In each of the above stations there are three fire guardians, permanently, in the east and west fire district, viz., 3, 4, 7, 8, & 9, and four in each of the others viz., 1, 2, 5, & 6, who are called out in three separate sections, according to the three fire district divisions of the city; but also, when required, act as one body. This is done by calling one section by the first alarm, two sections by a second alarm, the remaining one by a third; and, if not required, one single blow is given on the Church bells, signifying the immediate danger is over and therefore not wanted.

CHIMNEY SWEEPING.

Claves of Municipal Act regulating dates of sweeping, tariff to be charged therefor, &c.

Sec. 93.—Each chimney in use in the said city shall be swept by licensed sweeps three times at least in the course of every twelve months, to be computed from the first day of January in each and every year, namely:—once between the first of January and the first of May, once between the first of May and the first of September, and once between the first of September and the first of January in each and every year.

Sec. 94.—The said inspector may grant licenses to sweep chimneys as aforesaid to so many qualified persons as he may deem necessary; and he may revoke and withdraw the said licenses whensoever and as often as he may deem expedient; provided, however, that no licensed sweep shall use any brush, broom or other contrivance for the purpose of sweeping chimneys without first having submitted the same to the inspector of buildings for his approval.

Sec. 95.—The inspector may for the purposes aforesaid divide the city into as many districts as he may deem necessary, to efficiently carry out the provisions of the next preceding sections, and he may assign a district to every such sweeper, subject, however, to such changes from time to time, as the said inspector may deem expedient to make.

Sec. 96.—Such sweepers will be under the superintendence of the said inspector, and it shall be their duty to obey such orders and instructions as he may from time to time issue in connection with the sweeping of chimneys.

Sec. 97.—The following shall be the fees to be demanded and received by each licensed sweep for cleansing and sweeping chimneys:

For sweeping each chimney in a one story house, eight cents.

For sweeping each chimney in a two story house, ten cents.

For sweeping each chimney in a three story house, thirteen cents.

For sweeping each chimney in a house of four or more stories, fifteen cents.

When any sweeper is specially called upon, outside of his ordinary rounds, to sweep any chimney, the charge in that case shall be twenty-five cents.

Sec. 98.—Such fees shall be payable by the occupant of the house or building wherein such chimneys have been swept, so soon after, and as often as such chimneys are swept; and any person who shall refuse or neglect to pay such fees, or shall prevent any such sweeper from entering into any house or building, or shall in any way obstruct or molest him in the execution of his duties shall be liable to the penalty hereinafter provided.

Sec. 99.—Whenever any chimney shall take fire, and it shall appear that the occupant of the house or building where such chimney may be, had refused or neglected to have the same swept at any of the periods hereinbefore specified, every such occupant shall be liable to the penalty hereinafter provided.

Sec. 100.—The word "Chimney" as applied to the next preceding sections shall mean the interior or flue of such chimney.

The course of studies, in which religious instruction holds the first rank, is divided into two sections—the classical and the commercial.

The classical course, principally taught in French, is designed to impart a thorough knowledge of the Greek, Latin, French and English languages and literature, pure and mixed mathematics, history and geography, philosophy and natural sciences, and whatever is necessary as a preparation for a professional career.

It comprises eight classes—Latin Elements, Syntax, Method, Versification, Belle-lettres, Rhetoric, 1st and 2nd year of Philosophy.

The commercial course, principally taught in English, embraces the English and French languages and literature, mathematics and the other branches named above, moreover book-keeping, and whatever else may fit a young man for commercial and industrial pursuits.

It comprises four classes: Grammar, Literature, Rhetoric and Philosophy.

There are, moreover, elementary and preparatory classes for younger students.

The system of education is paternal. The teachers endeavour to unite kindness with firmness, and make use of the means of persuasion in preference to those of severity.

To be admitted into the college, applicants must present a certificate of good character.

Monthly reports of behaviour, application and progress are sent to parents or guardians.

None but relatives or those who represent them, are allowed to visit the boarders.

Half-boarders and day scholars must not absent themselves without previous leave from the College authorities.

The collegiate year is of ten months, beginning in the first week of September, and ending in the first week of July.

Terms per year.—Board and tuition, $150.00; washing, $20.00; bed and bedding, $10.00; music lessons, $25.00; use of the piano, $5.00; drawing lessons, $20.00. Half boarders, $80; day scholars, $30.00.

Payments, which are required in gold or its equivalent, and strictly in advance, are made in two instalments, 1st in the beginning of September, 2nd on the 1st of February.

The college will not take charge of providing a student with clothing or other necessaries, unless a sufficient sum be deposited in the hands of the treasurer.

No reduction in the above mentioned terms will be granted for absence of less than one month.
