MRS. J. M. CRAIG, of Los Angeles, Calif., who says no one can feel more grateful for what Tanlac has done than she does. Declares she has gained twelve pounds and her health is now better than in years.

"Of all the people who have taken Tanlac, I don't believe there is any one who feels any more grateful to it than I do," was the statement made recently by Mrs. J. M. Craig, of 674 1/2 East Fortieth street, Los Angeles. "Like so many other families during the influenza epidemic last year we all had it, and my own illness, together with the worry over the rest of our family, brought on a case of genuine nervous prostration. "I was so weak I couldn't even sweep the floor, and during the day I would have to lie down four or five times. I tried to walk but found out that a block was all I could stand before I gave out. Nervous spells came on me often. "Every medicine I tried failed to reach my case until finally my husband urged me to try Tanlac, and I am indeed thankful that he did, for it proved to be just what I needed. "The first two bottles didn't seem to help me. I guess that was because I was so extremely bad off, but on the third bottle I could tell it was improving and that gave me more hope than ever of getting well. "My improvement from then on was rapid and by the time I had taken five bottles of Tanlac I was better and stronger than I had been in years. I was sleeping soundly at night and had gained twelve pounds in weight. "That was several months ago and from then until now I have been in as good health as I ever was in my life and have been doing all the housework by myself. "It is simply remarkable how Tanlac has built me up and I have told everyone of my friends and relatives what a wonderful medicine it is." Tanlac is sold in Sherbrooke by Griffith's Drug Store and A. E. DuBerger under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative. (Adv.)

CHINA TO HAVE NEW SYSTEM OF HANDWRITING

New Phonetic Script Has Been Tried Out on American Typewriters and Found Successful.

Chinese of future generations will write in phonetic script and use a typewriter with only 39 characters instead of plying the brush to draw 10,000 or more hieroglyphics, if mission workers succeed in an effort they are making to revolutionize handwriting in use in China for more than 4,000 years. The work of the missionaries is at least beginning to receive official sanction, and they entertain hopes that eventually the Chinese Brush, ink block and ink tablet will have to go to give place to more modern methods of communicating ideas.

Their purpose is not only to simplify China's handwriting system, but to give the country a common tongue to replace the present-day babel which renders even the native who is away from his own home district almost as helpless as a foreigner.

The system of phonetic script now urged upon the Chinese was worked out in England in 1902 by Wang Chao. Besides its 39 characters, it contains 10 numerals. There are no capitals.

Rev. E. G. Tewkesbury, of Shanghai, secretary of the China Sunday School Union, and a member of the Phonetic Promotion Committee, who has devoted thirty years to teaching in China, has put the new script into use in American typewriters with complete success. For this purpose typewriters with blank type faces are obtained from the factories and the characters are cut from these faces here by the Chinese engravers.

That the Peking Government attaches importance to the effort being made is seen in the following excerpt from a recent mandate issued by the Ministry of Education:

"We recognize that because of the difference between our classical and spoken language, education in the schools makes slow progress and the keen edge of the spirit of union, both between individuals and in society at large, has thereby been blunted. Moreover, if we do not take prompt steps to make the written and spoken language the same quickly, any plans for developing our civilization will surely fail."

The courts continue to be crowded with suits protesting against excessive rent and notices of dispossession. But it is also said that many landlords are yielding to the law and settling cases out of court.

A number of tenants in one house appeared in court with agreements signed by their landlords to the effect that he would increase rents only enough to meet increased expenses and with statistics to show that such increases amounted to 50 cents a month for each tenant instead of the $5 the landlord demanded. The court settled the case in favor of the tenant on the 50-cent basis.

The court settled the case in favor of the tenant on the 50-cent basis.

NEW YORK.—The new rent law prohibiting landlords from increasing rents more than 25 per cent. of the amount charged in April, 1919, applies to all houses used for dwelling purposes, irrespective of whether high-priced or low-priced places, according to Arthur J. W. Hille, chairman of the Mayor's committee on rent profiteering.

Complaints have been made by tenants in high-class apartment houses that their landlords have demanded excessive rent increases. They say that they are willing to pay moderate increases, but charge that the landlords are renting their apartment over their heads to others at much higher rents, under the impression that they are exempt from the provisions of the new law.

Such actions, it is thought, cannot fail to result in much confusion on October 1, when old leases expire and new ones go into effect. If the tenant can prove that the landlord is demanding an illegal increase, he can obtain a stay from the court for as long as a year, it may be, to enable him to find a suitable home in that same neighborhood, if desired, and at a fair and reasonable rent. That will effectually prevent the new lessee from moving in, and if he, then, and others in similar positions, bring suit against the landlords, to give them

MANY ATTEND WEST BOLTON LAWN SOCIAL

Event Proved a Big Success — Other News of General Interest.

WEST BOLTON, Que., July 5.—The most largely attended lawn social ever held in West Bolton, was that on the evening of Dominion Day on the spacious lawns at Argyle Farm.

The evening, though a little cool for ice cream, was a perfect one in every other way, and with an abundance of delicious coffee and the doors of the large house open for all those who did not feel like enjoying the beautiful moonlight, and grounds illuminated with Japanese lanterns, were waited on inside.

By invitation of Mr. W. R. McLaughlin, the proprietor of this historical old farm, several of the local clergy and their wives, both Methodist and Anglican, and several others were waited on at an early tea by Mesdames W. M. Whitcher, C. B. McLaughlin, O. A. McLaughlin and E. H. Perkins.

The evening's programme included speeches from Hon. S. A. Fielding, who spoke regarding the fine old building of Mr. McLaughlin's late father and mother, of Mr. and Mrs. James McLaughlin, and of their great hospitality in always throwing open their house and grounds for any worthy gathering. Rev. E. J. McCormack of Foster Church; Pastor Ward of the Creek Church and Rev. H. Walker of the Brill Church, all gave interesting addresses.

Rev. C. M. Taylor acted as chairman. All were sorry that Rev. Mr. Allen, of the English Church, South Stukely, had to leave before speech making began. The Knowlton band entertained the gathering with several selections. The ladies are very grateful to those who furnished autos to convey the band boys to and from the grounds.

At an early hour people began to arrive from all the surrounding points, Sutton, Cowansville, Farnham, East and West Knowlton, Warden, Waterloo, South Stukely and Foster being well represented. The proceeds, amounting to over $165., will be equally divided between the two Methodist churches in West Bolton.

The members of the Ladies' Aid of both churches, wish to thank all who assisted them in any way. The sofa pillow and scarf donated by Mr. McLaughlin, tickets being sold for them, resulted in Mr. C. A. Spencer, of South Stukely, holding the lucky number for the scarf and Miss Gladys Mizener, of Knowlton, the pillow.

General Notes.

Mr. Martin Mizener remains very poorly.

THIS TREAD CONSERVES TIRES

Goodyear Service Plan Provides a Bonus of Mileage Greater than any Discount in Price You could Hope to Secure

The development of the All-Weather Tread is in keeping with Goodyear policy — to conserve tires; to get for motorists greater mileage and so lower cost-per-mile; to disregard price, if the cost-per-mile is lowered.

The All-Weather Tread is tough and long-wearing, adding extra miles. It resists punctures and cuts which so frequently neglected, let in water and sand to rot the fabric. This tread combats skidding which wears down the tread and weakens the tire carcass.

Its adaptability for all-wheel use aids further in tire saving. No tire change you may make spoils the balanced appearance of your car. This permits balanced wear on all tires.

This tread is one factor in the Goodyear Conservation Plan. This plan embraces many other Goodyear Tire Savers which prevent or cure tire injuries, and definite, personal help from Goodyear Service Station Dealers in securing a lower tire cost-per-mile.

Because of steadily increased quality with the mileage making service of Goodyear Service Station Dealers (which means lower cost-per-mile) Goodyear Tires have become the largest selling brand in the world. This gives a final tire-cost below that of any tire which sacrifices quality or service to achieve a lower price or "special discount."

DAY WAS WELL CELEBRATED IN EAST ANGUS

Sports Were Highly Interesting and Well Attended—General Notes.

EAST ANGUS, July 5.—Dominion Day will long be remembered as one of the finest holidays ever spent in Angus. The weather was perfect and a magnificent series of attractions was provided by the Brompton Club. All tastes were catered to. The children had sports in the morning, beginning at 10.30. About 2 p. m., the ground was well filled to see the baseball game in which Groveton, N. H., played the local team. The visiting team gave possibly the most scientific exhibition of batting and fielding ever seen in Angus and ran up a big score. The home team started well, but collapsed badly, and made several faults in fielding. The crowd hoped to see their own team at its best and was disappointed.

The football match with Stanstead was a more even contest, with Angus having more of the play all through and deserving their victory. Stanstead scored first and played a stubborn game all through, but the home forwards pressed them hard and with a little luck would have increased their score.

The town band played at intervals all day long, and no admission was charged, so a very large crowd was present at the games.

In the evening, the local picture house had a bumper house, and the club dance at the Parish Hall was well attended. Hecht's Orchestra has rarely been heard to better advantage, and the tasteful decorations made the dance a memorable event. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Botherwell, Mr. and Mrs. Rossiter, Mr. and Mrs. Creighton, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. Stoddard, Mr. and Mrs. Parmelee, Mr. and Mrs. Bolger.

Church Notes.

On Tuesday, July 6th., the Marbleton Dramatic Club will present the three act comedy, "Red Ace Farm," at 8.30 p. m., at the Parish Hall. This play has been well received in Marbleton and Bury and will no doubt have a great welcome in Angus. There will be a dance following the play. The proceeds will be divided between Marbleton and East Angus.

A refreshment booth was undertaken by the ladies of Christ Church on Dominion Day, and the profits amounted to $31.50.

Funeral of the Late J. L. Chester.

The funeral of the late J. L. Chester took place on Friday, July 2nd., at ten a. m. from the home of his son-in-law, Mr. J. H. Labonte. Deceased had lived with his son in Lyndonville, since his wife's death, suffering much from rheumatism. A short while ago, he sustained a serious fall, breaking his hip, and passed away on June 29th., at the ripe old age of eighty-two years. The body arrived at Angus on Dominion Day, and was taken to the home of his son-in-law.

Service was held the next day at ten a. m. in the presence of a large attendance of relatives and old friends. Rev. A. J. Oakley officiated, and a niece of the deceased, Mrs. Munkittrick supplied the music. Several of the Methodist choir sang hymns, "Now the Laborer's Task is O'er," and "Peace, Perfect Peace."

The burial took place at Ascot Corner, beside his first wife. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Labonte, daughter; Mr. H. T. Chester, of Marbleton; Mr. and Mrs. Clayton H. Chester, Lyndonville, Vt.; Mr. Clifford J. Chester, of Lyndonville, Vt., sons, and Mr. John Carpenter, of Lyndonville, Vt., an old family friend. Two sons, Horace and Albert Chester, of Boise City, Idaho, were unable to be present.

PLAY GIVEN BY BISHOP'S CROSSING W. W.

"Excuse Me" Was Presented to Full House—School Results.

BISHOP'S CROSSING, July 5.—The entertainment given under the auspices of the Willing Workers on June 22 was a great success. It consisted of a play entitled "Excuse Me," and solos by Mrs. Sunbury and Mr. Shore. LeBaron's Orchestra furnished music between the acts and also for a dance afterwards.

The play was put on by the following cast: Mrs. Sunbury, Mrs. Harrison, Misses Muriel Gilbert, Jean LeFebvre, Len Bartlett and Roberta Bartlett, and Messrs. Sydney Bishop, Lewis Hughes, Leslie Shore and Rev. A. T. Love. Mrs. Sunbury showed great versatility in her part, and brought down the house as "Karin," the Swedish maid. Miss LeFebvre filled the role of the Irish girl to perfection, and her experience with the "pills" was extremely funny. Miss Muriel Gilbert was a moving picture artist, and the sentimental scenes with "Dairymilk" were most amusing. Mrs. Harrison, Miss Lera Bartlett and Miss Roberta Bartlett played the parts of guests in a very natural and effective manner. Mr. Sydney Bishop showed to advantage in the role of a scientist whose artistic vocabulary was quite too much for his companions sometimes. Mr. Lewis Hughes made an ideal "agent," and the sale of pills to Katie was most humorous. Mr. Leslie Shore essayed the role of one disgruntled over his sister's marriage, and it was well done. Rev. A. T. Love played the part of the man with a cold in his head, and his experience with the Swedish maid was most amusing. The hall was packed to its utmost capacity and, judging from the frequent applause, the play was much enjoyed. After the play a short time was taken for refreshments, which were served by the Ladies' Guild. Then the dance proceeded. The proceeds of the night amounted to $207.

School Results

The following are the results of the final examinations in the intermediate grades of Bishop's Crossing Model School:
Grade VII: Dorothea Andrew, Cecil Skinner, Elwin Brown passed; Murray McFadden, Harold McKenzie, passed on trial.
Grade VI: Arthur McHarg, passed; Marguerite Clark, passed on trial; Lyford George, failed.
Grade V: Helen Elliott, Roland Scowen, Ethel Mackay, Maurice Gilbert, passed; Geraldine Finlay,

SOUTH AFRICA SETS PRECEDENT IN MUSIC STUDY

Concerts Will Be Given to Teach School Children More About Orchestral Music.

CAPETOWN, South Africa.—The corporation of Capetown is to be congratulated on two movements which have just been inaugurated. The first is a series of orchestral "school concerts" which are being arranged by Mr. Wendt, the musical director to the corporation, and leader of the municipal orchestra. These concerts, under the auspices of the school board, are to be given in various parts of the Cape Peninsula, to familiarize school children with the appearance, sound, and different methods of producing the sounds of various orchestral instruments. The first of these concerts, given in the City Hall, Capetown, was voted a great success. The large auditorium was packed with school children, with a sprinkling of their elders.

Mr. Wendt gave a short preliminary address on the meaning of music, and, before each item, said a few explanatory words concerning the instruments that were being used both singly and in combination. The stringed instruments were exemplified first, violin and cello solos being played, followed by concerted string pieces. Then came the wood instruments when short solos and scales showed off the powers and peculiar attractions of the flute, oboe, clarinet, and bassoon. By this time the interest of the audience was thoroughly roused and the appearance and performance of the bassoon was accompanied by expressions of merriment from the audience, while the advent of the bass instruments and the trumpet and scales on the trombone evoked applause.

The second period of the corporation is the offer of 12 scholarships for the study of orchestral instruments to students of South African parentage, who wish to take up orchestral playing as a profession. Four candidates will be elected each year, and these successful candidates will receive three years' musical training at the South African College of Music.
During the first two years, scholarship holders are to benefit from the advantage of occasional hearing with the orchestra assisting at concerts. In the third year, the scholar becomes an apprentice to the orchestra at a salary of £10 per month. In the fourth year a probationer at £15.

The result of the scheme should provide for the orchestras of the future, trained South African musicians, who, besides being skilled in their own particular instruments, will have the advantage of having had a sound general musical education.

After the death of the father, the family returned to this city, and the boy was educated at St. Charles College, and later took a course at the Gleason Business College.

Be sure that a great many mothers have a pair of salt and pepper shakers around the house for which there is no means of holding them. The holder described today is the result of just such a condition in my home. We had two nice glass shakers, of the long slender kind, and they were continually falling over. At last it became tiresome and after a little time spent with a piece of paper and a lead pencil, the design as shown was evolved.

SPEEDING IS DESTRUCTIVE TO THE CARS

Tires Are Badly Damaged by Fast Driving Over Bad Places.

Reductions show that excessive fast driving is destructive on ordinary tires. They also show that if the motorist could maintain an average speed of twenty-five miles an hour without incurring the displeasure of the magistrates he would get more mileage out of his tires than at any other mark. Also that if he were one who insisted on "letting her out" he must obey two rules—drive slowly over rough roads and take turns cautiously and, as important as the other, increase the air pressure in his tires from two to eight pounds above normal—else resign himself to prodigious purchases of tires. For speeding, especially built tires are required.

It is a well known fact that the faster a tire is driven the more heat it generates internally, and while normal speed will not raise the temperature of the tire to a dangerous point, excessive speeding will raise the temperature to a point well beyond the danger line or to a point where additional vulcanization will take place—more than the manufacturer ever intended for the tire and sufficient to dry out, not only the friction gum between the piles of fabric but the very fabric itself, depriving the tire of considerable of its elasticity and its resiliency, in fact part of its very life. This excess heat, drying out the fabric friction between the piles of fabric, naturally will cause a separation between the piles resulting in the fabric chafing against itself, or the piles of fabric chafing against one another, weakening it to that point where it can no longer maintain the air pressure, resulting in a blow-out.

Speeding has other bad effects on tires than premature drying them out. One of the most common is the driving at a fast pace over uneven roads. Some drivers, unfortunately for the tires, drive at the same speed over a rough road that they would over a boulevard and then wonder why it is that their tires wear away so rapidly.

Watch a speeder negotiating a rough road at about as fast as his car will travel and notice the rear wheels in particular as they strike an obstacle, both at the same time; the shock comes so abruptly and forcibly that the rear wheels are raised free from the ground. Perhaps this is only an inch or so but while in the fraction of a second the wheels are of the ground, the tension is released on the engine, the wheels are spinning much faster so that when they again strike the ground the road itself must do some brake work and have an action on the tread of the tire much like that of a rasp being rubbed over its surface.

Now if it should happen that when the tires strike the ground after being thrown into the air, there should

MOTOR TRAVEL IS EXTENSIVE THIS SUMMER

Visitors, Holiday Seekers and Business Travellers Will Patronize Highways Instead of of Railways.

The motoring season, like the camping and holiday season, began early this year, and the increase in the number of automobiles is already evident; also that the motor car is becoming more and more, a means of every day transportation, is becoming a recognized fact. A large number of American cars are continually passing through our cities, towns, and country places, and although some are pleasure seekers, these people, for the most part, are using their cars in preference to the railroads, which is, many, a more satisfactory mode of travel. It is now possible to motor in almost any section of the country, from mountain to beach, and from state to province, as good roads are increasing, and long distance routes become known.

MUCH TRAVEL INTO CANADA.

There is to be a large increase of motor travellers from the New England States into Canada this season, numbers of enquiries having been already received by touring bureaus for routes from Boston to Montreal, and similar routes, while the interest in the condition of the Canadian roads, and the possibility of extensive travel in Canada has never been so pronounced. Our provinces are very liberal in their attitude toward motor travellers and offer reciprocal touring privileges, ranging from twenty-one days in New Brunswick to full reciprocity in Quebec, and three months in Nova Scotia. The customs regulations also permit free entry of cars for a period of thirty days, and these conditions will, without doubt be taken in the natural beauty of Canadian scenery. ENQUIRIES ABOUT ROUTES. The important motor clubs and organizations, touring information bureaus, and highway travel agencies report a large number of advance inquiries as to condition of roads, and as to routes from all sections, from parties to whom a trip of one, two, or even three thousand miles is no deterrent. This makes evident the fact that people have the means to travel and to take long vacations, that many of them never before enjoyed.

ENQUIRIES ABOUT ROUTES.

The important motor clubs and organizations, touring information bureaus, and highway travel agencies report a large number of advance inquiries as to condition of roads, and as to routes from all sections, from parties to whom a trip of one, two, or even three thousand miles is no deterrent. This makes evident the fact that people have the means to travel and to take long vacations, that many of them never before enjoyed.

ROAD BUILDING AND DETOURS

This summer's travellers will find that, in general, the roads will be up to expectations, but they may expect to encounter numerous detours for both across the border, and in the provinces, extensive road building and repairing is going on, which was somewhat delayed by the lateness of the season, the heavy rains, and the prevailing railroad conditions, which has made it impossible to get building and repairing materials. Much care has been taken in mapping out the detours, and motorists may feel assured of these being well defined, and that they will not prove serious impediments to through travel.

HOTELS AND GARAGES.

Proprietors of hotels and summer resorts report that a large proportion of their patrons are coming this summer by motor, and state that inquiries contain requests for information concerning garage and service station facilities. These are mostly from those who are planning a month's or all summer stay, and it looks as if comparatively few guests would be coming by railroad.

NON-RESIDENT RULES.

The Canadian motorists who intend visiting the New England States, will find that the rules governing the movements of non-residents have not been materially changed from last season, and with the exception of Rhode Island, and New Hampshire, are liberal. Rhode Island allows a non-resident to travel only ten days without registration in that state, while in New Hampshire the limit is twenty days. Massachusetts extends complete reciprocity, allowing the visitor to stay in that state without registration as long as his home state or province extends a similar privilege. Vermont has a similar law, while in Connecticut and Maine the limit is thirty days without registration, the home credentials of operators and chauffeurs are accepted generally in the New England States.

SOVIET RUSSIA IN BRITISH COURTS.

(Associated Press Despatch) LONDON, July 5.—Writs have been served on the Soviet trade mission here for the purpose of securing the sequestration of its property for the satisfaction of alleged creditors of the Soviet government, according to the Herald. MEIGHEN HAS SUPPORT OF NEW PARTY

Question of Successor to Premier Borden Still the Main Topic.

(Associated Press Despatch)

OTTAWA, July 5.—Letters and telegrams continue to pour into the office of the premier. Today more communications were received from the parliamentary supporters of the government suggesting a successor to Sir Robert Borden. There is still gossip of the possibility of an outsider being called in, although it is unquestioned that on Arthur Meighen the majority support of members of the new party in both houses of parliament.

In some quarters his following among government supporters in parliament is placed as high as ninety per cent. Today there is a recurrence of the suggestion that Sir George Foster may be called to form a temporary government.

The constitutional position of a retiring premier is set out in an official statement issued today.

Much confusion and misunderstanding, says the statement, seem to prevail in the press, regarding the power and responsibility of a retiring prime minister in respect to the election of his successor.

The selection of a new premier is one of the few personal acts which, under the British constitution, a sovereign (in Canada the representative of the sovereign) is required to perform. A retiring premier has no right whatever to name his successor, nor has he any responsibility with respect to selection of his successor except as follows:

The sovereign or his representative may not see fit to ask the view of the retiring premier with respect to the selection of his successor.

For example, the Queen, on the final retirement of Mr. Gladstone, did not ask his advice or his views on that question. In such a case, the retiring prime minister has no right whatever to express his views or to tender any advice on the subject. If, however, the sovereign or his representatives asks the views of the retiring premier, he has a right to express them, but they need not necessarily be followed. In expressing such views, he does not tender advice as a premier because he has already retired from office.

His advice is to be regarded simply as that of a person holding the position of privy council who has acquired a wide experience in public affairs, which would give a certain value to his opinion on the subject, the statement concludes.

Jeffery said he and other leaders had concluded "the public is a bigger factor than the principles at issue between the RUTH GOING STRONG. The batting of Ruth, the "Home Run King" of the New York club, continue to be the chief topic in the American League. BOXING A fairly good crowd of boxing fans gathered around the 54th Armory on Saturday night last, July 3rd, to witness the boxing contest between Patsy Dillon, of Sherbrooke, and Joe St. Hilaire, of Somerthworth, N. H., but were badly disappointed, when they were told that there was no fight, some of those fans thought promoter Joe Cloutier was running the Record that he had nothing to do with it, and states that the posters of his fight shows plainly that it was run under the auspices of Ernest Boise, and another gentleman boxer of the town. Joe Cloutier is promoter of the Jones vs. Wilson fight, and promises that this fight will be on rain or shine, on the Fair Grounds, July 10th, next Saturday.

Heavy Slugging of Indians and Yanks Carrying them along at Great Pace. (Associated Press Despatch) NEW YORK, July 5.—Cleveland regained the American League leadership from New York yesterday by administering Detroit's seventh straight defeat, while the Yankees dropped their first game in ten to Washington. The heavy slugging of the two leaders is carrying them along at a fast pace, but the Indian club lacks the smooth pitching that the Yankees possess.

The Cincinnati, world's champions, made a slight gain over Brooklyn for the National leadership. Although the Reds are battling lightly the pitchers held their opponents to an average of about two and one-half runs a game last week. Brooklyn and Chicago both are enjoying wood pitching against the New Yorkers. The Brooklyn has been hitting lately and pounded out thirty-care hits for eighteen runs in a double header with Philadelphia. The Cubs, however, lost a battle for third place yesterday to St. Louis, when four pitchers were unable to check the Cincinnati.

The Boston Nationals continued their winning play of the previous week by their timely batting. Philadelphia lacks scoring power. The Pittsburgh twirlers are handicapped by light hitting. New York's slugging is offset by unsteady pitching. In the American League Chicago outbatted the League leaders last week, but were unable to attain the same winning pace. Close scores marked the Boston-Washington games.

Detroit and Philadelphia are falling in the race. To advance one position, the Tigers require a gain that would nearly equal an advance from last to first place in the National League.

ITALIANS AND GREEKS CLASH NEAR SMYRNA

Italians Opened Fire When the Greeks Refused to Withdraw from Their Position. (Associated Press Despatch) LONDON, July 5.—Fighting between Italian and Greek troops near Ajasoluk, on the Aidin Railroad southeast of Smyrna, Saturday, is reported in a despatch to the London Times from Smyrna. The despatch says the Turkish Nationalists having penetrated the Italian lines, burst a railroad station without Italian intervention. The Greek commander sent a force to occupy a position within the Italian lines. The Italians ordered the Greeks to withdraw, and they refused. Thereupon the Italians fired and the Greeks replied. There were several casualties on both sides. The despatch says the Greeks retain the position, but that the incident is worrying the Greek authorities, who maintain that it is imperative to safeguard the Aidin Railroad. They fear that if the friction continues the Turks will be confirmed in their belief that the Italians sympathize with them.

WITNESS HAS DISAPPEARED AT HALIFAX

Believed that Harry Watson Has Been Kidnapped by Some of Strikers. (Associated Press Despatch) HALIFAX, N. S., July 5.—Harry Watson, one of the Halifax shipyard employees who was to be a witness for the company when the hearing of their application for an injunction against strikers comes before the court, has disappeared. Watson, who is employed as night watchman at the yard power station, left his home last evening for the plant, but did not arrive there. The matter has been reported to the police and detectives are now endeavoring to locate him. Shipyard officials this morning advanced the theory that Watson had been kidnapped by some of the striking marine workers so that he would be unable to give evidence at the hearing, which is set down for July 13th. A temporary order restraining the strikers' pickets from interfering with men going to work at the yards was granted on Saturday last returnable at that date.

LOCAL CHIEF ATTENDED CONVENTION

Chief Couture Reports Very Successful Meetings at Moncton, N.B. Chief of Police A. Z. and Mrs. Couture arrived, Saturday evening, from Moncton, N.B., where they attended the sixteenth annual convention of the Chief Constables' Association of Canada.

Chief Couture says that the sessions, which were held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of last week in the "Hotel Brunswick" were very interesting and practical. Chiefs of Police from the principal cities in Canada from coast to coast were in attendance and several important topics were treated. A feature of the proceedings was a letter from Chief of Detectives LePage, of Montreal, read in his absence by Chief of Police Belanger, Montreal. The communication treated of "Incentives to Crime," and three main causes were ascribed to the increase of lawlessness, drugs, movies and pool room gatherings. These points were dealt with exhaustively and instructions were given enabling the constabulary to cope with them.

The present crime wave, as an effect of the war, was also the subject of consideration. Many social attractions were provided during the visit of the delegates, the principal of which was a banquet tendered by Mayor A. C. Chapman and the civic officials.

The sessions were presided over by Chief Bruton, of Regina, and the social arrangements were looked after most efficiently by Chief Rideout, of Moncton.

Chief Woodley was elected President for the coming year, with Chief Thompson, of Peterborough, as first vice-president, and Chief Belanger, of Montreal, as second vice-president. The next annual convention will be held in Montreal.

NOT IN FAVOR OF COALITION OF PARTIES

No New Developments in the Manitoba Political Situation. (Associated Press Despatch) WINNIPEG, July 5.—There does not promise to be any open developments in the Manitoba political situation in the immediate future. The situation is that Premier Norris will command the largest single group in the new legislature, but that he cannot carry on the government without support from some members who were elected on independent or other party lines. No one other single group is in a position to form a government to replace the Norris Government, but a Union of opposing groups, would suffice to overturn the administration, of course.
