CABINET'S SITUATION AWKWARD

All-Round Compulsion Issue on Which Members May Split

LLOYD GEORGE IS UNCOMPROMISING

Influence of Premier in Favor of Other Means is Great

Special Cable to The Montreal Star From Our London Correspondent. (Copyright.)

THE MONTREAL STAR OFFICE, 17 Cockspur street, London, April 17—Will the Cabinet, as at present constituted, survive today's critical meeting? This question dominates all others. The Ministry is in two groups, Mr. Lloyd George is an uncompromising advocate of all-round compulsion, especially its extention to married men. Three or four other Ministers are understood to share Mr. Lloyd George's view, but Mr. Balfour, Mr. Runciman, and a majority of the Cabinet remain unconvinced that this step is necessary.

They are satisfied with the report of the sub-committee of the Cabinet, consisting of Mr. Asquith, Lord Lansdowne, Mr. McKenna, Mr. Austin Chamberlain, which rejects all-round compulsion and recommends, firstly, the extension of the Military Service Act to all men as soon as they reach the age of 18; secondly, the retention of time expired regulars and Territorials; thirdly, a more vigorous combing out of single men from munition and other war and necessary industries.

Sir Edward Carson's Unionist group in the House of Commons has been putting the utmost pressure on Bonar Law to threaten to leave the Cabinet on the all-round compulsion issue.

Lord Milner moves a resolution in the House of Lords tomorrow to the same effect. Mr. Lloyd George's friends are also urging him to insist on complete compulsion.

But Premier Asquith's personal authority is still so great that the odds are in his favor.

The most powerful illustration need of coution in withdrawing men from any industry is the new crisis created by the accelerated destruction of British and neutral tonnage under the new German submarine policy.

British merchant shipping, has lost two and a quarter million tons in twenty months. The loss last month averaged two ships daily. These losses must be replaced by new shipbuilding, more especially seeing that in a few days' time new German submarines will be ready for further efforts.

At the present rate of shipbuilding, it took three months to complete 20,000 tons less than was lost in one week.

Compulsion Matter for Canada Herself to Decide Says Peer

Special Cable to The Montreal Star From Our Own Correspondent. (Copyright.)

THE MONTREAL STAR OFFICE, 17 Cockspur street, London, April 12.—Canada's agitation and possible compulsion are being watched with considerable interest here. A Peer who has been closely connected with the Dominion and the Commonwealth gave the following answer to a query by the Star's correspondent:

"It is entirely a matter for Canada herself to decide. Personally, I am in favor of compulsion in Britain, but Canada is situated differently and has her own economic future to work out. Relatively, she has done, is doing wonders with voluntary enlistment.

From Major Gen. Turner I have received a message that suggests that, however many men may volunteer in Canada, many more will be needed. His letter was written at time when the Canadians were in the midst of the bitterest fighting since Festubert, and says:—

"What I ask is to keep our battalions up to full strength. It will save putting our men in a false position. Success can never be attained by weak units."

ROLAND HILL.

WOUNDED MEN ARE RETURNING TONIGHT.

Twenty-three wounded and invalided men, of whom thirteen belong to Montreal and ten to Kingston, are returning to the city this evening. They will arrive at the Canadian Pacific Railway Windsor street station at nine o'clock, and will be driven to the Composite Regiment barracks, where they will be registered, and then given leave of absence for a few days.

UNITED STATES NOTE TO HUN A FINAL WARNING

Special to The Montreal Star by United Press.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The final Note from the United States to the German Government over the Sussex tragedy and the submarine warfare of Germany will be placed on the cables tonight or tomorrow morning at the latest, it is thought.

The message is described as an official notice to Germany that the continuance of friendly relations depends now on action, rather than words. With this, the suggestion is carried that promises of reparation and punishment of the commander in the Sussex incident will not suffice.

The position of this Government on the submarine question is based on a complete review of U-boat activities extending from the time the Lusitania was sunk.

Belief is expressed in official circles that there must be an entire change by Germany in undersea fighting if hope is to be held out for future friendly intercourse between the two nations.

Unofficial reports from Berlin that Germany is prepared to meet this Government's position in the Sussex case brought official expression that this would not be enough, and that a more comprehensive settlement is wanted.

INDICT VON PAPEN IN PLOT TO BLOW UP WELLAND CANAL

True Bills Also Returned Against Husband of Mme. Gadski, Alfred F. Fritzen and Two Others —von Papen in Germany — Tauscher Arrest Likely Tonight

Special Star Cable by United Press.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Capt. Franz von Papen, recalled German military attache, was indicted by a Federal Grand Jury this afternoon for alleged participation in the plot to blow up the Welland Canal in Canada.

Capt. Hans Tauscher, husband of Madame Gadski, grand opera singer, Alfred F. Fritzen, and two others whose names have not been revealed, were also indicted.

The indictments were returned before Federal Judge H. B. Howe.

Von Papen is in Germany and beyond the jurisdiction of the United States courts. Tauscher probably will be arrested late this afternoon or tonight at his New York residence. The whereabout of Fritzen is unknown.

This is the first time that Von Papen has been named in any formal charge in any of the Federal or State investigations of alleged plots framed by Teutonic agents, though his name and that of Capt. Boy-Ed have been mentioned frequently.

The five alleged conspirators are charged with having set on foot in the United States an enterprise injurious to a foreign country at peace with the United States, in plotting to destroy the Canadian canal.

MEXICAN ISSUES REACT TO VILLA RUMOR BRIEFLY

Special to The Montreal Star by United Press.

NEW YORK, April 17—The "Evening Sun' financial review today says:

"Wall Street resumed business this morning with conditions surrounding the international situation. Either with respect to Germany or Mexico, little changed by developments over Sunday.

"Issues directly associated with Mexican affairs, like Smelting and Refining, Green-Cananea and Mexican Petroleum, advanced sharply. But the improvement was not long continued, partly because of a lack of confirmation of the Villa rumor, and partly because of a sharp break in the war stocks.

"The return of a representative of the Bethlehem Steel Company from Europe without additional war orders, who, in a general statement confirmed the views expressed by a member of J. P. Morgan & Company last week that the future munitions required by England and France will be supplied to a large extent by their own manufacturing companies, unsettled the entire list, Bethlehem Steel on light transactions falling 44 1-2 points.

Losses elsewhere were more moderate, but ranged around a point or so in specialties, while United States Steel lost about a point.

AMERICANS AND CARRANZISTAS WORK IN HARMONY

MEXICO CITY, April 17. — The Office received a despatch last night in which further details are given of the Parral affair. It is asserted an American army officer admitted his culpability for entering the town.

The despatch also says American troops have ceased their movement southward until such time as the negotiations between the United States and the Mexican Governments are terminated. The full text of the despatch follows:

"Gen. Ismael Lozane, accompanied by Gens. Garcia and Hernandez, put an end to the trouble at Parral and persuaded the American troops to retire to the outskirts of that city, where they were followed by the hostile populace. At this point the American Colonel in charge of the First Regiment asked for a conference, which was held at the village of Santa Cruz Villages, between the American Colonel and the municipal president. The American army officer admitted he had entered the city without permission, but claimed he had sent an orderly from the town of Zaragosa, requesting permission to enter, and that, receiving no answer and the orderly not returning, he went to investigate.

"The American officer expressed regret at what happened, and the American troops and the Constitutionalists are working in complete harmony.

"The Americans will not move further south until the result of the interchange of notes between Mexico and Washington becomes known."

LULL AT VERDUN AND ACTIVITY ALONG WEST FRONT SIGNIFY BLOWS

These are Likely to Be Delivered in Unison Against British Lines, French Army Defending Verdun, and Russians on Dvinsk Front—French Airmen Achieve Brilliant Work

Special Star Cable.

LONDON, April 17.—The suspension of active hostilities by infantry on the Verdun front is taken here to indicate that the Crown Prince is again rearranging his forces, preparatory to a third great effort to smash his way through the French lines. Now that the French superiority in artillery has been clearly demonstrated, no fear is entertained in military circles here as to the result of any blow the Crown Prince may deliver.

In fact, interest is largely shifted for the time being to the British front, where, it is reported, the fighting has been on a scale the magnitude of which is by no means indicated by the terse nature of the War Office bulletins. The size of the casualty lists and the activity in official military circles, taken together, would seem to point to some action of considerable importance.

It is not believed that the spring drive has yet begun, but it is suggested in some quarters that the Germans are busy testing out the line preparatory to making another effort to get through, which it is thought will be timed to correspond with the next blow at Verdun and a possible offensive on the Dvinsk front.

British military authorities declare that they would like to see nothing better than another German effort to drive through to Calais. It would, they affirm, indicate more significantly than anything else that the Germans themselves realize that the beginning of the end has come.

CANADIANS FOUGHT PICKED TROOPS

THE MONTREAL STAR OFFICE, 17 Cockspur street, London, April 17. —That in the recent fighting the Canadians were up against some German picked troops was gathered from prisoners. Confirmation is obtained by the publication in the Times today of the ordre de bataille of the German troops opposed to the British front.

It shows that at St. Eloi the Germans have the Thirteenth active corps and the Twenty-third reserve corps. The former were picked for their dash for Paris at the time of the battle of the Marne, and that latter were among the troops that came to Von Kluck's rescue when the Allies were trying to turn his flank.

In an excellent article accompanying the map, the military critic, Col. Repington, shows that the troops opposite us are at least as good as, and perhaps better from the point of view of training, than those assailing Verdun and, to quote him, "these German armies hold a series of positions which are better than ours from the point of dominance, facility, and observation. They are also provided with a strong force of heavy guns.

"We must regard it as a tribute that, the Germans, though short of troops to provoke a decision elsewhere, feel compelled to mass such important forces on our front. We have no option but to suppose the German headquarters anticipate serious operations in the north.

"Later in the article there is this significant sentence:

"We read inspired articles which give a hundred reasons why we should not have the men we need, but none to tell us how we can win without them.

"All this talk of holding the balance, between trade and victory is sheer moonshine.

The latest news from the Canadian section is that the grenade fighting and artillery duels are continuous.

ROLAND HILL.

Special to The Montreal Star from Our Own Correspondent.

OTTAWA, April 17.—That the battle of St. Eloi ranks well with St. Julien and Festubert, not only in the effective work of the Canadians but also in the severe losses sustained by our troops, is indicated clearly in the casualty lists which have been received by the Militia Department following the recent battle.

The aggregate up to this morning was 944. This is made up of 227 killed in action, sixty-three died of wounds, 600 wounded, fifty-one seriously ill and three missing.

EASTER BIRKS 1916

A Ladies' Hand Bag

IS AN IDEAL EASTER GIFT SUGGESTION

FASHION dictates as many varieties in the style of Hand Bags as she does in wearing apparel. The prevailing vogue is a bag of small or medium size, well shaped, and although inconspicuous, it becomes nevertheless a distinct addition to a toilette.

A Birks Hand Bag, by the name it bears, impersonates highest quality and, at the same time, is an actual selection from the latest offerings of the fine leatherware markets of London and New York.

The range of these bags is very widely priced, from $3.50 upward—in fine leathers and silks only.

PUPILS' PLAYING IS INTERESTING IN GOOD CONCERT

Fletcher Music Method Well Demonstrated by Young Performers

Some excellent pianoforte playing by children, trained by the Fletcher Music Method, was heard at the Y. M. C. A. Hall, Drummond street on Saturday afternoon when a demonstration and recital was given by the pupils of Miss Jane Ludgate Reid and Miss Henrietta M. Giles.

Several little children gave exhibitions of the method on Saturday. Marching slowly and clapping their hands, pausing at "rests" in the music they showed how time was impressed on them. Then the exercises for the muscles of the fingers "The Bird's Nest," "Nodding," and such like simple names expressing certain movements were demonstrated.

A CLEVER PIANIST.

Douglas Ross, a small boy, showed himself a clever little pianist. His demonstrations of transposition received great applause and his piano solo was quite masterly. Beethoven's Fifth Symphony, first movement, was well played on two pianos by Margaret Louson, Grace Brown, Phyllis Walker and Isobel Baillie.

Perhaps the most interesting item on the program was the "original melodies" by Jean Robertson, Laura Robertson and Jamie Hamilton, the children making up the melodies themselves, and the notes being written down by one of the mistresses. Settings of the old nursery rhyme "Hot Cross Buns," "Jack and Jill," and "Jack Spratt," received great applause.

Little Jean Robins played Nevin's "Shepherd's Tale," with understanding and remarkably good technique. Dorothy Edgar was good in Grieg's "Album Leaf," and Frances Goltman's playing of Gaynor's "Evening Song" and "The Whirlwind" by Jenkins showed a dramatic touch. Lerman's "Russian Peasant's Dance," played by Chester Adams, Kingdon Black and Charles Colby received great applause and a duet "Love Song" from "Faust" by Ruth and Lilian Cole was also appreciated. Frances Winters' playing of Charminade's "Scarf Dance," delighted and surprised the audience. He showed wonderful talent.

LOCAL LAWYERS CANDIDATES FOR MAY'S ELECTIONS

List of Names and Ridings They are Asked to Represent

Local lawyers figure prominently in the slate of candidates in various ridings for the coming provincial elections of May 22. Apart from Sir Lomer Gouin, the Hon. Honore Mercier, the Hon. Jeremie Decarie and the Hon. Walter Mitchell, the following have been asked to run: Thibaudeau Rinfret, K.C., Terrebonne; Leon Garneau, K.C., Chambly-Vercheres; Joseph Archambault, K.C., L'Assomption; Theodule Rheaume, Napierville; Peter Bercovitch, K.C., St. Lawrence; S. W. Jacobs, K.C., St. Lawrence; Bernard Rose, St. Lawrence.

Col. C. A. Smart, former member for Westmount, has cabled acceptance of the candidature in his own riding. Col. Smart is at present with the Canadian Expeditionary Forces, at Shorncliffe. Announcement of the dissolution of the Legislature was forwarded him on Friday together with a tender of the candidature.

In St. Lawrence division, the names of Peter Bercovitch, K.C., S. W. Jacobs, K. C., and A. P. Pigeon, are mentioned as Liberal candidates. Harry Bloomfield has been asked to run in the Conservative interests and has promised to do so if his candidature be endorsed by the party. Bernard Rose has also been asked to present himself as Conservative candidate. Ald. Weldon is also mentioned as opponent of Dr. Finnie.

IN MAISONNEUVE.

At a meeting of the L. O. David Liberal Club, held Saturday, it was decided to tender the candidature for Maisonneuve, anew to the Hon. Jeremie Decarie. A delegation headed by J. A. E. Leclair, the president of the club, will call upon Mr. Decarie in the course of this week.

A meeting of the Laurier Club will take place on the 25th inst., in Lebeau Hall, to confer with other Liberal clubs for the purpose of selecting candidates in the various divisions wherein workingmen are interested.

At a convention of Liberals of Richelieu County, held at Sorel yesterday, M. M. Peloquin, the former member was again selected to be standard bearer in the riding.

Hormisdas Beauchamp, of East Templeton, is regarded as the probable Conservative choice in Ottawa County. Mr. Beauchamp has resided in the county for over forty years and is personally very popular with both French and English.

Other candidatures announced are:

Berthier— Lucien De Grandpre, Liberal; J. D. Gadoury, Conservative.

WANTS BODY LIKE THAT OF ONTARIO FOR WATER POWER

Changes in Provincial Administration Advocated by Philemon Cousineau

The establishment of a body somewhat after the plan of the Ontario Hydro Electric Commission, and the development under provincial authority of certain water powers, in order to provide the public with electric power at cost price and thus force existing monopolies to reduce the present exorbitant rates—such are planks in the Conservative platform, as announced by the Hon. Philemon Cousineau, leader of the provincial Opposition, at a luncheon in his honor on Saturday at Cooper's.

Though Mr. Cousineau declared that the party had not draw up any specific platform, he gave a resume of the numerous reforms which, he said, were imperatively needed at Quebec—the first of these being the routing of Sir Lomer Gouin and his colleagues from power.

Mr. Cousineau was warmly greeted by some 200 stalwarts, representative of the business and professional life of the city. Paul Lacoste, K.C., was the chairman, others at the guest table being the Hon. Senator Beaubien, C. E. Gault, of St. George's; Camille DeMartigny, K.C., candidate in St. Jerome; Ald. Leslie Boyd, K.C.; R. Monty and Papineau Mathieu. Mr. Cousineau's hearers bespoke success for him at the polls on May 22.

PARTY IS READY.

Mr. Cousineau referred to the suddenness of the call for an election, but declared that he and his companions were ready. He then touched upon what he termed the unjust and disloyal attacks made upon his colleagues and himself by certain journals owned by the Beiques, the Wilsons, the Geoffrions, and others. He asked by what right these men presumed to misdirect public opinion in the province. They would, however, be exposed in good time. Despite them, the fight must be fair. Mr. Cousineau expressed the conviction that, notwithstanding the class of men directing the party's destinies, in places, there were still many in the Liberal ranks, who could and would fight fair.

"Gentlemen," proceeded Mr. Cousineau, "you are shortly to be called upon to choose those who are to direct your destinies for the next four years. You are called upon to place in the hands of sixty or eighty men all that you hold dearest, and these men may vote either according to their consciences or against their consciences, without consulting you. All your civil rights, your property rights, and the education of your children are at the mercy of the Legislature."

EDUCATION MATTER.

Mr. Cousineau then reviewed the Gouin Government's administration, beginning with the Department of Education. He declared himself in favor of retaining the Council of Public Instruction, which, he said, was composed of the best elements of the population. He criticized the manner in which huge loans had been put through, in defiance of the limits set by the authorities. "All these deals were engineered by three or four lobbyists, he said.

"For instance," he proceeded, "some time ago one or two brokers had a loan of $150,000 passed for Cote Visitation. The bonds were printed and delivered to these brokers, and they sold them to the banks and got their money. The Cote Visitation School Board did not get one cent of that money. Things were engineered in such a way that Cote Visitation was subsequently annexed to the Montreal Board. Now, it is you business men, you professional men, you workingmen, taxpayers all, who will have to assume this liability. Sir Lomer Gouin, Mr. Lanctot, and the others seek to throw a veil over the turpitude of the school question. Judge Lafontaine, of the Montreal School Board, exults over these annexations, declaring that they show the confidence which the Legislature has in the Montreal Board. Judge Lafontaine, in this connection, as a member of the school board, is but acting as the instrument of his party."

MONTREAL MATTERS.

Taking up consideration of Montreal civic affairs, Mr. Cousineau laid the blame for whatever might be blameworthy, upon the shoulders of the Legislature. All the extravagant expropriations which had increased the debt by many millions, had been engineered between a City Hall clique and a Quebec Legislature clique, he said. Seventy-five per cent. of the expropriations were the result of fraudulent collusion between the powers at Quebec and Montreal, he added.

MAISONNEUVE NEXT.

"I think the time has come when the city of Montreal and the whole province should study the situation seriously, and decide whether or not the present administration is a proper one," continued Mr. Cousineau. "Next year they are going to impose upon you the annexation of Maisonneuve, whether you like it or not. The expropriations of Maisonneuve were put through by a fraudulent act; in Quebec they drew up a schedule and said that Maisonneuve should spend such and such a sum for such and such a purpose. This is the way they do things at Quebec.

"Those who know me know that I am not a demagogue. I know that capital should be protected. It is necessary to attract foreign capital, but there is a limit when it comes to awarding franchises.

"MAKE A CHANGE."

"In the Legislative Council you have Perodeau, representing the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Co.; Perron, representing the Tramways Company. Do you know that for the next five years you cannot have a pole or a light changed on the Island of Montreal? You cannot touch the scandalous franchises such as that of the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Co. These men were well paid for putting them through. Take the franchise of the Canadian Light; all the shares were given gratis to these politicians; they were given just the same as we would give a copper to a beggar. Do you wish this system to continue? It is your business. As a whole, I believe that the Liberal party is as honest as any other, but those who have conducted it for the past ten or fifteen years have not considered the public interest of the province. Now is the time to make a change.

WATER QUESTION.

"Take the question of water power. There is no more water power available, all of the water power of the province is either sold or options have been given. Under proper public administration electric power could be supplied to all industries of the province at cost price, and the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Co. and the Canadian Light should be made to give service at a fair rate.

"In Montreal you have been speaking of a franchise. There are times and conditions when it is good to accord a franchise; we only ask that the franchise be accorded in a fair and reasonable manner.

THE TRAMWAYS.

"When I speak of the Legislature at Quebec doing these things, I mean the boss there and the two or three men who follow him. All these big questions are settled by only a few. It is they who permitted the over capitalization of the Tramways Company to five or six times the value. I don't blame those who profited by this increase, but I do blame the Legislature, the Prime Minister, who should have taken care of the public interest.

"For two or three years past, the tramways service in Montreal has not been very bad, but on big streets like St. Catherine and Bleury there are not the number of cars there should be. The reason for this is very simple; if they can crowd 150 people in a car meant to hold only seventy-five you will understand the economy of the company; this is how they intend to pay dividends on its watered stock."

Rodolphe Monty, Ald. Leslie Boyd, C. E. Gault and Camille DeMartigny, K.C., bespoke success for the party at the coming poll. Mr. DeMartigny advised the party at Ottawa coming to the assistance of Quebec Conservatives and declared that in doing this it would be but advancing its own interests.

FUNERAL OF LATE MADAME DANDURAND

The funeral was held at Outremont Church this morning of the late Madame Oedipus Dandurand, mother of the senator. She died Friday evening at the age of eighty-three. Mrs. Dandurand, who was a widow, is survived by her son, Senator Raoul Dandurand, and two daughters, Madame L. Sicotte and Madame A. Turgeon, both of this city.

The funeral, which was held from the residence on de L'Epee avenue, was largely attended.

CABINET'S SITUATION AWKWARD

All-Round Compulsion Issue on Which Members May Split

LLOYD GEORGE IS UNCOMPROMISING

Influence of Premier in Favor of Other Means is Great

THE MONTREAL STAR OFFICE, 17Cockspur street, London, April 17—Will the Cabinet, as at present constituted, survive today's critical meeting? This question dominates all others. The Ministry is in two groups, Mr. Lloyd George is an uncompromising advocate of all-round compulsion, especially its extention to married men. Three or four other Ministers are understood to share Mr. Lloyd George's view, but Mr. Balfour, Mr. Runciman, and a majority of the Cabinet remain unconvinced that this step is necessary.

They are satisfied with the report of the sub-committee of the Cabinet, consisting of Mr. Asquith, Lord Lansdowne, Mr. McKenna, Mr. Austin Chamberlain, which rejects all-round compulsion and recommends, firstly, the extension of the Military Service Act to all men as soon as they reach the age of 18; secondly, the retention of time expired regulars and Territorials; thirdly, a more vigorous combing out of single men from munition and other war and necessary industries.

Sir Edward Carson's Unionist group in the House of Commons has been putting the utmost pressure on Bonar Law to threaten to leave the Cabinet on the all-round compulsion issue.

Lord Milner moves a resolution in the House of Lords tomorrow to the same effect. Mr. Lloyd George's friends are also urging him to insist on complete compulsion.

But Premier Asquith's personal authority is still so great that the odds are in his favor.

NEED FOR CAUTION IMPERATIVE.

The most powerful illustration need of coution in withdrawing men from any industry is the new crisis created by the accelerated destruction of British and neutral tonnage under the new German submarine policy.

British merchant shipping, has lost two and a quarter million tons in twenty months. The loss last month averaged two ships daily. These losses must be replaced by new shipbuilding, more especially seeing that in a few days' time new German submarines will be ready for further efforts.

At the present rate of shipbuilding, it took three months to complete 20,000 tons less than was lost in one week.

Compulsion Matter for Canada Herself to Decide Says Peer

THE MONTREAL STAR OFFICE, 17 Cockspur street, London, April 12.—Canada's agitation and possible compulsion are being watched with considerable interest here. A Peer who has been closely connected with the Dominion and the Commonwealth gave the following answer to a query by the Star's correspondent: "It is entirely a matter for Canada herself to decide. Personally, I am in favor of compulsion in Britain, but Canada is situated differently and has her own economic future to work out. Relatively, she has done, is doing wonders with voluntary enlistment.

From Major Gen. Turner I have received a message that suggests that, however many men may volunteer in Canada, many more will be needed. His letter was written at time when the Canadians were in the midst of the bitterest fighting since Festubert, and says:—

"What I ask is to keep our battalions up to full strength. It will save putting our men in a false position. Success can never be attained by weak units."

VILLA IS FOUND IN MOUNTAIN

Located by American Officer Following Clash, is Latest Report

ONE U. S. SOLDIER DEAD, TWO WOUNDED

Washington Has No Confirmation of Report of Bandit's Death

By Canadian Press.

WASHINGTON, April 17. — War Department officials announce that none of the overnight despatches or early telegrams brought any confirmation of the finding of the body of Francisco Villa.

Special to The Star by United Press.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 17. — Gen. Pershing left Cusihuirichic, with a cavalry detachment to view the body being brought to Chihuahua, claimed to be that of Villa, it was announced at headquarters today.

Maj. R. L. Howze today reported he had definitely located Villa in the mountains, following a clash in which one American trooper, named Kirby, was killed and two severely wounded.

Howze and his force were making a detour in the region of La Bor northwest of Parral, when they encountered a Villista band. A sharp clash followed, he reported. The Villistas' casualties were not stated.

Shortly afterward Howze and his detachment of the Tenth Cavalry joined in the fight at Santa Cruz, where the American forces had retreated after being trapped at Parral, and aided them in turning back the Mexicans.

Despite the official Mexican advices of Villa's death, there is a disposition at headquarters to await word from Washington or Gen. Pershing to that effect before relaxing the pursuit. Though the War Minister, Senor Obregon, is reported to have received official despatches that Villa had been slain, officers here do not give the report full credence and expect the chase to continue.

AWAITING CONFIRMATION.

By Canadian Press.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Definite information regarding the fate of Francisco Villa is eagerly awaited by administration officials today.

If the bandit chief is dead as reported in unofficial advices from the border, the American troops will be recalled from Mexico at once, according to official announcement.

Latest reports saying that the bandit's body had been dug up from a two-weeks-old grave by Carios Carranza, a nephew of Gen. Carranza and was being taken to Chihuahua City, focuses attention on Mr. Letcher, the American Consul, at that place. Officials look to him to throw light and also promptly to identify the body if possible.

President Wilson and Secretary of War, Mr. Baker, had before them today the first direct official information of the attack on American soldiers at Parral. It was a report from Brigadier-Gen. Pershing, and while it relieved fears that the American cavalry force had been wiped out, it indicated that the incident was far more serious than was at first supposed.

The report said that 300 Carranza soldiers joined civilians in the attack. The casualties were two Americans killed and six wounded, including Maj. Tompkins, slightly wounded, forty Mexican soldiers killed, one civilian wounded.

AMERICANS INVITED.

Special to The Montreal Star by United Press.

WASHINGTON, April 17. Whether American troops were led into Parral for an intended massacre by treachery of whether the mob and Carranza soldiers got beyond control of Gen. Lozano, their commander, was still uncertain today.

Gen. Funston reports he believes Gen. Lozano acted in good faith. At the invitation of a Mexican officer, a place was designated as a camp on the outskirts. As the Americans began to move away from the centre of town to their intended camping place shots were fired from the mob which gathered at their rear.

Unwilling to arouse a general fight, Maj. Tompkins increased the pace of his men. But this merely encouraged the increasing pursuers, and they were joined by many Carranza soldiers, some of whose officers took charge of the attack.

When the railroad was reached Tompkins took refuge behind its embankment and prepared to make a stand. But a Carranza force of 300 men flanked him, and compelled further retreat. From this time on until dark the Americans fought a rearguard action as they retired. When aid reached them they made a stand, and the attackers withdrew.

NEW NOTE DRAFTED FOR DESPATCH FROM STATES TO BERLIN

Special to The Montreal Star by Robert J. Bender, of the United Press.

WASHINGTON, April 17. President Wilson's new note to Germany probably will go forward tonight. It was stated at the White House today that the President had devoted practically all of his attention to preparation of the communication Saturday and Sunday, and expects to put the last work on it this afternoon.

All of the preliminary work has been completed by the Secretary of state, and it is probable the President will not confer with the Secretary of State again before the note is dispatched.

The cabinet already has ratified the substance of the note and there is no necessity for the President to hold it up for a final review of the cabinet tomorrow. It is still held likely that when the communication is completed the President will go over it with the members of the House and Senate Foreign Relations committee. But he has made no request for an appointment with Senator Stone or Representative Flood, chairman of these committees.

Unofficial reports continue to pour into Washington from Berlin, indicating strongly that Germany will go the limit to avoid a break with the United States. It is known that important cable messages have been received from Ambassador Gerard during the last twenty-four hours, outlining the feeling in Berlin on the pending negotiations.

There is, however, no apparent change in the intentions of the Government to go ahead with its policy to bring to an immediate head one physical action by Germany, proving beyond any question of doubt her desire to keep faith and friendly relations with the United States.

NO UNCONDITIONAL CESSION

Special to The Montreal Star.

WASHINGTON, April 17. Germany is ready to make counter proposals or discuss a compromise on the submarine issue, but will not yield unconditionally any American demand implying a radical modification of her methods of submarine warfare. This, in a nutshell, represents the present attitude of the German Government, as Ambassador Gerard at Berlin understands it.

Friends of President Wilson say he fully realizes this and has reached the conclusion that further diplomatic negotiations are useless.

Count Von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, spent most of the day in the country and shows no outward concern over the situation.

London Expects Near-Ultimatum

By Canadian Press.

LONDON, April 17—The relations between the United States and Germany, for the first time in several months again occupy a leading place in the day's news here. The newspapers this morning all publish prominently the latest tidings from Washington regarding the probability of a new note to Germany, amounting virtually to an ultimatum.

Several of the newspapers print long editorials, in which they declare that the end of the patience of the United States has at last been reached and that a rupture of diplomatic relations is virtually certain.

A column of space is devoted in most of the newspapers to reproducing an address to the people of the Allied nations, just received "from New York." It bears the signatures of five hundred Americans, including college presidents, public men and other notables.

The document declares at great length: "We believe the welfare of that civilization for which Germany has done so much demands that in this conflict Germany be defeated."

The Daily Telegraph, in discussing the present tension in the United States, reaches the conclusion that the passive "benevolence of neutrality, relative with Germany to active intervention on behalf of the Allies might prove short and easy."

"Public opinion in America," the newspapers adds, "though still far from unanimous, is certainly more disposed to support a strong line by the President than at any previous moment since the war began."

TWO MORE SHIPS SUNK BY PIRATE TEUTONS TODAY

By Canadian Press.

LONDON, April 17. Two vessels of a neutral nation have been torpedoed by German submarines today. The Norwegian steamship Gladstone was sunk in the English Channel and the British steamer Inverlyon, which was unarmed.

The Gladstone, which was sailing from Antique, Chile, for Cork, was built in 1891 and owned in Christiania. Her gross tonnage is about 1,918.

The Inverlyon was overdue at Marseilles on April 2. She was built in 1904 as a cargo vessel, but has been built in 1914 for a Japanese company. She was 385 feet long, of 4,300 tons gross.

More American Lines Endangered

Special to the Montreal Star by United Press.

WASHINGTON, April 17. One American was wounded by shrapnel and another escaped uninjured when the Russian barque Imperator, from her laden, Gulfport, Miss., to Marseilles, was fired upon and then captured by an Austrian submarine on April 11, the U. S. consul at Patras has reported today.

The wounded man is Gustave Olson, whose brother is foreman of the street garden Furniture Company of Minneapolis; the other American, Axel Swennson, whose father is band leader of the Coast Artillery at Fort Warren, Bostin.

The Consul's message said:

"The Russian barque Imperator, with a cargo of lumber, from Gulfport, Miss., to Marseilles, was three times shot at by cannon, without warning, one taking effect. She was subsequently set afire by an Austrian submarine.

This occurred on April 11, near the Columbrede islands. Two Americans, one Swede, one Greek and one Russian were on board."

American Among Missing Seamen

LONDON, April 17. One or two Americans have been among the passengers who perished when the British steamer Inverlyon was torpedoed off Gastnet last Tuesday, according to two American survivors, Alan Ross, of Lake City, Va., and Wm. Gerreson of Philadelphia, who reached Liverpool today. George Ameringer thought at least one American was among the missing seamen, but was not sure.

FRENCH AIRMEN BOMB HUN WARSHIP, RAILWAY STATIONS AND CAMPS

Bombs Dropped on Ship From Height of 300 Feet — Bulgar and German Positions on Salonika Front Attacked—Picked German Troops Faced Canadians at St. Eloi—French Hold Ground Gained at Verdun

By Canadian Press.

PARIS, April 17.—Raids by two French aerial squadrons stationed on the Saloniki front are reported in a Havas despatch from Athens. One squadron dropped bombs yesterday morning on Bulgarian forces assembled at Strumitsa station. The other attack was made on German positions at Bogdantze. Both squadrons returned undamaged.

Special Star Cable by United Press.

PARIS, April 17.—A French aviator dropped sixteen bombs from an altitude of only 100 yards on the decks of a German warship in the North Sea, the War Office announced this afternoon. The French plane flew so low that it is believed the bombardment had a good effect.

Aviators were active last night on the Verdun front and east of the fortress, despite the heavy fog. French air squadrons bombarded the railway stations at Conflans, Pagny, Arneville and Rompach.

HUNS BOMBARD FRENCH LINES

Special Star Cable by United Press.

PARIS, April 17. German artillery directed a violent cannonade against French positions on the west bank of the Meuse last night, but there were no important infantry fights on the Verdun front, the War Office reported today.

The bombardment was particularly violent in Avocourt wood, where the Germans have been shelling French works heavily since Saturday morning on Dead Man's Hill and in Cumieres wood.

The French maintained their positions on the east bank of the Meuse where a sudden charge on Saturday night resulted in the capture of German trench positions south of Douaumont, with 200 prisoners.

The night was calm on this front, excepting south of Haudremont, where artillery on both sides was active.

CANADIANS FOUGHT PICKED TROOPS

THE MONTREAL STAR OFFICE, 17 Cockspur street, London, April 17.

That in the recent fighting the Canadians were up against some German picked troops was gathered from prisoners. Confirmation is obtained by the publication in the Times today of the ordre de bataille of the German troops opposed to the British front.

It shows that at St. Eloi the Germans have the Thirteenth active corps and the Twenty-third reserve corps. The former were picked for their dash for Paris at the time of the battle of the Marne, and that latter were among the troops that came to Von Kluck's rescue when the Allies were trying to turn his flank.

In an excellent article accompanying the map, the military critic, Col Repington, shows that the troops opposite us are at least as good as, and perhaps better from the point of view of training, than those assailing Verdun and, to quote him, "these German armies hold a series of positions which are better than ours from the point of domination, facility, and observation. They are also provided with a strong force of heavy guns.

"We must regard it as a tribute that, the Germans, though short of troops to provoke a decision elsewhere, feel compelled to mass such important forces on our front. We have no option but to suppose the German headquarters anticipate serious operations in the north."

"Later in the article there is this significent sentence:

"We read inspired articles which give a hundred reasons why we should not have the men we need but none to tell us how we can win without them.

"All this talk of holding the balance, between trade and victory is sheer moonshine.

The latest news from the Canadian section is that the grenade fighting and artillery duels are continuous.

ROLAND HILL.

Special to The Montreal Star from Our Own Correspondent.

OTTAWA, April 17. That the battle of St. Eloi ranks well with St. Julien and Festubert, not only in the effective work of the Canadians but also in the severe losses sustained by our troops, is indicated clearly in the casualty lists which have been received by the Militia Department following the recent battle.

The aggregate up to this morning was 944. This is made up of 227 killed in action, sixty-three died of wounds, 600 wounded, fifty-one seriously ill and three missing.

EASTER BIRKS 1916

A Ladies' Hand Bag

IS AN IDEAL EASTER GIFT SUGGESTION

FASHION dictates as many varieties in the style of Hand Bags as she does in wearing apparel. The prevailing vogue is a bag of small or medium size, well shaped, and although inconspicuous, it becomes nevertheless a distinct addition to a toilette.

A Birks Hand Bag, by the name it bears, impersonates highest quality and, at the same time, is an actual selection from the latest offerings of the fine leatherware markets of London and New York.

The range of these bags is very widely priced, from $3.50 upwards—in fine leathers and silks only.

PUPILS' PLAYING IS INTERESTING IN GOOD CONCERT

Some excellent pianoforte playing by children, trained by the Fletcher Music Method, was heard at the Y. M. C. A. Hall, Drummond street on Saturday afternoon when a demonstration and recital was given by the pupils of Miss Jane Ludgate Reid and Miss Henrietta M. Giles.

Several little children gave exhibitions of the method on Saturday. Marching slowly and clapping their hands, pausing at "rests" in the music they showed how time was impressed on them. Then the exercises for the muscles of the fingers "The Bird's Nest," "Nodding," and such like simple names expressing certain movements were demonstrated.

A CLEVER PIANIST.

Douglas Ross, a small boy, showed himself a clever little pianist. His demonstrations of transposition received great applause and his piano solo was quite masterly. Beethoven's Fifth Symphony, first movement, was well played on two pianos by Margaret Louison, Grace Brown, Phyllis Walker and Isobel Baillie.

Perhaps the most interesting item on the program was the original melodies" by Jean Robertson, Lura Robertson and Jamie Hamilton, the children making up the melodies themselves, and the notes being written down by one of the mistresses. Settings of the old nursery rhyme "Hot Cross Buns," "Jack and Jill," and "Jack Sprat," received great applause.

Little Jean Robins played Nevin's "Shepherd's Tale," with understanding and remarkably good technique, and Dorothy Edgar was good in Grieg's Sol Album Leaf," and Frances Goldman's playing of Gaynor's "Evening Lering" and "The Whirlwind" by playenkins showed a dramatic touch. Blackman's "Russian Peasants Dance," played by Chester Adams, Kingdon Black and Charles Colby received great applause and a duet "Love Song" from "Faust" by Ruth and Lilian Cole was also appreciated. Frances Winters' playing of Charminade's "Scarf Dance," delighted and surprised the audience. He showed wonderful talent.

WANTS BODY LIKE THAT OF ONTARIO FOR WATER POWER

Changes in Provincial Administration Advocated by Philemon Cousineau

The establishment of a body somewhat after the plan of the Ontario Hydro Electric Commission, and the development under provincial authority of certain water powers, in order to provide the public with electric power at cost price and thus force existing monopolies to reduce the present exorbitant rates such are planks in the Conservative platform, as announced by the Hon. Philemon Cousineau, leader of the provincial Opposition, at a luncheon in his honor on Saturday at Cooper's.

Though Mr. Cousineau declared that the party had not draw up any specific platform, he gave a resume of the numerous reforms which, he said, were imperatively needed at Quebec—the first of these being the routing of Sir Lomer Gouin and his colleagues from power.

Mr. Cousineau was warmly greeted by some 200 stalwarts, representative of the business and professional life of the city. Paul Lacoste, K.C., was the chairman, others at the guest table being the Hon. Senator Beaubien, C. E. Gault, of St. George's; Camille DeMartigny, K.C., candidate in St. Jerome; Ald. Leslie Boyd, K.C.; R. Monty and Papineau Mathieu. Mr. Cousineau's hearers bespoke success for him at the polls on May 22.

PARTY IS READY.

Mr. Cousineau referred to the suddenness of the call for an election, but declared that he and his companions were ready. He then touched upon what he termed the unjust and disloyal attacks made upon his colleagues and himself by certain journals owned by the Beiques, the Wilsons, the Geoffrions, and others. He asked by what right these men presumed to misdirect public opinion in the province. They would, however, be exposed in good time. Despite them, the fight must be fair. Mr. Cousineau expressed the conviction that, notwithstanding the class of men directing the party's destinies, in places, there were still many in the Liberal ranks, who could and would fight fair.

"Gentlemen," proceeded Mr. Cousineau, "you are shortly to be called upon to choose those who are to direct your destinies for the next four years. You are called upon to place in the hands of sixty or eighty men all that you hold dearest, and these men may vote either according to their consciences or against their consciences, without consulting you. All your civil rights, your property rights, and the education of your children are at the mercy of the Legislature."

EDUCATION MATTER.

Mr. Cousineau then reviewed the Gouin Government's administration, beginning with the Department of Education. He declared himself in favor of retaining the Council of Public Instruction, which, he said, was composed of the best elements of the population. He criticized the manner in which huge loans had been put through, in defiance of the limits set by the authorities. All these deals were engineered by three or four lobbyists, he said.

"For instance," he proceeded, "some time ago one or two brokers had a loan of $150,000 passed for Cote Visitation. The bonds were printed and delivered to these brokers, and they sold them to the banks and got their money. The Cote Visitation School Board did not get one cent of that money. Things were engineered in such a way that Cote Visitation was subsequently annexed to the Montreal Board. Now, it is you business men, you professional men, you workingmen, taxpayers all, who will have to assume this liability. Sir Lomer Gouin, Mr. Lanctot, and the others seek to throw a veil over the turpitude of the school question. Judge Lafontaine, of the Montreal School Board, exults over these annexations, declaring that they show the confidence which the Legislature has in the Montreal Board. Judge Lafontaine, in this connection, as a member of the school board, is but acting as the instrument of his party."

MONTREAL MATTERS.

Taking up consideration of Montreal civic affairs, Mr. Cousineau laid the blame for whatever might be blameworthy, upon the shoulders of the Legislature. All the extravagant expropriations which had increased the debt by many millions, had been engineered between a City Hall clique and a Quebec Legislature clique, he said. Seventy-five per cent. of the expropriations were the result of fraudulent collusion between the powers at Quebec and Montreal, he added.

MAISONNEUVE NEXT.

"I think the time has come when the city of Montreal and the whole province should study the situation seriously, and decide whether or not the present administration is a proper one," continued Mr. Cousineau. "Next year they are going to impose upon you the annexation of Maisonneuve, whether you like it or not. The expropriations of Maisonneuve were put through by a fraudulent act; in Quebec they drew up a schedule and said that Maisonneuve should spend such and such a sum for such and such a purpose. This is the way they do things at Quebec.

"Those who know me know that I am not a demagogue. I know that capital should be protected. It is necessary to attract foreign capital, but there is a limit when it comes to awarding franchises.

"MAKE A CHANGE."

"In the Legislative Council you have Perodeau, representing the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Co.; Perron, representing the Tramway Company. Do you know that for the next five years you cannot have a pole or a light changed on the Island of Montreal? You cannot touch the scandalous franchises such as that of the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Co. These men were well paid for putting them through. Take the franchise of the Canadian Light; all the shares were given gratis to these politicians; they were given just the same as we would give a copper to a beggar. Do you wish this system to continue? It is your business. As a whole, I believe that the Liberal party is as honest as any other, but those who have conducted it for the past ten or fifteen years have not considered the public interest of the Province. Now is the time to make a change.

WATER QUESTION.

"Take the question of water power. There is no more water power available, all of the water power of the province is either sold or options have been given. Under proper public administration electric power could be supplied to all industries of the province at cost price, and the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Co. and the Canadian Light should be made to give service at a fair rate.

"In Montreal you have been speaking of a franchise. There are times and conditions when it is good to accord a franchise; we only ask that the franchise be accorded in a fair and reasonable manner.

THE TRAMWAYS.

"When I speak of the Legislature at Quebec doing these things, I mean the boss there and the two or three men who follow him. All these big questions are settled by only a few. It is they who permitted the over capitalization of the Tramways Company to five or six times the value. I don't blame those who profited by this increase, but I do blame the Legislature, the Prime Minister, who should have taken care of the public interest.

"For two or three years past, the tramways service in Montreal has not been very bad, but on big streets like St. Catherine and Bleury there are not the number of cars there should be. The reason for this is very simple, if they can crowd 150 people in a car means to hold only seventy-five you will understand the economy of the company; this is how they intend to pay dividends on its watered stock."

Rodolphe Monty, Ald. Leslie Boyd, C. E. Gault and Camille DeMartigny, K.C., bespoke success for the party at the coming poll. Mr. DeMartigny advised the party at Ottawa coming to the assistance of Quebec Conservatives and declared that in doing this it would be but advancing its own interests.

BOYCOTT TO SPELL FATE OF GERMANY

The More Frightfulness She Uses, the Heavier Will Be the Cost

WILL BE FORCED TO GIVE GUARANTEES

With Allies Controlling Three-Fifths of World, Germans Helpless

Special Cable to The Montreal Star by J. L. Garvin. (Copyright 1916.)

LONDON, April 17.—The Assembly of the Economic Congress of the Allies in Paris marked a new stage in thinking about the war as well as an epoch in human history.

I doubt whether anything in this struggle more deserves the profound attention of opinion in the United States, or is more significant for the whole future of civilization, or gives brighter promise that a better order of the world will emerge from all the horrors of a vast catastrophe.

The forces which will insure the overthrow and final suppression of Prussian militarism are economic forces. The guarantees for the stability and long duration of the world's peace when at last re-established will be trade guarantees. Against this universal influence all the efforts of frightfulness will be as important as blows at the air invisible. I might put it another way and say that Thor and his hammer will be overshadowed by the gigantic weapon of the international boycott.

On this subject the Germans themselves are losing their last illusions, and every careful reader of the German press has watched uneasiness deepening into dismay.

GERMAN SELF-DEFEATING.

Unless the enemy in the next six weeks can work some miracle of achievement on the eastern front or at sea, his efforts, as at Verdun, must become a self-defeating process. He can only deprive himself more and more severely of the main objects for which he set out to fight and even of the chief advantages which he enjoyed and exploited before the war. Among his misgivings the age of innocence will never return.

Even in Europe and throughout the British Empire only a minority has yet fully awakened to the scope and significance of the new methods.

We think that in the end the United States will take a hand in them. It is certain that with the possibility of peace come in sight and the faith of treaties has to be guarded against future violation by arbitrary aggression, the United States, without moving a man or a gun, could bind Germany over to good behavior.

At Paris the Allies will take steps which make Germany's outlook hopeless unless she makes such concessions for peace and consents to a total change of policy and practice.

WALLS EVER CLOSING.

Otherwise Germany will strike the prisoner in Poe's grim tale, shut up in the iron dungeon with the ever closing walls. What the Allies talk of excluding Germans from their markets and refusing all intercourse with her, unless she consents to full measures for restitution and security, think what it means.

The flags of the Allies cover more than half the globe and three-fifths of its total population. The British and Russian Empires alone account for the great bulk of those vast totals. Without looking closely into works of reference, I can hardly be substantially in error when I seek to express the fact in round numbers.

The Allied Governments rule over some 900,000,000 of mankind. They will shortly control an area amounting to some 2 square units—sixths of the earth's land surface. When Gen. Smuts finishes his brilliant campaign in East Africa, not a vestige of Germany's Colonial dominion will remain. It will be all added to the territories of the Allies. They will hold all Africa exclusively as Australia. They envelop Europe all round.

KAISER'S DREAM WILL FADE.

In Asia, the operations now on hand, in the sphere of the Baghdad railway, will cause the Kaiser's dream of Asiatic dominion to fade like a mirage, nearly twenty years after that most sanguine and disastrous of dreams appeared in the Holy Land. A cross between Parsifal and a commercial traveller.

Taking margins during the next six weeks, German ambitions will be cut off on the land routes to the East as completely as at sea. The Central Empires, counting Bulgaria's hazards, subject, dismembered types to the Allies. Shorn of navy and import, as regards Asia Minor and Persia, and Turkey, will dominate more or less not a twentieth part of the area controlled by the Allies and not a fifth part of the population.

The Allies can do without Germany. Nay, they can more rapidly promote their own mutual development by isolating Germany.

They have in their own possessions every basic element, mineral and material, required for modern production and exchange. By a system of trading among themselves and with neutrals apart from all truck or traffic with Germany and her confederates, the Allies in a few years could make themselves more prosperous than before the war.

WILL APPLY SCIENCE.

In any case, they will one and all develop a high organization for applying science to manufacture and agriculture. In no case will any of them be as dependent on German science as in the past. Without them Germany can never recover anything like her former place at any rate as she gives solid guarantees for peace based on the faith of treaties. Her shipping will be excluded from the Allies' ports throughout the world.

It is absurd to think that indeed no able business man in Germany or Austria any longer thinks that the Central Empires can thrive on the wreck of their own petty area any more than the camel can exist on its hump by absorbing its own substance. Germany cannot do without the Allies or their markets, products or ports. Our enemy must submit to everything rather than the long run ruin to the blood of being reclassified as trader with the Ostensibles of the world's population and the Pariahs of the world's territories under the Allies' flags. No force can compel your neighbors to do business with you. Business can only continue if it is made much to their interest than now.

HELPLESS BEFORE BOYCOTT.

Krupp bowitzers, submarines, poison gas, liquid fire and every destructive device of frightfulness that the Devil's arsenals and laboratories can supply are impotent against the international boycott. It can be made as powerful in the twentieth century against all who threaten the peace of civilization based on the inviolable faith of treaties as was excommunication and interdict in the middle ages.

The whole setting on to Kaiser's Nemesis and one of the strongest examples of punishment in the world's history. No plagues of Egypt, no Job's here. No frightfulness.

[illegible] selves bound in the way the prospect will be their punishment. [illegible] of direct indemnities will have to be paid at exceptional interest. Much outrage will appear to a very different light when it comes to involve all the cost in shedding [illegible] loss.

Before the war Germany enjoyed two advantages infinitely more valuable than all the conquests she has since made. These advantages were free trade with the United Kingdom for 1870 to [illegible] her own commerce and carriers. She had [illegible] reduced for her own home market and enabled to enjoy, but instead of being grateful for this unique favor she despised us for the insular folly on which she throve.

GOLDEN DAYS GONE FOR GERMANY.

[illegible] the British Empire [illegible] Germany's [illegible] the [illegible] the [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Costly Imagination

As a rule sailors are at once the bravest and yet the most superstitious of mortals, and many men of brains are illogical on one or two subjects. Human nature is full of contradictions.

How many men have paid exhorbitant prices for imported cigars? Thousands, but the number is much less since the introduction of the

Goodyear Tubes Increase the Mileage of Your Tires

Tube leaks and punctures lead to under-inflation, to sudden shocks on the fabric. In the same way good tubes—Goodyear Tubes—will allow your tires to give you maximum service, and minimum annoyance and trouble.

Always Properly Inflate Your Tires

Proper inflation will insure greater mileage from your tires. Use this Goodyear inflation table. The column of figures under each size of tire is the number of pounds load on each wheel. The figures at the extreme left are the proper pressures for the size tire used under the load opposite that pressure. For example: a 30 x 3½ tire under a load of 515 pounds should have air pressure of 50 pounds. The underlined loads are the ideal for the respective sizes of tires.

Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company of Canada Limited

Toronto - Ontario

Look for the Name Goodyear When You Buy Tubes

It is of as great importance to you to have the name of Goodyear on your Tubes as it is to have Goodyear on your tires.

Each gives the greatest service when used with the other.

Each, whether used together or separately, gives greater service and greater value than other tubes or other tires.

Economical Service

Buy Goodyear Tubes when you buy Goodyear Tires, for the tubes too are built for greatest service at the lowest cost.

In Goodyear Tubes we have perfected a process of construction that eliminates the causes of common tube troubles and produces a tube of extra strength and extra thickness.

Built Layer on Layer

Layer on layer of thin, flawless rubber are built up into Goodyear Laminated Tubes. These sheets are then vulcanized into a perfect whole.

By using these thin sheets of rubber we are able to detect and reject every flaw, every imperfection. These flaws cannot be detected in a tube made from one piece of thick rubber.

So these tubes are leak-proof—leak-proof everywhere, for even the valve patch is vulcanized into the tube, not cemented on.

Also Goodyear Tubes are extra thick—averaging 14 per cent. thicker than formerly.

Again, they are always grey—the natural color of pure vulcanized rubber that is unadulterated.

Yet Goodyear Tubes cost about the same as others, and they offer the extra advantages of better service, longer service, and lower tube cost.

Our High Standard Maintained

If you use Goodyear Tires you know that they render extra service at lowest cost. Goodyear Tubes do the same.

If you use neither Goodyear Tires nor Tubes, let the tubes prove to you that Goodyear quality in both is a real advantage.

GOULDING WAS REVELATION TO ROCHESTER FANS

Special to The Montreal Star.

ROCHESTER, N.Y., April 17.—Thirty-nine members of the Toronto Central Y.M.C.A.'s track team, and the leaders' corps met Rochester in a return athletic meet with the team of the Kodak City Saturday night. The walking of George Goulding in a mile special event was a revelation to the people of Rochester.

Matched to walk a mile against three of the best of the local pedestrians Goulding soon had the first walker lapped when a Rochester man was introduced, who proved to be a better runner than walker. He was rapidly overhauling and practically on the heels of the champion, when the latter opened up a magnificent burst of speed, literally flew along the track, passed his man, and finished in the splendid time of 6.3 only six seconds behind the world's record.

Rochester won the sprints and the relay, while Fitzgerald of Toronto won the standing broad and Marshall the running high. Mike Kidney, the big Toronto policeman, outdistanced all his competitors with a put of 41 feet 4 inches in the shot put, and for a man who weighs close to 200 lbs. made the remarkable time of 5 feet 4 inches, tieing with Strohan of Rochester.

The team that represented Central and won the basket ball game, reminded one by the game work up of the team which for so many years won for Central the championship of Canada. The whole team played a nice combination, but it could not excel the Rochester team. A. McLean shot baskets from all angles, while Reyburn played a great defensive game, as did Co[illegible] half that he was on. Desta[illegible] a stellar game at centre.

Wa[illegible] Offered $[illegible],500, Says Wenck; No Money Present

NEW YORK, April 17.—Fred A. Wenck, chairman of the State Boxing Commission, yesterday afternoon emphatically denied the story attributed to him in a morning paper, to the effect that he had refused an offer of $1,500 from Tex Rickard.

"The statement does not contain one particle of truth," stated Wenck. "A reporter came to this office and asked to examine a number of fight club leases. This I readily granted but did not say a dozen words to the man.

"I have the highest regard for Mr. Rickard and do not believe he would even attempt to offer a man in my position a bribe. I do not understand how any paper could print such an article without an investigation, as it does not contain an atom of truth. This I wish thoroughly understood."

Tex Rickard was located at the Waldorf-Astoria, and laughed at the story. "Why should I offer the chairman of the Boxing Commission, or any one else $1,500? I conducted the bout in a legal manner, there was no occasion for me [illegible] owing my money about [illegible] such fashion. There is no truth in it."

The story in question [illegible] quoted Wenck as follows:

"Jack Curley acted as go[illegible] between," said Wenck. "He brought $1,500 to me saying it was a present from Rickard. I sent the money back to Rickard and informed him that I would have nothing to do with it.

"Of course, it was intended merely as a present. Besides it wasn't all for me. Some of it was to be distributed among the sporting writers. You see they boosted the fight and had a right to share in the pres[illegible]

GOLF TOURNEYS LIKELY TO BE CANCELLED AGAIN

From present indications it is probable that the Canadian Golf Association will again postpone both the Canadian open amateur and professional championship tournaments this year. The professional golfers, it is understood, will also cancel their professional tourney.

Although all the big matches have been called off, club competitions will likely be in order and local enthusiasts are looking forward to a busy season.

The warm weather of the past week has resulted in the disappearance of the snow from the different courses, and Saturday many took advantage of the opportunity to try out their old clubs again.

Quite a number of players journeyed to the Dixie links on Saturday, while Outremont, Kanawaki and Beaconsfield also were visited over the week-end. The Outremont course is generally the first to open, as it is hilly and dries out very quickly. This year was no exception to the rule and many friendly matches were staged during the week-end at the old nine-hole course.

The Royal Montreal Club and the Beaconsfield Club allowed their members to play over certain parts of their courses and many took advantage of the opportunity to swing their clubs again in the open air. It was a delightful week-end for golf, and the players made the best of it.

MINOR LEAGUE LOOSES ON KAUFF

Special to The Montreal Star.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The National Commission has denied the claim for $10,000 against the Giants for the services of outfielder Benny Kauff, which was presented some time ago by the Indianapolis Club of the American Association.

Kauff was the property of the Hoosiers, so far as the reserve clause of a baseball contract goes—when on August 28, 1914, they contracted to sell him to the New York Nationals. The management of the Giants was to pay Indianapolis $10,000 for Kauff's services, provided he was retained after May 1, 1915. In case Kauff was not retained he was to have been returned to Indianapolis.

Kauff, who refused to comply with the terms, played the season with the Federals.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Ed. Wolgast, former lightweight champion, will aid Ever Hammer in training for a bout at Milwaukee next Monday with the title holder, Freddie Welsh.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Johnny Coulon, ex-bantamweight champion, will try another comeback April 25, when he meets Johnny Ritchie at Kenosha.

WESTERN LADIES' SWIMMING CLUB WILL MEET TONIGHT.

A meeting of the Western Ladies' Swimming Club will be held tonight at the home of Miss Hardman for the purpose of organizing other sports. The Western Ladies' Swimming Club, composed of some of the best all-round lady athletes, and it is most likely that they will form an athletic club.

M.A.A.A. CLASSES IN PHYSICAL TRAINING OVER

At the M.A.A.A. Club House Saturday night, the closing exercises of the physical training classes took place, a large number of members and their friends participating. The entertainment took the form of a general review of the year's work under the direction of Miss Gladys F. MacCullum and W. P. Armstrong, instructors.

The program was a varied one, in which all the classes took part, three of the numbers being provided by the men and boys and the other seven by the ladies and girls. The junior girls gave a demonstration of Swedish gymnastics and also the Knap Danse and Cochin China, while the ladies and senior girls went through their usual class work, including club swinging, balancing beams, marching and apparatus work and the Mazurka and Barn dances.

The business men gave a fifteen minute demonstration of their regular class work, as well as the senior boys, while one of the features was the junior boxing class in drill and individual exhibitions held in a boxing ring formed by boys holding the ropes at each corner. The [illegible] most successful one [illegible] and the snappy [illegible] drills were carried [illegible] painstaking [illegible] during the [illegible]

During [illegible] in the program Mr. John Da[illegible] president of the association, [illegible] the ladies who won the Tropiles [illegible] the swimming races, aggregate [illegible] were given, Miss M. Tiffin [illegible] winning the first, Miss Jessie [illegible] the second, and Miss F. Barwick the third.

Watching the Score Board

Tris Speaker hit his batting stride yesterday. The former Red Sox star slammed out a double and two singles for the Indians.

Ty Cobb got a double and a single.

St. Louis kept the Cubs run column clean. The Bruins have gone 27 innings without a tally. Hal Chase broke back into the big league with a screaming two bagger and a single.

The White Sox just could not keep it up. After taking three straight from the Tigers, they broke under a stiff lashing by the St. Louis Browns.

Veach, Detroit, batted a thousand. He whaled the leather for three doubles and a single.

There were two extra inning games. The Indians won out in the tenth from Detroit and the Cardinals duplicated with the Cubs.

The Pirates added Otto Knabe, former manager of the Baltimore Federals to their list. Knabe will report at Chicago Thursday when Pittsburg opens the local season.

Proposition to Play Tennis by Electric Light

At the annual gathering of the tennis club at the M.A.A.A. club house Friday night recommendations were made by the outgoing committee that further privileges be granted the lady members in being allowed to play certain nights during the week, and that the lighting of the courts for play at night be considered, were made at the annual gathering of that club, in the Peel street clubhouse last night.

The past season was one of the most successful ever experienced by members of the Winged Wheel, 230 members competing in the two tournaments held during the summer. Several members among them C. Beckett and H. R. B. Armstrong, have enlisted for active service during the past season. The following officers were elected:

Hon. president—J. M. Miller.
President—J. P. Angus.
Vice-president—J. W. Brodie.
Hon. secretary—S. Saunders.

RESULT OF SHAM. CAMPAIGN TO BE OUT TONIGHT

Large and Interesting Meeting Expected in the Clubhouse on St. Urbain Street This Evening When Amount Collected Will Be Announced

(By James T. Power, Secretary S. A. A. A.

There is no doubt but that the Shamrock Club House, 197 St. Urbain street, will be packed to capacity this evening by an [illegible] attendance, the meeting for the election of officers and to hear the result of the campaign just closed. As the election of officers for the lacrosse club will be held previous to the general meeting, the evening will go down as one of the busiest in the history of the association.

The result of the campaign will not be known until this evening as returns have not all been made to the treasurer as yet, but from present indications, it is safe to predict that the amount subscribed will not reach anything like the amount expected or necessary to place the association in the condition in which it was hoped to be able to do. It is quite possible that the teams who have not as yet made their returns will bring a big surprise with them when they [illegible]

The following are a few more of the subscriptions received:

G. Maxwell Sinn	$250.00
Rev. [illegible]	50.00
A. Clerical [illegible]	50.00
Murray & O'[illegible]	25.00
[illegible] Hughes	25.00
Canadian [illegible] Co.	25.00
[illegible] McVey	25.00
Ambros[illegible] Brien, of Ottawa	25.00

Ald. Tom O'Connell was in Ottawa the other day, he was approached by W. J. McCaffrey, an old Shamrock lacrosse player, who was anxious to know how the campaign was progressing, and incidentally contributed his share to the fund. "Surely the folks down home will not allow the old club to go out of existence after the glorious record they have made for themselves," he said.

Martin Breslin, caretaker at the Mile End grounds 'phoned the Secretary the other night and told him not to mail his cheque for this month's salary, but to apply it to the campaign fund.

"Thanks Martin. You have a knack of doing the right thing at the right time."

G. Maxwell Sinn left no doubt as to his admiration for the Shamrocks in contributing the handsome sum of $250. This gentleman has been a close watch on everything Shamrock for a number of years, and was one of the very first to promise aid to the association should an appeal be made.

Members interested in the lacrosse club are requested to be on hand at 8 p.m. to night for the annual meeting of that club at which will be elected the officers for the coming summer.

Team No. 1, captained by Harry McLaughlin, has turned in the largest amount up to last reports. Harry says: "They numbered my team rightly. I intend to lead at the finish." "Look out Harry, your old friend Tim Slattery has something to say about that."

Every member having the interest of the association at heart should make a special effort to be on hand tonight. Needless to say the business to be transacted is of the utmost importance.

Jack Allan, now of the 199th Irish Rangers, met the secretary yesterday and handed him his contribution to the fund. "We want this organization to be very much in existence when we return," said Jack, "and here's my little share to its upkeep."

TERRIER CLUB WILL HOLD SHOW AT THE PELLICO CLUB TONIGHT.

The Terrier Club of Montreal will have one of its interesting little shows this evening in the Pellicoe Club on University street, just below Cathcart.

Airdailes are the principal feature of the program for this occasion.

Three Tied for Lead in Pocket Billiard Tourney

A perusal of the standing of the contestants for the City Pocket Billiard championship, now in progress in the Belmore Billiard Hall, elicits the fact that no less than three are tied for first place. A. Courteau, the ante-choice to dethrone the present titleholder, faltered badly in his game against Edmond Pelletier last week, thus causing the calculations of the pocket billiard fans to go awry.

Paul Bellehemer, the present titleholder, will clash with Romeo St. Jean, when play will be resumed tonight. It is now the consensus of opinion that Bellehemer will be awarded the championship emblem, for he has clearly demonstrated that he is the master of all contesting his title.

Player:	W.	L.	H.R.
A. Courteau	3	1	26
E. Pelletier	3	1	31
P. Bellehemer	3	1	36
R. St. Jean	1	3	37
C. Behrer	1	3	27

Fitchburg Bars Exhibition Between Lanky Bob and Son

FITCHBURG, April 17.—Bob Fitzsimmons and son were prevented from boxing at the Fitchburg A. A. Chief of Police A. Q. Thayer announced this afternoon that he would prevent the bout if it should be held, threatening to have officers on hand and use force if necessary, besides making arrests. The promoters decided it would be unwise to disobey his word.

The show was to be given under the cause of a physical culture demonstration by the lanky ones, father and son. The elder Bob was to lecture on the glories of the ring, not omitting his own, and then was to demonstrate his famous shift and prove that his boxing partner was a chip of the old block. A bout between Petey de Lucca of Boston and Dave Powers of Malden was also scheduled, and Bob, the elder was to referee this.

Boston Boxers for Canadian Bouts at Coming Week-End

Special to The Montreal Star.

BOSTON, April 17.—When the Canadian Amateur Championship comes up for decision next Friday and Saturday night, three Boston boxers will be in the contest. Tony Vatlin, former National Amateur champion and runner-up in this years titular bouts will compete in the 115 pound class. Tom Darcy, New England and National champion will try his hand in the 108 pound class and Pat McCarthy, the 175 pound National champion will compete in his class against the pick of the Canadian boxers.

The Boston delegation is the classiest trio of fighters developed in this part of the country in years. Darcy won his title, after two nights hard campaigning and it was the same with McCarthy. The trio were tried and not found wanting and the Canadian Amateurs will encounter plenty of stiff opposition from the boys who are expected to bring to the Hub International Boxing honors.

BOXING BRUTALITY CHARGES DISPROVED

An eminent reformer who is now engaged in an effort to convince the public that modern glove bouts are as brutal as the slaughters of the Roman arenas in ancient times has resorted to statistics in an effort to prove his charges. Here is his contention:

"The greatest argument that prize fighting is barbarous and brutal is the fact that 177 men have met death in the ring, or as the result of ring battles, since the advent of pugilism in 1758."

Thus, by his own figures, the eminent reformer shows that in 158 years but 177 fatalities took place in the ring, and during the greater part of the time the London rules, admittedly brutal and vicious, were in force.

The yearly average is therefore a fraction more than one, which, considering the strenuous character of early ring contests, is very small.

In quoting figures, the eminent reformer is hoist with his own petard, for if boxing deserves to be abolished because of fatalities, then several other forms of rough sport should be stopped instanter.

Accurate figures of deaths in sports for the past ten years, 1905 to 1915, show that 255 persons met death in baseball, or a yearly average of more than 28.

For the same period of time 215 football players were killed, a yearly average of more than 21.

In automobile racing 128 were killed, a yearly average of 12, while in boxing for the decade between 1905 and 1915, 105 met death, a yearly average of a fraction more than 10.

Therefore if boxing is brutal and deserves abolition, then the other sports referred to are atrocious and should be wiped off the map unceremoniously.

BOSTON, April 17.—Three of the Hub's premier amateur boxers will go to Toronto for the Canadian Amateur Championships next Friday and Saturday. Tony Vatlan, 115; Tom Darcy, 108; and Pat McCarthy, 175, all local champions, expect to cut a wide swath through the pick of Canada's simon pures.

Columbia Football Trophy for Player with Best Standing

New York, April 17.—Football was the topic of discussion before the University Committee of Athletics at Columbia yesterday, and several important matters regarding the season of 1916 were acted on. The freshman gridiron schedule, which consists of five games, the reappointment of Ted Withington, All-American player, as assistant coach of the varsity, and a new plan to encourage good scholastic work on the part of the members of the eleven were announced.

The committee accepted the offer of the class of 1913 to donate a cup to the player on the varsity football team next Fall who, in the opinion of the faculty, maintains the highest scholarship record during the first semester. This cup is to be placed in the trophy room in Earl Hall and the name of the winner each year will be engraved upon it. A suitable parchment will be presented to each man who wins the cup, the presentation to be made on Alumni Day, February 12.

NOAH TIMMINS IN DEAD HEAT

A dead heat between Noah Timmins and E. McGarr in the 40 yards senior free style, was the feature of the opening series of spring swimming handicaps of Loyola College, held in the M.A.A.A. tank Friday afternoon. Timmins started from scratch, while McGarr had a two-second start. When the event was swam off, Timmins defeated McGarr by a narrow margin.

The results were as follows:

40 yards, free style—1, N. Timmins (scratch); 2, E. McGarr (2 seconds); 3, E. Downes. Time, 21 seconds.

60 yards, junior — 1, W. Quirk (scratch); 2, H. McGarr (8 seconds); 3, T. Carlin (3 seconds). Time, 51 seconds.

CANADIANS MADE GOOD SHOWING AT PITTSBURG

Special to The Montreal Star.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 17.—Two members of the Toronto boxing team won their bouts from representatives of the Pittsburg Athletic Association Saturday night by knock-outs in the first round.

Joe Burke, the visitors' heavyweight, had been half pushed and half knocked to the floor by George Hook, the local heavyweight, who knocked out Sheridan, the National champion, just after the bout started, and looked like a sure loser, but he recovered, and sent a hard right to the Pittsburger's jaw. Hook went down and was counted out.

Danny Johnson, of the visiting team, finished Colaianni in even quicker time. The men sparred for an opening for a few seconds, and then Johnson shot his left to the body, drawing the local man's guard down. Quick as a flash, the visiting boxer drove his right over and Colaianni was counted out.

The Canadians were also the winner in the 125-pound class. Newton outpointed Conrad in three rounds.

This gave them three out of the seven bouts; they were robbed of the bout which would have made them the victors in the tournament. Frank Ball clearly outpointed Fama, of Pittsburg, in the first three rounds, but the judges disagreed and the fourth round was fought.

Again the speedy little Canadian appeared to have the best of the argument but award went to his opponent. The crowd showed its displeasure of the judges' decision.

FRANKIE FLEMING BEAT LEO VINCENT

PHILADELPHIA, April 17.—Frankie Fleming defeated Leo Vincent, a candidate for featherweight honors, under the management of Harry Pollock, here Saturday. Fleming had the best of every round.

He showed greater ability, and is a much harder hitter than Vincent. This was the second match won by Fleming in a week. He leaves New York for Montreal on Thursday to commence his training for his bout with Eddie Wallace for the benefit of the 163rd Battalion, a French-Canadian regiment. Fleming is fighting better now than at any time during his career.

FORMER SCRAPPER GOES TO PULPIT

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., April 17.—Former welterweight champion Jack Cardiff has received a call from the Eighteenth Street Methodist Church, New York.

Cardiff, who has just started his own evangelistic tour at Rib Lake, Wisconsin, writes friends in Atlantic City that he will probably accept, and also visit Philadelphia and the resort on his trip east. The Chicago boxer gave up the fight game five years ago upon "hitting the trail" for Billy Sunday.

He cancelled flattering contracts at the time for theatrical engagements and bouts from 1911 to 1917 which had brought fancy incomes. Cardiff joined the Sunday camp as trainer, and later went with Evangelist Henry W. Stough, studying with both for his anticipated personal work. He plans an unlimited campaign both here and abroad.

CITY LEAGUE'S RESERVE LIST IS NOW GIVEN OUT

The reserve list of players as taken over from last season amongst the City Baseball League clubs, has been given out by President Chamberland, and appear in these columns.

So far most of the players have fallen into line, in connection with playing on the percentage basis, it was the only hope of putting the City League on a solid basis, and it is absolutely up to the players to co-operate with their respective clubs in this respect.

The City League officials are confident before another season rolls around the local organization will be just as strong as any of their sister leagues across the border.

The chances are President Chamberland's choice for umpires in the opening games will be Harry Tompkins and Geo. Park. These two officials did fine work throughout last season.

A new umpire by the name of Walker will most likely be given a try-out before the season is far advanced. His application is now in President Chamberland's hands. The new comer has had considerable experience in the States.

Malcolm Fraser, the Indians' crack twirler, will manage Monty Killby's team this season. The tall twirler is very popular with his team mates and the move seems a splendid one.

The local players are in hopes of starting their work-outs this week end, both Fletcher's Field and Lafontaine Park are fast drying out.

Art Ross and Coy state that the trophy to be given the next champions of the City Baseball League will be a very handsome one. The Reach ball is the official one this season.

With the extra half hour allowed, if the one-thirty game should end in a tie, City League officials do not expect to have many drawn games this season.

The championship will be decided on percentage, so any postponed or drawn games will not be re-played.

Benny Bates, who covered second base last season for La Casquette, is back in town after spending the winter in western Ontario; he will again turn out with the Northenders.

If Dame Fortune will only hand out a nice warm day on April 30, the City League officials expect to see a record attendance for local ball at their opening games.

Athletics meet Nationals, while the Indians tackle Crescents in the opening double-header.

Geo. Bruneau, who played for Nationals last season, has been transferred to Crescents, and will figure in their outfield.

The Stars are in hopes of having both Odie and Sprague Cleghorn turn out with them before the season opens; they along with Art Ross were the mainstay of the Stars some seasons ago.

Following is the reserve list of players in Montreal City Baseball League:

Crescents—J. L. Fish, U. Paquette, E. Crutchley, R. Cutter, O. Major, F. Grannary, J. Jacobs, L. Webster, W. Whelan, E. O'Sullivan, A. Jette, J. Morin, C. Curtis, W. Rowan, C. F. Patterson, W. Miller, R. Guillaume, R. S. Smith.

Athletics—A. Mullen, S. Holstein, H. Clement, G. Burden, J. Flynn, U. Rose, F. Harney, J. McGranahan, N. Brown, E. Thompson, E. Brown, J. Briggs, M. Watson.

National Ind.—E. Morin, L. Duplessis, L. Carmel, D. Sabourin, L. Bardier, L. Vandurand, L. Lamothe, G. Rochefort, F. Ashton, J. Paquette, J. David, P. Lafrance, C. Levesque.

La Casquette—E. Crevier, H. Shean, L. Dumphous, A. Genereux, H. Sampson, G. Bates, D. Price, E. Payette, B. Bates, N. Moffat, A. Duchesnil, P. Heffernan, J. Moffat, H. Cooper.

Indians—S. Nelson, E. Lariviere, J. M. Malcom-Fraser, G. Canadien, F. Landers, J. A. McIntyre, T. Shean, F. McMorrow, H. E. Miro, H. Hannaford, W. Heillig, A. Campbell, C. Delorimier, A. James, R. Davis.

Stars—E. Cline, T. Buell, C. Stewart, F. Leurgans, M. E. Carver, R. Clarke, C. Kavanagh, P. Archambault, L. Velac, R. Mallen, L. Aucoin, W. Waddell, E. Rice, E. Pelland, E. Kirwin.

WHAT ABOUT LACROSSE IN SCHOOLS?

TORONTO, April 15—The Globe says: Last season a crusade was started in the public schools to form lacrosse teams and give the school children a chance to play the national pastime. Some good work was accomplished, but those behind the movement should not let the interest die out this summer, and thus have all their good work spoilt. So far, nothing has been heard as to the intentions for lacrosse among the school boys this summer. It has been rumored that there is no one interested enough to keep the ball rolling, and that, although some games may be played, no effort will be made to enlarge upon last year's efforts.

If such is the case, it is to be regretted. The school boys took kindly to lacrosse last summer. Not only those who played last season, but many others, are anxious to play this summer, but there will be no interest unless there is some organization and something at stake. If those who were interested in lacrosse in the public schools last year do not intend to further the movement, it would be better if they announced so.

As stated some days ago, an effort is now being made to revive the Toronto Lacrosse League. The intention is to boom the game among the youngsters. Those included in this class are mainly those who attend the public schools, although if the league is reorganized there will probably be teams other than those from the schools entered.

If the Public Schools' League does not intend to operate this summer, why not give the Toronto League a chance to assist the school teams? As it is, the pupils will be attending school for only about a month during the season when lacrosse is played, while for the two months during the summer holidays they will be free to play when they choose. There seems little us of having the school teams play for a month only if the intention is not to keep the game going during the summer holidays. If the Toronto League had charge of the school teams they could start the games early in June and keep them going for three months or even more.

CHARLIE QUERRIE RAPS THE UNJUST SPORTING CRITICS.

Charlies Querrie writes in the Toronto News.

Because the professional lacrosse players in the East and also in Toronto a year ago decided to play the game for nothing with a view of reviving the interest seems to have caused quite a number of people to get the hammer out. Even now when the veterans of Montreal and Ottawa are going to play for the fun they get out of it causes some of these so-called amateurs who never did anything unless they were well paid, to understand that there are a few people who will get out and help along their favorite sport without remuneration, especially when they have received money for their services in the past.

Alley Bowling

OTTAWA, April 17. The Nationals of Montreal, carried of the five man championship the feature event of the bowling tournament here Saturday, when they rolled 5129.

The Ottawas finished second with 5078 to their credit. Canadiens were also well up. Adelard Archambault captured the grand aggregate and individual cross alley purse, while Artz and Bradley won the doubles with 2086 to their credit. The high singles went to J. S. Campbell with 264. The visitors were guests after the tournament at the Printers' League reception, which marked the close of the O.A.A.C. The latter has been taken over by the Dominion government and will be cut up into offices for the auxiliary branches of the Militia Department.

Soldiers Must Be Athletes

NEW YORK, April 17—Col. Foote of the Fourteenth Regiment issued General Order No. 6 yesterday, calling the members of the regiment together at the armory Saturday night "for athletic instruction and competition." The order is in line with the scheme for compulsory athletics adopted recently by the regiment.

A four mile hike in heavy marching order will be the feature of the program. Hannes Kolehmainen and Frank Zuna are among those expected to take part in the plod around Prospect Park. Frank Stephenson will compete in the sprinting events. Wall scaling and the manual of arms will hold the attention of other members of the regiment. All those who do not take part actively in the events will be required to act in the capacity of officials; in other words, everybody will have something to do. Major Donovan is director of detail in connection with the games. Lawson Robertson, coach of the track men, will help him.

PROSPECTS FOR THE BIG BOSTON MARATHON RACE

Special to The Montreal Star.

BOSTON, April 17.—America's greatest of long distance running events, the American Marathon, will again be the feature of the many athletic activities scheduled for patriots' day, Wednesday. Notwithstanding the absence of local runners, it is expected that nearly seventy-five starters will gather at Steven's Corner, Ashland, on Wednesday, noon, and begin a grind that is likely to result in some fast going.

By going to war Edouard Fabre, the Frenchmen from Canada will not have the one desire of his life satisfied. He won the event last year, and gave one of the finest exhibitions of long distance running ever furnished by a winner, even if he did not break the record of Mike Ryan a few years ago. Fabre had his mind set upon repeating the performance of Jack Caffery, of Hamilton, who has the honor of being the only runner to ever win the race twice in succession. Fabre announced at the finish of the race last year he would not only return this spring, but would again appear in 1917, despite the fact that he is the oldest athlete to win the event.

Fabre's time last year was 2 hours 31 minutes and 41 1-5 seconds, and but for the conditions, which were on a par with those of the day when Henri Renaud, of Nashua, N.H., a native of Rimouski, Que., won, the performance was thought to be the equal of the record time of 2 hours 21 minutes and 18 1-5 seconds by Mike Ryan, in 1912.

CORKE7RY'S CHANCE.

Canada is to send only a few men, but in Jim Corkery, of the Sportsmen's Patriotic Club, of Toronto, the Northern country has a worthy representative. The course is not new to Corkery, he having competed in several races. Corkery's greatest victories were secured in 1911, when he won the Hamilton Spectator Marathon, and in 1912, when he defeated the best long distance runners of England before he ran at the Swedish Olympic championships, in which event he was beaten by the late Jimmy Duffy, the first Canadian to finish at Stockholm, and who recently gave up his life in the European war.

There is some talk of protest if Corkery runs. He is in a peculiar position. To all intents and purposes he is an amateur, but he recently ran a mile against Tom Longboat, who is a professional. This race was for patriotic purposes, both being corporals in the Sportsmen's Battalion, of Toronto, which is training for overseas service, but according to Norton Crowe, secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, Corkery cannot, as the result of his race against Longboat, run in any more amateur races.

ROYALS NOT UP TO MARK, SAYS HACKETTSTOWN

Special to The Montreal Star.

HACKETTSTOWN, N.J., April 17.—Manager Dan Howley's Royals performed here Saturday afternoon in a game with a nine composed of semi-professionals gotten together by Dave Driscoll, of New York, and nosed out a victory by the close score of 5 to 4.

The game was not a midsummer exhibition by any means, and it became very listless. Hackettstown fans don't want that kind of ball. It lacked pep from start to finish.

In the line-up of players for the Royals were Smyth, l.f.; P. Smith, c.f.; Wagner, 1b; Fullerton, 2b; Cathers, 3b; Hannford, ss.; Devine, c.

Both Cadmore and Marshall were in the pitchers' box, and the visitors touched them up for eleven hits, one a home run. Manager Howley covered centre field.

The battery for the visitors was Jimmie McGarry and Tex, formerly with Washington, N.J., in a local Tri-County League. They allowed sixteen hits, but these were scattered. The Rain God who has vied with the Snow King ever since the Royals opened their training camp let up for a spell, and the diamond was in good condition for the try-out. Manager Howley is hoping for clear weather this week, that the few remaining days of training here may be used in getting peps the players before they leave here Thursday for Baltimore. The registration now shows fifteen players at the training camp.

GOING TO OTTAWA TO ENQUIRE INTO MILITARY STORES

Charges regarding the manner in which regimental supplies have been handled in the West, made in the course of a sermon by the Rev. Dr. Bland, of Winnipeg, at Port Arthur, on March 26, are to be investigated by Sir Charles Peers Davidson, who will travel to Ottawa tomorrow to open an investigation.

Dr. Bland subsequently declared that, as far as he knew, the officers of the various regiments had done nothing wrong, but that excessive prices had been paid for military stores and supplies. Dr. Bland and the inspector of stores will be among the witnesses heard in Ottawa. Sir Charles will proceed to Winnipeg if other evidence is to be taken.

The investigation was started by Sir Robert Borden and the Hon. Robert Rogers, who saw a report of Dr. Bland's sermon in a newspaper.

SHORT COURSES TO LEARN AGRICULTURE

In spite of the unusually severe weather on the prairies during the past two months, the winter short course Schools of Agriculture and household science reported excellent attendance.

In Alberta, a train of specially filled cars was supplied by the Canadian Pacific Railway, holding three day sessions at each of ten places, the total attendance being 3,310, composed of 2,275 men and 1,035 women.

In Saskatchewan, a series of lectures of from two to five days was given at thirty-one places.

In Manitoba, four schools of a more permanent character were held at Morden, Rolsseevan, Virden and Neepawa, at each of which a fully six weeks course of instruction was given in the various branches of agriculture and household science.

IS PROTESTING AGAINST CLUBS SELLING LIQUOR

With the regular licensed hotels and restaurants disposed of, John H. Roberts, secretary of the Dominion Alliance, has now declared war on the clubs. Tomorrow, before the License Commissioners, he will oppose the granting of licenses to eighteen clubs, as follows:

Standard Club, 80 St. Antoine street; Business Men's Club, 28 McGill College avenue; Lithuanian Withhold Club, Inc., 1044 St. Catherine st. east; The Crescent Baths, 586 Dorchester st. west; Cosmopolitan Political Club, 478 St. Lawrence boulevard; Union Club, 394 St. Lawrence Club, 303 St. Christophe st.; Montcalm Club, 1 Lezean street; Olympique Club, 382 St. Dominique street; Lyon Club, 17 Phillip square; Musicians' International Club, 341 Cadieux st.; Arawanna Club, 187 Bridge street; Utopia Club, 176 St. Antoine street; Point St. Charles Social Club, 1 Richmond st.; Italo-Canadian Progressive Political Club, 318 St. Lawrence boulevard; Pellico Club, 325 University street; Roma Commercial Club, 67 Osborne street, and the Theatrical Club, 310 St. Urbain street.

Seen by The Star this morning, Mr. Roberts said the club problem in Montreal was grave. He said:

"I do not complain about bona-fide clubs, except that on principle I object to their selling drink. What I do protest against is the counterfeit club, which does not conform to the demands of the Quebec License Law.

"I wonder the members and committee of the real clubs of the city do not energetically protest against the continued licensing of such places. In the end the bad club will destroy the whole club system. The curse of the club system I am discussing is that it provides an open saloon when the other saloons close. The original purpose of the club has been lost sight of in the cases of three out of every four clubs in Montreal. Instead of being centres where members could foregather for recreation and social intercourse, these counterfeit clubs are 'booze-joints.'"

The Shoes A Man Should Have

The Proper Footwear for Each Occasion

TO appreciate real comfort, and in the interest of economy, you should have at least two pairs of shoes on "active service." These, of course, in addition to dress or sporting shoes.

Give your shoes a day's rest. Wear them a day, then put them away on trees for a day. By this method your feet will also enjoy, as it were, a day's rest.

Shoes properly fitted will wear longer, look better, and be more comfortable, than poorly fitted shoes.

Be sure your shoes are of the proper width. When the vamps are stretched over the sole, it is evident that the shoes were not properly fitted. And you cannot get good wear out of an ill-fitting shoe.

When you go into an INVICTUS shop, insist on being supplied with shoes that correctly fit your feet. INVICTUS shoes are made in a wide variety of shapes, in sizes and widths to fit practically any foot except a very abnormal one.

The attention to the fitting qualities in INVICTUS shoes, is equalled only by that given to the selection of the materials. When you buy INVICTUS shoes you expect quality. You know that leather, like almost everything else, has advanced in price, so you will realize that to get the same quality, comfort and fit, as INVICTUS shoes have always given, you are likely to pay a trifle more for them in the future.

INVICTUS shoes, although costing a great deal more to make, have really risen very little in their price to you. It is quite evident however, that any manufacturer failing to raise his prices, must adopt the alternative of lowering his quality of his shoes. This alternative will never be accepted by the makers of INVICTUS shoes; so not only for comfort but for the sake of economy as well, it is to your interest to buy two pairs now and wear them on alternate days.

Your nearest INVICTUS shoe store can supply you with the shoes you need for spring and summer. To be forewarned is to be forearmed—BUY NOW.

THIS week all over Canada, Invictus Agents are celebrating Invictus week.

¶ New spring and summer models will be displayed, and to these exhibits you are cordially invited.

¶ Coincident with this announcement I desire to emphasize the enhanced value of good footwear due to the advances, ranging from 15% to 200%, in the cost of raw materials. Invictus Agents have endorsed our action in moderately advancing the prices of Invictus Shoes by continuing to buy them. This confidence should assure you of the maintained high quality of Invictus Shoes. It should do more—it should suggest to you the advisability of specifically asking for "Invictus" when you require satisfactory footwear.

FARMER BROWN'S BOY MAKES AN EARLY VISIT.

By Thornton W. Burgess.
(Copyright, 1916, by T. W. Burgess.)

Reddy Fox knows when other people are too smart for him. As soon as he saw that Mrs. Quack was taking the greatest care of her family too near the edge of the Smiling Pool or the Laughing Brook, Reddy knew that she was wise to the ways of the Great World. Indeed, to her stomach as the easiest way to get the pleasure of eating tender, helpless young ... uncomfortable for them to see ... else eating when they are ... yourself and have nothing ... they were just out of the ... knew by the way ... they meant to keep out of reach. They didn't know ... this he was sure. ... was equally sure ... intend to take any risks.

Still he remained ... that for just a little minute ... them might forget ... At last they finished ... Then they sailed ... broken-down ... Black Shadows ...

"Take my advice and stay right here," said he.

... by Farmer Brown's boy. But Mr. Quack wouldn't be ... the ... and ... Laughing Brook to the ... Big River. ... quite as likely ... as not to go right into danger ... those ... grass, dotted ... of weed and bush ... Take my advice and stay right here," said he. Not others with ... Reddy ... "They never ... in the wide world. And think of ... to hear for yourself. If you don't ... Good-by."

I guess Reddy was right," said Mr. Quack. I don't see anything else to do. I could fly and I'm not very strong yet, though since I've had something to eat I feel a great deal better. If any hunters do come, you can fly away, my dear, and I'll hide under the bank of the Laughing Brook where the alder bushes hang over. I hope Jerry is right and no hunters will come, for I like the Smiling Pool."

Just then Sammy Jay came flying over to see how Mr. and Mrs. Quack were. He perched in the top of a Big Hickory tree, and when he found out what they were talking about he advised them just as Merry Mink had. Sudden he stopped talking and looked hard across the Green Meadows. "I declare," said he, "I believe Farmer Brown's Boy is coming over here to bring you some breakfast!"

Instantly Mrs. Quack was in a terrible fright. "There is nothing to be afraid of," said Sammy. "He hasn't got a gun."

But this didn't relieve Mrs. Quack a bit. She hurried Mr. Quack up into the Laughing Brook and saw him safely hidden. Then she swam back to the Smiling Pool and there rose into the air on her stout wings and headed toward the Big River. Farmer Brown's Boy saw her.

"That duck certainly is wild," said he to himself. "I thought perhaps I could steal near enough to have a good look at her, it being so early in the morning. I thought I might catch her at breakfast." Then he saw Sammy Jay, and he knew who had warned Mrs. Quack.

A Smart Coat for the Little Folk

By MAY MANTON

Price 15 Cents.

8997 (With Basting Line and Added Seam Allowance) Child's Coat. 2, 4 and 6 years.

Here is one of the newest and most practical coats for little children. It incorporates the fashionable shoulder cape. If this generosity of the cape at the front be made a simpler garment by the omission of the cape and by the use of a belt. Again there is a choice of a round neck or a neck with high collar, consequently the model is a good one both for the cool days of the spring and for the warmer days of the coming summer. For the spring, it would be pretty made of corduroy or broadcloth, or of alpaca or taffeta. For the summer it could be made of linen or of silk of bengaline or of bedford cord.

For the 2-year size will be needed 3¼ yards of material 36 inches wide, 2⅜ yards 44, or 1⅞ yards 54 inches wide.

The pattern 8997 is cut in sizes for children from 2 to 6 years. It will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper, on receipt of fifteen cents.

WHAT GIRLS MAY DO

BY JESSIE ROBERTS

A PUZZLED MOTHER WRITES.

Dear Mrs. Roberts, will you kindly help me? ... girl just ... to graduate from High School this year. ... a college preparatory course, but there seems to be nothing ... that a girl can do except go ... and that she cannot afford ... has to earn money right away. ... A Puzzled Mother.

Why not take a college preparatory course? ... to college ... The trouble with so many girls ... that all your school training is ... to consider that there is no point ... to learn anything later. If your ... daughter is ... at once ... should make ... when she graduates ... can help ... to work ... Slowness ... You tell me ... of her inclinations or abilities, ... I suppose she has no special ... or ... in any branch of work. ... a business course ... she can ... to a ... and there is plenty of opportunity in banking, but she must work out her apprenticeship without earning anything except her board and keep first. Also she should be attracted to nursing.

She can take a business course in night school. That would leave her free to learn something in the day. It is a pity for her to learn something that will give her a salary. Even at the cost of some sacrifice she should not be left without a chance to study any vocation that promises to suit her.

If she cannot do this, you might place her at a milliner's and let her learn to make hats. There is a future in work of this sort if she has taste.

A college training is often of little importance, but definite training in some direction should be given every girl unless she is to be handicapped all her life. You should look round carefully for some opening that will offer a future. Let her make less money at first, maybe, if she gets the chance to learn a trade or a profession.

any rate, I would not be on view for several weeks. Try that and see if it doesn't produce some result.

M. REDMOND.

Thank you for your letter, but you do not ... mean what ... the paper ... Would ... please write ... with ... more definite information.

DYEING CREPE DE CHENE.

I noticed in a recent Star that a young lady asked if she could dye a blouse, and the answer was Crepe de Chene does not dye well. I hope you won't be offended at me in writing this. I dyed two white Crepe de Chene blouses, one salmon pink and the other khaki, and both dyed very well.

To settle and steamroot would you please tell me if brass beds are going out of date. As ... they are not, R. says that they are and are much cheaper.

I have a flowered velvet collar on a coat. (the color is yellow) would you please tell me what would clean it.

SMILEY.

Ans.—(1) I'm not in the least offended, Smiley, but I used exactly the same dye on a crepe de chene blouse as you used, and it was a miserable failure. Perhaps you're a better dyer than I am. Also I asked two professional dyers and they both said: "We never guarantee Crepe de Chene, and always hesitate to undertake it," so it is evidently a gamble, and you happened to be successful.

(2) They are not as fashionable as the wooden beds at present and they seem to be cheaper in the shops.

(3) Rub powdered French chalk well into the collar. Leave for a day or two, then brush out. Repeat, if necessary.

SHE IS SHY.

(1) How can I get rid of enlarged or open pores?

(2) What can I do to make myself more lively? When I get out with a bunch of boys and girls I seem to have nothing to say. I know I am too quiet, but it seems I cannot help myself, perhaps it is because I am alone quite a good deal.

(3) Don't you think that majority of young men take more to girls that are talkative?

(4) When out with other boys and girls and they are carrying on, or flirting you may say, they seem to make fun of me because I will not follow their example. What am I to do? I cannot do it.

(5) What can one put on their arms to make the hair less conspicuous?

(6) In being introduced to a young gentleman is it necessary to shake hands?

"BLUEBIRD."

Ans.—(1) Bathe your face in witch hazel and use cold water always for washing.

(2) Make up your mind to enter into the spirit of things. It is a case where you are the only person who can help yourself.

(3) Some men. (4) Don't do it.

(5) A teaspoon peroxide and a teaspoon ammonia to a cup of water will bleach the hair.

(6) No.

SELF-CONSCIOUSNESS.

What can one do for self-consciousness and embarrassment?

B. E. L.

Ans.—Your explanatory letter gives one much food for thought. Why not make your home a centre for your young friends? Don't you think your mother and grandmother would enjoy young society also? I do not think it is necessary for you to give up all your fun for the reasons you give. The only way for you to overcome these faults is by the exercise of your own will and self-control. This will certainly be helped by freer intercourse with young people of your own age. I really think there is nothing harder to overcome than a lack of social training and the only way to get it is by going out and by entertaining.

SUBURBAN RESIDENTS.

The Grand Trunk Railway System will run a special train on Good Friday, April 21st, leaving Montreal at 1:30 p.m., arriving Vaudreuil at 2:30 p.m. Returning, leave Vaudreuil at 4:30 p.m., arriving Montreal at 5:25 p.m., stopping at intermediate points. This service is to give suburban residents an opportunity to visit the summer resorts along the lake front, with a view of arranging for their summer homes. Train leaving Montreal at 12:09 p.m. and Vaudreuil at 1:25 p.m. for Montreal, will not run on Good Friday.

TODAY'S HOUSEHOLD AFFAIRS

By Mary Lee.

A correspondent writes: "You spoke in one of your articles about food of children and mentioned carrots, baked bananas, baked apples, custards, and such things as being especially good. My little boy is very delicate and I cannot persuade him to eat any of the things mentioned. Is there any way of preparing these things so that he may be tempted to eat them?"

"We scurried around, and through consultation and contribution secured the following suggestions, which we hope may delude Sonny sufficiently so that he may eat the despised viands and not know what they are:

"Wash and scrape carrots, and grate the outer red portions into a bowl. Season this pulp with salt, moisten with cream, and heat very hot in a double boiler. Place in a baking-dish, cover with crumbs, and brown in the oven. For variety this may be baked in individual ramekins, and the little dishes often please the child.

"Peel the bananas, dip in lemon juice, and roll in fine sifted crumbs. Place in a baking pan and bake for fifteen minutes in a hot oven. Serve with whipped cream sweetened and flavored with cinnamon. Or here is another way: Remove the skins from the bananas, and cut them in halves lengthwise, and place in a shallow granite pan. Mix two table-spoonfuls of melted butter, one-third of a cupful of sugar and two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice. Baste the bananas with half of the mixture. Bake twenty minutes in a slow oven, basting from time to time during the baking with the remaining mixture. Serve with whipped cream."

Apples—"Make a syrup by boiling for eight minutes one and one-half cupfuls of sugar and an equal amount of water. Wipe, core and pare sound red apples. Put them in the syrup as soon as they are pared, so that they may not discolor from standing; cook in a deep saucepan so that the syrup may cover them; when soft drain the apples from the syrup, cool, fill the core cavities with jelly or marmalade, and pour over all the syrup in which the apples have been cooked. A fluff of whipped cream may top off the whole if desired.

"Make a custard by mixing the yolks of three eggs, one-half cup of sugar, one pint of hot milk, one-half teaspoonful of vanilla, one-eighth spoonful of salt. Allow to cook until creamy, then pour over a slice of stale cup-cake or other simple cake."

We shall hope to hear that Sonny ate these without a whimper of recognition.

Ans.—Why not fill it with some of your own home-made marmalade or jam to return it?

PURITY.

Thank you, for your letter and your interest in this page.

When I was sick a lady friend sent me a self-sealing jar filled with a delicacy. Would it be a breach of etiquette to return the jar when empty?

THE WAR.

ON THE TIGRIS.

SIR Percy Lake reports progress in his struggle against both the Turks and the weather to reach the beleaguered British garrison at Kut-el-Amara. The Tigris is in flood, and the swampy country that lies about its course is more impassable than usual. The time chosen for forcing his way up the river is almost the worst possible, so far as natural conditions go; which suggests the unpleasant thought that the choice has not been a free one. Some imperative necessity must whip him on. They have been calculating in London that the garrison at Kut may be in a bad way; and this may be the reason why Sir Percy is now fighting the swollen river and the extended swamp areas as well as the Turks.

It is of vital importance that the British force at Kut be relieved especially if peace should be coming, as some so confidently predict. It would never do to have a British force captured by the Turks in Mesopotamia. The blow to British prestige throughout the whole East would be shattering. If it should occur, the British would be almost bound to continue the war for the sole purpose of retrieving their reputation for invincibility. Possibly the reason why more vigorous efforts were not made earlier in the season to drive through the Kut, was that the relieving expedition expected that the Russian peril in the north would call off the Turkish troops. But the Turks seem to have heavily reinforced their whole Asiatic army, and not to have weakened their grip upon our trapped soldiers on the Tigris.

* * * * *

AFTER TREBIZOND.

The Russians are still making progress in their fight for Trebizond. The Turkish reinforcements here, which were intended to take the aggressive, have been unable to hold the defensive, and Trebizond is in greater danger today than ever. Constantinople admits sinking the "Portugal," a Red Cross hospital ship, claiming that its submarine took it for a transport. This is quite in keeping with the German claim that they took the "Sussex" for a mine-layer. Both excuses finally damn the whole submarine campaign. If a submarine commander cannot tell a hospital ship from a transport or a Channel ferry from a mine layer, obviously he cannot be permitted to "sink at sight" on his own unreliable judgment.

As the Americans are getting ready to say, the most solemn and specific assurances are worthless unless they are subsequently lived up to. Murder is a crime which cannot be pardoned because the murderer pleads "I did not mean to do it." This is overwhelmingly true when the murderer repeats his crime and even repeats his excuse. We should shut such a murderer up for the public safety, even if we believed him. To make the case more nearly a parallel, we may imagine a man indulging in revolver practice in a work-yard, and seeking to excuse occasional killings in the neighborhood by the plea that he thought he was sure to hit the target and nothing else. The police would infallibly forbid the continuation of his revolver practice—if they did nothing more.

DOES ROUMANIA EXPECT PEACE?

Roumania brings us a sign of peace—from the German point of view. She has made a trade bargain with the Central Empires, caused her commerce to be cut off by Russia, permitted (we are told) the release of Austrian troops from the Transylvanian frontiers, come to an understanding with Bulgaria and Turkey, and now summons new recruits to the colors, and authorizes an internal loan. If these reports are all true, it looks as if Roumania were getting ready to enter the war; and no one imagines that Roumania will enter the war until she is satisfied that the fighting is about over. Then it is her custom to march in to secure her share of the loot. Thus she carved out quite a nice reward for herself at the close of the two Bloody Balkan Wars, practically without firing a shot. Hence it is a fair inference that, if Bucharest really means to move now, Bucharest thinks that peace is near at hand. But if she means to move toward Bessarabia, she will get plenty of fighting—and no reward. Possibly she only means to sidle up to the Central Empires with a view to keeping them from wanting to reward Bulgaria at her expense.

SIR SAM AND THE KYTE CHARGES

SIR Sam Hughes is to make his statement in reply to the Kyte charges in the House tomorrow. This will be only preliminary to the investigation before the Royal Commission, but it will indicate the line which is to be taken by the Minister of Militia.

There will be a general and generous hope throughout the country that bluff Sir Sam will come out of the affair with untarnished reputation. This does not mean for a moment that the country will want the investigation to develop blindness at any point, or to apply the whitewash brush to anybody. The charges are most grave and disquieting. If they are proven, every Canadian will hang his head in shame—and some Canadians should be compelled to hang by their heads, at least metaphorically. We are for a full, fearless and unlimited enquiry.

But it is only the simple truth that the immense amount of good work which has been done by Sir Sam since the war swept down upon us with so sudden and stunning an onset, has won him a host of friends and well-wishers, who were profoundly sorry to see his name mentioned in this connection, and who will rejoice greatly if he comes out of the business with untouched honor and clean hands.

MR. ATKINSON ON "LIBERALISM"

MR. J. E. Atkinson, the manager of our western namesake, the Toronto Star, reminded the Reform Club of this city on Saturday, in an excellent address, that the name of the political party they profess to support, has a meaning of its own. The term "Liberal" should, his argument ran, be more than a label. It should bear some relation to the policies of the party to which it is attached. In saying this, Mr. Atkinson put a sure finger on one of the humors of Canadian public life. Our parties pay precious little attention to their labels. Like the old lady who put a sign "Hot Pies" over a stone-cold collection of the same, they could plead: "But that is only the name of them."

Mr. Atkinson wanted his party to prove itself Liberal by taking up Old Age Pensions and Mothers' Pensions. This paper has advocated Old Age Pensions for years. And we are free to say that about the only comfort we ever got from Parliament in this campaign came from men who wore the label "Conservative." But, of course, that means nothing. There never was a riper Tory in Canada than the late Sir Oliver Mowat, and there probably is not a more progressive Liberal today than Sir Adam Beck. Looking at the present front benches at Ottawa, it would puzzle a newcomer to tell how he should allot the traditional labels, "Liberal" and "Conservative." If he were a keen observer, he would probably compromise the job by applying "Opportunist" to both.

Any slight earthquake shocks which may be noted during the next forty-eight hours should not cause needless alarm. General Sir Sam Hughes is going to reply to the Kyte Shell Committee charges in the House.

Mr. Robert Hazelton, correspondent of Senator Choquette, who was mauled by a Toronto mob last night, is another who will now subscribe to the doctrine that the pen is mightier than the sword and sometimes more dangerous.

The City Council holds its inaugural meeting this afternoon. It begins work facing a deficit of two millions, and with the borrowing powers of 1916 and probably of 1917 exhausted. In other words, the situation is about as serious as it can be, and the new council will have to display integrity and ability of the highest order if it is to pull the city through an exceedingly critical period. The responsibility upon the aldermanic shoulders is a heavy one. Are they strong enough to bear it?

The Government is well advised to hold an investigation into the charges relative to the purchase of regimental supplies in the West, made by Rev. Dr. Bland, of Port Arthur. If it is shown that there is any foundation of truth for them, the punishment of the offenders should be prompt and severe. If, on the other hand, the accuser has been merely speaking "at large," and without due information to back up his charges, the prompt action taken may prevent others from making unconsidered accusations in the future.

THE WORLD'S PRESS

The Real Thing This Year.

Rochester Post Standard:—Some call it a sugar orchard and others name it a sugar bush, but with the present high price of cane and beet sugar the product under either name, is more than likely to be real maple sugar.

Reform and Protection.

Springfield Republican:—Ontario's war-time temperance measure makes generous provision for the sale of native wine. Manufacturers are to be allowed to sell it in five-gallon casks and in quantities of 12 dozen bottles. Some of the other provinces may be amused by this combination of reform and protection for home industry.

Impossible Things Possible.

The Nation (London):—How far can we go towards the ideal of Mr. Hughes of "the British Empire as an organized Empire; organized for trade, for industry, for economic justice, for national defence, for the preservation of the world's peace, for the protection of the weak from the strong," it is early to predict. But it is evident that this war has stirred chords of imagination and of passionate sympathy in our Dominions, which may make possible things that were impossible two years ago.

Association of Ideas.

Christian Science Monitor:—A certain local paper at Salonica enlarging pleasantly, some little time ago, on the number of different races at present gathered together within the city, proceeded to enumerate them as follows: British, French, Greeks, Turks, Germans, Italians, East Indians, Senegalese, Moors and Scotch. Scotsmen in Salonica, it is stated, were considerably ruffled by the order of enumeration adopted by the paper, but were soothed by one of the clan Macpherson. Macpherson remarked that he reckoned it lucky that they were mentioned at all, and that he put it all down to the association of ideas—moors and Scotland.

Still a Long Row to Hoe.

London Daily News:—If, as Sir Alfred Mond said in Parliament, they can only be beaten by military victories there is still a long row to hoe. We agree that economic and, still less, financial considerations cannot be relied on alone to bring ultimate victory to the Allies. The history of wars is a warning against the acceptance of that comfortable doctrine. They are powerful instruments in preparing the way for victory, but their operation is slow and not very calculable. Economic and financial inferiority brought Lee's army to an utterly ragged, hungry and ill-equipped condition, but it was Grant's advantage in the field which secured the decision. We may have to face the same sequence of events in the present war.

An Australian Protest.

Melbourne Argus:—Mr. Hughes, the Australian Prime Minister, has adopted the idea, once very popular, that the Empire can be strengthened by the formation of a close organic union, but remote and recent experience is against him. The strength and unity of the Empire are really conserved by the very lightness of the bonds holding it together. The present relationship has stood the test. Why meddle with it? Mr. Hughes should settle the serious social and economic problems looming ahead in the Commonwealth before he attempts to devise a policy covering every phase of the national, economic and social life of the Empire. The more defined and detailed Imperial bonds become the greater will be the opportunities for disagreement. These dangers are illustrated by the reception which British newspapers have accorded to Mr. Hughes' speech. It is certain that if one party is pleased, the other is more or less displeased.

The Situation of Germany.

The Nation (London):—Napoleon fell through overlooking a vital breach in his armor. It is not difficult to see a parallel in Germany today. The heart of a country is no longer the vital centre of a nation. This is to be found solely in the heart of the nation. Armies can no longer be detached from the nation. They are the nation, and the spear must quiver and fail when the civilian shank weakens and wavers. Therein lies Germany's oversight. She did not visualise a long war. She had no comprehension of how the country and its people would react to a long and increasingly stringent blockade. The war-weariness which bites deeply into every heart grows intolerable to German people who eat no meal that has not its seasoning of an enemy's sea supremacy. If the face of the war bears a double look to us, it seems equally so to a people who have been encouraged for so long with the promise of speedy victory. Only the irresponsible have held out that hope to the Allies. When we tend to look askance upon a war of attrition, it is well to remember that if Napoleon was not beaten by it, he was not beaten without it. When the enemy makes a new advance, we must not take it to mean that he has still a preponderating force. It is his business to produce the illusion of victory; it is ours to win it.

The Rose and the Ring.

Philadelphia Ledger: John L. Sullivan—even in this emancipated era, is opposed to the presence of women at prize fights. He "likes to see a woman womanly. We like to think that she is a lot better than we are, and in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred she is." Today women expect to share enjoyments of men as well as to be partners of their cares. They do not swoon at the sight of blood and they have faced the horrors of war with exemplary fortitude. They have entered all professions with success, and they have not appealed to chivalry to save them from the economic asperities that confront the male bread-winners. And still they appreciate the fact that femininity is an asset, and that the mannish Amazon has forfeited a charm. A womanly woman even among men is likely to be preferred to the type recognized as "a man's woman." It is not a talisman to masculine favor to be known as a sporting duchess of slang and reckless camaraderie and froward demeanor. In the edifying biographies of the prizefighters themselves we shall generally find that they married wives who were doves of meekness, providing at home the atmosphere that is the very antithesis of the roped arena. It is not on record that ostie champions prefer the beefy viragoes who could put on the gloves with them. As well expect a soldier to choose a wife versed in military tactics or able to capture a Mexican bandit single-handed. Much of the fascination of the eternal feminine is in the contrasts.

THE DRUM OF SCOTLAND.

Listen, brothers. Do you hear it—beating—beating?
The mighty heart of Scotland is beating like a drum!
And from every hill and valley, from the castle and the causeway,
From towns and lonely shielings, the men of Scotland come.

Caught up the dirk and claymore, and like a torrent swept
Upon the field of battle until the fight was over,
Then in the long dark silence they laid down and slept.

Listen, brothers! Do you hear it?—Strong and brave and quiet,
The great heart of the Mother calling all her sons to wake
And leave the hearth and homeland, Highland strath and Lowland valley,
And shoulder pack and rifle for their grey old Mother's sake?

Do you hear them coming—running like a burn in early Springtime,
When the snow melts from the mountains and the waters rush again
Down the hillsides, through the valleys, to the ocean waiting—thirsting?
Oh, the mighty drum of Scotland never calls her sons in vain.

THE PASSING HOUR

The Rev. Benjamin Moore, the second Bishop of New York, was a man noted in his day for his ready wit—a quality that his wife apparently shared with him.

A dinner was given by some of Governor Morris's friends when he was about to depart for Europe. Bishop Moore and his wife were of the party. In the course of the conversation Mr. Morris observed that since he was going abroad he had made his will, and, turning to Bishop Moore, said to him:

"My reverend friend, I have bequeathed to you my complete stock of impudence."

"Sir, you are not only very kind, but you are very generous; you have left me by far the largest portion of your estates."

Mrs. Moore immediately added:

"My dear, you have come into possession of your inheritance remarkably soon."

A seedy looking individual in a West Madison street saloon turned from the free lunch counter, where he had been helping himself most generously, and said to the barkeeper:

"Friend, can you trust me for a glass of beer till to-morrow?"

"No," said the barkeep.

"I am sorry to hear that," said the seedy one. "It seems kinder mean to eat the amount of free lunch I have and then not buy nothin'."

To and fro marched the sentry before the gate of a certain field — so many paces this way, and then the same number the other.

A gentleman, almost as broad as he was long, approached the marching figure and addressed him as follows:

"I say, my man, can I go through here?"

The sentry paused in his perambulations to gaze at the ponderous figure of his questioner. Then he replied:

"Well, I don't exactly know, sir, but a cartload of hay managed to get through this morning!"

A congressional committee went to a northwestern state to assist in opening an exposition. There was a parade in the morning in which all the visiting statesmen rode in automobiles. The local committee brought the cars around to the leading hotel. The scheme was to have two senators or representatives and two local men in each car.

After the vice-president and his party had been sent away a local notable who was acting as a major domo came into the lobby of the hotel, where the statesmen were waiting, and bawled:

Two congressmen and two gentlemen, please!"

In 1850 he was appointed Superintendent of Education for Nova Scotia and made himself prominent by the publication of many papers, reports and lectures on a variety of subjects.

Later Sir William became principal and professor of natural history at McGill University. In 1857 he established the McGill Normal School to train Protestant teachers and was principal of the institution for thirteen years. He also founded the faculty of applied science at McGill. He wrote many papers and published several books on the geology of his native province, and was one of the foremost geologists of his time. In 1881 Sir William was awarded the Lyall medal of the Geological Society of Canada for original geological researches. He later became president of the British Association. He was created a C. M. G. in 1881, and was made a Knight Bachelor in 1884. He was an LL.D. of both Edinburgh and McGill, retiring as principal from the latter in 1893.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THE FUTURE OF INDIA.

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star.

Sir,—Woman seems to come more quickly than man to the point in evolution where she cannot regard human beings as mere material for exploitation of any sort; where she is not rejoiced by architecture and works of art in a city which has also unspeakable slums in which human beings decay. There are many women throughout Canada, and thank God, many men, who feel for the sorrows of India; who as Britons, recognize that many of the people of India are suffering just those conditions to which Britons all through their history have preferred death. Many races, perhaps nearly all races, have been willing to die for freedom, and India is no exception. She has gone even further, she has been willing to suffer in patience for it, that when it came it might be realized on a higher plane than if gained by strife and revolution. I doubt if we Britons could have done the same in her place.

Do any of us really think that Britain could have held India, if India herself had not had reasons for consenting to it? Any one who will apply himself to a deeper knowledge of Indian thought will find that there were deep and weighty reasons for that consent. Does any one think that India lacks spirit? The "Komagata Maru" incident in British Columbia showed a truly British spirit, and the present writer for one rejoiced to see it. What lover of humanity wants to see any human being willing to take the position of a beaten cur, or does not rejoice to see in him that strength and sense of spiritual values which is willing to suffer the ills of the flesh, in preference to those of the spirit. This is a choice which we are constantly called upon to make; and to choose the former is the mark of a high plane of evolution in the present stage of the world. That she has attained to this higher plane India has given full evidence. She has known how to suffer, and what is more without an embittered spirit. When her opportunity came she took no advantage, and bore no grudge.

Fellow Britons, stop and think of this! Was there ever before in the history of the world such a thing done under such circumstances? Can any student of history among us show us a parallel? If so, will they come forward and do so, that our pride and faith in humanity may know its justification. And these are the people we refuse to have among us; to bring their unexcelled qualities as workers, to our vast untilled lands. I am tempted to think that we are children compared to them; that we may learn strength for our own lives by contemplating them; and that we should rather welcome the opportunity to do so. There is dire poverty in India. Among the working people eighteen hours daily labor only provides the means for one meal a day. The people have necessarily learned to live very frugally with the result that their standard of living, when they come to this country, is in conflict with ours. But this is a thing which would remedy itself very largely in time, under the new conditions. Indian laborers are underfed, and are for that reason, the easy victims of plague. Our standard would affect theirs, and let us hope their standard might affect our materialistic and enflated one. But at any rate let us open our hearts and our ports, and enable these fellow British subjects, to take from our unused and unproductive land the sustenance which they so much need. We shall find that it will bring us blessing in return, as surely as the laws of God are wiser than the wisest laws of man.

CANADA-INDIA.

WHAT IS THE CANADIAN MILITIA DOING?

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star.

Sir,—The appeal of Captain Hope, which appeared in Saturday's Star, strikes the right note, but I will go further.

Captain Hope calls upon the young men—and rightly—to join the active militia, but there must be hundreds, or thousands, of men like myself throughout the country who are over military age for overseas service, but who are strong and active. To such as these I would say that the militia units afford a means of service of a highly valuable nature—valuable alike to the country and to the individual. Captain Hope points out that for each 1,000 men at the front there must be a first reserve of 2,000 men in England, and a second reserve of 2,000 men in Canada. Therefore as a member of a local militia corps, I have the satisfaction of knowing that I enable one-half of a soldier to be in France! To my middle-aged but active fellow citizens I earnestly appeal, to remember the spirit which animated us when we were young men, when the local regiments held a far greater proportion of the population of Montreal than they did just before the war broke out. We cannot all go, but let us do what we can.

"Hear the call, then, calling you,
Up! and see what you can do."

MILITIAMAN.

WAR TO END MAY 30 NEXT.

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star.

Sir,—Mr. C. R. Dickie's letter re the ending of the great European conflict by the 27th prox. greatly interested me, as I hold that the Book of Revelations, in a very comprehensive manner, leads us to believe that it shall end on May 30.

Revelations instils into our minds that the Beast, the Anti-Christ, shall rule 666 years. As a day seems like a year to all such as have loved ones at the front, I believe that the Anti-Christ in this war shall rule 666 days.

Six hundred and sixty-six days bring us in this great war to May 30, counting from August 1, 1914, when the British Empire set its teeth, and, apprised the world that it would not stand idly by and see solemn treaties treated as "scraps of paper."

Call Kaiser Bill or Mars the "God of War," the Anti-Christ if you will, but whichever of the two is the Beast, shall cease to rule at the end of May.

Trusting the above may interest some readers of your paper.

Yours truly,

P. J. McG.

Shall We In Our Prosperity Forget War-Destitute Belgium?

Nine Million Belgians Face Starvation While Canada Thrives on Record Crops and Huge War Orders?

When at first the War depressed business, and we felt the pinch ourselves, our sympathies and aid went out freely to Belgium, suffering in the same cause.

Now that prosperity has returned to Canada, and we are engrossed in paying business, there is danger that we forget our debt to our destitute Allies. For this is a real debt that we owe! Our present prosperity is, directly or indirectly, almost entirely a result of the war. We are profiting legitimately, of course, but it is only simple justice that we share these profits with those to whom the War has brought only want, suffering and sorrow.

Belgium's need was never greater, if as great as it is today! Germany's rule has lost none of its ruthless, heartless, grinding oppression! Practically unable to earn money except by hateful munition-making for the enemy, the Belgians are gradually exhausting what little financial resources the Hun levies have left them.

For food they are absolutely dependent on the Belgian Relief Commission, which imports it from this side of the Atlantic. Those who can pay for it do so—those who cannot are fed anyway. As the proportion of the 7,000,000 hungry Belgians who cannot pay is steadily growing, this means a heavy demand on the generosity of Canada, Great Britain and the United States.

So far, with splendid gifts of flour and money, Canada has done her share. Now, in the face of urgent need, the Belgian Relief Commission is sending out another call. Besides the growing demand for flour, there is now pressing need for condensed milk for Belgian babies. This call comes right home to those of us who are living in comfort and prosperity—who have made no real sacrifices either to help along the war or to aid its victims.

A subscription of $2.50 a month, in the hands of the wonderfully efficient Belgian Relief Commission, will provide bread for one Belgian family, and save their lives! How many Belgians can you afford to support till the War is over? Whatever you feel you can give, send your subscription weekly, monthly, or in one lump sum, to Local or Provincial Committees, or 9

resting Address by J. E. tkinson, of Toronto, at Reform Club

brilliant apology for the princi- of Liberalism in Canada and here was the address delivered E. Atkinson, publisher and edi- of the Toronto Star, before the Re- Club Saturday. The subject was eralism as Applied to the Future anada." refacing his remarks with the ement that while a party was in ration it had time to take stock think of the future, Mr. Akinson that Liberalism was rather a ition of mind than a policy. He ht designate Liberalism as Chris- ity applied to politics the world r. Liberalism liberated the ress, and had slowly and surely en civil and religious liberty to world.

We are today giving liberty to people without being able to ke them vote Liberal," said Mr. tinson. "It is therefore the duty the Liberal party to enact liberal asures that will commend them to attention and support of the torate. Canadian Liberals should lize that the working men are ir own particular field, as the ca- alists and manufacturers are te able to look out for themselves. e people who require help are se who suffer, and yet nowhere in urban districts are the workers cking to the Liberal party. The mmon people are not with the Li- al party in such numbers as they uld be."

Mr. Atkinson quoted statistics to pport the contention that the Lib- l party had still much to do before had discharged its obligations to people at large. Canada's in- stries netted two billion dollars nually, which amount would mean 343 a year to each family in the minion, if equally divided, yet the ount received by each family is 0. The skilled artisan, according statistics, should receive $700 a ar, but as a matter of fact he re- ves, on the average, $450. The le of wages in the United States s on the decrease, and the same ndition probably prevailed in Can- a. Poorly paid labor, the speak- said, brought about a higher death e, and an increase in crime.

Mr. Atkinson advocated old age nsions as a great step in advance, nting out that no country that d once adopted this legislation had r repealed it. Mr. Lloyd George, hough fiercely assailed, had done great work in England in Liberal islation. Similar reforms, if in- duced in Canada, would, no doubt, et with strong opposition, but at was no reason why they should t be carried out. The Mothers' nsion Act was another step in the ht direction, he said.

The problem of employment was ched upon. Statistics showed that e-fifth of the entire laboring popu- ion of the United States was out work the year through, this con- ion being due to a defective cap- ncy or a crowding of industrial ants at certain seasons, and the sing down, or running of the plants at part time for the rest of the year. Were there a proper adjustment work could be spread over the whole year. In conclusion, he declared that the time had come for the Liberal party to advocate radical reforms and to do so boldly and with confidence.

A. R. McMaster, K.C., presided, and among those present were the Hon. W. S. Fielding, the Hon. Sydney Fisher, the Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, the Hon. Walter Mitchell, the Hon. James Ross, the Hon. Jeremie Decarie, the Hon. J. L. Perron, M.L.C., Alphonse Verville, M.P., C. Rodier and J. T. Foster, president of the Trades and Labor Council.

BRITISH NAVAL AIRMEN ATTACK TURKISH CAPITAL

Fly Three Hundred Miles to Drop Bombs on Constantinople

LONDON, April 17.— The British Admiralty, in a statement issued yesterday, tells of an air-raid on Constantinople and Adrianople, as follows:

"On Friday evening three of our naval aeroplanes carried out a raid on Constantinople. Bombs were dropped on the Zeitunlik powder factory and aeroplane hangars. Another naval aeroplane visited Adrianople and dropped bombs on the railway station. All returned safely.

"The flight to Constantinople and back measured three hundred miles. Although fine weather prevailed at the start, an adverse condition supervened, with wind, rain and thunderstorms.

"The aeroplane raid on Constantinople is the longest flight in the course of the war, the previous record having been held by a French airman, who flew from Nancy to Stuttgart and back, a distance of 240 miles.

"Flight-Commander J.R.V. Smyth-Pigott, who led the Constantinople raiders, has already received the Distinguished Service Order Medal for an exploit last November, when he attacked the railway bridge of the Orient Railway at Kuleli-Burgas, Bulgaria.

"This is the second time that the Zeitunlik powder mills have been attacked, they having been bombarded by a submarine which visited Constantinople.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 17.— An official War Office statement says:

"On Friday night two hostile aeroplanes ascended off the Dardanelles and flew over Constantinople at a considerable height. They dropped several incendiary bombs of two villages nearby, without result. Owing to the fire of our anti-aircraft guns, the hostile airmen lost sight of their object, and retired.

Quackery and Corns

Hundreds of treatments have been offered for corns.

Some were sedatives to quiet pain. Some were acids, harsh and risky. Some mere quackery.

But one man—a famous chemist—studied corns for 25 years. And finally discovered Blue-jay.

That is now the standard treatment, gentle, certain, scientific. It is used on a million corns monthly.

It has stopped the corn pain instantly, 70 million times. It has ended the corns completely within 48 hours, in 91 per cent of the cases. The others take a little longer.

Stop paring corns. Stop treating them in wrong ways. Use Blue-jay, and that ends them in a gentle, easy way. Prove that tonight.

NEW QUEBEC FIRM MAKES CUTLERY

In order to manufacture cutlery to take the place of German and other European-made goods which have been shut out by the war, the Dominion Cutlery Company opened on April 1 a splendidly equipped factory at St. Tite, on the Canadian Northern line, near Montreal. The plant will be moved to the city later, it is expected.

The line of cutlery to be manufactured will include knives, forks, spoons, jack-knives and razors.

U-BOAT CAPTURES DANISH STEAMER

COPENHAGEN, April 17. — The Danish steamer Kasan, bound from Liverpool to Copenhagen, was captured yesterday in the Cattegat by a large German submarine, according to the newspaper Politiken. The submarine placed a prize crew on board the vessel.

HENDERSON WARNS SHIPWRIGHTS OF NEEDS OF MARINE

GLASGOW, April 17. Arthur Henderson, president of the Board of Education, who is also chairman of the National Advisory Committee on War Output, addressing a conference of the Clyde shipwright workers Saturday night, uttered a strong warning concerning the necessity of doing better than they had done, if the British mercantile fleet is to be maintained on the proper strength to support the extraordinary demands made upon it.

"During the early days of the war," he said, "in order to assist the navy, labor was transferred from merchant shipping until it was practically brought to a standstill. But I want to impress upon you that we can no longer afford to neglect the construction of merchant ships. We have to remember that the enemy is boasting of the success of the submarine policy, and there are other factors contributing to the pressing demand for an increase of shipping tonnage.

NEED THE SKILLED WORKER.

The President of the Board of Trade has told me how needful it is that everything possible be done to secure the rapid delivery of ships now under construction. To accomplish this, two things are absolutely necessary. The employing of skilled men must be strictly limited to that class of work for which their special skill is essential and which cannot be performed by men of lesser skill or by women and all workers must be made to feel that their full time in wholehearted service is indispensable in winning the war."

Mr. Henderson referred to the grave concern caused to the Admiralty by the failure of men to work full time. In one Clyde area alone out of a total of 152,000 hours, no less than 15,700 hours were thus lost. He concluded with an appeal to the organized workmen to realize the nation's need and do their best.

HENDERSON WARNS SHIPWRIGHTS OF NEEDS OF MARINE

GLASGOW, April 17. Arthur Henderson, president of the Board of Education, who is also chairman of the National Advisory Committee on War Output, addressing a conference of the Clyde shipwrights' workers Saturday night, uttered a stern warning concerning the necessity of doing better than they had yet done. If the British mercantile fleet is to be maintained at the proper strength to support the extraordinary demands made upon it.

"During the early days of the war," he said, "in order to assist the navy, labor was transferred from merchant shipping until it was practically brought to a standstill. But I want to impress upon you that we can no longer afford to neglect the construction of merchant ships. We have to remember that the enemy is boasting of the success of the submarine policy and there are other factors contributing to the pressing demand for an increase of shipping tonnage.

NEED THE SKILLED WORKER.

"The President of the Board of Trade has told me how needful it is that everything possible be done to secure the rapid delivery of shipping now under construction. To assure this, two things are absolutely necessary. The employing of skilled men must be strictly limited to that class of work for which their special skill is essential and which cannot be performed by men of lesser skill or by women and all workers must be made to feel that their full time in wholehearted service is indispensable in winning the war."

Mr. Henderson referred to the grave concern caused to the Admiralty by the failure of men to work full time. In one Clyde area alone out of a total of 152,000 hours, no less than 16,700 hours were thus lost. He concluded with an appeal to the organized workmen to realize the nation's need and do their best.

MANY COMING HERE FROM UNITED STATES

Immigration of settlers from the United States into Canada continues in satisfactory volume, according to reports received by the Canadian Pacific Railway.

During the week ending March 21, there entered Canada persons with cash amounting to $149,962 and effects valued at $17,450, as compared with 462 persons last year with cash totalling $56,561. No fewer than 131 of these immigrants were farmers. During the week ending March 28, there entered from the United States 611 persons with $76,040 cash and effects valued at $16,216, as compared with last year's record of 375 persons with $91,658 cash. The farmers of this week totalled 178. These figures give a total of 1,001 new settlers from the United States into Canada within a fortnight.

TO PROBE WOMAN'S DEATH.

GODERICH, Ont., April 17. An investigation has been ordered in connection with the death of Mrs. Matilda Brownlee, of Grant, Ont., near Carlow, who was buried a few days ago at Gorrie, near here, her former home.

The body was exhumed, and it is reported that an analysis of the stomach, made in Toronto, disclosed traces of strychnine poisoning. An inquest has been fixed for May 2.

EASTER HOLIDAYS

The Canadian Pacific will issue tickets at single fare for the round trip good going and returning Friday, April 21st, and if first or last and one third for the round trip, good going April 20, 21, 22 and 23, good to return until April 25. WALL ST. WEAK--LOCAL BUOYANCY CHECKED IN SECOND HOUR

BULL START CHECKED BY N.Y. DECLINE

The bullish local market made further demonstration at the start which would, no doubt have been maintained had it not been for the disappointing action of the New York market.

After last week's remarkable record of activity and heavy advances, dancing a reawakening of public interest on the broadest scale within a week, there was no disposition to let up when the exchange resumed business.

Prices leaped forward to fresh records, and there was no other thing in the first hour that the buying might not continue. As the forenoon hour proceeded, however, the support that might have been expected from Wall Street on the first of the international development, over the week-end failed to materialize, and prices instead of strengthening developed further weakness.

The Mexican news looked better, but the submarine outlook, instead of being good for another long war, seemed to have relieved the pressure arising from fear of an immediate crisis. Instead of inducing any fresh buying, the crowds were lost sight of and the munitions shares were placed under pressure on the theory that orders from the Allies are likely to diminish.

This, however, does not tally with local information which indicates there has been a change which will result in transfer of munitions orders to other and which honestly want American factories, turn of events which has been sought consistently now that the country is so well equipped for such work.

Interest largely concerned here in such stocks as Steel of Canada, Dodge, Steamships, Cement, Textile, Iron and Locomotive, and the start was exceedingly strong, but around noon an easier tone developed as the result of the Wall Street weakness.

Steel opened at 62, two point above last week's high and advanced, but it quickly reacted to 62, at which level there was a good market for the first hour. In the second hour another point of the gain was yielded.

There was a much more active market for Brides on the bullish reports of an important order impending, and compared with 221 at the close Saturday, the opening was two point up at 226 with a subsequent sharp advance to 230. It later reacted to 227, at which there was an active market and was offered at 228 at the close.

The market for Steamships was active, the common showing into new ground at 28⅝, after opening at 27⅞, while the preferred rose to 8⅝ from 81 last week, but later reacted to 81.

Textile was in good demand at 80. Cement was active at 64 to 64¼, but later reacted to 63, from 63¼ to 64. Detroit 97¼ to 98, Steel to 53¼, Locomotive 60 to 60½, to 60, Scotia 107½ to 106, Quebec 22½ to 22. Ont Steel 41.

A drop in Lyall from 70 recently to 62 was a feature.

Opinions from Wall Street

Post & Flagg.—The market has been waiting again today for results of tomorrow's Cabinet meeting, and also some fresh developments from Mexico. The best information is that there will be nothing in the forthcoming note to Germany to greatly change the situation, certainly not to produce a break now.

Shearson, Hammill and Co.—There is no disposition on the part of public to make new commitments at the present time, nor any reason to look for any maintained advance in prices.

Burnett and Co.—Two explanations to account for weakness; one was, a lack of orders from abroad for munitions, and another rumor stating that very much material had been rejected on account of failure to come up to specifications.

E. C. Randalph.—The knowledge that another note is to be sent to Germany this week, gives the market some respite from the submarine controversy, but the belief still holds that Wilson will finally have to make good his repeated word and take definite action.

Jenks, Gwynne & Co.—While the character of the news over the week-end may tend to improve prices on short covering, we do not consider it of sufficient values to deviate from advising to a trading position for quick profits, based solely on the dips and rallies for the present.

American Locomotive works at Dickson, N.J., places departments on nine hour working basis and grants 10 per cent. wage increase.

INVESTORS HEAVY SELLERS OF U. S. STEEL

EARLY GAINS FORFEITED IN WALL ST.

Special to The Montreal Star.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The stock market opened dull and narrow in this morning's session. Steel was somewhat depressed in the absence of support, U.S. Steel was 3 points off on the first sale, while Union Pacific was 1 1-4 down. Reading and Southern Pacific reacted fractionally.

Money was in moderate supply and exchange rates were steady. Paris exchange is reported to the rows of a fraction in New York and closed lower at 5 francs 2⅜ 1-2 centimes.

The stock market maintained a good tone with an active business. Specialty stocks, Rubber shares and Rails were especially prominent in trading. Steel shares were good despite the number of boats lost. Gilt edged securities received attention but Chinese bonds weakened. American securities were idly steady awaiting further political developments. Prices closed around parity.

Insurance rates for the shipment of securities have advanced ¼ per cent.

VIPOND LOCATES VEIN

TIMMINS, Ont., April 17.—The Vipond has located the Davidson vein on the 300-foot level, where your representative was underground Saturday. The vein had been cut into for about nine feet, and the drill holes had not located the hanging wall at four feet. Bringing the known width of the vein to at least the 300-foot level where encountered. It is about four feet that the vein assayed $15 across nine feet.

The directors make the statement in their annual report that there have not considered the payment of a dividend, nor do they propose to do so until the floating indebtedness of the company is fully paid off. In this connection it is noted elsewhere in the report that an item of $10,726 bills payable, had been wiped out during the year, and 155 counts payable had been reduced from $31,226 to $11,726. However, a bank loan of $100,000 stands practically the same as a year ago.

PRESS OPINIONS ON N.Y. SITUATION

Special to The Montreal Star.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Sun: The overshadowing influence of uncertainty as to the stock market when it is to end some fresh condition has contributed to the dullness of the market. It is the second in the country's history. The first was the Civil War.

American—Financial and commercial conditions are good, even the most conservative admit that, but what will clean up Mexico and what will happen with Germany? These questions are the financial arena. Wall Street now is the central point of interest.

Bank Departs from Accustomed Order

Since the commencement of the war, a feature has been made on the staff of all financial institutions to encourage the employees to enlist. In this line there has been no more response to the Empire's call in a war that looks well for the patriotic spirit of the young men in their service.

This, while gratifying, has made such a reduction in the working force of the Bank that in order to fill the depleted ranks it will be necessary to depart from old established customs, and where in male help was employed in the past, to employ female help. Such is the case in a number of branches now waiting list, now the Bank is taking on temporary clerks, male and female, as a means of relieving the situation.

Topics of the Street

While the proposal to reduce the common capital of the Macdonald Company threw somewhat of a scare into the market, there was a surprisingly small amount of the stock thrown overboard as a result.

Possibly the shareholders could not instruct the directors insisting on such a line of action if they object, but it might be well for them to let the management know about it and not take too much for granted.

There will be a decidedly lively scene when the market gets to the stage where it cannot create something in the way of a fresh price record every day.

Steel of Canada did not fail to make its new record at the opening of the market today.

Now that Steamships issues are so active and strong again people who have been watching the stock are wondering why there should be two to three points difference in the price of the common and the voting trust certificates.

So far as the intrinsic value of the two classes of shares is concerned, no one can see why there should be any difference at all, but the fact remains that there is, and simply because the market makes it act that way.

The voting trust certificates represent stock held for purposes of control, and the free stock has no advantage over it. The market sometimes does things hard to understand.

Some of the bulls have picked out Canadian Locomotive common as a likely performer. This is, of course, because the earnings are exceptionally good.

The market for Bridge was not dead but sleeping. People thought it was too high and expensive to trade in, but the list of the past few days disproves that theory.

It was one of the first performers after the market reopened a little over a year ago and although its ultimate record was not to the liking of many people who ventured in the current gossip is more reassuring.

FRENCH LOAN IS INDICATED BY EXCHANGE

Special to The Montreal Star.

LONDON, April 17.—American securities were dull and narrow in this market today and ruled fractionally off. Exchange on Paris was somewhat depressed in the absence of support. U.S. Steel was 3 points off on Pacific was 1 1-4 down. Reading and Southern Pacific reacted fractionally.

Money was in moderate supply and discount rates were steady. Paris exchange is reported to the rows of a fraction in New York and closed lower at 5 francs 2⅜ 1-2 centimes.

The stock market maintained a good tone with an active business. Specialty stocks, Rubber shares and Rails were especially prominent in trading. Steel shares were good despite the number of boats lost. Gilt edged securities received attention but Chinese bonds weakened. American securities were idly steady awaiting further political developments. Prices closed around parity.

Insurance rates for the shipment of securities have advanced ¼ per cent.

VIPOND LOCATES VEIN

TIMMINS, Ont., April 17.—The Vipond has located the Davidson vein on the 300-foot level, where your representative was underground Saturday. The vein had been cut into for about nine feet, and the drill holes had not located the hanging wall at four feet. Bringing the known width of the vein to at least the 300-foot level where encountered. It is about four feet that the vein assayed $15 across nine feet.

Smelters' New Script Delayed by Engravers

Special to The Montreal Star.

TORONTO, April 17.—It is unlikely that the circular regarding the change in the par value of Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company stock will be issued to the shareholders until after the Easter holidays. The Secretary told the representative of The Star today that the engravers had been unable as yet to get the scrip through and that until this was to hand there would be little use in asking for the deposit of the existing stock. So soon as the scrip is received which it is expected will be in the course of the next ten days, the circulars will be sent out providing for the issue of four shares for every one now held.

Brokerage Comment on Can. Steamships

Thornton, Davidson and Co., say:

"The recent strength and activity in the Canada Steamships' issues has drawn attention to the extraordinary earnings which Steamship Companies are making during the present period.

"The Canada Steamship Lines controls 65 to 70 per cent of the lake traffic and it is understood negotiating now under way will result in their securing the St. Lawrence and Chicago Navigation Company. The amount of last year's crop, still unmoved, and the improvement in general business, will assure the lake tonnage being kept busy at remunerative rates and charters are already being let at rates which are very favorable to the Transportation Company.

"The Canada Steamship Lines have about twenty vessels operating on ocean trade and with the special earnings from these, earnings for the current fiscal year should approximate close to $4,000,000. There has been some good buying of the preference shares during the past week and investors are apparently beginning to realize that present prices for the shares are out of line with prices of other issues of similar nature. The directors recently declared a 1 3-4 dividend on the preference shares, payable on May 1st, and further substantial payments, on account of the unpaid back dividends of 12 1-2 per cent accumulated to March 1st, last, will undoubtedly be made during the year."

Cost of Living Has Increased Slightly

Special to The Montreal Star.

OTTAWA, April 17.—A slight rise in the cost of living is indicated in the March figures of the labor department. The index of wholesale prices in that month advanced from 173.7 to 176.4. In March 1915, it was 145.

The principal increases were in metals, implements, building materials, meats, boots, house furnishings, furs, drugs and chemicals.

On the other hand, retail prices declined slightly. An ordinary budget of staples in March cost $8.36, as against $8.40 in February, and $7.88 in March a year ago.

Notes on 'change

There was an increase of nearly $1,600,000 in the customs receipts at the port of Windsor, Ont., for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1916, compared with the corresponding period in 1915. The figures for the past fiscal year are $4,706,779, against $3,753,650 for the preceding year.

The Russian Minister of Agriculture reports that crop prospects for 1916 are not favorable, as weather has been against grain; acreage under winter wheat will show a decrease of upwards of 50 per cent; reserves are large, but movement difficult, as railways are under Government management, and, therefore, utilized for war purposes. Stocks at Archangel are practically nil.

India's 1915-16 cotton crop will fall 27 per cent short of last season's outturn, according to the final memorandum of the Department of Statistics, which has based its estimate on reports furnished by the entire cotton region.

The total area reported is 17,967,000 acres, which will produce an estimated crop of 3,819,000 bales (of 400 pounds), each of these totals being, as stated, 27 per cent below the revised figures for last year. On this basis, the average outturn per acre of the present crop for all India is 85 pounds, which is the same as the 1914-15 average.

Sir George Paish reviewing financial and economic situation in the United States says this country will have huge trade balance in next 12 months aggregating possibly $2,500,000,000.

Western Union earnings 3 mos. ended March 31, 1916 total revenues inc., 2,822,197, Balance after maintenance depreciation and taxes inc., $1,483,127. Surplus after charges inc. $1,484,464.

LIVE STOCK PRICES MAKE NEW RECORDS

The feature of the local live stock market today was the good quality of cattle offered, some very choice long-run steers being received over the week-end. One car and of 21 cattle, weighing 27,415 pounds, fed by Joe Ramsay, Newburg, Ont., was sold at $9.15 a hundred pounds, the purchaser being the Montreal Abattoirs Good prices were paid for other best quality stock as the movement of cattle was decidedly brisk, the market being practically cleaned up of all offerings in an early hour.

The market for sheep and lambs remain in a quiet state, there not being enough receipts to make a market price, and what little stock offering is being sold steady with last week's prices.

Hogs continue to mount upward in price on account of a heavy export demand, and prices today reached $12.25 a hundred pounds for strictly select stock, while many sales were made at prices ranging from $11.75 to $12.15 cwt. for good quality. Considerable activity is shown in the pork market just now and prices have reached the highest level in the history of the local trade.

Calves are still arriving in large quantities, but prices are no easier, the shipments being made to United States' markets acting as an offset to the increased receipts, four carloads of good calves being shipped to New York today. Fair prices are being paid all round in this line.

Sales of live stock in carload lots were made at the following prices:

Butcher steers, best, $8.90 to $9.15; good steers, best, $8.90 to $8.50; fair, $8.60 to $8.85; fair, $8.25 rough, $7.50; medium, $7.90 to $8.15; and best $8 to $8.75. Butcher bulls, $7.75; common, medium, $7.50 to bulls, $4.25 to $7 to $7.25; canning

Receipts of live stock at the East End (C.P.R.) Stock Yards last week totalled 650 cattle, 200 sheep and lambs, 1400 hogs, and 1900 calves. Today's offerings were: 300 cattle, 125 sheep and lambs, 400 hogs, and 400 calves.

Mich. Cen. earned 15.62 per cent on stock in 1915 compared with 2.21 per cent. in 1914.

WHEAT RALLIED ON BAD WEATHER REPORT

CHICAGO, April 17.—Reports that owing to unwelcome rains many fields in the Northwest were in bad shape, again rallied the wheat market today after some display of weakness at the outset.

Bearish cables and favorable weather in the winter crop states were responsible for the early down turns. The lateness of seeding in the spring wheat region, however, seemed to make the trade unusually sensitive to any fresh development of adverse conditions.

Opening prices, which varied from ¼ to ⅝ lower, with May at 115 to 115⅛, and July at 113⅞ to 114⅛, were followed by further declines, but then an advance to well above Saturday's finish.

A Chicago wire to Shearson, Hammill & Co., said:

Cables continue discouraging. Spot and cargo prices are again lower. Weather could warm up much faster, but on the whole it is fairly favorable. Political surroundings still very much involved. Elevator concerns are counting a lot of talking about deliveries in May contracts, yet we doubt if any of them wish to part with any real wheat. The greatest handicap to sustained advances is the lack of speculative interest, which is not surprising, in view of international complications. Therefore, a trading market is likely; on sharp recessions we prefer long side.

MEDAL AND KISS FRENCH HONOR FEW BRAVE CANADIANS

Writing from British Headquarters in France, Philip Gibbs says:

"The fine work of the Canadian divisions in Flanders, distinguished from time to time by special acts of extreme gallantry and audacity, has long been admired by the French military authorities. A day or two ago they gave a public proof of their appreciation by decorating a number of Canadian officers and men with the Legion of Honor and the "Medaille Militaire."

"The ceremony had a touch of emotion in it, always present when French soldiers are there, because they have a distinctive way of humanizing a formal act of honor, and bring the spirit of France to the parade ground. When two companies of French infantry, in their long blue coats and steel fasques, marched into the square of an old Flemish town, close to the British front, with drums beating and bugles blowing, the townsfolk and our own soldiers cheered the comrades of those who are fighting at Verdun on the side of an heroic army.

The Canadian guards of honor, with two brass bands and the pipes of the Canadian Scots, were drawn up in the square opposite the French infantry, a group of Generals and Staff officers stood in advance of the men, and the officers and non-commissioned officers who were to receive the decorations were in a separate place. It was an historic little scene, with a picturesque background, which stirred old memories. For the houses here have looked down upon three centuries of time, and the Town Hall, with its weather-worn bricks and high balconies and bell-shaped tower, holds the record of many great acts of war and peace in Flemish history.

FRENCH KISS CANUCKS.

It is strange that Canadian soldiers should be here to receive the kiss of a French General. He passed along their line with his Staff, while the bands played the "Marseillaise," and the General commanding the Canadian corps inspected the French troops. Then the Tricolor was brought forward by a guard of honor, and with that symbol of the spirit of France unfurled in the grey old market-place—how many gallant men have died for what that flag means?—the French General pinned the Legion of Honor and the Military Medal to the breasts of the men who had been marked out for the honor, and saluted them with that kiss which France gives to those who defend her soil. Canada will be proud of her soldiers who now wear the ribbons of French chivalry. They have won them by good and brave work on the field of honor.

For one of them—Capt. George Taylor Richardson, of the 2nd Canadian Infantry Battalion—the Cross of Chevalier of the Legion of Honor came too late, except as a memorial of his gallantry, for he was killed on February 9.

Quail hunters have nearly obliterated the birds in Missouri. Ten thousand quail have been imported from Arizona to restock the depleted coveys.

TRENCHES GONE, CANADIANS HELD LINE AT ST. ELOI

Heroism Became Commonplace During Week's Incessant Bombardment

INTENSE STRUGGLE FOR MINE CRATERS

Isolated in Small Groups, Men Fought to the End

OTTAWA, April 17—Heroic and effective work by the Canadians in resisting the determined attacks by Germans at St. Eloi last week is detailed at length in the weekly eye-witness communication received at the Militia Department. It reads:

Throughout the week April 4-11 vigorous efforts were made by the Germans to recover the ground lost by them at St. Eloi. The struggle for possession of the mine craters marking the original German line was intense and bitter. The frontage taken by the British from the Germans did not exceed 600 yards. The whole area of this former German salient was pitted by thousands upon thousands of shell holes large and small. The explosion of six British mines had not only affected the German front line trench, but had yet further stirred up and churned the heavy soil still sodden with the winter rains. Trees had been smashed by the hail of shells and uprooted by their explosions.

All signs of vegetation had disappeared. Of the former landscape there remained nothing but an ugly quagmire. Through this trackless morass of water filled holes, mud and earth piles, in which at any step a man might sink over his waist, British troops had contrived to dig a narrow and shallow trench to the south of the craters, and Canadian troops had succeeded in lining up the British right with the main line.

On the night of April 2-3, the Sixth Canadian Infantry Brigade relieved the weary British troops in the new line. The honor fell to our 27th City of Winnipeg and 31st Alberta Battalions.

WAS NO LIGHT TASK.

Taking over a line under such conditions was no light task. Few of the conveniences normal to trench warfare existed. Front trenches were imperfect dugouts still in embryo and machine-gun emplacements not yet constructed. Communication trenches were practically non-existent, and the relief had to be effected by the solitary front-line trench from both flanks. Most of the trenches were at least knee-deep with water.

No time was lost by the Canadian troops in endeavoring to improve the situation, but dawn found the positions of the men in the front still far from satisfactory. In the early morning and again at intervals during the day German artillery bombarded our lines in this sector. The fire was both severe and accurate.

Protection and cover were all too scanty. The new trench was damaged, particularly that portion of it held by the 27th battalion, and the old British trench to the north of the craters also suffered.

Our artillery returned a heavy fire until each bombardment in turn was silenced. When darkness fell large parties were at once set to work to repair the damage and effect improvements.

The British dead still lying in the trenches were taken out and our own casualties carried back. Parapets were raised and strengthened and some of the water drained from the trenches, all this work being carried on under fierce but intermittent bursts of fire from the German artillery.

NEW PARAPETS BATTERED.

On the following day German high explosive shells again battered our new parapets. In some places the trench itself was obliterated and the dug-outs wrecked. Once more the chief labor of the night was to repair the havoc of the previous day.

On April 5 the German bombardment was renewed with increased severity. At dawn and again in the afternoon, hundreds of shells were hurled into the narrow area which had been the German salient, rendering all movement therein extremely difficult and demolishing our trenches.

Our troops suffered many casualties and as companies of our 27th Battalion had held the advanced positions for three days and nights under exceptionally trying conditions, it was decided to relieve them. Companies of our 29th Vancouver Battalion, under the command of Capt. G. L. Gwynne and Lieut. N. E. O'Brien, were detailed for the purpose. The relief was planned to take place on the morning of April 6th, between the hours of 1 and 3 o'clock.

At two o'clock scouts of the 27th Battalion who had been out in front of the trenches came in and reported all quiet. At three o'clock a terrific utes after the bombardment commenced movement along the trench had become an impossibility.

EACH GROUP ISOLATED.

A few minutes more and a considerable section of the trench had disappeared. Here and there a dug-out on which no shell had fallen sheltered a few men or the very shell holes which had blotted out some yards of the trench afforded insecure cover to others, but there was no continuity, no communication.

Each group was isolated, thrown altogether on its own resources. At 2.30 a.m. the Germans attacked. Immediately the German bombardment commenced, every available gun of our artillery was turned on the enemy's positions, and valuable assistance was given by the artillery of the British forces on our right and left.

Prior to opening his bombardment the enemy had contrived to deploy a whole battalion opposite our lines. These troops advanced in fairly close formation, apparently in the belief that our front line trenches could no longer be occupied. Over the length of the demolished trench but little resistance could be offered to them. Machine guns had been smashed or buried, rifles were clogged with mud. The few men who in this or that isolated group still remained unwounded were hopelessly outnumbered.

With scarcely a check the enemy passed over them.

To the right and left of the gap in our front line through which the enemy had penetrated our parapets and trenches had been badly shattered by the bombardment, but resistance was still possible.

WORKED GUN IN OPEN.

Despite the tremendous shelling and sweeping fire of hostile machine guns, men climbed on to the parapets and paradoes, the better to fire at the advancing foe. Machine guns were lifted into the open and worked with desperate courage until they became clogged with mud splashed on to them by exploding shells or else were smashed or buried.

On our right men of our 27th and 29th Battalions were rallied by Capt. Gwynne and Lieut. O'Brien. The attack was beaten back and our trenches held intact.

A little further to the east Lieut. Browne, 32nd French-Canadian Battalion, who was in charge of a machine gun in the front line, continued to fire his gun until it was put out of action, but before this occurred a number of Germans had been killed at close range.

With his detachment of six men Lieut. Browne then withdrew in the direction of our second line. On the way barbed wire was encountered. While crossing it the party was shot at by Germans who had interposed on the line of retreat.

Four of the party were killed, but having crossed the wire Lieut. Browne met a few more of our men who had been cut off from their trench, and with these reinforcements charged the point from which he had been fired at. Twelve Germans were found there, one of whom was an officer. All twelve were clubbed to death, the officer being attacked and killed by Private Simoneau.

Lieutenant Browne eventually reached our trenches with his party. Of his original detachment of six there remained but two.

D.C.M. AMONG MISSING.

Among the missing was Lance-Corporal Lambert, 32nd Battalion, who had already earned the D.C.M. and the Medaille Militaire.

Soon after the trench was reached the Germans advanced on it from one of the craters, but finding it held by our men immediately retreated into the crater. On our left a considerable body of the enemy attempted to rush the lines of our 31st Battalion and to seize a small crater. Major F. J. Daly, D.C.O., who was in command of this section of our trenches, ordered rapid fire to be opened. Heavy casualties were suffered by the enemy and the attack was turned. When dawn broke the situation was difficult and uncertain. Bombing attacks against craters held by the enemy had been quickly organized. On our left two craters were reached by bombers of our 28th Northwest and Thirty-First Alberta Battalions, under Lieut. MacIntosh. The nearest was found to be still held by a detachment of our men. The second was unoccupied, every man of our garrison having been killed, and this crater had again to be abandoned owing to the heavy fire directed upon it.

On our right, Capt. Gwynne still maintained his position, although the Germans had occupied the craters to his rear. About seven o'clock in the morning an effort was made to ascertain more definitely the exact whereabouts of the Germans. Lieut. Jackson, 29th Battalion, volunteered to take out a patrol for the purpose. With four men he started to crawl towards the craters, but almost immediately three of his men were killed and he was forced to retire.

BOMBARDMENT INCESSANT.

An incessant bombardment of our trenches was continued by the enemy and finally about noon, all-his remaining rifles being out of commission and his men exhausted, Capt. Gwynne decided to retreat. Word was sent through for the artillery to concentrate on the craters held by the enemy. Under cover of this fire and of machine guns and rifle fire from the trenches on the right he succeeded in withdrawing his men from an exceedingly difficult position.

During the afternoon steps were taken to organize further bombing attacks against the enemy. Reinforcements from our 28th Battalion were sent up to Major Daly, who was still holding the line on the left of the craters. At his direction two platoons of the 28th Battalion under Capts. Styles and Bidwell occupied three of the craters shortly after dusk. Our men entrenched themselves, and in spite of heavy bombardments, held the craters until the evening of April 8th. On the morning of April 7th a party of German bombers approached one of the craters held by men of the 28th Battalion. Twelve of the enemy were shot dead within twenty feet.

WHOLE PARTY WIPED OUT.

Later in the morning a party of forty Germans advanced in close order towards the crater. They were observed by Sergt. Reece, 31st Battalion, who was commanding a detached platoon of Major Daly's company. The enemy were allowed to approach to within forty or fifty yards. Sergt. Reece then gave the order for rapid fire, and the hostile party was entirely destroyed. Not one man escaped.

During the day, Lieut. Rawlinson, 28th Battalion, starting from one of our craters with two volunteers, reconnoitred the ground towards the craters held by the Germans. When within twenty yards of the nearest crater the patrol was seen by the enemy and shelled with shrapnel. Both men were wounded, but succeeded in regaining their cover.

The following night Lieut. Rawlinson undertook another reconnaissance in the same direction, and on this occasion reached to within twenty feet of the German crater, bringing in valuable information.

In the afternoon, a very heavy bombardment of the craters held by the enemy, and of the German trenches, was undertaken by our artillery and trench mortar batteries in co-operation with the heavy artillery of British formations on our right and left. When night fell the relief of our battalions was effected, with the exception of three companies of our 31st battalion under Major Daly, and the rest of our Twenty-Eighth Battalion under Capts. Styles and Bidwell, holding the craters. These units remained in their positions until the following evening, when they also were relieved.

IN COMMAND 96 HOURS.

Maj. Daly had then been in command of the trenches on the left of the craters for four days and four nights. During this time he had repulsed several enemy attacks. As senior officer present he had issued instructions for the advance on the craters and reconnaissance of the enemy's position. He had kept the attacking parties of other battalions and men in the craters supplied with ammunition.

Throughout the day of April 8th an interrupted bombardment of our trenches was maintained by the enemy, and our artillery retaliated heavily on the German craters and trenches.

On the night of April 10-11 the enemy attacked four of the craters held by our troops, and some of the front line trenches; they were everywhere repulsed. In the confusion of the fighting for the craters many deeds of high courage and devotion were performed by our men. Some of them will never be fully recorded for none are left to tell the tale. Others in due course may be garnered when the passage of time has thrown them in relief in the recollection of those men who witnessed them.

Only bare details of a few of them can as yet be secured. Lieut. J. F. Arbuckle, with Corp Woods and Pte. Batson of our 31st Battalion, undertook a reconnaissance and penetrated several hundred yards into the German territory. Separated from his men in the darkness and wounded in the face by the explosion of a shell, Lieut. Arbuckle managed to regain our trenches, bringing in valuable information as to the German defenses. Pte. Batson was hit in the ankle. Corp. Woods stayed with him and bandaged the wounded, but a little later was killed by a shell. A through the following day Pte. Batson lay in concealment within the German area, and after dark crawled back to our lines.

Pte. A. Davis and Lc. R. Seymour, 1st Battalion, moved to and fro between the craters occupied by our men and the trenches held by their company. They carried in several wounded men.

INDIVIDUAL HEROISM.

In one dugout two brothers were buried by the explosion of a shell. Davis and Seymour tried to dig them out, but another shell struck the same place, killing both brothers and wounding Seymour.

Davis lifted Seymour on his back and working his way through mud which reached over the hips, carried him to shelter one hundred and twenty yards away.

Lance-Corp. Everett, 29th Battalion was out on patrol on the morning of April 6th, when the attack started. He was badly wounded, but after lying out all day remained our trenches on the night of April 7, using two shovels as crutches.

Sergt. James Harvey, 29th Battalion, made fifteen trips under heavy fire from our support lines to the craters. Each time he took fresh men with him and each time brought in a number of wounded.

Capt. Carr, medical officer, 27th Battalion, established an advanced dressing station in the front trenches and under a heavy cross-fire went out in front of our lines to bring in wounded men. Capt. J. A. Cullum, medical officer 28th Battalion, took out parties of stretcher bearers and brought in wounded men.

Under heavy fire Capt. Cullum assisted by Sergt. George Lock, carried in one man for whom no stretcher could be secured.

Stretcher Bearers J. MacGillivray, 28th Battalion, and J. Wilkinson, 31st Battalion, continued to tend the wounded long after themselves were hit.

Sergt. John McRae, 27th Battalion, after being wounded, remained at his post under a severe fire. On several occasions he acted as guide in reconnaissances towards the craters and stayed with his command until incapacitated by further wounds.

CANADIANS RECEIVE MEDALS.

Machine Gun Sergt. F. W. Haines, Twenty-Seventh Battalion, had his gun buried three times by shell explosions, but each time succeeded in bringing it again into action with very little delay. Finally the gun was hit while being fired from the parapet, and Sergt. Haines was wounded. In spite of this he went out to the assistance of Grenade Sergt. Fitz, who was lying wounded two hundred yards away. It was broad daylight, and the enemy's fire was intense, but Sergt. Haines succeeded in carrying Sergt. Fitz back to safety.

His Majesty the King recently instituted a new decoration for award to the rank and file of the army for acts of gallantry and devotion to duty. This medal, known as the "Military Medal," ranks after the Distinguished Conduct Medal and before all war medals.

The first Military Medal awarded was bestowed upon a Canadian soldier, Corp. Richard Miller, First Western Ontario Battalion, who was in command of a support point on the afternoon of March 18, at a time when the front of our First Infantry Brigade was being severely bombarded. Although wounded, Corpl. Miller remained at his post until other wounded men had received attention, and until he had removed the remainder of his section into comparative safety. Having had his wounds dressed, Corp. Miller gallantly returned to his position over several hundred yards away, under heavy fire, and resumed command of his men.

Sergt. Ashby, Lance-Corpl. Weir and Lance-Corpl. S. Carlisle, 7th British Columbia Battalion, who after a patrol encounter on the night of January 30, went out again and recovered the body of Lieut. H. Bowen, have been rewarded for their gallantry.

Lance-Corpl. Carlisle has received the Distinguished Conduct Medal.

THE BALKAN WARS.

Q.—Could you inform me what Balkan nations fought against Turkey in the late Balkan War, and if any of the Balkan Alliance were fighting alongside of Turkey.—Pte. W. S., St. Johns, Que.

A.—The war of the States of the Balkan League—Bulgaria, Servia, Greece and Montenegro—against Turkey, began on October 3, 1912, an ended in May 30, 1913, the alkan States completely defeating Turkey and taking from her Macedonia, Albania and the greater part of Thrace. A second war followed the break-up of the alkan League and was fought by Servia, Greece and Montenegro against Bulgaria, Turkey and Roumania intervening in the course of hostilities. Bulgaria was uterly defeated. Long-standing hatred of Turkishh tyranny, increased by murders and outrages by Turks, caused the first war, and Bulgarian greed in gathering in the spoils of war caused the second one.

ALBANIAS STATES.

A. — Up to 1912 Albania was a Province of European Turkey; then, as a result of the Balkan War, it became an independent state; but now in the melter of the great war, the country is again in its original state of anarchy. The country is wild in character, and its people numbering about 1,500,000 of a turbulent lawless character. Although only one Montreal battalion, the 22nd French-Canadians, was mentioned by the Canadian "eye-witness" as taking part in the fighting at St. Eloi, the casualty list published over the week-end shows that at least two other Montreal units, the 24th and the 14th Battalions, were engaged in this battle. Among those "killed in action" was Pte. Charles Lawrence Hardman, of the 24th. Corp. Dostert, of the 14th, is reported dead of wounds.

The week-end list names eighteen Montreal soldiers. Three are listed "killed in action," two died of wounds, while the wounded number thirteen.

PTE. HARDMAN.

Pte. Hardman was killed April 2, according to the official communication received by his mother, Mrs. Alex. Hardman, from the Adjutant-General. The first news of the boy's death came to Mrs. Hardman in most abrupt manner. In her capacity as an officer of the Montreal Soldiers' Wives' League, Mrs. Hardman was engaged in recording the casualties in the Montreal battalions, when she came upon her son's name. When she reached her home the official report from the Adjutant-General awaited her.

Pte. Hardman was a member of the Victoria Rifles at the time of the outbreak of war. He was eager to enlist, which he did in the 24th Battalion, while a younger brother joined the artillery. He is just 20 years old. Pte. Hardman was a cousin of Col. Cooper, of the Grenadier Guards. Previous to enlistment he was employed at Greenshields Limited.

PTE. F. J. HAYES.

Among the list of wounded in the week-end list appears the name of a young Montreal hero, Pte. Francis Joseph Hayes, who recently distinguished himself in company with his brother and other Canadian soldiers, by blowing up a trenchful of Germans. Pte. Hayes is now in the 22nd General Military Hospital suffering from a fractured leg. He has two brothers with him in the same unit.

Pte. Hayes was employed by the Remington Typewriter Company when the war broke out. He is now barely twenty-three years old. His home was with his parents at 37 Overdale avenue.

PTE. D. M. TRAPNELL.

Pte. Donald M. Trapnell, of St. John's, Nfld, reported died of wounds, was a student in medicine at McGill before he enlisted. He joined one of the Universities Companies. He was a nephew of R. B. Trapnell, jeweller and optician, Water street, St. John's.

SERGT. N. AUBIN.

Sergt. Napoleon Aubin, killed in action April 5, lived at 1509 Bordeaux street, before enlistment, and was an electrician by trade. He became a corporal while his battalion, the 22nd, was at Valcartier, and was promoted to a sergeantcy at Shorncliffe. In January he had a narrow escape, when a German bullet entered the pocket of his tunic, passed through some photographs and letters, and passed out without wounding the soldier. His family preserves the uniform as a curiosity.

PTE. F. M. ROWE.

Pte. Frederick M. C. Rowe, reported dead of wounds, lived at 25 Rivet street. He was 44 years old, and is survived by a widow and several children.

PTE. W. J. HUTCHINGS.

Pte. William John Hutchings, also reported dead of wounds, was for several years employed by the Sherwin-Williams Paint Company. He was 32 years old, and is survived by a widow and four young children.

CORP. J. W. EDWARD.

Corp. John William Edward, reported wounded, is a native of Montreal, a son of J. T. Edward, a printer. He enlisted in the First Contingent, and last May was wounded in the back. He is 25 years of age. Before enlisting he was employed as a city traveller by the Dominion Iron and Steel Company.

CORP. H. CAMPBELL.

Lance-Corp. Henry Campbell, reported wounded, enlisted in the First Contingent. He is 20 years old. His mother, a widow, resides at 267 William street. He was employed by the Canadian Rubber Company before enlistment.

PTE. J. T. TELFER.

Pte. James P. Telfer, reported wounded, is the son of G. L. Telfer, 49 Prospect avenue, Westmount. He is 27 years old, and unmarried. He was employed in a wholesale grocery house in Calgary before the war, and enlisted in a western battalion.

CORP. P. DOSTERT.

Corp. Pierre Dostert, reported dead of wounds, was the son of an Alsatian, who emigrated to Canada following the Franco-Prussian war. He enlisted in a Toronto battalion, but upon reaching France, was transferred to the 14th Battalion. He had just received his chevrons when he was mortally wounded April 6. His mother, who is a widow, resides at 2119 St. Catherine street east. Corp. Dostert was 31 years of age.

PTE. N. SYRET.

Pte. Nathan Syret, reported wounded in the foot, lived at 5 Ryde street, Point St. Charles. He is a carpenter by trade, and 24 years old. He enlisted last November.

NO MORE OFFICERS TO RETURN TO JOIN NEW BATTALIONS

Militia Department Issues Orders Ending a Common Practice

GENERAL NOTES OF THE MILITARY

Mass of Requiem—Church Parades—Home Service Units

The Militia Department, Ottawa, has issued an order that officers, non-commissioned officers and men now at the front will not be allowed to return to take positions in new overseas units being organized in Canada.

"Commanding officers are therefore requested to submit no applications for officers or men to be so transferred," says the order.

The appointment of Capt. the Rev. A. C. Graham as chaplain of the 148th Battalion has been confirmed by the Militia Department. Wilfrid Capt. A. Pare, of the 59th Battery C.F.A., to the command of No. 1 Section 4th Divisional Ammunition Column has also been approved.

FOR SERVICE CORPS.

Recruiting has commenced for two Army Service Corps units in Montreal. Captain W. C. Gillis, C.A.S.C., is organizing No. 2 Company for the 4th Divisional Train to go overseas in the course of a few weeks. This company will consist of horse transports for carrying supplies from the motor lorries to the troops in the field and will include horse drivers, saddlers, farriers, wheelers, etc., also some supply men to issue the rations from the waggons. Army Service Corps' work is very interesting and popular and it is expected that the ninety men required will soon be obtained. The company is now using the quarters of No. 6 C.A.S.C. Craig street armories, but will soon be moving into Guy street barracks.

In conjunction with this, men are also being enlisted for the 4th Divisional Ambulance Repair Workshop C.E.F. by Lieut. C. A. Tregillus. This unit will be made up mostly of trained motor car repair men for the purpose of keeping the divisional ambulances in repair. This is a good opportunity for chauffeurs and motor mechanics to serve overseas in their accustomed trades and to get across without the necessary long training that is required in the infantry and artillery.

TO ENLARGE HOSPITAL.

It is stated that No. 3 General Hospital, McGill, commanded by Col. H. S. Birkett, and at present stationed at Boulogne, is to be enlarged to 2,000 beds. This will mean the addition of several of all ranks to the staff.

The students of the university are greatly pleased that they have received authorisation to raise a Siege Battery. It will be commanded by Capt. W. D. Tait, and among the officers who are already mentioned as being included are Capt. Cyrus McMillan and Lieut. "Buster" Mathewson. The work of organization is being proceeded with at once, and in a few days recruiting will be commenced.

MASS OF REQUIEM.

A requiem mass in memory of the late Capt. Alfred T. Shaughnessy, of the 60th Battalion, who was killed in action in France, will be held on Wednesday morning at ten o'clock in St. Patrick's Church. Arrangements have been made for the service by Lord Shaughnessy and the Rev. Gerold J. McShane, and the service will be of a public nature. It will consist of a high mass of requiem, the chanting to be done by the boys' and men's choirs, and the Libera. There will be no sermon.

The service will be attended by Lieut.-Col. F. M. McRoble, G.S.O., and the officers of the 3rd Victoria Rifles, of which Capt. Shaughnessy was a member, while non-commissioned officers and men of his company in the Vics will also attend. Many of the officers from headquarters will also be present, while officers from the other overseas units as well as from the home battalions, as well as a large representation from the C. P. R. and from many business firms will be present.

In accordance with the British military regulations the body of Capt. Shaughnessy was buried near where it fell, and will not be brought home, at least until after the war, when a monument will be erected on the spot where he fell.

CHURCH PARADES.

The 5th Pioneer Battalion attended church parade yesterday morning to Grace Church, Point St. Charles. They were under the command of Lieut.-Col. H. R. Lordly, with Major Lyle second in command. Although only recruiting for less than three weeks, the battalion made a creditable showing, there being 150 on parade, divided into four skeleton companies. A hint has been received at headquarters to hurry along the formation of the battalion as pioneers are much in demand at the front, and so a special recruiting effort is being made this week to get men of the type required. The men get training in engineering work as well as infantry drill, and bayonet fighting is also part of the schedule—they are a battalion formed "to do anything or fight anything," and this should appeal to the sporting instincts of every able-bodied man. Tomorrow evening they attend the Church of St. James the Apostle, when the choir of the church under the direction of J. E. F. Martin, will sing "The Triumph of the Cross," a new Lenten cantata by H. A. Matthews. The soloists will be Miss Rollit, Miss Annie Mattinson, J. C. Barlow, and John Legassick.

Major F. E. Hall, of the 87th Overseas Battalion Grenadier Guards, was presented on Saturday with a pair of binoculars by members of the Canada Club. They gave him a farewell luncheon at the Club and Col. W. I. Gear made the presentation, which the major suitably acknowledged.

The members of the Laval C.O.T.C., numbering 184, under the command of Major P. E. Ostiguy, were inspected on Saturday afternoon on the Champ de Mars by Lieut.-Col. L. Le-Duc, A.A.G., who was accompanied by Lieut.-Col. F. M. McRoble, acting G.S.O., both being of the headquarters staff of No. 4 Military District. The men were put through their company drill, and showed the benefit of training.

AIDING THE 65TH.

In order to further the recruiting campaign of the 65th Regiment, a meeting is being held this evening at the armory on Pine avenue, at which Major Ranger, returned from active service will speak. There have been about 300 recruits for home service enrolled in the last week or so, and the regiment hopes to be 800 strong by next Sunday. There will be a muster parade on Wednesday evening, followed by a short route march. A meeting will afterwards be held in the armory at which addresses will be given by Senator Dandurand, Brig. Gen. A. E. Labelle, Hon. R. Lemieux and others to aid the recruiting campaign.

FOR HOME SERVICE.

An appeal is made to men owning motor cycles to offer their services for the field manoeuvres for home service during the coming summer. Capt. E. J. Thoin, Divisional Signalling Officer, who has just passed through a big class of signallers, has undertaken to provide despatch riders and all branches of the signalling service for the manoeuvres of the home service battalions, and he wants about thirty young men with motor cycles to help him out. The work will be very interesting, and as they will form an important part of each regiment, it is hoped that they will send in their names to headquarters, so that they may be got together and given a course of instruction in map reading and other details.

The home service battalions will commence their spring drill work this week, and will in addition hold one or two extra parades in order to prepare for the garrison church parade on Easter Sunday afternoon, which will mark the anniversary of the great battle of Ypres. A special form of service is being prepared for the Protestant forces at the Arena, and addresses will be given by the Lord Bishop of Montreal and by Major the Rev. Bruce Taylor, while the Rev. Dr. Hugh Pedley and the Rev. Dr. Paterson Smythe will also take part in the service.

PARADE TONIGHT.

The 3rd. Victoria Rifles will hold a parade this evening under the command of Lieut.-Col. F. M. McRoble. They will fall in at 8:15 p.m. at the Cathcart street armory and march to the Champ de Mars for battalion drill. The Vics Reserve will also attend this parade at which both bands will be present.

The two battalions of the 5th Royal Highlanders will also hold a parade this evening, the men wearing khaki jackets and blue kilts. The brass, bugle and pipe bands will attend and Lieut.-Col. C. N. Monsarrat will be in command of the parade, Major W. D. Birchall heading the first battalion and Major D. I. Smart the second, the two battalions going for a route march. There will be a further parade on Thursday evening to the Champ de Mars, and a regular drill two nights a week in future.

MAN WHO VILIFIED TORONTO SOLDIERS DUCKED IN A POOL

TORONTO, April 17.—An angry mob, a few soldiers and several hundred civilians and women and children, composed of persons residing in Todmorden, assailed on Saturday night the home of Robert Hazelton, whose letter to Senator Choquette cast reflections upon the character of the men enlisting in Toronto battalions, and which was read in the Senate by its recipient, who described the writer as "a Toronto Tory of some repute."

Hazelton's house was stoned, doors broken and windows shattered, and Hazelton, who appeared after the assault had commenced, was dragged out and thrown into an improvised coffin. He sprang out and with his back to the wall defied the mob.

A county constable with drawn revolver arrived on the scene and marched Hazelton toward the city. In the meantime city police had been summoned, but before they arrived Hazelton was dragged from the custody of the county constable and thrown into a pool of muddy water.

The constable dragged him out, and before the crowd could repeat the attack a squad of five city police arrived, and interposed between the mob and their victim, being aided by fifteen soldiers who were spectators.

Hazelton was then placed in the patrol waggon and taken to the Pape avenue police station, where he spent the night. Yesterday he was returned to his home under police escort, with blackened eyes and severely bruised.

TEXT OF OFFENDING LETTER.

The letter which caused all the trouble and which purported to be one from "a good Tory from the County of York in Ontario, an Englishman of the fifth genefation on the land there, protesting against this recruiting of so-called English immigrants," reads as follows:

"Todmorden, Ontario, Sunday, March 19. (In haste).—These defectives are 99 per cent so-called English—are they English or are they the offspring of foreign sailors and English 'dock prostitutes'? They are surely not descendants of cultured Anglo-Saxons that we Britishers of Cahadian birth have heard so much of.

"Hon. sir, you are not at all in error when you said what you are reported to have said in the enclosed clipping from the Telegram as to the defectives rejected in Toronto. How do the degenerate, defective and undesirable immigrants of this type escape the eye of our immigration officials at Quebec and Halifax?

"They are ninety per cent of them from the slums of England. They are diseased, depraved, deformed, and many are illiterates and none are of the agricultural class, the element so much required in Canada.

"Their intemperance and their vile and filthy habits and their utter lack of all honesty are not such as we Canadians should have sent out to us as samples of the Englishman. They are not suitable for the British army, and of course are unfit to serve in ours.

"The 'Rev.' Hincks is a faker. He is an adventurer and to the native-born he is known as a 'Bronco Bullshooter,' always blowing his own horn. Our well-bred, educated Canadians have no use for such cattle and refuse to enlist as comrades with such beasts.

"The Government has made a mistake in not organizing regiments of 'native-born' for these of our sons who enlist to be separate and apart from some of these immigrant swine who have polluted and destroyed the once very beautiful suburbs of Toronto and other Canadian cities with their uninhabitable hovels.

"Our Irish, Scotch and Welsh from the British Isles are of a very different element to what is known as the 'English' here. There are no complaints heard about Irish, Scotch or Welsh such as are heard against those of so-called English origin.

"The Salvation Army has brought most of these English to our land and from the very worst spots in older England have they been collected to defile our beloved Canada.

"Yours respectfully,
"(Signed), ROBERT HAZELTON.
"To the Hon. Senator Choquette, Ottawa, Ont."

JEAN B. S. BIRON, DEPUTY CORONER, HAD LONG ILLNESS

Was Twenty-five Years Assistant to Coroner McMahon Here

Jean B. S. Biron, for twenty-five years assistant to Coroner McMahon, and for twenty-three officially his deputy by appointment, died in the Hotel Dieu Saturday at the age of fifty-nine, after an illness that had been more or less continuous since September last. In that month he had a paralytic stroke, from which he only partially recovered, and which was the cause of frequent hemorrhages. From time to time, he would go back to his office in the morning, but gradually grew worse, until he finally had to retire to a private hospital on Friday when there was already but little hope for his recovery, he was removed to the Hotel Dieu.

Mr. Biron had been a widower for fifteen years, and had no children or near relatives. He resided in a bachelor apartments on Berri street. When a young man he took considerable interest in politics, and was a worker for the Conservative party, but for the last quarter of a century had led a very retired life. He was a former president of the Club Canadien.

Born in Montreal, he was educated at the Montreal and l'Assomption Colleges. He was admitted to the Bar in 1880, and practised law for about ten years. Coroner McMahon then appointed him his assistant, in the days when the morgue was on Perthuis street, which has now lost its identity as part of the Canadian Pacific Railways Place Viger yards. Two years later Coroner McMahon named Mr. Biron officially his deputy. The appointment has since passed into the hands of the lieutenant governor of the province.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning, leaving the Hotel Dieu at 8 o'clock, and proceeding to St. James Church, St. Denis and St. Catherine streets.

Glass of Hot Water Before Breakfast a Splendid Habit

Open sluices of the system each morning and wash away the poisonous, stagnant matter.

Those of us who are sometimes apt to feel dull and heavy when we arise, with splitting headache, stuffy cold or coated tongue, nasty breath, nervous stomach, lame back, eyes, inside and both look and feel as fresh as a daisy, should always by washing the poisons and toxins from the body with phosphated hot water each morning.

We should drink, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate to sweeten it to flush from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract before putting more food into the stomach.

The action of limestone phosphate and hot water on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It clears out all the gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast and it is said to be but little while until the roses begin to appear in the cheeks. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to make anyone who is bothered with biliousness, constipation, stomach trouble or rheumatism a real enthusiast on the subject of internal sanitation. Try it and you are assured that you will look better and feel better in every way shortly.—Advertisement.

BIRTHDAY WEEK

We Learn By Comparison

But comparison need to be fair. Standards should be correct. To judge values we must compare goods as well as prices, and we cannot put the goods into the newspapers.

We are not even putting them in the St. Catherine St. Windows. Why? Because we are confident that you will believe our statement that our Birthday Sale Prices will satisfy your utmost expectation of values.

Some of the goods are shown in the side windows, on Victoria and University Streets, but the best place to see them is in the store in the morning, where they can be thoroughly handled and tested. The quantities in most cases are sufficient to last all day.
