GUS EDWARDS just now is the most popular American composer of American songs for the home. There have been millions of copies sold of the following beautiful melodies by this young composer of "School Days," "I'll Be With You When the Roses Bloom Again," "Way Down Yonder in the Cornfield," "I Can't Tell Why I Love You, But I Do," "Good-bye, Little Girl, Good-bye," "If a Girl Like You Loved a Boy Like Me," "Could You Be True to Eyes of Blue If You Looked Into Eyes of Brown." His new, beautiful ballad, which appears below, will take its place, as a great home song, with the above mentioned. You may not like it, after playing it over once, but it will grow on you. Try it over a few times.

"SOME DAY, SWEETHEART, SOME DAY," GUS EDWARDS' latest semi-high class ballad, (issued for high, medium and low voice), is undoubtedly the best that this gifted and versatile composer of popular melodies has offered to the public in years. It contains a poem of unusual charm and merit, with a blending of pure sentiment that makes a direct appeal to the heart. The chorus is haunting and lingering, and grows on one, like the dawn of a bright summers day. Critics who have heard the song predict for it an even greater vogue than Mr. Edwards' famous "School Days," "See-Saw," "If a Girl Like You Loved a Boy Like Me," "I Just Can't Make My Eyes Behave," etc. The song should find a welcome in any home where music of the better sort is enjoyed. Try it over on your piano; you will surely like it.
