AFTER A LONG CHASE MURDERER WAS SHOT DOWN

Topless Led the Police in England a Merry Chase Before Being Captured.

(Associated Press Despatch)
LONDON, June 7.—The hue and cry throughout the United Kingdom for the murderer named Topless was brought to a sensational end last night when he was shot dead by the police at Plumpton, five miles north of Penrith, Topless, who deserted from the army, murdered a taxicab driver at Andover on April 25, and made a mad night ride in the stolen taxicab to Swansea, where the car was found abandoned. The police circulated a description and photographs of Topless and ever since the whole country has been searched for the criminal, by the public as well as the police. For some days he was believed to be going about London and there was much excitement, since it was known he carried a revolver. Then he was reported in Wales, and last week he appeared in Scotland, where he shot and seriously wounded a farmer and policeman at Tomintoul, in Banffshire. He escaped southward through the police cordon, to be run to earth last night at Plumpton. He drew a revolver on the police, who returned the fire, shooting him through the heart.

TWO BOYS LIBERATED UNDER HABEAS CORPUS PROCEEDINGS TAKEN BACK TO PENITENTIARY

Late Saturday Night Five Men Arrested Joseph and Emile Labrie at Their Home in Stoke, and They Were Taken to Montreal on Three O'Clock Morning Train and Placed in St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary—Crown Prosecutor Said Boys Were Arrested Under "Proper Authority, by Virtue of the First Trial"—Attorney for the Defence, Mr. C. C. Cabana, Alleges that Penitentiary Authorities Denied Him Information in Connection with the Case.

JOSEPH and Emile Labrie, the two brothers liberated by Mr. Justice Dugas, on May 3 last, after they had received sentences of life and twenty-five years imprisonment for manslaughter in the December session of King's Bench here presided over by Justice Desy, were re-arrested late Saturday night and have been taken to St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary at Montreal.

Mr. C. C. Cabana, K. C., counsel for the two Labrie's, has as yet been unable to determine under what specific authority the arrests were made, but when interviewed this morning, stated that, upon being advised of the move, he had immediately set to work to find out the details of the arrests and thus far, the following had been ascertained:
"At eleven forty-five on Saturday night," said Mr. Cabana, "five men arrived at the boys' home in Stoke, and placed them under arrest. The party was composed of Chief Larrin, of the Provincial Police; A. Marcoux, of the Department of Justice, Ottawa; the Deputy Prefect of the St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary, and two others, whose names are unknown."
"They had been in Sherbrooke, and had interviewed the Chief of Police here, who, however, refused to take part in the arrest. Proceeding to Stoke, the men went to the Labrie home, and placed the two Labrie's under arrest at eleven forty-five, without, it is said, telling them the reason thereof."

On hearing of the facts, Mr. Cabana, says he immediately got into communication with the Prefect of the Penitentiary, Mr. George S. Maleport, who answered that he had instructions not to tell Mr. Cabana anything, nor to let him see any documents in connection with the case.
In answer to the question asked by Mr. Cabana, "If I went to the Penitentiary, could I see documents under which the men were detained?" this official is said to have replied, "I cannot let you see anything. The proceedings are unusual, and I don't want to 'burn my fingers'."

On this, Mr. Cabana, referred the matter for investigation to members of both the Upper and the Lower Houses, Messrs. F. N. McCrea and J. H. Lemay, K. C., and is awaiting developments.
Mr. Cabana is still of the opinion that the men cannot be detained after having been released under "Habeas Corpus" proceedings, the law plainly forbidding arrest.
Questioned this morning on the affair, Mr. Jacob Nicol, K. C., Crown Prosecutor, said that "the boys had been arrested under proper authority, and by reason of the first trial."

PRESIDENT OF MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION SHOWS THE GREAT INDUSTRIAL GROWTH OF CANADA

The Estimated Value of the Output of Canadian Factories in 1870 was $221,000,000, but for 1917, the Last Year for Which Figures are Available, it Was $3,000,000,000, an Increase of About Fourteen Hundred Per Cent—Mr. Howard Pays a High Tribute to the Canadian Army.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
VANCOUVER, B. C., June 7.—President T. P. Howard, of Montreal, addressing the Canadian Manufacturers' Association here today spoke as follows: "It is my privilege, as your President, to welcome you to this annual general meeting, which marks the conclusion of the forty-ninth year of this Association's history. It is significant to see here assembled such a number of representatives from great industries in all parts of Canada, and your presence indicates profound and widespread interest in the work of this association in its relation to the country's industrial progress."
"We are specially interested in the industrial growth of Canada. For a period of fifty years, this can best be illustrated by a comparison of the value of goods manufactured at the beginning and end of that period. The census estimate of the value of the output of Canadian factories for 1880 was $221,000,000. For 1917, the last year for which figures are available, it was $3,000,000,000 an increase of about 1,400 per cent."

"Immediately following the armistice Canada was confronted by the problem of transferring the activities of her citizens from a war to a peace basis. Half a million men had been drawn from ordinary occupations to military duty. Agriculture, manufacturing, and transportation had been transformed by the necessities of war and enormous export trade had been developed. The prospect of the loss or partial loss of this export trade at a time when employment was urgently needed, caused great misgivings. It was feared that a shrinkage of export trade and a possible delay in getting the country back to peace conditions would cause widespread unemployment, and a serious depression. I do not think this association ever admitted that these evil results would necessarily follow the war. Certainly the members did not shape their policies as though they were actuated by any such ideas. Time has proved that these misgivings were not justified. We have held the greater part of our export trade, and instead of unemployment we are now experiencing an actual shortage of labor. I believe that these dangers were avoided by the courage and resourcefulness of the Canadian people, who looked the situation fairly in the face, and took the most practical means of dealing with it. The Dominion Government appointed the Canadian mission in London, and later extended credits to certain European countries for manufactured and agricultural products. Scores of Canadian manufacturing firms immediately sent their travellers to Europe, and were successful in securing a great volume of business. Manufacturers, taking a great chance, not only began immediately to change their factories back to a peace basis but also cast about with the greatest possible energy to develop foreign markets and manufacture new lines of goods. Farmers' organizations also sent their representatives abroad and were successful in selling their products. The result was that the industry of the country scarcely hesitated in spite of the critical conditions existing all over the world. Our export trade, during the year ending March 31st, 1920, amounted to $1,286,658,709 as contrasted with $1,268,765,285 for the year ending March

POUPART SELLS SEMI-READY SUITS AND MEN'S WEAR

Reduces the Price of Every Article of Apparel in His High-Class Men's Shop at 42 Wellington North.
J. H. Poupart is emphatic in his intention to make a sweeping sale of all his merchandise. "I am going to start something, even though manufacturers and wholesalers assure me that I am making a mistake, and that costs will be higher in the fall than they are today," he said.
"Wages have gone up again this summer, so that workers may meet the higher cost of the necessities of life, and on top of this comes a tax which the Minister of Finance says in a paradoxical way will both increase and decrease the cost of all high quality goods.
"It may drive us all to homespuns and hoeing corn, but that tax will surely increase the cost of really dependable wear. I am to give my customers the chance to sidestep that tax for a time at least—and will squeeze everything I can into the tax-exempt classification.
"I will have genuine Semi-ready Tailored Suits at $19.75 and $24.00, prices lower than Montreal has seen for several seasons.
"In fact, I expect to attract trade from far-off towns and cities," concluded Mr. Poupart.—Adv.

ROYAL ARCH MASONS ENTERTAINED.
On Saturday a number of Royal Arch Masons from Haswell Chapter, St. Johnsbury, Vt., arrived here and were the guests of the local Golden Rule Chapter. The party numbering about sixty arrived by motor and were met by the local members.
Supper was served in St. Andrew's church hall, to which about one hundred and thirty sat down.
The Royal Arch Degree was conferred on number of candidates in the Masonic Hall, after which a social hour was spent, and refreshments were served.
It was a return visit, the local members having been most courteously received in St. Johnsbury last fall. The visiting Lodge greatly appreciated the courtesy extended its members while here.
The rain prevented the carrying out of part of the programme, as it had been arranged to spend yesterday in showing the visitors around the city. However, some of the more important points were visited, and the Chapter returned yesterday afternoon.

RAIN BENEFITS CROPS OVER AN EXTENDED AREA

This District Gladly Welcomed Downpour — Niagara Peninsula Fruit Crop Saved.

The value of the rain which has fallen in this district since yesterday morning is incalculable, and has proved a boon to farmers in general. The recent dry spell followed closely upon the end of seeding operations, and it was feared that many crops would be a failure owing to lack of moisture. A steady downpour started early yesterday morning and continued throughout the greater part of the day. Absence of wind and sun today will give the moisture a good chance to penetrate into the ground, and do much good.

While many pleasant week-ends were perhaps spoiled, it was generally conceded that rain was badly needed, and urban residents gladly forewent the pleasure that a fine day would have offered.

ONTARIO BENEFITED FROM RAIN.

(Associated Press Despatch) TORONTO, June 7.—Rain was general over all central Ontario Saturday night and caused farmers and gardeners to rejoice. It came just in time to save crops of various kinds, including the fruit crops of the Niagara Peninsula. While the rain is said to have come too late to save the hay crop, it has greatly benefited the fall wheat, barley and spring wheat. It was welcome rain, indeed.

SERVICES AT PLYMOUTH CHURCH WELL ATTENDED

Rev. Dr. Read Celebrated His Fiftieth Anniversary as Pastor of Congregational Church on Sunday.

The services in Plymouth Church yesterday were well attended, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, and the congregations joined heartily in the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the settlement of Dr. Elery Read as the pastor of the church. Mr. Roy Kendall, the new organist of the church, was in charge of the music. The congregational singing was especially good. Mrs. Alberta Adams sang Dudley Buck's "Hear, O Israel" very finely and at the evening service the choir rendered the anthem "Lead, Kindly Light."

Dr. Read, before giving his message at the morning service spoke very appreciatively of the happy relations that existed, and had existed uninterceptedly between the congregation and himself. He was especially thankful that it was his privilege to occupy a pulpit in which he had perfect freedom of utterance and though he might say things which some would not ascribe to, he had never been muzzled. He said he must preach what he believed to be the truth. This was the first requisite of his public ministry, and he rejoiced that his congregation agreed with him in this, although they did not surrender their rights to think for themselves. In concluding these preliminary remarks, he expressed the hope that many more years in united service were before them.

"A Plea for the Church" was the subject of the sermon. Taking for his text the words of St. Paul in Eph. 1: 23 "The Church which is His body," Dr. Read spoke of the Church in its large conception. It was not an ecclesiastical organization with material aims and ideals, but was composed of all good men and women, and children too, who were animated with the spirit of Christ and had accepted Him as their Lord and Leader. Believing in the Fatherhood of God and the Saviourhood of Christ, they would necessarily believe in the brotherhood of man and he moved to make this the end of their faith and striving. The Church as a corporate body was essential to the fulfillment of the earthly ministry of its Founder. Much emphasis was laid upon the fact, by some teachers, that Christ said little about the Church and so much about the Kingdom of God. But it was certain that Christ contemplated the realization of the Kingdom through the instrumentality of the Church. It was absolutely necessary to embody the spirit and teaching of Christ in an organization of those who had accepted these for their guidance and inspiration.

Proceeding to develop his subject the preacher showed how the Church had preserved amidst all its blunders and errors the essentials of the ideals of Christ, so that these were potent forces in the world's life to-day. Without the Church no community could maintain for any time a standard of life in conformity with the highest morality. This was sufficiently difficult with the Church to help; without that help the situation was hopeless. In conclusion Dr. Read made a strong appeal for the exaltation of the Church in the homes of people. Many children were growing up without a reasonable respect and consideration for the Church, simply because their parents were indifferent, or worse, to the work of the Church was undertaking for the well-being of the community. "Without the Church the safety of the home is imperilled. In the interests of posterity every father and mother should lead their children to love and serve the Church" said Dr. Read.

At the evening service Dr. Read preached on "God-touched Men" taking for his text, "And there went with Him the host whose hearts God had touched," 1 Samuel 10:26. The sermon was a strong appeal for men of sympathy, courage and loyalty to serve the present age and bring in the triumph of right and love.

RAIN PREVENTED CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION

Outdoor Celebration of Feast Cancelled — Quebec City Had Annual Procession.

Although rain, which started just before the annual "Corpus Christi" procession was to start, prevented the outdoor celebration of the feast as planned, the observance of the festival was marked by fitting solemnities in the various Catholic churches of the city. The procession was to have started from St. Michael's cathedral after nine o'clock Mass and would have led to Racine Park, where the repository was prepared, but as this was impossible, indoor processions were held instead.

Instead of the bands of music the massed choruses, the various societies and orders, the Sisters of the different congregations forming an immense procession nearly a mile in length to Racine Park, the procession was held in the Cathedral, which was crowded to its utmost capacity. The golden monstrance containing the Host was carried by Rev. F. A. Simard Rector of the Cathedral, in rich vestments, and the gold fringed canopy was borne by Mr. J. H. Lemay, M.P.P. Dr. W. Lemay, Dr. Ethier, and Dr. L. Forest. The choir boys led through the high aisles, the acolytes with their swinging censers and mounting clouds of incense, the many Clergy following, and the vast congregation kneeling as the procession passed by in silent adoration, made an impressive spectacle.

Beautiful music was furnished by the choir and after vespers in the evening, Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given.

The feast of Corpus Christi had its origin in the 6th century, and was designed not only to attest the power and authority of the church, but to combat the heretical opinions which were then gaining ground in Central Europe. The day first was the second Thursday after Pentecost, but it is always observed on the Sunday following and the disappointment is great when the open air ceremony cannot take place.

The Blessed Sacrament was exposed in all the churches after the early Mass, and large numbers received Holy Communion on the annual Feast of the "Body of Christ." Appropriate music and sermons added to the impressive ceremonies.

HUNDREDS LINED QUEBEC STREETS

(Associated Press Despatch) QUEBEC, June 7.—The Feast of "Corpus Christi" was signally honored here yesterday in the different Catholic parishes by outdoor processions of the Blessed Sacrament through the streets of the city, lined with sapling fir trees and elaborately decorated.

At various points, there were elaborate repositories erected and Benediction was solemnized while the singing was supplied by the hundreds of citizens who joined in the procession.

NATURE CLUB ENJOYS OUTING

The Christina Nature Club of the Sherbrooke High School enjoyed a delightful outing Saturday to Casa Vliet the summer cottage of Miss Van Vliet at Ayer's Cliff. Principal Holden, Miss Van Vliet, Miss Sevierright and Mrs. A. M. Sangster accompanied the young people, some forty-five of the Senior Grades, who occupied a number of automobiles, placed at their disposal by friends. Pleasant hours were spent in boating, bathing, and walks in the vicinity, the members of the club justifying their name by their appreciation of the charming scenery and surroundings of lake and wood and hill. An excellent luncheon was served and when rain came on in the afternoon a blazing open fire around which all gathered, was a great attraction. After tea the short return journey to the city was made, after a most successful day.

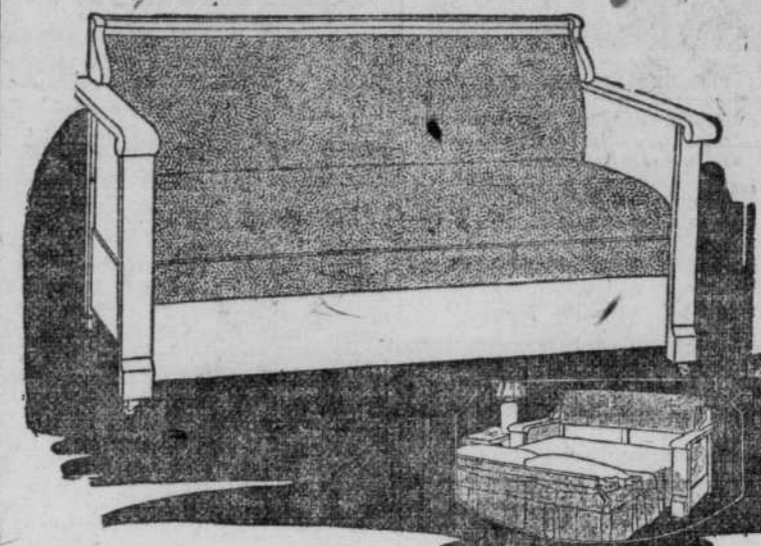

A FOREST FIRE WAS PREVENTED NEAR TINGWICK

Men Had Difficulty in Checking Stubborn Fire in Seventh Range.

TINGWICK, June 7.—Quite a little excitement prevailed in the 7th Range on Friday afternoon. Mr. Gaudette had set a pile of old logs on a fire a couple of days before in his small clearing on the back of his farm, and smoke was seen rising on the afternoon in question. Herbert Wilson, R. Gaudette, E. Olney and his son fought fire all the afternoon, and at night it was well controlled. About two acres of ground were still burning, where pulpwood and other lumber had been trimmed and peeled for years, and they ploughed all around. If they had been ten minutes later in discovering the fire, it would have been into the woods, and much valuable timber and wood would have been destroyed.

LOCALS BILLED FOR BUSY WEEK

The Sherbrooke Senior nine is scheduled for a busy week, during which they will engage in no less than three contests. The locals will stage their first out-of-town contest against the Newport representatives at Newport on Thursday, while they will meet the Granby nine here on Saturday and play the return game in Granby the following day, June 13. It is claimed that Granby boasts one of the fastest semi-professional baseball teams in the Quebec district, they having defeated the Royals, who appeared here a short time ago, and also have victories over Montreal City League teams to their credit. Consequently, it should be an interesting contest when Sherbrooke and Granby teams clash.

LABOR APPROVES FIGHT FOR HOME RULE IN IRELAND

Convention Will Go on Record as Supporting Ireland's Demand to Govern Itself.

(Associated Press Despatch) MONTREAL, June 7.—In reply to a question put to him by a newspaper interviewer here, Matthew Wall, vice-president of the American Federation of Labor, stated that the convention which opens here on Monday morning will go on record as unanimously supporting Ireland's fight for home rule. Mr. Wall said the Federation would approve the demands of the Irish to govern themselves according to their own ideas, as natural requirements, and that a resolution to that effect will be brought up in accordance with the basic principle of organized labor and the true spirit of democracy. Mr. Wall further stated that there is a possibility of the consideration of a further resolution demanding that troops be withdrawn from Ireland.

In the American League, the Yankees defeated the Athletics in a very lopsided game. After scoring three runs and tying the score in the eighth inning, Chicago beat Detroit in the eleventh. Scoring five times in the seventh inning, Washington came from behind and defeated Boston. Cleveland and St. Louis split a double header. In the National League, Grimes, of Brooklyn, pitched shut out ball and whitewash New York. By bunching hits of Ruether in the tenth inning, Pittsburgh defeated Cincinnati. St. Louis made a clean sweep of the three game series with Chicago by winning the Sunday game.

St. Francis College Notes

Rev. Canon Bedford-Jones, principal of Bishop's College, Lennoxville, will address the senior students on Monday at the morning session. Examinations will begin on Monday, June 14, at 9 a.m. Rev. J. F. B. Beiford will be the deputy examiner. There will be over fifty pupils in the senior grades taking the examinations. This is a larger number than last year. The time table for the June examinations has been posted. The last day of examination will be Monday, the 21st inst. The Department of Public Instruction of this province has approved of a scheme which will lay stress on the work of the final examinations. Teachers and schools are too often judged on the results obtained by their pupils in June. That this is unjust is shown by the fact that results vary from year to year, although the teaching may be as conscientious as ever. An epidemic of dancing among the boys and girls of school age may be responsible for lack of interest in their school work and consequent poor work in the final test. Don't neglect to read the Classified Advertisements in this issue. They likely name something you want.

RUTH BIDS FAIR TO SHATTER HIS RECORD OF 1919

New York Slugger Now Has a Total of Fifteen Circuit Drives to His Credit.

(Associated Press Despatch) CHICAGO, June 7.—"Babe" Ruth, king of the home run hitters, who last season set a new world's record of twenty-nine, will eclipse that remarkable performance this season if he continue at his present pace. The New York slugger connected with a trio of homers in a double header against Washington on Wednesday, giving him a total of fifteen circuit drives thus far, which is a long way ahead of his record at this time last year.

Ruth, as a result of his remarkable batting streak, pulled himself among the batting leaders of the American League, according to averages including Wednesday's games released today. Last week he was hitting .302. This week's figures show him to be hitting .333. He leads the league in total bases with ninety-six, which besides the homers, includes six doubles and three triples. He has made thirty-nine hits in thirty-four games. "Tris" Speaker, leader of the Cleveland Indians, has stepped out in front of the regulars, who played in fifteen or more games, with a batting average of .377 as compared with .339 last week. Johnston, a team mate, who led the hitters last week, dropped to second place, although he boosted his marks from .375 to .382.

Speaker, in addition to leading the batters, is the best run getter in the league, having registered forty-one times. He cracked out fifty-eight hits in 146 times at bat, in thirty-nine games for a total of eighty-nine bases, which include thirteen doubles, three triples and four home runs. Other leading batters: Jackson, Chicago, .366; Hendryx, Boston, .356; Judge, Washington, .353; Murphy, Chicago, .349; Sisler, St. Louis, .347; Weaver, Chicago, .343; Felsch, Chicago, .343; Jacobson, St. Louis, .341; Heilmann, Detroit, .338; Dugan, Philadelphia, .336; Ruth, New York, .333; Milan, Washington, .333.

LABOR APPROVES FIGHT FOR HOME RULE IN IRELAND

Convention Will Go on Record as Supporting Ireland's Demand to Govern Itself.

(Associated Press Despatch) MONTREAL, June 7.—In reply to a question put to him by a newspaper interviewer here, Matthew Wall, vice-president of the American Federation of Labor, stated that the convention which opens here on Monday morning will go on record as unanimously supporting Ireland's fight for home rule. Mr. Wall said the Federation would approve the demands of the Irish to govern themselves according to their own ideas, as natural requirements, and that a resolution to that effect will be brought up in accordance with the basic principle of organized labor and the true spirit of democracy. Mr. Wall further stated that there is a possibility of the consideration of a further resolution demanding that troops be withdrawn from Ireland.

The time table for the June examinations has been posted. The last day of examination will be Monday, the 21st inst. The Department of Public Instruction of this province has approved of a scheme which will lay stress on the work of the final examinations. The Family Smoke

"OLD CHUM" is a family friend. Grandfathers, Fathers and Sons have been smoking it for years and years.

During this half century, "OLD CHUM" has grown steadily in popularity and favour.

Every pipe smoker appreciates "OLD CHUM" quality—the choice Virginia Flake Cut tobacco—chosen by experts—stored away until the perfect tobacco taste and mellow flavour are fully developed.

It is this dependable, constant quality, maintained for years, which has made "OLD CHUM" the chum of all pipe smokers in Canada.

VERY THOROUGH EXAMINATION OF TRAIN BY OFFICER

Members of Massachusetts Republican Delegation Held Up while Passing Through Detroit.

(Associated Press Despatch) CHICAGO, June 7.—Members of the Massachusetts Republican delegation reported yesterday on their arrival that a blighting drought had threatened their special train while passing through the Detroit internal revenue district. As the train crossed the Canadian border, they said an enforcement officer conducted a single-handed raid, searching bags in so thorough a manner that three bottles of gin and two of brandy were taken into custody. Later, while the train was held, an appeal was made to the chief of the district, delegates said, and finally an order that the bottles be returned, presumably for medical purposes, was handed down.

Stage and Screen Attractions at Local Playhouses This Week

At His Majesty's Theatre.

Returning to pictures again, His Majesty's offers an excellent double bill for today and tomorrow. The head-liner is Geraldine Farrar in "The woman and the Puppet," an adaptation of the play of the same name, and offers this popular star a tempestuous, colorful role—a Spanish dancer of moods and passions, temperamental, hot-blooded and untamed—until the man she had dangled like a puppet, turns and tames her with a blow. It is lavishly staged, spectacular in its rich, exotic Spanish atmosphere and without a doubt, a beautiful production. The "Passion Dance" is unusually beautiful, and shows Miss Farrar's stage experience to advantage. The companion picture is one that would indeed hold up by itself, H. B. Warner in "Uncharted Channels," a play that endeavors to solve the troubles and pitfalls of the life. Warner is an interesting star in the way through, and will keep you thinking until the end.

For Wednesday and Thursday, Pauline Frederick will be seen in a mystery play, "The Woman in Room 13." This is a detective story. The ending of this story is a puzzle until the fade out, and it would not do to "give it away" if you are going to see it. You have the assurance that Pauline Frederick is the principal in this romance and that is sufficient to make the movie fan want to see it.

A special attraction is being arranged for the balance of the week and the advertising columns will announce the feature.

At the Casino Theatre.

A brilliant comedy with May Allison in the principal role is presented today and tomorrow in "The Walk-Offs." It is the struggle of two souls who love each other but whose civilizations are as far apart as the poles, in which the stronger eventually wins. "His Wife's Friend" will be shown on Wednesday and Thursday, in which Dorothy Dalton has the star cast. This is really a thrilling mystery story, and has every quality that would commend it to lovers of the silent drama. It is an Ince production, taken from J. B. Harris-Burland's novel, "The White Book."

Gladys Brockwell, in "The Devil's Riddle," is offered on Friday and Saturday, and is quite aptly called the "drama of a woman who panned her heart." Along with this picture, the first episode of a great serial written by Francis Ford playing a

THE DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY IS TO BE ENLARGED.

Carnegie Corporation and Rockefeller Institution Each Make Donation of $500,000.

HALIFAX, N.S., June 7.-The Carnegie Corporation and the Rockefeller Foundation have each appropriated $500,000 to Dalhousie University to aid in the realization of development for its medical school as formulated and presented by President MacKenzie and the governors of the University.

In making public these magnificent gifts, the Carnegie Corporation and the Rockefeller Foundation have issued the following memorandum:

"The Carnegie Corporation had contemplated a gift for this purpose before Mr. Rockefeller made special provision last December for the medical education in Canada. The Corporation postponed final action until a programme of co-operation could be arranged.

The plan for Dalhousie Medical School includes additions to buildings in order to properly develop work in the medical sciences, assistance in the maintenance of the University, establishment of a dispensary, public health centre, and aid tending to greater efficiency in clinical teaching. Of the total gifts of $1,000,000 approximately $400,000 will be used for buildings and equipment, and $600,000 for endowment.

"The development of this plant, co-operation of the Provincial Government is expected by their making an addition to the Pathological building in order that this laboratory may broaden its work in caring for the public health of the Province.

The new additions now under construction by the Hospital Commission, at a cost of over $500,000, including a new wing with fifty beds, new kitchens and an extension to the nurses' quarters will go far to bring the Victoria General Hospital up to the standard demanded by modern medical requirements and expected by the Carnegie and Rockefeller corporations in making their gifts for the betterment of the health of the people.

"It is further expected that the Halifax dispensary will co-operate with the medical school in the operation of a central dispensary, out-patient department and public health centre. In this way, it is planned to link up every agency now actively engaged in service for the public health and increase the result many fold.

"The Massachusetts-Halifax health commission now in charge of certain public activities in Halifax will co-operate for a term of years at least, in the work of this University health centre. In this way, it is planned to link up every agency now actively engaged in service for the public health and increase the result many fold.

"It is understood that none of the present sources of support by the Provincial Government or otherwise will be abandoned, but that every effort will be made to secure funds for maintenance of the enlarged plant. It is now estimated that the total increase in buildings, equipment and capitalized maintenance will exceed $2,000,000.

"The Dalhousie University has already a very compact group of buildings for medical education, public health work and care of the sick, forming an active medical centre. It is hoped that this gift will add to the efficiency of this centre in serving the maritime provinces which, with a population of a million, have only one medical school. This is one of the great centres in Canada should become of great service in the training of physicians and the promotion of public health programmes."

UNRULY STEERS BECAME PREY OF THE SHARKS.

Only a Few of Eight Hundred on Board Steamer Were Saved.

(Associated Press Despatch) HAVANA, June 7.-Hundreds of live steers stampeded on board the steamer St. Charles outside of Havana Harbor, Saturday afternoon, and creating a panic on board the ship, plunged into the sea, where they became the prey of sharks which infest the waters off Morro Castle. Except for a comparative few that swam ashore and are wandering about in the suburbs of this city, all the eight hundred steers on the steamer are believed to have perished.

Sanitary officers who inspected the vessel on her arrival Saturday were alarmed when they found 180 dead steers in the hold of the ship. To avoid danger to the people of the city, they ordered the captain of the St. Charles to put out to sea and there throw overboard the carcasses of the cattle that had died. While the crew was engaged in this task, the steers on board became stampeded, broke down their corrals and ran amuck. Frightened animals ran up and down the decks and then plunged overboard, where the tigers of the deep were awaiting them. Four were seen to strike the water almost simultaneously, and in an instant they were dragged beneath the surface, only a trail of blood telling of their fate.

Tugs were sent out to the St. Charles and found the crew virtually paralyzed with terror. For a time there was danger the vessel would drift into the rocks near the harbor entrance, but it was at last brought into port. It is reported only fifty carcasses have been removed from the ship and harbor authorities are finding much difficulty in securing men to enter the hold of the steamer to complete the task of clearing the St. Charles of its menacing cargo.

31st, 1919. Today in Canada as for employment no man or woman who wants to work need not be without work at the highest wages ever paid in this country.

The Canadian Army.

The people of Canada owe a triple debt to the Canadian army. First, for its war record; second, for the manner in which it has resumed the occupation of peace. There are bound to be some exceptions among 500,000 men, but I think I am safe in saying that over 95 per cent of the Canadian army have resumed peaceful occupations successfully. We owe a third debt to the army because the great majority of ex-soldiers were opposed to any revolutionary methods of redressing grievances in this country and have stood firmly on the side of law and order. About half the Canadian army came out of the factories, and it has been encouraging to see the way in which they have resumed their work in the factories, and the splendid manner in which even the disabled men have become dependent and efficient. It is also gratifying to see that the government has spent up to the end of 1919, the sum of $40,000,000 in the work of re-establishing soldiers, and that, through the government employment agencies up to the end of last year, over 100,000 soldiers had been placed in positions. Splendid work is being accomplished by the military hospitals and training schools. In the matter of pensions, we hope that the most generous treatment possible will be given. Canada must take proper care of her wounded and disabled soldiers and also of the dependents of those who were killed or disabled in the war. These pensions must not be pittance, merely sufficient to keep the recipients alive, but must be adequate to maintain them in decency and comfort, and to afford them opportunities for education and advancement.

The Labor Question.

In the Canadian labor field during the last year there have been three outstanding events. First, the investigation of the Royal Commission on Industrial Relations, which toured Canada in the spring of 1919, and reported to the government last summer; second, the National Industrial Conference which was held in Ottawa last September; and third, the first International Labor Conference, authorized by the Peace Treaty, which was held in Washington last November. Members of this association gave evidence at the twenty-eight sittings held by the Royal Commission on Industrial Relations from Victoria, B. C., to Sydney, N. S. Representatives from the chief lines of industry in this association were present at the National Industrial Conference, along with representatives from railways, lumbering, mining, fishing, banking, and other employers. A past president of this association, represented the employers of Canada at the International Labor Conference in Washington.

One would think from reading certain newspapers and listening to some speakers, that all Canada was suffering acutely from a malady vaguely described as "unrest." No doubt there are fever spots where there are easier malignant influences at work, or where there are real grievances that require remedy, but these isolated cases are not typical of conditions throughout the country, nor of the mental attitude of the great majority of Canadians.

The outstanding feature in labor matters during the year has been the gradual elimination of the revolutionary element by moderate labor men. The political and social ideas put forward with considerable vehemence by a majority have been tried partially, and have failed utterly in the estimation of wage earners themselves. On the other hand, a great deal has been done by the moderate workers, who are in the great majority, with the co-operation of other citizens who have the welfare of the country at heart, to make the conditions and rewards of wage earning citizens more satisfactory. More will be accomplished, but it would appear now that progress will be made in the spirit of co-operation and in the knowledge of the fact that there is a relationship between the interests of all classes of citizens, irrespective of their occupations.

Frequent use of the term "workers" has evolved the pertinent question "Who is a worker?" So far as Canada is concerned it would be easier to answer the question "Who is not a worker?" No one works exclusively with either the body or the brain; all work requires a union of the faculties of both body and brain in varying combination according to the nature of employment. The number of Canadians who are not workers in the real sense of the word is so small that they are negligible.

There are plenty of men who can sit down, and in an hour draw up a magnificent scheme for the reconstruction of society and the redistribution of what they call wealth. The trouble with such schemes is that they do not work because they are opposed to fundamental natural laws, and fail because they are rejected by the common sense of the people whom they are designing to attract and mislead.

Although there is perhaps not sufficient information to pronounce a verdict on the great Russian experiment which has a few enthusiastic admirers, even in this country, we can at least point out some of the results which have been attained to date. In the first place, it withdrew Russia from the war and increased the loss of life and money suffered by the allies; second, it is maintaining Russia in her position of complete isolation from the rest of the world; and third, it has produced the announcement published recently in the American official organ of Sovietism, that the Russian Soviet is considering the labor of the entire population above sixteen years of age. Further, the state department of the United States says that the establishment of a ten and twelve-hour day in Soviet Russia was announced by the Bolsheviks

DENIAL MADE BY SECRETARY OF VETERANS

Says Statement that Imperial Veterans Have Decided to Take Part in Politics is False.

(Associated Press Despatch)

FORT ARTHUR, Ont., June 7.—H. B. Willing, of Winnipeg, Dominion Secretary-Treasurer of the Imperial Veterans in Canada, who is here today on his return from Ottawa, where he appeared before the special committee on pensions and re-establishment, of a statement attributed to him first in an Ottawa paper and later telegraphed throughout the country, containing criticism of the committee.

Mr. Willing says it did not state that the whole committee appeared to have been appointed for the purpose of dealing with quibbles and carrying out the policy that the government had already adopted.

"I use the qualifying word 'some,'" said Mr. Willing. "The majority of the committee, particularly Chairman Nesbitt, were very courteous and gave us all the assistance in their power."

"As to the report that the Imperial Veterans have decided to take part in politics and are joining in the demand on the government to resign, this is false. The Association is taking no part in politics, though some of its individual members may be doing so. We are supporting the G. W. V. A. in its attitude on re-establishment."

Hours of work must be governed by a country's necessity for production.

The result of the experiment of establishing the national eight-hour day in France by law does not seem to have been satisfactory, according to an announcement made by the minister of commerce for France at Paris on April 11th, last. In referring to the report of the commission which had been appointed to investigate the results of the establishment of the eight-hour day, the minister said that production in France, had decreased in exact proportion to the reduction in the hours of labor. It is being realized that there is no vague fund provided by supernatural means, out of which wages, interest charges, operating costs, and dividends are paid. These have a common origin, and that origin is production. The province of British Columbia, for example, fifty years ago, did not promise any man a living or even a minimum wage or fixed hour of labor. The province of British Columbia said: "There is timber in the forests; there are fish in the rivers; there are valuable minerals in the mines; there is a wealth in the land. If farmers, miners, fishermen, lumbermen and manufacturers come here and take these natural resources, and out of them fashion something that will sell, and find someone who will buy it, they can have a living." That was the bargain the province of British Columbia made with its settlers. These pioneers provided capital or borrowed it; they secured directing ability; and they worked as long and as hard as they could. The result was that a portion of the great natural resources of British Columbia, over and above what was needed for her own population, was made available, and markets have been secured for it, and out of the proceeds of these sales wages have been paid, organizing and directing ability has been paid, and capital has been given a return. In other words, the production of British Columbia has been its sole source of wealth. It is against this iron fact that so many of the theories of social and political re-organization break to pieces. Improvement of the living conditions of these engaged in industry, and of other people as well, comes gradually, not by violence and revolution, but through the application of science, intellect, experiment, and industry to the processes of production and distribution.

Export and Import Trade.

The following statistics from the returns of the Department of Trade and Commerce indicate our position in regard to export and import trade: Year ending March 31st.

Imports, 1918—$462,543,746. 1920—$1,285,558,709.

Exports, 1918—$1,556,169,792. 1920—$2,351,174,896.

Summarizing the above, our extraordinary war trade figures appear to have been fairly sustained. It must be remembered, however, that these statistics are in the terms of values, and values are represented in dollars. As the purchasing power of the dollar has been steadily diminished, there has been a greater decrease in the volume of our trade than the above figures indicate. If we had statistics to show tonnage or other terms denoting quantity, they would give a much more accurate picture of the situation.

However, with this reservation in mind, our trade figures for the past year can be viewed with considerable satisfaction.

You Can Get All the Mileage which is Built into Goodyear Tires

OBVIOUSLY, the maker cannot guard an automobile tire against all the accidents incident to a strenuous career.

But Goodyear has produced Tire Savers and Service Stations to cure or prevent things which shorten tire life.

This reinforcement, given the tire as soon as weakness shows in the fabric, should add a thousand or more miles to the service you usually get.

Goodyear Service Station Dealers recommend and use Goodyear Tire Reliners and other Goodyear Tire Savers solely for one purpose—to make Goodyear Tires go farther, and thus build up their sales.

These same Service Stations do many other things for their customers—watch wheels for alignment, warn against under-inflation, give advice on tire care.

All of which is part of a Goodyear policy—to help users get all the generous mileage which is built into Goodyear Tires—a policy which has built the largest sale of any tire in the world.

You can benefit directly by going to a Goodyear Service Station for tires and tubes, and by writing us at Toronto for our free Tire Conservation Course.
