8th VICTORY LOAN READY TO ROLL

Great Activity At Unit Meeting For Victory Loan

Finishing touches have been completed this week in preparation for the opening of the Eighth Victory Loan Campaign, which commences on Monday. Two very enthusiastic salesmen's conferences were held at Victory Loan Headquarters Unit 201, located in the Green Room, Victoria Hall.

Gerald Barry, General Sales Executive for the Island of Montreal, was the main speaker. C. E. McKenna and Major Bill Evans, Joint Organizers, informed the sales staff that a sizable increase of objective had been placed upon this Unit by the National War Finance Committee, but judging by the pre-Loan enthusiasm displayed by the salesmen themselves it augurs well for the attaining of this goal. Already enquiries and subscriptions are coming in to Headquarters showing the great interest displayed by the citizens of Westmount.

Mr. Bentley informed the meetings that never before in the history of Canada have bank savings deposits been at such a high level, and there has been an increase of over 430,000 new depositors in the savings banks across the country since the close of the Seventh Victory Loan. Again and again the Organizers have appealed to the citizens of Westmount to purchase their bonds at their place of residence, and to give their co-operation and encouragement to the Victory Loan salesman who will call upon them during the next three weeks.

Merchants Urged Help Brighten Store Fronts

The City of Westmount Council has requested The Business Association of Westmount and the Community Service Committee of the Rotary Club to endeavour to institute a co-operative spirit among the merchants of the Eastern Section around Greene Avenue in a plan to make the business section look more alive and progressive.

Merchants are being asked to check present window displays with the thought of making them more attractive to the passer-by. Paint and repair jobs are urged where necessary, and lighted show windows after dark until 11 p.m. are suggested.

It was pointed out that the actual cost of such display lighting is very small, about $7 per year for 200 Watt lights from 6 p.m. to midnight. It is revealed that arrangements can be made with any qualified electrician for the installation of a convenient time switch for turning off unwanted lights at a certain hour.

The switch cost alone is under $10 and is known as the 'Mark Time Switch'.

Merchants are informed of proposed personal visits of importance by Association members authorized to discuss future possibilities of the Eastern Business Section of Westmount. There is no desire to "sell" anything except the idea of a better locality by communal effort.

The slogan used is: Clean-up . . . Paint-up . . . Dress-up . . . and LIGHT-UP.

Captain Maxwell Ford, former Principal of King's will address the meeting.

The agenda will include the annual report of the various committees of the Asociation, and election of officers for 1945-46 will take place at the close of the meeting. Refreshments will be served.

It is earnestly hoped there will be an even greater attendance at the "Open House" night.

Tree Fall Delays Artery Traffic Until Cleared

Tramways service was delayed when one of the large elm trees opposite the Church of the Ascension was blown down on Sherbrooke Street directly across the car tracks bringing down the overhead wires and blocking traffic.

This tree had formerly received treatment at the hands of a tree surgeon, but the strong wind caused it to snap off close to the ground and an inspection of the butt revealed that there was very little sound wood left. No one was injured, beyond having to wait or walk for a street car.

Constable J. O'Neill kept motor traffic moving in an eastern direction while Constable A. Forget of motor cycle patrol directed westbound traffic along Cote St. Antoine road. Constable P. Morgan arrived later and kept the onlookers well back from power wires which were close to the ground and yet unbroken.

The arrival of the Tramways breakdown crew with the tow truck and hauling equipment soon had tram cars running again though behind schedule.

F/O McColl is a graduate of the navigation school at Portage La Prairie.

Westmount Rotary Club New President Elected

To serve a term of two years: R. E. Parker, W. G. Moxley, Wm. F. Close, D. Kerr, John McKee.

To serve a term of one year: A. A. Boire, D. B. McKean, W. W. Murray.

Mr. Boire has been an active member of the Rotary Club of Westmount since 1936 and has served on the board of the club for a number of years.

He is prominent in many local organizations including the Canadian Railway Club, St. James Literary Society, Canadian Club of Montreal and the Montreal Board of Trade. He is Chief Accountant of the Montreal Tramways Company.

AGAIN REPORTED WOUNDED

Major John Philip Hanson, M.C., 28-year-old son of Mrs. Paul R. Hanson, 454 Mount Stephen Avenue, was reported wounded for the second time when the 1st Canadian Paratroop Battalion landed on enemy territory on the east bank of the Rhine. His wounds are said to have resulted in a fractured collar bone.

Major Hanson enlisted with the Sherbrooke Regiment in 1939, and later transferred to the Royal Montreal Regiment. Going overseas with the paratroopers, he landed in France on June 1, 1944, D-Day.

Northern Electric Film Shown At Rotary Dinner

A visiting Rotarian from far distant "Pearl of the East" Ceylon, was one of the welcomed guests at the Westmount Rotary when tribute was paid by the Club to the late President Roosevelt through President Callard, who read a eulogy and by the observance of a two minute silence.

Mr. S. H. Mocsotie was pleased with the warmth of his reception in his Montreal visit.

The work of various committees and the results thereof were reported by Rotarians D. MacKeen and W. Moxley, the latter stressing the fact that every member must get his shoulder to the wheel in order to ensure the success of the Annual Carnival.

Dr. G. Burgoyne's book on Prison and Court Reform has, it was stated, received the approval of International Rotary and is now in its second edition.

Rotarian P. J. MacAndrews introduced Mr. V. O. Marquez of the Northern Electric Company who spoke briefly before the showing of the film "The Northern Front."

This film was not, as the title may mislead, experiences of a convoy bound for Murmansk nor of the battlefronts of Northern Europe, but an example of the effort made by Northern Electric personnel to bring to the in-

Club Movement Direct Result Of Pope Appeal

Mr. Louis Hunter, Associated Press war correspondent, will be the guest speaker at the second Annual Banquet of the Newman Club Alumni, which will take place next Thursday, at 7.30 p.m., in the Mount Royal Hotel.

Mr. Hunter's articles have appeared in local papers under date lines from North Africa, Sicily, Italy and France, and he will address the meeting on the methods of gathering and transmitting news from the front.

The Newman Club Alumni is an organization of Catholic graduates of McGill University, whose principal object is to encourage and support the undergraduate Newman Club at McGill in caring for the spiritual, cultural and social welfare of the students.

This meeting marks the successful conclusion of the Alumni's second year of existence, in which the membership has increased over 65%, and practical assistance, in the form of a grant, has been rendered to the undergraduate club. With the conclusion of hostilities, it is hoped to obtain a club house near the McGill campus, which, it is felt, will fill a long standing need.

The Club was formed in October of 1943 under the presidency of George F. Bourke, who has resided in Westmount for twenty-eight years, and who attended St. Leo's Academy prior to McGill University. The present executive consists of Mr. Bourke, President; Lloyd A. MacClintock and Miss Patricia Hanrahan, Vice-Presidents; Miss Joan Allison, Secretary, and Orlando Cardella, Treasurer. The Honorary executive includes John T. Hackett, K.C., President, and John J. O'Brien, K.C., Dr. William J. McNally and Dr. John G. Howlett, Vice-Presidents, all of whom are residents of Westmount, as are 23% of the members.

Dr. Howlett, who is at present serving overseas with the R.C.A.F., was recently made a Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians in England.

Miss Hanrahan, who has served the Club in the capacity of Vice-President since its foundation, and Miss Allison, reside in Notre Dame de Grace.

Membership in the Club is open to all Catholics who attended McGill University or who are now studying in the Graduate School. This year membership has been extended to include graduates of other non-Catholic universities who now reside in Montreal.

Regular meetings are held jointly with the undergraduate club on the first and third Sundays of the month during the scholastic season. These are in the form of a Communion Breakfast, after which a guest speaker addresses the audience, which averages nearly 200 per meeting. In addition, the Alumni hold monthly informal dinners, as well as other activities such as a yearly Christmas party, the Annual Banquet and occasional dances.

The Newman Club movement is the direct result of an appeal of Pope Pius X, in which he urged the establishment of schools of religion at non-Catholic universities to care for the spiritual, cultural and social welfare of the students. There are 15 such clubs in Canada, including two Alumni organizations, one at McGill and the other at the University of Toronto. These clubs are associated under the Canadian Federation of Newman Clubs, with headquartrs in Kingston, Ontario. There is a similar Federation in the United States, and the movement has spread to other countries.

All interested Catholics are cordially invited to attend the Banquet, and are asked to communicate with Mr. Bourke at FItzroy 0769 for further details.

dividual worker the importance of his particular job and its relation to the finished article. The girl who imagines her work of winding wire on a spool is not important to the lives of fighting men of Canada overseas would soon change her mind after seeing the "Northern Front" showing as it was brought home to the Rotary Club how vital even trivial seeming jobs really are.

Mr. Marquez was warmly thanked for his extremely interesting presentation and the courtesies extended by his firm.

The illness of Walter Murray was commented upon sympathetically by the President. Two high school boys were present as visitors, Robert Smith and Gerald Burke and others cordially welcomed were G. Ewart Early and D. Martin from Toronto and Dent Harrison.

Double Header Opens Inter-City Hardball League

Bill McVey's Stars tied the first game and won the second over Upper Grosvenor in the opening doubleheader of the Inter-City Hardball League Two very close games were played at St. Leo's. Academy. The first game ended in a 9-9 tie. The thrill of the game was in the first inning. Upper Grosvenor had the bases loaded and their clean-up hitter, Bill Malone, was up. He banged the ball up on the Academy roof. But before they could get any more runs in, the Stars started a rally in the third inning.

The first five men had clean hits and with a few walks they made 7 earned runs. The play was even for the rest of the game. In the second game Stars held the play up to the seventh inning, the last bats for Grosvenor and the score was 6-1 in favor of the Stars. Grosvenor started a rally, the first two batters walked and the third was safe on error, Bussiere knocked two of them in, and Heffernan and Bussiere stole home and that made the score 6-5.

Stars played tight for the rest of the game and held them off. Mooney, Wickham, and Shaw played standout games for the winners. Bussiere, Thornton, and Shaughnessy played best for losers. Hugh Power umpired the games.

Know Your Westmount

Question: When was the Westmount Y.M.C.A. founded, and who was responsible for its growth and development?

Answer: The Young Men's Christian Association is just commencing its second hundred years of service to men, women and boys throughout the world.

On June 6th, 1844, the twenty-two old clerk, George Willis ..., with twelve of his fellow workers in a dry goods shop in London, England, founded the Y.M.C.A. The movement grew rapidly and On June 8th, 1844; the 22-year-old clerk, George Williams, founded in Montreal. The work in the Canadian Metropolis rapidly spread to the outlying districts of the City, and in 1912 the Westmount Association was opened.

The genius of the Y.M.C.A. is the fact that it is a laymen's organization and the success of the movement is due largely to this fact.

The Board of Management of the Westmount "Y" has always been made up of prominent citizens of this community. The men who have been Chairmen of the Board since the inception of the Association are:—Mr. F. Max Hill 1913-14-15; Mr. R. B. Ross Jr. 1916-17; Mr. J. P. Atkinson 1917-18-19; Mr. G. B. Allison 1920-21; Mr. F. W. Sharpe 1921-22; Mr. Guy Tombs 1922-23-24; Mr. John B. Frosst 1925-26-27-28; Mr. I. R. Tait 1929-30-31; Mr. Colin W. Webster 1932-33-34-35; Mr. Wm. E. Cooper 1936-37-38-39; Mr. C. A. Smith 1940-41-42; Mr. D. O. Bremner, the present Chairman has presided over the Board since 1943.

All the program activities of the Association are promoted and carried on by lay Commiftees.

Throughout all these years a splendid Health Education program has been carried on for Business Men, Young Men and Boys, and for part of this time for Ladies and Girls.

The Westmount "Y" has always been most active in swimming and swimming instruction. Many thousands of Westmount boys and girls have been taught to swim at the "Y", and Life Saving has always had an important place in the program.

Informal educational classes and discussion groups have always been an important part of the program. To carry on such a varied program, it is essential that we train leaders from within the membership of the Association.

Up until the war broke out in 1939, the young people's groups meeting at the "Y" numbered over 300 each week; such clubs as the Fossils, Hi-Y Grads (both girls and boys); and the Hi-Y Clubs, also both girls and boys, were very active and carried on educational and recreational programs.

During the years of the War, the activities have changed considerably—the building is occupied almost continuously throughout the day with classes for members of the Forces. On Saturday evenings for the past five years, dances have been held for members of the Services. These dances are promoted by the young lady members of the Association.

At the present time there are 725 members or former participants of the Westmount "Y" program serving in His Majesty's Forces, sixty-five of whom have paid the supreme sacrifice.

The Y.M.C.A. is a world-wide association, and through the efforts of the North American Association, trained workers have been sent out to some 68 countries since 1889. During this period of 56 years, more than 11,000 nationals have been enlisted and trained as Secretaries. At the present time some 1400 nationals are serving as Secretaries. More than 700,000 business and professional men have served as board and committee members in these countries.

The Y.M.C.A. has always been happy to co-operate with all other organizations and groups in the community working with youth.

A limited dormitory service is provided and a cafeteria is operated for the benefit of the men living in the building.

Three summer camps are operated by the Montreal Y.M.C.A. and members of the Westmount Branch are active in all three. Camp Otoreke, situated in Lake St. Joseph at St. Adolph de Howard, is for adults; Kamp Kanawana is for boys 8-18 and Camp Perrot is for girls and boys. During the past few years, camping has become a very important part of the Association program.

Throughout all these years the Association has worked with the young people of the community and has endeavoured to carry on according to the purpose of the Association, as agreed upon at the Y.M.C.A. World Conference in Toronto and Cleveland in 1931.

The Young Men's Christian Association we regard as being in its essential genius a world-wide fellowship of men and boys united by a common loyalty to Jesus Christ, for the purpose of building Christian personality and a Christian society.

McFARLANE MEMORIAL WINDOW

The splendid memorial window shown is to the memory of a revered gentleman well-known to pioneer residents of Verdun and Point St. Charles. "To the glory of God and in affectionate remembrance of Lewis Brown McFarlane, 1851-1943," former President and Chairman of the Board of the Bell Telephone Company of Canada, this beautiful stained-glass window was presented by his family to St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Westmount, and unveiled by his son, Vice-President Paul A. McFarlane, at a dedication ceremony on Sunday morning, April 8.

The Venerable Archdeacon A. P. Gower-Rees, Rector of St. George's Church, Montreal, officiated, assisted by Rev. A. T. Love, rector of St. Stephen's and Rev. H. S. Laws.

The colorful, three-light window, executed by C. W. Kelsey, is centrally dominated by the figure of St. John the Divine with chalice in hand. Enthroned victorious on either side are personifications of the virtues Prudence and Fortitude.

West Hill-Westmount Bring Word Duel Lower Canada College

West Hill debaters will seek to defend their title in the Interschool Debating League this afternoon when they meet Westmount High in the city finals for the Milton Hersey Trophy.

The final debate, sharply contested, will be held at Lower Canada College, a neutral school, which has already been elimin ated from competition. Judges will be masters from school participating in the League.

West Hill has selected the affirmative of the proposition: "Resolved, that radio has more influence on the people than printed matter." Westmount will uphold the negative. Debaters for West Hill are Marjorie Overton and Leo Kolber, while Rita Weissler and Peter Scott will argue for Westmount.

Modern aim: Acquiring new land for surplus populations who are slain in the process.

Model Railroad Visitors' Night Full Of Surprise

Westmount has a Railroad all its own. A miniature scale working system on trestled tables that cover the floor space of their headquarters, The Montreal Model Railroad Club now see the fruit of long labour and 1943 dreaming, in a Westmount home, when a number of interested business men began months of planning, followed by two years work, to reach the advanced stage of the present. The system is really taking shape, and on the first visitors' night, recently, those present were delighted with the exhibition of a project that is yet far from fulfilment.

They saw over 1,200 feet of track, 25 locomotives, 50 passenger and baggage cars, several trains of freight cars, and a maze of marshalling yards and automatic switches.

So far, over ten miles of wiring winds around beneath the tables. The railroad is remotely controlled from a ceiling-high tower and 15 scale miles of track have been laid. The project will not be completed for years, an official of the road stated, but with members all hard at their various sections, a green and fertile countryside is expected to take shape soon.

Most of the club's members are veterans of the model permanent way. There's Bruce A. T. Henry, an aircraft technician in the daytime, who has been building and operating miniature pikes for the last 18 years.

Mr. Trenholme, the president, has been a railroad fan for more years than he remembers. Then there's Doug Chidley. He's a fireman on a Canadian National locomotive during the day. But he loves railroading, so he spends evenings doing the same thing on an O gauge scale.

Most outstanding of the Club's work, perhaps, is its fleet of scale model locomotives. In the yards last night a huge 4-6-6-4 Union Pacific articulated engine built by Stuart Dunlop, dragged a string

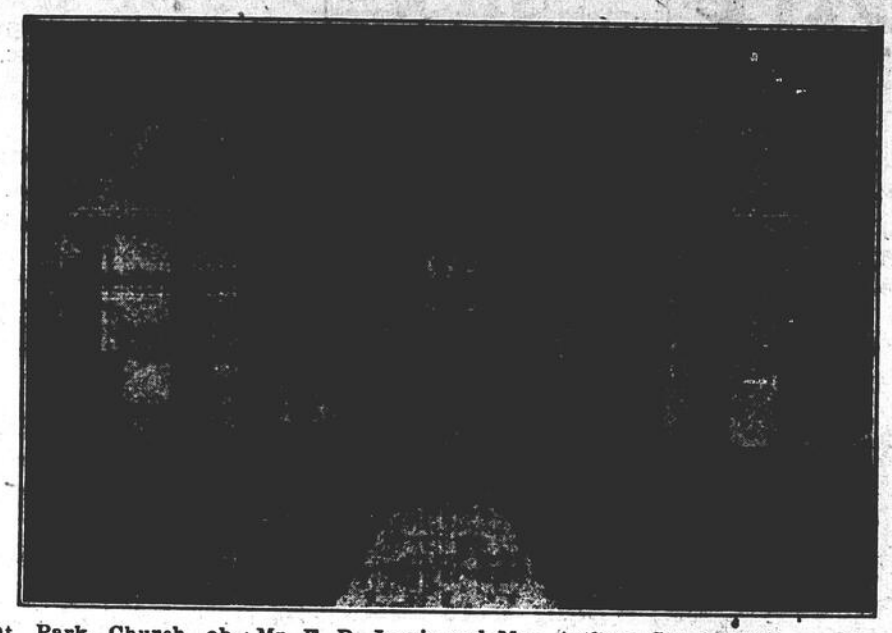
Westmount Park Church



Westmount Park Church observed the 15th Anniversary of the dedication and opening of the present Church building on Sunday. It was on April 13th, 1930 that the original ceremony took place, thus terminating several years of labour and faith on the part of many devoted people.

The history of the present building at the corner of Lansdowne and Western is short, but not so the history of the congregations which comprise Westmount Park Church.

At a very interesting gathering, Mr. F. D. Jarvis and Mrs. Arthur Webster gave a brief historical sketch of the two branches of the Church. The Presbyterian branch was first formed in 1884 in what was described as "the growing municipality of Cote St. Antoine."

This building was erected at the corner of Cote St. Antoine Road and Stanton Street and thus was formed the congregation of Melville Church.

The Methodist branch was first formed in 1889 by the construction of "The Tabernacle" of Cote St. Antoine on the site of the present church building. This was a wooden erection which soon became too small and in 1896 construction of a red brick building was undertaken and completed.

With the consummation of Church Union in 1925 these two congregations joined to form the present congregation, the construction of the present building being begun in 1929. This building has a seating capacity of 750 and has four very beautiful stained glass windows.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

To the Editor
The Westmount Examiner
Dear Sir:—

Through your pages I wish to congratulate the committee of the Purple and White Revue on the humour, talent, beauty and musical ability displayed in their show last week.

Also, may I offer a suggestion?

Next year, could not the level of the whole prgoramme be raised a bit, so as to set a standard for that type of vaudeville instead of being an imitation of it?

It takes courage and initiative to raise and stick to the highest standards, but our Westmount youth certainly have what it takes for this or any other leadership.

I am trying to see the show through the eyes of a returned soldier with his whole outlook greatly altered and heightened since he said goodbye to these kid brothers and sisters of his, four years ago!

Might he not expect something slightly different, and, in fact, more up-to-date? Off-colour jokes, dances, and jitter scenes, belong rather to the old world that the soldier hoped would be left behind for good, than to the new one that we folk at home are supposed to be building for him and ourselves!

Let's be really up-to-date in 1946, Kids!!

Signed
Pioneer.

The Westmount Examiner
Dear Sir:—

I went to see The Purple and White Revue, and was surprised and delighted at the talent and ability shown.

I came away feeling how fortunate we are in having such an enthusiastic, whole-hearted group of young actors, and hoping that next year the energy and hard work which went into this fine performance might be used in a much higher grade of programme. A programme giving adequate scope for the originality and creative ability of Westmount High students, rather than one modelled after the cheaper sort of radio entertainment.

tI cannot be too often repeated that the students in our High Schools ARE the future of Canada. We look to them to set us a high standard in everything they do.

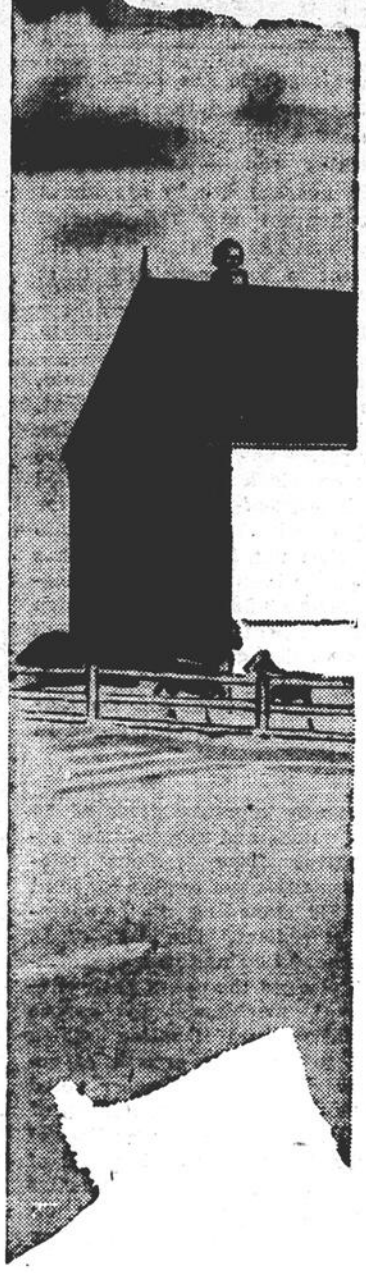
READY MONEY is handy to have . . .



MOST farmers, like most business men, start with limited capital. The first years : : : they seem so many years : : : are a struggle to make ends meet; to find the money to pay current bills. Then, when savings have accumulated to enable equipment and supplies to be bought at lowest prices; help hired when needed and produce held for most favorable selling prices, worries are fewer and profits greater.

Farmers, whose incomes have increased during the war years, have learned the many ways in which Victory Bonds help them in their financing.

Victory Bonds provide an objective to save for, and a safe place to keep savings. They earn money for you as long as you have them : : : double bank interest.

Victory Bonds enable a farmer to borrow money at a low interest rate : : : and the interest the bonds earn pays a large part of the interest on the loan. Banks recognize Victory Bonds as the best form of security that can be offered by any borrower. There is no delay in getting a loan; no "bargaining". You get the loan and still have your bonds.

And when you buy Victory Bonds you are doing an important job in helping your country's war effort. That knowledge will give you satisfaction and pride.

ELECTION CAMPAIGN BEGINS

Preparation for the coming federal election in this riding begins Monday when the enumerators, appointed to compile the list of voters, will begin their house-to-house canvass. Upon the accuracy of their work will depend to a great extent the efficiency with which the vote can be taken on election day. Election officials are urging, therefore, that local residents give the enumerators the fullest co-operation by making sure their names are correctly listed. Enumerators have had considerable trouble in the past in compiling a correct list because of having to write the names out on a dark porch while leaning the record book up against the wall. When the work is done under such conditions it is inevitable that mistakes in spelling will be made, or that the names will be written illegibly. When the enumerators call, therefore, please co-operate by giving them a well-lit place to write and by checking the slip for correctness before they depart.

GIGANTIC WAR JOB

"During the five years and four months of war, from the beginning of September, 1939, to December 31, 1944, the Canadian National Railway System, the largest single industry in the Dominion, carried on a gigantic work for the people of Canada and their Allies," says a supplement to the C.N.R. annual report to Parliament for 1944 which analyzes the System's contribution.

Freight and passenger train miles travelled during the period, the report states, aggregated more than 330 million. Measured in car miles, the total is nearly ten billion. Freight amounted to more than 433 million tons. More than 132 million passengers were carried—greater than ten times the entire population of Canada. More than four million troops were transported, requiring 6,540 special trains. Special trains for war industry workers carried 37 million passengers. More than three million guests were accommodated by the Company's twelve hotels. Purchases made by the Railway amounted to considerably more than $500,000,000.

With an average staff of 97,065, the System paid out $967,500,000 in wages during the war period. Twenty thousand men and women of the System enlisted with the armed forces; 562 have lost their lives; more than 100 have been decorated for gallantry. The Canadian National and its employees have subscribed nearly $147,000,000 to the Victory Loans and in the purchase of War Saving Certificates.

MANY BOOKS TOO LONG

If a professor or other learned man writes a book, he deems it necessary to survey his subject from the year 1000 B.C. This fills 250 pages. In the remaining 50 pages he gives you his message.

Why the first 250 pages? In the interest of economy and common sense, why should not the first 250 pages be filed in manuscript in the Congressional Library and only the last 50 pages be published?

Many readers are fed up with books that review the same old hash, and the foregoing is a practical suggestion for the elimination of the evil.

Almost every book is too long, too much of a review. Every candidate for authorship seems to want to write not what he knows but what everybody else knows.

THE HARDEST JOB

We have the deepest admiration and sympathy for those men who have taken the responsibility for the successful conduct of this war, writes William Feather.

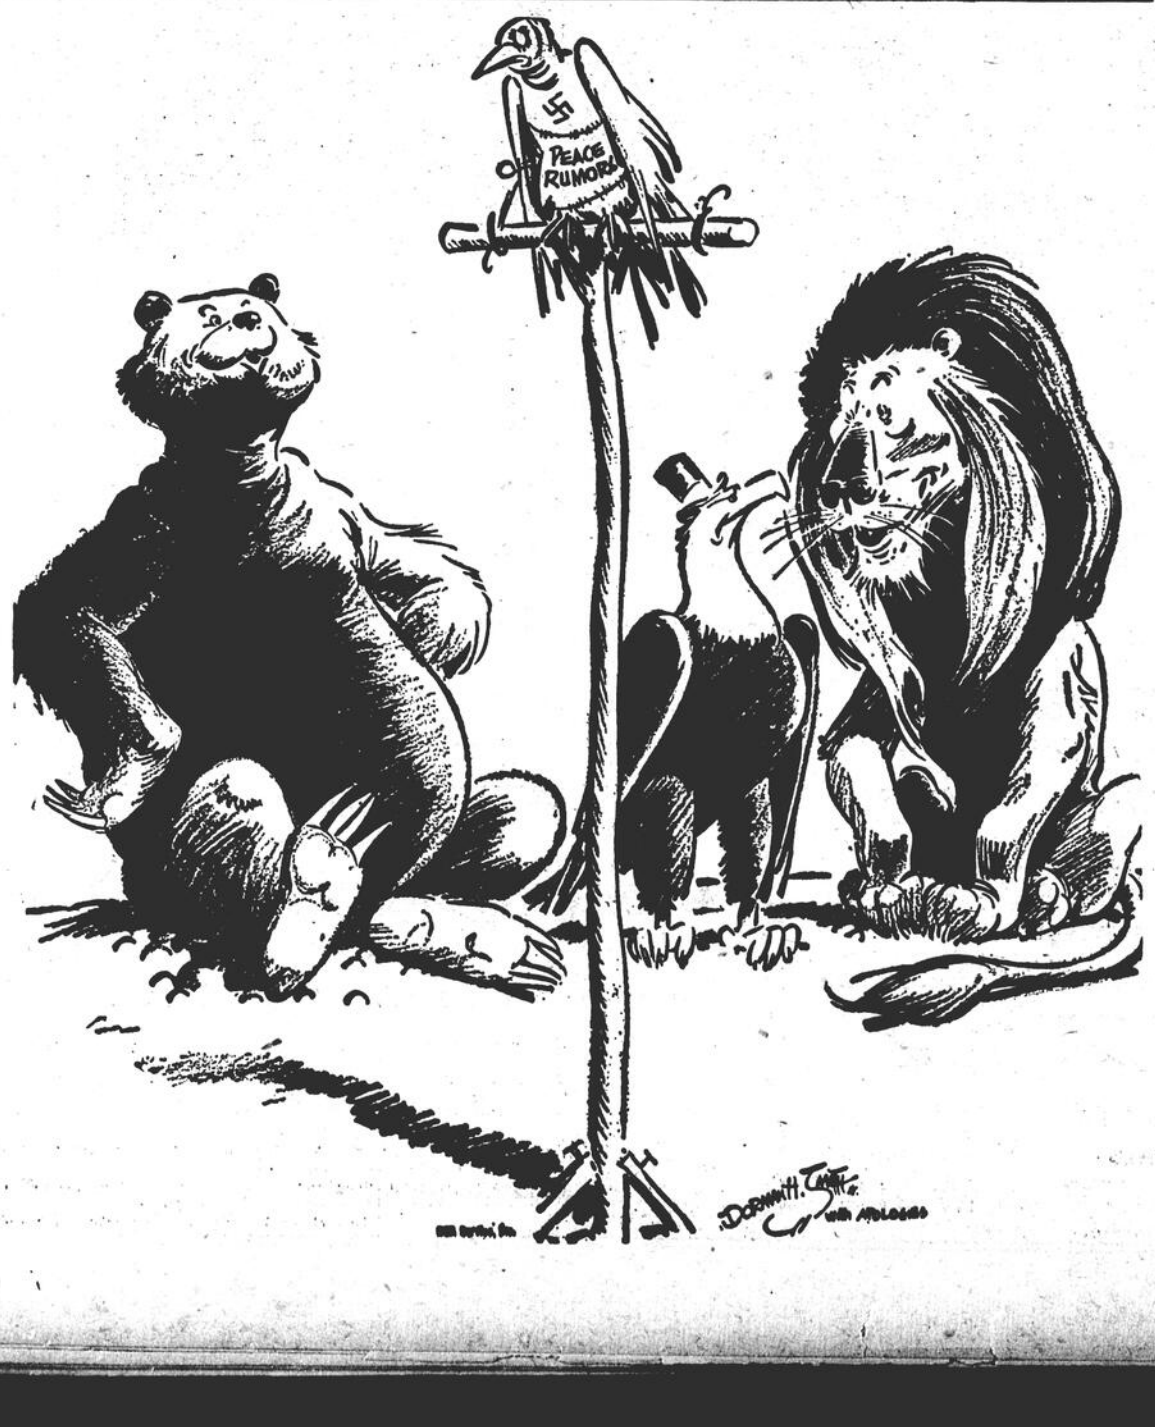
With few exceptions these leaders — political, industrial, and military — came up the hard way. From humble beginnings they rose to high positions in public and private life, requiring vast knowledge and understanding. They pursued the pattern of success and achievement, no doubt expecting that the day was near when they could relax and enjoy their gains in comfortable retirement.

Suddenly the war changed all that. Now the men who have worked hardest all their lives are called to the hardest jobs of all time.

The least that those of us who are unfit can do is co-operate with them to our utmost and cheer them with all our might.

MORE CHARACTER, LESS ACTION

The new trend in films, says Alf Hitchcock, the capable and beefy director, is the development of character, with less wasted motion and action just for action's sake. This sounds promising. It is mostly the children who crave crowded action and hullabaloo. Life is not really so breathless and muscular as the films depict it.



THE FORUM

Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper, and it does not accept responsibility for them.

THE HOUSE SHORTAGE: We read much in the daily press about the dangerous shortage of housing accommodation in urban centres. Unfortunately little is being done about it. The National Housing Act does not seem to be working well — evidently the government and the loan companies do not see eye to eye about security and terms, the leaders demanding not only high interest but full state security for the money they loan. The government would have been better advised in loaning direct to borrowers with trust companies as trustees—the government borrowing at 3½ per cent and loaning at 4 per cent. This is what The Municipal Review tried to bring about in 1936. At first the government was agreeable to our suggestion, but the money lenders set up such a howl that the idea was dropped, to make way for a parlimentary committee on housing. Out of the committee's discussions came the first National Housing Act to be followed by the present Housing Act. This act was passed last year (1944), but its operation is still a thing of the future. — Canadian Municipal Journal.

Russia recently terminated its pact with Turkey. This treaty signed in 1925 received its latest renewal in 1941 and was due for another extension next November. Each party was to refrain from territorial aggrandizement at the other's expense, to remain neutral and to consult before entering into any agreement with a neighboring power. When the pact was drawn Russia was diplomatically and militarily weak. The 1941 renewal was made when Hitler, at the height of his power, was making toward Russia threats which soon led to invasion. Turkish diplomats fear there will be a claim to the Dardanelles and a clear route from the Black Sea to the Mediterranean which British policy has always been against. An unproved rumor has it that one of the off-the record agreements at Yalta was to give Russia the Dardanelles. Even if this is not true it must disturb our leaders to note that when the Big Three are supposed to have come to a perfect understanding, and when the San Francisco Conference is so near, the least tractable and most strategically placed of the great powers clears the decks for action to go out and take what it wants regardless of conferences.

President Roosevelt, before his death, ordered an immediate inquiry into the possibilities of extending the annual-wage plan throughout industry as a means to post-war economic stabilization. The worker would be paid a yearly wage, paid in weekly instalments, with adjustments at the end of the year for matters of overtime or production beyond a set quota. One at once begins to wonder how an annual wage for farm labor or in seasonable occupations like canning and dress manufacturing could be worked out? A large part of organized labor believes that it would work well in many industries by stabilizing labor and production and increase the "take home" pay and lower costs. A few large firms which have tried it out—firms such as Proctor & Gamble, Eastman Kodak and Hormel Packing—are its enthusiastic backers.

Hon. Anthony Eden who knows well Britain's foreign policy, recently in a speech in Glasgow at a Scottish Conservative party's conference laid down four basic principles for Britain's post-war foreign policy. Number four was a promise of constant effort "to prevent Europe falling under the domination of one power". All Britain's recent wars, he said, have been fought to prevent that, and she has no idea of changing that policy now. But that is the basis on which England has held her balance-of-power policy for many decades. It is important to note that not for a century has any power been as close to bringing Europe under its domination as Russia will be at the end of this war. Few of our or U.S. journals mentioned Mr. Eden's very important statement but we may be sure it will not be ignored in Russia.

Recently representatives of 50 labor unions and 20 consumer co-operatives from various mid-western cities met to plan for joint effort in extending the co-operative movement. The A.F. of L. and the C.I.O. national organizations pledged the use of their educational machinery to oppose legislation and taxation which aims to hurt the growth of co-operatives. The conference voted to ask the Government Bureau of Statistics to publish a list of major items in the budgets of laborers, so that the co-operative movement may concentrate on development in the production and distribution of those articles. Delegates agreed on a joint effort for securing legislation to permit co-operative medical care.

Proportional Representation: The British House of Commons recently rejected by a vote of 208 to 17 Proportional Representation in local government elections. In speaking against the measures which the mover urged would "avoid unrepresentative results in elections", the Solicitor-General stated that he was "entirely unconvinced that better candidates would be forthcoming or that such candidates would have a better chance of getting elected". The vote showed that although Proportional Representation has worked out successfully in most parts of the Empire, and in one or two American cities, including New York, the chances are slim that it will be adopted in the Mother Country, at least for some time to come. And this despite the fact that the P.R. electoral system was invented many years ago in England, and later improved by John Humphreys, who formed the Proportional Representation Society in London. The failure of Proportional Representation to pass in the Commons is to be regretted, for it undoubtedly is a sound electoral system — probably the only one to assure equitable representation in local government. It would seem that what is needed to advance the Proportional Representation principle not only in the British Isles but in Canada is educational campaigning, particularly in the schools; it is not a reform that can be taught in one lesson.—Canadian Municipal Journal.

DECORATIVE DOLLS BRING DOLLARS

Contributed by Mrs. C. E. Fortier, wife of the telephone company official well known here, the twin-pair of elegantly-dressed dolls shown in this picture were originally intended to gladden the hearts of overseas children. Instead, girls of the wife of the Mabel Hubbard club that perpetuates the name of the wife of Alexander Graham Bell, the telephone inventor, and dispenses cheer, goodwill and general welfare among needy individuals and families in this community, hit upon a plan through which these dollies helped to raise the very substantial sum of $158.05 with which to maintain and enlarge the club's charitable activities. And the dolls are now in the proud possession of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Holland, 6077 Terrebonne avenue.

Rev. W. X. Bryan Tells Xavier Guild Peace Requirements

"Any peace to be enduring must be founded on Christian and moral principles", said the Rev. W. X. Bryan, S.J., speaking before the Xavier Apostolic Guild on "Women's Role at San Francisco".

Forty-odd nations, the speaker went on, would be represented at that conference and they all seemed concerned with the material issues, ignoring the moral issues. Many women representatives were to be there and had been assured complete freedom in expressing their ideas.

The Canadian delegation, Father Bryan said, will include one woman and Canadian women could greatly strengthen her position by writing to her urging that she strive in every possible way to help bring about a peace founded on Christian and moral principles.

The speaker was thanked by Mrs. Victor Soucisse.

The Chaplain, Father Edward Brown, S.J., spoke briefly.

Mrs. J. A. Clement presided.

Stanley W.M.S.

The regular monthly meeting of Stanley Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society will be held on Tues. at 3 p.m. in the Franklin Hall Memorial.

The speaker will be Mrs. J. W. Dougherty, who will take as her subject — "Changes in W.M.S. work due to war conditions."

W.V.R.C. Annual Meeting Reports 11 Active Units

At the fifth annual meeting of the Women's Volunteer Reserve Corps, held at Headquarters, 14 Weredale Park, on Friday, April 13th, the following members were elected to the Board of Directors for the ensuing year: Chief Commandant F. Seymour Bell, Capt. Maureen Elder, M.D., Capt. Roberta Rice, Capt. Marguerite Muir, Capt. Margaret R. Dodds, Capt. Edna Farrell, and Lieut. May Allen.

Chief Commandant Bell, Commanding Officer and President, presided at the meeting. A minute of silence in tribute to the memory of the late President Roosevelt was observed.

Active Units

In the report of the activities of the W.V.R.C. for the year 1944, Chief Commandant Bell noted that the eleven active units of the corps continued to build up an enviable record of service.

W.V.R.C. Overseas Bundles, Reg'd., shipped a total of 50 crates of clothing to England during 1944, totalling 12½ tons. This brings the total shipments from its beginning to the end of 1944 to 208 crates or 60½ tons. The chorus troupe has had a successful year and given many concerts.

Home Nursing

Two home nursing classes were held at the Montreal General Hospital, one for certificate and one advanced refresher practice course.

One wireless class was held during the year; a course of lectures in Household First Aid; and a handicraft class. As a result of the handicraft class, a succesrful sale was held which netted $376.86, of which $173.73 has since been donated to the Queen's Canadian Fund for robomb victims.

Members of the corps operating at the Civil Defence Provincial Warning Centre until this centre was closed were awarded certificates of proficiency; and those eligible were presented with the Civil Defence Service Ribbon.

The W.V.R.C. joined the Women's Voluntary Services in order to enlarge its field of service. Knowing the support which the W.V.R.C. members had given to the Navy League Fur Vest project —over 2000 coats were ripped by its members—the W.V.R.C. was asked to chairman the W.V.S. groups also supporting this work, and the work of these groups was done at W.V.R.C. headquarters.

Volunteer Teams

Assistance was given during the year by regular volunteers at ANA House, several armouries, British Ministry of War Transport, Canadian Navy, McGill C.O.T.C. Tag days of Navy League, Canadian Legion, and School for Crippled Children were supported by strong teams of volunteers. Christmas parcels for Merchant Seamen, Navy League ditty bags were provided; and members of the W.V.R.C. serving overseas received cigarettes from the corps.

Salvage collection and sales contributed $70 towards the operating expenses of the corps; and the Ways and Means Committee netted $254.24 by means of Military Whists, etc.

A donation of $1,000.00 was given to Wings for Britain for the R.C.A.F. Benevolent Fund; and a further donation of $149.00 was given towards the maintenance of the W.V.R.C. Mobile Canteen in England.

Financial Report

The financial report for the year showed that expenses (operating) exceeded revenue by about $300, reducing the general account. A reserve fund showed $179.46 at the end of the year. Balance on hand for all committees at the end of the year was $1,287.84, as compared with $2,242.04 at the end of 1943.

Mrs. Edwin M. Briggs Named By Westmount Women's Club

"During these crucial and testing war years" said Mrs. Harold Mills, retiring president of the Westmount Women's Club and president of the club's war work committee, "I think it can be fairly stated that the Westmount Women's Club, Inc., have fully lived up to its long-established reputation for creative and constructive work." Mrs. Mills went on to say that it had been her good fortune during the past two years to be surrounded by a group of cheerful and enthusiastic workers, who have willingly cooperated in the many and varied tasks undertaken on behalf of the war effort, and to all who have so assisted she expressed warm thanks and appreciation.

The retiring president pointed out that at Friday's annual meeting held in Victoria Hall it would be well to bear in mind that, although the war in Europe is fast drawing to a successful conclusion, our duties and responsibilities as civilians are by no means nearing an end. Allied leaders have stated that the war in the East may continue for some time, and even after final victory is attained, the problems of rehabilitation may be almost as great as those experienced during the war.

"Let us," she urged "prepare to continue our efforts with renewed energy because of victory. Such matters as the relief of the homeless and starving peoples of Europe and the rehabilitation of those of our armed forces, who have made victory possible, will present problems, the solution of which will require long and patient effort."

Financial Statement

Miss S. Gardner's financial report showed total income of $7,660.93 and a balance of $597.35. Donations amounted to $1,395.75. At the meeting on Friday further donations were voted as follows:—Camp Lewis, $20; Grenfell Mission, $10; I.O.D.E., Major Price Chapter, $10, and a donation by the Junior Auxiliary to the Navy League, $25.

The financial statement for the work committee, with the balance brought forward from the annual meeting in 1944 showed total receipts of $2,670 with disbursement of $1,631.01.

Other reports of secretaries and committees were presented. In tribute to the late Franklin Delano Roosevelt a one-minute period of silence was observed. Mrs. J. Birnie gave a vote of thanks to the retiring members of the board of management; and a presentation of red roses and a piece of Royal Doulton china was made to Mrs. Harold Mills.

Little Things about THE STARS

● BY GEORGE LILLEY

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Probably the youngest radio personality heading a big time broadcast is slim, brunette Patrice Munsel. At 19 she is star of the popular Sunday afternoon (CBS, 5, EWT) "Family Hour" and the youngest member of the Metropolitan Opera Company.

Spokane-born Soprano Munsel saw her first opera at the Metropolitan ("Parsifal") in 1940; three and one-half years later made her debut on the same stage. Musical circles call her "Princess Pat"—a Cinderella who designs her own clothes (preferring pink because it gives her "a lift"), makes her own hats, loves big rings and dark chocolate sodas with chocolate ice cream. Like another Met beauty, Rise Stevens, Patrice is of non-professional parents. Father is a Spokane dentist. She is single, writes a daily letter to a favorite Army Air Force cadet.

NEW NICK'S A DANDY

Fred Fradkin, musical director of CBS's "Adventures of the Thin Man" (Friday nights, 8:30 EWT), is an incessant doodler. Estimated that he uses 36,600 pieces of scratch paper a year, about 100 a day. For this artistic pursuit he uses the backs of old scripts. The new radio Thin Man — since a few weeks ago —is Les Tremayne. Les at 32 is one of radio's most effective actors, somewhat of a mike matinee idol. He was born in London, England, where his family was prominent in British motion pictures. He is a sharp dresser, says if he had a million dollars he probably would spend it all on clothes. Like his new air role, blue-eyed, balding Tremayne is a thin man—5-11, 145 pounds.

Les Tremayne ... Nick Charles

THIS SPLINTER GREW ●

Among the few feminine ventriloquists, and the first to go far professionally, is 17-year-old (last October 31) San Franciscoan Shirley Dinsdale. With her pert dummy, "Judy Splinters" she has won a weekly featured niche on CBS's widely tuned-in Sunday afternoon (4.30 EWT). "Electric Hour," starring Nelson Eddy.

Shirley's "Judy Splinters"—made from a head carved by Shirley's artist father, the body of a dummy Mussolini and one of Shirley's cut down dresses — came into existence only two years ago at a San Francisco church social. Five months later, with the help of another ventriloquist, Edgar Bergen, Shirley Dinsdale had her first radio program. The young artist is a sophomore at the University of California (Los Angeles), spends Sunday mornings teaching a Sunday school class with "Judy Splinters" as an aid.

VERY LITTLE THINGS ●

In the Family: Brother, sister, wife and namesake nephew of Raymond Edward Johnson, host of the "Inner Sanctum" (Tuesday nights, 9, CBS), are all radio actors . . . Edgar Bergen ($10,000 a week) is doing well on the side with a thriving date farm. Nelson Eddy, a careless dresser, has half-interest in a swank Hollywood tailor shop . . . Guy Lombardo and Morton Downey refuse to be shaved by a barber. Makes 'em jittery . . . Martin Block, emcee of the NBC Monday through Friday (7 p. m.) "Supper Club," which stars Perry Como, shaves for that broadcast during a preceding program—a local New York disc show.

"Sign of the Cross" Brings New Thrills

The modernized production of Paramount's "The Sign of the Cross," produced by Cecil B. DeMille, is something movie-goers will welcome with open arms. Now playing at the Monkland United Theatre until Friday night, DeMille's mightiest epic brings Fredric March, Claudette Colbert, Elissa Landi and Charles Laughton to the screen in unforgettable roles.

The producer's achievement in supervising a cast of 7,500 to present the colorful spectacle of ancient Rome during 64 A.D. is something which remains unequalled in Hollywood production. "The Sign of the Cross" is first and foremost a story of pagan Rome, reaching its fullest expression in a Roman holiday at the Circus Maximus, where the gladiatorial contests and all the brutal games that delighted Nero served as a prelude to the sacrifice of Christians to the lions.

The drama also includes a tender love story of a Christian girl and a Roman patrician, the roles being played with rare beauty by March and Miss Landi. One of the high spots, too, is Miss Colbert's Poppaea, the wanton wife of Emperor Nero played by Charles Laughton.

The queen of the court, surrounded always by slaves and dancing girls, Claudette is the picture of loveliness. With the world at her feet, however, her desire for March's love is unsatisfied as the handsome hero finds true peace with Elissa as a believer in Christ's principles.

Laughton's acting reaches the heights in "The Sign of the Cross" also. In fact, it's said that genius alone could bring such a strong characterization of Nero by the veteran performer. The timeliness of such a great film was not overlooked by DeMille, either. In the prologue and epilogue, Stanley Ridges, Oliver Thorndyke, Tom Tully, James Millican and Arthur Shields are seen in an American bomber as it flies over Rome. The portent of this scene is not lost to the audience as the players relate the history of ancient Rome and their mission in saving once again the beautiful city from destruction by cruel invaders.

Three New York Central Hudsons drew plaudits aplenty from the interested spectators. The rolling stock and equipment is owned jointly by members. All contribute to the cause.

Membership includes the Eastern representative of the Pacific Fruit Express, three electrical engineers; a retired business man; a machinist; and a prominent Montreal shirt manufacturer. There are now 25 members, 30 will be the limit.

Mr. Trenholme assured The Gazette that the members' wives were not jealous of the time the project was consuming even though it did steal many an evening of marital bliss.

The big, third-floor room at 676 St. Catherine street west was thronged by a crowd of admiring men and women.

Under the presidency of C. R. Trenholme, a Montreal business executive, the club had come far since the first foot of track had been spiked to its hand-made ties.

While Parliament is in session in Ottawa ,members of the House of Commons and the Senate are provided with four motion pictures shows a week, operated by the National Film Board. Screenings are held in one of the Senate rooms.

Local Flier Ronnie Emburg D.C.F. In Dual Role For War Bond Film

When Flying Officer Ronnie Emberg, D.F.C., R.C.A.F., 2310 Regent Avenue, visited 20th Century-Fox studios in Hollywood, little did he realize he was fated to become a technical expert and a motion picture player in a film.

Producer Fanchon saw him walking toward the "Bell For Adano" stage on the Fox lot. She was walking hurriedly to the casting-office to seek an actor for a fighter-pilot role in "The All Star Bond Rally", a two-reel feature being made for our Eighth Victory Loan Drive. Turning to Director Michael Audley, Miss Fanchon said: "Get that man — he's the type we want". Audley hailed the Montreal Flying Officer and explained.

"But I can't do that — I'm on leave," Emberg replied.

"Never mind — we'll fix it with the Canadian Government," promised Audley, and that was done.

As a result F/O Emberg will appear in a scene with Faye Marlowe and also act as technical adviser for the "command performance" picture which has an all-star cast headed by Vivian Blaine, Jeanne Crain, Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Linda Darnell, Betty Grable, June Haver, Harry James, Harpo Marx, Fibber McGee and Molly, Carmen Miranda and Frank Sinatra.

Two of filmdom's foremost composers, Jimmy McHugh and Harold Adamson wrote a new song especially for the 8th Victory Loan Campaign. Entitled, "Buy A Bond" it will be heard for the first time in "The All Star Bond Rally" starting Saturday at the Snowdon Theatre.

Academy Award winning Bing Crosby not only introduces the song but also sings it, accompanied by Harry James and his orchestra. Aside from Bing, songs will also be sung by Bop Hope, Betty Grable and Frank Sinatra.

"CANDLE-LIGHT"

What would you do if you were a man about town and returned to your apartment unexpectedly and found your valet wearing your clothes, drinking your wine, smoking your best cigars, and making love to the most beautiful girl you had ever seen?

Prince Rudolf in the gayest comedy of the decade, "Candle-Light," which opens at the MRT Playhouse, Friday, April 27th, is faced with that exact situation, and his subsequent actions to the occasion provide the audience with a most hilarious evening's entertainment. Neil Little will play the role of the Prince; Tom McBride will be the butler with Casanovian ambitions; and Joy Lafleur will be the recipient of the valet's attentions.

"Candle-Light" will be directed by Mildred Mitchell. Supporting players include Eileen Clifford, Rosanna Seaborn, Harold Kelley and Ronald Grant.

PAINT PLANT EXPANSION

Aulcraft Paints Limited are putting up four new buildings which will increase the capacity of their plant about 50%. They hope to have the new construction completed by fall.

NEW LINE FOR MOFFATS

Moffats Limited, Weston, have made a deal whereby the line of home appliances of the Crosley Corporation of Cincinnati will be manufactured in Canada by Moffats Limited. "This decision," says the Crosley Corporation, "is a conclusive indication of our Company's faith in the future of the Dominion and our high regard for its industrial achievements."

Mr. Moffat said that, "when the need for essential war items ceases, it is hoped that our new programme will keep our greatly enlarged plant with its hundreds of new employees, busy and happy in the years ahead."

"And Now Tomorrow" Stars Ladd With Loretta Young

Immediately upon Alan Ladd's release from the Army on a medical discharge, Paramount producers started the cameras grinding on the screen version of the Rachel Field best-seller, "And Now Tomorrow."

In this romantic drama by the author of "All This and Heaven, Too," Ladd co-stars with Loretta Young in what we are told is one of the most beautiful love stories to reach the screen. Ladd's characterization is a complete departure from his famous "killer" roles. He plays the part of a medico who falls in love with his patient, Loretta, who is engaged to another.

The film, which is now playing at the Westmount United Theatre, features Barry Sullivan as Miss Young's fiance and Susan Hayward as her younger sister, with whom Barry falls in love. Ladd accidentally learns of the situation but is professionally restrained from telling Loretta, and speaking of his own love.

Irving Pichel, whose past successes are innumerable, has made a great dramatization, it's said, of this touching story. The sympathetic role of Loretta, as the girl whose life depends upon her health being restored, is acutely contrasted to the restrained characterizations played by the other three, none of whom feels justified in telling her the truth.

Loretta and Ladd were last seen in the hit production, "China," which was the latter's last picture before joining the armed forces. His return to the screen in "And Now Tomorrow" terminates a two years' absence.

VISUAL EDUCATION

So she could learn at first hand just what she will have to do to launch an aircraft carrier for "The Well-Groomed Bride," a special showing of Paramount newsreels of the launching of the 45,000-ton USS Midway were specially screened for Olivia de Havilland.

SLIGHT ERROR

Through amusing typographical errors, Gail Russell, dark-haired feminine lead in Paramount's "The Unseen," was described in a recent newspaper story as "54 inches tall, weighing 190 pounds. She's five feet, four, weighs 109.

Opening Sunday at the Westmount United!

Errol Flynn in a scene from "Objective Burma," which opens Sunday at the Westmount United Theatre, the cast also includes William Prince, James Brown, Dick Erdman, Geo. Tobias and Henry Hull.

Warner's "Objective, Burma" Stars Errol Flynn At York

There are many ways to describe a motion picture. Some are good. Some are bad. Some are sneaked into the theatre in the dead of night to be sprung on the unsuspecting audience along with three other features. Some are "magnificent," "grand," "stirring," "great" . . . yet at times these are no more than adjectives used by those in the movie trade.

Last night this reviewer saw a motion picture at the York United Theatre. If there has ever been a picture that reaches for a clod of earth and holds it up for all the world to see; if ever the simple dignity of man's faith in his cause, his way of life, his God, has been brought to the screen in a finer motion picture than Warner Bros.' "Objective Burma," then this reviewer has not seen it. For "Objective, Burma" is as real as that service flag in the window and as down to earth as that letter from your G.I. Truly it is a hymn to those who are sky-borne with boots of clay—the men of the parachute corps.

Here is the moving tale of one parachute company, dropping like so many sacks of grain into the dark, twisted Burma jungle on a mission that will take them crawling over one hundred and fifty miles of endless Hell. It is a tale of valor and courage that can find its equal only in the annals of other men who performed similar deeds against the Japs in Burma.

In the role of Capt. Nelson, Warner Bros. have cast Errol Flynn, veteran of assorted action stories. Mr. Flynn's performance as the kindly captain desperately trying to conceal from his men the fact that their plight is hopeless, is truly deft, clean cut, and inspiring.

Also featured in the all-male cast are William Price, Henry Hull, James Brown, John Alvin, Dick Erdman and many other capable character actors. Taken in turn, William Prince, who should be remembered for his fine portrayal of the sensitive sailor in "The Very Thought Of You," scores again with his interpretation of Lieut. Jacobs, whose softly spoken commands and underlying courage endear him to his men, and who, broken and mutilated, is eventually butchered by the savage Jap. As Sgt. Treacy, the line sergeant and backbone of the outfit, James Brown shines as brightly as he did in "Air Force"—and gives promise of developing into more than just a pleasing leading man. This is, of course, to Brown's credit.

As a direct contrast to the hardened soldiers who dominate "Objective Burma," Henry Hull's characterization of Williams, the combat correspondent who has raced off to the wars after years at a re-write desk and various bars, is excellent. His awakening to the real meaning of war and his resulting deep sympathy for the common soldier is in reality an allegorical message to the war-weary thousands at home.

Of John Alvin, Dick Erdman, Warner Anderson, and the remaining members of this fine cast, it is sufficient to say that their performances are equal to the men they are portraying, and more praise than that no man deserves.

"Objective, Burma" was produced by Jerry Wald whose more recent screen successes include "Destination Tokyo" and "The Very Thought Of You." Adapted for the screen from an original story by Alvah Bessie, the film was directed by Raoul Walsh and photographed by James Wong Howe, cinematographer par excellence.

WESTMOUNT HIGH LIGHTS

By GEORGE COCHRANE

"Gals," writes girls' Hi-Y "Sadie Hawkins" dance committee chairwoman Sheila Taylor, "there is still time to line up a man for tonight's affair. Get on the line now."

No sooner had energetic Sheila presented us with her communique than three very much distressed gentlemen, and we use the latter term loosely, appeared with a somewhat unusual request for publicity. The handsome threesome, Eric Gregory Swaine, Dave Johnson and Kyle Prescott, had appointed big Eric as spokesman and the 190-pound morsel of masculinity addressed himself as follows: "The three of us, AS YET, have not accepted any Sadie Hawkins invitations. This is mainly because we haven't received any. We have instructed our parents, however, to accept any invitations phoned in before 7.30 p.m. Friday.

The lads are serious. The phone numbers: E. G. Swaine, EL. 9618; D. D. Johnson, DE.1877; K. K. Prescott, EL. 4538.

So there are three possibilities for you, gals, if you haven't yet got your date lined up for tonight. Sheila Taylor promises that the dance will be one long to be remembered. The Westernaires orchestra will be supplying the music, refreshments will be plentiful and nourishing and William Atwood Macdonald will be dispensing in the drink booth with Jeff Messenger and Bert Grindley.

PRESIDENT JIM ROSS

After hearing speeches by the three candidates for the presidency of the Students' Council on Tuesday, "schoolers" went to the polls Wednesday and elected Jim Ross president.

The secretary and treasurer will be elected next week. The two vice-presidents will be elected from grade 10 next term.

The ballots were counted by members of this year's Student Council executive and acting as scrutineers were Peter Scott, representing candidate Milne, and Mona Macfarlane, representing Chippy Batshaw, Jimm Ross didn't bother to send along a scrutineer.

STUDENT PERSONALITY

In last week's column we made the claim that Bruce Clarkson, the tall, lanky and handsome lad who soloed on a couple of lines in the air cadet skit's re-worded version of "Don't Fence Me In," could have been used more extensively in the Purple and White Revue. This week we'll substantiate that declaration and it's a fairly easy task because cadet Clarkson, who hails from Moncton, N.B., Irv Koven's native province, has a wealth of talent that should make him a real star of the 1946 edition of the Purple and White Revue. Bruce has a fine voice, both for singing and acting ,and, what's more, he really knows his way about a stage.

P. & W. REVUE

Joe Duffin's Purple and White Revue '45 is still the talk of the school and, according to Brian Macdonald, it's also the talk of McGill. The college boys were quite impressed with the show.

The whole cast and behind the scenes men chipped in last week to buy Joe Duffin a smart-looking cigarette case, a little memento for the dozens of hours he spent working on the show. Roy Howard, director, Gordon Pollock, business and stage manager, Lois Astrof; costume girl, and Knute Sorensen, carpenter par excellence, were also presented with pens, pencils and other tokens of esteem.

The presentations were made at the P. & W. party, held in Vic Hall after the show. That party, as all those who were there will agree, was really something. Even Fred Tarzan Roney, electrical wizard and one of the pin-up boys, was enjoying himself.

That feminine singing quartet, Ruth Messenger, Ann Price, Joyce Boland and Molly Laurin, were scouted by one of orchestra leader Duncan Cameron's boys at the revue and as a result the foursome will be warbling with the Cameron music makers at Montreal High an Saturday, April 28.

HI-Y

The gals' Hi-Y held their final get-together at the Y on Wednesday and inducted their executive for the '45-'46 season and heard the farewell chat of past president Inger Jorgensen. The gals have had a very successful year and new pres. Audrey Campbell will have a hard job living up to the example which Inger and her aides have set the last eight months or so.

The males' Hi-Y met at the 'Y' Thursday and elected their executive. The new exec. will be inducted Thursday.

Wolfgang Siemers and Chuck Kennedy have jointly taken over William Atwood Macdonald's post as editor of the ever-popular Monthly.

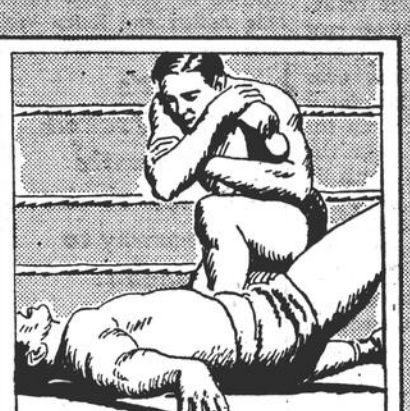
KEEP FIT FOR THE DAYS AHEAD



Yvon Robert is here showing the stepover toe hold, one of his favourites. He dives for opponent's leg, then puts his left leg on top and applies body pressure, locks his knees and brings his shoulder into play for further pressure. This is a very punishing hold. Correctly applied, it usually brings results.

In this picture, Yvon Robert is exhibiting his famous short-arm scissors. He works this from a standing position using a front headlock and locking the left arm. He throws opponent backward, taking a short arm scissors on the way down. Then he leg-locks him and when they hit the mat he starts tugging.

Senior Softball Entry Deadline Set For Monday

Monday is the deadline for entering teams in the senior section of the Westmount Municipal Softball League. At the present time 11 teams are set for the fray but chances are that 12 teams will face the barrier on the opening day, May 14.

Plans for Ozzie Dalzell's civilian team are still incomplete, the material is available, mostly players from last year's junior section, but other factors have to be cleared up first. If the civilian team is not forthcoming, at least one other service team is looking for a berth in the league so that the total entry list should be an even dozen.

Many of the clubs have been using the diamonds for practice sessions and if the weather is fine most of them will be out tomorrow afternoon.

Plans are already underway for the league opening which will take place on Monday evening, May 14, with the Longue Pointe Ordnance Depot nine taking on the Navy. It is expected that leading dignitaries from the services and the municipality will be present for the inaugural tilt.

Visitor: "Don't you cut yourself pretty often with this straight edged razor?"

Mountaineer: "Nar. I been shaving nigh on to five years now and I ain't cut myself either time."

Robert Watt Jr. Killed In Action

Robert (Bob) N. Watt, Jr., killed in action, the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Watt, 626 Sydenha mAve., was one of the best known athletes in Montreal. Born here on June 12th, 1923, "Bob" Watt was educated in Westmount High School and at the time of his enlistment was in his third year of Commerce in McGill University.

In June 1944, Cpl. Watt left Canada and was posted to his unit in France last August. Within a few weeks of serving on the battlefields, he was hospitalized with wounds for three weeks, and later, after his discharge from the hospital, was assigned to prisoner-of-war duty until last January when he was sent back to the hospital for another five weeks. Early in March he returned to his unit and fought with them until he was killed.

Cpl. Watt was noted for his prowess at tennis, and in 1941 was selected by the P.Q.T.A. as the top junior player in Quebec.

Surviving are his mother and father, who is president of the Montreal Tramways, a brother, Flt.-Lt. Laird Watt, and his grandfather, M. A. Vittie, of Granby.

The best job you ever did has to be done again!

REMEMBER when you were asked to buy Victory Bonds last Fall?

One of the company War Finance Workers asked you: "Well, how much will it be this time, Bert?" And you told him.

Then he asked: "And how about buying another bond—for cash?"

You hadn't thought of that. The one you were buying on the Payroll Plan was going to pinch you plenty.

Suddenly, for no reason, you thought of that husky, fair-haired Stevens kid who lived in the brown house near you. You'd been talking to his mother only a couple of days ago and she told you he'd been reported missing after they'd taken Calais. You didn't know what to say to her then.

So you said, "O.K.—I'll take that other bond for cash."

And he answered: "It's a wise move, Bert. Victory Bonds are a grand investment at 3%. And in an emergency you can get your money back on them immediately."

When you got home and told Mary what you'd done, she didn't squawk. She just said, "What else can we do?"

Two weeks later there was a "V" flag flying over your plant building. And it made you feel warm deep inside to be a member of that winning team.

It was the best job you ever did!

The cost of war is greater now than ever.

So the best job you ever did has to be done again!

To which the fat lady replied, "But if they did, dearie, they couldn't afford to stop for some people."

The cigarette has burned an inch.
A pilot lit it just before the "scramble".
He set it down and rushed for his plane.
And while it smoulders in the ash-tray
he streaks up into the murky night in his mighty atom — a Spitfire.
Bullets rip from his guns.
Another enemy plane disappears in a blistering burst of flame.
He tightens. A glint in the night tells him he is being attacked.
Hot metal chews at his plane.
Four bullets smash into the cockpit.
His body slumps.
The Spitfire spirals down, down,
from a sickening height,
and buries its nose in the earth.
The cigarette still smoulders.
These are the men!
Such are the deeds! Men fight,
Men die, for Freedom — for your Freedom.
Repay them . . . it's little enough to do . . .
