SPECIAL NOTICES.

CHANGE OF SEASON AND CARE OF HEALTH.
Whatever be the physiological reason, that part of the year in which Winter merges into Spring has always been marked by more or less of indisposition to the healthy and actual sickness to the infirm, the remedical agents usually employed before the discovery of the fluid which will be presently noticed, were purgatives—a class of medicines certainly possessing much efficacy. But all the cathartic substances which had come into general use had this drawback, that while they removed present ailment by stimulating the stomach and bowels to unusual effort, they reproduce it by the debility which that effort occasioned. It was a great and unfulfilled desideratum, to have a purgative strong enough to cleanse those organs, yet mild enough not to fatigue them. What Art failed to effect, Nature triumphantly achieved by the production of the Plantagenet Water. People no longer go to apothecaries, shops; they resort to the Plantagenet Water Depot. There is no case in which it does ill, and scarcely any in which it fails to do good. It is alike beneficial to male and females—to the old, the adult and the immature.—It is equally conducive to health and appearance, those who take it feel well and look well. It protects the life of the robust and temperate, and defers the death of the sickly and dissipated. I recommend it to all my patients.

We have much pleasure in recommending the use of DuBarry's Revalenta Arabica Food as an exceedingly valuable and nutritious diet for Infants, Children, and Invalids. Several amongst our own Customers who have made use of it, have personally testified to its great value, in cases where other light articles of food as Sago, Arrow Root, Corn Starch, &c., had been rejected from, or found to disagree with the stomach; and have urged upon us the propriety of giving it our strongest recommendation.

Business Notices.

Holloway's Pills.—The popularity of this unrivalled alterative and aperient is overwhelming and throwing into the shade all other preparations purporting to be remedies for internal diseases. Families of every condition in life, and in every section of the country are adopting Holloway's Pills as the one sole remedy for complaints of the stomach, liver and bowels, and discarding all the nostrums in which they once placed confidence. Thus does a grand remedy, which controls and regulates the secretions, the circulation, and the whole alimentary system, conquer doubt, prejudice, and interested opposition, as well as a host of diseases which have heretofore bid defiance to medical skill. DC r 117

PAIN KILLER.
We have but little confidence in the trumpet tongued statements of the proprietors of advertised medicines generally, but we are forced to concur in the opinion, uniformly expressed by all who have used Perry Davis' Pain Killer, that it is a very valuable article, and one that it would be well for every householder to have at hand, in case of bruises, scalds, burns, diarrhœa, dysentery, cholera, fever and ague, and the host of diseases, external and internal, which it is adapted to cure or alleviate. No article of medicine ever attained to such unbounded popularity and extensive diffusion. Invented only sixteen years since, its curative powers have been experienced by many, many thousands in every section of the United States and Canada. It has penetrated to every part, even the most remote of the known world, bearing with it its healing influences more potent than those of the spices of "Araby the blessed." We are informed by our principal druggists, that they sell more of this article for exportation than of any or all others, and that the demand is constantly increasing.—Salem Observer. r-DC 116

Russia's Objects.—The so-much-talked-of "written agreement" between France and Russia may, doubtless, be as innocent and philanthropic a document as the great Sclavonic dignitary, Prince Gortschakoff, says it is, and the great Caucasian Chancellor of the Exchequer, Ben. Disraeli, believes it to be. His Highness must excuse us, however. "Put not your trust in princes" has long been a rule with us, and we are by no means inclined to make an exception in favor of Russian magnates. As for Ben., he is, undoubtedly, a "Wondrous child"—of Israel,—but we shall make no apology for dissenting from his opinion, on this or any other subject. We may be thought unreasonably suspicious, but the truth is, we put not the slightest faith in Mr. Disraeli's explanation of Russia's motive for concentrating a force upon the Austrian frontier, and consider his attempted comparison of that threatening movement, to England's precautionary one of sending a fleet to protect her territorial and commercial interest in the Mediterranean, as utterly untenable. Under the circumstances, we are driven to the conclusion that it is only in Russia's traditonal policy of Eastern conquests that the objects of her "written agreement" with France will be found. Time will show. In the meantime, we think, the following, somewhat transcendental, speculations as to the rise of Russian and decay of British power in Asia, considering the time when and the place in which they were published, are not altogether unworthy of consideration. The article is translated from a late number of the Paris Constitutionel.

THE RUSSIANS IN ASIA.

[illegible] attention of the Western Governments is generally absorbed in the whirlpool of European politics, events are noiselessly transpiring in another hemisphere, which shall one day change the face of the world, and displace all the actually existing interests. When, at the close of the great wars, treaties assigned to each State its share of influence and authority in the world; when each Power, in view of the future, saw opened before it by those treaties the path that ran parallel with its interests, the Governments of that epoch reckoned upon a situation which since has been materially altered.

Modern innovations, steam navigation, railroads, electricity, have modified the relations of populations then sustained each toward the other; they have brought together those who never seemed destined for intimate correspondence; they have reduced to nothing various precautions such as those taken to command certain routes difficult and tedious for sailing vessels, but which the steamship of to-day either avoids, or traverses with ease and extreme rapidity. The railroads have given life to countries which were thought to be forever condemned to seclusion; and, as a consequence, people have assumed positions at points, of which the occupation, formerly regarded as impracticable, had not entered into the combinations of policy.

Look, for example, at the powerful Republic of the United States founding, in a few years, prosperous establishments upon those shores of the Pacific, which, forty-four years ago, were apparently an uninhabitable desert. See, again, face to face with the adventurous cities of California, a young and powerful people creating, along the banks of the Amoor River, an already important colony, and considerable military establishments. When we cast a backward glance, recalling certain sympathies which the United States manifested for Russia during the Eastern War, we may ask, "What will happen if, in a quarter of a century, sooner or later, the hardy filibusters of California ally themselves with the patient navy of Russia in the ports of the Amoor, to sweep the Chinese seas?" Were such eventualities foreseen when the European balance was adjusted?

But let us leave those purely political considerations, and confine ourselve to verifying the progress which Russia is incessantly making upon the northern frontier of China, and along the Asiatic shores of that ocean over which it is evidently destined to rule by the mere fact of its presence, especially as Europe is so distant Let us indicate rapidly some of the commercial results which that Power is preparing, with a perseverance worthy of the highest prais.

A short time since there was a considerable talk of a plan seriously contemplated of a telegraphic line to traverse the whole of Siberia, and end precisely at those Pacific shores where the Russian marine is already so active. The postal service is very well developed in all that portion of Asia, and it was at Petersburg, it will be remembered, that the earliest news of the treaty of peac with China was received. Trade is flourishing between the Chinese frontier and Russia in Europe. The inhabitants of the Celestial Empire supply to the Russian Empire a notable quantity of traveling merchants and agricultural laborers. To judge of the influence which Russia already exercises over the Court of Pekin, it is sufficient to recollect that that Empire is the only Power which, in the late Chinese war, obtained territorial aggrandizement, and that without having to draw a sword so decidedly did its coterminal position assure the prepondrence to its real power. Hereafter Russia will be the only power that will exercise a material influence in the Chinese Empire; the only one that is sincerely respected and confided in there; the only one which can trade safely and uninteruptedly beyond the range of its cannons.

But, if China thus already revolves in the orbit of the Russian constellation, what shall we say of India herself, looking at the subject in a strictly commercial point of view? Russia is only separated from the Himalaya Mountains by the tract formerly and properly called Independent Tartary. It is with civilization as with the magnet—it radiates influences beyond itself. Nations come naturally to bask and enlighten themselves in its beneficent rays. How could it be otherwise than that Russia, well governed, well disciplined, rich, powerful and generous, should exercise, even involuntarily, an attraction over neighbouring peoples.

There are in Independent Tartary two principal states: Khiva and Bokhara. For several years past the Khan of Khiva has been little less than a feudatory of Russia. The Khan of Bokhara has just sent to St. Petersburg a friendly embassy, which, whether small or great, is evidently nothing less than an act of submission. What is to follow from an extension of Russian influence to these countries? New roads will be laid out; they will be rendered safe, not immediately by the presence of police, but by the certainty and the salutary terror of repression. Relations will be multiplied, and when the Russian system of railroads shall have been completed, we shall see the entire commerce of Hindostan taking the road to Russia. With this result it is certainly not [illegible] that will have reason to find fault. The [illegible]pation we hail with approval and securi-ty. It is nevertheless true that it tends, as we have already intimated, to disturb singularly the interests, and to overset the calculations upon which, in other days, opinions of the maritime and commercial monopoly in the regions of the remote East were founded.

What is the fact to-day? Merchandise shipped from the West for Asiatic countries makes the circuit of Africa, doubles the Cape of Storms, ascends the Indian Ocean, and is landed at one of the ports of Hindostan. Once there, it is infinitely divided, and passes into a multitude of hands. The petty merchants transporting it upon their own backs, or upon those of their camels, tediously, painfully, and in spite of a thousand obstacles, and at great risk of pillage and loss, arrive, after entire months, in Central Asia. When the scheme of Russian Railroads shall be completed; when an ever-active industry shall have covered with steamers the wide and beautiful rivers which flow through Russia; when locomotives shall in a few days pass over the distance separating the Black Sea from the Sea of Aral, commerce will find economy, safety, and rapidity in favor of resuming that ancient land-route which in other times made the fortunes of Genoa and Venice. As the commerce of Asia has always assured the preponderance to the people who possess it, Russia will thus inherit a sceptre which now belongs to another.

There is nothing far-fetched or hypothetical in these considerations. The eminently civilizing tendencies of the reign of Alexander II. bring daily nearer the realization of this programme, and humanity will be the gainer. Russian civilization, imperfect as it is—Russian industry, even with its caution, its shackles and its defects—the Government of the Czars, with all its arbitrary characteristics, are immense benefits to the oppressed, miserable, brutalized peoples of Asia. They carry thither education, prosperity and order. And at the same time such propagandism of civilization assures to Russia new elements of power. The rivals of Russia, if any exist, are bound to applaud its efforts. The only competion which is admissable in such labors, consists in showing more ardor and activity in promoting the work of progress—the work unmistakeably useful to the human race—the narrow interests of nationality being left out of the question.

Let each, therefore, make haste. The monopoly of navigation and of commerce sapped and ruined, not by this or that sovereign, but by the spontaneous forces of civilization, is crumbling at all points. The guarantees upon which it was thought to base it forever have prove illusory. They gave way in peace as well as in war. The world has been transformed within the last fifty years—and the statesmen of another age who fail to see this change, may as well, as so many Epimenides, sleep on forever.

The Temporary Seat of Goverment.—We learn from the Quebec Chronicle that, so far from the removal of the Seat of Government being, as again and again stated by Ministers and their supporters in Parliament, a matter that would involve but a very moderate outlay—the necessary buildings for the accommodation of the Legislature and the departments, at Quebec, being, it was alleged, all ready for occupation—the country is about to be burdened with the expense of erecting an entirely new set of buildings. Our contemporary says :—

"The design of erecting a suitable edifice on the site of the old Parliamentary Buildings for the temporary accommodation of the Legislature has received confirmation. In the proposed arrangements, the idea has not been lost sight of, that hereafter the main or central part of the building may be converted into a Post Office, and that one of the wings may afford accommodation to the Corporation of the city for municipal purposes, while the other wing may be ceded for the benefit of Literary Societies and Institutes."

Now, under all the circumstances—the notorious deficiency in the public exchequer, necessitating a burdensome increase of taxation on the one hand, and a somewhat niggardly economy on the other, by which our agricultural friends are deprived of their Exhibitions this year, our Mechanics' Institutes of their accustomed subsidies, and even our Geological Survey has been forced to suspend all field operations, and, more especially, when it is borne in mind that the removal was determined upon in the face of the protest of one branch of the Legislature, while not a farthing has been voted by the other branch to provide for its cost, we cannot but view this contemplated squandering of the people's money, without the people's consent, as an outrage, not only of the principles of self-government, but, as our contemporary, the Gazette, said of the disgraceful shuffle, which placed the Cartier-Macdonald Ministry in power, of the moral sense of the country. Such a building as the Chronicle foreshadows, with centre and wings capable of accommodating both Legislative Chambers, it is abundant-[illegible] expense. But, be the cost what it may, of what avail is complaint? Have not the Cartier-Macdonald Ministry a majority in the House of Assembly, from whom they hold a carte blanche to spend the public money as if it were their own private property, who are troubled with no "moral sense," and whose only principle is to maintain their patrons in power—coute qui coute, as Mr. John A. Macdonald expressed it? With such a system in full operation, it would be unreasonable to look for any other results from it than those which we daily witness. Cost what it may, we have the authority of Mr. John A. Macdonald, he and his colleagues are determined the members from the Quebec District shall have their "equivalent."

Customs Duties.— The Custom-House authorities are now charging the duties on the price of the goods without any deduction for discount. The merchants are of opinion that this is contrary to law, and apparently they are right, for the value of goods must be their net price, the difference between that and the credit price being not the price of the goods, but the interest on the money. We believe that a decision has already been given by the Courts adverse to the present rule of the Custom-House, and that upon that decision the system of charging on the credit price of goods, subject to a cash discount, was discontinued. It is a pity that the old maxim of letting well enough alone has not been followed; but the fiat has, we believe, come from head quarters, and the collectors have only to obey. The Board of Trade here, however, will make suitable representations, and if unsuccessful with the Government, the Courts will be once more appealed to.

The Late Andrew Armour, Esq.—It is with feelings of deep regret that we announce the decease of this gentleman, which occurred in Toronto, yesterday morning, after a short illness. A native of Montreal, and until a few years ago, when he removed to Toronto, active ly engaged in business and a constant resident of our city, Mr. Armour was widely known and esteemed in our community. His funeral, as will be seen by the obituary notice in another column, will take place to-morrow afternoon, from the residence of Mrs. Ramsay, Waverly Terrace.

Sir Allan McNab.—Sir Allan's (Liberal) opponents, at Brighton, were Admiral Pechelle and Mr. W. Coningham, the first polled 2,322, the second 2,106 votes, while Sir Allan had only 1,327. On the result being declared, the successful candidates addressed the electors. Mr. Coningham congratulated the Liberals upon having defeated a candidate who in a singular manner enjoyed not only the confidence of the Derbyite party but the confidence of Cardinal Wiseman.

Sir A McNab also endeavoured to speak, but was ill-received, and his speech could not be heard.

An Arrival Extraordinary.—The British yacht St. Ursula, Commander Cairnie, arrived at New York the other evening, in thirty days from the Clyde, on a pleasure trip. She sails under the flag of the Admiralty by permission of the British Government, belongs to the Royal Yacht Club, and her model was taken from the celebrated yacht America. She is topsail schooner rigged, and for comfort cannot be easily excelled. Her owner, Mr. Tennent of Glasgow, with his three nieces, also Messrs. Basil Ronald and Mr. James Honeyman, are on board.

The Invitation to Her Majesty.—We learn, from yesterday evening's Pilot, that the Hon. Henry Smith, Speaker of the Legislative Assembly, arrived here last night en route for England, charged with the Address from both Houses of the Legislature, to the Queen, inviting Her Majesty to visit Canada, to inaugurate the opening of Victoria Bridge; and that the hon. gentleman will sail on Saturday in the Anglo-Saxon for Liverpool.

We are requested to give notice that a Battalion Drill of the Rifle Companies will take place this evening, on the Champ de Mars, at half-past seven o'clock.

Annual Meeting of the Natural History Society.—The annual meeting of this Society was held on Wednesday evening at the Society's Hall, for the election of officers for the ensuing year. There was a large attendance of members, and after the reports of the Secretary and Treasurer had been read, the following gentlemen were elected :—

For President—The Lord Bishop of Montreal.

Vice-Presidents—Rev. A. De Sola, Dr. Wm. Fraser, and E. Billings, Esq.

Council—Principal Dawson, Henry Chapman, W. H. A. Davies, Edw. Murphy, Esq., and the Rev. A. Kemp.

Library Committee—Henry Rose, James Hutton, F. H. Torrance, and Henry Vennor, Esqrs.

Corresponding Secretary—W. H. Hingston, Esq., M.D.

Recording Secretary—John Leeming, Esq.

Treasurer—James Ferrier, jr., Esq.

Curator and Librarian—Dr. G. E. Fenwick. Sub.—W. S. D'Urbain, Esq.

The following Committee was appointed to conduct the Naturalist:—J. W. Dawson, LL.D., F.G.S., T. Sterry Hunt, A.M., E. Billings, Esqrs., David Allan Poe, Esq.; Rev. A. F Kemp.; A. N. Rennie, Esq.

Annual Meeting of the Home and School of Industry, Juror Street.—The eleventh annual meeting of this benevolent institution took place yesterday afternoon. The majority of those present were ladies. The Rev. Canon Bancroft occupied the chair. There were also in attendance H. H. Whitney, Esq., M. P. P., Professor Cornish, Rev. Mr. Kemp, Rev. Mr. Story, Alex. Morris, Esq., and John Dougall, Esq. The chairman read the annual report.—It gave a very favorable account of the working of the Society for the past year. The Treasurer's account showed the receipts, including a grant of £100 from the Government, to be, altogether, £252. The report was adopted.—The following ladies were declared office-bearers for the ensuing year:—Directresses—Miss Harvey, Mrs. Durnford. Treasurer—Mrs. Dr. Austin. Secretary—Miss Gardner.—A vote of thanks was passed to the office-bearers of last year, and the proceedings closed with prayer.

"Ireland and her Nationality."—A lecture on this subject was delivered on Tuesday evening, in the Bonaventure Hall, by Mr. Black. The lecturer seemed to have given to his subject considerable attention; a fact of which the audience were not forgetful, judging by the applause which they accorded.

Theatre Royal—Miss Sallie St. Clair.—This popular favorite has put forth an excellent bill for her Benefit to night. The "Bride of an Evening" one of the most popular of the New York Ledger stories, very faithfully dramatised, is the first piece—Miss St. Clair appearing as the heroine, Honora Paule. The Drama is strongly cast, and cannot fail to be a most attractive and interesting performance. In the after-piece, Miss St. Clair, appears in five different characters, and in two beautiful dances—enough to fill the Theatre, we should think, considering the claims of the fair actress and the entertainment official.

The North-West.—We cut the following from the Toronto Globe of Tuesday morning:

The Imperial Government have determined to throw open to public competition the Mail Service between Great Britain and British Columbia, not confining the contractors to any particular route, but probably fixing a limit as to time. This leaves the course open to the North West Transit or any other Company to offer their services, and, in conjunction with the Canadian line of steamers, we doubt not that the mails could be carried as cheaply and speedily by way of the Saskatchewan and Red River as by the Isthmus of Panama. The Home Government will probably be called upon to pay from fifty to one hundred thousand pounds for the service, and if our Government would only exert itself to secure the contract for a Canadian Company, immense benefits would be derived from it.

In connection with this subject, we may mention that the American steamer intended for the navigation of Red River and Lake Winnipeg, is to leave St. Paul on its mission on the 21st. A letter which we copy from the Chicago Press describes the whole process necessary to launch this vessel upon the virgin waters of the North. We do not look upon this as a rival to the Canadian [illegible] the most direct and cheapest route to Red River lies through the rivers communicating with Lake Superior, we have no fears that the prior establishment of another line will prevent ours being opened up. The Americans will create a business which will be worth competing for, and we shall be aroused to exertion by their efforts.

As a half-way house between Toronto and Fort William, we look upon the settlement of the country in the neighbournood of the Sault St. Marie as a matter of great importance. It is not alone in that view, however that the lands which the Government now offer for sale are worthy of the attention of settlers. The Sault St. Marie must become some day a place of importance. It lies on the line of travel from the East to the mines of Lake Superior, and, more important still, to the prairies of Minesota and the great North-West. It possesses in the current St. Mary, unlimited water-power, and there are very valuable mines in its immediate neighbourhood. Better than all, in the rear and to the eastward, is to be found the best land on the shores of Lake Superior and the Georgian Bay, which will naturally with agricultural products benefit the mining districts by which it is surrounded.

The Penitentiary Frauds.—The last of the Penitentiary frauds was tried at the Assizes at Kingston on Wednesday last. The Whig reports the case:

The Queen vs. Thomas Mostyn and James Eckles.—The defendants in this case were charged with a conspiracy to defraud the Warden of the Provincial Penitentiary in the value of 264 cords of firewood in the year 1856-7. Mr. Thomas Mostyn was at that time Clerk of the Kitchen in the Penitentiary, and Mr. Jas. Eckles is a well-known resident of Wolfe Island, who has been long engaged in filling wood contracts, and who held a contract for the delivery of 600 cords of wood to the Warden of the Provincial Penitentiary in the winter of 1856-7. Mr. J. J. Burrows, County Attorney, conducted the prosecution, and Mr. O'Reilly and Mr. Kilpatrick appeared for the defendants.

The jury after an absence of nearly an hour, rendered a verdict of "Not Guilty," and the defendants were discharged.

The verdict appears to give general satisfaction. The prison authorities did not bear very heavily against the prisoners, and whether they were guilty or not, and the Jury say they were not, they have been already very severely punished.

LOSS OF THE "POMONA."

The "Pomona" left Liverpool on Wednesday morning last, at 5 a.m., for New York, with a crew of forty men, and three hundred and ninety-seven passengers, thirty four children and seven infants. At 4 p.m., she passed Holyhead. Many of the passengers retired to their berths early, but a large number more congregated and sang and danced to the music of a fiddle and a pipe. At midnight the wind increased, and the ship lay to under close-reefed topsails. A revolving light was made, supposed to be Tuskar, and the ship was squared away on a westerly course. Very soon afterward the vessel struck on what proved to be Blackwater Bank, and the sea made a complete breach over her. About 10 on Thursday morning, the fore and main masts were cut away, the ship rolling heavily at the time. Two boats were got out, but they were soon swamped. About 1 p.m., she washed over the bank, when the best bower anchor was let go, but it was found she was sinking fast. At 1.30 p. m. the long-boat was got out, into which the cook, steward, boatswain, and three others scrambled; she upset, and four of them were drowned. The third mate and fifteen of the crew, and three passengers left the ship at 2.30, p.m., in the whale-boat, and landed near Blackwater. The remainder were all drowned.

The wreck of the Pomona is not the only casualty that had occurred on the Irish coast during the last few days. Three fine vessels have been totally wrecked, and it is said not less than 13 lives lost. The point at which she struck is much dreaded by mariners, and is known as Ben-head. After she had struck the crew got the jolly-boat over the bulwarks to leeward, and availing themselves of the partial shelter which the hull of the vessel afforded, they contrived to get away from the wreck, and providentially got ashore. A fine clipped French schooner, laden with iron ore, went ashore the same time off Skerries, when the captain and a boy were washed overboard and drowned. There being little or no chance of the vessel holding long together, one of the sailors jumped into the sea, and struck out for the land, which he reached. Two of the crew remained on board the vessel, which threatened every minute to break up and go to pieces. They were ultimately rescued by the life-boat. In the evening large fragments of wreck were borne to the shore at Howth, and proved to be portions of the "Dusty Miller of Newcastle." This vessel must have gone ashore at the north west side of Ireland's Eye during the fury of the gale on Wednesday night, and broke up immediately. Of the fate of the crew, said to be eleven in number, there is not the remotest doubt.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

(Reported for the Montreal Herald.)

Wednesday, May 8, 1859.

At the meeting of the Council held this evening, there were PRESENT:

The Mayor: Aldermen Marchand, Corse, McCambridge, Valois, Jodoin, Gorrie Thompson: Councillors Grenier, Terroux, Bernard, Leprohon, Smyth, Cusson, Bellemare, Duhamel, Auclaire, Mullins, Rennie, Goyette, Bristow, Rodden, Contant, Bronsdon.

LETTERS.

A letter was read from Messrs. Laflamme, Advocates, stating that they had received instructions from W. H. Hingston, Esq., M.D., to institute proceedings against the city Corporation for £1,000, the amount of damages caused him by the bad state of the bridge in St. Patrick's Street, St. Anne's Ward. The letter ended with the hope that the Council would at once take the matter up, and so avoid the necessity of further proceedings. Referred to the Road Committee.

A letter from Mr. T. Boutillier, relative to a drain in Beaver Hall, was referred to the same Committee.

A letter from R. McDonnel, Esq, Advocate, on behalf of James Grafton, claiming damages for injuries sustained by falling into an excavation in Juror Street, was referred to the Road Committee.

PETITIONS.

A petition was received from Mr. David Torrance, and other merchants, for the repeal of the By-Law prohibiting the making of entrances to the cellars of buildings by means of doors and slides from the footpath. Referred to the Road Committee.

A petition for the removal of the water tap in Chaboillez Street, was referred to the Water Committee.

A petition from the tavern keepers, to reduce the tax on bagatelle tables, was referred to the Finance Committee.

A petition from the horse dealers, for a reduction of the taxes lately imposed on them, was referred to the same Committee.

A petition from the committee of the Montreal Temperance Society, praying leave to erect, at their own expense, a fountain with troughs for cattle, in McGill Street, near where it is crossed by St. Paul Street, was referred to the Water Committee,

APPROPRIATIONS FOR COMMITTEES.

A report, from the Market Committee, asking for £2,000 for the expenses of the year, was held over till next meeting, along with another from the Police Committee, asking £5,000 for the requirements of the year.

A report from the Water Committee, asking leave to take the necessary steps to dispossess a number of squatters in the vicinity of the Water works, was handad over to the Finance Committee.

A report from the License Committee, in favour of granting licenses to a number of tavern keepers, against whom the police had no complaints, was adopted by the Council.

$16,000 FOR REPAIRING THE STREETS.

The following report, from the Finance Committee, was read by the City Clerk:—

"Your Committee have considered the application of the Road Committee for $16,000 for purchasing broken stones to allow of the necessary repairs for the streets, during the season. Your Committee cannot concur in the appropriation being made for the purchase of macadam stones only; but, in view of the increase of revenue which is expected from the passing of the amendment to the assessment by-law, your Committee recommend that the sum of $16,000 be placed at the disposal of the Road Committee, to be exclusively appropriated for the general repairs that may be indispensibly necessary to avoid actions of damages and serious inconvenience to the citizens, and also for cleaning the principal streets and thoroughfares "it being well understood that no other appropriation, for similar purposes be made this year."

Alderman Marchand moved, seconded by Alderman Valois, that the report be received and adopted.

Councillor Rodden moved in amendment, seconded by Councillor Bristow "that the last clause in the report be erased, with reference to future appropriations, and that the report thus amended pass."

The mover of the amendment having stated his reasons, Alderman Marchand rose to give explanations, but Councillor Rodden called upon the chair to decide whether he was in order. The chairman decided in the affirmative; whereupon Councillor Duhamel, seconded by Councillor Bristow, moved that an appeal should be taken from the decision just given. On a division the opinion of the chair was sustained. Councillor Rodden, quoting one of the by-laws of the Council asked the Chairman whether the report was in order. The answer being in the affirmative, Councillor Rodden, seconded by Councillor Duhamel, moved that an appeal be taken. On a division the decision of the Chair was again supported.

Councillor Du[illegible] Terroux, proposed, in amendment;—that the $16,000 mentioned in the report be distributed as follows:—

St. Anne's Ward	- - -	$2,500
St. Antoine	- - - -	2,000
West	- - - - - -	500
Centre	- - - - -	500
East	- - - - -	500
St. Lawrence	- - - -	2,000
St. Louis	- - - -	2,000
St. Jacques	- - - -	3,000
St. Marie	- - - - -	3,000
		$16,000.

The amendment of Councillor Rodden having been put and lost, that of Councillor Duhamel was submitted, with the following result:—

Yeas.—Messrs. Duhamel, Mullins, Cusson, Terroux.—4.

Nays.—Messrs. Contant, Bellemare, Bristow, Goyette, Smith, Rennie, Leprohon, Bernard, Auclaire, Bronsdon, Rodden, Grenier, Gorrie, Thompson, M'Cambridge, Corse, Valois, Marchand.—18.

The main motion was then carried.—

The Council adjourned at midnight, having considered four orders of the day, leaving fourteen over for next meeting:—

NOTICE OF MOTION.

From Councillor Bernard—"For an order to the city Attorney to furnish the Council with a statement of all suits commenced or terminated for or against the Council, with the amount of the judgments rendered, and all fees and costs received and disbursed since his appointment to office; and that he be instructed to make, hereafter to the Cou cil quarterly returns of suits, etc.

THE MILITIA.
HEAD QUARTERS,
Toronto, May 12, 1859.

Militia General Order.

His Excellency the Governor General and Commander-in-Chief is pleased to direct that, in pursuance of the provisions of the Militia Law, the Annual Muster of the Service Men of eighteen years of age, and upwards but under forty-five years, not exempted by law, in the several Battalions of the Sedentary Militia of Lower Canada, shall take place on the Twenty-ninth day of June next,—and Officers in command of Battalions are requested to give due notice to the Officers Commanding Companies in their respective Battalions, of the place and time for assembly of such Muster.

The attention of Officers in command of Battalions is called to the power vested in them by the sixth clause of the Militia Act, which authorizes the Commanding Officer to direct the Muster to take place within the limits of the respective Companies of each Battalion, in cases where such a course may be deemed advisable in consequence of the distance of the Company's limits from the Head Quarters of the Battalion.

The Annual Returns, when completed, are to be forwarded by the Officers in command of the Battalions direct to the Deputy Adjutant General of Militia for Lower Canada, instead of through the Assistant Adjutant General of Military Districts as heretofore.

Copies of the Militia Law, as recently amended, will be forwarded to Commanding Officers in due course for distribution in their respective Battalions.

ACTIVE FORCE.

1. With reference to the 1st clause of the General Order, No. 1, of the 5th instant, relative to the Drill of the Volunteer Force for the present year, His Excellency the Right Honorable the Commander-in-Chief directs that, at all Posts where there is a Commandant of the whole or part of the Volunteer force such Drill shall, as far as practicable, be performed by the whole or part, as the case may be, in Brigade, under the Command of the senior officer present on the parade.

A child drowned in a water puncheon.—Last evening, about half-past six o'clock, constable Taylor being in the neighbourhood of Trinity and Palace streets, heard the cries of females in a house on the latter street. On proceeding to the place, he found that a young child, the son of Mr. Irwin, a blacksmith, had just been discovered drowned in a water puncheon in the yard of the premises. The little lad, an interesting child, had been missed a few minutes previously from its mother's side, and on search being made, the straw hat worn by the child was seen floating on the water in the tank. On further search it was found that the child had fallen into the water, which was about four feet deep, and on being taken out life was extinct. Unable to realize the sad fact, the unhappy parents used every means to restore life to the inanimate body, but of course disappointment only rewarded their efforts. Dr. Hallowell, coroner, was summoned, and finding that the child was dead, proceeded to hold an inquest on the body. After hearing such evidence as was relative to the case, the jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts related above. This is another instance of the fatal effects of carelessness in allowing water-tanks to remain uncovered and easy of access to children. It is surprising that the number of accidents is not much greater, considering the amount of negligence of this nature. This case should act as a warning to parents who have heretofore permitted this danger to exist.—Toronto Colonist, May 18th.

Review of the Montreal Produce and Stock Market.

[Prepared by the Board of Brokers for the Montreal Herald.]

BOARD ROOM EXCHANGE,
Montreal, Thursday, May 19, 1859.

Flour.—Since our last circular was written the market has been in a very excited state, and large sales of Superfine have been made at from $7.00 to $8 00, of Fancies at 8.00 to $8.25, and Extras at $8.50. For the last two or three days there has been little doing, and to make sales a considerable reduction on the above rates would have to be submitted to. Sales of Unbrandable Flour have been made at from $5.50 to $7, the latter rate now obtainable. French Flour, in bags, is now offering at $9.50 per 196 lbs.

Wheat.—We have no sales to report, except about 9000 bush. of French Wheat, half red half white, of a superior quality, at $2.10 per 60 lbs.

Corn.—Sales in quantity at 95 cents, now held for $1.

Barley.—Held for 85 cents per 48 lbs.

Oats.—No large sales to report; held at 57½ to 60 cents per minot.

Rye.—None.

Peas.—Sales at $1.05 to $1.10: offering in quantity at $1,12½.

Provisions—Have advanced to our quotations. and are held firmly, but without any large sales to report.

Ashes.—Pot Ashes have been in fair demand at last week's rates. Pearls have advanced to $6.65 to $6,70, the higher rate offered for a superior lot.

Freights.—Nothing to report except in Ashes, which are being taken at 17s. 6d. to Liverpool and Clyde.

STOCKS.

Bank of Montreal.—Has continued to decline,—but only to a small extent,—there being to-day buyers at 119 ex dividend, which sellers refuse.

Do. New Stock.—Buyers, but no sellers at 113 ex dividend.

Bank of British North America.—None in market.

Commercial Bank of Canada.—Steady at 113¼.

City Bank—Nominally 112½.

Bank of Upper Canada.—The price of this stock took a sudden turn upwards and was sold at 91½—but the improvements was very short lived, there being to-day sellers,—but no buyers at 90.

People's Bank.—Was sold to some extent at 108½, 108¼ and 108. The latter being the rate of to-day.

Molsons Bank.—Asked for. No sellers.

Montreal Mining Company Consols.—Buyers at $2. Sellers at $2¼. Nothing doing.

Champlain and St. Lawrence Railroad.—Sales at 16¼, at which it remains steady.

Grand Trunk Railroad.—None in market.

Great Western of Canada.—No stock offering. Would command 65. A dividend of 1½ per cent for the past half year was paid on 10th instant.

Montreal Telegraph Company Stock.—Inactive at our quotations.

Montreal City Gas Company—Nominal.

Government Debentures.—Nothing whatever doing. No demand.

Consolidated Municipal Loan Fund Debentures.—Heavy at 92½, but the amount in market is very trifling.

In other Stocks.—Nothing whatever to report.

Exchange—As quoted. The bank rate for 60 day Bills on London having advanced to 11 per cent primium.

Reported for the Montreal Herald.

BY MONTREAL LINE.
Office, St. Sacrament Street.

New York, May 19.

The Board of Managers of the American Baptist Missionary Union closed its labours last evening.

It has adopted a new constitution and a plan for the re-construction of Missionary policy.

Advices from Port au Prince state that of the 35 Cuban Filibusters, who recently landed at that place from the brig "African," only 18 remained, the others having left the Island.

A Spanish war steamer was in port watching the movements of the filibusters.

Later advices from Venezula represent that revolutionary movements there would, in all probability, be soon entirely suppressed by the vigorous action of the Government forces.

The general revolutionary leaders had already been arrested and their partizans been dispersed.

Washington, May 19.

The first instalment of $100,000 of the debt, as ascertained and adjusted in the treaty, recently concluded by Minister Reed, with the Chinese Government, and due by it to certain American citizens, has already been received.

The Administration has recently received such evidences of the good taith of Great Britain as to satisfy it in the belief that she is sincerely disposed to fulfil all her engagements with this Country, in regard to the Central American question.

MOTHERS! MOTHERS! MOTHERS!

Don't fail to procure Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children teething. It has no equal on earth. It greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skilful female Physicians in New England, and has been used with never-failing success in millions of cases.

We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in children, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause.

If life and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, it is worth its weight in gold.

Millions of bottles are sold every year in the United States. It is an old and well-tried remedy.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

None genuine, unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New-York, is on the outside wrapper.

Sold by Druggists throughout the world.

J. M. HENRY & SONS,
Waterburg, Vermont,
General Agents for Canada, to whom all orders should be addressed.

Also, sold by Lymans Savage & Co., and Lamplough & Campbell, Wholesale Druggists, Montreal.
