Fire prevention week endorsed

"Think about fire wherever you are."
Police and Fire Chief Ed Harper heartily endorses this slogan made up by the joint committee of the Association of Canadian Fire Marshals and the Canadian Association of Fire Chiefs.

"Next week is Fire Prevention Week," Chief Harper observed, "and I feel it is the duty of all Westmount citizens to bear in mind the terrible losses in life and property caused by fire across Canada."
He added: "I recommend this slogan to everyone to be observed every day of the year."

This year in Westmount suitable posters and literature are being distributed to commercial establishments, public buildings and schools.

Fire drills a 'must' next week

Fire drill in schools is a "must" next week. Additionally, priests, ministers and rabbis are being asked to mention the danger of outbreaks and fire hazards in their sermons.

The toll in Canada is heavy, as indicated by the following: Some 5,500 persons died, 16,000 were scarred and maimed and more than $1,000,000,000 in property losses have been reported during the last 10 years.

The following is taken from the following is taken from a release issued by the Cana-

Westmount High footballers win exhibition game 8-6

For the first time in 11 years Westmount High senior football team played an exhibition game in Ottawa against Ashbury College instead of the traditional game against Proctor Academy.

The 45 students who went along for the day to help give moral support to the WHS team were delighted with the plans made for them and the members.

A tour of Ottawa, meal in the dining room at Ashbury College and refreshments after the game for team members; while supporters the game in the afternoon. "It was a well-fought game," commented Coach Carmen

Bradley. Scorers were Courtney Pratt, touchdown on a pass into the end zone from Peter Brabant; John Tilly, convert; single rouge by Tom Christie; tackle by Bill Abbott. Defensive standouts were Dick Spencer, John Tilly and John Cliff. Score was 8 to 6 for Westmount.

Principal Norman Wood explained why Proctor Academy was not played this year by WHS:

"The main reason is that after long deliberation it was decided that a trip away would be good for the morale of the team, instead of just falling into routine and hosting Proctor Academy all the time. We expect to renew games with Proctor again, but not on a regular basis. We hope to have a heavy season next year by establishing a home-and-home series."

Columbia : Continuing our listing of recommended discs featuring lighter classical music, some releases include the following:- On ML 5756 Eine Kleine Nachtmusik, the late renowned conductor Bruno Walter leads the hand-picked Columbia Symphony Orchestra in a fine collection of shorter Mozart pieces.

We hear the four movements of the delightful 'Eine Kleine Nachtmusik, and sparkling overtures to 'Cosi fan tutti', 'The Marriage of Figaro', 'The Magic Flute', and the sprightly 'Impressario Overture'. The programme ends on a serious note with the 'Masonic Funeral Music', a stately and beautiful composition more Beethoven in context, than the usually gay Mozart.

Carnival In Vienna; on ML 5752 finds the fabulous Philadelphia Orchestra under Eugene Ormandy indulging in a pot-pourri of Viennese champagne music from the Strauss family, including eight colorful polkas and three familiar waltzes. The polkas are the 'Fire-Bell' (they use a real one), 'Hunting' (complete with rifle), 'Thunder and Lightning' (musical effects only), 'Explosions', 'Annen' and 'The Young-in-heart'; and the waltzes:- the beautiful 'Roses From the South', 'Wine, Women and Song' and the 'Thousand and One Nights'.

There's an excellent diagram of all the instruments that make up this mighty orchestra on the jacket of this one.

And in quieter vein, some of the most popular music of the 17th century, Antonio Vivaldi - The Seasons on LC 3704 with the famed 'I Musici' group of Rome, featuring Felix Ayo on solo violin.

MORLEY CALVERT . . . A VERY BUSY MUSICIAN

Some people choose a profession and remain in one section throughout their career, but not so Morley Calvert, esteemed member of the music field who excels in a number of things.

Although born in Brantford, Ontario, Mr. Calvert received his elementary and high school education in Montreal, subsequently went on to obtain his B.Mus. in Music Education at McGill University, his Licentiate for the trumpet and the LRSM (London) diploma for pianoforte.

Morley Calvert, after 12 years as Band Music Instructor at Westmount High School, has been appointed to the new Lindsay Place High School in Valois. This new addition to the many high schools under the jurisdiction of the Protestant Board of Greater Montreal is indeed fortunate to start off with the talents of an organizer like Mr. Calvert.

Among the many activities, besides his important school position, Mr. Calvert leads the renowned Montreal Citadel Band of The Salvation Army (before becoming the conductor, he played the cornet in the ensemble for 19 years) . . . 10 years ago, he started instrumental classes in Westmount High School, which were the first of their kind in the Province. For 14 years he has led the McGill Redmen Band and six years ago became director of The McGill Symphonic Band. Is Morley Calvert busy?

Summers have been spent in directing or teaching at summer camps in the United States and Canada.

ORGANIZES OWN CAMP

Five years ago this energetic musician began his own summer music camp. Since Mr. Calvert started the project, it has grown for 30 to 85 campers. These music-conscious young people come from some 12 high schools in Montreal district and Toronto.

Following is a partial list of girls and boys who reside in Notre Dame de Grace, Westmount and Montreal West, who attended the one week session Music Camp (last week in August): Yale Shap, Leslie Uyeda, Dixie McMorran, Norma Lessard, Lee Griffiths, Nancy Brodie, Wendy Anderson, David Shaf-felburg, Carole Henderson, Elizabeth Campbell, Bruce Davis, Leslie Forbes, Paul Latour, Deirde Vogan, John Kotry, Cynthia Duff.

The faculty this season included Mr. and Mrs. Alex Thomson, wind and string instructors from Verdun High School, Peter Wilcox from Dunton High School, Robert Ryker, tuba and Vincent Clarke, trombonist, both of the Montreal Symphony Orchestra.

Mr. Ryker is also the tuba player in the Montreal Brass Quintet. The Montreal Festivals commissioned Mr. Calvert to compose a number for the Quintet and it was the "From The Monteregian Hills" which was performed this summer when the Montreal Brass Quintet played in the Museum Gardens. It was very well received and should remain in their repertoire.

Since the camp originally started with instrumentalists from Westmount High, Mr. Calvert called it "Westmount Music Camp" but as he is no longer a member of the staff, next year it is to be re-named.

Following school closing last June, Mr. Calvert left immediately to spend the summer guest conducting and lecturing in Wisconsin, California and Georgia, arriving back in Canada in time to direct his own music camp.

What does Morley Calvert do in his spare time, if any? He composes and arranges and has several published and recorded compositions to his credit.

"Good" is the most colorful word in the English language. Most Rev. Lawrence P. Whelan, auxiliary bishop of Montreal, told graduates of St. Leo's Academy and St. Paul's Academy at the 1962 graduation exercises held last Sunday in the Church of the Ascension of Our Lord.

Bishop Whelan pointed out that "good" is one of the first words a child hears. It is a word of love.

"In school," he said, "we hear of a 'good girl' and a 'good boy' and in this sense these are words of encouragement and praise."

In life we have "good businessmen" and "good per-

WE SAY YOU SAY

Teachers should meet on their own time

WHY should schools shut tight while the teachers' trade union holds its annual convention?

Less than a month ago Protestant pedagogues of Quebec returned to work from over two months' holiday.

Yet today and tomorrow classes are halted, the children at home. And there is Thanksgiving holiday Monday, too.

Why must the Provincial Association of Protestant Teachers hold its private, professional business on public time? Time for which taxpayers pay. Class time which children lose just as they hit stride after the long summer layoff.

We know a lot of teachers. To many of them this is a five-day long weekend in glorious autumn weather. Some will at best register at the convention — and be on their way.

Time for PAPT sessions is during the generous summer, Christmas and Easter vacations.

The QE Hospital needs contributions

MANY people will this week receive a short, but important, letter from the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, asking for help financially to wipe out the 1961 deficit of $143,208.

This deficit came about because many people believe that the Quebec Hospital Service Plan solves all financial problems of hospitals.

This is not the case.

Many essential services are not covered by the plan.

The campaign will be conducted by mail only, and will run from October 8 to October 22.

Speed sign posting is ridiculous

Sir: Your Mr. Austin Carr, who titillatingly told of his twin tangle with Liston and a highway cop. (Examiner page 5 last week) missed the main point.

Quebec is forging ahead in highway improvements, but the archaic concept that we should be speeded up only to be slowed down lingers and is, unfortunately, even being extended.

Instrument of this folly is the "Vitesse-Speed 30" sign.

Any coincidental proximity of two or more dwellings, however grand or humble, with a general store and/or a church brings out the sign erectors with their assorted "30s" — and I do mean assorted, for these days they are in different sizes and with every possible wording variant.

Be it a 60-mph, dead-straight, unobstructed highway, or a meandering, crowded, slowed-down, unpaved Taschereau regime relic of a country road: still, it's 30-mph through any outpost of civilization.

Whether the provincial route runs straight and clean, full width, clear view through a community or whether it narrows into a one-lane side street of overhanging balconies and sharp-cornered intersections — in either case, 30 miles per.

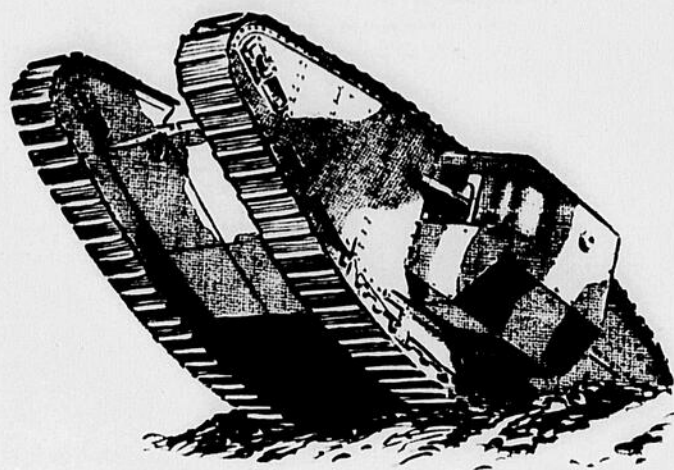

Quebeckers who have motored in other provinces and the States, as do our visitors, know that things are different elsewhere. Slow-down speeds are frequently 40 or 45 mph. If there is no real hazard or other reason for going slow, it is not demanded. And the restricted zone is as short as possible.

But here in La Belle Province, not only are more 30-limit zones appearing constantly along arteries specifically designed to speed traffic up, but they are continually being stretched out. Just let some local alderman's brother-in-law build a new house on the outskirts of the village and, before he has moved in, some joker from the provincial roads department has come along and moved that black-and-white "30" a couple of hundred yards further out into the hinterland.

I don't object to stopping dead on the open highway to permit a herd of cows, return-

The monster that makes one man think of 1916

ONE OF THE FIRST BRITISH TANKS

By Cyril Aynsley

A SPLENDID September dawn. Birds singing on shattered tree stumps. Fear and pride. A swig of rum.

And 46 years ago September the first tanks ever to go into war rumbled over the scarred French meadows at the Battle of the Somme.

The British infantrymen were astounded. The Germans were aghast.

A German war correspondent wrote: "We stared and stared as if we had lost the power of our limbs. The monsters approached slowly, hobbling, rolling and rocking. But they approached..."

Victor Huffam, of Hatch End, Middlesex, remembers the scene well.

Only three

On those first tanks was focussed the attention of Winston Churchill, Lloyd George, Haig, Joffre.

Victor Huffam was more personally concerned. He was in one of them.

Now a vigorous 72 and boss of a company producing precision tools in England, Mr. Huffam said recently: "I take each September 15 quietly. A day for remembering."

On his office walls are photographs of the young men who went with him into the first tank action. Only three are now alive.

"It was a day on which we felt a certain amount of... what can we say?"

"Valour? Yes, perhaps. And fright, of course."

"But what a pride it was to be there, at something new. Historic, of course."

"But what a bloody shambles!"

It was the vision of Winston Churchill that produced the tank as a vital new weapon.

It was the mistiming of a general, Haig, that put them into battle before they were ready.

In secret

It was the skill of Victor Huffam and a score of other young lieutenants that drove them towards the German lines.

"We were one of the best-kept military secrets of all time," Mr. Huffam said. "The War Office called for volunteers for 'an exceedingly dangerous and hazardous duty of a secret nature.'"

"We trained for four months in the country on Lord Iveagh's estate. I remember it so well. We weren't allowed out and hardly anybody was allowed in.

"Once a month they sent a lorry to take some of the officers, under armed guard, to the Angel at Bury St. Edmunds for drinks and dinner. They took the N.C.O.s to the Suffolk Hotel. Then back in the lorries to our secret camp."

It was all exciting and exhilarating.

"We rather liked the idea because although we were living in restricted conditions we were going into action surrounded by armour plating."

"We didn't know then that it was only three-sixteenths of an inch thick, and no good."

Churchill's idea was to wait until there was sufficient strength of well-equipped tanks and highly trained crews to crush the enemy.

He wrote afterwards: "The first 20 tanks, in spite of my protests and the far more potent objections of Mr. Asquith and Mr. Lloyd George, were providentially exposed to the enemy at the Battle of the Somme."

Victor Huffam said: "We took our position on the night of September 14. To get into

Fire prevention

Canadian Underwriters' Association: Fire Prevention Week is observed each year in an attempt to educate our citizens in the ways of fire safety and thus cut down the annual toll in life and property.

That such education is necessary is obvious from two facts: Fire in Canada in 1961 cost Canadians over $127,000,000 in property loss and over 550 lives, of which over 200 were children.

Learn all you can about fire safety and put what you learn into practice — every day!

Here are some pointers you will find useful:

Care with matches and smoking should certainly rank top of the list. These familiar objects are not so innocent when it comes to fire. Do you know that, last year, they caused one out of every four fires in the nation?

Because smoking and matches are so treacherous from the standpoint of fire safety, care with them should be your first consideration. You know how a cigarette is put aside while the smoker goes to answer a call at the door, or to look for the television program guide. It's so easy to forget — and so dangerous.

Sometimes at a party, a cigarette tips off the ashtray and down out of sight in the upholstery. It can smoulder there unnoticed for hours. Later — maybe after everybody's "safe in bed" — fire strikes the unguarded home.

Of course, you know people should never smoke in bed. But smoking is equally dangerous in an armchair if the smoker feels the least bit drowsy. He may doze off and if he is fortunate he may be awakened by flames or smoke. Too often, however, the dozing smoker is rendered unconscious before he awakens, and so becomes another fire fatality.

Now a word about matches — if only people wouldn't be so careless about them. So often they toss a match into a wastebasket. That's an invitation to big trouble. And too often matches and lighters are left where they'll intrigue children, instead of being placed safely out of reach of those innocent hands. Children playing with matches often cause fires, but it's the adults, not the children, who are really responsible for such fires.

There's no doubt that it's the adults who are responsible for bad housekeeping, which simply creates fire hazards by the dozens. We permit trash to accumulate in attics and basements. Old newspapers, clothes and upholstered furniture are left lying around the house. Instead of throwing it out, we leave this rubbish there — handy fuel for many a big fire. A little systematic cleaning up of such odds and ends would prevent this type of fire.

And in the kitchen too, this bad housekeeping menace often shows up. Grease is permitted to accumulate on stoves and pans, where it can burst into flame readily. Incidentally, it's a good idea to keep a long-handled fork handy should a pan catch fire, in that case the blaze can be quickly extinguished by lifting a

Cancer Society starts anti-smoking drive

With the new school term back in full swing, the Canadian Cancer Society has renewed its drive to warn teenagers of the hazards of smoking. Pierre de Léan, chairman of the Education Committee of the Society, said today.

The initial program was launched nearly a year ago and has become an integral part of the school program in many parts of the province.

"But we plan to extend and develop our program until we have reached every secondary school and every high school in the entire province," he said.

Jules Leclerc, assistant director of studies, Montreal Catholic School Commission, said his board was "highly appreciative of the work the Canadian Cancer Society was doing in this particular field and promised the continued co-operation of the commission and its teachers in expanding the program."

J. K. Annett, representing the Protestant School Board, said the To Smoke or Not to Smoke program had been very favorably received. The director of protestant education, he said, was "very interested in this work and will do everything possible to further its expansion."

Filmstrip available

Mr. Annett said that school nurses, attending the teachers' convention, which opened today, would be given an opportunity to view the filmstrip and examine the literature which the Canadian Cancer Society makes available.

Mr. de Léan said that in meeting its responsibility to bring health information to the public the Canadian Cancer Society seeks to alert teenagers to the risks of cigarette smoking.

"Our aim is to reach potential smokers before they have started to smoke, or before the habit is established. We also hope to rally the fullest possible support and assistance for the program from physicians, parents, parent-teacher groups, youth and youth serving organizations, public health and other organizations concerned with the health and welfare of youth," Mr. de Léan said.

The education chairman claimed that a very definite link between cigarette smoking and lung cancer had been established.

lid with the fork and covering and smothering the flame.

Another great cause of fire — one in five fires in fact, according to the Canadian Underwriters' Association — is the misuse of electricity. Some people use too many extension cords from their outlets and easily overload the circuit. They put in fuses that are larger than the line was designed for.

They run extension cords under carpeting and hang them over nails so the cords become frayed. Frayed wiring represents an open invitation to fire. If there is any doubt about the safety of the wiring in your home, call in a qualified electrician and have him check it out.

People should never leave children alone in a house. When they go out they should be sure the baby-sitter knows that in an emergency she should get the children out first, then call the fire department, and then notify the parents.

"The Canadian Cancer Society is not, nor can it be indifferent to the reports of the Canadian Medical Association, the American Medical Association and the Royal Society of Physicians of London which directly link heavy cigarette smoking to the steady increase in death from one of the worst forms of cancer — that of the lung."

He said the filmstrip kit, being made available to schools by the Canadian Cancer Society, had the objective of graphically presenting significant information regarding the serious and rapidly increasing health problem of lung cancer and the scientific evidence which showed that cigarette smoking was a strong causal factor in the disease.

High Fidelity Music Show

By Giveon Cornfield

As in past years, we are again to have the annual Montreal High Fidelity Music Show, sponsored by the Dominion High Fidelity Association.

This year's show is shaping up in good style, with over 40 exhibitors at presstime, and there will no doubt be more.

The latest home music systems electronic organs, records, components and accessories will be displayed and demonstrated. The show opens at the Sheraton Mount Royal Hotel at 4 p.m. on Wednesday, October 10. This is hard on the heels of the New York High Fidelity Show of October 6, and the Canadian show will give the public and trade an opportunity to see and hear the newest offerings of Canadian manufacturers and importers.

An attendance in the neighbourhood of 10,000 is anticipated for this year's show, says John T. Rochford the show manager.

All-family amplifier

The show will run from Wednesday to Saturday night, 11 p.m., and the admission charge of 50 cents will entitle the public to admission badges good every day of the show.

Special services set for Thanksgiving

A distinctive feature of the morning services which will be held on Thanksgiving Day by every church of the Christian Science denomination, is the period set aside for spontaneous expressions of gratitude to God from the congregation, in which visitors as well as members are welcome to participate.

The Christian Science churches in Montreal, Westmount, Pointe Claire and Sherbrooke are extending a cordial welcome to all who believe in preserving the religious character of this great festival, and who are not otherwise provided with a church service on Monday.

No collection is taken in the Christian Science churches on Thanksgiving Day. Following the reading of the proclamation of Her Majesty the Queen, there will be a special lesson-sermon on the subject "Thanksgiving," which consists of relevant extracts alternately from the King James Bible and from the Christian Science denominational text book "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

Mothers, tots enjoy parks

This week's warm weather brought out mothers and their younger children in droves to such places as beautiful Westmount Park. At least one informal picnic took place. Many of the older generation also were seen taking in the warm sun.

Laxton. A newcomer is Miss Carole Gordon.

There are several openings for additional talent. Auditions are conducted on Tuesday at 7 p.m.

COIN CLUB: Robert Vaux, Sr. who introduced a "Coin Club" for the first time last season has resumed his Monday evening class. He extends an invitation to all his former coin collectors to be on hand next Monday for a continuation of the excellent program.

EMBROIDERY: One of the most popular classes at the Club resumed its 1962-63 program — this is the Embroidery Class under the leadership of Mrs. Warren and Mrs. Simmons. This will mark the fifth year that the class has been in operation — its popularity is indicated by the fact that 14 girls were on hand for the opening session.

PHOTOGRAPHY: Another interesting and educational activity is the Photography Class. This year's Photo Club will be supervised by Bob Reid who returns for a second year and newcomer Denis Xenos.

MOVIES: Thursday night movies began last week with Projectionist Herb Davies at the controls and Lorne Barnewall at the Box Office. Both Mr. Davies and Mr. Barnewall are veteran workers at the Club having been associated for some 12 years.

DRAWING, SKETCHING: A special program for Intermediates and Seniors has been started with Mr. Jonas Norkus as the Artist Instructor in charge. Members of the group will be selected on the basis of their artistic talents in drawing and sketching. Prospective students are asked to make further inquiries at the desk.

FOOTBALL: The Unity Football team continue to workout three times weekly at the Westmount Park under the direction of Bob Berthiaume and his coaching staff. The team is currently receiving fundamental exercises and expect to conduct an inter-squad exhibition within three weeks.

Twenty-four boys have been equipped with football gear. All the youngsters seem to be enjoying this activity very much. There are no plans for league participation this year. They may be involved with exhibition games only.

Speed sign

ing from their milking with contented looks, to cross to an adjoining pasture. After all, next week my city dairy may be delivering that very milk to my door.

But I do object to people turning babies, children on bikes, old folks and pets loose on main arteries; failing to erect stop signs on side streets in their villages; outlawing big signs and trees obstructing a clear view, permitting their own cars and trucks to constrict the highway — then claiming it as a local main or even side street to the detriment of every through motorist and trucker.

Highways are becoming too expensive, and too vital to our economy and way of life, to be misused in the name of a multiplicity of local municipal autonomies. Restrictions in the interest of safety, where danger truly exists, yes. But sensible restrictions, modern speed limits, enforceable rules which can be respected as well.

Practices have already begun for Bantams and Midgets. The Senior "B" team also started their practice session this past week.

The Unity Alumni Association who will sponsor a Basketball House League for beginners continue to hold meetings with potential coaches and referees. Clinics start early this month.

PHYSICAL FITNESS: A Physical Fitness class for girls is conducted every Friday evening under the leadership of Miss Many Levasseur.

PHYSICAL DIRECTOR: When Chuck Tyler returns next week from New York City, he will assume the responsibility of Physical Director of the Club. Mr. Tyler has spent the last month at New York University attending the Short Course sponsored jointly by Boys' Clubs of Canada and Boys' Clubs of America.

Services held before classes

By DONALD FERGUSON

Loyola High started off the school year with a three-day retreat for the entire student body, with time allotted for confession, spiritual reading, Mass and Communion.

Since then, regular classes have been in effect, and the students appear to be settling down to a year of study.

Ed. Meagher, Athletic Director, has been busy coaching the Loyola Warriors, with the desire to win a City Championship — a desire that is shared by everyone at Loyola.

In the first game, on Wednesday, September 26, Loyola defeated Verdun High, 23-12, with fullback Edmundo Perrotta picking up two touchdowns, and Lou Colvey, one. Bill McKenna, new rookie quarter-back, did a great job of calling the signals, and Dave McConomy and Wayne Daly were among the key blockers.

Unfortunately, however, Wayne Daly suffered a chipped hip, and had to be carried off the field.

Father Chisholm's Junior Footballers dropped their opener to Monklands High, 6-2.

To add a word about the teachers, W. Ausserleitner is the first high-school professor to earn a Doctorate in History. Mr. Potvin and Mr. Pearson are rightly pleased to have their new math textbook in full use in the high school.

Coming events are the Annual Harvest Hop, sponsored by the Senior Sodality, with Dave Ferguson as chairman. He is getting his help from Steve Kendall, Larry Carroll and Father McKenna, to name a few. The daily October Rosary is now under way, again under Sodality sponsorship, with co-chairmen Dave McConomy and Donat Taddeo.

Beagles became popular during the Elizabethan period, when they were used for hunting hares, according to Encyclopedia Britannica.

Mechanics' closed for Thanksgiving

The Mechanics' Institute Library on Atwater avenue will be closed all day Saturday, and all day Monday, Thanksgiving Day.

Westmount budgets for trucks

A total of $20,350 was earmarked by the City of Westmount for the purchase of trucks for the Public Works and Parks Department at the Monday evening Council meeting.

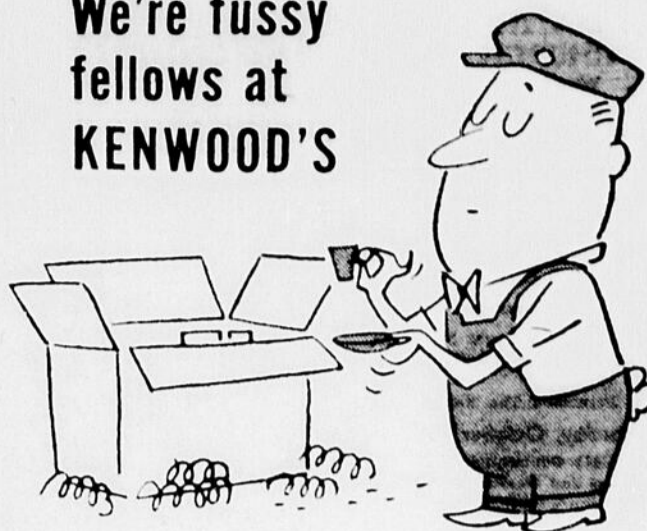

Queried Alderman Drury, "Is there a two-year guarantee for all this equipment?" City Manager Norman Dawe replied, "We will be sure the City obtains any guarantee put out by General Motors."

A half-ton panel truck will be purchased at a cost of $2,300 to replace a vehicle purchased in 1956 by the City for the Public Works Department.

Eight one-ton pick-up trucks will be purchased at a cost of $15,850, as replacements for units first purchased in 1952, replaced in 1957 and now in a condition which would require uneconomical expenditures for repairs, it was noted at the meeting.

Of the eight vehicles being replaced, seven are used in winter by Section Foremen and in the summer on special work and on loan to other departments. The eighth truck is a replacement of the vehicle used in special garbage collection and is attached to both the Destructor Plant and the Garage.

"d'you know something, Mommy?"

"What, dear?" Do I know what?"
"One-eyed sandwiches bring you good luck."
"Do they? Who put an idea like that in your head?"
"Jimmy's daddy. Jimmy's daddy makes some one-eyed sandwiches every Saturday morning."
"And what about Jimmy's mother?"
"She sleeps."
"I suspected as much . . ."
"Jimmy's mommy sleeps real late every Saturday morning maybe clear up to maybe eight o'clock and Jimmy's daddy gets up and makes one-eyed sandwiches."
"What does he say about it?"
"He says, 'Hey, kids, come and get 'em.' And if I'm there I come and get one, too. They sure are good."
"What I wanted to know, dear, was how to make a . . . a . . . one of those . . ."
"One-eyed sandwich . . . and its easy. Jimmy's daddy makes a big hole in the middle of a slice of bread and puts it in a pan and fries an egg in the hole."

"Well, you learn something new every day."
"He says that way you get your toast and egg all-in-one . . . only he doesn't toast the holes, he just eats 'em."
"Eats the holes?"
"Sure, the pieces that come out when he makes the holes. Jimmy's daddy says they're good to eat because they're extra fresh."
"I guess they are."
"I'll say! Because they're the same kind of bread we have."
"Weston?"
"Uh-huh. Jimmy's daddy says Weston is the best tasting and the luckiest."
"What's this business about good luck?"
"You have good luck if you wink through the hole in the bread before you put the egg in."

The monster of 1916

the tank you had to go in head first and wriggle through.

"We were still terribly secret. For three nights we had to sleep in our tanks and nobody was allowed near us. We had our own food. Half a cow in our tank. Pigeons for communications.

"Eight in the crew and on the night before we first went into action they gave me a terrible meal of everything imaginable.

"We're trying to eat all the grub tonight because we won't be alive to eat it tomorrow," they said."

The tank was No. D9. Speed, 3.7 miles an hour; engine, Daimler six-cylinder sleeve valve; armament, one Hotchkiss machine gun, four Vickers light machine guns, and 31,000 rounds.

D9 and its sister monsters amazed both sides.

Disaster

Yet, because they were so few, so ill-equipped, so under trained, their first appearance was a military disaster.

Some never started. Others bogged down. Others were blown up.

The next day Victor Huffman's tank was blasted and burned. Two of his crew were killed. He was shell-shocked and still receives a pension.

It was not until the following year that the tanks, in great strength, roared into victorious battle at Cambrai.

But Victor Huffman was in at the birth.

Bank ads win award

For the 14th time in the past 17 years, the Bank of Montreal has been rated first among the eight Canadian chartered banks for its year's advertising.

The rating is based on a survey of financial advertising conducted by Vincent Edwards and Co., New York, and is reported in the annual "Bank Ad-Views" review of Canadian and U.S. financial advertising.

The Bank of America (San Francisco) placed first among the 15,000 banks in North America, while the B of M placed sixth.

Past winner

Since 1946, the B of M has received a "Socrates Award" every year in the "Bank Ad-Views" survey and on two occasions received the "Socrates High Award", as top bank advertiser in North America.

The bank's new advertising award follows the winning of an "award of excellence" in the "PR in Print" awards program of the Canadian Public Relations Society, for its currency guide prepared for use by travellers to the Caribbean area.

Tonight she collects for Red Feather

She gives her time. What do you give?

Mrs. Brown has been a Red Feather Campaign canvasser in your community for the last three years. This busy wife and mother rings doorbells, keeps track of subscription cards and says with a smile a dozen times a night, "Good evening, I'm canvassing for the Red Feather Campaign." Mrs. Brown doesn't feel her husband's office donation ends her own responsibility to people who need help. She gives, and when she asks you to give, how do you feel? That your husband's subscription covers all obligations? Or...that you can contribute, too, like Mrs. Brown, and give a small personal donation to help Red Feather's 36 welfare agencies continue their vital work for another year. Please think about it. And when Mrs. Brown calls, give — as generously as you can!

Montreal Children's Theatre marks thirtieth anniversary

By PAT IPPOLITO

Thirty years ago when Dorothy Davis and Violet Walters decided to pool their dramatic talent to found the Montreal Children's Theatre, friends said they were crazy. They thought two women would never get along together.

The successful Davis-Walters enterprise has since proven not only that they can get along, but also that they need no contract.

From a small beginning Miss Davis and Miss Walters now have four studios and a staff of 10 teachers. Their West End studios located at 3835 Girouard avenue, N.D.G. Other studios are located in Cote des Neiges, St. Laurent and in the Town of Mt. Royal.

Over 200 children were taught in the various studios last year. Thousands have learned from them, acting, diction, deportment, eurythmic and mime. "We are now getting the children of former pupils", Miss Davis chuckled. The two women work as a team, and as Miss Davis says, their relationship is more like that of sisters than business partners.

Miss Davis was born and educated in London, England, and comes from a theatrical family. Miss Walters, though born in Colombo, Ceylon, came to Montreal as a child and was educated here. Both have extensive backgrounds in the theatre.

WELL-KNOWN PERFORMERS
Lovers of "Old Time Melodrama" will remember them in productions at the Old Corona Barn and the Astor Theatre Cafe. They performed in over 800 productions of "The Drunkard", and between the two places did almost every melodrama known. Miss Walters played the fragile heroine, and Miss Davis the grande dame and other character parts.

Both are enthusiastic about what a knowledge of drama can do for children. They believe that it not only makes children pronounce words correctly, but also gives them a great insight into the English language.

INSTILLS CONFIDENCE, POISE

"If a child is shy," Miss Walters stated, "being before an audience will give him confidence. He learns poise and how to express himself while learning how to talk, walk and sit correctly."

Miss Davis added that if a child does have a flair for acting this is found and is given an opportunity to grow. As many students as possible are given a chance to play a lead or a big supporting part.

Although not all children become professional actors, Children's Theatre has become a center for people looking for stage, radio, TV and film work. For adults there are evening classes in radio and television given by Roger Racine and Charles Miller, both professionals in the field.

PLAYS SCHEDULED

This year Children's Theatre will present "Little Women", "Cinderella" and "Red Shoes". It will be the first time for "Red Shoes" to be presented in Canada. Doing the choreography for both "Red Shoes" and "Cinderella" will be Aggy Polly who formerly worked with operas, theatres and films in Eastern Europe. Plays are presented in Victoria Hall, Westmount. Subscription prices are offered for the three performances.

"Little Women" has long been a popular play at Children's Theatre. Miss Davis and Miss Walters recalled that Dick Easton had a lead in it 15 years ago. He now has a star role in "School for Scandal" in London, and will appear in the production when it comes to New York and Toronto this winter.

Florence Schreiber, who played Jo in the play five years ago, appeared on CBC in Chez Helene, and this year is playing at Stratford, Ont. Gloria Shacket, who played Amy, is now doing TV Commercials and photography work.

Film Night at Museum

A program of films from the Netherlands with dialogue in French is to be shown at the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts on October 10 at 6:30 p.m. and at 8:30 p.m.

The first is entitled "The Reality of Karel Appel" and endeavors to give an intellectual and emotional impression of this Dutch artist who caused an upheaval in the Dutch artistic world shortly after World War II and steadily progressed until winning the International Guggenheim prize in 1960.

The second film to be shown is "Zoo" which is a candid camera impression of how humans behave at the zoo, and the third is called "Outlook on the Sky" and is a study of the interplay of space and scintillating light as exemplified (1) in the colorful windows of Gouda's St. Jacobskerk (2) the brilliance of artificial light at night and (3) the stained glass windows of Charles Eyck.

"Pan," the fourth film to be presented is a beautiful nature study produced by Herman van der Host and depicts his love for birds and nature. After intensive exploration of some of Holland's lake districts, the actual shooting took two spring and early summer periods. The music composed for the Flute of Pan is inspired by the songs and sounds of birds and is played by Rumanian Ion Opera.

The public is invited to attend and admission is free.

Patricia Joudry who hails from Notre Dame de Grace, has written such plays as "Semi-Detached", "Walk Alone Together", "Anniversary of Murder", "Walk a Little Faster", and "Three Rings for Michael", attended Children's Theatre in her younger years before going to Toronto. Both Miss Davis and Miss Walters estimate that a child will stay with Children's Theatre about 10 years, if he is interested. Others will stay four or five years, and if a child is disinterested, he will drop out the first year.

Besides their work with the school, the actresses produced a companion radio program "Calling All Children" which won a Beaver Award on CFCF for best children's radio show.

The GARDENS of REMEMBRANCE MONTREAL MEMORIAL PARK

offers an entirely new concept in family cemetery property to those families who desire a memorial of particular beauty and elegance not found in the ordinary cemetery.

Never before has the concept of a living memorial been so fully realized as in the Gardens of Remembrance. These formal gardens, featuring the Remembrance Rose Garden, are patterned after the famous Stoke Poges Cemetery, of Gray's "Elegy" fame, in England. As in Stoke Poges, interments will be in specially constructed Westminster Garden Crypts under beds of roses, perpetually maintained by the Endowment Care Fund.

Words cannot tell, nor photographs convey the beauty and dignity of the Gardens of Remembrance; a personal visit is needed to appreciate them.

Harvest

Just a handful of seed
And the years go by,
A forest is seen,
That delights every eye.

Our part is to sow,
The increase is sure,
Mother earth, and the sun
Maketh rich who is poor.

"As you sow, ye shall reap,"
Is a saying most true,
Our thoughts are the seeds
And the words, — false or true.

We each make our life,
Smiles or tears, we may choose,
What really is ours
We never can lose.

Solved at last — how flies land on the ceiling

By Chapman Pincher

THE mystery of how a fly lands upside down on a ceiling has been solved by a scientist using a special high-speed camera.

The fly makes its touchdown in three stages.

First it approaches the ceiling vertically like a helicopter, twisting its wings to give upward thrust at a speed of less than a mile an hour.

Then, when it is about one body-length away it pushes out its two fore-legs until they touch the ceiling with enough force for the sticky pads on the feet to get a grip.

.. Approach

Finally, while hanging momentarily by its front legs, the fly swings its body upwards to bring its other four legs into contact with the ceiling.

The wings flutter under independent control to assist this movement.

Sometimes a fly varies this landing procedure by doing a sideways cartwheel to bring the back four legs into contact.

.. Landing

Until now, scientists suspected that a fly landing on a ceiling either by looping the loop or doing a half-roll.

Motion picture cameras used to photograph the landing could not record the fine details.

Dr. William Hyzer, the American scientist who now claims to have solved the mystery, used a camera operating at 9,500 frames per second.

Huskies win 4th Straight

The Huskies, led by quarterback Neil Fernandes continue to mow down all opposition in the Westmount Recreation Department eight-man tackle football league. Their latest victory was a 37-0 trimming handed the hapless Bulls.

Robert Vaux, Roger Harte, Paul Boucher and Gordie Norris provide the scoring punch for the Huskies along with quarterback Fernandes.

Hockey registration for boys aged eight to 16 is now underway at the Westmount artificial ice rink. Registration for boys residing in Westmount continues until October 31.

The N.D.G. Maple Leafs won their fourth straight game as they crushed the Town of Mount Royal Lions 27-2 at Trenholme Park on Thursday.

Coach George Economides' Leafs won this game played in a driving rainstorm. They fell behind temporarily in the first quarter 2-0. Bruce Barnes soon corrected that situation as he romped for a touchdown from the 15 yard line early in the second quarter.

The Leafs broke loose in the third quarter scoring 20 points.

Gary Morley intercepted a pass by Gilman and ran 85 yards to score a major, which was a highlight of the game.

Bruce Barnes, Terry Flood, Ron Maddocks, Gino Berretta were offensive standouts for the Leafs, while Gordon Wilson, Phil Chiarella, and Jim Cascadain, were defensive bulwarks.

The Leafs meet the Rosemount Bombers tonight at eight in Rosemount. Should the Leafs

It made Bobo look bad

Red Jones, the former American League umpire, likes to tell this story about Bobo Newsom and George Kell.

Bobo was a well-travelled veteran when Kell broke in with the Athletics. George was young and frisky. Bobo... well, let's just say that his fast ball had lost its zip.

Newsom was pitching in a tight game this day with Jones back of the plate and Kell was playing third. The Tigers had a man on first base and the batter was trying to bunt him along.

Every time Bobo would throw the ball, Kell would break down the line to be in a position to scoop up the bunt. Newsom was firing as hard as he could. Finally with a count of three-and-one he called time and motioned the rookie Kell to come over to the mound for a chat.

"What are you trying to do to me?" Bobo queried with a growl.

Huskies white-wash Bulls 37-0

19 The Westmount Examiner, Friday, October 5, 1962

With the annual Thanksgiving double-header coming up of the City of Westmount Recreation Department Eight-Man Tackle

Football League, the Huskies will be putting their unbeaten record on the line as they hook up with the Broncos on Saturday and the Mules on Monday.

The league leaders came up with a 37-0 whitewash on the last place Bulls. Robert Vaux increased his scoring leadership with a four touchdown performance. Neil Fernandes, the team's quarterback scored twice. Peter Vuillemot was the leading ground gainer for the winners while Wayne Colomb was outstanding for the losers.

downs each. Kevin Cooper also tallied on a fine run from his own 45. Brian Vaux added a single.

Carlos Araujo gave a sparkling defensive performance and Jimmy Hotton also came up with a fine game filling in at the quarterback slot as well as his usual defensive end position.

The Broncos' quarterback, Dave Beasant, displayed a fine passing game hitting Steven Bourke, Wayne Barrow who scored twice and Bruce Norris repeatedly. Bourke also scored on a 1 yard plunge, this play having been set up on a 40 yard run by Norris.

whip the Bombers, their chances of finishing the season undefeated, with two games remaining are excellent. The next step will then be provincial honors to be followed by a Dominion championship.

Roy Chesley was honored at the Town and Country Motel on Saturday. Approximately 300 persons were at the dinner. Many of the boys who were privileged to play football under coach Chesley at West Hill, and with our pride and joy, the Maple Leafs were present to pay tribute to a grand gentleman.

Speeches were numerous, as always on such occasions, Coach Chesley gave an inspiring talk, stressing the importance of the desire to always do your best in sport and in life.

We got a kick out of Fred Roberts. Fred was asked to say a few words. This time Mr. Roberts was not critical of Perry Moss of the Alouettes. He said he would have only kind words to say. However, Fred pointed out that he was not aware that he would be competing with a dance band (the band played in a nearby salon) and he expressed the hope that the politicians present at the dinner would not decide to nationalize sport.

A highlight of the Roy Chesley Testimonial Dinner was the presentation of a perpetual trophy awarded to the outstanding West End minor football coach annually. The trophy is named the "Roy Chesley Trophy" donated by The Monitor, Publisher John Sancton presented the trophy to the first recipient Roy Chesley.

Dick Irvin, sports director of channel 12, advised that minor hockey will be promoted on a grand scale by CFCF TV this season. 35 games, in the pee wee to midget category will be taped and featured on channel 12 each week commencing on Saturday, October 13, 1962. Teams participating, in the pee wee section are the Verdun Police Athletic Club, St. Lambert, Town of Mount Royal and the Ahuntsic Braves. In the Bantam section, The St. Laurent Jets, Ahuntsic Lions, Town of Mount Royal Canadians, and St. Jean de Mantha. In the Midget section the powerful N.D.G. Monarchs lead the parade along with Lakeshore, Verdun, and Town of Mount Royal.

It is indeed unfortunate that most communities are not in a position to participate in the program arranged by Dick Irvin because of a lack of artificial ice.

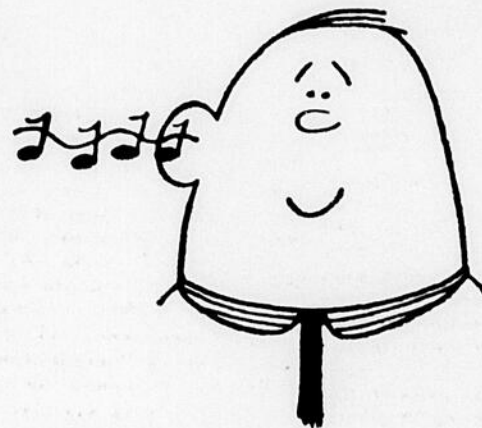

The minor football season in Cote St. Luc will be launched on Saturday. No doubt the Recreation Department has had it's difficulties getting coaches and other volunteer help! That is no doubt the reason for the late start in Cote St. Luc. We might add that recreation in Cote St. Luc would have been much better off if the now defunct Recreation Association had been encouraged by the Recreation Department and the City Council rather than discouraged.

Mules shade Broncos

In last Saturday morning's second game the Mules defeated the Broncos 31-18. These two teams are now tied for second place.

Halfback, Gordie Norris and Dick Aylett scored two touch-
