THE SCAPEGOAT and THE USUAL SUSPECTS

Following the conflagration initiated by Hamas's attacks on the Hebrew Capitale last spring, the crushing response from Israel to discipline this malicious entity didn't take long <sup>1</sup> ... neither the condemnations against Israelis for having had the 'audacity' to defend themselves.

Effectively, the usual suspects, the Anti-Semitic Terrorist Rights Clique, aka the United Nations Human Rights Council, among whom some formal accusers are, hold tight, we're talking about human rights here: the PLO (terrorist entity - Hamas' brother in arms - that tortures its citizens for the horrible crime of advocating coexistence with Israel), Pakistan, Iran, Venezuela, the genocidal Syria as well as North Korea.<sup>2</sup> In short, all noble human rights role models ;-)

You surely wonder how such murderous regimes can find a voice at the UN to accuse, moreover in the name of human rights, the Middle East's sole thriving model DEMOCRACY? Well, don't worry, me too!!

Hamas can therefore brag about its propagandist 'victory'. Knowing pretty well that it ain't no match against the Israeli military machine, it however reached its goal to delegitimize Israel on the world stage by maximizing victims amongst Gazan children (human shields), thus triggering popular indignation worldwide, entrusting afterward its homicidal accomplices at the UN the task to accuse Israel of 'war crime', subsequently mobilizing its street pawns to depict Hamas as a brave victim during well orchestrated public demonstrations. Twisted but effective. The end justifies the means.

Let's now tackle the election of Hamas' accomplices as heads of prestigious UN agencies. Contrary to all common sense, these repeated offending countries in terms of disrespect of civil rights and liberties - set themselves up as their OFFICIAL DEFENDERS. What a joke!!

You see, all it takes at the UN are 'votes' - no qualifications required. You can therefore rule there while being a butcher as long as you get the right amount of votes. Because there is no such a thing as conflict of interests at the UN. These gentlemen only have to bond so as to get the required amount of votes and self-elect themselves to positions for which they are not qualified at all.

SCRATCH MY BACK... I'LL SCRATCH YOURS

Thus, there is no any danger that they be accused of anything wrong since these gentlemen - and/or their little friends - are sitting in the committee responsible to investigate their own crimes. They therefore cover each other up and, just to make a diversion, justify their 'work' and, mostly, getting entertained, they will join forces against an outsider, namely Israel - the easy prey - and accuse it of the very human rights violations they themselves are guilty of.

It would always be justifiable that a ONE DELINQUENT COUNTRY may surreptitiously worm its way within such a 'Council' but that THE WHOLE CLIQUE be there - and above that as a MAJORITY - there is something going on. Unless you consider normal having the organized crime being in charge of the Brinks, or a pedophile managing the day nursery or a paraplegic as lifeguard at the beach.<sup>3</sup> What the next step? Iran being appointed head of the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission?

If the UN ever wants to get its legitimacy back, it appears indispensable that it initiates a reform where only the qualified nations, that is those that meet the specific criterion required for the coveted position - and this, without conflicts of interests - be eligible to the nomination. This will prevent the aberrations we too often see in this organization whose chart is undeniably appealing on paper but whose contradictory deeds constitute an obvious violation of its integrity and tarnishes its noble image... or whatever is left of it. Unless of course it prefers perpetuating this sick comedy and persisting in the path of injustice.

<sup>2</sup> This 'Human Rights Council' counts among its official members a MAJORITY of totalitarian regimes such as Cuba, Libya, Sudan, Somalia, Russia, China... So all valiant civil rights and liberties defenders ;-). Dictatorships on UN bodies <https://unwatch.org/database/>

Birds of a feather flock together. Not surprising that this clique of goody-goodies has condemned Israel more times that all nations combined.

<sup>3</sup> I'm aware that this last analogy could upset some prudish people's sensitivity but I could not find a better analogy to illustrate the INABILITY of such 'Council' to fulfil its mission.

As stated in...

Terrorism: Series of ACTS OF VIOLENCE (BOMB ATTACK, HOSTAGE TAKING, etc.) carried out by an ORGANIZATION or an individual to create a CLIMATE OF INSECURITY, to exert PRESSURE ON A GOVERNMENT or to SATISFY HATRED TOWARDS A COMMUNITY, A COUNTRY, a system.<sup>5</sup>

No need to be Einstein to identify a terror entity.

Since its creation in 1987, Hamas dedicates itself to butchering civilians, suicide bombings, kidnapping citizens and rocket attacks. Yet the UNITED NATIONS IS INCAPABLE OF FORMULATING EVEN THE SLIGHTEST REPRIMAND to this murderous organization. Incapable!! In its THIRTY-some years of terrorism... not a single little reprimand. Not one!! What kind of message is the UN sending these terrorists?

« Well done guys. Keep on doing what you are doing, it's OK with us. We don't see any problem with it. We even are on your side! »

So here is where we are at: 200 countries represented by intelligent and 'educated' adults who cannot even condemn a terrorist organization that repetitively kills civilians (teenagers on top of that) <sup>6</sup> and rejoices every time a Jew dies, suffers or is maimed. Who knows, maybe the UN is right after all, perhaps these are not terrorists but simply deeply sick people worth of being locked up in a fortified nuthouse. Hamas has no business in the UN's political arena. Its file should rather be transferred to the World Health Organization so a cure be found for its deadly rabies.

LOADED DICE

I'm not saying that the Israel is blameless but simply that the UN shows a morbid, disproportionate, even abusive and unjust behavior towards Israel. It seems that the UN has nothing else to do than criticizing Israel. One should wonder if this organization was created specifically to sap Israel's life. If Israel didn't exist, the UN would most certainly go on welfare. The UN has been hijacked by a pack of high fashioned bandits who are supported by spineless diplomats representing coward countries who would rather gang up with the clique and endorse shameful lies rather than standing up for the truth. Can we expect anything better from the world? Isn't it inherent to any organization to end up contaminated by the canker of moral corruption?

All theaters have their own backstage and the UN is no exception. The comedy being played there is hatched behind its scenes. What good is the UN if it is hijacked and controlled by an anti-Semitic clique? Israel is slandered by entities incomparably worse than she is. As the French proverb goes: 'We only get dirtied by filth.' ('On n'est sali que par la boue.')

To have peace, it is indispensable to subdue those who want war. These latter unfortunately only understand force. It therefore turns out ineluctable to have recourse to force to impose peace. The reason is that there is no such a thing as a moderate <sup>0</sup>haman, no more than there could have been a moderate hitler. These individuals are unfortunately incapable to define their own limits, and even less to respect others' boundaries. They are chronic immoderates. Where the importance to impose to them the limits they are unable to set for themselves. There are no other alternative. In the case of Gaza for instance, it has nothing to do with controlling its population but rather the hardened criminals who rule it with an iron fist on behalf of Iran.

When Jews got slaughtered en masse during the WWII, some folks criticized them for not defending themselves. Now that they do, they are being told to stop.

SHOULD YOU BE WRONG SIMPLY BECAUSE YOUR OPPONENT IS RIGHT?

Regarding a same reality, there can be disagreement depending from which angle each observer looks from. As shown above, one will state that the object is of rectangular shape while the other will say that it is triangular. In this example, even if the statements are conflicting, they are equally valid. Despite their divergences, both are right and, consequently, none is wrong. So, even if someone knows he's right, a different opinion from his doesn't necessarily mean a mistaken point of view. Thus, from your perspective, you can hold a truth just as real and legitimate as someone else's, even if it conflicts with his. Therefore, it is not always obligatory that a perspective prevails over another. That's where respect comes into account. So when you know you're right, it is important that you value your opinion even though someone else asserts that you are wrong simply because it contradicts his point of view.

When two friends respectfully confront each other on a tennis court, don't they become better? To devote all our resources to reach victory is indispensable if we want to excel. It's the same regarding our diverging opinions. If you don't hold the same view than me, feel free to write an article in which you'll highlight yours ;-)
