Boarding School
—FOR—
YOUNG LADIES,
HELD BY THE
Grey Sisters,
Convent of Ottawa.

Under the Patronage of His Lordship the Right Reverend Dr. GUIGUES.

THIS Institution, established some Twenty years ago, is well calculated by its position between Upper and Lower Canada, to afford the greatest facilities to French and English Young Ladies, for acquiring a complete knowledge of the French and English languages.

Nothing has been neglected that could contribute to attain this double end; and the ample and honorable testimony constantly rendered, proves the effort to have been successful.

Among many means employed to develope the intellect and cultivate a literary taste, are a well regulated Post Office and a Weekly Newspaper, edited exclusively by the young Ladies.

In the Commercial course a practical emulation is excited by a Bank and Commercial Rooms, in which business is transacted in both languages.

It is a particular point of the rule that some of the recreations of the day are, each alternate week strictly French, or entirely English, for those who are capable of speaking both languages.

Those who study Music will find everything that could secure them rapid and brilliant success for this, it suffices to say that no fewer than Six Teachers are devoted to this Department, which embraces the Harp, Piano, Guitar, Melodeon, Organ, &c.

A similar number of Mistresses preside over the different kinds of Painting in Oil, Pastille, Poonah Painting, and the different kinds of Drawings, Embroidery, Wax Work, Artificial Flowers, &c. The Ornamental is not permitted to supersede the useful; for all the pupils are obliged to learn the theory and practice of Domestic Economy.

No distinction of Religion is made in the admission of Pupils. Children of different denominations, though obliged to conform strictly to the order of the House, are not required to assist at the Religious exercises of the community.

Circulars containing particulars can be obtained by addressing the Lady Superior.

The Classes will re-open on the First September.

"Pro Bono Publico."

PROF. M. BRENAN,

Whose fame has spread, throughout this Province, by his

Wonderful success in curing diseases OF EVERY SPECIES,

Has opened an Office at

No. 14, ST. LEWIS STREET,

Directly opposite the Music Hall.

He can be consulted with perfect confidence on all Diseases and Humors, at his office.

The rooms are so private, neat and convenient, that they are suitable for all classes who may wish to give the Professor a call.

Examinations at the office free.

All who will consult the Professor may rest assured that they will reap the desired benefit, no matter what the case may be,—and in so short a time that the sufferer will be astonished at his own recovery. The Professor will cause a speedy cure of all diseases, from the smallest pimple to the worst humor, cancer, or consumption, if the case is curable; if not, he will tell you so.

The Professor treats all Female Diseases with success; he has done so in years past; reliance and confidence may be placed in him.

The Professor treats all diseases of a delicate nature, also their effects upon the system, such as Mercurial Affections, Eruptions, and all diseases of the skin; ulcer of the nose, throat and body; pimples on the face, swellings of joints, nervousness, constitutional and other weaknesses in youth, and the more advanced at all ages, of both sexes, single or married. Diseases caused by self-abuse, and solitary habits, which are overlooked by our regular Physicians. There is probably no vice to which so many are addicted, and from which so many constitutions break down, as self-pollution. I will give here but a few of the symptoms, though they are numerous. The principal are headache, wakefulness, restless nights, indolence, indisposition to study, melancholy, despondency, forgetfulness, weakness in the back and private organs, a lack of confidence in one's own abilities, cowardice, inability to look another full in the face, and in some cases spasmodic affections of nerves and fits.

Professor Brenan understands these complaints in all their different stages, and will warrant to restore the health of any one who will come to him and follow his advice. He will give pure Vegetable Medicines, which will cleanse all humors from the system.

Professor Brenan has invented a new and successful system for treating diseases of the Throat and Chest, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, or any affection of the Lungs, and warrants a cure immediately. It is the universal opinion of all that Professor Brenan is the most successful Physician that has ever been introduced before the American public.

The Secret Service, the Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape,

BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

70,000 COPIES SOLD IN SIXTY DAYS!

THE most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years. Travelling through the South in the secret service of the 'Tribune' at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture, his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident, and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it:—

"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, purposes, tendencies and instrumentalities of the slaveholder's Rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for Circulars. Address

THE BALLOON BRIDAL.

A WEDDING PARTY IN THE CLOUDS.

A MARRIAGE CONTRACT SIGNED IN MID-AIR.

A GLIMPSE INTO THE FOOL'S PARADISE.

(From the New York Times, Thursday, Nov. 9th.)

For some days the curiosity-loving portion of the New York public have been all agog with the latest sensation—a projected marriage in a balloon. This extraordinary event promised to be fully as exciting as the famous "Diamond Wedding," or even the Tom Thumb nuptials, for there was something peculiarly novel, not to say ridiculous, in the idea of a wedding taking place amid the clouds, with all the mundane witnesses shut out by fleecy vapors, and the epethalamium sung by the rattling cordage of the aerial ship. The ladies naturally evinced considerable interest in the details of the affair, and yesterday they seemed determined to satisfy their curiosity to its full extent. For this unique marriage the most elaborate preparations were made. It was to have come off on Saturday last, but owing to the indisposition of the fair and daring bride it was postponed until yesterday afternoon. The rain storm on Saturday would have postponed it at any rate, so no fault can be found on that score.

Before we go into the details of this wedding in cloudland, let us see how the affair came to be arranged. That is was not the result of a love of romance or notoriety can be readily learned by the correspondence passing between Professor Lowe and the would-be Benedict, for the proposition came originally from the latter, and therefore the affair cannot be considered a mere advertising scheme, as it might reasonably enough have been characterized, if Professor Lowe had been its projector. Chacun a son gout. The notion can only be termed a strange freak on the part of the bridegroom, which was acquiesced in by his complaisant bride. The lady was at first strongly opposed to the notoriety inseparable from the affair. After considerable correspondence between the contracting parties the negotiation was completed, and then Prof. Lowe set about making the necessary arrangements. The first thing requisite was a suitable car, and he forthwith ordered one of the largest wicker balloon cars ever constructed in this country, capable of seating six persons comfortably. This car was most superbly decorated, being furnished with new Brussels carpet, damask cushions, lace curtains, and a blue silk canopy, making a tout ensemble at once rich and appropriate. The cost of this beautiful balloon car was over $500. The balloon was to be inflated with sulphuretted gas, in order to give it the necessary lifting power, and it was generated by the same retort used by Prof. Lowe in his war balloon enterprise. Such were the preparations. We now come to the consummation.

At an early hour yesterday morning the process of inflating the mammoth balloon "United States" was commenced, and it continued in slow progress for some hours. The time fixed for the start was 2 p.m., but the want of common gas from the gas-works prevented punctuality. As the hour drew near for the balloon to ascend great crowds began to assemble in the vicinity of the aeronautic inclosure, corner of Sixth avenue and Fifty-ninth street. The neighboring rocks and houses were covered with impatient spectators, and the slightest eminences throughout that portion of Central Park were black with visitors, all desirous of catching a glimpse of the wedding party as they soared above their heads. Inside the inclosure every available seat was occupied long before the appointed time—the majority of those present being ladies. As the sphere of the balloon rose above the walls of the amphitheatre, in the process of inflation, the crowds outside increased, and the box-keepers were kept busy. A steady current of visitors continued to pour in despite of the want of seats. Those arriving late descended to the platform and clambered upon the rocks which form the surroundings of the inclosure. In the centre was the platform, and over it labored uneasily the gradually growing bulk of silk and vapor destined to carry the voyageurs through mid air. In front of the staircase was erected a neat evergreen arch, prettily decorated with flowers typical of the interesting event soon to take place. Over the arch hung the words, "Ever thus," in evergreen leaves. From the arch to the car of the balloon was laid a carpet, flanked on either side by growing cedars.

Two o'clock came and the balloon seemed to be rapidly filling, and yet no bride or bridegroom made their appearance. People walked about and viewed the balloon from every possible point; they also visited the black bear up in the rocks, who was very fat and quite sociable. In fact those present whiled away the time as best they could until the start. They found, by eager inquiries, that everything was favorable; the day was calm, the wind did not blow seaward, the bride was in perfect health and full of bravery, and so the spectators patiently waited, receiving every minute fresh accessions to their already crowded ranks. While they are waiting let us see who the adventurous party are who intend making such a novel wedding tour. From the busy whispers round us we learn that the bride's name is Miss Mary West Jenkins, formerly of St. Louis, and she is said to be a lady of refinement and prepossessing in personal appearance That the bridegroom is well known in scientific circles as Prof. John F. Boynton, the geologist, of Syracuse. That the sister of the bride is an artist of talent, and only awaits the consummation of the marriage of her sister to depart on a tour of study in Europe. That the ceremony will be performed by Rev. J. DeWitt Talmadge, of Philadelphia, who has volunteered for the occasion. We also learn that the wedding party will consist of four persons besides the Professor and his assistant. And one lady has been informed that one of the bridesmaids is the sister of the bride, already spoken of, and the other will be the daughter of the bridegroom. So goes the floating gossip, and for once Dame Rumor is nearly correct. But the most serious bit of gossip was the discussion upon the legality of the proposed marriage in the air. The awful idea gets afloat that such a wedding is no wedding at all, the law saying "on land or water;" and here again the interested fair ones find fresh matter for comment.

Meanwhile the balloon steadily, though imperceptibly fills, the elasticity is more apparent, and the time fixed for the departure is long past. Suddenly a stir is observable, and in a minute the large gate at the rear of the inclosure opens, and two covered carriages drives in. These vehicles are quickly surrounded by the people on the ground, while those in the balconies become agitated and nervously excited. In a very short time the carriages approach the platform and the bridal party alight. The bridegroom is a tall, well featured man, and his bride is fully as good looking as rumor said she was. She appeared a little flurried, but evidently determined not to withdraw at the last stage of the proceedings. The bridal pair were accompanied by the Professor's family and friends, all looking well and no more flurried than the circumstances seemed to warrant. It was a part of the programme that the marriage ceremony should be performed on the platform just previous to the start. But this part was changed. The couple were quietly married in one of the parlors of the Fifth Avenue Hotel before leaving for the balloon. To some this was a disappointment, but the majority voted it "all right." A marriage contract, however, had been drawn up for signature while in the air, dated "Floating in Mid-Air."

The air ship proved to be took weak in lifting power to carry all that were intended to go, so the wedding party dwindled down to the married couple, one of the bridesmaids, Miss Susie Boynton and Professor Lowe. As soon as the platform could be sufficiently cleared a start was attempted, but the freight was still too heavy. A change was therefore made, and the bridesmaid stepped out, and the little daughter of Professor Boynton took her seat within the car. This proved satisfactory, and at the word the balloon was cast off, slowly rising as she caught the rebound. A cheer was attempted, but was interrupted by the seeming danger of the balloon striking a flag-staff, and every tongue was hushed. The car collided, the flag-staff sprang beneath the blow, a sudden twist and all was clear. Then the crowds below cheered most lustily, the ladies waved their handkerchiefs, and so the start was complete. The balloon rose, glided upward beautifully, and as the sea breeze caught its silken sides the aerial craft bounded up almost instantly to a height of some thousand feet, when it again drifted, sailing slowly over the Central Park toward High Bridge. The setting sun gilded the globe of the balloon into splendor, giving it the appearance of a golden ball. As the crowd dispersed they seized upon the evergreen arch, and in a very few seconds nothing but a wreck remained. So ended "the wedding in the air."

For the benefit of our lady readers we give the following description of the bridal costume and the trousseau. The whole was prepared under the supervision of Mme. Wintte, the well-known modiste, and everything is in perfect taste. The bridal costume was composed of ashes-of-roses poplin, trimmed with velvet a shade darker than the material, and velvet buttons. Hat and basquine to match. The bridesmaids' dresses are of lavender-moire, trimmed with point lace and illusion puffed in. The bridal outfit comprises beautiful embroidered petticoats, both white and colored, costly lingerie of every description and a large number of rich dresses. Among the latter is a gold-colored silk, trimmed with white uncut velvet and pointed lace. Also, a fine white silver grenadine, trimmed with white silk ruched and puffings of illusion. A green moire antique, cut in the Pompadore style and trimmed with rich lace and bugles. A superb blue gros grains, trimmed with the new Chantilly lace, designed in a border of leaves and flowers. A very heavy black silk, with velvet ornaments embroidered in white silk and steel beads. A gored scarlet morning dress, ornamented with velvet flowers and a morning dress of fine white nainsook trimmed with six little ruffles upon the skirt and body, made with a tucked yoke and trimmed square with two narrow ruffles. There was also an elegant white hat with long veil of white silk blonde, very slightly dotted with gold, and an opera cloak of white cloth bordered with goat's hair fringe.

After coursing an hour and a half through space and travelling a distance of twenty-five miles, the bridal party landed without untoward event at Mount Vernon, Westchester county, at 5 o'clock, within fifteen minutes' ride of the New Haven Railroad. The aerial tour, we are informed, was eminently satisfactory to all concerned. One of the incidents of the trip was the spectacle of the mirage. A phantom balloon of mammoth size was plainly visible more than forty miles away over the waters of the Sound.

Prof. Lowe has forwarded us a copy of the marriage contract, which we subjoin :—

Sacred compact of holy matrimony solemnized above the clouds, floating in mid air, within the jurisdiction and in accordance with the laws of the Empire State, this eighth day of November, A.D. 1865. Presenting ourselves, fully impressed with the sublime presence of God and joyous Spiritual Beings of His creation, heartily appreciating heaven's highest vouchsafed happiness, the blessed union of two souls in purity and glowing love, emanating from the eternal fountain of truth and wisdom, hence deriving some primitive conception of the magnitude of Deity-inspired unceasing humanity, endowed with powers and attributes ever more approximating Divinity, with assurances that uninterrupted progress remains dependent upon genial social relations, and possessing the approving sanction of cherished friends.

We, the contracting parties, John F. Boynton, M.D., of the city of Syracuse, State of New York, and Mary West Jenkins, of the city of St. Louis, State of Missouri, do now henceforth evermore give and devote ourselves each unto the other, and accept and receive each other in holy wedlock; and we solemnly and unreservedly avow and promise that we will love, honor and cherish each other as husband and wife during our whole existence; and in the expressive language of Holy Writ, we hopefully pray, "What God hath joined together let no man put asunder."

Hereunto our respective signatures,

JOHN F. BOYNTON,
MARY W. JENKINS.

A frail woman attempted to commit suicide by cutting her throat, but was unsuccessful.

Of whatever information the Government may be in possession, it is quite clear that it has been sufficiently important to induce prompt and decisive precaution. While it would be unwise to magnify the Fenian movement into vast importance, it would be criminal to neglect the positive manifestations which are open and undisguised in the neighboring States. There is as little wisdom in endeavoring to disregard a danger as to feel needless alarm. It is, therefore, with satisfaction that we see the Adjutant-General's Department ordering out several companies of volunteers from various points of the Province. These will be stationed along the frontier, and will effectually prevent any filibustering upon the border towns. Information has been given on two or three occasions that a raid upon certain places was in contemplation; and although nothing has transpired to corroborate the notice given, it is quite possible that to the preparation consequent upon the knowledge acquired was the ground of security. Fenianism may be a phase of popular commotion in Ireland for which the misguided members of that body could find some excuse as applied to that unfortunate country, but most assuredly neither Canada nor the Canadian people deserve the infliction of robbery and murder at the hands of Irishmen. What has Canada to do with the "wrongs of Ireland?" She, at least, does not deserve abuse from Erin's sons. She has been a good home to thousands—thousands of honest warm-hearted Irishmen bless the day they set foot upon her soil—thousands can look around them and with as much truth as poetry can say "I am monarch of all I survey; my right there is none to dispute"—and is it upon these, and such as these, that their countrymen desire to wage an unrighteous war? We cannot, we will not, believe that Irishmen in their sober senses will so belie their generous nature. We can understand—and in this light we regard the Fenian organization—that many confiding men have been, and are being, led away by designing and faithless demagogues, who, careful to keep their own necks out of the halter, are ready to sacrifice their countrymen for the gain to be made by a marauding enterprise under the semblance of a national movement. Prevention is at all times better than cure, and we sincerely hope that the military force which the Government is prudently sending to watch the frontier will cause the entire abandonment of any wild and visionary project of aggression or plunder. Let all who have been persuaded to entertain such an intention rest assured that they are entering upon a most dangerous course. A raid upon Canada would be most wanton and unprovoked, and would be avenged to the last man who should be caught in the attempt. No mercy would be shown to the perpetrators of so atrocious an outrage, no sympathy for the weakness which permitted itself to be deluded into the participation in so black a villainy.

We give a report which we find in the Saint Catherines Journal for what it may be worth; we trust that it is without foundation, or at least that the inference drawn may not be borne out by the facts:—"A person just from Suspension Bridge, N. Y.," says that paper, "states that this morning about 150 men arrived at the Suspension Bridge, on the 8 o'clock train direct from New York city, and proceeded, some in waggons and some on foot, towards Lewiston, N. Y. All the men were armed with rifles, but were without uniform or any distinctive badge. It was the opinion of the people at the bridge and wherever the party passed through that they were Fenian raiders, bent on some desperate enterprise on the Canadian frontier."

The English papers come to hand are still occupied with remarks upon the career and death of the late Prime Minister. As a natural sequence to these memoriæ the new Premier and his task of reorganization of the Cabinet form a fertile subject for journalistic speculation. We have already given extracts from the London papers that are supposed to represent the various shades of public opinion. It seems that Lord Russell, having been commissioned by Her Majesty to assume the vacant premiership, summoned a Cabinet Council at the Foreign Office. The meeting was attended by all the members of the Cabinet, who unanimously placed themselves at the disposal of the new Premier, with the perfect understanding that they were willing to retain their present offices, or to accept any other in which it might be expedient to place them. This readiness on the part of his colleagues to make such personal sacrifices greatly sustained the efforts of the new Premier. Thus supported Lord Russell's difficulties were mainly overcome, and he was enabled to report to Her Majesty the formation of the Cabinet, and to place the names of his colleagues before the Queen for her approval. Lord Clarendon will fill the office lately occupied by the present Prime Minister; Mr. Gladstone, retaining the post of Chancellor of the Exchequer, is to lead the House of Commons. The main difficulty which remains to be overcome is the distribution or balance of offices between the two Houses of Parliament. There is an old, long-standing objection prevalent in the Commons to the majority of the principal departments of the State being held by members of the House of Peers. It so happens that in all the Whig regimes the preponderance of Cabinet offices have been mostly held by peers. This has always been regarded with fretful jealously, and at the present time will be fraught with much discontent. Neither the Whigs nor Radicals of the Lower House will be disposed to tolerate what all will unquestionably regard as a slight, and many as an abandonment of the spirit of that democratic element which forms their sole attraction to the Whigs. The monopoly of the high offices of the State by the Lords trenches upon the constitutional rights of the Commons and will be tolerated with a very bad grace. Lord Russell is surrounded, as every Whig Minister ever has been, with traditional rulers, the representatives of the old Whig aristocracy; and it is more than possible that his situation may become embarrassing from the fact. It is believed that the mot d'ordre of the Liberal leaders is, for the present, "the least change possible." "The Clubs," says the London Spectator, "have been full of rumors of coming changes;" but drawing our inference from other journals, we are inclined to the belief that Lord Russell will make as little change as possible. He has had sufficient warning from the press, both Conservative and Liberal, to make him chary of risking the good opinion of the House of Commons.

The Spectator also says that a Palmerston Ministry without Lord Palmerston will be about as strong as an arch without a keystone. But of this one thing we are satisfied, that if Earl Russell has decided to meet Parliament with a Cabinet unchanged except by the substition of himself for Lord Palmerston, and Lord Clarendon for himself, he has ruined the best prospect his party ever had of securing a long tenure of power, and carrying out large reforms with the full support of the country. Such a Ministry will be moribund before it has begun to live, will have neither popularity, nor coherence, nor the power of securing both by vigorous initiative. Earl Russell may be and probably is deceived by the quiescence with which the country accepted Lord Palmerston's Cabinet, but it was never heartily liked. It was tolerated because Mr. Gladstone and Lord Palmerston himself were included within it, and because the inferiority of other men did but secure to Lord Palmerston the dictatorship it was desirable he should preserve, but it was never respected for itself. The constituencies simply bore with Sir Charles Wood, Sir George Grey, and Mr. Cardwell, and Mr. Cowper, and Sir Robert Peel, and the rest of the second-rate men, who under the careful censorship of the press and occasional snubs from the House contrived to carry on the business of the departments, but they never believed in them, and will witness their return to power without their chief with apathetic weariness. The constituencies are weary of it all, yet it is with this dead weight upon his efforts that Mr. Gladstone is to face a House of Commons doubtful whether to worship or distrust. Who is to support him there? He will be attacked every day of his life by debaters like Mr. Disraeli and Lord Cranbourne, men who can not only give wounds, but pour vitriol into the wounds they have made, and though himself more than a match for both, he can speak but once a night. Face to face he is their master, but who is to protect his rear? Sir Roundell Palmer will have enough to do to neutralize Sir Hugh Cairns, Sir George Grey is no match for Lord Cranbourne, Sir Charles Wood simply exasperates an audience hungering for more light, and as to Mr. Cardwell, he is as useful as a 64-pounder in the field, irresistible if the enemy will only stand exactly within range. None of the subordinates promise to become great debaters, and the real work, the daily labour of reply, and explanation, and retort, and all the minor duties of leadership will fall on a man who can perform them all, but who has the organization of genius, and can when overworked grow harsh and fretful. His one difficulty will be exaggerated as if on purpose, and the result will be in all probability that incessant collision with the House on little points which shakes a Government more than a great defeat. Mr. Gladstone will not be injured by the irritation of individual members, but the Government will, and the necessity of the hour is not merely Mr. Gladstone, but Mr. Gladstone as centre of a strong Administration. To risk a failure in a house in which Liberals have an overwhelming majority, in order to consult the amour propre of two or three individuals, is a mistake of which Earl Russell, of all men, ought not to be guilty. He has turned out his colleagues often enough when the resulting advantage was his own, and might show the same indifference to political convenance when the interest is that of his country and his party. Rather than do it he will, it is believed, sacrifice the popular alliance which would have given his Ministry the strength and the meaning which the country at heart desires. The blame, however, if this resolution is finally adopted, will not rest altogether with Earl Russell. His business is to see that the old Whigs are fittingly represented, and their representation will be only too complete for the popularity of his Cabinet. It is Mr. Gladstone's duty to see that the party who alone look to him as an immediate leader obtains its fair share of influence on the Government; he could have made any conditions he pleased; and if this programme is carried out his self-abnegation will be made more conspicuous by the loss of a large division of his following. Martyrdom is not a general's function, at least till the battle has been won, and there is a liberality which surrenders one's cause as well as one's self. There are the Peelites in the Government, it is true, Mr. Cardwell and Sir Roundell Palmer, but Mr. Gladstone has become more than a Peelite, and in his new capacity he will be a general without aides-de-camp or officers. Mr. Milner Gibson is, we suppose, in some sort a representative of the moderate Radicals, a link between Whigs and Manchester men, as the bat is a link between birds and the lower animals, but even he has been long under the old Whig influence. Who is there to aid heartily in a project, say of restricted reform, to support Mr. Gladstone on the one hand against Earl Russell's prejudices in favor of blank reductions, and on the other against the aristocratic counsel to let the question sleep? He will stand intellectually alone, and intellectual loneliness, though a grand attitude in a philosopher, lacks to politicians the essential recommendation—safety. Nobody doubts that had Mr. Cobden lived, it would have been wise to adopt with him the moderate section of the party he represented, and Mr. Cobden has left successors imbued with his principles and free from his narrowness of view. There are at least half a dozen men now in the House each of whom may hereafter reasonably aspire to high office, and on each of whom Mr. Gladstone can cordially rely. Why not introduce some of that new blood, if not into the higher offices of the Cabinet, at least into the Administration. A very little fresh air will remove the existing "stuffiness," the musty scent as of furniture which has done its work in this world, and wants renewal rather than repair. The addition of three of the more prominent debaters in the Commons, or even two, would give a new aspect of liveliness to the Government, and with the Duchy vacant, and at least two great offices too many in the Peers the introduction of that number cannot be impossible or even difficult. They ought to be introduced, if only to prove that the Whig policy of keeping down every rising man is not systematic, that genuine Liberalism, particularly on ecclesiastical questions, is not under a Liberal Government a disqualification, that office is not reserved for the sons of Dukes or sons-in-law of Whig Earls. One-third of the House of Commons is a large allowance for the governing families to have secured, one which if they claim the whole Cabinet may also excite more attention than they will altogether approve. It is time that the regime of exclusivism should end as well as the monopoly of power by men over sixty, and if ever there was an opportunity for ending them it is in the formation of a Government to succeed a Premier so old that men in their prime seemed to him boys, and so exclusive that he told Richard Cobden not to travel beyond his last.

LOCAL NEWS.

WESTWARD BOUND.—A battery of artillery will, it is stated, shortly go west from Quebec.

THANKS.—We are indebted to Mr. McDonald, purser of the ocean mail steamship Belgian, for the manifest and passenger-list—as also for fyles of latest English and Irish papers.

THE McGEE DINNER.—The Hon. Mr. Alleyn, Mr. Dunscomb, Collector of Customs, and Mr. McGreevy left town yesterday evening for Montreal, to be present, we understand, at the McGee banquet.

THE WEATHER.—The weather continues very mild. Sleighing is no longer practicable. A little snow remains on the streets, but it only serves the purpose of adding hourly to the accumulation of mud and water.

REMANDED.—Vermette, charged with stealing a pair of boots from a shop in St. Peter street; and the three young lads charged with stealing iron, have been further remanded.

A CORRECTION.—The three lads charged with stealing iron from a wharf, as mentioned in our last issue, were arrested by sergeant Badger. We hasten to make this correction in favor of Sergeant B., who is a most efficient officer.

THE FRONTIER COMPANY.—The company under orders to leave this city for the frontier has been drilling regularly every day, for the last three or four days. No order has, we believe, yet been received as to the precise hour of departure. It is thought probable, however, that the volunteers will leave to-night.

RECORDER'S COURT, YESTERDAY.—Three prisoners were brought up, yesterday, in charge of the police, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. One paid his fine, one was committed, and one discharged. A summons was issued against a contractor for neglecting to keep lights at an obstruction in St. Louis street.

SERMON IN THE ANGLICAN CATHEDRAL.—The Rev. W. King, of St. Sylvester, preached in the Cathedral, on Sunday afternoon, the text being from the first lesson. The rev. gentleman has visited Quebec in connection with a collection in aid of the completion of a new church at Cumberland Mills, in his mission.

WOODEN BUILDINGS.—A judgment was rendered yesterday, ordering a writ to issue, addressed to the Sheriff of Quebec, to demolish a wooden building in St. Julie street, the proprietor, Mrs. Widow Alice McCormick, having neglected to do so within three days after judgment of the Court.

VOLUNTEER PRESENTATION.—The St. Sylvester Volunteer Infantry Company have presented their commanding officer, Capt. M. H. King, with a handsome revolver, as a mark of their esteem and appreciation of his untiring efforts to promote the welfare and discipline of his company.

POLICE COURT, YESTERDAY.—Six seamen of the Prussian ship Himalaya, on conviction before His Honor the Judge of the Sessions for conveying away their clothes with intention to desert, were sent to gaol for thirty days each. A larceny case, and three revenue cases were also tried and disposed of as elsewhere stated.

POLICE IN THE LOWER TOWN.—On the representation of several merchants of the Lower Town, a patrol of fifteen men of the Quebec River Police have been told off for night patrol along the streets of the Lower Town, from the Queen's wharf to the new Custom House. They have been on duty since Wednesday.

INVESTIGATION COMMENCED.—The investigation into the charge made against one Jacques Strauss, for stealing a valise containing $292 from a Mr. Joseph Luttrell, a boarder at Mrs. Laprise's hotel, Lower Town, was commenced, yesterday, and the prisoner remanded. The money, which was in silver, is said to have been exchanged by the prisoner at various places at a high discount, for notes, which are not recovered.

STEALING A TURKEY.—A youth named Damase Michaud was brought up, yesterday morning, before His Honor the Judge of the Sessions, charged with stealing a turkey, the property of Mr. Geo. McDonald, St. Paul street. Mr. James McDonald, son of the proprietor, identified the bird, which appeared to have been stolen from a stable in rear of the house. The prisoner, on conviction, was sent to gaol for three months at hard labor.

MILITARY MASS, TO-DAY.—The volunteer company under orders for the frontier will attend divine service to-day, at eight a.m., at St. John's Church. Doubtless there will be a very large muster of their friends on the occasion.

SALE OF PAINTINGS, TO-DAY.—Messrs. Maxham & Co. will offer at their office, St. Peter street, this day, a few of Mr. C. Kreighoff's most finished oil paintings. It is only necessary to mention Mr. K's name to attract the lovers of fine arts, and we therefore merely draw attention to the fact that the sale will take place at two o'clock.

NATIVE ART.—We saw, the other day, at Russell's Hotel, Palace street, a beautiful crayon drawing—a master-piece of art, from the pencil of a very young lady of this city—which is, we believe, about to be disposed of by ticket. We commend it to the attention of amateurs of the ancient capital; and hope the sale will be largely patronized. It is one of the best specimens of native art, in the imitative line, we have yet seen.

SELLING LIQUOR WITHOUT LICENSE.—Philippe Beaubien, Michael O'Neill and Jean-Baptiste Ruel, brought up yesterday, before His Honor the Judge of the Sessions of the Peace, on complaint of the Collector of Inland Revenue, for selling liquor without license, in the parish of St. Joseph de Lévis, were convicted, and sentenced to pay a fine of twenty dollars each towards the costs of the suit.

THE ROADS.—In consequence of the mild state of the weather, during the last two days, the roads are in a shocking state. Householders, with a few honorable exceptions, seem to be too lazy to clean the side-walks in front of their houses; and the carriage-ways are in such a condition that it is impossible to get along the streets where there is any traffic without being spattered from head to foot.

COMPLIMENTARY SUPPER LAST EVENING.—About eight o'clock last evening the principal employés of the Quebec Morning Chronicle office, to the number of about twenty, entertained Mr. Alexander Jacques, ex-foreman of the office, who is about to leave for Ottawa, at an oyster supper, in the dining-room of Reynolds' Restaurant, St. Peter street. The evening passed off pleasantly, and the utmost harmony prevailed. On the principle of "Time and space wait for no man," the proceedings were necessarily brief. The health of the guest of the evening was, however, proposed and received with all the honors, Mr. Jacques replying in an appropriate speech. The health of the proprietor, Mr. J. J. Foote, and that of the former proprietor, Mr. S. B. Foote, were, however, not forgotten. A number of appropriate toasts were proposed and duly responded to, and the party broke up about half-past nine p.m. The entertainment was a deserved tribute to the business energy of Mr. Jacques, and must have been exceedingly gratifying to him.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—A special despatch to the Tribune says Judge Underwood has condemned Gov. Wise's personal property for confiscation; his real estate not worth the formality.

The Herald's Washington despatch says:—We understand the Hon. Preston King has resigned the position of Collector of the Port of New York. Who is to take his place is not yet known.

Gen. Butler admits an error in the published date of Mrs. Wirtz's attempt to poison her husband, but asserts that the circumstances transpired substantially as set forth.

Secy. Seward yesterday completed an important despatch to our Minister to England.

No additional cases of cholera have occurred on board the Atlanta. The passengers on board complain much of detention. Strict quarantine is being enforced by the Commissioners.

It is reported that Jeff. Davis recently said Fenianism is a bubble, and of Wirtz, that the Government need not have gone so far as to hang him.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14th.—The Hartford Courant of yesterday says it has been informed semi-officially that a company of marines crossed into Maine, for the purpose of arresting deserters. The men refused to return with the officer, and application was made to the U. S. authorities to have them given up, which was refused, and there was danger of an outbreak, and Hancock's corps was ordered to rendezvous in Maine.

A company attached to Hancock's corps, in that city, left for Augusta, Me., on Sunday a.m.

The Hartford Post says that a company left that city on Sunday for Augusta. It was rumored either to prevent the Fenians from invading Canada, or to prevent British soldiers capturing deserters from that army, who have fled to the United States.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14th.—Washington L. Lane, editor of the Ledger, died this morning.

BOSTON, Nov. 14th.—It is announced that W. W. Clapp, jr., has sold the Saturday Evening Gazette to Messrs. Worthington, Brevester and Goodsell, of the Evening Traveller.

PORTLAND, ME., Nov. 14th.—A fire broke out in West Buxton, Me., this morning, and destroyed Hall's woollen mills, Lord's saw mills and house, and Bryant's store. The loss will probably amount to $100,000.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14th.—The rumor that Preston King has resigned is entirely untrue. Mr. King, for a week past, has been laboring under an attack of nervous debility. Yesterday he left his room at the Astor House, and since that time nothing has been seen or heard of him.

Preston King jumped overboard from the Hoboken ferry-boat, while in a state of temporary aberration of mind, and was drowned. Body not recovered.

The bark Meridian, from Marseilles, has been placed in quarantine, and will be fumigated and detained there five days. There was cholera at Marseilles, but no cases on board the vessel.

Mr. Thurlow Weed states Mr. King was seen to jump off the ferry-boat yesterday morning by a little boy and girl on deck. They picked up his hat, which has been handed to Mr. Weed and recognized by him. No traces of the body as yet.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Inquiry has been made respecting the rumor of trouble of a serious character on the Canadian border, but it does not seem that any verification of the report has yet reached the War Department.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The surgeons who visited Sandy Hook have reported to Government that 250 acres of ground will be used for a hospital. It is understood, however, in consequence of the opposition of the New Jersey authorities, no other than a military hospital will be established at the mouth of this harbor. Such a movement must, however, benefit the city, as it would be necessary to detain all cholera patients to protect the health of troops in the fortifications.

In order to keep down the price of gold, the New York Sub-Treasury sold $7,358,174 of coin during the month of October, yet in spite of this supply, mainly taken to pay duties, the Banks and Sub-Treasury lost two millions of specie, and the price of gold advanced from 144 to 147¼.

Since June last the New York banks have increased their circulation from five to thirteen millions, their loans from $209,000,000 to $220,000,000, while their specie has declined from sixteen to thirteen millions, their deposits from $190,000,000 to $173,000,000, and their legal tender from $62,000,000 to $47,000,000.

A brushmaker residing in London was drying a quantity of camel's hair before a fire, when it ignited; he started back, and exclaimed, "Oh, Lord! it is in a blaze." He turned back down the passage, and fell dead on the spot.

The body of a man was found floating in one of the Dublin canals on Tuesday, 24th ult. On one finger was a peculiar lady's ring, set with a number of rubies, and on another a ring with two large diamonds. There is no clue at present to the identity of the individual.

The Invalide Russe authoritatively denies a rumor which had been put in circulation by the German press, and adopted by some English journals, respecting the re-taking of the town of Taschkhend by the Emir of Bokhara, and the massacre of the Russian garrison.

The London Spectator mentions a report which is said to rest on "good authority," that the cattle plague commission "will report very strongly on the prospect of wide and serious loss to the agricultural capital of the country from the plague, and advise the summoning of Parliament in December."

A lamentable accident (observes Galignani) occurred a few days back at Geneva. A body of firemen were going through their manœuvres, and seven of them had ascended an escape-ladder, placed at the height of a fifth floor, when it suddenly broke, and six of the men were precipitated to the ground. One was killed on the spot, and five others severely injured. The seventh clung to a window, and succeeded in getting into the room to which it belonged.

Last week P. Richard Head, a carpenter, living at Worplesdon, Surrey, England, just as he was discharged from his employment, received a letter acquainting him that his wife's uncle—a Mr. Ring, of Petersfield, Hants—had died, and that by the event Head's wife and her three sisters, all occupying a humble position, had become entitled to equal shares in £200,000. A Queen's counsel of eminence has pronounced the title of the sisters good, so that they may expect shortly to receive their £50,000 respectively.

A murder, followed by attempt at suicide, has created much sensation in the Rue de Namur, at Brussels. A person named Gerard, proprietor of one of the principal grocery warehouses of that city, killed his wife by a pistol-shot just as she was getting out of bed at six o'clock in the morning. He then attempted to destroy himself, but the ball, ill-directed, merely broke one of the bones of his jaw. He was immediately arrested, and conveyed to the hospital. The crime is supposed to have been the result of domestic dissensions of long standing.

The English papers report a new swindling device. A youth has been in the habit of calling on householders and stating that he had overheard some men planning a burglary at that house, and he had taken the trouble to come and warn them. He did not ask for any reward, but seems generally to have got one. He has been committed for trial on four distinct charges, but as he did not actually ask for money, there seems to be some doubts whether he can be convicted.

Well may the voyages of coolie transport ships sailing from India be called "voyages of death." Would it be believed that during the last twelve months about one thousand coolies were drowned in these "voyages of death." The number is thus detailed by a correspondent of a morning contemporary:—In the Ally there were drowned, 313; in the Eagle Speed, 262; in the Clarence there died about 103; in the Golden South there died 120; in the Fusilier, died and drowned, 189. Total, 987.—North British Daily Mail.

A case of parricide has occurred in Wexford, Ireland. Power, a small farmer, was on his way home when his son, who was on bad terms with him, murdered him with a pitchfork. Suspicion, however, would probably not have fallen on the son, but that after committing the deed he went home, and finding his mother in bed, he went up to her room, and kept questioning her as to his father's non-return. His importunity so alarmed her that she arose and commenced a search; and on the discovery of the body the son was immediately suspected, and after the inquest committed for trial.

Bartholomew Corbet, aged 89, father of the Federal soldier who shot Booth, has for some years lodged with a Mr. Allen, in Edgware-road, London. For seven years he has never permitted persons to enter his room. The other day, as he had not appeared, his door was with difficulty broken open, and Corbet was found crouched on the floor in a state of delirium. The room was heaped, from floor to ceiling, with old rubbish, cases of birds, books and papers covered with dust. The old man was taken to the workhouse hospital.

The leading London hairdressers held a soiree at Hanover-square rooms last week, at which some twelve or fourteen young ladies were operated upon, for the purpose of "illustrating the art of hairdressing by British artistes." At the sound of a band of music the aspiring manipulators commenced their respective tasks. As each operator completed his labor, the heartiest applause greeted his efforts; and, when all the fair "victims" appeared in their newly-added charms, the excitement of the spectators was almost unbounded.

The Empress Eugenie, in her visit to the cholera hospitals of Paris, put a question to one of the sufferers, who was partially blind and did not perceive who it was that spoke to him. "Yes, my sister," he replied. "My friend," interposed the Sister of Charity who stood by, "it is not I who speak to you, it is the Empress" "Do not correct him," said her Majesty; "the name of Sister of Charity is the noblest title he could give me." The delicate and graceful compliment, so pleasantly uttered, is being repeated all over France, and with the bravery of the visit to the infected hospital will do much to increase the popularity of the Empress.

A SHOCKING AFFAIR.—The Gazette Populare, of Cagliari, Sardinia, has the following: "A shocking event is said to have taken place at Iglisais. A man named Matty, a Swiss, lodging in the hotel of M. Durandi, was found dead in his apartment, without anything having occurred of a nature to account for his death. A surgeon who was called in declared that it was caused by cerebral congestion, and M. Durandi obtained an authorization for the burial of the body before the term prescribed by sanitary regulations. It is related that as the coffin was being carried to the cemetery some drops of blood were seen to trickle from it.—Whether this be true or not, the coffin was reopened, and a wound was found in the body, apparently made with a very fine stiletto, of about six inches in depth, and penetrating the heart. The aperture was stopped with lint, camphor, and wax. It would seem that M. Matty had been assassinated while asleep. The judicial authorities is said to have immediately caused the hotel-keeper and the waiters to be arrested, the more so because this is reported to be the third case of death occurring in the premises during the past year."

ENJOYING A SERMON.—A correspondent of the Birmingham Gazette recently visited a village church near Bedford. The pew belonging to the aristocratic lord of the manor was up in a little gallery entirely partitioned off from the church, with which it communicated only by a large sash window. A little flight of steps outside the church lead to the double door of this secluded oratory, which was furnished with a fireplace and sundry comfortable chairs and hassocks, or, perhaps, more correctly speaking, footstools. On making inquiry as to the proprietor, we learnt that his lordship was a devout man, and never missed morning service while staying at his country seat. When the service commenced he opened the sash-window, which was exactly opposite the reading-desk, and behaved with the strictest decorum until the prayers were over and the psalm immediately before the sermon sung to an end. Then, just as the minister entered the pulpit, he shut down the sash and devoted himself to reading the letters by the morning post, which had in the meanwhile been brought down from the hall by "Jeames" for his edification.

THE WEAKER SEX.—The weaker sex! Emile Villars bids the world ponder on its old verdict. He has made his calculations. He speaks the inexorable logic of facts. When an average lady begins her toilet in the morning she weighs something between 75lb and 80lb. A frail, feeble creature is this; a tender flower; a sample of the weaker and persecuted sex! Weak! Let the reader reflect. She will carry, before she is completely equipped for the Bois de Boulogne, 95 yards of textile fabrics of various qualities and weights, from lawn to velvet. Then follows the shawl, the bonnet and the veil, studded with steel ornaments. And now for jewellery and decorations of all kinds—combs, diamonds, bandelettes, chains, buckels, necklace, ear-rings, false hair, frisettes, powder, paint, high-heeled boots? M. Emile Villars, in brief, has calculated the weight "the weaker sex" easily carries, on summer afternoons, to the Bois, in the shape of toilet. This weight is, he tells us, a little more than eighteen pounds—exactly the weight of a carbineer's breast-plate! This breast-plate the carbineer bears only on horseback; whereas the weaker sex dances under her load. Simple folk visiting the Tower have wondered how the brave men of old bore and fought in the massive armour on show there, how much greater should their wonder be to see "the weaker sex" dancing under the weight of a modern beauty's complete costume.—Paris correspondent of the Illustrated News.

There are few losses which the Poles have felt so much as the destruction or removal to St. Petersburg of their historical monuments. Each invasion of the Russian troops was marked by a systematic mutilation of national memorials and the removal of valuable libraries and archives from the country. Of these the most important was the Zulaski Library, which consisted of 300,000 volumes and a magnificent collection of manuscripts, and which now forms the richest portion of the Imperial Library at St. Petersburg. It was taken to Russia by the Cossacks, who roughly packed the books in wooden cases, and cut the folios to make them fit. A large number of the books and manuscripts were stolen while on their way to St. Petersburg, and afterwards sold in Poland, where they may yet be seen with the library stamp on them. The Archæological Museum at Wilna has now also been rifled by the authorities of its most valuable treasures.

A letter from Paris says:—Marie is here en route to Italy, where Patti is engaged at the Pagliano Theatre for November. An opera by the King of Hanover is about to be produced in his capital. Paul Barroilhet, the baritone, has written to the Paris papers to say—'For the fourth time in my life I write to contradict a report of my death. I am not dead of a virulent fever, so you have not had the misfortune to lose me. This time it was my brother.' Le Journal de Rouen killed a lady last week, and the redacteur had a visit from the bereaved husband. 'Villain,' cried the B. H.; 'you have killed my wife!' Editor, with dignity—'Monsieur, I am an editor, not a doctor.' 'That's just it,' cried B. H; 'you have killed her on paper, and she is alive.' 'If she is not dead, I congratulate you sincerely.' 'Congratulate! I demand damages for disappointment and breach of contract.'"

THE IRISH FENIANS.—The London correspondent of the N. Y. Times says:—"We propose to begin trying our Fenians about the 27th of November. If those on your side of the water can keep quiet, it will not go very hard with them. If they would abandon their organization, and frankly give up all idea of freeing Ireland from the English yoke, accepting the Union as an accomplished fact of too long standing to be disturbed, their unhappy dupes would no doubt either be set at liberty without a trial, or experience the executive clemency. It rests with Col. O'Mahoney, the Head Centre, with the side, back and tail centres in America, to save their brethren in Ireland, who they have got into this stupid difficulty. They may blather about priests and bishops, but I can tell them there is more common sense in one ounce of Archbishop Cullen's brains than in all their stupid heads put together. There is more power in his little finger than in their whole organization. I know what I am writing about. I have been in Ireland, and seen and conversed with primates and clergy. There are no better patriots than they are—no better friends of the people.

The imports into Clyde from British North America, during the month, have been by 10 vessels, registering 7,715 tons; comprising 9 from Quebec; 1 from Dorchester, N B; and 0 from other ports. For the corresponding period last year the tonnage employed was 11,213 tons.

The Imports from 1st January till this date, compared with the last year, are:—

White Pine—The stock of this article is excessive, excepting of the finer qualities for board purposes. Towards the end of last month a slight improvement in the demand gave promise of an early advance in prices, but the sudden rise in the value of money, from 5 per cent on the 4th to 7 per cent on the 7th October, at which rate it still remains, quite paralised the trade, and throughout the month there has been a gradual decline in the prices of most descriptions of timber. 200 Logs St John, of small average and inferior quality, brought an average of 13½d per cubic foot at auction, of large size and fine quality for board purposes, is much wanted. Prime Quebec Boardwood, 18 inch average, realised 20d to 21d per cubic foot Selected Quebec, 100 feet average, sold at 18d to 19½d; and fine Deck Plank Timber, 75 feet average, at 16d, and 70 feet, 15d to 15½d per cubic foot. Good Building Timber, 80 feet average, 14½d; 60 feet, 12½d to 13½d; and smaller averages, 10d to 11d per cubic foot.

Red Pine—Quebec is dull of sale, and stock of smaller averages very heavy. 50 feet average has been sold at 19d to 20d; 40 feet, 16d to 17d; and 30 feet, 14½d per cubic foot. An inferior parcel of last season's importation sold at 15½d and 16d for 40 feet average, and 13d for 27 feet average, per cubic foot.

Oak—Prime Quebec, of large size, has been sold at 2s to 2s 1d, and several parcels of inferior at 15d to 17d per cubic foot.

Elm—Quebec Rock has been sold at 21½d for 70 feet, and 18½d for 40 feet average, per cubic foot.

Birch—360 Logs from Pictou, 17 inch average, brought an average of 16½d per cubic foot at Glasgow. Good fresh Timber, of large size, much wanted.

Tamarac—Quebec inquired for, but there is none in the market.

Whitewood—Quebec has been sold at 2s per cubic foot.

Walnut—A parcel of Quebec sold at 2s 3d per cubic foot.

Deals and Battens—A small cargo of Nova Scotia Spruce, in Glasgow, changed hands at £6 15s per St Petersburg standard. The sales at auction, in Glasgow, have been of three cargoes, from New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, chiefly Spruce at an average of £7 and £7 5s for St Petersburg standard. Quebec Bright Yellow Pine Deals, at auction in Glasgow, averaged £17 17s 6d for first, £10 for second and £8 for third, per St Petersburg standard. A small parcel of first quality Red Pine, brought £11 17s; second quality, £9 5s; and third quality, £7 5s per St Petersburg standard.

Lathwood—Good Hemlock has been sold at 50s to 60s per fathom of 4 feet.

Staves—There has been a good demand for Quebec towards the close of the month, and prices are firm at our highest quotations. Merchantable Quebec Pipe have been sold at £55 to £57 10s; and WOWI, £15 10s to £16 10s per mille. New York Prime Heavy WO Hhd, £21; and Light Barrel, £12 per mille.

Supplies are fair, the Wheat coming chiefly from the Black Sea.

The upward movement in the Corn Market still continued during the week. Milwaukee Wheat was lately held for 25, at which figure some sales were reported, though the quantities were not large. There was no new feature in Pease. Indian Corn was in good demand at better prices.

The attendance at to-day's Market was thin. American Wheat is 9d dearer on the week, Milwaukee, as stated above, fetching 25s where sales are made. New Scotch is 1s 6d dearer; Old, fully 1s. Other descriptions have advanced about 1s. Although the feeling is firm, business is quieter. Barrel Flour brings at least 1s to 1s 6d advance for the little that remains in the Market. Sacks are again 1s higher. Pease are unaltered. Indian Corn is 3d to 6d higher, good Mixed American bringing from 17s 9d to 18s. Beans are 6d dearer, Barley 1s, Oats 6d to 9d, and Oatmeal 1s to 1s 6d.

Ashes are in good demand at the quotations.

The price of Butter is steady, but does not advance.

The sale of Cheese is fair at last week's prices.

MARITIME EXTRACTS.

The steamer Hero arrived down from Montreal, yesterday, with the bark Chaudiere, brigt B L George and schr Thermutis in tow.

We learn from a letter received yesterday, from the ship Margaret, Capt Walters, by the owner, that she has put into New Richmond. She is from Lancaster, and has a cargo of coals consigned to C & J Sharples & co.

The ss Thames, Pinkerton, of the British Colonial line, arrived in port this morning, having a most valuable cargo for Quebec and Montreal, amongst which are a large amount of Government stores in ammunition, Armstrong guns, &c. The Thames is the last ship of this line that will visit our port this season, and it gives us great pleasure to mark their increased support and popularity with the travelling public. The St Lawrence, Capt James, sails from this port on the 22nd, for London direct, and a number of her berths are already taken up. Those who proceed to England in the Thames will not only find her a good seagoing craft, but in her captain a thorough gentleman and A.1. seaman. On this line next season, we believe, there will be six first-class steamers; this in itself speaks for the progress and solidity of the company, as being one of the best, and we heartily wish them every success.

SHIP BUILDING.—In this rather important branch of our Quebec winter's business, and one that supplies labor to a very large class of our industrious and laboring classes, there will undoubtedly be a great falling off. However, it is highly gratifying to know that whatever is done will be on a better footing then for many years past. Those who do build will, in a majority of cases, have special contracts. For instance, our enterprising friend Mr P G Labbée, who has this year built three barques and one ship, and all as well finished and equipped as ever left this port, has now three contracts for next year. His ships have in every instance exceeded the expectations of the parties for whom they were built, and we have no doubt, from private advices received per Belgian, that ere his return he will have contracts for at least eight ships.

Great Yarmouth, Nov 1—The ship Columbine, of Newcastle, Symmers, from Quebec for Hull (wood), lost an anchor, and was supplied.

Ayr, Nov 1—The Victor Hudon, Lemieux, of Quebec, of 159 tons register, sailed from Glasgow for Quebec on Sept 13, with a cargo of coal. Encountered severe weather three days after, which continued to lat 49 29 N, long 36 S W, when the foretopmast was carried away in a severe gale, with hail and rain, and at noon next day the mainmast broke off close to the deck.

Bremerhaven, Oct 27—The Gesina (Hanoverian) Wallenstein, from Hartlepool for Leer, and the Kea (Hanoverian), DeWall, from Hamburg for Groningen, have put in to here to-day, and have saved seven balks and 11 planks of timber ex Carl Ronneberg, Bull, from Quebec, which was stranded in the Weser, Oct 21, and has since become a wreck.

Greenock, Oct 30—On Saturday morning a telegram was received in town announcing the arrival of the Washington from Quebec in Belfast Lough, in charge of the mate, and great anxiety was manifested throughout the day by the numerous friends of Captain Davies as to what was wrong. Although several messages were sent making inquiries as to his safety, nothing was ascertained until yesterday morning, when the mate arrived by the Belfast boat, bringing the [illegible]ncholy news that the captain had been washed overboard, off Tory, during a gale. Capt. Davies [illegible]as commanded the Washington for a number [illegible] years, and, being a regular trader to this port, was well known in town; his loss is felt keenly by a large circle of relatives and acquaintances.

By Telegraph.

FATHER POINT, Nov. 14th.—Weather cloudy; wind light [illegible]; four outward bound vessels; s s Thames inward at 6 a m.

The New York Tribune says, 'the reason why Drake's Plantation Bitters are so universally used and have such an immense sale, is that they are always made up to the original standard, of highly invigorating material and of pure quality, although the prices have so largely advanced," &c.
The Tribune just hits the nail on the head. The Plantation Bitters are not only made of pure material, but the people are told what it is. The Recipe is published around each Bottle, and the bottles are not reduced in size. At least twenty imitations and counterfeits have sprung up. They impose upon the people once and that's the last of them.
The Plantation Bitters are now used in all the Government Hospitals, are recommended by the best physicians, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. Facts are stubborn things.
"......... I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.
REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y."
"......... Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use.
Thy Friend, ASA CURRIN,
Philadelphia, Pa."
"......... I have been a great sufferer fom Dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. .... The Plantation Bitters have cured me.
REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N.Y."
"......... Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house.
SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors, Willard's Hotel, Washington, D.C.
"......... I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.
G. W. D. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O."
"......... The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, with which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.
H. B KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.
"......... The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and the urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.
C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway."
NEW-BEDFORD, Mass., Nov. 24, 1863.
DEAR SIR:—I have been afflicted many years with severe prostrating cramps in my limbs, cold feet and hands, and a general disordered system. Physicians and medicine failed to relieve me. Some friends in New York, who were using Plantation Bitters, prevailed upon me to try them. I commenced with a small wine-glassful after dinner. Feeling better by degrees, in a few days I was astonished to find the coldness and cramps had entirely left me and I could sleep the night through, which I had not done for years. I feel like another being. My appetite and strength have also greatly improved by the use of the Plantation Bitters.
Respectfully, JUDITH RUSSELL
If the ladies but knew what thousands of them are constantly relating to us, we candidly believe one-half of the weakness, prostration and distress experienced by them would vanish. James Marsh, Esq., of 159 West 14th St., N. Y., says "he has three children, the first two are weak and puny, his wife having been unable to nurse or attend them, but that she has taken Plantation Bitters for the last two years, and has a child now eighteen months old which she has nursed and reared herself, and both are hearty, saucy and well. The article is invaluable to mothers," &c.
Such evidence might be continued for a volume. The best evidence is to try them. They speak for themselves. Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, diabetes, &c., will find speedy relief through these Bitters.
Every bottle for exportation and sale out of the United States has a metal cap and green label around the neck.
Beware of refilled bottles. See that the cap has not been mutilated. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is an imposter. We sell it only in bottles.
Sold by principal dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"The road will be opened, dug out on each side if required, levelled, rounded and smothed. The bridges, four in number, shall have ten feet of span each, and one of them, the third, from the River Chaudiere, shall have one hundred and twenty-six feet of pavement in round timber, of twenty-four feet, French measure, in length, with at least one foot deep of brushwood of pine or spruce thrown over, and the whole shall be covered by at least one and a-half foot of good grey or yellow earth, or gravel, with ditches on each side of three feet in breadth, same number of feet deep. At an acre and a-half from the front of the first range, the hill will have to be lowered two feet in the middle, coming to nothing at each end, about sixty feet in length, and the earth carried to the foot of the hill on this side of the bridge, to level it." The works to be completed by the first of August next.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on (which this Medicine invariably removes), soon follow in one of which the patient may expire. Who can say they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"

INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION?

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess. The records of the insane asylums and the melancholy deaths by consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion.

The Constitution, once affected by organic weakness, requires the aid of medicine to strenghten and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT OF BUCHU invariably does. A trial will convince the most sceptical.

of the worst disorders that afflict mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the Blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purge it out, none can equal in effect Helmbold's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla. It cleanses and renovates the Blood, instills the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expels the disorders that grow and rankle in the blood. Such a remedy that could be relied on has long been sought for, and now, for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit of certificates to show its effects, but the trial of a single bottle will show to the sick that it has its virtues surpassing anything they have ever taken.

Two tablespoonsful of the Extract of Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is fully equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually made.

O

Helmbold's Rose Wash,

An excellent Lotion for diseases arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the Extracts Buchu and Sarsaparilla, in such diseases as recommended. Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character will accompany the medicines. Also explicit directions for use, with hundreds of thousands living witnesses, and upwards of 30,000 unsolicited certificates and recommendatory letters, many of which are from the highest sources, including eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Statesmen, &c. The Proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers; he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as Standard Preparations, and do not need to be propped up by certificates.

The Science of Medicine, like the Doric Column, should stand simple, pure, majestic, having Fact for its basis, Induction for its pillar, and Truth alone for its Capital

L

My Extract Sarsaparilla is a Blood Purifier; my Extract Buchu is a Diuretic, and will act as such in all cases.

Both are prepared on purely scientific principles—in vacuo—and are the most active measures of either that can be made. A ready and conclusive test will be a comparison of their properties with those set forth in the following works:

FROM THE HON. THOMAS B. FLORENCE
FROM THE HON. THOMAS B. FLORENCE
FROM THE HON. THOMAS B. FLORENCE

Washington, Jan. 1st, 1864.

Gentlemen,—Having stated it verbally to you, I have no hesitation, in writing the fact, that I experienced marked benefit from your Hoofland's German Bitters. During a long and tedious session of Congress, pressing and onerous duties nearly prostrated me. A kind friend suggested the use of the preparation I have named. I took his advice, and the result was improvement of health, renewed energy, and that particular relief I so much needed and obtained. Others may be similarly advantaged if they desire to be.

Truly your friend,
THOMAS B. FLORENCE.

From JOHN B. WICKERSHAM, Esq., firm of Wickersham & Hutchison, the celebrated Manufacturers of Fancy Iron Works, 259 Canal St.

I am the recipient from you of one of the greatest favors that can be conferred upon man, viz., that of health. For many years have I suffered from one of the most annoying and debilitating complaints that the human family can be afflicted with, Chronic Diarrhea.

During the long time I was suffering from this disease, I was attended by regular physicians, giving me but temporary relief. The cause seemed to remain until I was induced to try Hoofland's German Bitters. After the use of a few bottles of that valuable medicine, the complaint appeared to be completely eradicated.

I often inwardly thank you for such a valuable specific, and, whenever I have an opportunity, cheerfully recommend it, with full confidence in its reliability.

Truly yours,
JOHN B. WICKERSHAM.
New York, Feb. 2, 1864.

From JULIUS LEE, Esq., firm of Lee & Walker, the most extensive Music Publishers in the United States, No. 722 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

February 8th, 1864.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen:—My mother-in-law has been so greatly benefitted by your Hoofland's German Bitters that I concluded to try it myself. I find it to be an invaluable tonic, and unhesitatingly recommend it to all who are suffering from dyspepsia. I have had that disease in its most obstinate form—flatulence—for many years, and your Bitters has given me ease when every thing else had failed.

Yours truly, JULIUS LEE.

From the HON. JACOB BROOM.
Philadelphia, Oct. 7th, 1863.

Gentlemen:—In reply to your inquiry as to the effect produced by the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, in my family, I have no hesitation in saying that it has been highly beneficial. In one instance, a case of dyspepsia of thirteen years' standing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one bottle gave decided relief, the second effecting a cure, and the third, it seems, has confirmed the cure, for there has been no symptoms of its return for the last six years. In my individual use of it, I find it to be an unequalled tonic, and sincerely recommend its use to the sufferers.

Truly yours, JACOB BROOM,
1707 Spruce St.

From REV. W. D. SEIGFRIED, Pastor of 12th Baptist Church.

Philadelphia, December 26th, 1863.

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen:—I have recently been laboring under the distressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervous system. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends, and some of them tested, but without relief. Your Hoofland's German Bitters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of the Bitters induced me also to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patent Medicines, from the "thousand and one quack Bitters," whose only aim seems to be to palm off sweetened and drugged liquor upon the community, in a sly way; and the tendency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learning that yours was really a medicinal preparation, I took it with happy effect. Its action not only only upon the stomach, but upon the nervous system, was prompt and gratifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles.

Very respectfully yours,
W. D. SEIGFRIED,
No. 254 Shackamaxon St.

From the REV. THOS. WINTER, D.D., Pastor of Roxborough Baptist Church.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir:—I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland's German Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your German Bitters, I did so, and have experienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been very materially benefitted. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects.

Respectfully yours, T. WINTER,
Roxborough, Pa.

From REV. J. S. HERMAN, of the German Reformed Church, Kutztown, Berks County, Pa

Dr. C. Jackson—Respected Sir:—I have been troubled with Dyspepsia nearly twenty years, and have never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofland's Bitters. I am very much improved in health, after having taken five bottles.

Yours, with respect, J. S. HERMAN.

Notice to Mariners

THE TIME BALL in the CITADEL, each day, (Sunday excepted,) at Half-past Twelve, will be hoisted half-mast; at Five Minutes before ONE it will be hoisted to the mast-head, and at ONE o'clock, Mean Time at Observatory, the BALL will be DROPPED. A Chronometer, keeping correct Greenwich time, should then shew 5h. 44m. 49s., and the difference between this, and the time shewn by a Chronometer, is its true error on Greenwich time at that moment;—As it is "Greenwich time" that the Observatory shews when the Ball is dropped it is no matter where the ship is lying; for instance, if a ship half-way across the Atlantic could see the Ball drop, the difference between 5h. 44m. 49s. and the time shewn by the face of her Chronometer would be its error on Greenwich time.—A ship, on arriving, should compare her Chronometer by the Time Ball, as it will enable her to get her "Sea Rate," which seldom or ever agrees with "Harbour Rate."

—EXAMPLE:—

April 22nd, 1865, the M. O. Steamship "Peruvian," on leaving Liverpool, found that her Chronometer was fast, on "Greenwich Mean Time," 0h. 1m. 32s. On May 2nd she arrived at Quebec, and when the Ball dropped her Chronometer shewed... 5h. 46m. 6s.
Greenwich Mean Time when Ball dropped .. 5h. 44m. 49s.
May 2nd, Chronometer fast on Greenwich Mean Time, 1m. 17s.
April 22nd, " " " 1m. 32s.
No. of days .. .. 10 | 15s.
Sea rate losing.. .. 0m. 1.5s

Again, on May 18th, her Chronometer shewed, when Ball dropped .. 5h. 45m. 50s.
May 2nd, when Ball dropped.. 5h. 46m. 6s.
No. of days .. .. 16 | 16s.
Harbor rate losing .. 0m. 1s.

By paying attention to the Sea and Harbour Rates, under different temperatures, the intelligent master of ship will be able to arrive at a better rate for his Chronometer than could be obtained in any other way.

It is strongly recommended not to send a Chronometer on shore, when they can be so easily rated on board, and no one who has the interest of his ship and the welfare of his owners at heart, will ever give his Chronometer to the charge of another, if it is possible to avoid it.

Should the ship be loading timber, the Chronometer can be slung to the loom of an oar (one end being made fast, the other affords a spring,) that will save the Chronometer from any jar or injury.

The Greatest Success of the Age.

DISEASES of the Chest. Syrup of Hypophosphite of Lime, manufactured by Grimault and Co., chemists, 7, rue de la Feuillade, Paris. This new medicine, delicious to the palate, is a sovereign remedy for coughs, colds, irritation of the lungs, and is also an excellent remedy in cases of consumption. Under its influence, the cough abates, nocturnal prespirations cease and the patient rapidly recovers health and flesh.

ELIXIR of Pepsine, prepared by Grimault and Co., chemists, 7, rue de la Feuillade, Paris, according to the formula of Dr. Corvisart, knight of the Legion of Honour, physician to H. M. the Emperor of the French. Pepsine is the gastric juice itself, or rather the digestive principle purified, which digests food in the stomach. When from various causes the supply of the digestive fluid is too small, the inevitable consequences are bad digestion, gastritis, gastralgia, inflammation of the mucous coats of the stomach and bowels, heartburn, anœmia, loss of strength, and in females, general derangement. The Elixir of Pepsine, which is sanctioned by the approbation of the Paris Academy of Medicine, speedily cures all diseases, and prevents vomiting during pregnancy.

VEGETABLE Matico Injection and Capsules, prepared by Grimault and Co., apothecaries in Paris. This new remedy is prepared from the leaves of the Matico, a tree of Peru, for the prompt and infallible cure of gonorrhœa without fear of stricture of the urethra or inflammation of the bowels. The celebrated Dr. Ricord of Paris, ceased to prescribe all other medicaments as soon as Matico was discovered. The Injection is used at the commencement of the discharge; the Capsules in chronic and inveterate cases, which have resisted the preparations of copaiba, cubebs, and injections of a metallic basis.

NO more Cod Liver Oil. Syrup of Iodized Horse-Radish, of Grimault and Co., Apocaries chemists, 7, rue de la Feuillade, Paris. According to the certificates of the physicians of the Paris Hospitals detailed in the prospectus, and with the approbation of several Academies, this Syrup is employed with the greatest success in place of Cod Liver Oil, to which it is really superior. It cures diseases of the chest, scrofula, lymphatic disorders, green sickness, muscular atony, and loss of appetite, it regenerates the constitution by purifying the blood, and is, in a word, the most powerful depurative known. It never fatigues the stomach and bowels like the iodide of potassium and the iodide of iron, and is administered with the greatest efficacy to young children subject to humours, or obstruction of the glands. Dr. Cazenave, of St. Louis hospital, Paris, recommends it particularly in cutaneous diseases conjointly with the pills which bear his name.

PHOSPHATE of Iron De Leras, apothecary doctor of science, 7, rue de la Feuillade, Paris,—This new ferruginous medicine contains the elements of the bones and blood, and iron in a liquid state. From observations made in the Paris hospitals and detailed in the prospectus, it is superior to ferruginous pills, lactate of iron, iron reduced by hydrogen, pills and syrup of the iodide of iron, and cures rapidly, stomach complaints, painful digestion, poverty of the blood, loss of strength and appetite, and the diseases incident to females. It is the best adjunct to Cod-Liver Oil, and the best preserver in health in tropical climates.
