Les Petits Chanteurs de la Paix Sing At Hemmingford

By Mrs. L'Espérance

In a church filled to capacity the choir of boys and men from Huntingdon, known as Les Petits Chanteurs de la Paix, sang the High Mass at St. Roman's Church in Hemmingford on Sunday morning.

Under their talented Director, Mr. Henry Talbot and accompanied by Miss Gilberte Demers, the well-known teacher of music and organist of St. Joseph's Church in Huntingdon, the choir sang several numbers for half an hour before the Mass began, to the delight of the large congregation who had arrived in very good time.

With the choir came a number of parents and friends from Huntingdon and in the congregation were several friends from the other churches in Hemmingford. All were most appreciative of the opportunity of hearing the beautiful music. Mr. Yves Brosseau, the Gleaner photographer, was present at Mass and after the service took pictures on the steps of the church.

The members of St. Roman's choir had prepared a light lunch for the singers and their friends and were given another treat when everyone gathered in the Parish Hall. With Mr. Talbot at the piano, the choir sang several Folk songs and popular numbers and everyone enjoyed the friendly hour which followed.

Mr. Talbot, an accomplished musician who holds several music diplomas including that of Conservatoire Lauréat, is the Principal of St. Joseph's Elementary School in Huntingdon. He comes from Rivière du Loup and formed the choir two years ago, on his arrival. There are 40 soprano boys, 12 alto boys, 15 tenor and 15 bass voices in the choir. The boys practice every day for half an hour and the full choir put in at least three hours practice a week. Their fame is spreading, already they have sung at Herdman, Ste. Agnes de Dundee, St. Anicet, the Mont Laurier Seminary and now Hemmingford. Huntingdon residents have had the pleasure of hearing them twice already in concert locally and it is certain that the third concert, which will be given this coming November at the Huntingdon Theatre, will also be a sell-out. The money raised at these concerts has gone toward their music, transportation expenses and toward the purchase of the very attractive uniforms. With black trousers the men wear a red satin shirt, turquoise cravat and cummerbund while the boys wear the turquoise shirt, red cravat and cummerbund and these were tailor-made for them. They make a very striking and attractive picture.

Generous donations have also been received from Monsignor David, the School Board and the various merchants of the town. Discussing the difficulties usually experienced in getting members of a choir to attend practice, Mr. Talbot said that their rules for attendance were quite strict but he emphasized the fact that, without the full co-operation of the parents he would not have been able to accomplish what he has. He paid high tribute to the parents of the boys who made certain that they arrived on time for all evening practices and that there were no unnecessary absences. In school, Mr. Talbot said, he accompanies the boys himself, in church Miss Demers is the accompanist while for the concerts he was fortunate in being able to call on his brother, Mr. Paul Talbot, also an accomplished musician, from Mont Laurier.

Sincere thanks to the choir and their Director for giving so generously of their time and talents were expressed by Canon Corriveau and Mr. Y. Frederick, St. Roman's choir Director, who approached Mr. Talbot in the first instance with the suggestion of this visit. It was a brilliant idea.

A final word of appreciation to the members of the Hemmingford Volunteer Fire Brigade. Not only did several of their number attend Mass for safety purposes but they assisted greatly in ushering the visitors to their seats and in finding seats for late-comers. Thank you gentlemen!

Ormstown Lions Club Meeting

A regular meeting was held on June 15th with Lion President Gordon Green in the chair. It was Ladies' Night and a large crowd enjoyed a very pleasant evening. Lion Adoris Beauchamp reported that the mother of the youngster to whom the glasses had been given by the Club thanked him and asked him to express her heartfelt thanks to the Club saying that it was impossible for her to properly write her thanks. Lion Serge Damour reported that the O.T.J. were ready to continue with summer playground activities as they did last year and said that they hoped that the Lions Club would again lend their financial and other support the way they had done last year. A committee was formed to meet with the O.T.J. to complete plans for the coming summer. The speaker for the evening was Mr. R. Mosher, Director General of Chateauguay Protestant Schools. He chose for his subject "What"s Ahead for Education in the Chateauguay Valley." He explained many points not completely understood by his listeners previously in connection with the coming Regional Schools for the district. He understands the subject thoroughly and pointed out to his listeners the many advantages of centralized schools. Following his talk many questions were asked which he answered readily and easily. The speaker was introduced by Lion Burry McGerrigle and thanked by Lion Cliff Moore. Final figures were not available for the recent T.V. drawing but reports given were very favourable and a goodly profit should be realized to help the Lions carry on their good work. 25 YEARS OF PRIESTHOOD

Father Jean-de-la-Croix Marcil

It is with pleasure that the parishioners of St. Patrick's Hinchinbrooke and Elgin will honor, next Sunday, June 27th, their Pastor, Father Jean-de-la-Croix Marcil, born in Howick, son of Fernand, farmer and Aurore Laplante.

He started going to school at the country school, then completed his classical course at St. Thomas of Aquin Seminary, Valleyfield, and his theology at Montreal's Senior Seminary. He was ordained a priest in Montreal by Msgr. Turquetil June 22nd., 1940.

After two years as a teacher at his Alma Mater's, from 1940 to 1942, and two years at St. Jean Chrysostome as curate, it was still in his early years of priesthood that he was made Pastor of St. Patrick's wide extended parish. Since 1944, he has been devoting himself totally to the spiritual, material and intellectual welfare of his parishioners. In the early years he participated very closely in the building of a primary school. In this very composite parish, he has to be a man who can do everything. All, aside from race or creed, hold him as a friend and as a devoted priest, even people from neighbouring parishes.

Appreciation of Entertainment Provided For Ormstown Ex.

An Appreciation for the entertainment provided on the opening and Saturday evening sessions of the Ormstown Exhibition.

Now that a very successful 1965 Ormstown Exhibition is over, we naturally look back with a discerning eye in attempting to evaluate the items which produced a new record attendance. While these items are numerous, the outstanding performance on the opening evening by the Ormstown Band, the Majorettes and the Mopettes, was undoubtedly the major factor in reaching a seat sellout in the arena on Sat. evening — a first in the Exhibition history — when this performance was repeated.

Grange Neighbor Night Program At Brushton

On Monday evening, June 14, some 35 members and friends of Maple Leaf Grange motored to Brushton, for the final Neighbour Night of 1965.

Worthy Master Winter conducted the opening of the Grange with the Bible being opened on the altar and the presentation of the American and Canadian Flags. The Lecturer, Sis. Winter welcomed the gathering and turned the meeting over to Maple Leaf's Lec. Bro. David Rankin, who expressed the pleasure of the Grange as being able to be with them for the evening.

The programme opened with the "Welcome Song", after which our Lec. took us on an imaginary trip, leaving Huntingdon, going by way of Highway No. 4 to Montreal. Taking the south side of the St. Lawrence River, he spoke of the various cities one passed through, and on in to New Brunswick. From this province one enters Nova Scotia, around which our evening's entertainment was centered. As is the custom, all visitors are taken into Nova Scotia to the music of the bagpipes. Worthy Master Rupert Hawley as narrator read the history of the Province in early days and tableau in keeping with same was used.

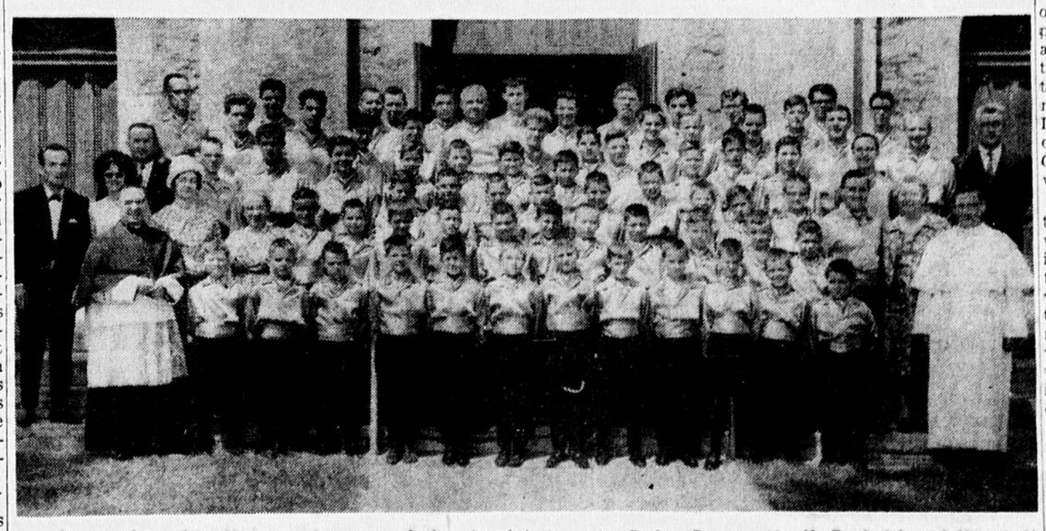

The first tableau was in the time when the Micmacs lived by fishing and hunting. At this time no guns were in use and the bow and arrow was the main hunting equipment. There were no schools so the children were taught by their parents to make their bows and arrows and the girls sewing skins and setting up wigwams. This showed two girls seated on the floor in Indian dress sewing on fur skins and two men, typical Indians with bows and arrows standing beside a wigwam on the stage.

In 1605 the first settlement was made in the Annapolis Basin at Port Royal. The first club organized was the Club of Good Cheer which was started to keep the men of the settlements from getting bored. Each day a different man provided the food and entertainment, and there was much rivalry as each tried to outdo the other. Usually one or more Indian Chiefs were entertained at this time.

This tableau found several men including an Indian chief seated at a table, enjoying both food and drink. Something else brightened this picture when a little Scottish lady

A cup of tea with refreshment and a social hour was enjoyed by all at the close of the meeting.

Sunday School Picnic

Saturday morning dawned bright and clear for the annual Howick United Church Sunday School picnic which was held in the Maple Grove of Mr. and Mrs. William Templeton. The first picnic was held at "Maple ton" about 1905 and with the exception of two years when it had to be cancelled due to illness, has taken place there annually ever since.

In the forenoon the tables and seats were set up by the usual willing workers and by noon a goodly crowd had gathered and about seventy-five eager children crowded in to the well laden tables to partake of a bountiful lunch of sandwiches, cakes, cookies squares, pies and gallons of a cool drink. As soon as they had eaten their fill the tables were replenished with more food and soon the rest of the children and the adults were doing full justice to the bountiful meal under the maples.

Several more families arrived after lunch in time to take part in the races which were in the capable hands o the S. S. Supt., Mr. Donald Templeton, who was assited by Messrs. Donald McKell, Bill Templeton, Ken Younie, Bob Tolhurst, Wallace Greer and Doug Templeton.

The canteen was a busy place all afternoon where Mr Arnold McKell and Willard Greig looked after the wants of the little folk who were keen to spend their earnings from the races for ice cream soft drinks, etc.

Everyone was sorry our student minister Mr. Wm. Hudson was unable to be present, due to illness.

Mr. Donald Templton express the thanks of the Sunday School and all present to the Templeton's for their hospitality and the use of the grounds to which "Bill" replied saying the Sunday School was always welcome and was happy the days had been such a pleasant one for all.

Mr. Jack Hamilton returned to work in Montreal with the Dosco Co., on Monday. It is three years on June 22nd., since his accident while at work with the company, much of which time has been spent in hospital and undergoing treatment. At present he is still having therapy every day which we all hope will have a beneficial effect.

Mrs. Hamilton had a phone call from Mrs. Stairs who was on her way to Nova Scotia to spend the summer. Since her cast was removed she has been suffering quite a bit of pain but we hope she will soon be able to get around much more easily.

There have been several cases of chickenpox in the community the latest victim being Valerie Furcall, who has been ill and unable to attend school for some time. We all wish her a speedy recovery.

Several farmers are busy with their new milk houses to take care of the new bulk tanks which are being installed.

It was in 1621 a charter was given to Sir William Alexander and it was written in Latin thus New Scotland was written Nova Scotia. A plan was made by King James to make more money for this new settlement, so he chose for a sum of money to sell titles to anyone who wanted to go to the new world. To become a Knight Baronet of Nova Scotia, money must be paid and also it was necessary to stand on the soil while he was "dubbed" by the King. A part of Edinburgh Castle in Scotland was created to be in Nova Scotia for this purpose and remains so today.

The tableau at this point showed the King with the Flag of Nova Scotia and a sword as he performed the "dubbing" ceremony. Again at this time Mrs. Scott sang "The Highland Laddie. Mr. Scott accompanied her at the piano. The Scottish settlement lasted only a few years but long enough to give Nova Scotia its name, flag and coat of arms.

By 1700 the population had grown to 2000 people. Nature had been good to these people. Their meadows provided feed for cattle, and other stock as well as to grow crops of hay, grain and vegetables. The forests provided logs to build with, wood for fuel. In the winter the men trapped for skins and worked in the bush. In the summer they farmed and fished. The women were busy with their families, making soap, making clothes, spinning, etc. They even found time for visiting and dancing.

Tableau 4 and 5 found these four young couples busy with their soap making, spinning, and the men chopping wood. Everyone so busy but when the fiddle was heard in a lively tune, the work was thrown aside and a lively square dance was enjoyed.

In 1713 Nova Scotia was again given to Britain. The Acadians refused to take the Oath of Allegiance to the Queen, declaring that in the event of war between France and England they would remain neutral. The colonel, who was in charge of the Expulsion at Grand Pre watched proceedings and one day after harvesting was over, summoned all the men and boys over 10 years of age to the church. Here he made them prisoners and after many weeks he secured boats, and some 6000 of the people, carrying some of their furniture and clothing were pushed into boats and sent from their homeland.

The tableau showed the men being pushed out and away by the Colonel, while the women were trying to keep them. It was one of the tragedies of families being separated. An excerpt from the Poem Evangeline was read at this point.

A very interesting film of Nova Scotia (in color) was then shown, after which Sis. Anna Barton sang "The Nova Scotia Song", and also led in the singing of O'Canada by the entire cast of the programme.

Our State Deputy, Bro. Tanner, Juv. State Dep. Sis. Tanner, State Lec. Sis. Williams, Pomona Lec. Sis. Eunice Jones and Pomona Master, Bro. David Dunn all spoke briefly.

The thanks of the Grange goes out to Mrs. Cecil Brown, Miss Howie, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Scott and all members who took part, also the thanks of the Grange members to the Worthy Lec. and those who assisted him to make these tableau so entertaining.

On Tuesday evening, June 22nd., Maple Leaf will again present this programme at Clarenceville, Que., as an exchange Neighbour Night with the only other Canadian Grange in Canada. This Grange works under Vermont State in the way Maple Leaf does under New York.

GENERAL ELECTRIC COOKING DEMONSTRATION DRAWS LARGE CROWD

A very successful cooking demonstration in Grove Hall, Tuesday, June 15th, was attended by about 200 ladies. The sponsors were the Canadian General Electric Company, The Shawinigan Water & Power Co. and Braithwaite Bros. Proceeds from the sale of tickets went to Unit 4, Huntingdon United Church Women.

Mr. Douglas Stephen of Braithwaite Bros., welcomed the ladies and called on Mrs. Clarence Stark, President of Unit 4, U.C.W. for a few words. Then he introduced Mr. Carrier and Mr. Lavoie of Shawinigan Water & Power and Mr. Boisvert of Canadian General Electric. Mr. Carrier acted as master of ceremonies for the evening and got the program underway by introducing Mrs Nicole Goyette, Home Economist for the Shawinigan Water & Power Company.

Mrs. Goyette prepared an oven meal comprising three casserole dishes, namely, meat, vegetable, rice and a date cake. The cooking time was 50 minutes at a temperature of 350 degrees. Mrs. Goyette used a 30" Deluxe Automatic G. E. Range and had at her disposal the new G.E. Frost-Guard Refrigerator-Freezer.

While the meal was cooking, Mr. Boisvert, representative of General Electric explained how G. E's new Automatic Self - Cleaning Oven works. By merely setting the dial, this oven cleans itself electrically with no more stretching and scrubbing. This interested all the ladies because cleaning a dirty oven is a messy job. Mr. Boisvert also pointed out the many advantages of G. E's Frost-free Refrigerators.

Mrs. Goyette presented slides supplied by the Shawinigan Water & Power Company. These pictures showed how to plan a kitchen that will save a woman needless steps and utilize every bit of space.

At the close of the program, Mr. Stephen asked Mrs. Douglas Murray, President of the Huntingdon United Church Women to draw the ticket for the grand door prize, a G.E. Floor Polisher. The lucky lady was Mrs. Evelyn Donnelly. The winner of the G.E. Kettle was Mrs. Susan Cluff. Mrs. John Donnelly won a G.E. Steam Iron and Mrs. George Harrigan a G. E. Mixette. Cups and saucers and the food dishes were then drawn for. Each lady received the "Electric Cook Book" from the Shawinigan Water & Power Co. The prizes were donated by the Canadian General Electric Company, the Shawinigan Water & Power Company and Braithwaite Bros.

The Moppets

There was much comment on the appearance and performance of the Moppets during Fair week. We feel that our tribute must be made also.

Congratulations are certainly in order to Mrs. Coulombe for the magnificent training program which preceded the presentation, and congratulations to Mr. Cullen and his band for so ably supplying the appropriate music.

As is so often the case in many great and wonderful efforts, particularly those which are successful, those persons behind the scenes stay in obscurity — if indeed they are ever recognized. Our tribute then goes to Mrs. Ken Aldridge, "Barb" to everyone. She is the person to whom our gratitude must be given. She designed and made all the 32 costumes for the Moppets. She spent many hours, even on occasion staying up all night in order to put the finishing touches to those beautiful purple and white uniforms before the deadline. "Barb" has a full time job with the Imperial Bank of Commerce in Ormstown and is the mother of four children. Ormstown thanks you, "Barb", for without the costumes, the Moppets would have been much less impressive.

Our thanks also to Mr. Burry McGerrigle whose brain child (the Moppets) worked and to Mr. Jean Paul Forget who donated his time in sewing spats for the girls.

Valleyfield Harbour Gets Official Go Ahead Signal

Four Federal Cabinet Ministers attended the opening ceremonies which marked the official beginning of construction for the Valleyfield Harbour on Beauharnois canal, Friday afternoon, June 18. They were Hon. J. McIlraith, Treasury Council President, Hon. M. Lamontagne, Secretary of State, Hon. C. M. Drury, Minister of Industry, and Hon. Lucien Cardin, Minister of Public Works. Among other noted guests were J.P. Deschatelets, M.P. ex-Minister of Public Works; Gerald Laniel, M.P., Mr. F.R. Daniels, President of Dominion Textile Co. Ltd.; Mr. Jean-Claude Lessard, President of Quebec Hydro; Mr. R.P. Riggin, of Noranda Mines Co.; Mr. B.T. Johnson, President of Brockville Chemical Ltd.; Mr. Rolland Olivier, Vice-President of St. Lawrence Fertilizers Ltd.; Mr. William Houde, President of William Houde Ltd.; Mr. Jean Louis Doucet, Quebec Deputy Minister of Municipal Affairs; Mr. R.C. Dumont, Director of Kuhlman and Cerei Maroc, Paris; Mr. R.V. Porritt, President of Canadian Electrolytic Zinc Ltd.; Dr. Pierre Camu, Vice-President of the St.Lawrence Seaway; Mr. Gerard Filion, Director of the General Financing Society; Mr. G.D. Kuhn, President of Canadian Schenley Ltd.; Mr. H.G. Campbell, Director of Production at Canadian Sndustries Ltd., and many others.

The Federal Cabinet Ministers arrived at the Town Hall, at about three o'clock, where they met with Mayor Cauchon. The party then proceeded an hour later to the site where a large group of personalities was gathered. Speeches were made by Mayor Cauchon, Honorables McIlraith, Lamontagne and Drury, M.P.'s Deschatelets and Laniel. Msgr Caza and Reverend Charles Pelletier conducted a short ceremony, after which the first shovel of earth was lifted.

At about five, the guests departed for the town hall, preceded by a parade. At the town hall, a buffet was served.

"Valleyfield Harbour", asit will be called, will have two cement docks of 400 ft each, able to accommodate two transatlantic boats. It will have 30 ft. deph which means that 800,000 cubic yards of earth will have to be dug out. To give an idea of the extent, think if all this earth were spread over the entire surface of Sauve Park, the latter would go up by 30 ft. all over. The basin will be 1,000 ft. long and 300 ft. wide. As of now, it is expected that each user of the harbour will have to take care of its own loading and unloading. The harbour will be built on land owned by the St. Lawrence Seaway. The City has a lease for 40 years. The harbour will be ready for the beginning of the 1966 seaway activities.

Dairy Payment Claim Forms Being Issued

OTTAWA — Mailing of claim forms for the supplementary payment provided in the new interim dairy policy began the past week to some 200,00 registered shippers of manufacturing milk and cream, the Agricultural Stabilization Board announced.

The dairy policy, which went into effect May 1st., for an 11-month period, is aimed at providing a national average return to producers for $3.50 per hundredweight for manufacturing milk used in Canada, with equivalent assistance to cream producers.

To reach the national average price of $3.50, the policy incorporates a deficiency payment program based on a support level of $3.30 per hundredweight, and a supplementary payment.

Board officials point out that the policy aims at a national average price. The actual return received by an individual producer depends on the price he negotiates with the processor, to which will be added the supplementary payment and the amount of the deficiency payment for the year.

The lump-sum supplementary payment, which will be made to the shippers when they have filled in and returned their claim forms, will be based on 1964-65 sales. To be eligible, a farmer must have sold at least 10,000 pounds of manufacturing milk in the year. Payment will be made at the rate of 25 cents per hundredweight for the first 48,000 pounds; 20 cents per hundredweight for the next 48,000 pounds, and 10 cents a hunderdweight for everything over 96,000 pounds. Producers delivering any portion of their milk to the fluid trade will not be eligible.

Payments to cream shippers will be on the basis of butterfat deliveries — approximately 7.1 cents per pound for the first 1,680 pounds; 5.7 cents a pound for the next 1,680 pounds, and 2.8 cents a pound for everything over that.

Cream shippers must have sold a minimum of 350 pounds of butterfat to be eligible for the payment.

Board officials plan to start sending cheques covering the supplementary payment to producers this summer. To speed the payment they ask all eligible producers to fill out and return their claim forms as soon as they are received.

A producer who has not received his form by June 15 should get one from his processing plant or by writing to Data Processing Services, Canada Department of Agriculture, Ottawa. Claims should be mailed by July 31 to insure consideration.

NOTRE DAME DE ROSAIRE

In commemoration of Our Lady Queen of the World, each year Notre Dame de Rosaire in Ormstown honors one student as Queen of May. This honor goes to the student in the highest grade in the school who has the highest average in Catechism for the year. This year's Queen was Diana Chartrand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Chartrand whose average mark for the year was 97% and Therese Crête, French class in the 7th Grade.

The procession started at the school, with all the students of the school marching over to the church. They remained standing as the Queen and her royal entourage of princesses and princes gaily robed entered the church. The church was decorated with lilacs whose fragrance added the final touch to solemn ceremony. An altar, at the front of the church with the Statue of the Blessed Virigin and brightly burning candles was a reminder to all present of Our Lady, mother of Jesus and Queen of the World. The Queen and her party took their places at the front of the church in front of the altar and an act of consecration was read by Therese Crete. Hymns were sung to the Blessed Virgin. Father Larocque blessed all those present and gave a sermon on the virtues of the Blessed Virgin and how through her we should get to know her Son, Jesus Christ better.

Prayers in English were read by Sandra Jackson, Sally Smith and Karen Smith.

The following are the names of the princesses and princes who made up the royal party. Each of these students had the highest average in Catechism, in his grade, for the year.

HUNTINGDON GRADUATE EXAMINES TEXTILE DISPLAY

At the graduation, Gagnon was presented with the prize awarded by the Textiles Chapter, Corporation of Professional Technicians, and Perreault won the CIBA Medal, donated by the Ciba Company.

This and That In Town

Despite stormy skies Monday morning, the immediate Huntingdon area didn't receive rain on Monday morning although it rained heavily in and around Montreal. Rain is needed badly here . . . even the lawns are turning brown-Monday was the longest day of the year, incidentally. The week-end was ideal for people with summer homes, clear and warm. Many local farmers have started haying, but the crop won't be heavy.

Read elsewhere about Yves Loiselle of Huntingdon who excelled in sports at l'Universite de Laval during the past term. Yves is home for the summer and is working for his father at Huntingdon Auto Parts, Loiselle & Legault Ltee. The 15-year-old lad won about every trophy possible in track and field at Laval and also led the first year scientific course there. The family spend their leisure hours at their summer home at Ste. Barbe and this year Yves is having a lot of fun with their new Volvo Penta inboard/outboard boat.

Incidentally, have you noticed the improvements around the white bridge just west of the N.Y.C. tracks on Route 4 at Huntingdon? The proprietors of Polly's Restaurant have accomplished much commendable work and that corner is quite attractive.

When Tom Bell, proprietor of Huntingdon Photo Supplies was in Ireland a couple of weeks ago he spent a week around Stranlolar, about 30 miles from Londonderry. He met five first cousins for the first time and visited the house where he was born and left with his parents when he was four years old. Photographer Bell took many pictures including the ruins of Henry the VIII's castle. He said many people there are converting their peat and coal fireplaces to electric heat. The people seem quite comfortable but as a comparison for wages he mentioned a truck driver, working per union scale, who draws about $28 per week for a 45-hour week. He said private cars were becoming common, but were expensive to buy and maintain: gasoline is 85c per gallon and motorists must pay a $50 road tax for each vehicle as well as a license. Electric appliances are common, but ours are no good there as everything is on 240 volts. Glad you had a successful trip, Tom (both pleasure and business) and maybe some day you'll show some of your slides to one of the local organizations

Believe it or not: a friend came into The Gleaner yesterday (Tuesday) and told the following story. He was driving from St. Anicet to Port Lewis Saturday afternoon when he came upon a flock of about twenty sparrows feeding on what a horse left on the road. As he drew closer the birds started to fly away but one of them started hopping towards the car. The driver slowed, finally stopped. He got out of his car and walked around to the front of the vehicle, whereupon the little bird hopped on the hood of the car and looked defiantly around. What gives? A bird story? First of all, there aren't too many horses on the roads and secondly, we can't imagine a sparrow trying to stop a car. But on the other hand . . .

Read about Mr. Aurelien Fortin winning the Provincial Fiddlers' Championship at Sherbrooke on Sunday.

Four Federal Cabinet Ministers attended the opening ceremonies marking the official start of construction for the new Valleyfield Harbour on Friday. Read elsewhere.

The Red Cross Blitz only reached the half-way mark of the 1965 objective: please forward your contribution immediately and help make the drive a success.

The cooking demonstration sponsored by Braithwaite Bros., Canadian General Electric and the S. W. & P. Co June 15 was a success. More than 200 ladies attended and several went home with valuable prizes. See elsewhere.

White's Sideroad has been treated with a coat of tar and stone. This is a start and we hope more roads will be patched before too long. Rumour has it that 1.3 miles of Route 4 will be reconstructed soon, also 1.3 miles of Route 3 continuing towards the border. Black-topping on Four in sections under repair at Howick and Huntingdon will soon begin too.

Chateaugay Lake, N.Y. is a popular resort area for many Americans and some Canadians, but we know of at least four families from the U.S. town who own summer homes on one point on Lake St. Francis. And talking about 'The Lake', the school season is just about over for this term and families are moving to summer quarters in earnest this week.

The Gleaner will be closed all day Friday in observance of St. Jean Baptiste Day, also next Friday, in observance of Dominion Day.

Several automobile accidents in the area over the week-end, see 'Another Rash Of . . .'.

Marcel Dumont, 20, drowned early Saturday afternoon in an artificial lake at St. Antoine Abbe.

With the M.T.C. strike over, hopes are high that the P.T.C. negotiations being held today (Wednesday) in Montreal will be successful and schedules will be resumed before the end of the week.

Radio station CFRA, Ottawa, announced Tuesday night that arrangements are being made with a professional crew to make rain clouds over the Ottawa Valley (seems that area is as dry as the immediate Huntinngdon area). However, the weatherman this a.m. predicts showers for today and tomorrow, so let's keep our fingers crossed)

Muskie season opened last week-end and several have been caught in the Port Lewis-St. Anicet area. At one time, Lake St. Francis was considered one of the best bodies of water for this type of game fish, but with the seaway, canals and hydro projects, fishermen in this area an no longer claim this to be true. Lake St. Louis is stocked with Muskie fingerlings annually and so is the part of the St. Lawrence from Cornwall up towards the Thousand Islands. Maybe Mr. Ian Watson, M.P. could arrange for some to be placed in Lake St Francis, too?

And we see a mint condition Model 'A' Ford coach, vintage 1930 or '31, proudly parked in Ormstown these days.

Finally, Mayor Leo Cappiello has informed The Gleaner that Police Chief Joffre L'Heureux has completed a survey of that part of the Town of Huntingdon situated between the two railroad tracks. This survey lists the number of residents, number of houses, number of persons in each house, etc, also other pertinent facts of interest to the town fathers as well as welfare agencies As most people here are aware, some of the houses and lots have been greatly improved in recent years but there are also instances of slum conditions, for instance the Chief states there is one small dwelling with more than 20 persons living in three rooms.

Have you visited Moonlight Lake at Athelstan yet this year? People who have tell us it will without a doubt be THE summer resort in the Huntingdon area. Several lots have been sold by Dan L. Tully, proprietor, and camping facilities are available for a basic charge. The beach features modern washroom and toilet facilities, camp tables, etc. There are areas in the lake for fishing, swimming, bathing, and so on. Already quite a number of Chateauguay, Montreal, Ormstown families as well as Huntingdon and a few from south of the border are making Moonlight Lake their summer rendez-vous. Mr. Tully has acquired the services of Arnold Milne, who has been an enthusiastic camper for 15 years, to help operate the campsite. One mile east of Athelstan, five miles from Huntingdon. Please see advt elsewhere and note that ADMISSION IS FREE from this Wednesday (today) until next Wednesday. See you there?

RINGLEADER SENTENCED TO 3 YEARS

CORNWALL, Ont., — Fred Russell, 27 of St. Zotique, Que. has been given a three-year term by a judge who termed him the ringleader of a Montreal car theft operation.

Russell, already serving an 18 month jail term for theft, pleaded guilty to four counts of possessing stolen auto parts and another of possessing a stolen car.

He originally pleaded not guilty, but changed his plea after witnesses told the court the car theft ring stole the vehicles in Montreal and took them to Summerstown, Ont., where they dismantled them for parts.

Russell owned a truck which was used to haul away the auto parts. Three other members of the car theft ring are already in jail.

Judge Omer Chartrand, sentenced Russell to three years on each count, but the terms are to be served concurrently.

GRASS

Grass is the forgiveness of Nature... Her constant benediction... It's tenatious fibers hold the earth in its place and prevent its soluable components from washing into the wasting sea. It invades the solitudes of the desert, climbs the inaccessible slopes and forbidden pinnacles of mountains, modifies climates, and determines the history, character and destiny of nations. Unobtrusive and patient, it has immortal vigor and aggression. Banished from the thoroughfare and the field, it bides its time to return, and when vigilance is relaxed, or the Dynasty has perished, it silently resumes the throne from which it has been expelled, but which it never abdicates. It bears no blazonery of bloom to charm the senses with fragrance or splendour, but its homely hue is more enchanting than the lily or the rose. It yields no fruit in earth or air, and yet should its harvest fail for a single year, famine would depopulate the world.

Mrs. Leitch, 89 years of age, boarded a jet at Vancouver, B.C., and was met at Dorval.

Several former schoolmates in the east will remember her as Agnes Currie who lived on the farm now owned by Harry Angell, and attended Riverfield School.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Stackhouse of Ormstown and Mrs. Leitch visited with cousin, Miss Flora Currie of Fertile Creek on Thursday and Mrs. Leitch stayed on for several days. Miss Currie and her cousin accompanied Mrs. Douglas Templeton on a round of visits to old friends which they found most enjoyable.

The Late Mrs. Rosina Lafontaine

The funeral of the late Mrs. Rosina Lafontaine, daughter of an old Howick family, was held at the parish church on Saturday of last week. Mrs. Lafontaine was born in Howick 61 years ago and attended school here. She lived in Montreal for many years and died at the Ste. Therese Hospital, Verdun.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. M. Craig.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Crawford of Lachine enjoyed a Father's Day visit at the Crawford home on Sunday afternoon. No doubt there would be dozens of such visits in the community and other family celebrations, on this special day set apart for a very important person.

Four old friends spent an enjoyable day together at Mrs. Bill Brown's home on Tuesday of last week.

Once members of the same bridge club in Montreal, they hadn't been together for years.

A third car behind the first one, was under control but slightly damaged when the other car spun around.

Birthday greetings to Mrs. Elliot and to her youngest sister, Mrs. Dan McFarlane, who celebrated her 83rd on June 11.

C.V.H.S. Proposes Museum As Centennial Project

At a meeting last week of the Executive of the Chateauguay Valley Historical Society it was proposed that the establishment of a local museum be considered as a centennial project. The society feels that there are many members of the Community who, although not members of the society, might be interested in taking an active part in setting up such a project. In order to give the general public an opportunity to voice its opinion an Open meeting has been called for July 8th, 7.30 p.m. at the Society's property at Allan's Corners. (See Advt.).

There are many points to be kept in mind when establishing a museum and it is hoped that those interested will come to the meeting and give some helpful suggestions as to location, content and supervision. Due to the importance of such a project as this, it is felt that the whole community should be given a chance to be included in and to work for such a worth-while and valuable contribution to the celebration of Canada's 100th birthday.

In addition to the project outlined above, the society has made arrangements for a visit in August to the historical village, created by Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Moore at Rawdon.

A second House and Garden Tour is being arranged for September or October. This one is to include a larger area of the valley than last year's highly successful tour.

Remember — Thursday, July 8th, 7.30 p.m., Allan's Corners is your chance to contribute to and participate in the establishing of a local museum. If you cannot possibly attend and wish to put forward any ideas please contact Mr. Donald Watson, Glenelm, Huntingdon, by mail or phone 264-5618.

Annual Meeting C.V.T.A. Held At Hemmingford

Hemmingford was the site of the Chateauguay Valley Teachers' Association's annual meeting which was held recently. Mr. Robert Eaman, the outgoing president, was in the chair.

A highlight of the meeting was the report of the Committee on Regional Planning, given by Mrs. Jan Morgan. During the winter months many teachers throughout the Chateauguay Valley worked on committees to plan for the new regional schools which will be started shortly. These schools will provide technical and vocational training as well as regular courses. Mrs. Morgan emphasized that only in the Chateauguay Valley were teachers participating directly in planning, through the various committees which had been established.

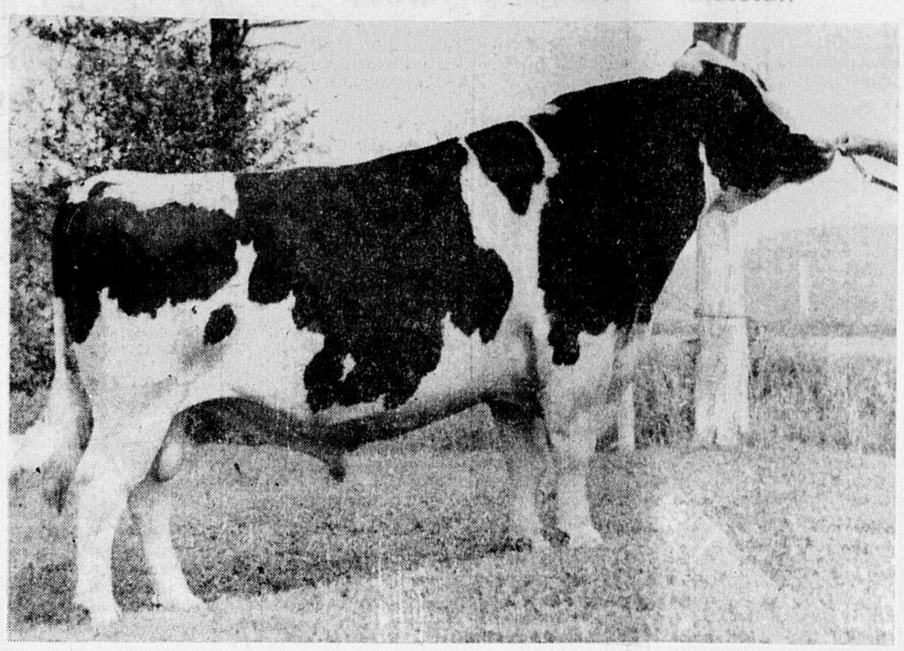

The guest speaker, Mrs. McIntosh, from Bedford, discussed the reasons for forming the Board of Professional Standards. A lively discussion followed, during which the opinions of the members were aired.

Two teachers in the valley are retiring this year. The Chateauguay Valley Teachers' Association pays tribute to Miss Lois Elliot, and Miss Marion Reid, both of Valleyfield. Miss Elliot is retiring after having taught at the Gault Institute for 42 years, while Miss Reid is ending a profession; career of 36 years. Miss Reid has spent most of her teaching career in the Eastern Townships, coming to Gault Institute 3 years ago.

The new Executive for 1965-66 will be: — President, Mrs. Jean Furcall; Vice-President, Mr. Austin Henry; Immediate Past President, Mr. Robert Eaman; Secretary, Mrs. Helen Wolff; Treasurer, Mr. Ian Rennie; Director Mr. R. Greenbank.

While we are aware that the idea of a more extensive entertainment by local talent was the inspiration of Mr. B. L. McGerrigle, we also fully realize that the finished product which the public so much enjoyed was due to the tireless patience and leadership of Mr. Lindsay Cullen, leader of the Band, Mrs. Carlyle Brown, leader of the Majorettes, and Mrs. Art. Coulombe, leader of the Mopettes, all of whom conducted practices for a period of many weeks.

We also think of the parents of many of the participants who took time off to drive their daughters to practice sessions — and naturally we think of the participants themselves who entered so enthusiastically into the spirit of the whole affair.

On behalf of the Management of the Ormstown Exhibition, I wish to express our deep appreciation and many, many thanks to all those I have mentioned for a fine entertainment which played an important role in the success of our Exhibition.

Sincerely,
John K. Dickson,
President.

N.B. This was written for publication in the "Ormstownian" but as I find that there will not be another issue until September, through the indulgence of the Editor of the Gleaner their columns are being used instead.

Athelstan

Now this section of sidewalk has been in a precarious condition for many years, but nothing was ever done about it. Perhaps no request was ever made until Mr. Bishop, who is making extensive repairs, requested that something be done about it, as it sloped at quite an angle towards the ditch. Some earth and the blocks relaid and properly tamped in, would take care of it without much expense.

It is obvious that the council or someone in authority must have given instructions to some person about it, but the turning over of the blocks is as yet as far as they have gone.

We admit that the sidewalks were laid by the people here many years ago; but to-day we feel that the upkeep of same should be a municipal affair. If some person should receive an injury, due to the condition of the sidewalk it is the municipality that would be held responsible.

So let's get on with it. Others spots require repairs too, so why not do the whole job at the one time?

Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Stu. Milne and children Sandra, Joan and Donald of St. Lambert, spent Saturday at the Chalmers' Cottage.

Visiting Mrs. Henry Patenaude are Mr. and Mrs. Rene Patenaude and children and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Patenaude all of Toronto.

Mrs. Oliver of Chateauguay is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hutchings, Mr. James Hutchings and son Freddie spent Sunday in Cornwall at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hutchings.

Hospitalized

Mr. Garnet Green and Mr. Henry Patenaude are patients in the Huntingdon County Hospital and Mr. Edmour Galipeau is in the Montreal General. We trust that their stay there will be short and that they will return to their homes fully recovered.

C.O.C.

The C.O.C. met on Saturday afternoon in the Church School Room.

Mrs. Cunningham opened the meeting with prayer and Mrs. Carrie French told the story of an Indian boy who attended the Indian Residential School at Kenora, Ont.

Mrs. Cunningham conducted the worship service assisted by Beverly Jamieson and Douglas Grant. The children then played a game which Indian boys and girls play, and made Indian headdresses.

The members enjoyed a tastefully decorated birthday cake and a cool drink.

After reading the above, I presume, like myself, you wondered who had a birthday. It was Mrs. Carrie French, so congratulations, Carrie!

Appreciation For The Gleaner

June 18th 1965.

Mr. Keith Howden,
Publisher of The Gleaner,
Huntingdon, Que.

Dear Keith,

We have just completed the most successful Exhibition in our history; our attendance has set new records.

We well realize that such an achievement does not come about accidently but as the result of the efforts of many persons and many agencies.

On behalf of the management of the Ormstown Exhibition, I wish to express our deep appreciation to you and your staff for the invaluable contribution made by the Gleaner towards our success. While our advertisements told their own story, your many articles, items and supplementary edition undoubtedly played a major role in creating added interest in the Ex.

While we are always desirous of drawing as large an attendance as possible outside of your distribution area, we are fully conscious of the fact that the bulk of our attendance must come from the area covered by The Gleaner — hence our reason for being so appreciative of your efforts.

With many, many thanks,
Sincerely yours,
John K. Dickson,
President.

Hemmingford

AN EXPLANATION AND AN APOLOGY

No Council news, no Graduates' Dedication Service, no Bowling Banquet and several other small items. I can only plead pressure of year-end school exams, report cards and register and 21 (one for each pupil) lengthy dossiers which the Department of Education now request. Of course there was also the thought that Ormstown Fair would have probably crowded them out anyhow!! However, June 23 draws near and with it, glorious freedom. Hope The Gleaner can spare me a page next week, looks as if I shall need it in order to 'catch up'. I see that Mr. MacGregor has done a fine job with all those Bowling pictures, they are all mounted and in Smith's window. Hope to get one or two printed with the news next week, also the Grads picture. Be patient!

HEMMINGFORD PLAYGROUND ASSOCIATION

Hemmingford Playground Association have opened the Playground for the summer season. The Playground is situated behind the United Church Hall and consists of a shady, enclosed area for children up to 12 years of age and a playing field for older younsters. The enclosed area is supervised from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. every day, Monday to Friday. Any younster from four years of age up may come to play here. Children under four years must be accompanied by a parent or other responsible person.

This is a community organization, non-denominational, and is supported by a yearly grant from the Department of Youth, Quebec and an annual Halloween Dance held in Hemmingford. It is a worth-while project and let us hope it will continue its successful progress as in other years. The supervisor for 1965 is Mrs. Bob Laurin who has been hard at work for a week now playing ball and badminton, swinging little tots on the swing set or helping make sand pies in the three big sand boxes. Organization president, Mr. Bob Laurin, has done an excellent job getting the playground cleaned up and painting and repairing the equipment. He has also had a sign board made, listing the rules and this is now posted at the entrance. Let us give him strong support throughout the coming season and see to it that the younsters in Hemmingford have a happy time in the playground.

Howick

As this news is being written the immediate family of Mrs. John Elliot is gathering to celebrate her 99th birthday.

Mr. H. Brady attended M.W.C.O.I. of B.A. at Niagara Falls last week.

During a brief electric storm recenay Mrs. Gerald Roy happened to touch the refrigerator, just as the fuse box beside it cracked with electricity. She fell but her head never touched the floor. She felt a tingling sensation through her limbs for about an hour but otherwise seems to have no ill effects.

EGLISE ST-JOSEPH — HUNTINGDON

Liturgie — Cette semaine sera marquée par la fête du Sacré-Coeur. C'est d'une manière bien concrète, tout l'amour que Dieu nous porte que nous fêtons, un amour que rien ne rebute qui est infiniment fort et grand: avoir du coeur, donner du coeur. Nous pourrions chercher ensemble comment se manifeste, entre nous d'abord l'amour que nous nous portons, de parents à enfants, d'enfants à parents. Notre amour (notre coeur) est-il comme celui de Dieu toujours prêt à pardonner, à dépasser la mauvaise humeur, à essayer de mieux comprendre les autres? Demandons pardon pour tous nos manques d'amour, pour tous les manques d'amour des hommes. Nous irons communier pour nous unir au coeur de Jésus: que pendant quelques instants il devienne le nôtre et nous ensigne à aimer son Père, comme lui l'aime: Coeur sacré de Jésus, rends mon coeur semblable au tien. Nous lui dirons merci pour cet amour.

Bible et Vocation

La Bible nous livre de très riches enseignements sur la vocation, appel de Dieu et réponse des hommes. Plus d'une trentaine de récits bibliques nous révèlent, à travers les circonstances variées qu'ils décrivent, les grands traits des moeurs divines et humaines dans le choix et l'accomplissement d'une vocation. Nous soulignerons d'abord deux caractères principaux de ces vocations bibliques, d'où nous dégagerons ensuite quelques leçons pratiques pour la vie chrétienne.

C'est Dieu qui appelle. L'appel divin. C'est Dieu qui appelle, toujours Lui et Lui seul. Voyez-le à l'oeuvre. Il appelle Noé à devenir le sauveur de sa famille; il envoie Abraham en pays inconnu; il presse Moise de prendre la tête de son peuple; il va chercher Gédéon au pressoir, Samuel au temple, David aux champs; il rencontre Elie dans la brise de l'Horeb, Isaie dans la flamme jaillissante de l'autel, Ezéchiel, dans la tempête et le feu près du fleuve Chobar. Il secoue Jonas l'endormi. Il affermit Jérémie le craintif, Il commande au douanier Lévi; Il conquiert le prétentieux Nathanael; Il bouscule le persécuteur Saul pour en faire l'apôtre Paul.

Dieu seul, en maître souverain, choisit ses élus. Evident surtout dans toutes les vocations supérieures, ce choix divin se retrouve dans toutes les vocations sans aucune exception. Tout l'univers, hommes et choses, repose dans la main de Dieu; Il dirige aussi bien le cours des astres qu'Il meut l'esprit et le coeur des hommes. Voilà pourquoi connaître sa vocation, c'est d'abord avoir entendu l'appel de Dieu, avoir connu la pensée de Dieu sur soi.

La réponse est personnelle. Dans l'Ecriture, les élus de Dieu répondent à son appel chacun à sa manière. Cette admirable variété manifeste leur adhésion libre et personnelle à la volonté divine. A l'appel de Dieu, Noé se met à l'oeuvre en silence. Abraham part immédiatement avec une totale confiance en la Providence. Moise accumule les objections pour éviter les charges; il cède enfin, convaincu de la puissance de Dieu. Gédéon objecte son humble condition et réclame des signes; puis il s'engage résolument. Samuel, sur le conseil d'Héli, répond: "Parlez, Seigneur, votre serviteur écoute". David, encore enfant, apprend auprès de ses brebis, son métier de pasteur d'Israel. Elie violent est séduit par la douceur de Dieu; Isaie, le magnanime, par sa sainteté; la gloire fulgurante de Dieu embrase l'imagination d'Ezéchiel. Le grincheux Jonas obéit à contrecoeur, le sensible Jérémie supporte son sort en pleurant. Lévi, devenu Mathieu, conserve dans son Evangile, le goût des chiffres; Nathanael, devenu Barthélémy, l'homme droit se fait peler tout vif plutôt que de trahir son maitre; Paul embrase tout le monde romain du feu de son zèle pour le Seigneur.

Voilà des réponses personnelles d'hommes libres à l'appel de Dieu. Chacun se donne à Dieu avec tout ce qu'il a, corps et âme. Notons ici que les réponses du Nouveau Testament sont beaucoup plus promptes que celles de l'Ancien. L'incarnation nous a facilité la découverte de Dieu. Dans la connaissance amoureuse de Jésus, en son corps physique et mystique, réside la plus puissante force pour entraîner les volontés libres à répondre aux vocations les plus sublimes.

Leçons pratiques pour la vie chrétienne.

1. IL FAUT PRIER. Le conseil vient de Jésus lui-même: "Priez donc le Maitre de la moisson d'envoyer des ouvriers à sa moisson". Aujourd'hui puissiez-vous écouter sa voix: n'endurcissez pas vos coeurs". "C'est Dieu qui opère en vous le vouloir et le faire, selon son bon plaisir".

2. IL FAUT ETRE LIBRE. Puisque Dieu appelle des humains, il faut qu'ils soient libres afin de répondre spontanément à leur vocation. La vraie liberté humaine est le fruit de l'éducation chrétienne qui relève en premier lieu des parents. L'école ne peut rien, ou à peu près, sans les parents. Il appartient donc aux parents de rendre leurs enfants libres, c'est-à-dire détachés de tous leurs caprices et maîtres de leurs passions.

3 APPRENDRE A OBEIR. Ils atteindront ce but en apprenant à leurs enfants à obéir généreusement à toute autorité légitime. Dieu a voulu que les infédieurs soient conduits par les supérieurs. Que les parents soient convaincus qu'ils gouvernent leur foyer au nom de Dieu; qu'ils se souviennent que leurs enfants ont besoin d'eux, parce qu'ils ne peuvent pas se conduire seuls.

4. L'AMOUR DU SACRIFICE. Aux parents encore d'apprendre à leurs enfants à sacrifier de bonnes choses par amour pour Dieu. Il faut se priver de tout mal (c'est obligatoire), mais aussi de certains biens inférieurs par amour de Dieu. L'amour du sacrifice ne peut être que le fruit d'une solide éducation chrétienne.

5 LA FREQUENTATION DES SACREMENTS. La Bible nous apprend que la vocation est une oeuvre à la fois divine et humaine. C'est pourquoi les chrétiens peuvent collaborer à cette oeuvre par leurs prières et leurs travaux particulièrement dans le domaine de l'éducation. Rappelons en terminant, la fréquentation des sacrements de Pénitence et d'Eucharistie; quand les âmes se purifient dans le sang de Dieu et se nourrissent du Pain céleste, elles prennent le meilleur moyen de se détacher de la terre et de s'unir à Dieu pour toujours, deux conditions absolument nécessaires pour répondre à toute vocation divine.

Une assemblée régulière du conseil de Franklin avait lieu lundi le 7 juin, sous la présidence du Maire Floyd Stevenson et en présence de tous les membres sauf le conseiller Lussier.

On approuva le paiement des comptes suivants: D.L. Tully, $487.50; Shawinigan Water and Power Co., $86.57; Bureau d'Enregistrement, $2.; Sterling Stevenson. $100.

25 ans de prêtrise

C'est avec plaisir que les paroissiens de St-Patrick d'Hinchinbrooke et d'Elgin rendront hommage dimanche le 27 juin prochain, à leur curé l'abbé Jean-de-la-Croix Marcil, né à Howick, de Fernand, cultivateur et d'Aurore Laplante. Il commença ses études classiques au Séminaire St-Thomas-d'Aquin à Valleyfield, et ses études théologiques au Grand Séminaire de Montréal. Il fut ordonné prêtre à Montréal par Mgr Turquetil, le 22 juin 1940.

Nommé professeur à son "Alma Mater" de 1940-1942; puis vicaire à Saint-Jean-Chrysostome 1942-1944, c'est dans ses jeunes années de prêtrise qu'il est promu curé dans la vaste paroisse de St-Patrick. Depuis 1944, il se dévoue corps et âme pour le bien spirituel, temporel et intellectuel de ses paroissiens. Aux années "30" il a mis la main à la brouette pour aider ses paroissiens à construire l'école primaire. Dans cette paroisse cosmopolite, il est l'homme à tout faire. Tout le monde, sans distinction de religion, le considère comme un ami et un prêtre dévoué, même les gens des paroisses environnantes.

"Ad multos Annos".

On anticipe un succès sans précédent pour les Régates de Valleyfield les 17 et 18 juillet prochains

Cette année, les Régates Internationales de Valleyfield auront lieu les 17 et 18 juillet prochains. Comme par les années passées, plus de 60,000 personnes envahiront les bords de la magnifique baie St-François pour regarder l'événement nautique le plus important au Canada.

Comme à l'habitude, on pourra voir les meilleurs coureurs de la Province de Québec, de l'Ontario et des Etats-Unis.

Pour mettre plus de piquant à la sauce, le Club Nautique de Valleyfield retiendra, semble-t-il, pour une autre année les services de Blair Poirier et ses Hommes Volants. Cette attraction a beaucoup plu à tous les visiteurs l'an dernier et tous seront certainement d'accord du retour probable de ces hommes Volants.

Les directeurs des Régates Internationales de Valleyfield sont des plus heureux d'annoncer que le député provincial du comté de Beauharnois, M. Gérard Cadieux, sera présent lors des Régates les 17 et 18 juillet prochains. M. Cadieux était récemment nommé "commodore honoraire" du Club Nautique de Valleyfield. C'est un honneur pour le Club et la population de Salaberry de Valleyfield.

A date, les inscriptions des coureurs commencent à entrer et les directeurs des Régates envisagent un plus grand nombre de yachts que dans les années précédentes; aussi, ils sont sûrs que la 27ème régate sera une des plus importantes présentées à Salabery de Valleyfield.

Par ailleurs, il semble bien que le tout va pour le mieux et le "tag" officiel sera en vente sous peu; il donne droit au tirage d'un voyage pour deux personnes à NASSAU donné gratuitement par les immeubles Kaybec et organisé par l'Agence de Voyage Robert Sauvé de Valleyfield.

Le succès de cette année semble encore assuré.

Editorial Notes...

It Is Time To Spruce Up For For The Centennial

SINCE Spring, we have been doing a little looking around our circulation area and getting an idea of how well we might look to the stranger in our midst. We have been quite mixed up too, some places we have viewed have a fairly neat appearance and would pass, but there are others that are absolutely a blotch of ugliness, perhaps by actual dilapidation, or for the need of a coat of paint. In the case for the dilapidated, there is only one cure, complete removal. Some properties too are of untidy appearance merely because they are neglected. This applies equally to town or country and we believe that owners should take a look at their properties and see where they can improve in appearance.

There are a number of industrial establishments which could be improved by tidying up. This includes a painting job and perhaps some landscaping. There seems to be a tendency to neglect the outside appearance of a number of our manufacturing plants in the area. As we have travelled around, not only in our area, but in other areas, we have noticed that many industrial plants are paying a lot of attention to the grounds around their plants and to parking areas. Nice green lawns have been put in and some flower beds, which give these plants a very pleasing appearance and a look of being well kept. Parking areas are mostly out to leave lanes for coming and leaving the area. These are fenced enclosures which match the rest of the enclosures of the plant. The buildings themselves are kept well painted and are indeed most pleasing.

In contrast we look around in our area and we find some industrial establishments badly in need of paint and some show the scars of where old buildings have been taken down. Some additions have been made in the form of lean-tos and such and have never been painted at all and are quite ramsackle at that. The grounds around the buildings are both untidy from junk stacked around and through a growth of high weeds. Even some nicely painted buildings are allowed to stand in a growth of weeds several feet high. In a number of cases the windows are not even clean. We know that perhaps it would mean hiring some extra help for maintenance, but it would be so much better both for the plants and for the town to have neat looking and attractive places. In order to keep a place looking nice requires constant attention. At many of these places, there is opportunity to have them looking attractive as they are on the approaches into the towns and near residential districts. Furthermore they have ample frontage and space to create something really attractive without taking from the requirements of needed ground space.

Many residential places could be improved with a little sprucing up here and there and seeing that weeds which surround properties are kept trimmed down and not left for the council or some other authority to do it. Broken down buildings in the rear of premises, also need attention and those piles of junk could be tidied up and not look so conspicuous. The kids' sand pile does not have to be all over the yard, it can be kept in one place and the children can be taught to keep things neat and tidy too. Neatly kept walks, steps and verandahs make a wonderful difference to the appearance of a house.

Farms can stand a lot of improvement in many parts of the area. Some farms actually skirting the main highways are a disgrace to the area and to the owner. There are several here quite nearby that the barns or implement sheds are so old and neglected that they are actually falling down. Many of these have never had a coat of paint since the day they were built. Paint will not save them now. The only way is to demolish them and clear them away entirely. On the other hand many buildings are in need of a coat of paint and having the roof repaired. At the same time a job of tidying up around these buildings is also very necessary. The same applies to old machinery and such that is allowed to stay around the yard. Roadways into farms in many cases are in need of repair by filling and levelling. The weeds along these also need to be kept trimmed.

If we want our area looking neat and trim to the many visitors from other parts who will be coming to this part for the World's Fair and in connection with Canada's Centennial, there is a lot to be done. Here planting has to be done, now is not too soon to begin. If good looking lawns are required, this summer is the time to do it. By 1967 they will have good mat and stand cutting.

The road dept. could get busy in lots of places sowing grass on new stretches of roads and which could be cut and trimmed to make a neat and tidy appearance to our through roads at least. The weeds need constant attention too and on the side roads. Once cutting in a season is not enough.

All of the foregoing adds to the attractiveness of any district and if all cooperate in doing these things, it would not be long before our area could be among the best anywhere.

Just A Note About The Red Cross

RIGHT here in Huntingdon a Blitz Campaign to raise funds for the Red Cross was held, but it has not been successful in raising the objective set. Probably Ormstown Exhibition being on that week, could have caused people to forget this campaign. We will not say that it was a failure, for a number of people contributed, but another number failed to respond. Thus the objective of $2,000 has not been reached and the committee in charge has reluctantly decided to extend the period in the hope that success will be achieved.

If you think the Red Cross does not expend its efforts in all sorts of ways in this area, let us set your minds at rest. Perhaps we are more fortunate than some other areas in that we do not have disasters, or other needs to call upon the Red Cross for help. But we feel sure that if we did, the Red Cross would soon be on the job. Let us say this, that we are glad we do not need the Red Cross for such help, for we are more fortunate if we do not have to seek it. However, there are and have been individual circumstances in which the Red Cross has responded to the call with speed and supplies.

Just this morning, there arrived in our office a whole package of data on Water Safety. This was sent to us by a local Red Cross Worker and incidentally it was not the first we had received. The Red Cross does try to educate the pople as to the hazards of the summer in the matter of water sports and activities. It organized a water safety campaign several years ago and if people will only follow the suggestions made, many of the drownings that have and do occur would not happen. In Monday's daily papers were reports of several drownings over the week-end and even in our own areas.

The Red Cross tries to notify everyone of the dangers of playing around in water. It is first stressed that all should learn to swim, or never go out in a boat or in the water unless there is someone around who is a good swimmer. Never go out in a boat unless you have lifebelts and other safety devices. Don't stand up in a boat and don't act up in a boat. Watch people in the water if you drive your boat near the shore, especially if it is motor driven. It may be smart for you to cut in and out, but it is foolish too and could lead to an accident.

If you pay attention to the warnings that are issued from time to time, you will surely stop, look and listen before you attempt some of the foolish things on water. The Red Cross also trains people in water safety in order that they may be able to look after others.

So if the canvasser calls on you in the next few days and asks for a contribution give as generously as you can, for your money is needed. Don't count what you get out of it, think yourself lucky that you do not need it. On the other hand, rest assured that if you should, it will be there waiting for you.

The Red Cross is a year round organization, ready for the call when it comes.

NEW BRED OF PYGMIES

Well, father, how did you enjoy your day?

Personally, Father's Day saddened me, as it saddens me each year.

The mere existence of such a day is an indication of the new low to which the father has sunk in the family unit. Just a few decades ago, every day was father's day, and there was no fooling about it.

When I was a kid, there was none of this nonsense of father helping around the house. Nowadays father scrubs the kitchen floor on their day off, and helps with the dishes after dinner. In the good old days, father didn't have a day off, in the first place, and mother wouldn't have let him dry the dishes, in the second, because she knew her place, and his.

Perhaps it's the increase in leisure time that has turned the head of the house into the foot of the family; a substitute babysitter; an unpaid domestic slavey; a handy wailing-wall; and in general, a pale reflection of his dignified, respected male forebears.

Until a couple of decades ago, father worked a six-day 60-hour week. But he didn't get ulcers, or drop dead at 45. And do you know why? Because he didn't see as much of his family as the poor, cripple-gutted creature who brings home the bacon today.

Nowadays, father gets a day off. Does he potter in the garden? Does he go fishing? Does he play golf with the boys? Would it were so. He is kicked into the street with the children, while mother does whatever modern women do around home, with $2,000 worth of labor-saving machinery.

There is nothing more pitiable than the sight of a father, on his day off, wandering forlornly about a supermarket, trailed by two or three whining kids.

When my Dad got home from work he didn't have to set the table, run around looking for the kids, then jump in the car and go to get a quart of milk. Nor did he have to "pick up a few things on the way home," because mother looked after her own shopping.

No, sir. When my Dad got home from work, he was greeted affectionately, but politely, and left alone. He retired to HIS chair and read HIS paper, until he was called for supper. During the meal, he was not forced to listen to a 30-minute monologue about the terrible day mother had. Nor did he have to break up quarrels among the children. They wouldn't have dared squabble.

And on the weekend, my Dad wasn't expected to turn into a party boy. He was tired on Saturday night, and he went to bed. If he felt like going to church next day, he did. If he didn't, he didn't. But he wasn't pestered all day Sunday by kids wanting to be taken swimming, or wife wanting to go for a drive, or "have somebody in." He made the decisions. If he just wanted to sit on the verandah and look at the grass growing, he did.

Not that he was an ogre. Usually, we went for a picnic on Sunday. But there wasn't any dam' foolishness about Dad doing the cooking on an outdoor grill. Mother made the lunch, and Dad would sit on a stump, in his Sunday best, gazing with dignity and a certain amount of disttaste, at nature. After lunch, he would recline on a blanket, in the shade. He was relaxed, that man.

Another reason for his unquestioned head-of-the-house status was that we didn't argue with him. Now you have to discuss everything with the brats. Today's father can get into a 20-minute argument with any kid over the age of five, at the drop of a suggestion. And come out whimpering.

One generation has turned fathers from giants to pygmies. And now, if you'll pardon me, I have to go and make the beds, while my wife dries her hair and watches a little TV.

"COUNTRY NOTEBOOK"

BY WALKER RILEY

"Country Notebook" by Mr. Walker Riley, Agricultural Extension Specialist with Macdonald College appears in The Gleaner with this edition. The column will be a weekly feature which we trust will be of interest to all in the Chateauguay Valley.

We will never forget our Farm Management Day at Melbourne. Happy and unhappy events, tragedy and comedy packed themselves into an afternoon and an evening which will long remain vivid in our memories.

We will recall always the warmth of the welcome to this hospitable Eastern Townships community; the cheerful, informal dinner at noon in the old church hall high on the "Ridge"; the presentation of a birthday cake to one of the lady committee members; the enthusiasm of the program's participants; the short sharp thunderstorm which took the life of a neighbourhood resident; the numbing shock when our group received that news.

Nor will we forget the image of ourselves that same evening when, with the power still off, we carried on by the light of candles placed in a row down the centre of the long conference table, an electric lantern illuminating the blackboard, and the lightning silhouetting the window frames against the curtains.

In spite of all, it was close to midnight before the vigorous discussion broke off. And, apart from the tragedy, we felt it was really one of the most satisfying programs we had ever taken part in.

Actually, we presented little that was new. Our discussions centered around a "case" farm, owned by a fictitious Mr John Brimstone with all the problems common to the average farm these days. As a group, we proposed changes that Mr. Brimstone could make to strengthen his position in his crops, livestock and equipment. Then, we examined each to see which ones were really profitable. And I was as surprised as the rest with some of the results.

What we did present was a simple little technique known as "partial budgeting' to determine if a change is really profitable. Actually, we use it every day in making money decisions. The economists have refined it a bit, named it, and given it their blessing. It is a very useful management tool.

Partial budgeting is simply this: 1) make a list of all the extra costs of making a certain change, 2) then make a list of all the extra returns you can expect from it, and 3) subtract the extra costs from the extra returns in order to estimate the profitability of a change.

Let's say, for example, that Mr. Brimstone wondered if he should buy a 6 ft. P.T.O. combine to harvest his 40 acres of oats. He was quoted one at $2,200 which he figured should last him 10 years, and be worth $200 at the end of that time. There would be fixed costs (depreciation, interest on the investment, repairs) and also operating costs (gas for the tractor, and so on). These he estimated: depreciation $200 a year; interest $60; repairs $50; plus the extra cost of running his tractor for 40 hours, perhaps $500 — Total $360.

But he could get a neighbour to combine those oats for $200 — a yearly saving of $160. So Brimstone decided against the combine and thought about three more cows and some fertilizer instead. These changes he also budgeted out the same way.

Notice that Mr. Brimstone did not add in any charge for his own time in running the combine. It happened he had that time to spare. If he had hired extra help to run the combine, then the charge would be added in.

The key idea behind partial budgeting is that it is only the extra cash that actually leaves your pocket and the extra cash that actually returns to it that determines the extra income that results from the proposed change. This is important.

The second major idea is that each of the figures used must represent what will happen on your own farm. Each farm is different. The estimates will be quite different on your own farm, under your particular management, at a particular time, and under the prices that exist at that time.

If we learned nothing else that day, it was that the solutions to these problems will be different for every farm. There is no one pat answer. Every farm requires its own management decisions.

Here are my week's news items in brief. Number One: Thanks to the Chateauguay Young Farmers Federation, I saw the evening performance at Ormstown Fair for the first time. It was very impressive, especially the 4-H parade. The exceedingly well-trained calves and their owners all in white marching behind the various floats under the arena's floodlights made a striking display. Number Two: our black Angus heifer is back home. Number Three: my potatoes are in bloom. All three of them.

Brother It Is Dry

WE hope that before this Editorial appears in print that the current dry spell will have been broken by a one, or two days' rain.

At the present we are in one of the driest spells of weather this part of Quebec has experienced in many a year. Ever since what little snow we had went and spring came, we have had little moisture that was effective. True in the early spring there was a steady rainfall, but as there was frost still in the ground, it is doubtful if it did much good. We have had about one day's rain since that time. Definitely at the moment drought conditions exist.

Farmers are beginning to get quite worried on account of the hay crop, as we are at the end of June and the hay is not too good. Pastures have been and are drying up with very little good grass remaining. Some farmers have resorted to sprinkler systems where they are near water and are keeping the pastures lush and green. Unfortunately, all farmers are not able to do this and in consequence are not getting much benefit from pastures at this time. Another bad feature is that with water low in the rivers and streams and many of the cattle are without water supplies. Wells too which were at a low ebb from last summer's dry spell, are even worse at this time.

Garden plots in town, lawns and flower beds are suffering from lack of moisture and lawns are turning brown as they burn from the heat. Trees and shrubs seem to be thriving, although those of the flowering variety did not have a long season.

Some farmers in particularly dry areas of the district view this drought as quite serious and are looking for rain at the earliest possible moment to help them. They fear if it keeps up they may have to sell their livestock as they will neither be able to feed nor water them. Fortunately we believe this is not too widespread at this time and we hope that we get rain before it ever does, but it is an indication of conditions. For several summers now, we have had these dry spells, but probably none as early as this, but rain has come and saved the situation. However, there has not been enough moisture to be in excess of the requirements and thus there has been a gradual decrease in the reserves, so to speak. One look at the rivers, etc., for this time of year and they show they are much lower than usual.

Thus we say, if you have a plentiful supply of water, keep it that way, don't waste it for unnecessary uses, there is no telling how long it may last if the drought keeps up.

ROUND BYRE and RING

By Frank Napier

Fourth Generation

William ("Bill") and Ronald MacDonald, sons of J. Russell and Grace (Deare) MacDonald are now fourth generation MacDonald's to own Glen Urquhart Farm and the other outfarms of same, all of which are mostly traversed by No. 4 highway in the so called Trout River area. All of which and the well-known Glen Urquhart Holstein herd they recently purchased from their father, John Russell MacDonald who is invariably and popularly known as "Russell."

As a matter of fact, while any such transaction would have more or less a common occurence in byegone days, it is now in the quite rare occurrence category. Nowadays, when a farmer either dies or sells out his farm mostly passes into other unrelated hands. The reason annexed usually being either no issue, ever or surviving, or that the son or sons have taken up some other trade or profession, and have no further interest in farming. Not so in the case of the two MacDonalds because they are both keen up-to-date farmers and Holstein cattle fanciers.

Glen Urquhart

The founder of this Sept of the MacDonald Clan in the County of Huntingdon was Peter MacDonad, a native of Perthshire, Scotland, and a Ditcher by trade, whose first residence in Canada was at the corner of Lost Nation Road, nearly where the School used to be. By and by, however, he migrated to the Township of Godmanchester, to the so called, Trout River Area of same, where he purchased the 69 acres on which are still located the main buildings and home of the MacDonalds. Later on, when Peter took his grandson Finlay into partnership, he acquired the then Marshall farm of 50 acres.

As time went on Finlay succeeded his grandfather, and he, in turn, took his son and eventual successor Russell into partnership. The latter being one of the results of the union of Finlay MacDonald with the former Miss Jessie Elder Also, as time went on, the following holdings were added to the original home farm of 50 acres; the Jack the J. A Carr farm of 100 acres; the (little) Joe Carr farm of 50 acres; the Jack Pellon farm of 40 acres and 30 acres of the former George Elder farm, making a total of 339 acres, of which 280 acres are ploughable or, as they have it, in Scotland, arable land. Likewise situated on both sides of the Trout River, with Highway No. 4 running past the several stadings or farm buildings.

The Holstein Herd

Up to 1925, a grade herd mostly Ayrshire grades, was maintained, but, came the first area T.B. test and the entire herd was wiped out. However a fresh start was made with pure bred Holsteins, which herd soon became one of the best and best known in Huntingdon County under the name of Glen Urquhart, after that famous old country glen in which Peter MacDonald originated. While Russell was the son of the firm during the early stages of the Glen Urquhart herd, most of the credit for the present status of same goes to him, as the owner since 1940, in which year he succeeded his father.

It was interesting to learn from Russell MacDonald that each year, for the past several years, the oat crops have been sprayed with a special weed-killer, with eminently satisfactory results. As a matter of fact, Russell also sprays, on a custom basis, the fields of several other farms in his district, with equally satisfactory results.

In former years Russell MacDonald might probably have retired to the then Village of Huntingdon, to live there in retirement as did a lot of others. However, he will still stay on the farm and help out with the chores. Likewise still maintain his long time interest in the Holstein breed as a whole, and of the Huntingdon - Ormstown Holstein Club of which he has for long been an ardent member and active supporter.

Four Time Champion

Speaking of Holsteins, we learn from John Powell's, Holstein News, report of Ormstown Exhibition that Raeburn Treasure Model's winning of the grand championship for W. K. McRae & Son, Howick, consisted a record. This was the fourth time, in succession, he had won that honour for his breeder and owner. He also sired the second prize Senior Get of Sire group.

Obituary

The Late Mrs. Mina Cunningham

The late Mrs. Mina Cunningham, widow of the late David Brown Cunningham, passed away on June 15th, 1965, in the Civic Hospital in Peterborough, Ont. She was the daughter of the late Robert Whittall and Mary McCaig, and was born in Ormstown, Que., on March 16th, 1887, and died in her 79th year. She was married on June 12th, 1920, and lived in New Erin till she was married and moved to New York. In the past few years she has lived with her sister in Peterborough, and spent part of the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Sherry in New Erin.

The funeral was held on Friday afternoon, June 18th., at 2 p.m., at the Kelly Funeral Home, Huntingdon, with the Rev. H. Lowenberger, of the United Church officiating and took his text from the 23rd. Psalm. Interment was in Huntingdon Protestant Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Leslie Sherry, Allan Hunter, Milton Clark, Orville Clark, Victor Whittall and Cameron Bothwell.

There were many beautiful floral arrangements, and they paid tribute to one who loved flowers.

She was predeceased by four brothers — Neil, Robert, George, William and John, also three sisters — Matilda, Ellen and Elizabeth.

The sincerest sympathy of the Community is extended to Mrs. Earl Clark, and all the relatives.

SCENES AT THE HORSE SHOW ORMSTOWN

Above is a boy and his pony with foal, this class drew a lot of applause because of the small foal and the young handlers. Centre is another shot of a boy and his pony, this time during the potato race, which also caused a lot of amusement for the spectators. Heights Water and Sewer Plans Receive Government Approval

(By Fergus Horsburgh)

Word was received by Heights Mayor Jean Laberge last week-end, that Judge DeSheen of the Department of Municipal Affairs had given formal approval, on behalf of the Provincial Government, of plans for a modern water and sewer system. I understand that the contract with Desourdy Construction Limited for installation of the system was to be made effective early this week, and that ground-breaking ceremonies are scheduled for late June.

So it now appears that those who placed bets that the present Council would not put in water and sewer had better pay up. Ground will be broken before the end of June.

C.A.A.A. Cookie Sale Huge Success

(By Ron Lee)

The weather, the time of year and the public spirit combined over the week-end to make the Chateauguay Amateur Athletic Association's Cookie Sale a complete success.

The cooperation of the two Town Mayors had a lot to do with the financial support we received as both Mayor Sutterlin and Mayor Laberge Geed and Haw-ed their way through town selling cookies on Thursday night. Mayor Laberge had offered us the use of his two ponies and wagon for the night and then he and Mayor Sutterlin offered their time to drive the cart around for us.

No other Association has ever received such support and we are grateful for it.

Many Business establishments deserve credit for their assistance and in particular are Woolworths, Spot Discounto and Steinberg's.

The time and effort put into this sale by all C.A.A.A. representatives was more than any other Association has ever received but the individual who stood out was George Brown.

George is the President of the Soccer League and he has his hands full in the organizing and planning of this league but somewhere along the way he was able to find the time to spend two nights and a full day in handling, distributing and accounting for every box of cookies used in the C.A.A.A. sale.

With the time and effort put into this sale by George Brown there is no wonder at its success. He is the type of person that any Association would be proud to have on their list of Directors. We have him on our list and are mighty proud of it.

There are many more names that stand out in a Cookie Sale such as ours, but as they are too numberous to mention here we would like to say thank you to all the Directors, coaches and the children that helped us in our drive for funds. Thanks also go to the many people who are not directly connected with the C.A.A.A. for the help and assistance they gave.

It is very nice to be able to give flowers to all these people but the ones who deserve them the most are you, the people. Our efforts would never have reached the heights we obtained without your support. Everone who purchased our cookies also took time out to wish us every success with our sports program. We don't often receive words of encouragement but believe me, it is well received.

Our next effort at fund raising should be in the fall and at this time we could possibly have a Bingo game. We should have more news about this next week.

I would like to take this opportunity to remind you of the sale of tickets that is taking place at this moment throughout the Greater Chateauguay Area in support of the Chateauguay Minor Soccer League. There are 45 Soccer teams asking for your help so they may purchase uniforms and equipment.

We ask that when they come calling on you with their tickets, you receive them in a generous way.

Support sports by supporting the C.A.A.A.

City Pair Arraigned In Caughnawaga Murder

Two Montreal men appeared in court Friday to face charges for the capital murder of Philippe Rondeau, whose body was uncovered last month from the underbrush of a Caughnawaga farm.

André Blais and Jean-Jacques Paulin were arraigned just one day after a coroner's jury found them criminally responsible for the murder of the 49-year-old Rondeau who disappeared mysteriously last October.

Judge T. A. Fontaine remanded Blais and Paulin to preliminary hearing on June 25.

Rondeau's body, with at least two .32 calibre bullets through the head, was uncovered last May 20 from the lonely underbrush grave where it had lain for seven months.

The coroner's jury hearing evidence of Rondeau's death on Thursday deliberated less than five minutes before returning their verdict that Blais, Paulin and a third man were criminally responsible for the death.

The third man, Pierre "Sam" Samson, hanged himself in his cell at Sherbrooke jail last April 5 after being sentenced to 10 years in prison on charges of breaking, entering and theft.

MAYORS AID C.A.A.A. COOKIE SALE

Premier Jean Lesage Supports Chato '67

(By Fergus Horsburgh)

Quebec's Premier Jean Lesage last week-end joined the growing number of Canadian Provincial Prime Ministers who have donated their flags for display at CHATO '67's exhibit at the Shopping Plaza Chateauguay Centre. Plans are now well-developed for opening ceremonies to the Expo exhibit on Friday, July 2nd. Flags had previously been received by CHATO '67 officials from Nova Scotia's Hon. Robert Stanfield, New Brunswick's Hon. Louis Robichaud, Ontario's Hon. John Robarts and British Columbia's Hon. W. A. C. Bennett. Other Provinces are expected to follow suit, or, should I say, show the flag? Many of these flags will be flown officially in the Province of Quebec for the first time at CHATO '67's exhibit — a tribute to the ingenuity of the organizers.

Winners of the Essay Contest will receive their prizes and the 12 girls chosen "Miss Chato '67's" will be introduced on the Shopping Plaza at the inauguration.

The Chato'67 Committee has been advised by Expo that there is a strong possibilty a theater showing the progress of the Canadian World Exhibition will be erected in the exhibit area.

Next Saturday, June 26th, the Mayor and Alderman of Chateauguay Centre and their wives, along with the members of Chato '67, will be given a presentation on Expo '67 at the Helene de Champlain Restaurant, on St. Helen's Island.

This briefing on Expo will be given by World Exhibition officials, followed by a question and answer period.

Chateauguay Y.M.C.A. Working Committee Formed

(By Fergus Horsburgh)

A widespread section of Chateauguay's community life showed up last Wednesday at a public information meeting on the prospect of establishing a branch of the Y.M.C.A. in the Chateauguay area. The meeting was held at the Seigniory Park Country Club under the chairmanship of Mr. Colin Mason, President of Seigniory Park Home Owners Association. Accompanying Mr. Mason at the chairman's table were Mr. Fred Hubbard, General Secretary of the Central Branch of the Y.M.C.A. in Montreal; Mr. Macaulay, Assistant Secretary of the Central Branch; Miss Sharon Jones, Secretary of the Lasalle Verdun branch; and Mr. Leo Robitaille, a Y instructor, who was there to act as a French interpreter should the need arise.

Mrs. Rhoda Rountree, who had done so much to get matters this far advanced, was among the audience.

The meeting heard Y leaders sketch briefly the history of the Y.M.C.A. in Canada. Started by Sir George Williams in Montreal in 1851, the movement has spread throughout Canada, and now includes, in the Montreal area alone, 8 Y.M.C.A. Centres, 2 Camps, and of course, Sir George Williams University. The Y.M.C.A. is now staffed by professionals and Mr. Hubbard estimated that in it's initial stage, a Chateauguay Y.M.C.A. administrative staff would cost between $8,000 and $10,000 per annum.

"Start small, and let it grow", was the advice given to the meeting. "Good staff personnel is the key to success. Aim to cover areas, in the geographical and social senses, not now covered. The Y should supplement, not replace, existing facilities and organizations".

It was suggested by Y leaders present that a Ways and Means Committee be formed to study all present activities, to contact ALL existing organizations and to seek to dovetail present and future facilities. It would be up to the Ways and Means Committee to decide on what was an acceptable degree of non-support from the community. For a successful Y.M.C.A. operation in Chateauguay, the support of all men and women of goodwill was a pre-requisite.

On the call of the Chairman, the following members were appointed to form the Ways and Means Committee: — Mrs. Pamela Mason, Mrs. Elvie Vetland, Mr. Tony Cornford, Mrs. Alice Fosty, Mr. W. C. Kane, Mr. Gilles Dubreuil, Mrs. Shirley Robbie.

MAGAZINE SHOWER A SUCCESS

The Chateauguay Group of the Women's Auxiliary to the Lachine General Hospital is pleased to report that the Magazine Shower held recently in aid of the Louis Brown Memorial Library of the Lachine General Hospital was a huge success and realized over 200 publications of both languages. The president, Mrs. N. Lerous, was kept busy welcoming the many guests including several members of the parent auxiliary of Lachine and members of the Dorval Group.

Among the guests were Mrs. J. A. Grant, past president Lachine W. A., Mrs. Jules Bouchard, president, and Miss E. A. Brough convener of the Louis Brown Memorial Library. Miss Brough thanked all those present for their generous support and complimented the group on its efforts.

The members were thrilled to have Mrs. Margaret Bache, past president of the Chateauguay Group present also. The group is grateful to all their friends and neighbours for the support. The President and Executive are grateful to all the members who worked so hard and supplied the refreshments.

CHATEAUGUAY LEGION NEWS

The monthly executive meeting, with Norm Palmer in the chair, was held Tuesday evening, June 15th.

Presentation of various awards including Past Officers Medals will be handed to the recipients at a social evening and dance June 26th.

Our request for a war memento has finally been acknowledged and we are offered two guns, for which we have now made a formal request.

Members will be pleased to hear (particularly the various barberhouse quartets) that the piano has been tuned and the broken keys repaired.

Since the last general meeting two new members were initiated in their homes, Wm. Robert Magill and A. Stocker, who are not able to get around.

The Ladies Auxiliary executive meeting was postponed one week from June 16th to the 23rd.

Seigniory Park Country Club Season Off To Fine Start

By Fergus Horsburgh

Splendid weather over last week-end saw a busy start to Seigniory Park Country Club season. As from last Saturday, the Club's summertime facilities are open every day to members on a 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. basis. Large crowds from the Chateauguay area and elsewhere were on hand to see the new season start officially. Prior to last week-end, swimming and poolside activities were scheduled for week-ends only.

Manager Bob Jennings told The Gleaner, on Monday, that the $75 membership fee has been particularly attractive to Chateauguay residents. There are three classes of membership costing $75, $100, and $150 respectively. Further details are to be found advertized on page 15.

Bob Jennings is scheduled to be a very busy Manager for the rest of the season. His many friends hope that he will yet find time to share in the swimming and perhaps to take instruction from the Club's Red Cross authorized instructors.

The Provincial Swimming Trials are scheduled to be held at the Club's Olympic sized pool later this summer and the Provincial Swimming Championships will be held there in September.

What Price Insurance

By Homeowner

Last week we discussed the two most popular "personal articles" coverages. But there are quite a few of these which provide excellent and inexpensive insurance. It is surprising that they are so seldom used. (Perhaps due to those insurance salesmen we discussed sometime ago).

The average home policy such as a "homeowners" or "householders" provides insurance against loss by the perils of fire and theft only. Such insurance is also restricted to the premises with usually a small limited extension to cover away from your home.

"Personal articles" gives you a floater coverage. That is against all risks of Physical loss or damage. Most important, there is no territorial limitations. In simple terms you are covered if you lose the insured article or even if you break it.

Take cameras for example. Many homes today can count up two or three hundred dollars worth of movie camera and projection equipment and often a good deal more. These articles are covered by your standard policy if they are stolen or burned in your home. But what if you get butter fingers and drop the camera? Or if they are stolen from your car? Or, if you simply leave something somewhere while on vacation? In each of these cases, only a floater policy would cover. That is pretty broad coverage. Must be expensive. Not so. Three hundred dollars worth of camera equipment would cost you about five dollars per year. Really worth it for the peace of mind.

The same rate, 5% for three years, applies to musical instruments. Incidentally, the rate goes down when the value goes over five thousand dollars. You are not apt to be lugging your piano around but the children are playing coronets trumpets and saxaphones which are easily left behind after rehearsal. One big point here. Musical instruments insured at this rate must not be played for a profit. Ever. Of course, many companies will endorse your policy, without charge, for the odd "play for pay" date.

The next big one is for the collectors. Stamp and coin collections present a peculiar problem. If they are of any size, they must be valued. That is, you must take your collection to a competent dealer and have him make a written appraisal. But, at a rate of 2% for three years, it becomes a really good buy. One point, there is usually a maximum of $250. for any one article in any such collection. That is, unless you list, specifically (and value specifically) each article over that amount.

This same kind of insurance can be purchased for portable radios, typewriters, silverware or even firearms. Remember that the rate is quite low and that the cover includes breakage. Should be worth looking into. No?

Valleyfield Regatta Opening Fast Approaching

This year, the Valleyfield International Regatta will be held July 17 and 18. Like in the previous years, more than 60,000 persons will crowd the shores of the wonderful St. Francis Bay to witness the most important nautical event in Canada.

The best racers from all over the Province of Quebec,

Chateauguay News Notes

By Fergus Horsburgh

Dr. Jean Marc Sauvé, prominent Chateauguay Doctor and man of affairs, was last Monday elected President of the Catholic School Board Commissioners of Greater Chateauguay.

CHATO '67 has announced details of the "Miss CHATO 67" contest. Contestants will be judged on their knowledge of Canadian history, geography, poise, personality and conversational ability. The organizers emphasize that this is NOT primarily a beauty contest.

Less than half of those eligible to vote for two Catholic school Commissioners showed up on Monday, June 14th. In Ward 3, Jean-Charles Page defeated Roland Trudeau by a very narrow margin. In Ward 1, Roland Leduc won with a slightly larger majority over Real Laterriere.

Protestant School Municipality of Chateauguay, is now awaiting final approval from the Dept. of Education in Quebec before starting the extension to Maple School. Tenders were opened on Tuesday evening, June 15th, and lowest bidder, Marcel Reid of Chateauguay, was accepted. Cost to be $14,250.00. Usually it takes ten days or so to receive approval from Quebec, so no doubt breaking of ground will be before July 1st.

As reported for the last two or three weeks in these pages, both Town and Centre Police report no serious accidents or crime within the last week. This is very good news for all citizens.

Watering with hoses and sprinklers still goes on unabated on ALL days in and around the Town and Centre AND at all times of the day and night!!

Authorization has been given by Town Council to Mr. Ste. Marie to change the water meter on Dunver. This means more pressure at times but no change in the watering by-laws.

A grant of $300.00 from Town of Chateauguay has been given to the C.A.A.A.

Tenders for part of by-law No. 213 were opened recenily with lowest bid from Charles Duranceau accepted at $16,568.00.

Future by-law concerning the lighting of parks in the Town has been discussed by Council. Estimates have been received by the Engineers for both lighting and leveling of parks, with lowest estimate at $2,498.00.

An offer of $200.00 has been accepted by a property owner of Youville Blvd. to expropriate land for the widening of Youville.

Saw Mayor Joseph Laberge and family driving along St. Francis Blvd. last Thursday evening in their pony drawn 'Surrey.'

Centre Council notes from meeting of June 10th: Council decided to purchase 12 streets from Parkview Construction Company for the total amount of $1.00.

GREAT GOOD NEWS for users of Bell Street, Maple St. and Chateauguay Street: Contract has been awarded to Vel Construction to pave these three streets for the sum of $5,727.00 (By-law 489.)

Another contract in the amount of $24,002.00 has been awarded Laberge et Frere Ltee. to install water and sewers and pave Valois Street.

Council has also decided to install water and sewers for 50 feet only on Laramee St.

A notice of motion by Ald. Colpron to install curbstones, surface drains and enlarge the paving of Laval and St. Mary's Blvd. from Parkview to the limits of lots No. 150. From Ald. Colpron also notice of motion to install underground wiring, curbstones, surface drains and enlarge paving in the Chateauguay Park area. Streets involved are Sunset, Park, Richard and Chapel Drive. Also to install sidewalks on Montee Ste. Marguerite.

After an interview with the Wardens of St. Jean Baptiste Marie Vianney Church it was decided to purchase their park, presently administered by Les Loisirs for the sum of $25,000.00.

A notice of motion to exprdpriate lots 150-51 to 255 inclusive and 150-134 and 135 for a park was made by Ald. Colpron.

Purchases authorized by the Centre for fifty park benches and for a "grass sweeper", and play equipment for parks, at the June 10th meeting. The play areas in the parks expected to be partly equipped by July 15th.

At a special committee meeting held recently in the Centre it was decided to install sod in eight parks.

By-law No. 495 recently refused by the electors has been discussed again at a special meeting. This by-law is in reference to a two storey house now situated in the vicinity of St. Jean Baptite Marie Vianney Church. Owing to the lack of parking space at the church, the by-law was to have the house moved to another location, to provide more space for parking. However after discussion at the meeting, it was decided to adopt the by-law. There will be an electors meeting on June 29th, between 8 and 9 p.m., and it proposed at this time to explain fully to the electors the purposes of the whole by-law.

Tony Cornford was elected Acting Chairman of the Chateauguay Y.M.C.A. Ways and Means movement. A meeting is scheduled for June 22.

Friends of Miss Arabelle Enright, formerly of Chateauguay, will be interested to know that she and her friend, Virginia Martin of Daytona Beach, Florida, are vacationing in the Carloninas for the next month after which Arabelle will proceed to Montreal to visit relatives. She will return to Daytona Beach in late September.

Chateauguay Minor Soccer League

Have any of you coaches tried an indoor coaching session for your soccer team. One coach, whose team wasn't fairing too well, is reported to have tried this. He had 19 out of 20 of his team in his basement playroom, his neighbours have not recovered from the noise. His conclusion was, never again. So if any coach is contemplating an indoor coaching session, if his wife is the nervous type or if he is worried about his neighbours and he values his property, the advice is, don't.

A soccer League Drawing is now in progress to obtain funds for uniforms and balls. This will to some extent remove a burden from the local area sports organizations whose funds may be channeled into additional sporting activities or improving existing facilities. Please donate generously to this worthy cause when the boys call on you.

Any team that has to play on the Seigniory Park Soccer field is advised to bring along an ample supple of mosquito repellant. The mosquitos in that area are fitted with hypodermic syringes, at least it seems like it when they bite.

The soccer field situation is slowly improving. The Gardens and Terrace are still awaiting confirmation as to whether the Maple School soccer fields are available now that the school term has ended.

All Managers and Coaches are advised that referees have received instructions to refuse to officiate a game if he considers the playing area is improperly or inadequately marked, in which case the home team runs the risk of forfeiting the game.

144th Anniversary Observed At Beechridge Church

By Edith Bate

The 144th anniversary of Beechridge Presbyterian Church was celebrated Sunday, June 20th, with a guest speaker, Rev. Kenneth Barker, B.A., B.D., M. Th. of St. Andrew's Church, St. Lambert, giving the sermon entitled "The God Who Changes".

The two choirs of Maplewood Presbyterian Church, Chateauguay, took part with David Smith leading both and playing the original organ that was installed in Beechridge Church approximately fifty years ago.

The service was a little late in starting, due to the late arrival of three cars, one with all the music, and the other two with members of the Senior and Junior Choirs. Unfortunately a few wrong turns were made but eventually the destination was located.

This church at Beechridge is a most unique one, in that it has very few members remaining in the district, but those who do reside there keep the church in a most admirable condition. The interior has just been repainted, and outside the church, the grounds are kept well-mowed, and the whole is completely fenced in. The old cemetery at the rear has some ancient stones, some with the printing obliterated with the wind and weather, and others fairly recent. The stove pipes inside the church are held up by metal poles, shaped something like a shepherd's staff. These pipes run on both sides of the pews from the back of the

I can remember them all. Belated wishes to Mrs. T. Kavannagh of Ethier St. who celebrated hers on June 9th, and to Mrs. R. Spenard of Ethier St. whose birthday was on June 10th. And to a young friend of mine Cornelius Viereck of St. Andre St. who celebrated his big day on June 16th. Also two young ladies on Ethier Street, Debbie and Robin Moody had birthdays on the same day, June 15th, Debbie celebrated her 8th birthday and Robin was 11. Hope you had a very happy birthday girls and I see how much fun you're having with your new roller skates. Hope you don't take too many spills. And a happy birthday to my son Michael, who will be 5 years old on Sunday 27th.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Sneddon of Crown Homes are no doubt thrilled with their company from Scotland, for Mr. Sneddon's parents have come to spend the summer with them and see their 3 grandchildren for the very first time. I was thrilled to meet Mr. Sneddon Senior at the Brownie banquet for he accompanied his granddaughter, and she was very proud to have him as her special guest. Mr. Sneddon senior seems to be enjoying our community and when I met him one day strolling along the Chateauguay River he was quite fascinated with the huge fish he had seen and the beauty of our community. We wish you a pleasant stay in our town Mr. and Mrs. Sneddon, Sr.

Mrs. Nora O'Brien of Lasalle St., Crown Homes was the hostess at a baby shower held on Saturday, June 5th, in her home in honour of Mrs. Des Harwood of Colonia. The guest of honour received many delightful gifts for the baby that's arriving soon and a delicious buffet was served the assembled colleens, including a shower cake complete with two little babies sitting on one corner holding a miniature Irish flag.

The guests included Mrs. Ann Doran from Dorion; Mrs. Janice Campbell, Carmel and Claire Watson from Lachine; Mrs. Jean Muir, Mrs. Melain Durning and May Burrows from Montreal West; Mrs. Maggie Kavannagh, Doreen Peacock, Sadie Lawrence, Angela Harwood, Mary Harwood, Linda Harwood, and Mary Rogers all from Chateauguay; Mrs. Katheleen Byrne, Masie Peacock, Siss Colgan, Alice Burrows, Margie Sutton, Anne Redmond, Joyce Allus, Vinnie Hineson, Gretta Dineen, Flo Murphy, all from La Salle; Mrs. Jean Randall, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Geary, Mrs. Irene Bouvis from Chateauguay also.

No doubt we'll have a lot of small fry attending school next fall and for those Mothers interested, the Clinic for Vaccination and other services will be held on Thursday, July 8th at the Municipal Hall from 2 to 4:00 p.m. I'm sure you all know the location on Croissant Richard it's tucked in behind Principale street and I as sure you'll be able to find it.

That seems to be all the news for this week folks, it's too hot to go looking for as it's up in the 80's, so if you do have any news, do give me a call at 692-9272.

LETTER FROM SEIGNIORY PARK

(by FERGUS HORSBURGH)

Route Boys:

ALLAN LUSSIER
373 St. Francis 691-0787
CHRIS DULLEGE
398 Montmorency 691-1683

Mac McConnell had a nasty accident last week-end while cycling on Montcalm. He sustained facial lacerations. and was taken to hospital as an emergency case. He is now convalescing at home.

Some sixty people attended last Wednesday's public information meeting at the Club house on the question of attracting the Y.M.C.A. to the Chateauguay area. Further details are to be found elsewhere in this Gleaner.

It is not as widely known as it ought to be that traffic proceeding from St. Francis to the main highway MUST pass over the trap on the road before they activate the traffic lights. Unless a vehicle passes over the yellow signs marking the trap, the traffic lights will remain on red.

Some youngsters are in the habit of shortening the length of the swings in Woodbine Park by slinging the swing seat over the top horizontal bar. Younger children came along later and find the swings, for practical purposes, out of action. I have been asked by several children and parents to issue an appeal to all concerned to leave the swings in the condition designed by the manufacturer to make them available to children of all ages.

Our route-boy Alan Lussier tells me that several Seigniory Parkers have told him that they would like to see a wider coverage of social events within the area. There is a practical limit to the amount of social news my wife and I can glean, but we would be more than pleased to include such items in this column. Why not phone in local tidbits? The number is 691-1581.

I became involved in a discussion last week-end on why certain lakes in the world had a high salt content, and others had either no salt or only negligible quantities. Is it true that a lake only salts up if its waters cannot find a way to the sea, as in the case of the Dead Sea, where the river Jordan flows in, and nothing flows out? What of all the lakes where there are no visible means whereby waters drain off to the sea, but which do not salt up? Does salting only occur in high-evaporation areas, such as the Dead Sea and the Caspian? or do the waters of every fresh-water lake find their way, by one means or another, to the oceans of the world? Would any well-informed reader care to pass on his views?

Seigniory Park Soccer

The Seigniory Park Soccer Atomes are rapidly increasing in numbers; Coaches Leo Robitaille and Ken Line who started some weeks ago with 6 or 7 boys between the ages of 6 and 8 years now have 17 boys turning out. Who knows! we might enter our own Atome team in the league next year. The Atome group consisting of eleven teams in the soccer league, is in its 1st year the biggest group, the next biggest group being the Mosquitos with 10 teams.

Many parents consider boys of 6 to 8 years of age too young for competitive sport, these parents may be right but anyone who has watched these youngsters realizes they get more enjoyment and display more enthusiasm than the boys in the older age groups. Regular coaching sessions are being held every Wednesday evening at 6:30 and the coaches state they can manage a few more boys.

At last the Seigniory Park soccer field is playable largely due to the efforts of Roland Gaudette and Alderman Phil Bonneau. One set of goal posts which had been placed too near the hedge row have now been moved and a number of dangerous surface rocks have been disposed of by S. Park volunteers.

We hope to celebrate with a victory when the Pee Wee's played their first game ever on their own ground but they were narrowly defeated by the Heights Beavers, the score being 2 goals to one.

Our boys were unlucky in many respects, they missed on a penalty shot in the dying minutes of the game after having more than their share of the play. Many of the boys are showing great promise. The goal scorer for our team was Adrian Thatcher. It has been stressed to the boys that that this year we have far more players consequently each boy will have to fight for a place on the team. The boys who are enthusiastic and turn out regularly for team practice are the ones who will make the team. Anyone who is lazy and misses practice for no good reason will be dropped from the team irrespective of whether he is the star of the team or the weakling.

We have acquired David Maclean from C.P.O.A.; He will make an immense difference to our Mosquito team if only he can have more support up forward as was evidenced in the game against C.C.R.A. Warriors on Thursday evening. David scored the opening goal in the first few minutes of play and subsequently came very near to scoring on 8 or 9 occasions, but he was all alone on most occasions.

LATE NEWS

Sunday, June 20: Our Mosquitos gained their first point to-day drawing with the Gardens; score one goal apiece.

Peter MacLean,

First of all this week, heartiest congratulations and all the best of good wishes to three couples celebrating wedding anniversaries on Monday, June 21st. Marion and Ron Houldsworth of 'new' Lang St. have been happily wed for 25 years on this date. A 24th anniversary is being celebrated by Kathleen and Alf Maggs of Colonia Street on the same day. Jessie and Frank Robinson of McLeod Avenue are also remembering their wedding vows of 13 years ago, and still in a state of 'Bliss'. Many, many more anniversaries to all you fine people.

Two birthdays, (as usual slightly late) were observed just recently by two little girls of my aquaintance. Heather Hollis of Duquette St. was 10 years old on June 14th, and celebrated with a little party. The other was Dianne Rees of Lang Street who became all of 8 years old on June 18th. Although it is belated I would like to wish them both lots of best wishes.

More and more of my African violets are coming into bloom day by day. I have one named "Violet 'n gold". In size it is about as large as a silver dollar, is a single type, pale mauve with a yellow frilly edge around it. Another just in bloom this morning is called "purple frills", and it is a double flower with frilly edges and is a deep shade of purple.

St. George's Senior Choir had their 'end-of-season' party last Saturday evening, June 19th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Les Harris of Lang St. in the Gardens. The party started off with swimming in their huge backyard pool followed by beach ball games played very boisterously and lots of fun and laughter. Later in the evening, Bob Little on the guitar and Gerry Hibberd with his accordion entertained the guests (and neighbors) with their renditions of music of all types, such as Spanish ,Irish, Scottish, old English and good-old-mountain-music. A barbecue, and all sorts of other refreshments were served by the host and hostess and without a doubt, everyone had a really good time.

Cooks' Corner

By Mary Fabio

Now that summer is here it's time to think of cooking out-of-doors. First check the equipment you may need: salt and pepper shakers, pans for sauces, coffee pot, carving board, platters, salad bowl and servers, trays, plates and cups, paper napkins, paper toweling, garbage container, cutlery, apron, potholder, sponge, dishcloth and a canvas to cover the grill when not in use. For handling the food you will need long handled fork, spatula, tongs for meat so that it will never be pierced and thus lose the juice and a long handled brush for dabbing on sauce. For the fire you will need briquets and a fire starter. Don't forget a pail of water for quenching the coals so they can be re-used.

You may need, all the above items if you intend to barbecue all summer but no doubt we all just get what is really needed and forget about all the extras. We found that the long handled utensils are a worthwhile investment, either that or the cook ends up with burnt fingers and a lovely smoke tan.

How charcoal briquets burn — As the briquets burn, a deposit of fine gray ash is left on the surface of the coals. Heat is released through the ash in the form of infra-red rays. Remove gray ash just before starting to barbecue by tapping the coals lightly with a fire rake or poker. It is also necessary to continue this throughout the cooking to produce even intense heat.

To avoid flame-up on braziers and grills (other than slant grills) move briquets ½ inch apart to reduce flame-up when fat drips.

Smoke chips are a flavouring agent, not a fuel.

In purchasing steak have them cut about 1½" thick.

In poultry the rule is half a broiler per person.

Barbecue Sauces

Sweet Sauce to use on ham slices

2 tbsp. dry mustard
⅓ cup chili sauce
1 cup brown sugar
¾ cup pineapple juice
1 tsp. lemon juice.

Quick Barbecue Sauce

½ cup tomato catsup
¼ tsp. Tabasco
1 tbsp. vinegar
2 tbsp. brown sugar
1 tsp. dry mustard
1 tsp. salt
1 medium size mild onion, finely chopped

Simmer for 5 minutes and serve with chicken.

Cheese Topped Garlic Bread

Cut a loaf of French bread in half lengthwise. Brush cut sides generously with garlic butter and sprinkle with greated Parmesan or sharp cheddar cheese. Put halves together and wrap securely in one thickness of heavy duty foil. Barbecue on grill close to coals until cheese melts and bread is heated, about 15 minutes, turning occasionally. Garlic butter — soften ½ cup butter, stir in one clove of garlic, crushed. Add celery seed if desired.

Valleyfield Regatta..

Ontario and the United States will compete as usual.

As an added attraction, the Nautical Club will in all probability again this year call on the services of Blair Poirier and his Flying Men. Their performance last year thrilled visitors of all ages and all will be glad to more than likely see them again.

The Directors of the Valleyfield International Regatta are also very happy to announce that M.P.P. for Beauharnois County, Mr. Gerard Cadieux will be present at the Regatta next July 17 and 18. Mr. Cadieux was recently named "Honorary Commodore" of the Valleyfield Nautical Club. It is an honor for the Club and the population

To date, the racers' entries are starting to come in and the Regatta Directors foresee a record in the number of yachts entered; this is why they are sure that the 27th Regatta will be one of the biggest ever staged in Valleyfield.

The club house of the Valleyfield Nautical Club was entirely renovated during the winter months and the race regulars will find that a most complete change has been made.

In a word, it seems that everything goes well and the official tag will soon be on sale; it gives a chance on the drawing of a trip for two persons to Nassau, courtesy of Kaybec Realties and organized by Robert Sauve Travel Agency in Valleyfield.

The success of this year's Regatta again seems a sure thing.

Gerald Laniel, M.P. Addresses Commons On Lacrosse

(By Fergus Horsburgh)

Mr. Gerald Laniel, M.P., for Beauharnois spoke with authority in a recent debate in the House of Commons on the designation of Lacrosse as Canada's national game. Bill No. C-3, introduced as a Private Member's Bill, rather lightheartedly described the proposed legislation as an attempt to "rectify what was probably an oversight on the part of the Fathers of Confederation".

Mr. Laniel referred to his qualifications to join the debate. He is Honorary President of the Club national de Valleyfield in the Quebec Lacrosse League. Mr. Laniel stated that the game of Lacrosse was very popular in Valleyfield and that he was happy to see that a group of sportsmen was trying to instill new life in a game which was in fact traditionaily and historically as old as Canada itself.

Further extracts from Mr. Laniel's speech follow: —

I would feel very remiss indeed if I did not congratulate those who took this happy initiative, among others, people whom you may not know, Mr. Chairman, Mr. J. Gérard Villeneuve and Mr. Bernard "Coco" Blanchard, two very well known sportsmen among our church down through the sanctuary, and seem to originate from big box-type wood stoves. The pews themselves are not designed for complete comfort, but all in all, considering the church has been there for 144 years, the seats are fairly easy to sit in, compared with some of the pews in some of the city churches.

The sermon, based partly on the Scripture reading, Jeremiah 18: 1-10, was most absorbing. This is the story of Jeremiah's visit to the potter's house. The Rev. Barker dealt with aspects of both the old and the new, and indeed it was a most appropriate sermon, not only for this celebration of the founding of the church at Beechridge, but also to the present 'space age' in which we now live.

The Maplewood Junior Choir sang the anthem "The Lord is my Shepherd" and the Senior Choir a beautiful and majestic anthem "I Will Greatly Rejoice in the Lord" by Harris.

The Rev. John Allan of Maplewood assisted in the service, and welcomed all the visitors and those who were revisiting Beechridge after some years absence.

Services will be held during the summer and early fall at the following times: July 4th and 18th; August 1st, 15th, and 29th, September 12th and 26th, and in October there will be a service of Communion and Thanksgiving. All these services will be at 2.30 in the afternoon. Anyone wishing to avail themselves of these services and incidentally visit a beautiful country church may obtain directions from members of Maplewood Presbyterian Church on how to proceed to Beechridge.

people. And I should not forget either those who will bend every effort throughout the season.

I wish the Valleyfield team good luck. Up to now everything has been going pretty well, and I hope the people will give it all the support required.

To come back to the bill itself, I want to inform the Hon. member for Burnaby-Richmond, if he has not understood the meaning of my remarks, that I support his proposal, and I suggest that all members do the same.

The sponsor of the bill said a while ago that many did not take this suggestion too seriously. As far as I am concerned, I am in earnest. We speak about protecting, even maintaining a sport which originated in Canada, a sport which becomes more and more popular. In fact, here in the Hull-Ottawa area, the newspapers give us each evening the results of various lacrosse games.

Mr. Speaker, I understand very well the reaction of some Hon. members who wonder why we insist on having as a national game one which, in the last few years, has been pushed aside by other games, hockey in particular.

Mr. Chairman, I do not want to embarrass you, but since lacrosse sticks are manufactured solely in your riding, that is on St. Regis island, I am sure you are in favour of this bill which would be quite normal in my opinion. Besides a great many people know that for many years you have been an avid supporter of lacrosse. That industry in the Cornwall area exports lacrosse sticks to many countries, mainly to Australia, New Zealand, England and, of course, the United States. Therefore, this sport is renowned internationally; it started in Canada, the sticks are made in Canada and the world's greatest players of lacrosse have always been Canadians. This is significant just the same and I think those are sufficient arguments to make us consider such a sport at a time when we are thinking of adopting a national sport for our country.

If we refer to any encyclopedia, we find at the word lacrosse that is "the oldest game played in America" and also "that it is of Canadian origin." The white people started to take an interest in that game around 1840, but the native Indians had played it long before the arrival of the discoverers. It was then called "baggataway", and the teams included between 75 to 200 players. There was no limitation as far as the size of the grounds was concerned, which would extend, in some cases, to five or even ten miles.

Quite obviously, the rules prevailing at that time were completely different from what they are today and the first French settlers were most impressed, both by the game itself and the shape of the stick.

Before resuming my seat, Mr. Speaker, I invite all Hon. members to support Bill No. C-3 and to recognize in lacrosse a sport which was marked by Canadian destiny and must remain with us, not like any other sport, but rather as the national sport of Canada.

Postmen May Launch A "Work To Rule" Program

OTTAWA — If postmen across Canada do not receive an adequate pay increase, they may be advised by their national executive to launch a "work to rule" program.

Jack Cooper, of Edmonton, President of the Federated Association of Letter Carriers said 'letter carriers salaries are far out of tune with the times."

He said a meeting of the executive has been called for June 21 and 22 in Ottawa to decide if a vote should be taken among the 7,648 members across the country instituting a "work to rule" program if wages are not brought into line with the rising cost of living and working conditions improved.

Mr. Cooper said he felt "drastic action" would have to be taken because a letter carrier with two children and 35 years experience is taking home only $300.00 a month after deductions.

Because of the inability of the post office to attract and keep men, letter carriers up to 55 years of age are being hired while a few years ago men over 35 were not taken on unless they were war veterans, Mr. Cooper said.

He said young men are taking the job only as a stop-gap until they can find something better and added at least 10 percent leave every year from each of the 186 postal branches in Canada, many with up to 10 years experience. The majority leave because of low pay and working conditions, he said.

"This is not only a waste of money but it is a serious blow to the post office to lose such men," Mr. Copper added.

Postal departments in such centres as Oshawa and Oakville are having it especially difficult to attract and keep good men because of General Motors and the Ford Motor Co., which are offering good wages, more fringe benefits, top pension plans and better working conditions. Prince Rupert and Prince George in British Columbia are in the same position.

"Sweepers in many plants earn more than postmen do and they can get along without moonlighting which is the rule rather than the exception among letter carriers", said the President.

"In many centres in Canada PEOPLE ON TOP WELFARE ARE TAKING HOME MORE MONEY THAN WE ARE".

Mr. Cooper said that for as long back as most postmen can remember they have never "worked to rule" although by doing this they have been acting contrary to the regulations laid down by the postal department.

"They have been cutting corners to give the public good service. But if the letter carriers decide on this action it will slow down the mail and if they should be able to enlist the co-operation of the postal clerks who sort the mail the efficiency of deliveries would be seriously hampered", he said.

"The present economy drive in the post office has reduced efficiency as well as deteriorating working conditions and morale for postmen," said Mr. Cooper.

"And the economy drive doesn't seem to make sense when we know that the department is losing from 15 to 20 million dollars a year by handling magazines at a cheap rate," he added.

The letter carriers have been organized since 1891 and from the beginning have advocated collective bargaining for civil servants. At their last convention in Winnipjeg in 1960 the letter carriers voted to forego the right to strike in the hope of bringing collective bargaining closer to a reality.

WHY A SHIP IS REFERRED TO AS "SHE"

The vital statistics department of the Cunard Line is often asked why a ship is referred to as 'she'. To set the record straight here are 15 reasons:

She's all decked out and often well-stacked. She has a waist and stays and requires a lot of rigging. There is usually a lot of bustle around her and she always managers to show her superstructure to advantage.

Bows and bells are standard equipment and sometimes she wears a bonnet. She has pleasing lines from stem to stern and there's usually a gang of men around her.

It's not the initial expense that breaks you it's the upkeep. It takes a lot of paint to maintain her best appearance. In some parts of the world the man who takes care of her needs at home is known as her husband but she leaves him at home when she goes out.

She always knows her destination and her watchword is caution. When entering port she heads immediately for the buoys. And when you want to attract her attention, a whistle is the appropriate signal.

As soon as she gets home all her lines are busy. On a balmy day or a moonlit night she can make any tired businessman forget his troubles.

And once you get to know her you never want to leave her!

LUNKER HUNTING

FISHER

Some guys catch lunkers as if fish didn't come in any other size. Most of us work pretty hard to catch the ones that are dwarfs by comparison, and then we feel pretty lucky.

To a successful "lunker hunter" luck plays a minor role. Seeking out the big fish is a deliberate undertaking, requiring both a knowledge of fish and an unswerving devotion to the proposition that one trophy of braggin' size is worth a hundred of his lesser brethren.

While lunker-catching proficiency doesn't come overnight, there is one basic rule that the aspiring might keep in mind: "locate the lairs."

Lunkers, like gold, are where you find them. This can be in the most unpredictable quarters, usually offshore where no visible signs give a clue to the hottspot beneath the surface.

To find such locations, and they are usually quite small, calls for extensive prospecting through a great deal of barren water. Slow trolling on the bottom or drift casting is the best bet.

When a fish strikes, mark the exact spot immediately for future reference. This means taking cross sightings on land objects so that you can find it again. A single hole may yield more lunkers on the next few casts, next day, or a year later.

The main thing is to know exactly where the location is, for if conditions are favorable for one lunker, invariably others will move in.

Another aspect of lunker hunting commonly neglected is the tendency of large fish to dump a bait half-heartedly without getting hooked. If a few casts prove futile, mark the location, rev up your Mercury outboard and leave with a minimum of disturbance. Return at a latter time for another try.

Big fish don't come easy. But with patience and an enthusiasm that overlooks long fruitless hours and sometimes the ridicule of shoreline casters, the prospecting pays off. That first lunker, and knowing where it came from, will be ample reward.

FLOATS OF THE 4-H CLUBS AS THEY PARADED AT ORMSTOWN EXHIBITION

Above are the Floats of the various 4-H Clubs of Chateauguay Valley as they paraded on Friday evening, June 11th; at the Ormstown Exhibition. The top one was sponsored by the Hemmingford Club, the next lower was by the Huntingdon Young Farmers Club, while the third one was by Ormstown Club and the last one by the Howick Club. The show put on by these Calf Clubs was one of the best yet and the members are to be congratulated. (Gleaner Photo)

SABOT

By Rex Neptune

A small but spirited sailing boat that can be built for less than the price of a good pair of skis or a bicycle has become the Cinderella of the sailing set.

The enght foot plywood Sabot pram dinghy took on a new dignity when it was recognized a Canadian racing class boat by the Canadian Yachting Association at its 1965 annual meeting. Sabot fleets have now been formed from Nova Scotia in the east to Port Alberni on the West Coast of Vancouver Island in the west.

The Sabot, mainly built from free plan booklets supplied through lumber yards selling marine grade fir plywood, won its present status through the efforts of the Canadian Sabot Association. The association has actively promoted racing Sabots and has organized it along the lines of other "one-design" racing classes.

Designed by naval architect Ralph McGregor, the Sabot hull can be built for about $45 from marine grade fir plywood. Another $45 to $55 can see it completed with sail and rigging.

Because it is light enough to be easily car-topped the Sabot, at 60 to 70 pounds is a natural for the camper or family man who wants to build a good, professionally-designed boat without spending a fortune.

Good sailers and easy to handle the Sabot has won friends among beginners and old hands. Youngsters have learned to sail in this cat-rigged pram and old salts have found its very simplicity giving them new pleasure. It has been raced in frostbite regattas in boating centres all over Uorth America. The Sabot has become a standard dinghy for hundreds of large cruisers.

There are more than 350 Sabots in the Lower Mainland section of British Columbia, many of them active in racing while others are merely for relaxation. They are used by the Kitsilano Yacht Club in its highly successful novice training program to teach beginners the fundamentals of sailing.

Sailing ability of the Sabot was amply demonstrated in Vancouver in May when the first Canadian Sabot Championship was held at Kitsilano Yacht Club. Calibre of contestants was high, the winner being Colin Park of Vancouver, holder of the North American OK Dinghy Championship for the last two years. Park, recognized as one of the North American continent's top racers, sails a Sabot in winter frostbite regattas.

Constructed from one quarter inch marine grade fir plywood the Sabots have been built by hundreds of amateur builders. A step-by-step booklet of illustrated building plans and instructions explains construction for the home builder. It takes him from the first move through to launching.

This booklet can be obtained free by writing to me, Rex Neptune, P.O. Box 2123, Vancouver 3, B. C. The simple fittings needed to rig and complete the Sabot can be obtained through local advertisers.

Once your Sabot is started I will answer any WRITTEN questions on its construction as well as any written questions of general boating interest.
