any way. "There is no other food that agrees with me so well, or sits as lightly or pleasantly on my stomach as this does. I am stronger and more active since I began the use of Grape-Nuts than I have been for ten years, and am indigestion." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. There's a reason, Look in each package for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

MR. R. A. BURNETT'S DEATH WAS PURELY ACCIDENTAL

Coroner McMahon held an inquest this morning over the body of Mr. Roderick A. Burnett, who was killed by falling while jumping from an electric car on St. Denis Street on Saturday night. Burnett died at the Notre Dame Hospital an hour after the accident, but the remains were removed yesterday to his late residence, 126 Gifford Street, where the inquest was held. The evidence showed that when Burnett jumped from the car it was going at a good rate of speed. The car, which was going up St. Denis Street, stopped at the corner of Marie Anne, and had just started again when Burnett, who was standing on the rear platform, jumped. The unfortunate man jumped the wrong way and was thrown heavily to the ground, striking his head on a hard asphalt pavement. The witnesses of the accident were able to account for Burnett's sudden leap from the car. A brief deliberation the jury returned the following verdict: "We find that Roderick A. Burnett died in the city of Montreal on April 22 from a fracture of the skull, caused by a fall, the man having jumped from a car while it was in motion. There is no crime in connection with the case."

QUEEN'S CONVOCATION.

Kingston, Ont., April 25.—(Special.)—This is students' day at Queen's University. There are quite a few arrivals of parents, trustees and councillors for the convocation. This afternoon the valedictorians were heard. They were E. Henderson, for science; W. W. Swanson, arts, and J. C. McConachie, divinity. The university council met this afternoon and adjourned until to-night.

Personal Mention

Mr. Forbes Knight, of the Pembroke branch of the Bank of Ottawa, is in the city, the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Knight. Mr. James Cochrane, M.P.P. for St. Lawrence division, returned yesterday from three weeks' holiday at his country residence at St. Jovite, and left last night for Ireland to attend the opening of the Legislature to-day. Among the Montaguers who arrived in New York on the Baltic on Friday and have since returned to the city, were Mr. A. J. Brown, Mr. A. A. Ayer, Mr. W. C. Hodgson and Mr. H. A. Hodgson. Mr. Brown had taken the Mediterranean trip, and the other gentlemen had been in England on business. Mr. W. C. J. King, who for a number of years has been the assistant manager of the Bank of Commerce in this city, has been promoted to the management of the agency at Simons, Ont., and will shortly leave for that town. During his residence here, Mr. King has made a wide circle of friends who will regret his departure.

W.C.P.R. SHIPS OF HIGHEST TYPE

Mr. Arthur Piers, Just Back From England, Talks of Their Designs.

Mr. Arthur Piers, manager of the Canadian Pacific Steamship Line, returned yesterday from England where he had been in connection with the construction, now proceeding, of two new steamers for the Atlantic line. It is almost needless to remark that the new boats will be models of comfort and of speed and that everything about them, from their hulls to the most modern and up-to-date apparatus. For this reason a certain amount of surprise was expressed, in some quarters, when the C.P.R. has not revolutionized their engine-rooms, as had the Allans. Mr. Piers explained this by saying that the new boats were to be only in the experimental stage, very little was known about them and the whole thing was more or less a venture. The Allans, he said, had always been more or less pioneers in ocean navigation, and while the successful voyages of the Victoria and Virginia had demonstrated that the invention was apparently a valuable one, yet the C.P.R. did not care to risk failure by adopting it. There were many things yet to be learned about these turbines; their coal consumption, for instance, was as yet, unknown and their behavior on long ocean voyages and their maneuvering power in narrow channels was almost a matter of conjecture. The idea now is to stand by and await developments without depreciating the possibilities of the turbine system. "What I think you will be interested in," Mr. Piers said, "is the fact that the new steamers will have the turbines and the propellers and the engines being turned out by the Victoria and Virginia. We shall watch the performance of the Victoria, the Virginia, and the still larger Carmania with keen interest." "As a matter of fact the new boats will rank in the greyhound class, as their average speed will be about 18 knots an hour." Mr. Piers said that no arrangements had been made for increasing the Pacific fleet, but that the address of Sir Thomas Shaughnessy had decided to do so in his absence. The industrial situation in England is fairly satisfactory, according to Mr. Piers, although there is nothing particularly brisk about it. A peculiar thing he noticed was that, in the slate trade, there was almost complete stagnation. This was due to the fact that very little building operations were going on in England, and that, what houses were being built were not being covered with slate, as the people could not, at present, afford slate roofs. The new steamers are expected to be in commission next May and each will be 570 feet in length, with a beam of 52 feet 6 inches and a depth of 40 feet 6 inches. The maximum draught of water loaded will be about 28 feet. The vessels will have two funnels and be fitted with quadruple expansion engines embodying every improvement in the reciprocating type of engine known to science.

ENGLISH MODELS HAVE SOME DEFECTS

Earl Grey Has Issued Warning to City Fathers of Toronto. Toronto, April 25.—(Special.)—The civic reception to the Governor-General and party, in the City Hall, at half-past eleven, was a brilliant affair. It was a purely civic function, those presented being the members of the City Council, Board of Education and their wives. Mayor Urquhart read a congratulatory address to His Excellency, who in reply referred to the passage of the address which said that in Toronto an effort was being made to build on the municipal models in England. While commending the city for this he urged the Council and people to avoid those evils which cast the shadow of their darkness over the city and national life of England. In conclusion he urged that Toronto build for fifty years hence and do everything to minimize slum life. Handsome bouquets of American beauty roses were presented to Lady Grey and her three daughters.

SUFFERED FOUR YEARS WITH PELVIC CATARRH--PE-RU-NA CURED

Miss Rose De la Sen, Secretary of the French Women's Clubs of Ontario, Canada, in a letter from Windsor, Ont., says: "I have been a sufferer from ovarian troubles for over four years, which caused me excruciating pains at times, and life looked very dreary to me. My family physician and other doctors prescribed for me, but I am pleased to state that after years of suffering I have been entirely cured by your woman's friend, Peruna."

Pelvic Catarrh.

Catarrh is a very frequent cause of that class of diseases popularly known as female weakness. Catarrh of the pelvic organs produces such a variety of disagreeable and irritating symptoms that many people—in fact the majority of people—have no idea that they are caused by catarrh.

The Nervous System.

Weakness of the nervous system not only produces catarrh of the mucous membrane, but also causes nervous prostration in some cases, and different degrees of nervous debility, derangements of the stomach, sleeplessness and tired out feelings. Depression of the nervous system is a fertile source of blood impurities. Peruna invigorates the system and produces regular sleep. It builds up the system run down by overwork.

Catarrhal Weakness.

A great proportion of women have some catarrhal weakness which has been called by the various doctors she has consulted, by as many different names. These women have been treated and have taken medicines with no relief, simply because the remedies are not adapted to catarrh. It is through a mistaken notion as to the real nature of the diseases that these medicines have been recommended to them. If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis. Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

M. PADEREWSKI WAS ENORMOUSLY SUCCESSFUL

Packed Audience Heard Unequalled Piano Tone But Little Passion.

It is difficult to suppose that any large number of the 1,500 persons who attended last night at the Monument National found any pleasure in the ear in the succession of terrific chords with which Paderewski announced his sitting down to the piano. It is equally difficult to speculate on the probable life of a pianist who is called upon to play to similar displays of force. The total effect of those chords was entirely outside the scope of the piano as we know it, and he accustomed to it. That he alone makes it rather foolish to plunge into unreflected denunciations of Mr. Paderewski's playing. Music is an art of convention. No one has ever discovered an absolute basis for pleasure, sure which it affords, and seemingly its effects are those resulting from a multitude of previous associations. There have been and are systems of music totally different from ours, which apparently gave their adherents pleasure quite as great as we derive from Beethoven and Wagner, and the only explanation seems to be that the gradual piling up of memories and associations connected with their sounds clothed them with emotional effectiveness, which certainly does not belong to them absolutely upon a first hearing. A new element of tonal quality thus becomes a thing requiring a considerable time to impress itself favorably on the senses, in proportion as it is not added, as all musical tone requires to be, by previous associations. The fate of those who, within our own musical period, have endeavored to enlarge the range of tonal quality is full of examples of this phenomenon. Gluck, Beethoven, Wagner and above all Berlioz, added new tonal effects (whose right of existence is now established beyond question) to the limited catalogue of accepted musical sound, and all were denounced as inartistic impostors, megalomaniacs and prophets of mere noise. On these precedents we shall decline to pronounce Mr. Paderewski's new massive tone production as unmusical until we have seen two or more opportunities of becoming accustomed to it. The significant and outstanding fact is that it ceased to appear violent and coarse as the evening proceeded, and in the last rhapsodies, which were fully as strenuous as anything during the performance, seemed perfectly justifiable and natural.

Next to this incalculable dynamic force, the chief characteristic of Paderewski's playing remains his nodding. Other pianists use the pedal as an adjunct; Paderewski plays the science of pedalling, and of sympathetic vibration as Paderewski has that music is still under control of the pianist. Persons who think that the piano is only being played when there is actual music being produced just as certainly as while the violin bow is moving over the strings; and in the hands of a man who has mastered the science of pedalling and of sympathetic vibration as Paderewski has that music is still under control of the pianist. Persons who think that the piano is only being played when there is actual music being produced just as certainly as while the violin bow is moving over the strings; and in the hands of a man who has mastered the science of pedalling and of sympathetic vibration as Paderewski has that music is still under control of the pianist.

There is no living pianist save Paderewski who can play Bach in such a way that the three voices of a true possess three entirely distinct qualities of tone. The Chromatic Fantasia and Fugue had by reason of this power of differentiation (probably the greatest factor in the pianist's marvelous technique) a distinctness that left no single beauty of its themes and its modulations unmeasured. The Beethoven Sonata measure called "Moonlight" did not reveal anything new, but quite a number of pianists can play it as well, in the magnificent singing of the Schumann nocturne Paderewski was again unapproachable, and the daring emphasis with which he lifted the concluding chords from the position of casual accompaniment which they are in the copy to that of chief significance in the whole poem was a piece of the insight of genius. The exquisite combination of delicacy and force which he secured in the Toccata secured a Medesohn encore. The programme contained nothing more beautiful than the Brahms variations on a Paganini theme. Indeed, the poetic beauty of Mr. Paderewski's playing seems to be in direct proportion to the technical difficulty of his subject matter. He certainly attempted no more appalling virtuosity than those fifteen variations, and yet it was impossible to imagine that there was any difficulty about them at all. The gurgling pianissimo of two of these beauties was the last word of that beauty of the sound. Here again came an encore, the G major Nocturne of Chopin. Space forbids analysis of his playing of the four Chopin numbers, the encore C sharp minor waltz, and their distant follower the Paderewski Melodia Op. 16, No. 2. The "Revolutionary" had at any rate was a disappointment; the Scherzo was well known; the Liszt's Sixth Hungarian Rhapsody was followed, when the audience refused to go home, by the second. Liszt knew above all things the effectiveness of a master of the production of that effectiveness, and these two pieces were a culminating point of the evening.

In the production of beautiful sound Paderewski is unrivalled. Even the Paderewski of ten years ago does not approach him. In the conveyance of deep emotion he has not advanced. His Beethoven is passionless, his Chopin sensuous and often saccharine. He does things with the piano that no other man can do, but he no longer does things with his audience that are beyond scientific explanation. Admiration of his enormous cleverness—that has become the chief effect of his playing.

PASSING OF A LANDMARK. (Cornwall, April 25.—(Special).—The old brick separate school at Alexandria, one of the landmarks of that village, is being torn down this week to make room for a fine new structure. The first separate school in Glengarry was established at Alexandria in 1854, just fifty years ago, by Rev. Father John McLachlan, under the auspices of the Christian Brothers, Rev. Brother M. Joseph being principal. On February 15, 1859, tenders were opened for a new 30 x 40 two-story brick structure—the present school—Rev. Jas. J. Chisholm, a son of the late Col. Chisholm, being parish priest at the time. The contractor was Ranald McMillan, and associated with him in the work was George McKinnon, an uncle of A. A. McKinnon, the present reeve of Lochiel. Among prominent Canadians who received their early training in this old brick school house were His Grace Archbishop Gauthier of Kingston; Jno. A. McDougald, local registrar of the High Court, Cornwall; D. T. Chisholm, Lebrt., N.W.T.; D. A. Macdonald, postmaster; Alex. Chisholm, Esq., and D. D. Macphee, of Alexandria.

PUBLIC MEETING OF ANCIENT CAPITAL WHITE IN HONORING NEW PREMIER

Was the Guest of Honor at Complimentary Banquet Last Evening.

OVER 250 GUESTS PRESENT

Premier Made Eloquent Reply—Addresses by Hon. Mr. Brodeur, Senator Choquette and Others.

Quebec, April 25.—(Special.)—The complimentary banquet tendered to Hon. Mr. Gouin, Premier of Quebec, at the Chateau Frontenac last night was a complete success. It was attended by 250 gentlemen including members of the House of Commons, Legislative Council and Assembly and prominent citizens.

Senator Jules Tassier presided and had on his right as guest of the evening, Hon. Messrs. Turgeon, L. B. Roy, Allard, Mr. Deslisle, M.P., Hon. Messrs. Bryson, Mathieu and De Varennes, Messrs. P. Delage, Langlois, Mackenzie and Walker, and on his left, Hon. Messrs. Brodeur, McCorkill, Choquette, A. Tassier, Weir, Dr. Beland, M.P., C. Fisher, M.P., Givens, M.P., Savard, M.P., Hon. Dr. Laflamme, E. G. Gauthier, Geo. Smith, Cardin, P. Corrivane and C. E. Dubord.

Among those present were the following members of the Legislature: Messrs. Walker, Mackenzie, Smith, Langlois, Cardin, Delage, Perrault, Leclercq, Feltz, Fernet, Morissette, Jobin, B. Roy, Deslisle, Gauthier, Gendron, Tanguay, (Wolfe), Gauthier, Tessier (Three Rivers), Plon, Kelly, Blouin, Prevost, Kaine, Leslie, Walsh, Bergeron, Girard, Bissonnette, Dion, Duhamel, Descartes, Morin, Champagne, Blanchard, Chaurat, Marchand and Gosselin, (Missisquoi).

After the toast to the King was duly honored, Senator Tassier proposed the health of the guest of the evening, in a feeling speech which was received with an outburst of applause, and when Premier Gouin arose to respond he was given a most enthusiastic reception. He was in excellent form and spoke in his usual eloquent manner.

THE PREMIER'S ADDRESS.

The first minister declared that the first promise the present Government had made was to improve the lot of the people, ameliorating public instruction. "The intelligence of our sons," said he, "is the richest capital we have to invest, and that is why we have to devote a large part of our budget to the public instruction. The first part of the program is education, the second part, edu-still room for many parishes to the south of our great river, and in the north, there is room for an entire new province. It is not in the hope of Quebec only the courage of the tiller. Our sons begin to feel themselves confined in our old parishes. Instead of fleeing to the United States, or even to our cities and our towns, let them hasten to pitch their tent in our new townships in order to develop the fertile fields of our agricultural industry, which is the surest foundation of our nationality, and the most solid base for our future greatness.

DOMINION SUBSIDY TOO SMALL.

"But, to realize these hopes, ideas are not sufficient. The fathers of Confederation were mistaken when they made the division of the sources of revenue which the provinces then possessed. By giving all the customs and excise rights to the Federal Government, the authors of the Act of 1867 assured to the latter a revenue which permits it to face the demand of the future. But in truthfully say, and the first school was augmented with the figure of the population and that the needs would be felt more pressing according to commerce, agriculture and industry developed.

"If the subsidy granted to the provinces in 1867 was a just compensation for abating the sums they have received as customs and excise duties, the subsidy they receive to-day is no longer a just compensation for what we would reap from these sources to-day. The solution of this question of the readjustment of the federal subsidy is imperative; and if there are necessities stronger than the strongest, it is that of the present Government, the Ottawa Government pays the provinces is one of them.

HON. MR. LOMER GOUIN.

education; the third, education still. The school is the great work-shop where life's apprenticeship is learned. In the school men are made, and the men make the people. Education is the most powerful lever of national action. "But the value of the schools depends above all on the value of its masters. Like teacher, like scholar, and may truthfully say, and the first school was always be that which has the most zealous and enthusiastic head. Let us better the lot of our teachers if 1871. Theirs commenced a report on secondary education by the profound truth: "Public education is perhaps the greatest interest of a civilized nation, and, because of this, the highest object of ambition of political parties. The Liberal party of this Province has always been profoundly penetrated with this truth. Education has ever been the first item on its programme. The present Government will follow this motto: 'Education first.' It understands the imperious need, the necessity which is imposed of giving our youth the instruction which the fathers demand and for which the children themselves thirst. It feels that all are called upon to make a patriotic effort, and, God helping us, it will do its part, its entire part of this national task.

"Never has competition been so keen, never the economic battles of life so uncompromising. To quote a contemporary master: 'The modern man is a soldier always in the struggle; if he cannot place in his wallet the book of the poet, where we may find, at difficult times, the sweetness of consolation or the flame of enthusiasm, let us at least see to it that he has always his means of life and all his arms.'

VIEWS ON COLONIZATION.

Hon. Mr. Gouin next spoke of the colonization problem, pointing to the needs of the Province of Quebec, as well as those of the newer provinces to the westward. "Here," said he, "it is not the land that is lacking to the man who has the arms, but the arms that are lacking to the land. There is

The affairs of the province could not be placed in better or more capable hands. In the present condition of affairs, the hope is that Quebec would remain passive and calm, keep intact her sang froid and avoid the passionate appeals to prejudice which seemed to prevail in certain sections of the Dominion, and especially in Ontario on the school clauses in the Autonomy bill.

He paid a tribute to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who he felt to be the loyalty and devotion to his people and his country. The school question, of course, was amply touched upon. Mr. Brodeur pointed out the way in which the feeling and rights of the English Protestants were respected in this province, and he made a strong plea for separate schools in the new provinces. In this connection he referred to the policy pursued at Confederation by that great statesman, the late Sir A. T. Gait, the father of the education system in Quebec. He also alluded to Hon. Sydney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, and dwelt on what he had done in Parliament and out of Parliament to uphold the privileges of the people, although this mischievous agitation was taken seriously by many misled persons. It was at the bottom of the Gouin programme was a merely a political maneuver on the part of the overthrown of the Laurier Government. It was foreign to the broad spirit of English public opinion, and he cited the attitude in 1903 of the Hon. Mr. Brodeur as Governor-General of Canada.

SENATOR CHOQUETTE.

Senator Choquette made a very humorous and sympathetic reply to the same toast, and his speech was punctuated by with applause and laughter. He regretted the absence of his old and unvarying friend, the Hon. Mr. Lemieux, Solicitor-General, whose place at the front he had intended to occupy. He heartily congratulated Mr. Gouin on his ministerial programme as presented by the First Minister in his report on the state of the Province of his splendid victory in St. James division, when he defeated his opponent by a majority of nearly three thousand votes. Mr. Gouin's programme was a brilliant one, full of high promise, and it argued well for the future success and prosperity of the province. The twentieth century would undoubtedly be the century for Canada. He spoke on the educational clauses of the Autonomy bill on much the same lines as Mr. Brodeur and Gouin.

To the same toast, Dr. Beland, M.P., for Beauce, also replied in an impassioned and rhetorical address. The school question largely engaged his attention and his treatment of it was patterned after the remarks of Mr. Brodeur and Senator Choquette. Senator Tassier then proposed the "Legislature of Quebec," Hon. Dr. Lanouette, M.L.C., spoke for the Upper House, and Mr. George Smith, M.P.P., and Mr. Langlois, M.P.P., replied for the popular branch in eloquent speeches.

THE MEMBER FOR MEGANTIC. Mr. Smith was happy to be remarked to the fanatics of Ontario could know that he represented a county of which 85 per cent. of the population were French. The needs of Quebec were not narrow-minded enough to give him opposition. He spoke in praise of Hon. Mr. Gouin and of Hon. Mr. Turgeon, who he felt to be the champion of the people. He visited his county and did a lot of good in improving matters relating to the tilling of the soil. He hoped that in his new capacity he would visit Megantic again at an early day. He demanded better roads, and hoped that the government would spend a couple of million dollars on them.

Hon. Adelard Turgeon followed, and

BANK PRESIDENT WAS ARRESTED

President Bigelow, of Milwaukee, Confessed to Embezzlement.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 25.—Frank G. Bigelow, president of the First National Bank of Milwaukee, was arrested yesterday, charged with the embezzlement of over $100,000 of the bank's funds. The arrest of Mr. Bigelow followed his confession to the board of directors of the bank that he was a defaulter to the extent of $1,450,000. Following Mr. Bigelow's confession he was removed from the presidency of the bank and the facts in the case were laid before the federal authorities. The complaint was sworn by United States District Attorney H. K. Butterfield. It charges that Bigelow, as president of the First National Bank, embezzled a sum exceeding $100,000. A complaint and a warrant identical with those in Bigelow's case were made out to Henry Goll, assistant cashier of the bank, but Goll could not be found. President Bigelow was taken before United States Commissioner Bloodgood and held in custody until he was released to appear before the next Federal Grand Jury. President Bigelow's confession was made at the special meeting of the board of directors Saturday night. He met with the directors yesterday, and all of last night. In addressing his fellow directors, President Bigelow said he had a painful statement to make, a confession that he misdirected the funds of the bank, and that an examination of his books and a comparison of figures would show that he was indebted to the bank for more than $1,450,000. This money, he said, had been lost in speculation in wheat and stocks. Not a dollar of it could be recovered, and the only sum he could offer toward compensating the bank was personal securities valued at $300,000.

FOREMOST FINANCIER

Mr. Bigelow had been recognized among the foremost financiers of the Northwest. He has been associated with the First National Bank for more than fifteen years. He was honored a year ago by election to the presidency of the American Bankers' Association. Mr. Bigelow said he had been a persistent bull in the wheat market, and recent losses on grain had been added to heavy reverses in Wall Street. From small manipulations of the bank funds he had extended the defalcations until his shortage had passed the million dollar mark. He saw no possibility of returning the money, and, therefore,

BOMBAY TIMES ISSUES WARNING

Boundary of India Must be Strengthened Against Attack.

Bombay, April 25.—The Times, commenting on the recent Liberal opposition in the British House of Commons to strengthening the northwestern frontier of India, says the opposition does not realize the importance of the matter. It asserts that a Russian army of 200,000 men are now concentrated in Central Asia, and that a Russian force is within striking distance of Herat, Afghanistan, which it could capture in a week. The Afghan army has degenerated into a mere rabble, and the whole country is losing the cohesion it possessed under the late Amer. The hold of the British in the present Amer. upon Afghan Turkestan is steadily weakening. The completion of the Russian Orenburg Railway has revolutionized the whole situation, and the Russian Central Asian army could walk over an unsupported Afghanistan without the slightest difficulty. The need for watchful preparedness on the Indian frontier was never greater than now.

Toronto, April 25.—Mr. Kivas Tully, D.S.O., the eminent civil engineer, died yesterday morning in his apartments, in the Donmills Hotel, at 100 St. Nicholas street. He was eighty-six years of age, and suffered from a complication of diseases. The talented hand of the late Mr. Tully is in evidence in almost every part of the province, during his long term of office under the Ontario government. His plans of many public institutions have been prepared by him for the province, while such buildings as the Custom House, Trinity College, Toronto; St. Catharines Town Hall, Welland County Court House, Victoria Hall, Cobourg, also remain to him, his skill. He had charge of the alterations to the Deaf and Dumb Institute, Belleville School of Practical Science, Osgoode Hall, Normal School and Government House, Toronto, and many other provincial buildings. After many years' service as architect and engineer of the Department of Public Works, he accepted the position of consulting architect and engineer at a salary of $1,500, and so remained in the service of the province until his death. Mr. Tully was born in the Queen's County, Ireland, in 1820, and was the second son of the late Commander John P. Tully, R.N. After considerable professional experience in Ireland, he came to Toronto in 1844, where he subsequently continued to reside. He was a charter member of the Canadian Institute in which he was a valued officer. In municipal life, he became public school trustee, councilman and alderman, and was a delegate to the Deep Waterways Convention in 1894. As a Freemason he held high rank and was representative of the Grand Lodge of Ireland near the Grand Lodge of Canada. A few years ago the distinguished Siriver Order was conferred upon him by His Majesty. Mr. Tully was twice married, but was left a widower in 1882.

THE PILLAR OF LIGHT

By LOUIS TRACEY. Author of "The Wings of the Morning."

CHAPTER XIX.—(Continued.) "Yes, sir," he paused. During many an Atlantic crossing he and Mr. Traill had talked of that joyous journey, when he, a boy who had just joined the service, sat at their table, as was the custom of junior officers in those years. Mr. Traill smiled. He knew what was in the other man's mind. "Do you see a likeness in this young lady to anyone you have ever known?" he asked. "Well, sir, I hope it will not hurt your feelings, and it's a good many years ago now, but I could have sworn—well, I must out with it. She is the living image of your wife." "Indeed, that cannot hurt my feelings, but I could have sworn—well, I must out with it. She is the living image of your wife."

IT ALWAYS HELPS

An ailment like consumption that has been months and years getting a foothold cannot be relieved in a week or day. Scott's Emulsion will always afford relief and often cure, but not over night. The consistent use of Scott's Emulsion will positively help the consumptive at any stage of the disease. We guarantee nothing beyond this, but we know that right living and Scott's Emulsion have done more to cure consumption than anything else. Scott & Bowne, Chemists, Toronto, Ont.

Hester Had the Major Leaguers at His Mercy At All Stages.

Newark, April 25.—The New York Giants were beaten by Newark Sunday before the biggest crowd that ever witnessed a baseball game in this city.

BASEBALL NOTES

Newark's batting average is going down, down, down.

Chicago fans are expected to recover and be able to see the game.

It is quite certain that Shortstop O'Neil of the New York Nationals will be turned over to the Baltimore team.

Buffalo now has a fair interest in the race.

M.A.A.A. ATHLETES ARE READY FOR TOURNAMENT

There was a businesslike look about yesterday's classes at the M.A.A.A.

Felt Weak and Nervous. Had Faint and Dizzy Spells.

These symptoms arise from a weak condition of the heart and nerves.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

Through the medium of the nervous system, they impart a strengthening and restorative influence to every organ and tissue of the body.

They restore enfeebled, enervated, exhausted, debilitated, or overworked men and women to perfect constitutional power.

Miss Maggie L. Cleveland, Bayswater, N.S., tells how she was cured in the following words:

"I was sick for the past year, and became thoroughly run down. I had faint and dizzy spells, and felt weak and nervous all the time.

EDDIE WILLIAMS WON ROAD RACE AT OTTAWA

Beats Arthur Burn in Splendid Contest—May Meet Again.

Ottawa, April 24.—(Special.)—In one of the fiercest road races ever held in Ottawa, Eddie Williams, the crack amateur runner of the local Y.M.C.A., won a five-mile road contest beat Arthur Burn, a much-lauded Ontario performer.

The boys, since their race last Thanksgiving Day when the spectators interfered with the finale, have been rivals, and as a result money changes hands to-day.

It is understood that the men will meet again, Burn's friends claiming that he was tripped at the finish by a bicyclist.

JENKINS AND RUSSIAN TRAINING FOR MATCH

New York, April 25.—Tom Jenkins, America's catch-can champion, yesterday stole a march on Joe Hackschmidt, his big opponent from across the seas, by securing the services of "Farmer" Burns as his training partner.

It was learned in the Jenkins camp that Hackschmidt's training partner was Burns.

It was Burns who brought out Frank Gotch, the sensational wrestler, to the arena to give Jenkins such a hot lesson.

CARL PONS ANXIOUS TO ARRANGE MATCHES

Gontier, or, as he is known in wrestling circles, Carl Pons, is out with a sweeping challenge to meet any other wrestler in Canada.

He is a big point in Jenkins' favor, as the Russian's training partner.

Wheat Markets Show Steadier Tone; Heavy Liquidation Has Been Checked

As far as the present movement is concerned, it looks as though the bottom prices had been reached in the wheat market. The Provision Market. There was no actual change in the condition of the market to-day, prices for all lines being firm, but the demand was somewhat slow.

English Cattle Markets. Liverpool.—The trade in cattle was firmer and prices higher at 12 1/2 for heavy American and at 12 1/2 for Canadians.

Butter and Cheese. Butter is again being bought by the big dealers to-day, the price having been firm down to 20 cents. There is a very large quantity offering, and buyers are not over-
