

Bishop's University Convocation 2003

Bishop's bestows honorary doctorates

Bishop's University will bestow three honorary doctorate degrees during convocation ceremonies tomorrow.

JEAN-LUC GRÉGOIRE

Jean-Luc Grégoire has had a long and distinguished career at Bishop's University. Hired in 1969 as assistant comptroller, he ended his tenure at the school 32 years later as vice-principal Administration and Finance for five principals.

He was involved in the growth, development and financial health of Bishop's throughout his professional life, and was known for his good humour and unfailing common sense on the job.

Bishop's University does not often honour one of its own, but by all accounts Grégoire has had an exemplary career and the nomination committee felt it fitting to honour him after his 2001 retirement.

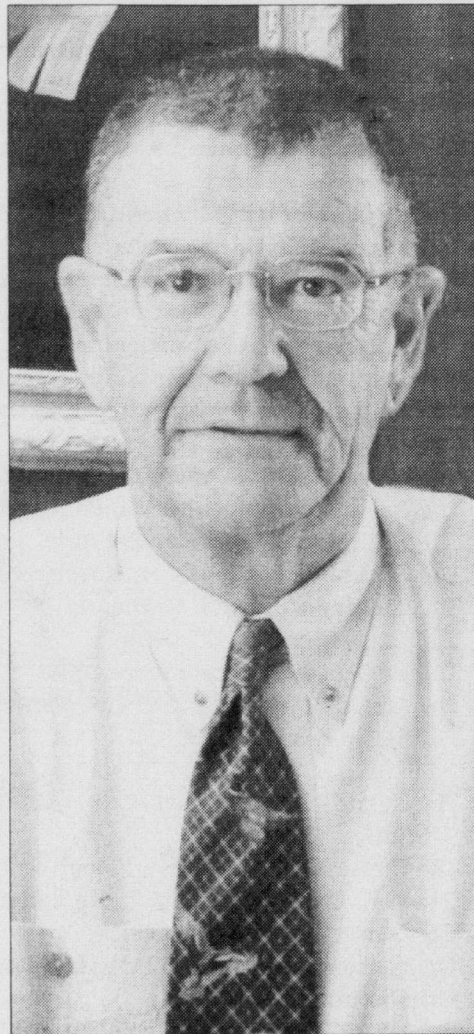

An avid athlete, the grandfather of eight is also a committed volunteer with his church and deeply involved in other community activities.

RAYMOND C. SETLAKWE

A Bishop's graduate, Setlakwe is retiring from the Canadian Senate this year, after his appointment by Prime Minister Jean Chrétien in 2000.

President and CEO of A. Setlakwe Ltd., a retail chain based in Thetford Mines which now has 17 stores and boutiques throughout the province, Setlakwe studied law at both Université Laval and McGill University.

He is a member of the Thetford Mines Hospital Foundation, and the Bishop's University Foundation. He has served as a member of the Corporation of both Bishop's and the University of Sherbrooke. He was also

COURTESY BU

Jean-Luc Grégoire began his career as an assistant comptroller and was an integral part of the university for 32 years.

Director of the Research Fund of the Montreal Heart Institute.

Setlakwe was made a member of the Order of Canada in 1996.

PAMELA WALLIN

A well known journalist, broadcaster, and most recently Canadian Consul General to New York City, Wallin

Journalist, broadcaster and now Canada's Consul General in New York, Pamela Wallin will be the keynote speaker Saturday.

began her professional life as a social worker in Saskatchewan. She has held senior posts at the Toronto Star, with CBC Radio, and with CTV, where she was appointed the first woman Ottawa Bureau Chief.

In 1995, she founded her own independent company, through which she hosted and produced Pamela Wallin's

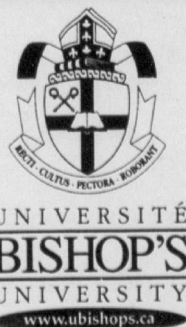

COURTESY BU

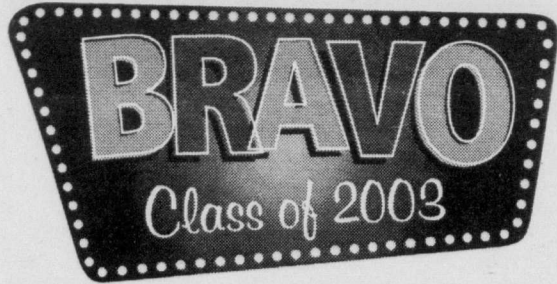

Recently retired Senator and well-known Thetford Mines businessman Raymond Setlakwe will receive an honorary degree.

Talk TV for the CTV group.

The recipient of numerous awards for her achievements in journalism, as well as honorary degrees from six universities, including her alma mater, the University of Regina, Wallin will deliver the convocation address at tomorrow's ceremony.
