Court of Queen's Bench.

No Serious Cases on the Roll.

JUDGE LEMIEUX'S CHARGE.

The term of the Court of Queen's Bench for the District of St. Francis opened this morning in the Superior Court. Judge Lemieux presided. The other officials are G. L. De Lotbiniere, Clerk of the Court, and Peace, Sheriff McIntosh, High Constable M. e. Messrs J. S. Broderick and J. E. Genest represent the Crown.

The Court room was crowded with gentlemen from the district who are attending to answer to the summons from the Sheriff to attend as jurors.

It was half past two o'clock when the Hon. Mr. Justice Lemieux and Hon. Mr. Justice White took their seats on the Bench.

The swearing in of the following Grand Jurors was then proceeded with: A. M. Greenshields, (foreman), C. W. Libby, A. Gadbois, J. P. Gendreau, S. A. Hunting, A. Lanctot, A. B. Lyter, W. W. Morency, John Macdonald, Jos. Massey, A. M. Morency, Jas. Macdonald.

His Honor Mr. Justice Lemieux then addressed the Grand Jury. He said: Gentlemen of the Grand Jury.

A term of the Court of Queen's Bench, (Crown Side,) is always a notable event in a district.

It is in fact the occasion when prominent citizens like you are called upon, in the name of the law, to participate in the administration of justice and to hold the grand judicial inquest into the offence and crimes which have been committed against the property, persons or liberty of individuals.

Among other benefits which we, citizens of Canada, have found beneath the folds of the British flag, is the institution of the Jury, which offers us an almost infallible guarantee of the maintenance or vindication of individual rights.

In apportioning between a certain number of right minded men the responsibility of the judicial decisions affecting liberty and sometimes decreeing the death of our fellow men.

In educating and elevating the man of the people by associating him with the functions of the Judge, so that he becomes familiar to a greater extent with the working of Justice and acquires a high appreciation of the law.

Taxidermist Perret's Collection of Birds and Animals accepted by the Government for the Paris Exhibition.

Prof. Halkett has accepted Mr. Perret's collection of deer heads, moose heads, birds and animals, on behalf of Maj. Gorceaux, Deputy Minister of Marine and Fisheries, and the Commissioner controlling the Fish & Game exhibit at Paris.

The Prof. who has travelled from ocean to ocean in search of mammals and vertebrates, is enthusiastic over the collection and states that owing to the wonderfully clever work displayed by Mr. Perret, in the mounting of the specimens, the exhibit will occupy a place of honor in the Fish & Game section at Paris, and will undoubtedly be a big advertisement for Sherbrooke and the Eastern Townships.

Much praise is due the Assistant Secretary of the Commission, Mr. Broderick, through whose efforts the Commissioners decided to secure the collection.

St. Andrew's Church.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES.

The tenth anniversary of the opening of St. Andrew's Church was observed yesterday. Special services were held at which Rev. Dr. Barclay, of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Montreal, preached able discourses both morning and evening. The choir was assisted by Mr. Dunn and Miss Clark, of Montreal, who rendered solos both morning and evening, in a pleasing manner. The attendance in the morning was very large but in the evening seats had to be placed in the aisles to accommodate the people, who were present from all denominations in the city.

The collection amounted to $861, but a number of those who have already contributed have offered to add sufficient to make the collection $1000. This is the largest collection within the history of the church.

A concert will be held this evening in the Lecture Hall, when Mr. Dunn and Miss Clark will render several selections and local talent will also assist. All those who heard the Rev. Dr. Barclay yesterday will be pleased to know that they will have an opportunity of hearing him again to-night in a series of Scotch readings. Mrs. (Rev.) Gilmore will also give readings. It is expected that there will be a large attendance as the strangers are well worth hearing.

The East Sherbrooke Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. Robins, Bowen Avenue, on Friday afternoon at three o'clock.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Foreign Missionary Society will meet at Mrs. Mackenzie's on Thursday afternoon.

The church presents a very different appearance from what it did four weeks ago. Painters have been busy during that period and the result is that the interior of the Church has undergone a complete transformation, and the change was very much appreciated yesterday when the large congregations were present at the tenth anniversary services.

Mr. Garwood, who had the work in hand, is to be congratulated on the result of his labours.

His Smoke in the Dark.

"I am convinced of the truth of the old theory that the pleasure of smoking resides more largely in the taste than it does in the sight," said a business man of this city who recently underwent a minor operation for granulated eyelids. "I had to sit for three days in total darkness, and, being a confirmed smoker, I longed for the solace of a cigarette. The first difficulty I encountered was in getting a light, and I wouldn't confess my helplessness until I had burned off half my mustache. Then I let my wife hold the match, but I kept complaining that the tobacco wouldn't ignite. My wife would assure me that it was burning like a furnace, but I couldn't taste a thing.

"One of the main pleasures of the habit, although we don't realize it, is to exhale the smoke gently and watch it curl up into the air. I caught myself straining after that sight a hundred times, and there was an overwhelming sense of something missing. Except when I inhaled the smoke it was absolutely impossible to tell whether the cigar was going, so I got some cigarettes and inhaled every one. But it was a poor substitute. I felt instinctively that I was getting only a morsel of the old delight.

"When they took off the bandage, I grabbed my pipe with an avidity that surprised the entire household. I have been trying to catch up ever since."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Struck by the System. A peddler the other day found himself in an office building, occupied wholly by lawyers. He went up to the first flat looking for a customer, but he found all the doors locked. Then he went up to the second flat, and there he found everybody absent, and so at last he went to the top flat. Here he espied an open door, and, looking in, saw a man busy writing at his desk. The peddler began telling of his wares, but the lawyer interrupted with, "No, I don't want any." Still the peddler continued, and again the lawyer protested. "I tell you I don't want anything. Get out!" But the peddler persisted so that the lawyer, thoroughly angry, quickly arose and threw the intruder down the stairs.

Just as he landed the lawyer's partner appeared, and, taking it for granted that there was good reason for such action, he seized the poor man and threw him down the next flight. Strange enough, the janitor of the building saw the second landing of the peddler, and the fact that he was a peddler was enough to cause him to seize the victim and throw him down the final flight of stairs. Here the unfortunate man picked himself up, and, rubbing his bruises, observed, "Well, this is the first visit I have made to this building, and I must say they've got a perfect system."—Detroit Free Press.

The Pargorie Fend. Down the village street, getting one foot before the other with a combination of a jerk and a drag, came a shriveled, tremulous figure.

"See him?" a villager inquired of the summer resident, pointing a shoulder at the shuffling figure. "That's a pargorie fend. He swallows more pargorie than all the babies in the village put together. How'd he get in the way of taking the stuff? Well, you know, there's some old women in our town that think pargorie good for all manner of things that's the matter with your insides, and when daddy had pains from eating too much his wife dosed him with pargorie, and the first thing she knew he couldn't get on without it. He's worse'n a drunkard now, and you can't get within ten feet of him without smelling the stuff. He had a stroke a spell back, and the doctors tried to scare him about using pargorie, but it wasn't no use. He'll never stop now till he stops breathing."—Exchange.

Gold and Silver Signs. Nearly $100,000 worth of gold and over $200,000 worth of silver are left out of doors, unguarded, every night the year round in Greater New York.

No one ever thinks of stealing it, and indeed, until some inventive thief comes along the owners need have no fear, because the wealth is securely glued down and generally from ten to 100 feet above the sidewalk. It is on the signs of the city. Gold and silver leaf, far purer than the metal which Uncle Sam uses for his coins, amounting in value to over $200,000 a year, is used on the signs of this city. One brewery alone spends $50,000 annually for gold and silver leaf. Next to the brewers the cigar manufacturers go in most extensively for gold and silver signs, while a good authority has estimated that on the windows and above the doors of New York's drug stores there is enough gold to tempt any number of thieves.—New York World.

Also Anxious About It. "I would like to know," said the gruff old father to the young man who had been calling with considerable frequency, "whether you are going to marry my daughter, far purer than the metal which Uncle Sam uses for his coins, amounting in value to over $200,000 a year, is used on the signs of this city. One brewery alone spends $50,000 annually for gold and silver leaf. Accounting For the Shortage. "Brimble seems to have a good deal more money than brains." "Yes. All he inherited from his father was the money."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Have You Been Sick?

Perhaps you have had the grippe or a hard cold. You may be recovering from malaria or a slow fever; or possibly some of the children are just getting over the measles or whooping cough.

Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It will remove all impurities from your blood. It is also a tonic of immense value. Give nature a little help at this time. Aid her by removing all the products of disease from your blood.

The Mint Melting Pot. "Yes, we receive lots of things that we hate to see go into the melting pot," said an old mint attaché. "Polks in financial stress bring Uncle Sam all manner of heirlooms which are bought over the counter for their naked weight in gold or silver bullion. Art or antique don't count at the mint, and a candelabra by Benvenuto Cellini himself wouldn't bring more than a lump of raw metal fresh from the smelter. We get plate of every description, old watch cases, rings, chains, snuff boxes, spectacle frames and jewelry mounts without number.

In this section of the south there are several speculators who make a business of traveling through the rural districts and buying up all the old gold and silver they can find. They are experts in judging of the fineness of metal, and they pay as little as they can, so there must be a big profit in the trade. As a rule, the stuff they bring us and that finds its way here through other channels is old and broken and uninteresting, but now and then something of rare artistic value turns up in the lot, and we would be only too glad to take it out and make good the coin value, but the law forbids.

Butternut Grove. The farmers in this vicinity are busily engaged in digging potatoes, when the weather is favorable. Mr. R. T. Willard, from Ascot Corner, were in town last week, attending the annual Fair at Weedon and visiting friends in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Prescott, from Robinson, were spending a few days with friends in this place last week. Mr. Walter Covell out his foot quite badly. Miss Jessie Buchanan is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Willard, from Ascot, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Butler, from Linda, spent Sunday at Butternut Grove. Mr. E. Rowe attended the auction sale at Card's in Bury on Tuesday.

Mr. Frank Bean left Wednesday for Redlands, California, where he proposes to remain during the winter in Mr. Fisher's employ. Mr. Bart Reed and bride have returned from their wedding trip and will soon be in the new house which Mr. Reed has built.

Mr. Louis Magoon has sold his farm to M. Hodges, of Hereford. Miss Josie Bean is visiting friends in South Durham. A new boat house is being built on the land of Mrs. Davis. Messrs Charles and David Jackson have gone deer hunting in the region of Lake Megantic.

The singing at the W. C. T. U. meeting Wednesday evening was superb. Mr. Archie Jackson and Mr. Lewis Fisher were at their best. "The Lost Chord" was rendered beautifully by the former. Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Taylor, who were married last Saturday evening received visits from their numerous friends on Monday, who left behind many pleasing and useful presents.

L. A. BAYLEY.

FIREMEN ROBBED THE PASSENGERS.

Quebec, September 30.—The first authentic news of the wrecking of the Dominion line steamship Scotsman was obtained this morning when the passengers who had been picked up by the Elider, Dempster steamship Montfort, arrived at Rimouski on their way to Montreal.

The night was pitch dark, there was a high wind which amounted almost to a gale blowing, and the sea was running high. Captain Skrimshire, who remained on the Scotsman's bridge, fearing that the vessel would topple over and sink with all on board, at once gave orders to have the boats lowered, and issued peremptory instructions that the women were to be attended to first.

LIST OF THE DEAD.

The passengers who were drowned by the sinking of the boat as far as can be ascertained were:—Saloon passengers—Mrs. Robinson, Miss Robinson, Mrs. Child, wife of Harry Child, Miss Street, Montreal, travelling companion of Miss Dunoon, a wealthy Montreal lady.

Second cabin passengers:—Mrs. Dickinson, of Windsor, Ont., who was returning from a visit to England; Miss R. Weavers, of London, Eng., who was on her way to Port Arthur. Mrs. Watkins, England.

Infant child of Mrs. Roberts, England. It is supposed that the sinking of the boat was caused by one of the plug holes being open, which allowed the boat to quickly fill with water.

The occupants of the four remaining boats, for the most part frail and delicate women, were tossed about on the angry sea near the wreck for ten or eleven hours without food or provision of any kind. The majority of them were scantily clad and suffered terribly from the cold and exposure. Early on Friday morning the fog cleared a little, and the vessel still holding fast, the captain ordered the boats back to the vessel.

ROBBERS AT WORK.

To add to the gravity of the situation the firemen and lower grade sailors, who were simply "scabs" taken on at Liverpool, owing to the strike, behaved in an atrocious manner. No sooner had the vessel gone on the rocks than they started to loot the ship from end to end. They entered the passenger's cabins, broke open the passenger's luggage and stole everything they could lay their hands on.

human form stalked about the rocks drinking and singing obscene songs. The conductor of Capt. Skrimshire and his chief officers all through was most praiseworthy but the lower grades of the crew, and especially the firemen and stokers, set all authority at defiance and their conduct was a disgrace to humanity.

The three hundred passengers passed all day Friday and Friday night on the narrow plateau a couple of hundred feet above where the vessel was wrecked. The night was a beautiful moonlight one, and the scenes the passengers declared were most weird and solemn. A number of the passengers sang hymns and Father Lauge, a Church of England clergyman, offered a prayer for their safety.

On Tuesday morning the Elider-Dempster steamship Montfort, which was passing inward to Montreal, was signalled from the light house, the Montfort at once responded to the signals, and all the passengers, except about fifty, who had not reached the light house, were taken on board, and brought to Rimouski.

It is expected that the passengers who were left behind will be picked up by the Allan line steamship Grecian, which is on her way up, and be brought to Quebec.

Capt. Skrimshire, and a number of the crew are standing by the vessel, which it is feared, may be a total loss. As to the cause of the disaster the following story is told:—On Friday morning, while in a dense fog a whistle was heard. Capt. Skrimshire says, according to the story, that he concluded it was that of another steamer and altered his course accordingly.

A special train with the rescued passengers arrived in Montreal Saturday morning, and told a tale of much privation.

SALVAGE TALK.

The Elider underwriters have called that Capt. Young, of the Wrecking-steamship Ranger, will leave Liverpool at once for the scene of the wreck. Captain G. H. Matthews, president of the Sincennes-McNaughton line, stated yesterday that if it was possible to save the Scotsman he believed that the company's tug Conqueror could do it.

Mr. Jas. Sutherland, M. P., Chief Liberal Whip, has been taken into the Cabinet without portfolio, in place of the late Mr. Geoffrion.

LOOKS LIKE WAR Pretoria Is All For War.

Cabinet Called For Tuesday.

London, Sept. 30.—Indications this evening lead to the belief that in view of the Cabinet meeting the Boers will probably commit an overt act, which will bring on hostilities before the assembling of Parliament.

Owing to reluctance of ministers, there are various stories current this evening. It is asserted, with some show of authority, that the despatches received necessitated further communication with Sir A. Milner, and the reassembling of the Cabinet next Tuesday, before the new proposals of the British Government can be definitely settled.

In a few words the position, as left by yesterday's Cabinet Council, is that President Kruger has been given another breathing space, and that another council will be called to give final consent to the despatch which Lord Salisbury and Mr. Chamberlain are engaged in drafting, and which will formulate the British demands.

The official statement that no information will be given respecting military movements is interpreted to mean that important movements are intended.

TO CONSUMPTIVE

The undersigned having been restored to health by simple means, after suffering for seven years with a severe form of consumption, and that dread disease CONSUMPTION, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To those who desire it he will cheerfully send (free of charge) a copy of the prescription used, which they will find a sure cure for CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, CATARRH, BRONCHITIS and all throat and lung MALADIES.

FIRE IN A. L. DENIS STORE.

CHIEF SUGGESTS AN INVESTIGATION.

At five minutes past twelve on Sunday morning an alarm was sent in from the box on the Market Square, for a fire in the McCarthy Block. The brigade immediately responded and on their arrival it was found that a heavy smoke had penetrated the whole of the McCarthy Block, and the flames above were already started in the second storey, so dense was the smoke there. The firemen, however, could find no trace of fire at this point, but on going to the store occupied by Dennis & Co., it was found that the windows were quite warm. The door was broken open and a line of hose run along the floor. So heavy was the smoke that it was with the utmost difficulty that the firemen could enter the building and it was found that the seat of the fire was in the basement. It was soon extinguished, when an investigation revealed the fact that it had broken out in a box containing a quantity of paper.

It was fortunate that the fire was discovered at such an early stage, for the lives of the people who live above the store would have been in danger. The damage done was by smoke and water.

In the report of the fire in the day book states "that from the appearances of things the fire should be investigated." Mr. Dennis was in Montreal on Saturday.

The smoke did considerable damage to Miss Lee's millinery department and in consequence the store will be closed today so that the stock may be re-arranged.
