English Speaking Catholics Complain That Present System Does Not Make Adequate Provision For Their Children.

DEMAND A SEPARATE BOARD

Irish Families. Moving From Old Parishes to Newer Sections of the City, Have to Choose Between French and Protestant Schools.

FRENCH CHILDREN CROWD OLD SCHOOLS

Investigation by The Herald Reveals a State of Active Indignation in Almost Every Parish—Children of New St. Michael's Parish Authorized to Attend Protestant Schools—St. Anthony's Difficulty With St. Cunegonde.

The English-speaking Roman Catholics of the city are in a state of unrest, and a large part of the trouble may be traced to the educational system which is in vogue at present. True it is that a certain amount of dissatisfaction exists among the Irish people that English parishes have not been set up more generally in the different parts of the city, and their spiritual needs more carefully looked after. But this is a comparatively small grievance, when it is remembered that the English Catholics have not the proper schools to teach their children, and as yet there is no prospect that the situation will improve.

Not so many years ago the English-speaking Catholics, composed chiefly of Irishmen and descendants of Irishmen, were practically confined to St. Mary's parish, in the East End of the city, and St. Ann's parish, on the banks of the canal. But as economic conditions improved, they gradually spread, and to-day we find moderately large Irish communities in every ward of the city.

But the shifting of the Irish population was not accompanied by any decided change in school methods, and the result has been that though Irish Catholics are settled all over the city, there has been no attempt made to provide them with more adequate educational facilities. The schools have failed to follow the movement of population.

And further, a counter current has set in. The French population have poured into the former Irish strongholds, and are crowding out the Irish pupils from the few schools they happen to possess. So bad has the state of things become, and the encroachment of the French-Canadians has been so rapid, that in many parishes an English boy cannot get an adequate education in the schools under control of the Catholic Commissioners. In more than one parish the Roman Catholic children of English families have been forced to take advantage of the education which is afforded the Protestant School Commissioners.

St. Michael's parish, in the north end of the city, is a flagrant example of inadequate teaching facilities, and Rev. Father Kiernan, the parish priest, was told by the diocesan authorities to send his boys to the Protestant schools which have been planted in that neighborhood.

In an attempt to arrive at the real situation, The Herald has made a tour of the seven Irish parishes in the city and to each of the priests the question was submitted, what is the best way you can suggest for remedying the matter and providing proper education for English-speaking Catholics of the city?

In every case the reply was—"Give us an English Catholic Board. Let us have our proportion of the school taxes and we shall administer our schools in the best interests of the different English parishes."

That the Irish people of the city are only too eager for better education is clear to anyone who takes the trouble to inquire. They are willing to take over the burden of administering their own schools, provided they are allowed the proportion of the school taxes which they turn in every year into the city treasury, and which goes to make up the revenue of the Board of Roman Catholic School Commissioners. Even should the Board object to any such division of their funds and secure power to oppose the division, it is doubtful if the Irish Catholics would not willingly forego their share of the taxes and establish a school board of their own, without this assistance.

The present Board of Roman Catholic School Commissioners is a corporation which receives all the school taxes paid by the Roman Catholics of the city and which manages a number of schools throughout the city. The large majority of these schools are French, and English pupils could only enter at a great disadvantage.

The annual revenue of the Catholic Board for 1903, out of the taxes, was $169,000, made up as follows:

Catholic taxes	$142,000
Neutral taxes	27,000
Total	$169,000

Of this sum the Irish Catholics subscribe $50,000, or over one-third of the Catholic taxes. What the Irish people would like to have is the control of that $50,000, and the power of using it where they consider it is most needed. Why should we be obliged, they ask, to go in with the French people and French schools. If Protestants have separate schools, why can't we?

To-day there are in the city seven Irish Catholic parishes, known as St. Patrick's, St. Ann's, St. Mary's, St. Anthony's, St. Gabriel's, St. Michael's, and St. Agnes. In St. Patrick's and St. Ann's parishes there are English schools, under the direction of the Christian Brothers, while St. Gabriel's parish has five classes conducted in a similar way. St. Mary's parish has a lay school, which is overcrowded and has not proved satisfactory.

St. Anthony's parish, with its large number of boys and girls, had no school at all, and the same unfortunate state of affairs holds true of St. Agnes and St. Michael's parishes in the north end of the city.

St. Anthony's.

St. Anthony's parish illustrates an anomaly in educational affairs. The parish comprises portions of the city of Montreal and the city of St. Cunegonde, and although the Irish Catholic proprietors contribute $1,600 yearly to the tax receipts of the Catholic School Commissioners, they have no school where they can educate their children. It is true that a French school exists in St. Cunegonde, and towards its support this $1,600 is devoted. But in this school no English is taught and an English pupil works at a great disadvantage.

Only last week a lady prominent in St. Anthony's congregation took her little boy to the St. Cunegonde school. Father Ecrement, the parish priest, admitted that he could not teach the boy English, but would train him up like the French scholars. This was not satisfactory to the mother, and in the end Father Ecrement turned to her and said: "Well there is only one thing I can do. Choose any school in the city and send your boy to it. I will make up the difference between the rates in St. Cunegonde and what you will pay at the city school."

The church authorities in St. Anthony's Ward have no hesitation in saying that the educational system there is far worse than elsewhere. The dual system that is in operation has worked so unfairly to the English speaking children of the parish that Rev. Father Donnelly, the parish priest, has publicly advised parents to send their children to the Christian Brothers' school in St. Patrick's parish, until they can get a school of their own. How long this will be, nobody has the courage to guess!

This advice has not been altogether heeded.

Parents have looked about them and finding the Protestant Schools nearer than St. Patrick's, have enrolled their boys there. And what can the parish priest do? If Catholic schools are not available, how can he be expected to send his parishioners to them?

HAS FONDNESS FOR HORSES OF OTHERS

Neglecting the Usual Formalities of Sale Patrick is Locked Up.

Patrick Timmony, residing on Trottier Lane, describes himself as a laborer, but seems to derive no small share of his living from dealing in horses for which he has not previously gone through the formality of paying. Yesterday afternoon he called at the stable of D. H. Welsh, confectioner and on representing that he had been sent to take a horse to the shoers obtained possession of an animal with saddle and bridle. He afterwards disposed of the outfit, and proceeded to enjoy some of the alleged good things of life, until a detective took him away.

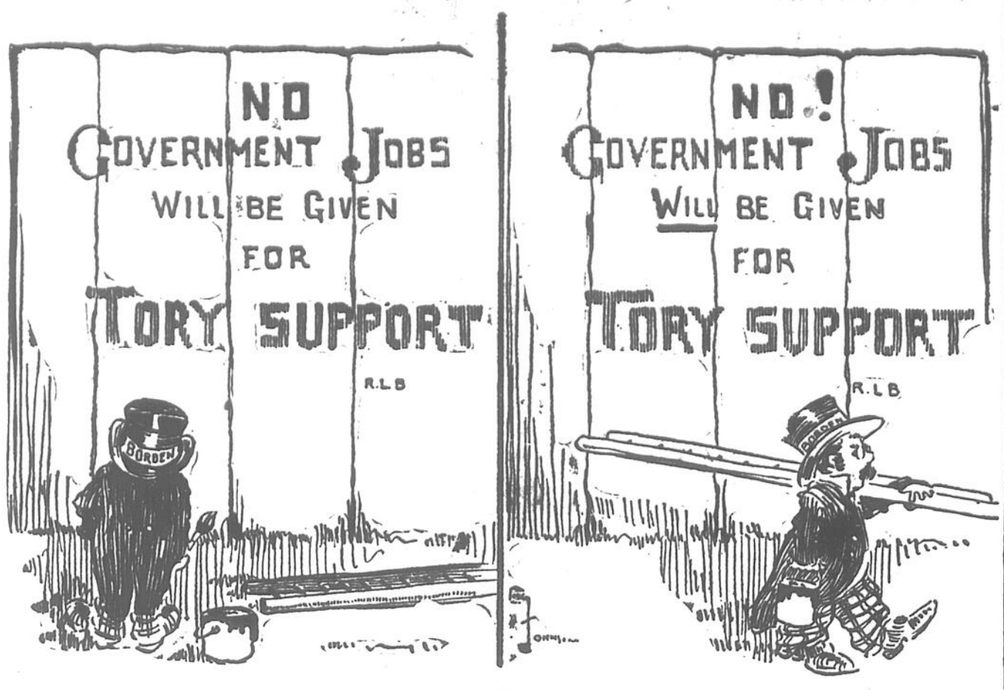

While in custody it was found he was also responsible for the disappearance on May 26, of a horse and rig, valued at $200, the property of Daniel Macdonald. In this case Timmony hired the turn out to "take his sister for a drive to the cemetery," but in two hours the horse was parted with for cash. He pleaded guilty and will be sentenced on Tuesday next.

COLONEL LAKE WILL BE NAMED CHIEF OF STAFF

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—It is understood that Colonel Lake, of the Imperial Army, is coming to take the post of chief of staff for the Canadian militia. At the same time it is announced that Lord Dundonald has purchased Creighton Lodge, where he made his home while general officer commanding. There are about twenty-one acres of land attached to Creighton Lodge.

Prof. Alexander Graham Bell and Mrs. Bell are at the Windsor.

Montreal is Getting Quite Accustomed to Earthquakes

There Was a Lively Little Tremble Last Night for Five Seconds, But Old McGill Takes No Notice—Felt From Ottawa to New England.

There was another earthquake last night.

There is a general impression among Montreal people that earthquakes are gettting a little too frequent, and should be discouraged. This one makes too quite perceptible shocks in the year 1904, and there is about a third of the year still left. The last shock was in March, and while some rather startling stories were current about china being knocked off the shelves in various isolated spots, the general perception of it was much less pronounced than last night.

Last night's performance could scarcely be described as a shock. It was simply a strong vibration, and felt exactly as if a heavy waggon or a procession of them were passing down the nearest street. Only those people who were in a position to know, from hearing or seeing, that there was nothing of the kind in the vicinity, were aware that there must be an earthquake The Telephone Company recived a good many inquiries all over the city.

McGill Too Busy for 'Quakes.

There is a seismograph at McGill, which is an instrument for recording the force, direction and period of earthquake shocks. But McGill is not bothering with little things like earthquakes to-day. Two-thirds of the physical science staff are away at St. Louis with the electrical engineers, and the other third are just back from their holidays, and making desperate efforts to get things in shape for the opening of the session on Tuesday, and to cope with what promises to be the biggest registration on record. No one has yet looked at the seismograph, and it is an instrument that only three or four men around the university can read. Prof. McLeod, official meteriologist, was able to assure The Herald that according to the chronometer of a practical scientist who noticed and timed the shock, it occurred at eight hours fifty-two minutes and fifty seconds after noon. This is five seconds later than the time given by Dr. Ami, of the Geological Survey in Ottawa, and may indicate that the shock travelled eastwards. That, however, was the limit of his scientific knowledge of the occurrence.

Followed the Usual Path.

The area of this seismic disturbance seems to have been wide. It is reported from Ottawa and Cornwall in Ontario, from many places in the Eastern Townships, and from points in New Hampshire. This is roughly speaking the same area as the earthquake of March, which, however, was felt slightly in Quebec city, and the same also as the majority that have been reported in the last ten years. It is very much broader than the area covered by the volcanic formations, of which the Montreal mountain is a type, so that there does not seem to be any reason to connect the disturbances with a supposed revival of the volcanic activity that once threw up our most prominent geoprahical ornament.

EARTHQUAKE WAS FELT AT MANY OTHER POINTS; LITTLE DAMAGE CAUSED

Beauharnois, Que., Sept. 15.—A slight shock of earthquake was felt here at about 9 o'clock last night. It lasted only a couple of seconds. No damage was done.

At Valleyfield.

Valleyfield, Que., Sept. 15.—Earthquake shock felt here about 9 o'clock last night, lasting about fifteen seconds. No damage done.

At Berthier.

Berthier, Que., Sept. 15.—A light shock of earthquake was felt here about 9 o'clock last night, lasted about five or six seconds. No damage done.

At St. Jacques.

St. Jacques, l'Achigan, Que., Sept. 15.—Two shocks of earthquake were felt here last night about one o'clock, lasting about thirty seconds. First shock was pretty severe, but no damage reported.

At Joliette.

Joliette, Que., Sept. 15.—About nine o'clock there was an earthquake shock which lasted at least a minute and a half, was very pronounced.

At St. Adele.

St. Adele, Que., Sept. 15.—Shock quiet severe about 8.55 p.m., lasting one minute.

At Labelle.

Labelle, Que., Sept. 15.—Very severe earthquake shock felt here at 8.55 p.m., half a minute duration.

Two Shocks Felt at Ottawa.

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Two distinct earthquake shocks were felt in Ottawa last night. They occurred at 8.55 and lasted about one minute. The first shock was of sufficient violence to make china rattle on tables and ornaments dance on mantles. The second shock was of less force. On Sandy Hill the disturbance seemed to have been most seriously felt and there some people were so startled they ran into the streets from their houses.

Dr. Ami of the Geological Survey, stated that the vibration travelled from southwest to northeast. He thinks it purely local and says that the geological formation about Ottawa is very faulty and he thinks one of the sections settling slightly is what caused the shock.

At Brockville.

Brockville, Ont., Sept. 15.—A few minutes before nine o'clock last night a shock of earthquake was distinctly felt here. Houses were shaken quite perceptibly. It only lasted a few seconds and no damage was done.

At Cornwall.

Cornwall, Ont., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—This section experienced a light earthquake shock last night about 9 o'clock. It lasted about a minute. No damage is reported.

At Arnprior.

Arnprior, Ont., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—A violent earthquake occurred here at 9 o'clock last evening, accompanied by the usual rumbling sound. It lasted several seconds during which time houses shook and dishes rattled in the cupboards. It is several years since a shock has been felt in this district and it has brought to mind the Baltimore disaster of a short time ago.

At Lancaster.

Lancaster, Ont., Sept. 15.—Heavy earthquake shock felt here last night at 8.55 o'clock, lasting about ten seconds. Direction seemed to be from northeast. A second and lighter shock occurred about ten o'clock.

At New York Points.

Massena, N.Y., Sept. 15.—Earthquake was felt very distinctly at this point about nine o'clock last night. Duration about ten to fifteen seconds; shaking buildings preceptibly. No damage done.

Moira, N... Sept. 15.—Distinct shock of earthquake felt here at 8.55 last night, lasted about fifteen seconds. Buildings shook badly, but no damage reported.

Malone, N.Y., September 14.—A distinct earthquake shock was felt here at 8.55 last night.

Recorded in Toronto.

Toronto, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—A share earthquake shock was recorded at the observatory here last night, at four minutes to nine(It lasted thirty seconds and was felt in all parts of the city.

One on Chamberlain.

(N.Y. Times.)

Joseph Chamberlain's list of jokes includes this one on himself:

On one occasion he was invited to Liverpool to make a speech. It was to be a great celebration. The Mayor, who was to preside at the meeting, had arranged a fine dinner for the guest of honor. A distinguished assembly surrounded the table, and at the right of the host sat Mr. Chamberlain. For a couple of hours the company chatted over their food, and finally the coffee was served. It was at this juncture that the mayor leaned over and whispered to Mr. Chamberlain:

"Your Excellency, shall we let the crowd enjoy itself a little longer, or had we better have your speech?"

THERE WAS an earthquake last night—probably the earth shaking its sides at Borden's election predictions.

THE FALL of Liao Yang really ought to convince Port Arthur that it is about time to find out where the fire escapes are located.

WITHOUT disputing the fact that Kuropatkin won a strategic victory, it may be pointed out that a sufficient number of victories of the same kind would land the Japanese in St. Petersburg.

TO FILL SPACE.

[George Horace Lorimer, author of "The Letters of a Self-Made Merchant to His Son," wrote them virtually to fill space.—Literary Note.]

Will Shakespeare, with his trenchant pen,
Wrote "Romeo and Juliet."

Of Montague and Capulet,
Then, while the proof sheets still were wet,
Came Fame, as often is the case.
But Shakespeare said: "Please don't forget
I wrote the stuff to fill up space."

And Jonson, known as "Rare Old Ben,"
Whose Celia had "sweet eyes of jet;"
Bob Burns and Herrick, those two men
So often caught in Cupid's net,
Wrote guff when they were "underset"—
Guff that the years can not erase—
But Burns once told a gay coquette:
"I wrote the stuff to fill up space."

You read of leafy, wooded glen,
Where fond young lovers often met
And told Love's story once again,
And whispered "Love" and "Dear" and "Pet;"

An empty page stared in his face,
Each says some time, from "cub" to "vet:"
'I wrote the stuff to fill up space."

To you, O reader, face to face,
I clipped that for The Herald's Sieve,

THERE is some doubt about the route of the Baltic fleet, but if it approaches the scene of action with the caution due under the circumstances, Captain Bernier ought to get within hailing distance.

MR. WM. MACKAY IS NOW MANAGER

Royal Insurance Company Appointments Were Made To-day.

MR. J. H. LABELLE ASSISTANT

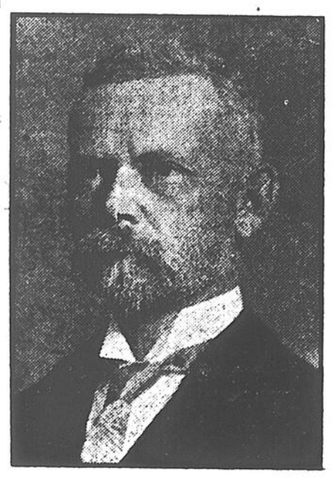

Mr. George Jacoby is the General Superintendent — Mr. Charles Alcock Made the Announcement To-day.

Mr. Charles Alcock, general manager of the Royal Insurance Company at London, who is at present on a tour of inspection to the Canadian offices today announced a number of important changes in the Canadian staff. The appointments were rendered necessary by the death of Mr. Geo. Simpson, the Canadian manager of the company.

The appointment as Canadian manager goes to Mr. William Mackay, who for some years past has been assistant manager, while Mr. J. H. Labelle becomes assistant manager and Mr. Geo. Jacoby, general superintendent.

By a nice coincidence, Mr. Mackay's appointment to the highest position in the company in Canada came on the twenty-second anniversary of his entering the service of the company.

It was on the 15th of September, 1882 that Mr. Mackay entered the head office in this city and since that time he has practically passed through every grade in the staff. In 1886 he was named inspector and in 1896 became assistant manager of the Royal and Queen's Insurance Companies. Since the death of Mr. Simpson Mr. Mackay has been acting manager.

MR. WILLIAM MACKAY,
Appointed General Manager of the Royal Insurance Co. To-day.

Mr. J. H. Labelle, who becomes assistant manager has spent nearly all his business career with the Royal. He entered their employ in 1883 and in 1891 was named inspector. He became superintendent of the Norwich Union Fire Office in 1900, but in the following year returned to the Royal as second assistant manager. He held this office till his appointment to-day as assistant manager.

CAPTAIN BERNIER WILL NOT GO NORTH

Refused to Place Himself Under Command of Major Moodie.

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Captain Bernier is not going to take the steamer Arctic to Hudson's Bay. Capt. Bernier when given to understand that he and the ship were to be subject to the general command of Major Moodie, head of the police party, declined to go.

Another navigator will have to be secured to handle the ship.

Resignation Was Expected.

Quebec, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Hon. R. Prefontaine, Minister of Marine and Fisheries is due to arrive in Quebec this afternoon to inspect the Arctic and complete the arrangements for the sailing of the vessel. Twelve men who will form part of the crew have arrived from Newfoundland. They are headed by their boatswain, named Murphy, and are a fine set of seamen.

The resignation of Capt. Bernier does not cause much surprise in this city, as it was understood that he never had serious intentions of making the trip. Captain Bernier's excuse is that he would not play second fiddle. He has known for the past three or four weeks that the expedition to the Hudson Bay was a military one and would be in command of Major Moodie. Capt. Bernier has been told more than once that the expedition was undertaken to establish the police posts and settle the boundary of Canada's northern territory, and it is thought that he all along meant to hand in his resignation at the last moment, when he would place the Government in a difficulty. It is not known whether his resignation has been accepted or not. The Government can easily replace him by an experienced navigator from Newfoundland, and it is thought that this will be done.

Major Moodie, who is very popular with his men, regrets that Captain Bernier sent in his resignation. He says that no person would have interfered with Capt. Bernier in the sailing and management of his ship.

Captain Bernier, notwithstanding his resignation was in and about the Arctic all forenoon. The crew from Newfoundland have not yet gone aboard or signed articles, and the police are still ashore. The vessel is heavily loaded with stores and low in the water. Even her decks are crowded with boxes high above the deck. Inspector Pelletier of the Northwest Police, who will accompany the expedition and have command of the west side of the Hudson Bay, while Major Moodie will have his headquarters on the north side, is here and ready for the voyage.

The Arctic is scheduled to leave on Saturday, but it is thought that she will be delayed a week longer in order to procure a sailing master to take the place of Captain Bernier.

BRITISH VESSEL WAS DESTROYED

Struck Mine Near Port Arthur—Only One Person Saved

JAPS PREPARING TO ADVANCE

Next Battle, it is Expected, Will be Fought at Tie Pass—The Cruiser Lena Will Be Dismantled.

Nagasski, Sept. 15.—A British sailing vessel, supposed to be the British bark Lucia, struck a mine recently off Port Arthur. One person of those on board of her was rescued. It is considered probable that the vessel was running the blockade.

Lena Will be Dismantled.

Washington, Sept. 15.—Captain Berlinsky, commanding the Russian ship Lena, at San Francisco, has informed Rear-Admiral Goodrich that he desires to dismantle his ship and has asked as to the extent to which this dismantlement should be made. Admiral Goodrich has called on the Navy Department for instructions on this point, and the details aren ow being worked out between the Navy and State Departments. The State Department is in telegraphic communication with Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, on this point, and the statement is made that the incident will be closed in a short time. It is expected that the Lena will be dismantled at the navy yard, Mare Island.

Tokio, Sept. 15.—Field Marshal Oyama telegraphed to-day that the positions of the Russians in the direction of Mukden are unchanged. The total number of Russian dead buried at Liao Yang was 3,100.

Japs Preparing to Advance.

Mukden, Sept. 15.—According to Chinese advices, the evacuation of Liao Yang by the Japanese has been forced, owing to the fearful stench arising from dead bodies.

The Japanese were on Wednesday fortifying the approaches by way of the river. Small detachments of Japanese moved northward from the Taitse River, preparations for an advance, evidently still continuing, although the second stage of the Japanese movement has not yet been completed by any means. The first was to the north, as if for a turning movement, but General Kuroki is now going east while, to the westward preparations are being made to send a large force up the Liao River. For this purpose, the Japanese already have taken 100 large barges with which they intend to ascend as far as Tie Pass.

It is stated that the Japanese are carefully preparing their turning and flanking movements, and will not engage in another big battle before the occupation of Tie Pass. These preparations are expected to occupy one month.

34 Russian Officers Killed.

St. Petersburg, Stptember 15.—An additional list published to-day of casualties among the officers at the front, covering the period from August 26 to September 7, gives the names of thirty-four killed and 143 wounded.

Have the Japs Evacuated Yentai?

Mukden, September 15.—Everything is quiet here. The Japanese have retired southward and it is even reported that they have evacuated Yentai. The belief prevails here that the lull may continue for several weeks.

Stirring incidents at the battle of Liao Yang are the sole topics among the officers and soldiers here. Heroic feats are recounted and the desperate nature of the Japanese charges south of Liao Yang and their incredible advance, repeatedly over the dead bodies of their comrades, are constantly alluded to. The Russians also made several bayonet charges, among the most brilliant being that of the Morshansk Regiment, headed by its wounded Colonel.

Baltic Fleet's First Stop.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 15.—The report that teh Baltic fleet will make a stay of some duration at Libau is semi-officially confirmed.

Japanese Government Silent.

Tokio, September 15.—The presence of the Russian warship Lena in San Francisco is exciting keen interest here, although the motive of the trip is not understood. One theory advanced is that Russia is endeavoring to test the attitude of America upon the legal questions involved. Another theory is that the Lena, while engaged in scouting, called at Korsakoff, found the wreck of the cruiser Novik, learned of the scattering of the Port Arthur fleet and the defeat of the Vladivostok squadron, took the Novik's crew on board and fled to San Francisco. The telegraphic reports of the Lena's crew and number of guns on board indicate abnormal conditions for a ship of her class.

The Japanese Government, while watching the incident, with close attention, has not expressed its attitude upon the case publicly.

Japanese Consul Denies Charges.

San Francisco, September 15. — K. Uyeno, the Japanese consul here, denies the charges made to the effect that he overstepped the bounds of official propriety in his efforts to obtain an understanding with Collector Stratton regarding the Lena's presence in the San Francisco harbor. He has received a letter from Collector Stratton which disavows any reports of the kind.

Weather To-Morrow
Clear and Cool

To-day and Friday—Fair and cool.

In the Northwest the weather showed considerable improvement yesterday, but from Ontario to the Maritime Provinces there were heavy rain storms. This morning opened fair, and a continuance of fine weather is predicted.

The maximum and minimum temperatures reported in Montreal to-day are 64 and 45. The temperatures recorded at other points yesterday were as follows: Victoria, 50.66; Calgary, 34.78; Qu'Appelle, 32.58; Winnipeg, 32.58; Port Arthur, 44.52; Parry Sound, 52.62; Toronto, 52.68; Ottawa, 46.68; Quebec, 48.56; Halifax, 52.66.

BETWEEN THE UPPER AND THE NETHER MILLSTONES

"Look at the difference between our way of running things and the Protestant method," remarked Father Donnelly to The Herald. "The Protestants are not content to wait until their schools get jammed. They establish schools in districts before the people get there."

"It is not fair for our Irish Catholics to be denied a proper education. Our children do not need French, because they have to get employment with English-speaking merchants, provided they are entering on a mercantile career. The Irish Catholics are actively associated with the rest of the English speaking people, and in such a case it is not absolutely necessary for them to know both languages. They at least, must know English well."

What the priests of St. Anthony's parish would like to see established is a school for eight classes under the direction of the Christian Brothers and with accommodation for four hundred boys.

ST. MICHAELS.

St. Michael's parish, which has been recently established in the north end, comprises portions of six school districts, namely Ville St. Louis, St. Denis, St. Edward, Outremont, St. John of the Cross and Villerie. In not one of these districts is there an English Catholic school, and the children of St. Michael's parish have either had to attend the French schools, where no English is taught, or go to the Protestant schools in the neighborhood.

Last year, the parish priest of St. Michael's church, Father Kiernan, asked the Catholic school commissioners to give him the money paid by his parish to form a fund for St. Michael's, but they made no reply. Previous to that, Father Kiernan had made an application for a special school board to be known as St. Michael's school board, but he received next to no encouragement from the church representatives.

Father Kiernan found that his children were getting no good out of attending the French schools, and after the matter had been laid before the church authorities, he received special permission to send the children to the Protestant schools of the surrounding district. This was an extraordinary permission for the authorities to grant, since the Roman Catholic Church does not readily approve of attendance at Protestant schools.

Father Kiernan in speaking of the situation remarked:

"My sole reason for allowing the English children to attend the Protestant schools is because we have no proper facilities for teaching them ourselves, and we have failed to obtain assistance to establish our own schools. "Our English-speaking children have to contend in the same arena as the children of non Catholics, who, as every one knows, strive to their utmost to have the best possible instruction given to their children and who look down on a less degree of instruction given to other children of the same tongue."

Father Kiernan proceeded to discuss the dual system of education as it worked in his parish.

"The dual system," he remarked, "is ruinous for English-speaking children in this section, owing to the vast majority of children in every school being French. It is not necessary for English children to know French as French people know English. Mistakes in French will be overlooked by a French-Canadian, but not so with English."

Father Kiernan expressed himself as in full sympathy with the separate board idea, a scheme best fitted to give English Catholics a good education.

"What do you intend to do about the matter," was the question put to the reverend gentleman.

"Well," he replied, "if we don't get a separate school board, we will have to start an independent school up in this district, and public opinion will support us. If the people of Manitoba can afford to pay taxes to non-Catholic schools and support their own besides, why can't we do the same, if we can't get proper accommodation for our people?"

The case of St. Michael's parish sending its boys to the Protestant schools is not altogether fair to the Protestant Board, because their yearly taxes still go to support Catholic schools. This is an aspect of the situation which has not been dealt with, and scarcely can be said to affect the Irish ratepayers of the district. They have to pay the same taxes whether the money goes to the Protestant Board or the Catholic Board. How long the Protestant Board will consent to educate the children of Roman Catholic parents when the taxes they pay go to the support of French Catholic schools, remains to be seen.

ST. AGNES.

"The chief disadvantage of the present dual system lies in the mixing of French and English scholars. English boys mixed in with French practically do nothing. The classes are not graded and there are five or six divisions in them."

Such is the opinion of Rev. Father Casey, parish priest of St. Agnes parish, in the north end of the city. There are no English schools in the parish, and Father Casey would like to see a separate board established, which could erect a Christian Brothers' school to accommodate 150 boys and 150 girls.

ST. MARY'S.

St. Mary's, one of the original Irish parishes of the city, has a lay school, which has not proved altogether satisfactory, owing to the constant pouring in of French children, and the consequent driving out of the English. As things exist at present, little children are taught the rudiments of French before they learn any English. What English is given them is taught by French teachers, a method which has been found highly unsuccessful.

Parents have found the education insufficient, one point urged being that the children are imperfectly prepared for communion. Parents anxious to have their children well educated have had to bear the cost of sending them to ther parishes, such as St. Patrick's and St. Ann's, to be taught.

ST. GABRIEL'S.

In Point St. Charles there are two parishes side by side, St. Gabriel's and St. Charles, the one Irish and the other French.

For St. Gabriel's parish there is a large brick school, originally erected for the Irish children of Point St. Charles, but which is now crowded with French pupils. At present sixteen classes are conducted in the school, five of them being English. The school is filled to overflowing, and two more English classes will have to be started to meet the demand. There are 300 English boys in the school this year so far.

The reason why so many French boys have gone to the school has been traced to the fact that they are anxious to learn English, and prefer an English school.

Rev. Father O'Meara, parish priest of St. Gabriel, does not know what to do for accommodation. The French boys are pouring in and taking up every bit of room.

That they should do so seems unjust to the auhorities in St. Gabriel's parish. Why did the French people not build a school of their own instead of coming in and crowding us out? That is the question the Irish people of Point St. Charles are asking to-day.

ST. ANN'S.

St. Ann's parish has had an English Christian Brothers' school for many years, and it is practically the only English school that is supported out of the school taxes. The school has 400 boys in attendance, and according to the testimony of Rev. Father Rioux, the school has been popular not only in the district, but outside as well. Business men are constantly coming to St. Ann's school to get boys.

SPRAGUE-SIMPSON.

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—A pretty wedding took place at All Saints Church at two o'clock this afternoon when Miss Elaine (Bonnie) Simpson, daughter of Mrs. Hayes, of Crescent Street, Montreal and granddaughter of the late Hon. John Simpson of Bowmanville, was married to Mr. D. Boyer Sprague, of Winnipeg, son of D. H. Sprague of Keswick, Ont. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. W. Mackay. The bride wore a gown of ivory silk and was attended by Miss Jordon, of Buffalo. Mr. Harold Sprague, of Winnipeg, was best man, and Mr. Stone, of Toronto and Mr. Percy Wright, were groomsmen. A reception was held at the home of Alexander Simpson, uncle of the bride. The bride and groom left by the 4 o'clock train for Montreal, where they will spend a week at the Place Viger and afterwards go to New York before returning to Winnipeg, where they will make their home.

MONTREAL LEADS IN WESTERN TRADE

Toronto's Claim Does Not [Hold] Good in Light of Facts.

Ever since Winnipeg became the distributing centre of the West there has been keen rivalry between Montreal and Toronto merchants to secure the trade of the West by establishing in the Prairie City.

Some of the Toronto papers have gone as far as to state that Toronto firms had secured a big advance on Montreal merchants, one paper even stating that there were forty Toronto firms with branches, while there were only twenty-four Montreal firms.

A merchant who is well acquainted with the situation in the West in conversation with The Herald to-day said that he was absolutely safe in saying that for every five Montreal houses with branch warehouses there was only one Toronto house. Montreal was represented by almost every staple trade in the country, including hardware, dry goods, millinery, biscuits and confectionery, boots and shoes, rubbers, knit goods, clothing, etc. Compared with this there is not any Toronto hardware house, no dry goods house, except one with only a sample room, no shoe house, only one biscuit institution, and several specialty concerns.

That Montreal merchants have been able to get such a large proportion of the business of the West is all the more surprising, because Toronto merchants have a decided advantage over our houses in freight rates."

PREFERENCE ON DAIRY PRODUCE

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, Sept. 15.—"Cold Storage" referring to Mr. Chamberlain's proposed duty upon foreign dairy produce says: "Assuming that foreigners paid a duty colonal butter might gain a preference on account of price, but as the supply of colonial butter and cheese could not be by any possible means, for many years to come, meet the transferred demand the price in consequence would quickly rise until it was equal or superior to that of the foreign produce. When this happened the effect of the preference would be totally destroyed and the original relative prices and conditions of the market restored with the difference that consumers in the United Kingdom would have to pay more for the same amount of butter than formerly. These higher prices would reduce the demand and less butter would be consumed, thus the colonial dairy produce farmer would suffer equally with foreign and home produce."

TO MEET U. S. COMPETITION.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, Sept. 15.—Referring to the Ottawa Citizen's criticism on tariff reform the Globe says: "The point which is new in which the Canadian writer suggests is that after all the paradoxical argument may be true that a tax on corn with a preference to Canada may ultimately lower the price of bread in England. By establishing such a connection it would not be long before the United States would have no surplus and will then certainly offer facilities to Canada."

WILL MOVE TO MONTREAL.

Moncton, N.B., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Samuel King, master car builder of the Intercolonial at Moncton, has resigned his position here to accept that of assistant master car builder on the C.P.R., with headquarters at Montreal, to take effect on the 30th inst.

SIR CHARLES IN OTTAWA.

TORONTO LADY WON BEDOUIN'S HEART

Toronto, Sept. 15.—A fair Toronto lady who resides on Walmer road and who has just returned from an extensive tour abroad, unconsciously won the heart of a chief of a Bedouin tribe of the desert. The first intimation and proof of this came the other day in a proposal of marriage from the Sheikh through her Jericho acquaintance. The offer was couched in Oriental elaboration of phrase, and was equally Oriental in substance. The Sheikh offered a price of $200 for the lady's hand, cash on delivery. This, however, was on condition that the future wife would consent to make bread and churn butter, which is done afresh for every meal in a Bedouin camp. In case she should be disinclined for this, the price would be only $125, and the remaining $75 would be used to buy a slave to perform these duties. Needless to say the offer will be declined.

FINAL SESSIONS OF C. E. CONVENTION

Addresses This Morning By Rev. W. H. Marriner, and Others.

The final day's session of the Quebec Provincial Christian Endeavor Union was opened this morning by the Rev. J. L. Gilmour, in McVicar Hall. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. A. L. Therrien, after which the business session was opened.

Rev. W. Henderson, of Valleyfield, extended to the convention a hearty invitation from the Christian Endeavor and Epworth League Societies of that city to hold their meetings there next year. After a short discussion the invitation was accepted.

The delegates of the different societies then announced the amount their societies would contribute to the union. The responses were liberal and ensured a healthy condition of the finances for the ensuing year.

The report of the junior superintendent was then given. The number of junior societies is twenty-seven, with a membership of over 600, but the work done has been worthy of a much larger number of members. It was recommended that a junior society be organized in every church and every stimulus to its growth and influence be given by the senior workers.

The convention was then addressed by Rev. W. H. Warriner, D.D., and Mr. C. K. Calhoun. Dr. Warriner took as his subject, "The Bible—How to Read it." With an open and unprejudiced mind was the proper way to approach the study of the Bible, said the Professor. Preconceived ideas and prejudices should all be left aside. Disregarding all possible inconsistencies and historical inaccuracies and forcing a settled theory of inspiration on its teachings was unfair to the Bible. Too many came simply to find arguments in support of their theories and creeds, and in doing so disregarded everything else, or twisted it to suit their theories. The Bible should be read comprehensively and fully, and with a clear mind, open to whatever it teaches. It was so broad that it is a book for all ages and all times and so contains teaching for everyone.. Everyone would find in it certain parts that help him most, and these were the portions to be specially studied by the individual, though the rest should not be neglected if one wished to get a view of the vast field opened to humanity by it. Dr. Warriner then took up many difficulties in Bible study and gave directions as to how to overcome it best.

Mr. Calhoun, assistant secretary of the city Y.M.C.A. then delivered a short address on "How to use the Bible." First the Bible's use was to teach men the way to God; not to teach history or science. Next its use was to teach us how to live, and the third great use was to teach us how to reach men as well as God. A new humanity was introduced into mankind with Christ, and this new feeling was taught only fully in the Bible. These three thoughts were enlarged upon by Mr. Calhoun in a very interesting address.

Mr. Von Ogden Vogt, the general secretary of the Christian Endeavor Union, was then introduced to the convention. As he had but a short time at his disposal he rapidly ran over the aims of a union such as the convention represents and then questioned the various delegates as to conditions in their various societies. Mr. Vogt will address the meeting at greater length this afternoon.

TORONTO PLAYERS WILL PAY A FINE

Referee Chitty Gave Evidence As to Assault Upon Him.

Toronto, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Police Magistrate Denison this morning concluded the hearing of evidence in the charge of assault against Hugh Lambe and Charles Querrie, the lacrosse players concerned in the assault on Referee Charles Chitty at the Tecumseh-Brantford game on Aug. 27. They were fined $5 each and costs, which amounts altogether to $30 each.

Referee Chity was the first witness. Coming at once to the actual assault Mr. Chitty said he had ruled Querrie off the field for five minutes. Then Lambe came up, and, after some unparliamentary language, struck at him with his lacrosse stick. He dodged it. Later, someone struck him a sharp blow on the back of the neck.

"Didn't Lambe apologize to you afterwards for his language?" asked Mr. Robinette, counsel for the defence.

"He did and I embodied his apology in my report to the C.L.A."

"That blow you got was not a $5,000 one, was it?" said Mr. Robinette, having reference to Mr. Chitty's civil suit for damages.

Chitty objected to this question, but later he admitted his solicitors had commenced correspondence preliminary to a civil lawsuit in connection with the matter. He had refereed lacrosse matches for fourteen years, he said, and had never been assaulted in such a way before.

"And you wouldn't have been assaulted at all if a little more manners were instilled into children at school," said the magistrate.

"A little more manners all round would be acceptable," concurred Mr. Curry.

"It is disgraceful the way our national game is abused. Such exclamations as 'Cut his head off,' 'Kill him,' and so on, are common on the lacrosse field."

Lambe stepped into the witness box and told his story. He said he did not strike the referee with his lacrosse stick, but with his gloved hand. He saw Querrie strike Chitty with his stick.

"Do you call that gentlemanly and sportsmanlike conduct?" queried the magistrate.

After further corroboration of the evidence the magistrate imposed fines as above stated.

MANGLED BODY IN G.T.R. YARDS

An accident occurred last night in the Grand Trunk yards at Point St. Charles. No one has reported any knowledge of how the affair occurred, but at four o'clock this morning the body of Hormidas Vieus, a brakeman, was found literally cut to pieces in the shunting yards.

It is probable that Vieus was engaged in shunting cars, and fell under the wheels, which may have passed over the body several times.

Hormidas Vieus was 46 years of age, and resided at 96 Conway street, Point St. Charles. The features of the case are peculiarly sad, as the deceased leaves a wife and several small children.

An inquest will be held at the morgue to-morrow morning, the interim being devoted by the coroner and his assistants to acquiring the facts of the case more thoroughly.

COTE DECISION IS WELL RECEIVED

Ex-Detective Said to be Grateful for Police Committee's Action.

General satisfaction with the action of the Police Committee in reducing Detective Cote to the rank of constable, is the prevailing note around the City Hall to-day. The majority of the aldermen seem well pleased, and ex-Detective Cote is said to be quite willing to return to the sphere of a constable.

Ald. A. J. H. St. Denis, chairman of the Police Committee, is also happy, and, speaking of the result, remarked: "I believe some newspapers are trying to make capital out of this case and use it against the Police Committee. When Cote is well satisfied, why should the newspapers object? Cote has been telling all around that he is satisfied, and I hear on the best authority that he expected far more than he got."

Ald. J. T. Marchand explained to The Herald this morning that he had never for a moment intended to vote for the complete exoneration of Detective Cote. He believed that an example should be made for the benefit of the force. At first he thought the only course was to dismiss him, but the evidence produced at the investigation was different, and Ald. Marchand came to the conclusion that dismissal would be too severe.

TRAIN ROBBERS ARE CORNERED

Bellingham, Wash., Sept. 15.—The Canadian Pacific and Dominion Express Company detectives believe they have surrounded one or more of the robbers who held up the Canadian Pacific train at Mission, B.C., Saturday night and secured $7,200 in gold dust and specie. The men are believed to be in a deserted cabin near Lynden.

CONS, SPEAK 'MIDST RAIN AND EARTHQUAKE

Ald. Ames Wades Through the Flood at Montreal South to Propound Conservative Principles.

The Conservatives had a meeting at Unity Hall, Montreal South, last night, which was attended by thirty wildly enthusiastic electors, and the caretaker of the hall, who fell asleep.

The rains descended, the floods came, the sidewalks were afloat, and at 8.55 p.m. the earthquake put in an appearance.

Ald. Ames, from Montreal, was present, and tried to warm up the drenched audience with a few well chosen words on the Conservative outlook. It was hard going.

Mr. James Strike was in the chair.

$10,000 ACTION FOLLOWS.

Mr. J. Deslauriers this morning entered suit against the Patrick Brennan estate for $10,000 damages for injuries caused to his wife by the recent fatal gallery accident at 168 Prince Street. Mrs. Deslauriers is at present lying at the Notre Dame Hospital with a broken back and her recovery is dubious.

The action was entered by Messrs. Beauregard and Rainville, and damages are calimed on the ground that the gallery was in an unsafe condition to the knowledge of the executors of the estate.

FIRST HE HEARD OF IT.

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—(Special).— The Mail and Empire announced that Mr. Emmerson is going on the bench. He said this morning this was news to him. It was the first he had heard of it.

DR. PARKIN MAKES AN ANNOUNCEMENT

Examinations for the Rhodes Scholarships Next January.

Toronto, Sept. 15.—Dr. George R. Parkin, commissioner for the Cecil Rhodes scholarship trust, announces that the examinations connected with the appointment of the Rhodes scholars for the year 1905 will be held throughout Canada about the middle of January next, and that the committee of selection or the universities making appointments will be expected to furnish to the trustees the names of the selected scholars during the month of April.

Many of the Oxford colleges complete their entrance lists for October during the summer term, and in order that the scholars may be entered at the various colleges with due regard to their own preference it has been found necessary to fix upon these earlier dates for examination and election.

SOO MILLS ARE SUING AMERICAN ORE ONLY

First Consignment of Rails for the I. C. R. Arrived Here Yesterday.

The first two consignments of rails from the Soo rail mill to the Intercolonial Railway on the contract of 10,000 tons arrived in the city yesterday and to-day. The first consignment came in on the steamer Neepawah and the second over the Canadian Pacific Railway. The announcement made to The Herald was that the company had made arrangements to have the rails put through as rapidly as possible, and, on this account, were using both the rail and water routes.

An announcement of particular interest made by a leading official of the company is that all the ores that the Soo Company is using at present at the steel rail mill are from deposits on the American side in Minnesota, and in order to have a full supply till June 1 next, had contracted with five different companies for a total amount of 165,000 tons of ore. The principal mines from which the ores are being brought in are the Negaunee mine, a Marquette range property of the Cleveland Cliffs Iron Co.; the Breitung Hematite mine, also at Negaunee; the Gogebic mine and two mines in the Mesaba range.

COULD BE A BARON FOR SUM OF $50,000

Exposure in Berlin of Regular Dealer in Orders and Titles of Nobility.

Berlin, Sept. 15.—There has been an exposure here of a regular dealer in orders and titles, who, it is said, claims to be able to procure honors in several of the European States for persons who are willing to devote the necessary money to "charitable purposes."

The trafficker in these honors, who is a Tyrolean, is said to conduct his trade in a businesslike manner and to issue a regular price list, which quotes the degree of nobility in certain German States at $30,000 and the baronetcy at $50,000, the Spanish nobility at $4,000, Turkish orders from $2,000 downward, and Persian orders at low prices.

Portuguese titles of count and marquis are said to be offered without the price being named, and consulates in various South American countries and in Persia are reported to be on sale at from $1,200 to $2,400. Definite lowest prices for a host of minor decorations, it is declared, are also given in the price list.

C.P.R. WILL WELCOME COMPETITION IN WEST

Statement by Mr. E. B. Osler, M.P., at Winnipeg—Room for Half a Dozen Lines.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Mr. E. B. Osler, M.P., who is a member of Sir Thomas Shaughnessy's party, was seen yesterday after the inspection of the C.P.R. works had been carried out. Mr. Osler spoke freely on railway matters. He said: "The C.P.R. Company have been, and are spending great sums of money in the West at present, and for this reason this especial trip of inspection on the part of the executive is taking place. We have to report to the annual meeting of the company on October 5 how this money has been laid out. We will do a great deal of railway construction ourselves, and others, I hope, will also construct. There is room in this country for half a dozen lines."

WESTERN FAIR AT LONDON.

Hon. G. W. Ross Delivered an Address on Development of Dairy Industry.

London, Ont., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Premier Ross, speaking at the opening of the Western Fair, Tuesday, when the new and permanent dairy building was opened, said that Canadians had shown they could beat America in the British market with cheese, but this had not been quite so fairly shown in butter. Somehow or other we had not got the same grip on them in butter as in cheese, although there was good progress being made in that direction. "We are sending over 30,000,000 pounds of butter," he said, "and the most valuable feature of this export is that it is steadily rising in value. Nine years ago it was six cents a pound less in value than Danish butter. Now our butter brings within three cents a pound of the best Danish butter on the British market. The three cents a pound we have added to the value of our butter means a million dollars to the people of Canada in the quantity of butter they export. If we added a cent to the value of our cheese it would bring $2,200,000."

Hon. John Dryden referred to himself as the "chore boy of the Legislature."

POLICE ARE AFTER LAUDER.

He is Wanted in Kingston on Charge of Forgery.

Kingston, Ont., Sept. 14.—(Special.)—W. H. Lauder, who is wanted here on the charge of forging several notes and cheques, is said to be working the same game in the United States. He is being traced from point to point by cheques he issues and secures funds upon, but which go back to the defrauded acceptors for payment. "I have just sent back three," said a bank manager yesterday. He said the last cheques were issued at Philadelphia. Lauder was using fictitious names, his last cheques being issued under the name of Sibley. Lauder, while here, was an advertising promoter, and head of a company of himself, as handling cigars, the advertising of which came costly to the papers entering into contracts with him.

A citizen of Ottawa, last week, says he thinks he saw Lauder or his double there.

OLD HEADSTONE FOUND.

Kingston, Ont., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—A despatch from Oswego, N.Y., says that the plow loosening up the dirt in the rear of the officers' quarters at Fort Ontario, and which is about eighteen feet under the original surface at that point, turned up an old headstone. When the earth had been cleared away the inscription on the stone was very plain. The stone marked the grave of Basil Dunbar, a lieutenant of his Majesty's Fourth Battalion, Royal American Army, who died Oct. 12th, 1759, at the age of thirty-five. At the top of the stone was the rude carving of the Angel Gabriel, blowing a horn, and to the right of this was a star and half moon to represent the sky.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Interesting Tale of a Day's Doings in the Metropolis of Canada.

LADY MISSIONARIES FOR CHINA.

Two Montreal ladies, Dr. Isabella Little and Miss Agnes Dickson, who have offered themselves for Chinese mission work, will be designated at a special service in Erskine Church on Friday evening.

BANK OF MONTREAL BRANCH.

A branch of the Bank of Montreal will be opened for business at Westmount, corner Western and Green Avenues, on or about the 15th instant, to be known as the "Westmount Branch." Mr. G. E. F. Aylmer will be in charge as sub-agent, and Mr. H. F. C. Stikeman will countersign with him.

THINKS LEG VALUABLE.

Mr. A. Bowes has entered action against the Montreal Street Railway for $1,990 damages for a broken leg. In mounting a car at St. James and Inspector streets the car started with a jerk before he was seated and threw him to the street, dragging him some distance and inflicting severe injuries. Messrs. Ryan & Bickerdike are acting for Mr. Bowes.

NEW PRESBYTERIAN PRINCIPAL.

The Rev. Dr. Scrimger, who was recently appointed principal of the Montreal Presbyterian College, will be inducted into his new office on the evening of October 5, the opening of the college for the season 1904-05. The function will take place in the David Morrice Hall, and the Moderator will preside.

GOT $3,000 DAMAGES.

Mr. Justice Doherty yesterday rendered judgment in the case of Thomas H. Atkinson against the G.T.R. for $15,000 for the death of plaintiff's son in September, 1903. The death was caused by a collision of the I.C.R. trains running on the G.T.R. tracks between Montreal and Ste. Rosalie. Mr. Justice Doherty found that as the two trains were running on the G.T.R. tracks and under that road's train despatchers it properly responsible, and condemned it to pay $3,000 damages.

ROYAL BANK'S BIG CUBAN TASK.

The Royal Bank of Canada which was the first Canadian bank to open up branches in Cuba, has been awarded the task of dispensing $31,000,000 to the Cuban war veterans due as a result of the recent war of the Revolution. General Manager Pease states that the funds will be paid out at different centres in instalments of ten millions a month. A number of Canadian officers of the bank will be detailed to assist in the work of distribution.

AN INTERNATIONAL LANGUAGE.

A new series of lessons to be started on Monday, the 19th instant, at 8 p.m., at No. 81 St. Christopher Street, near St. Catherine Street. As this first lesson comprises a summary explanation of the whole system, and as the pronunciation is entirely taught in the first lecture, all those who wish to learn the international language should not fail to be present. The course is absolutely free of charge and ladies are specially invited.

NO CONFLICT OF INTERESTS.

In response to a powerful presentation by the Rev. Principal Gordon, of the University of Queen's College, Kingston, the Montreal Presbytery yesterday passed a unanimous recommendation recognizing the university's value to the church, and urging the duty of its support upon all members of the Presbytery. The committee will confer with the committee in charge of the Montreal College endowment project, so as to avoid any conflict of interest.

YUKON MAILS.

As the season of closed navigation on the Yukon is at hand, postmasters are reminded that the same restrictions as to the forwarding of mail matter to points north of White Horse will prevail this season as last.

The last boat for the north conveying all classes of matter will leave Vancouver on or about Oct. 1, and postmasters may allow a reasonable margin for connection with that boat.

After that period no class of mail matter may be accepted for points in the Yukon north of White Horse except letters and postcards, single copies of newspapers from the office of publication addressed to public libraries, to newspaper offices, and to individual subscribers and transient newspapers.

Postmasters are requested not to accept any matter addressed to the Yukon not included in the above classification, and if any such matter should be found passing through their office they are requested to return the same through the nearest branch dead letter office.

DIOCESAN SYNOD EXECUTIVE.

The quarterly meeting of the executive committee of the Diocesan Synod was held yesterday afternoon. The report of the Superannuation Committee recommending that the Rev. Mr. Abbot be placed on the superannuation list and also bearing on the case of the Rev. Mr. Garland, was rejected back to the committee for further information. A resolution was passed authorizing Rural Dean Robinson and Mr. H. J. Mudge as a special committee to visit the parish of Sabrevois. A report was submitted from Chancellor Bethune, advising that the parishes of Frost Village, South Stokeley, Waterloo and Eastman, could not be legally combined in one parish.

A report was passed from the finance and investment committee, arranging that assistance should be given to the congregation of Amherst Park for the acquiring and extension of their church.

The Rev. Seth Mills is to remove from Lacole to Portage du Fort and the Synod's grant was increased by one of $100 under the canon. This was made under condition that efforts should be put forth to increase the guarantee from Portage du Fort to $400 next year.

Miss Lynch and Mr. Paquette acted as accompanists, while Mr. Fosbre presided as chairman.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS NEED FUNDS

Want to Raise Teachers' Pay But Cannot on Present Revenue.

The Catholic Board of School Commissioners, at a meeting held Tuesday found that their revenue was not sufficient to permit of their paying what they considered adequate salaries to the teachers who are kept on the staff to take the places of those obliged to absent themselves. There were a large number of applications for these positions, but it was decided to allow Inspector Lacroix to make the appointments.

The salaries of Messrs. Belisle, McCarthy and Banks were placed at $600 a year.

The members of the board said they would like to increase them, but could not, owing to the amount of the revenue. Mayor Laporte proposed that in preparing the budget a new scale should be arranged for the teachers.

A report submitted showed that a number of the schools were overcrowded, in particular Chauveau and St. Gabriel schools.

It was decided that the classes of stenography and drawing for the teachers should be continued on Saturdays.

COMPLETE TRADE RETURNS.

Portland, Me., Sept. 15.—A Republican plurality of 27,120 is shown by complete returns from the State election of Monday, the unofficial tabulation of which from the 502 cities, towns and plantations was completed yesterday. The total vote for Governor was: Cobb, Republican, 78,460; Davis, Democratic, 51,330.

The vote in 1900 was: Hill, Republican, 73,470; Lord, Democratic, 40,086.

While these figures show a Republican gain of 4,990 votes over 1900, they also indicate a Democratic gain of 11,244, or a net gain for their party of 6,254.

Many Persons Have Catarrh of Kidneys, Or Catarrh of Bladder and Don't Know It.

President Newhof and War Correspondent Richards Were Promptly Cured By Pe-ru-na.

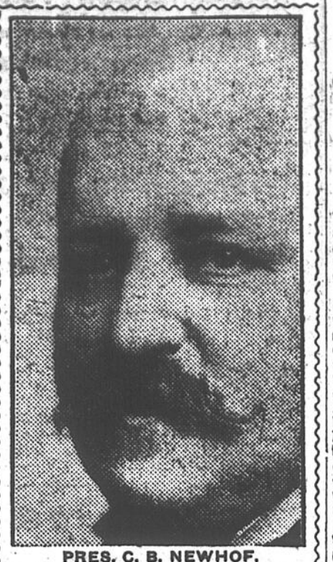

Mr. C. B. Newhof, 10 Delamare Street, Albany, N. Y., President Montefiore Club, writes:

"Since my advanced age I find that I have been frequentely troubled with urinary ailments. The bladder seemed irritated, and my physician said that it was catarrh cused by a protracted cold which would be difficult to overcome on account of my advanced years. I took Peruna, hardly daring to believe that I would be helped, but I found to my relief that I soon began to mend. The irritation gradually subsided and the urinary difficulties passed away. I have enjoyed excellent health now for the past seven months. I enjoy my meals, sleep soundly, and am as well as I was twenty years ago. I give all praise to Peruna."—C. B. Newhof.

Suffered from Catarrh of Kidneys, Threatened With Nervous Collapse, Cured by Pe-ru-na.

Mr. F. B. Richards, 60 E Street, N. W., Washington, D.C., War Correspondent, writes: "Exactly six years ago I was ordered to Cuba as staff correspondent of the New York Sun. I was in charge of a Sun Dispatch boat through the Spanish-American War. The effect of the tropical climate and the nervous strain showed plainly on my return to the States. Lassitude, depression to the verge of melancholia and incessant kidney trouble made me practically an invalid. This undesirable condition continued, despite the best of treatment. Finally a brother newspaper man, who like myself had served in the war, induced me to give a faithful trial to Peruna. I did so. In a short time the lassitude left me, my kidneys resumed a healthy condition, and a complete cure was effected. I cannot too strongly recommend Peruna to those suffering with kidney trouble. To-day I am able to work as hard as at any time in my life, and the examiner for a leading insurance company pronounced me "A" risk.

Peruna cures catarrh of the kidneys, of the bladder, liver and other pelvic organs, simply because it cures catarrh wherever located. No other systemic catarrh remedy has as yet been devised. Insist upon having Peruna. There are no medicines that can be substituted.

PRES. C. B. NEWHOF, Suffered From Catarrh of Bladder. Pe-ru-na Contains No Narcotics.

Pe-ru-na Contains No Narcotics.

One reason why Peruna has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotic of any kind. Peruna is perfectly harmless. It can be used any length of time without acquiring a drug habit. Peruna does not produce temporary results. It is permanent in its effect.

It has no bad effect upon the system and gradually elliminates catarrh by removing the cause of catarrh. There are a multitude of homes where Peruna has been used off and on for twenty years. Such a thing could not be possible if Peruna contained any drugs of a narcotic nature.

JURY RETURNED OPEN VERDICT IN DEMERS CASE

But Urge Police to Continue Their Investigations—Four Jurors Failed to Answer Their Names.

"We, the jurors undersigned, after having heard the case declare that Narcisse Demers died at Montreal about August 20, 1904, according to the medical report, from the result of a blow or a fall. The trial does not permit us to declare which of the two caused death. In the absence of all motive we can not say that it was murder but we are of opinio.. that it is a case on which the police should continue to work and that the inquest if continued by us, would be rather a hindrance to their researches than an aid. The victim was found in the flume of the Ogilvie mill in such fashion that it is evident that he either fell or was pushed into the canal."

Such was the verdict delivered last night by the coroner's jury at the second sitting of the Demers inquest. The son of the late Mr. Demers and Donat Meunier, a son-in-law, stated that nothing had yet been found to throw light on the matter, but they thought an investigation imperative.

Accordingly an open verdict was returned, leaving room for police investigation.

Hubert Marchand, Albert Beaudet, Henri Valcourt, Wilfrid Lachapelle and Odilon Turbeau, jurymen who failed to appear, will have to explain their absence or submit to a fine of $40.

FAREWELL STATE CONCERT.

Lord and Lady Minto Will be Present With Full Suite.

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—His Excellency has sanctioned the giving of a farewell state concert, to be held on the evening of Oct. 19th, in the Russell Theatre, at which their Excellencies the Governor General and the Countess of Minto, attended by their full suite, will be present in state. From a musical standpoint, the preparations promise to exceed in magnitude anything previously attenmpted in Ottawa or any other section of the Dominion. The arrangements and direction are in the hands of Mr. Harriss, of Earnscliffe. A chorus of 200 voices will come from Montreal, fifty orchestral players from New York, Buffalo and other points, together with several noted soloists from Boston and New York. The state programme will include a work expressly composed for the ceremony by Mr. Harriss, entitled "Pan," a choric idyl, dedicated by permission to her Excellency the Countess of Minto. The performance for the first time of an orchestral fantasia on Canadian airs will also form part of the proceedings. This is also contributed by the composer of "Pan," and fittingly bears dedication to Lady Laurier, herself a gifted musician and a descendant from amongst that race of French Canadians whose chanting of popular Canadian airs is familiar to the ears.

We make a specialty of Piano and Organ repairing. Lowest prices. Layton Bros., 144 Peel Street.

PRETORIA'S PASSENGERS.

The list of first cabin passengers per steamer Pretorian, Captain J. M. Johnston, from Montreal and Quebec, Sept. 15. follows: Mr. Wm. Fowler, Dr. R. W. Graham, Montreal; Miss A. Graham, Mr. Hutchinson, Mr. Geo. McGregor, Miss M. A. McGregor, Miss Ramsay, Miss L. Ramsay, Toronto; Miss M. B. Kingan, Miss Steedman, Miss Elsa Steedman, Montreal; Mr. A. B. Simpson, Mrs. Simpson and infant, Toronto; Miss A. J. Symington, Miss M. Symington, Hamilton.

CANADIAN SCHOONER ABANDONED BY CREW

Theta Was Brought to Port by the Pathfinder—Crew is Missing.

New York, September 15. — The steamer Pathfinder, from Norfolk, arrived with the abandoned Canadian schooner Theta in tow. A prize crew of seven men from the steamship manned the derelict and brought their prize loaded with pine lumber into harbor. The steamship picked the schooner up at sea on Sunday near Five Fathom Bank lightship. The schooner was drifting along with all sails set and with not a person aboard.

All signs pointed to her having been hastily abandoned after collision with an unknown vessel. Her starboard quarter was stove in, but no other damage could be found about her. What has become of the crew is a mystery, since no ship has yet reported them. Officers and sailors on Pathfinder will make a good thing out of salvage on the vessel. She is almost new and can be repaired at small cost.

NEW MILITIA REGULATION.

Officers Will be Notified of Intended Removal From Force.

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—The Militia Department announces that in future no recommendation for the removal of an officer from the militia will be accepted unless it is shown that he has been notified of the proposed action, and has been called upon to show cause why the removal should not take place. The notification must be either delivered to the officer in person or else mailed to his last known address. The officer's written reply must accompany the recommendation for his removal. If he fails to reply a copy of the notification and a statement showing the time of its delivery or mailing must be attached to the recommendation.

Special Notice.

GREAT BARGAIN EVENTS TO-MORROW AT CARSLEY'S.—A series of Notable Bargain events will take first interest at The Big Store To-morrow. The articles most concerned are Children's Dresses. The prices these garments are marked at will startle manufacturers by their lowness. Ladies' Dress Skirts will share in the advantages—they are without doubt the greatest bargains ever offered in these desirable goods. Hopsacking Dress Materials will have a lively time by reason of their goodness and economical price. Stray where you will, from Basement to Attic, Bargains greet you at every turn. Take a walk round the store, its attractions will interest you.—The S. Carsley Co., Limited.

PRESCOTT FAIR OPENED.

Vankleek Hill, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Tuesday was the opening day of the Prescott exhibiton. There was a large turnout of farmers. The large agricultural hall is much better filled than for several years past, there being a decided improvement in nearly every class. There is a fine exhibit of field roots, especially of potatoes, of which there are no less than forty-five samples shown. There are forty-four samples of grain and seeds, generally of good quality. The dairy exhibits are fully up to the average. There are several new features this year which add much to the interest of the exhibition.

TAKEN FIRE RISKS FOR HUNDRED YEARS

Canadian Office of Phœnix of London Celebrates Its Centenary To-day.

There will occur this evening at the Windsor Hall one of the most remarkable commemorations that the business and financial world of Montreal has ever seen. It is the centenary of the Canadian business of the Phoenix Fire Assurance Co. There are not a half-dozen businesses in Canada that have traded continuously in the same name since the year 1804, and possess to this day the books and records of 1804 in a Canadian office vault. But even this is not the chief distinction of the Canadian office of the Phoenix. Not only has it kept up its business with unbroken continuity, but that business has been, from the first day of its opening to the hour of to-day's celebration, carried on under the management of one family, and will probably so continue for at least two generations more.

To-night the company will dine its friends at the Windsor Hotel and the guests will include leaders of the financial world, judges of the highest courts of Canada, cabinet ministers and a delegation of the chief officials of the London office, who have come over to attend the function. These latter include Mr. H. P. Guernsey, the managing secretary, and Mr. E. Boston, the assistant secretary.

A FAMILY TRADITION.

The Paterson family have been the Montreal representatives of the Phoenix Assurance Co. of London, for one hundred years. The firm is now known as Paterson & Son, and its members are Alex. T. and R. MacD. Paterson. Mr. A. T. Paterson was born in Ayrshire, Scotland, in 1833, and came to Canada in 1850. He followed his uncle in the managership of the Phoenix Montreal office, and in 1892 was president of the Canadian Fire Underwriters. In spite of his advanced age he maintains the most active interest in the business, and has for weeks past been working with youthful enthusiasm on the preparations for to-day's centenary.

The Phoenix of London is a good deal older than its Canadian establishment, dating from 1768. Its famous fire engines are mentioned in a score of old London tales and ballads that have passed into history.

Guests are requested to obtain their seat tickets in the corridor at the head of the grand staircase before entering the dining room.

CHAMBRE DE COMMERBE MAY WORK FOR CHEAP GAS

Canadian Manufacturers' Association Asks it to Enter the Fight.

At the meeting of the Chambre de Commerce yesterday afternoon a letter was read from the secretary of the Montreal branch of the Canadian Manufactures' Association, asking what the Board intended to do in regard to the reduction of city gas rates. The matter was referred to the Municipal Committee for report.

The Chambre also decided to remain neutral on the question of the early closing of stores, but individual members will be free to act as they please.

The Decimal Association of London, England, made an appeal for financial assistance in support of the campaign for the adoption of the metric system.

In order to impress the Government with the necessity of providing facilities for the further progress of the measure, it was the intention of the association to obtain an influential and very widely signed petition in support of the bill.

LONDON'S POOR CHILDREN TO BE SENT TO CANADA

Mrs. Ellinor M. Close is Working on An Immense Poor-Farm Project —7,000 Ready to Sail.

To rear and educate London's poor children on Canadian soil is the project in which Mrs. Ellinor C. L. Close, of London, England, who is at the Windsor Hotel, is most deeply interested just now. She proposes to secure land either by purchase or by Government grant and establish poor farms for the children. The children will be brought to Canada and kept at these institutions until they are fifteen years of age, when they may either return to England or remain in Canada to become citizens. Mrs. Close estimates that the farms could be purchased and a suitable house erected at an approximate cost of $6,000 each. Seven thousand children can be brought over at once and ultimatey 38,000 can be looked after. The entire cost of maintaining the children would be borne by the British Government and no expense would attach to Canada.

CANADA-MEXICAN LINE.

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Tenders for a Canadian-Mexican steamship line are under the consideration of the Mexican Government. The two Governments agreed to give each $50,000 toward providing services on the Atlantic and Pacific. The tenders show the amount will not cover the two services and unless the Mexican Government consents to increase the amount there will probably be a service on the Pacific only, as a beginning.

MASONS WILL CELEBRATE.

Quebec, Sept. 15.—(Special.)— The Stadacona Chapter Royal Arch Masons are making preparations to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their registration which is No. 23, the Grand Chapter of Quebec. The event will take place on November 17, and representatives from all the subordinate lodges together with a number of prominent Masons from Ontario and the United States, are expected to take part in the celebration.

NOTES OF LABOR UNIONS

The Moulders of Montreal will entertain the visitors of their craft on Wednesday evening next.

The Trades and Labor Council will meet to-night at St. Joseph's Hall. Final preparations will be made to receive the delegates to the Congress, which opens next Monday.

The Painters' Union will give a reception at Empire Hall on Monday evening next to entertain the delegates who will represent the Painters' International at the Congress here next week.

SEVEN INJURED IN AN EXPLOSION

Boiler in Toronto Rolling Mill Burst With Terrible Results.

Toronto, Sept. 15.—A sudden and fearful explosion, followed by a storm of bricks and iron faggots, raining down through clouds of released steam, caught the employes in the rolling mill of the Toronto Bolt & Forging Company yesterday afternoon. Seven of the fifty employes were severely injured, and miraculously escaped instant death.

The men injured were: William Dixon, water tender, both arms broken and face and body burned; Alexander Watson, chief engineer, face scalded; Fred. Jones, first engineer, leg broken; and face and body scalded; James Hall, second engineer, arms burned and injured internally; Albert E. Dunsford, iron worker, face and both arms scalded; George Woods, mill hand, burned about body; Charles Jolly, superintendent, both arms scalded.

The mills of the company are at Sunnyside, just west of High Park. About two o'clock an auxiliary boiler, which was being used to reinforce the regular plant in rolling steel, suddenly exploded, the impact came from below, and, with a tremendous roar the fourton boiler was cast into the air, the low corrugated iron roof of the building was split in twain, and the great iron smoke-stack, which had reached sixty-five feet in the air, came tumbling down into the chasm the force of the explosion made. The boiler was inspected two months before, and was certified to be in good condition.

Mr. J. E. C. Boyce, inspector of the Boiler Inspection and Insurance Company, which carried a risk on the boiler, visited the plant soon after the explosion. The explanation given by the inspector was that the crown at the back of the boiler had given way, and the water had dropped down in the fire, generating steam, which caused the upheaval. The works will be again in operation in a few days. The property loss will be comparatively small.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA

This morning the sale of seats for John C. Fisher's musical production, "The Silver Slipper," opened at His Majesty's. No attraction that visited us last season gave more satisfaction than did this huge musical comedy. The company this year numbers considerably over one hundred, and, as heretofore, travels exclusively by special train. This year the performance has been so added to that a third baggage car is required to transport the additions. We are promised for this engagement a brand new production, totally different from that presented here last season, all the scenery, the gowns, and the costumes being brand new, while there are extensive innovations in songs, music, and dances.

* * *

T. W. Dinkins' Utopian burlesque, with a cast of forty odd people and a world of novelties, will be the excellent attraction at the Theatre Francais next week. Chief among the members will be found Valmore and Horton, Mildred Stoller, Madden and Jess, Fredo and Dare, the Boston comedy four, and others of less note.

* * *

The celebrated success, "Holty Toity," will occupy the Academy of Music next week. A Weber & Field's production can always be counted on as being a good show, and "Holty Toity" is conceded to be by far the best thing these clever people have ever produced. The book is by Edgar Smith and the music by John Stromberg. One scene gives a view of the campus of Yale University.

The features are said to be the exceptional beauty of the chorus, and the dazzling stage business and pictures originally designed by that marvellous stage director, Julian Mitchell. The prima donna, Miss Lillian Durham, is said to have an upper range exceeding that of Ellen Beach Yaw by two full tones.

BLACK WATCH AT THE FAIR.

The Black Watch band will be here very soon and the manner in which the throngs cheered them on the closing night of the Toronto Fair is an indication of the reception which will greet them here. On the final Saturday night 15,000 people gathered around them and the immense crowd inspired by the splendid music of the band, sang "The Maple Leaf," "Rule Britannia," "God Save the King," and "Auld Lang Syne." No such chorus has ever been led by any bandmaster, and the Black Watch conductor, Mr. E. T. Murray, was astounded at the splendid volume. After cheering the band again and again some of the crowd carried the bandmaster around on their shoulders through the grounds. October first and third are the dates for the Montreal concerts.

THE DRUGGIST RECOMMENDED IT

Because He Knew of Scores of Severe Cases of Piles That Were Positively Cured by

Dr. Chase's Ointment

The writer of the letter quoted below suffered dreadfully from itching protruding piles for six years.

Like hosts of others he was only disappointed with the many treatments he tried, until his druggist told him of what Dr. Chase's Ointment was accomplishing as a cure for this wretched ailment.

Mr. G. W. Cornell, who is with the Shaw Milling Co., St. Catharines, Ont., writes:—"In justice to suffering humanity I write to tell you of the world of good I obtained from the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. For about six years I was the victim of itching and protruding piles and was in dreadful agony day and night. Doctors were unable to help me and I could get nothing to relieve the suffering, I was about as miserable a creature as was to be found on the face of the earth.

"One day my druggist, Mr. A. J. Greenwood, advised me to try Dr. Chase's Ointment, which I did, and obtained relief from the first box and complete cure with the second. My trouble was caused by heavy lifting, and I consider that Dr. Chase's Ointment would be cheap at fifty dollars a box in view of the good it did for me. A feeling of sympathy for others similarly affected prompts me to give this testimony."

Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. To protect you against imitations, the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous recipe book author, are on every box.

THE HERALD
Established 1808.

A SCHOOL PROBLEM.

From the account, printed in to-day's Herald, of the educational situation in several of the Irish Catholic parishes of Montreal, it is evident that we are confronted by an educational problem which will take a good deal of judicious management. The division of the city's school system into two branches, one of which is Protestant and English-speaking, the other Catholic and (largely) French-speaking, seemingly has the effect of leaving the English-speaking Catholics, who number about 40,000, in rather a bad way. Church discipline and legal distinction both prevent their taking advantage of the English-Protestant schools, and the necessities of the French schools militate against giving the children a good English education. In the older parishes, such as St. Ann's, the home of the original Irish colony in Montreal, conditions are not so bad, for there they have the famous "Friars' school," which year after year for a very long time has turned out its quota of young men well equipped to face the business world. But in newer parishes, such, for example, as St. Gabriel's, the complaint seems to be that the growing demand made by an increasing French population tends to reduce, in bi-lingual schools, the attention that can be given to education in English. As the proportion of French pupils to the whole number increases, the worse the situation becomes, until, as happened in St. Cunegonde, children entitled to instruction had to be turned away altogether. Even this, however, is in reality better than to take children into the schools, charge them fees, and give them practically no tuition of the kind they ought to have, as happens in some other parishes.

Whether the remedy proposed, that of setting up a special board of trustees to deal with the wants of Irish Catholic children, offers the best solution of the difficulty, it may be too soon to say. That there are advantages to be derived from the association of French and English speaking boys in the same school has been made abundantly manifest by the success of boys so educated in securing positions where ability to speak and write both languages is a requisite. The Irish youth of Montreal, it is not too much to say, have a French equipment much superior—in practice, if not in theory—to that of their English neighbors. Such an advantage they would naturally be slow to part with. But even that should not be taken as a final argument for the status quo if there is inefficiency elsewhere, and, we may be sure, will not be, because eagerness for learning is a striking element of Irish character, as Thackeray learned when he heard two ragged urchins on a bridge in Cork keenly debating the merits of the Ptolemics.

THE DUTY ON RAILS.

It seems there was a definite reason for the summary action of the Government in announcing the imposition of the duty on steel rails just as soon as a reliable expert opinion could be had upon the ability of the Sault concern to make the right grade of rail.

In other instances in which a duty was imposed the Government has allowed goods to be brought in free of duty on the purchaser taking an affidavit that they were ordered previous to the day on which the duty was sanctioned. In this case the peculiar custom followed by leading railways in purchasing steel rails left reason for the belief that in this case the system of affidavits would not have the same effect as in other trades.

It seems that when a big railway, such as the Canadian Pacific, the Grand Trunk, or the Canadian Northern, desires to to close a contract for a large quantity of rails, an outside man is secured who passes word around to the different rail-making companies that such a road is in the market for rails, and asks the price at which they can be secured. Orders are placed with different companies for small quantities, but the contracts sometimes carry an option for the purchase of a much larger quantity. As far as the officials of the railway are concerned it is all the one contract, and had the duty of $7 been levied on the same terms as other recent tariff changes, the company could have taken advantage of their options and filed the necessary affidavits that rails brought in were in fulfillment of a contract made before the date on which the duty was levied. Had this happened there might have been nothing for the Sault people to do for a year or more. In view of this possibility Hon. Mr. Fielding drafted the clause in the new law which provides that all rails ordered before August 27, to escape the duty, would have to be delivered in Canada before November 30, and laid before February 28 next.

Thus was a business matter dealt with in a business way.

THE WORLD'S GOLD OUTPUT.

The revival of prosperity in the newly-acquired South African colonies appears to be imminent. Even before the beginning of Chinese contract labor, there had already been a strong tendency on the part of the gold output to rise to its ante-bellum proportions. And the importation of yellow labor, whatever one may think of it as a matter of general policy, is at any rate a solution for the time being of the chief problem that the mine owners have had to face. Whether one approves its morality or not, its effectiveness can hardly be questioned; and it leaves no room for doubt that the production of gold in the Transvaal will soon equal its old records.

The highest point attained by the Rand production was reached in August, 1899, two months before the war put an end to all operations, and the month's report indicated 482,108 ounces. During the whole of 1902 the monthly output failed to reach 200,000 ounces; but in 1903 it very closely approached 300,000 ounces, and the month of May in this year showed a total winning of 314,480 ounces, the best since the war, but less than two-thirds of the best record before it. June and July showed slight fallings off, but even in July the arrival of Chinese had scarcely commenced upon any large scale. The ounce of gold being valued at approximately $20 (it is really slightly in excess) the enormous earnings of these mines are at once apparent, and it is evident that even allowing for large returns to England in the shape of dividends, the wealth remaining in the colony out of a monthly production of $6,280,000 must be considerable.

As the average gold production of the world since the Yukon and the Rand became factors in it has been below $24,000,000 a month in value, there is room for interesting speculation about the effect of the restoration of the Rand output to its old value of $10,000,000 or more. A slight fall in the purchasing power of gold, or in other words a general appreciation of all other articles in price, which throughout the civilized world is now expressed in terms of gold, may not unreasonably be looked for. It is hardly necessary to point out that such an apparent prosperity is entirely fictitious, and if speculated on too extensively will inevitably be followed by reaction and depression.

The failure of the sudden expansion of the gold output, from below forty millions sterling per annum before 1895 to sixty millions in 1898, to effect a serious disturbance in prices is generally explained by a great simultaneous increase in the scientific uses of the metal and by the increase in the numbers of that part of the world's population using the gold standard. No such compensation seems in prospect to counterbalance future increases of gold production. The world's production in 1902 was fully up to the 1898 average, and yet the Transvaal contributed only 1,704,410 ounces. With other production stationary and the Transvaal restored to its 1898 figure of four and a half million ounces, the chances are good for a total production exceeding the best previous record by some twelve millions sterling per annum.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Canada is with Laurier.

Cote has been punished, and the police force warned. That was the main public need.

Toronto News: "Mr. Borden will travel in a special car. No speakers will accompany him from place to place, and no definite arrangements have been made for the assistance at his meetings of local speakers." Pretty lonesome, eh?

Mr. Borden's tour of the Eastern Townships last year, with Tarte, Popo "and others," probably convinced him that it is wiser to go it alone.

Off hand, can anybody specify any fighting Mr. Borden's "dashing" supporters, Osler, Clarke, Bell, Pope, Northrup "and the like" (as the Star says) ever did?

At an Ontario election, recently, they took false oaths on a false Bible. They were bible covers, but the paper inside was blank. Such tender consciences the dear folk have.

Curious that the frost in Manitoba and the earthquake should come just at the same time as Mr. Borden's visit to Ontario. The shock seems to have been felt worse at Ottawa than elsewhere.

Lord Dundonald may be mortified to learn that while earthquake shocks were felt all round these parts, no trace of it can be found at Knowlton, the home of the Minister of mere Agriculture.

Ontario Conservative leaders seem to be agreed that anything Mr. Borden wants to know about Ontario he had better go and find out, and Mr. Borden to think that he who flocks alone will not quarrel with his company.

The difficulty experienced in getting good new men to enter politics in Ontario is explained by election trial revelations—on both sides. To serve his counry up there, a man must first make up his mind to forfeit the respect of the world for the rest of his life. Gamey is, it seems, the Province's really representative man.

It would relieve the monotony of the situation if some Conservative with a healthy imagination would claim something for the party. He wouldn't be believed, but it would give the appearance of a fight. Even the commercial travellers who used to fill the Gazette with prophecies of victory are mute. If they can't do better than this they ought to organize some deaf and dumb "behind Borden" clubs.

Around the Mountain

I took a car ride around the mountain the other night. It was a warm, sultry evening with not a breath of wind in the air. Innumerable stars lit up the firmament, whilst here and there a fleecy cloud flitted over the sky's spangled surface. Onward sped the half-filled car. At the back a few slightly intoxicated men were trolling out the words of a swinging French song. Loudly rang their voices upon the air. Suddenly the car came to a standstill.

"Cemetery," shouted the conductor.

A damp fell on the soberer part of the crowd. It seemed so strange to hear that word uttered to the living. Out yonder the dead were lying in the cold damp ground, with not a single light to mark their last resting place Unconscious of the world that bustles around them they slept unheeding and unheeded. One of the passengers sang out to the conductor, "Go ahead, nobody dead."

There was wit in that, but those who heard it somehow laughed in a half-hearted fashion.

THE WAR IN THE FAR EAST.

THE EAST GATE OF THE SACRED CITY OF MUKDEN.

Is it Mean?

The question of Sunday drunkenness on the streets, is one that cannot fail to be of interest to everyone, who has a desire to hear the city of his birth, or sojourn, spoken of as a place of good repute. Unfortunately, Montreal is not quite blameless in this respect. We are, perhaps, not more wicked than other cities of similar proportions and mixtures of nationalities, and it is safe to say that we are not nearly so bad in this special connection as many that could be named. But that it is so, is no reason why we should wilfully close our eyes to the fact that there is still much work close at hand for the temperance operator.

Meantime that the members of the police force so far attend to their duty in the way of removing the reproach, by promptly hiding away so many of the First Day drinkers in the police cells, where the scoffing visitor may not sight them, is matter for much thankfulness.

But this is not all that the presiding Recorders and Clerk of Court Lefebvre, would like to see done. They would aim at the root, and as the Sunday drunks file into court, these gentlemen often show greater anxiety to ferret out the source from which came the intoxicants, than to punish the sufferer from over-indulgence. With the expectation, doubtless, of being leniently treated, certain offenders, who have wetted their whistle, not wisely but too well, are ready enough to step into the position of informer, but the majority conveniently affect temporary blankness of memory, have been visiting friends, or remember having invested in a bottle on the Saturday night. And while many of us may be ready to fall in with the suggestion that the end justifies the means, when that end is for good, there are others who will look with some sort of admiration on a man such as figured on yesterday's roll call, who, in reply to the usual question, made reply, "It is kind of mean, isn't it? I don't like to do anything mean."

It does seem mean. And, besides, there are other methods, that may readily suggest themselves to the police.

War Song of Japan.

The true test of a war song is the power of exciting the combative spirit, and, judged by that standard, the songs of the Japanese are worthy of a place in the anthology of war. The words in the literal translation have none of the real "Berserkgang" for which we look in battle poems, and, like the "Marseillaise," the favorite song of the Japanese soldier owes its power to stir the blood to the remarkable way in which it marries itself to a magnificent tune. The translation is by General Sir Ian Hamilton:

Sons of Nippon, down with Russia!
Lawless Empire—lay her low.
Faith and Justice she despises,
Russia is our mortal foe.

Even kindred foreign nations
Hate and scorn the Russian brood;
Like a wild insatiate wolf-pack
Ravening, they seek their food.

Fair Manchuria's triple province
Scarce devoured, ere the band
Lick their blood-stained lips and fasten
On Korea—hapless land.

Who, unblushing, urged "for peace sake,
Render back the Liao-tung?"
Scarce had ink dried on the parchment
Than another song was sung.

Shameless, trampling down the Treaty,
Grasping countries far and wide,
All the world was turned against her
For her lawlessness and pride.

Comrades, can we live oblivious
Of the blood of comrades slain?
Ten years since! Oh, Powers Eternal,
Did their life blood flow in vain?

There must be some end to evil,
Even in our life's short span.
That time is now, for we are marching
Down with Russia—on, Japan.

Tell us not of Russia's vastness—
Vast, may be, but poor and wild,
Boast not of her swarming millions,
What are swarms unless combined?

Thousands starving; traitors lurking;
Coffers empty; lack of grain.
How shall Russia stand against us,
Stand the long and weary strain?

But our own dear, precious country
'Neath its Emperor can combine:
For one thousand years successive
Reigns that same immortal line.

We are true, and we are loyal.
"Roshia," as its letters say,*
"Dew," that in the morning sunlight
From the sword-blade fades away.

March then with out sunlight banner
Waving proudly in the van:
March beneath that glorious emblem,
Down with Russia—on, Japan!

*The Japanese character for "dew" and for "Russia" is identical.

Early Rising.

"To be forced to get up early," says a physician, "grinds the soul, curdles the blood, swells the spleen, destroys all good intentions and disturbs all day the mental activities. Criminals are always recruited from the early-rising class."—From the London Chronicle.

Abstemiousness and frugality are the best bankers. They show a handsome interest, and never dishonor a draft drawn on them by their humblest customers.

"Honest Instincts"

One of the Conservative campaign circulars, printed after a recognized patent medicine style, came into my hands the other day. It set forth for the consideration of the reader all the ills and sickness that an imaginative mind could deem it possible for a country to posses, and over against these put the cure-for-all, the Conservative party, which should put the country into a fit state of health.

The principal ingredient in this curative medicine was Mr. R. L. Borden, who was described in the most glowing terms as the man to save the country from destruction. He was all that aman should be in every particular—eloquent, able, conscientious, and numerous other things. To put him in power was to fill our pockets, lower our taxes, and make us perfectly happy generally.

While being interested in these promises, which I did not doubt would be fulfilled, and gaining an extra reverence for the country's cure-for-all, I was particularly attracted to a statement which said that their leader, in addition to his other remarkable qualities, had "honest instincts," or, a natural desire to be honest.

As I looked at the dimly portrayed features of this genius of the Conservative party, I felt a great feeling of satisfaction, a glow of thankfulness, that one, at least, of its members had "honest instincts." I will admit that a shade of doubt as to the lasting qualities of the medicine, came to me at first, as I realized that "honest instincts" must be very scarce amongst them, to be so unusually emphasized. However, the old parable of the little leaven that leaveneth the whole lump cheered me again. Perhaps this man, who, at least, desired to be honest, would influence the others, who were promising to put money in our pockets if we would vote for them (evidently forgetting that the money must first come from these same pockets of ours), not to put all our currency out of circulation, by themselves utilizing it in private pocket banks.

When I had thoughtfully read their arguments, their accusations, their promises, their graphic descriptions of the country's spendthrifts, I decided that their leader, if his "honest instincts" were operative, was indeed a savior, not, perhaps, of his country, but, at least, of his party. I thought his followers must indeed honor him. I prayed for them that his "honest instincts" might expand into something practical. I conclusively decided that the hope of this Conservative party was this leader of theirs, who, amidst their struggle for a chance to "put money in our pockets," had, at least, the root of that rare exotic plant in political life—honesty.

—Francis Daor.

LIBERAL CANDIDATES.

HUGH GUTHRIE, M.P.

One of the most promising Ontario Liberals at Ottawa is Hugh Guthrie, of South Wellington. A good lawyer, an excellent platform orator, with magnificent physique and an engaging personality, he is a man formed by nature in a generous mood. Although he has only sat in the House since 1900 Mr. Guthrie has early made his mark as a man with a future. He is an Ontarian by birth, a son of Donald Guthrie, K.C., who also represented South Wellington at Ottawa. He was educated at Guelph and Osgoode Hall, Toronto, and has built up an excellent practice at Guelph, besides which he has acted as Crown prosecutor in many important cases.

CHARLES A. ANGERS, M.P.

The member for Charlevoix has represented the riding at Ottawa since January, 1896, when he was elected to succeed the late H. Simard. He was re-elected in the following general elections and again by an increased majority in 1900. He was born at Malbaie, P.Q., and educated at Laval, where he graduated as an advocate and has built up a large practice at Murray Bay. Mr. Angers is an infrequent speaker in the House, but is an excellent worker in committee, and has the reputation of excellently guarding the needs of his constituency. His re-election is confidently looked for in Charlevoix.

NIPISSING LIBERALS.

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—The Liberals of Nipissing will hold their nominating convention at North Bay on Wednesday next, the 21st inst. It is expected that Mr. Chas. A. McCool, the present member, will again receive the nomination.

BRODEUR CLUB EXCURSION.

A special meeting of the Brodeur Club will be held to-night to complete arrangements for the grand excursion to Otterburn Park on Sunday next. All the preparations for this event are moving smoothly, and there is every indication that it will be a great success. Tickets can be obtained from the office of Le Canada, 75 St. James street.

LIBERAL MEETING TO-NIGHT.

A special meeting of the Ste. Marie Liberal Club will be held to-night at Chagnon Hall, corner of Ontario and Panet streets. Amongst others who have been invited to speak are Hon.

MR. ARTHUR GEOFFRION,

Who is a Candidate for a Seat in Ste. Cunegonde Council.

R. Prefontaine, Senator Dandurand, J. P. B. Casgrain, H. Gervais, M.P.; C. B. Piche, S. A. Lacombe, M.P.P., and D. Lafortune.

AFTER FEDERAL HONORS.

Mr. A. Bissonnette, M.P.P. for Soulanges, has been in Montreal for some days past. It is reported that he is trying to secure the conservative nomination in Soulanges for the Federal House, as opponent to Dr. A. Bourbonnais, the sitting Liberal member.

THE TRIAL AT THE SOO.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Sept. 15.—Will H. Moore, a young American citizen, was the chief witness in the election protest against Mr. C. N. Smith, M.P.P., yesterday. Mr. Moore swore that he was one of the party of personators on the tug Minnie M., but had refused to vote, being only nineteen years old. He told the story of the trip in detail, in general corroborating the story told yesterday of the boat's trip.

Other witnesses deposed that at the election there were only five men around the Helen mine, none of whom had votes, while there were only ten voters in Michipicoten although more than that number of ballots were filed. An old employe named William Brown swore that the men who came to the Helen mines on the special train were all strangers to the district. Attorney-General J. M. Gibson was subpoenaed as a witness on the trial, but has been notified that he will not be needed.

NORTH GREY ELECTION TRIAL.

Owen Sound, Ont., Sept. 15.—At the North Grey election trial yesterday Mr. James T. Nelson, of Buffalo repeated the story he made in an affidavit last March to the effect that he had been engaged by "Cap." Sullivan to send eight men through the "Three Norths" for the purpose of corrupting the bye-elections. The onl yspecific charge of corruption yet brought was that one Roy McMurchy had bribed a voter named O'Farrow. The charge fell to the ground, being flatly contradicted by McMurchy and other witnesses.

ST. GABRIEL LIBERAL CLUB.

St. Gabriel Liberal Club will hold its first regular meeting for the season to-morrow (Friday), evening at 8 o'clock, at Quintal's Hall, corner of Centre and Charlevoix Streets. It is specially requested that all Liberals of the district, wishing to have their names placed on the voters' lists attend this meeting and steps will be taken to complete the lists.

MR. McEVOY ACCEPTED EXPLANATION.

London, Ont., Sept. 15.—Mr. J. M. McEvoy, the Liberal solicitor of this city, has discontinued his slander action against R. R. Gamey, for alleged statements made in the Muskoka bye-election. Mr. Gamey denied having made the statements attributed to him and Mr. McEvoy accepted the explanation.

NO WIRE-PULLING THERE.

Toronto, Sept. 15.—The absurd rumor circulated that Sir William Mulock was trying to secure the nomination of Mayor Urquhart as Liberal candidate for North Toronto, was set at rest by President E. Fielding, of the North Toronto Liberal Association. "Neither Sir William Mulock nor anyone else will direct the action of our convention" he said. "Our people will select their own candidate and despite the interested rumors circulated by the Conservatives, there is not the slightest suspicion of "wire pulling.'"

EAST LAMBTON LIBERALS.

Watford, Ont., Sept. 15.—The East Lambton Liberal convention to nominate a candidate for the Federal elections will be held here on Wednesday, Sept. 21. It is probable that Mr. Charles Jenkins, will again be the choice of the party. It is expected that Hon. Mr. Paterson or some other Cabinet minister, will address the cvonvention.

MONTCALM LIBERALS MET.

St. Esprit, Que., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—A meeting of the Liberals of Montcalm county, was held here yesterday, at which the nomination of a Liberal candidate was discussed. On the advice of Chairman M. Lapierre, the prefect of the county, action was deferred until a formal nominating convention should be called. Mr. J. O. Dugas, M.P., for Montcalm, gave an excellent address and at the request of many of those present declared his willingness to again accept the nomination.

TO STUMP MARITIME PROVINCES.

Moncton, N.B., Sept. 15.—(Special.)—It is announced here that Hon. T. Chase Casgrain of Montreal and Mr. E. F. Clarke, of Toronto, will hold a series of meetings through the Maritime Provinces. Meetings are already booked for Moncton on Saturday, Sept. 24; and Amherst, N.S., on Monday the 26th.

MR. MISCAMPBELL MAY BE DISQUALIFIED.

Toronto, Sept. 15.—There is a strong possibility that whenever an election for the Provincial Legislature may be called at Sault Ste. Marie, Mr. Andrew Miscampbell will not be in position to run in the Conservative interests. At his examination here he admitted that athough his legitimate election expenses were only $779, no less than $2,000 was sent into the riding from the celebrated Conservative party "purity fund." He personally drew on Mr. E. B. Ryckman, of Toronto, the treasurer of the fund, for $900, and declared that he had handed back $121 in cash just before the examination started. Besides this Mr. Miscampbell said that Mr. W. J. Thompson, of the Soo, ex-president of the local Conservative Association, got $1,100 from Mr. Ryckman. He had concurred in the sending of this money to Mr. Thompson, but said he did not know what was done with $700 of this money.

MR. R. L. BORDEN'S EXPLANATION.

Toronto, Sept. 15.—(Special.)—Mr. R. L. Borden made the following statement to a reporter last night. The "statement that I attacked Hon. Mr. Blair at St. John is absolutely unfounded, and no one who had read a fair report of my St. John speech could honestly make that statement. What I did say was that Mr. Blair had characterized the Government's transcontinental railway scheme as a mad scheme and as utter folly, and Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick had interpreted certain of Mr. Blair's utterances as attributing unworthy motives to the Government. I said not as much about that at St. John as I said in the House of Commons in the presence of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. I said it seemed to be rather a humiliating thing for the Government to select a man who had impugned their motives and characterized their policy as mad and to appoint him to one of the highest judicial and administrative positions in Canada, while at the same time they persisted in the policy which he thus denounced. I attacked the Government, not Mr. Blair."

EMIGRATION SECRETARY PLEASED.

Mr. John Prevarthen, secretary of a London, Eng., emigration society, returned yesterday to Montreal from a trip through the Northwest. Mr. Prevarthen is very favorably impressed with the conditions of the country and at the C.P.R. offices yesterday he said that his society would, next year, undoubtedly send out a large number of immigrants.

PROPOSAL TO DINE DEPARTING VICEROY

Board of Trade Discusses Arrangements for Farewell in October.

Lord and Lady Minto will not be permitted to sail out on the homeward voyage without testimony of the high esteem in which they are held by the citizens of Montreal, it having now been practically agreed that they be guests at a complimentary banquet early in October.

At yesterday's meeting of the Council of the Board of Trade the matter was introduced by the president, Mr. Geo. E. Drummond, who referred to the general regret that His Excellency's term of office had expired. His suggestion that a banquet might be the most suitable means of giving testimony to this feeling, was received with enthusiasm, and the executive was empowered to confer with the Chambre de Commerce and representatives of the City Council with a view to making arrangements.

The members present at the meeting were:—Messrs. George E. Drummond, president; W. I. Gear, first vice-president; James Thom, treasurer; H. B. Ames, R. M. Ballantyne, George Caverhill, Leslie H. Gault, Albert Hebert, F. H. Mathewson, Charles Meredith, Donald Munro, G. F. C. Smith, and John T. Wilson.

MR. HERB. J. ROSE, B.A. (McGill).

Son of Dr. Rose, of Hamilton, Ont., and winner of a Rhodes scholarship, now on his way to England. He is in the city to-day. Dr. Rose will arrive in Montreal to-night, and will accompany his son to England.

MONTREAL REGIMENTS WANT GOOD CONDUCT PAY

The Matter Was Presented to Minister of Militia's Notice Yesterday.

Ottawa, Sept. 15. — (Special.) — The Militia Department is considering the case of the Montreal regiments' demand for the extra fifty cents a day good conduct pay. The first provision was to grant this to militiamen attending camps after July 1st. As several regiments had gone into camp prior to that date, the order was extended to June 1. The Montreal regiments are the only ones which have demanded to be placed upon the same footing for their work in the armories and evening training. The member for Hochelaga, Mr. Rivet, and the prospective member for St. Antoine division, Mr. Peter Lyle, saw the Minister of Militia about the matter yesterday, and urged the case of the men.

PLOT AGAINST ROOSEVELT.

Houston, Tex., September 15.—News of a plot against President Roosevelt, of the United States, is told here by E. Lee Hawes, editor of a newspaper published in Mexico City, from which place he has just arrived. He says the Mexican police had cable information concerning the departure from Barcelona of two conspirators selected for the deed. The Spaniards reached Vera Cruz on September 5, where, owing to cabled information, the Mexican police had nothing to do but take them in. The whereabouts of the conspirators at present is not known.

COLLISION AT QUEBEC.

Quebec, September 15.—(Special.)—The Collier steamer Britannic, while leaving the outer Louise basin yesterday ran into the schooner Stella Morins, three hundred tons register, laden with birch slabs and nearly cut her in two. The Britannic proceeded on her way uninjured, but the schooner which was badly damaged had to be towed into the inner basin where she now is in a water-logged condition.

FUNERAL OF LAKE VICTIM FOLLOWED BY MANY FRIERDS

Athletes, Insurance Men and Religious Leaders Attend Louis Huxley's Body to His Early Grave.

Louis Huxley, who was drowned on Thursday last, while canoeing with some companions from Chateauguay to Dixie, was laid to rest Tuesday afternoon. The cortege started from Mr. Wray's undertaking premises in St. Catherine Street, and was largely attended by athletic and business friends. The impressive funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Hugh Pedley of Emmanuel Congregational Church.

The floral tributes included offerings from the staff of the Royal Insurance Company and the Laurel Club, of which young Mr. Huxley was a member. Among those present were: Messrs. S. Huxley, O. Smith, W. H. Black, G. Horne Russell, W. MacKay, J. H. Labelle, R. T. R. Holcomb, W. T. Holcomb, A. McA. Murphy, G. Grant, A. H. Ewing, W. H. Halford, D. L. Grant, R. S. Auld, Charles Gurd, A. G. Middleton, Charles A. Thomson, R. B. Hall, A. R. Grafton, G. W. Hardisty, H. F. Jackson, and the following members of the Laurel Club:—Sholto Smith, Thomas McLaren, Andrew McMath, H. McKee and W. L. Cowan.

QUEEN'S ENDOWMENT.

Scheme to Allow Contributors to Nominate Students.

Kingston, Sept. 15.—In connection with the endowment fund to be raised for Queen's, the board of trustees intend to revive the old scheme of allowing contributors to nominate students to an arts course in the university. There is opposition to this, as the revenue of the institution will be reduced for many years, as it has been through the free use of former endowment nominations until very recently. As the nominations so far have applied only to arts, the question is raised as to their extension to science and medicine. The university council is to meet on the 22nd to take steps towards organizing the graduates to aid in the raising of the endowment fund. This body will take an important part in the work.

A shipment of Morris Pianos from Toronto Exhibition received at Leach's, 2440 St. Catherine street. Intending purchasers should see these beautiful instruments.—Adv.

REV. W. F. WILSON ON CHRISTIAN ADVERTISING

Tells Endeavorers Religion Should be Kept to the Front Like Manufacturers' Goods.

At yesterday's afternoon session of the Provincial Christian Endeavor Union a new constitution was drawn up and adopted.

The new clauses dealt with election of officers and the eligibility for membership of the Provincial union.

The union which is styled the Quebec Provincial Christian Endeavor Union, outlined its purpose as to stimulate and interest in the formation of young people's societies of Christian Endeavor and local and country unions of the same, and to promote their efficiency as factors in Christian life and church work by bringing them into closer relation with each other through correspondence, reports and conventions.

After the constitution had been adopted, Rev. C. E. Bland spoke on "How to Develop the Recruits," Rev. W. F. Wilson, of Hamilton, Ont., conducted the Workers' Conference and the Junior Workers' Conference.

The evening session was held in Centenary Church. Rev. J. R. Webb presided. The members of the convention entered into an interesting discussion on the subject of Chinese Christian Endeavor, after which Rev. W. F. Wilson gave an address. Dr. Wilson insisted that Christians should stand by their principles as politicians stood by their policies. If manufacturers are willing to pay millions annually to keep their goods before the public, Christians should be as enthusiastic in making their religion apparent.

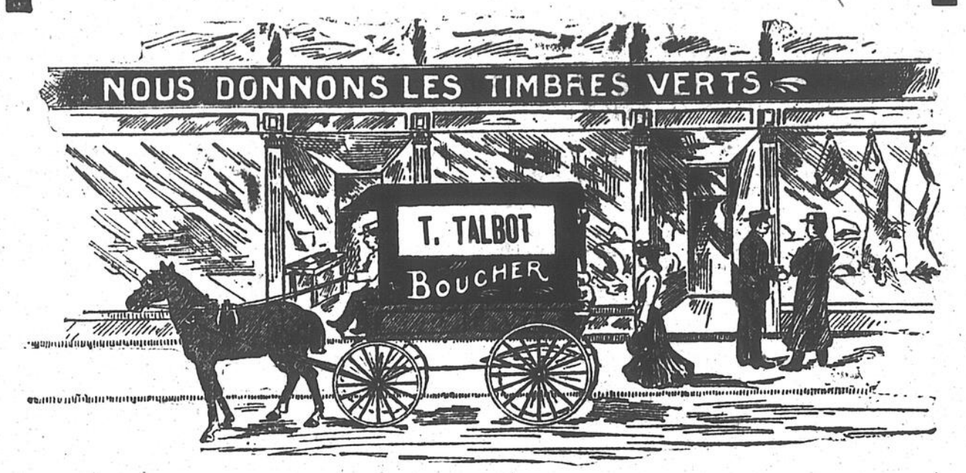

Devotional exercises were led by Rev. Dr. C. E. Amaron in the morning and by Rev. J. E. Mabety in the evening. Rev. J. L. Gilmour, presided over the day sessions.

Highland Park winners yesterday were Leota, Watch Guard, Aden, Lenida, Arrah Gowan, Trenot the Mere and Irene Mac.

Messrs. H. McLaren, J. S. Buchan, W. Mercier and W. J. Irving, of Montreal, are at the Chateau, Quebec.

The Misses McGlynn, of Stanley street, have returned to the city, after spending two weeks at St. Agathe.

Miss Mamie Ritchie, of Quebec, who has been the guest of Mrs. John Hagar, at Beaurepaire, has returned home.

Miss Taylor, Lorne avenue, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. Auchmuty, at Beaconsfield, has returned home.

The marriage of Miss G. Germain, daughter of the late Judge Germain, to Mr. George Gelf, of this city, will take place Oct. 4th.

Mr. Guy Hamel, Sherbrooke Street, who has been the guest of his grandmother at the Island of Orleans for the past week, has returned to Montreal.

Mrs. and Miss Hosmer, Mrs. and Miss Thompson, and Mrs. E. M. Henry, are among the Montrealers at the King Edward, Toronto.

Messrs. Hugh Convey, A. W. Roxham, E. J. Wayland and P. A. J. Lesperance, of Montreal, are guests at the St. Louis Hotel, Quebec.

Mr. John Thompson and the Misses Thompson, of Quebec, have been spending a few days at the Baths Hotel, en route to Kingston and Ottawa.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Evans, of Quebec, to Mr. David E. Blair, assistant general manager of the Electric Railway of this city, took place Wednesday, Sept. 28th.

Mrs. James McShane and Miss Kathleen McShane have returned home after spending two months in Plattsburg and the Adirondacks. Mrs. McShane has improved somewhat in health.

PIPED WITH A PLAID.

Extremely smart are the lines of this Fashion shirt-waist costume of gun-meteal shot taffetas, piped with a shepherd's plaid in black and white. Bias-piped bands simulate a hood effect around the shoulders, the sleeve puff is exceptionally full, plaited into the long shoulder seam, and the deep cuff runs almost to the elbow. The skirt has broad box plait in front, piped, with buttons to marak where the stitching ends. Encircling bands pass around the hips and reappear above the hem, which is cleverly interlined with a narrow strip of princess haircloth to retain the correct flare. A smart cravaet and girdle of the plaid lend an air of brightness to the somber silk; and the hat in white is of plaited net, edged with lace and finished with a huge Alsatian bow of white mousseline drawn through a narrow gilt buckle.

Early Autumn Weddings

MISS PATERSON A BRIDE.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the American Presbyterian Church this afternoon, when Miss Kate E. Paterson, only daughter of Mr. W. S. Paterson, Drummond Street, was married to Mr. Robert Baldwin Ross, son of Mr. D. W. Ross, of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Robert Johnston in the presence of a large number of guests and the church was beautifully decorated with a quantity of pink asters and palms. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a charming gown of white messaline silk trimmed with Limerick lace, her tulle veil was caught with a spray of orange blossoms, and she carried white roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Belle Mead and Miss Lillian Mead, of Grenwich, Conn., Miss Emily Disbrow, of New Rochelle, N.Y., and Miss M. Ross, sister of the groom, were gowned alike in white net over taffeta, with pink girdles, large white hats with white plumes and carried pink roses. The little flower girl, Miss Miriam Birks, was daintily gowned in pink silk, with large picture hat and carried a basket of white flowers. The best man was Mr. G. Ross, brother of the groom, and the ushers were Mr. R. C. Paterson, Mr. C. S. Paterson, Mr. A. L. Paterson, and Mr. F. J. Tees. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, Mrs. Paterson, mother of the bride, wearing a gray crepe cloth gown, trimmed with point lace and passementerie, and gray toque. The bride and groom will leave this evening on their wedding tour and on their return will take up their residence at 36 York Avenue, Westmount. The bride will travel in a pongee silk costume, with touch of red, and straw hat trimmed with poppies.

MUNROE-CLIMIE.

The marriage of Miss Laurel Climie, daughter of Mr. George Climie, Columbia avenue, to Rev. William Munroe, at the Westmount Bethlehem Congregational Church, took place yesterday, Rev. Dr. G. Munson Hill performing the ceremony. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father, and wore her travelling suit of brown cloth, with hat to match, and carried white roses. The groom was also unattended. Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Munroe, on their return from Lake Willoughby, Vt., will reside at the parsonage, on Western avenue.

M'NEILL-AUBURN.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place yesterday morning at St. George's Church, when Miss Emily Suzanne Auburn was married to Mr. Robert Ware McNeil. Bishop Carmichael performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her brother-in-law, Dr. Thos. Coleman, was gowned in a tailor-made costume of dark blue velvet, with hat to match. Miss Beatrice E. Mooney, of Vankleek Hill, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Lionel A. Guertin, best man. Mr. and Mrs. McNeil left immediately after the ceremony for a trip to Western Canada.

KEITH-M'DOUGALL.

Miss Louise McDougall, B.A., second daughter of the late Mr. D. L. McDougall, was married yesterday afternoon at half-past five o'clock, at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. H. G. Brown, Lincoln avenue, to Rev. Henry J. Keith, B.A., B.D. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Mackay, assisted by Rev. Dr. Mowatt. The bride who was gowned in white crepe de chine, with tulle veil, was attended by her sisters, and Mr. Charles Paterson acted as best man. Rev. Mr. Keith and his bride will sail shortly for India, where Mr. Keith will work in connection with the Y.M.C.A.

WALKER—HODGSON.

The marriage took place this afternoon of Miss Beatrice Hodgson, daughter of Mr. H. A. Hodgson, Westmount, to Mr. W. Earle Walker, son of Mr. J. R. Walker, the Boulevard, Westmount. The ceremony was performed at the Olivet Baptist Church by Rev. Mr. Gilmour, assisted by Rev. Mr. Webb. The bride who was given away by her father was gowned in white crepe de chene, she wore her mother's wedding veil and orange blossoms and a shower bouquet of white roses. Miss Ethel Hodgson, sister of the bride, who acted as maid of honor was in pale mauve crepe de chene with hat to match and carried mauve asters, the bridesmaids Miss Maud Walker, sister of the groom and Miss Theodora McConnell wore white shirred China silk gowns with white velvet picture hats and carried mauve asters, Mr. Harold Walker, brother of the groom, acted as best man, and the ushers were Mr. Eugene Hodgson, cousin of the bride, Mr. Clarence Stroud, Mr. Robert Pinkerton, and Mr. W. Stewart. A reception followed the ceremony, at the residence of the bride's parents, Roslyn Avenue, at which the floral decorations like in the church, were carried out in green and white. Mrs. Hodgson, mother of the bride wore a black sequin net gown over mauve silk, with hat to match. Among the out of town guests present were Mrs. Joseph Hodgson and Miss Estelle Hodgson, of New York, and Miss Anderson, of Ottawa, who wore a Parisian gown of blue net with tulle hat. Mr. and Mrs. Walker will leave this evening for Quebec en route to the Old Country. The bride will travel in a brown cloth tailor-made costume, with hat to match, with touches of burnt orange. Among the many lovely presents received by the bride was a diamond and sapphire ring from the groom, whose gifts to the bridesmaids were pearl brooches, and to the best man and ushers gold stick pins. The bride's gift to the groom was a gold fob chain.

Pot Pourri.

"LIFE."

"A little blossom
Scarce unfurled;
A day of life,
A troubling world;
A passing breeze,
A broken stem;
A drooping bud—
A Requiem."

FADS AND FRILLS.

Eternal vigilance is the price of attractiveness in dress—the realization that nothing is too insignificant for the touch of beauty, nothing too small for the charm of the unexpected.

It is acting upon this principle which gives the fashionable girl what is termed "style." After all, the ordinary is only ordinary when it remains fixed. Attractiveness always implies change. What is pretty to-day is prettier to-morrow if deft fingers or nimble wits have wrought some subtle change.

Even such a minor dress accessory as the veil may illustrate this. The girl who appreciates the value of frequent new frills has taken to embroidering the hem of her chiffon veil, and in this way has introduced in her dress a little touch that tells. With a white gown she wears a floating white chiffon veil with green clover-leaves deftly embroidered on the hem; or, if by chance her gown is brown, and she wishes to introduce just a suggestion of angerine-yellow in her costume, she does it by embroidering the border of her brown veil with nasturtium-blossoms in this new, very fashionable shade of, yellow.

A fad with many smart girls just now is to mark their underwear and many of their dainty dress accessories with a little flower in place of their monogram or initials. The young woman, for instance, who is partial to baby-blue will take a spray of forget-me-nots for her emblem, and embroider it upon her handkerchiefs, her underwear, the tops of her stockings and her veils. She may carry the idea a bit further, if she wishes, and use artificial forget-me-nots as a corsage decoration, a coiffure ornament and to trim her hats.

For the Cook.

If a jellied bouillion is wanted, cook a knuckle of veal with the meat. If the bouillion jellies when a jelly is not wanted, dilute it with hot water. Many persons prefer it made with the bones and diluted, claiming that it is richer than if made of clear meat.

VEAL LOAF.

Run four pounds of veal, one onion, half a pound of blanched almonds, a cupful of coarsely-cut celery and two tablespoonfuls of parsley through the meat chopper. Mix in a level tablespoonful of salt and half a teaspoonful of cayenne. Grease a plain mould with plenty of butter, press the meat tightly into the mould, cover, set in a pot of boiling water and boil for three hours. Remove the lid and pour off the liquid that will have accumulated on top of the meat; add to it a cupful of aspic and set to heat. Stir in the juice of a lemon and half the peel grated. Remove the mould from the water and place it on a table. Pour in the liquid prepared and run a knife down to the bottom of the mould in several places to allow the liquid to descend. Set away in a cold place over night. When ready to serve turn out of the mould and serve in thin slices with any preferred salad.

TRIANON PEACH SPONGE.

A more delicate form of sponge, which is not, however, moulded, but served piled up in a dish or in individual glasses, is made by dividing the cream and using half of it for dissolving the gelatine in, using a bare three-quarters of an ounce only for the above quantities; the rest of the cream is then whipped with the white of the eggs still stiff and added to the rest of the ingredients when they are nearly cold. Apricots, greengages, or other fruit can take the place of peaches, and the liqueur varied to taste.

IRREGULAR HAY SALES.

In giving decision yesterday in connection with a disputed hay sale, Mr. Recorder Weir said the evidence had disclosed that the sale of hay appears to be carried on in Montreal in most irregular fashion, and called for the active attention of civic inspectors.

MUCH TOO FOND OF HORSES.

George Bracken, a fifteen-year-old boy, residing on Water Street, has a more than usual fondness for horses, and as his father owns none, the love of the lad has to be expended on those of the stranger. During the past eight months he has annexed four horses and rigs on the streets of the city, and yesterday afternoon Judge Lafontaine decided the Reformatory was the place for him.

VIENNA MERCHANTS WILL VISIT.

The council of the Montreal Board of Trade have received notification from the Austrian-Hungarian consul general of the intention of the Manufacturers' Association of Vienna to visit this city on Sept. 23, in the course of a tour they are making of the United States and Canada for the purpose of studying industrial conditions.

A committee has been appointed to arrange for their reception in the rooms of the board. They have already visited New York, Philadelphia, Washington, Pittsburg, St. Louis and Chicago. After visiting Niagara and Toronto, they will reach Montreal on the evening of Sept. 22, and on the following night they will leave for Boston, where they remain until Sept. 27, when they sail for home.

BUBONIC PLAGUE IN WINNIPEG.

New York, Sept. 15.—A special cable from Buenos Ayres dated Sept. 14 says a letter received from Ascunsion, Paraguay, says that several cases of bubonic plague have appeared there. It is feared the epidemic will be more serious than on previous occasions because of the presence of large numbers of troops. Sanitary conditions in the city are very bad.

Mr. H. A. Price, Assistant-General Passenger Agent of the Intercolonial Railway, has just returned from a visit to Moncton and Halifax and in an interview to-day he seemed most enthusiastic over the heavy passenger traffic on the I.C.R., in that part of the country. The two fast express trains, the "Ocean Limited" and the "Maritime Express" are becoming more popular every day and they are being very well patronized. Now that the weather has become cool and pleasant, the trend of travel seems to be westward, and a great number of people are going to Toronto for the Exhibition and also to the Western States including the World's Fair at St. Louis. The demand for sleeping car space has been so great that numbers of people have been obliged to postpone their trips two or three days, in order to get accommodation, but this will not be obviated as the Intercolonial has received a consignment of new, up-to-date sleeping cars which will likely be used on the two express trains. Mr. Price says that business generally in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia is very good and Halifax especially, seems to be enjoying a full share of prosperity.

The Mystery of a Hansom Cab

BY FERGUS HUME.

SYNOPSIS.

The scene is laid in Melbourne. A murder by chloroform has been committed in a hansom cab. The victim is unknown and the murderer has escaped. £100 reward has been offered by the Government for any clue of the murderer. Gorby, the detective, scores a point by finding a secret pocket badly torn in the waistcoat of the victim. He also discovers, through an advertisement, where the unknown man's lodgings are. Mrs. Hadleton, the woman who keeps the house, knows more than she is willing to tell. Mr. Gerby persuades the woman to give her evidence, and finds out that the murdered man had quarrelled with someone, who threatened to murder him if he married the heiress. The detective returns that evening to Possum Villa, where he meets Moreland, the murdered man's most intimate friend, who had been away and heard nothing of the tragedy. Moreland also speaks of the heiress and of a man named Fitzgerald who was Oliver Whyte's rival. Chapter VII. tells of the heiress, Madge Frettlyby, and Fitzgerald's secret engagement. Mrs. Frettlby is thrown from her carriage and killed.

CHAPTER VII.—(Continued.)

This was the first really great trouble which had fallen on Mark Frettlby, and he seemed stunned by it. Shutting himself up in his room he refused to see anyone, even his daughter, and appeared at the funeral with a white and haggard face which shocked everyone. When everything was over, and the body of the late Mrs. Frettlby was consigned to the earth, with all the pomp and ceremony which money could give, the bereaved husband rode home, and resumed his old life. But he was never the same again. His face, which had always been so genial and so bright, became stern and sad. He seldom smiled, and when he did, it was a faint, wintry smile, which seemed mechanical. His whole interest in life was centred in his daughter. She became sole mistress of the St. Kilda mansion, and her father idolized her. She was apparently the one thing left to him which gave him a pleasure in existence. In truth, had it not been for her bright presence, Mark Frettlby would have been lying beside his dead wife in the quiet graveyard.

After a time Brian again resolved to ask Mr. Frettlby for the hand of his daughter. But for the second time Fate interposed. A rival suitor made his appearance, and Brian's hot Irish temper rose in anger at him.

Mr. Oliver Whyte had come out from England a few months previously, bringing with him a letter of introduction to Mr. Frettlby, who received him hospitably, as was his custom. Taking advantage of this, Whyte lost no time in making himself perfectly at home in the St. Kilda mansion.

From the outset Brian took a dislike to the newcomer. He was a student of Lavater, and prided himself on his perspicuity in reading character. His opinion of Whyte was anything but flattering to that gentleman; while Madge shared his repulsion towards the newcomer.

On his part Mr. Whyte was nothing if not diplomatic. He affected not to notice the coldness of Madge's reception of him. On the contrary he began to pay her the most marked attentions, much to Brian's disgust. At length he asked her to be his wife, and, notwithstanding her prompt refusal, spoke to her father on the subject. Much to the astonishment of his daughter, Mr. Frettlby not only consented to Whyte paying his addresses to Madge, but [illegible] that young lady to understand that he wished her to consider his proposal favorably.

In spite of all Madge could say, he refused to alter his decision, and Whyte, feeling himself safe, began to treat Brian with an insolence which was highly galling to Fitzgerald's proud nature. He had called on Whyte at his lodgings, and after a violent quarrel he had left the house vowing to kill him should he marry Madge Frettlby.

The same night Fitzgerald had an interview with Mr. Frettlby. He confessed that he loved Madge, and that his love was returned. So, when Madge added her entreaties to Brian's, Mr. Frettlby found himself unable to withstand the combined forces, and gave his consent to their engagement.

Whyte was absent in the country for the next few days after his stormy interview with Brian, and it was only on his return that he learnt that Madge was engaged to his rival. He saw Mr. Frettlby, and having learnt from his own lips that such was the case, he left the house at once, and swore that he would never enter it again. He little knew how prophetic were his words, for on that same night he met his death in the hansom cab. He had passed out of the life of both the lovers, and they, glad that he troubled them no more, never suspected for a moment that the body of the unknown man found in Royston's cab was that of Oliver Whyte.

CHAPTER VIII.

About two weeks after Whyte's disappearance Mr. Frettlby gave a dinner party in honor of his daughter's birthday. It was a delightful evening, and the wide French windows which led on to the verandah were open, letting in a gentle breeze from the ocean. Outside there was a kind of screen of tropical plants, and through the tangle of the boughs the guests, seated at the table, could just see the waters of the bay glittering in the pale moonlight. Brian was seated opposite to Madge, and every now and then he caught a glimpse of her bright face from behind the fruit and flowers which stood in the centre of the table. Mark Frettlby was at the head of the table, and appeared in very good spirits. His stern features were somewhat relaxed, and he drank more wine than usual.

The soup had just been removed when some one, who was late, entered with apologies and took his seat. Someone in this case was Mr. Felix Rolleston, one of the best known young men in Melbourne. He had an income of his own, scribbled a little for the papers, was to be sen at every house of any pretentions in Melbourne, and was always bright, happy, and full of news. For details of any scandal you were safe in applying to Felix Roleston. He knew all that was going on, both at home and abroad. And his knowledge, if not very accurate, was at least extensive, while his conversation was piquant, and at times witty. Calton, one of the leading lawyers of the city, remarked that "Rolleston put him in mind of what Beaconsfield said of one of the personages in Lothair. 'He wasn't an intellectual Croesus, but his pockets were always full of sixpences.'" Be it said in his favor that Felix was free with his sixpences.

The conversation, which had shown signs of languishing before his arrival, now brightened up.

SPORTING GOSSIP OF THE DAY

Who Will be World's Champions? Harley Spikes Thoney This Time

Only One Inning Played Yesterday But Harley Gets in His Work.

NO DOUBT every baseball rooter in Montreal will be interested in the series for the world's championship shortly to be pulled off between McGraw's great team in New York and the winners of the American League race. As some of the games will be played in York the biggest crowds in the history of baseball will see them.

"It looks a little now," said Manager Barrow yesterday, "as if the Bostons might pull out in the American and fight McGraw for the championship.

"However," he said, "there's no telling. That's a mighty close race, and it's difficult to pick the winner.

"Both New York and Boston are fine teams and so is that Chicago American nine. It's very evenly balanced.

Lajoie's Cleveland team is a hard hitting aggregation, but, goodness, they don't play baseball.

"With them it's up to bat, biff the ball as hard as you can, no team work, no sacrifice hitting, no inside ball.

"If the New York Americans won the pennant, wou you pick them to beat McGraw's team?"

"Well, yes, I think I would. They're full of grit, and its' a wonder they are standing where they are to-day, in view of all the hard luck they have had this year."

The Herald put the same question to "Tip" O'Neil yesterday.

"The Nationals for mine," said "Tip." "McGraw has the team. They'll kill anything the American League has in stock.

"Tip" has great faith in McGraw as a manager.

Some of the Montreal fans are already arranging to have a grandmother's funeral so that they can go down and take in the series.

An effort was made to pull off a game between the Birds and Toronto yesterday, but by the time one inning had been played the rain came down in buckets.

"Game," yelled Egan, and he did a hot-fot act for the club-house.

The only man to reach a base was Thoney, and he wishes he had gone out instead.

Mr. "Spike" Harley, of Toronto, had a reputation to maintain, and when Thoney, chased between second third by the whole Toronto team, was run down, Mr. Harley dug his celebrated spikes in his leg.

"Dutch" Hartman, the last previous victim of Harley's spikes, got back in the game for the first time.

These spiking stunts by Mr. Harley are getting altogether too frequent.

If they are accidental Harley ought to take lessons on where to keep his feet.

If they are intentional, Mr. Harley ought to be given a vacation for his health.

It's suspected now that some doctor and a hospital are giving him a rake-off on victims.

The Montreal team was undressing in the club-house.

"Bang!" went some blasting operation near the mountain.

"Hello," said Laroy, "there's Lajoie just made another two-bagger."

Walters was back in right field yesterday. "Dutch" Hartman was at third, and Thoney took Dyer's place at second.

"Fine weather they keep on tap in this city," said Barrow.

Two games to-day, and it's ladies' day.

Newark comes to-morrow and will play a double-header Saturday. The Birds have found it harder to beat Newark than any other team in the league. And Newark is playing great ball just now.

There will be a game with Newark Sunday on the Shamrock grounds.

Manager Barrow has his eye on a corking fine second baseman. Name not for publication just yet.

Collins of Boston thinks he has a great one in Grimshaw, the Buffalo first baseman.

Tom Martin's views on the weather are about as follows:—! — ! — ! x x x — x ! ! ! x x ! — ! ! ! — !

If the Japanese General Kuroki is cut off from his base, as some say, the only inference is that McManus has signed with the Russians.

One of the funniest incidents of yesterday's second game occurred in the fourth inning when Pittenger went to the bat. The entire New York outfield moved merrily into the infield and there awaited Pitt's effort. He failed to make good and struck out, much to the amusement of the crowd, who were praying for a drive to the fence.—Boston Globe.

"Muggsy" McGraw at one time played quarterback on the St. Bonaventure college team. A pretyt husky eleven could be chosen from the professional baseball ranks with McGraw, "Christy" Mathewson, Dave Fultz, Ludgren, Moran, Harry McCormick, Barry, Jake Stahl and Arthur Devlin as members.

DOES THE RUN COUNT.

In a game at Gloucester recently the following play was made: With one out, men were on first and third bases. The batsman sent a fly to the centre fielder. The man on third waited for the ball to be caught, and then beat the throw home.

The man on first, however, thinking the ball would drop safe, started around the bases.

The centre-fielder threw the ball to the catcher, who threw it to first base before the runner could get back. The run was made before the out was made at first base.

Does the run count? Umpire Carpenter, of the National League staff, say the run does not count as the man on first was put out on a continuous double play.

ENGLISH GOLFERS PLAY IN PROFESSIONAL GAME

Vardon Defeated by Braid in the Finals of Most Exciting Tourney.

The professional golf tournament at Edzell, England, which was finished on Sept. 3 with a victory for James Braid over Harry Vardon in the final round of thirty-six holes by 4 up and 3 to play, had all the cracks of England engaged. The best eight in the qualifying round were as follows: Harry Vardon 146, A. Massey 145, A. Herd 147, J. Braid 147, B. Sayers 147, J. H. Taylor 148, T. G. Renouf 150, J. White 152, R. Simpson 162. In the first match play round the open champion, who was drawn against Harry Vardon, again gave an indifferent display. He lost the first three holes and stood five down to Vardon at the seventh. The latter was playing almost at the top of his form, and, although losing the eighth and ninth, he finally won by 5 up and 4 to play. J. H. Taylor was given a close game by the Silloth professional, T. G. Renouf. The latter stood 1 up at the turn, but he was ultimately defeated by 3 and 1. James Braid easily beat Arnaud Massey, but a close match was witnessed between A. Herd and Ben Sayers.

A close match was witnessed between Vardon and Taylor in the semi-final round. Both players were at the top of their form, and completed the first nine holes in thirty-two strokes each. At that point Taylor was 1 hole up. He increased his lead to 2 up at the thirteenth, but Vardon secured the next two, and the match finally ended "all square." An extra hole was played in a downpour of rain, the result being a win for Vardon, who holed out in 5 to 6. Braid was 1 up on Herd at the turn, a lead which he held to the seventeenth hole. At the home green Herd's pitch was wide, and Braid, winning the hole, qualified for the final. The results in the semi-final round were: Vardon beat Taylor at the nineteenth hole; Braid beat Herd by 2 holes up.

The match was concluded on Sept. 3 in the final round at thirty-six holes. Vardon was the winner of the professional tournament on the same links two years ago. The match finally ended on the fifteenth green with a safe half, Braid gaining the victory by 4 up and 3 to play. The bye was halved. The approximate scores for the round were. Braid 72, Vardon 76 .

YALE'S CRACK FULLBACK GETS SIX MONTHS' JAIL

And at the Same Time His Wife is Indicted on Charge of Embezzlement.

From the position of champion of the football field to conviction and a sentence of six months in jail at Reading, Pa., with his wife under a cloud—such is the story of the downfall of Harry S. Batchelder.

In court he was called for trial on the charge of keeping a gambling house. He has been proprietor of a cigar store and allowed card playing for money and cigars in the rear room.

Batchelder pleaded guilty, expecting to get off with a fine, but Judge Ermentrout sentenced him to prison for six months and fined him $100.

While Batchelder stood before the bar the grand jury returned a true bill against his wife on the charge of embezzling $2,600 by means of a duplicate bank book from Berg Bros., in whose store she was cashier before her marriage.

A year ago Harry S. Batchelder was the champion full back of the football team of Yale, where he was studying law. In the Yale-Princeton game Miss Cassidy was one of the spectators and cast her brightest smiles when he aided his team to victory. It was their first meeting. Batchelder followed her to Reading, gave up a promising career at the bar, decided to locate there, and took the girl to Atlantic City, where they were married. She was arrested a week later.

A CHAMPION OF THE BENCH.

HEATH BARONET.

Heath Baroet, the bulldog for which George J. Gould paid $5,000 to E. A. Mills on recent European trip, is regarded as the finest specimen of its kind in the world. He has won one hundred and fifty prizes.

Mr. Gould's fancy for dogs takes a new turnin this purchase, although his brother Frank, owns several fine bulldogs.

Fanciers find reason for the price paid for Heath Baronet in his large head, small ears, prominent eyes, turned-up chin, his body swung between powerful legs placed wide apart and his short curved back and characteristic hind quarters.

Brantford Will Not Dance When C.L.A. Pulls the String

The Telephone City Team May Withdraw From Association.

The Brantford lacrosse team and the Canadian Lacrosse Association have stretched their relations to the breaking point and an open rupture which will probably result in the team from the telephone city casting off all allegiance to the controlling association is expected at any time.

The Brantford team management are incensed at the peremptory order from the C.L.A. to play Tecumsehs on Hanlon's Island on Saturday and also claim that the reinstatement of Lambe, Querrie and White is irregular. Probably the principal matter for objection is the order to play Tecumseh and this order Brantford has positively refused to obey. A special meeting of the management committee of the club was held in Brantford yesterday afternoon when it was decided to ignore the order to play off the tie with Tecumseh on the date named and instead Brantford will play the Athletics of St. Catharines in Brantford on that date.

The Brantford Club has determined to retire from the C.L.A. if justice cannot be had. The strongest feeling prevails and the Brantford press contains scorching references to the tactics adopted.

That the stand of the Brantford Club is perfectly fair is shown by a telegram received from Frank Nelson, vice-president of the C.L.A., who wired President Frank, as follows:

"No judicial committee can upset or alter or review decision of the executive committee, and no judicial committee can interfere with the senior schedule, which is a matter for the senior committee; consequently the doings of the committee on night are of no effect whatever. I protest against the trickery by which the judicial committee meetings are called without notice to the executive, who have already passed on a case.

The Brantford Club's contentions are that disputed dates can only be arranged by the senior committee of management; that suspended players desiring reinstatement shall deposit $10 before their cases can be considered, and this was not done in the case of Lambe, Querrie and White; that a judiciary committee cannot upset a ruling of the full council, and that J. D. Bailey, an officer of the Tecumseh Club and W. H. Hall, father-in-law of Querrie, who sat on the committee on Tuesday night, were interested parties.

Lacrosse men generally consider the action taken by the C.L.A. at Tuesday's meeting of the judiciary committee to be irregular and there is much severe press criticism. The Toronto Globe is a fair sample. It says:

"The governing body of lacrosse in Ontario is certainly making a record this year, and will soon be in the same class as the C.A.A.U. A player is suspended one meeting and reinstated at the next meeting. Applications for the reinstatement of other players are brought up at a special meeting without any notice being given. Representatives of the best interests of lacrosse are wanted on the C.L.A., with its ninety or more clubs, and not those who are liable to be swayed by personal feelings."

MAT AND RING.

ROGERS AND MAUPAS.

Jack Munroe, the Butte City heavyweight pugilist, who was recently defeated by Champion Jim Jeffries, is a wrestler of more than ordinary ability, and has defeated some good men on the mat. About six weeks before his contest with Jeffries, Munroe, it will be remembered, tackled Yankee Rogers in a catch-as-catch-can contest at Buffalo, and was easily defeated by the New England champion in two consecutive falls. At the conclusion of the contest Munroe said of Rogers:

"The Yankee, as you call him, is the fastest and strongest big man I ever had hands on in a wrestling match. He is much quicker than Jenkins, and fully as strong. I don't hesitate to make the prediction that Rogers will yet be champion of the United States at catch-as-catch-can style as well as at Graeco-Roman and mixed styles."

Rogers in his two contests with Emil Selva, the Italian champion, in Buffalo, gave a most strenous exhibition of all-around wrestling. He downed Selva at both styles, winning both matches in consecutive falls. The first contest was the roughest ever seen here. Selva once threw Rogers over the ropes, and the Italian was badly punished with face holds. Rogers is training hard for his contest with Maupas, the French champion, which takes place at Sohmer Park on Sept. 23, and he feels confident of beating the Frenchman.

"I will be in the best of trim for Maupas," said Rogers, "and I expect to bring the championship of both countries at Graeco-Roman style to Buffalo. If he beats me I will give him full credit, but I don't think for a moment that he can do it, no matter how good he is. My numerous successful contests the past year or so may have made me over-confident, but I can't help that. I expect to beat all of the big fellows before I stop. I am only a novice as yet."

SECOND MATE PICKED UP.

New York, Sept. 15.—Semi-delirious, and with his body crushed from hips to arm-pits, Edward B. Ghaham, second mate of the schooner Theta, who drifted for thirty hours on a single stick of wreckage after the Theta was run down at sea Sunday night, has arrived at Penth Amboy, N.J., on the schooner Cohasset, which picked him up.

Graham had been given up as lost. A short time after the collision all the crew except Graham were picked up by the steamship Mohican and landed at Wilmington, N.C., as the steamship went south. Reports were then sent out that Graham was the only one lost.

HUNGARIAN OFFICIAL EXAMINES OUR CANALS

Thinks They Need No Improvement—His Government Ready to Spend Large Sums.

The inspection of the cana system of Canada and the United States is the mission that has brought Mr. Andreas Iszaki to Canada, and he is now at the Windsor. Mr. Iszaki is an official of the Hunfarian Government, a chevalier of the order of Francis Joseph, and holds other honors and titles of distinction.

"We in Hungary desire to have our canal system improved, and we are prepared to spend a large sum of money in improving it. But we desire also to get the very best we can for our outlay, and consequently I came to America to study and inspect the systems in use in Canada and the United States. I am very much pleased with the canals I have seen here. From what I can judge, your system does not need any improvement."

To-day Mr. Iszaki visited the Soulanges canal, and will go from here to Peterboro to inspect the hydraulic lift lock recently installed there.

RETAIL MERCHANTS EAVE BIG INSURANCE SCHEME

Federated Council Appoints Directors and Recommends it to Association's Approval.

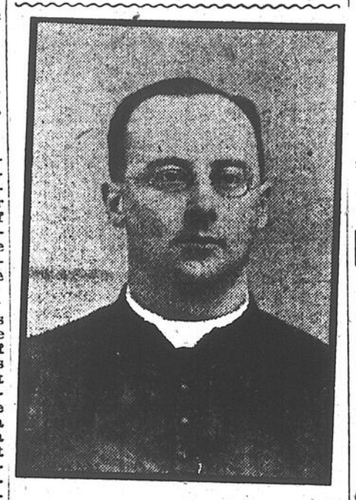

The Federated Council of the Retail Merchants Association at a meeting held yesterday afternoon, considered a project to form a Merchants Assurance Association. The plan as outlined by Mr. J. O. Gareau, the president, was to form a company with a capital of $750,000. Of this amount $150,000 had already been subscribed, and $50,000 paid in. It was intended to deposit $25,000 with the Government. The directors appointed to the association were Ald. N. Lapointe, S. Lachance, J. Fortier, C. Vallee, J. Jeannotte. F. Labelle, and J. O. Gareau.

As soon as the assent of the Federation to the plan is secured the assurance will be placed in force.

REV. CANON DAUTH,
Vice Rector of Laval University.

HOMER'S LONG VOYAGE.

Many strange stories have been told about racing pigeons and their wanderings when lost. Nothing, however, is more curious than the history of a bird belonging to Mr. Jacob Taylor, of Dudley Hill, Bradford, Eng.

In the Rennes race last year a gale caused many pigeons to go astray and one of these, belonging to Mr. Taylor, becoming exhausted, finally took refuge on the Amazon, bound from Cardiff to Australia. This was about fifty miles W.S.W. of Falmouth. The bird was caught and its wings clipped, and during the voyage out to Australia it ran about the deck, being liberally supplied with food by Captain Garrick and the crew, who made a pet of it.

The vessel began the return voyage from Australia on March 20, this year, and arrived at port on July 22. The pigeon had thus made a journey round the world, and its ownership having been ascertained by the National Homing Union ring on the leg the pigeon has been restored to its loft at Dudley Hill, looking strong and healthy.

DETECTIVE COTE IS REDUCED TO RANK OF FIRST-CLASS CONSTABLE

Police Committee Decided That an Example Must be Made and Motion to Reduce Detective Cote Was Carried Unanimously.

As a result of his indiscretion in the Lalonde affair, Detective Cote was retired from the detective force and placed on the list of first-class constables, by the Police Committee at its meeting yesterday afternoon. The committee's decision was concurred in by all the members.

Ald. Wilson made a motion to reinstate Cote as detective, but the motion was unsupported. Ald. Paquin tried to have a clause added to the motion of retirement, that as soon as Cote should re-establish himself in the confidence of his superiors, he be again placed on the list of detectives. The committee would not hear of any such provisions being made.

At the opening of the meeting, Coroner McMahon sair that part of his remarks at the night session had been misunderstood. He did not wish to be understood as saying that none of the detectives in the province were qualified. What he had meant to say was that there was no proper provision in the country for training detectives. He had spoken of the ideal detectives as trained in certain European schools. Coroner McMahon concluded with the remark that he was well aware of the ability of Chief Carpenter and other men he could name.

AN IMPORTANT EXPLANATION.

Mr. L. T. Marechal, representing the Society for the Protection of Women and Children also made an explanation. When he declared at the evening session that he was prepared to call witnesses to prove that the bellboy had told two reporters that Detective Cote had remained two hours in a room with Mamie Lalonde, he did so in good faith, but upon closer enquiry he found out the reporters had not heard the statement made. He, therefore, felt it to be his duty to inform the committee of this fact in explanation of his cross-examination.

Chairman St. Denis, in taking up the regular business, remarked that he had found no reason to change his opinion in the case since Cote had been suspended. He had never considered Cote guilty of a moral offence or thought that he had contributed to the death of the young woman. But at the same time he was convinced that Cote had not performed his duty. While in a general way Ald. St. Denis favored dismissal, he thought that when all the circumstances were considered a more lenient punishment might be inflicted. Detective Cote had but two years more to serve to get his pension, and perhaps the committee might decide to keep him on the police force, but not as a detective, so that he would not lose his pension.

RESTORE PUBLIC CONFIDENCE.

Ald. Chausse said that something must be done to restore public confidence in the detective force. In the face of the facts an example must be made, so he therefore proposed that Detective Cote be reduced to the rank of first-class constable.

Ald. Wilson thought that Detective Cote had received sufficient punishment already and considering that he had cleared his reputation in the investigation, there was no reason why he should not be reinstated as detective. Ald. Wilsin then made an amendment to this effect.

Ald. Paquin said that he would be willing to support the motion of Ald. Chausse, if that gentleman would add a clause to his motion to the effect that as soon as Cote should prove his right to promotion and re-establish himself in the confidence of his superiors, he be reinstated as a detective.

Chairman St. Denis said that this proposed clause meant nothing in reality, as the committee could not be bound to such an agreement.

Ald. Stearns objected to any condition being attached to the motion.

Ald. Paquin consented to withdraw the proviso.

The amendment to re-instate Cote as a detective was put to the vote, but was supported by Ald. Wilson alone.

Ald. Chausse's motion to reduce Cote to the rank of first class constable was then carried unanimously.

RETIREMENT OF CAPTAINS.

The committee then took up the question of retiring certain police officers who had served long periods on the force. Captain Egan was mentioned, but Ald. Walsh remarked that a report ought to be made out on the matter. The committee approved of the idea, and Chief Legault will be asked to make a report on the police captain who should be retired and also recommend lieutenants for promotion.

The following were taken on as p licemen: Thos. Neville, P. Dooner, E. Price, R. Lacombe, N. Fontaine, J. Deguire, A. Fafard, A. Poirier, e Constable Charland and H. Teasdale

Stocks and Money.

STOCKS WERE FIRM WITH STRENGTH IN CAN. PACIFIC ONE OF DAY'S FEATURESS

Stocks were inclined to hold well today with the strength in Canadian Pacific a conspicuous feature of the market.

Dominion Coal again ran over the 61 point this morning, but there is no particular significance to be attached to this movement.

Coal is in a somewhat peculiar position just now as there seems to be little or none for sale either here or in the Boston market. Indeedd one Boston wire said: "No coal for sale here and it seems to be in the hands of the Canadians altogether.

This circumstance therefore leaves the stock at the disposal of the room traders and unless we are very much mistaken the present advance is the result of a little judious speculative buying well-timed to influence the market when there is little or no stock offering.

This circumstance therefore makes a discussion on the merits of the stock at these figures entirely unnecessary. The "Street" in general is bearish on it at these figures but the interest in the stock is limited, and, as intimated before, the trading confined to the traders.

There was nothing startling in the crop news this morning.

Clear and cool weather was reported from Manitoba and light local frosts were predicted for to-night.

There were also frosts at many points in the States but the scare seems to be over.

May wheat in Chicago to-day dipped as low as 115 1-4, compared with 118 1-4 the highest yesterday.

The trading in Pacific here was larger than it has been for some time past. The sales were something over 1,000 shares. The stock opened at 126 1-4, ran to 126 7-8 in line with the strength in New York and sold later at 126 3-4.

Coal after selling at 61 1-2 broke two points to 59 1-2.

Steel bonds were firm at 73.

The Duluth, South Shore annual statemnt out to-day showed gross earnings for the year of $2,524,612, against $2,472,135 last year, operating expenses of $1,749,456, against $1,758,090,and a deficit of $283,451, against last year's deficit of $31,204. In 1902 the road had a surplus of $20,327.

The revival of the Canadian export trade is apparent from the figures for August, which were issued to-day. The agricultural industry is the one which sows the greatest improvement. Taking the first two months of the present fiscal year, the showing is not a very good one, but it is due to the temporary setback of trade in July. Following are the imports and exports for the two-months' period:—

Imports for consumption—

	1903.	1904.
Dutiable goods	$24,880,146	$24,896,233
Free goods	16,140,143	15,602,767
Total	$41,030,289	$40,499,000
Duty collected	6,720,777	6,782,568

Exports—Domestic products only—

The fisheries	1,686,158	2,027,135
The forest	8,034,548	7,481,332
Animals and their produce	13,883,444	12,897,350
Agriculture	5,874,701	5,215,203

JAP BONDS.

Japanese 6 per cent. bonds were quoted at New York to-day at 94. This is a decline of ⅝.

The sales to noon in Wall Street today amounted to 535,600 shares.

Northern Securities in Wall Street were quoted at 103¾ to 104⅛.

FORGET'S CABLE.

L. J. Forget & Co.'s London cable quoted Grand Trunk first at 100½; second at 87, third at 39, Canadian Pacific at 130, Anaconda at 4⅜ and Hudson Bay at 42½.

BANK OF ENGLAND.

The weekly statement of the Bank of England shows the following changes:

Total reserve increased £978,000; circulation, decreased, £416,000; bullion, increased, £562,203; other securities, decreased, £463,000; other deposits, decreased, £1,877,000; public deposits, increased, £2,443,000; notes, reserve, increased, £963,000; Government securities unchanged.

The proportion of the bank's reserve to liability this week is 58.56 per cent., as compared with 57.15 per cent. last week.

NOON LETTER.

A wire to Mr. C. D. Monk said: The market opened strong, Pennsylvania again the leader with Steels closely following and strength appeared throughout the list. Some further reports of frost came to hand, and there was some heavy profit taking. Nothing of a serious character developed in the belt, however, and warmer weather being predicted the disposition is to await results in steel billet pool meeting. Market at noon is holding very well, and some good weather news would cause a sharp rally.

CHEERFUL IN LONDON.

London, 3.30 p.m.—All markets have a cheerful tone, with rising tendency.

STEEL KEEPS STRONG.

Noon Letter.—The market opened at general advances this morning, and during the first hour the tone was strong and active. Pennsylvania was again the leader of the movement, and rumors were current that a settlement of the difficulties between the Pennsylvania and Wabash would soon be effected. Heavy profit taking was indulged in on the advance, however, which caused a reaction throughout, but the tone grew duller on the decline and is now about steady at the lower prices. United States Steel issues continue very strong, and sentiment is very confident in regard to the future of the Steel trade. The local traction issues were all inclined to sell off from the start.—E. & C. Randolph.

LONDON CLOSING.

London, Close.—Anac., 4 1-2 and 87 1-2; A., 85 3-8 to 83 1-4; C.P.R., 130 and 126 3-4; St. Paul, 163 and 156 3-4; Erie, 33 1-4 and 32 1-2; E. F., 70 3-4 and 68 3-4; Ills., 142 3-4 and 139 1-4; L. American stocks in London closed steady.

THE BOSTON MARKET.

Boston, September 15.—The local market is less active this morning and prices are inclined to sag. The exceptions are the Steel stocks, which opened strong and are holding so. The Coppers are quiet and prices are irregular. Telephone sold off 1 1-4 to 138 1-4. Mass. Gas sold off half to 42 1-2. U. P. and Atchison are also weak. Coal opened up at 61 1-2, but later was offered at 60 1-2, now offered at 60. Iron sold at 11.—Chas. Head & Co.

SUES C. P. R. FOR $125,000.

It is reported at Macleod that Senator McLaren has entered suit against the C.P.R. for $125,000 damages, caused by the forest fires of the past few months. His extensive timber limits of the Crow's Nest are practically ruined. It is alleged that the fires were started by sparks from the C.P.R. locomotives.

RISE IN CABLE.

For the first time in several months a sale of Commercial Cable stock was recorded yesterday. Two hundred shares changed hands at 210. This represents an advance of 30 points. The great majority of Cable stock was converted into securities of the Mackay companies.—N. Y. Herald.

FINANCIAL CHIPS.

Bank of England rate unchanged.

Americans in London irregular, with Steel stocks and Harriman issues very strong.

H. H. Rogers returned from Europe.

Thirty-six roads first week September show average gross increase 4.20 per cent.

Purchase of 100,000 tons of rails by Harriman system denied.

St. Paul annual report shows surplus after charges equal to 10.05 per cent. on both classes of stock.

London bullish on Harriman and Morgan stocks.

Amsterdam no longer bullish on Texas.

Speyer & Co. buy $6,000,000 Vera Cruz and Pacific 4½ per cent. bonds at 88½.

Iron Age says thus far steel trade indications are not particularly favorable.

Demand for currency for the South increasing. Banks lost to Sub-Treasury since Friday $4,605,000.

No truth in report that Ill. Central is seeking control of Wisconsin Central.

CONSOLS.

Consols:—London, Consols for money, 88⅛; account, 88 9-16; advance, 1-16. Money on call, 1½ to 1¾; discount short bills, 2 3-8 to 7-16 per cent.; for three months, 2 7-16 to ½ per cent.

CROPS THE FEATURE.

This opinion was expressed by Laidlaw & Co. over the wire this morning:—"The immediate market will continue to be dominated by the weather reports, and it is not impossible that these may cause sharp rises and depressions from time to time, but sentiment in the most influential quarters is distinctly cheerful and the best opinion is that barring disaster to the growing crops, which now seems unlikely, the market will enjoy increased activity upon a higher scale of prices."

"Street" Gossip.

Reasonable View Of the Market By James J. Hill

James J. Hill's fame as a prophet is again in the ascendant. His July prediction of a total wheat crop of 540,000,000 bushels is exactly what is indicated by the Government crop report. Another famous prediction by Mr. Hill was in the year 1900, when he said the country was on the crest of the wave of prosperity, and he was scoffed at and ridiculed by practically the entire nation, which could not see anything but further "good times" ahead. What followed is history. There are a large number of people, including professional operators, who will hereafter closelly follow Mr. Hill's judgment as to conditions and the general outlook. And right here it can be said that a close business associate of Mr. Hill and a high official of the Great Northern is authority for the statement that, while Mr. Hill is not a pessimist, or a "bear" in the stock market sense, he does not share the present widespread bullish views as to the general outlook. In fact, he believes in a further period of rest and recuperation before there can be any prolonged stock market boom.

The Sloss-Sheffield Earnings for Quarter

Sloss-Sheffield Steel & Iron Co.'s report for the quarter ended Aug. 31, 1904, compares as follows:—

	1904.	1903.	1902.
Net profit from oper.	$214,815	$364,928	$347,168
Deprec. & chgs. to extra rep. and res. fd.	.....	37,601	35,199

Total surplus	$2,441,210	$2,225,043	848,634

The reduction in earnings for the quarter was caused partly by all of the union mines being on strike during the entire months of July and August.

John W. Gates Says He is Still Bullish

Regarding the stock market John W. Gates has the following to say: "I am still a bull on the stock market situation. Everything, however, will depend on the outcome of the corn crop. If the fact is established that the production of corn will be good stocks will go higher. I would give 20,000,000 for definite information regarding corn.

"So far as money conditions are concerned there is nothing to fear. The New York banks were never in such a sound position as they are now, I have been a bull for the last eight months and am still a bull, denials to the contrary notwithstanding."

Quebec Light and Power Statement

The financial statement of the Quebec Railway, Light & Power Co. shows the net earnings of the system to be $22,079.86 over the previous year. The unusual severity of last winter, together with the heavy falls of snow, caused an increase in the expenditure for operating expenses amounting to $843.74 over and above the previous year, but notwithstanding these conditions the net earnings from al divisions amounted to $17,426.47.

The citadel division of the system carried during the year 4,457,761 passengers, and the Montmorency division 77,310, an increase of 79,369 over the previous year. There were 114 organized pilgrimages against 103 the previous year, and 43 special excursions.

The mileage made by the sweepers last winter was 11,571, an increase of 1,295 over the previous winter.

The power division of the system furnished light for 58,755 on June 30 last, and also 1,530 horse power for commercial industries, and 190 arc lamps.

The figures do not include the Montmorency and citadel divisions of railway, nor the 1,000 horse power furnished the Montmorency Cotton Company mills.

The old board of directors were re-elected, the personnel of which is as follows:—

President—Mr. A. Thomson.

Vice-president—Mr. Frank Ross.

Directors—Hon. J. Sharples, E. W. Methot, Hon. S. N. Parent, Wm. Shaw, Wm. Hanson, Geo. H. Thomson and F. W. Ross.

Mr. E. A. Evans, general manager and chief engineer.

Crops in N.W.T.

Swift Current, N.W.T., Sept. 14.—Sir Thos. Shaughnessy and party reached here this evening, running by daylight from Brandon. They interviewed a large number of persons in the grain centres, and the consensus of opinion estimates the crop yield as much larger than last year's. In Regina section over 30 per cent. of the wheat is cut, as against 20 per cent. cut at this time last year, when Regina was visited by a heavy snowfall. The weather to-day throughout the Northwest is brilliant.

Market Reports.

HIGHEST WHEAT PRICES SINCE LEITER DEAL PAID IN THE TORONTO MARKET

A wire from Toronto says:—The highest prices since the famous Leiter deal in Chicago in 1898 were paid for wheat at St. Lawrence market this morning, a quantity of wheat for cereal purposes selling at $1.11 per bushel. During the boom following the Leiter deal prices soared to $1.40 for wheat in the street, through the artificial conditions created as a result of the corner in Chicago, and since then wheat has several times crossed the dollar mark for street deliveries, but the price has invariably failed to reach the price touched this morning. As to how long these prices will obtain dealers say they are as much in the dark as the veriest amateur, but they claim that for the time being the high prices will probably encourage farmers to hold back their grain, and so make the trade here stagnant.

"There is nothing like a falling market to make the farmer market his grain," said a dealer this morning. "While this market continues to go up," he continued, farmers all over the country will hang on to their grain, but as soon as the inevitable reaction occurs there will be a big rush to get their holdings to the buyers, and this will, of course, accentuate the weakness of prices when the tide of speculation turns. At present farmers are holding on to their grain like grim death, and the result is that the trade here is the dullest in several years."

On the Board of Trade dealers reported that there was very little business moving, and few would hazard a guess as to when trade will pick up. However, they all agreed that farmers will not disgorge until prices either go much higher or a slump occurs. In the meantime holders show no inordinate anxiety to dispose of their grain, and with the exception of a few loads occasionally for milling purposes, there are few sales reported.

The Chicago market was much quieter today, and at the opening there was a good deal of profit-taking on the failure of frost damage reports to materialize. Temperatures were higher in the Canadian Northwest. The frost last night apparently did some damage there, but not very much. A Winnipeg despatch says that there was frost in the extreme western portions of the Northwest Territories, but not sufficient in Manitoba to cause much damage to the small percentage of wheat still standing. Farmers in Manitoza now fear more loss from rain than they do from frost. Very heavy and almost continuous rain has fallen in Winnipeg since Monday morning. This will hurt wheat in stock and delay the cutting and threshing. It is estimated, however, that fully 85 per cent. of the entire Manitoba and Territorial crop has been cut.

The general superintendent's report of the C.P.R. will not be issued this week. An official summary, however, gathered from advices on progress during the week just ended, places the wheat harvest situation as follows:—From 75 to 100 per cent. of the wheat in the West is now cut. Weather of the last week, on the whole, was favorable to the harvest, only a few points reporting unfavorably on the weather conditions for the last week. Since these advices, however, the rainfall, which began yesterday morning, has continued general throughout the West.

Cheese Held Steady At Country Boards

Cheese prices held about steady at the country markets.

Woodstock, Ont., Sept. 14.—At the cheese board to-day 2,000 boxes of the first two weeks of September cheese were offered. The market was weak, the bidding being very dull. It opened at 8½c and failed to advance beyond 8⅝c. No sales were made at this price, but on the street 500 sold at 8¾c. The increase in price two weeks ago had the effect of increasing the milk supply, and consequently the output is keeping up well enough this season. All the August cheese has been sold in this district.

Stirling, Ont., Sept. 14.—At the cheese board to-day 1,105 boxes were boarded. Sales: McGrath, 490 at 8⅝c; Hodgson, 195 at 8⅞c; Brenton, 220 at 8⅞c; Kerr, 150 at 8⅞c. Balance refused.

Picton, Ont., Sept. 14.—At our cheese board to-day 14 factories boarded 1,100 boxes, all colored. Highest bid, 9c. Sales, 1,010 boxes. Buyers: Sexsmith and Bailey.

Hogs and Provisions

The receipts of live hogs were fairly large to-day, but this fact had no influence on prices, as the demand from packers was good and sales were made freely at $5.50 to $5.60 for selected lots; at $5.25 for mixed lots, and at $5 for heavy fat, per 100 lb. There was no change in the market for fresh-killed abattoir-dressed stock. The demand was good and an active trade was done at $7.75 per 100 lb. The trade in smoked meats is rather quiet; but the demand for lard is fair and pork is also commencing to move more freely.

Cheese and Butter

Cheese.—The cheese market is again rather dull, and there is a diversity of opinion as regards current export prices. There is no doubt, however, that a fair business is being done over the cable. A few round lots of Quebec goods are being sold in fair quantity at 8¾c, which is quite the lowest for finest stock as anything under that is defective. Eastern Ontarios and Eastern Townships were being turned over at 9c to 9¼c, as also were finest Ontario makes at 9¼c.

Butter.—A fair trade at fair prices still marks the condition of the butter market. Finest Townships creamery sold at 19¼c, quite the lowest price for finest quality. Finest Quebec rules at 19c, and there is a good enquiry for seconds at 18½c or thereabouts.

Country Produce

Eggs.—There was no change in the general condition of the market this morning, although the receipts were over 300 cases in advance of yesterday. Straight-gathered stock are in good local demand and are selling in fair sized lots at 18c dozen, while selected in a jobbing way are making 21c per dozen. 727 cases were the arrivals registered at the Board of Trade this morning.

Beans.—The market is a little firmer, owing to the small offerings from the West. Choice primes in a jobbing way were selling at $1.40 to $1.45 and seconds at $1.30 to $1.35 per bushel.

Honey.—Still continues quiet without any change to note. Extracted white clover is quoted at 7½c to 8c per 10-lb. tin and 7c to 7½c per 60-lb tin. Buckwheat is still scarce at 6c to 7c and there is a fair demand for white clover comb at from 10c to 11c in the country.

Maple Product.—Is steady in rather a dull market. We quote: Syrup in 15-gal. casks, 5¼c to 5½c per lb.; in tins, 55c to 60c per wine measure, and 70c to 75c for imperial. Beauce sugar is in poor demand at 8c to 10c per lb.

Potatoes.—There is a little increase in the arrivals, but the weather will have to considerably improve if a good quality standard is to be maintained. Sales in round lots are being made at from 60c to 62c per bag and in a jobbing way at from 73c to 75c per bag.

Cattle in Toronto

Toronto, Sept. 15.—(Special.—Choice export cattle, $4.80 to $5.10; export cattle, medium, $4.40 to $4.75; export bulls, $3.50 to $4.10; export cows, $3.50 to $4; choice butchers' cattle, $4.25 to $4.50; butchers' cattle, medium, $3.60 to $4; butchers' cattle, common, $2.75 to $3.50; feeders, short keep, $3.50 to $4.20; feeders, medium, $3 to $3.50; stockers, $2.25 to $3.40; milk cows, $30 to $5 0each; export ewes, $3.75 to $4, steady; export bucks, $3 to $3.25, steady; cull sheep, $3 to $4 each, steady; lambs, $4.50 to $4.60, steady; calves, $2 to $10 per head, or 2½c to 5¼c per lb., steady. All sold. Trade good. Prospects steady. Hogs—Singers, 5¼c lb.; fats and lights, 5c off cars. Good butchers' cattle selling well. Short supplies. Export cattle, steady. Good milk cows, steady and good demand; medium or common, bad trade. Too many common ones coming in. 75 loads in to-day, including 1,326 cattle, 1,700 hogs, 2,800 sheep and lambs, 94 calves.

Grain, Flour, Hay

Grain.—An improved foreign demand for oats was a feature in the grain market today and exporters were doing business at satisfactory prices. Sales of No. 2 white were made at 32c to 32½c, low freights, west. The local market was rather uneasy and sales were only made at 39¼c to 40c per bush, while No. 3 were priced at 39½c per bush., ex store.

There was a little demand for export peas and a little business was done at 71c per bush afloat. A round lot of barely of 51 lb. to the bushel was sold for export at 50c afloat. The following are quoted. No. 2 white oats, 39½c to 40c; No. 3, 39c to 39½c, ex store. For export, No. 2 new white oats, 37½c, afloat; No. 2 peas, 71c; No. 2 rye, 62½c; No. 2 barley, 50c to 50½c; No. 3 extra, 49c to 49½c, and No. 3, 48c to 48½c, afloat.

Flour.—The market for Ontario brands in spring wheat grades was a little stronger and an increase of 10c to 25c per barrel is recorded. Winter wheat patents were in fair demand at $5.50 per barrel, and in some instances dealers were asking $5.75. A fairly good business was done in straight rollers and sales in round lots of bags were made at $2.50, ex store. Millers, however, have now advanced their prices and car lots were sold at $2.53 per bag, ex track. The following are quoted: Manitoba spring wheat patents, $5.80; strong bakers, $5.50; winter wheat patents, $5.50 to $5.60; straight rollers, $5.20 to $5.30; straight rollers in bags, $2.50 to $2.55.

Millfeed.—There is really no change to record. Shorts, which, unfortunately, are scarce, are in good demand at fair prices, while bran is rather unsettled. Manitoba bran in bags, in some instances, is quoted as low as 17 ton, while millers are actually asking from $1 to $2 in advance of this price. We quote Manitoba bran in bags $ 18 to $19; shorts, $21 ton; Ontario bran in bulk, $17; shorts, $19, and moullie, $24 to $28 per ton, according to quality.

Flour Prices

The Ogilvie Flour Mills Co. quotes the following prices:—

Ogilvie's Royal Household	5.80
Ogilvie's Glenora Patent	5.50
Manitoba strong bakers	4.90
Bran	19.00
Shorts	21.00

Wheat Showed a Stiff Drop To-day

There was quite a decline in the wheat market in Chicago to-day, notwithstanding the rather poor weather reports.

Frosts were pretty general, but the crop scare seems to have abated.

Weather Map.—Western weather map shows light frosts at all points in Iowa, except at Sioux City. There were also frosts at St. Louis, Cairo and Indianapolis. Heavy frost shown at St. Paul. Temperatures were higher in the West, but cooler east of the Mississippi River.

The various options in Chicago to-day were quoted as follows:—

	Open.	High.	Low.	12.30.
Wheat—
May	115⅝	116⅞	115⅜	116¾
Sept.	111⅞	112¼	111⅝	112¼
Dec.	113¾	115⅛	113⅝	114⅞
Corn—
May	50⅞	51½	50⅜	51⅜
Dec.	51⅜	52¼	51¾	52¼
Oats—
Dec.	32⅞	32⅞	32⅛	32⅝

The Fruit Sale.

A brisk trade was done at the Montreal Fruit Auction this morning, and bidding was rather keen at the following prices: Bananas, 37½c to 45c per bunch; Californian Bartlett pears, $1.30 to $2.70 per box; Californian plums, $1.30 to $1.90 per crate; Californian peaches, 80c to $1.10 per box. Canadian pears, in baskets, sold at 20c to 25c per basket, and in barrels at $1.50 to $2.50. Canadian apples in barrels found ready buyers at $1.10 to $2.20. Ther were sold 1 car Californian fruit, 2 cars of Canadian fruit, and 2 cars of bananas. Mr. Walter M. Kearns was the auctioneer.

A PAGEFUL OF ECONOMY HINTS

THIS CITY'S FASTEST GROWING STORE!

Just stand on the southern side of St. Catherine street and view the structure that proved adequate when this store branched out into the department store field four years ago. Contemplate then the addition that has been made to the building within the past year. Let the vision wander further west, to the Victoria street side of the block, where the final section of this store is building, and will, when completed, be a counterpart of the University street end. Stand for a few moments and behold the incoming and outgoing crowds, and become cognizant that the purpose of the bigger building is to properly care for the increasing numbers who signify their preference for shopping at Scroggie's.
