POOR ARE SUFFERING. Liverpool, Aug. 19.—The disorganization of the life of the city was more complete yesterday, but a sullen acquiescence had for the moment taken the place of turbulence.

RAILWAY EMPLOYEES OUT, ESTIMATED: 90,000 Garmen, 22,000 Transport workers, dockers, porters, 25,000 Women's union strikers, 15,000 Teamsters, 8,000 In Liverpool: Dockers, lightmen, freightmen, 28,000 Carmen, 7,900 Scavengers, carters, porters and other workers, 10,000

Total 250,000. It is estimated that throughout the country 190,000 men and women, not strikers, have already been thrown out of work, owing to the partial tie-up of transportation.

Bishop's Crossing, Aug. 19.—(Special)—One of the largest political meetings ever held here took place last evening, when Dr. John Hayes, Conservative candidate for Richmond and Wolfe, opened up his campaign.

MR. PEERS DAVIDSON, MONTREAL. Dr. Hayes was followed by Mr. Peers Davidson, of Montreal. This speaker criticized the pact on several grounds.

Another disadvantage of the agreement would be the fact that the beef trust would work its way into Canada, and the Canadian butcher would be put out of business.

PATHFINDERS OF THE ST. FRANCIS RIVER; COLLECTION OF DATA CONCERNING EARLY DAYS.

(By Dr. John Hayes, Richmond.)
SECTION II.

In the present thriving town of Stanstead, upon the site where today stands the Catholic Church, Johnston Taplin erected his humble cabin in March, 1796. Leaving Newbury in Vermont, in the winter of that year, accompanied by his wife, Miriam Haseltine and their two children, he turned his steps northward; fifteen days later, on March 5th, he arrived at Derby Centre where he shared the hospitality of Timothy Hinman, one of the first settlers of Northern Vermont. Plunging into the forest next day he covered a distance of five miles to the site of his new home; the day following the courageous pair drawing their two children and worldly possessions on a hand sled in the deep snow, had taken possession of a hastily erected cabin, the first in the now great county of Stanstead.

In 1797 Israel Wood and Rueben Bangs became his neighbors; in 1798 Selah Pomeroy, great grandson of Eldad Pomeroy, of the Plymouth colony, took up a location in the XL range. Crystal Lake Cemetery forms part of the original Pomeroy farm. The names of the earliest settlers have been perpetuated in those of Beebe Plain, Mazon's Point, Cassville, Brown's Hill, Glens's Corner, Griffin's Corner, Rutter's Corner, Boynton, Amy Corner, Caswellboro, Copp's Ferry, names which plainly indicate their origin.

IN HEREFORD.

In Hereford, where some of the streams flow into the tributaries of the St. Francis and others into the head waters of the Connecticut River the pathfinder was Captain John Pope, the founder in the Eastern Townships of a family which has played a very interesting part in their annals. Twenty-five miles down the river the British had established camps as early as 1758. Not until some time prior to 1793 did the intrepid loyalist forge his way northward into the Canadian forest lands.

IN HATLEY.

The leader of the Associates in Hatley was Captain Ebenezer Hovey, who settled in the western part in 1792, and who with a party of explorers is credited with the discovery of Lake Massawippi. Massawippi, "beautiful water," now the summer play grounds of American millionaires.

BARNSTON SETTLEMENT.

In Barnston, the site of the present town of Coaticook formed part of the original holdings of Richard and Levi Baldwin, Jonathan Cutting, Nathaniel Pollard and Robert Magill.

AN EARLY EXPLORATION.

The annals tell us that in 1793, Edmund Heard in company with Josiah Sawyer, set out from Missisquoi Bay, on Lake Champlain, with provisions, tools, etc., through the woods, ninety miles from inhabitants to the westward, and after travelling and exploring the woods thirty-one days, arrived on a hill now called Pleasant Hill in Newport. Here he and Sawyer commenced to make improvements at a distance of 25 miles from inhabitants to the south and seventy miles from the French settlements to the north. Sawyer moved his family in 1794, and Heard followed with his the following year. Sawyer remained but a short time at Pleasant Hill; he became himself a leader of a group of associates and took up location about 1796 in Eaton, where the village of Sawyerville perpetuates his name. Following him closely came Samuel Hugh, Israel Bailey and Amer Powers, John French and his sons and Rufus Lake-ree came in the same year. Then came Captain John Cook, whose name lives in that of Cookshire, along with Jesse Cooper, Levi French, Luther French, Abner Osgood, Orasmus Bailey, Ward Bailey and Ebenezer Learned. Another account gives priority of settlement to John French.

EARLY DAYS IN COMPTON AND DUDSWELL.

In his "History of Compton County," the late lamented L. S. Channell says: "There are no authentic records as to the date of arrival of the first settlers in this township (Compton), but from what can be gleaned the year 1796 was probably the earliest date and Jesse Penoyer the first one. He settled just below the present village of Waterville. "Penoyer's Mills" for years was a prominent centre for the pioneer settlers. Penoyer, in addition to being the leader of the Compton group was a land surveyor and a prominent factor in the civil and military life of the community. The recently published "Penoyer Papers" are amongst the most valuable of our early records in the Townships. The pioneer of Dudswell Township was John Bishop, whose story reads more like a romance than a page of history.

Enlisting in the American revolutionary army he took part in the strenuous struggles of the times and was captured by the British, who took him to Quebec. He approved the hours of his exile by learning the science of surveying and on his return to Vermont turned his knowledge to good account. He made many friends while in captivity and on a voluntary visit to Quebec later determined with their aid to obtain for himself and associates a grant of land. In October, 1800, he brought his wife and family of seven children—the latter all under 15 years of age—to a home in the wilds of Dudswell. Leaving their wagon at Derby they continued their journey over unpassable roads to the "Little Forks," where there were a few log dwellings and thence by "blazed" trees, travelling eight or ten miles daily to their destination. A widowed sister and her son shared their cabin. While away on one occasion on business connected with the enterprise of which he was leader and founder, Mr. Bishop was taken ill at the house of a friend fourteen miles away from his home; here he remained from March till June until he requested to be removed to his own cabin where he wished to die. The end came in August; his family was overwhelmed and his projects of settlement so favorably begun, appeared to be completely upset. Fortunately, Nathaniel Bishop, a brother, took up the burden and brought it to a final successful issue after many years of arduous labor.

The Township of Ascot, which was surveyed by Deputy Provincial Surveyor Joseph Kilbuck as early as 1792, was first taken possession of by the grantees in 1796.

Mrs. Day, in her History of Townships, says: "About the year 1796 Gilbert Hyatt with several brothers, who had previously come into Canada from Arlington, Vt., in consequence of political troubles, located themselves upon this tract and took the preliminary steps towards obtaining the grant of the township; but in consequence of a failure on their part to fulfil the conditions, only portions were granted."

Gilbert Hyatt may properly be called the founder of the present "Metropolis of the Townships"; in any case he erected the first mill on the Magog River, the forerunner of the later day immense industrial expansion.

Writing in 1815, Bouchette says: "At the forks of the St. Francis and at the foot of the great fall are Hyatt's mills, in a most convenient situation, a little below them, in the river, is a very singular high rock, on the pinnacle of which there is one solitary pine tree of large dimensions, making together an appearance both extraordinary and unique."

Near a century has gone past and the solitary pine tree still stands as the silent sentinel of the progressive city which now occupies the former site of Hyatt's first mill. A pretty legend is woven around the famous tree; the story goes that hostile bands of Abenakis and Iroquois met here in about 1692 to contend for the supremacy in the hunting grounds of the upper St. Francis. The chiefs of the warring red men held solemn council and decided to settle their differences in another way than by the arbitrament of war. Two warriors were chosen and directed to run around the tree on the small island in the river until one should fall exhausted, when his successful rival should be entitled to take his scalp in token of victory. The Iroquois brave succumbed in the ordeal; his scalp was soon dangling at the belt of his successful Abenakis rival. Since then to their own final extinction by the white man, the Abenakis remained undisputed possessors of these hunting grounds. A limb of the tree was examined at Laval University a few years ago and declared on competent authority to be well-nigh 300 years old.

STOKE AND BROMPTON.

The Township of Stoke was settled at a much later date. In the first range of the Township a small clearance was made which for years was known as "Cowan's Clearance," probably owing to the fact that the Cowan family was the first to settle there. In any case, the township was granted to members of that family.

The exact date and the name of the first settler of Brompton Township do not appear in any authentic record. Mrs. Day says: "Settlements were commenced in this tract near the Little Brompton Falls on the St. Francis as early as 1797 by Ozias Caswell, Samuel and Joseph Pierce, Samuel Bishop and Frederick Caswell, Wm. Barnard was the leader and principal land owner."

EARLY DAYS IN WINDSOR.

In the township of Windsor and within the limits of the present thriving town of Windsor Mills, Captain Josiah Brown, a native of New Hampshire, became the first permanent settler about 1800, locating on lot 12 of the 15th range. Following him in quick succession came Peter Frye, Nathaniel Caswell, Moses Bailey, Ebenezer Moore and others.

Here, as everywhere, the story is one of hardships and difficulties on the one hand, and indomitable courage on the other. On one occasion, while on a hunting expedition, Captain Brown, on account of a shortage of his provisions, was obliged to return home. On his way, he broke through the ice and became practically wet; it was intense cold which gradually increased his discomfort. Gradually the life powers were ebbing away and a deadly stupor seemed to overcome him. Abandoning his loaded sled he made superhuman efforts to reach his cabin. So weak had he become that when he arrived he was unable to utter a word and so changed was his countenance that his wife at first failed to recognize him. After weeks of careful nursing he finally recovered.

A BIT OF PEAL PARIS.

(Paris Correspondent the New York Times)

Americans who come to Paris expecting to see on every hand those evidences of gaiety of the French nation which they have somehow been taught to expect, are not infrequently frankly disappointed with what they do see. There was a party of such Americans, engaged in gathering their first impressions of the Gallia capital, who were heard to declare that the famous spectacle presented by the boulevards at night reminded them of a sort of cross between Broadway and Coney Island, with more of Coney Island than Broadway. But for one harmless incident, in fact, these particular Americans might have gone home resolved to warn all their friends against what they were convinced was a very dull city.

This one saving incident occurred at noonday, while one American was sitting with another American at a little white-topped table under a awning in the Latin quarter. The cafe where he sat is near to the Luxembourg Gardens, and just around the corner from the Sorbonne. It is in fact, a cafe somewhat famous in the night life of the city. But then, as already stated, it was high noon, and the sun shone bright on the clean and empty street in front of the little row of tables.

Suddenly, our American says, his companion touched him on the arm. "Well, I never," said she—it was she—"did you see that little man kiss that big girl there on the corner right in the street? The startled American says, he looked about wildly and asked what girl and what man, and why shouldn't they? Then, following her eager gestures, he discovered the guilty party about a block away.

After that pair came another pair—another man in baggy trousers and another girl with a shortish tight skirt and large hat. The four of them were laughing and capering about like children and coming toward the cafe—their line of march being along the middle of the street.

Just opposite the row of little tables—deserted except for the two Americans and an elderly Frenchman who might have been a professor—two of the girls executed a high kick, which shot her slipper some 16 feet in the general direction of the sky. There were shrieks of laughter. One of the young men in baggy trousers caught the shoe as it fell upon the tip of his walking stick, and bearing the substantial trophy aloft, began to dance about the street and sing. The girl meanwhile hopped about the street on one foot and begged for the slipper. Then after some teasing the young man presently restored it to her foot—which was a large, substantial foot, such as French girls are apt to have. He did so on bended knee with many elaborate airs of gallantry.

As the quartette vanished around the next corner, still singing and laughing gaily, the American girl, who had been watching breathlessly the progress of the harmless little comedy, heaved a sigh and turned to her companion.

"A really, truly bit of Paris at last," she cried. "I was almost sure there wasn't any. You don't suppose they could possibly have been hired to do that, do you—with the street empty except for us and the sun shining? And, anyway, they did it exactly like a lot of children, which grown folks at home could never do."

For the sake of that episode they forgave Paris for having boulevards with a taint of Coney Island about them.

AEROPLANES PRAISED AS EYES FOR NAVIES.

In War Aviator Must Fly High Avoiding Shots.

AEROPLANES WILL RISE IN AIR FROM DECKS AND GO UP HIGH TO SCAN HORIZON.

London, Aug. 15.—M. Beaumont, or Lieutenant Conneau, the winner of the air race round Great Britain, has expressed his opinion on the value of the aeroplane in naval warfare to the London representative of the Temps. As regards the manipulation of the aeroplane, M. Beaumont explained that there was no magic in it, although it was a delicate matter, requiring a special touch and a little practice.

He believed that in 10 years time we shall smile at the feats accomplished to-day, in just the same way as an old captain of a sailing ship when he thinks of the excitement of his first tack.

M. Beaumont considers that much nonsense has been talked about the question of the use of the aeroplane in naval warfare, and he explained that we must first get rid, at all events for the moment, of the idea of the aeroplane as a weapon of offense. "From the height at which an aeroplane must keep in order to be practically out of range, it is absolutely impossible to drop a bomb on the target aimed at, even if this were a battleship of the largest size. One might, perhaps attempt night attacks, but then the great difficulty of the aeroplane, and for the torpedo boat or the submarine, is to discover the enemy."

NATURE WILL CURE YOU Of Kidney Disease, Aided by Father Morrissy's No. 7.

Kidney trouble is one of the most distressing ailments of mankind, and leads to backache and rheumatism. This is because of the importance of the work done by the kidneys—work which must proceed normally to insure good health.

A very large proportion of civilized people have some form of kidney trouble, sometimes without knowing that their malady is of that nature. Many obscure pains can often be traced to diseased kidneys.

These organs are the filters of the body. Their function is to strain out of the blood and eliminate through the bladder the worn out tissue and other impurities gathered by the blood in its course.

When the kidneys become congested and sluggish, these impurities, including the irritating and poisonous uric acid, are not entirely removed from the blood. The result is that the uric acid is deposited in the joints and tissues, causing the agonies of rheumatism and frequently affecting the liver and other organs.

Father Morrissy, the famous priest-physician of Morrissey, N.B., after much research compounded a remedy which worked hand in hand with Nature. His doctrine, justified by thousands of cures, was that the need is not a patchwork relief, but a treatment that will enable the forces of Nature, working through the kidneys, to accomplish their intended work.

1912 MODEL J.M. TOURING CAR, 7-PASSENGER, 45-50 H.P., PRICE, $2,450

As competition has increased in the manufacture of the modern motor car, costs of production have been sacrificed to meet the demand of the masses for a cheap car. Motor cars that five years ago sold for $3,000 can now be bought for $1,500, and the makers claim that it is a better car. Is it logical?—the value that goes to prove its reliability cannot be there. The Schacht Motor Car was first manufactured eleven years ago—at the present day there are 40,000 satisfied owners—the growth of the business has only been proportionate with the quality of the car. If increased production made it possible to produce the car cheaper, the value went back into the car—always with the one end in view to offer something better—the best car made for the price. The Schacht engine embodies all the latest improvements that are found on more costly cars—the graceful racy lines and superior finish of the body is not excelled by the very best makes on the market. It is not doing justice to ourselves or to you to go into the numerous features that have established the Schacht car in the motor world, but we will be pleased to send you a catalogue giving full particulars and complete information about the various types. We also manufacture delivery cars and trucks. Applications for unoccupied territories will be received.

GETTING INTO LINE FOR FAIR WEEK.

Everything Points to a Better and Larger Exhibition.

MONDAY, LABOR DAY, WILL BE ONE OF THE BEST DAYS OF THE WEEK.

With Canada's Great Eastern Exhibition but two weeks away, some idea can be gathered as to how the work is progressing. There is no exaggeration in saying that the 47th annual exhibition this year will be better and larger than any previous one. Given favorable weather, the result of careful and energetic management will show a record-breaker.

Mr. H. E. Channell, the secretary, stated this morning that in comparing the statistics of previous years at this time, it goes to show a wonderful advance along all lines. The reports from the advertising men sent out by the exhibition to cover all the New England cities and towns, as well as those in the Province of Quebec and Eastern Canada, are very encouraging.

The fact that the railway companies will run excursions on three days of fair week, instead of two as in former years, in addition to the cheap rates during the period of the fair, will be taken advantage of by many who wish to make it the occasion of a reunion with friends and relatives.

The directors have invited the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province to be their guest on Wednesday, September 6. The members of the Provincial Cabinet and the representatives in the Legislature for the Townships have also been invited, as well as Hon. S. A. Fisher, Dominion Minister of Agriculture. The passenger agents of Eastern Canada have also been invited to be present on the same day.

In addition to the high-class attractions that have been secured, the management has engaged the 2nd Regimental Band, of Concord, N. H., for the six days of the exhibition. This musical organization is recognized to be one of the best in the New England States. This band will furnish music each forenoon and afternoon. In the forenoon they will render concert music on the band stand near the main building. Four other bands will also furnish music during the week, so that this part of the programme will be in keeping with the other items.

Labor Day falls on Monday of exhibition week, and it has been decided to give the full programme of attractions that day. Two extra races have been added to the race programme. They are a three-minute class for a purse of $100 and a named race for a like amount. This means that there will be an extra day's racing.

Large numbers of exhibitors at the Quebec Exhibition have decided to show at Sherbrooke also. Arrangements have been made whereby all stock coming to Sherbrooke will be allowed to leave Quebec on Saturday, September 2, in time to arrive in Sherbrooke Sunday morning. Further arrangements have been made with the different railways as to the time they are to have the exhibits delivered to them. They will have to be at the C.P.R. station at 12 noon Sunday; G. T. R., 2 p.m. Saturday, and Q. C. R. at 2 p.m.

The auto parades promise to be a leading feature of the exhibition, and the entry list will be a large one. Enquiries are already being made for reserved seat tickets. They will again be on sale at the store of J. A. Wiggett & Co., Strathecona Square.

CONDITION OF VERMONT CROPS.

SEASON HAS BEEN DRYEST IN SEVENTY YEARS, SAYS COMMISSIONER.

St. Johnsbury, Vt., August 17.—State Commissioner of Agriculture O. L. Martin is sending out the following regarding conditions of the Vermont crops as they are:

"Since March 1 we have had less rain than for any year in the recollection of oldest inhabitant. Springs that have not failed in 70 years are now dry. However, the crop conditions are better in many sections of the country and will not cause the disposition of live stock at a serious loss.

"Hay will reach about 80 percent of a normal crop. The quality is good where cut in proper season. Oats in many sections will not reach above 90 per cent. On the dryer sections 50 per cent is probably all that can be harvested. Barley is in about the same condition. Early potatoes are practically a failure. Late potatoes are growing well now since the heavy rain some two weeks since and we hope for at least two thirds of a crop. Corn is growing rapidly and will produce a large yield of ensilage but a late and extremely favorable fall will be necessary to mature the corn in proper condition. Apples are reported as nearly a failure in the apple growing counties of this state. I am informed that only one fourth of a crop of honey has been made this year."

FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS.

PRICES AT THE SHERBROOKE MARKET

FARMERS ARE COMPLAINING OF LACK OF WATER—MAY HAVE TO HAUL SUPPLY.

To-day's market was equally as large and well attended as last week's. In spite of the fact that many of the farmers are not yet through harvesting almost every stall on the market was occupied.

In conversation with the farmers from different sections this morning it was learned that the water supply was very low. In many cases the farmers reported having had to carry water long distances. Unless considerable rain falls during the fall and before the ground freezes the water situation will be serious during the winter months.

The supply of potatoes on the market this morning was very large and the quality excellent.

BUTTER MARKET FIRM.
Montreal, August 19. (Special)—The market this week has been very firm, with considerable new business doing in all grades.

Three cars have been ordered by Western buyers at full prices, 24c to 25c being the figure paid, the latter price being the exception.

Britain has also been buying the past few days, but we have not heard of over 24c for the finest salted and 24c to 24c for seconds, having been realized by the shipper.

The future of this market is a problem and in face of existing conditions we prefer to make no comment for the present.

CHEESE MARKET ACTIVE AND HIGHER.
Montreal, August 19.—According to Board of Trade figures receipts of cheese are not dropping off to the extent anticipated by many, in fact some factories are showing a slight increase over two weeks ago, while others show no change. This is likely due to good showers (more of which would do good) in addition to which farmers are, where necessary, feeding their cattle.

There has been a good export demand all the week with a gradual rise in prices and equal to 13c has been made the past 24 hours, against 12c a week ago.

Prices seem to us to be getting extreme and the consensus of opinion is that a reaction is about due. The market has been steadily advancing since the end of May and although there is a shortage in the make, both in Britain and here, the fact of prices being ten shillings higher than a year ago makes one think that any future bull features that may transpire in either country are fully discounted.

Finest Westerns have been sold at 12 1/2 to 13c, finest Easterns and Townships 12c to 12 1/2c and under-grades 12c to 12 1/2c.

COUNTRY PRODUCE.

MARKET WELL SUPPLIED.
Montreal, August 19.—Potatoes—The market is supplied by farmers in the surrounding districts in small jobbing lots.

LIMITED DEMAND FOR MAPLE PRODUCTS.
Montreal, August 19.—There is a very limited demand for maple syrup, which is in light supply. Small sized tins are selling at 70c and the larger ones at 75c, while other houses are selling by the pound at 8c per pound in tin and 7c to 7 1/2c in wood. Sugar is in fair demand at 9c to 9 1/2c per pound as to quality.

BEAN MARKET QUIET.
Montreal, August 19.—The market is very quiet with light offerings, prices are firm at $1.90 to $2.00 track Montreal for three pound pickers. Advices from the bean growing sections in the West report that the outlook is in a light crop with supplies of last year's crop about exhausted.

EGG MARKET STEADY.
Montreal, August 19.—There has been no particular change in the egg market during the week. There is quite a lot of eggs arriving, the shrinkage of which continues heavy to the case. Buyers are asking for selected stock, but as the demand is only limited, supplies are beginning to accumulate. The prices paid at shipping points West of Toronto is 14c and 15c per dozen East of Toronto. The market here for straight receipts is unchanged, sales of round lots being made on the basis 17 1/2c to 18c per dozen. No. 1 stock is commanding 17 1/2c in round lots, and 20c in a jobbing way. The demand for select quality is fair, and prices of this grade are firm, selling in round lots at 22c per dozen, and in a jobbing way at 24c per dozen.

PROVISION MARKET.

GOOD DEMAND ALL AROUND.
Montreal, August 19.—There has been a good demand for all lines of smoked meats during the week and prices continue firm but unchanged. There is a strong feeling in salt pork the advance reported by us last week being fully maintained. Canadian plate beef remains unchanged.

The receipts of live hogs have been fair but there is a good demand from packers. Prices are unchanged. Packers are paying $7 to $7.50 per hundred pounds weighed of cars. Dressed hogs are selling this week at $10.50 to $10.75 per hundred lbs.

HAY AND STRAW

PRICES ARE GOOD.
Montreal, August 19.—The hay market is very strong this week, owing to the better prices being offered by the English buyers while American operators are buying very liberally. The failure of the root crop in England, and the scarcity of hay all over the continent, have brought numerous enquiries for hay. The lower grades which were a drag in the market a few weeks ago are now all cleaned up, and prices of these grades have advanced 50c to $1.50 per ton during the past week. The better grades have not advanced in prices, but the market is very stiff.

We quote prices purely nominal as follows: No. 1 hay, $14 to $14.50; No. 2 extra quality, $12 to $13; No. 2 hay ordinary, $8 to $10.50; No. 1 hay, $9 to $9.50; Clover mixed, $9.

WELL-KNOWN AMERICAN AUTOMOBILE TO BE MADE IN CANADA.

Hamilton's growing list of live industries is substantially increased by the location of a factory by a Canadian company to manufacture the well-known Schacht Automobile.

The Schacht Motor Car Co., of Cincinnati, Ohio, have been manufacturing Schacht motor cars for the past eleven years, in which time they have successfully marketed 40,000 motor vehicles. The Canadian demand for a medium priced car of high power and reputable quality has induced the Canadian capital interested to obtain from the American manufacturers the Canadian rights for the Schacht line of cars and trucks. The Company has been organized with a capital fully paid up of $350,000.

Besides the manufacture of the various models of pleasure motor cars, the Schacht Motor Car Co., of Canada, Limited, will also go extensively into trucks and delivery cars.

The Hamilton plant has been purchased and a most modern equipped factory will soon be in condition to supply the demand for the Schacht car.

The car itself is little known in Canada, but the growth of the business in the United States in the past eleven years is sufficient to testify to its popularity.

The New York Correspondent of a well known journal says:

"One of the most significant signs of the times in the investment business is the great increase in the number of reputable and high-class dealers and bankers who are offering bonds in the American market in units of $100. Up to very recent times it was practically impossible to find in the purely investment lists, bonds that came in pieces of less than $1,000. Nowadays, however, the small investor scattered all over the country, is being eagerly sought by the investment bankers, and hardly a week passes that new advertisements do not begin to appear in the newspapers offering the little bonds."

For several years past the requirements of small investors have been looked after by investment houses in this Province; this is evidenced by the number of high-grade issues of bonds that can be purchased in $100 denominations. A list of our $100 offerings will be sent to you upon request.

PURPOSE OF COMPANY

Canada Bread Company, Limited, has acquired as going concerns the plants and businesses of the Bredin Bread Company, Limited, of Toronto, Geo. Weston (The Model Bakery), of Toronto, H. C. Tomlin, of Toronto, Stuart, Limited, of Montreal, and W. J. Boyd, of Winnipeg. In the case of Boyd, the real properties are excluded, but a parcel of vacant land in the city of Winnipeg, about two acres in extent, is substituted. The first three companies have been in operation for about thirty years, and the last two for close to twenty years. They have all grown from small beginnings, till they are now among the largest in their respective fields in Canada. The combined output of the companies at present is approximately 600,000 loaves of bread per week. It is intended by extensions to the present plants, and the erection or acquisition of new plants, to forthwith increase the output of the company to one million loaves per week. Modern plants will later be added in the other large cities. The sum of $1,000,000 cash is being placed in the treasury to provide for the erection of the proposed new plants and to supply ample working capital.

POSITION OF BONDS

For full particulars reference may be made to our prospectus, which is accompanied by a letter from Mr. Mark Bredin, the Vice-President and General Manager of the Company. We draw attention to the following points:—

- The present $1,250,000 of 6 per cent. First Mortgage Sinking Fund thirty-year gold bonds are secured by trust deeds to Guardian Trust Company, Limited, Toronto, constituting a first mortgage on all the property, real, personal or mixed, now owned or hereafter acquired by the Company, as more fully described in said trust deeds. In the trust deeds it is specially stipulated that of the $1,000,000 cash being placed in the treasury, the sum of $500,000 shall be held by the Trustee, to be used only in the redemption of bonds or in investment in additional plants and real estate, thus increasing the fixed assets under the mortgage. A Sinking Fund of 1 per cent. is operative from August 1, 1911.
- The assets of the companies already taken over stand in excess of all liabilities, and without any allowance for good-will, trade-marks, etc. $844,428.70. There has also been placed in the treasury $1,000,000 of cash, which, besides furnishing funds for the purchasing or construction of additional plants, will provide ample working capital.
- The earnings of the present plants, as per certificate of Messrs. Price, Waterhouse and Co., after allowing for depreciation, amounted from April 30th, 1910, to April 30th, 1911, to $107,016.14, to which may be added $35,000, being interest at the rate 1 3/4 per cent. on $1,000,000 cash in the treasury pending its employment on extensions.
